

Farm Issue To Be Important In '60 Election

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Vice president Richard M. Nixon will likely support the administration's controversial farm program when it goes before Congress next year, sources close to the administration's number two man say.

But it will surprise few experienced politicians if 1960 presidential candidate Nixon—assuming he gets the GOP presidential nomination—moves afterward to make it clear he is not taking his farm policy advice from Agriculture Secretary Ezra T. Benson.

Benson has said he expects Nixon to give full support to the farm program he drafted for 1960 with President Eisenhower's complete approval. Benson told newsmen shortly before entering the hospital for an operation that he believed Nixon would take the same attitude if the vice-president became a presidential candidate.

A source close to Nixon agreed that he is the full support of the Eisenhower-Benson proposals for 1960 legislation aimed at reducing government controls over agriculture and lowering price support rates.

What attitude Nixon would take toward Benson's advice on farm policy during a presidential campaign remains a matter for speculation at the moment.

Observers believe Nixon feels, though he has never said so publicly, but that many farmers dislike Benson and that his attitude has cost the Republican party votes in states where the farm vote is still an important factor.

Nixon said in a public speech that agriculture "very possibly" will be a major domestic issue in 1960. If that estimate proves to be correct, Nixon may try to make sure that the GOP approach to farm policy is based on a "Republican" plan as distinguished from a "Made-by-Benson" program "at the proper time."

The distinction between a Nixon-Republican program and a Benson policy would presumably be aimed at holding GOP candidates in key farm states run on a program the whole party can endorse without tying them to the Benson symbol. Nixon's record on farm policy to date, however, does not support any assumption that he would turn far away from the basic policies of the Eisenhower administration.

The vice president led a recent press conference at Indianapolis that a return to the high, fixed price supports of previous Democratic administrations would mean rigid controls for farmers. He has said, without going into details, that present farm programs are "inadequate" and that a new approach must be based on freedom from "wishful thinking or demagoguery."

Democrats who think that close ties with Benson will hamper GOP candidates, have been anxious to link Nixon as closely to Benson as possible. Sen. James E. Murray (D-Mont.), in a recent letter to the Washington Post & Times Herald, insisted that "the facts are that the vice president has been the chief of the Benson fire department, rushing to the defense of Benson personally and of his farm policies whenever the political fires got warm."

Brush Fire Danger High In County

The fire danger is very high in Seminole County due to the dry weather and the dead vegetation and wild fires are on the increase, the Florida Forest Service said today.

Two wildfires were suppressed Thursday with a total loss of only 12 acres.

Last year Seminole County had four wild fires during the month of December. To date this month, eight fires have burned a total of 158 acres. County Ranger Bob Gray urges residents to use caution with all types of burning.

DeGaulle Still Differs With Ike As Talks End

MADRID, Spain (UPI)—President Eisenhower arrived in Spain today on the last leg of his peace mission that took him halfway around the world and made another plea for "peace and friendship in freedom."

The president told welcoming crowds, including Generalissimo Francisco Franco, that he came here "with a message from the American people to the Spanish people" about "a brighter future in cooperation for the noblest of all human causes: peace and friendship in freedom."

Eisenhower's plane landed at nearby Torrejon Air Force after a flight from Paris.

In Paris he attended a three-day meeting of the Big Four western heads of government and discussed serious Franco-American differences with President Charles DeGaulle.

The Western leaders invited Soviet Premier Nikit Khrushchev to an East-West summit meeting in Paris next April 27 in the continuing drive for world peace.

The president will wind up his journey, to three continents with a return to Morocco tomorrow night for the Christmas holidays. Eisenhower failed to extract from DeGaulle a promise that France would integrate its air force with NATO's but he did win a pledge that DeGaulle would study means of closer cooperation with the Atlantic Alliance.

Eisenhower plunged right into the Algerian question and DeGaulle's reluctance to integrate the French air fleet with NATO. Eisenhower gave a detailed explanation of why the United States abstained in the United Nations vote on Algeria. DeGaulle was said to have listened carefully, then repeated he still did not like the U. S. abstention.

U. S. Defense Secretary Thomas S. Gates Jr. returned from Paris today declaring that NATO is as strong as ever but that "national difficulties" over troop integration still must be worked out.

Gates said in an airport interview that chiefs of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization have highly endorsed such integration issues as the NATO air defense plan and that it is now a question for political leaders.

Gates referred to the opposition of DeGaulle to putting French troops and airmen under direct orders of officers of another country.

Mother 'Forgot' Travelling Child

FORT LAUDERDALE, (UPI)—Mrs. Maria Leen, 24, who sent her 8-year-old daughter alone and penniless on a 42-hour bus ride from Miami to New York, told police here today she "forgot" to warn anyone the child was coming.

Mrs. Leen, a nightclub dancer, sat in jail here facing a vagrancy charge as she told how she put the tot on a bus and told her she was going to live with her stepfather, Jung Leen.

Mrs. Leen had put five-year-old Evelyn on a bus at Miami Thursday. The child arrived in New York in near-freezing weather in a light dress and sweater and carrying all her belongings in two cardboard boxes. She was carrying a birthday card through which police were able to find her stepfather.

Mrs. Leen was arrested here Sunday, hitch-hiking through town. She said she quit her night club job because "I was getting to the point where I just don't like to work in those places." She said she went to a church and made a promise she would send Evelyn back to her stepfather.

She said the woman where she lived packed Evelyn's clothes in the little boxes and she put the child on the bus Thursday.

"I didn't have enough money as I would have gone with her," she said.

"I'm not neglecting that child," she insisted. "If I didn't love her, I wouldn't have sent her to her stepfather."

Mrs. Leen, dressed in black pants and a sweater, said she came to New York from Puerto Rico at the age of 12. She said she married Leen at 15. She said she left him and came to Florida about a year ago.

After putting the child on the bus she said she started to hitch-hike to New York herself in hopes of going back to Leen.

When Evelyn arrived in New York there was no one to meet her. The bus driver called police.

The child could tell officers only that she had come to live with her stepfather, "Bing," who lived in the Bronx.

Police found in her belongings a birthday card from "Bing." It had been sent to a Miami address. Police called the Miami address and learned the address of the child's father. They returned Evelyn to Leen.

Christmas Shopping 'Humming'

Pocket handkerchiefs, toys or refrigerators—Christmas season buying in Sanford this year probably will set an all-time record, some of the merchants indicated today.

Customers also seem to be buying more of the expensive items as well as more of everything else, one store owner said.

An appliance dealer said his store has broken all records for selling new refrigerators during a holiday season "and we still have this week to go yet."

Another merchant said the agreement to keep the stores open late on Friday nights has helped us "tremendously."

Most of the merchants in Sanford will remain open until 8 p. m. today through Wednesday nights.

Toy dealers were extremely happy over the number of toys sold in the past few weeks.

"For the first time in a number of years, people are doing their shopping early," one merchant said.

He said that the steel shortage has not hurt supply of toys to any great extent.

"We had plenty of swing sets and toy cars available this year, he added.

Furniture dealers also were pleased with the way the shoppers turned out in large numbers to pick up assorted gifts ranging from small coffee tables to "wall to wall carpeting."

Ladies' apparel stores probably did the greatest amount of business as men came in looking for all sorts of merchandise with a list of their wives' sizes on slips of paper, one store manager said.

