For 1976 Christmas Clubbers!
We've broken an old Christmas tradition, namely the practice of collecting Christmas savings without paying interest in return. A Scrooge-type tradition, if there ever was one!

We look at it this way: Christmas Club money should work as hard for you as any other kind of savings. After all, it takes as much will power for you to put it aside. And, since we invest it with the same care as other savings dollars, you should benefit from the earnings.

Welfare List Grows And Grows

A federal program which subsidizes mortgage payments for homeowners was suspended during the Nixon administration on grounds it was too costly and unworkable. With the homebuilding industry still bringing up the rear in recovery from recession, the Ford administration has now revived it, planning to put $264 million into mortgage interest subsidies. The aim is to help 250,000 Americans, earning up to $11,000 a year, buy a new or remodeled house.

Those 250,000 citizens will be added to an incredibly long list of recipients of financial assistance from their government. The Office of Management and Budget now publishes a "Catalogue of Federal Domestic Assistance" that is fatter than the Manhattan telephone book. It includes 1,009 federal programs administered by 54 different agencies which in one way or another help Americans pay their bills. As beneficiaries are not necessarily in an income bracket definable as poverty or a social group identifiable as poor.

Among the 1,009 federal assistance programs are scores which mean economic survival to those who receive federal funds, including the needy aged and disabled and families trapped in a cycle of poverty. There are also trust funds that must be returned to citizens.

But there are scores of others which veer widely from that concept and extend subsidies well into the realm of middle class America where people are able to look out for themselves. Many who are aghast at the spiraling growth of the federal budget may be overlooking the fact that "welfare" of one type or another is not going only to people on the other side of the tracks.

Economic Ills

Enough statistics have accumulated in recent months to convince the bulk of economists in the United States that the great recession which began late in 1973 has run its course. Industrial production continues to rise, automobile sales are improving and the most recent sampling of the gross national product—the output of goods and services—shows a healthy increase.

However, a good reassurance that one economic chapter has closed in the United States and another one has begun is found in semantics, as well as statistics.

The same administration figures who were eager to grasp at any straw to radiate optimism early this year are cautioning that we should not be too euphoric—that we should not read too much into the heady figures which promise more jobs and better prices.

Nevertheless there is an underlying confidence visible among the officials, just as American people are mirroring their faith in the economy.

The Americans who run our industries, for example, showed their confidence by increasing factory production by 1.9 per cent in September—the largest monthly increase in the last 11 years.

The Americans who act as middlemen to bring goods to the public have exhibited their confidence by slowing the liquidation of their inventories from $71 billion in April, May and June to $9 billion in July, August and September.

Most important, individual citizens in all walks of life demonstrated their confidence in the last three months by buying $9 billion more in necessities than they did in the previous quarter of a year.

The reason that the recession has ended is because the maker of goods, the seller and the buyer believe that the classic competitive American market system holds the answer to what ails the economy—and they are right.

One of the problems that America faces, however, is that Congress does not appear to have as much faith in the intrinsic strength of the capitalist system as its constituents do.

The liberal majority in Congress still is intent on treating the economy with the same massive doses of federal medicine as it did during the depth of the recession—excessive stimulation, controls, make work legislation and so forth. At the same time Congress is incurring massive federal budget deficits which drain money needed to create jobs from the private market.

Full health of the economy will occur only when Congress gets the message that the people of the United States have been trying to give it since April when the recovery began.

The theme for the 1975 Sanford Christmas Parade, scheduled for Dec. 4, has been established. And would you believe it was a nine-year-old who submitted the winning entry that decided the theme?

Keishann Washington, 1089 Strickland Ave., who is a fourth grader at All Souls School, suggested "The Spirit of Christmas, '75" for the theme and that was the one selected by chairman Fred Davis and his parade committee.

This year's parade will get under way at 7:30 p.m. By submitting the winning theme entry, young Keishann will receive a $25 U.S. Savings Bond. Congratulations young lady and thanks for a nice theme.

Raymond D. Swallow, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Swallow, 118 W 19th St., Sanford, was recently promoted to Chief Petty Officer, U.S.N., in ceremonies at the Pentagon, Washington, D.C.

Conducting the ceremonies was Lt. Gen. Maurice F. Casey, U.S.A.F., director for logistics, Organization of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. CPO Swallow is currently assigned to Lt. Gen.

Casey's staff as administrative-personnel manager of the directorate. He has been in his current assignment since April 14, 1972.

Chief Swallow's recent promotion was the direct result of the U.S. Navy's first selection board to hand pick individuals for promotion to CPO.

Chief Swallow entered the Navy on Sept. 7, 1965 and has previously served aboard the USS Austin (LPD-4), Fighter Squadron 101, and Patrol Squadron 24.

Fourteen scientists from various segments of Florida's $11 billion agricultural industry were honored in Orlando last week by the Florida State Horticultural Society for their outstanding research papers.

The awards were presented by Leon W. Miller, president of the society and production research manager for A. Dumas & Sons, Oviedo, who also presided over the three-day annual meeting of the society.

