Rebel Troops Bombard Port Of Tampico

Gunboats, Enforcing Blockade, Prevent Six Ships From Entering Port

OBREGON SEEKS

Permission for the Passage of a Detachment of His Troops to Pass Through the United States

(By The Associated Press) AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 18.—Permission to transport Mexican federal troops across Texas was refused Friday by Acting Governor Davidson in a telegram to Secretary of State Hughes. Possibility of trouble with Mexican residents on the Texas border prompted the refusal of the acting governor.

If federal government shows that demand for passage of troops and guarantee ample protection to Texas citizens request will be considered and every effort will be made by officials of Texas to cooperate with national authorities Mr. Davidson said.

WEIGHT TRAIN DYNAMITED

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 18.—Revolutionists dynamited the military freight train carrying artillery and munitions for Obregon forces near Aragon Hidalgo Thursday, according to an official report from President Obregon's headquarters at Aguascalientes. The train and cargo were destroyed. Artillery were used by Federal for the first time since Jalisco port, when major Ralph O'Neill, flying one of the planes newly arrived from the United States, made a scout flight.

TAMPICO, Jan. 18.—(By The Associated Press)—Rebel gunboats bombarded the city and port of Tampico Thursday morning. The news of the bombardment was received in a telephone message from the Observer stationed at La Barra. The message said:

Jesus M. Palma, chief of the coast guard, at 9 o'clock Thursday morning sighted the rebel gunboats Tampico and Saragoza which had prevented six ships from entering the port. The vessels were five tankers and the Dutch steamship Maasdan.

"The rebel gunboats fired four shots. The artillery stationed at the entrance to the port replied and forced the rebel vessels to recede outside the range of the guns. Then the rebel ships directed their fire against the suburb of Varadero, located to the left of the Panuco river, destroying several Chinese houses. How many of these perished is not known. An airplane sent up to reconnoiter identified the rebel boats.

"At noon the ships cruised six hundred meters off the mouth of the Panuco river, trying to find a landing place."

The foreign residents of Tampico are in an expectant mood. There is a considerable nervous tension among the native population. Immediately after the bombardment James B. Stewart, the American consul, informed the American consulate at Mexico City and the State Department in Washington and requested instructions.

Some of the populace, fearful lest the rebels' ships again fire on the town, have left Tampico. The port is well protected by artillery. President Obregon is being kept informed of the situation.

The arrival of the rebel ships off the entrance to the port had been reported early in the morning. The belief prevailed that they had come to Tampico to enforce an order, proclaimed by Adolfo de la Huerta supreme chief of the rebels, for a blockade of Tampico. A special train, carrying artillery, machine guns and troops was immediately started for La Barra. The bombardment the ships disappeared. Two bombing planes are (Continued on page 8)

Judge Says He Will Give Leland Divorce

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—Divorce will be granted Albert E. Leland, wealthy manufacturer, Judge Foell has indicated, on the basis of an alleged confession made by his wife naming Rev. Carl D. Case, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Oak Park. Although the minister, who denied the charge, was exonerated by a committee of deacons of the church, Deacons stated they made an investigation two months ago and expressed belief that Mrs. Leland was suffering from hallucinations.

PLAN OF RULES COMMITTEE IS YET UNCHANGED

Efforts to Reduce the Minimum of 150 Names on Petitions Unsuccessful

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—Two unsuccessful efforts—one championed by Republican organization leaders and the other by the Democrats—were made Thursday to change the recommendation of the house rules committee as to the number of signatures to be required on petitions for the discharge of committees. As a result, the minimum fixed by the committee—150 names—will stand unless a move, backed by sufficient votes, is made to alter it. The fight over rules continues Friday.

After three days of debate on the discharge of committees proposition, the house got down to voting late in the day on an amendment by Representative Graham, Republican, Illinois, to require signatures of at least half of the members of the house on such petitions. Although Republican organization leaders had expressed willingness, as a compromise, to accept the rules committee recommendation, they swung their support to the Graham proposal. Representative Longworth, the party leader, and Chairman Madden of the appropriations committee both urging its adoption.

BALDWIN'S GOVT THROWN DOWN IN COMMONS DEBATE

Former Premier Asquith Announces He Will Vote for the Labor Motion of "No Confidence"

(By The Associated Press) LONDON, Jan. 18.—Premier Baldwin's conservative government Thursday evening received its death sentence at the hands of the opposition in the House of Commons, as had been anticipated.

This came when former Premier Asquith arose and, amid the cheers of his liberal followers, and the laborites, announced he would vote for the labor motion of "no confidence" in the government presented by John R. Clynes and would advise all his friends to do likewise. Nothing short of a political upheaval, namely, the wholly improbable desertion of a large number of the opposition to the government flag, can save the government, which will go to the guillotine Monday evening, according to the present program.

After introducing the "no confidence" motion Mr. Clynes scored the tory regime both for what it had done and what it did not do during the last 12 months.

The King's speech, he declared, was inaccurate in stating that Great Britain's relation with foreign powers remained friendly. If that relations with Russia are friendly, he asked, why had not Russia been recognized.

Was it because Russia had not undertaken to pay her debts? If that was to be a bar to recognition how was it that France had a representative in London? "Our position abroad is weaker than ever before," he asserted. "Our influence in foreign affairs has almost disappeared."

When France needed our aid it was given without stint against Germany. Our claim now to influence the peace policy is justified by the sacrifices we made and by our genuine desire for the future security of France herself.

"The great war must be made a means to a great end—enduring friendship in Europe. This is only possible if Germany and France are at peace. To treat Germany now worse than Germany treated France 50 years ago is to make monstrous preparations for the next great war. Therefore we can no longer merely watch and wait; our acts must be governed by the urgency for a real settlement in Europe, built upon due regard for Great Britain's economic rights and necessities.

"We are paying our debts. We fought and sacrificed. Yet we are suffering more than the countries we defended and rescued."

Former Secretary of War Baker Denies He Wants the Candidacy

(By The Associated Press) ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 18.—Milton D. Baker, secretary to Newton D. Baker, when the latter was Secretary of War, stated Friday that Mr. Baker would be a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 18.—Former Secretary of War Baker when shown a dispatch from St. Petersburg regarding his candidacy for the Democratic presidential nomination laughed and said nothing could be further from the truth.

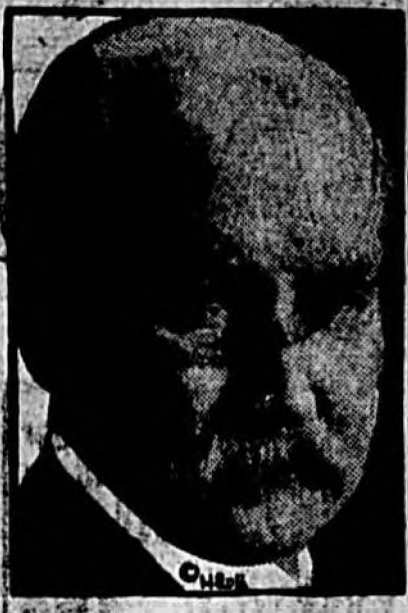

FINLEY FOUND DEAD

(By The Associated Press) PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 18.—Robert Finley of Crisfield, Md., and Mrs. Helen Brunner, widow, formerly of Lockhaven, Pa., were found dead with bullets in their heads today in a rooming house where they lived. Quarrel over the woman's refusal to marry him is believed to have caused Finley to kill the woman and then himself.

COMMITTEE WILL INVESTIGATE THE BOK PEACE PLAN

Will Also Take Up Propaganda As to Mellon Tax Plan and Soldier Bonus

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—Investigation of the Bok peace plan will be begun next Monday by a special committee of the Senate appointed Thursday under a resolution of Senator Reed, Democrat, Missouri, proposing an inquiry into General Propaganda in the United States.

