HASTINGS WILL BE EARLY

By Jan. 8. Most of the Growers will Begin Planting

Hastings, Fla., Jan. 3.—On Dec. 20, 10 acres of potatoes were in the ground and by Jan. 8 all of the growers will begin planting. The 10 acres planted are the first to go in the ground, and as the weather has been ideal all the time, these potatoes should be the first harvested. There is ample seed stock here and nearly all of the growers have been supplied. There are about 800 bags left, but applications are coming almost every day from outside points asking for seed stock, and these 800 bags will be used up before planting time is over. The seed thus far has been unusually nice and none of it has shown any rot.

The supply of fertilizer has been ample and most of the growers have their fields fertilized ready for the seed. In Hastings proper the acreage will be about the same as last year with an increase of 1,000 acres in the country. This increase will make the total 9,000 acres in this section the largest ever planted in the history of the State. Up to this time conditions could not have been better had they been ordered by the growers. If these conditions continue the yield next year ought to be good.

While the price received for potatoes last year was satisfactory, the growers really made no money. This was caused from the lower yield. On an average the crop averaged only 30 bbls. to the acre, about two-thirds of what is considered a normal crop. A good crop is 40 bbls., and in some instances the yield is as high as 50 bbls. Each year the growers are learning more how to get the largest yield, and it is understood that the 1913 crop of potatoes from Hastings and vicinity will break the record. John Nix & Co. will have charge of most of the distributing from this point, as they did last year, as this firm controls about 70 per cent of the acreage.—Produce News.

Welaks Club News

During the month of December many very pleasant social entertainments were given by the members of the Welaks Club. Several of these affairs have already been graphically reported in the Herald, but among those not appearing in print, was the Kwan Koba, or Japanese Bazaar, Dec. 17 and 18, which was most artistic. The various booths were beautifully decorated, the tea table and flower garden being especially attractive. The chairman, Miss Madge Ward, and her several assistants deserve much praise for the delightful Japanese effect produced, and the decided success of the bazaar as an encouraging sum was added to the treasury.

The Children's Party on the 31st was greatly enjoyed by the thirty-seven young folks present which represented the children of the club members, and their invited guests. They met in the club rooms where the game of going to Jerusalem was entered into with zest. Then, under the leadership of Miss Lillian Gibson they were escorted to the Sanford House park, which was kindly tendered by Mr. Raines for the occasion, and while the older boys and girls played tennis, the others were entertained with games of all kinds. The girls in their pretty dresses and gay colored ribbons, accompanied by the more sombre but manly boys, playing on the beautiful grounds of the Sanford House presented a most pleasing picture. Returning to the club rooms, delicious ice cream cones and dainty cakes were served by the hostess, Mrs. Lake and her assistants, Mrs. Neal, Mrs. Householder, and Mrs. T. E. Wilson, after which the guests departed for their homes.

Demonstration a Success

Mrs. Judd is now giving her demonstration of the Ideal Fireless Cooker at the store of the Geo. H. Fernald Hardware Co. Monday was the first day. Baking was demonstrated. Delicious cake and biscuit were baked in twenty minutes. Mrs. Judd has had eleven years experience in touring the country. The attendance on Monday was very large for the opening day. Housewives are requested to send their servants if they desire, on Thursday afternoon, and Mrs. Judd will take pleasure in instructing them.

Every Week Bridge Club

Mrs. Forrest Lake was hostess of the Every Week Bridge Club Monday afternoon. Two tables of bridge were played.

Mrs. O. W. Brady made the highest score and won the prize.

After the games of cards were concluded, deviled crab, sandwiches, pickled onions and coffee were served.

Mrs. Lake's guests were Mrs. C. M. Vance, Mrs. C. O. McLaughlin, Mrs. O. W. Brady, Mrs. Cruse Barnes, Mrs. G. F. Smith, Mrs. W. D. Holden and Mrs. A. F. Connally.

SHORTAGE OF CELERY

Crop in California Is Retarded by the Cold, Dry Weather

Chicago, Jan. 3.—Dealers are experiencing a serious shortage in California celery. The cold, dry weather on the coast has retarded the crop materially, and it is difficult to get celery unless by ordering several weeks in advance. The crop is only about half of what it was five years ago. The demand greatly exceeds the supply. Florida is late, and none will come this way for four or five weeks. Prices are advancing, and growers are now getting 25c a dozen, f. o. b., which means $3.75 crate delivered. A few days of warm rain would start a heavy movement this way, and more favorable weather in Florida might start small shipments in four weeks, and heavy carload movement in six.

The California cauliflower crop is much larger than last year, and, like the celery, is greatly retarded by the continued dry, cold weather. The stock will not be above fair, and prospects are that there will be plenty of cauliflower when the movement begins in earnest.—Produce News.

Edward Baxter Perry Recital

The splendid audience which greeted Mr. Edward Baxter Perry's Lecture Recital in the auditorium of the High School Friday evening was a flattering attestation of the high standard of the divine art—music, the soul of which was interpreted to them by the skillful touch of a master artist.

Mr. Perry's audience was immediately captivated and enthused. The rapt attention, sincere and hearty applause must have convinced him of the knowledge of and appreciation of good music, by his audience. The impressions and pleasure of Mr. Perry's playing was intensified by his rare, beautiful and instructive lecture and interpretation of art and art work.

His definition and soulful tribute to music could not fail to be an inspiration and benediction to all those present who are seeking and hoping to become musicians.

What each composition was intended to describe, its meaning or suggestion, was beautifully painted in powerful, eloquent and poetic language. Mr. Perry's technique is delightful, though without display. Under the inspiration of a soul attuned to music his magic touch, called forth a responsiveness from the instrument, that was almost human.

If Mr. Perry had not played a single note his masterful lecture analyses, and beautiful tribute to music as a divine art, has left an impression and memory upon the minds and hearts of his audience that will be of lasting benefit and uplift in the community. Though deprived of his eye sight, one of the greatest blessings and necessities on earth, it cannot be other than helpful—It must be a real inspiration to the thoughtful; to realize how much Mr. Perry is making his life and talents count for in the world of music.

Mr. Perry's soulful and exquisite playing of the following beautiful selections were thoroughly enjoyed.

- "Moonlight Sonata"—Beethoven.
- "Chorus of Dancing Dervishes"—Beethoven—Saint Saens.
- "Gondolier"—"Rhapsody No 12."
- "Aus Schoener Zeit"—Henrich Hoffmann.
- "The Dryad"—Jensen.
- "Spanish Dance"—Moskowsky.
- "Aeolienne." Ballad—Lost Island, Edward Baxter Perry.

