Elementary School, built in 1960, is the smallest full-scale elementary in the county, with 395 students. The new school, similar in design to Bentley Elementary, should house up to 700 students.

This will be the fifth time the school has been moved. It was organized in 1906 as a private school, moved into St. Matthew Baptist Church, and became a public school in 1916, with the School Board renovating a building near Midway Avenue. A top-ranking air-port official con-firmed late Tuesday that Vacation Express has inked a 7-year contract with Orlando Sanford International Airport (OSIA). The airline will move its hub to Sanford from Atlanta's Hartsfield-Jackson International Airport on April 23.

Police said the vehicle and perpetrator description in both instances matched, giving them reason to believe the cases may be related.

In addition to Altamonte Springs and Casselberry police, Seminole County Sheriff's deputies from District six assisted in the investigation. No arrests have been made in connection with the cases, but the investigation is continuing.

LAKE MARY - It took less than three months for the revitalization of Lake Mary's downtown to begin.

City commissioners approved Thursday the rezoning of a half-acre par-cel at the corner of Country Club Road and Lakeview Avenue from general commercial to downtown centre. City leaders created the new downtown zoning district in October to encourage growth in the town's center.

Shoemaker Construction is the first to request for the downtown centre rezoning as it proposes to build a two-story, 11,000 square-foot building in the core of Lake Mary's downtown that encompasses about 60 acres. The property was previous-ly developed with a small residential structure that was converted for commercial purposes. The structure will be demolished to make way for the new building.

"This is an exciting proj-ect," Mayor Thom Greene said. "This is kind of going to be the show place for everybody else that is going to build in the downtown to build in the downtown. We expect with (Shoemaker Construction) starting this building for others to start, and it's going to jump start the whole project." Along with retail and res-idential areas that include upscale townhouses and condominiums, city planners have proposed various amenities for the downtown district such as a band shell near the city's community building, numerous parks and green areas, and a large interactive fountain for children. Greene said Lake Mary's downtown is headed for a "big change" that he expects will happen rather quickly.

SANFORD — Richard Watts, a British Citizen and a member of the British Police Force's Royalty and Diplomatic Protection Group, the United States equivalent of the Secret Service, has taken a fiveyear sabbatical to come and live and work in Seminole County.

Watts, his wife, Georgina, and their children, Edward, 5, and Amelia, 2, arrived in United States a month ago in order to fulfill their 'American Dream' and the couple have taken over as the new owners/managers of Cactus Bob's American Grill and Pub located at 1566 S. French Ave.

New Lake Mary residents, the family moved to Seminole from Buckinghamshire, England, having spent vacations in America for more than 10 years.

"We fell in love with the place," Watts said.

When the opportunity arose for them to make their dream a reality they took it. "It really is an adventure to be living and working here," said Georgina, a for-mer Management Consultant, who will be running the administrative side of the business while

Richard will manage, the front of the house.

Before taking his sabbatical, Watts was in charge of perimeter security at the American Embassy in London. Regular police officers are not armed in Britain, but those who patrol the perimeter of the American Embassy carry firearms and security there has been tightened since Sept. 11, 2001.

Watts' final assignment before leaving for America was to serve on the uniformed and armed contingent of the protection team for President George W. Bush's visit to Britain in November.

"There was no disorder," Watts said of the crowds who came out to demonstrate and to see the President.

His previous work for the Royalty and Diplomatic Protection Group had included working on the exterior security team for Buckingham Palace, the London home of Queen Elizabeth. His team had also looked after Prime Minister Tony Blair, former P.M. Margaret Thatcher and many of the diplomatic community in London.

USDA reduces orange crop by 2 million boxes

The U.S. Department of Agriculture decreased its orange crop forecast for the 2003-2004 season by 2 million boxes, to 250 million boxes.

According to officials, a reduction in the projected average fruit size has created the need to decrease earlier estimates.

