Free Barbecue Plan Rejected By Committee

Plenty Of Uses For Candidates' Money During Four Years, States Secretary

Free Feed Would Cost Over $1500

Only $50 To Be Sent To National Committee Of The Party

Request from political candidates that a free barbecue be given by the Seminole County Democratic Committee in Sanford next week to any and every person desiring to attend was turned down today by the Committee.

Candidates asking for the barbecue said that the Committee has a lot of money as a result of the one per cent assessment made on each of the more than 20 candidates, but Secretary Sherman M. Lloyd of the Committee says that it has barely enough to pay expenses for the next four years. The secretary issued the following statement:

"The committee, after being presented with the program, deemed it did not have sufficient funds to meet with the request of the candidates for the following reasons: First, that since an enormous gathering could be expected at a free barbecue, the funds would not be sufficient to warrant the staging of a barbecue and rally worthy of the committee and the candidates, and the estimated cost, from good authority, would be from $1,000 to $1,500.00; second, that the committee has a budget to meet over a four year period and the amount of the fund will really be needed to carry on the committee work. The members of the committee have been increased from about 15 to 25 members this next four year period and these committee women and committeemen are entitled to compensation for each meeting attended.

"Following is the budget for the next four years—Secretary's salary, $100 (four years); State and National Committee, $100 (total); mileage due, $25; postage and printing, $50; wires, $15; old debts, $150; compensation for committee members, one meeting each year for four years at $50 or $200; miscellaneous expenditures, $50, making a grand total of $600 for the four year period."

FORREST STONE

Forrest B. Stone of Maitland, in announcing for the County Commission, said since his section of the county has never had a member of the Board of County Commissioners, that "now is the time to elect one."

Forrest B. Stone Is Candidate For The County Board

Believes It Is Time His District Should Have Representative

Believing that "since there has never been a man from the A-1 district part of the district on the Board of County Commissioners now is the time to elect one," Forrest B. Stone of Maitland has announced as a candidate for the Third District. He was one of the last to qualify.

Mr. Stone was born in Maitland, attending the public school there and then went to Rollins College, built a filling station on the Sanford-Orlando Highway in 1928 and since then enlarged and modernized it three times until he now has one of the outstanding one-stop service stations, with grocery and market in connection, on the highways of the state. A large proportion of his merchandise is purchased from Sanford wholesalers and in placing on the market fruit from the Stone homestead he uses the facilities of the railroad, the St. Johns River Line and the Farmers Market in Sanford.

Mr. Stone is a past master of the Masonic Lodge and belongs to the Ivesbyterian Church.

Hodges Advocates Boat Trailer Tag Costing One Dollar

Speaking in Orlando yesterday morning Senator Wm. C. Hodges better known as "Homestead Bill," called attention to the grave injustice being perpetrated against the thousands of sportsmen and fishermen in this state who own small rowboats and trailers. He stated that those people who like to fish in the lakes and streams are required to buy a trailer tag costing five dollars even if they use their boats only once or twice each year; and as five dollars is the minimum amount charged for any tag the law would have to be changed before relief could be offered.

If elected governor, Senator Hodges pledged his advocacy of the change in the law so as to allow those boat and trailer to operate for at least one more than one dollar for the full year.

After speaking in Orlando, his program for the day included talks at Winter Park, before the Junior Chamber of Commerce in Orlando at noon; Saint Cloud and Melbourne in the afternoon and a final address over radio station WDBO in Orlando at 8 o'clock last night.

Senator Hodges speaks in Sanford at 8 o'clock Wednesday night, May 13, at the corner of Magnolia Avenue and First Street. Seating arrangements have been completed together with musical entertainment and a large audience is expected. In case of rain the meeting will be transferred to the Court House auditorium.

Bompous Will Head Florida Optometrists

Houghton Re-Elected Secretary; 100 At Banquet And Dance In Mayfair Hotel

Florida optometrists, meeting in Sanford in their first state convention held in this city, today re-elected Dr. H. C. Bompous of St. Petersburg as president of the State Association, and chose Dr. A. C. Houghton of West Palm Beach as secretary of the organization for another term.

Dr. Walter Kennedy of Sarasota was elected first vice-president, Dr. A. E. Kitchin of Clearwater was chosen second vice-president, and Dr. Glenn Clapp of Miami was elected third vice-president. Elected to the new board of directors are Dr. Frank Hadley of Jacksonville, Dr. G. L. Manderville of Fort Pierce, and Dr. K. H. Oakley of Fort Myers.

No choice has as yet been made of next year's convention city, and that decision will be left with the executive board. It is considered probable that the 1937 convention of the eye specialists will be held either in the extreme western part of the state or in South Florida.

The women's auxiliary of the Optometrists Association elected Mrs. H. C. Bompous of St. Petersburg president, Mrs. J. L. Manderville of Titusville vice-president, and Mrs. A. B. Kitchin of Clearwater secretary-treasurer. The following were appointed district directors: East Coast, Mrs. Claude Beckwith of Miami, West Florida, Mrs. A. H. Holloway of St. Petersburg; North Florida, Mrs. L. L. Manderville of Titusville.

More than 100 persons attended a banquet and dance last evening in the Mayfair Hotel where all sessions of the convention are being held. Dr. Henry McLaulin of Sanford welcomed the delegates, and short talks were made by many of the physicians, both men and women, who are attending the sessions.

The convention is to close this afternoon. The first session was held Sunday evening.

70 Elks Attend Banquet Served In The Mayfair

More than 70 members of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks enjoyed a banquet in the Mayfair Hotel last evening and listened to an impromptu speech by "Jimmy" Wright who urged better support of the Sanford Baseball Club and of the Crippled Children's Home. There were other speakers on the program, but according to F. F. Dorner, exalted ruler, Mr. Wright's unannounced address brought forth the most ready response.

E. F. Housholder, past exalted ruler, was toastmaster and speeches were made by Caspian Hale of New Smyrna, district deputy grand exalted ruler; Dr. A. B. Alexander of Dunedin, Okla., representative of the Elks lodge in DeLand, Cocoa, Orlando and Tampa.

During the banquet a program of music and entertainment was given.

Many Subjects Talked At Long Commission Session

Agenda Cleared, Adjournment Taken After 11 O'Clock

The town clock struck 11 before the City Commission adjourned last night, and then after that the Commissioners reassembled as a tax adjustment board and continued to discuss City affairs for a time. All members were present with the exception of Commissioner W. R. Dupree.

The Commissioners discussed with a group of young aviators the future of the Municipal Airport, but decided to refer the matter to four local aviation enthusiasts for advice; they figured samples of cloth, but decided to leave to the mayor, clerk and the police and fire chiefs the assignment of new uniforms for policemen and firemen; and discussed requests for disregarding the zoning map, but referred several items to the Planning Commission.

The City Commission also instructed City Engineer Fred T. Williams to do some preliminary work preparatory to filing for new projects with the WPA after July 1, instructed City Clerk F. S. Lamson to invite a water engineer to attend an early session and discuss the installation of a water softener, and ordered setting aside of 11 lots in Evergreen Cemetery as a Veterans' block.

The one subject requiring the longest discussion was a proposal made by W. H. Schmidt that the City erect a platform and provide seats on the street tomorrow evening when Senator W. C. Hodges, candidate for governor, speaks in Sanford. Not a member of the board agreed with Mr. Schmidt's idea, however, maintaining that if the City provided a speaking platform for one candidate it would have to do so for others. Upon Mr. Schmidt's further request, however, the Commission finally granted him permission to park at the intersection of Magnolia Avenue and First Street a big truck on which an orchestra could be seated, and to place baseball benches on the sidewalks if he would transport the benches back to the park after the speaking.

The airport question also consumed considerable time. Marvin Smith and Archie Byer of St. Cloud and Harold Young of Kissimmee appeared before the Commission with their request to lease the port for five years at $1 a year. But the Commissioners were hesitant about relinquishing control of the municipal field, and Mayor S. O. Shindler, with the consent of other members of the board, appointed Ralph Wright, R. J. Reel, Volie Williams and George Deeth to a committee to work out some plan with the young aviators whereby the City's interest could be protected.

Geo. W. Scuffield of Inverness, candidate for Congress from the Fifth District, is spending today in Sanford and will speak at 8 o'clock this evening, at the intersection of Magnolia Avenue and First Street. Mr. Scuffield favors the Townsend Plan and the cross-state canal.

The dance of the graduating class of Seminole High School will be given in the assembly hall on the second floor of the City Hall on Monday evening, June 8. Permission was granted by the City Commission which hopes to conclude its session that evening before 10:30 o'clock, the hour of the ball.

Addressing Hungarian pilgrims asserted to the Vatican by Cardinal Seregi, primate of Hungary, the Pontiff said yesterday:

Doyle Carlton And C. Pepper In Senate Race

Short Statements Of Position Given By First Candidates For Trammell Seat

TALLAHASSEE, May 12.—(AP)—Claude Pepper of Tallahassee and Dolye E. Carlton, former governor last night entered the race for United States senator to serve out the unexpired term of Park Trammell, who died Friday.

In an 81-word statement, Carlton said: "I am a candidate before the people of Florida for the office of United States senator. Limited time compels me to ask friends to take such initiative in my behalf as they feel my candidacy deserves."

"Voluntary efforts, individually and in the formation of organizations to promote my candidacy will be deeply appreciated. If chosen for this office I will give to the people the strongest representation of which I am capable and pledge myself to a faithful and honorable service."

Pepper presented his name in a 28-word statement which said: "I desire the opportunity of presenting myself to the people of Florida as a candidate for the United States Senate to succeed the late Honorable Park Trammell."

The announcement put Pepper and Carlton in the race for the Democratic nomination, whether it is made by the State Democratic Executive Committee or in a special nominating primary. Pepper ran for the Senate in 1934 against Trammell and was defeated 103,028 votes to 98,798.

Nominations in Primary
TAMPA, May 12.—Doyle E. Carlton, who has announced for senator, today called on J. B. Hodges, chairman of the State Democratic Committee, asking him to call the committee quickly to consider a method by which candidates for senator may enter the June primaries. He said every argument appears to him to be in favor of putting candidates in the hands of the party as voters of the party are entitled to select their own nominee for senator since ample time to do so in the primaries exists.

Sanford has arranged for a concert on the evening of May 18, under the sponsorship of the Seminole High P. T. A., in the auditorium.

The Jacksonville unit of 40 musicians is coming here and will play under the direction of Pierce Drexler of Jacksonville. Mr. Drexler is a composer, and a request has been made that two of his invocations shall be included in the program.

Italy's Delegate To Geneva League Ordered To Leave

League Won't Change Stand And Crisis In Europe Deepens

GENEVA, May 12.—(AP)—Europe's crisis deepened tonight as the Italian delegation left Geneva by order of Premier Mussolini and the League of Nations council decided "there is no cause" to modify measures taken against Italy. These measures are sanctions decreed by the League as a result of what the League declared to be unprovoked aggression against Ethiopia. Shortly before the council's action Baron Pampou Aloisi and the entire fascist delegation left the city.

Aloisi refused to discuss Ethiopian matters with other League diplomats in the presence of a representative of Haile Selassie. The Italian said there is no sovereignty in Ethiopia save that of Italy; no government; save that of "Emperor" Victor Emmanuel, King of Italy.

In Rome reliable sources said a diplomatic break between Italy and Great Britain could not be avoided if England continued to press for sanctions at Geneva.

Mitchell Palmer, Former Member Of Cabinet, Dies

WASHINGTON, May 12.—(AP)—A. Mitchell Palmer, former attorney general, died at Emergency Hospital Monday after an appendectomy.

Palmer, who was 64, underwent an operation Apr. 29 and had been progressing favorably until yesterday morning when his condition became critical.

A former representative from Pennsylvania, Palmer served as attorney general during the last two years of the Wilson administration.

During the war he was alien property custodian. He was born at Moosehead, Pa., May 4, 1872. He was active as a director in a number of businesses in Stroudsburg, Pa., where he maintained a residence.

State Tentatively Rests Flogging Case

BARTOW, May 12.—(AP)—The state tentatively rested its case today against seven former policemen on trial in the Tampa flogging case. Prosecutor Rex Farrow at first said definitely the case was completed after more than four weeks of testimony, but then changed his mind and used the word "tentatively." Pat Whitaker, chief defense counsel, declined to make any statement whether he will seek directed verdicts or acquittal or whether defense evidence will be introduced.

TOBACCO MEN PLEASED
JASPER, May 12.—As a result of good weather and an ample supply of plants, tobacco growers of Hamilton county are well pleased with their prospects for the season. Average set to tobacco this year is fully 10 percent larger than that of 1935, says County Agent J. J. Bechert.

Last Big Name Scratched Off By U.S. G-Men

Mrs. Stoll's Kidnap Taken On Coast Is Returned By Plane To Louisville, Ky.

To Be Tried On Capital Charge

Ransom Money Found On The Person Of Thomas Robertson

WASHINGTON, May 12.—(AP)—The government checked the last big name from its list of hunted "public enemies" today as justice agents brought Thomas H. Robinson, Jr., to Louisville, Ky., by plane to stand trial for his life in the kidnaping of Mrs. Alice Speed Stoll. Government men seized Robinson at Glendale, Calif., last night, without firing a shot and hustled him aboard a plane for Louisville.

J. Edgar Hoover, head of the G-Men, said today that Robinson has admitted kidnaping Mrs. Stoll. Hoover said Robinson told federal agents his first plan was to kidnap C. C. Stoll, father-in-law of his victim, but finding the elder Stoll was not at home, he said he went to the younger Stoll's home hoping to find a second male prospective victim. When he could not find the younger Stoll he quickly decided to abduct the woman, he told agents.

Mrs. Stoll, wife of a wealthy oil man, was slugged with a lead pipe before being taken from her home in a $50,000 kidnaping in the fall of 1934. Federal law provides the death penalty where the victim of kidnaping suffers bodily harm.

Robinson, who was trapped because a drug store clerk noticed a "woman" customer appeared manlike and reported to the police, had $4,200 of the Stoll ransom money on his person when arrested.

Robinson had been living in Glendale two months under the name of "Tom Simons. He had grown a mustache to hide his identity. He readily admitted his identity.

The federal agents recently had captured other such public enemies as Alvin Karpis, Harry Campbell and William Mahan, wanted in the kidnapings of William Hamm, Jr., Edward G. Bremer and young George Weyerhaeuser.

Robinson, once an inmate of the Tennessee State Insane Asylum, was considered perhaps the most elusive of the kidnap fugitives, being credited with unusual cleverness.

'Bathtub' Murderer Hanged In England

Many Subjects Talked At Meet Of Commission

terests would be safeguarded and the municipality would also have experienced men at the field at all time to give expert assistance to filers.
A dozen petitioners asked for revocation of a building permit issued to the Rev. W. S. Queen for the erection of a church building at Ninth Street and Laurel Avenue, claiming that it would be a nuisance. Building Inspector G. P. Paxton stated there is no restriction against church construction in residential zones, but since Commissioner Dupree had sent word he wished to be heard on the matter the Commission decided to refer the protest to the Planning Commission and not take action until Mr. Dupree could be present.
Requests for permits to build gasoline filling stations on French Avenue, one at Tenth Street and the other between Second and Third streets, both in residential zones, were also referred to the Planning Commission. H. B. Pope is chairman of that Commission.
Setting aside of 11 more lots in Evergreen as a burial plot for veterans was made on request of City Engineer Fred T. Williams, adjutant of the local post of the United Spanish War Veterans, who said he was also speaking for the American Legion.
City Clerk Lamson reminded the Commission that if now WPA projects are let in July, in accordance with announcement made some time ago, the City must get in its applications before that date, and the City engineer was therefore instructed to begin the assembling of data. Commissioners mentioned such items as improvement of the pavement of Celery and Magnolia Avenues, the widening and repaving of Second Street between Oak and Sanford Avenues, and improvements at the ball park and the golf course.

Wide Open Campaign Brings Many Issues On All Fronts

By BYRON PRICE
WASHINGTON, May 12.—(AP)—As convention-time approaches, it becomes increasingly clear that the coming conflict will be no "narrow" campaign—either in the geographical sense or with respect to the range of the discussion.
Often the earlier months of election year see some main battleground selected, and the issues sorted over so that one or two come sharply to the fore. This time the process has been reversed.
A year ago it appeared that the Democrats were preparing to make no more than a perfunctory campaign in the east, but would concentrate on an effort to find a winning combination in west and south. In consequence, the Republicans were expected to regard the east as safe, and go east and west, and perhaps parts of the south, will be in the zone west. Now it appears that both of active struggle.

Similarly, many politicians have forecast a straight-out conservative liberal contest, with the Republicans keeping well over to the political right, and the Democrats swinging definitely to the left. Now some of the more experienced doubt seriously whether any such thing will develop.

One of the chief geographical surprises has been the increasing volume of Democratic claims in the vastly important eastern states of New York and Pennsylvania.

Outwardly, these claims cite the large aggregate majority rolled up last fall by Democratic candidates for the New York assembly, and the marked increase of Democratic registration in parts of Pennsylvania which formerly were solidly Republican.

Under the surface, the Democratic talk is based also on the fact that carefully-organized Democratic troops already are actively mobilizing as far as Massachusetts. The Republicans dispute that any of this territory is doubtful, but it certainly would not be safe to regard even New England as entirely outside the 1936 battle zone.

That the Republicans will not do so, but will campaign actively down to the North Atlantic coast is, consequently, assured. Nor is it unlikely that the Republican managers will devote some of their attention to the states usually numbered in the Democratic solid south.

In 1928 Mr. Hoover carried several of those states. Now there are evidences of southern Democratic revolt against some of the Roosevelt policies. Assured of a campaign fund, the Republicans may be counted on to make war in every state where they see the slightest chance of victory.

With respect to issues, too, the tendency on both sides is toward taking in a great deal of territory.
Talk of narrowing the campaign to a constitutional issue has virtually disappeared. The Liberty League has played that tune to every possible variation, and many Republicans are unwilling to put the party in the attitude of echoing the league.

Besides, the widely-forecast Democratic advocacy of a constitutional amendment now shows no prospect of materializing.
Relief, taxes, power, inflation, budget management, farm policy, labor legislation—the long procession of subjects with which the Roosevelt Administration has dealt marches into the campaign in solid ranks, and it is a wise politician who can tell which may swing the greatest number of votes in the end.

Basically, the Democrats may tend to liberalism, but will they go so far as to risk the solid opposition of business, against which no President ever has been elected? Fundamentally, the Republicans may incline to conservatism, but will they be so unbending as to chance the best of the thousands of liberal voters cast for Senator Borah in the primaries?

These are questions the party managers are certain to examine carefully before they leap.

The regular meeting of the Azarian Class of the First Baptist Church which was scheduled to take place tonight has been postponed until Tuesday, May 13.

GRADY BURTON

Makes No Trick Promises

Grady Burton, Wauchula, candidate for Governor in the June Primaries, does not try to deceive the people. Candidates who promise to cut all the taxes and, at the same time, increase all expenses are not sincere or honest with the voters. Grady Burton will work to save here of the tax money that goes into the state treasury and to reallocate the funds so that Public Schools and other important work shall be provided for. But he does not promise to make something out of nothing.

FAVORS OLD AGE PENSIONS

Grady Burton is definitely committed to support and work for old age pensions through co-operation with a nationwide plan, if that plan through the state government.

PROPOSES ONE-CENT-BREAST LEVY

Grady Burton proposes to take the "old one-cent" or change in position which has been kept back from voters and put that money into a fund to advertise Florida's advantages throughout the world.

OPPOSES TWO-JOB PRACTICE

Grady Burton is opposed to the Two-Job Practice and to those who support it. It is not enough that an employer is to be controlled by the Legislature, but the employer should be held in order that the Two-Job Practice may be abolished.

KNOWS HOW TO CONTROL STATE

Grady Burton is a candidate for governor who has an excellent plan of the State and knows how to control it. He has a plan for the State and knows how to control it. He has a plan for the State and knows how to control it.

King's English Is Being Canned So Future Ages Will Know How To Talk

By ROGER D. GREENE
LONDON, May 12.—(AP)—
Fearful that all Englishmen may soon speak Mayfair English, under the standardizing influence of "talkies" and the radio, the British Museum is hurriedly making phonograph records of British dialects and accents.
This step, says the "Daily Telegraph" gravely, "has been taken none too soon. It is already rare to hear in the south a word which is strange to the common vocabulary. Local syntax and turns of phrase seem to be fading out."
Even today, this garbling of the king's English, as spoken by Englishmen, sometimes puzzles Americans, who come over with the firm conviction that all Britons speak in the Lord Belling-broke drawl of the stage. "Gad, sir! The bloke is a cad—a ruddy boundah!"
But if, as the British Museum believes, oddities of English syntax are fading out, there remains a widespread peculiarity—as familiar in England may, at first, startle tourists.
As voiced by a Piccadilly bus conductor, it may sound to the untuned ear as though he were snorting in mild irritation at a sudden fragrance, "as of dead fish."
"Kew-w-w!" he says, on a remorseless note.
And all day long, with the same intonation, he may be heard going up and down the bus aisles, crying "Kew-w-w-w!"
Elevator, or "lift" operators chant the same refrain when they reach the desired floor, ushering the passenger out with a somewhat softer-spoken "Kew-w-w!" Almost a hiss.
Waiters and waitresses, on setting down each dish before the diner, murmur, "Kew-w-w..." and they "kew" again on removing each plate, saucer, knife and fork.
The butcher, the baker, the barmaid at the corner pub—all raise the same sound on completing a sale.
At any given moment, it is estimated, a good half million "kews" are rising from the streets of London alone. It is the same in Southampton, Bristol, Bootle, or Barton-in-the-Beans, Warwickshire.
What they are getting at, of course, is "thank you"; but unlike the American shortening to

Ancient Oak Crashes And Kills Guardian

By GENE HUNTER
GEESE, Hungary, May 12.—(AP)—
For years the Widow Zafir refused to let authorities cut down the centuries-old oak that shaded her cottage.
Finally, however, village officials decided the tree endangered the hut and that it must come down. Sobbingly the woman watched workmen felling the ancient tree.
Suddenly it broke and fell on her, killing her instantly. She was buried in a coffin made from it.

Check Book Money Grows As Payment Of Bonus Nears

Peace-Time Outlay Is Predicted For Summer Months

(This is the fifth in a series of six articles on the progress of economic recovery.)

By FREDERICK E. GARDNER
WASHINGTON, May 12.—(AP)—Federal spending has been woven deeply into the texture of business.

Plans for cash payment of the bonus to war veterans next summer have emphasized Uncle Sam's dollar sign in the trade outlook.

Indications point to peak peace-time outlay of federal funds as the bonus money joins works relief and farm payments.

Counting $1,700,000,000 due veterans in bonus bonds, treasury disbursements over the next six months may top $5,000,000,000.

Continuation of the recent rate of works relief spending and completion of AAA contracts for crop control could make it possible.

How potent impending federal expenditures would be in accelerating recovery is a topic of speculation among trade analysts. The question is complicated by uncertainty as to how much bonus money would be spent immediately for goods.

Nevertheless, the bonus money, coupled with other spending, figures importantly in business calculations.

Controversy has camped on the manifold trails of federal dollars, reaching widely into trade and industry.

What part government expenditures, running at the rate of more than $7,000,000,000 a year, have played in promoting recovery since 1933 divides opinion among economists.

In recent months the shift toward works projects has diverted more dollars directly into industrial channels, in contrast with the earlier accent on rehabilitation of financial institutions, home and farm mortgages and emergency relief.

Behind the front line attack on unemployment are monetary limitations. The spending campaign.

Treasury borrowing to bridge the wide gap between receipts and expenditures has made liberal use of the nation's credit machinery.

The sharp rise in bank deposits has been attributed partly to payment by banks for federal obligations in "check-book" money and subsequent spending of it by the government.

To some theorists, the deposits so created constitute a medium for potential increase in business transactions. To them, a rising business curve is a natural accompaniment of expansion in "check-book" money.

More important to others is the question as to whether the credit of federal spending is near.

As long as there is substantial unemployment, Administration spokesmen assert spending must continue. At the same time, business fears increased taxes may impede the recovery movement.

In the sixth and final article of the series, Claude A. Jagger, Associated Press financial editor, will discuss the outlook for building and heavy industry.

Coeds Greater Spenders Than Male Students

COLUMBUS, O., May 12.—(AP)—As a spender of dad's money, a college girl outdoes a college boy, say students at Capital University here.

A survey shows that it costs $69.43 to keep the average girl in school a year, whereas a man spends only $49.71 annually while acquiring an education.

It's what they eat, rather than what they study, that costs the most. Meals for the average male student total about $120.44 for a college year, while Betty Coed spends $5.39 a week for board.

The average girl spends $2.91 a week for clothes and the average man only $25.97 a year. Men students at Capital spend an average of $18.22 annually for recreation and $11.29 for refreshments, undoubtedly largely spent on coeds who turn $1.09 bill at all for refreshments and one of only $9.20 for recreation.

Room rent costs coeds, $30.91 a year and college men only $56.67. Books cost women students more than men, and coeds spend more for stationery than do their male fellow students.

The coeds report they receive 80 percent of what they spend from home and earn the rest. Men students pay their parents pay 60 percent of their bills.

KARPIS 'BEAUTY' SPIRITED AWAY

'STARVATION' TEACHER ARRESTED

While a "starvation" school "pupil" sought to regain 25 pounds of lost weight, his former "teacher," Mrs. Linda Burfield Hazard (above), 69, faced charges of practicing medicine without a license at Seattle, Wash. The "student," William Jussila, was placed under the care of a physician after following for six weeks a diet recommended by Mrs. Hazard. It consisted of lemonade, soup, potatoes and salad. Swiss Fortifying Mountain Borders Of Alpine Domain

Fear Country Might Be In Belgium's Plight Some Day

By CHARLES POLTE
BERNE, May 12.—(AP)—Switzerland has begun fortifying her frontiers and it costs a lot of money because the Swiss trust none of their neighbors.

For more than a century the Swiss have been satisfied with the Alps to defend their neutrality and independence. Only a few small blockhouses guarded strategic passes where the landwehr, Swiss frontier troops, watched for invaders.

After the war Swiss military experts watched their rarming neighbors with alarm. Broad highways lead from the Germano-Swiss frontier at Basel toward Besancon in France through unprotected Swiss valleys.

If war comes, asked Swiss army men, could not Switzerland be "the next Belgium" if Germany should pick the most vulnerable frontier for a dash to France?

Switzerland's answer appeared in the form of a military budget of 215 million Swiss francs (about $76,500,000), the largest sum ever approved by the federal council for any budget in Swiss history. Much of it was earmarked for fortifications.

Swiss socialists immediately began a campaign to have all the money spent in strengthening the German and Italian frontiers where the danger is greatest.

