Thomas arrested for escape

SANFORD — On Tuesday, Florida Department of Law Enforcement officials gave Sanford police information regarding a person wanted for escape from Douglas, Ga. Within 24 hours, Benny Lee Thomas was found and arrested.

Commander Dennis Whitmire explained the scenario.

"As soon as the FDLE brought in the paperwork, Investigator Arthur Barnes looked at it and said he believed he had seen the man recently, possibly involved in an auto accident at 3rd Street and French Avenue last week."

Whitmire said officers checked the accident report and found a man identified as Mike Thomas, but there was reason to believe it may be the same man.

"From the accident report we were able to find his address," Whitmire continued, "and officers went to 51 Lake Monroe Terrace where he was staying and placed him under arrest."

Thomas is being held without bond at the John E. Polk Correctional Facility, awaiting the arrival of officers from Georgia.

Whitmire said Thomas is believed to have escaped from prison where he was serving time connected with drugs and burglary.

Commissioner evicted

LONGWOOD — Seminole County Sheriff's deputies were scheduled to post an eviction notice on the front door of a Longwood home today. The building at 836 Raven Ave., has been rented by Longwood City Commissioner Annamarie Vacca and her husband Scott.

"We don't go in and throw someone out of their house," observed Sheriff's spokesman Ed McDonough. "We just post a notice, and it gives the occupant at least 24 hours, if not the weekend, during which time to move out. So this could be by tomorrow or even Monday."

Vacca was elected to the Longwood City Commission in last November's election, defeating incumbant Rex Anderson.

The eviction notice was reportedly caused by a lack of rent payment for the home owned by an Ohio couple.

Another missionary kidnapped

SANFORD — New Tribes Mission Crisis Management Committee, (CMC) in Columbia, has reported another missionary kidnapping. According to the CMC spokesman, "On March 31, Ray Rising of the Summer Institute of Linguistics was kidnapped just outside his base near a small town in the State of Meta, Columbia."

No additional information on Rising was immediately available.

A CMC statement says more kidnappings can be expected due to the political climate in Columbia, approaching new presidential elections.

Precautionary measures are being carried out with the relocation of all non-Latin New Tribes Mission personnel in Fusagasuga. The National Missionary Training Program will continue functioning in Columbia but be transferred to Bogota. Some missionary families will be heading to their home countries.

IRS offers monthly payment plan to late income tax filers

By NICK PFEIFAUF
Herald Staff Writer

Tomorrow, April 15th, is a day often dreaded by many Americans. It's the deadline for filing 1993 income tax returns. Mailed returns must be postmarked before midnight.

For those who will not be able to complete and/or mail their forms by midnight tomorrow, the government offers the alternative of requesting a monthly payment plan.

The federal government estimates several million people will wait until the last day to submit their returns.

No doubt, tonight, many wage earners will stay up late in the evening hours finalizing their returns for submission tomorrow. While there have been several months in which to do this, there are, nonetheless, those who always wait until the last moment.

In northern Seminole County, hours should be noted for the following post offices:

●SANFORD — The post office at 221 N. Palmetto Ave., will operate service desks during normal hours from 8:15 a.m. until 5:15 p.m. Persons inserting mail in the postal boxes outside the facility are urged to do so early. The final clean-out of the boxes is expected shortly after 5:15 and mail deposited in them after that time will not have an April 15th postmark.

●LONGWOOD — The service windows will only be operating during the normal business hours until 5 p.m. at the Longwood facility, 101 W. Church Ave. Mail may be placed in the boxes outside the facility until midnight. Through the assistance of an area radio station which will be setting up facilities near the post office, a party-type atmosphere is expected.

●LAKE MARY — The main post office in Lake Mary, at 495 W. Lake Mary Blvd., will also have a box outside the building accepting mail until midnight. The service windows however, will operate only during normal hours.

Local postal officials caution persons against attempting to mail their income tax forms at the postal facility on Rinehart Road in Lake Mary. The facility is a postal distribution center, and is not for general postal service.

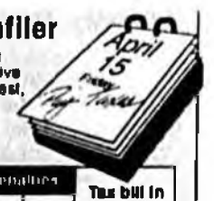
Don't become a nonfiler

Failure to file a tax return because you owe the IRS money can be an expensive mistake. To reduce penalties and interest, file a return and apply for an IRS installment plan. Here's a hypothetical look at how the costs could add up.



A tale of two couples	Monthly penalties: Failure to file	Failure to pay	Interest	Tax bill in 6 months
Couple 1 owes $1,000 and doesn't file or pay on April 15.	5% unpaid tax	1/2% unpaid tax	7% current rate	$1,294.00
Couple 2 owes $1,000, but they file on April 15 and request a monthly payment plan	None	1/2% unpaid tax	7% current rate	$1,065.00*

By SANDRA ELLIOTT
Herald Staff Writer

LONGWOOD — The city commission appears sharply divided on whether to fire city attorney Richard S. Taylor Jr. and abruptly ended a special meeting Wednesday called to consider the question.

Mayor Paul Lovestrand is pushing to oust Taylor for cause under the city charter, which would mean his immediate dismissal. Lovestrand claims a personal domestic matter, in which Taylor is involved, has damaged the city's image and hindered the attorney's productivity. Although Taylor has been acting city attorney since November, he signed a contract to become city attorney just last month.

> "This incident is dead. It's a dead issue. It (the motion to fire Taylor) will die for lack of a second."
> -Commissioner Steve Miller

Commissioner Steve Miller said after the meeting, "This incident is dead. It's a dead issue. It (the motion to fire Taylor) will die for lack of a second."

The motion to remove Taylor as city attorney was left hanging. Lovestrand said he may call another special meeting because he does not want to air the city's "dirty linen" at the commission's regular meeting Monday, April 18.

A large crowd is expected at the session which will precede a "town hall meeting" with two legislators. Noon Wednesday was the cutoff time for placing items on the upcoming meeting agenda.

The mayor alleged Taylor's personal problems have caused delays in production of ordinances for the city and added the attorney's treatment of the city police officers should not be tolerated. Lovestrand said he wants to fire Taylor without pointing any finger at who was right or wrong in the domestic question.

Transportation chief praised

Wise revamps department to save $8,469

By VICKI DeSORMIER
Herald Staff Writer

SANFORD — School district officials are often berated for their spending of taxpayers' money.

They are often accused of not managing the money in the most efficient possible way.

Dr. Joseph Wise, director of transportation service, is being praised for the savings he has created by restructuring the department and reallocating personnel positions.

Though the savings come to only about $8,469, Wise was lauded by the school board for the reorganization.

"Any little bit helps," said board chairman Barbara Kuhn. "If every department saved a little, it would add up to a lot."

Wise presented the restructuring plan to the board and received their approval on Tuesday.

Three positions, currently vacant, were eliminated from the department. The positions of a chief mechanic, assistant supervisor of transportation for operations and an Edulog computing specialist were eliminated for a savings of nearly $86,000 plus benefits.

A new position of supervisor of transportation routes and scheduling, at a cost of $33,425 plus benefits will be created.

The chief mechanic will be reassigned to the position of garage manager. The person currently in the chief mechanic job has been serving as supervisor for about two years in an unofficial capacity. He will get a $524 per year raise plus benefits, Wise said.

Several other positions within the department will be reassigned or reconfigured to better suit the needs of the department, but there will be no fiscal impact associated with the moves.

Wise said the changes will serve to "flatten" the organizational structure of the department.

The department has now eliminated all assistant director and assistant supervisor positions, allowing the organization to run more smoothly as it has been simplified for maximum efficiency, Wise said.

"I believe this (restructuring plan) will allow me to immediately implement the desired changes in the department," Wise said. "And I believe it will allow the department to go on toward the goal of meeting long and short range strategic plans."

Supt. Paul Hagerty said he is pleased to see the department moving ahead with its strategic plan.

"I believe the time to move ahead with the plans we have been making is now," he said. "I am pleased to see the changes being made."

Police get new cars

SANFORD — The Sanford police department will soon be getting some new patrol cars. Ten vehicles were approved during Monday night's city commission meeting.

At the start of the discussion on the request, City Manager Bill Simmons told the commission that while Police Chief Ralph Russell indicated 16 new cars were needed, they had agreed to request authority to purchase six.

During the work session however, Russell explained the cost difference between purchasing

Portion of work year devoted to taxes

TALLAHASSEE — Floridians may file their tax returns by Friday's deadline, but a research group says it will be more than two weeks before they've worked long enough to pay their federal, state and local taxes.

The average Florida wage earner will have to work 121 days this year to pay tax bills, two days more than last year, Dominic Calabro, president of Florida TaxWatch, told a news conference Wednesday.

That means "tax freedom" day doesn't come until May 2, the latest ever, Calabro said.

Taxes eat up $17,978 of the average Florida household's income of $54,403, nearly double the $9,294 the occupants spend on their next largest expense, housing, Calabro said.

"The good news is that the personal income of Floridians should show healthy growth and inflation should stay low through 1994," he said. "This will mean that most Floridians' paychecks should go a bit further."

With projected personal income growth of 7.4 percent, the amount of money the average household has left should rise 1.5 percent after paying taxes and adjusting for inflation, Calabro said.

Still, the average Floridian works 2 hours and 30 minutes of each eight hour work day to pay taxes, three minutes more than last year, Calabro said.

Suspect accused of drug smuggling

TALLAHASSEE — A man charged in North Florida's largest marijuana smuggling case could get life in prison and be fined more than $1 billion if he is convicted, says U.S. Attorney Michael Patterson.

Claude Luis Duboc was accompanied by celebrated defense lawyer F. Lee Bailey when he appeared in federal court Wednesday to plead innocent to a four-count indictment.

Bailey said he would defend Duboc, 51, originally from New York, at trial. No trial date was immediately set.

Duboc, arrested last month in Hong Kong, is being held without bond. Richard Knock and Roger Darmon remained fugitives, said Gail London, spokeswoman for Patterson.

The defendants are accused of conspiring to smuggle about 1,100 tons of marijuana into the United States over a 10-year period. That much marijuana could be worth anywhere from $670 million to $6.7 billion according to figures from a Drug Enforcement Administration spokesman.

NEWS FROM THE REGION AND ACROSS THE STATE

January visitors down 6 percent

By BILL BERGSTROM
Associated Press Writer

TALLAHASSEE — January tourist travel to Florida dropped 6 percent from a year earlier, and February arrivals apparently dwindled 8.5 percent, commerce officials said.

"We're hopeful that the bad weather in January and February in the Midwest and the Northeast will make for a more positive March and April," state Commerce Secretary Charles Dusseau said Wednesday.

