Taft Calls For End To O.P.A. Meat Control

Anderson Says Cabinet Session Fails To Produce Solution In Meat Crisis

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11. (AP)—Senator Robert Taft of Ohio today called for an end to all O.P.A. controls on meat. Taft declared: "The public prefers pork chops to price control, politics and Democratic congressmen."

The Ohio Republican issued his statement as President Truman canvassed the next problem at a cabinet meeting. Secretary of Agriculture Anderson reported the resident Truman is now considering a revision on the meat problem. Anderson said the hour and a half cabinet session failed to result in a solution of the shortage.

The O.P.A. today removed price control from all pure silk wear, apparel and accessories made wholly from silk or pure linen.

An official explains that the action was taken to protect from loss those manufacturers who bought raw silk or linen while prices were uncontrolled, and then were forced to sell their products under ceiling prices.

Price ceilings also were removed from domestic green vines, and Camp Fire Girl uniforms.

Smuts Advocates New Method For European Peace

Regional Grouping Of Nations Urged By Prime Minister

THE HAGUE, Oct. 11. (AP)—South Africa's prime minister, Jan Christian Smuts, today strongly advocated the regional grouping of European nations as a powerful weapon for peace.

The one-time field marshal made his recommendation before the Dutch Parliament today. Smuts proposed that the European states join hands now in an economic council as a step toward the formation of a political council of Europe.

The Prime Minister referred to Winston Churchill's recommendation of a United States of Europe based upon a reconciliation of France and Germany. Then he expressed the fear that such a reconciliation might take too long. Europe's case is too urgent for that, he added. Smuts declared that Europe's small nations should act now or take the risk of being forced to attach themselves as satellites to some great power.

Roast Beef Plentiful In Local Stores At 15 Cents Per Pound - Back In '37

By WILLARD CONNOLLY
Bruno Mussolini led an Italian air squadron in an attack on Madrid to aid France; the Japs were attacking China; William Green accused John L. Lewis of using the CIO to further presidential ambitions; there was no O.P.A. The Herald has made a recent survey. We find that the above beef roast, if you can get it, is now 45 cents a pound. A nice western steak steak then could be secured at 19 cents a pound, and how it is 53. Such memorable items as lamb chops (remember 'em), were 25 cents a pound, the bean that people used to eat for breakfast was 25 cents, and pork sausage, another relic of a past era, was two pounds for 25 cents. ## Bishop Stepinac Sentenced To 16 Years In Prison

Peoples Court Finds Archbishop Guilty On All Main Points

ZAGREB, Yugoslavia, Oct. 11. (AP)—The heads of the Roman Catholic Church in Yugoslavia, Archbishop Stepinac, today was sentenced to 16 years imprisonment at hard labor. He was convicted of collaboration with the Nazis. A three-judge people's court of the Tito-government ruled that the Archbishop was guilty on all main points of the indictment against him. The court also decided that all of Bishop Stepinac's property shall be confiscated and that the Catholic leader shall be deprived of all civil rights for five years.

Thirteen men in all were convicted by the court's decision and were given sentences from six months to death. Three were executed.

Col. Erik Lisak was sentenced to hang, while a third defendant was ordered shot for acts of terrorism. On learning his sentence, Col. Lisak shook his fist at the court and shouted: "I will die for Croatia. Long live the independent state of Croatia!" By contrast, the archbishop stood expressionless and showed no signs of emotion when his sentence was read.

The audience, which had stopped throughout the reading, cheered when the sentence against the Archbishop and Col. Lisak were pronounced.

The Croatian court president read a long list of findings against the Archbishop. Among the charges was one of forcing the conversion of Serbs to Catholicism. The archbishop also was convicted of inspiring the hope that the present government of Marshal Tito would be short-lived.

Greek Says Proposed Terms Will Permit Bulgaria To Emerge As Stronger Nation

By Associated Press
Constantin Tsaldaris, premier of Greece, declared bitterly before the Paris Peace Conference session today that the peace terms proposed for Bulgaria would permit that nation to emerge from her second war against the Allied nations larger and stronger than ever before.