Car dealers were surprised with the number of cars sold during recent weeks, with the wife and hubby coming in together and buying themselves a Christmas present.

Banks reported business was heavy and said residents dipped into their accounts for that "extra dollar" to surprise relatives.

The post office reported it is "jammed" with packages going out, but the biggest push started today.

As one merchant put it, the local residents "realized that they didn't have to leave town to get their Xmas shopping done, but the biggest push started today."

Rudolph!

BLOOMFIELD, N. M. (UPI)—About 1,000 youngsters watched in horror Sunday when a plane carrying Santa Claus crashed-landed on a highway.

The plane's wing struck a mailbox, throwing the craft off the highway and into a tree.

Santa, otherwise unidentified, got out of the demolished plane, straightened his hat, (and whiskers) and went on his appointed rounds to distribute candy.

"It wouldn't have happened if he'd used his reindeer and sled," one youngster said.

Moore Takes Over VAH-5 Command

Cdr. I. M. Rowell turned over command of VAH-5 to Cdr. Howard S. Moore in a full dress ceremony at the Naval Air Station this morning.

Cdr. Rowell will go to Glynn, Ga. for a one month tour of duty at the Combat Information Center and then will report to the aircraft carrier Independence, now in Forrester, Va.

Hatting One Commander, Capt. J. D. Ramage congratulated Rowell and VAH-5 at the ceremony this morning. Ramage praised the squadron for winning the bulk of the trophies in the recent bombing derby.

Rowell became squadron skipper last December after serving two years as VAH-5 executive officer. Cdr. Moore joined VAH-5 last April and has been the squadron's executive officer.

New VAH-5 executive officer is Cdr. Augustine W. Smith who joined the squadron in October.

Korean War Bride Finds Out There Is A Santa

FORT WORTH, Tex. (UPI)—The world looked a little brighter today for Mrs. Marie Mackey, 25, a Korean war bride, and her two daughters, Beverly and Judy, 1. Yesterday it looked hopeless.

Mrs. Mackey and the two girls were sitting at home quietly awaiting death from starvation. They hadn't eaten for two days.

"In Korea, people without food or money usually just wait to starve to death," said police patrolman R. I. Haddix, who found the family after a neighbor reported hearing the children cry all night.

"It looked like she (Mrs. Mackey) had resigned herself to the fact they were going to die. They were just awaiting death."

Haddix said there wasn't crumb of food in the house when he found them. Beverly was wearing only a pair of pants and Judy was wearing a diaper.

Although Mrs. Mackey spoke little English Haddix learned she hadn't seen her husband in four days.

Haddix had $3.82 in his pockets. He went to a nearby grocery store and spent it all on bread and milk. The store owner matched that amount and a customer clipped in. When he returned to the house, Haddix had $10 worth of food.

In just a few hours Mrs. Mackey and the children had more food and Christmas gifts than they ever dreamed of.

While they were at a hospital, Mrs. Mackey's husband Jack, 26, was arrested at a washateria.

He denied he had neglected his wife and daughters.

"I took them some carrots, night before last," he told police.

Flood Conditions On Board's Agenda

A report on ways to alleviate flooding in the Temple Terrace and Tanglewood areas of the county will be the main business on tomorrow's County Commission agenda.

Chairman John Krider said a representative from the firm of Brill and Gray, Sanford engineer, will report to the board on their findings after a one-month survey of the area.

County Engineer Bob Davis said that three different plans will be offered to stop the flooding. "All of them expensive," he said.

Oviedo, Geneva Toll Rates Studied

A study is now underway to estimate long distance telephone rates from Geneva and Oviedo to Sanford, Bob Sheddien, district manager for the Southern Bell Telephone Co. reported.

Sheddien said officials of the company are surveying the entire area on the economic feasibility of extending the calling radius between various communities, including Oviedo and Geneva.

At present, Geneva and Oviedo residents are charged long distance rates to call Sanford.

Sheddien said he had no idea when the study would be completed.

"It's a long and difficult job and many things must be taken into account," he said.

He pointed out that officials will study the actual amount of the toll business between the communities, how much equipment is needed and how much cable is required to take care of the increased calls.

Officials must also discuss it with a cross-representation of the communities involved to see if they desire such service.

Clark Van Winkle, 108 1/2 W. 12th St. suffered neck lacerations when the small car in which he was riding turned over at 11th St. and French Ave. yesterday. The driver, Mack Harrell Brown, was arrested for driving while intoxicated, Sanford police said.

9 Killed, 31 Injured In Truck, Bus Smashup

TUCSON, Ariz. (UPI)—A double-deck Greyhound bus carrying Christmas travelers collided Sunday with a trailer-truck loaded with cattle, killing nine persons including a 7-year-old child and injuring 35.

Force of the impact sent some of the cattle flying through the air and into the bus among the passengers. The front of the bus was split open and smashed back like a tin can.

All of the 41 passengers and driver of the scenic-cruiser bus going from Los Angeles to New Orleans were killed or injured. The dead included four women and two men passengers, the bus driver and the two men in the truck.

Of the injured passengers, 10 suffered critical or serious injuries. The rest were treated at hospitals and released.

"It was a gory mess," said Tommy Brooks, 41, a Tucson embalmer who was pressed into service as an ambulance driver. "Besides the bodies lying around there were cattle all over the place. One cow, still alive, was standing on top of the bus. It finally jumped to the ground."

Arizona highway patrolman Jimmy Williams, 26, a patrolman for five years, said:

"It was one of the most horrible things I've ever seen in my life. The bus was mangled completely up to the back deck—torn into shreds."

The dead and injured had to be removed from the bus through windows. Three servicemen passengers, suffering minor injuries, smashed out windows and helped patrolmen remove the more seriously injured.

Thirty cattle, mostly calves, were killed aboard the two-level trailer-truck. About 10 were destroyed humanely by officers and several of the frightened beasts ran off into the desert.

"This is the worst accident in Western Greyhound history," said O. D. Gould, general manager of Western Greyhound in San Francisco.

He said the bus was the second part of a scheduled trip from Los Angeles to New Orleans. The bus was added because of the heavy Christmas travel.

The pre-dawn crash occurred on a section of U. S. Highway 80 about 11 miles east of here.

Officers said James Stewart, Del Rio, Tex., driver of the cattle truck, apparently became confused when the four-lane highway narrowed to two lanes and swung his truck into the wrong lane. Speed of the two vehicles was undetermined.

Here's A Prayer For Slower Pace

There's no doubt that the peoples of the world are hurrying around at a pace that is too fast to imagine a few years ago.

Mrs. Velma Mitchell, principal of the Southside School, and who has been at that school 34 years, is one of the many here in Sanford who notice the rush. She is busy with a record 1,120 pupils in double sessions this term. Mrs. Mitchell has sent us a copy of a prayer which she thinks is most appropriate for these days "when we are running all over each other." The author is unknown, but the prayer was printed on the program of the Thanksgiving service at the First Baptist Church:

"Slow me down, Lord!
"Ease the pounding of my heart by the quieting of my mind.
"Steady my hurried pace with a vision of the eternal reach of time.
"Give me, amid the confusion of the day, the calmness of everlasting hills.
"Break the tensions of my nerves and muscles with the soothing music of the singing streams that live in my memory. Help me to know the magical, restoring power of sleep.
"Teach me the art of taking minute vacations—of slowing down to look at a flower, to chat with a friend, to pat a dog, to read a few lines from a good book.
"Remind me each day of the fable of the hare and the tortoise, that I may know that the race is not always to the swift—that there is more to life than increasing its speed. Let me look upward into the branches of the towering oak and know that it grew great and strong because it grew slowly and well.
"Slow me down, Lord, and inspire me to send my roots deep into the soil of life's enduring values that I may grow toward the stars of my greater destiny."
We say, Amen.