Though January visits sagged, the state Department of Commerce said new year-end 1993 data showed a 7.4 percent rise in overseas visitors for the year, with South American visitors increasing the most.

That will mean a Latin American focus when plans are made for $2 million in advertising money released by Gov. Lawton Chiles and the Legislature from a Division of Tourism trust fund, said Dusseau.

"Essentially, we need to fish where the fish are biting," he said.

Visitors arriving in automobiles declined 12.9 percent in January, while arrivals by air edged upward by 0.4 percent — pushed by domestic air fare wars in December and January, the department said.

The January and February declines are serious in a state where it's estimated every 60 tourists can mean one tourist industry job, said John Evans, president of the Florida Tourism Association.

"We're taking a pretty serious hit domestically as well as internationally from the kind of headlines we've had about crime," Evans said when reached at an Orlando meeting of the group.

Florida's reputation for sun and surf was clouded when tourists were victims in a string of high-profile crimes. The bad news climaxed with the September slayings of a German visitor on a Miami expressway and a British tourist at a highway rest stop in northern Florida.

"The media coverage certainly was sensational — not to discount the seriousness of the acts — and that doesn't paint a picture of what Florida is really like," Dusseau said.

Crime news wasn't the only problem, said Bill Sims, chairman of the Florida Commission on Tourism set up to encourage cooperation between tourism industry and state officials.

"I think it's probably a combination of competition, the economy, and crime in this state," said Sims, president of Florida Leisure, which operates tourist attractions including Silver Springs and Weeki Wachee.

Dusseau agreed: "We are still clearly suffering from the carryover of the criminal activity of last year, as well as competition from other sun destinations and recessions in Europe and Canada."

But he said one sign of recovery was a 1.9 percent rise in state rental car surcharge collections in January, to $8.5 million. The September tourist slayings both occurred in rented cars.

"It had been down for several months," Dusseau said. "If it's not an aberration, I think it shows confidence is returning and people perhaps are not as concerned as they were for a couple months about rental car usage."

Latin America will be a focus when commerce officials talk next week with advertisers and tourist industry officials about how to spend the $2 million in promotional money.

Reader's Digest urges lawmakers to get tough on crime

By Associated Press

TALLAHASSEE — Florida's international reputation as a dangerous place has gotten another boost. Reader's Digest, with a worldwide circulation of 28 million, reported on Florida crime in its April edition.

Kenneth Tomlinson, editor-in-chief, wrote all 160 state lawmakers to point out the story, "Behind Florida's Tourist Murders."

Florida, accustomed to having the highest crime rate of all 50 states, recently found itself in the harsh glare of an international spotlight when nine foreign tourists were killed within a year's time.

Martha Molnar, a spokeswoman for Reader's Digest in Pleasantville, New York, said Wednesday that the magazine frequently writes officials to draw their attention to issues.

Reform of Florida's juvenile justice system, which has not kept pace with crime, was a top priority of the Legislature this year.

The 60-day regular session ended last Friday with no vote on a bill. But in an extended session, the Senate on Wednesday unanimously approved the legislation and sent it to the House.

The bill calls for longer stays in detention centers and residential programs, gives judges the right to sentence teen-agers for contempt of court and mandates more adult prosecution of violent repeat offenders.

In addition to building more facilities, the $237 million will pay for after-school programs in every middle school, alternative school programs for disruptive students, more school police officers and an residential education academy for troubled teens.

Lawmakers this week also plan to vote for a $38 billion budget that includes money to expand Florida's prison system by more than 14,063 beds. The Legislature has not passed a bill that would raise the sales tax by 1 cent.

'Three strikes' proponents blast House for not voting

By ADAM YEOMANS
Associated Press Writer

TALLAHASSEE — The Florida House will not vote on legislation to put repeat violent offenders in prison for life because it would cost taxpayers too much money, the incoming House speaker said.

The so-called "Three Strikes You're In" bill (CS-SB 1564) would require life imprisonment for anyone convicted of a third violent crime. It has been adopted in California and Washington and is supported by President Clinton and Florida Gov. Lawton Chiles.

A group of lawmakers and law enforcement representatives, including Attorney General Bob Butterworth, urged the House Wednesday to consider the "Three Strikes" bill and another measure (SB 1566) to increase sentences when firearms are used in committing a crime.

But incoming House Speaker Peter Rudy Wallace said there was an excellent reason for not passing the legislation this year. It would cost Florida billions of dollars in the future to keep aging criminals in prison, he said.

"Robbing a crab trap in this state is a felony," said Wallace, who is House rules chairman. "If we put people away until they're 100 years old because they robbed a crab trap, we're not taking a good public policy position."

The Senate passed the bills in near-unanimous votes last week but efforts to bring them up in the House were quashed by House leaders. Supporters of "Three Strikes" said the measures would easily pass the House if leadership would allow a vote.

"There is absolutely no excuse whatsoever for the Florida House of Representatives not to take up both of these bills and pass them immediately," said Sen. Ron Silver, one of the leading sponsors of the anti-crime legislation. Joining him at a news conference were Sen. Ander Crenshaw, R-Jacksonville, Rep. Stan Bainter, R-Eustis, and Sen. Karen Johnson, D-Leesburg.

A Senate analysis of the "Three Strikes" bill estimated it would cost $223,000 next year to house eight prisoners who would fall under the legislation. In 20 years, the cost would soar to $1.2 billion to handle 6,235 prisoners, the analysis said.

Congress is considering similar legislation for federal crimes.

The firearms legislation introduced by Silver would increase the current three-year minimum mandatory sentence for firing a gun in committing a crime to 10 years. Repeat offenders would face 25 years in prison.

A Senate analysis estimated those stiffer sentences would cost nothing for the first seven years and reach $11.3 million in 20 years.

Silver disputed the cost estimates and said they didn't take into account the deterrent effect of life imprisonment and the reduced costs when people are not victimized and courts are not filled with career criminals.

"It costs substantially more not to do it," said Silver, D-North Miami Beach.

Bainter said a poll he conducted in his Central Florida district showed more than 82 percent of the 281 residents surveyed supported the "Three Strikes" measure.

Despite the pressure, House leaders appeared unswayed and the bill's chances for success were dim. Wallace, D-St. Petersburg, said he did not expect the House to vote on the legislation this session.

"It's an issue we've wanted to look at, but it has to be done responsibly," he said.

POLICE BRIEFS

Beyond a warrant

Sheriff's deputies served a warrant on Tracey Loretta Major, 26, of 1515 W. 16th Street Monday. Deputies said they found her on Rand Yard Road. She was wanted on a warrant for violation of probation on a conviction of aggravated battery.

After transporting her to the John E. Polk Correctional Facility, the deputy said he checked the rear of his patrol car where Major was sitting, and located a drug pipe (stem) under the rear seat. Major was given an additional charge of possession of drug paraphernalia.

Tossed cigarette

Sheriff's deputies arrested Franklin William Fitzgerald, 23, of Pine Hills, following a traffic stop Tuesday on Lake Mary Boulevard. Deputies said they stopped his vehicle when they reportedly noticed him dropping a cigarette out of his car window. He was charged with littering (throwing litter material from a vehicle), driving with a suspended/revoked license, and attached tag not assigned.

Auto wreck

Longwood police arrested Walter E. Vertner, 25, of 409 E. Bay Ave., Longwood, on Tuesday. Police reportedly found an abandoned vehicle in the 200 block of Oxford Street, apparently crashed into a utility pole. On checking the registration, they discovered the vehicle was owned by Vertner, who was located at home by other officers and brought to the scene of the accident.

Police said they originally thought the car may have been stolen. Following an interrogation, police said Vertner admitted he was driving the car, and had left it to go home. Although he was reportedly injured in the crash, police said he refused to be hospitalized. Vertner was charged with being involved in an accident with injuries, falsifying official statements, and careless driving.

Retail theft

Sheriff's deputies arrested Jose A. Colon, 34, 784 Creekwater Terrace, Lake Mary, at a store in the 3000 block of Greenwood Boulevard in Lake Mary on Monday. A store security guard reported Colon had attempted to remove property valued at $22.87 from the store without paying. Colon was charged with retail theft.

Warrants served

●Barbara Ann Dotson, 26, 119 French Ave., Sanford, was arrested by sheriff's deputies Tuesday. She was wanted on six bench warrants for failure to pay fines, and one for obtaining property with a worthless check.

●Manuel T. Nunez, 26, 31 Lake Jennie Apartments, was arrested at his residence Tuesday. He was wanted for violation of parole on a conviction of driving under the influence of alcohol.

●James Frank Jackson, 24, 905 Pecan Ave., Sanford, turned himself in at the jail Tuesday. He was wanted for failing to appear on a charge of driving with a suspended/revoked license.

●Brian C. Renner, 19, of Altamonte Springs, was questioned by Longwood police early Wednesday, when they reportedly saw him walking in a suspicious manner on a city street. He was found to be wanted on three active warrants for violation of probation on convictions of uttering a forged instrument, shooting into a dwelling, and aggravated battery.

Incidents reported to the sheriff

●Tires and wheels with a total reported value of $1,986.92 were reported stolen Tuesday from a vehicle parked near a business in the 4000 block of U.S. Highway 17-92.

Incidents reported to Sanford police

●A white 1993 Plymouth, license number LCG-08L, was reported stolen Tuesday in the 3800 block of S. Orlando Drive.

●A white 1988 Toyota Camray, with a temporary license tag, was reported stolen Wednesday in the 2500 block of Oak Avenue. Police said someone burglarized the home and took the car keys.

●$220 in various items were reported stolen in a burglary Tuesday in the 100 block of Borado Road, in Hidden Lake.

Juvenile justice reform passed

By JACKIE HALLIFAX
Associated Press Writer

TALLAHASSEE — The debates and the negotiations are over. With just a few speeches, the Senate voted unanimously Wednesday to pass juvenile justice reform.

The bill that lawmakers called the top issue of the 1994 session went to the House for final passage Thursday.

The legislation, which carries a pricetag of $237 million, changes state government and the rules in juvenile courtrooms.

It provides for more adult prosecution of hard-core delinquents and longer stays in detention centers and residential programs.

It calls for after-school programs at middle schools, alternative classrooms and more school police officers.

It doubles a 50-cent fee on auto tag renewals and creates a $20 Save The Children specialty plate.

Both chambers passed similar bills last month and charged a joint committee with ironing out differences. That was done last week but the reforms got held up Friday when the Legislature's 60-day session ended.

Juvenile justice was one of the few issues lawmakers agreed to return to finish this week.

"Today we will pass landmark legislation," Sen. Gary Siegel said before the 38-0 vote in the upper chamber.

Sen. Alberto Gutman, R-Miami, said the current juvenile justice system is a joke.

