

BERLIN CABINET TO BE HELD RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY OVERT ACT ON PART OF KAISER'S HEIR

BRITISH GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS BELIEVE DANGER PAST

NO COMPROMISE

Guarantee For Loans Must Be Assured By Berlin Government and Not Private Industry

(By The Associated Press) LONDON, Nov. 20.—It is forecasted here this afternoon that the proposed note to the Berlin Government will hold the cabinet strictly to account for any overt act on the part of the Kaiser's heir.

The British government officials considered this morning that all danger of disagreement with France on the question of the former Crown Prince and the resumption of interallied military control in Germany has passed.

They expect the council of ambassadors would reach a compromise unless some unforeseen obstacle was interposed at the last minute.

Dispatches from Paris today state that the gravity of the decision the ambassadors were called upon to take was reflected in the extraordinary precautions taken to surround the deliberations of the council with secrecy. The French newspaper men were marooned in one wing of the foreign office, while the ambassadors were notified that they should make their entrance at the other end. As for the foreign correspondents, including the American and British, they were excluded from the building altogether.

But the Anglo-Saxons, though obliged to shiver in the cold rain while on watch, were the first to penetrate the assets of the council. They discovered the scheme to introduce the ambassadors at the far end of the foreign office and while awaiting their arrival, were gratified by a cordial salute from Gen. Mangin, whose early morning visit to Premier Poincare was much commented upon in view of the present tension.

Myron T. Herrick, the American envoy, was in appearance the only optimist among the ambassadors. Viscount Ishii of Japan, grave and taciturn as usual, entered the building without looking to right or left. Lord Greve of Great Britain was solemn and preoccupied and appeared unaware of the presence of any spectators. Baron Vissano of Italy and Jules Cambon, representing France, escaped all observation by entering from the rear, but Baron Gailfard d'Hostoy of Belgium, although serious, had a smile for the newspapermen and posed for the photographers, expressing the hope they would do better by him than previously.

Hunting License Case Before Supreme Court

TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 20.—Hugh Hale of Brookville, representing the county Judge of Hernando county, today filed with the supreme court an answer to the writ of mandamus sworn out several days ago by Karl K. Eychanger of Tampa, to force the Hernando county judge to issue him a hunting license for $8.50.

Eychanger charged that the act of the legislature requiring a license fee of $50 for non-residents to hunt in Hernando county is unreasonable and unconstitutional. In his answer, Mr. Hale contends that the legislature has a right to enact special laws regulating issuance of hunting licenses, regardless of whether the applicants are residents or non-residents of any county, and he holds, therefore, that the law is valid.

EVERY SECTION OF FLORIDA OBSERVES EDUCATIONAL WEEK

Proclaimed By President Coolidge—State Educational Association Launches Campaign For Cause of Education

WINTER PARK, Fla., Nov. 19.—(Special)—Sunday, November 19, opened for Florida one of the most significant events in the development of its forces—the observation of National Educational Week, November 18-24, proclaimed by President Coolidge. In his proclamation the President asserted that every American citizen is entitled to a liberal education, and points out the fact that despotism finds its chief support in ignorance, and that knowledge and freedom go hand in hand.

With the remarkable development which is now in progress, the state of Florida is forging ahead in every material way and it remains for the educational agencies of this state to so organize themselves that the utmost efficiency may be maintained in the training of the state's children. This is the work which the Florida Education Association is attempting to do, and in order to bring it about plans have been made for the securing of more than 25,000 leading men and women of the state as citizen-members at $1 per person. If the citizens of the state will respond to the efforts of the Association in securing the desired quota of new members they will create for the cause of education a great power which will have for its only purpose the standardization of the state's school work and an enriching of the school life for Florida boys and girls.

SUFFICIENCY OF MUNITIONS WILL DECIDE NEXT WAR

Major General Clarence Williams Says That If U. S. Develops Resources Need Fear No Enemy

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The next major war "will be won or lost on the sufficiency of munitions reserves," Major General Clarence C. Williams, chief of General Ordnance, predicted in his annual report made public today at the War Department.

"I wish to emphasize the preponderating importance of adequate emergency reserves," General Williams said, adding that in view of the isolated position, highly developed specialized industries and immense resources of the United States it seemed "fairly certain that no power or combination of powers now in existence," could successfully invade the country after American man power and industry had been fully mobilized. "The possible rate of mobilization will always be determined by the state of our reserves," the report said, "since man power can be mobilized much more rapidly than industry. From this point of view, taking into account the present economic development of the world, it may be said that the next major war will be won or lost on the sufficiency of munitions reserve."

