PLANTATION PALS. An interested pickaninny watches N. O. Taylor, 89 and blind for 20 years, as he gathers tobacco at Hartfield, Ga. Taylor follows his crop from the seed bed to market. He said he could tell by the "feel" when his plants are diseased and when they need to be sprayed.

NO SILVER THREADS. Walter Johnson, "The Big Train," entered big-league baseball at Washington, D. C., 30 years ago this month as the fast ball sensation of his day. Now he's a Maryland dairy farmer, and he proves to his mirror there's no gray in his crown.

DOWN THE TRACK. Here is a typical crowd at the Hambletonian race. Last year it was Rosalind who took the coveted trophy for three-year-old trotters. Between 45,000 and 50,000 are expected to be in the stands at Good Time Park for the 1937 race on August 11, during the Grand Circuit meeting at Goshen, N. Y.

THE GOLDEN WEED. In Georgia and North Florida tobacco markets the first of the 1937 "bright leaf" tobacco crop sold briskly. "Golden weed" farmers of the two states expected more than $15,000,000 for their crop. Here's an auctioneer (hand upraised) and buyers at the Metter, Ga., market.

VANDBERG STEPS OUT. Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg (R-Mich.), often mentioned as a possible presidential nominee, created the newest congressional stir. He proposed to place the senate on record against a recess appointment to fill the supreme court vacancy.

BEACH MAILMAN. They called it the world's only aquaplane mail delivery when John Campbell, postman, took this letter from Mayor C. W. Lockrey of Manhattan Beach, Calif., for delivery to Mayor Louis Crandall of Avalon. It was an invitation to aquaplane races.

APPLE ANTIC. Southern Negroes started it, just as they did the Charleston and "black bottom." Now Dixie swings to a tricky little routine they've named "The Big Apple." Here's a figure.

STRUT AND TRUCK. There's a little bit of everything in Dixie's "apple" dance. This may have been borrowed from ring-around-the-rosy, but there's also "struttin', truckin', shufflin' and reelin'."

GIVING THE BOOT. It takes some high stepping and kicking to really accomplish this new swingin', stamplin', dancing rage. These "apple" dancers are Evelyn Johnson and Johnny Campbell of Columbia, S. C.

DAINTY BUT DAFFY. It may look a bit childish, but take it from the young folks below the Mason-Dixon line, the "apple" dance is a good cure for blues. This is either the start or the finish.

Ex-Convict Is Being Held In Kidnap Case

Police Seize Driver Of Car That Carried Donald Horst From His Foster Parents

Both Sides Seek To Gain Custody

Chauffeur Declares He Was Only Doing Favor For Friends

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Fred Ewert, 35, former convict, is being held by police for questioning in the abduction of Donald Horst, two, while the child's natural and foster parents studied legal maneuvers to win custody of the boy.

Missing since Donald's real parents tore him from the arms of his foster mother last Tuesday, Ewert was taken into custody at his brother's home.

Police Sergeant Frank Janowski said Ewert first told him he had driven the automobile during the abduction "as a favor" but later said he merely had borrowed it.

Ewert declined to make a formal statement. He first said he had driven the car as a favor to Lydia Nelson and John Regan, who told authorities they snatched the child because he was theirs and they wanted him back.

It was through Ewert that Regan and Miss Nelson, a common law wife, learned that the child was with Otto and Martha Horst to whom the child was given shortly after birth. The Horsts formally adopted the boy.

RANGER SETS RECORD, KEEPS CUP

This striking picture shows Harold Vanderbilt's Ranger flying before a stiff wind during her record-breaking run that defeated T. O. M. Sopwith's Endeavor II in the final race for defense of the America's Cup off Newport, R. I. The Ranger sailed the 30-mile triangular course in three hours, seven minutes and 49 seconds, the fastest ever recorded.

House Members Trade Agreement Defy Roosevelt With Russia And Over Sugar Bill U. S. Is In Effect

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—(AP)—House members defied President Roosevelt yesterday, passing sugar control legislation which he said he would veto.

Despite pleas of administration leaders, the chamber refused, by a vote of 92 to 135, to strike from the measure and administration provision restricting refined sugar imports from Hawaii and Puerto Rico.

The bill now goes to the senate, where advocates said they will insist that it be passed in its present form.

Designed to replace the existing Jones-Costigan act, the measure would set up a new quota system for division of the various sugar markets among various producing areas.

There was no roll call in the house to show the exact strength of the bill's supporters, who are mostly from mid-western and western sugar-producing states and from seaboard refining states. The bill passed on a standing vote announced as 165 to 55, with many members not voting.

Consequently, the question whether advocates could muster the two-thirds majority necessary to pass the measure over a presidential veto remained unanswered.

Majority leader Rayburn of Texas and Chairman Jones, Democrat, Texas, of the agriculture committee pleaded with the house to accept the administration's view if it wants sugar legislation this session.

They asserted the refined import restrictions would discriminate against the island possessions.

The bill would levy an excise tax of half a cent a pound on refined sugar to finance benefit payments to growers complying with production control, child labor and wage and hour regulations prescribed by the agriculture department.

The house rejected amendments of Florida representatives for a Florida quota of at least 100,000 short tons annually. The bill would allow that state approximately 70,000 annually.

The chamber adopted, however, an amendment subjecting imported Lickstrap molasses used for distillation of alcohol to the excise tax.

The bill carries the following basic raw sugar quotas: domestic, 1,550,000 short tons; foreign, (Continued on Page Three)

Both Sides In Spanish War Make Claims

Each Reports Uprisings In Territory Of Opposition As Fighting Continues

By The Associated Press

Each side in the Spanish conflict reported uprisings in the enemy's territory. While fighting continued on the Teruel front, an insurgent salient is heading toward Madrid to the Valencia highway.

Insurgent officers said anarchists and moderates, welded by the popular front, had broken again in the government ranks. Government sources reported a group of insurgents turned against Generalissimo Franco in Toledo and were fighting from the ancient Bishop's Palace against the city's conquerors.

Aerial bombing of British, French and Italian vessels in the Mediterranean threatened complications.

Great Britain protested to insurgent authorities and Spanish Government sources charged the attack was made by insurgent planes seeking ships carrying an "important" cargo.

Dispute Over Job Service In State Halts Payments

TALLAHASSEE, Aug. 7.—(AP)—The comptroller's office halted payment of unemployment compensation to a dispute over its company agency, the Florida Employment Service. "We don't know whether these two services go together or not," Assistant Comptroller Harry J. Chalmers said. "We are holding up all employment service money on the government's order. Both are provided for in one law. If the federal government does not want its money spent for an employment insurance work while the employment service is in dispute, we won't pay those bills."

Chalmers said he had telegraphed Washington officials for directions. The bills cover the July payroll of approximately $100,000 for 39,000 and a $100,000 expense voucher.

House Members Trade Agreement Defy Roosevelt With Russia And Over Sugar Bill U. S. Is In Effect

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—(AP)—A new trade agreement between the United States and Soviet Russia became effective yesterday, pledging Russia to increase its yearly purchases of American goods by at least 25 percent.

The United States in return granted Russia unconditional treatment for the first time.

The agreement went into force upon proclamation by President Roosevelt and simultaneous approval by the Soviet government.

Russia agreed to purchase at least $10,000,000 worth of American goods in the next 12 months—$10,000,000 more than its obligation to buy under (Continued on Page Three)

EXTRA SESSION OF CONGRESS FOR FARM PROBLEMS?

Democratic leaders say President Roosevelt may call an extra session of Congress in October to consider general farm legislation as a consequence of increasing demands for federal crop loans. That information was forthcoming after a group of southern congressmen called on the President and proposed a general basic commodity loan program. They are shown leaving the White House after the conference. Left to right: Representatives Bellmon of Louisiana, Johnson of Texas, Ford of Mississippi and Garrett of Texas.

Contract Is Let For Construction Of Negro School

P. A. Dyson, local contractor, was awarded the contract for building a six-room colored school in Midway this morning at the meeting of the Seminole County Board of Education in the office of County Superintendent T. W. Lawson.

Mr. Dyson submitted a bid of $7,800 for the proposed school which was accepted by the Board as the lowest and best bid. The new school will be built near the site of the old building which burned down last year and will furnish classrooms for the primary and elementary grades.

The Board also confirmed the acceptance of the bid of R. C. Faby of Lake Monroe for screening and minor alterations to be made in the Lake Monroe school.

Acting on the recommendation of the trustees of school district No. 1 the Board appointed Woodrow W. River as history teacher and assistant athletic director at the Seminole High School for the coming year to fill the vacancy left by Harry C. Gordon who resigned to accept a position elsewhere. Helen Colbert was also appointed as teacher in the elementary grades.

On the recommendation of the trustees of School District No. 1 the Board members voted to engage the rooms on the second floor of the Kent Building for use as a part time vocational school, operated by funds from the County and the Federal Government, which heretofore has been held in the old Hill Hardware building, known as Stevens, who previously conducted the part time classes, will again be in charge this year.

William J. Moore, Jr., 45, is shown in jail at Mayfield, Ky., following his wife's charge that he killed their four children and wounded her in their home at Columbia, Ky. She said he made the attacks with a butcher knife.

