County In Sound Financial Shape, Krider Reports

Seminole County is in "sound" financial shape with over $400,000 left over from last year's budget, County Commission Chairman John Krider said today.

"Anyone who is under the impression that the financial situation here is serious is under a false misapprehension," Krider said.

"Thanks to the good job done by former county clerk O. P. Herndon we have anticipated any financial problems that might arise and are in such good shape that we won't need any tax money until Jan. 1."

According to figures released today from Krider, there is $200,000 left from the general operating fund, $18,000 from the fine and forfeiture fund and $100,000 from the road and bridge fund.

"We have plenty of cash to operate and enough money in our operating fund to handle any emergency that should arise," Krider emphasized, adding, "even though we will have no money coming in November and December."

"The millage will be higher than 11 mills when the equalization board meets and reminded citizens that the millage last year was 41.5."

Pointing to this year's budget, Krider said $105,300 has been set aside under capital outlay for a new jail but estimated that indications are that the jail will not cost over $700,000.

This year's total budget will be $670,942.81 in the general operating fund with $23,000 going for fine and forfeiture.

He said money to go toward a new health center to be built next year has already been set aside from last year's budget with the county paying $65,528 with matching funds from the federal government.

Added Concert Members Asked

The Skelton Glee Club concert was attended by an estimated 500 people last night at the Sanford-Deberry Entertainment Assn. made final effort to insure continuation of the planned series.

The association wound up its ticket campaign with about 200 more members needed to underwrite completely the proposed schedule of concerts. Don Thompson, ticket sale chairman, explained to the audience last night that a choice should be made as to whether further efforts to get members should be made.

Application blanks were distributed and each person asked to get a new member. The applications and payment for the tickets are to be mailed or delivered to "Concerts" in care of the Sanford Atlantic or Florida State Banks by Dec. 5.

Next concert on the proposed series is the Florida Symphony on Feb. 5.

Steel Bargaining Future Is Bleak

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Informed union sources said today there was no chance of any real bargaining in the steel dispute until after New Year's Day.

Control Of TV May Be Necessary

CHICAGO (UPI) — Federal Communications Commission Chairman John C. Doerfer warned today that Congress will impose "narrow government controls" unless broadcasters quickly eliminate deceptive radio-TV commercials and programs.

Doerfer also said the FCC might not renew the licenses of stations that showed continued "insensitivity to distinction between good and bad taste" in commercials.

He told the annual meeting of the Television Bureau of Advertising that a self-policing system by broadcasters, sponsors and advertising agencies was much preferable to "the obnoxious element of censorship" by the government.

Doerfer also said the FCC might not renew the licenses of stations that showed continued "insensitivity to distinction between good and bad taste" in commercials.

Council To Meet At Casselberry

Casselberry's Town Council will hold a recessed meeting of the regular Nov. 9 session at the town hall Monday at 3 p. m. The town hall will be opened from 8-10 p. m. for voting registration. Town Clerk Lillian Vossler announced.

Women's Golf Tournaments Set

The Sanford Women's Golf Association will hold a special tournament Sunday at 1 p. m.

Point system will be used in the tournament with pairings to be announced before the play gets underway.

At a meeting of the group this week plans were also discussed for a "get acquainted" tournament Dec. 2 and winners in previous golf tournaments were announced.

In a journey held Oct. 28, Augie Russell took first in the Class A competition while Hazel Burgo captured the Class B crown and Jane McKibben, Class C.

In the Nov. 4 tourney, Helen Carroway captured Class A honors while Mildred Smith was first in Class B and Harriett Williams in Class C.

The next Wednesday tournament will include a low gross on a par three hole feature. Drawings for the teams for the Dec. 7 competition will be announced Monday.

50 Floats, 20 March Units Scheduled For Parade Of 'Christmas Dreams'

Some 50 floats will be entered in the Christmas parade Dec. 4, Jaycee parade chairman Jack Wilber said today.

Wilber also said that, although the float deadline is past, entries will be accepted until next Friday.

A total of 20 marching bands and units will be in the parade and the Jaycee committee is working to get Marine and Coast Guard units from the Sanford Naval Air Station to participate in the parade.

The theme of this year's parade is "Christmas Dreams" and it will feature floats from business, school, civic and church groups.

Prizes and trophies will be awarded to first and second place winners in each category.

The warehouse at San Juan Ave. and First St. will be open at all hours for sponsors to work on their floats.

Among the marching bands entered in this year's parade will be Seminole High School and Junior High School, Lyman, Bishop Moore, DeLand High School, Crooms Academy, Phillips Wheatley School, Florida Military School, Eustis, Leesburg, Mt. Dora, Winter Garden and Winter Park schools.

The Baptist pastor who earlier announced he would run on a segregation platform, said the state should tap gamblers for a tax source since gambling already exists in an illegal form.

The extra revenue, he said, could be used to support welfare programs and education.

Downs said his plan would be similar to the county option program now in effect which allows counties to decide by referendum if they want legal liquor sales.

It is better to have illegal gambling through the state as it now exists with all its evil influences and hoodlums, or to let it be under control and derive some benefit from it," he asked.

Chief's Group Sponsors Scouts

The Sanford Naval Air Station Chief Petty Officers Club is sponsoring an Explorer scout unit at the station for the youth of the Sanford area, started Monday at 7:30 p. m.

The meeting is open to all young men and adults interested and clearance will be arranged at the main gate for the civilian guests.

Baby Believed To Be Doll Dies In 2 Story Fall

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (UPI) — Mrs. Marjorie Sweeten, her family's nightgown in flames, tossed her three-month-old baby to his death today from the second floor of an apartment house engulfed by fire.

A fireman caught her other child, but bystanders thought the baby, Charles, was a doll she was trying to save. He landed on his head on a concrete pavement.

The charred body of a man was found in the gutted 32 apartment white frame building. He was not immediately identified.

Charles Harmon, 17, and a service station operator were credited with saving the lives of other tenants. They noticed the flames and rushed into the building beating on doors to awaken slumbering residents.

Harmon said he saw Mrs. Sweeten, 19, and her husband, Charles, appear at the second-story window with their children. He said the father threw their 2-year-old son out first.

"Then she tried to toss the baby out of the window," Harmon said. "But she kinda tripped or stumbled, and it didn't go the way she wanted. I thought it was a doll at first. I didn't know it was a baby."

"I walked up to it and noticed it was a small child. I thought it was dead. But when I turned it over on its stomach, it started breathing again."

The baby was rushed to a hospital, but died shortly after the fall.

Mrs. Sweeten fell from the window as she tried to throw her child to safety. She landed on her back. A hospital spokesman said she was in satisfactory condition. Her husband climbed down a ladder to safety.

Minister Urges Legal Gambling

WINTER PARK (UPI) — Baptist Minister George A. Downs, a candidate for governor, has called for legalized gambling to boost state revenue.

Downs said he will go to Las Vegas, Nev., soon to determine what effects, if any, are brought about by state controlled gambling casinos.

The Baptist pastor who earlier announced he would run on a segregation platform, said the state should tap gamblers for a tax source since gambling already exists in an illegal form.

The extra revenue, he said, could be used to support welfare programs and education.

Seminole Circuit To Get Two More Judges Soon

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Gov. LeRoy Collins said Thursday he will soon appoint two additional judges to Central Florida's Ninth Circuit, based on population increases.

One of the judges will go to Brevard County and the other to either Orange or Osceola County in compliance with a 1959 legislative act.

The district includes Indian River, Martin, Okeechobee, St. Lucie and Seminole counties.

The new appointments will increase the number of circuit judges to 14.

Hospital Addition Program Okayed

Seminole Memorial Hospital will undergo a $500,000 expansion program to alleviate the overcrowded conditions at the hospital. The hospital will match funds with the federal government under a Hill-Burton grant.

A. B. Peterson Sr., chairman of the hospital's board of trustees, announcing the approval of the grant this morning, said the allocation was predicated upon the ability of the hospital to match the Hill-Burton funds with $275,000.

Peterson emphasized that the hospital's financial condition is such that the expansion program can be initiated "without and further cost to the citizens of Seminole County."

"In other words," Peterson said, "the board of trustees does not contemplate any requests for additional bonding of the county or to indulge in any financial campaigns to produce this amount of money needed to finance the program."

Peterson said that, although preliminary work already has started in laying the groundwork for the expansion, actual construction is still six to 12 months away.

The planned expansion will provide 30 additional beds and will add to the facilities of the X-ray and laboratory departments.

The addition will start on the east side of the building and extend southward.

An architect to draw up final plans for the expansion will be selected at the board's next meeting in December.

One More Week

Property owners have only one more week to check assessment rolls at the tax assessor's office before the equalization meeting on Nov. 30.

Tax Assessor Richard McCanna said today he was "disappointed over the light turnout of property owners thus far."

He stressed the importance of property owners checking the rolls next week and added that if any taxpayer is unable to come to the assessor's office, he can get his information by writing or telephoning the office.

Hunters Warned To Play It Safe As Season Opens
Seminole County hunters today were warned to "play it safe" when the 1959-60 hunting season opens tomorrow.

Jack Wilber, president of the Seminole County Sportsmen's Club issued a list of "do's and don'ts" for all prospective hunters who will be taking to the woods.

The most important thing to remember while hunting is to make sure of what you are shooting before you aim your weapon.

Another important point is to never hunt in a densely populated area alone. "Always go in pairs," Wilber emphasized.

Wilber also stressed "never assume that the weapon is unloaded and never aim a gun at anyone or anything unless you want to kill it."

He added that all weapons should be double checked before hunting and make sure all are cleaned.

The sportsmen's club president also pointed out that a new hunting area has been opened to Florida hunters.

The Tomoka Wildlife Management Area has added some 28,000 acres for additional hunting but all hunters must have a game management permit before they go into the area.

The new area is on the west of the present park site.

Board Upholds Re-Zoning Request

Sanford's City Commission last night upheld a City Planning and Zoning Board decision not to allow commercial rezoning of four residential lots on Sanford Ave. between 25th and 26th streets.

Both boards agreed that they would not approve spot zoning. City Manager Warren Knowles said today. The planning and zoning board has been going by a no spot zoning rule for the last five years, Knowles said.

The city commissioners met with the zoning and planning group to discuss an appeal by realtor W. M. Dietrich that the four lots on Sanford Ave. be rezoned from commercial to residential in permit building of a neighborhood grocery store and laundrette.

Dr. W. P. Brooks, pastor of First Baptist will preside and the ministers of several other churches in the community will participate. The Church Choir will sing Handel's "Holy Art Thou" as a special Thanksgiving anthem.

Residents of Sanford and the County are urged to take part in this service of common worship and praise in the tradition of the American founding fathers as we unite to render thanks to God for His abundant blessings.

The Rev. A. C. Summers, pastor of the Community Presbyterian Church in DeBary will bring the Thanksgiving Sermon. Other ministers taking part will be: Rev. Robert Sporer, president of the Association, who will give the Call to Worship; the Presidential Thanksgiving Proclamation will be read by the Rev. Snow will lead the congregation in the Thanksgiving Prayer; the Thanksgiving offering which is the only public contribution to the work of the Ministerial Association will be received under the supervision of Rev. Tom O'Steen. The Benediction will be given by Rev. Ernest Bolick.

Horn of PLENTY

This great land of ours has been blessed with the riches of the earth and with the freedoms, the rights, to enjoy them. But does the mere ownership of these goods guarantee our happiness?

All of us have experienced a disappointment at finally possessing some much-desired article. After weeks and sometimes years of looking forward to it, we find that the actual ownership brings little pleasure.

Could the fault lie with the gift itself? No, apparently it is within ourselves. Our own attitudes, our own relationships, our own understanding have certainly much more to do with our final satisfaction.

How then are we to derive the greatest blessings from the goods which have been put at our disposal? The best place to begin is in the Church. Here, in a personal search for God and our own understanding of Him, we may achieve a spiritual harmony, which will bless our lives and those of our fellow men.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. These are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Circles Of The Garden Club Plan Holiday Arrangements

HEMEROCALLIS CIRCLE

While most of the other garden circles seemed to stress Christmas decorations, members of the Hemerocallis circle took time out to make a Thanksgiving arrangement, during the workshop period, at the November meeting. Mrs. R. L. McKnight and Mrs. M. B. Smith were hostesses to the group at the home of Mrs. McKnight. Keeping in mind that effective learning involves all senses, Mrs. Carl Lind, program chairman, arranged the workshop period, during which members received instruction in several ways. In addition to the Thanksgiving arrangement, they heard a short talk about basic principles of flower arrangement, observed pictures, read charts, studied outlines and handled all sorts of fruit, vegetables, seed pods, flowers, branches and leaves and ended by creating an individual arrangement from the materials at hand.

Participating in this workshop were the two hostesses, Mrs. Lind, Mrs. J. Sikes, Mrs. Ralph Jarvis, Mrs. W. Reel, Mrs. P. J.

JACARANDA CIRCLE

Mrs. C. C. Bronson, Mrs. Aaron Wooten and Mrs. W. E. Brisson were joint hostesses to the November meeting of the Jacaranda Circle at the Bronson home, on Pinecrest Dr.

Roll call was answered with a flower beginning with the first initial of the member's name. Mrs. C. M. Flowers won the prize for this by answering with the name of 24 flowers.

Five members celebrated their birthday and each was presented a cake by Mrs. A. C. McKeen, circle president. Mrs. R. Gordon Brisson gave an interesting talk on the planting and care of geraniums.

Other members present were, Mrs. Irving Proot, Mrs. R. D. Hunter, Mrs. R. L. Andrews, Mrs. R. L. White, Mrs. E. J. Mossman, Mrs. T. J. Little, Mrs. L. B. Steele, Mrs. H. E. McSwain, Mrs. S. B. Florida's Chemical Industry Growing

By GORDON J. TOLL
Manager, Security Associates, Inc.

Facts and figures released by the Florida Development Commission in Tallahassee show that one of the most dynamic industries in the state is rapidly achieving national prominence—and that is chemicals. In 1956, Florida ranked third among all states in chemical construction projects completed. Chemical employment in the same period increased 57 per cent while there was a 2 per cent decline nationally. In the last two-and-a-half years, 57 new plants and major expansions were announced.

Here are some of the large corporations that are now located in this state. Rayonier, Inc., makers of chemical cellulose, used in a wide variety of plastics as well as synthetic yarns at Fernandina Beach. Ecombia Chemical Corp., near Panama City, produces polyvinyl chloride resins as well as ammonia. It also produces methanol, or wood alcohol. Carlon Products, Inc., High Springs, opened a plant last June to make plastic sewer, water and gas pipe for Florida's building boom. Fabriform Plastic Company, Jacksonville, began operations in 1955 to make nose cones for rockets.

Chemical fertilizer is produced in large quantities by Armour Fertilizer Works, Bartow; Swift & Company, Agricultural, U. S. Phosphoric Products Division, Tampa. Phosphorus and phosphoric acid are used in oil refining, metal coatings, dyes, foods, drugs, animal feeds and a host of other products. The state's phosphate mines, which produce almost a third of the world's supplies, are the source of an ever increasing variety of products.

Of late, the industry in the state has become more diversified. Chemstrand Corp. employs more than 6,000 at its Panama City nylon plant. Air Products, Inc. makes liquid hydrogen and liquid oxygen at West Palm Beach and Patrick Air Force Base. In Fort St. Joe, Michigan Chemical Co. opened a plant this year to extract magnesium oxide from sea water. Allied Chemical & Dye Corp. opened a plant in 1957 to make aluminum sulphate.

The Development Commission stresses as "industry expands, so do Florida markets. The state's population growth rate is three times that of the country as a whole. Four-and-a-half million people now live in Florida and their purchasing power is amplified by a yearly tourist influx of nine million."

It's difficult not to imagine the dynamic potential that Seminole County has to offer to large industry. Perhaps in the near future these resources will be well utilized.

There are some interesting changes in stockholdings which appeared recently in the Wall Street Journal for the month of October. Of interest would be General Precision Equipment Corp., of which Martin Co., owner of more than 10 per cent of the common stock, bought 57,600 shares, increasing holdings to 140,300. Graham-Paige Corp., bought 62,958 shares of the capital stock of Madison Square Garden Corp., boosting holdings of G-P in Madison Square to 281,603 shares. Arthur V. Davis, owner of more than 10 per cent of the stock of American M.A.R.C. Inc., (a stock that has been mentioned quite frequently in this column) bought 100,000 shares, raising direct holdings to 1,635,000 shares and also reported beneficial holdings of another 50,000 shares.

The Language of Investing: Capital stock—All shares representing ownership of a business, including preferred and common. Common Stock—Securities which represent an ownership interest in a corporation. Preferred Stock: A class of stock with a claim on the company's earnings before payment may be made on the common stock and usually entitled to priority over common stock if company liquidates.

ANTARCTICA—The flyboys of the Air Force and Navy are Antarctica's unsung heroes of today. They live with the perils as calmly as they live with the icy winds.

A C-124 Globemaster—as big as an apartment building—comes in, skidding on the ice—sideways—at 100 miles an hour—and the young man in the cockpit jockeys her in, and you see him a few minutes later striding into the operations hut for a cup of coffee as though it hadn't happened.

Back in the States, drama of this order would make big headlines. Here, when you talk about it with awe, the men deride you for being melodramatic.

Then there was the incident that occurred shortly after I arrived here—the phenomenon of the flying door. We were out on an inspection trip by helicopter 'midst the icebergs of the Ross Sea. The vicious polar wind ripped the hatch from the cockpit. We were 150 feet up. The missile—metal and plastic and about three feet square—flung against the rotors. We dropped to the sea—which fortunately still held a floor of ice. Cmdr. Ed Potter of Lancaster Calif., the pilot, cut the motors. Crewman Bill Kirtley of Sanford, Fla., jumped out, and in the sub-zero weather, crawled all over the machine checking each blade of the two rotors. There was no damage.

When Kirtley retrieved the flying door, we got a look at it. The small black in the center told the story. The door simply grazed the tip of the whirling blades. Another inch and the story would have had another ending.

The passenger in the cockpit took it all calmly. He was a visitor from the Naval Base in Hawaii, Wallace M. Beakley, a three-star admiral.

Probably the roughest flying job—tougher than the bundle-dropping flights over the South Pole—is supplying hiking parties of scientists out in the rugged terrain.

Small bands of men leave the base camp at McMurdo and head in snow tractors for new outposts to make weather checks and depth soundings in the ice. The men are gone for months.

In two-engine R4Ds, slapdash young Navy air crews, firing off jet bottles, blast off the ice strip of McMurdo Sound like a rocket, their laden craft heading for check points in places where planes aren't supposed to land.

On this day they are going to attempt a difficult one—a ski landing on Shetland glacier, 8,000 feet up, where winds hit 50 knots and the temperature sinks to 50 below zero. I volunteered as a crew member. But when Lt. Earl Dryden of Toledo, Ohio, walked into the cockpit, he grinned. Somebody goofed. The engines had not been warmed up by the ground crew, and it takes two hours. The oil gauge read minus 25 degrees. At that temperature the oil is slushy, useless.

The flight was postponed. I found myself moping about missing it, and when I recalled for the trip the next day they told me that reporters were no longer allowed on glacier landings—too perilous.

That was the day I took the helicopter trip instead. And was almost struck out by a flying door!

In the Antarctic with the flyboys you live cautiously—but dangerously.

Inez Robb Says

By INEZ ROBB

It is no news that the 20th Century man dangles from crinoids to crinoids, never quite prepared for any of 'em and improvising on the spot.

But who among us ever dreamed that 1959 might go down in history as The Year of the Cranberry Crisis? It is possible to shore up Laos, encourage India vis-a-vis China, clean up Texas, roll with Castro and out-travel Khrushchev. But faced with Thanksgiving and Christmas and NO cranberries, what do we do? How do we improvise for this one, which chips at the foundations of the nation's two biggest and best holidays?

Now will the Administration deal with this crisis? What solutions will the eager-beaver presidential candidates suggest? Here is a challenging national opportunity for the politicians who are now circling the nomination like so many buzzards on the prowl.

The cranberry crisis can be a splendid opportunity for the Democrat or Republican capable of coming up with a brilliant solution, and at once. It is quite possible that a Rockefeller or a Symington who can improvise an acceptable solution or substitute to this pressing domestic problem can win the nomination by acclamation.

Was to the politician who tries to shrug this off as a minor issue? The cranberry and the turkey were wedded by the Pilgrim mothers and a pax on him who tries to put them asunder. Cranberries and turkey, in this for the cranberry, have a far deeper affinity, and far more indissoluble bond, than ham and eggs, Swiss cheese and rye, ice cream and cake or hamburger and bus.

The rich, crimson delicacy is the perfect accompaniment for the all-American bird. The proper proportion of cranberry jelly or sauce to turkey is bits for bits.

Turkey without cranberries is as salt that has lost its savor.

At this point, I feel like the man who first stumbled over the Koh-i-noor. Initial word of the cranberry crisis sent me scurrying through the bazaar of the Lullaby.

There, on a back shelf, sat three cans of cranberry jelly, circa 1907. Spiced this, those ought to tide us over Thanksgiving and Christmas!

They are on the shelf because at Chen Robb we prefer cranberry sauce made from scratch. So when the tin of cans arrived in a Christmas gift package in 1907, they were put away for an emergency. And now that the emergency is upon us, Croesus never had it better.

Undoubtedly the nation's food editors will begin flooding newspapers with substitutes for the cranberry, although there isn't any really. So I might as well toss in my two bits worth. One of the finest accompaniments for turkey, hot or cold, is a good Waldorf salad made with tart apples.

It is interesting to note that modern science, short of spraying the cranberry with poison, has left this berry pretty much to its own splendid devices. The turkey has not been so lucky. Science keeps piling on the white meat in a new model turkey that continues to get broader and broader in the beam.

The result is a top-heavy, 40-24-36-type bird that could well answer to the name of Gino or Marilyn. Science continues to ignore those millions of turkeys who prefer the dark meat, sweet and succulent.

As a drumstick woman, I am convinced that the boys in the laboratories have not only failed on the cranberry, but are working on the wrong end of the bird. Aren't there any Dietrich men in the labs?

Picketing Limitation Noted In New Labor Bill

BY STUART ROTEMAN
General Counsel

National Labor Relations Board

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The biggest change in federal labor law made by the new Taft-Hartley amendments probably is the limitation put on picketing or threats of picketing by a union seeking to organize employees or to force bargaining recognition by an employer.

This provision grew out of the administration's efforts to curb "blackmail" picketing. Its general thrust is to halt picketing or threats of picketing by unions which do not represent a majority of the employees.

Unfortunately, this also is one of the most intricate provisions of the new law. It not only forbids such organizational or recognition picketing, but it also provides a special high-speed procedure for representation elections in such cases. In addition, it includes a safeguard against the provision being used to protect a "sweetheart" union, which an employer has helped organize in order to prevent genuine union bargaining for employees.

Furthermore, it provides a special exception for "informational" picketing or publicity which truthfully informs the public that an employer does not employ union members or does not have a contract with a union. This exception only applies, however, if the picketing does not stop deliveries or pickups. These various provisions are all wrapped up in one section of the law.

The curbs on this type of picketing, however, does not apply to a union which has a current certificate from the National Labor Relations Board, designating it as the bargaining agent of the employees involved. It applies only to unions not certified by NLRB.

The new provision deals with three specific situations. But the key one undoubtedly is that forbidding "such picketing" without a petition for a representation election. . . . being filed within a reasonable period of time not to exceed 30 days from the start of picketing. However, if an election request is filed within the reasonable period, the law directs the board to hold an election "forthwith" — without having to follow usual procedures. These elections will be held without a preliminary hearing unless substantial questions of the voting unit or other important matters make a hearing essential.

The expedited elections, however, will not be held until the employer or some other interested party has filed a written charge of illegal picketing or threats of picketing. Even then, we can proceed only if our investigation confirms that the picketing involved or threatened is for the purpose of forcing an employer to bargain with an uncertified union or to compel employees to join the union.

