Evenly Matched Field Contends For Net Crown

By Sam Jackson. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 3.—(AP)—With Alice Marble in the professional ranks, a wide-open race is on for the title of queen of American tennis.

Not since pig-tailed, poker-faced Helen Wills won the championship at the age of 18—has there been such a well-matched field. There is no dominant contender. Any one of a score of girls may triumph at Forest Hills next summer, and gain the honors and potential fortune which few, if any other, sports offer to a woman.

On the record, Helen Hull Jacobs must be considered the girl to beat. The Berkeley lass was national champion from 1932 through 1935, and in the 1932 playoff she was the good for every young upstart but not good enough for Queen Alice.

Dab Golfers Find Allies In Ranks Of Professionals

By Larry Brown. MIAMI, Jan. 3.—(AP)—The hundreds of dab golfers who daily meet their wayward way from bunker to bunker—the while consigning all sand traps to the infernal regions in various languages (all profane)—have a couple of allies in the professional ranks.

At least two of the country's top pros, Ben Hursey and Gene Sarazen, think it's high time something was done about the way the tee will cause untold suffering among the great mass of average golfers.

Ben Hursey would remove the trap entirely, said Paul, "would be to eliminate bunkers. Traps, when they are raked smooth, aren't hazards to the better professional. Any pro in a trap outside a reasonably flat green expects to get down in two, at most three, strokes."

Coleman Will End Term As Mayor Tonight After Year Of Progress

STEPS DOWN

After a year of service to the City of Sanford as its Mayor, Walter S. Coleman will officially end his term tonight at a meeting of the City Commission, and Mr. C. (Billy) Hill, elected Dec. 31, will be sworn in as the new Commissioner.

Wise and energetic, Mayor Coleman was the official head of the City's government during a year which saw numerous civic improvements and which turned out to be the best business year since boom days. Well-liked for his business ability and administrative judgment, Mayor Coleman was praised today by his fellow Commissioners for his work during the past year.

Their comments, a testimony to merit and service, were as follows:

H. James Gut: "I am sorry Mayor Coleman is leaving office, though I feel sure that his successor, whoever he will be, will do a competent job. I have enjoyed being the colleague of Mayor Coleman and working with him. The City is losing a good Mayor."

Edward Higgins: "Mayor Coleman has served us faithfully and well during 1940, and I regret that he is leaving the Commission and the Mayor's position."

M. J. Loder: "Mayor Coleman has been a splendid Commission member."

Seminole County Refunding Bonds Offered For Sale

ORLANDO, Jan. 7.—(Special)—R. E. Crummer, president of the R. E. Crummer and Company, last night disclosed that an offering of $14,000,000 of refundable 4 percent bonds of four counties, three of them Seminole County, will be made by his firm.

From the response already received, Mr. Crummer said, "Florida is occupying the most favorable position in the nation in refunding bonds."

The financing consists of four new issues, one of $7,000,000 of road and bridge bonds of Seminole County, $4,000,000 of road and bridge bonds of Volusia County, $2,000,000 of road and bridge bonds of Marion County, and $1,000,000 of road and bridge bonds of DeSoto County.

The bonds, maturing serially from 1942 to 1948, were priced to yield 2 to 4 percent, according to Crummer.

The $14,000,000 of securities is being issued to retire in advance of maturity an equal principal amount of higher rate and callable obligations of longer maturity. There are 88 years and seven months of road and bridge bonds in the Lake County operation; 80 road and bridge bonds and school issues in the Volusia refunding; and seven countywide and road and bridge issues in the Marion and DeSoto refundings.

In all these operations, R. E. Crummer and Company will be sole refunding and refinancing agent for the municipal subdivisions.

Mr. Crummer stated yesterday that the majority of the bonds will be sold in Florida.

"The offering is the outstanding endorsement for the State which evidences restored confidence in the stability of the State of Florida," he declared.

Turks Prolong Army Service For All Men

Joint Resistance To Germany By Russia And Turkey Still Reported Possible

ANKARA, Turkey, Jan. 7.—(AP)—The Turkish government, aware of the large Nazi army in Rumania, today passed a bill prolonging the service for all classes under arms. The number of men affected was not published.

Diplomatic sources regarded the Russian-Turkish resistance to any German push through Bulgaria as still likely last night despite German reports that the U. S. S. R. has agreed to let the Nazis enter and take over Bulgarian territory.

The arrival here of a high official of the Soviet commissariat of foreign affairs these sources said, suggested that the reports emanating from official German quarters might only be wishful thinking.

Diplomatic reports also indicated that the Turks have concentrated several hundred thousand crack troops in Thrace, close to the Bulgarian frontier.

Reports given currency by official German quarters in Belgrade said Russia had acquiesced to a German move in Bulgaria on consideration that Germany not oppose Soviet policy either in Finland or Moldavia, the Rumanian area which adjoins Bessarabia, former Rumanian soil already annexed by Russia.

(There was no confirmation of these reports, however, in Russian, Bulgarian, Rumanian or Turkish sources.)

Sanford Anglers Are Mentioned In Column

S. O. Shinholzer, president of the Sanford Atlantic National Bank and his wife and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Shinholzer, of Orlando, mentioned today in the column in the Orlando Morning Sentinel.

The Sanfords, who were in Orlando on their fishing trip, landed a catch of speckled trout they landed last weekend.

Mr. Mosher described the trip as follows: "Fishing Indian River waters with live shrimp for bait, out of Shiloh, near Titusville, this past weekend, Mr. and Mrs. A. Edwin Shinholzer, of Orlando, and Mr. S. O. Shinholzer, of Sanford, caught 16 fine speckled trout, weighing from 2 pounds up to 5 pounds each."

Although the weather was stormy, and showers fell in on the anglers, the Shinholzers were lucky and report "no rain and enough fish" on their fishing trip. It is to be noted here that on another fishing jaunt some days earlier, these Orlando-Sanford anglers took on the first day of fishing some 50-odd fine trout; on the second day, 37. The fish taken on this earlier occasion range in weight from around 2 pounds each up to 5 and 6 pounds.

Danger Ahead

In his opening address to Congress yesterday President Roosevelt began by saying, "At no previous time has American security been so seriously threatened from without as it is today."

At the beginning of this war when the French army was still intact and securely entrenched behind the Maginot Line, most Americans felt that we were not in the least concerned with affairs in Europe or that events over there held any dangers for us whatever.

This awakening manifested itself in hurried appropriations for rearmament. Never before in the history of the United States was so much money voted for guns, planes, warships in so short a time.

Now consider how we would feel about it if England fell. If instead of being blockaded within the continent of Europe by the powerful British navy, the Axis powers were to sink that navy or capture it...

Good Publicity For Sanford

Sanford and Seminole County did right well in the newspapers of the state last Sunday when three of Florida's leading dailies freely donated several columns of publicity to attractions in this vicinity.

The Orlando Sentinel contained two articles which did credit to this section. One of them, written by the editor himself, described Sanford's agricultural background...

At the same time the Times-Union in Jacksonville was eulogizing the excellent fishing on the St. Johns River and in other Seminole County waters.

Meanwhile the Miami Herald went all the way in describing the beauties of Sealand Springs and telling about the Big Tree near Longwood.

He tells about a conversation with a tourist from Mto. to whom he said "Since you have Rainbow Springs, River Springs, Green Cove Springs, and Wakulla Springs in your list, as important springs in Florida, you're missing one of the most beautiful springs spots in the state if you all to visit Sealand Springs."

Perhaps you have heard of the big Cypress tree now in the "Sanford" tract, that one, in Seminole County, a little over half way between Ocala and Sanford.

The combined circulation of these three Herald papers is around 200,000. If this publicity had been paid for it would have cost several hundred dollars.

Inauguration Day Has Always Made History In Past

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—(AP)—When President Roosevelt on Jan. 20 rolls up Pennsylvania Avenue from 1600, which is the White House, he is being inaugurated.

When George Washington took the ride the first time, his Pennsylvania Avenue was a twisted ribbon of mud from Mount Vernon to the old Federal Hall in New York City.

The President then went to the Senate chamber to make his inaugural address, setting a custom which it was presumed would continue forever. But by 1817, when James Monroe was inaugurated, the young nation already was bustling out of its traditional ways.

Thomas Jefferson, the first president inaugurated in Washington, escorted by a company of Virginia riflemen, walked across the stump-studded clearing from his boarding house on New Jersey Avenue to his inauguration stand.

With the exception of President Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1937, inauguration ceremonies were held at the same place on Pennsylvania Avenue in 1801.

