Threat To Drinking Water Pointed Out

Seminole County residents who have their own water and sewage systems should boil their drinking water during the current high water crisis acting health officer Dr. Robert J. Smith said today.

Flooding in the county has created danger of contamination of private water systems by private sewer systems and septic tanks, Smith said. This cross-contamination could result in typhoid, para-typhoid or dysentery, the doctor explained. No cases of these diseases have been reported so far.

Mass inoculations against typhoid and dysentery will be made if any cases are reported, Smith explained. The city health department is now checking major water supplies in critical flood areas at the beginning of each week instead of every two weeks. No contamination had been found as of Saturday.

Inoculations against typhoid and dysentery may be obtained free at the health center next to the Fire Dept. building on Palmetto Ave.

Dr. Smith said he would not recommend mass inoculations yet.

Firms May Deal With Steel Union

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Another of the strike-bound major steel companies may follow the lead of the Kaiser Steel Corp. today in breaking with the industry stand against "inflationary" wage increases.

Kaiser started individual negotiations in Washington with the United Steelworkers Union following an announcement Sunday night that it would negotiate separately from the other 11 big steel company members of the industry coordinating committee involved in the 104-day strike.

At Philadelphia the U. S. Court of Appeals announced today that a decision on the United Steelworkers Union appeal against a Taft-Hartley back-to-work injunction is expected to be announced Tuesday at 4 p. m.

Kaiser did not announce whether any terms had been agreed upon with the union, but the industry committee which it deserted said a settlement such as Kaiser contemplated would cost the corporation 10 cents per man hour for the first year of a three year contract.

The committee said for other companies, the same package would cost 17 cents per man hour, which "clearly represents an inflationary agreement."

The other companies said they found terms of the Kaiser proposal "unacceptable." However, an industry source refused to identify the firm.

Wide Negro Vote Urged By NAACP

PENSACOLA (UPI) — The Florida chapter of the NAACP wound up its four-day conference here Sunday urging wide Negro voting, more political activity, efforts for better jobs and increased attempt at school integration.

The group adopted the statement at the final session. Earlier, the Rev. A. Leon Lowry of Tampa was re-elected state president.

The statement commended parents in Dade, Hillsborough and Escambia counties who have tried to enter their children in all-white schools. It said "We pray that more and more parents throughout the state will join their ranks."

Wife Of TV Star Attempts Suicide

HONOLULU (UPI) — Mrs. James Arness, wife of the television star of the "Gunsmoke" series, was en route to Los Angeles today, apparently in good condition after treatment for superficial wounds on both wrists.

Mrs. Arness, 38, was hospitalized briefly at Kaiser Hospital for what was described by authorities as self-inflicted razor blade wounds. The incident occurred early Saturday in her room at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel.

Detectives said Mrs. Arness told them of having "difficulties" with her husband at home the last three years. However, she insisted that she wants a reconciliation.

The couple married in 1945 after meeting at the Pasadena Playhouse where they shared leading roles in a production of "Candida." They have two boys and a girl, one of the boys by a former marriage of Mrs. Arness.

Mrs. Askew Named Boatcade Queen

Mrs. Miriam Askew of Sanford was chosen Queen of the Klamathme Boat-A-Cade Friday night.

Judges chose the tall blonde housewife at a Clewiston Elks Club dinner which marked the end of the three-day boat trip. There were 560 boats on the trip along the Klamathme River across Lake Okeechobee to Clewiston. They came from 34 states.

Mrs. Askew said she was "very surprised" when the judges made their choice. Her husband Thomas Askew, ADI, is at the Sanford Naval Air Station. The couple came to Sanford from Atlanta four years ago. Mrs. Askew is a secretary to Sanford Attorney Karlisle Housholder.

Cold Front Comes To Area, Disrupts Power

Seminole County and Sanford got their first taste of winter early this morning as the temperature dipped to 49 degrees.

The cool weather in the area last night also interrupted electric service in parts of town.

At 10:15 p. m. yesterday, cold cracked the insulation on a transmission line north of Titusville that supplies electricity to this area.

A spokesman for the Florida Power and Light Co. estimated that several hundred homes were without electricity for 30 minutes until service was restored.

Area residents were warned by the weather bureau today to get out their sweaters as temperatures tonight are expected to be between 35 and 60 degrees.

In other parts of the state and country UPI reported a cold front tightened its grip today ringling down the curtain on the 1959 hurricane season, and a five-inch snowfall blanketed the mountain regions of Tennessee.

In the Norfolk-Portsmouth, Va., area residents were just mopping up from a torrential rain that struck over the weekend, killing at least one person and causing extensive property damage from flood waters.

The cool weather firmly took hold Sunday night, dropping temperature readings in Florida counties into the low 40's.

It was the death knell for the 1959 hurricane season, which spawned ten tropical storms, including killer-hurricane Gracie.

"A tropical storm formation now would indeed be an unusual phenomenon," said Forecaster Arnold Sugg. He explained the cold front would stamp out the "ingredients" which tropical storms need to form—warm air and seas.

The first snow of the season in Tennessee was reported in the Great Smoky Mountains National Park. Officials reported the road to Clingman's Dome and the newly-opened observation tower was closed for a short period while rangers manned snow plows to clear it. Tourists flocked to the area at a rate of 100 cars per hour Sunday.

Heavy rains on the Norfolk-Portsmouth area marked the second flooding downpour the area has experienced in a month. Nearly four inches of rain fell during a six-hour period Saturday, forcing at least four families to leave their homes. The roofs of several buildings collapsed.

The rain caused the death of Lawrence White, 62, of Portsmouth. He was found drowned in a flooded drainage ditch.

A cloudburst raised by several feet the level of creek water flowing under the Natural Bridge, a tourist attraction near Rossmore, Va., causing an estimated $5,000 damage.

Car Fished Out Of Lake Monroe; Driver Unhurt

Seminole County law enforcement officers fished a car from the waters of Lake Monroe Saturday and were kept busy investigating numerous traffic mishaps in the city and area.

Early Saturday morning a trucker on Highway 17-92 saw a car in the waters of Lake Monroe and called the sheriff's office.

With the aid of the Florida Highway Patrol, the car was fished out but no body was found inside. Officers were puzzled until a few hours later. Joseph Acker, who gave his address as the Blue Bird Motel, Fern Park, walked into the sheriff's office and told them he was forced off the road but managed to get out of the car before he veered into the muddy waters.

"I was shaken up a little but managed to get home," Acker said, adding that he escaped by the window before the car hit the water.

The highway patrol charged Acker with speeding.

Late yesterday, Richard Thorns a Sanford Negro, was charged with driving while under the influence of liquor, running a red light and improper brakes after he collided with a truck driven by Claude C. Howard at the intersection of 25th St. and Sanford Ave.

Saturday afternoon, a two car collision at 20th St. and Sanford Ave. resulted in $150 damage, but no injuries to the drivers.

Tommy Toeves of 1246 Randolph St. was charged with failure to yield the right of way after he crashed into a car operated by Mitchell Hillard of Webster. Damage to Hillard's car was estimated at $250 and $100 to Toeves' vehicle.