Report is interesting. The war left the country with a large stock of reserves on hand, General Williams continued, but with the passage of time the value of these is decreasing "due to development of improved and more powerful types." There is also, he added, a deterioration in stocks of ammunition which "is very much more pressing" than (Continued on Page Three)

GOV. WALTON IMPEACHED BY STATE SENATE

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 20.—Governor Trapp who succeeded Walton when he was impeached, said he would ask legislature today that it now adjourn, in house, however, there was introduced resolution seeking to expel Murray Gibbons speaker during ninth regular session on grounds he commercialized his influence as speaker to obtain executive clemency and had interfered with special election October 2 resolution was to be discussed this afternoon.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 20.—After a stormy session the State Senate Court of Impeachment last night removed Jack Walton as governor of Oklahoma. The vote was unanimous. Charges against the governor included corruption in office, neglect of duty, moral turpitude and general incompetence.

A formal verdict was returned after the executive had been found guilty of 11 of the 16 charges presented. The vote was 41 to 0.

Six of the original 22 charges constituting the impeachment bill were dismissed by order of the court. The court, by a standing vote, denied a motion for a new trial which Governor Walton's counsel filed immediately after the verdict was announced.

The governor's removal, although not formally ordered until after a verdict had been returned on each charge was made certain this afternoon when the court found him guilty of abusing his pardon and parole authority, the first charge to be voted upon.

Forty-one senators, lacking only one of the total membership of the body, voted for conviction. Senator Jack Barker, who has consistently voted in the governor's favor throughout the 16 days of the trial, was absent.

The articles of impeachment were filed by the lower House of the state legislature, which less than two months ago the executive had dispersed by military force.

SHIPPERS WILL BE PROTECTED AGAINST LOOSE PLAN

INCREASE VALUES

And Will Mean Money To The Grower—Classifications Are Outlined

An agreement has been reached by the distributing concerns in Sanford to have government inspection on all cars of perishables shipped from this section. This announcement is made as a result of a recent meeting, at which time it was agreed that this, more than anything else, would act as a form of protection against the loose plan of operation which, at present, is one of the greatest evils of the industry.

Inspection is made at the cars and certificates are issued showing grade, condition and quality, as well as the condition of the car and equipment. This certificate is valuable to the shipper and grower in making sales, in presenting claims to the railroad, and in making adjustments on cars that are off grade. In differentiating between the various qualities the following grades have been scheduled by the United States Department of Agriculture:

U. S. No. 1 shall consist of heads of lettuce of similar varietal characteristics which are fresh, well trimmed and fairly firm; which are not wilted, decayed or burnt, and which are free from stems and doubles and from damage caused by freezing, tip burn, disease, insects or mechanical or other means.

In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling not more than 10 per cent, by count, of any lot may be below the requirements of this grade.

U. S. No. 2 shall consist of heads of lettuce of similar varietal characteristics which are fresh, well trimmed, and which are free from seed stems and from damage caused by freezing injury, tip burn, disease, insects or mechanical or other means.

In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling not more than 10 per cent, by count, of any lot may be below the requirements of this grade.

U. S. No. 3 shall consist of heads of lettuce which do not meet the requirements of any of the foregoing grades.

The definition of terms as used in these grades may be of assistance to the growers and are as follows:

"Similar varietal characteristics" means that the heads of any container have the same color and characteristic leaf growth. For example, lettuce of the Iceberg and Big Boston types must not be mixed.

"Fresh" means crisp and green. "Well trimmed" means that the head is protected by green wrapper leaves but those wrapper leaves which have been noticeably injured by decay, (Continued on Page Six)

One Of the Wildest Exchange Markets On Records Monday

News of Decision of Council of Ambassadors Created Disturbance in Exchange

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Cable reports that the council of ambassadors had reached an accord that would prevent the threatened break between France and Great Britain today caused a sharp upturn of foreign bills in what was described as one of the "wildest" foreign exchange markets on record. A part of the gain was forfeited in the afternoon when later private dispatches indicated only partial approval of the agreement by the French cabinet.