Names Of Great Horses Inscribed In Kentucky's Equine Cemeteries

LEXINGTON, Ky., Jan. 7 (AP) - Nearly every race horse gets his name in the record books for benefit of horsemen, but only a few of the great have their names inscribed in marble or bronze for posterity. An outstanding contribution to racing doesn't guarantee a lasting memorial for a horse. Such a tribute calls for a sentimental owner with money to spare. Memorials are expensive but they are reserved for the swiftest runners. In the half-dozen horse cemeteries and memorial plots in the Bluegrass, the stone tributes bear the names of as many sires and dams of great sons and daughters as they do the names of champions. Perhaps the most elaborate equine shrine is at Joseph Widener's Elmendorf farm where there are marble slabs to Fair Play and Mahubah, parents of the incomparable Man O'War. The slabs lie below a life-sized, blue-colored statue of Fair Play whose get won more than $2,000,000. The Fair Play statue, a monument Bluegrass sightseers may soon be dazzled by a statue now being made of Man O'War. Where it all stands has not been announced, but Lexington Man O'War is an honorary citizen and will be in the place in front of the Union station. A highway in Elmendorf is a fountain cemetery on the C. V. (Sunny) Whittier farm, where modest stones mark the graves of Peter Pan, Broomstick and Pennant. In the center of a cemetery is the memory of a famous horse, the 1898 Kentucky Derby winner, Youssell. In the center of a farm, a great horse, a champion, stands a life-sized bronze statue of Guy, another great sire in the sulley sport. At C. V. R. Reilly's 110-acre farm, there is a stone statue of a famous horse, a fourth life-size. It is not far from the great farm, a great horse, a champion, stands a life-sized bronze statue of Guy, another great sire in the sulley sport. At C. V. R. Grid Officiating In South Rated Good By Coaches

LAKE WALES, Jan. 7 (AP) - Football officiating in the Southern and Southeastern Conferences last season was "satisfactory or better" to a cache of both sides in 93 percent of all games, Secretary A. R. Hutchens of the Southern Football Officials' Association said yesterday. In a report for the year, Hutchens said the great majority of games were well handled, but a few drew censure. "Coaches," he reported, "rated 93 percent of the year's officiating as 'good,' very good or 'excellent' which, of course, is praiseworthy and brings out the not unimportant point that the great majority of the games were well-handled. It is the other end of the scale, the low-rated work which the coaches loosely describe as 'satisfactory' or 'fair' which must be watched." Hutchens diagnosed the basic trouble as "not one of situations misruled, but it certainly is one of situations mishandled." "Misruled on established fact were, as always, small in number, but inevitably correct rulings arrived at only after much fumbling and fumbling by seemingly vague and uncertain officials were many. And the one he based as the other as for a building or destroying confidence in officiating is concerned." Hutchens reported a decrease in most penalties, but an increase in roughness, piling on, delay of games and off-side play. The average time for all games was two hours and 15 minutes—three minutes longer than last year. The central booking office here provided 375 officials for 210 games, an increase of 11 games and 44 officials over a year ago. Average pay of officials in the Southern Conference was $53.71 that can host three golf courses. They are the par 68 nine-hole Florence Villa Hotel course, the par 71 Winter Haven Country Club course over which V. Brook presides as pro, and the par 70 Lake Region Country Club which once hosted Cyril Walker as resident pro.

If Everything Turns Out Right, Caribou May Come Back To Maine

MT. KATAHDIN, Me., Jan. 7 (AP) - The Martens, the Fishers and other citizens of Baxter State Park are being visited by census-takers these days. And if the census people find conditions suitable, the citizens may cry out the return of a long lost neighbor, the caribou. The citizens in this case are the various species of red-bearing animals which exist in the mountains of the state of Maine. The Mt. Katahdin, he said, had been the animals' favorite hunting ground. The return of the caribou to the state would depend on whether the census-takers decide there is an opening for that species existing in the region. A recent national game survey showed that Minnesota and Washington are the only states where woodland caribou now live. The census-takers have limited time to go for spots in a job. They will build a big cabin for their home during the long winter months ahead. Equipped with powder and other necessities, they will start out to cover each township in the area, checker-board fashion to determine the number and type of animal encountered. In case you've never heard of a caribou or a fisher, they are slender, wolf-like fur animals with long tails. They are a real, carnivorous mammals classed among the great and most valuable of