Baby Sitters Free In Sweden

STOCKHOLM (UPI)—A program of "practical work" for boys and girls in the eighth and ninth grades of grammar school provides a bonanza of free baby sitters for Swedish housewives.

It also provides eager young helpers for auto repair shops, carpenters, department stores, beauty parlors, offices and other places. But probably the most delighted beneficiaries of the system are mothers with young children and no paid help.

Under the "practical work" program, youngsters in the two top grades are required to work outside the classroom every other week. They have a choice of jobs. Most boys pick auto shops or carpenters and painters. The majority of girls want to become hair dressers and work in beauty shops. But enough are interested in home-making or child raising to provide a goodly crop of mothers' little helpers—without pay. One condition: housewives wanting such free help must have at least two children, preferably one under, or at least not much older than one year. The girls must spend their time exclusively with the children and must not become "junior maids."

This Girl Not Afraid Of Rats

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. (UPI)—The average female would swoon or scream at the sight of a rat. But not Priscilla Cole. She collects them.

The pretty researcher from Britain is studying at the Rutgers University Bureau of Biological Research. Her aim is to learn how the furry little rodents can live without water on the Arizona desert, where the temperature hits 120 degrees.

Miss Cole's studies should help determine how human beings may someday be able to increase their ability to live with it water. But first, there must be an understanding of how the desert rat accomplishes the trick.

The 23-year-old English woman began studying desert rats at the University of Liverpool in 1957. Her interest in this particular animal was prompted by earlier studies which showed they were able to live as long as three years without water.

At the start of her project, rats which had been trapped in Arizona were flown overseas to her.

Washington See Saw

BY WIN PENDLETON
The United States Senate is sending its Number one Latin-America expert—George Smathers—on a tour of 13 countries to find out what we should do to revitalize our rapidly slipping position of friendship and neighborliness. He will leave Washington on January 14th and will be gone for three weeks.

Smathers will make the trip as chairman of the Latin-American Trade Subcommittee of the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee. It will be his eighth tour of Latin-America since coming to the Senate.

Purpose of his trip is to evaluate our recently declining trade position in this area. He will study its weak points and try to determine the extent of competition from Europe and Japan. From his visit will come recommendations for ways and means of strengthening our business relations.

The names of the others who will travel with the Senator have not been announced, but the mission will include at least two other senators and possibly three or four members of the House. They will visit Cuba, Haiti, the Dominican Republic, Puerto Rico, Venezuela, Brazil, Uruguay, Argentina, Peru, Ecuador, Colombia, Panama and Chile.

When he announced his upcoming trip, Smathers had this to say about it: "We speak of the Latin-American countries as our traditional allies and good friends. But we often overlook the importance of Latin-America as the United States' best customer. Trading with Latin-America is a two-way street and we can't expect them to buy from us unless we treat them like good customers."

"In the future, Latin-America, with the fastest growing population in the world, will become even more important to United States' trade. Today, there are other countries who have their eyes on this rich market. Already, we are losing a large portion of our trade to our competitors from Europe and the Far East."

"By the end of this century, it is estimated that the population of Latin-America will be nearly half a billion. We must recognize what a huge market that will be for our American production. We should take steps now to help Latin-America develop the potential that will give her the means to trade with the United States.

"As our productivity increases we are going to need customers to keep pace with our rate of growth—and where could we find a friendlier or better market than in Latin-America? They need our help and guidance now. We must help them develop their resources and productivity. Not only because they are good customers, but because they are our friends. Nearly everyone overlooks the fact that foreign trade is responsible for millions of American jobs. Any weakening of our trade position in Latin-America will show up as a reduction in the pay envelope of American workers."

"We have been writing and talking along this line for a good number of years. We think the time is long overdue for a complete overhaul of our way of doing business with these folks."

It is our hope that from this trouble shooting trip, Senator Smathers will come up with a list of specific problem curing suggestions. We hope he will put down in clear and understandable words exactly what he thinks is wrong—and make definite proposals for their improvement. This report should be made to the American people. We think it could well be the first step—a big step—toward rebuilding our Western Hemisphere friendships—and markets."

UN Assembly Marks Turning Point

By PHIL NEWSON
UPI Foreign Editor
The United Nations General Assembly session just concluded could mark a turning point in the history of that organization designed to preserve world peace.

In broad terms, it was an unusually successful session for the Soviet bloc and it marked the emergence of an Afro-Asia group which henceforth will make it difficult if not impossible for the Western Nations to back the assembly to their will.

In general it was a laudable session, none of whose 10 items disposed of on the calendar is apt to have any world-shaking effect. The Russians found frequent cause to mention the amicable meeting between Premier Nikita Khrushchev and President Eisenhower and to cite the "Camp David spirit" at such times as when the West brought up the embarrassing question of continued occupation of Hungary by Soviet troops.

The Russians said such questions violated the Camp David spirit. On the propagandist side, the Russians scored with Khrushchev's appearance before the assembly and his generalized proposal for total world disarmament in four years.

On the debit side for the Communists was their failure to prevent assembly action deploring their actions in Hungary, or a resolution calling for "respect" for the fundamental rights of the Tibetan people. They failed also to halt a U.N. investigation of charges of Communist aggression in Laos.

It was felt that the Russians gained a point and United States prestige suffered when the Communists were able to force a compromise dividing the contested security seat council between Poland and Turkey.

The resolution sending the disarmament problem to a 10-nation committee contained enough of the flavor of the Khrushchev proposal to permit the Soviets to claim a tactical victory there also.

All resolutions passed by the assembly were comparatively mild and lacked the strong terms of such earlier U.N. dictates as when years ago the assembly told Russia to get its troops out of Iran, and Russia did.

A number of factors contributed to the U.N.'s changing complexion.

One is the Camp David spirit and the belief, ill-founded or not, that world tensions are relaxing. Another more important one is the growth of the Afro-Asian bloc which next year will gain as four more independent nations emerge in Africa. As the United Nations membership increases, it becomes increasingly difficult for any one group to obtain the two-thirds majority necessary for passage of any resolution.

This in turn means that only a resolution offensive to no one has much of a chance.

Believe It Or Not: TV Commercial Steals Show

By FRED DANZIG
NEW YORK (UPI) — James Stewart, the only actor who can portray a Yankee, cowboy or southerner without changing his speech pattern, played the part of a Yankee Tuesday night in a westernized version of the Cinderella story.

The NBC-TV filmed startline colorcast, "Cindy's Fella," was inconsequential, humorless and overly precious despite the horse-and-buggy frontier setting and other switches in the plot. It wasn't up to the quality of Stewart's other TV efforts.

Although this was one western that had no gunplay, there was a rousing, cleverly-staged brawl in the opening minutes that left a barroom in ruins and Stewart bewildered but victorious. This segment was the highlight of the production. The succeeding acts also featured brawls, but they were of declining intensity.