The Greek prime minister accused the western powers of seeking to avoid peace on Bulgaria's behalf and charged the west with lack of gratitude for the part Greece played in the war.

He said Greece had suffered 400,000 deaths and 1,000,000 wounded in the war, and that the only consolation was the fact that Greece had emerged from the war as a stronger nation.

G.O.P. Charges Truman Talk To Be Political

Nation Awaits President's Decision On Meat Situation In Broadcast Tonight

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14. (AP)—Hours in advance of his scheduled radio talk tonight on the meat shortage, President Truman was confronted today with a charge that the speech is going to be political.

The charge came from Republican National Chairman Carroll Reece who demanded that the four major radio networks provide the G.O.P. with an equal amount of time to answer Mr. Truman and present the Republican view on the meat situation.

Meanwhile, there is no official indication of what decision Mr. Truman will announce in his speech at 10:00 P. M. (Eastern Standard Time), on what steps, if any, the administration plans to take in an effort to end the meat shortage.

The latest information from Capitol Hill indicated that Mr. Truman has made his decision but it is a closely kept White House secret. Aided by cabinet members, the President put the finishing touches on his address today.

President Truman also let it be known today that there are no atomic bombs outside of the United States. The President's declaration was made through assistant White House press secretary Eben Ayers. Ayers told a news conference today that there are no atomic bombs outside the country with or without detonators. He added:

"The only ones ever outside of this country were those used in the Bikini test and those dropped on Japan."
The White House comment came in the wake of a statement by a radio commentator Drew Pearson last night that there are A-bombs outside the United States.

Ralph A. Smith Is Winner Of Gridiron Selection Contest

Ralph A. Smith, by virtue of submitting a ballot early in last week's Robson Sporting Goods Company Ritz Herald pick-the-winner contest, was named the winner of a tennis racket, offered by Robson, as first prize.

Also picking eight games on the tennis racket was Jerry Silverman. Mr. Silverman however, got his ballot in after Mr. Smith and therefore was awarded second prize, a week's pass for two at the Ritz. This was the second consecutive time that he captured second prize.

All the winners last week, selected eight contests correctly out of ten and they were judged according to the time their ballot was received by the Herald or postmarked. The winners in addition to Mr. Smith and Mr. Silverman, were Bob Tuttle, T. I. Harris, H. F. A. Stone, Thomas A. Cobb and Mrs. J. H. Trulluck.

Honorable mention went to Bill Harvey, Von Allen Clark and Dan Wright, who also selected eight contests correctly out of ten but submitted their ballots later than the seven prize winners.

The sponsor for this week's contest will be the Firestone store which is offering to the first prize winner a seven-piece automobile cooking ware set. Second prize will be a pass for two at the Ritz Theatre and winners of third through the seventh prize will be awarded a single pass for two at the Ritz.

Contest rules this week will remain as they were last week. The submission of an early ballot will probably again play a big role in judging the winners as last week.

Jackson And Black On Speaking Terms

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14. (AP)—Two members of the Supreme Court—Justices Robert H. Jackson and Hugo Black—are the central figures in a behind-the-scenes row. But at least they are on speaking terms. This was made known today by a witness who saw Jackson and Black come face-to-face recently in a corridor outside their offices.

Jackson was the first to speak. "Good morning, Hugo," he said. "Good morning, Jackson," Black replied. Neither offered to shake hands, but they did exchange smiles.

There are 25,000 barn fires in the United States annually.

Lions To Ask City To Make Palmetto, Magnolia And Oak Through Streets

Sanford Lions Friday voted to request the City Commission, tonight to designate all north and south streets between Oak Avenue and Sanford Avenues inclusive as through streets in order that accidents may be averted.

This action followed a talk by Fred Bell, chairman of the Lion's safety committee, who said that he had conferred on this matter with Police Chief Roy G. Williams, who had declared favored this move. This would make Oak, Magnolia and Palmetto Avenues through streets and cross streets, either than Thirteenth and Ninth Streets, would be stop streets at the crossings.

Lions also approved Harry Robson's suggestion that the City repaint slow or stop signs placed near schools, which signs can now hardly be read, and that police be requested to enforce the law.

ORLANDO, Oct. 14. (AP)—Florida's Young Democrats at their first post-war convention, gave a firm endorsement to United States foreign policy and named Senator Spencer L. Holland as their national Democratic leader for the next term.

A resolution commending the United States' delegation to the Paris Peace Conference for its splendid work and criticizing its detractors, was adopted by the Young Democrats. The resolution instructed Florida Congressmen and senators to give their full support and cooperation to the American conference. Without mentioning any names, the resolution said the nation's welfare has never been in a time in history—in period of equal time—when so many things have been done to benefit the people of the nation and the world.

Former Governor John W. Martin, of Jacksonville, called upon the Young Democrats to forget the policies of "Karl Marx, Stalin, Lenin, and the rest of the tribe," and assume the leadership of a movement to return the Democratic Party to power.

In his address, Senator Holland said the Democratic party has nothing to apologize for. He went on to say: "There has never been a time in history—in period of equal time—when so many things have been done to benefit the people of the nation and the world."

Dr. F. S. Jamison Is Main Speaker At Rotary Meet

Stresses Importance Of Growing Crops Other Than Celery

Declaring that the Sanford area would continue to produce celery for many years to come, Dr. F. S. Jamison, head of the Vegetable Research Division of the Experimental Station at the University of Florida, nevertheless warned Sanford growers of the importance of finding more efficient means of production, when he addressed the Rotary Club at its regular weekly meeting today.

Dr. Jamison, who was introduced by C. H. Dawson, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and a resident of this state for the past 12 years, said that before the war 7,000 or 8,000 acres of celery was considered a big crop, but that last year 14,000 acres were planted and 13,000 harvested. He mentioned increasing competition from the Everglades section where 60 to 100 acre farms are not unusual as compared with 15 to 20 in the Sanford section, as well as new competition from western states where in Arizona alone 1,000 acres were planted in celery last year.

Other crops which might profitably be grown here he listed as corn, potatoes and snapbeans, and said that experiments now being conducted in peas and onions might soon make these profitable. Acreage planted in Florida in 1945 has increased from 10,000 in 1925 to 100,000 at present, due, he said, to improvements in quality. Celery acreage has increased from 1,000 in 1925 to 14,000 at present, due, he said, to improvements in quality. Celery acreage has increased from 1,000 in 1925 to 14,000 at present, due, he said, to improvements in quality.

The vegetable business is one of Florida's biggest industries, Mr. Jamison said, pointing out that together with citrus it is counted for 75 percent of Florida's agricultural income. Grand total tourists see the state's biggest business, he said that citrus and vegetables together are ranked first in Florida, he added Florida ranks 14th as a tourist center among the states of the nation.

Visitors to today's meeting included Howard Phillips, D. H. Harris, Jack Lawrence, D. L. Linton and Joe Howard of Orlando, C. T. Murchland of Dade County and Charles Dawson, George Thurston, W. A. Brunley, John Meisler and R. A. King of Sanford.

Newsprint Pulpwood Cutters On Strike

TORONTO, Oct. 14. (AP)—Some 12,000 bush cutters, whose main job is cutting pulpwood for newsprint, have struck for a $5 minimum wage, working conditions and improved working conditions.

It was believed that newspaper production would not be affected until next year. Newsprint and pulp mills normally have enough pulpwood on hand for a winter's operations. Wood cut in the winter is sent down streams for shipment to the mills in the Spring for use the following Summer, Fall and Winter.

The lumber and sawmill work area union rejected an appeal from the Ontario labor ministry to call off the strike and mediate. The brush camps are spread over wide and isolated areas, making it impossible to tell immediately how effective the walkout was.

Health Said Responsible For Double Shooting Auto Salesman Kills Wife And Self In Twin Tragedy Here

Despondency over ill health is believed to have been the cause of the double tragedy at Marion, Mo., Saturday morning in which Thomas E. Hammett, 37, Sanford automobile salesman, was found dead near his car, the first of his head blown off by a bullet which was lying nearby with the bullet in the trunk of the car.