There will be games and rides for the youngsters, bingo and other games for adults and fast food service all day long, capped off with a roast beef dinner which carries a price tag of just $2.

Among other things featured at the Festival will be "Grandma's Attie," which will contain junk or objects of art, depending upon your semantics; a plant booth, boutique with fancy foods and Christmas cards, religious articles and home baked goodies, such as cakes, pies and cookies.

Ending five centuries of colonial rule, the last Portuguese troops sailed for Lisbon Monday night, leaving Luanda and central Angola under control of the Soviet-backed MPLA, the Popular Movement for the Liberation of Angola.

Troops of the rival FNLA, or National Front, which is supported by China and Zaire, were reported 12 miles north of the city. And a column of some 1,500 troops of the pro-Western National Union for the Total Independence of Angola, and of the FNLA were reported 50 miles to the south of the city.

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet government has decided to break diplomatic relations with Uganda temporarily because of "unfriendly actions which are insulting to the Soviet Union," Moscow radio announced today.

The break was Moscow's response to President Idi Amin's demand for Communist party chief Leonid I. Brezhnev to send a high-ranking emissary to Kampala with apologies to Soviet Ambassador Andrei Zakharov's attempt to enlist Amin's support for the MPLA, the nationalist movement in Angola that the Kremlin is backing in a civil war with two rival factions.

Although the Soviet Union is Amin's chief supplier of arms, he said Brezhnev's special envoy didn't arrive in his capital by tonight, he would expect the estimated 500 Soviet officials, technicians and advisers in Uganda by Friday. He also demanded Zakharov's recall.

MADRID, Spain (AP)—Gen. Francisco Franco has developed lung complications and medical sources said the symptoms could indicate the onset of bronchial pneumonia.

Information Minister Leon Herrera, reading to newsmen today the latest medical bulletin from the 82-year-old leader's doctors, reported that Franco had developed a lung edema and small congestive spots in his lungs four days after a major operation.

The new lung complications came only hours after doctors reported that he had stopped the general's artificial breathing apparatus because of difficulties in his breathing had eased.

Sanford: Albert R. Wapple, 204 Citrus Dr., Sanford, died Monday in a local hospital. Born in San Francisco, he came to Sanford in 1961. He was a retired professor of Texas A&M University, veteran of WWI, U.S. Army, and member of First United Methodist Church of Sanford and Association of America.

Sanford: H. R. Haldeman sent a message to the Justice Department urging that I be named for some crime, any crime. Officials who decided they might be able to make a case that would allow them to prosecute Haldeman, said they discussed a raid on my office but decided against it.

Sanford: My associate Les Whitten, in the act of helping to return documents stolen by militant Indians, was arrested on a Washington street by eight FBI agents. The charge against him: "possession of stolen goods." Assistant Attorney General Henry Petersen later acknowledged that they had expected to nab me. A federal grand jury, incidentally, refused to indict Whitten.

Sanford: On Oct. 19, 1972, President Nixon told aides at a meeting in the oval office: "We have got to get the goods on Jack Anderson." He instructed John Ehrlichman to call FBI chief J. Edgar Hoover and ask for any dirt the FBI might have on me.

Sanford: On March 18, 1972, White House Counsel John Dean delivered to the President an FBI summary of his Jack Anderson file. Nixon was so disappointed that he scribbled a handwritten "Dear Edg" note to the FBI director, asking for more details. Additional information was furnished.

Sanford: In March, 1972, the Justice Department's Internal Security Division, Republican National Committee, and the Committee to Reelect the President were enlisted in the campaign against me.

Sanford: In Summer, 1972, H. R. Haldeman sent a message to the Justice Department urging that I be named for some crime, any crime. Officials who decided they might be able to make a case that would allow them to prosecute Haldeman, said they discussed a raid on my office but decided against it.

Comatose Woman's Father May Appeal

MORRISTOWN, N.J. (AP)—One legal battle has been lost, but Joseph Quinan is thinking today about taking to a higher court his fight to let his daughter, Karen Anne, "pass into the hands of the Lord."

Karen, 21, slipped into a coma April 15 and has been sustained in a "persistent vegetative state" by a respirator ever since. On Monday a state judge ruled that the respirator must be disconnected.

Superior Court Judge Robert Muir Jr. said in his decision, "There is no constitutional right to die that can be asserted by a parent for his incompetent adult child."

Muir said the court is empowered to protect Karen's interests and decide "the determination whether or not Karen Anne Quinan be removed from the respirator is left to the treating physician. It is a medical decision, not a judicial one."

Karen's physicians opposed the family's request to unplug the respirator. "We're not 'surprised' and 'numb' words by Quinan to describe his reaction to the judge's decision.

"We know what she would say if she were here now," he said. "She'd say, 'Let's end all this. It's time for me to go home now on my Heavenly Father.'"

Quinan said he was still weighing whether to appeal the decision to higher courts and had not considered his other two children.

Julia Quinan, Karen's mother, said the legal proceedings were "something we felt we must do morally. We had already done everything medically and spiritually. So we had to take it to the courts."