"I think this bill is going to change that," he said.

Sen. Malcolm Beard, R-Seffner, said he was "proud to be part of this."

The legislative interest in teen-age criminals escalated last fall after nine fatal attacks on foreign visitors in a 13-month period earned the state a new international notoriety. Most of the defendants are teen-agers, one as young as 13 at the time of the crime.

Siegel, who chaired a special Senate committee on juvenile justice, said both the experts and the public demanded that a new agency take charge of juvenile justice, which now is handled by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services and the courts.

Siegel, R-Longwood, called establishment of the Department of Juvenile Justice a bold step. The legislation (CS-SB 68) sets aside $5.75 million for the creation of the new agency.

The bill also expands space in residential programs to hold 2,847 more beds. Detention centers will be expanded by 314 beds.

The bill changes what happens to teen-agers who are convicted of serious crimes in the juvenile justice system.

Now they're put on a waiting list for a spot in a residential program and sent home. Under the bill, they'll stay in detention centers until there's room for them in a boot camp or other kind of residential program.

The bill creates a more intensive residential program, where teens will be kept under 24-hour watch for up to three years.

State law now lets prosecutors transfer teen-agers who have turned 16 into the adult court system to be prosecuted for serious crimes. Younger teens, however, can't be prosecuted as adults unless a grand jury says so.

The bill would drop that age floor to 14. It also requires that juveniles, no matter their age, must be treated as adults if their rap sheets include three felonies and three stays in residential programs.

The bill gives judges the authority to sentence teen-agers who mouth off, threaten them or ignore court orders to detention centers. Last year, the state Supreme Court said the wording of current law did not give judges that power.

Parents also are affected by the measure: Judges would have the power to order parents into court when their children get into trouble and sentence them to community service or training classes.

And parents may take a bigger bite in the wallet. The bill erases the current $2,500 cap on the amount of restitution a parent can be ordered to pay for damage wreaked by their children.

A model curfew is included in the bill for any counties or cities that may want to adopt one.

Nudists, officials work out a deal

By Associated Press

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Nudists who frequent Playalinda Beach have struck a compromise with officials about how to let beachgoers know of their presence at Canaveral National Seashore.

Park officials agreed Wednesday to tone down a bulletin that Seashore Superintendent Wendell Simpson distributed earlier. That handout says beachgoers might encounter nudists throughout the seashore, said Barry Grable, president of the Space Coast Naturists.

The revised bulletin still states that laws permit nudity anywhere, but advises visitors that nudists frequent the area beyond the paved roads at both Playalinda in Brevard County and Apollo Beach in Volusia County.

"It's telling naturists where the traditional area is," Grable said. "This is a positive first step."

The naturists asked park officials to put up signs marking the traditional area.

But Simpson refused, as he has in the past, on grounds that it would make the section exclusively for nudists, Grable said.

The bulletins will be posted throughout the seashore.

Park rangers will distribute the fliers to nude sunbathers in other areas of the beach to inform them of the beach's traditionally nude area.

Grable applauded that tactic, saying it would help to prevent clashes between nudists and other bathers in parts of the beach used primarily by clothed visitors.

Nudists and officials from the National Park Service's regional office in Atlanta reached the agreement during an hourlong meeting in Titusville, he said.

Simpson closed the session to the media. He responded to a request by a reporter to attend the meeting by saying, "No. I don't think so."

Simpson did not return telephone calls after the meeting.

George Volak, president of the American Sunbathing Association in Kissimmee, said he was encouraged by the progress made Wednesday.

"This was a very positive meeting," he said. "We agreed to be in touch with each other. If this will not work, we will find something better."

Last spring, rangers issued more than 100 tickets to nude sunbathers. But a federal magistrate in Orlando ruled in November that under a 20-year-old Florida Supreme Court decision, nude sunbathing was not a crime.

Several legislators tried and failed earlier in this session to outlaw public nudity.

Complaints from beachgoers who unknowingly wandered into the nude areas resulted in the anti-nudity campaign last year. And Simpson said he is concerned similar conflicts will occur again because beach use is high.

Kids' mess will not be tolerated

Maybe that'll teach them all a lesson.

Sheriff Don Eslinger has found a unique way to bring home an important lesson to youngsters and their parents as well.

The parents of seven teens who destroyed a Lake Mary home when, as they told investigators, a food fight in the home of an acquaintance got out of hand, were asked to make their children clean up the mess.

Eslinger cannot make the youngsters do anything, and rightly so, since they have not been convicted of anything yet. But he sought the cooperation of parents in teaching the youngsters a lesson.

He sought that help from the parents and found them to be cooperative.

We laud Eslinger for finding a way to send a strong message to the students who confessed to the crime. The parents, also, should be praised for not offering resistance to the lesson.

The youngsters have confessed and appear remorseful.

But is that enough?

All children apologize profusely when they are caught in some act which will get them in trouble. Often such a profession of remorse is the ticket to forgiveness...until the next time.

These youngsters have probably had the life scared out of them by the mere mention of the cost of the damage ($500,000).

The act of cleaning up the broken pictures, the tattered clothes, the smashed electronics, and especially the food which festered on the kitchen floor for more than a week, should etch the message that such behavior will not be tolerated.

Where were you Dennison, Adams?

Some voters may recall the "New Democrates," later known as "The Thomas Jefferson Club." It was a political organization with an agenda of support for Democratic candidates, but also to work in a non-partisan effort to investigate and offer solutions to prominent political issues.

It was the fall of '91 when Andrea Dennison attended regular meetings and gave rousing testimony as to why she embraced the Democratic Party and supported the Democratic philosophy.

Winfield Adams, a member of the Jefferson Club also vowed to support Democratic candidates. Both had opinions but made no working contributions to the Jefferson Club or the Democratic Party. Both are now Republican candidates for the Seminole County Commission!

Having followed these two for several years I don't have a clue as to what they stand for or what their accomplishments are!

Talking about problems is healthy but it takes courage and dedication to find solutions and see them through. If loyalty, hard work and dedication are signs of character, the record shows a real shortfall in these candidates.

I have to ask Mrs. Dennison and Mr. Adams: "Where were you when it came time for the work at the Jefferson Club and help to the people and the party that supported you in the past?"

STOP petition worthy of support

Recently, your editorials have been socially responsible and very informative and I look forward to reading them. Your "Read What You Sign" editorial, however, cautions people unjustifiably about the STOP petition and may even persuade people that the Herald knows some reason why the petition should be questioned. The Ballot Summary clearly states that it is: A "State" constitutional amendment to ensure that "State" prisoners serve at least 85 percent of their sentence. Is that really too much to ask?

Taiwan remains a friend of America

April 10 was the 15th anniversary of the Taiwan Relations Act. In a world where almost every nation from North Korea to Haiti seems bent on making life miserable for the United States, the occasion is worth noting.

It's particularly worth noting because Taiwan (or the Republic of China, to give it the official name to which it clings) isn't just some hapless Third World country totally dependent on American economic aid. Such aid was ended more than 30 years ago, when Taiwan's robust economy demonstrated that it was no longer needed. Nor does Taiwan even receive military assistance from the United States. It pays cash on the barrelhead for every fighter plane or other piece of military hardware it obtains from us -- and it would buy even more, if we would let it.

From 1950 to 1978, moreover, Taiwan was America's loyal military ally in the western Pacific -- a huge, unsinkable aircraft carrier just one hundred miles off the coast of Communist China. A mutual defense treaty bound our two nations to go to war, if necessary, in each other's support.

But Richard Nixon, Henry Kissinger and the striped-pants brigade in the State Department longed to improve relations with the Communist regime on the mainland, both as a bold stroke in the Cold War with the Soviet Union and as an opening wedge for greedy American businessmen eager to exploit the mainland market (not to mention China's nearly infinite supply of cheap labor). So a romance with Beijing began.

"A mutual defense treaty bound our two nations to go to war, if necessary, in each other's support."

As it happened, it finally burst into full bloom in the Carter administration. The obstacle was our treaty with Taipei. Jimmy Carter's solution was brutally simple: Repudiate it.

The Senate (which of course had ratified the treaty) smelled a rat, and on July 25, 1978, passed a sense-of-the-Senate resolution declaring that "any proposed policy changes affecting the continuation in force of the United States-Republic of China Mutual Defense Treaty shall be a matter for prior consultation with the Senate."

Secretary of State Cyrus Vance responded soothingly, in writing, that "this administration has consulted and will continue to consult with Congress on developments affecting our security commitment to the Republic of China."

On Dec. 15, however, with Congress out of session for the holidays, the Carter administration swiftly "de-recognized" Taipei, repudiated the Mutual Defense Treaty, and recognized the Communist regime as the legitimate government of China. As Jim Fiske once bragged of a business deal, nothing was lost save honor.

There was little a stunned Congress could do to turn back the clock. But on April 10, 1979, a new law called the Taiwan Relations Act (which Jimmy Carter knew better than to veto) went into effect. Under it, economic and even political relations with Taiwan were to continue much as before. The major difference was that relations between the two countries would be conducted, not through embassies (since America no longer had diplomatic relations with Taiwan), but through nominally unofficial organizations. Ours would be called "the American Institute in Taiwan"; theirs would be "the Coordination Council for North American Affairs."

So balance was gradually restored, and Taiwan resumed its march toward full democracy and a prosperity that has few rivals in Asia.

Clintons cop a political plea

The early evidence is far from complete, yet it's already conclusive in at least one respect. We can now see that Bill and Hillary Clinton would be well advised to hasten the end of the Whitewater controversy by copping a plea.

It is time for the president and first lady to plead guilty to a non-impeachable, non-criminal offense: felonious hypocrisy -- otherwise known in the nation's capital as politics-as-usual.

Then perhaps we can let the duly constituted investigators get on with their quiet inquiries. And perhaps we in the media can return to the old-time practice of checking our facts before making them public. Also checking perspectives to avoid the current tendency to over-inflate minor miscues so they seem like major illegalities.

So far, the early evidence on the conduct of the Clintons in the affair called Whitewater has shown us nothing that seems impeachable nor criminal. But when we put Clintonian words and actions into perspective, we find plenty that is, indeed, hypocritical -- the sort of political hypocrisy that you can hear any day in the speeches of senators and representatives.

On Oct. 23, 1991, a presidentially ambitious Gov. Clinton of Arkansas sounded right on target in a speech at Georgetown University: "The Reagan-Bush years have exalted private gain over public obligation.... The 1980s ushered in a gilded age of greed and selfishness, of irresponsibility and excess, and of neglect. S&L crooks stole billions of dollars in other people's money."