Edward W. Bok of Philadelphia, offered the $100,000 prize awarded for the best peace proposal submitted. The awards will be made public sometime this month.

Other Propaganda Besides the inquiry into the Bok peace plan, under sweeping authority conferred upon it by the resolution, the committee probably will take up the question of propaganda regarding the Mellon tax program, the soldiers' bonus, the league of nations, and other subjects pending before Congress. The order of procedure will be determined later. The only decision today being for investigation of the Bok plan which was proposed by Senator Reed.

Under the resolution the committee is authorized and directed immediately to investigate and report to the Senate whether there is any organized effort and the action of Congress upon legislative matters through propaganda or by the use of money, advertising, or by the control of publicity.

The committee is directed to inquire especially what, if any, such methods are being employed to control the action of Congress upon revenue measures and "whether or not the profiteers of the war are now contributing to the defeat of the soldiers' adjusted compensation bill by money or influence, and, if any, such influences are being employed either by American citizens or the representatives of foreign governments or foreign institutions to control or affect the foreign or domestic policies of the United States."

Power to subpoena To prosecute the work the committee is authorized and directed such persons, books and papers as within its discretion may be necessary.

Public leaders of the Senate and more particularly those of the "irreconcilable" group are known to have favored immediate inquiry into the Bok plan. They also expect the committee to go into the sources of propaganda for the league of nations.

Other senators, and more particularly the Democratic leaders, desire a thorough investigation into the question of propaganda in favor of the Mellon tax plan.

Another matter coming up before the meeting was a discussion regarding the reduction of the electric rates which the City Commission will investigate this afternoon. After considerable comment it was announced that a committee appointed to look in the matter, would reconsider its previous recommendations and ask for a sliding scale of rates. President Edward Higgins urged all members to attend the meeting this afternoon.

A communication was read announcing the fact that the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company is asking the state Railroad Commission for the right to re-survey the distance between Sanford and Jacksonville adding that it is not the distance of 124 miles, a distance which the fare is now based upon. It was pointed out that if the distance is found to be greater, the railroad company will ask for the right to increase the fare. The Chamber of Commerce is asking for the right to check on the survey when it is finished, it was announced.

Further plans regarding the entertainment of the members of National League of Commission Merchants who are now holding a convention in Jacksonville and who will be the guests of Sanford on Tuesday, were announced.

City Commission To Hold Meeting To Reduce Rate

Upon the arrival of Mayor Forrest Lake in the city this morning, the meeting to be held regarding the reduction of the electric rates now being charged by the Southern Utilities Company, was set for 2:30 o'clock this afternoon as originally planned instead of Monday afternoon, as was announced on Wednesday.

Meeting with the City Commissioners will be Colonel Houston, general manager of the utility offices of the company for Florida and Henry Rosebro, manager of the Sanford plant and the committee, which some time ago made a report recommending a sliding rate of 12-2 cents down.

The meeting this afternoon, it is believed will be attended by a large number of citizens interested in the matter. At the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce today noon there was much discussion relative to asking that the rate be made even smaller than recommended by the committee. It was announced that prior to the meeting at 2:30 that the committee would meet and revise its recommendation, offering instead a recommendation that the rate be made from 10 cents down.

County Growers Have Organization To Set The Prices On Celery

Decision on Reduction Express Rates Held Up

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—The Interstate Commerce Commission Friday temporarily held up its recent decision ordering a reduction in express rates on foods vegetables, which range up to 11 per cent, were to have become effective on Feb. 21.

STATEMENTS ON GROWERS ACTION ARE GIVEN OUT

C. H. Lefler and W. M. Scott Representing Two Large Independent Interests Comment on Meeting

"The price on celery like the price on all products, can only be regulated by the supply and demand, and an organization of growers of celery to set the price of that commodity, will fail to accomplish that purpose just like similar organizations formed for controlling the price on oranges, have failed in the past."

This was the statement made by W. A. Lefler, general manager of Chase & Company, when asked a statement regarding the move made Thursday night by over 100 growers of this section, to control the price of celery in the future.

When approached Mr. Lefler stated that he had heard very little about the meeting and when informed that the growers had agreed to hold their celery for the price set by the market, he could not be sure because celery has to be packed and shipped when ready to be put out and if allowed to stand will deteriorate in value causing a big loss. He said he placed very little confidence in the success of the latest move by the growers and stated that like an effort made in California some time ago to control the price on grapes, would fail utterly because there is only one factor that controls the price and that is the supply and demand.

"Chase & Company is vitally interested in the celery crop. It desires to get a large price for its commodity just like every individual grower in this country but when a price that we would like to get, cannot be obtained, and we have celery to ship, we must sell or suffer a complete loss. This company has a vast acreage of celery which it has had grown under its own supervision and besides that, it has thousands of dollars out at present on grapes, would fail utterly because there is only one factor that controls the price and that is the supply and demand."

"Another reason, said Mr. Lefler, that these growers cannot control the market on celery is because they have the California growers to compete with and if they attempt to set the price, buyers will buy California celery and urge the price on grapes, would fail utterly because there is only one factor that controls the price and that is the supply and demand."

"Among those being studied at the war department is the tentative proposal received yesterday from E. H. Hooker, president of a Niagara Falls, N. Y., chemical company, and another proposal to the war secretary in tentative form, the source of which has not been disclosed.

Mr. Hooker was in conference again today with Secretary Weeks, but no statement was forthcoming after the meeting. It is known, however, that Mr. Hooker believes a great chemical industry can be successfully set up at Muscle Shoals and be expanded to other than chemical productions as the possibilities of the region are unfolded.

MUSCLE SHOALS MAY BE LEASED FOR 50 YEARS

Joint Offer by Three Southern Companies To Lease Property

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—Secretary Weeks received Thursday a joint offer made by three Southern power companies proposing a fifty-year lease to them of the government's power projects at Muscle Shoals, Ala., for which $100,000,000 in rentals will be paid during that period.

The companies propose, under the lease, to construct transmission lines for power, making it available to manufacturing centers of the South and other sections of the country, to provide 100,000 horsepower, to use in the manufacture of fertilizer at Muscle Shoals, and to contribute a fund of $1,000,000 to be used under government control in electro-chemical research. Other provisions include an offer to purchase the Sheffield steam plant at the Shoals for $4,500,000 or lease it if the government prefers to retain ownership of that unit.

Signers of Proposal The proposal was signed by C. M. Clark, of the Tennessee Electric Power Company; E. W. Hill, of the Memphis Power and Light Company, and Thomas W. Martin, of the Alabama Power Company. It will be carefully studied by war department officials, it was said, before being submitted by them to congress for final decision along with the other offers being considered by house and senate committees.

Announcement by Chairman Kahn of the house military committee that a "clear cut" statement on the offer for lease and purchase of the Shoals properties by the Ford interests would be made before the committee Tuesday, and that other proposals now in the hands of war department officials should be delivered to that body by that time, caused Secretary Weeks to speed up consideration of the proposals by his department. It was not believed, however, that the studies could be concluded in time to submit the offer to the house committee by the date fixed by Chairman Kahn.

Among those being studied at the war department is the tentative proposal received yesterday from E. H. Hooker, president of a Niagara Falls, N. Y., chemical company, and another proposal to the war secretary in tentative form, the source of which has not been disclosed.

Mr. Hooker was in conference again today with Secretary Weeks, but no statement was forthcoming after the meeting. It is known, however, that Mr. Hooker believes a great chemical industry can be successfully set up at Muscle Shoals and be expanded to other than chemical productions as the possibilities of the region are unfolded.