Hammett was seen in the morning with the same gun he had used in the double shooting, according to George W. E. Watson.

According to Deputy Sheriff Jack Hickson, who with Sheriff Hand, Coroner Watson, and Assistant State Attorney George A. DeCoffey investigated the tragedy shortly after the sheriff's office had been notified of a twin tragedy near the Sanford auto lot.

For the past several weeks Hammett has been suffering from an ailment which he has reported not to have worked for the past three weeks because of illness.

At the time that Sheriff Hand and his men arrived, the house was blazing so furiously that no effort was made to try to remove the remains of Mrs. Hammett.

In Hammett's automobile was found a note asking that the two be buried quickly and cheaply. The handwriting was identified by Mr. George Tully as that of Hammett. Burial of Mrs. Hammett's charred remains were sent today to Millers, S. C. for burial.

She is survived there by her mother, Mr. Hammett who was born June 3, 1887 at Wansboro, S. C. is survived by a brother and three children by a former marriage all living in South Carolina.

Prior to his work with the International Motor Sales Company, Mr. Hammett had been employed by the Sanford Buick Company, and had lived in this section about 15 years. He has been farming and raising chickens and pigs at his small place at Markham, it was reported.

Wilson Says Farmers Should Plan Well Before Planting And Reaping

Streicher Tells Condemned Nazis To Have Courage

Only Two Of 11 Convicted Religious Solace

JACKSONVILLE, Oct. 14. (AP)—While it may appear unnecessary to urge farmers to plan well before planting and reaping, and William Wilson, director of Florida State Farmers' Markets, today said this reason I want to give every farmer is the need for careful study prior to the planting of crops for the Spring of 1947, and for continued maintenance of such crops through the succeeding months in order that we may have a good crop of food.

Eight men convicted in the trial of the German submarine U-231, and the outlook is still rosy from the general economic standpoint. Naturally, there are exceptions. Always, however, and doubtless always will be, however, and this is the point I want to stress, there is a general feeling today of insecurity, or uncertainty as to the future. Until we get out of that feeling, and feel some reasonable confidence in the stability of international and national conditions, political and economic conditions will be unstable.

None of the 11 Nazis who will die on the gallows have received religious solace. Only Streicher, who had advocated extermination of the Jews, and Nazi philosopher Alfred Rosenberg refused to see chaplains in their prison cells.

Rev. W. P. Brooks Declares Purity Is Still Ideal Of Christian Life

Choosing "Indispensable of Purity" as the topic of his sermon at yesterday morning's worship service at the First Baptist Church, Rev. W. P. Brooks, pastor, declared that purity is still the ideal of Christian life.

"For some Sundays," Rev. Brooks said, "we have been thinking together on the Christian's thought life, as suggested by the eighth verse of the fourth chapter of Philippians, which reads: 'Finally, brethren, whatever things are honest, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.'"

"This morning we would hear again as Paul would call our minds to this appeal, 'Whatever things are pure—think on these things,' Rev. Brooks stated.

"Whatever things are pure, is here invited," the pastor exclaimed, "an exhortation that is forever needed. For there is no substitute for purity and there is no compensation for the lack of it."

"Purity is still the ideal of the Christian. Rev. Brooks continued, "Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God."

Purity is still the ideal of the Christian," Rev. Brooks continued, "Purity of thought, of the imagination," he added, "is not just a negative something. It does not mean that we shall have a blank mind simply free from all evil. It means the directing of our thought to the good as revealed in the word of God; as set forth in every positive way in good literature, as evidenced in Christian character, and most of all, he declared, 'as seen in the eyes of Jesus.'"

Rev. Brooks continued, "To be sure, we cannot help evil thoughts intruding upon our thinking, but we do not need to harbor them, invite them in, or encourage them to make themselves at home. Paul insisted that we direct our thinking along the lines of that which is pure."

"The ideal of the Christian is not to be found," Rev. Brooks held, "in some basement bargain counter with a marked down price tag. On the contrary, bear again the challenge as given by Jesus: 'Be ye as the trees that bear fruit, and the fruit thereof to abide.'"