Mr. Maples, the well known commission man, is the proud possessor of a fine new Overland roadster.

GOVERNOR INAUGURATED

Florida's Native Son Takes Highest Office On Tuesday

CEREMONY A BRILLIANT AFFAIR

Hon. Paq Trammell Takes Oath To Uphold Commonwealth of Native State

The inaugural ceremonies upon the inauguration of Governor Trammell at Tallahassee last Tuesday, were among the most imposing for many years. Governor Trammell made a most striking and statesman-like appearance as he stood on the platform at the east entrance to the capitol before the large crowd of friends and visitors from all parts of the State and thanked them for their confidence entrusted to him in electing him to the high and honorable position of chief executive of his beloved State. In all of his remarks Governor Trammell showed a deepest sense of gratitude and responsibility resting on him.

Every one was most deeply impressed with his sincerity.

The committee on arrangements for the inauguration were disappointed in the inability of any visiting State troops to be present to take part in the ceremonies. However, the escort and parade was on par excellence with any that has ever been had at the capital, with the local company of State troops and the Boy Scouts of Jacksonville in uniform.

The parade from the Governor's mansion moved east to Monroe street, thence south on Monroe street to the south side of the capitol grounds, and then along the south and west side of the capitol grounds to the west entrance to the capitol.

Governors Enter Capitol

Then the Governor and Governor-elect and all the officials in the parade entered the capitol and proceeded to the entrance on the east side, where the inaugural ceremonies took place.

Governor Gilchrist made an address, in which he made a short resume of his administration, following a custom of the past. He then introduced Governor-elect Park Trammell.

Following the address of Governor Gilchrist the oath of office was administered by Chief Justice Shackelford, and Governor Trammell delivered his inaugural address.

Reception and Ball

Tuesday night in the executive offices at the capitol were held the reception from 8:30 to 10 p. m.

The inaugural ball began at 10 o'clock in the hall of the House of Representatives. The music for the ball was furnished by the military band. Numbers of society people from all parts of the State were present in the city to take part in the ball, which has always been a most pleasurable feature of similar occasions in the past.

Municipal Ownership Pays

Carbon Springs, Jan. 10.—The annual report of the city waterworks for the year 1912 shows a net surplus in earnings during that period of over $51,000. The city waterworks has been a paying proposition to the city during the past two years, but practically all of the surplus earnings are being expended in extending the main over the city, there being something over four miles at this time.

NAMES OF CANDIDATES PUBLISHED FIRST TIME TODAY

Rare Opportunity For Energetic Ladies To Win Valuable Prizes By Entering The Great Herald Piano Contest And Getting Started While The Going Is Good. Enter Today

The list of the nominations received up to date appear in The Herald today for the first time. All are determined to win the $750.00 Player Piano, or one of the other prizes. Contest has attracted the attention of the public. Orange county is going to have one of the liveliest campaigns it ever went through and the best part of it is it will be a campaign without rancor or ill feeling.

Surprises may be looked for. The count is made twice each week and the relative positions of the candidates will change from time to time.

Many of the Herald readers have been clipping the coupons and holding them back, waiting to see who was in the race and now that the candidates are announced the voting will be heavy.

Through the aid of their friends some of the ladies start out today with a good number of votes to their credit. Most of the nominations received were accompanied with a packet of the coupons.

The nominations are not closed by any means. In fact right now is the best time to go in. Just send in the nomination at once and a representative of the contest department will call on you and explain the contest in detail.

Campaign Just Starting

The Herald's big contest was announced last week, but the opening day of the contest, id today and everybody whose name appears as a candidate, has an equal opportunity to win the prize. The nomination gives each candidate 5,000 votes to start with, so new entrants need have no hesitancy about sending in their names. The nomination coupon will be found in this issue of the Herald. Clip it out and send it in today now while you think of it.

10,000 Votes Free

Every lady who sends or brings in one new subscription any time before Saturday, January 18th, will be entitled to one of the big 10,000 vote subscription coupons, found at the bottom of this column. This ballot is in addition to the regular number of votes allowed on the subscription.

In sending in the subscriptions, send in one of the large coupons which will be signed by the contest editor and will be good for 10,000 votes. The 10,000 votes are in addition to the number the subscription will earn according to the vote schedule, and only one of the coupons will be credited to each candidate. The 10,000 extra votes which are given on the first new subscription offers a big opportunity for those who wish to get a good start. After securing the big ballot, the earning power of subscriptions will be according to schedule, which will be found in this article. The big coupon must be secured by Saturday, January 18th, but after it has been secured, it may be held back if the candidate does not wish to have the votes published until later in the contest.

Many are Nominated.

The fact that the Herald has offered so rich and valuable a prize, accounts for the large list of nominations that have been received. Don't wait for someone else to send your name in. Send in the nomination blank today.

SUMMARY FLORIDA JUSTICE

South Sets Example For Adhering To The Law

NEGRO GETS QUICK JUSTICE

Other Matters Of Interest In Land Of Flowers And Balm

Weather

Marion County furnished an instance of speedy justice as Tuesday, when...

assaulted a white woman Saturday, was indicted, tried, convicted and sentenced to hang. The grand jury was called together Tuesday morning and promptly found an indictment. At 2 o'clock a petit jury was engaged in trying the case and at 4 o'clock the verdict was rendered. There was never, from the start, any doubt but that the right negro had been arrested, but to meet legal requirements Judge Gober was appointed by the court to represent the negro, which he did, asking the usual questions of witnesses. His address in favor of his client lasted only three minutes. The case against the negro was a very strong one, the first witness being the woman he had assaulted.

It was only a few minutes after the charge of the court and the retirement of the jury that the gentlemen returned with the verdict of guilty, and the court promptly pronounced the sentence, death. The execution, it is believed will take place today, or at some date very shortly, as soldiers are still on guard to prevent possible violence.

Quick action by Sheriff Galloway, Sunday in calling out the troops when it became apparent that feeling against the negro was very strong undoubtedly saved him from summary punishment by a mob.

If the state of Florida is to be properly represented at the Panama Exposition to be held in San Francisco in 1915, provision will have to be made for same at the session of the Legislature to convene in April. There is no doubt that a proper exhibition of Florida products at the Panama Exposition will prove of great value to the entire State.