WPA Project In Local Territory Finished In July

Workers Begin Cleanup Of Ditches On Highway To Oviedo

During the month of July several local WPA projects were completed and a new project was started. It was learned at the local WPA office today.

The project on West Third Street which consisted of leveling shoulders of the road and cleaning out the ditches along the road was completed early in the month and has greatly added to the efficiency of the drainage of ditches in the vicinity of the business center.

Work on approximately four miles of the city's roads, which was completed and work on the remainder of the roads is also progressing rapidly as possible.

A local number of workmen have been employed in the project which has been under way for some time and consists of cleaning the old roads of both abandoned terra cotta tiles and the replacing of larger concrete which are necessary for the efficient operation of the city's sewerage, although the project has not been completed, great progress has been made, it was indicated.

During the month these sewerage improvement projects are being completed, which will be their only source of income to 177 persons in Seminole County.

Dulose Company Is Given Ensignia For Its Service Record

A gold ensignia accompanied by a congratulatory letter from the president of the American Insurance Company was presented to the H. C. Dulose Agency yesterday in recognition of "faithful service" for over a quarter of a century.

Stating that "great credit is due you and your associates in your business that has endured and prospered for so many years," Paul B. Summers, president of the company, added, "More important than all, is the bond of friendship which has held us together, and we hope it will grow even stronger in the years to come. Few agencies have been in existence for so long a period, and your past record should be a heritage symbol of future achievements."

The presentation was made by a home office representative of the company who spoke highly of the Dulose Agency's ability to handle the company's interests.

The local agency has represented the American Insurance Company since July 4, 1912, and only four other agencies in the state have achieved such a distinction.

The gold sign will adorn the walls of the office.

4-Foot Moccasin Is Presented Zoo As Contribution

The contribution of a four-foot moccasin and the construction of a small cage mark the latest improvements in the Sanford Municipal Zoo, according to Superintendent W. Parks, James Moughton.

The moccasin was presented recently by D. B. Gammas and will be placed in the cage with the other snakes.

The recent birth of three golden pheasants prompted the building of the small cage which will house them until they are old enough to mingle with the other birds. The enclosure is covered with a roof of palmetto branches and has been placed within the large bird cage. Phil King, caretaker of the zoo stated.

Orlando Bank Night Equipment Is Taken

ORLANDO, Aug. 7.—(AP)—On authority of a Circuit Court order obtained by the City of Orlando, Sheriff Frank Karel yesterday entered a theater here and confiscated all bank night equipment.

City officials said they approved the action because of the fire and traffic hazards caused by the crowds collecting in the street outside the movie house on the night of the weekly bank night drawing.

The warrant authorizing seizure of the equipment charged the operators of the theater were conducting a lottery. Judge Frank A. Smith issued the order for the action.

Japanese forces in the area are estimated at from 33,000 to 45,000 troops supported by 80 field guns, 60 tanks, 40 armored cars, 200 airplanes and 400 trucks.

The Chinese are estimated to have 350,000 troops supported by 300 airplanes.

Restrictions Put On Housing Bill Passed By Senate

Amendment Restricts Cost Of Housing To $4,000 A Family Unit

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—(AP)—The Wagner housing bill, calling for an outlay of more than $700,000,000 to clear slums and build low-cost homes, passed the senate yesterday, but in such circumstances that the enthusiasm of its backers was dampened.

Senator Wagner, democrat, New York and other administration men struggled in vain to delete an amendment restricting the cost of the housing to $4000 a family unit or $1000 a room.

The amendment, proposed by Senator Byrd, democrat, Virginia, was passed by a 40-39 vote several days ago, and yesterday the senate tabled a motion to reconsider, 44 to 39. Wagner and others argued the amendment would paralyze or kill the program. Byrd declared it is necessary to prevent "extravagance" which, he said, had marked the resettlement administration's housing activities.

Though the five-day debate on the bill had been strenuous, the vote on final passage was 64 to 18.

The senate made another important change in the measure when it voted to place the administration of the program under Secretary Ickes' interior department, instead of an independent agency.

The chamber also approved an amendment by Senator Tydings, democrat, Maryland, requiring that local communities put up five percent of construction costs and contribute five percent of an annual subsidy.

The original bill would have authorized federal loans of 100 percent of the funds needed for housing projects. An annual subsidy sufficient to maintain low rentals would have been made effective by the government.

Two forms of federal aid, loans and outright subsidies, are provided in the bill, which authorizes a $700,000,000 bond issue in the next three years and an initial appropriation of $26,000,000.

Supervision of the program by the interior department was approved by a 40-37 vote, on an amendment by Senator Logan, democrat, Kentucky. Proponents of this amendment said there are already too many independent bureaus in the government.

They also declared the housing division of FWA has developed a personnel experienced in housing problems. Senator Lewis, democrat, Illinois, said creation of a separate agency would be a reflection on the administration of housing under Ickes.

Senator Clark, democrat, Missouri, opposed the amendment but denied he intended any reflection on Ickes. He contended the amendment was an effort by the interior department "to reach out and grab new authority."

Wagner also opposed the change, asserting it would make the proposed authority a "mere bureau" in the interior department.

The effort to obtain reconsideration of the Byrd amendment was hotly contested. Senator McCarran, democrat, Nevada, asked reconsideration, asserting that "the nation is taking a great step forward" and that the bill "should not be hampered by anything that might be shortsighted."

He said Senator Wagner had assured him he would offer a substitute to establish the ceiling of expenditures of $1400 a room.

Majority Leader Barkley, democrat, Kentucky, agreed that there should be a limitation, but said $1000 is too low. The $4000 family unit restriction, he added, would make it impossible to construct individual apartments of more than four rooms.

Trade Agreement With Russia And U. S. Is In Effect

an agreement which expired July 12.

State Department officials said the pact was entered into through an exchange of diplomatic notes on Aug. 4, with a view to "continuing favorable commercial relations, and increasing trade, between the two countries."

Most-favored nation treatment will give Russia advantage of all tariff concessions and all commercial privileges and benefits the United States grants other countries.

The pact is not actually a reciprocal trade agreement such as those between the United States and 16 other countries, but officials said it will have virtually the same effect.

They described the accord as "evidence of the intention of the Soviet government with respect to trade with the United States to continue to pursue policies and take actions in harmony with the purpose of the (American) trade agreement act."

That act authorizes the President to reduce tariffs as much as 50 percent on certain products of foreign countries which do not discriminate against commerce of this country.

Department officials said that under the expired agreement, the Soviet Union purchased about $37,000,000 worth of American products in 1935-36, and about $36,000,000 during the first 11 months of 1936-37.

The new agreement will be subject to extension after 12 months.

Five Run Rally In Seventh Inning Gains 7 To 3 Win Over Nut Shirley's Outfit

"Bitches" Clary Features Game With Several Of Most Beautiful Catches Seen At Local Park

The Sanford Lookouts defeated the Orlando Gulls last night before 500 fans at the Sanford Municipal Athletic Field in a thrilling game which ended 7 to 3 in Sanford's favor. The Lookouts used three pitchers. Clary pitched the first two innings and allowed seven runs in the fifth frame when he was hit in his two innings on the mound and was touched for one hit in his two innings on the mound. Dan Brainerd pitched the eighth and ninth innings holding the Orlando club to no hits and no runs. Going into the seventh inning the locals were a run behind but a seven run rally out Sanford four runs in the last.

Hubbell Turns In First Win Since July 18 Over Bucs

Gains Fifteenth Win As Giants Tally To Beat Pirates, 6-3

The New York Giants' favorite "stogie," the Pirates, furnished little trouble for Carl Hubbell yesterday, and the great screwballer breezed through a 6 to 3 victory, ending his two-game losing streak.

Two Pittsburgh errors in the Giants' game-clinching fourth-inning in the eighth were major factors in the New Yorkers' third straight victory, as Hubbell won his first game since July 18 and became the first pitcher in the major leagues to win 15 games this season.

He held the Pirates to nine hits and was in serious trouble only in the second, when consecutive triples by Al Todd and Bill Brubaker and Pat Young's single brought in two Pittsburgh runs.

Red Lucas, who went the route for the Bucs, was targeted in the eighth when the Giants put the game on ice.

Floridian's Propose Amendment To Boost State's Sugar Quota

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—(AP)—Florida house members said tonight they would propose a plan to increase their state's sugar quota to approximately 100,000 tons.

This plan, which they expected to offer tomorrow as an amendment to the sugar bill, would direct the agricultural department not to consider the producing state's own consumption of sugar amounted to about 100,000 tons annually. The sugar bill as now written would allow the state a production quota of about 60,000 tons.

The Floridians drafted a series of amendments which Wilcox said would be offered one after another until one passes or the delegation is forced to abandon its plea for a raised quota.

If the house refuses to eliminate each state's own consumption from consideration in figuring the quota, Wilcox explained, the Florida delegation will ask for a flat allotment of 90,000 tons. If that fails he said, they will ask 80,000 tons.

As a last resort, he added, they will seek a provision giving the peninsula 30 percent of the Florida-Louisiana quota. Such an arrangement, Wilcox said, would allow a Florida production of about 80,000 tons.

Ford Board Won't Give Banker Freedom

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—(AP)—The Federal Reserve board today rejected a plan of C. A. Sherman, former banking banker, for freedom from a three-year term of office for the chairman.

The board decided in secret three sessions that his application had been directed to the Federal Reserve board, which Sherman said could not be reached.

Government officials said Sherman's plan was to keep him out of office until his application is considered. A three-year term would be granted by the board, not earlier than this week.

General Hamilton told the board the chief of Michigan county to conduct in his state in not having received Sherman's plan. The bank's application was not considered.

Attention, said the board that Sherman was convicted in his 1928 of business law violation to have been received.

Hamilton was sentenced to 10 months in prison for Sherman's conviction. Sherman was released on parole in 1932.

Bob Burns' Quaint Relatives Appear In "Mountain Music"

Cast Boasts George Hayes, Character In "Hopalong Cassidy" Pictures And Terry Walker, The Magazine Cover Girl

They'll be comin' round the mountain—the whole troop of 'em—Fud, Snazzy, Hod, Squiney and all the rest of Bob Burns' famous relatives, in "Mountain Music," a story of love, feuds, shotgun weddings, corn pone and pot likker which plays Sunday and Monday at the Ritz Theater.

It's Burns' first starring picture, together with Martha Raye, with whom he has been teamed lately with astonishing success, and a whole crew of excellent character players have been assembled to play the roles of the down home folks Burns has made famous on the air, in his writings and in pictures.

Heading the list is George Hayes, former New York stage star who has been playing the famous "Whip" role in the "Hopalong Cassidy" Western stories. Then there's Rufe Davis, former Oklahoma cotton chopper who left the hills when he discovered he could make more than five dollars a day with his "git-fiddle" and has been delighting vaudeville and night club audiences since; Fuzzy Knight, Jan Duggan, Spencer Charters and a bunch of other long-bearded, squirrel-gun totin' mountain folk.

The love interest is maintained by John Howard and Terry Walker, the latter the famous "magazine cover girl" for whom Paramount Pictures conducted a search unique in film history. Paramount talent executives had seen Miss Walker's portrait on the cover of a national magazine and asked Norman Rockwell, noted illustrator who made the portrait but who lost track of her, who the model was.

The Austrians entered Belgrade, Serbia's capital, on Dec. 2, 1914, after shelling the city four months. Aided by the British armed forces, the Serbians recaptured Belgrade 11 days later. The city's final fall occurred Oct. 9, 1915.

Oakie Proves There Is No Perfect Crime

That there is no perfect crime is again attested in the story "Super-Sleuth," mystery comedy-drama teaming Jack Oakie and Ann Sothern.

When a series of murders involving famous screen stars are committed by a "celebrity killer," Oakie as noted film detective becomes next in line. The self-efficient amateur sleuth forthwith forsakes amateur green-paint, lights up his Calabash pipe, and tracks down the ruthless killer with the same technique he employs in his staccato characterizations.

ELMER, AIRMAN!

Easter Island in the south Pacific is so called because it was discovered on Easter, 1872.

NEW ROMANTIC TEAM

Airplane Radio Beam Forms Basis Of Plot

The operation of a unique radio beam designed to control from the ground a pilotless airplane, forms the basis for much of the comedy-melodrama action in Joe E. Brown's current laugh provoker, "Hiding on Air," an RKO Radio picture showing at the Ritz Theater Wednesday and Thursday.

Portraying the character of Elmer Lums, which was created by Richard Maury in his famous series of Saturday Evening Post stories, Joe E. Brown is seen as the editor of the village newspaper as well as the financial president of an airplane radio-beam company formed by Guy Kibbee, notorious confidence man, by capturing a gang of perfume air smugglers through the practical use of the beam. Brown saves the day, not to mention the investments of the townsfolk, who have been hoodwinked by Kibbee.

Davies Uses Wig To Disguise Herself From Montgomery

Two stars of immense popularity will play in "Ever Since Eve," Wednesday and Thursday at the Ritz Theater, described as one of the dizziest in which either has appeared in a long while. They are Marion Davies, the lively blond comedienne, and Robert Montgomery, the debonair youth who has been leading man in so many movies.

Miss Davies plays the part of a stenographer who has been so harassed by employers because of her golden-haired beauty that she disguises herself with a dark wig and glasses and goes looking for another job.

Montgomery is a novelist who is crazy about blonds, but is forced to accept this steaming brunette forced upon him by his hard-boiled woman publisher, who wants him to keep his mind on his work.

He is therefore strictly business during working hours with Marion there, but it chanced that he meets her socially, one evening when she's not disguised.

Besides the two stars, "Ever Since Eve" has a cast including such comedy experts as Patsy Kelly, Frank McHugh, Louise Fazenda, Allen Jenkins, and Carol Hughes.

SEEN IN YEAR'S GAYEST COMEDY

KING GETS GIRL

Fernand Gravet is handsome in a tall, dark haired, broad-shouldered and thoroughly masculine way. Add to that masterful acting, a warm and friendly personality, an excellent speaking voice and you'll understand the elation of Mervyn LeRoy when he signed him to a contract last year.

In "The King and the Chorus Girl," Mervyn LeRoy's first picture as a producer for Warner Bros., M. Gravet plays the role of wealthy, spendthrift ex-King Alfred VII who tumbles madly in love with an independent little American chorus girl, portrayed by Joan Blondell. The king loves the chorus girl, she turns up her nose at him, and the merry, mad fun is on.

Screen Magicians Present Amazing Tricks In 'Topper'

Amazing new camera tricks, developed by screen magicians for the production of the Hal Rosch-M-G-M super feature comedy, "Topper," coming to the Ritz Theatre Friday, blaze a new trail in motion pictures.

Photographic efforts reached a new importance in Hollywood in film-making Thorne Smith's fantastic story of the hilariously funny and thrilling adventures of two lovely ghosts, as portrayed by Constance Bennett and Cary Grant.

Here are a few of the many unusual scenes: Cary Grant changes a tire, but you don't see him—you see just the various implements moving about their eerie business.

Miss Bennett bathes and dries herself in full view of the audience but curious onlookers will only see water bouncing off an invisible form and note the industrious movements of the towel. In another sequence, there are real panties on a transparent lady and transparent panties on a real lady.

Roland Young is involved in many bewildering escapades with the gay ghosts. His hat and cane fly through space, his tie is rearranged, his vest buttoned and his hair combed by invisible hands and he himself flits through the air with the greatest of ease.

Recent Taxi War Is Dramatized In Film

Dramatizing the recent struggle between rival taxicab companies for domination of a big city's business, Columbia's "A Fight to the Finish" will make its local bow Saturday at the Ritz Theater. Don Terry and Rosalind Keith head the large cast which includes Ward Bond, George McKay and Lucille Land.

The Royal Exchange of London was established in 1556.

FAST WORKER. Captain Pierre Horeux goes places in a hurry. He skipped the Normandie to a new trans-Atlantic record in less than four days.

FALS FOR 60 YEARS. Barney Kelly, Ashland, Pa., an anthracite miner, was a lad of 18 when he started playing the fiddle. He still plays today. Now, at 78, he's one of the masters of old-time tunes and minstrelsy and is called upon frequently to perform.

PEACE... IT'S WONDERFUL. Walls of steel are no barriers for this powerful Austrian tank, shown in maneuvers near Bruck. Flowing along at high speed, this metal monster crawls through a brick barricade as though it were made of matches. Modern rough-riding tanks use these machines as they hurdle some obstacles and plunge right through others.

PIPE THIS ONE. Six-month-old Patricia Bonfield really takes her "after bottle" smoke as she is shown doing here in Atlanta, Ga., with Papa Lucius Bonfield who prefers his "wood" in cigar form. Bonfield says his daughter started smoking five weeks ago.

ANNOYED. James Roosevelt, son and secretary of the President, termed reports he might enter Massachusetts politics as "one of those annoying things."

STEEPLEJILL PULLS BILL. When folks at Treston, Tenn., ordered someone to paint the town's tall water tower, they expected to get a busy male steeplejacker, but were surprised to gaze aloft and see during Marie Calloway on the job and enjoying her work thoroughly.

Jap Marine Slain In Shot Exchange

Soldiers Patrolling Streets Armed With Grenades And Rifles

SHANGHAI, Aug. 9.—(AP)—The Chinese Peace Preservation Corps barricaded roads leading to Chinese areas around excited Shanghai tonight after a clash in which one Chinese soldier and one Japanese were killed.

The clash came as Japanese refugees, evacuating the Yangtze valley and other central Chinese areas, poured into Shanghai.

The Kiangnan area on the north fringe of Shanghai, scene of the major Chinese-Japanese fighting in 1932, was rapidly closed off.

The Chinese said tonight's clash came when a Japanese marine motor truck attempted to enter the Chinese government's Hung Jao airdrome in the western environs of the city.

Sentries challenged the machine but they refused to halt. The Chinese opened fire. While the Japanese army completed its conquest of northeastern Hopeh province, Japanese administrators moved slowly toward the establishment of a permanent civil government that would ignore Chinese claims to sovereignty over the rich region.