"We'll still have the heartache and the anxiety," she said after Monday's ruling.

The Quinans filed a petition in Judge Muir's court in September asking that Quinan be appointed Karen's guardian and seeking the court's sanction for ordering her respirator disconnected.

In a 44-page decision, the judge said that Quinan's attorney, Paul W. Armstrong, failed to prove that the court should order Dr. Robert Morse, Miss Quinan's treating physician, to "shut off the respirator."

Muir disagreed with the state's rights to protect life, but said, noting that Armstrong conceded Miss Quinan "is by legal and medical definition alive."

Muir said that Armstrong's condition was not certain, although doctors suspected it was due to a combination of alcohol and tranquilizers which she took the night she fell ill.

Armstrong had claimed there were constitutional grounds for granting the Quinans' petition. Karen's constitutional rights to privacy and self-determination should be weighed against the state's rights to protect life, Muir said, noting that Armstrong conceded Miss Quinan "is by legal and medical definition alive."

Carey Proposes Sales Tax Hike To Aid New York

NEW YORK (AP)—Gov. Hugh Carey has stiched together a complex new proposal involving new state and city taxes and help from banks and the federal government—to keep New York City from default and stabilize the state's own shaky finances.

New York City residents, who already have the highest sales taxes in the country, would be faced with a one-cent sales tax increase, to nine cents on the dollar.

As state officials worked on the plan Monday, Deputy White House Press Secretary William Greener repeated President Ford's promise to veto the bill.

But Greener referred to loan guarantee legislation before Congress "as presently being considered today."

The new Carey plan would reduce the federal loan guarantee previously sought by the city to $1.5 billion to $2 billion.

To make up the difference, the plan would require heavy support from banks, other investors and taxpayers.

The cash-stricken city once again avoided default Monday, meeting $27.7 million in obligations with funds from various sources, including the sale of state-backed bonds to the State Insurance Fund.

Ford, meanwhile, met with five Senate Democratic leaders to discuss a Senate proposal to provide $1-billion in federal loan guarantees.

Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., chairman of the Senate Banking Committee, said Ford indicated he wanted to do everything possible to help the city but that he still is opposed to federal loan guarantees.

The House Ways and Means Committee begins consideration today of a bill to provide the city with $7 billion in loan guarantees. Speaker Carl Albert, D-Kan., said he expects the House to vote on the bill next Monday.

Details of the new Carey plan have not been made public, but The Associated Press learned it includes a one-cent increase in the city sales tax. The current city sales tax is 4 per cent, which combines with a state sales tax of 4 per cent to add 8 cents to the cost of purchasing $1 worth of most goods in the city.

The one-cent increase in the city sales tax would average $100 million a year, through a 20 per cent increase in the state sales tax. In addition, state taxes on corporations and banks would be raised by $15 million this fiscal year, through a 20 per cent surcharge on the corporate franchise tax and the extension to update banks of a tax increase imposed on the city banks earlier this year.

The state taxes would not be used to aid the city, but instead to help close a state budget deficit which Carey estimates at $800 million

Miss Teenage Orlando, Cindy Scott, receives traditional Oklahoma welcome.

Orlando Teen Queen In National Contest

TULSA, Okla.—Cynthia Ann Tiffany Scott, Miss Teenage Orlando, arrived here Friday amid fanfare of bands and a typical Oklahoma welcome—Indians in full dance regalia. Happy with the thought of perhaps taking home a $10,000 scholarship, she spent much of the day getting acquainted with 45 other candidates competing for the title of Miss Teenage America. The young women have come from cities across the nation, plus one from Barbos, Canal Zone, and another from Mannheim, Germany. The latter two were eligible as Americans whose parents have overseas jobs. All contestants were welcomed at the airport by a dance post, all members of the Indian National Council of Boy Scouts of America. The post includes both boys and girls. All were escorted befitting the occasion.

Bargello Bands Decorate With Bright Yule Cheer

As Christmas draws close, don't you begin to feel you're in a race with time? Certainly every minute that can be spent working on gifts is a boon to the needle artist. Which is why small, portable canvas bands worked in Bargello are such a delight. Bargello belts have come to be a highly coveted "status" gift for both men and women. Before starting one, make sure of the waist measurements and allow for the fact that stitching seems to draw the canvas in. Not every Bargello design is suitable for a belt. I think one that makes a handsome belt pattern for a man is the Chevron design in my book "Bargello," while "Flower Medallion," with its small flower centers worked in petit point, is a lovely choice for a woman. Consider stripes, the rainbow of Spiral Bands and the smooth satin effect of Hungarian border—all good belt patterns. With a little bit of imagination you'll find needlepoint canvas lends themselves to a variety of other uses. A friend of mine, Joy Steiner of Pebble Beach, Calif., came up with a wonderfully creative idea. She worked a narrow strip of Bargello, originally intended for a mini-bellpull. It's now hanging in the kitchen of my

