SENATOR MACWILLIAMS HERE.

State Senator W. A. MacWilliams of St. Augustine was here today visiting with his many Sanford friends and incidentally putting in a few plugs for his candidacy for congress from the Fourth district. Senator MacWilliams needs no introduction to many of the people of this county since he has been a citizen of this district for the past 27 years and is well known all over the district. His record as a member of the Florida legislature for 20 years as representative and senator is sufficient to gauge his ability as a law maker and given him that wide experience necessary for a congressman. His record in his home town is another source of pride to his home town people where he has always been active in the upbuilding of his community. He is an attorney of marked ability, a forceful speaker, a man of pleasing personality and a Florida citizen who knows the needs of his state as few men know them. Senator MacWilliams will make a real congressman and he will return to Sanford in the near future to put his claims before the people. Read his advertisement in this issue of The Daily Herald.

OIL FINANCIERS ARRESTED FOR FRAUDULENT OPERATIONS INVOLVING MANY MILLIONS

BOSTON, April 7.—An alleged oil fraud said to involve the loss of $1,000,000 to investors here and possibly millions in other parts of the country, was disclosed by federal attorneys here yesterday when they made public the names of 18 oil financiers in New York, Boston and Holyoke who have been indicted secretly by the federal grand jury for fraudulent use of the mails.

Charles M. Ludden, an attorney, and John E. Gilcrest, an official of the Exchange Trust Company, both of this city, and Frederick E. Herzf, president of the Motor Specialty Company of Waltham, were arrested on the charges, which concern the activities of the Petroleum Corporation of America. All pled not guilty and were held in $2,500 bail.

The federal authorities gave out the following additional names of those indicted: Jacob H. Mettler, H. Francis Foley, Frank W. Bernard, Edward A. Clark, all of Boston; Edward H. The government alleges the Petroleum Corporation, organized under the laws of Delaware, falsely advertised that its capitalization was $60,000,000; that the Standard Oil Company was interested in it; that it had capital stock for sale, and that it had properties producing 120,000 barrels of oil daily with an annual income of $50,000,000.

According to federal officials, Edward A. Clark is said to be on a vacation trip to Florida.

DISTINGUISHED MEN TO SPEAK NEXT SUNDAY

Dr. George Morgan Ward, Mr. Irving Bacheller and Mr. Will S. Bucklin's beautiful paintings on the drop curtains and side scenes of the Winter Park High School Auditorium will be the triple attraction offered those attending the College Chapel Association services to be held at 8 o'clock next Sunday evening, April 9, at the auditorium of the High School. Dr. Ward has completed his work for this season at the Poinciana Chapel at Palm Beach and yielding to the requests of his many warm friends in Winter Park and Orlando will speak at the usual Sunday evening services. The occasion will afford an opportunity to see the new front and back drop curtains and side scenes by Mr. Will S. Bucklin of New York, now nearing completion. No stage in Florida will be so artistically adorned as that of the High School and every resident of winter Park will be proud of what has been accomplished. These curtains are a beautiful example of the work of this noted colorist. Following Dr. Ward's address, Mr. Bacheller will speak informally concerning the need for artistic merit in civil beautification and about the paintings thus exhibited for the first time. It is seldom that three men of such national reputation may be enjoyed during the same evening and this service will doubtless attract a large audience.

Stone & Corwin, proprietors of a meat and fish market at 327 Sanford avenue, have an ad in today's Herald telling of the specials they offer for today and tomorrow. This firm wants your patronage because they ask for it. Try them one time, anyway.

GIVES CREDIT TO SECRETARY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The following letter from A. W. O'Keefe of the Southern Drug Co. is interesting as it is only another case of the good work the Sanford Chamber of Commerce is doing:

Jacksonville, March 4, 1922. Sanford Chamber of Commerce, Sanford Florida. Gentlemen: I feel that it is only proper that I should congratulate the City of Sanford upon having what I term a live, active and efficient Chamber of Commerce, and of course, when I speak of the body, it means its officers and of course particularly its secretary, upon whom the work of all such bodies devolve.

I drove to your city on last Tuesday morning undecided as to the point at which I would locate a branch of the Southern Drug Mfg. Company. After meeting your secretary, it became very evident that it would be an awful hard matter to leave Sanford without locating, and while many of the things that are said of your city, might be questioned by those who would not take the trouble to investigate, I found that the growing report was fully covered by facts, and before 5 o'clock that afternoon I made all arrangements for establishing my house in Sanford and am now busy ordering the merchandise.

It has been my experience that where a city has a live Chamber of Commerce that city is and must be progressive, and I will again repeat that Sanford has one, of which its officials should be proud.

Hoping that our terms of business may be with Sanford for many years and see it grow rapidly, we remain, Yours truly, SOUTHERN DRUG MFG. CO. A. N. O'Keefe, Pres.

The Chautauqua is drawing big crowds.

And proving one of the finest entertainments the city has enjoyed this season.

Jimmy Thornton of the S. P. Richards Paper Co. of Atlanta was in the city today calling on the local trade.

It is high time the best people of Sanford took the matter of high class entertainments into consideration especially for the benefit of the coming generation.

Judge Maines and Judge Household left this afternoon for Jacksonville where they will plead before the supreme court. They will be absent several days.

Robert J. Holly, editor of the Sanford Herald, accompanied by Mrs. Holly, spent a short while in Lakeland this morning on the way home from Duncedin, where they have spent the last week.—Lakeland Telegram.

O. P. Swope of Oveido, one of the live wires of Seminole county and member of the board of county commissioners, was in the city today on business and reports Oveido as being in first class shape in every particular.

The many friends of E. B. Brown, of Jacksonville, are giving him a warm welcome home for a few days visit. Mr. Brown formerly resided here but is now the state sales manager of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Co., with headquarters in Jacksonville.

Fred P. Rines announces new prices April 1 on electrical goods of every kind. Don't know whether the April 1 prices are any cheaper than those of March 1, but give him a call when you need anything—as he handles everything from electrical goods to heavy draying.

L. A. Renaud, (sounds like the divorce center of the U. S.) proprietor of the Sanford Battery Service Co., has awakened from a long sleep and is using the Herald to tell you about a new carbuncle or carburator he is selling. He says it's a good one and will fit all automobiles and Fords, too.

Secretary Pearman, of the Chamber of Commerce, is one of the busiest men in town. His work is not from sun to sun but from sunrise to the next day at the same time. He is locating factories, business houses, wholesale drug houses, laundries, etc., and hardly a day passes that he does not bring in a new enterprise of some kind. His work is appreciated by the active members of the Chamber of Commerce. It is only the dead citizens who cannot see, feel or hear anything good in the live Chamber of Commerce that is doing such fine work for this city.

State Senator W. A. MacWilliams, of St. Augustine, was in the city yesterday shaking hands with his many friends. He will be a candidate for congress for the Fourth District and expects to make a warm campaign in every part of the district before the election. He will be here again tomorrow to arrange for advertising his campaign.

The Hill Hardware Company is using the advertising columns of the Herald to tell of the merits of the Leonard Refrigerator. Bob Newman says this is absolutely the best refrigerator on the market today. But he says that about everything you buy of him—the best way to do is to read the ad and then take a look at the refrigerator.

Have you tried that delicious new drink put out by the Sanford Coca-Cola Bottling Company? Mr. Farish calls it "Delaware Punch," and it's a pure grape juice drink that is delightfully refreshing. If you have not tried it, hurry up and get a bottle—you are the loser if you delay. "Delaware Punch" is bottled right here in Sanford and is handled by all good dealers.

CONTRACT HAS BEEN LET FOR NEW HOTEL AT EUSTIS

E. L. Ferran of Eustis was here today and among other things stated that Eustis was rejoicing over the fact that the contract had been let for the new Fountain Inn, the very latest addition to the hotels of Eustis. The Fountain Inn is one of the Waterman projects and will cost $400,000. It will be one of the most modern and up-to-date tourist hotels in the state. There will be 158 rooms in the new hotel and it will occupy the entire block between Magnolia and McDonald avenues, one of the best locations in Eustis. The new building will also have ten very desirable store rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Holly returned last night from Duncedin where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dinger and spent several days in that beautiful country of orange groves and bustling people. Mr. and Mrs. Dinger have planted out a fine young grove and are happy and contented but are still residents of Sanford in spirit.

Sanford is honored today to have with them the distinguished editor and orator, Thomas Brooks Fletcher of Marion, Ohio, who is here as one of the features of the Chautauqua. Mr. Fletcher gave a lecture at the tent last night, gave the high school a talk today and the Kiwanis Club one at noon. His visit here has done much to boost the city and the spirits of the citizens. His lecture alone was worth the price of admission to the entire Chautauqua.

The track team of the Sanford High School leaves today for Gainesville where they will compete for state championship honors with all the high school teams of the state. Sanford has some good athletes and their friends are hoping they will carry off first honors. Mrs. Appleton and children, of Atlanta, Ga., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kennedy this week.

Six trucks of the firm of Snyder and Son, arrived in Oviedo Sunday night. Work on the Orlando road will begin as soon as the balance of the equipment arrives which will probably be Monday of next week.

Besides this road building many other improvements are going on in Oviedo. O. P. R. W. Lawton is having some interior improvements made at his home and will install a water plant very soon.

B. F. Wheeler has just had electric lights put into his home while E. A. Farnell and Frank Norris are painting their residences on the exterior. L. H. Gore's residence is going up rapidly and J. B. Jones has started a new packing house just back of the post-office, which is expected to be ready for the tomato and pepper season.

W. T. Dodd and Miss Marjorie O. Drawdy, of Oviedo, were married in Sanford Wednesday at the court house. T. W. Lawton officiating, Andrew Aulin and Miss Alice Powell being the witnesses. Taking with them the congratulations of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Dodd left on Thursday morning for Georgia where they will visit for several weeks with Mr. Dodd's relatives. They will go directly to Athens to visit for several days with a brother, F. P. Dodd, who is attending the University of Georgia. From Athens they go by auto to Buford, Ga., to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Dodd, parents of the groom. Mrs. Dodd is the daughter of W. A. Drawdy of Oviedo, having recently moved here from Augusta, Ga.

Mrs. Kattie Phillips new 6-room bungalow is nearing completion. A modern up-to-date bungalow with a 10 ft. piazza around it. It's situated in one of the very best locations on the lake, having a clear wide view of the whole of Lake Crystal.

Mrs. Phillips has also taken over two-thirds of Block 20 and also Block 16 where she will build a theatre building out into the lake, also an amusement park. There will be bathing houses and also boats to lease by the hour. The grounds will be laid out with fine shrubs and trees and splendid walks and drives.

Mrs. J. S. Dinkle has started sawing the lumber for the new theatre building at Lake Mary.

I received a letter yesterday stating that it started snowing in Massachusetts and New Hampshire last Thursday night continuing through Friday and Saturday. Sunday morning there was one foot of snow on the ground and the wind blowing cold from the northwest. It's hardly believable with the warmth and sunshine and birds continually singing here through the same period, that there should be so much difference only a few hundreds of miles away. People go back too early. Spring hasn't really come in the north as yet. Climatic conditions are unsettled and those that go back now are taking a chance with colds and pneumonia which will prove disastrous to some. Are there any better evenings or nights in any part of the world than what you are enjoying right now right here in good old Florida? Write back and tell your friends about it up north. We want them all down here next winter.

THIS IS NO EASY JOB

Frances Marion, well known scenario writer, who directed Mary Pickford in "The Love Light" which is now being shown at the Star Theatre besides developing a very splendid director, also became quite proficient as an animal trainer.

During the filming of the picture she directed a bird, a pig, a cat, a flock of chickens and supervised the close-ups of a monkey.

After Miss Marion struck her directorial stride, and the newness of her directorial experience wore off, she kept two cameramen and two sets busy at work every day. The picture was well rehearsed in advance and while Miss Pickford and Miss Marion were filming one scene, the lights, etc. were arranged on the other, thus giving them an opportunity not only to do the scenes in which Miss Pickford appears but also the scenes in which she does not.

UNITE AGAINST MOTOR THIEVES

Stolen car bulletins issued regularly with car number, motor number and owners' names, is one of the means the manufacturer is taking to co-operate with police bureaus throughout the country and help owners recover cars which have been stolen.

The plan used by Dodge Brothers, Detroit, is endorsed by New York and Detroit officials. Judge Fish, of the Brooklyn Traffic Court, describes it as an excellent plan and one which should increase the number of convictions for motor thefts. Dodge Brothers maintain a department to deal with motor car thefts reported by owners and insurance companies. Every two weeks the complete list reported is sent to Dodge Brothers dealers and service stations in all parts of the country. Copies of the bulletin are also mailed to a national list of police bureaus.

A prominent police official states that the cars which are stolen in Detroit each year go not only to neighboring cities and farm communities, but to points far removed. Cars which are recovered in Detroit sometimes have been brought there from the Pacific coast as well as from far distant eastern and southern cities.

A favorite scheme of the shrewd stolen car merchant is to pass himself off as the representative of an insurance company, in this way accounting plausibly for the low price he is asking for the cars. The farmer is considered a good stolen car prospect, and if the stolen car broker finds a fertile field for his wares in one farm community, he may go back again and again, disposing of his cars in that vicinity. That is why whole fleets of stolen cars are sometimes driven back to the cities by detectives.

Dodge Brothers stolen car service is commended by Inspectors Jackson and Parker, prominent Detroit police officials, as "a splendid service" and "a great help to us and to other police departments."

Sanford Water Supply Is The Best

Actual Tests of State Board of Health Prove What Sanford People Already Know

That the Pure Artesian Water of Sanford Cannot Be Contaminated and is The Purest in the World

The following letter from the Chief Sanitary Engineer of the State Board of Health is worthy of note since the sample was taken from the pipes and is the same that is being supplied to all consumers in the city:

Jacksonville, April 3, 1922.

Southern Utilities Co.,
Sanford, Florida.

Gentlemen:

On March 30th we received from you two samples of water for bacteriological examination and subsequent certification to the Treasury Department in accordance with a Federal requirement, relative to the use of water for drinking purposes on common carriers engaged in inter-state traffic.

Examinations have been concluded upon the above samples and the results indicate that the water is of a good sanitary quality. The bacterial counts were low and there were no evidences of any contamination observed. Certificates covering this supply will be promptly furnished the Surgeon-General and you will be notified accordingly.

Very truly yours,
GEORGE W. SIMONS, Jr.,
Chief Sanitary Engineer.

MEMBER THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Col. Nutt, the head of the prohibition forces has left us to our fate—probably to the squirrels.

John D. Rockefeller at 83 looks physically fit says the young lady who recently interviewed him at Ormond Beach. Well, the young lady ought to know since she interviewed him and we would also like to know if he intends to lower the price of gas.

English courts have decreed that a husband has the right to limit the number of dresses his wife can wear. Well, we thought that was the law in every country. At least when a man's money gives out he can tell his wife to stop buying for a few weeks until he can get caught up again.

Putnam county protests against the tax raise and every county in South Florida will protest if they have not already done so. It seems most strange to the progressive counties of South Florida that are paying the maximum amount of taxes now that they should be raised in order that deficits in other parts of the state can be made up. This sort of stuff is what starts revolutions.

The latest Paul Revere is a young boy in Maine who rode his wheel for miles along the road where the bootleggers were plying their trade and warned them of the approach of the prohibition agents. When the hooch hounds arrived on the scene there was nothing but water to be seen. We suppose they will now erect a monument to the young boy who saved the "principal industry" of Maine.

Radicals are trying to breed disloyalty in the American army and the navy and no measures have been taken to prevent it as the teachings of the army and navy are supposed to bring out the loyalty in the man. This sounds well but the army and navy is also a good place to breed discontent and the officials had better hang the radicals to the yardarm or to the nearest tree before it gets too far along.

Government officials are not worried over the coal strike says report in papers. Well, why should they be? Didn't the operators bring on the strike and was it not a frameup on the public and the coal miners alike? And are not the big corporations and the big men of the country generally in on the deal? Strikes nowadays are not made by the men but by the bosses and the heads of the corporations and the heads of the unions.

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon says he has not found that $20,000,000 that Henry Ford says he paid the government in war profits. Just another one of those small items that escaped the treasury while the war was on and no doubt it will be found when the Democrats get back into office. Anyhow if Henry gets the Shouls he can easily dig up another 20 millions and pay it to the government twice in order to balance Mellon's books.

Sanford celery continues to bring good prices and Sanford growers are correspondingly happy. And there is noticeable in the business transactions of today the idea of sound investments and saving of money in the people who are making it. The crops this year will not be dissipated in worthless stocks and bonds as heretofore but many of the growers expect to invest in Sanford real estate—something that is a sure and safe income. This is the time to put your money into the Sanford Building & Loan Association, in the Valdez Hotel stock, into new buildings of all kinds that will mean something to you and to Sanford.

THE NEWSPAPER GUIDE

The newspaper that carries a good line of advertisements is to the shopper what the time table is to the traveler and the published guide is to the tourist. Busy people will study these advertisements in the home or in the office as they do a time table, and before they start out shopping they have determined where they are going. The newcomer or the visitor in the city finds the advertising columns of a newspaper a reliable guide to follow, just as he finds the printed guide for tourists to points of interest a matter of interest and time-saving. In fact, the stores, the mills, the packing houses and the theatres are points of interest to all tourists, and the non-advertiser puts himself outside the pale of interest so far as strangers are concerned. The newspapers of Florida are above the average for enterprise and quality. They have done more toward bringing the state into public view and into public favor than any other agency.—Orlando Reporter-Star.

HOW THEY MAKE IT IN POLK COUNTY

A winter visitor to Sanford came to our office the other day and related to us an experience he had made in Polk county. It seems that he and a party of gentlemen were driving over one of the many beautiful roads for which that county is noted. They had reached a strip of road about three miles in length, with no sign of traffic coming in either direction, and according to the gentleman's statement, they were driving about thirty-five miles an hour.

They had gone but a short distance when two county road cops stepped from behind a clump of bushes and ordered them to stop. When asked the reason they were told that they had been exceeding the speed limit, and that a bond of $25 would be required from them. The officers advised them there was no need for them to return to Bartow, which would have meant an additional trip of 25 miles each way, and that they could phone the sheriff and state their case to him that way. On their arrival in Orlando, our visitor took this matter up with some friends who told him that if he pleaded guilty he would be fined a nominal amount and the balance of his bond would be returned to him. After patiently waiting more than a reasonable length of time for a refund he brought the matter to the attention of the Seminole county authorities who interested themselves in his behalf. The other day he received a check from Polk county for $4, and this is where our visitor received amusement and Polk county the gravy. We say amusement charitably, for anyone with a keen sense of humor could not help but be amused particularly after reading what comprised the $21 which our visitor paid into the Polk county exchequer. It reads like a bill of particulars in the Fatty Arbuckle case and is as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Item, Cost. Arrest and return $ 2.25, Bond and Release 2.00, Attorney's fee 5.00, Clerk's fee 1.85, Judge's fee 2.14, Sheriff's cost on capias issued 2.75, Total costs $16.00, FINE 5.00, Total costs and fine $21.00, Balance returned to our visitor 4.00

On the bottom of this detailed list was the notation: "No mileage was charged."

We say: "Lord, help any poor unfortunate that has to pay mileage when pinched in Polk county for speeding. He will have to go to the bank for assistance."

We believe that someone is remiss in not pro-rating the balance of $4.00 to the governor's salary, comptroller's Office, the State Road Department, and Salvation Army. Some Polk county official was derelict in his duty and should be removed for some kind of 'essance in office.

Our sympathy goes out to not only our visitor but to Polk county which is the sufferer from adverse criticism which an incident of this kind is bound to create.

WHAT A PRIVILEGE

Thomas Brooks Fletcher, editor of the Marion (Ohio) Tribune and a Democratic editor in the same town with President Harding's Marion Star was here yesterday and Sanford has been made all the better by his coming. Mr. Fletcher is a virile editor.

UNCLE HANK

The only thing that keeps some fellows from eatin' soup with a knife is their instinct for self-preservation.

He must be if his lectures are to be taken as an indication of the character of the man and his talks here to the schools and to the Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs were to the point. He handled his subjects without gloves and he handed the people who hold back a town in the proper manner and in no uncertain way. What he told them about the newspaper man and his relations to the community were absolutely correct in every particular and should be remembered by those who heard him.

What a blessed privilege it must be for any editor to be able to tell the people what he thinks of the public in general. It must warm the cockles of Mr. Fletcher's heart to stand before men that he knows are not the kind of citizens they should be and tell them their shortcomings.

We are strong for Fletcher although we were denied hearing him on account of being out of town when he spoke but his talk is not needed by any editor or any other citizens who are doing their full duty. We have no doubt but what he told the people here what we have been telling them for years and we only hope that after hearing him they will at least heed some of this good advice. We want to say to other Florida cities who have not heard Thomas Brooks Fletcher that they will miss a treat if they do not hear him for he certainly made a hit with everyone in Sanford.

THE INDISPENSABLE TOOLS OF DEMOCRACY

Why is it that the people of these United States are powerless to change the machinery of their national government without generations of agitation and delay? Why is it that they never have an opportunity to register their judgment on a single definite national policy unless it be expressed by amendment to the Constitution?

Why is it that a citizen who is compelled to pay his taxes, or serve his country in time of war, is not compelled to cast his ballot for the election of the men who impose these taxes or call him out to war?

Why is it that the people must accept as candidates for the presidency men whom they would never have nominated, and choose between them, none of whom they prefer?

Why is it that the men whom we send to congress to make our laws do not have the power to make them?

Why do we clothe our president with powers and prerogatives that no autocratic monarch in the civilized world would dare assume?

Why is it that for two-thirds of our national life we have had a government in Washington that was paralyzed and unable to function?

Why is it that we are the only Democratic people on earth of any great importance who cannot change our administration instantly when it no longer commands the confidence of the people?

Why is it impossible for our statesmen in Washington to consider any great national or international issue upon its merits, without making it a storm-center of partisan dispute?

Why is it that in our national government responsibility is so divided and confused that it is practically destroyed and no man can be called into judgment for anything?

Why do we not place our president above the range of party politics that he may be the great moral leader of all the people, a unifying and not a dismal farce?

Why are not more of the ablest men of our nation, those who are most competent to represent the vital interests of the people, serving as in public life?

Is the fault in our Federal Constitution?

That constitution may be divided into two parts:

1.—Principles which define the objects of free government, set forth in a single paragraph, the preamble, together with the liberties of the individual in a free government, expressed in the first ten amendments.

"To form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare and secure the blessings of liberty," those are the principles. Beside them place the liabilities of the individual, among which you find freedom of worship, freedom of the press, freedom of speech, freedom of assembly, freedom from unreasonable search and seizure, trial by jury, etc., and you have the foundations on which Democratic government may rest to the end of time.

2.—The second part of our Constitution consists of machinery with which we try to make these principles work, the legislative, the executives, the judiciary.

Principles are fundamental but your principles never accomplish and better results than your machinery permits.

Good men cannot give us good government unless they have the proper instrumentalities with which to work after they come into office. The best party ever elected to power cannot do much better than the worst, so long as any party must use our present machinery in Washington.

There is where our trouble lies—not in the principles of our federal constitution, but in the machinery through which we try to make those principles function.

If democracy is to us a living faith we must adopt the machinery through which it can function.

1.—We must give ourselves a national referendum by which we may submit any amendment to our federal constitution, or any policy affecting our national or international welfare, to the direct judgment of our people, and let them decide by majority of the registered voters of the land whether such amendment or policy, shall be adopted.

2.—We must abolish the two-thirds or three-fourths majorities of our constitution, by which it is possible for a minority of one-third of the senate or of one-fourth of the states to impose their will upon the majority of our people.

3.—We must place the ballot upon the same basis with taxes and military service in time of war, and make it compulsory.

4.—We must nominate and elect our president by popular vote, and not by state machinery.

5.—We must withdraw from our president the law-making power now exercised by him in treaty-making and the veto of legislation, and let the men whom we elect to make our laws have the power to make them.

6.—We must have a cabinet inside congress, responsible to congress and not outside, responsible to the president, that the administration may be changed instantly, without affecting the president, when it loses the confidence of the people.

7.—We must base our system of representation not solely upon locality and population, but likewise upon economic interests, that every important group of our citizens may be represented in our law-making body.

These are the tools that are indispensable to modern democracy. Without them self-government is a near illusion; with them, it will dominate the earth.

Let us organize our people to achieve these reforms. Secure the signature of every voter in endorsement of them, and the pledge of every one to support no candidate for legislative or executive office who will not subscribe to them and pledge his active service to secure their adoption by lawful process, through congressional action and ratification by state legislatures. Let us reconstruct our state constitutions along these lines, for every state is a regional democracy. Any state in the union may set the model for the nation.

BEAUTY POSSIBILITIES IN THE STATE COLOR SCHEME.

The Lakeland Telegram thinks Thomas A. Edison knows what he is talking about when he says the need of Florida cities is color, and giving the reasons for its endorsement of Mr. Edison's opinion The Telegram points out that—

"The trouble with so many of the newer towns in the state is that they are too much like any other town in any other section of the country. There would be no St. Augustine were it not for the Spanish type of architecture, carried out in the great hotels for which the Ancient City is famous and in many of the private residences. West Palm Beach, Palm Beach and Miami have their individual characteristics as regards buildings and in the case of these cities it may be said that some attention has been paid to the native flora. But in most instances this is a feature almost entirely neglected. That is why Mr. Edison told the Fort Myers News the other day that every property owner in that city should plant bauganvillea in the front yard and in the back yard, if nothing else. Mr. Edison tells the Fort Myers folks to remove the old, and useless citrus trees, replacing them with palms and flowers, thereby converting the city into a veritable tropical garden."

SANFORD'S TEMPERATURE

Summer weather, summer weather and you must put the old heaver hat in the ash can and pack away the winter clothes in the moth balls. It is good old summer time and the Sanford merchants have their spring and summer stuff on display at prices that—well, read the Herald. This is not an advertisement but a weather report and we have no wish to ask you if you are wearing your b. v. d.'s instead of—let's see, what are they wearing this summer? And we almost forgot to ask you again—have you a little "wee drap of the crathur" in your home? It is for a sick friend, you know.

THE SPRING OVERHAULING

Practically all motorists recognize the benefit of a spring overhauling for the car. And within a few weeks, thousands will be attacking this task more or less assiduously according to their enthusiasm or their familiarity with the subject.

But the elimination of carbon, the tightening up of the bearing, bolts and nuts, and the freshening effects of a coat of paint are not sufficient, according to J. B. Ray, manager of the local Exide Service Station.

"The battery," says Mr. Ray "requires more or less attention at all times of the year, but especially after it has stood in the car—idle or otherwise—throughout the winter.

"Corrosion may have taken place around the terminals. This should be carefully scraped off and vaseline spread over them to prevent further trouble of this kind.

"The cradle in which the battery rests, is frequently so badly corroded by acid, that, figuratively speaking, the battery is only held by a thread. In fact, I have seen a man's battery drop out on the road because the motorist had failed to examine his cradle.

"The wisest course is to drive the car to the nearest service station either before or after you have completed the rest of the overhauling. Here, an expert battery man can test your battery, tell whether it needs any repairs and in other ways, assure the success of your spring overhauling.

"One way of avoiding this—if you lay your car up for the winter—is to store your battery with your battery service station until spring. The cost is nominal, but when you are ready for the touring season, you can be sure your battery is in good condition.

"To sum up, remember, your battery is an important part of your car. Give it at least the same attention you give to other parts and you will have no cause to swear at the battery—rather, you will swear by it.

FLETCHER'S VIEWS ON EDUCATION

WASHINGTON, April 6.—When asked today regarding the provisions of the Towner-Sterling bill and his attitude toward same, Senator Fletcher of Florida said:

"The bill proposes to create a Department of Education, to authorize appropriations for the conduct of said department, to authorize the appropriation of money to encourage the states in the promotion and support of education.

"Under its terms the federal government would aid the states in certain specified particulars, namely: In the mater, first, of the removal of illiteracy; second, the Americanization of immigrants; third, providing better instruction, etc., in rural schools; fourth, promoting physical education; and fifth, the preparation of competent teachers for the public schools.

"The bill does not provide any standard or authorize the secretary of education to prescribe any standard; on the contrary, it is provided, with reference to each of the purposes for which appropriations are authorized, that, 'the state and local educational authorities of said state shall determine the courses of study, plans, and methods of carrying out the purposes of this section within said state in accordance with the laws thereof.'

"It is further provided that, 'all the educational facilities encouraged by the provisions of this act and accepted by a state shall be organized, supervised, and administered exclusively by the legally constituted state and local educational authorities of said state, and the secretary of education shall exercise no authority in relation thereto; and this act shall not be construed to imply federal control of education within the states, nor to impair the freedom of the states in the conduct and management of their respective school system.'

"There is, as the bill now reads, no warrant for the statement made by those who have not carefully considered its provisions that there is to be set up a federal standard of education which the states must comply with before they can share in appropriations made by congress.

"It is optional with any state as to whether or not it will accept the benefits of the act and appropriate for any or all of the particular purposes mentioned in the bill an amount of money equal to that appropriated by Congress and apportioned to the state under the terms of the act.

"The bill introduced by Senator Sterling on April 27, 1921, was referred to the Committee on Education and Labor, but has not yet been reported by the committee, and it is quite impossible to say when it will be reported or what provisions it will contain to be finally voted on.

"It may be said, however, that action on the bill by the committee has been delayed awaiting report of the Joint Congressional Committee on reorganization of the government departments—to include a department of education, which is in the hands of the president but has not been made public.

"I was chairman of the Board of Public Instruction for Duval county, Florida, for six years, and have always favored liberal treatment for agencies and means of promoting education; and, if the bill to be voted on does not intrrench on the rights, powers and duties of the states—does not vest authority in the federal government to dictate the course of study, the methods and practice, terms and requirements, directions and full control by state authorities as to the management of schools, I shall favor its passage."

"FOOT-FITTERS"

SEVEN POINTS OF SUPREMACY

- 1.—The sole leather used in "FOOT-FITTERS" is of the best quality obtainable. Even the insoles are cut from standard outside leather.
- 2.—"FOOT-FITTERS" are the only shoes in the world having full length vamps and sole leather box toes. This feature prevents ripping at the tip and makes a smooth outer and inner surface.
- 3.—The insoles are shoulder channelled so that they fit tightly against the outsole. There is no need or room for a cork filler. A small piece of duck is used to prevent squeaking.
- 4.—The Calfskin inside counter pocket is of great value, for it saves the wear on the socks. There is no rough surface to rub against.
- 5.—"FOOT-FITTER" heels are 1-4 inch longer than generally used. They give additional support to the arch and increase the comfort and wear of the shoes.
- 6.—The vamp is re-enforced with 8-oz. duck. This absorbs the moisture from the foot, this keeps the vamp from cracking and holds the shoe in shape.
- 7.—Edmond's "FOOT-FITTER" shoes are called "FOOT-FITTERS" because they fit the foot snugly. Built on combination lasts they support the foot like a doctor's bandage—"FOOT-FITTERS" give Comfort, Service and Appearance.

CAN YOU BUY A BETTER SHOE AT ANY PRICE?

"FOOT-FITTERS" are the only men's shoes which have all of these features. If any other store claims a similarly made shoe, make them prove it by cutting a shoe in two so that you can see what is beneath the polished surface.

We guarantee "Foot-Fitters" to be made of solid leather all through. No paper fiber or substitutes are used.

We have been appointed EXCLUSIVE AGENTS for these wonderful shoes. You can see a cut open "FOOT-FITTER" in our store. Come in and let us show you dollar for dollar value in a shoe.
