Governor Byrnes Calls On South To Stand Up And Fight

South Carolinian Advises Georgia Legislature To Put Nation Above Party

ATLANTA (AP)—Gov. James F. Byrnes of South Carolina today sounded a battle cry for Southern Democrats to stand up and fight for national political recognition. Southern Democrats, he declared in a brilliant state rights speech to the Georgia Legislature, "must to the leaders of all political parties know that the electoral votes of the Southern states can no longer be taken for granted by any party, or candidate."

Byrnes, spokesman for Southern Democratic anti-Communist forces, declared: "We must let them know that we place the welfare of our country above the welfare of any political party or any political candidate."

Byrnes once was President Truman's secretary of state but not an outspoken foe of many administration policies and programs. He recalled that so long as the National Democratic Party "remained loyal to the principles upon which our government was established," Southern Democrats remained loyal to it.

"It was the Solid South that kept the torch of Democracy burning," he said. "It was the Solid South that kept the torch of Democracy burning."

"To the Democrats of the South, I say we will not be ignored if we act in concert."

County Approves Resolution For Housing Survey

The County Commission passed a resolution for the Seminole County Housing Authority to make application for a preliminary loan of $18,750 from the Public Housing Administration to conduct a survey and pay other planning costs for the construction of 100 low rent housing units in the Oviedo and Geneva areas at its meeting in the Court House yesterday.

Jordan Bradley, assistant director of County PHA, presented the application resolution to the Commission, on behalf of the director of the County Housing Authority, George H. Williams.

Later Mr. Williams explained that actual construction would be paid for by the County PHA by issuance of bonds, which will be guaranteed by the federal PHA. Payment on the bonds will be made from rent money received by the occupants of the new buildings.

Mr. Williams stated further, that if the Public Housing Administration approves the Seminole County application, the government would lend the money to the County Housing Authority to conduct the survey and planning for a 75 unit rural non-form housing construction in the Oviedo district and 25 units in the Geneva area.

The resolution stipulates the following request for the loan:

Area	Acres	Units
Oviedo	11	75
Geneva	11	25
Total	22	100

Mr. Williams stated that if the government does build the Oviedo and Geneva units, it will be the second non-urban low rent housing project in the state. The other project is in Broward county near Mims, he added.

The Commission agreed to build a two and one half mile stretch on the Lake Brantley road, including the Forest Lake circle, provided the inhabitants of the affected area would supply all the site and other necessary materials. The people living in that region were requested agreeable to the arrangement.

Further action the County Commission agreed to maintain Chase Avenue from Twenty-fourth to Twenty-fifth Streets.

Resulting from the completion of the newly created voting districts, the Commission appropriated a sum of money, not to exceed $100, to the Supervisor of Registration to inform voters in the doubtful areas as to their precise districts.

25 Florida Cities Set New Records In Construction

New Building During 1951 Is Reported At Over $424,000,000

By the Associated Press

Money spent on home and business construction in Florida last year was below the 1950 volume, but 25 cities set new building records during 1951.

The Florida Builder Magazine reported a survey of 105 city and county building departments showed Florida's construction volume totaled $424,000,000 in 1951. The 1950 building volume, the magazine said, was $412,700,212; however, the magazine noted the lists of reporting cities is not completely identical.

The construction figures do not cover several big industrial or defense projects being built about the state because they fall outside city and county limits included in the survey.

Cities setting new building records were Bradenton, Clearwater, Dunedin, Daytona Beach, Deland, Delray Beach, Dunedin, Ft. Pierce, Ft. St. John, Ft. White, Gainesville, Jacksonville, Kissimmee, Lakeland, Leesburg, Melbourne, Orlando, Palm Bay, Palm Beach, Pompano Beach, Port St. John, Sebring, Tallahassee, Titusville, Vero Beach, Port Tampa City and Venice.

Building permits in Sanford were reported at $2,358,813.

Home building made up the biggest part of Florida's 1951 construction. The survey showed 39,980 dwelling units were built in 1951 compared with 42,900 built in 1950.

South Florida again led the rest of the state in construction volume although Miami showed a sharp decrease, $20,000,000 in 1951 and $40,000,000 in 1950. Miami Beach reported a 10% increase.

The magazine commented on last year's building:

"While 1951 was far from Florida's building year, it turned out better than most experts had predicted. Government restrictions, lack of adequate mortgage funds at attractive interest rates, and the general economic depression were blamed for the decline.

"The outlook for the year ahead isn't too encouraging at present. The government's recently announced plan to cut back construction in 1952, coupled with predictions of growing shortages of materials, have Florida builders looking ahead rather gloomily.

Breckenridge Speaks At Lions Meeting

Possibilities of the growth of Seminole County were stressed by Forrest Breckenridge, manager of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, in a talk to the Lions Club yesterday. Cecil Carlton presided.

Seminole County stands on the threshold of improvement and growth or senility and decline, he declared.

Sometimes citizens fail to realize the better of progress dormant in civic clubs and other groups, he told the Lions. He pointed out that these groups can accomplish working in co-operation with such organizations as the Chamber of Commerce.

Three new members, Hugh Duncan, Roy Wright and Bernard "Buddy" Lake and two reinstated members, Al York and Dr. Frank Quillman, were welcomed to the club. Visitors included Perry E. Smith, Ft. Wayne, Ind., C. R. Lamb, Seckley, W. Va., and A. B. Durbury.

C. O. C. Group Plans Exhibit For Fair

Plans for the Seminole County exhibit at the coming Central Florida Exposition, starting Feb. 24, in Orlando, were made last night at the Chamber of Commerce in a meeting of a committee headed by John Pearson.

In addition to Mr. Pearson, the following were appointed by the committee to prepare the exhibit: C. B. Dawson, Highway Commissioner; J. H. Smith, State Highway Engineer; Mrs. C. M. Flowers, and Frank Wheeler, Jr. of Oviedo. Others will be added to the committee.

Many exhibits planned are a "Man radio station," fruit and vegetable, home demonstration, sewing, and a Seminole Springs exhibit. Other exhibits will be provided by the Naval Air Station, Sanford Post Office, Sanford Tourist Club, the Post Office, A. Duke, and...

Senator Asks Total Break With Russia

Ferguson Wants All U. S. Embassies In Satellite Nations Closed Immediately

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich.) called today for immediate severance of diplomatic relations with Russia and all her satellites.

"We should break off relations until these Communists learn how to live properly in the free world's family of nations," Ferguson said.

The Michigan lawmaker expressed his views in commenting on reports—confirmed by the State Department Tuesday—that the United States is reviewing the question of whether to close all American embassies in Russian satellite countries.

"We should close them all right, but we should go further and sever all diplomatic relations with the satellite Iron Curtain nations and Russia itself," Ferguson told his colleagues.

"We should insist that the embassies and consulates all those countries maintain in the United States be shut down immediately."

Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.), Morse, (R-Ore.) and H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.) said the idea of closing the American embassies in the satellite countries should have careful study. But they all advised against any hasty action.

Ferguson said he had concluded that American embassies in Russia and these Red dominated countries are not functioning as embassies at all in the usual sense. He said American personnel stationed in those nations "actually are the prisoners of Communism and can't serve effectively in any 'listening post' capacity."

Ferguson added:

"By closing the embassies and consulates in Russia and her satellites, we actually are the get rid of a lot of spies the Communists have sent here. The good (Continued On Page Two)

Petition Is Filed Protesting Plan Of Casselberry

Fifteen residents in Fern Park, in a petition filed by Richard W. Ervin, state attorney general, in Circuit Court here Monday, expressed protest against proposals by the Town of Casselberry to annex their properties along Highway 17-92.

The petitioners asked that the Court order notice of the filing of this application to be served on the Mayor of Casselberry and to fix a date for the hearing.

It was pointed out by the petitioners that on Jan. 7, the Town Council of Casselberry declared its intention to annex certain land in 30 days in the vicinity of Casselberry.

They also allege that the proposed annexation includes portions of Highway 17-92, and will result in individual questions including traffic rights and advertising.

It was in regard to the advertising or sign rights in the proposed annexation area along the Highway that Mr. Ervin received a request for an opinion from the direction of the Division of Outdoor Advertising of the State Road Department. It is pointed out in the petition, Mr. Ervin declined to answer as he felt that the issue should be judicially determined.

The petitioners pointed out that they are owners of real estate in the area affected, that the lands sought for annexation by Casselberry are rural lands removed from the conveniences and annexation, and that the town has no municipal services which it might extend to the said area.

It was also stated that their mailing addresses are Fern Park and their advertised products give the point of shipment as Fern Park and not Casselberry.

They allege "that the proposed annexation answers no useful purpose, is not authorized by law, is without lawful right, impairing the use and enjoyment of the petitioners property, and subjects them to taxation for which no anticipated improvement or benefits will accrue."

The petitioners include Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Neil O'Brien, C. A. Wiles, Frank Russell, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Crabb, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Labb, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bright, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eidel, and Vaughan, Inc.

4,500 Boy Scouts In Central Florida Join In Observing 42nd Anniversary

Over 4500 Boy Scouts in the Central Florida Council area joined in the national observance of the 42nd anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America.

Believing that the fundamental need in America and the world today is character, the Boy Scouts of America will launch its new three-year program known as "Forward... On Liberty's Team" during the commemoration of Boy Scout Week, Feb. 8 to 12.

Observed in every city and town by the more than 2,500 (400 Club Scouts, Boy Scouts, Explorers and adult leaders, Boy Scout Week is the largest single birthday observance by young Americans.

The Scout movement was organized in the United States in February, 1910 by a group of interested citizens to meet a growing need for the training of American boys in such fundamental character values as dependability, initiative and resourcefulness.

According to Paul J. Rinehart, business man, president of the Central Florida Council, which covers Orange, Lake, Osceola, Brevard, Volusia, Flagler and Seminole Counties, the program of scouting in this area has been so active one "We are fortunate in having a fine group of volunteer leaders and friends who take a vital interest in our plans and programs. Through our scouting program, we are trying to train our boys to live together in mutual respect and cooperation while they also learn to develop workable skills that are a benefit to all."

"Scouting," says Rinehart, "also helps to engender a feeling of comradeship between the boy and his family which goes far in helping to maintain a well-knit pattern of home life that signifies our American democracy."

Ernest E. Hawk, executive director of Scouting in this central area, reports that Scouts will observe Boy Scout Sunday this week with special church attendance by all Scouts.

A typical sampling layout will be demonstrated on the lawn of the old Court House at Central and Main in Orlando Friday afternoon and all day Saturday. All over the central area Scouts are "signing" neighborhood door-bells asking what task the household needs done, as part of their "Good Turn" or "Good Deed" training, and scouting exhibits are featured in store windows in almost every town.

The challenge to Scouting now more than ever is training our boys and our boys in character, in qualities of citizenship and unselfish service, states Council president Rinehart, "we know that in backing 'outing,' we are helping to build better boys. During this Boy Scout Week we hope you will realize, through many of the activities planned, the worthwhile place that Scouting plays in the development of good citizens."

King George VI Of Britain Dies In His Sleep From Heart Attack; Princess Elizabeth Becomes Queen

Flags Lowered Throughout World In Respect To Monarch; U. S. Pays Rites

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman today expressed "deepest sympathy" for the British people upon the death of King George VI. He said in a statement that the King's death was a world affair, "nobly" and with full understanding of his responsibilities.

LONDON (AP)—Flags throughout the world were lowered to half-staff today at the news of the death of King George VI.

In Paris, United Nations Secretary General Trygve Lie ordered the lowering of the flags of the world organization's 60 nations, which Tuesday concluded their sixth General Assembly.

Lie sent a telegram to British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden expressing his "profound sorrow" at the monarch's death.

At Gen. Eisenhower's SHAPE headquarters outside Paris the flags of Britain and the 11 other Atlantic nations were lowered as soon as the news was received. The general cancelled a cocktail party scheduled for correspondents tonight.

In the West German capital of Bonn flags were lowered on the public buildings. News of the king's death interrupted Chancellor Konrad Adenauer at a meeting at the chancellery.

In Berlin the Russians notified the Western powers they would like to join in lowering flags out of respect to the dead King.

The Soviet Control Commission sent word to American, British and French troops to dip the Red flag with those of the Western Allies' flags over the German Allied Control Authority headquarters.

Queen Juliana of the Netherlands, who is in the Netherlands, said she was deeply shocked by the death of King George VI. She said she would be in the capital of New Delhi, officials said Thursday night. (Continued On Page Two)

King George VI

King George VI of Great Britain died in his sleep early this morning of coronary thrombosis, his long illness ending at a coronation age of 56.

In a last minute change of plans Elizabeth and her husband, the Duke of Edinburgh, arranged to fly at once to Entebbe, Uganda. There they will board the engine Argenta plane tonight which brought them here on the first leg of the 20,000-mile round the world tour they had planned.

Only a few hours before news of the king's death arrived, Elizabeth and her husband had returned to the Royal Lodge from an elephant hunt.

At one time a herd of 40 elephants passed within a few yards of the prince's observation spot. Hunters closed in to protect her and the duke joined them carrying a heavy elephant gun.

A source at the Royal Lodge told reporters the news was given to Elizabeth by the duke, and that she behaved like a queen.

"She broke into tears, but she regained her composure," the informant said.

The death of King George VI today brought Britain its first reigning Queen since Victoria died 51 years ago.

The belief grew out of the throne of a serious grayed Elizabeth received a mild superstition that Britain would wax fat and prosperous with a woman's reign.