League Proposes Judge Selection Be On Merit

"The time has come to work for the merit selection of judges in Florida," according to Mrs. Elizabeth Metcalf, state president of the League of Women Voters of Florida. "Our members, throughout the state are studying the issues involved and are resolved to create a climate of acceptance of the idea among the people. The harder task," she continued "is to convince the legislature. Legislation was introduced in the 1973 Legislature, but did not pass. Mrs. Metcalf would like to see the 1976 Legislature take action to pass an appropriate bill for the selection of judges on a merit basis. Merit selection has already been adopted by twenty-two states, including Missouri, Colorado, California, Arizona, and Tennessee. "Florida should join this growing number of states," said Mrs. Metcalf. "We, too, should upgrade our judiciary by taking campaign politics out of the courtroom," she said. It is the feeling of Leagues throughout the state who are studying the issue that the change would not be so great in Florida since we already have a merit selection process for vacancies. There are now

No Apologies Needed

"Oh, I'm just a housewife." Generally this remark is made in a self-deprecating tone, almost apologetically. As if the speaker were of no great consequence. Instead, according to June Gordon, coordinator of Seminole Community College's Project 21st Century Woman, the American housewife should announce herself with pride. Interesting statistics collected by a Gordon prove it. After all, women who work fulltime as homemakers average 53 hours of household or family work per week. Almost 22 million women spend an average nine hours per week doing volunteer work. Women who are both homemakers and employed have a special set of problems, including a 66 to 70 hour combined week. Neither household nor volunteer work is included in economic indicators or productivity such as the gross national product. Working women who are also the heads of single-parent families in the U.S. number 6.8 million. The 43 million women who are fulltime homemakers are not counted or treated as part of the labor force. Chase Manhattan Bank study, according to a Chase Manhattan Bank study, it worth $100 a year (on a prorated basis for an "average" family size). If each "average" homemaker were paid a minimum wage of $2.10 per hour (no overtime or pro-rate for specialized work such as nursing and handling household accounts) she would earn a minimum of $5,707.60 per year (based on a 53-hour week, 52 weeks a year).

School of Needle Art doing duty as a plant holder and makes a distinctive and unusual setting for an old brass teapot filled with fern. This is the kind of gift green-thumb friends on your Christmas list would treasure. I've also seen narrow bands of Bargello used for napkin rings, curtain tiebacks or applied with great decorative flair as a trim on lampshades. Never underestimate the importance of design in a small piece. Take the time to choose a handsome repeat.

Take Back Seat If In Law's With Driver

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN DEAR ABBY: I have a problem with my mother-in-law. She and my husband believe that it is a matter of "respect" to let her sit in the front next to her son when we're in the car together. Of course that means I have to sit in the back. I have tried to tell my husband that this has nothing to do with respect and that I should sit next to him. It burns me up, and they both know it. His mother is 47 and has no disabilities, so there is no good reason for her to sit next to my husband. I always thought that once married, your spouse becomes the most important person in your life and his family comes next. It's gotten to the point where if his mother is going along, I just refuse to go. She doesn't drive and won't learn, so you can see that this poses a big car problem. There is no way talking to her because she already knows how I feel. She just thinks I should show her respect and get in the back. What do you think is the respectable and proper thing to do? MISERABLE IN BACK DEAR MISERABLE: When you push comes to shove, you should defer to her, not because your husband wants you to, but because she is your elder. Even though she should not have demanded to sit next to her son, since she did, you should have yielded gracefully. Refusing to go along is childish. Kneecut it.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 72-year-old widow. I am very active, and believe me, I have all my buttons. My single daughter, Donna, and I live together. I like people, but my oldest daughter, who is married and lives happily with her husband told me that when Donna has company, I should excuse myself and give Donna and her husband privacy. This house is half mine.

Tonight's Southern title bout at the Orlando Sports Stadium between the champion, Victor "Taco" Perez and his challenger, Killer Ellis, took on added interest in the weekend, when it was announced the winner will fight Mad Dog Ross Dec. 2. A Perez-Ross fight has been in the making ever since Taco won his title in August by stopping Joe Vincent.

Before promoter Pete Ashlock goes out and starts printing the tickets for a Perez-Ross battle, he is waiting for the outcome of tonight's bout. According to Ellis, I know that Ashlock is figuring on a Perez-Ross fight but he is in a bit of a shock tonight. I want Ross to be in good health after being hampered by injuries in the past few campaigns. Morris says he is not accorded the respect he deserves for his ability.

"I'm being systematically eliminated from the off-foes," Morris said after the Dolphins whipped the New York Jets 27-7 Sunday to raise their NFL record to 7-1. "Every time I turn around, I'm coming out of the gate."

Morris carried only four times for nine yards. His alternate, Benny Malone, rushed for 60 yards and one touchdown in 13 attempts. "I want to be traded," Morris said, "hopefully to a team with the second-best offensive line in football. The best one is here."

Coach Don Shula, who received Morris' message from an intermediary, replied with a touch of anger: "If Morris wants to play for somebody else, I'll try to help him."

