

TAMPA-SANFORD SHORT LINE CUT

THE ATLANTIC COAST LINE TAKES OFF ACCOMMODATION TRAIN

The Atlantic Coast Line, following the orders for retrenchment, along all lines has discontinued the trains 27 and 28, otherwise known as the Tampa-Sanford Short Line. These trains were of great convenience to the local people of South Florida and as the same schedule must still be made from Lakeland to Tampa and as the trains paid well the economy of the change is not noticeable to the general public. Aside from the laying off of the train crews the food will feel the other cities along the line will miss the traffic much worse than Sanford, and just why the trade bodies of Orlando, Kissimmee, Lakeland and Tampa allowed the change without a kick is passing strange. These trains were great conveniences for the shoppers all along the line and as it seems to be the policy of the A. C. L. to cater to the tourist and not the local people the railroad officials probably never considered the fact that Florida people might be benefited by this accommodation train.

Leaving here at eight in the morning and returning at nine in the evening these trains were most convenient to the people of this section and to discontinue them right at the beginning of the winter season demonstrates that the railway officials higher up do not recognize the rights or wishes of the local patrons.

The A. C. L. will probably hear from the patrons at some future date and they will lose rather than save by this penny wise and pound foolish policy of ignoring the people of Florida.

Brotherhood Entertained A unique venture in church circles was the entertaining of the Presbyterian Brotherhood of Sanford on Thursday night by the recently organized brotherhood of the church here, a supper being the main feature.

About fifty men motored over and were met near Orange City by a number of autos from DeLand. Prominent among the visitors were Bob Holly of the Sanford Herald, Master Mechanic Stevens of the A. C. L., Mayor Thrasher and others. The ladies of the church had prepared, and served a most appetizing New England supper—baked beans, brown bread, sandwiches, salad, pickles, pumpkin pie, doughnuts and coffee—in the church parlors, to which 115 men marched to martial music played by Mrs. Munson. After gathering around the festive board the men sang the Doxology and Rev. Mr. Brownlee, pastor at Sanford, asked the blessing.

Gathering in the main auditorium after supper, Mr. Stover, as toastmaster, Mr. Stover, as master of ceremonies, made a pleasing opening address and introduced, Mr. C. D. Landis, who welcomed the visitors in an excellent address. Mr. Flak gave a reading; Mr. Honeycutt sang, Mr. Short gave a reading, Mr. Reimer sang, responding to encore with another, Mr. Stover gave a reading on Thanksgiving, giving an encore, "She Robbed Me of My Enemy." Mayor Thrasher of Sanford, Mr. Holly and Mr. DuBose, superintendent of the Sanford Sunday school, each gave short addresses, Rev. Mr. Brownlee of Sanford, and Rev. C. H. Ferran of the church here each gave talks, the latter especially thanking the ladies for their assistance, after which all sang "Blest Be the Tie that Binds," and the benediction was pronounced, closing a most felicitous and profitable evening.

Twenty cars, all decked out in "Presbyterian Brotherhood" and other banners lined up a second time to escort the visitors out of town and appeared them on the way. Officers of the local brotherhood are: President—J. Frank Alldie. Vice President—C. J. Crenshaw. Secy.—Treas.—V. T. Barr. Teacher—I. C. Stover. Asst. Teacher—L. V. Waterman. Social Committee—G. H. A. SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS CONVENE

TAMPA WILL BE GREAT GATHERING PLACE NEXT WEEK

Tampa, Nov. 20. The eyes of all Sunday school workers throughout the states are now turned toward Tampa, where from November 23rd to 26th will be held the great state convention. The gathering promises to be the largest and most enthusiastic ever held in Florida.

The convention will be under the auspices of the Florida Sunday School Association. Every pastor and Sunday school superintendent in the state is a delegate without election, and each school, in addition, is entitled to send two delegates for the first 100 enrollment and one additional delegate for each additional 100 or fraction thereof. These conventions bring the maximum amount of good to the schools of the state, cementing together, as they do, those of all denominations who are engaged in the work of Sunday school instruction. Similar gatherings are held in practically all states in the Union and the provinces of Canada. This state work then becomes part of the international work, and in turn is part of the great world's organization which seeks the unification of all forces in all lands looking toward the evangelization of the world.

Elaborate preparations are being made for the entertainment of all delegates. Banquets will be held daily in the Y. M. C. A. dining hall where all in attendance will dine together, and where informal speeches will be made. Twenty-five sessions of the convention will be held covering discussions in every phase of Sunday school work from the Cradle Roll to the Home Department. No feature has been omitted.

Among the numerous special features, one which stands out prominently will be the Older Boys' and Older Girls' Conference, conducted as two separate meetings at the same time, Wednesday at 3 p. m. It is expected hundreds of people will take advantage of these gatherings, which will be presided over by men and women who have given their lives to just such work. The meetings will be followed at 6 o'clock by two banquets.

Every superintendent is urged to see that a full quota of delegates are appointed at once.

COMMERCIAL CLUB HAD FINE MEETING

EX-CONGRESSMAN MAKES AN ABLE ADDRESS TO THE MEMBERS

The Commercial Club is coming. At the meeting last night the largest crowd of the season greeted President Lake when he sounded his gavel and called them to order. The minutes of the last meeting being read and the reports of the various committees passed the meeting resolved itself into a general discussion of the Seminole County Fair and kindred subjects.

A. Dorner of Celery avenue addressed the club on the subject of fertilizer in its relation to the experimental station which was well received. He carried his audience from the Rhine in Germany to the water wagon in Sanford and he was assured by President Lake that the club would assist the farmers in obtaining an experimental station at Sanford if such a thing is possible.

C. R. Walker made a few remarks about the Seminole Fair and reported progress. E. T. Woodruff, the secretary of the Inland Waterways Committee made one of the most interesting reports that the club has heard in the matter and demonstrated that the government is in favor of the St. Johns river as the best inland water route through Florida, making connections with Indian river through Salt Creek. At the conclusion of his report the club unanimously elected C. R. Walker a delegate to attend the waterways meeting at Stuart next week. This canal idea is a very important matter and the good work of the Commercial Club is bearing fruit and there is no doubt but what Congress will hesitate in purchasing the East Coast Canal while the St. Johns river offers such a natural waterway.

Ex-Congressman Wallace of Hot Springs, Arkansas, being present as the guest of B. A. Howard, he was called upon for a few remarks and for thirty minutes held the members of the club hanging upon his every word in one of the ablest addresses that has ever been delivered before the club. Mr. Wallace is a clear and forceful speaker and his tribute to President Wilson was a gem of thought and rhetoric. Mr. Wallace gave his impressions of Florida and Sanford, paying a great compliment to the city and the county and laying special stress upon our brick roads and vegetable fields. At the conclusion of his remarks he was applauded to the echo and was warmly thanked by President Lake.

Others were called upon for an expression upon various topics for the good of Sanford and the meeting adjourned to meet again in two weeks. Meantime the committee on the banquet and smoker will make arrangements for the smoker especially and in a few weeks the club will give a general get-together meeting that will bring all the men of this section into the club.

The progress being made by the Commercial Club is manifest and is a source of gratification to those faithful few who have labored long and earnestly for the growth of this spirit in Sanford. The club is back of every movement and aiding and assisting Sanford in the onward march toward better things.

Let every man be there next meeting night.

No Fire The city was called out this morning by the fire alarm and the smoke was finally located in the roof of the Sanford House, but being a fireproof building it was easily extinguished and once again our hotel is saved to us and will continue to serve the guests for many years.

Xmas Presents The ladies of the Guild of the Episcopal church are making your Xmas presents for you. Come and make your selection at their annual Xmas bazaar Saturday, Dec. 12th. Also a delicious supper will be served.

Notice On account of the Episcopal Bazaar on the same date the Methodist ice cream social announced for Dec. 12th will be postponed to a date to be announced later. Bushnell's Orchestra for the Ball, Nov. 27.

SANFORD BONDS STILL ABOVE PAR

SALE IS A MATTER OF SINCERE CONGRATULATIONS TO THE PEOPLE

Sanford city bonds sold above par yesterday, which means that this city is one of the solid cities of the south.

When bonds sell as high as this in the face of strenuous times in financial circles in the north and the European war it is time for congratulations among our citizens who should be happy that they are residents of such a good town.

The bonds were advertised for sale yesterday and brought a large number of buyers here as the bond houses are always anxious to take stock in a city with such a bright future as this one. The Seminole Bank of this city was anxious to buy $5,000 worth of the bonds at 5% but would not stand in the way of the purchasers who expected to buy the entire issue. The highest and best bid was from Harris Forbes & Co., of New York, who already have investments in city bonds of Sanford and naturally wanted more of them. The following bids were received:

Harris Forbes & Co., New York, $50,295, A. J. Head & Co., Detroit, $49,007, Jno. Nuyven & Co., Chicago, $50,000, Stacy & Brown, Toledo, $50,285, C. H. Coffin, Chicago, $50,051, Seminole Co. Bank, $5,000, for 5 bonds at 5 1/2.

Government Ownership

Washington, Nov. 20. Suggestions that government ownership of railroads might offer the most practicable solution of problems confronting the transportation industry in this country, were made here by Lawrence B. Egan, of Kentucky, president of the National Association of Railway Commissioners, in his annual address opening the association's 26th convention.

"Economy demands elimination of competition between public service enterprises, and by force of this economic condition a monopoly in transportation is necessary," said President Egan. "If a private monopoly is indefensible and intolerable should not a necessary monopoly be publicly owned?"

"The surest way to destroy communism is to guarantee private property security from aggression. The surest way to make effective this guarantee is to prevent private ownership or control of necessary monopolies. If the protesting hand of this nation is necessary to husband the prodigious resources of nature's bounteous gifts to man in the icy lands of Alaska to prevent despoliation at the hands of privately owned transportation companies, why is it not necessary to protect the meager product of man's labor from the selfsame fate in other parts of our own fair land?"

COLD WAVE COMING

A cold wave is predicted for the northwest portion of Florida for tonight with much colder in the north portion. Colder is the warning for this section for Saturday and it may mean frost. The local Weather Bureau officials are watching every move of the tremendous high pressure area which is sweeping the country and advise all growers to keep in touch with the Bureau during today.

The high, with two distinct centers, covers the country between the Appalachian Mountains and the Pacific Coast. It is by far the most extensive movement that has swept the country this winter. Before it sweep the chill blasts which threaten any vegetation that is left exposed.

City Council Meets

The city council met in regular session Nov. 16, 1914, at 7:30 p. m. Present, B. W. Herndon, president; J. D. Davison, W. W. Abernathy, J. Adams, C. H. Dingee and R. C. Maxwell. Absent, H. E. Tolar. Minutes of the last meeting read and adopted.

The matter of additional fire protection was discussed. The fire committee was instructed to correspond with the various makers of fire equipment and report at next meeting.

Moved and seconded that the street committee be instructed to move the fountain at the intersection of Palmetto avenue and second street. Carried.

Moved and seconded that the clerk be instructed to issue vouchers in favor of the Seminole Dredging Co. for $3,402.00. Carried.

It was moved and seconded that the clerk be instructed to furnish a certified copy of the unpaid delinquent tax as shown by his books, from 1902 to 1912 inclusive, to Hon. G. A. DeCottes, City Attorney, and to J. J. Dickinson, Asst. City Atty., after which council adjourned. M. W. Lovell, Clerk.

WINTER WINDS SWEEP THE STATES

FLORIDA GETS PART OF THE NOR'WESTER LAST NIGHT

The cold snap that we have been praying for is here, but it came too rapidly and not only froze up the growing stuff north of us but actually stopped over in Florida and nipped some of our tender stuff. Samples of lettuce from the fields around here show that some of the headed stuff is slightly damaged and it will stop shipments for a few days until the later stuff heads up. But we have the grain of comfort in the thought that our growers can recover quickly while those farther north will be through with their lettuce crop until next season. This is the advantage of living in the Sanford celery delta where the grower may have some bad luck occasionally but is never put down and out. It may be that the damage will be found to be very slight after a few days and that the lettuce will be able to move again before Thanksgiving. The shipments that went forward yesterday should bring a good price, for it will be in a class by itself.

Some of the fields in this section are reported safe and the majority of the damage was from the wind, much of the real damage being from this source. The thermometer did not go below 38 degrees in the coldest places, the biting wind from the northwest making the uncomfortable feeling that winter was on the way.

Congregational Church

Don't forget the recital tonight, which was postponed from last Friday. A rare treat is in store for all who come.

The scroll sawing boys are getting along nicely, and becoming more and more interested in their work. Some of the boys are at work on some very pretty designs.

The ladies can supply some nice Christmas things at their bazaar to be held Dec. 5th, Saturday afternoon and night.

The missionary society meets next Monday afternoon, 3 o'clock, with Mrs. C. R. Walker. It will be a thank offering meeting, to which the ladies are asked to bring their offerings.

Next Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service will be the first of the services of Home Mission week. It will be a Home Mission exercise, entitled "America's Welcome," given by a number of the Sunday school boys and girls. Everybody is cordially invited to come and see the Americans welcome the Immigrants.

In the evening service at 7 o'clock the special theme will be "The Woman who was in Great Demand." Special music is prepared, and all are cordially welcomed.

The Baraca Class of our Sunday school will give a hearty greeting to any strangers in our city, or to any residents who have not yet enrolled themselves in some men's Bible class. Begin next Sunday and get the Sunday school going habit.

NAVAL STORES OPERATORS MEET

CENTRAL AND SOUTH FLORIDA REPRESENTED AT THE GATHERING

The naval store men realize the virtues of cooperation is apparent by their meeting in this city last Tuesday, in which about thirty of the prominent operators of the central and south Florida turpentine men took part and from which greater results will accrue. Although the southern pines are becoming scarcer each year and turps seem to be scant the prices have been manipulated by the men higher up until the operators have been at their wits' end to keep up with the business. At the beginning of the present war in Europe the prices fell off and none of the spirits or the rosin could be shipped which caused the very thing to happen that will eventually help the operators, viz, they realized that they should come together and curtail the output in some manner. This called for the meeting here Tuesday and now that they thoroughly understand the situation and will act accordingly the supply will be limited unless the present efforts to ship to neutral ports in Europe prove successful and open up the foreign markets. Should the operators be forced to depend on the local markets for their output they will suspend operations until the clouds on the European horizon clear away sufficiently to insure a market for the output.

The meeting here was a most representative one and was attended by the leading men of this section. The plans favor a better selling organization and strict cooperation in producing and all those who attended the meeting left with the firm conviction that the future of the business was assured if their plans can be carried out. Among those who attended the meeting were M. O. Overstreet, the dean of the business in this section, W. B. Barber of Mascotte, E. E. Edge of Groveland, E. H. McNeill of Orlando, D. R. McNeill of Jacksonville representing the Consolidated Naval Stores Co., John Powell representing the Flynn Harris Bullard Co. of Jacksonville, J. G. Boyd representing the Herty Turp. Cup Co., of Jacksonville, W. D. Smith of Sorrento, C. W. Entzinger of Longwood, L. P. Hagan of this city, J. W. Jackson of Orlando, J. W. Dutton, J. H. Tatum, D. A. Jackson and Col. Paxton of DeLand, J. E. Parker of Umatilla, J. S. McKenzie of Oviedo and several others whose names were not obtained. Another meeting will be called at a later date when the plans will be matured and a permanent organization perfected.

The Arrival of Kitty

On account of a conflicting social event the Arrival of Kitty will be presented in the Imperial Theater on the night of Friday, Dec. 4, instead of the 27th, as first announced. The play, a jolly three act farce comedy will please you and the Station organization have gone to a great deal of trouble and expense to insure an attraction that is well worthy of patronage. The play will be presented in fourteen towns in all. The boys cordially invite you to be present on the night of the 4th and witness the Arrival of Kitty.

WOMAN'S CLUB

The Welfare Department of the Woman's Club met in regular session Wednesday afternoon at the club house, with a fine attendance of members and visitors, who had gathered in expectation of the promised address by Dr. T. A. Neal on the program topic Health. Dr. Neal congratulated the department on what it has already accomplished and encouraged their continuance in the future. He attributed to modern womanhood, through her unflinching sympathy and united support of all means and measures for the betterment of health and social conditions a large place in the accomplishments of science to this end.

Great as has been the advance in machinery, mechanical appliances, in air craft and electricity, indeed in every department of science and art, taken by the medical profession.

Tracing the great science (which perhaps has most to do with the happiness of mankind) through the ages, and the long period, when disease and the healing art were so intermixed with superstition, that demons and evil spirits were counted a potent influence to the present day when medical science has, in a great degree gained the mastery, till the battle has become one rather of prevention than cure.

Dr. Neal urged club women to be zealous in a persistent effort to hold before the public the necessity of screening against insects. "A word in season and out of season" is imperative. "Line upon line, precept upon precept," if we would win the victory.

By absolute protection from insects, malaria, typhoid, diarrhoea, dysentery, etc., might be driven from our midst perhaps entirely.

Dr. Neal spoke enthusiastically of the bill which will be presented to the coming session of the legislature, providing medical inspection in the public schools, and believes its passage depends largely upon the efforts of the club women of Florida, thus educating public opinion to the necessity for it.

Dr. Neal, in discussing it stated that some of the states, which have adopted it and demonstrated its benefits, discovered as high as 65 per cent of defective children, but he thinks the per cent would be found less in Florida, where we do not have such a variety of diseases, especially of the throat, and many symptoms would be found due to hookworm, no doubt.

This inspection would include an examination of eye, ear, teeth, throat, hookworms, infectious diseases or any signs of ill health.

Often parents do not recognize symptoms in their children which may be the forerunner of serious disorder, and physicians, visiting special patients in the family, might be suspicious, but feel a delicacy in suggesting an examination. The adoption of this free medical inspection in schools, when thoroughly understood would, without doubt, become a popular demand.

The club in a rising vote expressed their pleasure at Dr. Neal's presence and their appreciation of his kind and encouraging words of commendation of the club and its work and for the entertainment and information he had given them.

The personnel of the department is composed of the housekeepers and homemakers of our city; the wives, mothers and sisters, and why shall not Sanford be healthy and beautiful, with the combined efforts of its loving guardians, its women, its physicians and its faithful city council.

to Mr. Johnson.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with ferns and goldenrod, while a large arch was constructed of vines and flowers on the veranda, where the ceremony was performed, as the rooms were too small for the very large crowd present.

The brides were beautifully gowned in white satin with shadow lace overskirts. The bridesmaids were in blue crepe de chine.

Cake and lemonade were served after the ceremony. The wedding was held at home for the sake of the invalid father. Quite a number of people in this vicinity honored it by their presence. We extend congratulations and wish them many happy years together.

There was preaching at the Lutheran church on Sunday.

A Longer Season For Florida Citrus Fruits

Heretofore Florida fruits have had too short a season. The prices usually secured for late oranges and grapefruit would be had on a much larger volume of fruit than is now marketed and for a longer period.

Buckeye Nurseries have urged the planting of late varieties for many years. Many of the most prosperous growers of the State owe their success to this advice. The best late oranges and grapefruit were introduced by Buckeye Nurseries.

Buckeye Nurseries Catalog Tells What to Plant

Also it gives suggestions for selecting location of groves and variety of citrus fruit culture. It is a complete guide to successful planting. Advice has been tried out in the experience of successful growers. Varieties are described in detail; many of them are illustrated in natural colors. Some of the best groves of the State are pictured in the proper methods of planting, cultivation, fertilization, spraying, marketing, etc. Too expensive to permit of indiscriminate distribution, the book is free to all intending planters. You will be welcome to a copy if you write for it while we have a supply on hand—edition is limited.

THE FLOW OF THE PENCIL

James Whitcomb Riley, the Hoosier Poet, is in the state again and will spend the winter in Miami. In a conversation with one of the Times-Union staff at Jacksonville Mr. Riley said that he had ceased writing on account of a partial paralysis of the right arm and he could not write poetry by dictation to a stenographer.

ther discussing the subject devotes a section of the book beginning as follows:

"Possibilities of the South--There is one section that can produce more cattle and produce them more cheaply than any other section of the whole country. For the lands are fertile, the grazing is good, the pasture season is long, feeds can be produced at minimum cost, and inexpensive shelter only is required. That section of the country is the south."

In Florida no shelter is required and the pasture season is perpetual, from January to January.

There are three points quoted from the Year Book issued by the Department of Agriculture. One showing the decrease in cattle production in America, and the increase in population; one the shortage of beef supply the world over; and the other the long pasture and long season of the pasturage in the south.

As Mr. Whitner remarks the pasture season in Florida is perpetual from January to January, and cattle need no shelter. This ought to convince any man who has ever had any experience in the livestock business that Florida is an ideal place for cattle raising.

LAWS FOR KNOCKERS

Newspapers the world over have devoted columns to knocking the knuckers for they are a breed most distasteful to the men of the quill who are trying to boost their town. Now comes the city of Wauchula with an ordinance making it a misdemeanor for any one to knock that place.

Wauchula has set the pace for other cities by making 'knocking a punishable offense.

"An ordinance has been passed by the Wauchula council which declares that any person or persons who shall run down, knock, slander or purposely in any way speak or act in a manner detrimental to the welfare, upbuilding and progress of the city of Wauchula shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars, or imprisoned in the city jail for not exceeding sixty days or both such fine and imprisonment at the discretion of the mayor."

"The ordinance doubtless was passed more for advertising purposes than anything else, because it is readily to be seen how difficult will be the judicial determination of what constitutes the process of running down or knocking set forth in the text. It is also noted that the ordinance includes actions as well as words. A man who beats his wife or a bad check artist would be equally guilty under this wonderful enactment with the fellow who circulates stories damaging to the town. A remarkable judicial mind, indeed would be required to administer this ordinance properly.

"The knocker is usually condemned by his own conduct and his punishment is the dislike and disfavor of his fellow citizens. Handing him by municipal ordinance doubtless will prove efficacious, because of the wide latitude permitted by the definition of the offense. But Wauchula has at least registered its disapproval of the genus in the most impressive manner--and would advise persons of that ilk not to make a test of the new law."

FLORIDA BEEF PRODUCTION

There is an article by J. N. Whitner, manager of the Toxohatchee ranch, Sanford, in the brochure just issued by the Florida East Coast railroad, which ought to be given the widest publicity by all the newspapers in Florida, which are making an effort to attract people to the state.

Mr. Whitner comments on Florida's possibilities as a beef producing state as follows:

The beef supply is now one of the world's recognized problems. The advancing price of lands and the need for farms and orchards is rapidly reducing the area of grazing lands, thereby making a shortage of beef with resulting high prices. The 1913 Year Book of the Department of Agriculture says the census of 1910 shows a "decrease in ten years of 9,385,848 head, or 18.5 per cent of all cattle other than milch cows." Since the increase in population for the same decade in the United States was twenty per cent, we find the startling decrease in the supply of beef of 38 per cent per capita. The Year Book says "the question of providing enough beef to supply the demand is now recognized as one of world wide importance," and f-

THE ETHICS OF HUNTING

November means to many men the call of wild life. The start for the woods, with old friend rifle over their shoulder, the companion of a hundred camping trips, is like the release of the boy from school.

Humanitarian people say that hunting is cruel. Do any of our nimrods feel a little uneasy of conscience as they set out on the old familiar trail?

The sportsman has standards today which his fathers never conceived. Years ago it was customary for whole towns to choose for competitive side hunts. Hunters of known prowess would organize competing teams. For a week the outlying country would echo and re-echo with the bang of rifles and shot guns. Finally there was a glorious feast from flesh of bird and beast.

Sporting sentiment would hardly permit such wholesale butchery today, even did not the law intervene. It is concerned with the preservation of every species of wild life, ready to abstain from shooting any beneficial variety which seems to be growing less.

Extreme humanitarians attack even the shooting of harmful beasts and birds. Yet life in the wilder sections of the country is still a conflict between the farmer and his useful domesticated flocks on one side, and the prowlers of the forest on the other. Every bear killed means securer life for the little woolly lamb. When you come down to suffering which gets the worst of it, the rabbit, whose life is abruptly ended by your shotgun, or his brother who escapes the hunter, only to be carried off squealing for a feast in Brer Fox's den.

There does not seem much appreciable moral difference between killing a deer for venison and killing a pig for pork. Of course when humanity reaches a state of spiritual perfection it is quite possible that the sight of harmless and beautiful wild creatures running around alive will give greater pleasure than their dead bodies. Some people feel that way now, and the editor of the Sun is one of the number--Gainesville Sun.

FOR A STATE FAIR

Jacksonville is agitating the idea of a state fair and many other cities have signified their intention of joining hands in the enterprise. Since Seminole county has climbed into the county fair band wagon it would be well for our people to consider the state fair for next year and many of our exhibits could be taken to Jacksonville and placed in the state fair exhibit. While there are other cities in Florida that would be more central Jacksonville on account of the location and the fact that the majority of the people coming into Florida pass through that city would be the ideal place for a state fair and The Herald heartily favors Jacksonville for the big noise. Let every county in the state have a county fair and then let them all get together and go to Jacksonville in the big state fair if possible. Jacksonville is the place for the show of all Florida products.

NERVE

The editor of the Sanford Herald has a good deal when he pleasantly remarks to the Sentinel that the city to the north of Orlando is too busy to remove the dilapidated street car from the landscape, and so has the young man in Belleville, Ill., who recently went to call upon his sweet-heart, and holding her hand, breathing soft words into her petaled ear, slipped a diamond ring off of her finger and kept it as a souvenir--Orlando Sentinel.

We may be dense but we don't get that and call for an interpreter. Does the good brother mean that we shipped one over on him like the diamond ring or that he intends to slip us a diamond ring or that he slipped on a banana peeling or slipped a cog?

BULKHEAD PROGRESSES

The tourists of the city are greatly interested in the bulkhead and they can be seen every day down on the lake front inspecting the work. Several of them were in the Herald office this week asking about the lake front property and they think enough of the work of reclamation to be talking about hotels and other property on the new front. This is the greatest work ever attempted by Sanford people and means more to the city than we can at this time estimate. Let the good work go on until there is at least a mile of it.

THE COUNTY FAIRS

The committee for the Seminole County Fair is working nicely and will soon start the great publicity campaign for the same. The exhibits are promised from every nook and corner of the county and suitable buildings will be found for them where they will be shown to the best advantage and where they will be safe. The exhibit here will be great and it will then be taken down to Orlando to make Seminole shine with renewed refulgence at the Sub-Tropical Fair.

Admittedly immigration will increase over its highest mark when the war ends. Isn't this about as good a time as any to place such restrictions on immigration as will take the new citizens right through the crowded centers out onto the farms that need hands to work them--where the best interest of the immigrants and the whole people will be served?

The blood of a young Yale athlete is being transfused to a young woman and the plan bids fair to save her life. She'll doubtless grow up with a tendency for massed plays, a pleasant hatred for Harvard and other distinctive traits, else there is nothing in blood.

Abe Martin says "Th' ranks o' the down an' out are filled with fellows who nailed a boss shoe over th' door instead o' puttin' a ad in a newspaper." And Abe is right.

Apparently the earth has opened and swallowed Mr. Rockefeller," says a headline. Well, is it any of our business? It's John's eat I ain't it?

NEW BANK RATES

Washington, Tuesday--The Federal Reserve Board today announced on Saturday the following rates of rediscount to be charged by the twelve federal reserve banks for discounting commercial paper for member banks.

New York and Philadelphia, 6 1/2 per cent on bills and notes having maturities of not more than thirty days and 6 per cent on all paper having longer maturity.

Boston, Cleveland, Richmond, Chicago and St. Louis, 6 per cent on all maturities.

Atlanta, Minneapolis, Kansas City, Dallas and San Francisco, 7 per cent on bills running not longer than thirty days and 6 1/2 per cent on bills of longer maturity.

In announcing the rates the governor of the board said the law permits the reserve banks to change the rates at any time with the approval of the Reserve Board. The rates were decided upon after due consideration of suggestions made by the banks and are to some extent experimental. After the banks are in operation conditions may require changes.

Advertising Sanford

The Commercial Club is doing great work in advertising Sanford, assisted by the real estate men and the city should do more during the winter season. The idea that advertising should not be continued throughout the year is fallacy, for the way to make advertising effective is to keep it continually at it.

As the cold weather approaches I begin to long for the sunny south and the land of celery and oranges. It has been my intention to go back to Sanford the coming winter but circumstances, not fully under my control prevent me from doing so.

During my absence from there I have been a constant reader of the Herald and have boasted Sanford on every occasion and my boasting has not been fully in vain for I have succeeded in converting at least one family and Mr. Geo. A. Craig and wife will leave here Nov. 18 for Sanford.

Mr. Craig is a carpenter by trade and for the past nineteen years has been foreman for the R. J. Noyes Co., one of our largest contracting firms. He has done work in all parts of the cold state of Maine and is deserving of a home in a warmer climate.

If Sanford could be advertised here as some other Florida cities are I believe that many from here who sojourn in the south winters would visit your city. Up to this date three parties have already gone—one to St. Petersburg, one to Ft. Myers and one down on the east coast. Your city needs advertising.

JOHN F. SPAULDING, Augusta, Maine.

Fine Florida Beef

J. D. Roberts has some of the finest Florida raised beef that has come to Sanford lately. It was a Florida beef raised by Ralph Sauls at Enterprise and it has a better appearance than even the best of prime western beef. The meat is rich red and the fat is the kind that makes you want to eat it.

TRICE'S TRUMPETEER

(Articles Published under this heading furnished by M. P. A. Bureau, Jacksonville)

We are aware, of course, that the title of this article is going to bring down upon us the wrath of our prohibition friends, who vociferously maintain in their omniscient way that prohibition is temperance, or the other way round—just as you please. But then they have been jumping on us for mildly intimating the other day that really, when you come down to it, prohibition doesn't always prohibit, so a little more criticism doesn't very much matter.

We note with interest that Mr. Willima H. Anderson, the Anti-Saloon League leader in this state answers our intimation that prohibition is not strictly enforced in Maine by declaring that once when he was in that state he saw little or no evidence of liquor selling. Naturally not, the "bootleggers" of the Pine Tree State are not fools. They had Mr. Anderson's "number" the moment he entered the state, and we have no doubt that they carefully arranged conditions so that the most arid kind of aridity met him at every step of his progress.

Mr. Anderson also wants to know why we don't give the facts relative to prohibition in Kansas. Well, what are the facts? In a recent article Mr. White, of Emporia, declared that prohibition had made Kansas into a sort of heaven on earth. It had done away with poverty, sickness, insanity and vice, and the people were living in idyllic and Edenic happiness.

Mr. White's thrilling word pictures impress us as they always do, and we felt almost inclined to admit that prohibition had "won" the "count." But not so fast. What are those cold facts that stand in grim array? James E. House, editor of a prohibition paper in Kansas, surely a competent witness in a matter of this kind, admits that there are as the prohibitionists say, no insane persons in 50 of the 100 counties of the state. But that is because the insane of the state are kept in state hospitals. There are now 4,400 in those hospitals, and the number is increasing so fast that more hospitals will have to be built.

"There is," says Mr. House, "more drinking in Kansas now than ever before. In June last, 90,000 quarts of liquor registered as imported into Topeka, or two quarts for every man, woman and child in the city." We don't, of course, vouch for the accuracy of these figures, but there they are, and they are entitled to at least as much respect as the statistics of the prohibitionists. N. Y. Tribune, July 19, 1914.

New York's Obelisk.

The obelisk in Central park, N. Y. was set up there in 1881. It was the gift of W. H. Vanderbilt to the city. The massive granite pillar was originally erected in Egypt about 1600 B. C. by Thothmes III, and is, therefore, at the present time some 3,500 years old. The characters upon the sides of the obelisk are the so-called hieroglyphics—the picture-writing in which the Egyptians recorded their thoughts and their annals.

STOMACH TROUBLE FOR FIVE YEARS

Majority of Friends Thought Mr. Hughes Would Die, But One Helped Him to Recovery.

Pomeroyton, Ky.—In interesting advices from this place, Mr. A. J. Hughes writes as follows: "I was down with stomach trouble for five (5) years, and would have sick headache so bad, at times, that I thought surely I would die. I tried different treatments, but they did not seem to do me any good. I got so bad, I could not eat or sleep, and all my friends, except one, thought I would die. He advised me to try Thedford's Black-Draught and quit taking other medicines. I decided to take his advice, although I did not have any confidence in it.

I have now been taking Black-Draught for three months, and it has cured me—haven't had those awful sick headaches since I began using it.

I am so thankful for what Black-Draught has done for me."

Thedford's Black-Draught has been found a very valuable medicine for derangements of the stomach and liver. It is composed of pure, vegetable herbs, contains no dangerous ingredients, and acts gently, yet surely. It can be freely used by young and old, and should be kept in every family chest.

 Open up your bins of grain.
 Offer bread and succor fair.
 Chance like this won't come again
 My fair country!

Trade is swinging round this way, round this way, round this way.
 Trade is swinging round this way, my fair country.
 Now the imports almost cease,
 While the exports fast increase,
 Others war and we're at peace,
 My fair country!

Land of pilgrims, lend a hand, lend a hand, lend a hand!
 Land of pilgrims, lend a hand, my fair country.
 Soldiers die and widows weep,
 You a solemn trust must keep,
 What ye sow that must ye reap,
 My fair country!

POINTS FROM PRESIDENT'S PITTSBURGH SPEECH.

In his address to the Young Men's Christian association of Pittsburgh President Wilson said: Young men are embarrassed by having inherited their fathers' opinions.

I wonder if we attach sufficient importance to Christianity as a mere instrumentality in the life of mankind.

Character is a byproduct, and any man who devotes himself to its cultivation in his own case will become a selfish prig.

Christ came into the world to save others, not to save himself.

An association of Christian young men is an association meant to put its shoulders under the world and lift.

Young men are strong. Christian men are the strongest kind of young men.

I have a hate for a particular sort of person, and that is the moral coward.

A man who is virtuous and a coward has no marketable virtue about him.

The life of society, the life of the world, has constantly to be fed from the bottom.

If you want to make a place wholesome the best instrument can use is the sun.

You cannot stand still. You must push forward the things that are right.

Took Much Precaution.

An anonymous letter of warning which 31 people had apparently joined in writing, was read in the London divorce court during the hearing of a case in which two naval officers were concerned. Each syllable of the letter, it was stated, was in a different handwriting.

WAR DELAYS TRIAL

Charlton, Who Killed Wife in Italy, Awaits Fate.

New York Judge, Retained for Defense, Professes to Be Confident of Freeing Him—For Years Behind the Bars.

New York It is now more than four years since Porter Charlton, the twenty-year-old American youth, killed his middle-aged wife in their cottage at Lake Como, Italy, and placed her body in a trunk and sank it in the lake. It is more than a year since his fight against extradition from this country—to which he fled—failed. His case has been an extraordinary record of the law's delay. The European war now intervenes to prevent his trial next November, the date set.

Judge Palmieri of this city, retained by ex-Judge Charlton, the young man's father, to defend the youth, left New York on July 15, on the steamship Wolke, and arrived at Genoa to find Italy excited over Austria's declaration of war against Serbia and everything at a standstill, the machinery of justice as well as that of commerce, because of the seemingly probability that Italy herself would be involved in the impending struggle, says the New York World. He went on to Lake Como and conferred with the authorities there, and it quickly became apparent that Charlton would not be tried in November. Judge Palmieri found that under the circumstances the trial will not be reached before next February, so he decided to return to America. It took him weeks to get steamship accommodations, and he got back only recently, coming in the steamer, where one of his fellow passengers was a Catholic archbishop from Kansas.

"I find," said Mr. Palmieri, "that there is general public misunderstanding as to what punishment, if any, may be meted out to young Charlton in Italy murder in the first degree calls for life imprisonment. But it seems not to be generally known that the young man is not indicted for murder in the first degree. Following the inquisition which Charlton underwent shortly after he was returned to Italy the presiding magistrate gave it as his opinion that the killing of Charlton's wife was not premeditated, that it was done in the heat of passion. The extreme penalty for such a conviction is 20 years' imprisonment. Of course it would be of the most drastic nature, because years of it would have to be passed in solitary confinement. But the sentence may be much lighter. The court may impose as light a sentence as one year."

Italian judges in passing sentence always take into consideration the length of time the defendant has been in prison awaiting trial. The conditions under which an accused prisoner lives in a jail over there are far different from here. Here the law presumes that a man is innocent until he is proven guilty, he can have his friends in to see him frequently, can confer with his lawyer as often as he pleases and may write letters without stint and their complete privacy is recognized.

Porter Charlton "It isn't like that in Italy. When you are arrested for a crime you are supposed to be guilty until you can show that you are not. In jail you have to endure all the restrictions and privations of a convicted felon in America. There are a few privileges, but the full opportunity to receive relatives and friends, privacy of correspondence and ample opportunity for exercise in the prison corridors and yards are flatly denied. Even Charlton's letters to me are censored."

Judge Palmieri expressed himself as completely confident of securing Charlton's acquittal in Italy as he did that of Josephine Terranova in this city a few years ago on the ground of adolescent insanity. That will be the contention in Charlton's case.

Judge Palmieri has been accorded recognition at the Italian bar with the privilege of freely participating in the trial. He has, however, engaged as his associate Giovanni Prozio, member of the Italian parliament, and Enrico Cattaneo, former mayor of Como.

He is the more hopeful because Italian courts, it is said, give greater weight to the psychology of such cases than do American courts. The evidence, especially the accused's story, is not held within such close confines as in our courts here. He is given greater liberty in the court room. He is privileged to rise and, face to face, contradict a witness; to express his emotions freely at every turn of his trial. And off the stand he is given free rein in laying his case before his jury as favorably as he may.

"Charlton told me," said Judge Palmieri, "that his first instinct when he saw that he had killed his wife was to rush out of the house and summon everybody within reach of his voice. He did, as a matter of fact, cry out. He felt so sure at the time, he told me, that he had only to call people in and explain how he had come to kill the woman, to have all understood and forgiven. But then he remembered that he was in a strange land and he permitted himself to indulge the opposite reasoning—that by placing his wife in the trunk and throwing the body in the lake and disappearing himself, his Italian neighbors would simply conclude that the Americans had moved away in the night and he would escape."

STUDY THE FOOTBALL RULES

All Players Can Get Copy of Them for Nominal Sum—Suggestions for Boys Are Given.

After ten days of more or less irksome practice by his variegated squad in the rudiments of football, either the captain of a sand-lot football team has made good as a captain, establishing a firm hold on the other member of the gang who are trying for the team, or else a revolution has taken place and the erstwhile captain has become a private in the ranks.

It is also possible that the captain has found the job too big for him, and has gracefully stepped down before he could be set down.

But, in any case, boys, at this stage you should decide once and for all who the captain is going to be. It does not do to have 11 captains on a football team, or even two. The captain must and should be the boss in every sense of the word. Let him do the talking and take your orders from him henceforth.

He in turn should welcome and encourage suggestions from the players, but these suggestions should not be made during practice hours, when the captain's voice should be the only voice heard to any extent.

All other things being equal, the captain of the team should be either the quarterback, who directs the attack in any case, or the man who plays defensive quarter, nowadays the most important position on the team.

If you have a manager he should now see about arranging games ahead, taking plenty of time to investigate and see that the teams scheduled are neither too heavy nor too light, and that they have a suitable field to play on in case you are to go to them.

Do you know the rules? There should be at least one ten-cent copy of the official rule in every football camp, and, if you can afford it, by all means have your own individual copy. Any sporting goods concern can supply the rules books, which you should study at least as faithfully as you do the geography.

Besides the rules, the guide book contains many valuable suggestions also pictures which show legal and illegal methods of play.

Football is a rough game and you should play it rough, but always within the rules. No first-class coach teaches or encourages his men to break the rules, as he knows, for one thing, that there is a heavy penalty for every infraction when the officials get wise to it.

Study the rules until you can pass with a mark of 100 in an oral or written examination on them.

Mrs. Jackson of Massachusetts Defeats Miss Rosenthal of Chicago for the Championship.

By defeating Miss Elaine V. Rosenthal of the Ravisloe Country club of Chicago, Mrs. H. A. Jackson won the Women's National golf championship tournament at the Nassau Country club. Mrs. H. A. Jackson for the second time won the title. As Miss Kate Hanley she won the title at Chevy Chase in 1908. Mrs. Jackson, who hails from Massachusetts has been in the semi-finals on three other occasions. The first time was at Wheaton in 1903, when she was put out by Miss J. A. Carpenter. The following year at Marion, Mrs. Jackson lost to Miss Georgianna N. Bishop, the ultimate winner, and again at Baltusrol in 1911.

These two are a track team in themselves. Daily Thought.
 Be careful to have your sons well instructed rather than rich for the hopes of the instructed are better than the wealth of the ignorant.—Epictetus.

"Cute."

The word "cute," which is a shortened form of acute, is not classical English, and it is not to be wondered at that you failed to find it in the dictionaries you consulted. It is a colloquial Americanism and might almost be classed as slang. It has two meanings. In the first place it means clever, especially in looking out for one's own advantage in petty ways, shrewd, smart, as "a cute trick." It also means small and pretty, attractive, as "a cute baby," "a cute little watch."

Giving One's Best.
 The essential relations of men and women to society are not altered by their entering into marriage relations with one another. Whatever was owed before marriage, of gift, of self development, is still collectible and in the same coin. It admits no theory of substitutes. If children are your best, your supreme contribution, let us have them; in any case, let us have the best of you.—Mary Austin.

Seventy Years Old, Cured in Three Months

Lamont, Fla.

Taylor Medicine Company, Tampa, Fla.

Gentlemen: I want to offer my testimony on behalf of what your medicine has done for me. I feel that I cannot praise TAYLOR'S BEST BLOOD MEDICINE too highly. I am seventy years old and for eight years doctors treated me, and I took almost everything that you could think of and have been able to be up only a day or two at a time.

I suffered almost all the time with pains in my body and limbs and my joints would ache. I had slow fevers from time to time, until I went to Tampa and at that time I could scarcely walk. It was almost impossible for me to get up the door steps. A friend recommended TAYLOR'S BEST BLOOD MEDICINE to me and I took five bottles and today I feel like a new person. I feel better than I have at any time during these eight years.

I do not suffer with those pains any more and I can get about as well as I could before I was taken sick, and I shall be glad to tell all my friends who are suffering from rheumatism that I give TAYLOR'S BEST BLOOD MEDICINE all the credit for my renewed health. Respectfully,
 MRS. S. W. SHEPPARD,

 Please send by express, care of Kinzy Bros., to Ft. Myers, Fla., 3 bottles of TAYLOR'S BEST BLOOD MEDICINE, and oblige. Respectfully,

Every Week Bridge

Mrs. T. A. Neal delightfully entertained the Every Week Bridge Club Thursday afternoon at her home on Park avenue. There were two tables of players, Mrs. D. D. Holden making top score and winning the prize, a pretty Japanese luncheon set. After the game the guests repaired to the dining room where refreshments were served. A color scheme of pink was effectively used in the decorations, while the table was lovely with its dainty appointments. Oyster pate, sandwiches, dinner biscuits, Neuchâtel cheese, coffee and mints were served. Enjoying the charming hospitality of Mrs. Neal were Mesdames Margaret Barnes, Forrest Lake, G. F. Smith, S. E. Barret, W. D. Holden, C. M. Vorce, C. O. McLaughlin and A. P. Connelly.

Social Department Dance

Delightfully informal and one of the most successful dances given by the Social Department of the Woman's Club was the cabaret dance. There was a large gathering of the members of the department and their friends, who enjoyed the pleasures of the evening, among them being the special exhibition of the new dances being taught by Miss Belle Smith, the teacher of the Social Department dancing classes. The new dances are particularly pretty and as danced by the several couples delighted all present. The "Hesitation," with Miss Adelaide Higgins and Mr. Roy Chittenden in the role of leaders, giving the entire figures, was a charming interpretation of a beautiful dance, while Miss Saldie Williams with Mr. Clarence Mahoney and Miss Anna McLaughlin with Mr. William Hill, on the floor at the same time, shared the honors with the leading couple, the three couples giving an exhibition of grace and skill reflecting much credit upon their instructor. Miss Belle Smith and Mr. Clarence Mahoney were a graceful couple in their exhibition of the "Maxixe," one of the most popular of the new dances, and gave an interpretation that was one of the best numbers of the evening. Dancing with them were Miss Adelaide Higgins with Mr. Roy Chittenden and several figures of the "one step" and Miss Anna McLaughlin with Mr. Hill in the Fox Trot, another of the dances now in vogue, the latter couple making quite a hit. Judging by the enthusiasm of all the dancers, the new dances will be very popular in Sanford. Mrs. Cecil Butt played for the special dance. General dancing was indulged until a late hour. Mrs. B. A. Howard, hostess, served a delicious refreshment course, assisting were Mrs. J. C. Bennet, Mrs. C. O. McLaughlin and Misses Saldie Williams and Anna McLaughlin. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Fitts, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Herndon, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Braxton Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Hurt, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Betts, Dr. and Mrs. Cecil Butt, Mesdames C. O. McLaughlin, J. C. Bennet, R. E. Tolar, S. Puleston, Norman Toole and Wm. Leffler; Misses Belle Smith, Saldie Williams, Anna, Lillian and Adelaide Higgins, Anna McLaughlin, Laura Fish, Olga Schultz, Florence Frank; Messrs. Ed. Thimble Party

Mrs. S. O. Shinholser was the gracious hostess at a delightful sewing party Tuesday afternoon in honor of her mother, Mrs. A. E.

Phillips and Miss Salome Hampton. The ladies brought their fancy work and enjoyed a happy, informal social time together. Mrs. J. W. Barnes gave several delightful readings to the great pleasure of all present. The house was prettily decorated with cut flowers and ferns and tempting refreshments daintily served consisting of salad, cheese sandwiches, saltines and chocolate. Enjoying Mrs. Shinholser's hospitality were Mesdames A. E. Phillips, L. R. Phillips, Mettinger, Moses, Barnes, Henry Wight, F. P. Strong, Wm. Leffler, A. E. Housholder, W. E. Housholder, T. A. Newton, W. L. Morgan, Howard, Steinmeyer and Misses Salome Hampton, Lillie Farnsworth, Effie May and Annie Howard and Miss Martha King.

Women and the Koran.
The primrose path was no blithe and gladome way for the Mohammedan woman. Originally the penalty for female unchastity, was imprisonment for life. This was changed later to stoning for married women and 100 lashes and exile for one year for unmarried free women. For slave women one-half of the penalty was imposed.

Ecuador is rich in agricultural lands, but in very few cases are they worked to their full capacity. In fact, much of the most fertile land is not under cultivation at all. MANUFACTURERS LIKE SANFORD

SEVERAL OF THEM DESIROUS OF LOCATING HERE

The Herald has often made the statement that Sanford is the manufacturing center.

Even now manufacturers are turning their attention to this section of Florida as the coming manufacturing place of the state.

One of the best propositions handed our way is the manufacturer of cotton goods, especially overalls and the manager wants Sanford to slight him to our advantages.

His offer to come here will be placed before the Commercial Club at the next meeting and there is no doubt that he can be induced to locate here.

Let everybody plug for Sanford at a manufacturing center.

GREAT EVENT IN CHURCH CIRCLES

OPENING OF BAPTIST TEMPLE SUNDAY, NOV. THE 22ND

In spite of the inclement weather large audiences attended the six opening services in the New Baptist Temple last Sunday.

At 9:30 the Sunday school assembled under the leadership of Hon. Jno D. Jenkins, Gen. Supt. and Miss Allie Traford, Primary Supt.

At 11 a. m. a thanksgiving service was held. A sermon by the pastor on "What the Lord Has Done for Us" gave the workings of the church and building committee in construction of the Temple.

At 7 p. m. the service was in charge of the choir, of which Prof. J. Rowland Wildman is director.

The day was considered to be one of the greatest in the history of the First Baptist Church.

FLORIDA OFFICIALS ARE INNOCENT

TOLD THE INVESTORS THE TRUTH ABOUT EVERGLADES LANDS

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 23 Florida state officials understood and endeavored to make purchasers understand that lands in the Everglades had to be drained before it was habitable, according to the testimony today of Governor Park Trammell of Florida, in the trial of E. C. Chambers, president, and four alleged agents of the Chambers Land Company.

Governor Trammell explained that the state sold certain tracts of Everglades land to obtain money to build canals and drain the remainder. He asserted that for a time it was impossible to sell any of the land because of the agitation about Florida land, but that at the end of the last year the state had been selling Everglades muck land at prices ranging from $20 to $100 an acre.

Replying to a question of the court as to why the state did not drain the land, the governor said it was not possible to do so at that time, and that the state had been selling the land as it was.

R. H. Ellis, Supreme Court Justice, said he was not a party to the sale of the land, and that he was not a party to the sale of the land.

United States District Attorney. "Yes, sir," replied Judge Ellis. "I am interested in it because I don't want to see the honor of the State of Florida impaired."

Judge Ellis said Mr. Chambers and others helped provide the money with which the Everglades was being drained, and that the examination it developed that the purchasers of the land would be obliged to pay a tax in addition to the state and county taxes for the drainage work done by the state.

LOCAL SPORTS HAVE GREAT LUCK DURING THE WEEK

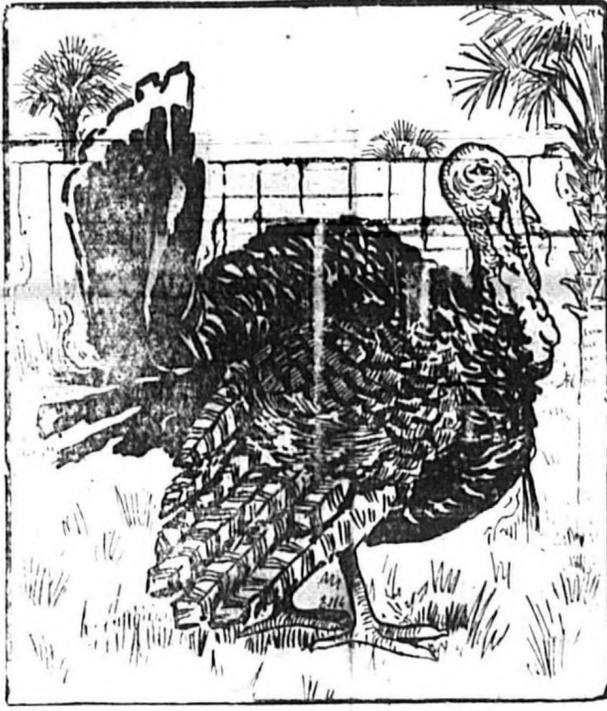

The reports from the various parties who have gone forth from this city to hunt in the past few days would indicate that in Seminole county there exists all the different varieties of game that make the pastime of hunting very pleasant.

No detailed statement is forthcoming from the many who went forth on the first day as the wind blew a gale and the cold was severe enough to make the most intrepid hunter wish he was near a campfire but regardless of the cool weather many of the Sanford sports were lucky enough to bring in some fine bags of quail, turkey and several were fortunate enough to get a deer.

Out in the Black Hammock country around Oviedo the turkey and deer are reported as being very plentiful before the first day. Since that time there have been many of them bagged but there are plenty left for those who wish to seek them in the wild wastes of that great country.

From this time until the 20th of February there will be many hunting parties go from this city as Sanford.

HIS MAJESTY, KING TURK

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

There are times in the affairs of men when it becomes our duty to boost our city and county, and this duty is paramount to every other duty, but there are also times when we should consider the many blessings conferred upon us by the Lord and the American people should especially give thanks to the Creator of all things.

Whereas, The American people by their suffrage have elected a Chief Executive under whose wise policy a period of prosperity and safety has been inaugurated and

Whereas, It is believed that even those who may differ with him can still hold justice and other positions of trust and will promote the general prosperity of the nation and will cooperate with the federal government and will cooperate with the state and county governments in the promotion of the welfare thereof and

Whereas, Sanford is the metropolis of Seminole county recently formed by the grace of God and several others whose names we cannot now recall and in the Great Little County of Seminole there are other cities that are flourishing and making great progress and the entire county is prospering to such a remarkable degree as to be beyond comprehension and

Whereas, The recent cold snap seems to have no special grudge against the Sanford growers and our lettuce will continue to be shipped to northern markets to gladden the hearts of the people who are existing in snow and ice and the price will fatten the pocketbooks of the local growers, thus making stronger the boast that Seminole County is the only real Garden Spot in the World; therefore,

Be it Resolved, That we the people of this most favored county hereby urge the necessity of setting aside all rivalry and aspiration for office and for a few hours forget about politics and by combined effort seek to encourage industrial, mercantile and financial pursuit by awakening our people to a restored sense of their responsibility, if such a miracle is possible.

Let us all in this season of bountiful crops and restored confidence in general financial conditions unite in their efforts to promote a broad reciprocal spirit which does not mean patronizing the mail order houses by a juggle and to bring back that degree of business activity which in years past has characterized the county in general and Sanford in particular.

While every cultivated acre is laden with plenty every heart responds to the inspired hope of good times; every ripple on the broad bosoms of Lakes Monroe and Jessup and Harney breathes an invitation to our people to engage in the commerce of the world. As the happiness of one is the concern of all we ask the cooperation of our neighbors here and all over this neck of the woods in all pursuits and as this season marks the advent of a new era industrially and otherwise we desire it to be known that Sanford throws open her gates and we invite the world to enter, barter, trade, sell and buy and aid in inaugurating a prosperity that may extend throughout the land like a tidal wave and to meet us in a spirit of broad patriotic good fellowship intent only upon the common good of our great county.

SEMINOLE FAIR PROMISES SUCCESS

COMMITTEE HARD AT WORK MAKING THEIR ARRANGEMENTS

The Seminole County Fair will be one of the greatest events of the winter season in Florida.

The fact that it will be strictly a street fair will enhance its value with the business men of the city giving, as it will, the main attractions on the street and keeping the immense crowds in the main part of the city during the four days of the fair.

It has been definitely decided now to hold the Seminole County Fair for four days, in February, beginning February 3rd and lasting four days, making it Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The committee having been named to include every part of the county will now get busy and from this date until the first of February the greatest success in Florida will be busy as bees arranging the various exhibits. Seminole being one of the greatest vegetable and fruit and stock growing sections of the state will naturally have some of the finest exhibits in the south along all of these lines.

Supper will be served at night. This week making arrangements for the big cattle display and this feature alone will be worth the price of a ticket to Sanford to demonstrate what can be done here in the way of raising real cattle.

The greatest feature about the show will be the fact that every exhibitor will be guaranteed to be the real article, especially "The Fall of Artwerp" to be put on here at Sanford for the first time in the south.

Save your money for the Seminole County Fair.

HUNTING SEASON HAS OPENED

GAME LAWS PRINTED AGAIN FOR BENEFIT OF VISITORS

Last Friday, November 20, the open season for hunting begins. We have printed the game law several times, but for the information of those who may not be familiar with it, we print it again:

From November 20 to February 20 sportsmen may hunt for game under restriction imposed by the state laws, which limit the quantity of game that can be killed and require that every person hunting in the state have a hunter's license. County licenses costing $1, give the right to hunt in the county in which they are issued; state licenses, costing $3 give the right to hunt in as many counties in the state as one desires. For non-resident hunters a license of $15 is required.

Game Birds

The game birds designated by the act of 1913 are swans, geese, brant, and river and sea ducks; rails, coots, mud hens, and gallinules, shore birds, plovers, surf birds, snipe, woodcock, sandpipers, tattlers, curlews, wild turkey, grouse, pheasant, quail and turtle doves.

WEATHER MAN GOOD TO SANFORD

VEGETABLES DID NOT SUFFER AND GROWERS ARE HAPPY

Where other point in the state suffered damage by killing frosts and blizzards, the Sanford Celery Growers were only slightly hurt and only the tenderest vegetation was killed.

There is a vast difference of opinion as to the damage done in this section. The cold winds sweeping across the lake were tempered to a remarkable degree and fields that were side by side exhibit the caprices of the wind. Some tomatoes were killed and in the next field were untouched. Some eggplant is reported touched and other fields are untouched.

The lettuce where it was headed suffered more by the winds and it will take several days to estimate how much the headed stuff will be delayed. Many of the lettuce growers report their stuff as being in fine shape and they will begin shipping this week. The celery of course was not touched, as it takes a regular freeze to hurt this great crop.

According to Weather Observer DuBose the thermometer here only went to the 30 mark at his station on Union avenue. Under the same conditions Jacksonville went to 23, Gainesville to 20 and some points farther south went lower than Sanford. The record here can easily be explained by the protection of the large lakes—a protection that is always guaranteed the growers of the Sanford section.

Our neighbors to the north of us will be obliged to stop shipping the tender vegetables now and our growers will come to their own.

EVERY HUNTER MUST HAVE LICENSE

THE NEW GAME WARDEN WILL ENFORCE THE LAWS

The new game warden will enforce the law on the subject and the game warden will see to it that each and every man who hunts his license with him and the warden will examine the papers whenever he finds a man or party of men hunting in this county.

Regardless of what construction some of the land owners around Sanford have placed upon the law this will be enforced. Each hunter will be obliged to have a license regardless of prospect lines and a word to the wise should be sufficient.

The Sunday hunting has also been abolished since the new warden took his office and all who violate the Sabbath as they have heretofore done will come to grief. The law is strict on the Sunday hunting but had never been enforced before in this part of the state and ignorance of the law will not protect any that fall into the hands of the vigilant warden of Seminole.

Remember now that you must have a license to hunt even on your own land, that all infractions of the laws will be strictly enforced and that Sunday hunting especially will be watched by the warden and the offenders will suffer.
