County to OK Cross Seminole Trail plan

By Russ White HERALD STAFF WRITER

SEMINOLE COUNTY - They don't agree often, but the Cross Seminole Trail issue excites the Board of County Commissloners to no end Listen, and you'll hear them stuging Hoppy Trails to You.

On Tuesday, the Board is expected to unanimously approve joint management and usage agreements for the Cross National Seminole/Florida Scenic Trail Certification Plan "This is a universally approved project." Commission Chairman Randy Morris said today. "Some extremely hardworking citizens helped make it happen. And before our Cross Seminole Trail was in place we were included in the National Scenic Trail package. When the Florida National Scenic Trail is completed it will cover 1.300 miles across the state from the Big Cypress National Preserve in Montoe County to the Gulf Islands National Seashore in Santa Rosa County at the northwestern tip of the state

The Certification plan the commissioners will execute of Actally certifies more than time the Florida Trail through the Econ State Forest and the Spring Hammock Preserve with City of Ovtedo and the Cross Semmole Trail,

The commission is also expected to approve joint use miles of existing portions of agreements between the county and Florida Power & Light Company and MacAsphalt APAC Florida Inc.

It is the county's goal to have the National Certification in place for the announcement by Please See Trail, Page 4A

Winter Springs has a different idea for trail

By Tony Tizzio HERALD CORRESPONDENT

WINTER SPRINGS - While the proposed City of Winter Springs Town Center is gathering praise across Central Florida, some are taking a wait and see attitude.

Case in point. Seminole County planners are in discussion at present with the City of Winter Springs.

On the wait and see front. "We have not had time yet to review the concept," say's Colleen Rotella, acting Comprehensive Planning Manager for the county. Rotella goes on to say that the path for the Cross Seminole Trail as currently presented is in a high, dry location. "We need to be careful that if the project doesn't come about, then the trail is left adjacent to wetlands" Rotella also said, this trail could work wonderfully in a downtown setting."

The talks are over the planned realignment of the piece of the Trails property by the City of Winter Springs. This move Please Bes Downtown, Page 4A

Change in county no wake zone

From Staff Reports

SEMINOLE COUNTY - Words of caution are being expressed by the Seminole County Sheriff's Department. The warning is in regard to water safety.

With the coming of warmer months, it is expected that the vessel traffic on Seminole County lakes will increase drastically. In the past, there have been problems when vessels have been operated in a carcless manner too close to the shoreline, docks or swimining areas.

the Seminole Recently, County Commission passed a change to the existing county ordinance that establishes a no-wake zone. As a result of the change, it is now unlawful to operate a vessel, aquaplane or similar device at a speed that creates a wake in any bathing, swimming or launching area.

Sheriff's Lieutenant Jack Cash said the phrase "bathing. swimming or launching area" is defined in the ordinance change as "any area within 50 yards of the shoreline, docks. piers, bridges or boathouses, Please See Wake, Page 6A

The new Sanford Lions, hear them roar

By Nick Pfelfauf HERALD STAFF WRITER

SANFORD - A new Lions Club has been formed in Sanford. Newly elected President Matt Altemese said it will meet in the evening rather than in the daytime, to allow more working people to participate in Lions Club activities.

The club was sponsored by the original Sanford Lions Club, with President Dr. Bob Smith assisting in the dedication ceremonies, along with the club sponsor Harold Highsmith.

A number of area Lions officials were also on hand including District Governor Norman Xanders, whose wife Cindy is a member of the new club. Also Vice District Governor Fred Bartlett, and Past International Director Lionel Lindsey.

A number of new members were inducted including Mayor Larry Dale, who is considered as one of the charter members of the evening club.

The Charter Night event was also considered as a new organization by the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce, with Harold Highsmith, Ron Rose and Julie Campbell on hand to represent the chamber.

Altemese said the official ribbon cutting was held on March 17. "We held our first meeting on April 6th at the Marina Hotel," he said, "and we'll be meeting on the first and third Monday of each month, also at the hotel." He stressed that the meeting time will be 7 p.m., and suggested others who may want to join the new club be on hand for one of the meetings.

The Lions Clubs have traditionally been one of the leaders in helping the sightless, dealing in providing cycglasses and leader dogs.

OVIEDO - Yes, Virginia, Regal Cinema's Oviedo Marketplace 22 will be opening Friday, April 10. After being held up due to electrical wiring problems, the massive cineplex will finally make its debut to awaiting customers.

The new theaters further the trend of bringing a high level of comfort to movie- going. We're trying to rescreen America," said Jennifer Harris, Regal Cinemas marketing director, of the new wave happening more and more in the construction of movie theaters. Harris said that theater chains are trying to take the public out of their homes and back into theaters to watch movies.

Oviedo Marketplace 22 is lathered in amenities ranging from high back, plush seating with retractable arins to a full service concession stand with gourmet coffee and baked goods. The theaters sport the latest in digital sound and the rows are in stadium formation.

Tickets will be available at the entrance to the theater. However, patrons will have the option of buying two-day advance tickets and even purchasing tickets with credit card. Harris said there may even be klosks set up at both ends of the Oviedo Marketplace mall in the future for customers to buy tickets.

Movie-goers will have a cinematic smorgasbord Please Sca Cinema, Page 4A to

Rowe: Community development touches everyone

By Nick Pfelfauf HERALD STAFF WRITER

SANFORD - "In one way or another, community development touches everyone," says Sanford Community Development Director Charles Rowe.

Rowe commented on Governor Lawton Chiles' proclamation of the week of April 6 as Community Development Week in Florida. The designation is part of a nationwide effort to promote the impact community development programs make every day.

"Here in Sanford," Rowe explained, "Community Development involves the Building Department, Code Enforcement, Licensing, Economic Development and a variety of grant programs. We cover code enforcement complaints, occupational licenses, low income home rehabilitation and many other projects including attracting new economic development which helps create more jobs and subsequently helps in the tax base of the city.'

Rowe estimated that there probably isn't a citizen of the city who hasn't, in one way or another, been connected with the activities of the Community Development Department.

State Department of Community Affairs (DCA) Secretary Jim Murley added safe neigh-borhoods and affordable housing to the work done by the department. Community Development Week is yet another opportunity for us to find ways to bring even better businesses, create even more jobs foster self-sustaining and communities across the state," he said.

Statewide, since 1991, DCA has provided over $1 billion to local governments through its Community Development Block Grant Program. Local governments use most of the money to rehabilitate low to moderate Please See Community, Page 6A

Senior helpline

Did you know that over 20 community-based services are available to seniors in Brevard, Orange, Osceola and Seminole counties through the Sentor Resource Alliance (SRAI? To help inform elders about such services, SRA's "Senior Helpline" is available Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

For two years, the Senior Helpline has served as a centralized access point through an Information and Referral System. Last year, the Helpline received over 21,100 calls.

The Helpline is available to seniors, caregivers, social workers and healthcare professionals. They can access information about housing, in-home services, legal, insurance and financial assistance, and much more

According to Information and Referrals Specialist dessica Vazques, the Helpline is a great place to learn about services available in Central Florida, whether it's for yourself, a relative or friend.

"To help them maintain their independence. sentors should use the Sentor Helpline as a starting point to seek information on services available in the community," says Vazques.

Information and Referral Specialists are bilingual and can be reached at (407) 623-1380 in Orange. Osceola and Seminole counties. In Brevard call (407) 631-2747.

Special to the Herald

The Federal Home Loan Bank of Atlanta (FHLBA) announced the offering of its 1998 First Time Homebuver Program (FHP), which provides $1 million in matching funds to FHLBA member financial institutions for qualifying firsttime homebuyers.

Twenty-five percent of this year's funds will be set aside first for rural areas as defined by the Rural Housing Service. FHLBA members serving rural areas exclusively will receive priority until the rural set aside funds have been allocated. The programs are noncompetitive and to assure maximum geographic distribu-tion FHP funds will be awarded through a rotation by state lottery process. Members may request an aggregate maximum of $50,000 of FIIP subsidy funds annually.

"In our first year of the program, 478 families in 21 communities became firsttime homebuyers," said Paul Hill, president of the FHLBA. "We are proud of our role in providing opportunities for affordable housing through our partnerships with local financial institutions."

Member institutions are encouraged to involve non-profit organizations in the activities of their programs and must provide some form of tangible, measurable contribution to a household's mortgage beyond FHP funds.

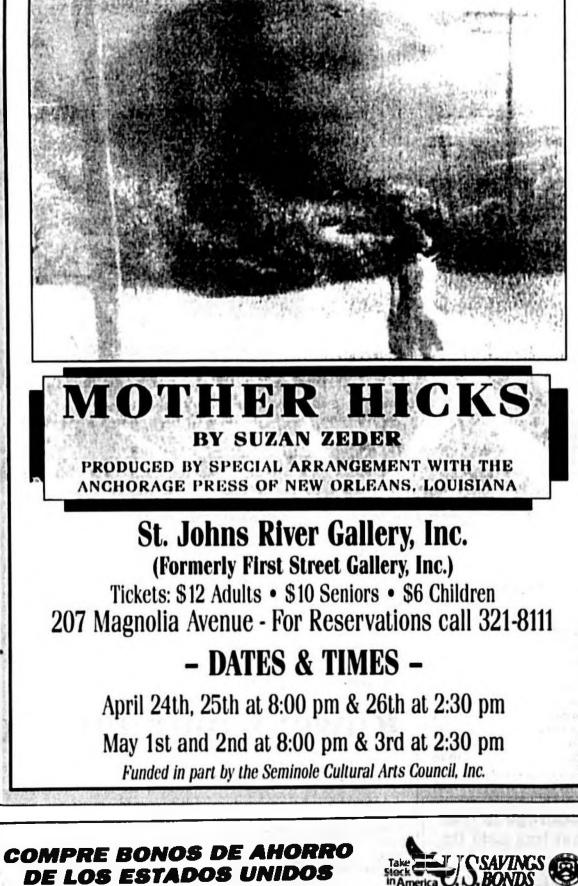

The funds can only be used for down payment and closing cost assistance. To qualify prospective homebuyers must:

 have household incomes at or below 80 percent of the area median income;

· complete an eligible homebuyer counseling program approved by the member bank.

FHP applications may be submitted only by financial in-stitutions which are members of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Atlanta, and must be received by the FIILBA by April 20. To obtain a copy of the 1998 FHP summary and application, call the automated phone line at (404) 999-5365. Since 1990, the Federal from the City of Sanford and presented Sanford Mayor Larry Dale, who gave words of encouragement. He asked that we make ourselves a role model for our children, to be tolerant of people and to not have that lackadaistcal appearance or attitude. We are to make our children morally strong and we must work together. The African-American community is not separate. We must always teach our children to be productive citizens.

Mayor Dale presented a Proclamation to Principal Hardy-Blake and to mirsery facilitator Natherine Bentley from the City of Sanford in honor of Children's Day, 1998. Remember that children are vital and precious resources so let us focus on the concerns of our children.

Bentley gave words of thanks to the invited guests and the over 50 guest joined in the children's musical presentation at noon. All held hands as the children of the TAPP Program sang "He's Got The Whole World In His Hands".

After a very delicious lunchcon, the guests Joined Chief Woodrow Jackson of the Crooms R.O.T.C. on a tour of the campus along with Dr. Ron-Penell of the Seminole County School Board and young parents program.

The nursery facilitator of TAPP said she received a fax from a former Sanfordite and concerned citizen, Attorney Michael Caolo, who had learned of this special day dedicated to children from his mother Jackie Caolo who is a supporter of the TAPP Program.

Michael Caolo, of Dallas, wrote his concerns for out children in Sanford. He said they are the greatest asset we as a community have and that we should "reap what we sow." Out children are our future. They should be the manifestation of the best of our morals. beliefs, talents and goals. says City of Winter Springs Commissioner as well as chairwoman of Seminole County's Cross Seminole Trails Task Force, Cindy Gennell, 78 in the best interest of economic viability. The move will give hikers and equestrians better access.

In addition, the city will also be constructing several supplemental trails of sits own, throughout downtown. This is in accordance with a rule by the office of Greenways and Trails, which says that if you take a piece of property, you must give property of equal value of that amount in dollar value. All this fits in with the city's extensive master plan of creating a downtown area.

Still others are not crazy about the project. At the March 23 city commission meeting, Michael Schrimsher, owner of Schrimsher Properties, which manages much of the property in that area for a group of investors said, "I feel like someone who just built a house to see if the government is going to give me a lot of rules on that property."

Schrimsher went on to say, "If you are going to tell me how to run their property, you might as well buy it, I would urge the city not to approve this plan unless there is a certain amount of property. Without our support, it will not go."

the Department of Agriculture's Forest Service at the Grand Opening of the Cross Seminole Trail in May. There's a ribbon cutting ceremony at Black Hammock Trail Head on May 5 and a Trail Fest on May 16.

The Florida National Scenic Trail project is one of 11 nationally certified recreational, historic, and scenic trails in the U.S. - and the only one to stay open throughout the winter. The most desirable months to use the trail are October through April.

David Schmidt, senior environmental planner for Seminole County, said the Seminole Trail will eventually be 14 miles (4 at the start) and cross with the Seminole Wekiva Trail, also 14 miles.

The Seminole Trail is a multi-purpose trail that will include equestrian use, biking, roller-blading, walking and jogging - whatever people want. "The Trail seems to be particularly popular with every-Commissioner Grant onc." Maloy said today. "Everyone Is eager for it to open next month. "What we need to address is what the maintenance costs will be down the road."

"This is something the citizens really want," Commis-sioner Win Adams said. "It adds value to properties, and is especially welcome to those who want a safe place to enjoy the outdoors. It makes good horse sense."

As good as it gets SHS class of 1948 gears up for 50th reunion

SPECIAL TO THE HERALD

Members of the Seminole High School class of 1947 will celebrate their 50-year graduation anniversary, April 17 through 20, Many of the out-of-town class members will be staying at the Marina Hotel in Sanford.

That evening the celebration will begin at 6 with a social hour at the home of Kay and Sophia Shoemaker; then to the home of Bill and Maggie (Partin) Inghram for a barbecue prepared by Bill. Next stop will be coffee and cake hosted by Hazel (Routh) Madden and Barbara (Saunders) Chapman at the home of Chip and Barbara. Hazel, who is baking the cake, is the daughter of the late Hazel and Walter Routh. Sr., who owned one of Sanford's finest bakeries in the 40s and '50s.

Saturday's reunion begins at 11 a.m. with a peek at the restoration of the Ritz Theater, where class members spent many Saturdays in their youth; lunch at the Colonial Room that was once part of Touchton's Drugstore, where '48ers spent many after school hours. Following lunch, a visit to Student Museum, where many attended 5th and 6th grades.

In the evening over 80 will attend festivities at the A.K. Shoemaker Terminal at the Sanford-Orlando Airport. Terminal tours will begin at 6, and social hour at 6:30. A sealed gournet dinner will be served at 7:30 followed by a program, entertainment and dancing. The terminal was named in honor of class member Shoemaker in 1995, who served as chairman of the Airport Authority for 11 years and board member for 27 years. Another class member, Don Knight, also served on the board for many years.

On Sunday, the 19th, many members of the class and their spouses plan to worship as a group, at First Baptist Church on Park Avenue and then to brunch at the Marina Hotel Restaurant.

To continue "playing" (Do you remember?), a few of the members will join on Monday, for a luncheon cruise on the St. Johns to see the "real" Florida.

The class has invited Boo and Fred Ganas, Nellie and Boyd Coleman, and Louise and Roger Harris to be their guests at the Saturday banquet. Fred, Nellie and Roger all taught at SHS when this class graduated. Another of the class's favorite teachers was the late late Dr. John Root, Sr. John Sr., (Capt. US Navy ret.) a member of this class and an attorney, died six weeks ago and was buried from the Congregational Christian Church on Park Avenue where Dr. Root was pastor for many years.

For months, members of the committee have been meeting and making plans (Lundquist) Austin and Doris (Dougherty) Omey.

The president of the senior class was the late Herb Stenstrom, Beard, the class vice-president, will serve as master of ceremony. Other class officers were Bob Park, secretary, who lives in the D.C. area and is professor emeritus of law at George Washington University; the late Walter Gardner, who was class treasurer and a Sanford anesthetist: Leslie Harvey, chaplain, who will attend from Orlando; Frances (LcFils) Stanaland and the late Holly Piercy were both athletic managers. Frances lives in Savannah and will attend. Beard was president of the '48 Student Council and the late (Judge) Harold Johnson was secretary.

Captains of the football team were Beard and the late John Alexander who later served as Seminole County Commission Chairman. The team managers were Stenstrom and Inghram and the late Bob Pullin served as the basketball team manager. The teams were coached by Fred Ganas. Among the team players was Glenn McCall, former Touchton Drug Store owner. The Tri-Hi-Y president was Jane Gut, who will be coming from Jacksonville. Other officers were Maggie Inghram, Madden and Walker. Walker is the class of '48's ex officio president and the reason so many members are still in touch and close friends.

Outstanding Seniors pictured in the Salmagundi were: Beard, Stanaland, Maggie Inghram, Alexander, Stenstrom, Lillian (Moran) Keith. Sanford, the late Anita (Jemenez) Kelly, Rossetter, New York, Alvin Penley, Altoona, Peggy (Pippin) Harden, Texas, the late Bob Pullin, whose widow, Alice, is attending from San Antonio and Betty Humphrey, Sanford. The class presidents for the four high school years were: freshman and senior years -- Stenstrom, sophomore year--Shoemaker, junior year--Pullin.

The SHS yearbook was, as it is today, the Salmagundi, usually called the SALLY. The editor in '48 was Maggie Inghram. Homecoming Queen was Fran-ces Stanaland. May Day Ball Queen and King were Peggy Harden and Bob Fair-cloth. Peggy and Bob were cheerleaders along with Billy Duncan, B.J. (Copeland) Gillis, Shirley Cox, Alvin Penley, the late Phyllis (Bach) Chapman and the late Francia Temple. Since 1948 was leap year. SHS held a Sadie Hawkin's Day celebration. Lillian Keith was Daisey Mac and the late Bud Weatherington was Lil Abner; Alexander was Marrying Sam; Penley was Pappy Yokam and Harden was Mammy.

Times were certainly improving by 1948. The big war was over, you could buy a new car, the stock market was dall Chase, John Krider and Lea R. Lesher. Both Williams and Sayer had daughters who graduated the previous year.

Men's dress clothes have not changed much through the years, but students dressed up more than they do today. Women's dresses were getting much longer, sometimes almost to the ankle. Shorts were only worn in gym classes. School dress was long pants for boys and dresses for girls. There was much more pride in appearance at school in 1948.

Many of this class continued their education at colleges, including Yale, Princeton, Rollins, and Huntingdon in Alabama. Most enrolled in Florida colleges. By 1948, the University of Florida and Florida State had both become coed, but this class seemed to stick with men at Gainesville and women at Tallahassee, Among those who attended UF, were Shoemaker, McCall, Harvey, Inghram, Frank Meisch, Faircloth, Park and the late Bill Brinson. Those who attended FSU were, Frances Cobb, the late F1 Chapman. Shirley Cox, Nancy Fitts, the late Mary Leonis, Lillian Keith and Barbara S. Chapman.

Some who studied at Stetson were, Ton Stringer, Alexander, Stenstrom, Root, Beard, Johnson, Peggy Harden, Maggie Inghram, and Jane Gut.

Wade Garner, Casselberry, graduated from the University of Miami's Medical School. Several attended Murray State In Kentucky at the urging of Coach Ganas (his alma mater). Two were Bob Pullin and the Reverend Chuck Herron, Jacksonville.

Health care was the goal of some, those studying nursing were Tish (Methvin) Walker, Betty Rose (Hoolehan) Stubbs, Wilma (Bland) Coombs, the late June Rose (Dutton) Wilkins, Myra (Madden) Dickson and the late Walt Gardner. Dee (McLellan) Moye saw her children finish college before she pur-sued her nursing dream and earned both a RN and BS Degrees.

Many men from the Class of '48 were called, or volunteered, for the Korean War in the early 1950's. Several class members were married shortly after graduation. One class couple, who dated several years, graduated together, will soon celebrate their 49th wadding mani-verwary, they are Dickie and Micia Frank. Sanford.

A few other class members who will be coming from out of the area are: Roasetter, New York City; Marjorie (Anderson) Gardner, Miami; Emily (Mathews) Wilson, Chuck Brown, Titusville; Beard, Tampa; Eugene Kendall, Lake Wales; Nancy Fitts, Silver Springs, FL; Betty Stubbs,

Bride's wedding fantasy runs smack into Mom's lack of cash

DEAR ABBY: My oldest daugh ter (I'll call her "Alexis") is being married this year. She is planning a very large, expensive, fairy-tale wedding. Her father and I recently divorced after 29 years of marriage. I have told Alexis and my ex-husband that I don't have a lot of money for this occasion because the divorce wiped out most of my savings. My daughter claims she doesn't want to hear it. I have offered to pay for her wedding gown. My ex insists that he expects me to pay for half the wedding, even if I have to take out a loan from him to do it.

I have tried to be upfront, but no one is listening. I'm 50 years old and need to save toward my retirement. I can't possibly afford to risk my entire future. Also, we have two more daughters - so it's likely there will be more weddings in the future.

Please keep in mind that it won't be possible for me to volunteer to pay for only "my" invited guests. Almost everyone on the bride's side will be mutual friends and family both of my ex and myself.

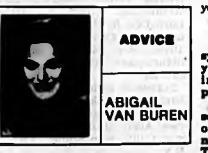

Give me some desperately need-ed advice that won't hurt my daughter's feelings. I love Alexis very much and don't want to be responsible for spoiling a very special time in her life.

What are my responsibilities in this matter?

NEEDS HELP IN NEW YORK

DEAR NEEDS HELP: It is extremely unwise to jeopardize your future for the sake of one day. I have always advised parents not to go into debt for a wedding. A wedding should be a gift from the parents, not an obligation.

Don't allow Alexis' unreason-able demands and those of your ex to intimidate you. Pay for what you can reasonably afford, and let your daughter adjust expenses accordingly.

DEAR ABBY: The letter signed "Examining Life in Ohio," from the woman who was married to a decent man but didn't consider him her "soul mate," prompts this letter. I met my soul mate, and on our first date we both knew it. I figured it was the greatest love in the history of the world. I would have died for this man.

We were the perfect match! We had our ups and downs, and his family threw barbs at me every chance they got, but I withstood it because I knew I had his love.

So what happened? After 38 years, I finally admitted what I had been denying for decades (and he still denies): My husband is a more or less functioning alcoholic. He absolutely refuses help, and things are getting worse. The clues have been there for a long time.

Now I am envious of older couples enjoying their later years, while I live with a man who is dishonest and lies constantly. I cannot trust him. I dread holidays with our children and grandchildren. I'm embarrassed and ashamed of him. Not only do I no longer love him - I don't even like him.

A decent man in one's "golden years" must be wonderful. MARRIED PRINCE CHARMING

Gypsy burglars plague police across the nation

By Nick Pielfauf HERALD STAFF WRITER

SANFORD - "This isn't a crime alert bulletin. It's an informational alert." said Seminole County Sheriff's Deputy Richard Kay of the Crime Prevention Unit. Kay has issued a warning to residents of Central Florida about the continued problem with so-called Oypsy burglars.

They use so many names and travel across the country so much it's difficult to find them." said Sheriff's Lieutenant John Thorp. "Then too, there has been difficulty in keeping

Altamonte bank robbed

From Staff Reports

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS - Altamonte Springs police are investigating a reported bank robbery shortly after noon Tuesday. Although a firearm was said to have been involved, no one was injured.

Police and they were called to the First Union Bank, 1030 Montgomery Road, at 12:25 p.m.

According to Officer Michael Nelson, a black male, wearing a black Oakland Raiders hooded jacket, blue jeans and a black bandamna over his face, entered the bank carrying a black sent automatic handgun and ordered everyous to the ground.

The suspect then reportedly jumped over the counter and ordered a teller to place the these people in jail or prosecuting them properly."

Thorp told of one man, who at times has used the name Adomo Mariello. (Most of the names used were extremely difficult to spell or were derivations of names, such as one used by the male, "Krystina.") "He was part of the Los Angeles 20," he said. "This was a group of about 20 individuals arrested in Los Angeles in 1988. He was taken to court and ordered to leave the country. But the deportation never took place, and he was arrested again in 1989 in Canada along with a white female. This time they were using French names.

Thorp ran off a list of aliases used by these two, as well as others who have been involved in similar cases. "With all the aliases, we have no idea what their real names might be," he commented.

He also explained how they were arrested again in 1991, then in 1995 in Pinelias County. "From there they were to be transported to Miami for court," he said, "but somewhere along the line, some of the papers were lost, and she ended up being charged with only a minor count and was let loose for time served."

Kay explained that although there have not been any cases involving the so-called Gypsy burglaries in Seminole County in over a year, they are still operating across the nation and may well be in the Central Florida area from time to time. Last month, the City of Philadelphia arrested four of the gypsies during the commission of "Impostor Burgharics." Some $1.8 million in cash and an unknown amount of jewelry and coins were recovered from safe deposit boxes. One of those safe deposit boxes was located in Orlando.

Even though the persons were arrested in Pennsylvania, Kay said others, apparently in the organization, attempted to access the Orlando safe deposit box but were unsuccessful.

"What they generally do," Kay said, "is have a box right with them when they commit the burglary, and as soon as they get their loot, they put it in the box and mail it to some other location. That way, if they're caught, there is no evidence on hand."

Kay said he wants to warn Central Florida residents about how this operation works, in the hopes of preventing a reoccurrence of the crimes, as had been reported in several areas in South Seminole County in the past.

"These crimes are typically committed against the elderly segment of mainstream society (70 to 90) at the victim's residence. The victims are selected by observing them at banks and stores, and following them home or by door knocking in residential neighborhoods where greater numbers of elderly victims are located," he said.

He continued; "The crime is typically committed by a group of 3 to 5 gypsy males. The ruse to gain entry to the victim's residence may be quite varied and even tailored to the location where they are working. Examples include posing as utility workers, cable TV employees, tree trimmers, pest control company employees. etc. Clothing is worn to match whichever ruse is being eniployed, similar to that worn by bona fide company employccs."

Contract to Annual Annual Print Print Print R. W. Trans Print Prin

"One male will be the contact person. His job will be to distract the victim away from the front door. He may ask the victim to step into the back yard so he may explain what type of work is to be done, or he may simply divert the victim to an area out of sight of the front door."

"Once the victim is isolated, two or three other members of the group enter the residence and commit the crime."

Kay said loot may range from small to very large amounts of cash, jeweiry, coin collections and small safes. Members of the group often use portable radios or cell phones to communicate between themselves during the crime.

Many victims have reported a foreign language is spoken. Kay said the language is Romani (Gypsy). In Florida, many have reported the accent may be Hispanic. Others say Italian or Indian.

Subjects are generally described as swarthy, with dark hair, and medium to heavy set in build.

Deputies say that anyone who believes they may be the victim of such an operation should contact the Sheriff's Office or nearest law enforcement agency as soon as possible.

While there have been no reported cases in Seminole County recently, there is always the possibility that activities could resume at any time.

Athletic contests have a normalcy about them no matter where you might be OVIEDO _ It was a Tuesday night at Oviedo High School.

There was nothing any different than what normally goes on at any high school anywhere in Seminole County or, for that matter, anywhere else.

At almost any event, it could be baseball, softball, soccer or anything else, it's always pretty much the same thing. And that includes anywhere in America. If you went to New Hampshire, Colorado, Alaska, or anywhere else, you'd see the same things. It just happened to be lacrosse night, as the girls ran away with a 16-1 win in a game that really didn't matter.

So it was easy to look at what was going on around the game. Oviedo had wrapped things up early, and the school looked pretty much like Anytown, America.

There were young kids trying to master the game on the sidelines, throwing lax balls back and forth, usually without much success.

High school boys flirted with high school girls on the sidelines until a stray ball almost maimed one of the girls. She was okay.

Oviedo's coach was shouting, even as the score mounted, 11-1, 12-1 and so forth. Everyone wanted to acore.

Lake Mary southpaw hurls threehitter in 6-1 win over Oviedo

Seminole powers past Lake Howell

From Staff Reports

WINTER PARK _ Isn't it amazing what a little extra work can do.

For most of the season, Seminole High School Andy Hall has been struggling with his batting. especially accumulating strike outs.

But after spending a lot of extra ! time in the batting cage this past week the senior second baseman came up with his first ever threehit game against a tough Lake Howell pitching staff Wednesday

Brent Templeton came on to pitch out of the fourth inning jam and blanked Lake Howell until he too, ran into problems in the bottom of the seventh inning after the Tribe took a 10-2 lead. Shane Odom was brought its after the Silver, lawle scored feat sum and got the final three quis to secure the victory for Seminole, which is ranked No. 5 in the Class 5A State Poll this week.

"(Brent) Templeton outstanding," said Powers. 19/20.00 "He worked out of a jam in the fourth inning and held them down until the seventh." Hall finished the evening 3-for-4 with two RBI. He was joined on the hit parade by Tim Raines (3-for-3 with a home run, three RBI), Ryan Seven children jumped up and down on the landing area for the boys high jump pit that sits in the area behind the field. They looked like they could have cared less as the score became 13-1.

Four people - two boys and two girls -talked extensively about the dating possibilities of friends of theirs. Apparently, one of their friends likes another who liked another who liked the first one. The conversation was much more riveting than the game as Oviedo made it 14-1.

The clock continued to tick.

Three people in the stands were caling McDonald's, chatting about the prom and the fact that they didn't have dates. It's getting kind of late, guys. Oviedo made it 15-1 and everyone on the sideline laughed. By that time, the Lions were playing offensive players on defense and defensive players on offense. They were all having a good time as the coach continued to shout out instructions.

On the sidelines, two young kids were trying to master the task of throwing a lax ball back and forth. Not one pass was completed, but the kids were having a good time.

in the stands, there were about 40 people, mostly parents who had come out to salute Oviedo during its Senior Night. There wasn't much talk about the game; with lacrosse being new to most Floridians, there wasn't much to talk about. But everyone seemed to be having fun.

Oviedo scored again to make it 16-1.

Finally, mercifully, the game ended. Lines formed and everyone shook hands, repeating the "good game" mantra over and over until reaching the end of the line. In lacrosse, as in all sports, a team could beat another 489-0 and still, "nice game" over and over until the end of the line.

It was a warm Tuesday night in Oviedo. It could have been anywhere.

Magic rise from dead again; playoff hopes remain alive

By Jeff Berlinicks ASSISTANT SPORTS EDITOR

ORLANDO _ You have to give the Orlando Magic credit. Every time it looks like lights out on the season. someone turns the high beams on.

Despite struggling to secure the eighth and final playoff spot in the NBA Eastern Conference, which ensures that Michael Jordan will come to town at least one more time, the Magic came on strong last night with a 95-87 win over the Detroit Pistons at the Orlando Arena last night.

New Jersey won as well, so Or-lando is still locked out of that final spot with five games remaining in the regular scason.

It was an emotional night at the Arena as the Magic was missing starting point guard Derek Harper, whose 18-month old daughter, Daria, was pulled from a swimming pull at the Harper's home in Orlando. She was in critical condition yesterday morning, but team officials said her condition had improved and she was breathing on her own as of yesterday afternoon. Magic coach Chuck Daly said the team's minds were on Harper and his family.

"We were affected at the start of the game but once the competitive luices started flowing, we played our game," Daly said.

No one could say when Harper might return to the team.

Last night, his place was taken by Mark Price and Kevin Ollie, each of whom had strong games.

Sidewinders win Sudden Death Tournament

Special to the Herald

PORT ORANGE The Seminole Sidewinders put on quite a performance in winning the Port Orange Blaze Sudden Death Softball Tournament in late March. With Ine championship the Storwinders, a 16-and-

Under girls' fast pitch softball team, have qualified for the ISA (Independent Softball Association) World Se-rics to be held at the Walt Disney World Wide World of Sports complex in July.

The Sidewinders opened the tournament with a game against the Space Coast Rebels. The game started well for the Rebels as they held the Sidewinders scoreless in the top of the first inning, then plated two runs of their own in the bottom of the frame. But that was the last hurrah for the Rebels as the Sidewinders scored in every remaining inning of the game while holding the Rebcls to two runs in the bottom of the sixth inning in posting a 7-4 triumph.

The battery of pitcher Beth Vanderpool and catcher Jamie Pace were awesome. Vanderpool allowed only six hits, while Pace picked off three base night. leading the Fighting Seminoles to a 10-6 Seminole Athletic Conference victory.

"I'm proud of Andy (Hall)," said Seminole head coach Mike Powers. "He worked real hard in the cage last week and it paid off."

Hall was far from the only star for Seminole, which collected 13 hits off of five Silver Hawks pitchers.

In addition to the offense, the Tribe got good pitching from three pitchers.

Josh Blanton (1-0) made his second start of the season since returning from arm problems and hurled three shutout innings before running into problems in the 6A-District 3 and Scininole Athletic Conference baseball contest at Lake Mary High School.

The game took just over an hour and a half to play

"I thought Brian was dominating tonight, said Lake Mary coach Allan Tuttle. The gives us everything he has every time he goes to the mound. He did just a great job tonight.

Oviedo managed just four base runners all night - Richard Rodriguez's two out single in the second immig. Jeremy Frost's solo home run in the fourth, a walk to Ben Knapp in the fifth land a one out single by Justin Holmes in the sixth-Bretzer (5-2) finished with five struck outs. He recorded 10 outs on fly balls, five on groundouts, and one when an Oviedo numer was thrown out stealing.

Lake Mary got all the offense it needed when Josh OBrien launched the first pitch he saw from Knapp in the first inning for a two-run home run. Matt Allegra, who had hit a one-outsingle, rode home on O'Brien's blast-

Protecting a 2-1 lead in the fifth imming, the Rams parlayed an error, two walks (one intentional), two singles, and a passed ball into four nuis

Allegra, who led off the inning by reaching on an error, eventually scored on the passed ball. O'Brien (who walked) and Joey Hicks (pinchrunning for Brezter, who was intentionally walked) came in on Scott Hillinski's single. Daniel Sanford plated Hillinski with his two out single.

With the win, Lake Mary improves to 11.9. overall, 5-3 in Class 6A-District 3 play, and 1-1 in the Seminole Athlette Conference. Oviedo, which has lost four straight and six of its last seven, is now 9-9 overall, 2-7 in the district, and 0.3 in the conference.

"We're going through a had stretch right now. there's no denying that," said Oviedo coach Kenne Brown. 'But I believe in this team. This is a good baseball team and we'll prove it before. this season is over."

The Lions will try and right themselves this Friday, when they host the Boone Braves in a 7 p.m. game at Mikler Field on the campus of Ovicto High School.

Maundy Thursday

observance is an important part of Easter Holy Week

By Nick Pfelfauf HERALD STAFF WRITER

SANFORD - The day before Good Friday and the third; day before Easter is called! Maundy Thursday. It is observed by many major Chris-tian religions throughout the world.

The word Maundy is taken from the Latin word man; datum, or French word; mandare, "to command."

Some explanations of the meaning of the event is re-t lated to the ancient custom of washing the leet of the poor on this day, which was taken to be the fulfillment of the "new commandment," (John xiii, 5, 34), relating to; what is known as The Last Supper.

"Some religions ignore this? particular observance Said

Learn what Easter's all about

Abundant Life Presbyterian Church, Lake Mary, is sponsoring a children's Easter Party on Saturday, April 11, from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m., at the Northwest Branch (Lake Mary) of the Seminole County Public Library. The party for children of all ages will include games, cralts, stories, and food. Getting ready for all the fun are Melessa Mason, Mariah Wren, Alexandra Mason (standing) and Elizabeth Comeau and Braxton Lowers (seated). The library is located at 580 Greenway Blvd.

gross understatement that "this life doesn't always go well."

The immediate response from the recent Jonesboro, Arkansas tragedy was "total shock," "disbeliet," and a "flood of questions" that could seemingly never be answered in a rational way. Within a few days, however, when reason moved somewhat beyond emotional chaos, the headlines read: "In a few hours, misfits became killers" and "No one had paid attention to Jonesboro boys' threats." Reading the headlines and between the lines, one could hear: "These things don't just happen; they have causes and motivations." Whatever the causes or whatever the motivations, the event still leaves emptiness, loss and hurtful, resentful feelings. Why me? Why us? Why Jonesboro--a family oriented town where people speak of a community of faith? The saga progresses and the headlines read: "With songs, mementos and prayers. mourners said good-bye to two girls and a herole teacher killed at their school." After a week's media coverage, the headlines read: "Jonesboro finds "solace at church." Indeed, it is true, "solace" (alleviation of grief) is found in the "resurrected" Lord!

Death comes like a ruthless thief, snatching away a treasured presence and much of the time leaving only hollow memories. Tragedies happen in lives daily in a hundred ways and more. What is the ultimate answer to pain, disease, heartache and trouble? Where is hope for the blind, paralyzed, and the family who has lost a child by death? What can be said when a widow stands beside the grave-feeling and sensing a total emptiness?

The greatest story ever told

With the above life stories--enter Easter-the miraculous celebration of the resurrection of Jesus Christ!

Resurrection Sunday is every Sunday; yet, Easter is the time the masses give attention to the resurrection. The resurrection is, indeed. what makes the Christian faith unique. No other religious claims its founder has returned from the grake and is now seated at the right hand of God in the heavens. Indeed, there is a resurrection of hope. Hope in God, trust in God--nothing is too difficult for Himl

He has conquered death; because he lives, we too can also live!

The Holy Scriptures state these truths? He is risen.

He showed himself alive by many infallible proofs.

He was seen by the apostles forty days.

He spoke of things pertaining to the kingdom of God

He is declared to be the Son of God with power according to the spirit of holiness by the resurrection from the dead (Matthew 28:6, Acts 1:3; John 12:49-50; Luke 13; Romans 1:41

The hymn writer gives these words

Up from the grave he arose,

With a mighty triumph o'er his foes: He arose a victor from the dark domain. And He lives forever with His saints to reign. He arose! He arose!

Hallelujah! Christ arose!

Jesus Christ made an astounding statement: "I am the resurrection and the life; he who believes in me shall live even if he dies" (John 11:25). The resurrection gives the answer to the burning question about life and immortality. Therefore, it is through the vicarious substitutionary death of Christ and His resurrection that we have the answer to the hopelessness of life. Bodily resurrection is more than an empty dream! The hymn writer speaks of this eternal hope: "There's a land that is fairer than day, and by taith we can see it afar."

Think about that!

the Rev. Bruce Scott, pastor! of Sanford's First Presbyterian Church, "but they are! not getting the full picture of all that happened during! Holy Week."

Scott said the Last Supper, (feast of the Passover) as depicted by Leonardo da: Vinci's painting, will be portraved at the Maundy Thursday service in a special event in First Presbyterian Church's Fellowship Hall this evening beginning at 7. p.m. "We'll have individuals, costumed as each of the disciples of Christ. After they are introduced, each will sit down at a table and reenact the da Vinci painting. Then we'll be offering Holy Communion, with the people on hand able to join in this event."

Some churches hold a Tenebrae service. Tenebrae commemorates the sufferings and death of Christ, often with songs of sorrow sung on the afternoon and evening of the Wednesday, Thursday and Friday prior to Easter, rather than during the following day.

Scott said often lights are extinguished in the churchsanctuary to portray the sadness of the crucifixion.

In addition to Presbyterian, Scott said others observing Maundy Thursday include Lutheran, Episcopal. Methodist, and other liturgical churches.

The event this evening at First Presbyterian Church. 301 S. Oak Avenue in Sanford, is open to everyone.

Skin discoloration is common

TITALSTATIST

DEAR DR. GOTT: I'm 93 and have variense veins in my legs. For the past year, I've noticed that the skin over my lower legs has turned scaly and brown. Is this a concern?

DEAR READER: Probably not. In an elderly person with varicose veins, the skin of the lower legs may receive less than adequate nutrition. This often results in the common condition you described, which doctors call stasis dermatitis." The dryness and discoloration are not a hazard to health. Try to elevate your legs when you sit, apply moisturizing cream to the skin, and consider using elastic support stockings when you are on your feet. If the pigmented areas begin to break down and ulcerate, ask your doctor for further advice.

DEAR DR. GOTT: My elderly father lives with us and, for the most part, his behavior is exemplary. However, he has a habit that disturbs us. While shaving in the morning, he talks to himself in the mirror, saying "Don't do that!"; "Quit!"; "Oh, honey, will you marry me?"; and "I won't do it!" Why does he do this?

DEAR READER: I don't know, Why not ask him?

If your father were senile or demented, I could see the reason for his habit flowever, if he is mentally 19 Part of a yard intact, his behavior is a puzzle. 20 African-style intact, his behavior is a puzzle. Perhaps he can shed some light on this. Either interrupt his mirror-conversations or catch him when he exits from the bathroom and demand an explanation. It is answer would be enlightening. Let me know how he responds.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I am a 41-yearold woman with a large uterine fibroid. My periods are normal, but I experience slight pressure on my bladder. Is surgery absolutely neces-

DEAR READER. Not on your life. Fibroids are benign muscular tumors that grow inside the uterus. They can cause painful intercourse and excessive bleeding, in which case surgery is usually recommended. In your situation, the fibroid is not causing symptoms, so I'd ignore it. However, you should continue to have regular checkups by your gynecologist -- at his discretion.

Remember that fibroids may disappear without therapy: They simply undergo what is called "degeneration " Therefore, if your gynecologist agrees, I'd adopt a "wait and see" alli-

DEAR DR. GOTT: How accurate are home pregnancy kits?

DEAR READER: Amazingly accurate, provided the directions for use are followed to the letter. There are now almost a dozen differDR. GOTT PETER GOTT, M.D. ent pregnancy detectors on the market. These devices are a convenient and inexpensive way for women to check for pregnancy by measuring a hormone thuman chorionic gonadotropin) that is produced during pregnancy.

can turn a negative result into a positive one. Moreover, some tests are easier to read. Finally, there is a good deal of variation from product to product in how the testing is performed: Most require an in-stream urine sample, while others depend on a two-step technique. Thus, most experts recommend the following:

Purchase a kit that is easy to use. Withhold testing until a day or two after the first day of an expected (but missed) menstrual period, because this is a more likely time for an accurate result. If the test is positive, confirm the results with a medical professional. See a gynecologist if a period is missed, regardless of the result of the home-test.