Morris and Shula said, separately, they respected each other and intended no malice. But the situation made for another delicate problem in a Super Bowl VI in 1972. Morris then publicly beefed about being benched in Miami's 24-3 loss to Dallas. Shula was reminded of it Sunday but shrugged it off.

"Big deal," he said. "What did he do wrong? Nothing. He just complained because he wasn't playing. He didn't attack me personally."

Two weeks ago, Morris was second in the American Football Conference in rushing, behind Buffalo's O.J. Simpson. Despite only 42 yards on 17 carries in the last two games, he remains third in the AFC rushing race.

Morris has had high games of 125 yards against Green Bay, 114 against the Jets in New York and 124 against Buffalo while Malone was injured the season's first six games. But Malone came back with a flourish two Sundays ago against Chicago, running six times for 45 yards and one touchdown.

"I'm thankful for the five years under Shula," Morris said. "We've got a great team and we're going to be here next year."

NEW YORK (AP)—It hasn't been the most successful year for the Hawks, but there was good news Monday. The National Basketball Association's Board of Governors voted to reduce by $150,000 a fine levied against the Hawks for signing Julius Erving.

Atlanta signed the star forward three years ago, ignoring the fact that he was drafted by the Milwaukee Bucks. Erving played two exhibition games with the club in 1972 but eventually wound up with the New York Nets of the American Basketball Association.

Last June, the Board lowered the boom on the Hawks, ruling they had to pay the league $250,000 and the Bucks $150,000, in addition to surrendering their two second-round draft choices next year to Milwaukee. The Board also ruled that if Erving ever joins the NBA, he must go with Milwaukee.

But the Hawks, who lost both their top draft choices—David Thompson and Marvin Webster—to the ABA, have been suffering at the gate, so the Board decided they only have to pay the league $100,000 instead of $250,000.

Golden Age Olympics: It's Full Steam Ahead

A 67-year-old table tennis whiz set the pace and a 68-year-old pool shooter kept it Monday in the opening round of the Golden Age Olympics, a saga of varied athletic competition for senior citizens and building up for a grand finale Saturday.

The week-long games being staged in Sanford will find gold, silver and bronze awards being awarded to the first, second and third place finishers. It didn't take long for Emilie Johnson, the table tennis expert, to cruise through three rounds and easily defeat all comers. His winning margins were by 21-15, 21-9 and 21-12 over George Billups, Bob Steele and Rev. Leo King, respectively.

Johnson is from Edgewater, King was third. In billiards, the champion was Charles Schwartz of DeBary. Schwartz defeated

Ernest Walsko in the finals, and Walsko reached the finals by whipping Frank Leary and George Billups. Billups finished third.

Action continues each day this week. Bowling, bridge, canasta, ceramics and pancake race are on today's agenda.

The highlight of the week will come Saturday night at the awards ceremony-dance at the Civic Center.

Thursday's schedule include judging of horticulture entries at 9 in the Garden Club with entries on view Friday from 10-4 and Saturday from 10-1.

Action at the checkers table was considerably slower, but more mind-boggling. King of the board was Robert Steel of Sanford. Second was Stella Picard, also of Sanford, while Margaret Ulmer of Lake Mary was third.

In dominoes, action was also furious. Curtis Finlayson took first place. Runnerup was Edith Harrison and Mary Leary took third. All three are from Sanford.

According to Ellis, I know that Ashlock is figuring on a Perez-Ross fight but he is in a bit of a shock tonight. I want Ross to be in good health after being hampered by injuries in the past few campaigns. Morris says he is not accorded the respect he deserves for his ability.

"I'm being systematically eliminated from the off-foes," Morris said after the Dolphins whipped the New York Jets 27-7 Sunday to raise their NFL record to 7-1. "Every time I turn around, I'm coming out of the gate."

Morris carried only four times for nine yards. His alternate, Benny Malone, rushed for 60 yards and one touchdown in 13 attempts. "I want to be traded," Morris said, "hopefully to a team with the second-best offensive line in football. The best one is here."

Coach Don Shula, who received Morris' message from an intermediary, replied with a touch of anger: "If Morris wants to play for somebody else, I'll try to help him."

Morris and Shula said, separately, they respected each other and intended no malice. But the situation made for another delicate problem in a Super Bowl VI in 1972. Morris then publicly beefed about being benched in Miami's 24-3 loss to Dallas. Shula was reminded of it Sunday but shrugged it off.

"Big deal," he said. "What did he do wrong? Nothing. He just complained because he wasn't playing. He didn't attack me personally."

Two weeks ago, Morris was second in the American Football Conference in rushing, behind Buffalo's O.J. Simpson. Despite only 42 yards on 17 carries in the last two games, he remains third in the AFC rushing race.

Morris has had high games of 125 yards against Green Bay, 114 against the Jets in New York and 124 against Buffalo while Malone was injured the season's first six games. But Malone came back with a flourish two Sundays ago against Chicago, running six times for 45 yards and one touchdown.

"I'm thankful for the five years under Shula," Morris said. "We've got a great team and we're going to be here next year."