The belief grew out of the found of an empire by another Queen Elizabeth 350 years ago, and its rich expansion under Victoria in the 19th Century.

New Queen Weeps In Far Off Kenya As She Receives News Of Father's Death

OTTAWA (AP)—Princess Elizabeth today was proclaimed Queen Elizabeth II by a Canadian Cabinet saddened by the death of King George VI. Before opening their brief session, the cabinet took oaths of allegiance to the Queen.

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP)—Princess Elizabeth wept when told of her father's death today and made immediate plans to fly back to London.

News of the death which made the princess Queen was withheld from Elizabeth until direct confirmation was obtained by telephone from Buckingham Palace.

When she was finally told the news Elizabeth broke down and sobbed.

In a last minute change of plans Elizabeth and her husband, the Duke of Edinburgh, arranged to fly at once to Entebbe, Uganda. There they will board the engine Argenta plane tonight which brought them here on the first leg of the 20,000-mile round the world tour they had planned.

Spiritual Aims Of Kiwanis Club Told By Morse

The spiritual aims of Kiwanis were today stressed by Rev. Divisional Unit, Rev. Irvin Morse, in a talk to Kiwanis at the Yacht Club.

At his request, the Kiwanians stood at attention while a prayer for sympathy for the people of Great Britain due to the loss of their king was uttered by the Rev. A. G. Melms.

"To many people," said Mr. Morse, "have the idea that the Kiwanis Club is just a group of men who once a week meet, eat, hear a talk and adjourn, then turn back to business, and who occasionally take a collection for an underprivileged child."

He stated that unless the American principles of life, many may find themselves enslaved as millions in other lands have been enslaved because they did not reach the youth of their lands the principles of freedom.

Members of the club were complimented by Mr. Morse for their perfect attendance records, and (Continued On Page Two)

J. Brailey Odham Swings Campaign To North Florida

Gubernatorial candidate J. Brailey Odham will swing his campaign to the north central section of the state Friday by speaking in Lake City. It was announced by Odham's secretary, Mrs. Willa Sparks, today.

A week from tonight Mr. Odham will address the Fort Lauderdale Junior Chamber of Commerce at the Governor's Club Hotel at 7:15.

That night Mr. Odham told the Jacksonville Insurance Association that voters must insist on candidates who will cut down on wasteful spending in the state. He complimented his opponent Dan McCarty for being "more honest and honorable" than any man in the state, but said:

"Personal honesty and integrity in these times are not enough. We must have public officials who seek out and actively fight dishonesty wherever it exists."

3 Negro Prisoners Escape From Jail

Sheriff P. A. Mero and deputies today were searching for three Negro prisoners who escaped last night from the main cell of the County Jail.

According to Sheriff Mero, the men "rushed" County Jailor E. J. Hatch when he opened the cell to release another Negro on bond at about 9:00 p. m.

A fourth Negro, who attempted to escape, saw that he could not make it and returned to his cell.

The missing prisoners are Robert James Wilder, 22, who had been transferred from the City to the County Jail on a charge of grand larceny; Eddie Lee Campbell, 18, of Midway, who faced a rape charge and Tom Black, who had been arrested on a charge of aggravated assault.

Commies Propose High Level Confab On Korean Issues

3 Point Plan Is Made At First Full Meet In Over 2 Months

By ROBERT H. TUCKMAN

MANUSAN, Korea (AP)—The Communists today proposed a high level political conference within 90 days after a Korean armistice to negotiate withdrawal of foreign troops, settle the Korean problem and resolve related issues in the Orient.

The 3-point proposal was made at Panmunjom in the first full dress session of truce negotiating teams in two months.

Allied delegates made no comment they took the proposal under study and promised a reply later. Observers expressed doubt that the United Nations Command would agree to the third point.

The Red proposal identified it only as "other questions related to peace in Korea."

But in presenting the proposal, North Korean Gen. Nam Il linked it to a statement by President Truman involving U. S. military aid to Formosa, Indochina and the Philippines.

Significantly, the Communist proposal referred for the first time to the "People's Republic of China" as a belligerent in Korea. Heretofore the Reds have insisted Chinese fighting in Korea were volunteers.

The Red 3-point plan was their outline of principles for recommendations to the governments of countries fighting in Korea. That would be the final clause of an armistice. Two other clauses still were unsettled.

Other developments:

A subcommittee working on exchange of prisoners agreed to inspect the P.W. camps by joint Red-Cross teams of belligerent nations and turned their discussion over to staff officers. Voluntary repatriation is the main unsettled question.

Staff officers debating means of supervising the truce met for only 10 minutes. The key dispute on this clause whether the Reds may re-build airfields, was not submitted to staff officers for discussion.

The United Nations only 25 years old today was in far off Kenya, an East African colony, at the time. (Continued On Page Six)

Army Engineers Ready Canal Report

A channel from the Indian River at Titusville, westerly to the St. Johns River, is being considered in a report now being prepared by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, south Atlantic Division, Atlanta, Ga., it was announced recently by Col. C. K. Harding, division engineer.

Mr. Breckenridge, manager of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, which has a committee actively working on the project, stated today that according to the latest information he received from Col. R. W. Pearson, chief engineer in the Florida division, the report is about 95 percent complete.

The engineers, said Mr. Breckenridge, are awaiting a report from the Florida Wildlife Association, regarding the probability of the canal on game and fish in this area.

UMT Bill Approved

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Armed Services Committee today approved a compulsory universal military training (UMT) bill.

The vote, taken in closed session, was reported as 27 to 7.

The legislation is due to face a House test this month. It provides for the induction into a security training corps for six months of training of all eligible males when they become 18 years of age.

Coronary Thrombosis Is Cause Of Death Following Removal Of Cancerous Lung

LONDON (AP)—Britain's accession Council was summoned to meet at 3:00 p. m. today to proclaim Elizabeth II, formally Queen of Great Britain, Ireland and all the dominions beyond the seas. All members of Parliament will start swearing allegiance to the new sovereign some time tonight. The fact that the nation is without a constitutional head until the Queen returns home from Africa is unique in recent British history.

LONDON (AP)—Tired and spent, King George VI died today after 15 years on the throne. His daughter, Elizabeth, 25, became Queen.

The word reached her in an African colony, one of the remnants of Empire.

She sobbed as she received the news and immediately arranged to fly home Thursday.

George VI—the steady sort of monarch the Britons loved—died in his sleep at Sandringham, the royal estate in Norfolk where he was born 56 years ago. All over Britain, the people said:

"He was a good man."

The King and his Queen Elizabeth, with their two pretty daughters, Elizabeth and Margaret Rose, had won the hearts of Britain by their steadfast refusal to seek safety abroad during World War II.

It is believed that a blood clot—coronary thrombosis—was the immediate cause of the King's death. Last September, a surgeon removed one of his lungs as cancerous, and the King had looked unwell for some time. But even his immediate family did not know death was so near. Princess Elizabeth was in the first stages of an around-the-world trip, but planned to fly home immediately from Kenya in East Africa.

Weeping crowds gathered at Buckingham Palace as word of the King's death spread. Flags were lowered to half-staff. The nation's radios went silent except for news bulletins.

Unusually, George VI became King by a whim of the fates—when Edward VIII, now the Duke of Windsor, abdicated rather than give up the love of the American Mrs. Wallis Simpson.

He lived to see Britain lose much of her Empire, and his countrymen in wartime valor and peacetime austerity.

Now Britain has her first Queen in 51 years. The last was Queen Victoria, who ruled from 1837 to 1901. And Britons believe firmly that the country waxes prosperous under a woman's reign.

The heir to the throne will be Charles, the 3-year-old son of Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh. He is destined someday to become Prince of Wales.

Landlords Asked To Register For Rental Housing

All landlords must register their rental housing accommodations at the area rent office, 222 Melach Building, even though their property was lowered to half-staff in World War II days. J. M. Bryant, acting area rent director, pointed out today.

"Rent stabilization today is an entirely new program," he explained. "There is no maximum rent date and a new effective date of regulations are in no way applicable."

Mr. Bryant framed his statement after inquiries reached the rent office that some landlords were in doubt as to whether it was necessary for them to register.

Members of the rent office will assist in making out the forms, Mr. Bryant stated.

A special broadcast, outlining the rental program in question and answer form, will be made tomorrow afternoon at 1:00 o'clock over Station WTRR by Mr. Bryant, W. L. "Bill" Kirk, member of the advisory board, and Jim Fields, who will serve as moderator.

Dorothy Dix left an estate valued at $2,316,000, according to an inventory filed in New Orleans the other day. You can see that the way to make money in the newspaper business is to write a column on how to be happy through married.

Florida is the fastest growing state in the nation, industrially speaking, according to the Department of Commerce. From 1944 to 1951 the number of firms increased from 48,200, to 91,200, or an increase of 89.2 percent, the largest in the country.

LOST, STRAYED, OR STOLEN—695,305 bushels of wheat, 84,488,500 pounds of grain sorghum owned by the Commodity Credit Corporation in the state of Texas alone. Net loss to the taxpayers, unless recovered, $3,820,000. It's a good thing the people have got lots of money!

"Senator Kefauver can kiss the Southern delegates goodbye," is the way the Tampa Tribune sees it. "His declaration on FEPC will drive from his candidacy for the Democratic presidential nomination the support of the great majority of party leaders and party voters in this section". Another good man gone wrong.

Benjamin Fairless of U. S. Steel points out that higher wages mean smaller tax payments to the United States government. If higher wages mean smaller profits for the corporation, they obviously income tax payments, paid only on profits, would be reduced. But if the workers got higher wages, wouldn't they pay bigger taxes to the government? Perhaps they would. Perhaps they haven't thought about that. But the government would still be the loser because the tax rate is much higher on big corporate incomes than it is on small wage earners.

President Truman, who announced a few days ago that he would not be a candidate in the New Hampshire primary, ridiculed the very idea of his being a candidate on the grounds that it was entirely superfluous and unnecessary, now reveals that he will be a candidate, indicating that it is not as unnecessary as he at first thought it was. And so he will run against Senator Kefauver in a test of strength which will come on Mar. 11. Wouldn't it be embarrassing to the President if he didn't get any votes at all?

The difficulty of dealing with European nations is again brought out as strongly as when George Washington first warned this country against "entangling alliances". The Germans announce that they will have no part in the West European Army unless German demands for the Saar valley are met, and the French immediately become so indignant that the Germans deny they ever asked for the Saar in the first place. Meanwhile they both get on at the United States for furthering the interests of the other party. It seems almost inevitable that Uncle Sam will find it impossible to get out of Europe with his whiskers still on.

It was nice to see George Barr on the other day even if he was going to have his umpire stand in Sanford this year. However, he won't be far away. He'll be at Longwood, and he'll be coming up there today for another good season of umpire work. Barr had one of the most interesting experiences that a man can have last summer when he went to Japan to conduct the classic for GIs, and also some 1940, and got as far as the town of Korea where he had to cheer up some of the boys in hospital beds. "Don't worry," he says. "These boys are all right."

Deferment Policies

There is support in some quarters for temporary draft deferments of apprentice workers. Proponents of the suggestion argue that such a move would help to assure the country of a continuous pool of skilled workers. They also believe that the graduate of apprenticeship would be more valuable to the armed forces when he was finally inducted.

Deferment for apprentice workers would be an extension of the policy of deferment for college students. There has been some criticism of the college deferment policy by those who see it as merely an opportunity for special privilege for youths fortunate enough to be able to enter college. Others regard these deferments as a farsighted approach to the problem of guaranteeing future technical skill and leadership.

Deferment of apprentices, like deferment of students, would have to be dependent on conditions. In the event of full-scale mobilization such deferments might have to be abandoned. In such an emergency the future need for the potential skills of those deferred would have to be measured against the immediate need for manpower.

If the present situation of waiting and vigilance continues for many years most of the deferred will get the opportunity to serve in uniform. They may then be able to serve better because of the delay in their induction, and their eventual return to civilian life may also find them more valuable citizens.

Law To Save Lives

Officials of the Bureau of Mines and the Department of the Interior have urged Congress to give the Department authority to close dangerous mines and to hold mine operators criminally liable if they ignore federal safety regulations. This proposal is not new, but has been brought forward again on the basis of a report that the December mine disaster in Illinois, which took 119 lives, could have been prevented by enforcement of federal regulations.

There is more than one side to such a story. When a governmental bureau has authority to make regulations which have the force of law, there is always the fear that it will make rules with undue zeal and that those subject to regulation will be unnecessarily harassed. The operation of a mine has practical and economic problems, slight of which could be lost if attention were centered solely on the elimination of hazards.

Knowledge which can save lives should be put to use. Sometimes a certain amount of danger must be accepted with a job, but mines which are unsafe should not be permitted to operate if there are practical ways to make them safe without imposing a destructive economic burden. The laws ought to be strong enough to enable the government to require mines to be as safe as it is feasible to make them.

Weakness Of France

A factor not fully appreciated in understanding the divisions in French opinion, and the consequent trouble in forming a stable government, is the effect of the wholesale purge which followed the expulsion of the Germans at the end of the war.

Sisley Huddleston, a veteran British journalist long stationed in France, has written a book, "Patelin: Patriot or Traitor?" in which he examines Patelin. He says that 100,000 persons were killed after the Germans left. Some lost their lives in mobs, others in official trials. Many simply had enemies who took the opportunity to get revenge during the confusion. These deaths were ostensibly to punish collaborators with the Germans.

The figure of 100,000 compares with 20,000 dead in the Reign of Terror during the French Revolution and 18,000 in the revolt of the Paris Commune in 1871. Such wholesale slaughter must create a deep chasm between social groups, and may explain in part the present French difficulty in forming a unified government.

that would result from such a move would far outweigh any disadvantage to us.

A Senate subcommittee on internal security reported Tuesday night that an uncontrolled flood of Communist propaganda is pouring into this country, some of it through diplomatic channels, and finding its way into labor unions, universities and other institutions.

Sen. McCarran (D-Nev.), chairman of the subcommittee, said congressional efforts to control this flood "are being thwarted in large degree by refusal of the State Department to require propagandists in the embassies and legations to label their literature as required by the foreign agents registration act."

ably would be declared a day of mourning.

Prime Minister Nehru told the Indian Parliament the news was "a surprise and shock. I am sure the house will deeply sympathize with Her Majesty the Queen, Princess Elizabeth and the people of England with whom the King was so popular."

"It is significant in this world of republics how the British royal house stood firm, not merely in law, but in the affections of the people," Nehru said.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Members of Congress expressed respect today at the death of King George and paid tribute to him as a man and a sovereign.

The White House said President Truman would have a statement later. Comment from Capitol Hill included: Sen. Connally (D-Tex.), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee: "King George of Great Britain was a man of unblemished character who earnestly strove to perform his kingly duties with high integrity and to the best of his ability. The free world will grieve at his passing. He was in the best British tradition."

Sam Rayburn, speaker of the House: "I want to express my sympathy to the family of the King and the people of the British Empire on the death of the man who was the symbol of their great country."

House Republican Leader Joseph W. Martin of Massachusetts: "The death of the King is regretted by all of the United States. His death is a country ably in a very difficult period."

Chairman Sabath (D-Ill.) of the House Rules Committee: "The death of the King is regrettable, but it is for the British people that their new ruler is as gracious and popular as Queen Elizabeth."

NEW YORK (AP)—The Duke of Windsor, who abdicated the British throne and was succeeded by King George, will sail Thursday night for England to attend the funeral of the late monarch. His secretary made the announcement.

It was not revealed whether the duchess would accompany him. Windsor, who was Edward VIII, abdicated the throne in order to marry Mrs. Wallis Warfield Simpson, American divorcee. The duchess never has been received by the royal family.

The duke's secretary issued this statement: "The Duke of Windsor has spoken to the private secretary at Buckingham Palace by telephone, and this Royal Highness is calling for Great Britain on the Queen Mary tomorrow night to attend King George's funeral."

The duke presumably received word of his brother's death through the press which had notified his secretary. It was announced that the duke and duchess would remain in seclusion in their Waldorf Towers apartment.

measure by refusal of the State Department to require propagandists in the embassies and legations to label their literature as required by the foreign agents registration act.

This act does not prohibit distribution of Red propaganda in the U. S., but it requires that it be properly labeled as to its source.

Sanford Forum

Mr. Rolland Dean
The Sanford Herald
Sanford, Florida
Dear Mr. Dean

The story in "The Herald" on Tuesday, Feb. 5, 1952 reporting on the City Commission meeting regarding the employment of a firm of engineers for Sanford needs some enlarging.

For the information of the citizens of Sanford, the City Commission borrowed $21,500 from an agency of the Federal Government to pay for plans for sewer extension and a disposal plant. The loan to be repaid when it was decided to do the work and when Federal assistance was obtained in financing.

It appears that if Federal assistance is obtained in the financing of the project, the cost of the plan which we have had for over 6 years, would be refunded to the Government Agency.

No effort was made to determine whether or not the plans on hand can still be used. Instead, a clean slate was given a new engineering firm to go ahead. True, the new firm agrees to credit the City with 75% of the City's COST of such portion of the plan as they see fit to use if they see fit to use any part of them.

The firm which drew the plans on hand is far more experienced in municipal engineering than the new firm engaged. The firm which drew the plans proposed a contract which differed in no essential point from the proposal of the firm engaged.

My reasons for opposing this "change of horses in mid-stream" are purely economical. I do not believe in junking plans which cost the City over $21,000 without first determining whether or not the plans are worthless.

The actual truth of the situation surrounding the employment of the new firm is this:

Messrs. Chase, Stemper and Kader had a private meeting with the principal figure in the new firm on Dec. 27, 1951. It appears that the decision to engage their services was made then and there, rather than at the commission meeting of Feb. 4, 1952.

Very truly yours,
Andrew Carraway
City Commissioner

Dear Sir:
Permit me to say this to you and through you to the people: I am humbly grateful to the people of Florida for my nomination without opposition for a fourth term as their State Treasurer-Insurance Commissioner.

Ever mindful that this office belongs to all the people, I am deeply appreciative always of being able to serve as their trustee. Re-nomination for another term expresses confidence in past performance, and I shall employ that experience so the future performance may be even better.

Sincerely yours,
J. ED. LARSON

Insurance Commissioner

Seminole County Ball Association Is Given Incorporation Papers

Perfection Meeting Slated Next Week On Field's Return

By KENT CHETLAIN

The Seminole County Baseball Association, Inc. which will operate the Sanford class D baseball club in the Florida State League this year, was granted an official certificate of incorporation by the Secretary of State in Tallahassee on Feb. 4. It was announced by Senator Lloyd Boyle, the association's attorney, today.

Actual perfection of the incorporation of the association will not be consummated until the president of the local association, Joel Field, returns from a vacation next week, Boyle stated.

The perfection process will involve the adoption of by-laws, issuance of stock and election of officers, the Senator added. A special "perfection" meeting will be called next week sometime to complete the incorporation, he said.

Karl Higginbotham, the association's sign committee member, reported that all 28 of the outfield advertising signs have been staked for but only 15 have actually been paid for.

"We don't expect any trouble collecting the remaining 13 unpaid signs. In fact this Friday, we will launch a clean up campaign to collect the 28," he said.

Mr. Higginbotham continued, "You know with this baseball name contest, the new park and new local organizations, I think we will have the most successful baseball season in Sanford this year."

Meantime the City is completing the outfield fence and working on the field in order to prepare the Memorial Stadium for San Antonio Mission's stay here, Mayor William Stempert said. The Mission will arrive on Mar. 5 with one contingent and the last arrival of the Texas League players is expected on Mar. 10.

Pierson Bulldogs End Oviedo Lions' Win Skein, 48-39

The Pierson Bulldogs stopped the Oviedo Lions' win skein at 48-39 in the Pierson gymnasium on the two-handed set shooting of DeVaughn Robinson. The Lions played without the services of its star center Jim Whelan, who has been sidelined with an injured ankle.

Robinson's 20 points, high for the 11, was off set in some measure by speedster Johnny Jones' 18 markers for Oviedo. Jones scored most of his points on driving one-handers and set shots. Duda replaced the injured Whelan at the center pivot.

The Pierson Bulldogs won most of the way with a halftime margin of 20-21 over the Lions. Pierson's Haggy Hagston was second high point maker for the victors. Big Duda ran up eight tallies for the Oviedo quintet for second high total for the Seminole county causers.

Oviedo now holds a record of 7-4. The Lions will play at Tavares Friday night to tangle with Tavares in a Central Florida conference game.

The Oviedo girls made up in part for the victory loss to Pierson with a convincing 33-25 triumph. Edith Ellis led the Lions' girls scoring offensive with 12 points.

Jimmy Nichols, the famous one-armed golfer, will stage an exhibition match with local pro Max O'Linger and two local golfers Friday afternoon at the Seminole County Club at 1:30 p. m. This touring pro has recorded many under par scores and will go into the Friday's match a favorite over O'Linger by at least four strokes.

Famous One-Armed Golfer Jimmy Nichols Will Play Here Friday

The famous Jimmy Nichols, one-armed golfer, will be at the Seminole County Club Friday afternoon at 1:30 to stage his incomparable playing exhibition with local pro Max O'Linger and two others to be named among local linksmen.

Nichols' story is one of a bitter struggle in face of insurmountable odds and obstacles, but in typically American tradition it has wound up a success. This is the Jimmy Nichols story.

Back in 1929, Nichols, who then lived in Fort Worth, Tex., had two good arms, an automobile tire business, a poultry farm and a considerable sum of money in the bank. Then one day his automobile and a railroad engine made sudden and violent contact, and when Nichols left the hospital some six months later he was minus his right arm, his automobile tire business had been wrecked by the depression, his poultry farm had gone to pot and the bank where he had stored his money had closed. Who said handicaps? And besides, this triple calamity of loss of arm, business and fortune, Nichols admitted that he also lost his nerve and his mind.

Then one day a friend on one of the Fort Worth newspapers dragged him out to the golf course. Now Nichols, who was then 24 years old, had never played the game. Some clubs were near at hand as he sat on the bench at the first tee, and he became curious, took one of the sticks in his left hand and undertook to knock a ball down the course. Now mind you, Nichols before his accident was right-handed. He had picked up a left handed club. Somehow the game got a hold on him and he began to practice. There does seem to be something about this game of golf that enters a man's veins like a fever. Anyway, Nichols began to take a new interest in life.

In his first practice game he made a score of 312 for nine holes. (While in Fort Lauderdale in February, 1940 he shot the Fort Lauderdale course in 68 for 18 holes. That's 4 under par.) He could not seem to get anywhere with that left-handed club and driving the ball from his left side. One day he tried a right-handed club and shifted that left hand over to his right side and drove the ball just as a right-handed

The Sports Register

By KENT CHETLAIN

The old accolade which goes something like this, "When the Navy takes over they will put everything under control," seems to be taking effect in the local baseball naming contest. At the time of this writing we had received a batch of 20 post cards, all from sailors or airmen at the Sanford Naval Air Station. The odd part of this was that each and every one contained the same name—the one running "Seminole Blues."

There is possible collusion in the ironical fact that yesterday's leading name the "Seminole Blues" happened to be an overwhelming choice of the sailors on the next day's voting. It is rumored some local fan has gone to the base and solicited aid appealing to the sailors' sympathy toward the color blue. Of course we wouldn't and can't say this is true, but we thought it was worthy of mention since the rumor is quite wide-spread.

From this early stage in the contest voting it would be reasonable to assume that the name "Seminole Blues" and the monicker the "Seminole Blues" will fight out a last ditch battle to the end. The name entry period reflected a great preference by local fans for the name "Seminole Blues." In the end the Sanford ball club will be named by the largest number of votes. If right here may we say, may the best "name" win.

John "Torchy" Seminoff, the Mayor's son tennis pro, is extending to the children of Sanford and Seminole County a rare opportunity to learn to play the net game the right way by offering to train each child in his weekly Saturday morning tennis clinic for three hours at a phenomenally low cost of only 50 cents. This is not a free plug for the quiet "Torchy" number, but a commendatory by your writer. Tennis lessons are not cheap anywhere and with the rising costs of everything, the trend has been to charge more for costs to mount rather than come down.

"Torchy" said he is shocked by the talent that the Sanford kids are displaying on local courts but which is being wasted by improper training. "You know, if those youngsters could be taught the correct way to play, Sanford could become one of the tennis centers of the nation," the tanned face pro said. For fifty cents, for three hours, not even this tennisless writer can't go too wrong.

Col. S. G. Harriman, chairman of the third annual Mayfair Inn and Seminole County Club men's invitational golf tournament, says the 1950 pre-am event next Sunday will have no trouble in soliciting entries. "Why every year we have more entries than we know what to do with," he said.

The golf tournament should bring to this area some of the top names in the golfing and sports-writing world next week. It is one of the "hot" sporting events of the year for Seminole County. The one grand aspect of this tournament is that even a scrambling duffer, such as yours truly, can enter. Say, has anyone got an old set of clubs?

Hats Off Department: To Jimmy Taylor junior high school causer scoring leader for leading the incomparable Junior Feds to five straight wins; Coach Howie Gordie of the Junior Fed for developing legitimate basketball in 1950 while on exhibition... a 77.

Recently, Nichols, along with other great golfing personalities such as Bobby Jones, Jimmy Thomson, Lawson Little, Marlene Bauer, and Marilyn Smith forms the nucleus of A. G. Spalding's famous staff of golf consultants.

Heavy Navy Vote Gives Name Of "Seminole Blues" 32 Vote Lead

The name "Seminole Blues" took a commanding lead as the Sanford Naval Air Station flooded the baseball naming contest with 20 votes for the front running monicker today. In all 25 more votes were cast for the "Seminole Blues" to give it a high total of 32 votes.

The name "Seminole" rose from 2 ballots yesterday to 13 today for second place in the voting for the Sanford club's new name. In third place is a new label in the voting, the "Santafed," which received six ballots. Fourth ranking is the name "Flora."

The "Seminole Blues" having garnered 32 of 63 ballots cast, is leading the voting for the first three days. The voting will continue for two and one half weeks, ending noon Feb. 25. The team with the most votes will award the person, who first cast that name in during the first name phase of the contest, a season ticket.

Ballots may be written on a card, letter or coupon, which may be fast elsewhere on this page. These ballots may be dropped off at the Herald.

Chilled Fans See Rollins Netmen Stage Exhibition

Alfredo Millet Puts On Championship Form In Winning

A crowd of somewhat chilled net fans watched a group of Rollins College tennis stars put on an exhibition match which Alfredo Millet dominated from start to finish last night at the Mayfair Inn's courts.

Alfredo Millet, Florida State Men's singles champion and a member of the Mexican Davis Cup Squad defeated Calhoun Dickson of Tampa in a single set demonstration by a score of 8-6. Millet won the first two games and at one time led four games to one but Dickson turned on the steam and made it five all, forged ahead to make it six all but Millet ran it out from that point.

Miss Carmen Lampe from Forest Hills Long Island, N. Y. defeated Miss Nancy Corse of Washington, D. C. by the score of 8 to 6 in an exhibition that had the gallery cheering. It was nip and tuck all the way and the girls received an ovation as they shook hands at the net.

In an abbreviated best three games out of five set, Millet and Alberto Danel, also a Mexican Davis Cupper beat Dickson and Eduardo Garcia, former National Junior Champion from Santiago, Chile. Charles Morrison, a member of the Tennis Umpires Association of the United States Lawn Tennis Association, officiated.

The local freshmen have lost both games they have played this season. The team has scored only 32 points to their opponents 53. This averages out to 18.0 marker average for the Feds and 24.8 for their opposition.

The Jaycees are working daily for the Deland tilt. The first five of Reynolds, Krider, Stafford, Hannum and Bibbee have settled down to become "quints" a quintet.

Board Urged To Ignore Law On Inspection

Cattlemen And Packers Say Meat Inspection Act Will Cause Bankruptcy

TAMPA — Cattlemen, small meat packers and legislators today pleaded with the State Livestock Sanitary Board to ignore enforcement of the new compulsory meat inspection law. They said the law would cause bankruptcy.

But O. G. McCollum of Jacksonville's city legal department, said "There are other people to be considered—the consumer." He added "We now expect the board to carry out the law. We want meat that is safe and sanitary."

Raymond Sheldon of Tampa, attorney and spokesman for the Florida Independent Meat Association representing 88 small meat packers, said the law was objectionable on two main points:

1. Fees for inspection which must be borne by the packers themselves. "It will drive the small man out of business," he said. "The fee claimed would require a small packer to pay a $3 inspection fee for one animal slaughtered but a larger packer, only 30 to 40 cents."

2. The delegation of much power to inspectors that if they didn't like the way you parted your hair they could put "out of business."

Every one of the eight state senators and representatives—all from cow producing counties—said in effect "We have made a mistake in passing that law. Set it aside and let the 1953 Legislature work up a new law."

Cattle producers, led by Cushman Hodebaugh of Orlando, president of the State Cattlemen's Association, said the fees for compulsory inspection would be passed onto the producer and packer.

Under the law, packers pay inspection fees up to a maximum of $100 weekly.

The Livestock Board has suspended temporarily enforcement of the law until such time as work out rules for making it work.

Go back to the 1953 state law which authorized inspection of meat, pending opponents of the law.

John M. Dippel, Jr., U. S. animal health officer, explained the first half of the new law including nearly word for word the old law.

Brad Johnson of Jacksonville, a board member, commented "It seems to me if you don't enforce it, it's no law at all."

Excess Fees Of $17,385 Turned Back To County

A total of $17,385 in excess fees for 1951 was turned back to the County clerk, tax assessor, tax collector, county judge and sheriff, it was reported at the meeting of the County Commission Tuesday.

The office of O. P. Herndon had the highest receipts for 1951, totaling $27,707. Expenses were $13,019 and net income, $14,688. Deducting $7,000, the amount allowed the clerk, left $7,688 for the county.

Sanford F. Doudney, assessor, collected $20,858, deducted expenses of $6,729 and the $14,129 he was allowed to retain, leaving $14,691 to turn back. Of this $2,095 goes to the County School Board and $4,600 to the county.

Herndon's tax collector received $1,100,000 in 1951. His expenses were $28,908 and expenses were $20,991. From the net of $8,009 he was permitted to retain $5,338 as his compensation, paying to the county $2,671.

The receipts of Judge Blenstrom's office were $11,339, and expenses were $8,091, leaving a net of $3,248. He was permitted to retain $10,000 and paid $1,248 to the county.

President Truman Tires Of Delay In Making Repairs To White House

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
WASHINGTON — President Truman is getting pretty tired of delays in the rebuilding of the White House.

He wants to move madam and the baby (that's Mrs. Truman and Margaret) back into the mansion the first week in April.

The President's impatience was reflected Wednesday when he took White House newsmen on a 45-minute tour of the residential section, from which he and the family had taken refuge in the Blair House, across the street on Massachusetts Avenue.

He stamped his foot sharply on the floor of the sitting room of daughter Margaret's suite.

"This will hold," he said. "He recalled the one of the legs of Margaret's piano had broken through the floor in 1918, narrowly missing a drop into the family dining room below."

On another occasion, the President recalled with a grin, he was bathing when the tub in his own bathroom began to sink beneath him.

It had dropped, he said, into the room below where Mrs. Truman often entertained guests.

He said he kidded the madam about what she would have done if she had been entertaining the Daughters of the American Revolution and he had suddenly appeared through the ceiling in a bathtub.

Mrs. Truman didn't think it too funny, he said, and told him he wouldn't have enjoyed the experience any more than she would.

It would have been a state entrance, he commented.

It was an exciting, if somewhat strenuous tour for the reporters, who had difficulty keeping up with the President's old Army pace of 120 steps a minute.

The President launched over the popular belief that Abraham Lincoln slept in the Lincoln bedroom. Actually, he said, Lincoln used the room as a study and he slept elsewhere.

Ridgway Raps Newsmen On Korean News

Correspondents Told To Avoid Suggestion Of Traffic With Chinese Reds

TOKYO — Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway's public information officer today said some U. N. Command news correspondents are abusing their privileges in covering the military situation in Korea.

He said he was particularly annoyed by "fraternization and trafficking with the enemy."

In a memorandum to correspondents, Col. George Patrick Welch, public information officer, said: "It has, therefore, become necessary to request all U. N. Command correspondents entering the Panmunjom neutral area for the purpose of covering the armistice talks to conduct themselves in such a manner so as to avoid any suggestion that military security is being placed in jeopardy or that traffic is being held with the enemy."

Soviet Envoy To London Is Hit In Crime

Former Polish Officer Testifies Concerning Murder Of Prisoners In War

WASHINGTON — A former Polish colonel testified today there is reason to believe the present Soviet ambassador to London committed a Russian "murder" in a camp in World War II.

Col. George Gravel, 80, told a special House investigating committee that a Brig. Gen. Zarubin of the Soviet secret police commanded a Russian "murder" camp in Poland.

Gravel said he once established a photograph of this man is the same Zarubin who now represents the Soviet government in London.

He is testifying under oath today, he said: "The name is the same and the likeness is a very great one. I do not know for sure."

The subcommittee, investigating the murder of thousands of Polish officers in Katyn Forest near Smolensk, early in the war, also arranged to hear testimony by an American newsmen this afternoon.

He is Henry Cassidy, former chief of the Associated Press Bureau in Moscow and now news editor of the National Broadcasting Co.

