Commission Balks At Payne Bill

A bill to the Seminole County Commission for payment of a psychiatric examination of Ernest Payne, who was convicted two weeks ago of murder in connection with the death of his father Oct. 26, 1977 was sent "on a wing and a prayer," said Assistant State Attorney Ralph Eriksson today

Eriksson successfully prosecuted Payne and submitted the bill to the commission. The commisssion has delayed action on payment in hopes of gaining more information. Following a brief review of the request for payment, Comnission Chairman Dick Williams commented Tuesday that more information was needed. Commissioner John Alexander suggested the item be tabled and that more information be obtained prior to a vote on the payment. In most cases, according to Eriksson, a court order is sought to secure a psychiatric examination. However, Payne was examined prior to the filing or formal charges, said Eriksson. A judge could order a psychiatric examination only after formal charges had been made, according to Eriksson. Those charges had not been filed, said Eriksson, because he did not know the extent of charges that could have been filed.

"Those two deputies were in pretty bad shape," noted Eriksson, "we didn't want to file on him until we knew what we had." Two deputies were wounded in a gunbattle with Payne following the Payne had been arrested about 8 a.m. the day after his father's murder. The first psychiatric examination was made about 3:30 p.m. the same day, according to Eriksson. "I don't know what satutory authority or power order such an examination," stated Eriksson. He said he had not researched the law on that point and noted someone else in the state attorney's office had contacted Dr. Robert G. Kirkland of Orlando, to arrange for the examination.

Asked if he would seek payment for the examination through a lawsuit, Dr. Kirkland replied, "I'd just say hold your horses mister reporter. It is a situation regarding me and some other people and not you and your paper. I would say my $10,000 lawsuit about a $225 matter." Kirkland was asked to perform the examination in a telephone call from the state attorney's office, according to Eriksson. Kirkland was called in when a sheriff's deputy was told Payne had bragged he could escape conviction of a crime by feignin nsanity, said Ericksson. "Anytime you are faced with an insanity defense," said Eriksson, "you try to get an examination as quickly as possible." Later, in the process of investigating the crime, Judge Robert McGregor ordered a psychiatric examination of Payne by two other psychiatrists. Both of those psychiatrists and Dr. Kirkland were called as defense witnesses in the trial

By LEONARD KRANSDORF If the commission rejects payment of the bill, Eriksson said he would try to find funds to pay the fee within the state attorney's office. If that fails, Eriksson said he will seek payment from the Sanford and the Orange County

In the future, Eriksson said he will ask that the department arresting a suspect to request the examination be made. That way, according to Erikason, that department could pay for the

The Russian emigrant, you will remember pulled no punches in criticizing the United States and particularly its people. He warned what he called a careless and fun-loving people" of national ruin unless they return to the faith and strength of their fathers.

Some observers are calling him a prophet for his statements

RosalynnCarter was not among them. She rapped Mr. Solzhenitsyn on the knuckles for his blanket condemnation of our people.

We must agree with the First Lady.

And, further, we wonder - especially with the significant date of July 4th almost upon uswhether the Russian dissident's words-if not well-tuned, were needed at all and called for in the first place.

An argument could be made that he has no business attacking the very people among whom he has been given the opportunity to make his home. His attitude could be judged as an unsolicited exercise in arrogance

Or it can be praised as a forthright statement of a literary giant of our age-author of such historic works as "One Day In the Life of Ivan Denisovich and "Gulag Archipelago"—the latter of which brought him a Nobel Prize for Literature. Some will say it is to the glory and enrichment of the United States of America that such a man has found refuge here. They would call him a prophet.

Others would call him an ingrate for biting the very hand that feeds him. Mr. Solzhenitsyn must well recall what happened when he shared similar thoughts in his former Soviet Union home.

But, let's look at the positive side: If nothing else, Mr. Sozhenitzyn's condemnation of many o our attitudes will serve to help and encourage us to exercise incisive introspection and self-analysis as the nation's 102nd birthday nears.

the United States facing possible contempt for refusing to disclose the names of confidential informants. The temptation, however, is there.

Precisely the battle that journalists have been fighting for years is now on the doorstep of Griffin Bell. By refusing to hear a case originating in New York City, the highest court in the land has said the names and files of 18 confidential informants for the FBI must be turned over to the lawyers for the Socialist Workers Party. The party and its youth affiliate, the Young Socialist Alliance, won the court order requiring disclosure as a part of its $40 million damage suit against the government and various agencies as a result of FBI activities aimed at disrupting the party over the past decade

Bell, as nominal head of the FBI, may be forced to decide between disclosure or disobeying a federal judge. There is really no choice. He must protect the sources of the FBI or face disastrous consequences. And welcome to the club,

In a society where millions of dollars have been spent to rescue a few coal miners trapped underground or to ransom a single hostage from a kidnepper, it's easy to argue that both the exigency warranted.

IN BRIEF

Committee Begins Drive To Cut Property Taxes

Miami (UPI) - A drive to obtain 256,000 signatures, to force a 50 percent slash in property tax millage rates throughout Florida, was launched Wednesday in Miami. The movement, organized by the Tax-Cap Committee of Broward County, seeks to put the issue on the ballot as a constitutional amendment in November.