NEW YORK (AP)—It hasn't been the most successful year for the Hawks, but there was good news Monday. The National Basketball Association's Board of Governors voted to reduce by $150,000 a fine levied against the Hawks for signing Julius Erving.

Atlanta signed the star forward three years ago, ignoring the fact that he was drafted by the Milwaukee Bucks. Erving played two exhibition games with the club in 1972 but eventually wound up with the New York Nets of the American Basketball Association.

Last June, the Board lowered the boom on the Hawks, ruling they had to pay the league $250,000 and the Bucks $150,000, in addition to surrendering their two second-round draft choices next year to Milwaukee. The Board also ruled that if Erving ever joins the NBA, he must go with Milwaukee.

But the Hawks, who lost both their top draft choices—David Thompson and Marvin Webster—to the ABA, have been suffering at the gate, so the Board decided they only have to pay the league $100,000 instead of $250,000.

Morris Singing 'Trade' Blues

MIAMI (AP)—Mercury Morris, the Miami Dolphins' swift, $100,000-a-year running back, is frustrated again and says he wants to play more or be traded to another National Football League team.

Finally in good health after being hampered by injuries in the past few campaigns, Morris says he is not accorded the respect he deserves for his ability.

"I'm being systematically eliminated from the off-foes," Morris said after the Dolphins whipped the New York Jets 27-7 Sunday to raise their NFL record to 7-1. "Every time I turn around, I'm coming out of the gate."

Wedding Time Is Corrected

The wedding of Margaret Clementia LaFila, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert LaFila of Sanford, and Patrick Smith, son of Mrs. Lois Dreggost of Sanford and James D. Smith of Miami will be held Dec. 6 at 4 p.m. (not 1 p.m. as stated in The Herald, Nov. 9) in All Souls Catholic Church, Sanford.

Club Notes

Reservations are limited and may be made by calling either Mrs. Loeb or Sylvia Solomon.

The members of the Norman Devere Howard Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy (UDC) were entertained by their recent guest speaker, Mrs. Barbara Muller, music teacher at Sanford Community College, who gave them an account of her trip to Pennsylvania in search of folk lore.

The event will take place on Friday at 3:30 p.m. at the East End of Fort Mellon Park. The public is invited to attend.

It's Nebraska's Turn To Chase Ohio State

By The Associated Press
That Ohio State is still in No. 1 college football team in the nation isn't exactly a shocker. It's who's chasing the Buckeyes that makes the news.

It's not Oklahoma, that's for sure. Fate, hard luck, that's called it all what you wish - finally caught up with the defending national champion Sooners last Saturday and dropped last from the runner-up role.

Now it's the Nebraska Cornhuskers who own second place. And what was a tight battle for first place in The Associated Press poll has become a comfortable cushion for Ohio State.

A week ago, Coach Woody Hayes' troops held a slender 4-point edge over Oklahoma in the balloting. Now, owing to the 58 first-place votes cast by the nationwide panel of sports writers and broadcasters and a holding total of 1,138 points, the margin over Nebraska is a more secure 84 points.

OSU's 463 total of Illinois helped - but more help came from Kansas' 233 upset of the Sooners. That dropped Oklahoma down from second to sixth place in the poll. And it enabled the Jayhawks to sneak into 17th place in the poll, the first time all season they've been in the Top Twenty.

Nebraska, which received eight first-place votes and 1,054 points, moved from third to second by virtue of its 12-0 whitewash of Kansas State. Texas A&M's Aggies, who received one first-place vote, also moved up a notch to third with 873 points following a 35-3 romp over Southern Methodist.

Michigan's Wolverines, sixth

a week ago, clawed their way into fourth by ripping Purdue 28-0 and, for their efforts, receiving 721 votes. Alabama's previously unbeaten Aztecs climbed from ninth to 12th with 206 points.

Southern California got a new head coach for next season in John Robinson. But the Trojans, with John McKay still at the helm, lost for the second straight week, falling to Stanford and falling from ninth to 13th with 186 points.

Rounding out the Top 20 were

Ten, starting off the Second Ten with 214 points following its 15-14 upset loss to North Carolina State. Arizona's Wildcats knocked off San Diego State's previously unbeaten Aztecs and climbed from ninth to 12th with 206 points.

Florida, down from 11th 14th with 111 points; California, up from 18th to 15th with 107; Miami of Ohio up from 17th to 16th with 85; Missouri up one spot to 18th with 81; UCLA, rejoining the Top Twenty in 19th with 50 points after a one-week absence from the poll, and Georgia, another first-timer this season with 47 points for 20th.

San Diego State, 13th a week ago, Maryland, 16th last week, and Pitt, 20th in the previous balloting, fell out of the Top Twenty.

SPORTS IN BRIEF

Robinson Replaces McKay

As USC Grid Machine Coach

LOS ANGELES (AP) - The University of Southern California is counting on a former Oregon coach, John Robinson, to replace a former Oregon halfback and bring further football glory to the Trojans.

Robinson, 40, whose career nearly parallels that of John McKay despite an intervening decade, will head the Southern Cal football fortunes in 1976 when McKay goes to the professional ranks.