Four earlier witnesses have said the officers were killed by the Russians, who have sought to put the blame on the Germans.

No first name was mentioned for Zarubin during today's testimony.

Cassidy was one of a group of Moscow foreign correspondents taken by the Soviets to view mass graves at Katyn in mid-January, 1941. The forest is 33 miles west of Smolensk.

The Nazis located the graves the previous April when they held the territory Berlin immediately broadcast the news and said the Soviets had done the killing.

Moscow authorities answered the charge within 48 hours with the claim that the Nazis had killed the prisoners after capturing the area. Tadous Brouer, former Polish ambassador in Moscow, testified that Soviet authorities had refused until then to answer official Polish inquiries as to the whereabouts of 15,000 missing Polish officers.

A former Polish soldier, wearing a pillbox mask to hide his identity because he has relatives behind the Iron Curtain, testified yesterday that he witnessed the shooting or burial alive of 200 Polish officers in Katyn Forest. The date was early November, 1939.

Associated Press correspondents at Panmunjom arranged with a Communist correspondent to take a camera to Frank "Poppy" Noel, AP photographer imprisoned in a Red POW camp. Pictures taken by Noel were delivered by the Communist at Panmunjom after clearing Red censorship, and then were cleared through Welch's press advisory division.

Welch said "This request is intended in no way to restrict or curtail the freedom of the press which has been given to U. N. Command correspondents so long as their actions or conduct are not detrimental or hazardous to the U. N. Command or to the success of the current armistice negotiations."

Neither is this request intended to impugn the loyalty or integrity of any U. N. Command correspondent or news gathering organization.

Every photo received from Staff Photographer Frank Noel in his North Korean prison camp was submitted to censorship in Tokyo," said Robert E. Ryan, chief of the Associated Press Bureau in Moscow.

"So were the news stories accompanying the photos. These news stories, which explained in detail how the camera was passed to Noel, were cleared by Welch's press advisory division."

Elks Vice-Prexy Tells Jaycees Of Group's Efforts

Volie Williams, Jr. Is Endorsed For District 4 Post

At Co., vice-president of the Florida State Elks Association, described the outstanding job that over 1,000,000 Elks are doing in providing funds for Elks activities for under-privileged and orphaned children in his brief talk to the Elks at the Junior Chamber of Commerce luncheon in the Yacht Club today.

The Elks provided over $150,000 in scholarships and students aid funds, alone, last year," he stated. Since the Elks were first founded years ago when it began as a theatrical society, he said, the organization has contributed over $100,000,000 for the benefit of the needy.

Mr. Co. pointed out that while the Elks sponsor many events such as the Tangierine Road again in Orlando, members of the Elks do not benefit exclusively. "As our children's home in Dunellville there are only two or three children whose families were Elks," he said.

"In Sanford we built and equipped the Fort Mellon playground," he continued. "If we had kept all the money we have received from our events, then we could have a beautiful building, but we don't. It is our principle to dedicate our efforts for improving the plight of the under-privileged people of our nation."

Elizabeth Arrives In London After Quick Flight From Africa

Queen Grandmother Mary Mourns In Silence For Her Lost Son

LONDON — The Queen Grandmother, Mary, mourned in total seclusion today the death of a third son, King George VI, Mariborburg House, her official London residence, her flag still flew at full staff.

A police sergeant on duty near her home explained, "It is the personal flag of Queen Mary. It always has flown as now when she is in residence—and is not covered to half staff. All other flags throughout the country were at half staff."

It was just before 9.30 a. m. (4.30 a. m. EST) Wednesday when the Queen Grandmother was preparing to go through the day's letters with her private secretary that she was told her son had died.

At once the 84-year-old Queen withdrew to first floor lounge and stayed there throughout the day, refusing to see anyone.

But Wednesday night her daughter, Princess Mary, was with her for an hour.

Queen Mary has lived to see the close of five reigns, the death of three of her five sons and her only daughter widowed.

As Duchess of Cornwall and York she saw the death of Queen Victoria on a bleak January day in 1901.

Nine years later on May 6, 1910 as Princess of Wales, she was in the bedroom while Edward VII was dying.

Her husband, George V, died in January 1936, and she passed through the abdication of her eldest son, Edward VIII.

Her youngest son, Prince John, died in 1919, and the Duke of Kent was killed in an airplane crash in 1942.

Princess Mary was widowed two years ago when the Earl of Harewood died.

And now the indomitable old lady, the English Cockney called the grand old lady, mourns another son.

Elizabeth stepped out of the palace at 4.33 p. m. It was arranged that she go to Clarence House, her residence as princess, and then to Buckingham Palace to take the oath as widow of the late King.

The royal family was represented by the Duke and Duchess of Gloucester, aunt and uncle of the Queen. Another uncle, the Duke of Windsor, had been invited to attend the funeral.

The scene at the airport was a cheerless one in the gathering gloom of the early English twilight. The airport was ringed by scores of policemen sent to keep the air-traffic clear.

Both Sides Give Ground In Korea On Negotiations

Gap On Troop Rotation And Displaced Civilians Narrowed

TOKYO — The commander of North Korea's armies today called on his officers and men to prepare for decisive fighting.

He said the Communists' plan had broken through in a number of places.

Cattle producers, led by Cushman Hodebaugh of Orlando, president of the State Cattlemen's Association, said the fees for compulsory inspection would be passed onto the producer and packer.

Under the law, packers pay inspection fees up to a maximum of $100 weekly.

The Livestock Board has suspended temporarily enforcement of the law until such time as work out rules for making it work.

Go back to the 1953 state law which authorized inspection of meat, pending opponents of the law.

John M. Dippel, Jr., U. S. animal health officer, explained the first half of the new law including nearly word for word the old law.

Brad Johnson of Jacksonville, a board member, commented "It seems to me if you don't enforce it, it's no law at all."

Crop Conditions Reported Good In Spite Of Storms

Agriculture Department Says Cooler Weather Beneficial

ORLANDO — Florida crop conditions are good, although some damage resulted from heavy rains and winds caused by an out-of-season tropical storm Feb. 2 and recent cold weather.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture and Florida agricultural experiment stations reported that the cool weather change was more beneficial than harmful.

It said, however, South Florida production was expected to drop sharply in the near future as a result of the storm.

The paper said volume from the state during the second half of January increased about a third over the previous semi-monthly period—the largest increase in the period being tomatoes, cabbage and cauliflower.

Mid-temperatures provided in California; progress was reported satisfactory in Texas; Louisiana weather was unusually warm in early part of January; and South Carolina conditions were ideal, the report said.

Florida crop details: Winter lima beans: Pompano-Dade area fair condition.

Winter snap beans: Dade-Pompano sections hard hit by Feb. 2 storm. Manatee-Ruakin plantings started in late January.

Winter cauliflowers: Conditions fair to good generally