This year he was one of 20 boys who had been recommended to the Blue ranks and was the high point man of the three who were qualified for a commission.

Mr. Preston was very active in the camp affairs at Fort Scriven this year and, during the review in which men of the Blue rank were in charge, he acted as Colonel. Mr. Michael commended him as being a "snappy soldier" and one who would "advance rapidly in military activities."

Court Issue Seen Important One In Coming Elections

Republicans Studying Implication In Rift Among Democrats

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—(AP)—Much can happen before the 1938 off-year elections roll around, but it is becoming apparent that republican hopes of recapturing substantial ground in congress are the highest in several years.

Moreover, visions of a return to power in 1940 began to arise in the minds of the minority men when they study the possible implications of the rift in democratic ranks and the passions stimulated by the court bill fight.

Political observers are on the alert to catch the first hint from the white house as to the president's plans for answering his challenge to his leadership involved in the democratic revolt over the court measure. He has never accepted in terms the surrender in that fight—a capitulation negotiated by Vice President Garner.

If Roosevelt carries to the presidency as many of his political lieutenants expect him to do, the fight for objectives of his administration, including reorganization of the supreme court, that issue will cast a shadow over every democratic primary race whether or not there are to be definite "republican" efforts by the administration to unseat party rebels in the senate, many of them certain to face opposition by "100 percent Roosevelt" candidates.

Private administration check lists on democratic senators up for re-election mark them down as for or against the president in the court bill fight. Of the 32 senate seats up next year for refilling, 28 are held by democrats and only four republicans. Yet administration strategists declare that of the 28 democrats, 19 were openly or tacitly supporting the defeated court bill and only nine opposed.

The only direct campaign announcement yet made by a senator in the aftermath of the court fight is that of Van Nuys, Indiana democrat and die-hard opponent of the administration's proposal. Month in advance of the Indiana primaries he announced his intention of seeking reelection in the face of a declaration by Governor Townsend, democrat executive, that he would not get a renomination.

Other participants in that democratic revolt who face tests of voter sentiment next year are Adams in Colorado, Clark in Missouri, George of Georgia, Gillella in Iowa, Longoria in Connecticut, McCarran in Nevada, the South Carolina Veterans, "Cotton Ed" Smith, already long at odds with the administration on farm and other policies, and Tydings in Maryland.

From supporters of the white house is the historic struggle some charges of undercover campaign agents in their own states, even at the price of throwing the seat to the republicans through "split" tickets to snuff democratic tickets.

Silk Workers In Many Areas Out On Strike

60,000 Men, Women Leave Looms In Effective Walk-Out Under CIO Direction

PATERSON, New Jersey, Aug. 9.—(AP)—The Committee for Industrial Organization strike call to 60,000 silk workers in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New England and New York caused thousands of men and women to leave their looms today in an announced effort to obtain union contracts to improve labor conditions and stabilize the industry.

The only disorder reported along the wide front was at Hazelton, Pennsylvania where a picket at the large Duplan Silk Corporation mill was stabbed in the arm. His alleged assailant was arrested after being almost mobbed by the crowd which gathered.

Earlier four sheriff's deputies were sent from Wilkes-Barre to aid nine city policemen on duty.

Representatives of the union and employers disagreed as to the extent of the strike in Pennsylvania where more than 40,000 normally work in the silk and rayon industry, but New Jersey spokesmen for both sides agreed the walkout was "successful."

Textile workers organizing committee leaders in Boston said 95 percent of the 10,000 New England silk workers would remain at work under contracts already signed.

WPA Workman Is Flogged By Girl For False Tales

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 9.—(AP)—Pretty, 17-year-old Eloise Willis, accused of flogging Oscar Kay, 47, a WPA workman, in her front yard, stood by and smiled yesterday as her father, Alfred C. Willis, asserted "he got what he deserved."

Police said Kay was tied to a tree at the Willis home and Eloise whipped him while 100 neighbors and fellow workers looked on. Willis and his daughter gave signed statements to police, that the girl flogged Kay at the father's urging because of "false tales" and "degrading remarks," they said the WPA worker had made about her.

The two were booked on charges of assault and battery and retained by Criminal Judge William J. O'Hara pending consultation with the district attorney's office on filing of formal charges.

Sergeant Adams said Willis telephoned to a police precinct station from his residence, "We just beat a man. Come and get him."

Adams said he went to the Willis home and found Kay moaning in the yard with a crowd of curious persons around him.

The sergeant said Kay told him a brother of the girl, Alfred H. Willis, 28, came to his home and said "WPA foreman wanted to see him."