Robinson, a former Southern Cal assistant coach, faces a tough assignment. He replaces a man who has coached more USC victories than any other and gone to the Rose Bowl on eight occasions, winning four.

One big difference is that Robinson is leaving the professional ranks with the Oakland Raiders, to return to the collegians. McKay is making his first try at the National Football League in coaching the new Tampa franchise that began next year.

Vandy's Fred Fisher Named Southeastern Back Of Week

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) - "Fred Fisher perhaps did one of the finest exhibitions of execution that I have ever seen," Kentucky Coach Fran Curci said after the Vanderbilt quarterback sparked a 12-3 victory Saturday over the Wildcats.

"He was fantastic," Curci said. "He really picked us apart."

Fisher completed 12 of 20 passes for 129 yards and one touchdown as Vandy, a 10-point underdog, won its second straight game and moved

Former Sprinter Metcalfe Helps Olympic House

NEW YORK (AP) - Ralph Metcalfe, the old Olympic sprinter, is letting his cushioned seat get cold in the House of Representatives down in Washington, D.C., but he's making no apologies.

He feels he is on a more important mission.

"The President called us together and said he wanted us to get our Olympic house in order for the 1976 Games," the Illinois congressman said Monday. "I think the job I am doing here is very important."

"After all, sports and life are the same. They involve respect for one another. They teach us to learn to accept defeat with dignity and victory with humility."

Metcalfe is a member of the Olympic House, a committee headed by Gerald B. Zornow and including personalities from Congress and sports, heard Philip O. Krump, president of the U.S. Olympic Committee, other top USOC officials and West Germany's Willi Daume in the opening session Monday.

Today Walter Byers, executive director of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, leads a panel of witnesses to stand. The NCAA pulled out of the Olympic movement in a half after the 1972 Olympics in Munich and Byers has been strongly critical of the Olympic operations.

"I am sure there will be federal legislation of some sort," Metcalfe said during a break in the proceedings. "That's the reason the President got this group together."

"I think there will have to be a new definition of amateurism. We must put more emphasis on the so-called minor sports. We

Gulfstream Files Petition

TALLAHASSEE (AP) - The head of Gulfstream Park says he will petition the Florida Supreme Court for a rehearing on its ruling that allows financially ailing Hialeah Park to keep the lucrative midwinter horse-racing dates.

Gulfstream President Jimmy Dorn Jr. said Monday he would appeal by Nov. 17 the court's refusal to hear Gulfstream's appeal of a lower court ruling that the Board of Business Regulation acted properly in awarding the tourist dates to Hialeah.

Until the board granted Hialeah the Jan. 16-March 2 dates last May on a 3-2 vote, the choice dates rotated between Hialeah and Gulfstream. In a 3-2 vote, the lower court said the appeal of the 1st District Court of Appeal order failed to meet requirements for Supreme Court consideration.

Bulldogs' Tight-End Passing Star Named SE Top Lineman

ATLANTA (AP) - Georgia tight-end Richard Appleby was named Southeastern Conference's top lineman for the week.

The 210-pound senior from Athens had attempted only two passes in his football career and both of those were intercepted.

What Is This, Anyway, Hockey Or Roller Derby?

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Players in the National Hockey League skate with one eye on the opposition and one on the local civil courts. The Philadelphia Flyers skate part of the time and wreak havoc the rest of it.

And amid growing violence in the NHL, violence that threatens to give the sport the credibility of roller derby or professional wrestling, President Richard Nixon's attorney, Clarence Campbell appears unwilling - or unable - to use the police powers he has.

The Flyers, known as the "Broad Street Bullies" partly because of their physical game but more so because of the goon-squad tactics they occasionally employ, triggered another on-ice Sunday night in Philadelphia.

Defenceman Jack McHughery received an automatic ongame suspension Monday after leading one of Philadelphia's patented bench-clearing charges that resulted

Hunt's Tuxedo Feed Store Sanford's Oldest And Best

THE FRIENDLY FOLKS AT HUNT'S TUXEDO FEED STORE

Hunt's Tuxedo Feed Store, Sanford's oldest and best, has been in the same location under the same name since 1941. Joe Duggar and his wife, Margaret, purchased the business in 1972 after having worked there six years.

Hunt's, located at the corner of 2nd St. and Sanford Ave., in Sanford, is known for giving "courtesy to all." Joe is ably assisted by Wayne Rumlter, Mike Bronson and Steve Phillips who are all experienced, knowledgeable and ready to advise the experienced farmer as well as explain to the amateur gardener basic requirements for a successful garden. Duggar was born and raised in Sanford and is familiar with the need and wants of area residents.

Hunt's has been busy getting ready for the Christmas season by stocking their shelves with lots of helpful appreciated gifts. Gardening equipment is always a welcome gift for those with a green thumb or for those whose thumbs are not so green. Hunt's carries a full line of garden tools and supplies. Farm type hardware, fencing, tools and hay are just some of the supplies available. Hunt's has kept the horse lover in mind for Christmas. Beautiful horse statues, tac, supplies and medication to keep your animals healthy, contented and handsome are all available at Hunt's.

For the larger farm animals, Hunt's has a full stock of feed and vaccine. Hunt's is the complete store for anyone who owns a dog, cat, rabbit, guinea pig or milk.

Hunt's is housed in a building which has enough floor space to enable them to remain well stocked, and so they are able to provide customers with one stop shopping. If you find your order too bulky to fit into your gas saving compact, deliveries are made anywhere in the areas of Sanford, Longwood, Altamonte Springs, Geneva, Winter Springs, Lake Mary and Lake Monroe.

For Christmas or any time, farmers, gardeners, home owners and pet lovers will find that the "courtesy for all" at Hunt's Tuxedo Feed Store applies to you too. The people at Hunt's are ready, willing and able to assist you. — ADV.

Gifts By Nan Moves Up - To Downtown

Gifts By Nan, the shop that specializes in unusual gifts for special people and special occasions has moved up to downtown. The new location is 228 First St., Sanford, next to the public library.

Needing more space for her expanding business, Nelle Coleman has moved her shop from its former space in her husband's Galor Ace Hardware store, to the new, spacious convenient location in downtown Sanford.

Featuring "gifts for every occasion" Gifts By Nan is a complete gift shop; one it is a pleasure to browse through. Nelle carries Mediterranean and Early American decorator pieces such as candleabras, sconces, ornaments and center pieces made of wrought iron which are just perfect to enhance any Spanish or Mediterranean decor. Early American decorator items are wood items by Maleck which are made out of pine from the woods of North Carolina, including tool racks, napkin holders, spice racks, planters, etc. There are great knock knacks for living rooms, kitchens, bathrooms, any room in your home.

Plants can be both decorative and beautiful, so show them off to their fullest by planting them in the beautiful vivid pots Nelle carries. Some come in sets of three, adorned with beautiful butterflies. These can be hung separately or together for an unusual effect.

Other goodies to spruce up any home include wall plaques, mirrors, wood complexes, napkins, salad bowls, place mats, crock pots in various sizes, recipe files (single, double and triple), a good collection of Haeger Pottery, poppicle sticks, steak knives, candles by Caroline and Emkay, coffee mugs, vases, containers, costume jewelry things too numerous to mention.

Brides should register their china, crystal, flatware and other selections with Gifts By Nan. Brides will delight in the beautiful china by Liffon, Franciscan, Independence, Mikasa, Pfaltzgraf Stoneware and Fosterle Crystal and glassware are available in plentiful array. Glassware is by Viking, Blenko, Fenton, L. Smith and others. Nelle's crystal is both cut and pressed. She carries Onoda stainless steel and some silver pieces, and some stainless steel by Svend Jensen.

Gifts By Nan has a rental service for parties which includes the crystal, plates and punch bowls. There are also delightful party and cocktail napkins that are entertaining by themselves.

With Christmas coming soon, a fine gift for discriminating people is a "Christmas Plate." Gifts By Nan carries a limited edition of collector's plates by Svend Jensen; the Copenhagen plates. Another delightful gift idea is a beautiful delicate figurine from Spain and Germany.

In line with her expanded shop area, Nelle has also expanded her personnel. Ruby King, Stephanie Morton and Marly Perkins are assisting her in serving the customers, with Sharon Gibson coming in at Christmas time.

So make your Christmas shopping easier and more satisfying this year by doing it at Gifts By Nan. Stop in and see Nelle and her staff at their new downtown location next to the library. They'll be glad to help you with gift ideas and suggestions which will make your shopping a pleasure. — ADV.

For Learning Through Experience It's A Baby's World

A new daycare center has opened in Sanford which is not simply a baby sitting service, but provides rather for the total development of the child; broadening his physical, mental, emotional and social senses. A Baby's World is a first for Sanford and Seminole County.

A Baby's World is a branch of Childs World; an established daycare center which accepts children between the ages of two and six. By having separate facilities, a child's individual needs and educational attainments can be met with the fullest. The value of early childhood training cannot be underestimated when one considers that the most important formative years are up to two years of age. This exclusive daycare center is a first for Sanford and Seminole County.

The owner of these unique centers is Mary Self who is an experienced, certified teacher. She explains that A Baby's World will provide for the development of your child through experiences and activities which encourage creativity and self concepts as the child learns about himself and his environment. Children will enjoy finger and brush painting, rhythmic movements, singing and recognition of shapes and colors.

Why not let A Baby's World show you what a wonderful experience daycare centers can be. They believe that each child should be given the opportunity to develop in his fullest right as an individual. A Baby's World maintains the highest professional standards at prices working parents can afford.

A Baby's World will be open Monday through Saturday 6:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Child care is also provided on Friday and Saturday nights from 3:30 p.m. till 1:00 a.m. To pre-register before the fall rush, call 322-6445 or visit at 803 E. 23th St., Sanford. (Next door to the new Drivers License Bureau)

If you're a working parent, you can put your mind at ease if your child is in the hands of Mary Self and A Baby's World. — ADV.