Plant City Lawyer Beaten by Masked Band on Wednesday

(By The Associated Press) TAMPA, Jan. 17.—County officials were investigating Thursday the statement made by E. P. Martin, Plant City attorney and former solicitor of Hillsborough county that he was seized by a gang of ten men at his home Wednesday and taken in an automobile to a lonely spot and painfully beaten. He said he was saved from worse treatment by the arrival of another automobile. He declared he could recognize none as they all were masked. They took his $11 in cash and a diamond ring, he said.

AT THE MILANE
 Removed from the thoughts and environment of the ordinary week-day world, forgetting for the time being you are in a theatre seat, is the delightful sensation experienced by those who will witness the remarkable screen version of Emerson Hough's tale, "The Covered Wagon," to be seen at the Milane Theatre for 2 days, beginning Monday, Jan. 21 with a matinee Tuesday.
 This is much more than a motion picture, far greater in scope and appeal than any stage presentation; it is truly an epic of American life and one calculated to appeal to the finer emotions in that it has to do with a period of American history and development of which we are all justly proud. Not the wage of battle against exterior aggression nor the wreck of war for presentation of national integrity, but a heart, mind and body struggle to advance the greatness of the United States. In this struggle enthralling to behold we see both sexes, young and old, all part of the indomitable American will to go on to better things. This film presentation is accomplished in a manner thoroughly keeping with the spirit it reflects and the striking characterizations are essayed by actors of ability who seem to share full well their responsibility to the national ideal. Among the noted players seen in various roles are Lois Wilson, J. Warren Kerrigan, Ernest Torrence, Tully Marshall and others.

 A special orchestra of 20 musicians will play the accompanying score.

LAST WARNING

"The Last Warning," a three-act play based on Wadsworth Camp's book by the same name and staged by Clifford Brooke, was presented at the Milane Theatre Wednesday night and delighted Sanford theatre goers by its mysterious atmosphere.
 From the rise of the curtain for the first scene in the dusty, musty and cold office of the old Woodford Theatre to the end when a plot to recover a large fortune by Robert Bruce, is revealed and the latter commits suicide, the attention and interest of the audience was held.

merged into this cap and it was inferred the framework had been so badly damaged as to make it impossible to fight the gale. When it was learned that the Shenandoah was being aloft, however, fears began to abate and the officers placed their hopes upon the well known ability of Captain Heinen and Commander Pierce to maneuver their craft.
 Officers pointed out that had the Shenandoah remained at her mast eight minutes longer she would have been there exactly four days.

SENATOR FALL

 000 and carried it down to Texas and deposited it. It seems that he used the same kind of a conveyer for cash that "Gas Dick" Addicks did when he came down to Delaware to try to corrupt that state and come to the senate. He brought his money in a suitcase. As I remember, when they were buying city councilmen in San Francisco that was the means of carrying about their money.
 "Anyway, Mr. Fall made a statement, rather resentfully, with reference to where he obtained the money. He said he was preparing to buy a ranch down in New Mexico and that the banking facilities were limited, and therefore he just took along the cash. He would up with a burst of indignation by saying:

"The gentlemen from whom I obtained it"—referring to the $100,000—and who furnished me the cash was the Hon. Edward B. McLean of Washington, D. C.
 "Immediately after that the Hon. Edward B. McLean hired himself two lawyers and made a statement. He hired the Hon. A. Mitchell Palmer, with whom he had been on unfriendly terms, but this was an investigation that was being pushed very relentlessly by the distinguished senator from Montana (Mr. Walsh), and it was thought I presume, that if a former Democratic attorney general should come forward as the representative of Mr. McLean in his effort to remember where he got the $100,000 that he let Mr. Fall have that would end that controversy; and Mr. A. Mitchell Palmer said this:

 "Mr. McLean is now in Florida for the winter, and is obliged to remain there owing to the condition of his health and that of his wife."

Of course Americans trust in God. You can tell by the way they drive.

GREAT AIRSHIP

 The rain and wind before the very eyes of the men who had helped build her and had flown her, they saw their hopes dashed.
 Then came messages by wireless from Commander Pierce who with Captain Heinen, helped build the ship, was in command when she tore away, assuring the officers that everything is O. K.; we will ride out the storm.
 The Shenandoah tore loose with a crash. All day she had been swayed to and fro by a strong wind and there was considerable speculation as to whether the ship should be returned to her hangar. Those in command, however, decided that the test was to determine how strong a wind the ship could stand and that they were confident she would remain aloft.
 Telephone and telegraph wires were blown down by the storm and it was many minutes before any work whatsoever had been received concerning the Shenandoah's fate. Finally, however, there came the report that she was over Westfield, N. J., and that her engines had been heard humming over the city as the excited populace stood on house tops in the blinding rain to watch the silvery airship glide through the darkness.
 These reports reassured the officers, for they felt that if those on board had succeeded in getting the engines started they at least had a chance in the storm. Then came more moments of anxious waiting and finally, as the Shenandoah reached Newark, her wireless outfit began to function and the "All O. K." message was received.

The storm started early this afternoon and the Shenandoah strained at her mooring mast but Captain McCray expressed confidence that she would hold.
 The metal nose cap which held the Shenandoah to her mast was completely torn away. The entire frame work of the ship converges into this cap and officers pointed out that the danger of this frame work being torn away from the gas bag was greater than any other. Commander Weyerbacher said he had little hope of the ship's returning safely; but if it was humanly possible to bring this about he was sure Captain Heinen could do it.

Captain McCray, who is commandant of the station and Commander Weyerbacher, were not on board the dirigible. They were at Mess when she broke away and Captain Heinen was in command. Commander Pearce also was on board with a crew of twenty men.
 Immediately after the ship had broken away an examination of the mooring mast was ordered. It was shown that the metal nose cap had been completely torn away. This caused great anxiety, as it was pointed out that the entire framework of the ship con-

America's Finest Suburb

LITTLE more than two years ago George E. Merrick began at Coral Gables the great work of building a distinctive Spanish suburb which would be a worthy expression of the finer sense of the city—a reflex of the architectural beauty of Old Spain in a setting of tropical luxuriance.

More than $5,000,000 has already been expended in development and beautifying work and more than $20,000,000 will be spent before the entire development program is completed.

At that time Coral Gables was styled Miami's Master Suburb, and its proud position as the first of Miami's beautiful suburbs has never been questioned.

Today Coral Gables stands as America's Finest Suburb. Its claims to this high honor do not rest on vain boast or ambitious boost, but on the solid merit of magnificent accomplishments—on actual beautifying improvements already achieved in the most broadly conceived town planning project attempted in this country.

Today Coral Gables boasts of two magnificent coral rock entrances, and a third under construction; fifty miles of paved streets; eight imposing plazas and 10 more under construction; 18 miles of white way; golf course and club house; tennis courts; bridle paths, and Venetian swimming pool; 400 homes of Spanish design.

Coral Gables, America's Finest Suburb, awaits your inspection. Come today as our guest on the big de luxe Pullman bus. This is the greatest free sight-seeing trip in America today. OUR MAINSTAY
HELEN H. DOWNING

A single item in the diet is one of the most important facts which has been recognized since the beginning of time. The day menu is practically always built around meat as the mainstay of the meal—for one reason, that the protein of meat is necessary in the diet—the other protein foods lacking that identical protein element and essential to health. It has been proven that an exclusively vegetarian diet is liable to cause weakness and anemia, thereby reducing the powers of resisting disease.

Since the taste and enjoyment of foods are indispensable to efficient digestion, it is sound policy to serve and eat foods which taste good, so the housewife can't be blamed in serving meat in some form at least once a day.

Aside from being one of the most appetizing and satisfying of foods, and that it is needed in the diet, there are several reasons why it should be used freely.

One reason is that meat is high in nutritive value. It contains relatively large quantities of protein and digestible form, besides liberal quantities of fat, for producing energy, heat and muscular power. Also vitamins, substances about which there is little known except that they are necessary for the normal growth and development are present in meat in sufficient quantities for nutritional requirements.