Now we have the added insight of knowing that some $60 million of our federal taxes went to bail out the failed Madison Guaranty Savings and Loan that was owned by the Clintons' Whitewater real estate partner, James McDougal. And that private attorney Hillary Clinton had represented Madison in one rather small effort to get consideration from state regulators.

So perhaps it is time for President Clinton and his wife to candidly explain that their actions -- while apparently legal -- didn't match the high tone of Gov. Clinton's campaign words. Mr. Clinton can explain why he thought it was OK to ask McDougal to host a gubernatorial campaign fundraiser. We in the media, in turn, can explain that senators and representatives routinely ask lobbyists whose special interests they oversee from their committee perches to host fundraisers -- and we never think it newsworthy enough to cover them.

On Nov. 20, 1991, Clinton said at Georgetown U.: "For 12 years of this Reagan-Bush era, the Republicans have let S&L crooks and self-serving CEOs try to build an economy out of paper and perks instead of people and products. It's the Republican way: Every man for himself and get it while you can. They stack the deck in favor of their friends at the top and tell everybody else to wait for whatever trickles down."

Now we have the added insight of knowing that in 1979, when the Clintons were moving out of puberty and into the governor's mansion, some people who did business with the state decided to help the young political couple turn $1,000 into $100,000 in one year of commodities market speculation. Many experts think it was impossible for Mrs. Clinton to profit so grandly without someone stacking the deck by investing in large blocks and then allocating the profits her way.

"It is time for the president and first lady to plead guilty to a non-impeachable, non-criminal offense."

So perhaps the Clintons thought this might be happening too -- and thought it unwise to accept such help, even if it was technically legal. Perhaps now President Clinton ought to tell us if that was the real reason they quickly quit the market and never made public their 1979 tax return until now. Many who cheered her feminist leadership find it uneasy to hear Mrs. Clinton's recent explanation that she quit speculating because she was pregnant and it was just too nerve-racking.

Whitewater isn't about impeachment; it's about politics. So cop a plea of guilty to having committed politics as usual, Mr. President. It's time for our short national nightmare to be over.

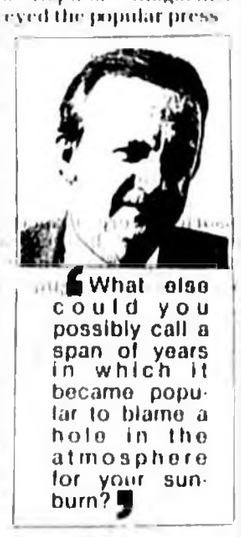
We've already named the '90s

What's all this hullabaloo about naming the '90s? Don't these people know it's been done already?

I refer to Tom Shales of the Washington Post. "We must come to some decision on what we want to call the 1990s," he wrote several months ago. He preferred the Cranky '90s.

I refer to the New Republic magazine, which last month surveyed the popular press and uncovered 30-plus monikers that have already been appended to the current decade.



"What else could you possibly call a span of years in which it became popular to blame a hole in the atmosphere for your sunburn?"

I refer to American Demographics magazine, which used a computer to search out names that have been suggested for the '90s and discovered 139 mentions of the Decade of the Brain (first proposed by George Bush in 1990), 57 references to the Gay '90s, 17 to the She Decade, 15 to the Sober 1990s, five to the Snoring 1990s and one to the Pay Now 1990s.

Time out, people! It has already been done. It's in the bag, finis. On Oct. 7, 1991, yours truly dubbed this decade the Alibi Age. Or, if you prefer, the Not-Me Decade, which flows naturally from the Me Decade that preceded it.

It's perfect, is it not? What else could you possibly call a span of years in which it became popular to blame a hole in the atmosphere for your sunburn? Tobacco ads for your smoking habit? The bar that sold you the booze for your DWI? Movies, television and rock music for violence and crime? Thanks for the kudos. Thank you, thank you. It was nothing, really. As an old muckraker, I keep good files and I sensed something was up in July 1990, when Argentine soccer star Diego Maradona blamed the Mafia for a World Cup loss to West Germany. "The Mafia exists also in soccer," he said. "The penalty which defeated us did not exist and was given to award victory to West Germany and punish Argentina."

Then there was Florida prostitute who alleged the antidepressant drug Prozac had turned her into a nymphomaniac.

Then there was the Texas man who shot a state trooper then claimed he was the victim of rap lyrics. He had been listening to Tupac Shakur, the Geto Boys and Ganksta N-I-P in the stolen car he was driving when the trooper stopped him, he said.

When closely examined, therefore, it can be plainly seen that a pattern is evolving here. Sure, some of the alibis of the '90s have been pretty pathetic -- Dan Quayle tried to blame the cue card for misspelling potato -- but by and large the excuses are getting progressively imaginative and audacious.

OK, so Lorena fell back on the timeworn insanity defense for disconnecting John from his member. And OK, the Menendez brothers used the old child abuse excuse for murdering their parents. But how about Michael Griffin, the pro-life fanatic who killed Dr. David Gunn in Florida? He claimed that graphic anti-abortion propaganda drove him to his crime. The shooting "was the action of a good, decent, human being (who) had been fed poison," said his lawyer. Now that's pretty creative.

And there's the added twist of alibiing in your sleep. You're fat and impotent? Some British doctors say you might be snoring, which reduces production of testosterone and a growth hormone that controls weight. Or maybe those extra pounds are caused by sleep-eating. Yep, some Minnesota doctors say there are people, particularly women, who binge in their sleep.

The police department operates under a Law Enforcement Trust Fund assistance program which allows fleet purchases when accomplished in bulk. For Sanford, part of the bulk includes the Seminole County Sheriff's department.

"The purchase price per vehicle this year," Russell said, "is supposed to be $14,862. But there are still ten vehicles which are available if we buy them now," he continued, "and the cost is presently $13,512."

Russell added that if the city waited until next year to purchase new vehicles, the cost would be over $16,000 each.

"We are about halfway through the budget year right now," Simmons told the commission. "And we have not spent a lot of money from last year's contingency fund, so part of the money would be available."

"If we agree on purchasing only six vehicles now," said Commissioner A.A. McClanahan, "then we will be holding back on the rest for next year, and by that time the price will be almost $3,500 more per vehicle than what it will cost now. Why not go ahead with all ten?"

Discussion was also held regarding the four officers of the community patrol, and possible financial assistance through those assignments out of a state trust fund.

Russell said the cost of the vehicles would include the transferral of equipment from the present police vehicles to the new units, which would be 1994 Chevrolet Caprices.

Russell has reported that the police department presently has 15 patrol vehicles in service with odometer readings between 77,500 and 127,846 miles. "These vehicles are not dependable or cost effective, due to the constant need of repair," he observed.

As a result of the work session discussion, during the regular meeting, the City Commissioners voted unanimously for purchasing all ten new police vehicles.

"This will be as good a purchase as is possible," Russell said. "In fact, we will even save delivery charges by sending some drivers up to north Florida and bring them to Sanford ourselves."

Ken Rushing, officer in charge of the Lake Mary post office commented on the outdoor box. "We'll be emptying the box about every hour. It usually gets very full on April 15th, and we don't want to have any jamups."

Rushing said, "Anyone who gets their forms in the mailbox outside his facility by midnight, will have the April 15th postmark."

He cautioned however that persons who may mail their forms tomorrow without sufficient postage, will have it returned, and the document would not be declared as having been mailed by the deadline.

Postal officials also suggest the mail receptacles in various parts of the cities and counties not be used for income tax return mailing tomorrow. The pick-up times from the boxes vary and with the overload expected by postal workers tomorrow, there can be no guarantees.

Vandalism

The house was vandalized while Ronald Yager, a bishop with the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Later-day Saints, and his family were in Independence, Mo. where they are preparing to transfer soon.

The youngsters who vandalized the home had gained entry with a key they had stolen from Yager's son who has already withdrawn from Lake Mary High School and moved to Missouri.

According to school officials the teens involved in the incident and Yager's son had some on-going disputes.

The teens told investigators they were skipping school on the day of the vandalism and went there to "hang out." While they were there, they engaged in a food fight that got out of control. They decided to cover up that mess by faking a burglary, they told investigators, and that, too, got out of control.

Sheriff's spokesman Ed McDonough said when they left the house, all the food that had been in the house was on the kitchen floor, photos were smashed, clothing and accessories were ripped, computers were broken and a $200,000 painting and various documents belonging to the church were destroyed or damaged.

Sheriff Don Eslinger said he saw no reason for the Yagers to have to clean up the mess the youths made at 637 Brookfield Loop.

So Eslinger asked the parents if they would bring their children to the house to sweep, mop and scrub things down.

Because the Lake Mary High School students have not been convicted of the crime, though they have admitted to it, the sheriff's department had no legal right to force the students to clean up the house.

Eslinger said the parents willing brought their students to the clean up.

McDonough said some of the parents supervised their youngsters while others picked up tools and participated in the clean up as well.

"Parents have to take responsibility that wrongs are righted in this sort of situation," McDonough said. "We're very pleased that these parents and the youngsters were so cooperative."

Two U.S. copters carrying U.N. personnel shot down in Iraq

By GEORGE GEDDA
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON — Two U.S. helicopters carrying U.N. personnel were shot down today over northern Iraq. A State Department official said friendly fire downed the craft.

The official, who spoke only on condition of anonymity, said "high-level people" were aboard the helicopters, and between 12 and 24 were dead. The official said the helicopters were destroyed.

American aircraft have been patrolling the no fly zone over northern Iraq since the end of the Gulf War. Officials at the Pentagon scrambled to explain the shoot-down, which was initially reported to be a U.S.-Iraq encounter.

Emerging from a White House meeting with President Clinton and his national security advisers, Sen. Pete V. Domenici, R-N.M., said he was told "only that two helicopters disappeared." He said they were U.S. copters.

There was no word about the incident on Baghdad's state-run media.

Hoyshar Zobari, a spokesman for the Kurdish leadership in the U.N. no-fly zone set up in northern Iraq after the Persian Gulf War, earlier today said two U.S. Blackhawk helicopters were shot down by Iraqi warplanes in the allied-protected enclave at midday (6 a.m. EDT).

"As far as we know, there were no survivors," he told The Associated Press in a telephone interview from Washington.

"Our people have reached one of the helicopters which appeared to have been carrying 12 passengers and crewmen," said Zobari, a senior official in the Kurdistan Democratic Party. "First reports say that all were killed."

Zobari said the helicopters were ferrying U.S., British, French and Turkish officers from the U.N. office in Zakho, near the Turkish border. The group planned to meet Kurdish leaders in Salahaddin, the central region of the Kurdish zone.

One helicopter crashed near the village of Amadia, the other near Bekhma, another village in the mountainous region, Zobari told the AP. The villages are northwest of Aqrah, 37 miles south of the Turkish border, he said.