Nazi Munition Train Explodes In Balkan City

Blast Damages Part Of Hungarian Town As R. A. F. Attacks Albanian Depot

In the Balkans, Germany's main munition depot was partly destroyed today when a Nazi munition train exploded after crashing into another train. The blast damaged a large part of the Hungarian town of Bereetty. On the Greek-Italian front, the R. A. F. reported it had attacked Elbasani, Italian Albanian supply base. Bulgaria looked to Russia again last night for an answer to whether German troops massed along the northern frontier mean war or peace. Premier Philoff's return from a "health trip" to Vienna shed no official light on the situation. He hurried from the station to his office without commenting on the threatened Nazi march across his country toward Greece and the Dardanelles. Informed quarters, however, believed reluctance of both Russia and Germany to antagonize each other at the expense of their mutual tolerance would bring about a stalemate in the situation, as it did last Fall when Bulgaria was able to resist Berlin demands for adherence to the Axis' Balkan bloc.

National Defense To Get 10 Billion Of Amount Unequaled Since World War

Aid For Britain Is Not Provided

This Is Only Forecast Of Things To Come In Future

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Reorganization of the Navy into Atlantic, Pacific, and Asiatic fleet was ordered by Secretary of the Navy in announcing the President had authorized an increase of 42,000 in navy manpower. The President allocated $10,811,314,600 of the 1942 budget exclusively to national defense estimated the deficit for the year beginning July 1 at $9,210,093,040, and forecast a public debt pushed to a second $58,367,065,056 by June 30, 1942. The budget made no provision for the cost of aid to Britain, Greece, and China, an extensive program to be covered in a subsequent appropriations request. Congressional leaders said this might eventually total ten billion. Nothing in history compares with the huge figures of the budget since the last year of the World War when spending reached $18,522,895,000. "A very turn of fate places this burden of defense on the backs of a peace loving people," the President said of the budget, read by clerks. This is only a forecast of the things to come. After a conference with forecast of the things to come," Secretary of the Navy said "Progress is being made in the plan to help Britain and hinted that legislation might be considered anytime. In the budget the President asked more taxes, left the type and the amount to Congress.

Handicraft To Be Taught In Classes Here

Classes in vocational handicraft are to be held at the Junior High School, Superintendent of Schools, T. W. Lawton said today, through the co-operation of the State Marketing Board and the State Board of Public Instruction. Miss Dorothy McClure will teach the classes that are to start this afternoon, and run from four to six weeks. Instruction in weaving and basketry with such materials as pine needles, wire grass, palmeto and cat tails are to be given. The object of the classes is to teach people to use natural resources so they might supplement their regular income, Mr. Lawton said. A market for products of this nature exists at Jacksonville and Daytona Beach, according to Mr. Lawton. Anyone wishing to take part in the classes is to be contacted by Miss McClure at the school. No charge is made for the instruction and the only expense is for materials which the pupils might gather for themselves at no expense. The classes are open to everyone but were designed principally for adults. Night classes will be arranged for the convenience of those who wish to learn the handicraft work.

Gut Is Elected Temporary Head Of Commission

H. James Gut was named temporary chairman of the City Commission at its meeting last night to serve until the organization of the city government is completed tomorrow night as Walter E. Coleman ended his term as mayor and W. C. (Billy) Hill was sworn in as a new member of the commission. Mr. Hill had headed three years on the City Commission and one year as Mayor. Mr. Coleman thanked the commission for the cooperation they had given him during his term and expressed his regret at leaving the body. Mr. Hill then signed the oath of office and received his three-year commission. The final report of the four examining units of the City's milk supply was presented by H. N. Bayler, City clerk, to Dr. J. L. Bayler, Inspector of the City Board of Health in Orlando, who made the test. The report showed that the product of four retail dairies and the three wholesale distributors had a high butter fat content and a comparatively low bacteria count. "These samples show you have a good milk supply," Dr. Bayler declared. The dairies examined were: retail Spencer-Harden, Green Valley, Howard, and Beacon Dairies; wholesale, Walker, Stevens, and Benson.

Nazi Remain Quiet On Roosevelt's Talk

BERLIN, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Some of the most important passages of President Roosevelt's message to Congress were blotted out by atmospheric conditions which interfered with the broadcast heard by the foreign office here, and for that reason authentic German reaction was not forthcoming Tuesday. It was understood Adolf Hitler, following his previous policy, wished to take plenty of time to study the President's speech carefully, weigh all its implications and formulate the response in his own mind before giving the nod to the Nazi press.