In addition to the usual NLRB proceeding in cases of this type of illegal picketing, the new law also requires us to seek a federal court injunction to halt the picketing until the board can complete its action on the case. This injunction procedure, however, is not available if a charge of illegal assistance to another union is filed against the employer and investigation indicates the charge is true.

The other two situations in which this type of picketing is forbidden are (1) where the employer has lawfully recognized another union and its bargaining status is not open to challenge, and (2) where, within the preceding 12 months a valid NLRB representation election has been conducted among the employees involved.

Brando Admits He Spanked Wife

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (UPI)—Moody Actor Marlon Brando claimed his former wife tried to attack him with a butcher knife and run over him with a car and once crushed a leg through his bedroom window.

He admitted that he had spanked her and tied her up with a wash cord. But he said in an affidavit filed in Superior Court: "I sincerely regret any acts of physical violence between myself and the plaintiff (Miss Kashfi) but the responsibility is not entirely mine."

Brando and his 23-year-old former wife, Anna Kashfi, engaged in the latest round of their bitter court fight over custody of their son, Christian, 18 months. The actor contends she has failed to allow him to visit their son as provided by their divorce and custody agreement.

Superior Judge Mervin Aggeler issued a restraining order prohibiting Brando and Miss Kashfi from "annoying" each other.

Happiness Through Health (By Dr. F. LEO KERWIN)

Everything Secondary To Good Health:

"With health, everything is a source of pleasure, without it, nothing else, no matter what it may be, is enjoyable. Even the other personal blessings—a great mind, a happy temperament — are degraded and dwarfed for want of it. It follows from all this, that the greatest of all follies is to sacrifice health for any other kind of happiness, whether it be for gain, achievement, learning or fame. Everything should be made secondary to health." — Schopenhauer.

The Chiropractic premise is that the cause of disease is due to the subluxation of vertebrae, which produces pressure upon the nerve trunks and thus interferes with the normal transmission of vital force to the various organs and tissue cells. The trained and experienced Chiropractor is able to determine the exact point of nerve interference in your spine.

One of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of scientific Chiropractic, written by Dr. F. Leo Kerwin whose office is located at 201 S. French Ave. and his telephone number is FAirfax 2-7442.

Military Lists Invention Needs

By FRANK ELEAZER

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The military is out with a new list of its most-wanted inventions, including one machine to measure the GI for his gut and another to decide whether it fits.

Mutual Predicts Profitable Year

LAKELAND (UPI)—Florida Citrus Mutual predicts a "very profitable season" after low-acid fruit is used up.

In a market analysis presented to Mutual's board of directors, General Manager Robert W. Rutledge said heavy rains had caused fruit to have a low-acid content in some areas.

But he said all of this fruit should be harvested in three or four weeks and he urged growers to market it as soon as possible.

"After the low-acid fruit has been utilized," he said, "we will have a very profitable season."

The board of directors also decided it would not be necessary to call for a supply adjustment program to prevent a flooded market over the Thanksgiving holiday since fruit shipments have not been above normal.

Away, Down South

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Three Tennessee Williams plays about life in the South were recently in production at the same time — but none of them in the South.

"Suddenly, Last Summer," which has a New Orleans background, was filmed in London; "The Fugitive Kind," set in Mississippi, was filmed in Milton, N. Y., and "Sweet Bird of Youth," which takes place in a small Southern town, is being staged on Broadway.

The Squelcher

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Janet Munro, who stars in "Third Man on the Mountain," told her production boss, Walt Disney, she thought it was a rather long title for a picture. "So what?" replied Disney. "We're still doing all right with 'Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs.'"

Husband, Wife Team

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Edmond O'Brien and wife Olga San Juan will be co-starring in 20th Century Fox's "The Voice."

Colleges Open Support Drive

TAMPA (UPI)—The presidents of four private colleges opened a two-day campaign today to convince business and industrial leaders in this area they should give more financial support to private education.

The presidents of Rollins, Stetson, Barry and Florida Southern colleges were scheduled to confer with more than 50 executives in Tampa and St. Petersburg.

They will seek to create a better understanding of the problems facing private colleges. The campaign here will end a statewide program begun last spring.

Changes In TV After Recent Troubles

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI) — Yes, dear reader, I'd say the recent TV unpleasantness already has brought about some changes in the surviving shows.

For example, the Price Is Right on NBC-TV no longer can be counted on to feature wild displays of emotion by the winning contestants. Wednesday night's fellow won a couple of brand new cars and merely broke out in a broad grin. Some weeks ago, he probably would have gone into orbit. Others on the show in recent weeks have behaved rationally, indicating that the producers no longer ask the players to be over-animated. This has the badly needed effect of making the contestants seem human.

Other improvements: The Seal of Good Practices is being displayed more frequently; it seems viewers are getting more information about whether a show is live or pre-recorded (unfortunately, this still doesn't apply to pre-recorded musical numbers in live and/or taped shows); that woeeful phrase, "live-on-tape," is gradually being discarded.

Plus? If there has been any let-up, I'd say Jack Paar's step-up plus plus more than makes up for it.

Wright and Eli Wallach will star in NBC-TV's Sunday Showcase production based on photographer Margaret Bourke-White's fight against Parkinson's disease. Tele-viewing date: Jan. 3.

Tony Randall and Henry Jones are the co-stars for "The Silver Whistle," a Playhouse 90 adaptation set for CBS-TV on Christmas Eve. Phil Silvers plans a return to Broadway next season in a musical, "Do Re Mi," being put together by Garson Kanin and Betty Comden and Adolph Green.

TV QUIZMASTER Jan Murray is the star on the "Treasure Hunt" show seen on Channel 2 every Wednesday morning.

Bowl Ambitions

MIAMI (UPI)—Underdog Miami seeks to built up its Orange Bowl prospects tonight against a Michigan State powerhouse which has bowl ambitions of its own but can do nothing to further them.

The 11th ranked Spartans from the Big Ten were favored by seven points for the inter-sectional game expected to draw a crowd of 50,000 in the Orange Bowl. Kickoff time is 8:15 p. m.

While the Michigan State players relax on the beach of their resort hotel Saturday afternoon, they'll huddle around portable radio bearing news of two other Big Ten games which will determine which team will represent the conference in the Rose Bowl.

If Northwestern and Wisconsin lose or tie their respective games against Illinois and Minnesota,

Michigan State will "back" into the Big Ten title and the trip to Pasadena New Year's Day.

Miami's bowl fate is equally remote, but at least it's in the Hurricanes' own hands. They have been promised serious consideration for the Orange Bowl if they defeat Michigan State and Florida in their last two games and wind up with a 7-3 season record.

Rookie Signs

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI)—Pitcher Alan Jorg of Altamont, Utah, has been signed by the Milwaukee Braves to a 1960 contract with Boise, Idaho, of the Pioneer League. Jorg, 19, is a graduate of the Braves' tryout school held at Rushville, Neb., last June.

SEMINOLES GO TO LAKEVIEW TONIGHT — Coach Jim Pigott and his high scoring Sanford Seminoles will travel to neighboring Winter Garden tonight for the last OBC contest of the season. Game time is set for 8 p. m. and a large crowd of local rooters are expected to follow.

With only the game tonight and the traditional Thanksgiving game against DeLand next Wednesday the Seminoles will be going all out to bring their season up to the .500 mark. At this point of the season they have a 3-5 record.

The Seminoles will be depending upon their fine passing game tonight to move the ball about the large defensive line of the Red Devils. Ends Terry Christensen, and Jimmy Gracey, who are sure bets to win All-OBC honors for their great pass receiving are in top form and will be taking the offerings of Mike Roberts, John Lovelace, and Ray Lundquist. Lundquist and Lovelace, who are also All-OBC material, will handle most of the running chores.

Speaking of the Seminoles, the most overworked youngster on the field this year has been no other than Co-Captain Lundquist. Ray, who is one of the smallest regulars on the squad, has split the running duties with Lovelace and also has had to play most of the time in the defensive backfield. Although Ray has done a great job in the offensive backfield all season, the fact that he has had to play most every quarter on defense has probably taken some of the punch out of him. The coaches are well aware of this but, because he is outstanding on defense, they cannot spare him. Last week against Bishop Moore, Ray made seven unassisted tackles as well as breaking up several passes. Pounded for pound, Ray is probably one of the finest natural athletes ever to play on a team at Seminole High School. He excels in all sports and as soon as he tucks away his pads he will be amazing people in the gym's around the basketball loop.

Ole' Willie "Stretch" McCovey, who became the favorite here this past spring while training with Phoenix really lived up to all expectations of the local baseball experts this past season. Willie was just named as Rookie of the Year in the National League and Willie being named was quite unusual.

While in spring training here this season, everyone was amazed by the wrist action he displayed and the commanding way he lashed the ball out of Memorial Stadium. Everybody knew he was great but the fellow that was playing first base for the Giants was also great. Orlando Cepeda, who was rookie of the year last year, believe it or not, was Willie's idol and Willie used to say that he felt badly about going to San Francisco to take his job but that was what he was going to do before the season was out.

Sure enough, the big slugger, who resembles "Steppin' Fetchit," was called up for the Pennant drive and came through just as he said he would. After only a few days at that plate in Seals Stadium, he had Cepeda talking to himself.

The Giants have come up with many great stars in the past but I think in a few years the most prominent Willie on the club will be named McCovey, not Mays or Kirkland.

THE LYMAN GREYHOUND FOOTBALL COACHES have led their charges to a 6-2-1 record this year. Head coach Bill Proctor is on the left with Line Coach Frank Gore and Backfield Coach Buck Metts. The Greyhounds will go against Florida Military School tonight in DeLand.

Battle For Bowl Bids To Continue Tomorrow

United Press International
The battle for bowl bids will continue along the college football front this week end, with at least a dozen teams competing for post-season junkets.

Only two major berths have been filled thus far. Top-ranked Syracuse accepted a Cotton Bowl invitation last Saturday and Arkansas agreed Thursday night to play in the Gator Bowl on a unique "if" basis.

Texas will serve as the South-west Conference representative in the Cotton Bowl if it beats Texas A&M as expected on Thanksgiving Day. But if the Longhorns lose, Arkansas will pass up the Gator Bowl for a crack at Syracuse in the Dallas classic.

At least five more berths in the major bowls should be filled by Saturday night. They include both berths in the Rose Bowl, the visiting team in the Orange Bowl, the host team in the Liberty Bowl, and perhaps both teams in the Blue Grass Bowl.

Wisconsin and Washington are seven-point favorites to knock off their Saturday opponents and wrap up Rose Bowl berths. The Badgers can clinch the Big Ten bid by beating Minnesota if Illinois turns back Northwestern while Washington is expected to gain the West Coast berth if it gets by Washington State.

Kansas will earn the right to represent the Big Eight Conference in the Orange Bowl if it turns back Missouri, provided bowl-ineligible Oklahoma plays Iowa State as expected.

Leading candidates for the other Orange Bowl bid include Clemson, Miami and Georgia. Miami entertains Michigan State Friday night, Clemson has a Saturday date with Wake Forest, and Georgia is idle this weekend.

Penn State is expected to be named host team for the Liberty Bowl following its traditional season-opener against Pittsburgh. The Nittany Lions, who are seven-point favorites, reportedly voted to accept a bid to the Philadelphia post-season game at a secret meeting Thursday.

Officials of the Blue Grass Bowl have indicated they will tender an invitation to the winner of Saturday's Kentucky-Tennessee clash, which is regarded as a toss-up in most quarters. The other bid may go to Bowling Green, the nation's No. 1 small college team.

Fourth-ranked Louisiana State, which closes out its regular season as a 21-point favorite against Tulane, remains the top candidate for a Sugar Bowl berth. Officials of the New Orleans classic would like to pit LSU against third-ranked Mississippi in a rematch of their earlier thriller but won't be able to make a move until Ole Miss completes its season against Mississippi State next week.

Undefeated Syracuse, meanwhile, remains an overwhelming 30-point choice for its Saturday date with Boston University. Second-ranked Southern California, the nation's only other major perfect record team, is a nine-point favorite over UCLA.

In other major traditional battles, Purdue is a one-point pick over Indiana, Iowa is 14 over Notre Dame, Florida is 13 over Florida State, Stanford is 3 over California, and Yale is 6 over Harvard.

Lyman Tangles With FMS Tonight

The Lyman Greyhounds travel to DeLand tonight to meet the Florida Military School cadets in their final regularly scheduled grid contest of the season.

Florida Military has had a 6-1 season, compiling only one win against seven losses. However, as Coach Bill Proctor pointed out, they are capable of playing a much better brand of ball. The Greyhounds are working hard in preparation for the game which Proctor said should prove to be "a good tough ball game."

Lyman has been playing well this season, piling up an impressive 6-1 record, the tie coming in last Friday's game with Mt. Dora. The Greyhounds will be no stranger to the "T" and spread-offensive formation of the Cadets and their defense should prove to be solid.

The Greyhounds will end their season with the Turkey Bowl November 23 against South Sumter.

Player Draft Slated Nov. 30

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — The National Football League will hold its 24th annual draft meeting here Nov. 30, one week after the new American Football League makes its first dip into college gridiron talent.

Acting NFL Commissioner Austin Gunsel said the draw will be pegged on the percentage standings of teams after games of Sunday, Nov. 29. The team with the lowest percentage will make the first selection, while the club with the highest will pick last.

SEC Passers To See Plenty Of Action

United Press International
Richard Wood, Dixie's hardest throwing passer last year, will get a chance to open up again this weekend against Mississippi Southern. Auburn Coach Ralph Jordan announced he will cut loose with Wood and fellow quarterbacks Bryant Harvard and Bobby Hunt in an air attack.

Heavyweight Auburn lost to new SEC champion Georgia last Saturday because of a superior Bulldog air game. The Tigers worked 90 minutes in sweat clothes Thursday and were announced ready for Southern. No. 2 small college team in the country.

Another SEC heavyweight, at least in comparison to the opposition, Vanderbilt, worked on kicking and timing in preparation for tiny Florence State and its single wing. Tennessee stressed offense and defense before tapering off for Kentucky.

Florida's starting quarterback Saturday against Florida State will be Dick Allen of Atlanta, who began the season with Coach Bob Woodruff as his No. 3 signal caller. The big advance is due in part to his efforts in the Georgia, Auburn and LSU games, which made it hot for the opposition when the Gators had Allen tossing passes.

Alabama may be without No. 1 quarterback Pat Trammell Saturday in their game with Memphis State. Coach Paul Bryant said the sophomore is still nursing injuries suffered in the Georgia Tech game.

LSU and Tulane kept secret what they were doing; there may be a few surprises Saturday night in Baton Rouge when they end the season.

Mississippi planned a hard workout this weekend as they will have an open date before the Mississippi State game. The Rebels reported end Johnny Brewer was still hampered by a leg injury from the Tennessee game.

The Maroons worked out and also plan a scrimmage session Saturday.

Georgia had a light routine workout and next weekend's opponent, Georgia Tech, also with an open date Saturday, did the same.

Rangers Recall Shack

NEW YORK (UPI) — Eddie Shack, demoted to Springfield recently for disciplinary reasons, has been recalled by the New York Rangers.

Matthews, Towel Clash Tonight

NEW YORK (UPI) — Willie Towel of South Africa's most famous boxing family opens his American campaign tonight for a shot at the welterweight crown in a fight with lightweight contender Len Matthews of Philadelphia at Madison Square Garden.

Matthews, only 20, is a solid 145 favorite to spoil 25-year-old Towel's U. S. debut in their 10-rounder, which will be televised and broadcast nationally by NBA at 10 p. m. e.s.t.

Boots Home Four

NEW YORK (UPI) — Jockey Larry Adams booted home four winners at Aqueduct Thursday, including So Small, who won the first race when Lost City was disqualified. Adams' other victories were aboard Rant N' Rave, On Your Mind and Suit of Lights.

HAMILTON COUNTY

STEPHEN FOSTER MEMORIAL

Hamilton County, formed in 1827, was named in honor of Alexander Hamilton. The famous Suwannee River forms a natural boundary on the two sides of this northeastern Florida county, where principal sources of income are agricultural timber and livestock. One of its major tourist attractions is a 243-acre park in White Springs that houses the famous Stephen Foster Memorial where an annual Florida Folk Festival is held.

In progressive Hamilton County and throughout Florida, the United States Brewers Foundation works constantly to assure the sale of beer and ale under pleasant, orderly conditions. Believing that strict law enforcement serves the best interest of the people of Florida, the Foundation stresses close cooperation with the Armed Forces, law enforcement and governing officials in its continuing "self-regulation" program.

Geneva has prize-winning dairy breeders in young Owen Cammack and his two sisters. Fifteen-year-old Owen received a blue ribbon in the recent showing of his purchased Jersey cow, "Pappy Pepper Rosebud," at the Orange County Agricultural Pavilion. If a grand champion cow had been chosen in the 4-H club contest, Owen's Rosebud would have taken the prize, a 4-H Judge said. Rosebud took first place in the three-year-old class. Winning the state pasture essay contest for Seminole County is another of Owen's recent feats. He received a $25 savings bond for his top county essay on pasture improvement. The Cammack girls also have upheld the reputation of Fair Glades Jersey Dairy. Twelve-year-old Catherine's "Aim Mona Priscilla" placed second and took a red ribbon in the two-year-old cow class at the 4-H show. Frances, 10, the smallest Cammack, has a fifth place red ribbon won by her "Lake Gladly Blossom" in the competition. Ribbons were awarded on the basis of the 4-H members record books, the contestant's activities in developing his animal, the fitting and conditioning of the animal, showmanship, and the judge's score of the animal itself. Owen's pasture improvement essay told how the Cammack fields were transformed into silage producing pasture. After the land was drained to remove water and salt in the soil, the Cammacks planted five or six types of grass to find which would thrive. One hundred acres of Pangola grass was planted in four years, after the natural grass was burned off. The Cammacks have 1,100 tons of silage for cattle feed in their two blue silos and stored in a trench. The Geneva prize-winners are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Cammack.

New Committee To Open Drain Study Tomorrow

Ways to solve the county's drainage problems will be discussed tomorrow afternoon by a newly appointed five-man drainage control committee and the board of county commissioners. Serving on their drainage committee are Warren Knowles, A. S. Merrill, C. S. Lee, Harold Kastner and M. L. Cullum. Among the possibilities to be studied during the afternoon session of the meeting will be for the federal government to match funds with the county under the Small Watershed program. Under the new program, the government matches funds with the local government to construct drainage facilities.

Fidel Backs Communist Unity Plan

HAVANA (UPI) — Cuban unionists rebuffed Premier Fidel Castro early today by electing a Communist-free executive committee for the CTC union federation. The executive committee chosen shortly after 4 a. m. by an overwhelming majority of delegates to the CTC convention included only three supporters of Communist-backed "unity" plan, and all of them identify themselves as non-Communists. Although Castro had appealed directly to the convention for unqualified adoption of the unity plan, only 16 of more than 3,000 delegates voted against the non-Communist executive slate. The Communists abstained. The convention recessed after electing the new committee, and it appeared likely that adjournment would follow shortly. The three unity supporters on the new executive committee were CTC Secretary General David Salvador, Jesus Soto and Jose M. de la Aguilera. The election was denounced by Faustino Calcinas, leading proponent of the unity plan, and Army Capt. Gustavo Mas, leader of the airlines workers' union. Calcinas charged that the non-Communist slate gave important posts to "Mujalistas"—supporters of the regime ousted by Castro last New Year's Day. "The rightists and Mujalistas are trying to sabotage the convention," he snapped. "Opponents of the unity plan are an obstacle to the forward movement of Fidel Castro's plans." The convention had been marking time for more than 14 hours when Salvador appeared to prevent the slate that had been hammered out in overnight consultations behind the scenes. Among the few resolutions adopted during the pre-dawn hours was one denouncing the "unfriendly attitude" of U. S. armed forces during this month's anti-American riots in Panama. The convention also voted to assess Cuban workers 4 per cent of their pay to finance plans for industrialization of the country.

Is Musical Taste Subject To Price?

NEW YORK (UPI) — The man who popularized rock 'n' roll faced a showdown with his TV employer today over whether money rather than art influenced his taste in music. Disc jockey Alan Freed, already fired from his radio job for refusing to sign a statement about "payola," was summoned to meet with WNEW-TV officials on business practices of the "Big Beat" show.

City May Benefit By Court Ruling On Slum Clearance

A recent ruling by the Florida Supreme court may have opened the door for Sanford and other municipalities to get federal funds for slum clearance. City Manager Warren Knowles said today. The court's decision held that urban renewal, when tied to slum clearance is a valid function of government. The ruling cleared the way for Sanford and other cities and towns to qualify for millions of dollars in federal urban renewal funds. Sanford city officials will study ways which will allow them to share in the federal funds. One possible way, according to Knowles, is to submit a special enabling act before the next session of the legislature. The ruling came on a Tampa case. The court upheld Tampa's plan for slum clearance by a 4-3 decision. The majority decision was that public purposes are served in cleaning up slums even if the project benefits some private property owners.

Board To Vote On Drainage Levy

Sanford's City commission will vote on a resolution opposing any additional millage levy by the county for drainage purposes if it is to be levied county wide, at the city commission meeting tonight in city hall. A joint agreement with the county allowing the use of that oft argued open drainage ditch for Sanford Ave. drainage at 25th St. extending north will also be voted on. The Sanford Ave. drainage problem is scheduled for discussion between the city fathers and county commission chairman John Kridler. Combining city and county registration records will also be discussed with Mrs. Camilla Bruce, county registration supervisor. The commission will hear the request of Lake Minnie Estates for permission to connect their sewer to Sanford's, will consider city payment of Sanford Greyhounds Class B baseball funds for 1959, will discuss the Sanford Housing Authority city services billing, and vote on adoption of a new plumbing code.

U. N. Plans New Hungarian Study

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI) — The United Nations steering committee voted 13 to 3 today to recommend a new airing in the General Assembly of the 1956 Hungarian freedom revolt and its brutal suppression by the Soviet Union. The Soviet Union, Czechoslovakia and Romania voted against including the item on the agenda. The United States told the 21-nation committee that "apparently the end of the reign of terror is not in sight" in Hungary.

He also was charged with graft and stealing millions of dollars from the country's treasury.

3-Car Accident Leads To Arrest

A three car hit and run accident on Lake Mary Rd. and 20th St. Saturday morning led to the arrest yesterday of Sanford Negro Thomas Wade. A car driving north on Lake Mary Rd. shortly after midnight failed to stop for a stop sign at the 20th St. intersection. It hit the side of a car driven west on 20th St. by Kenneth E. Byrd, police said. The auto driven by Byrd, 143 Country Club Dr., was thrown at another car driven east on 20th St. by David E. Lloyd, 103 Tangentine Dr. The car that failed to stop for the stop sign left the scene of the accident, police said. Sgt. Ben Butler arrested Wade for driving without a license, failure to yield the right of way and failure to stop and render aid.

Winn-Dixie, Home Damaged By Fire

Two minor fires during the weekend caused damage to the Winn-Dixie Store on First St. and a home at 2425 Willow Ave. Firemen reported that a defective light fixture caused the blaze at the Winn-Dixie store, with damage confined to the building. Firemen were out 44 minutes before the fire was under control. Late yesterday afternoon a home owned by James Wade received minor fire damage. The fire was caused by children playing with matches, firemen reported. The fire was confined to a closet in the home.

New Commissioner To Be Discussed

Steel Output Gains

The American Iron and Steel Institute estimated the output of new steel for the first two weeks of the Supreme Court back-to-work order at upwards of 3,532,000 tons.

Capsule Hunt Ends In Failure

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (UPI) — The United States suffered another setback in the space race with Russia Sunday night when the Air Force abandoned its search for a tiny space capsule ejected from a Discoverer satellite in polar orbit. All efforts to recover the 27-by-33-inch instrument package were halted with the setting sun. The United States had hoped to recover the capsule as it parachuted earthward or pick it up in the vast Pacific. Naval vessels also had assisted in the futile search. The Air Force had hoped its seventh straight attempt at placing a satellite in orbit and recovering its capsule would give the nation an important space age "first." Neither the U. S. nor Russia — so far as is known — has managed to recover a man-made object hurled back from an orbit.