Stocks and bonds also moved up briskly. European government securities particularly displaying strength and recovering much of the ground lost last week. Gains in the market ranged from one to four points. More than a score of foreign government bonds recorded advances of from one to more than three points. There was a sensational rise in demand sterling which jumped from $2.28 1-4 to $4.36, and then reacted to $4.32 1-2. Traders declared the market for exchanges was highly disorganized and unusually nervous.

A FLORIDA OPPORTUNITY.

That Florida soil is well adapted for bulb-growing has been indicated by various practical experiments, one of which was conducted near Elkton, St. Johns county, last year, when B. R. Lucas of this city and Rockford, Ill., planted hundreds of gladioli bulbs, cut thousands of stalks of beautiful flowers from the plants, and greatly increased the number of bulbs with which he started his gladioli farm. This was done mainly as an experiment, but proved so successful that it would be well worth repeating, providing a market were assured, not too far from home. In this connection, as regards a new southern industry, the Palm Beach Post recently said:

"On Wilmington (N. C.) Island the Sun Ray Bulb Farms Corporation is planning to enter extensively upon the raising of flower bulbs for the to the near expiration of the time when, owing to certain importation restrictions, foreign bulbs will be entirely barred from the United States. "The lowlands of South Florida are well and naturally adapted to bulb growing, as the presence of many beautiful and rare varieties of bulbous and other flowering plants prove. Particularly on the semi-low lands of the interior of this county can these wonderful flowering lilies, of faintest little white ones of early spring-time to the gorgeous flags and tiger lilies through the entire list of the seven native varieties indigenous to the eastern part of the United States, be grown.

"The magnificent Easter lily, so called, and the flaming Truk's cup are as much at home here as are the most native plant that grows. Every one of the early spring flowering bulbs, the daffodils, snowdrops, tulips, hyacinths, jonquils, and the old, well-known in higher latitudes "batter and eggs" can easily be propagated here, and from the sale of them a great paying industry can be built up.

"All the Dutch bulbs and the bulbs from the Bermudas will be barred from importation to the United States within the next year or two and there will be a scarcity and a demand for bulbs which will tax the few glass-gardens of the northern states to satisfy.

"Palm Beach county has hundreds of localities finely adapted to the propagation of bulbs. In several counties of the peninsular Florida florists are already waking up to the opportunity, and it behooves the gardeners and floriculturists of this section to be on the job, and reap a part of the harvest which will soon be ripe.

"No one who has not seen the wonderful lily farms of the Bermudas or the tulip and other bulb-rooted flower farms of Holland can have any idea of the beauty and magnificence of those farms and gardens. That there is big money in raising the bulbs for market is evidenced by the fact that for many years this country has bought millions of dollars worth each season from Holland and the Bermudas.

Besides being a money-maker and a pleasant occupation, there is nothing that would add more to the attractiveness of the county for visitors than bulb farms, especially when they are blossoming.

"Florists know the value of the bulb as a seller; and the public values them highly for the dainty blossoms they give when nothing else in early spring has had the courage in northern states to peep up out of the snow and whisper, "Spring is coming; spring is here!"

"Bulb growing is just another of the great industries which can be built up in this county, and as the time is ripe for them, it behooves intelligently competent flower lovers to make a start.—St. Augustine Record.

VEGETABLE CONDITIONS GOOD.

It was an inspiring tour the Grower representative made this week through the trucking fields of Sanford and Seminole county, and the uniform reports of both the growers and shipping organizations indicate that one of the largest and best seasons in the history of the enterprise there is approaching.

It gives a cracker a thrill to hear the laudations of the weather man on every hand—and then to view the vast acreage growing to lettuce and celery, which, according to C. M. Berry, field agent of the Sanford Farmers' Exchange, affiliated with the Florida Citrus Exchange, is nearly one hundred per cent in condition, and a hundred per cent or better with respect to acreage.

Mr. Berry stated that his organization would ship between four and five thousand cars of celery this season, including the late spring yield. "Weather conditions are unusually good so far," said Mr. Berry, "in fact the most favorable season known for many years."

He said the Farmers' Exchange would begin shipping lettuce next week; that a car could have been cut this week. Shipments will continue until January 15. "Likewise we will ship escarole in car lots during December, and our packing and pre-cooling plant will open in January for the shipment of washed and pre-cooled Stag brand celery. We will continue the shipment of celery until June 1, after which we will begin shipping pre-cooled peppers and sweet corn for the balance of the season, probably ending July 4."

Other shipping organizations report equally favorable conditions, and several carlots moved during the week, with f.o.b. prices averaging $2.00.

The first car to go forward was a new variety of lettuce, known as Jewett Green, a variety that has been developed in Sanford, which it is claimed withstands both cold and heat to a higher degree than the universally grown Big Boston. The Jewett Green is a variety of the Big Boston, but appears to be better adapted to the Sanford climate and more than a hundred acres has been planted to it this season.

There are probably three thousand acres growing to lettuce and celery in Seminole county, all of which is to be seen in the vicinity of Sanford, except approximately 50 acres at Oviedo.

The lettuce fields will probably run as high as 900 acres while celery planting will probably pass the three thousand mark. The exact acreage of celery cannot be determined, as the spring setting will be in progress until January 15th.

Likewise the acreage to go to the cultivation of peppers is uncertain, since very few acres have been planted to date. The Sanford truckers plant peppers for the spring market, and mostly follow the lettuce crops.

With the cool weather effecting good heading of Big Boston, although not so large as might be desired, and with the poor and fast-diminishing supply of the New Jersey and Virginia crop, the outlook is unusually bright. Last year field after field went to seed, and although sporadic patches are to be seen with the same tendency this year—probably due to the plants being set before the rainy season ended—the general outlook is for a harder and much more satisfactory product this season.

The principal competitor of the Sanford consignments will be the immense production of the Imperial Valley section in California, which started moving this week. This is the Iceberg variety, and is being quoted in New York at $3.50 to $5. Reports reaching Sanford indicate that within a very few days seventy-five carloads of Iceberg will be moving daily.

The lettuce trade has shown much more interest in Sanford this year owing to the quality of the New Jersey consignments for the past several weeks. Last season Jersey was in position to compete with Florida almost to the end of the Florida season, and further owing to the warm weather that visited the Eastern section of the United States up until nearly Thanksgiving. This year weather conditions were poor, and cold weather made its approach in October. Consequently the deck is clear for the Sanford truckmen to get an even break with the California output.

The Florida Vegetable Corporation, which handles the sales of the Manatee Growers' Association, reports that several carloads of peppers are moving from Manatee daily, and that the growers are getting $3.00 f.o.b. shipping point.

W. M. Scott, manager of the American Fruit Growers, reports that the celery crop is growing in the best condition seen for several years, and that the ideal weather has freed the plants from blight and insects. The employment of power-sprayers, however, he says, has contributed materially to the splendid condition of the plants as well. Celery will begin rolling about January 15, and it was Mr. Scott's belief that the total celery acreage would reach or exceed 3,000 acres, including the fall and spring plantings. There are 1,800 acres now set, he said, and perhaps 1,200 more will follow. He said his company would handle 5,000 cars of celery and 1,700 cars of lettuce.—Florida Grower.

An Infallible Guard

Advertising, if you use it properly, is an infallible sentinel for you. It guards you against fraud and inferiority. It protects you against making unwise and unsatisfactory purchases.

Merchants and manufacturers who advertise must give full value because they have good names to protect. The makers of well known products often value names at millions of dollars. They cannot afford to jeopardise the worth of these names by selling any but good goods of full measure and fair price.

America's Greatest Sight-Seeing Tour

At last a visit to Miami and Coral Gables as our guests in one of the new modern pullman auto busses especially planned and carried out for the people of Sanford.

An opportunity to enjoy free of charge a motor trip through the interesting points along the east coasts of Florida; a sight seeing trip to points of interest in Miami, and a tour through Coral Gables—that Master Suburb of the Magic City where the beauty of Spanish architecture, the setting of tropical plants, the broad plazas and boulevards, the magnificent country club, golf course, the tennis courts, the out door dancing floor, and the Venitian swimming pool framed with flowers and trees makes life richer and fuller.

Mr. Ralph Green special man for Coral Gables will be in this office Wednesday, November 21, to make reservations for a special bus to be made up entirely of Sanford people to make the trip Monday, November 26. This is your chance to make the trip with our local people.

Reservations should be made at the earliest moment at the local office. The big bus is as easy riding as a pullman car, and the trip will be in charge of courteous and efficient members of the Coral Gables organization. Here's your opportunity to join the greatest sight seeing tour in America. Space is limited. Make your reservation for seats now.

TODAY'S BIBLE THOUGHT
The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil; He shall preserve thy soul.—Psalm 121:7.

Money well spent is money made.

A few dollars spent upon paint and varnish can bring hundreds of dollars in increased property values.

"Health comes through right thinking"—but thinking is mighty hard work for most people.

It is a good practice to roll up your copy of the home paper and send it to a friend in another state.

This 'Education Week' business must be embarrassing to a fellow who takes no part in public service and yet has a conscience.

Sanford's street construction program is attracting attention and favorable comment by every visitor in the city.

Treat the stranger well. A lowly hotel clerk in a Pennsylvania town received a legacy of a hundred thousand dollars from a man for whom he had done a forgotten kindness.

The K. K. K. seems to be getting into politics, into the papers, and into the churches; but darned if they seem able to get into the jails.—Palm Beach Times.

Every dollar spent by the City of Sanford and by private enterprises on the lake front development will return ten fold. Lake Monroe is one of Sanford's greatest assets.

The successful merchant is the merchant who gets his full share of the community's patronage. He goes after business instead of waiting for business to force itself upon him.

Henry Ford's paper, the Dearborn Independent, says: "The cost of transportation should have but one basis—actual expense plus a reasonable return for actual investment in physical value."

More than 30,000,000 dozen eggs are said to be in Chicago the price to 80 cents a dozen. A proper boycott of the egg brokers would bring a long-to-be remembered smash.

One of the New York papers reports that the Christmas shopping already under way is greater than that of the first week of December last year. Perhaps the buying public has at last learned that the early shopper gets the choice.

Now is the time of year when wistful little boys and girls will stand outside the store windows hoping against hope that some of the Christmas toys will come to them. It's great work to play Santa Claus to youngsters whom the old chap would otherwise miss.

The Orlando Chamber of Commerce is to be congratulated upon the publication of a booklet "Possibilities in Orange County" which sets forth some very valuable facts and statistics of that section. This booklet will no doubt be the means of interesting many people throughout the country in the farming possibilities of Orange.

Whether William Jennings Bryan goes to the next national Democratic convention as a delegate from Florida, or merely attends as a spectator, the chances are that he will have more to say regarding who shall be the nominee for presidential honors than will any group of delegates present, says the Palaka News. For twenty years he has been the dictator of nominations and platforms, and there is no reason for presuming that he will recede from the position which he has occupied for so long a period. His opponents will find him the shrewdest of politicians; and will learn that his "influence" is practically a necessity to win out.

"Patriotism Day"—"America First"

This is "Patriotism Day" in "Education Week" with the slogan, "America First," as the theme on which school programs will be based, and on which public speakers will orate. "America First"—all right, America "first" in what and how? The Herald is well aware that the usual interpretation of the slogan will be "My country right or wrong, my country!" That is the great spirit which has made the United States of America the beautiful entity it is today. But just to be "different," the Herald would like to talk about another kind of "first" than is meant by the most of us when we say "America First."

Most of us mean when we use that slogan that in our eyes and in our hearts America's welfare and America's glory come first. As we rightly place the happiness of those near and dear to us above the happiness of strangers, we as rightly place the interests of America above those of other lands. "America first" and then the welfare of other lands—"America first" with close study as to how America's glory may be enhanced and made more certain by its relations with other governments.

All of that is the expected interpretation of the "first" in that slogan. With that interpretation, too, comes the usual one of "America first" in the lead it takes in countless material ways in its corn and its cotton, its railroads and its automobiles.

But why not today nation-wide emphasis upon the responsibility that each of us has in contributing to this "first"? What are you and your folks, for instance, doing toward making the United States merit its top rank?

One Sanford citizen, let us say, keeps adding to Sanford's beauty and to the happiness of its people. Another man, let us hazard, destroys beauty and brings sorrow and unworthiness. Which of these men has the better right to wave his hat in the air and shout "America first"?

You get our thought, perhaps. There is so much "talk" patriotism, so much four-flushing, so much plain bunk in the high sounding oratory and class instruction of these special "Days." By all means, "America first" is the slogan for each and every American, but with it some searching self-examination as to how much each of us is doing, as the days go by, to help keep America "FIRST."

Women's Clubs Doing Great Work

This is an important week for the women of Florida. The twenty-ninth annual convention of the Florida Federation of Women's Clubs opens this evening at the West Palm Beach Woman's Club with a program that will be far-reaching in its good effects.

More and more have the Women's Clubs gotten away from the purely literary and social features that characterized them only a few years ago. The Woman's Club of today is a workers' organization, with social betterment the chief aim.

To achieve social betterment, the Woman's Club is broad in its scope. From international politics down to questions of the best way of providing a nourishing school lunch for every youngster in the community, the alert club woman of today finds opportunity to use her brains, with the problem of the school lunch and the problem of better conditions for the boys and girls handsomely outweighing the so-called great issues.

In West Palm Beach this week the various Women's Clubs of the state will report much fine work that has been accomplished since the twenty-eighth convention of the Federation. And at this year's gathering some more big plans for club activities will be launched.

The Herald sends greetings and best wishes. The club women of Florida are doing great work.

THE POWER OF THOUGHT

(Dr. Charles Gilbert Davis)

If a thought can in an instant of time dilate or contract a blood vessel; if it can increase or decrease the secretion of a gland; if it can hasten or retard the action of the heart; if it can turn the hair gray in a single night; if it can force tears from the eyes; if it can in an instant produce bodily weakness; if it can produce insomnia; if, as has often occurred, it can bring instantaneous death,—then is it not natural for us to conclude, without further argument, that it may bring about a more or less continuous derangement of the physical organism that we call disease?

I have seen the most wonderful effects follow a fit of anger. After an outburst of passion the function of every gland in the body is impaired. Time and time again, I have observed acute illness in an infant when it was permitted to nurse immediately after the mother had engaged in a quarrel, and on more than one occasion I have seen death follow within a few hours.

The standing army of the human body is the corpuscles of the blood. Upon them we depend to heal the wounds, build new tissue and attack the poisonous bacilli that may attempt to enter our systems.

Thought produces disease because of its action on the corpuscles of the blood. These corpuscles are wonderfully influenced by the mind. An outraged conscience; hate, envy, anger and fear crush the vitality out of them and leave the citadel of life exposed. But faith, hope, happiness and love create them and send them swarming through the body till every fibre and tissue throbs with life. This is demonstrated by the microscope.

STATE PRESS COMMENTS

Lakeland Star-Telegram: If it were not for the personal confirmation brought to Lakeland yesterday by two of the three purchasers, the published announcement appearing in the Sanford Herald of Saturday to the effect that The Herald has passed from the ownership of Robert J. Holly to Reese Combs, Rollin L. Dean and R. H. Berg, all of Miami, could scarcely be credited. The two last named young men were in Lakeland yesterday, happy over the consummation of a deal which places them in possession of one of the most valuable and most promising newspaper properties in central Florida.

While these three aggressive young publishers, all formerly connected with the Miami Metropolis when was owned by Mr. Dean's father, S. Bobo Dean who sold the paper to James M. Cox, will receive a cordial welcome into the fold of Florida journalism, it will be difficult to separate in thought, the Sanford Herald and Bob Holly. Bob has striven in bad weather and in fair, for the upbuilding of Sanford. His heart has been in his work and his personality has counted for much in winning the fight, sometimes against great odds. Whatever financial reward has come to Mr. and Mrs. Holly, because the

I AM—

I LIVE in the sunshine. I bring out the best in people, because I always see the best and expect the best from them. I keep up the courage of men when they are hard pressed by discouraging conditions.

I encourage the inventor when he is driven to desperation by poverty, and the criticism and unkindness of even his own family.

I am a prophet who sees beyond the obstacles, beyond the difficulties, a vision of success and achievement.

I see the beautiful lily in the dried up bulb, the luxurious summer garden in the winter's frozen ground. I see a big flourishing business in a little beginning, a thriving community in a small town.

When a man chooses me for his companion, he never talks of hard times or carries a picture of poverty or want in his mind.

I keep the sufferer from giving up to pain or despair when under the surgeon's knife or laid low by disease.

I am the enemy of the pessimist, who sees nothing but disaster, failure, gloom, sickness and evil everywhere.

I am always predicting good times, for I can see brightness and joy, sunshine, gladness and hope where the pessimist sees only their opposites.

I visualized and made possible a railroad across the American desert where many men saw only sagebrush and alkali plains.

I have spanned rivers, tunneled the mountains, erected skyscrapers, and conquered the air.

I am one of man's greatest benefactors. With me as his friend, he has never given up to despair, even when starvation has stared him in the face and all mankind has seemed against him.

No one can discourage me with black pictures of the future by suggesting that we are going to have a panic, that business storms are brewing, that snags are ahead and dreadful things are coming to this country which could feed, clothe, and house the world.

It is useless to tell me that you fear the bolsheviks will yet get America, that every business concern and every household is already feeling their influence. If everybody believed in the future of America, believed in good times ahead of us, as I do, we would have them.

I am a producer of health, of good cheer, of prosperity, the friend of all that is encouraging, stimulating, helpful, inspiring.

I AM OPTIMISM.

Homeseekers' Rates To South May Be Granted

(Fort Pierce News-Tribune)

It has been announced that it is probable that the Southeastern Passenger Association will act favorably upon the application for homeseekers' rates into southern territory. This will mean that thousands of people who are looking Florida-ward will come to the state for the purpose of seeing the country and ascertaining for themselves just what the state has to offer.

Florida as a state has never advertised extensively. Many of the cities and counties have advertised by booklet, literature, and through papers and magazines, but this advertising has generally been of a character to induce visitors to the state to play or rest. Pictures of palms and bathing girls have predominated and have effectively made this the nation's playground. Citrus culture has been given a fair degree of advertising and Florida is well known as a land where the finest oranges and grapefruit are produced.

There are literally thousands upon thousands of acres of the richest soil peculiarly adapted to truck farming, there are other thousands of acres suitable for dairying. Practically every kind of vegetable can be produced profitably in the state, its phosphate and other mineral deposits afford unlimited development. Its fisheries are sources of wealth far greater than the unutilized might believe.

Tell the homeseeker that Florida is a good place in which to live and to play, then tell him that it is a good place in which to make money, where there is a greater return for the investment whether of muscle or dollars than in many other places. Advertise Florida instead of the city or county, advertise its agricultural possibilities instead of its attractive playground.

First Mortgage BONDS on Real Estate

Property Value and Amount of Loan

The first Adair Mortgage Loans, made over half a century ago, were popular among the investors of that period because they knew that the property held as security was always worth double the amount of the loan.

Adair Protected Bonds—the modern, scientifically developed real estate mortgage—are a vast improvement over the original Adair mortgages, but the good old fashioned safety principle of limiting the loan to a safe proportion of the true value of the property is an even more important feature of these securities today.

You may purchase these bonds, created and recommended by the South's Oldest Mortgage Investment House, with full assurance that the accumulated knowledge of 58 years' experience in this field has protected your investment at every step.

Offered in units of $100, $500 and $1,000. Our improved partial payment plan makes this great investment opportunity available to over investors; each payment draws interest at 7%.

FIRES THROUGH THE DUSK.
If it were not for little lights
Set high above the plain
When darkness comes, I think that there
Would be no ease for pain:

If never more a round, bright moon
Would climb the hills at night,
A million hearts would turn and break
With longing for its light:

If no white candle—anywhere—
Would lift a tulip flame
The grief, for Beauty's sake alone
Could never have a name:

And if all firelight should cease,
And light no lifted face,
Each old loved room would be a bleak,
Ungracious dwelling place:

And oh, dear Heart—if suddenly—
One little casement's glow
Should fall for me—the light would die
In the whole world, I know.

POLICE APPREHEND THEATRE TROWLERS

Chief Williams and Officer Beckwith were standing in the front door of the theatre at the time it happened and were immediately informed by an attendant. They rushed around to the dressing room of the Milane where they were told by one of the Hawaiians where it happened and how. It seems as if the little girl who was the leading dancer of the evening had started to her dressing room and as she neared the door some one ran out. She immediately signaled to her mother who was on the stage at the time and together they entered the room where they discovered the loss of the purse.

The little girl hadn't noticed anything about the intruder except that his hand was white, confirming the officer's opinion that it was a white person. This was the only clue that the officers could possibly find and from this they started out.

During the night several white boys, all minors, were brought to Congregational Parsonage, Thursday night.

the police station and after close questioning by Chief Williams, with the aid of Beckwith and Walker, the boys admitted that they were concerned in the affair. One of their number admitted stealing the purse and starting down the alley with it but being frightened by the scream of the little girl, dropped it.

The officers seemed to have the right dope on who was concerned in the affair by the quick way in which they picked up the right ones. The "young burglars" are held under bond and will be dealt with.