To do so, it must obtain the 256,000 signatures by Aug. 9. The proposed amendment would slash property millage from 10 to 5 mills, limit tax increases to 2 percent, and require a twothirds vote in the House and Senate for all new taxes

Stuart Wants Plante Seat

ORLANDO (UPI) - City Commissioner George Stuart Jr., a Democrat, is expected to announce plans today to run for Republican Kenneth Plante's state Senate seat in November

The 32-year-old Stuart would become the third Democrat to enter the race for the seat held by Plante since 1967.

Rep. Bill Fulford, D-Orlando, and J. B. Rodgers, a Windermere attorney and former state senator, have already announced their intentions to run. The Sentinel Star reported Wednesday that were married June 23 at the Community United Methodist Church of Performing the candielight ceremony were Rev. J. Arthur Padgett of Casselberry and Rev William Pickett of Hyde Park United Methodist Church, Tampa.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. John P. Toole of Maitland, and the late Mr. Toole. The bridegroom is the son of Mr and Mrs. Richard C. Higley of Maitland. Given in marriage by her brother, John Randall, the bride chose a formal gown of ivory silk satin highlighted with reembroidered Alencon lace ind seed pearls. The fitted bodice featured a neckline of scalloped lace and the sheer fitted sleeves were of English net with appliques of the same lace. The skirt flowed from an empire waistline to form the chapel train.

A lace and pearl juliet cap secured her veil of illusion. Her only jewelry was a diamond and pearl lavaliere, a gift from the bridegroom which belonged to his paternal grandmother.

She carried a bouquet o orchids and roses attached to a Bible, a gift from a Herbert L. Bowdoin when

Abortions For Poor Women Argued in Appeals Court

TALLAHASSEE. (UPI) - The 1st District Court of Appeal has heard a challenge which poor women needing abortions hope will unfreeze state Medicaid funds.

Attorneys for the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services said there were no funds for purely elective abortions now that the federal government has quit providing matching funds

An American Civil Liberties Union attorney said in arguments Wednesday that the cutoff of federal funds did not eliminate the state's responsibility to pay for abortions which physicians deem medically necessary.

The state has been restricting them to those where the mother's life is endangered or the pregnancy resulted from rape or incest.

Sheriff's Action Studied

TITUSVILLE. (UPI) - Brevard-Seminole State Attorney Douglas Cheshire expected to receive today a report from the state Election Commission concluding Sheriff Rollin Zimmerman probably could be prosecuted for violations of Florida campaign

Until he studies the report, detailing alleged abuses by Zimmerman, 62, and some of his associates. Cheshire said he could not speculate on what action he would take.

Not until that package comes could I make a decision," Cheshire said. "First you examine, evaluate, and then you act."

Per Diem Crackdown

TALLAHASSEE. (UPI) - One Department of Commerce employee has been fired and another suspended in the continuing crackdown on abuse of state per diem covering travel expenses Assistant Commerce Secretary Chris

Williams said Wednesday Lee Ann Burgess, a tourism development administrator, was fired and Benjamin Edelen IV, the department' state-federal programs coordinator, suspended for 30 days.

Ms. Burgess, Williams said, claimed full per diem for trips to Madrid, Spain, Vancouver, British Columbia, and New Orleans even though charges for her rooms and some meals were included in convention registration fees

Political Revenge Victim?

TALLAHASSEE, (UPI) - Mrs. Mary Jane Coniglio, who was penalized two days pay for lying to cover up for her boss in an expense account scandal, says she is a victim of political revenge.

In an 11-page appeal to the Career Service Commission, Mrs. Coniglio said she has been deceived, used and abused as a person and as a secretary." She also contends her suspension was political revenge because her husband is an investigator for Comptroller Gerald Lewis whose auditing procedures turned up the travel expense account scandal in the Commerce Department.

Legalized Gambling Scored

ST. PETERSBURG BEACH. Lt. Gov. Jim Williams warned Wednesday that many tourists will seek family recreation elsewhere if casino gambling is legalized in

Williams, an Ocala businessman vying for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, made the remarks to the Florida Police Chiefs Casino gambling is a bad deal for Florida," Williams said. "Will casinos draw enough visitors to Florida to make up for those who will take their children elsewhere? I

As Governors Go, Askew...

TALLAHASSEE, (UPI) - As governor's go, Reubin Askew is not wealthy, but he has provided for a comfortable old age by buying into the elected state officer's retire-ment fund.

Askew put nearly $20,000 into the fund last une, increasing his total investment in the retirement system to $44,179, making it his

Some Teacher Pay, Fringes Withheld

By LEONARD KRANSDORF Herald Stall Writer

In a departure from previous procedure, the Seminole County School Board on a split vote has decided to withhold additional money and finge benefits for most employees pending adoption of a new contract. The affected employees are the approximately 2,739 emdrivers, non-instructional which are now negotiating contracts with the school board. Not affected by the new policy are the approximately 110 administrative staff employees who do not negotiate contracts. When the policy proposal arose at the Wednesday school board meeting Seminole Education Association (SEA) President Bill Moore noted:
