

Discontinuance Of Sports Announced By State College

GAINESVILLE, Mar. 22 (Special)—The University of Florida last night announced the discontinuance of intercollegiate sports for the duration.

University Pres. John T. Tigert made the announcement following a week-end meeting here of the board of control which accepted a faculty committee recommendation for discontinuing athletics until after the war.

Percy Beard, director of athletics and track coach, Tom Lieb, head football coach, and their assistants will remain on the Gator campus to handle the university's students physical fitness program and to train army air corps cadets.

Lieb has two contracts, one expiring in June and the other for two years, coming into effect in June. He has a $7,500 annual rollment decrease as far as the His salary has been paid by the university, but now will be paid by the university and the U. S. government, it was said.

Regarding discontinuation of football, Lieb said "I'm in charge of the student physical fitness program and training 750 flying cadets and will be in charge of a contingent of army engineers to arrive soon."

"Many students have left for the armed forces and many more will leave, but army students sent here compensate the student enrollment decrease as far as the athletic work is concerned. Plans now are that my staff and I will continue next year and until the close of the war on the present basis."

Only 12 football players were prospects for next year's team and all of them likely are to be called into service. They are Walter McJae, Harry Platt, and Bob Ryan, Jacksonville; Frank DeAnulla, New Britain, Conn.; Stan Cary, Nutley, N. J.; Hug Miller, West Palm Beach; Phil Kaplan, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Charles White, New Smyrna; James Horsey, Clearwater; George Sutherland, Bartow; Arnold Tucker, Miami; and Harry Hancock, Clearwater.

The basketball, track and swimming squads also have been riddled by losses to the armed forces.

County Farmers Make Progress In Production Plan

Farmers in Seminole County are pledged to all out production of essential foods, livestock and poultry, are making excellent progress according to George D. Livingston County Farm Security Loan supervisor.

"They are getting the seed into the ground but most encouraging however, is the fine manner in which the families are co-operating with one another," Mr. Livingston said.

A four point program of neighborly aid is being observed as follows:

1. Share equipment and join with neighbors in buying needed equipment so all can use it.
2. Lend a hand to neighbors when the hand is needed.
3. Give each other news of markets and of opportunities to haul items to town or from town for each other, thereby saving the extra trip.
4. Exchange labor for sewing, harvesting, marketing, building, clearing or other jobs of emergency nature.

The families find this neighborly cooperation is not only pleasant but a matter of good business as it means economical production and marketing.

American Tanks Seize Maknassy, Central Tunisia

British Advance To Point 100 Miles From Enemy Airport At El Hamma

(By Associated Press) Allied headquarters today announced that swift-moving American tank troops had captured Maknassy in central Tunisia only 34 miles from the sea and an Algiers broadcast said British forces had dashed 100 miles around the Mareth line to a point only 10 miles south of the Axis airfield at El Hamma.

The Algiers radio indicated British eighth army troops were only 60 miles from a junction with American forces and suggested Marshal Rommel's "escape corridor" to the north had been narrowed to a score of miles.

The British were reported continuing their successful assault into the Mareth defense after cutting a breach in the outer works and an Allied communiqué said heavy fighting was in progress with the Nazis losing ground despite strong counter-attacks. Some 1,700 prisoners were reported captured.

The Eighth Army, thrusting between the sea and the Mareth road, was said to have overcome severe Axis opposition and deep mine fields in its initial plunge into the formidable Mareth fortifications manned by Marshal Erwin Rommel's German veterans.

As the Nazis fought bitterly to prevent their stronghold being placed from the south, Lieut. Gen. George S. Patton Jr.'s American columns 70 miles to the northwest reached the edge of the Tunisian coastal plain within 50 miles of the Mediterranean at one point.

Rommel had not yet mounted a counter-attack against the American forces, but it was expected that the British assault from the south or he was awaiting a better strategic moment to strike back. Patton's armor was planned down by the British assault from the south or he was awaiting a better strategic moment to strike back.

The weather held good again today, and Allied aerial operations were reported on Saturday and Sunday, when hundreds of planes bombed the enemy's diminishing foothold in the south incessantly.

Patton's drive was spearheaded, one following the railroad connecting Gafsa and Maknassy with Maharsa on the coast, the other striking from El Gualar eastward through captured Bou Hamra.

Chinese Claim Japs Use Poisonous Gas

(CHUNGKING, March 23, AP)—The Chinese high command charged today in a communique Monday that the Japanese had used gas in a battle in South Hupai Province where the Japanese are trying to surround their communications to Ichang and the Chinese have rich rice fields around Tungling Lake.

The war bulletin said that after a bitter counter-attack in one sector for the slow in the Chinese reported to gas attacks, more than 100 Chinese officers and men were affected.

The communique was devoted mainly to fighting in Hupai and showed no decisive change in the situation. The Japanese still firmly held Hwangung, Tungling Lake and other strategic points.

Russians Tear Breach In Nazi Lines In North

German Attacks Are Futile In Effort To Cross Donets River

(By Associated Press) The Berlin radio today acknowledged the Russians had torn a "local breach in the German defense west of Moscow" while London heard that Soviet vanguards had advanced within 20 miles of Yartsevo, 36 miles east of Smolensk.

Battling numerically superior and constantly reinforced German forces, the Red army of the Northern Donets pushed back every Nazi effort to cross the waterway in force although German commentators indicated the battle was shifting north from Kharkov zone.

Soviet dispatches reported Red armies had captured more than 50 towns and villages in 24 hours in a drive against Smolensk and had starved off fresh Nazi assaults on the Kharkov front.

No serious denting of the Soviet line was reported.

Two Small Boys Find Armadillo On East Side Farm

An armadillo, found by two small boys on the East Side farm belonging to American Fruit Growers, was today shown by A. Foster, production manager of the firm, in trying to capture it. He said the boys struck a pitch fork in it, which killed it. It was a young specimen, not as large as those in the zoo.

Although a native of South America, armadillos have been found in this vicinity. A sailor from the Sanford Naval Air Station, found and brought in a live specimen several months ago from near Enterprise, and one was found near Oviedo not long ago, and presented to the Zoo.

It is rumored that at one time, some armadillos escaped from a circus on the East coast of Florida, and since then have spread throughout the peninsula. They are a small, heavy scaled, burrowing animal, and live chiefly on insects.

Draft Objectors Used In Farm "Land Army"

(WASHINGTON, Mar. 23, AP)—Approximately 500 may acknowledge the draft because of conscientious objections to war are "land army" to help farmers.

Mr. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, selective service director, told a congressional committee Monday the objectors, who are sent to special camps, can be moved wherever the department of agriculture certifies there is need for them. Their number, he estimated, can be increased by about 100 in the near future.

Because of the objector's aversion to contributing to prosecution of a war, Hershey said, an agreement has been worked out by which their pay as farm laborers will be withheld by the treasury and be used for peaceful governmental pursuits after the war.

Many conscientious objectors, Hershey said, have volunteered to train as paratroopers to combat forest fires.

(WASHINGTON, Mar. 23, AP)—President Roosevelt has decided to drink milk of a morning instead of rationed coffee, Mrs. Roosevelt told her press conference Monday. "And he's very proud of himself," she added.

He takes his milk cold, a big glass of it. Only a week ago he read his press conference a tip for American housewives: "win-the-war" recipe for making coffee the 1943 way. He talked up re-belling the same coffee four or five times.

Roosevelt Gets Miners To Keep Wage Contract

Workers Offer Provisional Agreement To Mine Operators

(NEW YORK, Mar. 23, AP)—Following President Roosevelt's call for uninterrupted work, the United Mine Workers Union today offered the Northern Appalachian Coal Mine Operators an agreement by which the mines would operate for 30 days after April 1 under the existing contract providing any wage increases or improved hours be made retroactively.

President Roosevelt last night called on the United Mine Workers and mine operators to continue their present contract beyond April 1 to permit settlement of their wage dispute with out a strike and asked that any wage adjustments be made retroactive to April 1.

Roosevelt acted after receiving messages from the two operators' committees.

The President replied by sending identical telegrams to President John L. Lewis of the UMWA and heads of the northern and southern operators negotiating committees. He informed them that their dispute "must be settled like any other labor dispute under the national no-strike agreement by collective bargaining consultation and final determination if necessary, by the National War Labor Board."

Orchestra Leader Kay Kyser Drafted

(HOLLYWOOD, Mar. 23, AP)—Kay Kyser prepared last night to abandon his orchestra, one of the most popular in America, and enter the army as a drafted band leader.

"I'm ready now," said Kyser, upon learning that President Roosevelt's appeals board had turned down a request by the Office of War Information for his deferment, and that his home town draft board at Rocky Mount, N. C., had classified him as 1-A.

"All I can say," he continued, "is that my government originally requested me to keep on doing what I was doing (entertaining soldiers) and I did that to the best of my ability."

"Now that my government has other duties for me, I accept them wholeheartedly and will do all that I can do to do a good job."

Compulsory National Service Act Advocated

(WASHINGTON, Mar. 23, AP)—Paul V. McNutt, war manpower commissioner, asserted Monday a compulsory national service act is inevitable, but the timing is up to the President and congress.

"Meanwhile," McNutt told a press conference, "we're going to try our best to make this system work."

He referred to the current "voluntary" system of manpower replacement, which he said is "not working."

"The armed forces of the land, air and sea are performing a great duty out in the Pacific. However, do not allow anyone to tell you that the Japanese empire will be easily defeated, because it was once a backward, small, and undeveloped nation. They are exceedingly crafty and treacherous; and are capable of strong stubborn resistance when the occupation comes."

Navy Planes Will Perform In Bombs Over America Act

The stage was set here today for the nearest thing to an aerial raid that has yet hit Sanford, tonight's production of "Bombs Over America" at the high school athletic field.

The production, sponsored by the Seminole County Defense Council, will begin at 8:15 o'clock, a few minutes before planes from the Naval Air Station sweep in over the field in the first of four simulated waves of "enemy" bombing attack.

Real fire bombs and genuine high explosives will be used during the program, giving nearly 100 local Civilian Defense participants in the show their first taste of what an air raid is really like.

Soviets Hold Own Against Nazis In Donets River Area

Northeast Of Bryansk 7,000 Dead Germans Are Piled Up In Five-Day Battle

(By Associated Press) Soviet dispatches today reported Red armies were beating off every German attempt to storm across the upper Donets River in the Kharkov Belgorod sector and had piled up 7,000 German dead in a five-day battle northeast of Bryansk.

The Russian dived and tanks smashing had advanced in some 40 miles west of the German base.

In addition, prisoners taken and much Nazi equipment fell to the Red Army. It was stated in the Midnight communique as recorded here by the Soviet monitor.

The Russians in their own offensive west of Moscow toward the big Nazi base of Smolensk captured an additional number of populated places, and the night battle indicated that the Red Army was threatening to flank the German position at Yartovo, next big Soviet objective on this front.

The Russians also reported successes above Kharkov and in the Caucasus, but in all cases they made it clear that fighting was heavy and the Germans both in attack and defense were packing a heavy punch.

The German command also reported that "a large scale" Russian attack mounted in January "cut off the Orel area has collapsed, and it listed an eight-week Soviet toll of 10,504 prisoners taken and more than 150,000 fatalities.

Jinkins Reports $99,872 On 1942 Unpaid Tax Roll

Penalties Effective Unless Amount Is Paid By April 1

Some $99,872 on the 1942 County tax roll still remain unpaid and there is but one week left in which to pay these taxes without penalty and interest, Jim Jinkins, County tax collector, announced this morning, adding that on April 1, penalties under the new law go into effect on all unpaid taxes.

The unpaid individual personal property taxes the penalty is 10 percent plus interest at the rate of 24 percent per year. On real estate the penalty is 4 percent plus interest at the rate of 24 percent per year. All unpaid taxes are required to be advertised as delinquent and the cost of advertising added to the tax bill.

The amount of taxes collected to date on the 1942 tax roll is $292,800 with discounts allowed for early payment of $1,126,922, making a total of $210,873.08 or 67.78 percent of the total roll of $309,830. Mr. Jinkins stated that the percentage of collections was 69.91 percent and showed a slightly better collection this year. Mr. Jinkins explained.

However, he disclosed, many more persons have paid taxes for 1942, as evidenced by the fact that up to date 4,140 tax receipts have been issued, while for the same period only 4,550 receipts had been issued. This increase in the number of receipts issued is largely about the cost of collecting all returns and to make return of personal property to the tax assessor for taxation, and it has been found that most citizens have returned personal property that is subject to taxation.

The 1941 legislature made drastic changes in the laws relating to the collection of taxes. Failure to make a return to the tax assessor of personal property subjects the taxpayer to a penalty of 10 percent plus interest at the rate of 24 percent per year until the tax is paid. Mr. Jinkins concluded.

Mitchell Bombers Pounce On Enemy Sub Just Off Loe

Slowing markedly what is the Japanese effort to reach the Hoon Gulf to her bases at Lae and Salamaua, several Mitchell bombers pounced on a large Japanese submarine yesterday, supplies to barges 200 yards from Lae's wharfe at 8 P. M. Monday night and blew the sub into bits.

Flying at low level, the planes penetrated a veil of dense machine gunfire to drop their bombs directly on the target, as she lay fully exposed in the moonlight.

The flight was led by Capt. John Henry of Plainfield, N. J., and another Chicagoan, Lieut. John Clark of 422 Lexington Street, was the navigator of the plane. Henry said:

"As we came in on the target, we sprayed her with 40 caliber, clearing the deck and penetrating the fuselage."

A naval officer riding in Henry's cockpit told the writer:

"The bomber had not loaded those 50 caliber alone would have been enough to finish the job."

Such submarines as these have been troublesome since they were built, when Bura was supplied by them as well as by air-dropped food stuffs. But Japan has now paid dearly for her endeavor to feed and give fighting equipment to her forces holding Lae and Salamaua against Australian pressure and the Mambare River area against American cleanup troops.