Stewart as Stewart: Easy-going, stubborn, bright-eyed and slack-jawed. His sidekick, George Gobel, was Gobel: Fey and fuzzy. Supposedly a drifter, he sported a plucky ring. Lois Smith was Cindy and she was burdened with some of the kookiest dialogue of the season. She chose to deliver her lines in a tone of voice that suggested an actor's studio version of Katharine Hepburn. Gower Champion was the director and while he did well, in general, I thought he was too heavy-handed with some of the fluffier moments.

Ironically, the most enjoyable part of the entire hour was a commercial, delivered by Jane and Goodman Ace, the Easy Aces. Imagine a commercial stealing the show!

Dialing and Filing: CBS-TV put its "labeling" policy into effect Tuesday night, as promised last month. That is why, after the Dennis O'Keefe show, an announcer said, "the preceding program was pre-recorded. Audience reaction technically produced." (Translation: This filmed show uses canned laughter.) What happened to the plan to do away with canned laughter?

As the Bobbie Gillis show ended, another CBS-TV voice told us, "the preceding program was pre-recorded." Same thing after the Garry Moore show. There was no such comment after Tightrope ended, which is comment enough for this show.

Personally, I think it is a form of insult to the viewer when you tell him the obvious. I'd rather that the "labels" were confined to telling us when singers don't sing, speakers don't speak and interviewers don't interview.

Worthy matron, Linnie May, gave a report of her activities for the year and announced that there will be an initiation the first meeting of the new year, Jan. 7. Election of officers is scheduled for Jan. 21.

Celebrating birthdays in December were Mrs. Virginia Anderson and Mrs. R. E. Peurifoy. They were presented with birthday gifts and the members sang "Happy Birthday" to them.

After the meeting adjourned, Mrs. Stella Moore and Mrs. Harry Oaten ushered in Santa Claus by leading the group in singing "Here Comes Santa Claus."

Worthy patron, Harvey Dunn, acting as Santa Claus, greeted the members and presented gifts from under the tree. Christmas carols were sung, after which Tommie McLain introduced his refreshment committee and invited everyone to the dining room for hot popcorn, cake and coffee.

The dining room and chapter rooms were decorated with poinsettias and rice plant blooms.

A turkey dinner was served at 6:30 p. m. followed by an exchange of gifts among the guests. Dancing was enjoyed throughout the evening, to the music of Edward Hoelt and his orchestra from Orlando.

The hall was decorated with pine boughs and tinsel and the tables were centered with yule logs, pine cones and magnolia leaves, in soft shades of blue, pink and silver.

The stereophonic Hi-Fi was awarded to B. F. Ganas of Banana Lake. Mrs. Harry Adair, president, presented Mrs. Martin Dyer, general chairman of the dinner-dance, who received an ovation from the group for her efforts.

Mrs. Betty Cox and Mrs. Thomas Butner were in charge of decorations and Mrs. Dyer was assisted in the many other tasks by circle members.

Put Extra Glow Into Lemon Pie

HOLYVILLE, Calif. (UPI) — Golden lemon pie gets that extra glow from grated carrots.

Prepare 1 package of lemon pudding and pie filling mix according to package directions. Cool.

Add 1/4 cup of sugar and 1 tablespoon of lemon juice to 1 cup of grated raw carrots. Add carrot mixture to filling and pour into a baked 9-inch pastry shell. Beat 2 egg whites until foamy, add 1/2 cup of sugar gradually beating continuously until meringue stands in soft peaks. Pile lightly on pie, sealing at edges and bake at 125 degrees until delicately browned.

Half a cup of honey blended with 1 (8-ounce) can of frozen orange juice concentrate, thawed, makes a tasty sauce for ice cream or cake. These measurements yield 1 1/2 cups of sauce.

It's High Time For Eggnog Dessert

During the holiday season when egg nog is featured by local dairies, use the milk and egg-rich beverage as the natural base of a decorative fruit dessert.

This party mold is delicate in texture and lofty in height only requires the blending of four ingredients: bottled egg nog, unflavored gelatine, canned fruit cocktail, and heavy cream. Unflavored gelatine gives the mold its beauty of design and protects the light airy texture.

The dessert can be chilled in a spring form pan lined with lady finger cookies, or it can be chilled in individual serving dishes.

Eggnog Fruit Chiffon
12 lady fingers
2 envelopes unflavored gelatine
1 can (12 1/2 ounce) fruit cocktail
2 1/2 cups commercially prepared eggnog
1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons vanilla
1 cup heavy cream, whipped

Split lady fingers; cut off one end to stand upright and place around sides of an 8-inch spring form pan. Drain fruit cocktail; measure 1 cup of the syrup. Sprinkle gelatine on syrup in saucepan to soften. Place over low heat, stirring constantly, until gelatine is dissolved. Remove from heat; add eggnog, salt and vanilla. Chill until mixture mounds slightly when dropped from a spoon. Fold in 2 cups of the drained fruit cocktail; fold in whipped cream. Turn into prepared pan; chill until firm. To unmold, release spring and remove sides of mold carefully. Garnish with additional whipped cream and remaining fruit cocktail. Yield: 12 servings.

The regent, Mrs. Roumillat, presided and opened the session with the ritual, American creed, pledge to the flag and the National Anthem.

An article on American Christmas carols, prepared by Mrs. Nance of the Tolar School of Piano, was read by Mrs. H. W. Rucker. A Christmas message from the president general was read and UNESCO was discussed.

Mrs. R. E. Pearce, Mrs. Robert Steele, Mrs. A. S. McCallum, Mrs. Natalie Tare Dix and Mrs. James H. Sims were admitted to the chapter as new members.

Christmas carols were sung by

Dorcas Class Sings Carols

A gaily decorated Christmas tree highlighted the December meeting of the Dorcas class of the First Baptist Church. Mrs. W. O. Tanner was hostess and Mrs. Douglas Stenstrom co-hostess.

Mrs. N. C. Booth, class president, presided at the business meeting. Mrs. Curtis Green gave the devotion and Mrs. Tanner led the group in prayer.

During the social hour, 16 members gathered around the piano to sing Christmas carols. Games were played and prizes awarded to Mrs. J. H. Mitchell and Mrs. Virginia Toth. Members exchanged gifts and presented a lovely silver bowl to the teacher in appreciation of her devotion to the class.

Refreshments of cheese tarts and punch were served to members and guests. Others attending were Mrs. Glen Walton, Mrs. W. W. Horne, Mrs. Thomas Best, Mrs. Charles Lewis, Mrs. Eugene Pennington, Mrs. M. V. Williams, Mrs. Glen Price, Mrs. R. A. Cohen, Mrs. William Tripp and Mrs. C. E. McLeod.

Driving gloves this year are shown in brown, beige, neutrals, green, blue and red. Many are of washable leather, tailored with saddle stitching, self bows, cord embroidery on the knuckles or eyelid cut-outs close to the edges.

the group and Miss Ollie Escoto Whittle presented students from the Seminole High School Glee Club, the Misses Suzanne Jones, Phyllis McDaniel, Joyce Weimann, Betsy Williams, Bonnie Stoffer, Deanna Nichols, Cindy May, Linda Humphrey and Annette Yates, who sang several Christmas numbers.

Suzanne and Cindy sang "Winter Wonderland" and the entire group sang "Away In A Manger," "Bring A Torch, Isabella" and "Holy Night."

The Roumillat home was decorated in a Christmas theme, including a unique center piece on the tea table, featuring a Madonna and Angels surrounded with eucalyptus. The silver and crystal appointments and an antique chandelier with burning candles, suspended above the table made an unusual setting.

Others attending were Mrs. James Sims, R. E. Pearce, Howard Brewer, Ralph Leonard, G. A. Wakefield, P. P. Campbell, E. M. Hoke, Lawrence Tinsley, Leon Fellows, R. E. True, A. R. Key, Charles Parks Sr., J. B. Ray, F. E. Holt, Alex Greer, Lester Wildner and Raymond Smith.

Gleaners Class Enjoys Party

The Gleaners Class of the First Presbyterian Church met on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mary Holly, 1112 South Myrtle Avenue, for their annual Christmas party.

The guests enjoyed a series of contests and Christmas stories, after which each drew a number which entitled them to a gift.

Refreshments of cake and Russian tea were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Frank Lieske, class president. Mrs. Holly brought the recipe for the tea from Switzerland several years ago.

Those present were Mrs. Lieske, Mrs. J. M. Scudder, Mrs. J. C. Nichols, Mrs. Claude Ford, Mrs. J. De Young, Mrs. Mary Myers, Mrs. J. O. Andes, Mrs. N. C. Mincy, Mrs. I. A. Brumley, Mrs. R. C. Maxwell and Miss Beena Long.

Covington Covers Sports

By JERRY COVINGTON

With three wins behind them, Coach Bud Laver's Seminoles are taking a little break in their schedule. They'll return to practice after the Christmas weekend and their first opponents will be neighboring Oviedo.

The Seminoles found little trouble in rolling past Lyman and DeLand but things were a little different against the Barracudas. They found themselves trailing by a pretty good margin several times and at the end of the half they had scored only 17 points. They did prove, however, that they can come back and they'll probably have to do this many times when they start running up against tough opposition.

There are many big games and plenty of tough opponents still facing the speedy Seminoles and they are going to have to play their very best to upset some of these teams. Anyway you look at it, this promises to be a great season from beginning to end.

The Oviedo Lions were rolling along pretty well until they ran against Apopka last Tuesday. Mike Duda and Johnny Tesinsky have been the big guns up until now but they still lack that "big" man in the lineup. Many of us remember Johnny Jones and Carl Fabry from a couple of Coach Mikler's teams of the past and I'll bet he would welcome the sight of another player like one of these boys.

The Orlando Elks club is humming with action these days as its members make plans for the 14th annual Tangerine Bowl this coming New Year's night. All sports events are wonderful to me but the Tangerine Bowl is outstanding on my calendar of events because this is the only one of its kind that 100 per cent of the net proceeds goes to charity. The funds from the gate are turned over to the Harry-Anna Crippled Children's Home and believe me, they do a tremendous amount of good.

The contest this year pits two of the finest small college teams in the country against each other. Presbyterian and Middle Tennessee should provide a very fine football game for everyone and the pre-game festivities promise to be outstanding.

The price of the tickets are from $2-45 depending upon where you choose to sit. They may be obtained in Orlando at the San Juan Hotel or here in Sanford from W. D. Hardin. You may contact Bill at the Elks lodge here in Sanford and he'll be glad to fix you up with some fine tickets.

What finer Christmas can you give someone? The price of your ticket might give some boy or girl a chance to walk again. Plan now to be at the Tangerine Bowl on New Year's night for a great game.

Fugazy To Stage Heavy Title Bout

NEW YORK (UPI) — Humbert J. (Jack) Fugazy of New York, famous old-time promoter, will stage the return Ingemar Johansson-Floyd Patterson heavyweight title fight for attorney Roy Cohn's group of wealthy businessmen, Fugazy disclosed today.

"I will be a moderate old-time promotion, with all stops pulled out," said 72-year-old Jack Fugazy, who gave the late Tex Rickard competition for a while in the 1920's. "The gate will be about a million and a half."

Kennel Club To Aid Youngsters Wednesday

Sanfordites Wednesday afternoon at Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club will be watching the fleet greyhounds run for needy youngsters of Seminole County.

Profits from the special charity card will go to the county's newly formed Seminole County Juvenile Council, Inc., spearheaded by County and Juvenile Judge Wilson Alexander and other civic leaders. The council is designed to aid needy youngsters of all ages in the county.

The 10-race slate of action, the club's first of several charity programs of the year, will start at 2 p. m. The club has been completely refurnished during the summer months and track officials have forecast the oval's fifth straight record-breaking season. The kennel club is located south of Sanford, about a mile west of U. S. 17-92.

Tonight's 10-event schedule, starting at 8:10 p. m., will be the second night of the season's new 22-day calendar. Hundreds of local fans helped swell the grandstands Saturday for a record opening.

In the big ninth event tonight, fans will be wondering if O. B.'s Mortgage will make his payment which is predicted by top morning line odds of 3-10-2. The 11-pound white and blonde dog is owned by talented stud Oscar Brothers Kennel, a newcomer to the local oval, but a steady contributor in recent years of champions to the sport of greyhounds.

O. B.'s Mortgage caught the eye of fans at the pre-season schooling races by his driving finish. In his last two contests, the big gent started slowly, but exploded with speed toward the final turn for impressive triumphs.

Oswald Brothers will have another entry in O. B.'s Melon, starting with 6-1 early odds by the handicapper.

Returning fans from last year probably will be pulling for Cri Tears, a 3-1 shot behind O. B.'s Mortgage. In the red fawn's only schooling race, she ran into a crowded turn, fell back to seventh, but came strong in the homestretch to salvage a show position. Cri Tears was a favorite in the grandstand last season because of her incredible ability to spring alive at the last moment. She furnished many gloomy minutes, however, for the spectators who were rooting for the one that "would have won, if it hadn't been for Cri Tears."

Another strong entry in the feature is Ed's Blue Lace, lightest greyhound, in the race at 34 pounds. This blue-tinted hustler holds an impressive schooling record, along with excellent wins at other tracks.

Also in the ninth are Ray Rush, Rocky MacGinty (another fleet returning veteran), Bird Rock and Discoverer.

A triple-treat of marathon contests also is on tap tonight. The second, seventh and 10th events will be long three-eighths-mile consistent crowd-pleasers.

LOS ANGELES — Sprinter Ray Norton of San Jose State College was named the "greatest athlete for 1953 in North America" by the Helms Hall Board.

Kuenn Takes Batting Crown

CHICAGO (UPI) — Harvey Kuenn, possibly the finest natural hitter in the American League, finally owns that elusive batting crown he has eyed for six years.

It was made official today when league averages released here showed the Detroit outfielder was far and away the leading hitter with a .333 average last season.

Until this year, the 29-year-old Kuenn had placed among the top six hitters in the circuit for five of six previous seasons, but he never was able to win the title. This year, though, he won going away, slugging out 198 hits in 581 official times at bat to beat teammate Al Kaline, who was runner-up with .327.

Nation's Top Fives Face Rugged Schedule Ahead

United Press International

West Virginia rests on its laurels after its smashing victory in the Kentucky Invitational but the nation's other top fives face stern tests this week leading up to the whirl of holiday tournaments starting next Saturday.

Second-ranked Ohio State plays a pair of toughies on the road tonight and Tuesday, first-ranked Cincinnati goes against rugged eighth-ranked Bradley in a real back-yard brawl Tuesday night and St. Louis, Kansas, Kentucky, Indiana and Georgia Tech also see action in the next 48 hours.

The frantic action comes to a complete halt Thursday and Christmas Day but then reaches a new season peak Saturday with the start of the Holiday Festival tournament in New York and the West Coast A. C. tourney in San Francisco. And the activity really boils over a week from today with outstanding tournaments in every section of the country.

It's doubtful, however, if any team will come out of the holiday "madness" with a victory to top the one achieved by West Virginia at Lexington, Ky., Saturday night. Jerry West, playing the second half with a broken nose, scored 33 points in the 78-70 victory over Kentucky that stretched the third-ranked Mountaineers' winning streak to eight games. West suffered the injury when struck by a stray Kentucky elbow near the end of the first half and play was stopped several times during the second half when bleeding resumed.

"It's always a great challenge to play Kentucky on its home floor," said Mountaineer Coach Fred Schaus. "West played his usual great game but he had to share honors in this one with Lee Patrone."

Patrone, a 6-1, 185-pounder who has been a "minute man" for West Virginia the last two seasons, tossed in 21 points.

Sixth-ranked St. Louis ripped fifth-ranked North Carolina, 68-52, in the consolation game of the season's biggest tournament to date and goes on to meet Kansas, No. 9, Tuesday night.

New Bowl Prospects Face 'Bright' Future

By THE MORIARTY

United Press International
The Liberty and Bluebonnet bowls, although mere infants, could develop into strapping additions to college football's "family" of post-season classics.

Many experts laughed when a Philadelphia group announced plans for its first annual Liberty Bowl game.

"Imagine any team accepting an invitation to play in Philadelphia in late December?" one coach chuckled. "Instead of the Liberty Bowl they ought to call it the ice bowl."

However, a crowd of 36,211 turned out for the North's first major post-season bowl battle Saturday and "watched" Penn State turn back Alabama, 7-0, on an 18-yard touchdown pass from sophomore quarterback Galen Hall to sophomore halfback Roger Kochman.

The Bluebonnet Bowl inaugural was even a greater success — at least at the gate — as Clemson rallied in the final period to upset Texas Christian, 22-7, before 33,000 fans in the Rice Institute Stadium at Houston.

The Liberty Bowl promoters got a fair shake from the weatherman for their initial venture. The temperature was a crisp 42 degrees but the skies were clear and sunny, and the field at Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium was in good condition.

Ambrose Bud Dudley, president of the Liberty Bowl Assn., estimated Penn State and Alabama each will take home close to $100,000 as its share of the gate, television and radio receipts.

Hall's winning touchdowns pass to Kochman at Philadelphia came in the final seconds of the first half and developed from a fake field goal formation. Hall had taken over in the second period for All-America Richie Lucas, who suffered a painful hip injury.

Another second-stringer sparked Clemson to its upset victory at Houston. Sophomore Lowndes Shingler tossed one touchdown pass and set up another touchdown and a field goal with his classy pitching. He also wound up as the Tiger's leading ground gainer with 65 yards in three carries.

Happiness Through Health

(By DR. F. LEO KERWIN)

Chronic Bronchitis

Bronchitis is an inflammation of the mucous membranes of the bronchial tubes. Often times the inflammation and swelling occurs to such an extent that the passages are closed, making breathing very difficult.

In the chronic cases there is apt to be some loss of flesh, weakness and a tendency toward stoop shoulders. Those having the dry cough are very susceptible to fresh colds, which are apt to occur when the patient is subjected to exposure. Those cases having the loose cough and abundant expectation have difficulty in breathing, rattling sounds in their chest, decided loss of weight and foul breath. These causes raise much yellow exudate which tends to become purulent.

For every effect you must have a cause; that is a fundamental law. If a person is ill, as in bronchitis, the disease condition is an effect for which there must be a cause. The chiropractic premise is that the cause of bronchitis is due to a vertebral subluxation which causes a pressure upon bronchial nerves and thus interferes with the transmission of vital life force.

The chiropractic objective is to determine the vertebral subluxation that interferes with the transmission of this vital life force and through proper adjustments, to correct the vertebral subluxation so that the interference is removed thus permitting the restoration to health.

One of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of scientific Chiropractic, written by Dr. F. Leo Kerwin whose office is located at 201 S. French Ave. and his telephone number is FAirfax 2-7442.

Uncle Sam Can't Help Americans Overseas

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The State Department has this bit of advice for anyone traveling abroad: Don't get into trouble. Once you're in, the department says, there's not much that can be done to get you out. Other countries have standards of justice that are not always the same as those in the United States. State Department officials emphasized that an American visiting a foreign country must acquaint himself with the laws of that nation and understand that he cannot expect exactly the same treatment he might get at home. An example, they said, are traffic codes in Mexico. These laws are stiff, more so than in this country, and violators are usually jailed until trial, which may be delayed for days. The department follows a routine procedure once an American is arrested. In every case where the U. S. citizen applies to a consular official for help, the official gathers the facts in the case, reports them to the State Department, follows the trial closely and appraises it from the legal standards of the foreign country. This is what is being done in the case of Miami Herald reporter James Buchanan, arrested in Havana on a charge that he aided the prison escape of American Austin Young. Young had been sentenced to 30 years by the Fidel Castro government for anti-Castro activity. The State Department emphasized that a trial must be judged by the standards in the foreign country itself, rather than on U. S. standards. The United States tries foreign citizens under U. S. codes when they break the law. If there is a gross miscarriage of justice in the foreign trial of an American, the U. S. government can make a representation and ask that the foreign government lighten the sentence or give some other relief. However, American officials emphasized that each case must be decided on the circumstances involved and there is no automatic U. S. government appeal. As a matter of fact, officials said, Americans generally have fared better in trials abroad than do foreign nationals convicted of the same crime.

'Old Reb' Part Of History Now

ALANTA (UPI) — A part of America died Saturday. When Walter Williams died at Houston, Tex., from the rigors of his many years his passing wrote an end to one of the bloodiest and the brightest — chapters of American history. All that's left now as a reminder to the South of the war it lost are the thousands of books, good and bad; parks, rows of tombstones, and marble monuments in every courthouse square of every small Southern town. Williams was the last living symbol of the American Civil War between the North and the South. At the last, his claim of being a veteran of that war was disputed, but it didn't matter. The average Southern male above the age of 40 still holds a personal memory of that war, heard from the lips of the men who fought it and the memoirs of those who lived it. Turn-of-the-century giants of northern industry may be only names to him, but he can speak passionately of "P. I. C. John" Magruder, Gamecock Joe Johnson, or how General Lee gave Thomas Jonathan Jackson his nickname. While schoolboys above the Mason-Dixon line were reciting the works of New England poets, chances are the Southern male was shouting Father Abram Ryan's lines at commencement day audiences: "Forth from its scabbard pure and bright, flashed the sword of Lee. . . ." Walter Williams symbolized that sword for many. He was the last of four million men who fought in the war of 1861-65 between North and South. An estimated half a million men died in that war. The last veteran of the Northern forces, Albert Woolston of Duluth, Minn., died Aug. 2, 1956, at the age of 100. Three Southerners outlived him — Williams, John Salling of Slant, Va., and William A. Lundy of Laurel Hill, Fla. Salling died March 18, 1952. Lundy died Sept. 2, 1957. As the old men died, a long accepted part of the Southern scene died with them. Only 15 years ago there still were 226 Rebel veterans alive, and they gathered each year to swap tales at the annual Confederate reunion and lift their cracked voices in the strains of "The Bonnie Blue Flag" and "The Yellow Rose of Texas." Only the present generation of young adult Southerners grew up without hearing from the lips of the men who fought the old stories of Lee and Jackson and Hood and Stuart and Johnston and Beauregard. Most of the old men who survived past the century mark actually had done little or no fighting. But it didn't seem to matter. They all were called "General," and anecdotes ascribed to them were a part of every Confederate reunion. The last reunion was held at Norfolk, Va., in 1951, and only three of the old soldiers were strong enough to make it. They were Salling, W. J. Bush of Fitzgerald, Ga., and W. D. Townsend of Olla, La.

Motive Sought In Murder Of Young Sarasota Couple And Two Children

SARASOTA, (UPI) — A small Christmas tree stood on the porch and gaily wrapped presents were hidden away in a closet, waiting to be handed out to the children Christmas morning.

But Santa Claus won't come to the small ranch home of Cliff Walker this year—nor ever again.

Walker, 23, his pretty blonde wife Christine, 22, and their two children—James, 5 and Debbie, 2—were found murdered yesterday.

All had been shot in the head.

But the bullet fired into little Debbie's skull failed to do the job, so the killer placed her tiny body face-down in a tub containing about four inches of water. Sheriff Ross Boyer said the child apparently died by drowning.

The bodies were discovered at dawn yesterday by a neighbor, Don McLeod, who stopped by the house to pick up Walker for a hunting trip.

Sheriff Boyer said they apparently had been killed Saturday afternoon after returning from a visit to McLeod's house. Mrs. Walker and her son were shot twice in the head with a .22 caliber rifle and the husband and infant daughter were shot once in the head.

A posse aided by bloodhounds searched surrounding countryside yesterday in hopes of tracking the killer, but gave up after several hours without success.

Authorities said they were working on the theory the killer was a friend of the family who tried to attack the wife. But Boyer said officers had questioned dozens of persons who knew the victims and turned up nothing.

"We can't find anybody anywhere who had any reason to dislike them," he said. "They were a very happy Christian family—respected and loved by all who knew them."

He said Mrs. Walker had not been raped although some bruises on her face indicated she may have been struck before she was shot. He ordered an autopsy to determine if she had been sexually molested.

Add 2 Opponents

BOSTON (UPI) — Boston University, playing two new opponents, has announced a 10-game 1960 football schedule, one more than in 1959. Ohio University and the University of Buffalo are the new opponents, while Kansas has been dropped. The others include Penn State, Syracuse, Holy Cross, George Washington, Connecticut, Massachusetts, West Virginia and Boston College.

Worry Clinic

Thanksgiving Day should really be Every Day for an American. Take a lesson below from the shameless pathetic Christ curd of leprosy. And never again be guilty of those "idle silences" that Benjamin Franklin describes. Join the Compliment Club and open your eyes to the beauty of this world.

BY GEORGE W. CRANE, Ph. D., M. D.
CASE D-400: Rabbi G. George Fox is a popular Chicago clergyman.

He is now emeritus from the South Shore Temple, so he occasionally pinch hits for me in my Bible Class when I am out of town.

"Dr. Crane," he mentioned at our last luncheon, "I think church people are still far too selfish. In their prayers they ask many favors from God for their children and themselves, but often fail to give thanks."

REMEMBER, "THANK YOU!" If you disagree with Rabbi Fox, then go back to your last meal. Did you say "Thank you, God," even in a brief whisper, let alone a formal spoken prayer?

And how many of you readers have even complimented your mother or father, wife or child today? How about yesterday and the past week?

Christ healed 10 lepers from what was a sure death sentence. But how many came back to say "Thank you, Master?"

Was it half of them? Or even 25%? No, only ONE, and he was an alien Samaritan!

"As we must account for every idle word," said wise old Benjamin Franklin, "so we must for every idle silence."

You and I are generally guilty of these "idle silences." We should have thanked God or praised our wife or complimented our child or stated our appreciation of something nice our co-worker or neighbor has done.

But we keep silent. At least, till the funeral, when we sadly wake up too late and then try to make amends via an extra lavish funeral wreath.

OPEN YOUR EYES When our 8 Crane children were young, they would occasionally grumble about the food on the table.

"He who grumbles has too much," I would then announce. They would later use that back on me, too, when I would grumble about something to Mrs. Crane.

But it is true of all of us. We Americans live like the royalty of most other countries, yet we gripe and complain or are guilty of envy and covetousness.

So let's resolve to open our eyes and look not upon the many wonders granted to us on this earth. Most of you readers are not ravaged with cancer and suffering.

AEC Kicks Off Research Nuclear Test Program

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Atomic Energy Commission exploded two small charges in a Louisiana salt mine today to kick off a program of research on detection of underground nuclear tests.

Each charge consisted of 20 pounds of non-nuclear high explosive. The AEC plans to detonate up to 10 charges, the largest to be about five tons.

The AEC firms are related to the Defense Department's Project Vela, a multi-million-dollar program to test the feasibility of detecting underground atomic explosions.

Chances of an East-West agreement to ban nuclear tests may hinge on the results obtained. Of particular concern is whether sneak tests could be carried out in such a way as to defy detection.

from the terminal pain that even morphine may not be able to banish. So be grateful.

Two million Americans can't see colors either of flowers or pictures or sunsets or birds. They are color-blind and view the world as if it were black & white TV. If you can see colors, be thankful.

Millions now can hardly hobble because of arthritis, or they are chair cases due to amputations.

Think of the paraplegics in our Veterans' Hospitals. Better say "Thank you, God!" for your own two feet, even if your knees creak when you walk on them.

You aren't starving, either, and you don't gnaw the bark of trees or forage in garbage pails, like many Korean orphans. So how about a "Thank you?"

Thanksgiving Day should be EVERY DAY for us Americans. So change your mental attitude. You can do it in a moment of time, as Scrooge did.

Please pay more compliments to your companions, as well as to God. It will soon become a habit, and also prevent your becoming a hypochondriac.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long 4c stamped, addressed envelope and 25c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

Elks Expect 200 Kids At Party

The Sanford Elks Club expects about 200 children at the annual Elks Christmas Party Thursday, Gene Walters, chairman of the event, said today.

Invitations have been sent out for the big Elks party which is held each year for underprivileged children of the area, Walters said. The party will begin at 2:30 p. m. and presents and Christmas stockings will be distributed.

Presents for the party have been donated by Sanford Civic Clubs. The Elks will assist Santa Claus in distributing the gifts and will serve refreshments.

The Herald had a picture in Monday's edition which was described as being an Elks party. That event was sponsored by the Benevolent Patriotic Order of Does and was not connected in any way with this annual Elks party for underprivileged children.

LONDON (UPI)—A woman doctor trudged toward London on her 56th birthday today, hoping to end a 373-mile odyssey before midnight and prove she is a superwoman.

Dr. Barbara Moore was reported marching steadily along near St. Albans, only 90 miles from her goal.

Dr. Moore began her current walking program by heating the 110-mile record. Someone claimed she rode part of the way to she walked it again the next week.

Then she announced the 373-mile walk, saying she "would do what no man can do" and prove she is a superwoman.

15 Nations Back Summit Proposal

PARIS (UPI)—The NATO foreign ministers today threw the full weight of the 15-power pact behind the Big Three invitation to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to meet at the summit April 27 in Paris.

The NATO Council was convened by Secretary General Paul-Henri Spaak to state individual nations' opinions on decisions made at the Western summit meeting which closed Monday. The council session was closed but its support of the summit invitation was announced.

The council also endorsed other decisions reached at the Western summit meeting of President Eisenhower, British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, President Charles DeGaulle of France and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville, prior to the meeting, met with U. S. Secretary of State Christian Herter, West German Foreign Minister Heinrich von Brentano, and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd to draft a report for the NATO nations that did not participate in the summit meeting.

In addition to agreeing to invite Khrushchev to an April 27 Paris conference, which the Soviet premier seemed sure from the start to accept, the Big Four Western leaders suggested the signing meeting be the forerunner of a series of such summits. They also:

Reaffirmed determination to stand by their rights in Berlin under the wartime four-power agreement, including the right of access to and from the isolated city through Communist East Germany.

The postal cards were sent out last week and to union members across the country. Union officials said the results of the balloting would be made public.

The disclosure came as federal mediators called both sides into joint negotiations to a final bid for a settlement before President Eisenhower returns tonight from his overseas tour.

Steelworker Vote Of Offer Asked

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Steelworkers' union is conducting its own "vote" on management's last offer in the steel dispute, informed sources said today.

It has asked the 500,000 Steelworkers to indicate on postal card ballots whether they approve or oppose the rejection of the company's proposal by top union officials.

The union survey was viewed as a "dry run" of a government-sponsored poll to be taken next month under the Taft-Hartley law. There was speculation that union leaders wanted to check for possible weak spots in their ranks.

The disclosure came as federal mediators called both sides into joint negotiations to a final bid for a settlement before President Eisenhower returns tonight from his overseas tour.

Commission Acts On Zone Cases

The County Commission today modified a zoning board proposal requiring floor levels on all new homes to be 18 inches above the crown of a road.

The zoning board had recommended that the floor level be 18 inches to allow for adequate drainage.

However, Zoning Director Robert Broan said the FHA recommendation is 16 inches and the board agreed to have that in the county building code.

The board also set Jan. 12 for a public hearing on the proposal. In other zoning board recommendations, the board okayed a request to hire William Hutchinson to serve as attorney for the board.

The commission today approved a zoning board request to zone 75,000 square feet in an area adjacent to Lake Jennie for a future shopping plaza.

The area will be zoned C2 and is behind the Mar-Lou Motel on U. S. 17-92.

Also approved was a plat of 119 lots west of Altamonte Springs for a new subdivision to be called Dol-Ray Estates.

Action on rezoning a portion of a subdivision in Crystal Lake in Lake Mary was postponed. Mrs. Otis Siphon of Lake Mary opposed the rezoning move pointing out that a dedicated park area is involved.

The board turned the matter over to attorney Mack Cleveland for legal study until the next board meeting.

The board also approved rezoning an area adjacent to Big Tree Park as C-1.

Traffic Lights Asked For Intersections Of Hwy. 17-92

Three critical intersections on U. S. 17-92 will get traffic lights in the near future to avoid the danger of traffic mishaps.

County Engineer Robert Davis acting on the board's recommendation, will write to the State Road Department of the need for the added lights on Onara Road, SR 436 and Mulner Ave.

During the past year 29 traffic accidents have occurred at these points and one resulted in a fatality.

In other business during the meeting, Clerk David Gatchel advised the board that he was refusing an affidavit regarding certain lots in the county.

Gatchel said that surveyors have come in with plat changes after the county commission had already approved the original plat and it was recorded in the county clerk's office.

Gatchel pointed out that one affidavit listed 15 corrections and asked the board to adopt some policy to eliminate all these changes in his office.

The board agreed to study the matter on the advice of attorney Mack Cleveland Jr.

Post Office Site Discussed Today

The 12 Sanford businessmen selected to find a site for a new city post office facilities are meeting this afternoon to recommend a site to the federal General Services Administration. The meeting is scheduled in the First Federal Savings and Loan Association Building.

City Manager Warren E. Knowles said today that the City Commission has agreed to let postoffice trucks park on the south side of Second St. near Oak until next Monday. Postoffice trucks also will be allowed to back across Second St. to unload at the postal annex during this period. The commissioners agreed to this procedure to ease handling of Christmas packages by the trucks, and to give them room to unload at the annex.

28 Longwood House Permits Issued

Four more homes are going up in Longwood's Greenwood Estates. Winter Park developer W. S. Wolter has a permit to build 28 houses in an area on Marvin St. just off Eastlake Ave. The first four houses are finished. The three bedroom houses are in the $10-$12,000 class.

Vandalism Admitted

Sanford police sergeant Ben Butler picked up two eight-year old boys who admitted breaking window panes in Herman Jacobson's 220 South Ave. garage Dec. 8. The boys' parents agreed to pay for the windows, Butler said.

Seminole, Orange Drain Pact Asked

Seminole and Orange Counties may work together to finance a large scale $172,960 comprehensive drainage improvement to eliminate flooding in 1,900 acres in both areas.

County Commissioner Vernon Dunn will appear before the Orange County Commission Jan. 4 to urge that board to study the importance of the joint project. The project was outlined this morning at a meeting of the county commission where a representative of the engineering firm of Brill and Gray presented 27 pages of recommendations to eliminate flooding in the Tanglewood and Temple Terrace areas of Seminole County and the Eastbrook area of Orange County.

All three areas are in a "critical" drainage basin, according to Carlton Bliss of the engineering firm.

Bliss pointed out that 47 per cent of the areas was in Seminole County and 53 per cent in Orange County.

Bliss said his firm, after the two month survey, decided on three plans, including main canal, storm sewer and drainage wells.

Bliss said the best was the storm sewer plan which would include improvements to existing ditches and canals in the basin, construction of a canal South from SR 436 to Eastbrook to SR 15 A and the installation of a 48-inch storm sewer north from Tanglewood to Howell Creek at Lake Howell Road.

Cost of the complete job was estimated at $172,960 with Seminole County paying $168,825 and Orange County the remainder.

County Engineer Robert Davis concurred with Bliss' recommendation because it allows for "stage by stage construction" and the storm sewer could be constructed as the first step.

If Orange County goes along with the plan, the board agreed to set up a special drainage district in the Seminole County areas involved.

SR 436 has been called the worst primary road in the county.

The board agreed that money from the gasoline fund also would be used to improve Bear Lake Road, Geneva Ave. and SR 427.

Commissioner Vernon Dunn asked the group if it were possible for land owners in the SR 436 area to give the right-of-way but most of the other commissioners agreed that owners would want "hard cash" in giving up any property.

Krider emphasized the importance of getting the right-of-way money as soon as possible by finding out the procedure for pledging funds out of the gasoline tax.

"Other counties are doing it all the time and some have even pledged themselves until the year 2000," Krider said.

The board agreed to let Cleveland find out the means to pledge the money and then hold a public hearing on the issue.

A recent SRD traffic count showed that 3,000 cars passed daily on SR 436.

Pledge Of Gas Tax Eyed For SR 436

The County Commission today authorized Attorney Mack Cleveland Jr. to investigate the possibility of pledging 20 per cent of the county's secondary gasoline funds for the next 24 years to purchase the right-of-way on SR 436 to start the ball rolling in four-laning the road from Altamonte Springs past U. S. 17-92.

SR 436 has been called the worst primary road in the county.
