

MILLS STATES SOUTH WILL BLOCK REPEAL

Sees His Party Plank Upon Dry Issue As Only One With Any Chance Of Carrying

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—(A.P.)—Declaring the "Southern Democracy owns the Democratic party," Ogden L. Mills, secretary of the treasury, told a Brooklyn Republican rally last night these states "will never put through Congress a straight repeal amendment."

Attacking the Democratic prohibition stand, Mills said: "The pledge of the Democrats in favor of unqualified repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment cannot be fulfilled without a protracted delay that might last a generation."

The Southern states and such states as Kansas whose people have deep-seated convictions on this score, will never consent to repeal without guarantees. The states that are certain to remain dry have it within their power to block the amendment in Congress and its ratification afterwards."

Mills said the "purpose and aim of the two parties are indistinguishable in prohibition, but there is a great and fundamental difference. The Republican party proposes to reserve in the federal government the power to prevent the return of the saloon system and to protect those states electing to remain dry."

"The Democratic party and its candidate are willing, while granting to the 48 states the right to (Continued On Page Four)

Many Cases Are Heard By Police Court Judge Ware

Disorderly conduct, much of it brought on by beetling liquor, was the principal charge lodged against a group of alleged law-violators who appeared in Police Court before Municipal Judge R. W. Ware during the past few days.

Henry Rickerson, white, charged with disorderly conduct, pleaded not guilty and was dismissed.

Andy Yelvington, white, charged with selling pasteurized milk in City streets in violation of a city ordinance, was dismissed when G. C. Hardin, owner of a rival dairy withdrew the charge.

C. W. Grindell, white, charged with being drunk, estrated a $10 bond.

Mrs. E. D. Rinchart, white, who with Dr. Elizabeth Tracy, white, figured in an automobile collision some days ago was fined $7.50 on a charge of reckless driving. Dr. Tracy, against whom a similar charge was made, was dismissed.

Roy Venable, white truck driver whose car crashed into another last Saturday night, causing a negro passenger to suffer a broken leg, was charged with reckless driving. He will be tried on Nov. 7.

Charles "Mike" Sheffield, hotel porter charged with possessing liquor was dismissed.

Joe Johnson, charged with carrying a concealed weapon, was turned over to county authorities.

The following persons were charged with disorderly conduct and were fined or dismissed as indicated: Henry Blake, fined $10; Beatrice Boyce, dismissed; Ruthie Mae Prince, dismissed; George Smith, fined $2.50; James Stubbs, fined $5; Corneilus Ward, fined $2.50; Lella Ward, dismissed; Annie Jordan, fined $2.50; Jim Prince, fined $5; Chris L. Jordan and Katherine Jordan, dismissed; Raymond Miggaly, fined $10 of which $5 was later suspended; Cleveland Penson and James Redding, fined $2.50 each; and Alton Anderson, who was turned over to his mother to be punished annually.

Paul Cooper, charged with larceny was turned over to county authorities.

Willie Cook, charged with the petit larceny of a few articles from a grocery store, was fined $5.

Henry Jones, charged with assault in two separate cases, was fined $50 in each case.

Noted Aviatrix Has Close Call In Plane

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—(A.P.)—Lightning action saved Ruth Nichols, famous aviatrix, from probable death today when her plane smashed up on the take-off of a trans-continental campaign flight for President Hoover. As her plane, heavily loaded with gasoline, shot down the runway it skidded off, went into a ground loop, and buried its left wing in the ground. Before the craft struck, the aviatrix quickly cut the switch to prevent the gasoline from catching fire. She was unhurt. Carrying piles of literature to drop enroute Miss Nichols had planned to make a non-stop flight to the West Coast in an attempt to break the record of Amelia Earhart.

LAWSON, FORMER G. O. P. LEADER, TO SUPPORT SHOLTZ

Also States He Will Cast His Vote For Franklin Roosevelt

ORLANDO, Nov. 3.—W. C. Lawson, of Benona Springs, former Republican candidate for Congress from the Fourth Florida District, asserted in a statement issued here yesterday that he would support both the presidential and gubernatorial Democratic candidates in the general election. He said that Hoover meant business and commission government, with lots of findings but no relief and that Hoover meant it and not the waste of the people.

Mr. Lawson, formerly chairman of the Orange County Republican Executive Committee, has long been a live in Republican politics in Florida and was the secretary for the establishment of the "New White Republican" Party in the state.

When Mrs. Ruth Hagan Owen was elected to Congress in 1928 he vigorously opposed her being seated on the grounds of her nationality.

The statement of Mr. Lawson, in part, follows: "I will not vote for either Mr. Hoover, or Mr. H. W. Ladd, because I have a profound conviction that not one day of hope for the relief of the tax-burdened people would be realized by the election of either."

"I regard Mr. Hoover as the greatest exponent of the immense, extravagant, inefficient and democratic principle of government by bureaus, boards and commissions. The policies of Mr. Hoover have shattered the confidence of every agricultural and business interest in the single exception of money power, a power that has been the value of its voters' votes in the past in which all their votes have declined and there is no struggle in the contention that this (Continued On Page Four)

JAMES M. COX BLAMES G. O. P. FOR TROUBLES

Former Nominee Of Democratic Party Delivers Address Backing Roosevelt

CINCINNATI, Nov. 3.—(A.P.)—Declaring that the "central crisis of this campaign" is the waning of that confidence in politics and government in every hand, James M. Cox, of Ohio, said last night the one safe way out of our plight is to change the theory of the management which has brought us to this pitiful pass.

In an address before a Democratic banquet here, the former congressman launched into an attack on the Republican national administration. "The economic depression now heavily upon us is only the beginning of a series of economic confrontations," said Cox, who was the Democratic presidential nominee in 1924. "The political success in business we shall see later, given reasonable economic conditions."

But preceding the economic collapse and acceleration of this there has been a yet more menacing development. I refer to the waning of that confidence in politics and government, a confidence which is every hand, which is fully lost and never to be regained. This is the central crisis of this campaign. Upon it turns the very perpetuation of our political and social institutions."

Asserting that the nation has fallen from an estate where once it flourished, he said: (Continued On Page Four)

Democrats Plan To Stage Radio Rally

Believing that every loyal Democrat in this county will be stationed near some radio receiver next Saturday night when he will hear the voice of the nation, the county Democrats will stage a radio rally at 8:00 o'clock and 10:00 o'clock. Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York, former Governor Alfred E. Smith, Owen D. Young, and scores of leaders of the Democratic Party will appear in a huge final rally at Madison Square Garden in New York City, the first Democratic Campaign Committee has arranged to install a radio at the corner of First Street and Park Avenue where every person is invited to congregate and listen to the vast addresses.

Under present plans the radio will be installed on the second floor of the Bell Telephone building, so that the voice may be clearly heard by every person within a radius of 200 feet of the radio. Benches and old first section bank seats will be fastened to the concrete and ample accommodations will be provided for all those interested in hearing these final talks.

"National Good Book Week" Will Be Appropriately Observed In City

Next week is "National Good Book Week." Locally the week will be known as "National Children's Book Week," and with the Literature Department of the Sanford Woman's Club having been appointed to sponsor suitable observance of the week, every effort will be made to create renewed interest in the local library and the need for a replenishment of the children's book shelves.

There are two features of the local observance of the week. The first is an illustrated poster contest which is open to all school children of the county, and for which cash prizes will be awarded. The second is a library party to be held at the Sanford Library next Thursday night from 8:00 o'clock until 10:00 o'clock.

Here are the general rules which children must follow if they enter the poster contest: Posters shall be at least 12 by 14 inches in size and made of medium to heavy weight cardboard or mounting paper.

Posters must be titled either "Children's National Book Week," "National Good Book Week," with emphasis on children's books, or "National Book Week," with emphasis on children's books. Posters must include the date, "Nov. 7-12" which is book week.

Posters must include regular library hours which are: Daily, mornings, 9-12; afternoons, 2-5; and Saturday evenings, 7-10. All entries must be left at the library not later than Saturday noon, Nov. 5. After that day they will be displayed in view of the town store windows. They will be judged and awards announced during next week.

There are three classes of contestants: 1. The 1st grade and up to high school; 2. Students of Senior High school and those who have recently completed their high school training; 3. The advance group. A prize is to be awarded for the best poster in each class. Contestants must place their name, address, and class on the back of each poster. The prizes will be on display in the library next Thursday and all persons calling there will be invited to judge them and cast a ballot.

The library party is under the supervision of Mrs. S. O. Shindler, Assisting her are Mrs. C. R. Mason, poster chairman; Mrs. J. B. Cogburn, program chairman for the library party; Mrs. Julius Diggelbacher, gift chairman; Mrs. F. M. Marler, publicity; Mrs. E. A. DeGlaese and Mrs. J. B. Root, hostesses for the evening.

Rival Leader In One Of Two Contract Bidding Systems Compares Both Methods

This is the second of three articles in the rival Sims and Culbertson contract bidding systems. Yesterday Tom O'Neil described the differences in the systems. Today Sims compares the systems. Tomorrow the Culbertson viewpoint will be presented.

By P. Hal Sims. NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—(A.P.)—In contrast to my requirements for opening the bidding first and second hand, an auction method still in vogue permit openings in those positions with the full count adding of 2-12 honor tricks. Such openings are followed by a catastrophe.

In the first of my opening positions the player has no knowledge of the other hand. For safety's sake and other things requirements for opening the bidding must be given. Then they do not have a mental handicap.

ANNUAL PARLEY OF W. C. T. U. ENDS WITH ELECTIONS

Forty-Ninth Convention Declared To Be Highly Successful

With the resolution of all state officers, and amid the expressions of congratulations and goodwishes that followed the forty-ninth annual state convention of the Florida Woman's Christian Temperance Union, which adjourned its thirteenth session at the First Methodist Church last night before noon today.

Mrs. Minnie E. Neal, of Jacksonville, who has her election before the 29th year at the head of the Union, declared the convention as "the crowning glory of 49 years of progress. Said she, 'I am both proud and happy to say that our convention was a wonderful success, with the best attendance in recent years. It parts from all sides, indicating that there is a very genuine feeling throughout the state in respect to and approval of the Eighteenth Amendment. We look with great faith and expectancy for the success of our educational work during the coming year.'

Other officers elected were: Mrs. J. T. Franklin of Ft. Myers, vice-president at large; Mrs. Robt. Kintrough, of Cochet, Hill, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Malie Perk-Dean, of DeLand, recording secretary; and Mrs. Nellie H. Dore, of Jacksonville, treasurer.

Adoption of a group of resolutions, all of them concerned with the welfare of the temperance cause, and of a resolution which will be presented to the people of the state at the coming election today.

The outstanding resolutions adopted in condensed form are as follows: "Reaffirming our faith in total abstinence and invoking Divine help as we continue our fight for prohibition, we believe that national prohibition is the best method of controlling the traffic in alcoholic liquors, and we pledge our faith to work for the ping and ratification of the Eighteenth Amendment through the observance of the prohibition laws. Therefore we respectfully urge all who are fully informed of our duty and pledge, to abstain from liquor and support, in every way possible, the adoption of the Eighteenth Amendment, to all candidates, especially for the Senate and those of Representatives as will apply submit themselves to the test tomorrow."

ORLANDO MEN FIRED UPON BY COAST GUARD

Business Men On Fishing Expedition Are Victims Of Attack Off Cape Canaveral

ORLANDO, Nov. 3.—(A.P.)—Charges that a Coast Guard cutter fired on a boat from which three local business men were fishing, were made here yesterday before Commander L. C. Mueller, of the coast-guard.

C. S. Purcell, store manager, told Commander Mueller the cutter fired on a boat occupied by himself, E. N. Fikdale, salesman, and A. I. Weaver, St. Augustine, about 20 miles off Cape Canaveral last month.

Commander Mueller said he finished his investigation here yesterday but probably would make further inquiry when he returned to his base at Fort Land India.

William J. Austermann, of the coast-guard, represented Eloy Dumphy, the Perry's boatman and commanding officer. He read from the boat's log that three blank shots had been fired while the cutter was overhauling the fishing boat, and one real shell was dropped a considerable distance away.

Fikdale testified that several shells landed in the water near the fishing boat, one as close as 25 feet. He admitted, under questioning, that his eyesight was not very good and he was a poor judge of distance.

"We had been fishing," Purcell said in the hearing, which was held in the officers' mess of the cutter, "and were returning to our base when we passed the fishing boat. We passed about 300 yards from the cutter and did not see anyone about. When we were about a mile or more and a half away from the cutter I noticed three shells following us. It was clear the cutter fired these three shells at us."

"The captain of our boat put out a flare and headed for the cutter. We pulled up alongside and saw someone aboard and set down our second morning and a report from the cutter came aboard."

"I asked him, 'What do you mean by firing on us?'"

"He turned his back and walked away."

Purcell said the men who came aboard their craft from the cutter did not wear the regular insignia and that there was no way to identify them as members of the coast-guard.

He said Fikdale later asked Dumphy what he would have done if their boat had not stopped and that Dumphy replied "We would have dropped one into the middle of you." He said also that Dumphy explained the three shots as being the boys' first shot.

TAMPAN SPEAKS AT KIWANIS CLUB ON CITIZENSHIP

Sidney Brown Reminds Members Of Group Of Responsibilities

Speaking to members of the Sanford Kiwanis Club yesterday noon on the subject of a "Citizenship Responsibility in His Community," Sidney Brown of Tampa, collector of customs said that "while we are justly proud of our rights, privileges and opportunities, we must yet remember that there is an attendant responsibility with each of those rights, privileges, and opportunities, and therefore we ought to think more of our duties and responsibilities than our privileges."

Mr. Brown spoke on the same program with G. W. Spencer, Sanford attorney who presented the case of Florida attorneys who seek the passage of the proposed Constitutional Amendment providing for a seventh Florida Supreme Court justice. Mr. Spencer asserted that the ends of justice will be encouraged by the creation of the additional Court seat, and he urged his hearers to support the amendment.

Mr. Brown declared that "government is nothing more than the rule of the majority and the abuse of majority, bolshevism, chaos and confusion that would inevitably result if a denial of its proper function."

He had previously stated that the community or nation which had encouraged four fundamental forms of governmental economic, political and religious, is a nation that is safe, happy, and successful. He declared that the principal duty of the American government and that of all citizens is to be based on the foundation of independence and the freedom of the constitution, and that if citizens do not power from the consent of the governed (Continued On Page Four)

Denounces Democratic Tariff Policies In Talk Made Last Evening In Capital

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—(A.P.)—President Hoover turned westward for the fifth time today with the announced intention of extending his final campaign tour into a transcontinental trip ending at his Palo Alto home in California on Election Day.

He disclosed his purpose of going home to vote in a speech broadcast on the Pacific Coast appealing for support from the voters of California, Oregon and Washington. Major speeches of the tour will be at Springfield and St. Louis tomorrow and Madison, Wisconsin and St. Paul Saturday.

The Chief Executive disclosed his final campaign plans in a political address in the Carlton Hotel here, during which he renewed his attacks upon Democratic tariff policies and asserted that if that party is placed in power agricultural products will not on the farm.

Under a Democratic "regime," he said, the country "would go back to conditions worse than that through which we have passed."

The President delivered his address directly across the continent by telephone and then broadcast by radio. He included the Pacific Coast states of Oregon and Washington in his address.

He spoke at the end of a long day of preparation for his departure this afternoon on a five-week tour of political campaigning, with major speeches scheduled for him at Springfield, Ill., St. Louis, Madison, Wis., and St. Paul, before beginning his swift dash to the West Coast.

His now plans to begin his Far Western trip Saturday night, directly after his St. Paul address, with a few major speeches en route because of the shortness of time remaining before Election Day. He expects to deliver a radio appeal for votes on election eve, to be broadcast from a point still unknown.

His arrival in Palo Alto is scheduled for about noon next Tuesday. All relating his itinerary (Continued On Page Two)

Seminole County Sholtz Backers Plan Motocade

Seminole County Dave Sholtz enthusiasts, hearing reports from every section of Florida that Sholtz supporters will mass at Daytona Beach Saturday afternoon and night to stage what has been predicted to be one of the largest parades and testimonials ever seen in Florida, today made ready to take a major part in the affair.

Announcement was made by E. J. Meyer, chairman of a committee on arranging a motocade from Sanford in Daytona, said that much progress has been made by his group, and that over 30 cars will be in the motocade leaving Sanford on Saturday night. This group is scheduled to leave the Valley Hotel at 5:15 o'clock to arrive at Daytona Beach in plenty of time to make ready for the parade that starts at 7:00 o'clock.

Mr. Meyer said that those persons who will be unable to leave here with the Seminole County delegation but wish to appear in the parade in that section may locate the delegation by calling at the Daytona Beach trade hotel.

A unique feature of the local participation in the parade is that a 25 piece Sanford Band will be dressed in overalls and straw hats. Mr. Meyer urges all local persons who go to Daytona to wear overalls and straw hats if possible.

A score of bands and brass corps will take part in this parade which is expected to be a roaring success in the early days of the nation. Red lights and flares, noisemakers, bands, marching detachments, and decorated floats will pass in a long procession before Mr. Sholtz's return to his official party.

Principal decreases in the list of qualified voters are in the two city precincts. In precinct 1, west
