Lake Monroe

Armistice Day was fittingly celebrated Monday afternoon at the Lake Monroe school with a good program. The grammar grades under the supervision of Mr. Jacobs and Miss Echols presented the play, "The Spirit of America," while the primary grades under the direction of Mrs. Jacobs and Mrs. Buchanan gave a varied patriotic program. Many of the school's patrons were present.

Mr. J. B. Johnson has sold his truck farm on the lake front to Arthur Yowell of Sanford. Mr. Yowell speaks of erecting a yacht clubhouse on this property and otherwise improving and beautifying the place in many ways. The committee on resolutions of the Scamsole Poultry Club to which Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs were appointed, was entertained by the latter on Tuesday night. The month of November was suggested in the decorations of harvest scenes of fruit and flowers which were beautifully arranged. Delightful refreshments were served and a very pleasant evening spent. Those comprising the committee are Mrs. and Mrs. B. F. Whitner Jr., A. S. Allen and Mrs. J. T. Jacobs.

An automobile accident occurred on First Street Sunday when the car in which Mr. and Mrs. Drew were driving turned over, throwing its occupants out and injuring them although not seriously. Miss Leola Webb has returned from a pleasant visit to Atlanta. Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs attended church at Oviedo last Sunday and visited relatives and friends in that section. Mrs. Wilson Bronson of Brunswick, Ga., is visiting Mrs. E. Stafford. Elmer Ahern of North Dakota, after visiting his sister, Mrs. Jno. Oglesby, has gone to Orlando where he will visit relatives. Miss Lucile Echols and Lee McClain were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sieg of Chuluota on Sunday. Mrs. Kouben Wise of Luastis is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Tennett.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Tucker of Fort Lauderdale will visit the family of A. Merritt next Tuesday. Mrs. A. C. Cheston of West Palm Beach, returned to Tampa Thursday after a pleasant visit to Mrs. W. E. Hawkins. Mr. and Mrs. George Mault, of Jackson, Mich., spent Thursday and Friday in Sanford the guests of the Montezuma Hotel. Mrs. Mault is the daughter of the late John A. Resor who was killed in an automobile accident in that city last January. Mrs. Mault has many Sanford friends who will be glad to learn that she is in Sanford.

Oviedo

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. McGowan and Miss Sarah McGowan were Sanford visitors Saturday. Joe Lehnart, who is a member of the American Legion band, of Sanford was one of the participants in the parade in Sanford on Armistice Day. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Norris spent Monday and Tuesday in Sanford. A meeting of the beautification committee of the Chamber of Commerce was held at the home of Mrs. T. W. Lawton, Friday night. Sub-committees were appointed to take charge of "clean up week" this week and to aid in the work of beautifying Oviedo.

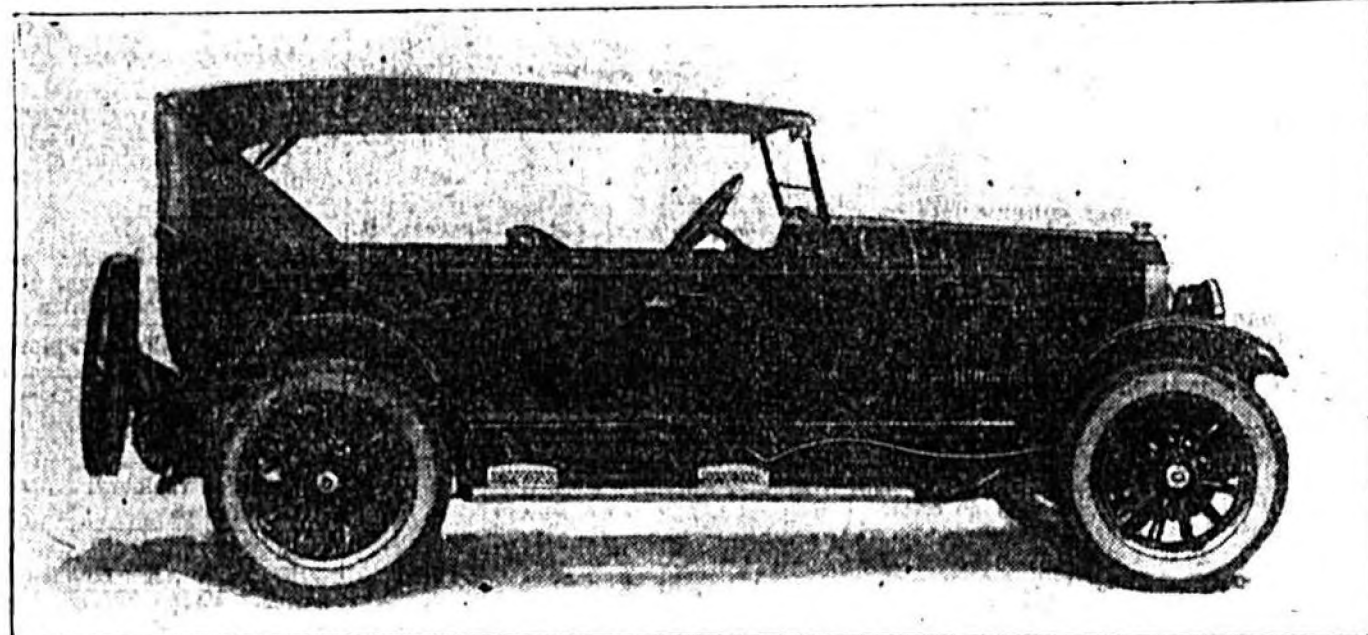

The Misses Louise Carr and Elizabeth Young, of Geneva, spent the week-end with Mrs. W. E. Young, Saturday. Mrs. Young, Mrs. R. E. Wright and their guests motored to Orlando for the day. H. M. W. Sturdivant spent Tuesday in Sanford, enjoying the Armistice Day program prepared by the American Legion of which he is a member. Mrs. B. F. Wheeler has the pleasure of riding in a new Hudson coach these days as a result of having recently had a birthday. Mrs. J. W. Shuman, Miss Lucile Shuman and Master Woodrow Shuman were shopping in Sanford Saturday. Alton Farrell is on a visit to Georgia this week. The Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church held an all day meeting Thursday at the club house. Miss Janet Macfarlan had charge of the program and a most enjoyable as well as profitable day was spent by those members present. Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Swope, Mrs. H. B. McCall, Warren McCall, the Misses Hazel Shuman and Alline Gane were Orlando visitors Saturday afternoon. Mrs. O. P. Swope and little Oliver spent Thursday with Mrs. S. W. Swope. ### Read These Final Rules CAREFULLY

As a matter of precaution and to guard against possibility of loss to candidates through misunderstanding through these last days of the campaign, herewith are appended final rules and instructions that must be observed.

All candidates should read and weigh every line carefully.

1. The campaign will end promptly at 10 o'clock P. M. Saturday, November 22.
2. All subscriptions to count in votes must be in the Herald office by that time. The doors of the Herald office will be closed promptly but all workers who are inside at that time will be waited upon and given ample opportunity to turn in subscriptions or votes even though several hours may be consumed.
3. If you live outside of Sanford and plan to mail your votes and final remittances, take precaution to find out exactly what time your local post office closes. Positively no remittances received by mail later than 10 o'clock Saturday night, November 22, will be included. Send all remittances the last day or two by special delivery.
4. All letters containing votes and remittances should be addressed to the Campaign Manager, The Sanford Herald, Sanford, Florida. The Herald cannot be responsible for remittances sent by mail which do not arrive in time.
5. Under no circumstances will votes be transferred from one contestant to another. This is an absolute rule and will be strictly enforced.
6. There will be no further change in the voting schedule. The voting power of subscriptions as it appears on this page is final and will not be changed during the remainder of the campaign.
7. All votes must be placed in the ballot box before 10 o'clock on the closing night.
8. Positively no subscriptions will be accepted without the money and no money will be accepted without the subscriptions. No subscription money will be refunded.
9. All contestants are urged to be at The Herald office the closing night when the judges made the announcement of the winners.

10,000 Extra Votes

The Contestant who turns in the greatest amount of cash, in subscriptions each day will be awarded 10 extra votes. The first award will be made at 9 o'clock Monday night covering the period from noon today until that time. On Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday night a certificate good for these extra votes will be issued. There will be no special offer for the last day of the campaign. The Herald office will be open until 9 o'clock each evening.

ONLY 6 DAYS LEFT

After today there remains only 6 days in which contestants may secure enough votes to win. These votes will pass quickly and before you realize it the closing day will be here and then excitement will run high. Subscriptions will be hard to get the last day — there will be in great demand — The wise young ladies get them while it is comparatively easy to do so.

Ballot Box Sealed

The ballot box is now sealed — The Judges: E. J. Higgins, J. G. Ball and C. L. Britt came to the Herald office this afternoon and sealed the ballot box. It will open it when the contest is over and they will count that the votes are all counted.

After today the standing of Contestants will be published until the contest is over.

EARS ARE BEGINNING TO REAPPEAR THROUGH VARIOUS STYLES OF BOBS

They say—
That ears are coming in again.
Shocking but true.
They're coming in slowly, for none but the brave so far have dared show their ears to the world.
Some of the new bobs are dressed so that the ears show quite plainly. Some other bobs show the back of the ear. And still others, cut very short, show the lobes of the ear.
The boyish bob, or true garçonne bob, shows the ears. The hair is drawn back from the forehead and from the sides of the head. A sleek and glossy coiffure, the plainest of all, and the most severe. But very attractive—if you can do it!
And there's the bob that's parted in the middle, with a dip over each check—but draw away from the ear, not only to display it, but to show a handsome ear.

There are some bobs, however, which prefer completely to hide the ears and all what's made up of colored silk, green, or gold, or lacy, or any color at all. These bobs are usually dressed with a part in the middle, and the knots and curls, hand made, and the kind of coiffure which is called the wind-blown directoire coiffure, truly hides the ears from the eyes.
Then there's the garçonne bob, which is the same as the bob from the forehead and from the sides of the head. A sleek and glossy coiffure, the plainest of all, and the most severe. But very attractive—if you can do it!
And there's the bob that's parted in the middle, with a dip over each every nook, and every picture first she is ruffled with her hair ruffed out, stiff and bushy. Then she is the expert in society woman with hair simply dressed, straight, and in quiet good taste. Then she is the demure dame, with hair in more striking, glossy, intricate curls, dressed in braids and swirls and knots and curls, hand made, and the kind of coiffure which is called the wind-blown directoire coiffure, truly hides the ears from the eyes.

Then again she is the demure wife of the post man, with hair plainly brushed the hair arranged in simple waves. One wonders what she will do with her hair in her next picture.
And one wonders how she really wears her hair at home, as honestly as she wears it just as you see it in the picture above. Parted at the sides, curled with a delicate curl of her hair with every gown and

Infant Mortality Cut in Cleveland

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 15.—A child born in Cleveland in 1923, had more chances to live through its first year than it has had in any previous year. Mortality of infants under one year, according to the compilation of H. W. Green of the Cuyahoga County public health department, shows Cleveland's rate was 67.1 a thousand in 1923, as compared with the previous year. Mr. Green says that conditions are constantly improving and as infant mortality is a good index to the general health of a

Long or Short Hair? Question Perplexes Co-Eds of Rollins

WINTER PARK, Fla., Nov. 15.—Not to bob or not to bob? but to bob and how to bob? is the question that perplexes the co-ed at Rollins College. The formerly vital question has long ago been settled as far as the Rollins girls are concerned. Only six of the entire number registered at the dormitory have retained their long hair.
Girls are attending Rollins come from all sections of the country and each individual seems to take pride in a haircut that is distinctly her own. They have one thing in common. All are inclined to brevity. No one ever thinks of getting her hair bobbed. It's a haircut now, if you please.
The Rollins girls in general favor the mannish cut. Why? "It's so much more comfortable on my head!" which may be remembered as the excuse most of them gave the first time they ventured into a tonsorial parlor and came out minus their hair.

Size of Radio Shields

When shielding is resorted to in order to eliminate interference from body capacity, etc., it is much better to use a small shield for each instrument than a large one covering the whole panel, as a loss of efficiency, due to interference between the instruments, is likely to result in the latter case.

Radiator-Filling 'Pail'

An ordinary pail fitted with legs, as shown in the drawing, will prove useful around the farm garage as it saves much work and prevents one from spilling water all over the radiator and hood. The pail should be of large size and a faucet is soldered in the side near the bottom. Four legs, cut from heavy sheet metal, are riveted to the underside of the pail, and these are covered with soft material in order to prevent scratching the hood. Ordinary cloth wound on the legs and tied with cord will serve to make non-scratching feet, but electrical tape is better, if available. In use, the pail is filled with water, set on the hood so that the faucet comes directly over the radiator-filling hole, and as much water as necessary is then let into the radiator by opening the faucet.

Planing Window Frames

For fitting windows and doors, etc., the device shown in the illustration will be found very handy.
It consists of a long board of any suitable size at hand, a short piece of wood nailed to this at an angle of about 45°, a vertical brace for the angular piece, and a block nailed to the base at the bottom of the brace. The upper end of the angular piece or stop is notched deeply to take the ends of the windows or doors, and the block is notched in the same manner; this method is apparent from the illustration. The device will be found convenient not only for doors and windows, but for other similar work too large for the vise, and it can easily be carried from room to room.

Close-Up Photos

By using an auxiliary lens, commonly known as portrait lens, close-up photos can be taken, as this lens shortens the focus. The same results can be obtained in many cases, without such a lens if it is possible to pull out the bellows of the camera a little further than the last mark on the scale. By doing this good pictures can often be taken at as close a range as three feet. If there is a stop on the focusing scale, this can often be filed off to permit extending the bellows without affecting the use of the scale for its purpose.

Dawn of Final Week Excites Feverish Interest THIS WEEK LAST CHANCE TO WIN

Will Be Given Away Next Saturday Night

The dawn of the final week. The last dash to the wire. The beginning of the end. Five short days more, and The Herald's widely famed automobile contest comes to a dramatic close. All of Sanford and Seminole county is watching, waiting, wondering. Who will win the automobile and other prizes, is the question on every lip. Excitement is keyed to the highest pitch. Riding on the crest of this wave of enthusiasm are ambitious contestants, exerting vigorous effort to capture the wonderful prizes that will be awarded Saturday night. A storm of votes is gathering and they are beginning to descend upon The Herald Office already.

Never before in Seminole county has such a glittering array of splendid gifts been offered. Never has such a battle been waged to win. On this page appears the final voting schedule. All subscriptions turned in during this final week receive votes according to this scale. It is positive and conclusive and will not be changed.

Study this vote scale carefully. Not the tremendous number of votes given on a five-year subscription. Present indication point to a hairbreath finish, and it looks certain that the prizes will be won by small margins. No one contestant can appear certain of victory, and there is abundant speculation as to the outcome.

This final week will decide. The race is too close to bank upon any possibilities and there are too many persons interested in every contestant to insure any one an easy victory. Over-confidence loses battles. This is no time to hesitate or lay down on the job.

10,000 Extra Votes

Beginning tonight at 9 o'clock ten thousand extra votes will be given the contestant turning in the greatest amount of cash, in subscriptions, during each day.

The award tonight will cover the period from noon Saturday until 9 tonight.

The last certificate for 10,000 votes will be issued Friday night. No special prize will be given away on Saturday, the last day of the contest.

10,000 extra votes may decide the winner. The contestant who lets this opportunity slip by unheeded may wake up in about a week and find herself a loser.

The Herald office will be open until 9 o'clock each evening. Check in every day.

Read These Final Rules CAREFULLY

As a matter of precaution and to guard against possibility of loss to candidates through misunderstanding through these last days of the campaign, herewith are appended final rules and instructions that must be observed.

All candidates should read and weigh every line carefully.

1. The campaign will end promptly at 10 o'clock P. M. Saturday, November 22.
2. All subscriptions to count in votes must be in The Herald office by that time. The doors of The Herald office will be closed promptly but all workers who are inside at that time will be waited upon and given ample opportunity to turn in subscriptions or votes even though several hours may be consumed.
3. If you live outside of Sanford and plan to mail your votes and final remittances, take precaution to find out exactly what time your local post office closes. Positively no remittances received by mail later than 10 o'clock Saturday night, November 22, will be included. Send all remittances the last day or two by special delivery.
4. All letters containing votes and remittances should be addressed to the Campaign Manager, The Sanford Herald, Sanford, Florida. The Herald cannot be responsible for remittances sent by mail which do not arrive in time.
5. Under no circumstances will votes be transferred from one contestant to another. This is an absolute rule and will be strictly enforced.
6. There will be no further change in the voting schedule. The voting power of subscriptions as it appears on this page is final and will not be changed during the remainder of the campaign.
7. All votes must be placed in the ballot box before 10 o'clock on the closing night.
8. Positively no subscriptions will be accepted without the money and no money will be accepted without the subscriptions. No subscription money will be refunded.
9. All contestants are urged to be at The Herald office the closing night when the judges made the announcement of the winners.

God helps those who help themselves but that is no excuse for being pigish.

A very serious occasion is rapidly approaching for the turkey gobler.

The process of evolution will doubtless result in a lot of cross-eyed persons if these cross word puzzles continue in vogue.

Judge Super declared Hill's home brew legal and we have no doubt that this was the best case of home brew that the venerable judge ever tried.

One of the local merchants told our advertising manager that it was a long time until Christmas. Wonder if this cold snap has made him change his mind any.

It is suggested that a delegation from the Ku Klux Klan act as a special entertainment committee for Al Smith while in this city.

The cause for this unusual epidemic of hiccoughing in certain eastern states continues to remain a mystery, but there is only one sure cause of hiccoughing that we know of.

They're Coming to Florida.

According to figures compiled by the manager of the St. Johns River bridge, about ten thousand tourists, coming from every state in the union, crossed the bridge during the last twenty days of September.

In consideration of the fact that this bridge forms a part of the worst route into Florida and that automobiles are warned, especially from Atlanta southward, to take the Valdosta-Lake City route, it is particularly surprising that the above figures should be so large.

Then, when one stops to consider that the automobilist is only a small part of the large tourist crop which comes to Florida each winter, that hundreds of thousands come by train and that not a few steam down in their yachts, he can not fail to realize the brilliant future before Florida.

We have no statistics at hand to show the number of tourists being brought into Florida by these trains, but we have sufficient information to know that figures are high. Miami papers report that as many as five hundred to seven hundred persons arrive in Miami on each train coming to that city.

Many of these tourists are coming because they were here last winter and like it. Many are coming this winter for the first time and most of them will come back again next winter.

Athletes Study Best

For the approval of Editor Benjamin of the Ocala Star, who says, "The question about the university and college students, who are seeing America and winning fame and bruises on various football fields is—who is doing their studying for them?"

In the first place what difference does it make who is doing their studying for them? It seems to us that it is quite as important to, and that quite as beneficial results will be obtained from, "seeing America and winning fame and bruises on various football fields" as from cantering through Horace on a second hand pony or breaking glass bottles in the chemical lab.

Furthermore, we understand that football stars in large proportion are excellent students. For one reason perhaps because in most colleges, they have to maintain a certain scholastic standing in order to be eligible to play football, or any other sport.

Whatever may be the reason, we have read that, "The secretary of Princeton finds that the 'letter men' of the university, the first rate athletes, maintain a considerably higher scholastic average than the undergraduate body and that the training season actually raises their classroom marks a few notches."

BRITAIN'S REACTION

The inevitable has taken place in Great Britain. The political pendulum has swung back to where it was before Ramsay MacDonald got his great chance to show what Socialism could do for the country.

It is true but true that "a man is known by the company he keeps," so also are governments, and the Laborites hobnobbing with the Bolsheviks sent warning signals up the spinal column of John Bull.

Lady Astor, after her victory at the polls at Plymouth, tersely expressed the situation as follows: "I attribute my success to the fact that Great Britain prefers the Union Jack, just as good Americans prefer the Stars and Stripes, and steady progress rather than revolution and socialism."

Extremists are not permanently successful anywhere, and when destructive forces are at work to undermine a country's constitution basis.

Naming him as the savior of Miami this was written of William Jennings Bryan by John Temple Graves, an published in his Hendersonville (N. C.) Times.

William Jennings Bryan it is definitely announced, will discontinue his lectures and retire to his Florida home, where he will devote his time to writing his memoirs, a fitting finish of the political career which has brightened our pages and years of American history.

Yet alone for years runs the sterling honesty of this man, his unquenchable indignance for better or worse to the things he believed were right.

As is always the case when a master has done his work, there is nothing which needs be added to this.

However, we cannot refrain from repeating in this connection a thing which we said early in the year, and for which Mr. Bryan came in and personally thanked us.

Jazz Banding Is New Fad Of College Men

Graduates Can Earn More In New Occupation

When the graduating classes of 1925 take the roll of members to find out what each intends to be when he leaves college, a new profession will be found far up in the list.

This is the opinion of Ben Bernie, who graduated from college himself not many years ago. He has thirty employees and each is a college man. Two or three started out to be doctors, one had an ambition to be an explorer and a number expected to become professors.

All College Men
Instead, they are all players in the jazz band which Bernie leads. Moreover, when the Hotel Roosevelt, New York's most luxurious hostelry, opened recently, the band was selected for an important and able band attraction.

Ben Bernie and his college class were selected.

"Jazz banding lures college men because of the excellent salaries offered and the opportunities for travel and association with interesting people," asserts Mr. Bernie.

"The young graduate usually has to wait some time before he can make enough to live on after he is out of college. He cannot get married immediately, and sometimes the other fellow gets his girl. Most of my boys and their rehearsing during their college days, and so when they received their sheepskins, they were all ready to step into positions that offered real money."

Besides, there is no disgrace attached to playing in a jazz band these days. Mergelberg, Stokowski, Stravinsky and all the other great men of music have put the seal of approval on melodies like "Maytime," which have color, good workmanship and harmony.

"Yes, I feel sure that when the 1925 list goes up, jazz banding will lead all the rest."

SMART AND SIMPLE MODES

Nothing is more fashionable just now than black crepe satin, and the frock pictured here would be particularly smart carried out in the material, since the crepe satin lends itself so gracefully to the modification for tucks.

The gathered skirt is attached to the lower edge of the semi-fitted bodice. The tucks in the bodice are not as wide as those in the skirt. Velvet ribbon forms the belt. Medium size requires 6 1/2 yards 36-inch material.

The beauty with which the new silk-printed voiles are translated into children's frocks is truly inspiring. To the list is now a little French design trimmed with plain silk. A straight trimming band stitched down the front is ornamented with small buttons and the sleeves and round neck are outlined with bias folds of self-material. Medium size requires 1 1/2 yard 36-inch figured and 1 1/2 yard 36-inch plain material.

First Model: Pictorial Review Dress No. 2281. Sizes, 14 to 20 years. Price, 35c. Second Model: Child's Bloomer Dress No. 2282. Sizes, 4 to 6 years. Price, 25c.

SEABREEZE IS DEFEATED BY SANFORD HIGH

Local High School Victor in Contest Slowed by Considerable Wrangling Between Players, and Officials

Two Touchdowns and Safety Are Scored

Wallace Outstanding Backfield Star; Several Line-men Perform Brilliantly.

In a slow game marred by too much bickering among officials and far too many periods of time out for consultation of rule books, Sanford High downed the Seabreeze eleven 15 to 0 at the municipal ball grounds here on Saturday.

The visitors showed more class in running signals before the game than they did in the actual fray, and the locals had no trouble in gaining through the line and around end, although their own brand of football did not come up to expectations and proved disappointing by comparison with the flight and drive that featured the game with New Smyrna.

Only twice did Seabreeze threaten to score, both threats amounting to nothing. In the first period, Campbell Seabreeze captain and quarter, gained 32 yards in three successive off tackle plays, and the visitors began a grueling march down the field that was only halted on Sanford's 15 yard line, where they were penalized five yards for being offside. The Sanford defense tightened following their opponents set back and Seabreeze was forced to kick.

Sanford's initial score came in the first period when "Red" Barber took the oval on a beautiful reverse end run and raced 35 yards through the entire Seabreeze team for the marker. Peck kicked goal.

The second touchdown came in the second period when Peck placed the ball within scoring distance by a sweeping end run, and then took it across in two tries. The try for the extra point failed.

Near the end of the third quarter Peck attempted a drop kick from the 25 yard line, the ball striking the goal posts and narrowly missing going through. Seabreeze attempted to kick out of danger, but fumbled and was thrown for a safety.

The locals entered the game with an entirely different line up than that of the previous week. Melach, who formerly started fullback, was shifted to center, and Byrd substituted at the signal position for Peck, who started at half. Wallace, former tackle, held down the fullback position in a manner that caused Coach Hill to figuratively kick himself for not giving it to him previously. Wallace gained more ground than any other player on the field, and was unquestionably the individual star of the game. In his line plunges and off tackle plays for long yardage, he received excellent support from his team mates, particularly Byrd and Barber, who ran interference well and seldom failed to take their man out of the play.

Byrd proved a heady quarter, and marshalled his charges in a mighty fine style. As soon as this fighting little back learns to get off plays a quicker, the coaches believe that he will prove even more valuable at quarter than he was at half.

Peck started again, as usual, and thrilled the spectators with his long end runs. He was directly responsible for Sanford's second touchdown, and also did good defensive work.

Barber ran well, and tackled fiercely until an injury prevented him from continuing in the line-up.

Captain Campbell was the shining light of the visitors, and was ably supported by Woodcock at fullback, and Wilcox at half.

"Shorty" Hood, 98 pound half back and safety man, showed up well. This diminutive back tackled hard, and more than once prevented the local backs from racing for a touchdown.

Brief summaries of the quarters follow:

First Quarter
Sanford elected to defend the west goal, and kicked off, the ball going over Seabreeze's goal line. Three tries failed to gain, and the visitors kicked to midfield, Byrd returning eight yards. Wallace advanced the ball to Seabreeze's 20 yard line, and "Red" Barber then took the oval on a reverse end run and raced for the initial touchdown. Peck kicked goal.

The visitors received and marched down the field to Sanford's 10-yard line, where they were penalized five yards for being offside. Three tries failed to gain, and the ball went over on downs.

Several Clubs Are Anxious To Secure St. Louis Twirler

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 17.—Urban Shocker, generally considered the smartest pitcher in the American league, is said to be on the market.

Report has it that the St. Louis Browns would listen to any trade that would give the club anything like a fifty-fifty break.

Shocker will be removed until just before the opening of the season. He had asked Judge Landis to declare him a free agent, because he had been heavily fined for insisting on taking his wife on an eastern trip of the club.

No doubt Shocker did not have his heart in his work last year because of this trouble. The season's record would make it seem that way.

Shocker, it is said, would like to off tackle bucks, and Peck placed the oval on Seabreeze's five yard line, taking it over on the next play. Peck failed to kick goal.

Third Period
Sanford kicked off, Seabreeze returning the ball 12 yards. Two plays made first down, and Campbell went off tackle for seven. Wilcox bucked the line for two, and Campbell went over for first down.

Sanford was penalized five yards for offside. Three plays failed to make first down and Seabreeze kicked to Sanford's 18 yard line. Byrd returning seven yards. Wallace went off tackle for six, and Byrd made first down. Two tries failed to make first down, and Sanford kicked to the visitor's 40 yard line. Three tries failed to make first down and Seabreeze kicked to the local's 30 yard line. Wallace advanced the oval 28 yards on three plays and Peck made four over center. Wallace made two first downs, and Peck placed the ball on Seabreeze's 30 yard line. Byrd made five off tackle, two tries failed to make first down, and Peck attempted to drop kick, the ball narrowly missing the goal posts.

Seabreeze attempted to kick out of danger, but fumbled, and was tackled back of the goal line for a safety.

The quarter ended with the ball in Seabreeze's possession on the 30 yard line.

Fourth Quarter
Campbell made eight yards on an off tackle play, and kicked end for six. Two plays failed, and a long pass was grounded. Seabreeze then kicked to Sanford's 20 yard line. Byrd returning 12 yards. Sanford was penalized five yards for offside. Two tries failed to make first down, and Sanford kicked to midfield. Seabreeze was penalized five yards for being offside, and kicked. Byrd running back the punt seven yards. The remainder of the period resolved into a punting duel with Wallace of the locals having the best of it.

VANDERBILT WILL FACE MINNESOTA IN FEATURE GAME

Commodores to Play Only Intercollegiate Clash Next Saturday, Against Stong "Gopher" Football Warriors

ATLANTA, Nov. 17.—With the football season rapidly nearing a close, and only two big days remaining on the schedule, next Saturday will find a number of the major institutions of the country scrambling up for the final Turkey day scramble which officially rings down the curtain.

Georgia Tech, for instance, will remain idle, as will several other famous elevens, though in many instances teams will play Saturday and again Thursday by way of finishing up their gridiron activities.

The big game of the day will be Yale and Harvard, quite naturally at New Haven—but of equal, or perhaps more interest, will be the struggle between Vanderbilt and Minnesota, in the Commodores' only collegiate intercollegiate conflict of the season.

And right in our midst Oglethorpe university, which has enjoyed the most successful campaign in its grid history, will face an old rival in Mercer, from Macon. This is the big dish for Atlantians and rightly so, for both the Petrels and Hornets have departed nobly this year and, eliminating Centre, they appear to be the ranking teams of the S. L. A. A.

This game will be played at Spiller field, the home of the Crackers.

Benning Plays
Frost Benning battles Paris 1st and Marines in a game that should prove interesting on the former's own field.

Other good games in the southland are Florida and Mississippi Aggies at Montgomery, Ala., and North Carolina State against Wake Forest, at Raleigh.

Aside from these affairs there is nothing starting on the menu for Saturday in this section.

The aforementioned Yale Harvard clash will naturally hold the interest of eastern fans, but other games of importance are Yale and Cornell, the stretch this year must five teams putting forward title claims.

Saturday's results adding further fuel to the blaze of upsets that has marred the season's path since, produced outstanding features in the decisive victory of Yale over Princeton, blasting the Tigers' hopes of a "big three" championship, while strengthening the Blue's chances, and the searless struggle between Pennsylvania and Penn State which toppled the Quakers from their lofty perch as the only eleven neither defeated nor tied.

Princeton's record of eight victories over the red and white still keeps her to the front in the title scramble, but the Red and Blue now meet on the heights with Dartmouth and Rutgers, each of which also has only one try to mug its record. The big green outfit, held in even terms only by Yale, closed its season with a smashing 27 to 14 triumph over Cornell at the Polo grounds.

Yale's smashing triumph over Princeton dispelled with seeming suddenness the myth of invincibility that had surrounded the Tigers since their overwhelming victory over Harvard last week before the Blue posted, far more potent on offense and showing a steadily improving defense, a sparkling offensive game, with impressive exhibition and will be the favorites next Saturday to win the "big three" title for the second straight year by defeating Harvard, which was blanketed Saturday by Brown for the Crimson's third defeat of the season. Unless Harvard can accomplish within a week's time some transmutation of the sort that suddenly lifted Princeton to super heights for a day, there seems small hope for the Crimson to check the Bulldog.

Many Weak Spots Seen In Senator's Line-Up This Year

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Although the 1924 season has been over only a few weeks, the champions and pennant contenders in each league are already giving thought to next season.

It is apparent that even the pennant winners in both leagues must do considerable bolstering if they are to again carry off the honors.

Washington's pitching staff is a question. Walter Johnson may not return. It is hardly likely that the veteran southpaw, Zachary and Mogridge, will go as well next year.

Detroit's worry is in the infield. Shortstop Rigney is still handicapped because of a bad back. Second base, a problem for several years, has only the veteran Frank O'Rourke as a candidate.

Pitching in George Sisler's problem at St. Louis and McGraw's at New York. Incidentally the outfield of the Giants could be improved upon.

Brooklyn, a veteran club, could stand some young blood. Great pitching in which Vance and Grimes featured, kept Brooklyn in the running.

PENNSYLVANIA AND YALE BEST TEAMS IN EAST

Three Other Teams Have Become Formidable Rivals For Eastern Grid Honors

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—With the end of the 1924 Eastern football season only two weeks off, the contest for premier sectional honors remains an "open race."

Where a year ago the battle had narrowed down to two outstanding elevens, Yale and Cornell, the stretch this year must five teams putting forward title claims.

Saturday's results adding further fuel to the blaze of upsets that has marred the season's path since, produced outstanding features in the decisive victory of Yale over Princeton, blasting the Tigers' hopes of a "big three" championship, while strengthening the Blue's chances, and the searless struggle between Pennsylvania and Penn State which toppled the Quakers from their lofty perch as the only eleven neither defeated nor tied.

GEORGIA TEAM IN FIRST PLACE FOR SOUTHERN TITLE

Grid Warriors of Red and Black Trounce Plainsmen Saturday and Run String Of Victories Up to Five

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 17.—Using the far from prostrate form of the Auburn Tiger as a stepping stone, a Georgia bulldog yesterday slipped into first place in the Southern conference with none to say him nay for the moment.

The leaders did not scale the heights without a struggle. There was no smile on the face of the Tiger as he forced the winners to fight for the six points that decided the annual game in Columbus, a city where big scores are not tolerated and one touchdown is regarded as game insurance.

Alabama's brilliant crimson, after showing no signs of fading in a season in which all things are expected to come out in the wash, shows signs of blue in spots today. Fortunately for the tide that ebbed more than it flowed Saturday, the heavy weather it encountered in suffering a 17 to 0 defeat at the flying hands and feet of the Center Colonels has no disfiguring marks attaching to the conference record of the runners-up.

The Kentuckians are not members of the Southern conference.

Washington and Lee, the third undefeated eleven of the 22 in the big line, was also playing outside, going down in defeat to West Virginia University to 0.

The Generals were downed 63 to 0 by the Mountaineers last season and must be credited with an impressive reduction of scores from one year to another.

Georgia and Alabama play in a game that will give the Bull dogs the mythical title if they win as they would in that event have six victories.

A triumph for Alabama would give the Crimson 5 victories. Washington and Lee has two more conference games to play, meeting North Carolina State in Raleigh Thanksgiving and Florida in Jacksonville, December 6.

The Generals' record has a scoreless tie with V. P. I., included.

Notre Dame Gets Sweet Revenge For Defeats Of Two Years By Nebraska

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—(By the A. P.)—The vengeance of the Four Horsemen of Notre Dame over Nebraska, and the unexpected rise of the Northern Lights of Minnesota over Illinois were the greatest events of yesterday's Midwestern football.

The 20 to 7 victory of Minnesota reverted to its early season form, when it was considered as one of the several strongest teams, and accomplished this reversal on a day when Illinois was just a little drawn from its battle with Chicago.

Minnesota's power was not a surprise to its inside followers. In Schutte, Lidberg and Graham, Minnesota has three of the greatest backs in the West, but they both were out with injuries when several big games were played.

All season Coach Spaulding has developed his eleven for a smashing offensive and a mighty line. His men, hardened slowly under this process until against Illinois they accomplished one of the feats common to old-time football, but rare nowadays, eleven men playing the entire game.

Grange and his team mates were as great in defeat as in victory, never quitting until they were carried out crippled.

The superb Notre Dame eleven, riding rough shod over Nebraska, feels that it has at least shaken off the jinx Nebraska held over Coach Rockne's warriors, who had been trounced twice in successive years by the Corn Huskers.

The impressive 34 to 6 victory for Notre Dame yesterday has convinced Rockne's admirers that his great team, which crushed the Army, Princeton, Georgia Tech and Wisconsin will go through the season undefeated with a claim to the 1924 championship of the nation.

The Notre Dame machine, besides charging in its customary style, played as sensational a forward passing game as ever seen in the West. Intricate forward passes completely stumped the Corn Huskers, who apparently had cast as a top-up and developing into just that. "Heck" Wakefield end of the Vandy eleven, who has been listed for the last two seasons as a protective all American player, kicked a field goal of 38 yards to decide the game 3 to 0 and either team might have won at almost any stage.