The federal council, however, announced that all the frontiers would be fortified. Whether "all the frontiers" included the 20-mile border of the tiny principality of Liechtenstein was not stated, but Frenchmen were both surprised and hurt to hear that Swiss troops were building earthworks opposite the French frontier.

Reports that the fortifications were to be reversible so that they could be used to fight an army marching through Switzerland toward France, calmed French protests along with the gentle Swiss reminder that the last armies to invade the cantons were French troops under Napoleon.

No Ladies will be ARRESTED for buying Chintz!

Here's a funny little item about sales-tax troubles 160 years ago in London.

To protect the English weavers of linen and wool, cotton chintz was stiffly taxed, and the Lord Mayor was "shocked and grieved" to see three gentlewomen walking in St. James Park on Sunday dressed in chintz gowns. On Monday morning, the three ladies were haled into court but all promptly paid their fines . . . because chintz was so pretty and so cool!

It still is. Crisp little dot and flower chintz for warm weather frocks. Red-rambler-rose chintz for summer bedrooms. Chintz slip-covers for dining-room chairs. Chintz blinds when you take the winter draperies down.

Right now is the time to do your chintz-choosing. Or gay cretonnes and bold blocked linens . . . clothes at special after-Easter savings . . . porch and lawn furniture . . . garden tools . . . all the things you'll need and enjoy this summer.

Study the advertisements to see who's selling them and what the price tags are. Pre-shopping in the pages of this paper will save you hours of aimless wandering and indecision—will make every dollar do extra duty. In April and all year round, read the advertisements first.

Trade Body's Oviedo Parley Great Success

Attendance At Session Held Outside County Seat Much Larger Than Usual

Sumptuous Meal Served By Women

Entertainment Given By School And Lyman P.-T.A. Singers

Attended by the largest number of persons at any recent meeting of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, last night's session in Oviedo was voted an unqualified success. It was the first time the trade body has met outside of Sanford in four years.

Every section of the County was represented at the meeting last night with an especially large delegation from Sanford. The Oviedo Men's Club, W. F. Talbot, president, was the host to the visitors and arranged the program, but the Oviedo Women's Club served the supper which was a sumptuous affair. The supper was served in the gymnasium building before the short business session of the organization which was held in the spacious auditorium of the Oviedo High School.

Mr. Talbot first called the Men's Club to order for a brief session during which he appointed a Boy Scout committee and received a report from County Engineer Tony Pitchford on the progress of the swimming pool being built in Sweetwater Park in Oviedo. This pool is to be 25 by 75 feet in size and will cost $9,872. The town of Oviedo put up $1,800 toward the cost of construction.

Before adjourning the session of the Club and turning the gavel over to President Tom Simpson of the Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Talbot stated that the meeting dispensed an ambition he had held ever since civic work was started in Oviedo. He said he was delighted with the attendance and the spirit of co-operation and bespeaks for the County organization and its new president the undivided support of all citizens of his part of the County.

Mr. Simpson likewise expressed his pleasure over the large attendance and the enthusiasm evidenced and declared that with 870 members already enrolled in the Chamber of Commerce this year the organization will be able to carry forward its program if the various communities continue to co-operate and will make the trade body their clear.

Roosevelt Is Victor By Heavy Vote In Primaries Of Ohio And West Virginia

(By the Associated Press) Senator Borah's campaign against the regular Republican organization in Ohio appeared to have won him only five of the 52 delegates the state will send to the Cleveland national convention. He did not contest for 17 of the delegates.

President Roosevelt overwhelmed the anti-New Deal Democrat, Col. Henry Breckinridge of New York, for the third time. Earlier results in Pennsylvania and Maryland were similar to Ohio's huge vote for Roosevelt.

Overshadowing the presidential votes were the races for governor and one U. S. Senator. Sen. M. M. Neely, candidate for renomination on the Democratic ticket, was opposed by Ralph M. Hiner, of Brooklyn, former state legislator. The real fight, however, was between the supporters of Neely and factions behind the state's junior senator; young Rush Dewey Holt, who broke with Neely and campaigned actively against him.