There was no immediate word on the fate of the people aboard the other Blackhawk.

Safeen Dizayhe, a representative of the Kurdistan Democratic Party in Anakara, Turkey, confirmed the downing.

The no-fly zone in northern Iraq was imposed above the 36th parallel by the allies in August 1992. It bans Iraqi warplanes flying over the Kurdish enclave, which was established as a sanctuary for the rebellious Kurds by the U.S.-led allies after an abortive rebellion against Saddam Hussein.

If the Kurdish report of Iraqi involvement proves accurate, it would be the first against U.S. aircraft since Aug. 19, 1992, when the Iraqis fired two missiles at two Air Force F-16s patrolling the no-fly zone.

The U.S. jets dropped cluster bombs on the Iraqi missile battery. Two F-15s later attacked the site.

The allies have some 70 U.S., British and French combat jets based at Incirlik, southern Turkey, to patrol the no-fly zone.

Saddam, angered by the Security Council's extension of trade sanctions imposed on Iraq after it invaded Kuwait in 1990, has in recent weeks built up his forces around the Kurdish enclave.

That has raised fears he planned new military operations.

Attorney

"This motion makes no accusations nor places any blame for the domestic disputes," Lovestrand said. "I'm sorry the events happened."

Two Longwood police officers met Taylor's ex-wife, Janie, at the attorney's home Sunday night in a child custody dispute. Taylor claimed an agreement with his ex-wife allowed his stepdaughter to remain with him along with the couple's son during the visitation period. His ex-wife wanted her daughter to accompany her home.

Taylor allegedly used profane language and called Longwood Police officers "pigs" and "communists" when they attempted to discuss the custody matter. The police report stated Taylor threatened the officers' jobs and in a recorded conversation with a police dispatcher mentioned he was city attorney more than once.

Commissioner Iris Benson seconded Lovestrand's motion to fire Taylor for the purposes of discussion. Benson said the attorney's actions brought a "cloud" over the city when she and many other people have been working to improve the city's image.

Under the city charter, Lovestrand said the commission could not take a vote to fire Taylor at the same meeting the motion was made. The commission should ask Taylor whether he wanted a public hearing, Lovestrand said. If so, the vote would be taken on the motion afterward.

Miller questioned the move to fire Taylor. He noted that although some inappropriate comments may have been made by Taylor during the incident, the commission did not know all the circumstances except information in news reports of the alleged incident.

"This commission should not act as a 'moral patrol,'" Miller said, calling for the meeting to adjourn. Sargent seconded the motion.

Lovestrand cautioned the commission had not finished its business, but Miller did not withdraw his motion. The mayor intended to ask the commission to appoint another attorney to deal with the legal questions.

Taylor advised the commission a special attorney should be hired to handle legal questions since he was the subject of discussion.

However, on the parliamentary question, Taylor said a motion to adjourn took precedence over any other motion. Commissioners Annamarie Vacca, Sargent and Miller voted to adjourn. Benson and Lovestrand voted no.

"You've just created more havoc for yourselves," the mayor commented after he brought down the gavel, ending the session.

Taylor said after the meeting the only comments he will make on the matter will be in a court of law under oath.

Survey: Working moms satisfied with lives

By LISA GENASCI
AP Business Writer

NEW YORK — Liza Dawson loves life as a working mom.

She gets up at 6:45 a.m. to catch the 8:07 commuter train to her job in New York City, leaving her two children with their live-in nanny. About 10½ hours later she returns; after a long day at work, her long night at home begins.

"I'm stressed out to the max, but I can't imagine life any other way," she says.

A Gallup poll commissioned by Working Mother magazine for its May issue says Dawson isn't alone: For the most part, working mothers are satisfied with the balance in their lives between jobs and family.

The findings contradict studies which found that many women — and men — are uncomfortable with the long hours they spend on the job, riddled with guilt over time spent away from their families, and working only because they have to.

"The media tends to pick up the negative side of women's lives," said Judsen Culbreth, editor in chief of Working Mother. "This study confirms what our own reader surveys have shown. Women are telling us, 'I like my life and I enjoy my job.'"

Gallup polled 1,000 working mothers nationwide — 500 randomly and 500 selected as career committed.

Some of the findings:

— Eight out of 10 were "extremely" or "very" satisfied with how well their children are doing and with the job they are doing as mothers. Ninety percent said their children are happy.

— Three-quarters said they "like" or "love" their jobs — from the woman who de-snouts hogs in Missouri to the physics professor in Florida.

— Seven out of 10 women said they work to feel good about themselves, regardless of the job they do or the money they earn. But eight out of 10 said "providing for the family" is a top reason for taking a job.

— Nearly nine out of 10 were concerned with getting paid what they were worth, with only 4 percent saying they were not "especially concerned about pay."

Feminist author Betty Friedan hailed the poll results. "Of course women still have problems balancing work and family, but that's nothing compared to the depression, the lack of identity and control over their lives, the supressed rage, they used to feel."

Others, however, said the study was overly optimistic.

"It just doesn't jibe with what I see," said Ellen Bravo, executive director of 9 to 5, National Association of Working Women. "Corporate culture still discourages having an active life outside of work and lots of people lack the assistance they need. People are feeling the squeeze from time and money."

Shuttle continues space work

Astronauts still have time to earth-gaze

By Associated Press

SPACE CENTER, Houston — The super-sophisticated radar aboard space shuttle Endeavour scanned the Austrian Alps today to help scientists determine how much water the region can expect from melting snow and ice.

The 3-D radar images gathered during the 10-day flight could also help scientists predict water cycles around the ice fields of southern Chile and the mountains of Mammoth Lakes, Calif.

The $366 million radar instruments, the most advanced NASA has ever put in space, can detect both the volume of snow and how damp it is.

As the shuttle passed 138 miles over Austria, about 100 researchers and students, many on skis, fanned out across the area with portable observation equipment and radar reflectors to assist the study.

Scientists say radar is the best means for collecting information on snow cover.

Eventually, they say, continuous radar monitoring could help farmers decide which crops to plant and when and where to plant them.

The radar is aimed by remote control from the ground.

Endeavour's six astronauts, meanwhile, are photographing the study sites and keeping the radar-data recorders supplied with fresh tapes.

Astronaut Michael "Rich" Clifford said the workload allows more time for Earth-gazing than did his first shuttle flight, a Pentagon mission in 1992.

"The beauty of this mission is that I get to look out the window at the beauty of our Earth below," he said on a Mutual Broadcasting System call-in show early today.

King suit goes to the jury

By LINDA DEUTSCH
AP Special Correspondent

LOS ANGELES — A jury began deliberating how much money to award Rodney King after his lawyer portrayed King's beating as a racist attack and ranked him alongside Malcolm X and Martin Luther King Jr. as a civil rights symbol.

The lawyer, Milton Grimes, asked for $15 million. But Deputy City Attorney Don Vincent said $800,000 — four times King's medical costs — would be fair.

"This is a race case," Grimes said Wednesday in closing arguments in King's lawsuit against the city.

The lawyer noted that an audio expert had isolated what sounded like a racial slur on the soundtrack of the beating videotape.

"Close your eyes and listen to the tape," Grimes said. "You can't close your eyes and pretend 'nigger' wasn't said on March 3, 1991, because you don't want to hear it."

Grimes also told the jury: "Medgar Evers, Martin Luther King, Malcolm X — these people were all in the civil rights movement voluntarily. Mr. King is a symbol involuntarily, but no less a symbol."

But Vincent told jurors that race had nothing to do with the case, and he questioned whether a racial slur was really uttered. He suggested that if jurors did hear one, they should consider the feelings of the officers battling a large and powerful suspect.

"Think about the emotion of those officers," Vincent said. "Think of Rodney King saying he wanted to run ... and think about one word. What is one word?"

The jury consists of six whites, two Hispanics, one Indian and one black.

Four officers were charged with beating King but were acquitted in state court, touching off riots in 1992. In 1993, two of them were convicted in federal court of violating King's civil rights and are serving 2½-year prison sentences.

"He was a black man who was beaten because they could get away with it," said another of King's lawyers, John Burris.

The city admitted liability for King's beating. The jury will decide how much he is owed in compensatory damages, which cover actual losses.

King's medical witnesses testified that he suffers from headaches, blurred vision, a faulty memory and lack of concentration symptomatic of brain damage.

The city's witnesses said that he has recovered from his head fractures and that any other problems are the result of his alcoholism.

Witnesses for the city said King couldn't have earned more than $500,000 in his lifetime. But King's witnesses said the former construction worker could have made more than $1 million if he had been uninjured and able to work to age 65.

In a second phase of the trial, the jury will decide whether the officers and other individuals should be made to pay punitive damages, which are meant to punish wrongdoing and deter similar conduct.

QE2 still going

NEW YORK — The Queen Elizabeth 2, the only luxury liner making regular trans-Atlantic crossings, survives the aviation age on some travelers' nostalgia for the days of steamer trunks, and others' fear of flying.

The luxury liner sailed into New York harbor Wednesday on its first crossing of the season, arriving in rainy weather that obscured passengers' views of the Statue of Liberty but didn't dampen their exhilaration over crossing 4,000 miles of ocean.

"You can't explain it. It's luxurious," said Karin Kloka of Frankfurt, Germany, after walking down the gangplank at Pier 88, where families and limousine drivers waited.

At $2,095 to $10,745 a person for one-way passage, crossing the Atlantic in an oceanliner is far more expensive than flying. But passengers say they find the pace more relaxing — and there's no baggage limit, and there's room for cars.

Arriving after her first trans-Atlantic ocean crossing, Elma Denmark of New Orleans saw no reason to choose between two eras of travel.

She and her granddaughter flew from New York to London on the Concorde in a speedy three hours and 15 minutes. Their return was a more leisurely five days aboard the Queen Elizabeth 2 from Southhampton, England.

"It was just something I always wanted to do. I wanted to travel on a ship and I wanted it to be on a large ship," Denmark said.

The ship is the biggest, best known and, with a speed of 32 knots, the fastest of the British-owned Cunard lines. It has traveled 3.75 million miles since it was launched in 1967, and is slated for a $45 million overhaul this fall.

The QE2 will cross the Atlantic 26 times this year between April and December before leaving in January on a 100-day, round-the-world cruise. Between times, it runs as a cruise ship in the Mediterranean and the Caribbean.

The advent of trans-Atlantic non-stop flights in the 1960s marked the end of an era of ship travel that brought legions of European immigrants to the United States and provided first-class passage to wealthier travelers.

Still, crossing the Atlantic by oceanliner conjures up romantic images.

The ship, three football fields long, contains four restaurants, a spa and fitness center, eight bars, four swimming pools and a casino. It can carry up to 1,850 passengers in 900 cabins.

"We can take people across the Atlantic in a style that is very difficult to find anywhere," said the QE2's Capt. John Burton-Hall. "The word is 'pamper.'"

NATIONAL BRIEFS

U.S. assails Curbs on foreign media

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Serbian government's decision to revoke the press credentials of CNN and Agence France-Presse and to deny a visa to a Washington Post reporter "stink," says a State Department spokesman.

"Our view of this, in short, is that this stinks," spokesman Mike McCurry said Wednesday. "We deplore the Belgrade regime's disregard for the most basic internationally agreed principles protecting free speech and freedom of the press.

"It's bad enough that Belgrade chooses through its state-run media monopoly to distort and misrepresent the ongoing events in the former Yugoslavia to its own people," McCurry added. "It is even worse to obstruct private news agencies as they go about their business in Serbia seeking the truth."

In Belgrade, Information Minister Slobodan Ignjatovic said his government had decided the time had come to crack down on foreign correspondents who conduct a "ruthless media war against Yugoslavia from its territory," an official statement said Tuesday.

Ganic urges U.S. to bomb supply routes

WASHINGTON — Bosnian Vice President Ejup Ganic wants the Clinton administration to bomb roads and bridges that are supply routes for weapons to Serb forces from Belgrade.

Opening three days of talks here Wednesday, Ganic praised the Clinton administration for bombing raids on Serb positions near Gorazde and said the use of force reflected the unique morality of the American people.

"I am very, very pleased with recent moves by the Americans," Ganic said in an interview. "They demonstrated that morality and legality will go in parallel with national interests."

A U.N. arms embargo is supposed to deny weapons to all sides in the war in Bosnia-Herzegovina. But Ganic said Serbia was providing weapons to Bosnian Serbs and called for NATO bombing raids to slow the flow.

"They should bomb the roads and bridges and put the Serb troops in Bosnia under a kind of embargo," Ganic said.

Pilot gets Russian jet escort

WASHINGTON — A small private U.S. plane found itself in the high-powered company of a Soviet MIG jet in Russian airspace after the pilot failed to identify himself, officials said Wednesday.

The pilot, flying a Cessna Citation from Wichita, Kansas to Japan, had previously obtained permission from Russian officials for a flight plan crossing Russia and Alaska, said Martin Judge, a State Department spokesman.

But due to a communications failure, the plane was not properly identified when it entered Russian airspace, Judge said. Once the MIG investigated, the pilot identified himself, and the plane landed in Russia to refuel before continuing on to Japan.

The pilot was not identified.

U.S. still puzzled over dictator

By ROBERT BURNS
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON — An American visitor to North Korea two years ago mentioned to the aging leader Kim Il Sung that he must be finding more time for hunting and other hobbies now that his son had assumed many of his official duties.

With no hesitation, Kim looked up from his soup bowl and said, "Let me assure you, I am very much involved in my government." Then he went back to his soup.

Just how involved — and for how much longer — is a mystery to the Clinton administration, which wants to push North Korea into abandoning its nuclear program but realizes that too much pressure could trigger a second Korean War.

The uncertainty about Kim Il Sung, who turns 82 on Friday, and his 52-year-old son and heir apparent, Kim Jong Il, reflects a central truth about the nuclear standoff: No outsider actually knows Kim's true intentions.

Does the North Korean dictator really mean to build a nuclear force? Or does he just want to keep the United States and others on edge thinking he might?

If he did have even a single nuclear weapon, would he try to use it?

Does Kim's long-running military buildup, with hundreds of thousands of heavily armed troops near the Demilitarized Zone, mean he intends to invade South Korea and try to reunite the Korean peninsula? Or is there a more benign explanation?

Defense Secretary William Perry, who travels to Korea next week, says Kim is a puzzle. U.S. intelligence has figured out the size and capabilities of the North Korean military, Perry said recently, but "what's in Kim Il Sung's mind, we have no idea."

The U.S. government has had plenty of time to figure out the elder Kim. He has ruled communist North Korea since it split from the south in 1948. Kim ordered the invasion of the south that started the 1950-53 Korean War, in which more than 50,000 Americans and hundreds of thousands of South Koreans died.

No country, aside from the former Soviet Union, has gotten closer attention from U.S. intelligence agencies and analysts over the past four decades than North Korea. And yet Kim remains as much an enigma today as he was at the start.

Recent U.S. visitors to North Korea, including Rep. Gary Ackerman, D-N.Y., who met with Kim last October, say he appears healthy, engaging and vigorous.

William Taylor Jr., the man who recalled the soup bowl incident from a June 1992 meeting with Kim, says there is no doubt that the younger Kim has taken over many of his father's responsibilities for day-to-day running of the government. The younger Kim, for example, has the title of supreme commander of the armed forces.

The elder Kim remains president, but it is unclear how much he influences foreign policy.

Bill would require mail-order sellers to collect taxes

By DAVE SKIDMORE
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON — Fairness is in the eye of the beholder when it comes to whether Congress should force mail-order companies to collect state and local sales taxes.

People who own stores — billing themselves as Main Street retailers — complain their customers are deserting them to avoid taxes by ordering from the catalogs of out-of-state merchants.

The mail-order firms say it's one thing to require a store to collect sales tax at the cash register and quite another — and unfair — proposition to require catalog merchandisers to keep track of the taxes levied by 45 states, the District of Columbia and more than 6,000 counties, cities and school and sewer districts.

Local and state government officials are siding with the Main Street retailers. They said mail-order customers are supposed to individually remit sales taxes if the seller doesn't collect but most don't bother.

"The taxes already are on the books. Your bill only requires that existing taxes be paid on all sales," Dallas County, Texas, Commissioner Jim Jackson told the Senate Small Business Committee on Wednesday.

The chairman of the panel, Sen. Dale Bumpers, D-Ark., is sponsoring the bill requiring mail-order companies to collect sales taxes.

But the Direct Marketing Association Inc., in a statement distributed at the hearing, said jobs would be destroyed and some of its members put out of business if they were forced to collect sales taxes.

More important than the damage to mail-order firms would be the harm to their nearly 100 million customers — more than half the adult population of the United States — said the association.

Welfare reform

Administration yet to decide when a new mother should work

By JENNIFER DIXON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON — As it drafts its plan to rebuild the welfare system, the Clinton administration must decide when a mother on welfare should be required to leave her newborn baby in day care and get a job.

The issue raises questions of fairness from working women, who already must leave their children in day care to support their families.

But it also raises questions about the wisdom of separating very young children from their mothers, especially if it means spending long hours in substandard day care and coming home to a parent too tired to provide the stimulation and nurturing a child needs for healthy development.

Health and Human Services Secretary Donna Shalala, speaking Wednesday to an Urban Institute conference on welfare reform, said the administration is still wrestling with the issue.

"As a feminist, I have found the decision to be profoundly difficult for me, but I have come down on the side of women getting into the work force in a reasonable period of time, women that have young children, because that is essentially what's happening in the economy," she said.

But a report issued Tuesday by the Carnegie Corp., a New York philanthropy, said many of the nation's 12 million infants and toddlers receive poor quality child care, which can put their development at risk.

Shalala called it a "very complicated decision" but said the government should not give women on welfare a break it cannot also give the working poor.

President Clinton has promised to "end welfare as we know it" and to cut off welfare after two years. Under his plan, to be unveiled this spring, parents will be given the education, training and child care they need to become self-sufficient. Those who are still unemployed after 24 months would be required to take a subsidized job.

It's not easy being the new kids on the block. But it helps to make friends when you're a four-door 4x4 mpg leader.* Or one of the best mileage four-door sedans sold. We're both these things. And more. Like some of the friendliest sales and service people you'll ever meet. So come say hello. Our new kids on the block will have you singing Suzuki in no time.

WE SELL FUN!

Six Pack pulls away

SANFORD — The Six Pack increased its lead in the Sanford Recreation Co-Ed Power Volleyball League, thanks largely to a pair of forfeits by Tim's Team Wednesday night at the Sanford Middle School Gymnatorium.

Tim's Team forfeited matches to the Six Pack and Wanna-Bee's before finally being able to score a 15-12, 15-13 win over the Young Guns.

The Six Pack, which also defeated the Hawks 15-11, 15-8, improved to 13-1 and now lead Tim's Team (10-4) by 3½ games.

By beating the Wanna-Bee's (15-10, 15-8) and outlasting the Hawks (15-6, 10-15, 16-13), the Young Guns evened their record at 7-7. The Wanna-Bee's and Hawks are tied at 3-12.

Toucan Willie's advances

OVIEDO — Toucan Willie's won twice to advance in the Oviedo Men's Class C Softball tournament at the Oviedo Sports Complex.

By beating the Lynch Mob 15-10 and blanking the Strike Force 12-0, Toucan Willie's earns the right to face Players next Wednesday at 7 p.m. for the league tournament title.

Bill Lang had a home run, triple, and four RBI to lead Toucan Willie's by the Lynch Mob. Kenny Tuttle had a home run, single, three runs, and two RBI. Doug Pegel ripped a three-run homer.

Kelly Klukis tossed a seven-hit shutout against the Strike Force. Lang again led the attack by going 3-for-3 with a home run, three runs scored, and three RBI.

AROUND THE STATE

Kosar signs with Dolphins

DAVIE — Bernie Kosar will be back in a Miami uniform this fall.

A decade after leading the Miami Hurricanes to their first national championship, Kosar signed a two-year contract Wednesday with the Miami Dolphins.

Swindell lands Marlins

MIAMI — Greg Swindell allowed five hits in eight shutout innings and remained unbeaten in four decisions against Florida, leading the Houston Astros by the Marlins 4-2 Wednesday.

Swindell (2-0), who has allowed five runs in 36 2-3 innings against the Marlins, struck out seven and walked none.

Bulls shut down Heat

MIAMI — Scottie Pippen scored 27 points Wednesday night to help Chicago beat Miami 96-90, the Bulls' ninth consecutive victory.

The Heat lost their third in a row and their 10th in 12 games. Miami's magic number remained three for clinching its second playoff berth in franchise history.

Lightning lose; so do Panthers

ST. PETERSBURG — Steve Thomas scored twice and Ron Hextall made 30 saves for his fifth shutout of the season as the New York Islanders clinched the final NHL playoff spot with a 2-0 victory over the Tampa Bay Lightning on Wednesday night.

The victory gave the New York (36-35-12) 84 points, eliminating the expansion Florida Panthers from playoff contention on the next-to-last-day of the regular season.

Lake Mary third baseman Karen Pinckney, who was hit on the knee with a pitch in the first inning, broke up a no-hit bid by Spruce Creek pitcher Jodi Hackett with an RBI triple to left-center field in the bottom of the fourth.

On a roll?

Rams hope to add to win streak

By TONY DeSORMIER
Herald Sports Editor

LAKE MARY — It hasn't been the easiest of seasons for the Lake Mary High School girls' softball team.

Plagued by inconsistency in one aspect of their game or another, the Rams fell to 6-11 after a loss to Lyman last week eliminated them from the Seminole Athletic Conference race.

But since that loss, Lake Mary has put together a modest two-game winning streak, knocking off the Spruce Creek Hawks 7-4 Wednesday night at the Lake Mary Sports Complex less than 24 hours after besting the Mainland Buccaneers.

The Rams (8-11) will go for three in a row when they play at Seminole this afternoon at 3:30 p.m. Should they win their remaining three games, the Rams would take a .500 record into the district tournament.

"The kids came out relaxed tonight and did what they had to do," said Lake Mary coach Jeannie Fisher. "They were ready to play the game. We had some key base hits and we made some smart defensive plays. That makes the difference."

Actually, the Rams only had two hits and those came after they had built a 5-1 lead. In the second inning, Lake Mary exploited five walks, a pair of stolen bases, five wild pitches, and an RBI ground out by Jovia Capo to score four runs.

Diane Duber made it 5-1 when she drew a one-out walk in the bottom of the third, stole second, moved to third on a ground ball, and scored on Jodi Hackett's seventh wild pitch.

Karen Pinckney, who was hit in the knee by a Hackett pitch in the first inning, spoiled Hackett's no-hit bid (such as it was) with an RBI triple in the fourth inning to score Carrie Wood. Capo then singled home Pinckney.

Duber drew three walks, stole two bases, and scored two runs. Pinckney had a triple, run, and an RBI. Capo contributed a single and two RBI. Lindy Longstaff, Cori Hilinski, Angel Daniels, and Wood each scored a run.

Hackett doubled in Spruce Creek's first run. Michelle Gingras, Crysty Golding, and Chrissy McGuirk each hit a single. Sarah Blenick, Billie Pinter, Allison Baylor, and Leah Nelson each scored one run.

Daniels hurls, hits 'Noles by Barracudas

From Staff Reports

SANFORD — Seminole High School baseball coach Mike Powers describes right-handed starter Deon Daniels as one of the unluckiest pitchers he's ever had, saying "We never seem to score him any runs."

On Wednesday afternoon, Daniels made his own luck in a 6-2 win over New Smyrna Beach.

Now only did Daniels (5-5) limit the Barracudas to two runs (one earned) on five hits while striking out eight and walking three, he led the Tribe's 11-hit attack with a double, three RBI, and a run scored.

Mike Meadows added a triple, single, and one run scored. Todd Braden contributed a double, single, and two runs. Brian Willcox chipped in with a pair of singles.

Tom Holland was 1-for-3 with an RBI. Alex Acosta went 1-for-3 with a run scored. Jamie King and Corey Gochee also were 1-for-3. Joe Tittle scored a run.

While the final score might suggest that the Seminoles had matters well in hand, they had to come from behind to beat the Barracudas.

Trailing 1-0, New Smyrna Beach struck for a pair of runs in the top of the third inning to take a 2-1 lead. The advantage was short-lived, however, as the Tribe came back with three runs in the home half of the third.

Now 12-8, Seminole will attempt to build on its two-game winning streak when the Tribe visits Lake Mary on Friday night.

Quiet on the courts

An afternoon rainstorm halted play in the Seminole Athletic Conference tennis tournament at Sanlando Park Wednesday. According to Lyman coach and tournament director Jack Bloomingdale, the event will resume today at 3:30 p.m. (weather permitting) and will be played through to its completion.

Cline baffles Cardinals; A's hang on

From Staff Reports

SANFORD — Nathaniel Cline struck out 11 while throwing a one-hit shutout Wednesday night to lead the Rotary Club Royals to a 4-0 win over the Knights of Columbus Cardinals in a Sanford Recreation Babe Ruth Baseball League game at Sanford Memorial Stadium.

At Zinn Beck Field Wednesday, A Lakeside Gallery A's scored seven runs in the bottom of third and hung on to knock off the Blue Jays 11-6.

Currently, the Nobles Construction White Sox (4-0) lead the American Division, followed closely by the Royals and Kiwanis Orioles (both 4-1). They're followed by the A's (2-3) and Blue Jays (1-4).

In the National Division, the Moose Lodge Pirates (4-1) lead the Elks Lodge No. 1241 Cubs (2-2), Cardinals (2-3), Seminole Produce Marlins (1-4), and Expos (0-4).

Two 5:45 p.m. games are scheduled for Friday, when the Orioles tangle with the White Sox in the stadium while the Cubs take on the Expos at Zinn Beck Field.

Tommy Raines led the Royals with a triple, double, and two RBI. Randy Casey and Melvin Holt singled and scored a run. Theo Williams had a single and an RBI. Chad Sheffield and Antoine Cassanova each scored.

Roger Sizemore hit a single for the Cardinals.

Ned Raines was 3-for-3 with three doubles, two runs, and two RBI to pace the A's. Terrell Bender added a double, two runs, and two RBI. Terrance McQueen and Jason Thorton both singled and scored a run. Shawn Green had a run and an RBI. Rod Hudson scored twice. Brett Witte and Ryan Wagner each scored a run.

For the Blue Jays, Larnell Fayson collected two singles, a run, and two RBI. Mark Kerst doubled and scored a run. Joe Perry had a single and an RBI. Trellis Smith added a run and an RBI. Lawrence Rudolph, Britt Beekhorn, and Steve Pipitone each scored a run.

Balough posts 14th victory in last 15 feature starts

By PAUL MARSEGLIA
Special to the Herald

Balough, who now has 14 feature wins in his last 15 starts, stripped a gear on the final lap of the heat race. When his crew pulled the quick change cover to replace the gear, they noticed a two-inch crack in the cover.

"There wasn't another cover available in the pits, so we drilled and pinned the old one and filled it with epoxy," said Balough, who pilots the Pee Wee Griffin/Hamke/Crane Cams Camaro. "Whether the patch job would hold was a 50-50 deal.

"I was trying to nurse the car, but John Kennedy was really racing me hard, so I couldn't let off. This win goes to the guys behind the scenes."

Kennedy finished second ahead of Bruce Everett, Duke Southard, and Joe Nagle.

A recent graduate of the Southard School of Racing, Nagle competed in his first Late Model event Friday night at Orlando Speedworld and drove to a sixth-place finish.

As the rest of the field was dicing for position, Wayne Heckle raced unchallenged to the checkered flag in the Modified main event.

Back in the pack, Dave Savicki and Wayne Passet were battling for second place while Danny Bancroft and Tom Hall were hooked up in a scramble for fourth place. With two laps to the checkered flag, Joe Middleton and Jerry Jones got around Bancroft and Hall to move into the top five.

Heckle crossed the stripe 10 car lengths ahead

Meridith wins twice at Orlando Speedworld

By PAUL MARSEGLIA
Special to the Herald

ORLANDO — Ed Meridith nipped Wayne Heckle at the checkers to win the Modified feature event in racing action last Friday, April 8, at Orlando Speedworld.

Two races later, Meridith beat Dave Debilius across the line by two car lengths to notch his first Late Model win of the season.

"Anytime you win a race, you've had a good night," said Meridith. "When you win two in one night, that's outstanding. I've never had two wins in one night, so this is definitely a first.

"Both cars were just great. The guys at Sunshine Auto in Edgewater are supplying me with motors and that's helping my Late Model program a lot. I've had a lot of motor failures in the past, but since I've teamed up with Sunshine, things are really coming around."

In the Modified feature, Meridith held off a furious late-race charge by Heckle. From the go, Meridith and Heckle raced side by side for the top spot with Meridith maintaining a slight advantage. The contest came to a sudden end on lap 11, when Heckle got sideways and spun to the infield.

Heckle resumed the race at the end of the lead pack. He worked his way back through the pack and, with two laps to the checkers, he was back riding Meridith's rear bumper and challenging for the No. 1 spot.

Meridith was able to hang on to the lead and raced to his sixth win of the season.

Finishing behind Heckle were Greg Hughes, John Wills, and Bruce Thompson.

In Late Model action, Meridith led every circuit in securing his victory. Chasing Meridith and Debilius to the flag stand were Bob Ackerbloom, Tuffy Hester, and Tank Tucker.

Bobby Sears held off a pack of challengers to win the Mini-Stock headliner. Sears, who also led every lap, led Jared Allison, Kenny Campbell, Keith French, and W.G. Hixson to victory lane.

At the drop of the green of the Sportsman feature, Rick Johns charged from his fifth place starting position to third place. Three laps later, he was banging on race leader Jeff Rule's bumper for the lead.

With five laps to the checkered flag, Johns got around Rule for the lead. Once on the point, Johns raced uncontested to his eighth win of the season.

of Passet. Savicki was third ahead of Middleton and Jones.

After six laps of door-to-door racing, Michael Williams pulled ahead of Darrell Frye to grab the lead in the Limited Late Model feature event. With each succeeding lap, Williams, the current FASCAR Limited Late Model points leader, increased his advantage.

Going to the finish line, it was Williams leading Frye by several car lengths. Trailing the lead pair were the Todd Squad, Mike and Timmy (in that order), and Andy Saffiotti.

Art Chapman led every circuit to notch his seventh Sportsman win of the season. Walt Loggins, who had mechanical problems in the heat race, held off a pack of challengers to finish in the runner-up spot.

"We broke a brake caliper and did a little bit of front end damage," said Loggins. "We weren't sure if we did something to the handling, so all of our repairs were like shooting in the dark.

"The guys did a good job getting me back in the race — I ran better in the feature than I did in the heat."

Trailing Chapman and Loggins were Barbara Pierce, Rick Johns, and John Witt.

Gene Van Alstine used his advantage of starting on the pole to go green flag to checkers to win his first Mini-Stock feature of the season. Completing the top five were, in order o finish, Bobby Sears, Conrad Grenier, Keith French, and Jared Allison.

Bobby Stevens crossed the finish line a half a car length in front of Glenn Castro to score a victory in the Bomber headliner. Coming in behind Castro were Jeremy Fitch, Chuck Vola, and Billy Bellflower.

James Crawford was the winner of the Go-Kart feature. Chip Van Vurst won the fan participation race, and Tim Nicholas finished first in the Run-About race. Ken Fenske survived the Demolition Derby.

'Optimism! The Right Stuff'

16 compete in Optimist Oratorical Contest

By RENE KEITH
Herald Correspondent

SANFORD — On Thursday, April 7, the Optimist Club of Sanford sponsored its 23rd Optimist Oratorical Contest. Sixteen students representing four local schools, Lakeview, All Souls, Sanford Middle and Seminole High School, participated in this event held at the Sanford Chamber of Commerce.

Proud parents and friends sat and listened to the required five minute speech each student had to give on "Optimism! The Right Stuff." The contestants were impressive to say the very least. In fact, as Rich Howe, contest chairman put it "their preparation was unbelieveable."

Each of the 16 contestants received a framed certificate acknowledging their participation in this year's contest. Each student may continue and is urged to continue to re-apply each year. This give the contestants a wonderful opportunity to apply the training of this program to their formative years. The competition often prepares the students to compete in other competitions throghout high school and college.

Students are judged on:

Poise, appearance; personality, attitude, which counts for 20 points.

Content of speech: subject adherence, theme, value, logic, color, 35 points.

Delivery and presentation: voice, volume, pronunciation, gesture, eye contact, sincerity and emphasis, 35 points.

Overall effectiveness; appeal, impression, effect, 10 points.

This year's contestants for the young ladies were: Megan Racine, 13, Sanford Middle; Jessica Torbitt, 13, All Souls; Stacy Mohan, 14, Sanford Middle; Michelle Bertrand, 11, All Souls; Kimberly Eisele, 12, All Souls; Jaimee Nichols, 15, Seminole High School; Ver June 16, Seminole High; and Heather Bell, 13, Lakeview Middle.

The contestants for the young men were: Shelton Henderson, 14, Sanford Middle; Aaron Littles, 11, Lakeview Middle; Ryan McGinty, 11, All Souls; John Call, 13, All Souls; Stephen Sperry, 15, Seminole High School; Kevin Stallworth 14, Sanford Middle; Gabe McDonnough, 15, Seminole High School; and Nick Sollien, 11, All Souls.

The three top winners for the young ladies were Jaimee Nichols, first place; Vera June, first runner-up; and Megan Racine, second place.

ADVICE

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My husband died last year at the age of 70. He and I were exactly the same age. In a matter of months, his best friend offered to do numerous jobs, like snow-plowing, moving rubbish, etc.

When I asked him how much I owed him, he replied, "Oh, we can work something out." When I gave him a friendly hug, I soon realized that what he had in mind was not money. (He wanted more — much more.) To say I was horrified is putting it mildly, so I got rid of him and hired a neighbor. He was about the same age, nice appearing — a comical old food — who started to make the same advances.

I am so disgusted now, I am afriad even to act pleasant to men. I would warn widows of all ages to be careful. You don't have to be young to have men come on to you.

EDUCATED SENIOR CITIZEN

DEAR EDUCATED: A friendly hug can be easily misintepreted by both men and women of any age. My advice: Unless you know the person very well, let a handshake express your appreciation.

DEAR ABBY: I am employed full time and work a minimum of 55 hours per week. My problem is that I am allocated only one hour a day for lunch — between 12 noon and 1 p.m. — during which time I must compete for highway and restaurant space with people who are obviously not working, retird or on vacation. Coupled with this are waiting lines at banks, gasoline stations, post offices, dry cleaners, grocery stores and pharmacies.

Why are these people, who seem to have ample time, conflicting with my minimal time? I am not fourtunate enough to have a spouse or parent to prepare my meals, run my errands, do my laundry or keep my car fueled; I must do these things during my lunch hour!

This is a simple plea for consideration: If you have all day — get out of my way!

DISGRUNTLED AND DELAYED IN DALLAS

DEAR DISGRUNTLED: The hordes of people who seem to be "conflicting with your minimal time" are not necessarily retired or on vacation; they could be people — just like you — doing what most working people do on their lunch hour.

DEAR ABBY: With all the talk of the proposed health care, I thought your readers might enjoy seeing this photocopy of the bill my mother received from my birth at St. Mary's Hospital in Milwaukee in 1948:

Room and Board:
5 days	$33.75
Care of infant ($2 per day)	10.00
Delivery room	10.00
Anesthetic	5.00
Dressings	3.75
I.D. necklace	.50
Pharmacy	1.25
TOTAL	$64.25

MRS. JACKIE SELDEN RILEY, AUBURN, CALIF.

DEAR MRS. RILEY: Your letter made me nostalgic. How well I remember the "good ol' days" — coffee was 10 cents a cup, rent was $20 a month, and you could see a double feature movie for 25 cents (kids got in for a dime). Oh, those were the days, my friends!

DEAR ABBY: Between January and July of 1943, I was a British cadet in pilot training near Terrell, Texas.

One evening as I was returning from town, a man in a fixed-head coupe offered me a ride back to the airfield. He claimed to be Robert Ripley of "Believe It or Not" fame. He also said he had a wooden leg, and it certainly sounded like it when he rapped his leg with his knuckles. He even got out of the car and walked on it to show me how well he coped.

I really wasn't convinced that he was telling me the truth, and for 50 years I have wondered if that man could have been the famous Robert Ripley.

VICTOR W. DEBONI, TORONTO, CANADA

DEAR VICTOR: Believe it or not, I think the fellow was pulling your leg. According to Edward Mayer, vice president of archives and exhibits at the headquarters of Ripley's Believe It or Not in Orlando, Fla., Robert Ripley did not have a wooden leg.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 26-year-old woman from Denver who received a corneal transplant last month. My future is brighter, and my life is happier beyond belief with my new vision.

How can I say "thank you" to someone who changed my life so tremendously? The dream that I never thought I was lucky enough to have has come true!

I was told that the donor was a very young child. I am deeply touched that the family of that dying child — in the midst of their grief and pain — thought of how their loss could benefit a stranger.

I owe my future to those generous people. Since I have no way of thanking them, I can only hope that they will read Dear Abby so I can say, "Thank you, and God bless you."

How to get relief from gout symptoms

MEDICINE

PETER GOTT, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I suffer from gout. I take (allopurinol), magnesium and vitamin B6, yet have numerous questions about control. Does excess niacin and vitamin A aggravate the condition? Is brewer's yeast good to take, or might activated charcoal be better?

DEAR READER: Gout is a form of arthritis caused by an excess of uric acid crystals in joint fluid. By reducing the production of uric acid (a product of protein metabolism), allopurinol is an excellent treatment for gout.

Niacin, vitamin A, brewer's yeast and activated charcoal do not ordinarily affect uric acid. In fact, excess vitamin A (more than 50,000 IU) is downright dangerous because it causes lethargy, stomach pains, joint irritation, and insomnia.

You will need to have your dose of allopurinol adjusted, based on periodic blood tests of your uric acid level. Your doctor can supervise this and answer your questions about control.

To give you more information, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "About Gout." Other readers who would like a copy should send $2 plus a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to P.O. Box 2433, New York, NY 10163. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR DR. GOTT: What causes shin splints? Is there something that can be done to prevent the pain from occurring? All I've done thus far is to apply ice, but there must be better control for pain.

DEAR READER: During repetitive, strenuous activity, such as running, a muscle at the front of the calf may pull away from the leg bone. Called "shin splints," this overuse syndrome causes pain.

In order to cure your shin splints, you'll have to take time off to permit the muscle to heal. In addition, ice, ultrasound and physical therapy may help speed recovery. Ibuprofen (Advil or Nuprin) will relieve pain during the healing process.

Because stress fractures (tiny cracks in the bone that are common in runners) can cause similar pain, you should have an X-ray or bone scan to make sure that this isn't your problem. Your family doctor can order the necessary tests and coordinate your therapy.

WIN AT BRIDGE

By Phillip Alder

To win, or not to win: that is the question. Whether 'tis nobler in the mind to suffer the slings and arrows of an outrageous ruff, or to win too soon and flounder in a sea of troubles.

Well, Hamlet might have said that had he lived hundreds of years later. But often a deal comes down to the key decision: to win an early trick with an ace, or to withhold that ace for later in the play. What is your feeling about today's deal? How should South plan the play in six hearts after West has led the club king?

Please don't ask me why North bid three clubs rather than two (or three) hearts. Or why South overlooked his five-card diamond suit. Or how he knew to pass over six hearts. I'm just reporting the facts. But the final contract, with West unable to attack diamonds profitably, was reasonable.

South, though, matched the eccentric bidding with some sub-par play. He won the first trick with dummy's club ace and discarded a diamond from hand. He continued with a heart to his ace and another trump. West's discard was no doubt a blow. When East won with the heart queen, he led a club and West cashed two tricks in the suit: two down.

Declarer should anticipate this danger. The correct line is to play low from the dummy and to ruff in hand with the heart ace. Then South continues with a heart to dummy's king and plays the heart jack. With the club ace still in the dummy, declarer has everything under control. East's trumps can be drawn and the spade suit cashed in peace.

HOROSCOPE

By Bernice Bede Osol

YOUR BIRTHDAY
April 15, 1994

Through your own ingenuity and initative, you might discover new ways to enhance your financial base in the year ahead. Don't be afraid to test your possibilities in areas you haven't explored previously.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Today if you have to play a little catch-up you might find it easier than usual to handle two assignments simultaneously. A bit of pressure could help, instead of hinder. Get a jump on life by understanding the influences which are governing you in the year ahead. Send for your Astro-Graph predictions today by mailing $2 and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to Astro-Graph, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 4465, New York, N. Y. 10163. Be sure to state your zodiac sign.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) For a person who is frequently excessively generous to others, you might go to extremes today in the opposite direction and hold back something you should be sharing.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) You should function best today in situations where you can express your initiative and independence. Let others lean on you, don't be one who leans on them.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) There's a possibility you might be a trifle negative again today owing to the misuse of your imagination. Visualize yourself as a winner, not as an "also ran."

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) When you establish your agenda today, try to keep it loosely structured instead of air tight. Interesting things might develop and you may want to flow with events.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Even though persons with whom you'll be involved today might not have lofty objectives, don't let this cause you to lower yours. Go for the gold.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) This could turn out to be an extremely interesting day for you if you treat developments, both good and bad, philosophically. Eventually all should work out to your satisfaction.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) It's best you don't poke your nose into the confidential affairs of a close friend today unless you're prepared to become involved and assume some of the responsibilities.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) One of your best assets is your ability to make quick decisions. Today, however, this gift might not be operative and you could overanalyze things to the point of indecisiveness.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Subdue inclinations today to be overly critical of others, even if you feel your observations are justified. Remember, they'll be sizing you and your shortcomings up as well.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) This is one of those days where you might feel a strong need for instant gratification, especially when shopping and seeing things you want but can't afford. Be careful.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Instead of beginning new projects today, you could be better off finishing what you already started, especially if it is a household project you've been neglecting.