The grapefruit estimate was decreased again by one million boxes to 40 million boxes. Officials removed one million boxes of white grapefruit. No changes were made to specialty fruit estimates. langerines remain at 6.7 million boxes with Honey's remaining at 2.3 million boxes and early varieties remaining at 4.4 million boxes. Temples remain at 1.4 million boxes; and Tangelos remain at 1.3 million boxes.

In the wake of other the nicest thing on the block developing "town centers" in Seminole County, such as Colonial TownPark in Heathrow and another in Winter Springs, Greene said the trend is people are tired of Central Florida traffic woes and want cateries, retail shops and theatres closer to home. Similar to the "town center" design, one of the goals for the Lake Mary downtown zoning district is to promote pedestrian traffic in the area.

Dean Shoemaker, vice president of Shoemaker Construction, said he hopes the building will create an atmosphere city leaders are looking for in its revitalized downtown.

"I'll tell you what really excites me about this type of project is that we are in a situation where we are out of land here," he said. "It's time to recycle these old places, and if it's pushing things down and rebuilding then go ahead and do it. If we can recycle newspapers then we can recycle old buildings. After their concerns were addressed, community members and parents line? brevelor received the news enthusiastically.

"I think it's a win-win for everybody involved," said Emmanuel Hillery, parent and business owner in Midway. "We're happy the school board is allowing us to be partners in this endeavor, so we can do help decide what's best for the children and the community. We're also se the will remain in Midway. That was one of our paramount concerns." School board staff members assured parents that the class size would remain small and current programs, including the Performing Arts sector, would continue. A special Midway Task Force of residents and concerned citizens suggested the new school include an outdoor amphitheater, similar to Lyman High School. School board members said they will consider that idea, adding the amphitheater concept has proven successful. The move for a new school is in response to growth in the state's ninth-fastest growing city. The city of Sanford, which eventually plans to annex to State Road 415, is projecting about 1,000 new nomes will be built in the Celery Avenue area during the next five years. Farmers laid claim to Bookertown and without the hard working attitude of the community, the history of Seminole County could have been very different, Morgan said.

"They were some really good farmers out there that fed the world," he said.

The First Annual Bookertown Heritage Festival will include guest speakers, vendors, museum displays and entertainment supplied by local schools, groups and churches. Although they worked together on the book, Carlson says Morgan should be credited with the initiative in developing the heritage festival.

"This Bookertown book has been very popular and we've probably sold about 500 copies of it and it's fixing to go into its third printing right now," Carlson said. "But that I think inspired Charlie (Morgan) to start getting some of the people out there interested and putting on some kind of heritage festival. The book itself sort of brought the community together." As for the creation of the Bookertown history book, Morgan credits Carlson for giving him the push. As Carlson and Christine Kinlaw-Best authored "The History of Monroe," Morgan helped share details about about Bookertown, and quickly realized the untold history of the small black community was fading.

The story of Bookertown Deputy Manager Sally not only needs to be told, but it should be celebrated, Carlson said. Event organizers are hoping the Bookertown Heritage Festival becomes an annual event that can challenge the community of Eatonville's festival, in Orange County, that brings more than 150,000 visitors to town each year

"I think Bookertown with the way they are going about it, they are planting a seed for a festival that may be 10 years down the road will be a great, big event," Carlson said.

Sherman said Bookertown is a community that is improving. The county is working on renovating the Bookertown school that was established in 1926 and now serves as a community center, she said.

"One of our initiatives is to improve homes in the community through the SHIP (State Housing Partnership) Initiative program," Sherman said. "It's an excellent program and we're going to continue to see growth in the community."

Bookertown is a special place for Sherman as her grandmother and mother both grew up in the community. "Celebrating the heritage of

"I think it's important that this is just not a Bookertown festival, but this is a festival for that whole side of Seminole County because there is nothing left of the town of Lake Monroe except Bookertown."

does not necessarily involve our unit.

The electricity has been out more than it has been on. We thank Ace Hardware in Sanford for all those batteries they sent us as they have been put to use in flashlights and lamps during the absence of electric. The whole company bene-fited from those batteries. It is funny when the lights come back in the middle of the night because all the roosters start crowing. When they start crowing it wakes up the donkeys in the neighborhood and they start their hee-hawing. I guess they think it is sunrise when the lights come on in the area. As much as the lights go off and on it must be driving the poor animals nuts.

I can report that all the police stations that I inspect are doing good and there are more Iraqi cops on the streets now in East

Baghdad. It has taken a lot of work to get them up to standard and following the law, but I think they are where they need to be. This has not been an easy job, as everyone knows several of our stations were car bombed, one almost destroyed, with many IPP killed or wounded. The threats against the IPF have not helped either as the police were fearful of going out to do their duty. That has changed for the better, and I can see a workable police force here for the first time.

None of this happened because of the contractors who were suppose to train the police. It has happened because the U.S. Army milltary police took care of business and constantly stayed on top of the Iraqis. So there are two things that I see that are good: the Iraqi police in our area and the

which I helped recruit members for. Both of these Iraqi functions are doing very good. I will never think that we did much good here except try to stay alive, but we did successfully re-establish the police stations and train the police in our area. We also recruited and trained the civilian defense corps. Whether that was worth the hardships, misery and wounds, I guess only history will tell. I certainly will not boast "Mission Accomplished" as it is far from over yet. I still think it takes a dictator to run a place like this with all of its ethnic and religious tribes who have been fussing and fighting among themselves for thousands of years.

This afternoon I saw a donkey pulling a cart with a man on it. When they got to a stop light, the donkey came unhitched from the cart and kept on trotting forward, leaving the man and the cart at the intersection. The man was waving his arms and yelling. Some other people grabbed the donkey. It was a funny sight to see.

THE HERALD

They are offering firstterm soldiers $10,000 to reenlist for three years. This would get them off the stop-loss, and if they reenlisted in Iraq the money would be tax free. All the soldiers here who are eligible just laughed and basically commented on what the army could do with the $10,000 bonus. This shows, one, how desperate the military is trying to keep the personnel strength up and two, how desperate soldiers are to get out. They are willing to take their chances in hopes of being given their freedom from the stop-loss and indefinite enlistments. I for one would pay $10,000 to buy my freedom from this indefinite enlistment that I'm trapped in. Slaves used to be able to buy their freedom, but we soldiers can't even do that. They just keep recycling us into war. We haven't had any recent road side bombings in our area. This worries me because when they are attacking us we know they are in the area and stay on guard. When nothing happens, it makes you wonder when it will happen. We try to alternate our routes on patrol, we seldom take the same roads.

Needless to say, morale has started going up. It started with the Christmas care packages, and when we found out that the shipping containers were to pack our stuff in, morale zoomed up. We know there are still insurgents in our area, but they have been laying low. We just have to make it a few more weeks without getting hurt and hopefully get out of this place in one piece.

company operated its hub out of OSIA from December 2001 to January 2003. During that time, nearly 350,000 Vacation Express passengers traveled through OSIA, accounting for 26.4 percent of the airports' total domestic and international passengers.

When the decision to leave Sanford was announced in December 2002, Vacation Express president René Jongmans said the company believed "a hub from one of our strongest markets is the best thing for Vacation Express, our travel partners and our passengers.

Atlanta's Hartsfield-Jackson airport is the busiest passenger airport in the world, and some Sanford officials predicted the company might return OSIA.

The reason they're leaving is because the airline and the tour operator believe they can generate more traffic from Atlanta than they can from Orlando," Larry Gouldthorpe said at the time. Gouldthorpe is the president of TBI Airport Management Inc., which manages the domestic and international terminal for the Sanford Airport Authority. "Do we agree with that? No. It will be more costly for them to operate from Atlanta, and there are, of course, the hidden costs like flight delays."

Dale said OSIA officials continued to court Vacation Express after the company's departure. "We always had a good rela-tionship with them," Dale said. "We never gave up on them and didn't burn any bridges."

In announcing its return to Sanford, Carlisle Vason, the new Vacation Express president, said the company was responding to its partners' request for a more convenient, congestion-free connection process for passengers travel-ing to the Caribbean, Mexico and Costa Rica.

"The decision to relocate our hub operation to Orlando Sanford was not made lightly," Vason said. "Our challenge was to find a way to balance the demands of our new and ever-expanding east coast marin stolk anathet the stay of kets while still maintaining the integrity of our all-important Atlanta-based charter program. With the obvious appeal of Orlando as an extremely viable destination, coupled with the incomparable connection efficiency Orlando Sanford will provide to our valued clients, we are thrilled with this decision. We are confident that we have developed a flying plan that not only satisfies our multi-market requirements, but one that will secure our position as the premier charter tour operator in the Southeast/mid-Atlantic regions of the country."

Vacation Express charters six fully dedicated aircraft, all bearing the familiar Vacation Express name and logo, something few U.S. tour operators have done. The dedicated 148 passenger 737-300's are operated by North Carolina-based Pace Airlines. Vacation Express has also chartered additional aircraft from both Pace and Sky King Airlines of Sacramento, CA, to accommodate extra flights during the busy summer season and recent expansion into the Cleveland, Philadelphia and Wilkes-Barre/Scranton markets

In addition to the new hub service, Atlanta area passengers will retain six non-stop flights per week to Cancun as well as non-stop service to Punta Cana on Mondays and Fridays. Charlotte will continue to enjoy direct/non-stop flights to Cancun on Thursdays and Sundays and direct service to Punta Cana on Mondays and Fridays, with year-round access to the hub on Saturdays. Vacation Express will continue to offer direct service charter packages to Cancun from its other major gateway cities: Cleveland, Indianapolis, Memphis, New Orleans and Philadelphia.

Additionally, new non-stop charter flights from Wilkes-Barre/Scranton to Orlando and Myrtle Beach, SC, are now available, with connecting service from Orlando to Cancun, Costa Rica and the Dominican Republic.

Seminole begins search for new football coach

By Dean Smith Sports Editor

SANFORD — Seminole High School is in the market for its third head football coach in five years after Jim Bernhardt announced his resignation last Friday morning.

While the move was surprising it apparently is not without merit as the veteran coach is expected to be named the new Director of Football

Operations at UCF. New Golden Knight coach George O'Leary made two more personnel moves on Monday, dismissing director of football operations Dan Higgins and video coordinator Dana Martin. Bernhardt and O'Leary's relationship goes back to the 1980's when both were working in New York. "We wish the best of luck to Jim at UCF," said SHS Athletic Director

Mike Powers. "We hope he will do a good job for Coach O'Leary." Bernhardt, who originally hails from Longbeach, New York, came to Florida in 1994 and moved over to Seminole from Dr. Phillips in 2001 to replace Jim Worthington and led the Fighting Seminoles to a 9-21 record over three seasons.

Bernhardt has been coaching football on all levels for 28 years, including being both the offensive and defensive coordinator at Brown University of the Ivy League, and has a 57-45 record as a head coach.

Powers also said that the school is already in the process of looking for a new coach and interested parties should contact him at the school and make application through the Seminole County Public School websile at http://www.scps.k12.fl.us. The job is also posted with the FHSAA (www.FHSAA.org) and the FACA (Florida Athletic Coaches Association) in Florida and the FCA (Football Coaches Association) nationally.

Raiders rout DBCC in conference opener

By Dean Smith Herald Sports Editor

SANFORD - One win does not a season make, but boy what a win.

The Seminole Community College women's basketball team showed Monday night that it is back among the state's elite as the Raiders crushed nationally-ranked Daytona Beach Community College, 93-69, in the Mid-Florida Conference opener for both squads at the SCC Health and Physical Education Center.

Four players finished in double figures and six players scored eight or more points as the hosts used balance, depth and domination of the paint to virtually run the 20th nationallyranked and defending conference champion Falcons out of the gym.

The Raiders have now won five games in a row and eight of their last 10 to improve to 12-5 overall. DBCC has now lost two in a row and fell to 13-4.

SCC, which won back-to-back M-FC titles in 2000 and 2001, will look to remain undefeated in conference play went it hosts Santa Fe Community College from Gainesville in the opening game of women's/men's doubleheader Saturday night. The starting times for conference doubleheaders have been changed this season with the women tipping off at 5:30 p.m. The difference in the game on Monday proved to be the Raiders' ability to control the backboards and not missing a beat when coach Lisa Nuxol went to her deep bench.

Freshman forward/center Kirsten Harris came off the bench to score a team-high 17 points as the SCC bench accounted for 44 points.

"We have a very good bench," said Nuxol, a Lake Howell graduate who played for DBCC coach Dennis Cox at Valencia Community College. "All 12 players are eligible and healthy and I kept subbing them and hoping that we could wear them down. Everybody came in and did a great job."

Lake Mary's Bryn Mosler got the Raiders off to a fast start, scoring the first four points of the game and seven of SCC's first nine. But the Falcons, who missed their first nine shots and did not score for nearly six minutes, battled back to lead twice, at 14-13 and 22-20, and trailed just 30-25 with 5:20 left in the half following a three-pointer by Barbara Bukowska

The Raiders then went on a 10-0 run started by back-to-back three-pointers by Natalie Emmanuelli and Winter Springs' Missy See Raiders, Page 11

SCC men to open M-FC tonight

By Dean Smith Sports Editor

SANFORD - The Seminole Community College men's basketball team gave local fans a glimpse of what could be on Saturday night.

With their new signee, Oklahoma tranfer Jimmy Tobias, in attendance, the Raiders of coach Stan Cromartie looked absolutely awesome for much of the first half and coasted to a 93-73 victory over I.M.G. Academy out of Bradenton at the SCC Health and Physical Education Center.

The win was the second in a row for the Raiders, who improved to 6-12 on the sea-son and will host St. Johns River Community College from Palatka in the opening game of Mid-Florida Confernce play tonight (Wednesday) on the home hardwood.

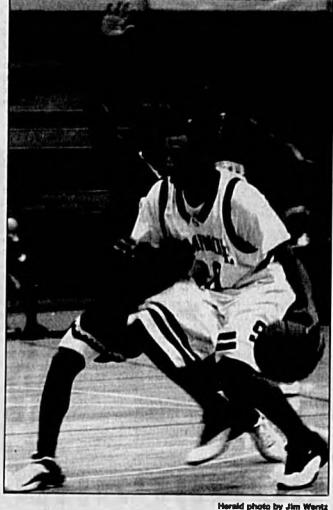

The game will take on an added attraction for local fans as former Seminole High School stars Marcus Robinson and Joey Gunter are members of the Vikings. Game time is set for 7:30 p.m. at the SCC Health and Physical Education Center and admission is free. The men will also be at home on Saturday, playing host to Santa Fe Community College from Gainesville as part of women's/men's doubleheader with the women tipping off at 5:30 p.m. and the men at 8 p.m.

Most people probably figured Saturday's game would be a walkover for SCC, but few knew that I.M.G. is part. of a huge academy that instructs in all sports and players pay between $27,000 and $40,000 a year to learn basketball.

The team features mostly fifth-year high school players who are either trying to improve their grades or game before starting college or trying to get a second look from schools without losing college eligibility.

The biggest names on the Rushawn Johnson (No. 20), the iona sophomore on the squad, stepped up Saturday night with one of his biggest games as a Raider with 19 points, five rebounds and two steals to eat into the lead behind Bradley (10 first half points) before William Graham and Rushawn Johnson, the only sopohomre on the Raiders roster, brought the house to its feet.

Graham, a 6-foot-8 freshman from Corss City who would finish with 11 rebounds, checked into the game and got a monster slam dunk off an alley-oop inbounds play and then Johnson scored 10 straight points on back-to-back threepointers, a steal and a surprising fastbreak dunk over an I.M.G. defender, and a blocked shot followed by an offensive rebound for a layup, putting SCC up 35-13 with 6:50 leaft in the first half. Johnson's play got the Raiders fired up and they continued to play well, lead-ing 57-30 at halftime. Johnson and John both finished the first half with 14 points. SCC showed its youth to open the second half as they started the second half sluggish with turnovers and fouls and Bradley and Maurice Daniels led the way as I.M.G. got as close as 10 points midway through the second half.

In fact,, I.M.G.'s amazing free throw shooting, 17-for-18 econd half, was the only thing that kept them remotely in the game. The hosts finally said enough is enough and the Raiders' big men, 6-foot-11 Kemaine Samuels and Will Greene and 6-foot-8 Nicolas Rollins, went to work on both offense and defense. Greene, who had missed the previous three games because of a death in his family back in Texas, came off the bench to score nine of his 14 points in the second half, while also pulling down 10 rebounds and blocking four shots, right at his state-leading average of 3.93 blocks per game

Rollins scored eight of his 14 points in the second half and pulled down a team-high 12 rebounds, while Samuels had nine rebounds and three blocked shots as the hosts cruised to the win.

Johnson finished with a team-high 19 points and also pulled down five rebounds and had two steals, while Jones added 16, one under his season average, to go along with four assists and two steals and Greene and Rollins chipped in with 14 each. Vince Mosley just missed a double-double with eight points and eight rebounds.

For I.M.G., Bradley had a game-high 23 points, while Daniels added 14 and 6-foot-6 Mike Beasley netted 12. Beasley who normally plays with I.M.G.'s Pendleton Academy for High School aged players, is an eighthgrader from Landover, Maryland with size 22 shoes who will be a force in years to come.

Roberto Morentin scored in double figures for the ninth time this season finishing with 18 points, as UCF (11-2, 6-0) won its ninth consecutive game with a 63-51 win over Jacksonville (6-6, 1-4) at Swisher Gymnasium Sunday afternoon. It is the Golden Knights longest winning streak since the 1998-99 season.

Marcus Avant was the only other UCF player to reach double figures in scoring finishing with 12. William Bakanowsky grabbed a team high seven boards.

JU had three players in double figures led by Jure Lozancic's 13. Haminn Quaintance and David Lee finished with 12 and 10 points respectively. The duo also led the Dolphins on the glass with six boards apiece. The team's finished tied on the glass with 35 rebounds each.

UCF will conclude its three-game road trip traveling to Boca Raton today (Wednesday) to take on Florida Atlantic. Tip off is slated for 6 p.m. and can be heard on the UCF ISP Sports Network and its flagship station AM 740-The Team with Marc Daniels calling all the action. Pregame coverage will begin at 5:30 p.m. Sunshine Network will also televise the game live with Dave Lamont handling the play-by-play and Matt Guokas providing the color commentary. It is the Golden Knights second consecutive televised game of the season.

Last Friday Dexter Lyons scored 22 points and led three players in double figures as UCF won its eighth consecutive game drop-ping Stetson, 71-58, in Atlantic Sun action before a boisterous crowd of 3,211 at the Edmunds Center.

Stetson's biggest lead was 14-10, but a 9-0 UCF run gave the Knights the lead for good. The visitors opened the second half on a 12-6 run and expanded a 31-28 halftime advantage to 43-34 in the opening minutes. But Gabe McMillen nit three-pointer with 8:55 remaining in the game pulled Stetson within 48-44 before the Knights scored the next 15 points to go ahead 63-44. Gary Johnson's third triple of the game gave the Knights their first double-digit lead at 55-44 with just over six minutes to play. A threepointer by Derrick DeWitt at the 3:22 mark ended the run.

For Lyons it marked the fourth time he has eclipsed the 20-point plateau this season. He also finished with five rebounds and a career high six steals. Both Morentin and Johnson finished the game with 15 points. Johnson also added a game high six assists. Josh Bodden led UCF on the glass with eight rebounds.