Hon. Henry M. Flagler quietly celebrated his eighty-third birthday in St. Augustine last Thursday. During the he received the congratulations of hundreds of his friends and also received a number of congratulatory telegrams and messages from friends from afar.

The people of St. Augustine have at last determined to fittingly celebrate the four hundredth anniversary of the landing of Ponce de Leon in that city. At one time it seemed impossible to raise the necessary funds for the successful carrying out of the celebration, but the business men finally awoke to the importance of the matter and contributed the required amount.

BOYS CORN CLUB CONTEST

Winners Are Announced By Orlando Board Of Trade

AVERAGED OVER 35 BUSHELS

To Each Acre And Four Of The Boys Received Cash Prizes For Work

The report of the result of the work of the Boy's Corn Club of Orange county was read last night before the Board of Trade by Mahlon Gore, chairman of the Corn Club committee.

The report states that Mallory Welch, won the first prize of $100; Emmett Russ, second prize of $75; Alfred Link, third prize of $50; and Lonnie Dean, fourth prize of $25.

Young Welch is of Apopka; Russ of Zellwood; Link of Orlando, and Dean of Ovelo.

This aggregate sum—$250—was subscribed by the Board of Trade last spring when the Corn Club was organized.

The report makes interesting reading in the light of the possibilities of Orange county soil, the results showing beyond a shadow of a doubt that the raising of corn can be made a profitable industry in this locality.

Twelve of the thirty boys that entered the contest persisted, and the twelve raised an average yield of thirty-six bushels to the acre. The report state that formerly, under the old method of cultivation, the average yield was less than ten bushels. The successful contestants raised more than fifty bushels to the acre. And seven of the twelve produced in excess of thirty-five bushels to the acre.

The cost of producing the various crops averaged $17 an acre.

To the Board of Trade of Orlando, Gentlemen:—Your committee to whom was assigned the duty of awarding the prizes voted to the winners in the Boy Corn Club contest, beg to submit the following report:

This body offered the sum of $250 to be given to the contestants, as follows: First prize, $100; Second prize, $75; Third prize, $50; Fourth prize, $25.

We are informed by County Superintendent of Schools McKindon, that about thirty boys of Orange county entered the contest. But that only twelve continued their efforts and made their final reports. These reports we have carefully gone over, and we find that seven of the twelve produced an excess of thirty-five bushels each, while five of them exceeded forty, and the yield of three was upwards of fifty bushels each.

It appears to your committee that such a result, when heretofore the average yield of corn has probably never reached ten bushels and where individual efforts have rarely produced twenty bushels, the boys are entitled to the prizes offered by this body, and also to such consideration in the future as will encourage them to demonstrate, beyond all question, that corn can be successfully and profitably grown as a farm crop in Florida, and teach their fathers and brothers how to do it.

The average production of the entire twelve boys was thirty-six bushels; three times the average yield in former years under the old methods.

Remember, this was the first year for the boys, under the improved methods. Several of them report that they were without instruction in the scientific methods now being exploited by the Government Department of Agriculture. It is also evident from the results shown, that seed selection was not understood or applied by them.

The boys have shown the right spirit. With a more thorough knowledge and continued encouragement we may look for better results.

Some of the reports were very incomplete, many important items being entirely omitted. Others were carefully prepared, each item of cost being stated on the report blanks sent out by the Department. One of the participating boys was only ten years old and two others but twelve years. Bezar in mind, under the rules of the department, only boys under eighteen are eligible to enter these contests. This boy corn club movement is a kindergarten school of instruction, of which the keeping of itemized accounts and rendering complete

For Secretary of Agriculture
 Washington, D. C., Jan. 10, (Special)— Prominent mention recently has been given the name of United States Senator Duncan U. Fletcher, of Florida, as a possible selection by President-elect Woodrow Wilson for the important cabinet post of Secretary of Agriculture. A number of the large papers of the country have contained his name in this connection as among the probable slates favored by the present governor of New Jersey.
 Friends of the President-elect have urged that the choice would be a most happy one in every respect and that the Florida
 Senator would prove one of the next President's most capable advisers, alert and thorough.

His work in the agricultural development of the South through his presidency of the Southern Commercial Congress, has been cited as considerably in his favor. Mr. Fletcher, April 26th, this year, will head a commission that is to go to Europe to study the question of agricultural finance as practiced in the various European countries in a cooperative way by the farmers. This commission will be the largest body of men ever to visit Europe officially from the United States. The party will return to New York July 18th.

Senator Fletcher's work in the study of "a way in which the farmer may help to help himself financially" has attracted high commendations from all sections of the United States and has won favorable recognition abroad. The commission which he is to head on the tour of Europe has been endorsed by the International Institute of Agriculture, President Taft, the United States Senate, the Department of State, the Farmer's Educational and cooperative Union of American, the Farmer's National Congress, the Southern Association of Agricultural Workers, the American Association of Commercial Executives, the National Drainage Congress, the recent conference of Governors at Richmond and the National Grange.

Thrasher is Chairman

The new members of the Board of Public Instruction for Orange County were inducted into office last Tuesday at the first meeting of the year, held in Superintendent McKinnon's office in the court house.

The members of the Board are D. L.
 Thrasher of Sanford, J. A. Knox of Orlando, and William Edwards of Zellwood.
 The retiring members who were also present at yesterday's session, were S. E.
 Ives, Sr., of Orlando, and W. L. Story of Winter Garden. These were retired owing to their not having run for re-election to the office.

The new board was organized with Mr. Thrasher as chairman, and the chief item of business transacted during the day, from the standpoint of public interest, was the authorization of a laboratory for the Orlando school. The laboratory will be used for experiments in physics, and later perhaps for chemical experiments. It will be thoroughly equipped, and will be instituted at a near date, so as to be available for this year's work.

Launch Explodes

Landing at Cape Canaveral Tuesday after a rough trip in a small power boat, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Cheeseborough of New York, accompanied by four of their yacht crew of the Huntress, told of the explosion of their vessel Monday off Cape Canaveral, east of Titusville and the loss of three of the seamen.

The accident occurred at four o'clock
 Monday while the Huntress was enroute from New York to Miami, where Mr. and Mrs. Cheeseborough were to spend the winter. Immediately after the explosion which riddled the handsome craft, causing her to sink, the small power launch was rescued and those above named shoved off and proceeded to Can-avaral.

The cook, steward and one seaman were killed in the explosion, their bodies not being recovered.

From Canaveral the shipwrecked party was taken to Titusville by Captain Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. Cheeseborough left it there late this afternoon for their destination.