Intelligence Agent Dies, Wife Survives Suicide Pact

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Relatives of James A. Woodbury, an analyst with the hush-hush Central Intelligence Agency, said today that pressures of his job must have driven him to join in a bizarre suicide pact with his wife, Woodbury, 32, and his wife stood on a cliff overlooking the Potomac River at Great Falls Saturday. Holding hands, the two plunged 30 feet into the churning rapids.

His body was swept down the river but Mrs. Woodbury, also 32, was found later sitting on a rocky ledge at the river's edge.

Witnesses said she wanted to throw herself back into the swirling water but they stopped her. She was under treatment for shock at a hospital here today.

Mrs. Woodbury told police she and her husband had decided to die together because "they wanted to put him in a psycho ward."

The statement was interpreted to mean that Woodbury's superiors had urged him to seek psychiatric treatment.

The couple, who have two children, recently returned from a two-year tour of duty in Germany.

Shipp Won't Run For State Post

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Rep. John Shipp of Marianna said today he will not be a candidate for secretary of state next year.

But Shipp left the way open to accept an appointment to the office should Secretary of State R. A. Gray retire before his term expires in January, 1961.

There have been repeated reports that Shipp, a textbook salesman, would be the choice of Gov. LeRoy Collins should Gray's health force his retirement before the end of the term.

Canal Benefits To Be Discussed

Gray Predicts Poor Turnout For Reapportionment Vote

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Secretary of State R. A. Gray predicts less than half the state's registered voters will vote in the legislative reapportionment referendum Nov. 3.

But the controversial plan continued to produce political fireworks around the state. Heavy criticism against the plan continued to stream from the state's largest counties, especially Dade, Broward and Palm Beach.

Gray announced that all preparations for the voting were complete. The polls will open at 7 a. m. a week from Tuesday. Gray said his office had mailed out to every precinct all copies of rules, regulations, election laws and other equipment.

He also supplied each precinct with a complete copy of the proposed amendment which will be posted on the wall so voters may read the entire proposal on which they must vote.

The constitutional amendment proposes a 64-senator, 103-member House Legislature—a total of 14 new legislators. Most of them would be elected from the state's population centers.

The proponents, headed by Gov. LeRoy Collins, maintain the proposal is the best that can be gotten from the Legislature. Opponents in the large counties complain it does not give them a fair share of representation in the Legislature.

State Sen. Harvey Belser of

Sanford said Sunday if he is elected governor, and the reapportionment amendment fails, he will give the people a "workable, equitable and soivable" solution.

But he said he hopes the current proposal is approved.

Belser called the problem of reapportionment "insolvable" in the sense any plan could satisfy all the state's people. He did not elaborate on what alternate plan he might propose.

State Rep. Cliff Herrrell of Miami said the plan would provide the large counties with stronger ammunition to fight for more equal representation in the Legislature.

Herrrell and Rep. George Holloman agreed that the proposed plan was not a perfect solution. But they said it represented a step forward.

"We've been using a cork gun and this at least will give us a rifle," he said.

The two Dade County legislators took the provide in a television debate with leading opponents in Miami Sunday.

Miami attorney Earl Faircloth argued that the plan would only make a bad situation worse. He predicted if the amendment is approved, that the Legislature may be elected by only 10 percent of the people in 1971.

Wreckage May Be Clue To Missing Five

FORT MYERS (UPI) — Bits of water-soaked wreckage from a missing fishing boat were analyzed today for clues to the fate of five men who disappeared more than a month ago.

The discovery of the wreckage Sunday was the first sign of the 36-foot cabin cruiser, the Capado, or its passengers since they vanished in a Gulf of Mexico storm Sept. 20.

The first piece of wreckage was spotted near Logwood by Ronald Perkins. Later parts of the hull and cabin washed ashore.

An extensive air-and-sea hunt was conducted by the Coast Guard when the boat didn't return, but was called off after several days of fruitless searching.

Authorities said the wreckage would be sent to the Coast Guard laboratory at St. Petersburg to see what could be learned.

Christmas Seal Group To Start Organization

The Christmas Seal campaign to fight tuberculosis will start getting organized immediately, 1959 campaign Chairman Robert E. Karns said after his appointment last week.

Your Seminoles County men were admitted to the S.-West Hospital in Tampa this month because of TB, the Seminoles County Tuberculosis and Health Assn. executive secretary, Mrs. Lorraine Graham, said. One was only 23 years old, she pointed out.

Seminole County now has 133 tuberculosis cases, she said. Although some of these cases are inactive, there are 22 county TB patients in hospitals and 19 being treated at home. Fifteen new county cases were found last year.

Of funds received through mail sales of the seals, 81 per cent will be used in the county to help finance programs in research case findings through an x-ray survey, health education for schools and hospitals, patient services such as furnishing pajamas, and rehabilitation. Six per cent of the money will go to the National TB Association and 13 per cent to the state association. The seal sales will run from Nov. 16 through December.

Dade Board May Decide Integration Issue Soon

MIAMI (UPI) — The Dade County School Board may decide this week to either fight a delaying action in the courts or voluntarily widen its public school integration experiment.

The board Saturday postponed a decision on the requests of three Negro pupils for admission to all-white schools. Three more Negroes will petition the board Wednesday.

The NAACP wants an early answer. Negro attorney G. E. Graves Jr., who said he would go to court if applications of the six are denied, has led the local fight for school integration.

But Dade School Supt. Joe Hall has indicated he was against admission of at least two of the six Negro students.

Hall said the two students in question scored below average in achievement tests. During a five hour hearing he said their academic progress might be "greatly impeded" if they were transferred to white schools.

A new state law which allows children to drop out of racially integrated schools was also cited by Hall. He said because of the law, "an entire school could possibly be disrupted, with resultant academic repercussions on all pupils concerned."

Japan, West Europe Told Quit Gold Discrimination

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Japan and Western Europe came under new pressure today to quit discriminating against American exports and help the United States check the outflow of its gold and dollars.

The pressure came from the International Monetary Fund. It said in a formal statement Sunday that other countries should lift restrictions on dollar imports "with all feasible speed."

The fund policy declaration followed concerted U. S. criticism of countries which have not yet dropped post-war curbs on their citizens' purchases of golds which must be paid for with dollars.

A rise in U. S. exports would bring back to the country some of the billions of dollars paid out each year for imports, foreign aid and overseas investment by business. An excess of these outpayments over receipts is called a deficit in the U. S. balance of international payments.

U. S. officials have launched a broad attack on the problem. One thrust is criticism of "dollar discrimination."

Only last week the government made a major revision in its foreign economic aid program. It decreed that loans to other countries must normally be spent in this country, not in other nations.

This, too, is expected to bring home many of the millions of dollars the government pours into foreign aid each year. Since the end of World War II, the United States has loaned and given away about 67 billion dollars of economic and military aid.

Still other efforts include pressure—public and diplomatic—to get Japan and the West European countries to assume more of the burden of helping less developed nations bolster production and living standards.

County Fire Protection To Be Stressed At Meet

The Seminoles County Firemen's Association will meet at 9 p. m. Wednesday at the Lake Mary Fire House.