Stetson had two players in double figures as Anthony Register and Djordjic finished with 15 and 13 respectively. E.J. Gordon, who entered the game averaging 18 points, was held to just seven but led the Hatters on the glass with eight rebounds.

But the Hatters made a quick recovery as DeWitt's three-point basket with under 45 seconds remaining in overtime broke a 84-84 tie and helped lift Stetson to a 91-89 victory over Florida Atlantic Sunday afternoon at the Edmunds Center.

The victory ended Stetson's eight-game losing streak and gave the Hatters (3-8, 1-4 Atlantic Sun Conference) their first conference victory of the season. The Owls (7-6, 4-2) suffered just their second A-Sun defeat this year.

"This was a tough game," Stetson head coach Derek Waugh said. "FAU is playing real well right now. There were many instances where we could have given up, but we didn't. A win like this should help our confidence."

Gordon led five Hatters in double figures with 21 points, while adding eight rebounds and seven assists. Register scored 18 points, including seven in overtime. DeWitt finished with 16 points on 7-of-9 shooting from the floor.

"I give Stetson a lot of credit," Florida Atlantic coach Sidney Green said. "The showed a lot of resilience and they executed well. They deserved the victory tonight." The Hatters' last win against a Division I opponent also came at home against Florida Atlantic last season. Stetson had dropped 13 straight games against Division I foes.

Stetson will go for two in a row at 7 p.m. tonight (Wednesday) in Jacksonville.

Sunday, Feb. 15. Jimmie Johnson, driver of the No. 48 Lowe's Home Improvement Chevrolet, finished the day as the fastest driver with a speed of 187.535 mph followed by John Andretti 187.516), Bill Elliott (187.313), Ricky Rudd (187.270) and Ken Schrader (186.780).

Two-time Daytona 500 champion Jeff Gordon, driver of the No. 24 DuPont Automotive Finisher Chevrolet, was sixth fastest with a lap of 186.772.

"It was a good day for us," Gordon said. "The car is driv-ing great. The speed wasn't awesome when we unloaded, but we just gained on it all day long and by the end of the day I felt like we were pretty close to where we need to be. Of course we always want to be a little bit faster and we got two more days to work on it.

"All in all, a great day and we're really looking forward to getting back down here for the (Daytona) 500 and getting the season started. I just feel like the team just showed that look in their eye all winter long. Especially right now - with the chemistry - we didn't lose anybody, we just added in some areas that we felt we needed to to make ourselves stronger and we're looking forward to putting that out on the racetrack."

Gordon was happy to be back in a stock car after an enjoyable off-season that included one of his favorite hobbies scuba diving.

"It's good to get back in a car again," Gordon said. "It's been a while. As short as the off-season is, it's still exciting to get back here. I was talking to somebody - it's my 12th time testing down here - so a lot of memories and an awesome place. Fortunately, we've had two (Daytona 500) wins here."

Greg Biffle, driver of the No. 16 National Guard/Subway Taurus for Roush Racing, returned to historic Daytona International Speedway for the first time since his victory in the 2003 Pepsi 400. Biffle used fuel mileage to become the first rookie to win last year's mid-summer classic. "It was kind of neat when I was walking in this morning because I thought about the fact that the last time I was here we won," Biffle said. "That's pretty exciting. I don't know if we're gonna be back in that position or not. I know the guys worked really, really hard all winter long to speed our program up. We haven't found any speed yet, but it's typical Daytona - it's tough to see that." The next NASCAR

Preseason Thunder FanFest is scheduled for Wednesday night, Jan. 14 in the Daytona Club. Included in the $10 admission are fan forums that featured question and answer sessions between fans and drivers, DAYTONA USA's Pit Stop Challenge, show cars and a silent auction of autographed items.

All of the proceeds from FanFest benefit the Brenners Children's Hospital (in Winston-Salem, N.C.), Speediatrics, Victory Junction Gang and the Ladies Auxiliary of Stock Car Racing.

Drivers scheduled to appear on the Jan. 14 FanFest:
