The explosion was so terrific that fragments were scattered several hundred yards. Fortunately, Elliott was not in the house, but was visiting at the home of nearby friends.

Whether or not the explosion was connected with the labor disturbanees at Elizabethton was not known by investigating authorities; but they were looking into this possibility, following up every clue. Sheriff J. M. Moreland sa Efficit was the man who reported several weeks ago that a bomb was hurled into hig automobile as he was enroute to a labor meeting |-lugram at Elizabethton.

The troops left here for the Elliott home to prevent further possible disturbances. The guards. men had been on duty here guarding the American Bermberg and Glantsztoff plants which resumed partial operation this week after defying the demands of 5,500 strikers, and ignoring the union.

not actuated by ulterior motives but, like Homer of old, we "trust not the Greeks bearing, gifts." Nor does the Tamps Tribune which has this to say concerning the case of the dry representative with the wet trunk:

"In its issue of May 7, the day the Michaelson trial opened in that city, the Key West Citizen carried a four-column first-page head: "Gongressman Michaelson Frontial Add la Securing Free Port For Key West." The Raring headline captioned a double-leaded story, in which the Congressman of leaking trunk fame declared Key West to her the logical and only ideal location for a free port in the South," and dromised to do "all in my power to have this city so designated." Mr. Michaelson continued, in blackfaced type: "As a member of the Rivers and Harbors Committee I am in position to be of aid to Key West in this proposition, and I shall tion to be of aid to Key West in this proposition, and I shall be delighted to do so. I shall work among my colleagues exclusively for Key West in this proposition and believe that it can be put over by the proper efforts." There followed about a column more of similar stuff, in which the Congressman laviabed compliments upon Key West as "a city with more attractions 5:19.

We presume that everybody in Key West who can resit did resid his played-up pledges of free post promotion for a port where he had been accorded "freedom of the part;" but of course, this had nothing whatever to do with the fact that, the next day, a jury in Key West gave a verdictlef acquitted to this community; benefactor. Any other verdict, in view of the defendant's voluntary and magnanimous enlistment as a worker in Congress "exclusively for Key West," would have been both gnappredictive and ur patriotic, and would have convicted Key West of an utter lack of civic pride, of regard for the future of the city as a port, "free" or otherwise. Indeed, we doubt not, had the jury condemned this powerful ally to punishment for the trivial and prevalent offense with which he stood charged, its membern would have been driven out of town by the indignant force of an outraged public opinion."

HOUSANDS of Southern friends wanted La Touraine Coffee to come to the South.

They had learned of La Touraine in the dining rooms of good hotels, in famous restaurants and on the diners of extra fare trains, where more of this famous coffee is served than any other brand.

They were delighted with its rich, satisfying quality, and wanted to serve it in their own homes.

So now-in Jacksonville-La Touraine Coffee is blended and roasted for the people of the South.

If you go there, you will see the spotless automatic roasters which slowly roast the green coffee to a golden brown. And the almost human machines which pack and seal without the help of human hands.
