Lawrence Of Arabia
"In Colonel Lawrence we have lost one of the greatest beings of our time. I had hoped to see him emerge from his retirement to take a commanding part in facing the dangers which now threaten the country."
These eulogistic and prophetic words of Winston Churchill give an inkling of the tremendous personal impact which characterized the life of Thomas Edward Lawrence, and which played such an important part in his role of leader of wild desert Arab bands, king maker, advisor to the colonial councils and author.
The death of this romantic and enigmatic personality, who might have had a whole nation bowing at his feet, if he had condescended to accept honors and public acclaim, is being mourned throughout England. But in accordance with the simplicity of his life his funeral will be attended only by a few intimate friends and there will be nothing of the pomp which might have been accorded to a World War hero.
When the World War began in 1914, Lawrence, who had been an incognito student at Oxford, sought enlightenment but was turned down because he was too short. Perhaps because he could speak the language of the Arabs he was sent by Lord Kitchener on a mission to Egypt where his dramatic career began.
From a staff officer of the Associated Press he became the man who was instrumental in organizing the Arab Bureau, and also in fomenting an Arabian revolt against Turkey. In the fall of 1916, he was transferred to the British Staff, and entered the romantic stage of his career, always looking back with regret to the delights of study.

THE COLOSSUS OF RHODES
By A. P. CONNELLY
ARTICLE BY A
In this article we attempt to tell a little about the colossus of this people in Seminoles County. Without doubt all of you that are thirty or forty years old or more vividly "boom days" and the days which led up to them, and on night thinking, woman want to return to those days.
Seminoles County is peculiarly an agricultural county, and our farmers were blessed for several years up to a few years ago with a prosperity which comes to but few people engaged in the farming occupation almost anywhere, creating in the minds of many of us, the belief that we had a most awfully good thing, and we could make of it just what we pleased.
If, for instance, a farmer on five or ten acres could do about fifty or one hundred acres. This has resulted in men coming to Seminoles County to work on or as capital at all and developing into very big men. Merchants, lawyers and doctors and other business men became farmers. I can speak feelingly on this subject for I have seen a number of them. I left my legitimate field of work and became a farmer. I became a millionaire farmer. I do not mean to say that I am a millionaire farmer, but I do mean to say that I am a farmer. I do not mean to say that I am a farmer, but I do mean to say that I am a farmer.

London To Paris Hop In Glider Costs $150
PARIS, May 20.—Robert Knefel, Australia's glider man, established a record for the cheapest London to Paris flight Thursday when he made it with fuel bill of less than $150.
He headed at Le Bourget airport, outside Paris, at 7:16 P. M., after having left Croydon airport, outside London, at 3:05 P. M. He used a drone glider for the 210-mile hop, equipped with a five horsepower motorcycle engine.
Knefel said he had tail-wind but encountered hail, snow and rain over the English channel.