One of Nature's ways of indicating what is proper to eat is through the appetite and one of the strongest of human appetites is the liking for meat. No other food contributes so much to the palatability of the diet. It is, therefore, important that we understand its nutritive value and its proper place in the diet. Meat is deficient in calcium, and is not a complete diet, especially for growing animals. Otherwise it serves all the requirements of the mature human being for food.

Among the several classes of nutrients in meat, protein is highest. Active body cells contain protein as a prominent constituent. In assimilation there is less waste in meat protein than in vegetable protein because meat protein is better adapted to the needs of the body cells. While the fats of meats and the fats of vegetables have essentially the same nutritive value.

Mineral substances of meat have about the same values as the mineral substances of vegetables and fruits, but meat is notable for its contribution of iron, while vegetables and fruits greatly exceed meat in their calcium content.

Vegetables should be eaten with meat to give bulk and for reason of the indigestible cellulose, starch and the sugar which they contribute. Bulk is needed to give the sense of fullness which is necessary to give a satisfied feeling.

For these reasons we do not try to live by meat alone. A mixed diet of animal and vegetable foods, together with cereals, is man's natural diet.

For practical purposes, the different cuts of meat have about the same nutritive value. Difference in price of various cuts of the same grade express principally difference in ease of preparation, especially the amount of cooking required.

The real meal problem for the consumer, is simply one of wise buying and skillful preparation. A common weakness in the handling of the meat problem is that housewives have grown accustomed to using a very few cuts of kinds, these being the more expensive ones, mostly because it is easier to prepare them. It would be well for those who are interested in economy to give thought and time to the preparation of the less expensive cuts of meat, such as: the hind quarter and fore quarter cuts other than the ribs. These parts require longer cooking than the loin, and may be economically prepared by cooking in a scotch broth with a lid, over a very low fire. They are equally nutritious compared with the more tender, and higher priced cuts and may be made into very palatable dishes.

Good quality is generally indicated by the thickness of lean meat and liberal depth of fat. The very best beef has a smooth, uniform outside covering of clear white fat, and firm fine textured flesh of light red color, having a mixture of fat through the lean flesh.

Veal is pink and somewhat less firm than beef. Pork is dark pink, and the fat is less firm than that of either beef or mutton. Pork should cut easily and have a layer of pure white fat. Mutton is dull brick color and lamb is light pink or grayish red, according to the age of the animal.

Meat should be firm to the touch and elastic, and should smell fresh. And when buying meat, remember there is less shrinkage in a good grade of meat in cooking than cheaper grade. Paper in which meat is wrapped at the shop should be removed when it reaches home and placed on a plate when putting it into the ice box. If the paper is left on, it absorbs much of the valuable juices, and the meat very often sticks to it.

Select for the medium size family a nice piece of chuck, weighing from three to five pounds. Wipe place on rack in dripping pan, having the skin side down, rub over with salt, and dredge meat and pan with flour. Sear the surface quickly in frying pan, so as to prevent escape of juices. Place in roasting pan; add one cup hot water, basting with meat drippings if meat is quite lean. Baste every ten minutes and when meat is about half done, turn over and dredge with flour, that the skin side may be uppermost for final browning. For a roast weighing five pounds, time required for roasting is one hour and twenty minutes. The pan should be adapted to the size of the roast to prevent flour and broth from burning. Beef to be well roasted should be started in a hot oven and the heat reduced after the outside has been well seared.

removing bone. Stuff with bread stuffing to which has been added two tablespoons fried bacon cut in small pieces. Mince one small onion and fry in bacon drippings until onions begin to brown (in roasting pan,) and put in veal which has been stuffed and sewed. Brown well on top of the stove in the roasting pan. Place two or three strips of bacon or salt pork on top of veal and bake from two to three hours. The oven should be hot at first, then heat gradually lowered, basting frequently.

Meat Loaf
Put two and one-half pounds lean beef through meat chopper together with half pound of salt pork. Mix with one-half cup rolled cracker crumbs, two eggs slightly beaten, one tablespoon butter (in small pieces) one and one-half cups cold water, one level tablespoon salt, one-fourth tablespoon pepper and a few drops onion juice. Press into two small bread pans, smooth evenly on top, and bake slowly an hour and a half to two hours. Serve sliced, either hot or cold.

Due to the difficulties surrounding the production of cotton at the present time, other crops are receiving precedence by erstwhile cotton planters, and although much land is being devoted to other seasonal crops, the tendency seems to be to build up the value of land by making permanent plantings.

Hunch or table grapes are looked upon with great favor, in all sections where cotton has heretofore been king, many have found that their cotton land is ideal for the growing of delicious grapes, and it is believed that a great deal of the land which would otherwise remain undeveloped, or would lay idle, will by reason of the success attending the cultivation of grapes, be made to produce much greater incomes than was ever possible where other crops were planted.

WILL SEE THAT HOTELS COMPLY ALL STATE LAWS

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Jan. 17.—The regular representatives of the state hotel commission are in the field inspecting hotels, apartment houses, rooming houses and restaurants to see that they are complying with all provisions of hotel laws, sanitary rules and regulations of the state. In addition to these regular men several temporary workers have been employed for the convenience of the public to check on the work.

According to a statement made today by Jerry W. Carter, state hotel commissioner:

The state law makes it the duty of these inspectors to prevent violators of the law and to enforce regulations governing the operation of restaurants, rooming houses, etc., the commissioner states. It is also the duty of the inspectors wherever they find that anybody is operating such a business who has not provided himself with the proper license, to prosecute such violator in the courts.

Inspectors are permitted to refrain from prosecuting cases only where delinquents are able to furnish in affidavit from evidence of extenuating circumstances that will justify the commission in withholding prosecution. Commissioner Carter declared: "In such cases the delinquent is required to pay the cost of preparing affidavits and taking acknowledgment of the affidavit."

Inspectors are authorized also to collect license fees from all delinquents, but the commission suggests that wherever any proprietor has any doubt about the identification of persons presenting themselves as inspectors that they be required to show their credentials. All authorized operatives now in the field are provided with the seal and badge of the hotel commission, license books, application blanks, score sheets and a commission signed by Jerry W. Carter, state hotel commissioner.

COUNTY GROWERS

action, now is the time to do away with the yoke that has been around the necks of these growers. Inasmuch as growers are producers they should control the price, he said.

Mr. Smith said that over $5,000,000 of celery is grown every year and that this sum represented just what the buyers were willing to pay, and not what it should have brought. While not advocating shooting the price of celery too high, he said, he believed that the price should be fixed according to what it cost to raise the product, giving the farmers a fair margin of profit.

After the organization had been named and Mr. Smith became its president, other officers elected were as follows: L. L. Frazier, vice-president and Judge E. F. Householder, secretary-treasurer.

Much discussion then followed concerning the price to be set for the remainder of the week. It was finally decided at $1.75. It was further agreed that the organization would take no cognizance of what had happened in the past but will handle any situations that may arise in the future. It was decided that the organization would at all times let its actions be governed by a desire to have fair play and at the same time stand up for its just demands. Reports of low price cutting had previously prevailed and how many growers had been taken advantage of by so-called jack-leg buyers, were cited as the reason for the action.

"The action of this organization will be to take care of the problems of the future," said President Smith.

Prominent among those who spoke advising that the organization must not be too hasty in its actions but at the same time be firm in its stand were: Judge E. F. Householder, L. A. Brumley, J. W. Carley and others. Said Mr. Carley:

"We are liable to make mistakes, all organizations formed under emergencies like this are, but we must let our steps be governed by a great deal of consideration. Rash statements about what we are going to do should not be made by the members. Let us all stick together to demand what is rightfully ours and let our actions be above board whether those of our enemies are or not and I believe we will succeed."

Judge Householder stated: "The growers have been under the control of price-fixers for years, under the control of those who had no interest in the welfare of the community. Now is the time to get out from under that influence. While we must take care of any moves made by those not in sympathy with our movement, at the same time we must clean our own houses first. By that I mean that we should read out only the products that have been fully matured, that is fully ripe and a commodity that is ready for market. Consolidation of the interests of the organization is highly important. Let every man be governed by the action of this body regarding what sales organization handles its products."

Judge Householder then paid tribute to the intelligence of the growers of this section saying that in his opinion the producers of this community were as well informed as any group of growers anywhere. However, except one, he was guilty of little violations of what they are now advocating. The thing to remember is that in the future the things that we are advocating must be observed by us also.

Another important step taken was the election of an advisory council whose duties it will be to set the price of celery, advise matters that may come up from time to time and to take care of sending information to every grower in this section regarding the actions of the organization. Those selected by the members on this council were: L. A. Brumley, T. M. Hodsoe, Randolph Merriweather, James McLeand, O. J. Pope, Walter Hand, John Meisch, J. W. Carley and B. Steele.

The advisory council will report at the Saturday night meeting recommending a price for celery during the coming week. The price it was announced, will be set only after a thorough survey has been made into market conditions and into the relative cost of producing the product.

Thursday night's meeting was strictly one of growers. At the beginning of the meeting all those present who were not bona fide producers were asked to retire and O. J. Pope was selected as doorkeeper to announce that only growers were wanted at the meeting.

The meeting was perhaps one of the most enthusiastic one that has been held in Sanford some time. From time to time hearty applause greeted remarks made by the various speakers at the evening. There were some talks regarding strenuous measures being taken by the organization to settle some matters that have occurred in the past but the larger majority of members present flatly refused to consider the proposals.

It was announced that Friday and Saturday a concentrated drive for more members will be made and it is reported that there will be 200 present Saturday night.

In the meantime celery is being sold for $1.75 up to and through Saturday night. No consignments are to be made and in case the above price is not obtained, it was agreed to hold it.

PLAN OF RULES

to the discharge of the committee have been the main points of contention in the rules fight, although the insurgent group has announced its intention of pressing for a number of changes in house rules not recommended by the rules committee.

Opposition to fixing a low number for signatures on petitions for committee discharge, as it developed in debate was based largely on the contention that it would give too much power to the minority and might prevent mature committee consideration of legislation.

In his address to the house Mr. Longworth declared that "W. J. Bryan had been a factor in the maintenance of the..."

urgent coalition, and had been in the house lobby during the last few days urging Democrats to unite with the insurgents. A remark by Mr. Longworth that Mr. Bryan still had "telling influence" brought from Representative Upshaw, Democrat, Georgia, a loud "amen."

Harvey Henderson and Miss Dorothy Williamson both of Winter Haven were elected king and queen of Polk county by an overwhelming majority in a contest ending Jan. 14.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 15.—Erection of a $1,500,000 electric power plant at Bayboro is being planned by the Pinellas county power company, it is announced here. The city of St. Petersburg is now in the midst of litigation with the power company to sell current to private firms and individuals in competition with city municipally owned plant. The suit was instituted by the power company when city authorities made plans to sell surplus current from the street car power plant to manufacturing plants and other wholesale users.

H. Holt, Editor Will Lecture At Rollins College

WINTER PARK, Fla., Jan. 17.—Hamilton Holt, editor, author and lecturer, will speak at Rollins College on Sunday evening, Jan. 19, at 8 o'clock on "The World Court and the League of Nations," it is announced. His appearance will be under the auspices of the College Chapel Association, of which Irving Buehler, nationally known writer, is president, and comes to Winter Park through the League of Nations Non-Partisan Association.

Mr. Holt has been in the front rank of American public life for many years. He formerly was editor of The Independent, was president of the Third American Peace Congress, trustee of the Church Peace Union, member of the executive committee of the League of Nations Non-Partisan Association, founder of the League to Enforce Peace, executive director of the Woodrow Wilson Foundation, and has served in executive capacities in connection with many other national and international organizations.

He visited all battlefields of the allied armies in 1918 as the official guest of the various governments, and when the covenant of the League of Nations was drafted, Mr. Holt was sent to Paris as head of the League to Enforce Peace, becoming liaison officer between that organization and the American delegation.

Other trips to Europe have been made by Mr. Holt since the world war. In 1922 he visited Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Germany, and Czechoslovakia, and went to Geneva to attend the Third Assembly of the League of Nations and to study the accomplishments of the league.

Your children's food

The foods your children eat today, determine their strength and health in later years.

Remember this; they must have well balanced meals. Their food should contain the right amount of mineral salts. These salts act as bone building material.

Bakings that are made of good plain white flour and baking powder contain the necessary amount of mineral salts. Allow your children to eat heartily of these bakings together with fruits and dairy products. This forms an ideal food balance.

When making quick rising breads and pastries such as: biscuits, muffins, cakes, waffles, etc., don't fail to use Calumet—the economy Baking Powder. It contains more than the ordinary leavening strength—it's the purest and surest leavener made. That's why it helps make your flour foods light and easily digested.

Millions of mothers use Calumet daily because they are interested in their children's welfare—their present and future health.

Don't Gamble with Vegetable Sales!

Every step you take in producing a crop is based on tried and proven methods. You can't afford to take chances there.

But when it comes to marketing the crop, how many growers, strangely enough, discard certainty and begin to gamble with unseen forces!

Our plan of selling eliminates the element of chance.

Through us, your shipment is offered to scores of waiting buyers, not to a few casual buyers. It is not held on sidings for this or that trumped-up reason, or reconsigned to several other points, entailing heavy demurrage charges and deterioration. As soon as your shipment comes to hand, it is sold promptly to the highest bidder in a market where top prices prevail.

Our check for full amount, less our small commission, is forwarded to you within twenty-four hours after sale. You can tell just what we received for goods by consulting the columns of the New York Daily Fruit Reporter.

Cut out the "chance," the "gamble" and place your Selling Machinery on the same safe, sound, profitable basis as other branches of your business.

"More Dollars for Fruit Growers" is the title of a booklet that will interest you. May we send you a copy?

Mrs. J. C. Aycock and guests, Mrs. E. M. Isreal and daughter, of South Carolina, and Mrs. John Blair motored to DeLand Thursday, where they spent the day with friends.

Miss Vera Houseal of Columbia, S. C., who is spending the winter in Orlando with her sister, arrived in Sanford Wednesday and will spend several days here as the guest of Mrs. G. D. Bishop, at her home on Magnolia Avenue.

Dr. and Mrs. McCollough of Waycross, Ga., were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. N. Tolar Thursday and together attended the banquet at the Angebilt Hotel in Orlando Thursday evening, given for the surgeons and officials of the A. C. L. Railway.

ATTEND BANQUET IN ORLANDO.
Among those from Sanford attending the banquet at the Angebilt Hotel in Orlando, Thursday evening for the surgeons and officials of the A. C. L. Railway, were Dr. and Mrs. J. N. Tolar, Dr. Ralph Stevens, and Mrs. H. R. Stevens.

MERRIE MATRONS BRIDGE CLUB.
Entertaining with her usual charming and gracious manner, Mrs. Harry B. Lewis, was hostess at bridge Thursday afternoon, at her lovely home on Magnolia Avenue, when she entertained the members of the Merrie Matrons Bridge Club and two extra tables of players.

Pink and red roses combined with ferns were lavishly used in the living room, while in the reception and dining rooms, calendulas were used to advantage.

The afternoon passed quickly in the spirited game of bridge and when scores were counted, the prize for high score among the club members, a candlestick and vase, was won by Mrs. W. T. Langley.

The high score guest prize, a candlestick, was awarded Mrs. Harry Walsh.

The consolation prize, a deck of bridge cards, went to Mrs. T. L. Duman.

Following the awarding of the prizes, Mrs. Lewis served molded chilled chicken, potato chips, hot rolls, pickles, coffee and date squares.

BUSINESS WOMEN'S LUNCHEON.
The regular weekly luncheon of the Sanford Association of Business Women, was held Thursday, at the Lu-Beth Cafeteria.

During the luncheon a number of matters of importance were discussed and plans made.

Among the members attending the luncheon were Miss Nell Whitler, Miss Minnie Lee Allen, Miss Elizabeth Muzson, Miss Ramsey, and Miss Agnes Berner.

THE NELLIE TURNER CIRCLE.
The Nellie Turner Circle of the Baptist Church met with Mrs. Hill, on Wednesday afternoon.

New officers for the next six months were elected. Chairman, Mrs. Huff; vice chairman, Mrs. Warren; secretary, Mrs. Wolf; treasurer, Mrs. Fields. Plans were made and discussed as to how to raise money. The meeting adjourned and a social hour was enjoyed.

Debut

Photo copyright, Harris & Ewing. Miss Elizabeth Taylor Adams, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Adams, will make her bow to Washington society this season. Her dad is chairman of the Republican National Committee.

ENTERTAINS AT THEATRE PARTY.

Mrs. Harry Bodwell was the charming hostess Wednesday evening when she entertained at a theatre party at the Milane theatre, the guests enjoying the play "The Last Warning."

ATTEND LUNCHEON AT COQUINA HOTEL.

A number of Sanford ladies motored to Daytona Beach Wednesday, where they were the guests of Mrs. George Chamberlain at a bridge luncheon at the new Coquina Hotel, honoring her guest, Mrs. Empsall.

The large table was centered with a low pile-up of pink and white sweet peas and feathery asparagus ferns. Sprays of ferns were also extended to each place.

At intervals were silver candlesticks, holding pink unshaded tapers, and also silver compotes filled with salted nuts and mints.

The place cards were monogrammed in gold, as were also the tally cards, and score pads.

Covers were laid for 50.

Following the luncheon, a number of rubbers of bridge were enjoyed. The tables were marked with tiny, gold horseshoes, in which were fastened the numbers.

The guests from Sanford were Mrs. George A. DeCottis, Mrs. G. D. Bishop, Mrs. W. J. Thigpen, Mrs. Ernest McGowan Galloway, and Miss Katherine Wilkey.

BON TON BRIDGE CLUB.

Baskets and bowls of golden calendulas were used in decorating for the pretty party given Thursday afternoon, when Mrs. Edward Betts entertained the members of the Bon Ton Bridge Club at her home on Park Avenue.

Scores were kept on tallies with fascinating designs, and the card game was of exceptional interest.

The prize for high score a dainty luncheon set was won by Mrs. J. D. Woodruff.

At the conclusion of the card game, the hostess served a tempting salad course.

The club members present were Mrs. C. R. Kintley, Mrs. Ben Caswell, Mrs. J. D. Woodruff, Mrs. W. W. Potter, Miss Fern Ward, Mrs. James Ridge, Mrs. Robert Hines, and Mrs. Joe Chittenden.

DUPLICATE BRIDGE CLUB.

Among the many social events of Thursday, one of the most delightful was the bridge-luncheon given by Mrs. W. C. Hill at her home on Fourth Street, the guests being the members of the Duplicate Bridge Club.

The various rooms were adorned with a profusion of sweet peas and calendulas, and at 1 o'clock a delicious four course luncheon was served at small tables, which were centered with sweet peas.

Marking the places were cunning little heart-shaped valentines.

During the afternoon a number of games of duplicate bridge were played. The prizes for high score, dainty pieces of silk lingerie, were awarded Mrs. Sam Puleston and Mrs. F. E. Roumillat.

OFFICERS ELECTED AT D. A. R. CONFERENCE.

FORT PIERCE, Jan. 15.—The election of officers for the coming year was the feature of the closing session here Thursday afternoon of the twenty-second annual meeting of the Florida conference, Daughters of the American Revolution, which opened Tuesday.

New officers were chosen as follows: Mrs. Theodore Strawn, DeLand, regent.

Mrs. Brooks G. White, Jr., Jacksonville, first vice regent.

Mrs. W. C. McLain, Orlando, second vice regent.

Mrs. John Leonard, Sanford, recording secretary.

Mrs. E. B. Brown, DeLand, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Warren G. Baker, Jacksonville, treasurer.

Mrs. C. H. Raynor, Daytona, auditor.

Mrs. A. D. Hemar Brady, West Palm Beach, historian.

Mrs. Allen Hule, Gainesville, registrar.

Those elected will assume their office April 20. Selection of the next meeting place was deferred until a later date.

The outstanding business transacted at the conference was the completion of plans for the erection and unveiling at Mayport, May 1, of a Jean Ribaut monument to commemorate the first landing in America of Protestants.

Forrest Lake returned Thursday from Laurens, S. C., where he was called by the death of his brother.

DR. MINOR C. BALDWIN IS BEING RECALLED.

Dr. Minor C. Baldwin's organ recital at the Congregational Church, Thursday evening was a delightful success in organ selection and rendition.

Dr. Baldwin is not a stranger in Sanford, having been here before in several recitals and his programs are always looked forward to with certain pleasure.

His visit this time was under the auspices of the St. Agnes Guild.

The selections of Thursday evening included: Concerto Handel (a) Allegro Moderato, (b) Andante Sostetuto, (c) Allegro.

Bridal Chorus "Orange Blossoms" Balwin. Allegretto Cametti "By the Sea" Schubert "Symphony in G" Haydn "Marvellous Work (from Creation)" Haydn

In addition to these special numbers Dr. Baldwin gave a number of shorter pieces.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Anse White of Oklawaha City have arrived in Sanford and will make this their home.

Mr. White will be connected with the San Juan Garage as salesman.

GENERAL P. T. A. MEETING.

The general Parent-Teachers' Association, held their regular monthly meeting Thursday afternoon at the Grammar School, Mrs. E. P. Morse, president presided in her usual capable manner.

LONGWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin of Plainfield, Conn., arrived in town the past week, and are nicely settled in their winter home. They were accompanied by Mr. Woodruff.

EAST SANFORD

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker of Cameron City have as their guests, Mr. Baker's cousin and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Schaub of Moundville, West Virginia.

Charles King has returned to his home here on Beardall avenue after a stay of some length at his former home in Molena, Mo.

Burk Steele is at Atlanta, Ga., this week with a number of other school attending a Baptist Sunday School convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Boston Seets had as recent guests Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Meredith and Frank Meredith of Norfolk, Va. The party are touring Florida in their car.

Meredith is Mrs. Steele's niece. Mr. and Mrs. Steele and their guests spent a day in Orlando, with Mr. and Mrs. Herman Steele.

Some new residents of Beardall avenue are Mr. and Mrs. Mervin and daughter, who have bought 10 acres of land of Joe Cameron, they were former residents of Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Bolinsky, son and daughter, natives of Wisconsin, have bought five acres of Clark Leonard. Both parties are clearing their land and building homes.

Joe Cameron and son Ed, are cutting 15 acres of celery this week. Others at this end of town cutting this week are Chas. P. Rossiter, John Rumley, Troy Bledsoe, G. W. Smit, John Jones, and Carroways.

The majority of the Golden Self blanching variety. There is some very fine Perlie white celery being cut also.

Robert Grier had as guests Tuesday at a hunting party, Mrs. E. P. Colery, Mrs. Morria Meyer from town. The boys celebrated the last day of the hunting season by an all day hunt and a picnic.

"Kito" Kennedy died at his home in Mecca Hammock after a very short illness from pneumonia. He is survived by a wife and four children, his parents, a sister and two brothers.

He was the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kennedy and was a native of Tennessee but has lived in Florida many years.

Not all the marriageable young men are in town, here are some good looking, fine appearing fellows. Henry Weeks, Orlie Weeks, Donald F. T. Sullivan, Joe Guerry, Burke Steele, Ben Austin, Joluh Cameron. And last but not least on this list is Jolly Tom Meredith. We can name some more, they are here.

LAKE MONROE

John Hittell, age 75, died at the Seminole Home Monday of paralysis. The deceased was the father of Mrs. I. M. Smith of this place and C. A. Hittell of West Sanford.

Mr. Hittell had made his home in Monroe for the past several years. He had been coming to Florida in the winter season for forty years.

The funeral services were held at the First Methodist church at Monroe Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The body was buried in the Sanford cemetery, he is survived by his daughter and son and several grandchildren.

The revival services being held at the Baptist church here are progressing nicely. About ten new members have united with the church, all of which were baptized Wednesday evening.

Ordination services were conducted at the church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock when J. T. Jacobs and Elie Swagerty were ordained deacons.

The ordination sermon was delivered by Dr. King of Sanford, the instructions to the deacons given by John D. Jenkins, clerk of Seminole Baptist Association and Mr. Seagins, deacon of the Baptist church of Sanford.

The closing prayer was made by Bro. Schollick, also of Sanford. Rev. E. L. Smith and J. A. Sutton of Orlando have conducted the revival which has been held for over a week. Closing services will probably be this week.

The Methodist church at this place is also conducting a very successful revival. Quite a large number of people have united with the church.

Celery is being rapidly moved in this section. The stalks are large and fine and a good price being offered. J. W. Bell, one of our most prominent truckers and business men has commanded a fancy price throughout the local markets, his celery averaging $7.50 per crate. Mr. Bell has a finely organized system of salesmen and gets tip-top prices for his produce which is exceptionally fine and early on the market.

LONGWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin of Plainfield, Conn., arrived in town the past week, and are nicely settled in their winter home. They were accompanied by Mr. Woodruff.

Mrs. Grimes and her son are here from Michigan, and have rented an apartment in the Doll-off house. They drove through in their car.

Another street is opened from the hard road to Wildmere lake, making three cleared within a few weeks.

There were 13 from here that went on the trip to Coral Gables, leaving Monday morning.

The annual Old Settlers picnic will be held at the library next Saturday, Jan. 19.

A very pleasant social was enjoyed by a large crowd at the library last Friday evening under the auspices of the League. The mystery table caused much merriment, and helped to swell the proceeds to $20.

Mr. and Mrs. Orie Smith of St. George Hotel made a business trip to Hollywood, and while there ate something that caused ptomaine poisoning. They succeeded in reaching home. But have been very critically ill.

A nurse, Mrs. E. L. Farmer of Miami, has been caring for them and Dr. Gardner has been the attending physician. At this time they are much improved and gaining a little every day as their many friends will be glad to know.

There will be a gaked beach supper at the library Friday night, Jan. 25, for the benefit of the Longwood band. All are asked to co-operate and help to make it a success.

HOW MANY OF 110,000,000 AMERICANS KNOW ANYTHING ABOUT MEMEL, A LITTLE STRIP OF TERRITORY RUNNING THIRTY-FIVE MILES ALONG THE BALTIC SEA?

If the League of Nations can't succeed in making a neutral zone of that as the Versailles Treaty intended, why do we get mixed up in it? Haven't we enough business of our own to attend to?

Y'CAN'T KID A KIDDER

Nina Wilcox Putnam, Through Her Tears, Jokes About a Drug Store in Kansas

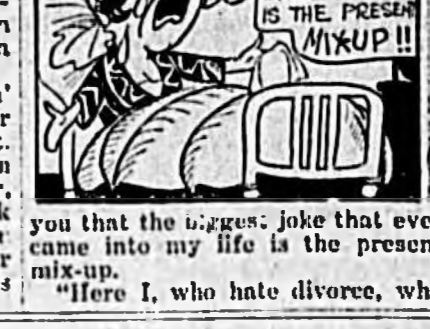

By Josephine Van de Griff, New Service Staff Writer. NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—There's some people that've nearly killed themselves laughin' at the way Nina Wilcox Putnam kids the lads out of folks and their trouble. So when Nina blew in from Florida to find herself confronted by a divorce action that didn't take; and some matrimonial mix-up or other where some woman claimed that she, Nina, was trying to take the other woman's husband, we just couldn't resist popin' over to Nina's hotel to find out how she was holdin' up under the strain.

When I get out of this mess," she confided confidentially, "I'm going out to Kansas and take up a quarter section of land and start a drug store."

Just what got Nina to thinkin' of the Kansas at that particular moment we couldn't make out. There she was, propped up in a brass bed with dents in it, her hair, which is her chief glory, stuck under one of those lace caps that which nothing looks goashawfuler on a woman, and her shoulders

"All humorists are unhappy. Mark Twain was. I know I am. And as a humorist I want to tell you that the biggest joke that ever came into my life is the present mix-up."

THE PLAN IN BRIEF

1. That the United States shall immediately enter the Permanent Court of International Justice, under the conditions stated by Secretary Hughes and President Harding in February, 1923.
2. That without becoming a member of the League of Nations at present constituted, the United States shall offer to extend its present co-operation with the League and participate in the work of the League as a body of mutual counsel under conditions which
3. Accept the fact that the United States will assume no obligations under the Treaty of Versailles except by Act of Congress.
4. Propose that membership in the League should be opened to all nations.
5. Provide for the continuing development of international law.

DEMPSEY IS PRESENTED WITH CUP AT HIALEAH

MIAMI, Jan. 18.—Jack Dempsey went to the greyhound races today to present a loving cup. The statement may be entirely correct and both versions will hold true. The greyhound races also went to Jack Dempsey and also presented him with cup.

No inkling or intimation had been given that the heavyweight champion, too, was to be the recipient of a huge piece of silver as a token of admiration, from racing men to a fighting man, and it was not until County Solicitor Fred Egan addressed the huge Dempsey crowd from the judges' stand that anyone was aware of the surprise that had been planned.

The afternoon was Dempsey's from the time he was whisked through the gates. He was lionized and idolized on every hand and he accepted himself in true championship fashion with much added popularity accruing in his favor. Although given the title of an honorary judge, it was hard to confine him to the judges stand, an interesting did he find the lawn, stands and paddock and it was not until the third race, the Jack Dempsey handicap, that he finally took up his post. In judging, he showed an eagle eye and promptly decided that Missiea Boy had won his stake and cup by a sum total of almost a length.

Heilmann and Ruth Will Aid in Benefit For Fate-Billy Miske

ST. PAUL, MINN., Jan. 18.—A baseball autographed by Babe Ruth, home run king of the New York Yankees, will be auctioned at the testimonial boxing program here Tuesday night for the family of Pilly Miske, late heavyweight pugilist of St. Paul.

The baseball will be brought here by Harry Heilmann, Detroit outfielder, who will referee one of the bouts on the benefit card.

Mickey Walker, world's welterweight champion, will box four rounds with his sparring partner, Tommy Gibbons. St. Paul heavyweight, will step four rounds with Jimmy Delancy, St. Paul, and Gunner Joe Quinn, Minneapolis, and Tommy Burns, Detroit, Michigan, will go six rounds.

Four other bouts have been arranged.

SIG HAUGDAHL.
COCOA, Jan. 18.—Sig Haugdahl, world speed king and pilot of the fastest automobile in the world is slated as the chief attraction during the Indian River Orange Festival, the big winter event which is to be held at Cocoa and at Cocoa Beach Jan. 24-25-26. A contract was signed with the little Norwegian to drive three one-mile exhibitions using his three miles a minute speed creation, the same machine which he hurled over the sands of Daytona Beach at better than 180 miles per hour.

Haugdahl is shipping the car direct to Cocoa and it is thought that it will arrive within a few days to make ready for the trials and to test out the condition of the beach.

In addition to his one-mile in 19.97 seconds record Haugdahl holds more records on the dirt tracks of the world than any other driver. His feat of driving two laps on the half mile Waco, Texas, track last year in 55 seconds flat was the most startling thing that happened in the entire auto race world. This mark lowered Haugdahl's own world mark by more than two seconds and incidentally established a new era in the field of auto racing.

Haugdahl says that a good deal of the high speed attained by the big Wisconsin Special is due to the fact that it is a perfect streamline. Every part of the big car was built to resist the wind and it has unique distinction of being the narrowest car ever built. The body of the car is but 20 inches wide in the widest point.

The "bright minds" you hear about are seldom the kind that reflect.

YOUNG STRIBLING WILL MEET BILLY SHADE IN ATLANTA ON JANUARY 28

PALM BEACH, Fla., Jan. 18.—"Young" Stribling of Macon, Ga., who Tuesday night was disqualified at the end of the sixth round of a bout here with Norman Genet, of Akron, Ohio, for hitting in the breaks, will meet his next opponent in Atlanta, on home soil, "Pa" Stribling, father-manager of the light-weight boxer, said today. Stribling will meet Billy Shade, California light-heavyweight, in Atlanta on January 28.

Stribling's two fights in Florida within the past week proved full of features. In a bout at Miami last week with Mike Nestor, fighter-wrestler, Stribling was thrown to the floor after Nestor had tossed Referee Harry Graham against the ropes. Stribling knocked Nestor out in the sixth round.

PROGENY OF MAN O'WAR WILL RACE IN 1924 SEASON
(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—The 1924 racing season holds unusual interest because it will bring out, as two-year-olds, the first of the get of the famous Man o' War, which as a three-year-old was never defeated, and except for Zev, proved the greatest money winning thoroughbred in American turf history.

Twelve colts and fillies of Man o' War are qualified for two-year-old racing this year. All but one of the number are owned by Samuel R. Riddle whose colors Man o' War carried, and W. M. Jeffords, J. K. Maddux, who was Mr. Riddle's adviser when the latter purchased Man o' War for $5,000 as a yearling, owns the remaining colt. Nine of the 12 already have been given names that suggest their famous sire. A list, with dam and owner, follows:

- Flagship, ch. c., out of Understudy; Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Jeffords.
- Homerich, ch. c., out of Batanoe; Mr. and Mrs. Jeffords.
- First Mate, ch. c., out of Shady; S. D. Riddle.
- Friendship Two, ch. c., out of Sea Name; J. K. Maddux.
- Maid of Arms, ch. f., out of Thrasher; S. D. Riddle.
- Florence Nightingale, br. f., out of the Nurse; Mr. and Mrs. Jeffords.
- Florella, ch. f., out of Santissima; S. D. Riddle.
- Gun Boat, ch. f., out of Star Fancy; S. D. Riddle.
- Seaplane, b. f., out of Bathing Girl; Mr. and Mrs. Jeffords.

Newton Is President University "F" Club

(By The Associated Press)
GAINESVILLE, Jan. 17.—"Ark Newton," captain of the 1924 football team has been elected president of the "F" club at the University of Florida, an organization composed of letter men in four sports at the institution. Edgar Jones was named vice-president; Sam Cornwall secretary and treasurer, and Jack Matthews historian. The historian has been instructed to collect data upon performance of the club members during the present season and a committee was appointed to obtain pictures for use in the Seminoles.

Immense Gym Started at Riverside Academy Young Jake to Meet

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 18.—Contracts have been placed for what is said to be the largest preparatory school gymnasium in the South and one of the largest in the United States at Riverside Military Academy at Gainesville, Ga., according to reports received here. It is expected that the structure will be completed by April 1.

Unusual interest is now being taken in athletics by the cadets at Riverside and the varsity basketball team is said to be one of the strongest in the South, reports state. It is planned to make the baseball team this summer one of the strongest aggregations of any southern preparatory school. Championship matches will be arranged with many of the schools of the state and the South. Riverside has enrolled nearly 300 cadets from all parts of the United States.

Halifax County Will Hold 2nd Annual Fair

DAYTONA, Jan. 17.—The Business and Professional Woman's club is planning to hold the second annual Halifax County Products Fair Feb. 18-23, with Mrs. I. M. Mabbette, president of the organization in charge. Civic organizations of the city have been asked to co-operate in making the fair a success in showing products of this section.

Stribling's fight last night did not end so successfully. Referee Phil Pritchard disqualified Stribling for hitting in the breaks, after warning the youth twice to break clean.

Up to the time the bout was stopped, Stribling had the advantage, having knocked Genet down in the third, fourth and fifth rounds. Genet claimed fouls on the last two knockdowns but the claims were not allowed by the referee.

Stribling was warned for hitting in the breaks in the third round and in the sixth round. Just before the bell in the sixth, Stribling was said to have hit Genet after the command to break had been given and Pritchard ordered the men to their corners.

Pop up! And be at the big basketball game tonight at the Grammar School court between alumni and Sanford High School boys.

As you know, it was the boys of the past two seasons that made history for Sanford on the basketball court. And so it will be these same athletes returning to the court in an effort to prove that they still have the same dash and speed as in days gone by.

They have elected the well known McLucas as their leader and under his able eye they have been practicing hard for some time. Several of the boys who played regular last year and year before are away attending college and so their places will be filled by new men as indicated in the line-up.

YOUNG JAKE.
NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—Willie Hoppe will defend his title of world's champion 182 balt line billiard player against Jake Schaeffer, the only man ever to wrest the crown from him, in Chicago Jan. 21, 22 and 23 under the provisions of the annual championship tournament, which provides that the players finishing second, third and fourth may challenge the winner.

Schaeffer, who finished third in the tournament, Thursday telegraphed a challenge to Hoppe, announcing he had deposited a forfeit, and the champion immediately accepted. The winner of their match, of three blocks of 500 each will be challenged by Edouard Horemans Belgian champion, who finished fourth in the tournament. That match probably will be played here in March.

Skinner Coke Heaters Saved These Cucumbers

Sketch, taken from a photograph, showing healthy and vigorous cukes on truck farm near Clearwater.

Surrounding this field on all sides are other fields with tender vegetation, brown and withered, killed or burned by the frost of November 17th, this season.

Explanation is simple, example typical.

Outside it was 35 degrees above zero. Within this field 50 Skinner Coke Heaters to the acre kept the temperature at 45 degrees, a temperature rise of 10 degrees; held it there through the night, saved a valuable investment in seed, labor and fertilizer; now worth many times its former value.

Skinner Coke Heaters cost little to buy and operate. They turn loss into profit by making early planting safe and early selling possible.

'My Baby Was Nervous And Very Fretful'

A nervous and fretful child is a trial to the tired mother, who is at a loss to discover the cause of the little one's distress. Little babies have nerves just like grown-ups and can only express their feelings by crying. In such cases a dose of two of Teethinga will usually soothe the fretting child and bring quietness and peace to the household.

Mrs. J. M. Butler, of Gilmer, Texas, writes: "I have four little ones and used Teethinga with all of them. My baby is fretful and nervous. I've her a dose and it quiets her and she is soon laughing and playing."

Teethinga contains no opiates or other narcotics and can be safely given to the youngest child. Teethinga is sold by all druggists, send 30c to the Moffett Laboratories, Columbus, Ga., for a package and a free booklet about babies.