Better county fire protection and encouragement of volunteer fire departments in communities not having city protection will be discussed, Sanford Fire Chief Mack Cleveland Sr. said Saturday. Sanford, Lake Mary, Altamonte, Gadsden, and Oviedo representatives are expected at the meeting.

More than 10,000 fire prevention report blanks issued county school children during Oct. 4-10 have been filled out and returned to the fire department, Chief Cleveland said. Blanks were given to 11,000 children in the schools. The forms aid fire prevention because parents often help children fill them out and realize fire hazards in their homes, the chief added.

Top Personalities Slated To Appear On Week's TV

NEW YORK (UPI)—Personalities from both political camps pop up on network specials this week in ostensibly non-political packages.

NBC's famous "Hallmark Hall of Fame" drama series makes its seasonal bow with a performance of the late Maxwell Anderson's notable play, "Winterset." Sir Laurence Olivier makes his American TV debut in a 90-minute drama.

Monday
The "Cheyenne" western drama on ABC is "Trial by Conscience," about ridding a town of a tyrant. Don Murray, Piper Laurie, George C. Scott and Charles Bickford head up a worthy cast in the 90-minute version of "Winterset" on NBC. "Alcoa Theater" and Steve Allen takes the night off.

Tuesday
"The Bells of St. Mary's" is another of those TV specials based on famous movies. CBS has this one with Claudette Colbert, Robert Preston and Charles Rogers in the cast.

NBC's "Ford Startime" one-hour special is "Secret World of Kids," with Art Linkletter in charge. Guest stars include Ed Wynn, Ann Blyth, Vincent Price, Teddy Rooney, Jon Provost and Lassie. Mrs. Nixon will appear to recall some of the incidents of her son's boyhood. The vice president will eavesdrop and add his own comments.

The season's first of the period-ic "CBS Reports" will be seen replacing Garry Moore's Show for the evening. The documentary is "Biography of a Missile," a camera study of a missile from construction to firing. Edward R. Murrow narrates.

Wednesday
The Lennon Sisters and singer Paul O'Keefe are Perry Como's guests on NBC.

"Armstrong Circle Theater" on CBS dramatizes the effort of the Rev. Dominique Georges Henri Pire, recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize for 1958, to provide permanent assistance to displaced persons in Europe.

Principals in ABC's "Wednesday Night Fights" are Virgil Akins and Kenny Lane in a welterweight 10-rounder.

Thursday
Singer Ella Fitzgerald is Pat Boone's guest on ABC.

The CBS "Playhouse 90" presents Bernard Shaw's play "Misalliance" with Claire Bloom, Siobhan McKenna, Robert Morley, John Williams and Kenneth Haigh are involved.

The one-hour drama on ABC's "The Untouchables" is "The Noise of Death." J. Carroll Naish guest-stars in the role of a Chicago Mafia leader marked for forced "retirement" by his pals.

Friday
A dramatization of W. Somerset Maugham's novel, "The Moon and Sixpence," brings Olivier to the home screen. It was recorded on video tape 10 months ago. Judith Anderson, Hume Cronyn, Jessica Tandy, Geraldine Fitzgerald, Denholm Elliott and Cyril Cusack are in the cast of this story of a business man who suddenly jumps the tracks to become an artist in the South Seas (a paraphrase of the Gauguin story).

Desi Arnaz stars in a dramatic role in "Westinghouse Studio Playhouse" on CBS. The one-hour play is "So Tender, So Profane."

Parents, Teachers Discuss Projects

Seminole High Club presidents and interested parents will meet Thursday at 7:30 p. m. in the school glee club room to discuss projects for school service.

Seminole principal Andrew J. Bracken announced the meeting at an assembly Thursday when he explained to parents and teachers the terms of a first report cards which were issued recently. Bracken also explained plans for the new Seminole High to be finished in fall of 1960.

The principal said that future parent-teacher discussion sessions like Thursday's are planned, but that individual parent-teacher conferences may be arranged at any time if requested.

Phones Damaged In Sanford Area

Three telephones in the Sanford area were damaged between 8 p. m. and 11:30 p. m. Friday, according to Sanford police.

The phones were on the side of Touchton's Service Station at Selway and Melonville Avenues, front of the National Guard Armory on E. First St. and at the Pinecrest School.

Money was taken from the Pinecrest phone.

Seeks Divorce
LONDON (UPI)—The Sunday Dispatch reported the Duchess of Bedford has begun a divorce action against the Duke of Bedford. The report could not be confirmed immediately.

Water Supply Gets Helping Hand From Rain

Though Sanford water meters increased from 4,535 to 5,181 between Oct. 1957 and Oct. 1958, water pumped from city wells was 8,211,237 gallons less this past year than the amount pumped in 1956-57.

More rain this year may account for the smaller amount of city well water used in Sanford, Utility Clerk Gene Carter said Friday. Water pumped during the city fiscal year which ended Sept. 30 totalled 399,200, 173 gallons. During the 1956-57 year, 687,111,500 gallons were pumped.

U.S. Private Funds Aid French Orphans' Home

(Editor's Note: This is the seventh of a series of articles by A. M. and R. H. Haskell who are now in Europe.)

PERIGIEUX, France—We were talking the other day with a friend in Paris about the operation of an orphan's home which is partially supported by American contributions. He said it was a sad commentary on France that private aid should be needed for such an undertaking.

He pointed out that the taxes paid by Frenchmen for such undertakings are high. In his case, "social taxes," those to take care of orphans, old age pensions, accident insurance and the like, came to 8,000 francs a month. A franc is 485 to a dollar, and 9,000 francs of them mean a big contribution for a business employing 40 people.

The reason, he said, that the money does not do what it is supposed to do is that there are so many people on governmental payrolls. Part of these people were put to work by politicians because they had some influence over votes, he said, and some of them were disabled war veterans and war widows, who had been put on for humanitarian reasons.

A few days after this conversation we went to the Paris Museum of Modern Art. In line with his statement, it was obvious there were at least three times as many guards, ticket takers and other functionaries as would have been found in a like museum in the United States.

This following was told as a true story: A French lady, friend of a friend, had read all the propaganda about how wonderful pressure cookers are. She purchased one. Husband was to be home for lunch. A few minutes before he was to arrive, she popped the meat in the pot. When he was ready to sit down, she opened the cooker and the meat was still raw. He had to be contented with a meal of left-overs.

The wife reasoned she had not given it time enough, so she put the meat back in to have for dinner. She let it stand all afternoon to make sure it would be done this time.

Came supper time, the performance was repeated. Next morning, mad as she could be, the pot was taken back to the store. She gave the clerk the kind of a going over only a Frenchwoman, her purse insulted, can do.

It was then she learned for the first time that the pot had to be placed on the stove to work. A few random thoughts: Some of the new small cars being shown in the Paris automobile show have their front end motor mounted across the frame of the car, instead of parallel to it as is customary. The idea is to further cut down on over-all length.

Never before this trip did we see a rural policeman make an arrest for driving violations. Now they are cracking down. In a trip of about two hours after dark tonight we saw two automobile drivers and at least six bicycle riders stopped for headlight violations.

On our way down here from Paris, the amount of road work was astonishing. Particularly on the outskirts of Paris is this true. They are erecting overpasses, underpasses, clover leaves and dual-lane roads at almost the same pace we are at home under our expanded program. They have not, however, kept up with the increase in the French car population.

Perigieux is certainly one of the most beautiful, if not the most beautiful, part of France. It is a popular vacation area for the French but is largely unknown to Americans.

The cooking here is of the highest order. Being one of the centers of the foie gras production, and foie gras being used regularly in their cooking, it is very hard on the figure.

Women Join Effort To Aid Homeless Tots

Several groups of Sanford church women are a small part of a tremendous effort that will be felt around the world Nov. 6.

That's the date of World Community Day and the local women are helping pack clothing to be sent to homeless children in many lands. This effort is in behalf of the tiny tots up to four years old—who have been left homeless and are in refugee camps around the world.

Women of the First Christian, First Methodist, Episcopal, Presbyterian, Congregational Christian, Free Methodist, Church of the Nazarene, Grace Methodist and Church of God are helping pack bundles of clothing to be sent to these pitiful little children.

In the wonderful spirit of this demonstration of compassion for peoples of all races and places, some local children have been helping their mothers pack the bundles. Such interest on the part of these groups in homeless waifs, added to that of the many churches throughout the country who will add to the World Community Day spirit, is sure to have a good effect.

If you have any clothing that can be used by a child under four years of age, call one of the participating churches and donate it to World Community Day.

Stenstrom Applauded

Senator Douglas Stenstrom has received a fine editorial compliment from the Melbourne Times, which last week printed a "good job, well done" endorsement of the senator's efforts in behalf of our neighboring county which shares Senate representation with us.

"In our books, Stenstrom has done an exemplary job serving two areas, his county and Brevard," the editorial said.

"This must have been, at times, almost an impossible situation and although no political servant can please all his masters, Doug created a minimum of critical comment," the Times said.

The Brevard editor called Stenstrom's announcement that he will not seek re-election "at least a temporary climax to the story of a political career we had decided was prologue to Florida governorship."

"We believe Stenstrom could have extended his political service in this state until he did reach the post of chief executive," the Times said.

That's about as fine a compliment as a senator ever could expect, especially from the away-from-home half of a divided district.

A Good Speech

And speaking of senators, U. S. Senator George Smathers revealed again to a Seminole County audience last week that personality which has made him one of the coming men in the Congress.

Sen. Smathers really turned on the charm and backed it up with a good speech, especially in reporting on the legislation passed by Congress and in giving his estimate of the Khrushchev visit to this country.

Unmentioned in our report was the part of his talk where Smathers was telling of Khrushchev's belief that the number of automobiles in the U. S. is far less than has been reported.

"Mr. Khrushchev's car got in the middle of a traffic jam in California and he finally had to admit that he never even heard of so many cars," the senator related.

TRoubled WITH RAZOR SCRATCH

Assignment Washington

By ED KOTERA
 WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower found his escape among a thousand newsmen.

It does your heart good to see a burdenned man lighten his load and laugh and beam and smile with you—and be carried from the realities for the moment—and enjoy life like the guy next to you.

In a few moments, in his own words, Mr. Eisenhower would be a dull ache of emotion at one point late in the festivities. The lights went out. The President's face was bathed in a dim twilight from somewhere, and on stage Lawrence Welk's lovable Lennon Sisters sang the birthday song for him.

and guests gave like a birthday party. AP man Marvin Arrowsmith had turned aside his gavel as the outgoing president of the bunch.

It got up. "Allow me, Mr. Arrowsmith," he said, "to share the joy of that wonderful title of ex-president."

Mr. Eisenhower isn't a deeply sentimental man. But I saw his face droop in what appeared to be a dull ache of emotion at one point late in the festivities. The lights went out. The President's face was bathed in a dim twilight from somewhere, and on stage Lawrence Welk's lovable Lennon Sisters sang the birthday song for him.

The rest of us cornered it up, swinging midjet lighted flashlights to the rhythm. From up there it must have looked like a darkened meadow of a thousand fireflies.

It may have been corny, but I was moved by it all, and I detected a little emotion in the face of the next-door neighbor at the President's left — Lopez Mateo.

Earlier in the evening, after the cream of chicken à la reine, UP's Merriman Smith hammered it up with a cablegram that he handed to the master of ceremonies. It was from Khrushchev.

The MC read it — Russian gibberish about golf. You could pick up a word here and there. . . . "Gettysburg, 18 holes. . . . Vladivostok, 118 holes. . . . Being sea trap."

Anything to do with golf would insure the party's success. And when golfer Bobby Jones handed the President a precise duplicate of his famous Calamity Jane putter, it was like Khrushchev handing like Berlin.

The old pro, who came up here from Georgia just for the birthday party, had the President in his palm when he gave a little spiel that went something like this:

"Mr. President, when I saw you on TV getting on the plane at Palm Springs with one of those unsightly things that was supposed to be a putter, I figured the only thing that it was good for was breaking coals, so I figured you'd like to have this." And he produced his Calamity Jane.

On top of that, President Mateo's men handed like what is probably the most lavish hand-made leather golf bag ever to come out of Mexico.

Sixty-nine years old — one of three men to have reached that age in the White House in the history of Presidents. For three hours 15 minutes, the greatest names in entertainment, the biggest names in government and 1,000 reporters came to help him forget his burdens.

It was a good, fresh feeling to see him happy.

Actor Boone Knows What He Came To The Store For

By RICK DU BROW
 HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Richard Boone, who polishes off bad guys and Shakespearesan verse with equal finesse as TV's "Paladin," says he will do "absolutely no more" western series when his present contract runs out.

The craggy-handsome, mustachioed actor, now in the third year of his five-year contract, said he is trying to avoid "the sweet anesthesia of success."

"Why should I repeat myself?" he asked on the set of "Have Gun, Will Travel." "There are new horizons in literature and the other creative fields, and I don't want to be president of CBS."

"I don't care what they offer me to play another western — I don't want to be rich."

"I say with absolutely no modesty that they did not find me in a service station. I'm an actor, and there are a variety of things I'd like to do. I certainly want to carry on with my directing."

Boone, a fifth generation nephew of Daniel Boone, conducted acting classes for about 70 students until his tight schedule on "Have Gun, Will Travel!" forced him to give it up.

Boone conceded that actors in TV series eat regularly. "But," he said, "there's a terrible danger from the sweet anesthesia of success. You can forget what you came to the store for — why you wanted to be an actor."

"My wife and my son (Peter, 6) are very important to me, and I want my son to be able to be proud of what I have done some day."

"I'm trying to maintain that sneered-at-word, integrity. That's why, on this show, we've never subscribed to the cliché excuses for bad programs. You know some of them: 'This ain't gonna win no Academy Award, but we're eating' and 'You can't win 'em all' and 'This one's for the bank.'"

Boone's frank self-appraisal extends to his other functions as an actor. He does not, for instance, make personal appearances at rodeos — as most other horse opera heroes do — unless legitimate charities are involved.

"I did it once out of curiosity," he said, "and we broke attendance records." Then I asked myself what the heck I was doing.

"Again," he laughed, "it comes down to, 'What did you come to the store for?'"

Washington Calling

BY HARRISON CHILDS
 WASHINGTON — When all the costs, economic and political, are added up the bill for the hundred days of the steel strike will be a sizable one.

The demarcation line between organized industry and organized labor has been deepened with new bitterness on the eve of an important transitional phase in the technology of mass production. The far-reaching change summed up by the word automation cannot be carried out in the midst of the old-fashioned civil war of strikes and lockout. There must be a more civilized way to make this transition or it will cost in human terms more than it is worth.

The dark suspicions of the old era of the survival of the fittest in the labor jungle are rising again. The conviction is taking hold within the unions that industry is out to break the hold of organized labor once and for all. And there will be eager political voices ready to confirm this suspicion.

Senator Estes Kefauver is considering holding hearings of his anti-monopoly subcommittee into certain aspects of the steel strike. He believes he can show the coercive power of "big steel" in holding a united front against the unions.

Specifically the Senator from Tennessee is considering investigating reports that one of the smaller independent companies tried to settle for a package that, it was claimed, would not be inflationary and was forced back into line by the big boys. Edgar F. Kaiser, head of the Kaiser Steel Company, is said to have worked out a reasonable agreement with the unions. But the big companies were determined to prevent this from happening. In a session in a suite at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York, according to reports to Kefauver, the executives of big steel showed Kaiser the light and the deal with the unions was off. Kaiser enterprises in the East are dependent for their steel requirements on the big Eastern companies.

This may prove to be no more than a lurid political myth. But the economic consequences of the strike are already seen to be real enough, even though the final reckoning is not yet in.

As a result of revenue lost to the Treasury, one of the first casualties is almost certain to be the balanced budget promised by the Eisenhower Administration for the current fiscal year. This was, in any event, a statistical balancing brick supported by a fragile few hundred million dollars. It will be the seventh unbalanced budget of the Eisenhower years.

Until steel begins to flow again the arteries of trade and steel inventories are built up — it will take from six weeks to two months — unemployment is likely to increase. The jobless total for September was 3,220,000, which on a seasonally adjusted basis is 5.8 percent of the work force. This did not include the half-million steel strikers.

As the already depressed, such as the coal regions of Pennsylvania, will feel the new impact. Unemployment in January and February will be over 4,000,000, which is equivalent to one of a seasonally adjusted basis to six percent of all workers. With Senate subcommittees currently exploring the unemployment picture, bringing out the seriousness of the situation in the depressed areas, the ammunition for political attack will be readily available.

In a political atmosphere of the opening of the new season of Congress the steel strike is likely to be re-examined — granted, that is, that the Taft-Hartley injunction gets the mills started again. But in the 80-day period the two sides should be made to understand that there are civilized ways to solve the major issue, which was the company's demand for changed work processes to bring greater efficiency.

Armour & Company and the most-picking unions have shown the way in a contract providing a jointly administered fund of $800,000 to cushion the effects of a broad overhaul of the Armour operation, calling for elimination of inefficiency practices. The money will be used to help restrain displaced workers and enable them to find other jobs. On the West Coast shippers have signed a similar contract with the longshoremen, providing a fund of $1,500,000 for retraining and new job opportunities in relation to mechanization of loading and unloading in West Coast ports.

The real cost of the strike — the terrible cost — has been suffered by the strikers themselves who will not for years make up their losses. This is the tragic meaning of the labor civil war.

Fired-Up Seminoles Topple Winter Park

By JERRY COVINGTON
A great team effort and inspired play led the fired-up Sanford Seminoles to a towering 28-13 victory over the Winter Park Wildcats here Friday night. The Seminoles, who had lost their last 4 outings, two of which were by a single point, showed a great passing game and a tough defense in the outstanding conference victory.

While the entire line finally found itself as one unit for the first time this year, Charles Bogan, Johnny Wheelchel and Neely Ross have to be singled out for their great play. Bogan and Wheelchel did a great job in rushing the Winter Park passers and Wheelchel probably made more tackles than any other Seminoles. The throwing of Mike Roberts and Alex McKibbin and the fine running of halfbacks John Lovelace and Ray Lundquist proved to be the thing that broke up the hopes of the Wildcats. Also, the great receiving on the part of Jim Gracey and Terry Christensen was something to make the local fans so successful. Gracey raked in two touchdown passes and Christensen pulled in one while Ray Lundquist galloped 40 yards for the other score.

The efforts of Alex McKibbin cannot be overlooked. The wire built youngster played a great part in the defensive efforts of the squad and then came on in relief of Roberts and heaved a pass to Gracey for a TD.

The contest opened with the Seminoles kicking. The Wildcats took the ball to the 37 but the defense of the Seminoles stopped them cold. After several exchanges at mid-field, the Seminoles finally got things started. John Lovelace passed to Christensen for 12 yards and a first down at mid-field. John Mann hit up the middle for seven yards and Lovelace followed with enough for a first down. With the ball resting on the Wildcats 10, Lundquist took the pitch from Roberts and rolled around right end for the score. Christensen then added the point and the Seminoles had taken a quick 7-0 lead.

Again the Wildcats were stopped by the Seminoles and they were forced to punt. Steve King got off a poor boot that carried only 19 yards and the Seminoles were off again. The running of Lovelace, Mann and Lundquist moved the ball to the 30. Then Roberts took to the air. He hit Lundquist for a 18-yard completion and a first down on the Wildcat 11. On the next play, Christensen broke across the middle and Roberts hit him for the second score. Christensen then added the second point in as many tries.

In the second period, the Wildcats began to show a little offensively and rolled to mid-field. With only four inches to go for a first down the Wildcats gambled but the Seminoles line set them back a foot or two and Sanford took over on downs.

A 30 yard run by Lovelace and a seven yard romp by Mann moved the ball deep into Wildcat territory but the Seminoles received a 15 yard penalty and lost possession. A few minutes later however, they were off again and this time they didn't fail.

Lovelace ripped off a 12 yard run to move to the Wildcat 20. Roberts then threw a beautiful spiral to Gracey who went over for the score. This time the Seminoles received a 15 yard penalty while trying the PAT. Christensen set up to kick but instead he faked and passed to big James Markham who lumbered over for the point. As the half ended the Seminoles had piled up a 21-0 lead over the Wildcats.

In the third period, the thrilling contest took on quite a different outlook. A fired up Wildcat bunch completely dominated play and scored 3 points to close the gap considerably. Big Mike Mosher, who sat out most of the first half, came on and began to pass all over the field.

In the final period the Wildcats began to march again but the Seminoles found themselves defensively and they took over on downs. McKibbin came in to direct the show for Roberts who had been shaken up. Lundquist and Lovelace ran the ball to the 31 where McKibbin fired a left handed pass over the head of speedster Gracey who raked it in and went for the score.

This was the play that broke the spirits of the Wildcats. They began to pass frantically and as the game ended, Gracey had just intercepted a pass and traveled 30 yards to the Wildcat 20. However, time ran out on this play and that was the ball game.

Fighter Dies After Knockout By Champion

GUADALAJARA, Mexico (UPI)—Walter Ingram, 25, a boxer from Houston, Tex., who was knocked out in a non-title match Saturday night, died early today in a Guadalajara hospital of his injuries.

Ingram, suffered a head injury when knocked out by world bantamweight champion Jose Becerra. He died at 4:10 a. m. today after doctors had operated Sunday to remove a blood clot in the brain.

Attending physicians said the boxer's condition became serious shortly after 1 a. m. when he developed a respiratory depression. Later he suffered a "cardiac depression" which caused his death. Ingram had remained in a coma after undergoing the brain surgery.

A native of Weirton, W. Va., Ingram underwent a severe beating at the hands of Becerra before the referee stopped the bout at 2:10 of the ninth round.

Covers Sports

By JERRY COVINGTON
Although the Washington Senators usually are last in the American League each year they are first in hospitality.

While we were north on business last month, Sherry Robertson, farm director for Washington, invited us to a game and gave us a tour of the front office and a look at the operation at Griffith Stadium.

They have a large room below the stands and at each home game they entertain different civic groups from all over the country. For $5 per person visitors get a box seat, a free meal, and all the beer they can drink. The room is decorated very interestingly with large pictures of all the famous players of the looping line.

(By the way, the day we visited, the Nats shut out Detroit 6-0 and looked like anything but a last place club.)

In discussing the Sanford farm club this past season, Sherry said that Centerfield Jake Jacobs who played for the Greyhounds last season, will be with the parent club this spring in Orlando. He hit a respectable .311 here with eight home runs and 17 stolen bases. The $25,000 bonus player from the University of Ohio has a great arm and tremendous speed and Joe Haynes, vice president of the Nats, said that they are expecting great things from him next season.

Jake graduated from OU last June with a pre-dental degree and a B-plus average.

Several other Greyhounds will be moved up this coming season. Joe Bonikowski, fireballing 17-year old right hander, will be moved to the Class-B Fox Cities farm along with lefty Jerry Pate-naude. With the exception of these, Leovel "Vicious" Vento is the only other Greyhound who has a chance to move up. Vento also is slated to move to class B or higher.

Although the Greyhounds stayed in the cellar most of the season, these lads made baseball stay alive here in the final few weeks. Vento, the little Cuban shortstop came on to be one of the outstanding fielders in minor league baseball and if he can get his bat to work he should be tough.

Sherry has high hopes of returning a club to Sanford this spring and says he has a player from their Class AA Chattanooga farm who hit .312 last season to take over as manager.

As Packy Rogers said, "First in entertainment, last in the American League" or, "how could they put them all on one team."

Enough of baseball for now. Back to the gridiron wars tomorrow!

Defense Plays Major Part In NFL Victories

United Press International
The New York Giants, Baltimore Colts and San Francisco Forty-Niners believe the best offense is a good defense and have the first-place credentials to prove it.

New York has taken some of its worst whippings in Pittsburgh and needed its powerful defensive unit to salvage a 21-16 victory over the Steelers Sunday at Forbes Field.

The triumph, a costly one which may sideline all-league halfback Frank Gifford for two weeks, enabled the Giants (4-1) to hold their one-game lead in the National Football League's Eastern Division.

The Green Bay Packers started Sunday's action tied with the Colts and Forty-Niners for the Western lead. The Packers (3-3) scored early in the third period at Baltimore to make the score 14-0. Then the Baltimore defense, combined with the passing of John Unitas, triggered three quick touchdowns and the Colts won easily, 38-21.

San Francisco, which has allowed only 65 points, kept pace with Baltimore (each 4-1) when Y. A. Tittle's 46-yard pass to R. C. Owens in the final 65 seconds produced a 20-17 victory over the Chicago Bears.

The Cleveland Browns and Philadelphia Eagles (each 3-2) remained a game behind the Giants. Milt Plum threw four touchdown passes while sparing Cleveland to an easy, 36-7 victory over the Washington Redskins.

The Eagles, aided by alert defensive play and Norm Brocklin's passes, erased a 24-0 deficit in the second half and edged the Chicago Cardinals (1-4), 28-24.

The Detroit Lions, 11 1/2 point underdogs, pulled Sunday's big upset by downing the Rams (2-3) at Los Angeles, 17-7. It was Detroit's first 1952 victory and left it tied with the Bears (each 1-4) for last in the West.

Sam Huff, New York's All-League center linebacker, scored the winning touchdown in the Forbes Field mud when he grab-

Builders Still Pace Mixed Loop

No change was made in the Thursday Night Mixed League standings this week, as B. Edwards Builders Supplies continued to hold their 3 1/2 game lead. In their games with Florida State Bank, the supply team got off to a good start by winning the first game by over a hundred pins scratch. And as always is the case, the winners let up a little and lost the next game by fourteen sticks.

But the next game belonged to the suppliers all the way, as Pat Foster, while picking up the 3-10 split, rolled a 577 handicap series to add to the team total of 2,408. Bob Hoisford led the bankers in the 2,311 series.

South Pinecrest helped themselves to second spot in the league, as they toppled sister team, Sunland Estates back into the cellar. Although the high bowlers on each team had good games, credit really goes to Tom Baily of Pinecrest and Ken Stone of the opposition for the high games they turned in this week.

Furniture Center was the team responsible for Stelmeyer Roofers being in the third slot, as they won the first game and tied the last one. All the games were close, with the furniture people winning the first by 17 pins, losing the second by nine, and then ending the third in a 795-795 tie. Don Steller led the roofers with a 513 scratch series, and Howard Harrison with a 508 series rolled high for Furniture Center. Harrison also topped the 4-7 split, while opponent Bob Benton picked off the 6-10.

Honor Roll

NEW YORK (UPI)—Forty-five teams, including 10 major schools today were listed on college football's perfect-record honor roll. Oregon and Pennsylvania were knocked off the list during the Yale, Texas, Mississippi, Syracuse, Southern California, Northwestern, Arizona State and North Texas State as the only major college survivors.

LSU, Ole Miss To Spark This Week's Grid Action

United Press International
Top-ranked Louisiana State's showdown with Mississippi, Army's first ever game against the Air Force Academy, the annual Navy-Notre Dame tussle and a trio of Big Ten contests top this week's college football program—the most attractive of the season.

Also vying for fan interest are such pairings as Texas Christian-Baylor and Texas-Southern Methodist in the Southwest, Southern California-California and Washington-UCLA in the Far West, and Pittsburgh-Syracuse and a full slate of Ivy League games in the East.

LSU and Mississippi, two of the 10 remaining major unbeaten and untied teams, both won during the week end to make this Saturday's meeting at Baton Rouge the South's game of the year.

The Bayou Tigers scored a somewhat unimpressive 9-0 victory over Florida to run the nation's longest winning streak to 18 in a row, while Ole Miss, ranked fifth, crushed Arkansas, 28-0, for its sixth straight.

Army's battered legions, rebounding after a sluggish start, ripped visiting Colorado State, 23-6, to run their season record to 3-2, while the Air Force, whose victory streak was snapped at 15 straight a week ago, ripped UCLA Friday night, 20-7. That gave the Falcons a 4-1 record in their second season of "big time" action.

A crowd of 70,000 is expected to watch the service academy struggle in Yankee Stadium. The game, sold out for weeks, also will feature the colorful march-

Yankee Collapse Ranked No. 1

NEW YORK (UPI)—The New York Yankee's collapse won out by a whisker over Harvey Haddix's perfect game in the United Press International's balloting to determine the No. 1 baseball story of the year.

The UPI board of 44 experts representing every city in the major leagues gave the story of the Yankee's collapse 66 points compared to 62 for Haddix's epic losing effort against the Milwaukee Braves on May 26. The formation of the Continental League ranked third with 44 points, the Chicago White Sox's first pennant victory since 1919 was fourth with 34 points and the Frank Lane vs Joe Gordon fiasco in Cleveland was next with 14 points.

Choppy Seas Help Scatter Dead Fish From Tampa Bay

ST. PETERSBURG (UPI) — A state biologist said choppy seas apparently scattered heavy concentrations of fish killed by the red tide away from the Tampa Bay area.

Dr. Robert Hutton, chief biologist for the State Board of Conservation here, said a large number of dead fish were spotted in the bay area Saturday. But he said a plane check showed they had disappeared by Sunday afternoon.

He said the rough seas over the weekend apparently broke up the scattered patches.

However, a few dead fish washed ashore at Longboat Key, west of Sarasota. And Hutton

said the beaches between Anna

Marie Island west of Bradenton and Big Sarasota Pass could expect a few fish in the next 24 hours.

The area from Clearwater to

Edgemoor Key were reported clear of any floating fish.

The University of Vermont's

first graduating class was in 1804 and comprised of four students.

Eight years later its buildings were used as barracks for troops in the War of 1812.

said the beaches between Anna

Missile Chief Denies Blowup Story

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — Marshal Matt Dillon cannot shoot down missiles with radio waves. That goes for his radio and television brethren, from Dixie Dean to Stella Dallas, says Maj. Gen. Donald N. Yates, chief of America's Cape Canaveral spaceport.

Allen and Paul Scott said safety detonators in the missiles "are being inadvertently touched off" by radio frequency signals emanating from commercial stations. Citing the "highlights of a back-stage Air Force report by a staff of experts," the story said at least six Thor and Polaris intermediate range missiles had been destroyed in recent months at Cape Canaveral and at Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif. Yates said the dispatch contained "no basis of fact at all." He added that the Air Force had been able to locate the causes of all its missile blowups, and that none involved commercial radio or TV. The dispatch debunked by Yates asserted that "the difficulty centers in the radio-operated safety detonators which are installed in . . . missiles to enable their destruction in the event something happens to them and they endanger populated areas." Actually, it's a bit more complicated than that. Each missile launched here contains a "Command Destruct" system, centered generally in dual transmitters at the cape and at each downrange station.

The missile carries two separate and distinct receivers, each actuating its own destruct mechanism on command. The destruct signals consist of two separate codes, "arm" and "destruct", operating through separate switches on the range safety officer's console. The signals are transmitted in sequence, then must be decoded by the missile itself to set up the safety "blow-up." All of which, the experts figure, is too much for the comparatively simple little signal that brings the story of missile blowups into American homes through radio and TV sets.

Killer Dies

WETHERSFIELD, Conn. (UPI) — Paralytic cop-killer Frank Wozniak was strangled at an angle into a specially-fitted electric chair Monday night and electrocuted when 2,000 volts were shot through his immobilized body. It was believed to be the first execution of a helpless cripple in the United States.

Wants Chance

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — Texas oilman Lamar Hunt arrived today to study the possibility of Jacksonville as the eighth member of the newly-formed American Football League. Hunt, of Dallas, said, "through the personal friendship with people here, the idea was approached that maybe Jacksonville should be looked into."

Ship Runs Aground

FORT LAUDERDALE (UPI) — Four tugboats worked today to free the 4,929-ton German freighter Hetselgeuze from a sandbar near here where she ran aground Monday night. Officials at the Port Everglades terminal said the 442-foot ship was stranded about six miles north of Fort Lauderdale. Two tugs had tried to refloat her but were not successful and two others had to be called.

Red Budget

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet government presented a 1960 budget today which hoists spending for science and for benefits to the average Russian and promises a surplus without cutting defense funds. Deputy Finance Minister Vasily Garbusov, presenting the budget to the second semi-annual meeting of the Supreme Soviet, increased amounts slated for pensions, housing, education and culture, and health and physical well-being.

County Board Acts To Stop Flooding

The Seminole County Commission acted today to eliminate flooding in the county in the future and to help alleviate drainage problems now. The board voted to request the zoning board to establish grade levels on all future new construction in the county. Many homes in the county are being built without consideration of adequate floor elevation above the surrounding drainage area and "such houses are in danger of flooding in the event of heavy rains," chairman John Krider said. The board went on record urging the zoning board to amend the Southern Standard Building Code requirement so that floor levels of new houses be a minimum of 18 inches above the crown of all roads adjacent to the house.

The board also approved the employment of the firms of Laffey and Bush and Brill and Grey to conduct engineering surveys of the drainage problems in three critical areas in the county. The areas are Loch Arbor, Tanglewood and Temple Terrace. Cost of the projects is expected to be about $4,000.

The board also formally adopted a policy of voluntary contributions by county residents to repair streets and roads. The county will accept contributions for construction or repair of any road outside a city limit where the road is termed "municipal," and the county is unable to finance improvements. To participate in the program, a person or group must deposit $150 to cover the cost of a preliminary field survey and pay for the materials. The county will contribute all the labor and equipment.

Hearing To Be Held Dec. 1 On New Jail

The Seminole County Commission today took the first step toward acquiring a new jail for the county by voting to hold a public hearing Dec. 1 to determine the need for a jail.

The board agreed to advertise for the hearing at 10 a. m. on that date to determine the need for a new jail or court-house.

Firm Signs Steel Pact

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — United Steelworkers President David J. McDonald announced today that a second firm—Detroit Steel Corp.—has signed a contract with the union in the 103-day steel strike.

Detroit Steel, which produced 4,613 tons of steel last year, was one of the firms operating under a contract extension with the U.S.W. Its employees were not on strike.

The announcement, which came only hours before an appeal court in Philadelphia was to announce its decision on an appeal of a Taft-Hartley back-to-work injunction, was the second crack in the industry's "solid front" negotiations.

Red Moon Photo Called Brilliant By U. S. Scientists

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Scientists here described the Soviet photograph of the moon's back side as a brilliant technological achievement of tremendous potential military significance. But astronomers among them said this first and necessarily crude picture is not good enough to give much information about what the back of the moon really looks like.

One scientist said the Soviet photo furnished greater things to come. "This demonstrates," he said, "that the Russians have very real capability not only in the scientific uses of satellites but in their military applications. Just think of the reconnaissance possibilities now opened up," he said.

Geneva Resolution Criticizes Collins

A resolution criticizing Gov. Leroy Collins' removal of former county Tax Assessor Harry Earle Walker has been adopted by the Geneva Citizens Association, J. H. Hiltrey, a member of the group said. ## Castro Calls For Revival Of Firing Squad Justice In Tirade Against U.S. Officials

HAVANA (UPI) — Premier Fidel Castro called in his cabinet today to revive firing squad justice for traitors to the revolution and for the pilots of American-based planes he said are bombing Cuba.

The bearded revolutionary leader revived the thought of revolutionary justice in an angry, three-hour denunciation of the United States Monday night before a crowd of 250,000 peasants and workers jammed into the plaza in front of the presidential palace. Castro charged American officials were "accomplices of murderers" or else were "defenseless" to prevent planes from raiding Cuba in spite of the vaunted U. S. radar defense screen.

At Miami, U. S. customs agents said today they found nothing to support charges by Castro that any planes took off from Florida Monday to drop leaflets or hand-made bombs over Cuba. Chief Customs Agent Joseph Forster said his men, aided by local authorities, kept all air-strips in surveillance. If any leaflet-dropping raid was planned, he said, it apparently "fizzled out."

Castro again questioned indirectly the right of the United States to hold the giant naval base at Guantanamo. "What do you think?" he asked and the crowd roared "no, no, no."

Castro asked for a show of hands on the revival of the revolutionary trials under which more than 800 "war criminals" were executed by firing squads early this year. "To the wall, to the wall," the crowd thundered as a sea of hands was raised. Castro then announced the Council of Ministers would meet today to discuss a decree to re-establish the revolutionary tribunals. This touched off chants of "yes, yes" and "to the wall, to the wall." Castro said he realized the action would bring criticism but "we have no alternative for defending the country and ourselves." Castro dramatically announced that he had been handed a communication from army headquarters in Pinar del Rio reporting that a plane had dropped several home-made explosives and an incendiary bomb on a sugar mill at Nagara. He also said a grenade was tossed at the offices of the official revolutionary newspaper Revolution, causing casualties.

New Pact On Goldsboro Facilities Asked By City

The City Commission last night instructed City Manager Warren Knowles and Attorney William Hutchison to draw up a proposal to the county commissioners for Sanford and the School Board to be responsible for maintaining the Goldsboro recreation area. The city wants an agreement so that if the county doesn't pay a share of maintaining the Goldsboro recreation area, improvements on the area won't revert to the school board but may be retained by the city alone. Right now, under an agreement with the school board, the city and county jointly maintain the recreation area in order that Sanford keep possession of the $69,000 worth of improvements it has made there. County Commission Chairman John Krider told the city officials that he thought the county commissioners would agree to the city maintaining the area. This year the county is not anticipating a recreational figure in the budget because there are too many other projects to care for, Krider said.

The county recently paid Sanford $2,500 of $3,000 owed on the city for maintenance of the area. The other $500 will be paid when the county gets its 1959-60 budget, Krider explained. How much the county will pay, if any, for maintenance is now scheduled for discussion. As soon as the county receives the city proposal it will take appropriate action, Krider said today.

Refuse Pickup Cost Survey Ordered

City Manager Warren Knowles was told by the city commissioners last night to make a survey of the cost of picking up refuse from large commercial establishments.

A report submitted by Knowles showed that garbage and trash pickups from seven large Sanford food stores cost the city $484.32 per month, while the stores pay only $84 for the services. Sanford residences are supporting the commercial accounts, Knowles charged. The commission also told City Attorney William Hutchison to take action necessary to have Food Fair comply with existing laws to eliminate the lighting and noise nuisance complained of by residents near the Park Ave. store.

City commercial garbage and trash collection rates are entirely too low, said Commissioner Robert Brown. He called the commercial rates "unrealistic." Collection time per week spent at the seven stores in Knowles report varies from an hour and a half to 9 1/2 hours. The cost to Sanford from these seven accounts is $4,818 per year more than the city is receiving from these markets, Brown said.

19 Of 20 Escape Plane Crash As Ex-GI Leads Them

SANTA MARIA, Calif. (UPI) — The decisive action of a former combat officer and quick work by firemen led to the miraculous escape Monday night of 19 of the 20 persons aboard a Pacific Airlines twin-engine plane that crashed on takeoff.

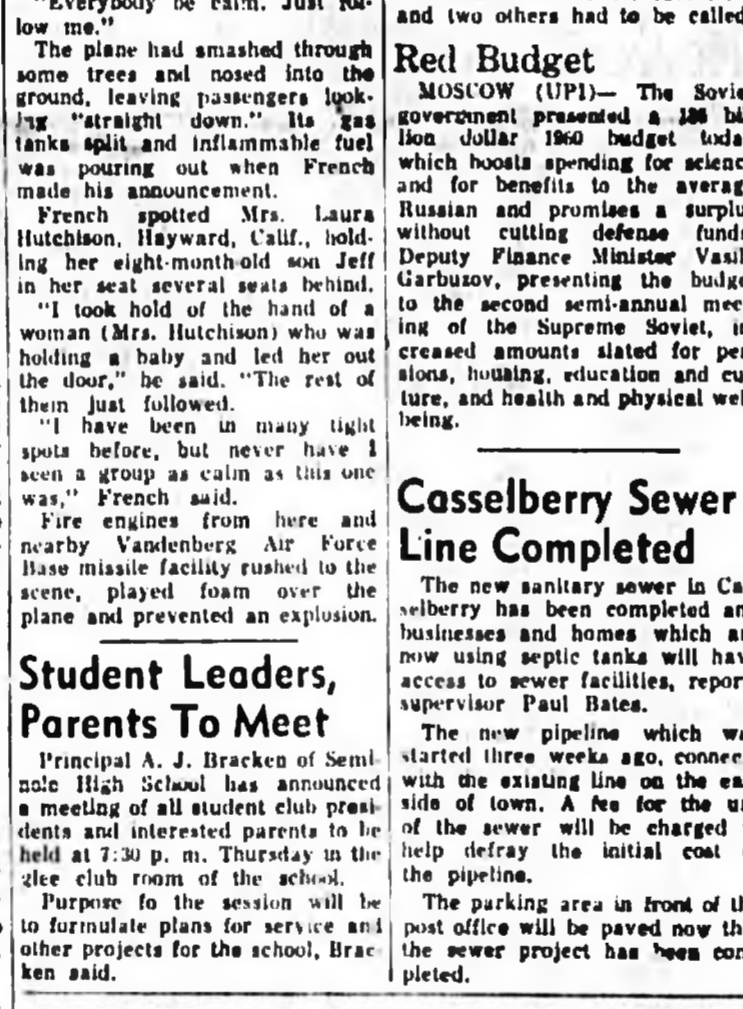

"It was a miracle that everyone was not killed," said a fireman who was among the first at the scene. "They — everything, plane and passengers — were just floating in gasoline." Co-pilot Joe Flanagan, 31, Mountain View, Calif., was killed and pilot Capt. Charles Craig, 42, San Mateo, Calif., was injured seriously. But all 18 of the others aboard escaped serious injury.

Sanford Ave. Stores Plan Improvements

The Sanford Ave. Improvement Association will try to get off-street parking and new street lighting in the retail merchants' section of Sanford Ave., Joseph Gazil, chairman of the group's advertising and promotion committee, said yesterday.

The association of about 40 Sanford Ave. merchants will ask these improvements of the city commission after the next general improvement group meeting Gazil said.

The association also is making an organized effort to improve buildings and shopping conditions on Sanford Ave. In order to satisfy more people, Gazil explained. Concession should be lessened on the avenue, he said. Spectacular sales, give-away programs and public campaigns are planned. Any merchant on Sanford Ave. may join the group, Gazil said.