"I went along, not suspecting anything, until we came to the Willis' home and restaurant," Kay was quoted saying. "Then Mr. Willis set on me and beat me with his fist. Alfred beat me, and another brother, Robert, beat me, too. Then they tied me to a Chinese tree in their front yard and Eloise whipped me with a steel cable."

Police said the elder Willis declared, "I tied him to a tree and had my daughter give him the beating he deserved. She hit him with a rope. I don't know how many times he was hit."

Sergeant Adams said Kay denied spreading stories about the girl. He added Kay had "wells on his back and legs and bumps on his head, but refused hospital treatment."

Francisco Launches Final Offensive In Northern Areas

HENDAYE, Aug. 9.—(AP)—Generalissimo Francisco Franco's northern forces today launched what insurgent officers called their "final offensive" against the provinces of Asturias and Santander, the last government strongholds in northern Spain.

Insurgent reports declared the bombardment was as intense and as deadly as the one poured on the iron ring of fortifications encircling Bilbao before the last June.

The northern sector had been virtually quiet since the insurgents advanced through Bilbao and a short distance along the highway to Santander.

It was believed the renewed hostilities meant General Franco hoped to mop up the region before the fall in order to reduce his northern concentration of troops and war equipment for use in Madrid front or elsewhere.

War Is Footrace For Newspapermen Of U.S. Chinatown

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 9.—(AP)—Five Chinese language newspapers, all dailies, are working overtime to keep San Francisco's Chinatown informed on the war in the Far East.

It takes 6,000 separate pieces of type to print Chinese, and every line is hand-set. The cases in which it is kept are a good hundred times as large as an American printer's case. The type-setter gets plenty of leg work as well as footwork.

The Young China, the local organ of the National party, was out with the first extra. It was a sheet a by 12 inches announcing the capture of Yangtze and was distributed free.

There are some 30,000 Chinese in San Francisco, and all are in a huzzah mood. A stream of letters and telegrams urging Gen. Chiang Kai-shek to fight it out with Japan has gone to the homeland.

The Chinese of San Francisco are mostly Cantonese, and Cantonese are the backbone of the Nationalist government.

"We will certainly raise a fund for Red Cross work and whatever war materials may be needed. China has plenty of man power so there probably will be no recruiting here, except for aviators."

When the Japanese invaded Shanghai the Six Companies—which are not a commercial concern but a benevolent society—started an aviation school here for Chinese youth. The project was given up but some of the Chinese went on to become pilots.

Although most of Chinatown's population is American-born, nearly everyone here has relatives in China and a heavy correspondence is carried on.

Bolly Re-named As President Of Truck Growers

Annual Stockholders Meeting Hears Optimistic Reports

J. J. Bolly and George E. Holmes were re-elected to the offices of president and vice president, respectively, of the Sanford-Oviedo Truck Growers, Inc., at the annual stockholders' meeting held recently in the Seminole County Court House.

Election directors of the organization were: R. G. Hickey, George Herbel, Henry Nickel, Henry Witte, R. H. Phipps, J. St. Clair White, Henry Richter, and Gus Schmah who will serve during the 1937-1938 season.

Short talks were presented by Mr. Bolly, Mr. Schmah, president of the Sanford-Oviedo Truck Growers Credit Corporation, and others. It was brought to the attention of the members that the Sanford-Oviedo Truck Growers enjoyed the "enviable position" of being one of the oldest and strongest cooperative marketing associations in the entire state.

A financial report from the treasurer indicated that the association had been very successful during the recent season.

Lloyd F. Boyle, attorney for the organization, reported that the Circuit Court rendered an order on July 13 which dismissed the amended bill of complaint which had been filed in a suit instituted several months ago by a group of inactive members.

It was stated that the members making up the organization have been farming in this section for a great many years.

A new record for the east-west crossing was hung up by the Normandie when she arrived here last Monday, three days, 23 hours, and two minutes out from Bishop's Rock.

Democratic Senator Says "We Have Personal Dictatorship If Not Political"

Scores Statement Of Tacit Support Declares President Does Much To Hurt Harmony Of Party

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—(AP)—Senator Copeland, New York Democrat, commenting today on the press report that President Roosevelt had injected himself into the New York mayoralty campaign, said today "At least we have in the United States a personal dictatorship if not a political dictatorship."

"Annoyed by published statements the President had thrown his 'tacit support' to his democratic rival for the New York mayoralty post, Copeland asserted in a statement to newspapermen that 'the President himself does more in five minutes to destroy democratic harmony than can be established in a generation by Jefferson, Madison and Lincoln and peace duffers.'

Copeland added that if press reports that the President had thrown "tacit support" to Jeremiah T. Mahoney, former New York supreme court justice, were correct, "his interference is gratuitous and undemocratic."