The Huntress was about ninety feet long, a member of the New-York Yacht club, and cost $30,000. Mr. Cheese-borough is the youngest son of Robert A. Cheeseborough, the vasoline manufacturer of New York. The boat together with the furnishings, clothing jewelry, etc., was a total loss.

New Theatre at Orlando

The Grand, Orlando's fine new theatre opened Tuesday night to an immense crowd and appropriate ceremonies and from the account in the Reporter-Star, this new play house must be work of art.
 The Grand is another monument to that indefatigable booster, Col. T. J. Watkins, the man who has done more to boost the county capital than any other citizen of Orlando. The new theatre will make a specialty of moving pictures but is also equipped to handle other attractions.

Wednesday Club

We ring the bells and we raise the strain We hang up garlands everywhere, And bid the tapers twinkle fair, And feast and frolic, and then we go Back to the same old life again." And so thought the wise program committee of the Wednesday Club, and instead of the regular weekly program a very pleasing innovation and variety of entertainment was prepared by them for the first meeting of the new year; at the home of the secretary, Mrs. S. O. Chase, Wednesday afternoon.

After a brief pleasant "New Year Greeting," by the president, Mrs. Maris, the minutes of the two last meetings of the old year were read by the secretary Mrs. Chase. The president announced that the club had been invited to meet at the home of Mrs. George H. Fernald during January, and also the program for next Wednesday, concluding, she turned the meeting over to Mrs. Chase, chairman of the program committee; who read the verse quoted above, and said that the committee had thought it would be pleasant to follow the advice of the unknown writer, and make the first meeting of the new year an entertaining diversion. The garlands were hanging everywhere in the rooms, their rich green beauty intensified by the beautiful red roses, red bells and starry jasmamines. The bright tapers were also twinkling everywhere—and after the feast and frolics it was very certain that we would all go "back to the same old life again." A very delightful program had been prepared by the charming program committee, beginning with a quartette, Tennyson's "Ring Out Wild Bells," splendidly rendered by Mrs. C. E. Walker, Mrs. G. B. Waldron, Mrs. Douglas, Mrs. G. L. Speer; accompanied by Miss Carrie Lovell. Mrs. R. C. Maxwell gave the delightful reading "Lasca." Mrs. Wilhelm of Portsmouth, Ohio, a charming visitor in the city, accompanied by Mrs. D. L. Thrasher, entertained the club with the beautiful violin selection, "Souvenir De Wientawski." The delighted listeners regretted that Mrs. Wilhelm had brought only one selection. Miss Mabel Bowler accompanied by Mrs. D. L. Thrasher sang "Where My Caravan Has Rented"—Herman Lohr, and for encore, "A Parting Song."—John W. Phillips Mrs. Maxwell entertained the club with another selection, "The Ride from Ghent to Aix" by Browning. A number of questions about Mexico, the customs of the people, their food, pleasures, music and flowers, were distributed by Mrs. Chase to those with the request that they would answer them after refreshment, which were served in the beautifully decorated dining room, with the same color motif; green and red with jasmamines. Mrs. L. G. Stringfellow poured the coffee and Mrs. G. B. Waldron served the delicious vegetable salad and rusks, assisted by Mrs. B. F. Whitner, Jr., and Miss Nell Whitner and Mabel Bowler. After the salad, an ice course, followed by mince were served.

Carrying out the poetic suggestion of the letter, Mrs. E. W. D. Dunn rang the bells and the club all became attention; and were ready as far as their knowledge of Mexican life extended, to answer the questions given them. The questions were nearly everyone answered correctly. Many were indebted to Mrs. G. L. Speer, who kindly supplied the correct pronunciation of many names and words, as she had lived in Mexico. She also gave some details of Mexican life, and interesting episodes. After a brief social time together, the meeting adjourned until Wednesday next.

Pretty souvenirs of the delightful occasion were the dainty little bows of red white and green, Mexican colors; which were pinned on each arrival by Miss Nell Whitner, one of the program committee. Program for January 15th: Music. "The Scout Law," Mrs. George B. Waldron. "How Shall We Teach The Child Obedience?" Mrs. L. R. Phillips. "How Shall We Teach The Child Value of Money?" Mrs. A. D. Key. "How Shall We Teach Honesty?" Discussion opened by Mrs. M. H. Bowler.

Cameo Bridge Club Mrs. Robert Newman was hostess of the Cameo Bridge Club Wednesday evening. Two tables of bridge were played. Mrs. Newman made the highest score and won the club prize, the Cameo brooch, which she will wear until some one wins it from her at the next meeting. Mrs. Newman's guests were, Mrs. C. M. Vorce, Mrs. R. L. Hughes, Mrs. C. O. McLaughlin, Mrs. O. W. Brady, Mrs. A. P. Connelley, Mrs. G. F. Smith and Mrs. B. H. Herndon. Enter the Herald piano contest.

FLORIDA'S FORTUNATE FAVORS

Is More Protected From Chilling Frosts Than California Florida has been very fortunate in escaping the cold wave which has been prevailing over the country, and which from all appearances was headed this way. Conditions were such as to threaten a cold wave of intensity, but the slight barometric trough that lay between this part of the country has held its position and the southerly winds of its eastern side have kept the country along the Appalachians and Atlantic warm in spite of very severe temperatures in the states beyond the Mississippi. While the southern part of California is lamenting the freeze which is prevailing there, which has broken all records for the past forty years and done almost incalculable damage to the citrus fruit industry, the southern part of Florida is enjoying summer weather. In fact, in this city yesterday all records for heat in January were broken, the reports showing that at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon the mercury registered 83.1 degrees, which is also a record breaker. The previous record was 82 degrees.

From the reports issued the cold has advanced over southeastern Texas, and carried the freezing line into the Gulf, but the temperature has not fallen to the east of the middle Gulf coast. Severe cold weather still prevails in the citrus districts of California. Reports showed that yesterday morning the temperature fell several degrees below freezing at San Diego, while at San Bernardino the thermometer registered seventeen, Redlands nineteen and Riverside twenty-two, which are the corners of the citrus belt.

It is especially fortunate that in Florida the cold does not come so suddenly as in California, and, when warnings are given by the weather bureau the citrus growers have several days to prepare for a freeze. Speaking of this matter the United States weather bureau points out that in California cold weather has been the winter and sudden developments of high pressure push the over-the-range to the coast in a few hours. Here cold waves move southward towards Florida for from a two to four days and their approach can be watched and the necessary protective measures can be taken advantage of. Finally, if the cold is sure, there are from twenty-four to thirty-six hours advance notice. In the present case the cold wave floated northwardly, and this is more than the case that has often occurred in the past that the cold comes into the peninsula. —Tampa Tribune.

Office in Herald Building Telephone No. 148

Our advice to the farmers of Taylor county: Do as you doggone please this year. Plant just what you please and cultivate as you please and fertilize as you please, and gather as you please, and sell as you please. This is the only kind of advice they will heed and the Banner likes to give advice that will be heeded and appreciated.—Perry Banner.

In Sanford the work of erecting a new office and was a job for the Southern Express Company has been started near the new passenger station. The large platform will be covered by a shed and the main building will be twenty by forty feet long, ground dimensions. It is substantially and attractively planned and will have cost when completed about $12,000 and be the means of handling the express business at that point in a better and more satisfactory manner.—Times Union.

My good friend Holly, he who has made such a pleasing success of the Sanford Herald, addresses me, the "Man in the hole" as "My Genial Ground-Hog Friend." Did you ever hear the like? Holly will soon be taming female aviators as "My Ladybug Chicken"—and then there will be troubles in B'rer Holly's family—and they will not be mere "little ones," eyether. The term "ground hog" is merely a round about way of insinuating that I am a mere sausage—and that is going too far—t-o-o f-a-a-r!—Palm Beach County.

This section of DeSoto can lose nothing in being made into a new county, as has long been contemplated. With a lower rate of taxation and more benefits to be derived from the taxes paid, the elimination to a great extent of the reasons for the existence of unfriendly factions and a better administration of county affairs that will be brought about in the creation of a new county out of this part of DeSoto is eminently to be desired by all citizens within the boundaries of the new county.—Punta Gorda Herald.

"County division" is being agitated in several different sections of Florida, and there is good reason to believe that the number of counties in the state will be considerably increased by the next legislature. The several division propositions have much to commend them and should appeal forcibly to all who believe in bringing the government as close to the people as possible. Let's have the new counties—they have become necessary in the progress and prosperity of our fair state.—Punta Gorda Herald.

COUNTY DIVISION ISSUE

What is the issue in county division? Is it Forrest Lake and Holly and The Herald or is it a question of taxes, better service, better roads, better schools and more of them, equalization of taxes, a square deal in politics and many other things that can be righted?

The people who are residing in the new territory want to know whether their lot will be better in the new county than in the old and the majority of them have been convinced that their taxes cannot be any more than now and that they can at least get an even break. We have gone even farther and proved to them by facts and figures that their taxes will not be higher but have a good chance to be lower. We have proved to them that they would get all the improvements that they have been needing for many years and have proved beyond peradventure that Sanford by her works will prove and carry out every promise.

That is what the people residing in the county precincts want to know. They care nothing about Representative Lake or Holly or The Herald. These parties will be dead after awhile but the new county and the emoluments thereof will go on forever and the taxpayers and their children will be here to get the benefits of the new county.

There are several questions to be decided by the people.

Are you getting the worth of your money now? Can the new county give you better results for your money? Does Sanford believe in improvements and a square deal? Would you rather build an $100,000 addition to the old court house or save it for a future new one for less money? Do you want to think for yourself or have the Orlando ring do your thinking for you? Do you have any choice in county affairs now and do you ever expect to have any in Orange county?

These are the real live issues to be decided and the Orlando papers have never yet attempted to prove that such a change would injure the people in the new county in any way.

They have proved that it would injure their county, their little ring, their little house of cards. They have slobbered over about leaving old Mother Orange and the poor little unprotected child going forth into the cold world and the wealth and beauty and chivalry connected with the dear old county.

They have asserted that several individuals led them astray in the primaries and put one over on the county ring when they were not looking and before they could recover sufficiently to put these individuals in limbo the county division was an assured victory.

But the real issues have been clouded. The space has been taken up by the Orlando papers in a Quixotic style of fighting windmills. They have given no reasons for opposing county division except the selfish one of wanting our taxes. They have exposed the political ring that would dictate the policy of every office holder. They have in fact proved to the satisfaction of every man in the new territory of Harney that the old county of Orange was not the place for him under present conditions and in reality have proved our case to the jury better than we could have accomplished it.

THERE IS NOT A SOUND, VALID REASON WHY ORANGE COUNTY SHOULD NOT BE DIVIDED AND THE LEGISLATURE OF FLORIDA WILL BE GOVERNED BY REASONS, FACTS AND FIGURES.

SWALLOWED THE BAIT.

Since County Division became an issue The Herald has sought to bring out the Orlando papers on the question of whether politics, religion or the people stood in the way of creating a new county in the north end. Several times this paper has stated that there was no argument to be submitted on the anti-county division side and that never in the history of county division matters has there ever been a sound argument that could be used against separation. When counties become populous enough, strong enough to ask for county division they put the matter squarely up to the legislature or to the people in the new count for a vote and separation results.

After baiting the Orlando papers sufficiently they have proceeded to tell inside facts regarding their stand on county matters and their manner of controlling the politics of Orange county. Editor Ferris of the Sentinel, was the first to break forth into song about the perfidy of Representative Lake, who being a resident of Sanford had the audacity to support county division against the wishes of the powerful Orlando politicians. The next one to fall into the net was Editor Howard of the Orlando Citizen, who in last Tuesday's issue took half an acre of space to tell how Mr. Lake promised to stand by Orlando no matter what Sanford wanted. That Lake said this and that about the Herald and Holly did not represent the Sanford people in any degree.

We will pass lightly over the article and only say in reply that Mr. Howard fully exposes the county ring just as Mr. Ferris did. Both of these papers make it plain that unless a candidate favors Orlando's plans and so states before an election that the county ring will do all in their power to defeat that candidate.

That is the idea that The Herald wishes to bring out and while much space has been taken up in making the position of the Orlando people plain to our readers in the new territory and no doubt the subject has become tiresome, the fact that a coterie of self-assertive politicians are attempting to block county division for selfish reasons of their own, is plainly apparent and has even been acknowledged by their own organs.

It is unnecessary for the Herald to fight Mr. Lake's battles in the county division matter. He is fully able and competent to take care of himself under all conditions. If the Orlando people think he is wrong in taking Sanford's side in the county division fight then they are doubly wrong in attempting to coerce and browbeat him into making any expression about a matter that was so vital to his home city and the inhabitants of this part of the county.

But The Herald, now that it has gained the desired information from Orlando papers, insists on asking for reasons why Orange county should not be divided. It insists on the people who are against county division proving that the change will work any hardship on the people of Harney. It insists that the facts and figures be brought forth proving that separation means the ruin that they talk about so plausibly to our country friends and unless these facts and figures are brought into the matter and proven then The Herald rightly argues that county division should have no opposition except from the little coterie who are now deriving most benefit from a large county and this select coterie does not represent the people by a large majority.

GIVE THE PEOPLE FACTS. SANFORD IS READY FOR THE VERDICT.

TO THE GROWERS

Reports from California are to the effect that early celery has been touched by the freeze that recently visited that state and that the crop will be curtailed. This report can easily be verified and meantime The Herald would like to remark that the outlook especially for the first of the Sanford celery never looked better. There is but little celery in Florida this season outside of Sanford and the growers have the situation in their grasp, if they will use sound judgment. The growers should know when they are getting a profit on their celery and when they are offered a good profit by a reliable firm or by the cash deposit made secure on a good offer they should not hesitate to sell. Money paid to the growers here is something to be considered, and any information regarding the crops and markets can be found at the office of the Florida Growers News in the Herald building. Mr. Jas. McCombs, the editor of the News, has the wire service and can keep you posted on the markets and his office is at your service. There is no need for any grower to be disappointed this year in the markets. There will be a steady demand for celery during the season and Sanford growers should be able to realize a good profit from the crop if it is up to the growers to start the price right and keep it right during the remainder of the season, insisting on an f. o. b. market if possible.

ABOUT OUR PLAYGROUND

Bob Holly, editor of the Sanford Herald, who has an appropriate name during Christmas festivities, is getting rich and he thinks the rest of our Florida editors are enjoying the same blessing. He wants us all to "chip in" and buy a hundred acres of land in South Florida with a crystal lake in the center and build thereon a luxurious club house, for the use of ourselves, families and friends. It's a delightful idea, and we hope the Florida Press Association will adopt it and carry it to realization, and then we know Brother Holly will invite this impetuous scribe to come and share with him the luxurious life to which he aspires. But why not locate this resort among the mountains of West Virginia beside some beautiful trout stream flowing into the Holston river? We need a summer resort. We have all Florida for our winter resort.—Punta Gorda Herald.

Virginia or North Carolina would be fine but none of us have money enough to make the trip. A good tract on the east or west coast of Florida would be better and our northern brethren could enjoy a week or two at the resort during the winter. Florida's summer climate is good enough for us.

MORE ABOUT GARDEN COUNTY

The people of the Winter Garden section are pulling for their new county, and are getting the glad hand from Lake county on the proposition. The following from the Winter Garden Times speaks volumes for the success of the new county:

"We talked to a prominent Clermont business man about joining us in forming Garden county and to our surprise he favored it and will bring it up before the Board of Trade of that beautiful young city. Clermont is one of the prettiest spots in Florida. Nature has done wonders for Clermont; but Winter Garden can be made more beautiful by man's help and being nearly in the geographical center of the new county it would, of course, be the county seat. With two such towns in the county with the garden lying round them we would have county and towns to beat the world."

FROM FATHER TO SON

Listen boys! All the gold of the world could not buy for your parents the joy and pride that would fill their hearts in being able to make such an announcement about you as Honorable Frank Harris, editor of the Ocala Banner, made with reference to his boy on New Year's Day. Young Frank Harris has proved himself a worthy son of a good father and has been associated with his father as joint owner of the Ocala Banner. In announcing the formation of the partnership the father pays this beautiful tribute to the son:

"The undersigned takes great pleasure in announcing that his son, Frank Harris, Jr., becomes joint owner of the Ocala Banner from this date. He is authorized and empowered to sign all checks, make all contracts, receive and disburse all monies, and do all else connected with the publication of the paper the same as if he were its sole owner."

"I hope that I may be pardoned in saying that I have watched his career

High Price of Gasoline.

New York, Jan. 10.—"Every increase of one cent a gallon in the price of gasoline means a loss of $10,000,000 a year to the automobilist, according to protest voiced at a meeting of sixty-five garage owners of this city last night against the increase prices of gasoline. Steps were taken to enlist the interest of automobile owners and particularly the Automobile Club of America to devise ways and means of battling the high prices. It was determined that coincident with the gradual increases in the price there has been a decrease in the grade of gasoline."

William Eston Shine

DEATH OF ESTON SHINE

Prominent Orlando Attorney and Prosecutor-Elect Succumbs

News came to Orlando shortly after six o'clock Wednesday morning that William Eston Shine, prosecuting attorney-elect for Orange County, died in New York city shortly after midnight Tuesday night.

He was suffering from a nervous ailment, and in a fit of delirium leaped from the fifth story of the New York Hospital, where he was a patient. Two nurses were with him at the time, but he evaded them, and rushed to the window, raised the sash and leaped out. His body was crushed on the pavement below.

Mr. Shine had been ill for about two months, and while recently he was confined to his bed for about two weeks, his friends had no notion of the seriousness of the malady from which he suffered; so that the news of his death came as a surprise and shock.

It was some two months ago that he was confined to his bed. The malady was diagnosed as a form of malarial fever; but he also suffered from a cyst, a sort of tumor of the back. He did not improve as rapidly as it was thought he should, and his brother, Dr. Frank Shine came down from New York and urged that Eston return with him for an operation.

He entered the New York Hospital the latter part of last week, and was successfully operated upon by Dr. Downs. He was recovering so rapidly that he was shortly expected to return home.

Wednesday morning shortly after six o'clock the telephone bell rang at the Greetham home, and Mrs. Greetham, Mr. Shine's mother, answered the call. A telegraph message announced the death of Mr. Shine, was being relayed from Jacksonville.

The phone message was indistinct, and Mrs. Greetham had difficulty in understanding the message, but when the purport of it was conveyed to her, she all but fainted.

The body was shipped from New York Wednesday morning, and the burial will take place today.

William Eston Shine was twenty-seven years of age, and was one of the best known and most popular young attorneys in the county. He was elected last spring, after a spirited campaign, over George DeCotte, of Sanford, to the county solicitorship, and was to have entered upon his new duties in May.

He had been practicing law in Orlando about four years, having studied in the office of Massey and Warlow. He was son of the late Thomas Shine, who for many years held the position of clerk of the Circuit Court of Orange County. Some ten years ago his mother married Mr. W. H. Greetham, and the family still resided in the home where Eston was born.

Last April a year Eston Shine married Miss Florence Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Howard, of this city. Since the marriage the couple have been living with Mr. and Mrs. Greetham.

There are two brothers and a sister surviving: Miss Lillie Shine living in Orlando, Dr. Frank W. Shine is a practicing physician in New York, and Mr. Alexander Shine living in Miami.—Reporter-Star.

KILN-DRIED HAY

Tallahassee Farmer Has Solved Curing of Florida Hay

Seemingly to have solved the problem of curing hay in Florida just at the time it is ready to cut without regard to whether it rains or the sun shines, there is a bale kiln dry hay on exhibition at the city offices of the Seaboard Air Line here that is worth examining.

S. Z. Ruff of Tallahassee is the man who says he has solved the haymaking problem.

This bale of pea-vines and native crab grass, is cured to a beautiful color, and tests made of the nutritive qualities show that the artificial heat has driven nothing from the hay except the moisture.

Mr. Ruff, who is one of the largest farmers in that section of the state, has several hundreds of acres in Pecan trees, between which he raises forage crops of such kind that give to the soil in nitrogen more than they take away, and at the same time yield amazingly in hay of the finest dairying and stock-feeding qualities.

His problem has been to cure his hay pea-vines, especially, as the ripening season comes on just at the time that Florida is the grasp of the midsummer rainy season.

Mr. Ruff has built a house which will contain nearly a ton of green hay and fitted it up with steam pipes connected with an engine. The hay is placed on carriers which make slow—almost imperceptible—movement through the building, back and forth three or four times according to the amount of water in the hay. When it finally emerges it is ready for the balers, and is at once packed in marketable shape.—Jacksonville Metropolis.

ETHEL ITEMS

Mrs. Wilkerson returned home Friday from Palatka, where she has been visiting her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rush lost their little son, Clyde, Tuesday night at 10:30 o'clock. It was taken suddenly ill Sunday night and after a brief illness of two days it passed away. Little Clyde was fifteen months old. He will be missed by parents and friends. But as the Divine Maker thought best to take the little darling to a better land, we hope that his little smiling face will be the first to meet the bereaved parents after they have shaken off their earthly cares and ascended to a better home. It was buried Wednesday evening at 3 o'clock in the Ethel Cemetery. The little grave was beautifully decorated with roses and other fragrant flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross and son Harold, made a flying trip to Sanford Monday.

A delightful dance and supper was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Sapp of Markham last Friday night. Music was rendered by Mrs. Ross. At seven o'clock the crowd began to arrive and by eight the parlor was filled with smiling faces of young people. Mrs. Sapp with her smiling face met the host of friends as they arrived. Miss Sallie Lipford and Mr. J. W. Kersey were leaders of the dance. Supper was served at 10:30, consisting of spaghetti, salads, sandwiches, cakes, fruits and fancy candies. The drinks were postum, hot chocolate and lemonade. The dining room was decorated with ferns and foses. The parlor was decorated with palms and pot plants.

CLARK DEFENDS FLORIDA

Our Congressman Calls Down Several Members

Washington, C. D., Jan. 8.—Congressman Frank Clark today took the floor in vigorous denunciation of remarks made a day or two ago by Congressman Mann of Illinois, and Ferris of Oklahoma, when "Florida crackers" were placed in the same category as rabbits, as declared by Mr. Ferris, and put on a plane with Indians by Mr. Mann. The occasion for making these remarks was when the Indian appropriation bill was being discussed, when Mr. Mann started the trouble by declaring that "Indians have as much sense as native crackers of Florida and are quite able to take care of themselves." Mr. Clark, when he got the floor today, declared that no braver people than the Seminoles existed. "Don't call them rabbits," he said, "Cracker is a title proudly worn by every true Floridian, whether he be a son of that great commonwealth or a son of adoption. The man who lives in Florida for two or three years, whether he hails from the North, East or West, or some portion of the south, assumes that title of "Florida cracker" and wears it as a badge of the greatest honor.

"And why shouldn't he be proud of the distinction? Gen. Edmund Kirby Smith, one of the greatest, one of the mightiest, one of the bravest of that magnificent body of men who constituted the commanding officers of the Confederate states army, was a native born "Florida cracker." Gen. Edward A. Perry, although born in Massachusetts, was a "Florida cracker" by adoption, and a bigadier general in the Confederate army. He illustrated his dauntless bravery and unflinching courage in many hard fought battles. Dr. John Gorrie, the gentle and faithful physician, who invented the process of manufacturing ice artificially and thus became the greatest benefactor of humanity of modern times, was a "Florida cracker."

"I cannot let this opportunity pass without calling attention to the fact that Florida has only been in the Union sixty-eight years; the civil war and other causes delayed her development and she really only began her march of progress within the last quarter of a century. Her resources have hardly been established, and no human mind can foresee the possibilities in store for her. To the original pioneer, those sturdy Americans unlettered it's true, but as brave patriotic souls as ever heard the war cry of the savage who conquered Florida, is due the credit of giving the magnificent domain to the American Union."

In closing his remarks Mr. Clark said that Florida had never been disgraced by the antics of a "Jack Johnson and a half witted white girl who were apparently affording sport for the people of Chicago. The black crow," he said, "was never intended to roost near the nest of the gray eagle."

More About Market Conditions

In commenting on the Herald's article on market conditions, Percy Philip Vyle, the Jacksonville ad man writes that on Jan. 3rd he received a letter from a Birmingham, Alabama, prominent grocer, in which it was stated that he, the grocer, had his celery delivered to him direct from Michigan, his lettuce from Cincinnati and his poultry from Missouri.

While it is evident that the celery refers to the fall Michigan crop, there is no reason for buying lettuce in the Cincinnati market for sale in the Birmingham retail market—it is quite likely that Sanford celery, first shipped to Cincinnati, will supply the Birmingham market some days later.

The whole trouble with the Florida vegetable growing is in the distribution. I have frequently talked with the Howard-Packard Land Co., about this feature—it matters not what a man can grow on his land, if he cannot get distribution and a fair price, he is worse off than before he started to farm.

You can go into thousands of northern and western cities and towns in mid-winter, and never see a head of lettuce, cabbage or a stalk of celery; yet in Cincinnati, Pittsburg, and other centers, produce doesn't bring enough to pay freight.

There's absolutely no question about the demand for Sanford, and Florida products in general, but their distribution must be solved first.

NO CALIFORNIA FRUIT

Temperature Went Low Enough to Kill Prospects.

New York, N. Y., Jan. 10.—(Special.) A wire to the New York Produce News from Redlands, Cal., today says: "After a thorough canvass of the situation growing out of the recent freeze, your representative finds that the financial damage sustained therefrom is estimated as much greater than that of the Frisco earthquake disaster.

"The growers are despondent and the situation is most serious. Not a single section escaped—Riverside, Redlands, Biglands, Glendora, Covina, San Diego. The story of extreme low temperatures frozen fruit and damaged trees is the same everywhere throughout the citrus belt.

"The temperatures everywhere in the citrus belt went to eighteen degrees lower. The general is that there is not a first class orange left in the state. At least 80 per cent of the crop was on the trees when the freeze came Sunday and Monday nights is worthless.

"No such condition ever existed before in the citrus growing industry of this state. Any general plan of action may be abandoned.

"All smudged groves are gone as well as those that were unprotected. The growers have practically given up hope. The east will have to take frosted oranges or get none from California. No lemons were saved."

The ladies are waiting to see the Violet Brand Sale at Yowell's next Wednesday.

Will Kill The Buzzard

Atlanta, Jan. 6.—One of the things the next Georgia Legislature will have to officially endorse or condemn is buzzards. That broad-winged and strong-odored bird has long enjoyed the high commendation and protection of Georgia lawmakers, on the principal that it was a valuable scavenger and deserved public protection as a public service.

But, as happens to nearly all public servants if they work long enough, the motives and efficiency of the buzzard have at length been impugned. It is alleged that the buzzard spreads hog cholera and other germs and does infinitely more sanitary harm than it does good.

If this can be proved before the Legislature, it is quite possible that the official protection will be removed, and that hunters will be recommended to take a shot at the big bird whenever the chance offers.

An Ideal

I know of no more encouraging fact than the unquestionable ability of a man to elevate his life by a conscious endeavor. It is something to be able to paint a particular picture, or to carve a statue and so make a few objects beautiful, but it is far more glorious to carve and paint the very atmosphere and medium through which we look, which morally we can do.—Thoreau.

BRIDE OF A MONTH

Farmer's Son Goes to College and Weds City Girl Who Makes Good.

By AUGUSTUS GOODRICH SHERWIN.

"She won't do, Elias," said Mrs. Green in a positive tone—"she won't do at all."

"I'm afraid not," answered her husband with a doleful shake of the head. "I reckon John has made a dreadful mistake. Not that the poor little thing has a lousy bone in her body. She's bright, chipper and accommodating, but it's all the wrong way."

"Yes, working embroidery and training roses don't count like milking and making butter," observed the practical housewife. "There's Ellen, now. She's worth her weight in gold at the churn."

"And Mary," added the old farmer. "Why, that girl just makes fun of pitching hay."

Ellen was the wife of James Green, and Mary had married his brother, Ethan. They were great strapping fellows, both of them, and their wives malod them. The old farmer had declared they had showed rare common sense in selecting helpmates who knew how to earn their living.

"It's all come of John going to college," mourned the old man. "He came back with his crazy scientific farming ideas, and a little doll of a thing who'll never wet her fingers in the way of work."

The "little doll of a thing," Madge Green, the bride of a month, was at that very moment crying as if her heart would break, in a viney embow.

Madge Was in His Arms Sobbing Out Her Pitiful Story.

ered corner of the front porch. She had heard every word spoken by the farmer and his wife.

It was not the first time that Madge had learned that these rough but honest-hearted people considered her entirely out of her natural element. She had come to Willow Farm in good faith, and had tried to be happy and helpful. Mrs. Green had laughed at her, however, when she got up a meal composed of really exquisite dainties, but a mere incidental mouthful to hungry seekers after corn beef and cabbage, and lots of it. The farmer had regarded her with real sympathy, when he found her pretty hands all scraped and cut from shelling corn for the chickens.

"I won't be a nobody, even here!" exclaimed Madge, after a good crying spell. "I love John, and his folks, too. I'm going to learn how to please them, no matter how hard it seems." It was this sudden resolve that led to a vast surprise on the part of bluff, hearty John Green half an hour later, as he came round the corner of the barn to face a most amazing scene.

Madge, wearing a long apron and all furried and excited, was stamping her foot at a cow. The animal was swinging her tail and pawing the ground. Behind the cow lay a cream pitcher in pieces.

"Why, little girl, what does 'this mean'?" challenged the big-hearted fellow.

In an instant Madge was in his arms and sobbing out her pitiful story. "It's no use, John," she wailed. "I wanted to learn how to milk, just like Ellen and Mary. That hateful old moseley wouldn't let me, and kicked the pitcher to pieces. Oh, John, I'll never be of any use for anything."

"John Green had to laugh at the absurd situation. Then, all manly tenderness, he stroked the golden hair of his young and pretty wife.

"You poor little angel," he said, "nobody is going to hurt you, and nobody could dislike you. I didn't know you here to wear out those dear little hands. All you have got to do is to be the sunshine of the house, which you are, until I convince father and mother that farm life is something better than humdrum drudgery. When I come to show them the profits from my scientific farming on that eighty-acre field father gave me to experiment with, there'll be a grand change in ideas, mark me! All you have got to do is to be patient, dear. Everything will come out all right."

There were a good many changes at Willow Farm inside of a few weeks. James Green caught the Texas fever. Ethan had a chance to superintend an immense Dakota farm. It was rather lonely after they left. Then Mrs. Green was taken down with rheumatism. A week later the farmer broke a limb in a runaway accident, and the doctor prescribed invalid treatment for both.

That was where John Green came in strong. Madge, too. Most of the heavy farm work was out of the way, and John managed to run things with little extra help. There were real cozy, enjoyable evenings for the young married couple. Old Mrs. Green limped around and bore the main burden of meal getting. With husky working appetites out of the way, however, she was surprised to find in how many useful ways Madge was fitting herself into the work. John helped Madge wash the dishes, and after a week or two of grumbling Mrs. Green confessed one evening that things were "real comfortable."

"Little girl," said John one day, when Madge proudly showed him the result of her bread baking, "this work is coming pretty heavy on you."

"Oh, John," declared Madge, "I love it."

"I was thinking that perhaps we had better induce the old folks to settle in town and give up the farm—they can afford it."

"Oh, John! give up the dear old home? Don't think of it," pleaded Madge. "We are getting along splendidly. Why, I heard father say to mother yesterday that the little dabbles I made for him were making him well faster than the doctor's medicine. Then mother said I was the best nurse in the world. Think of it—poor little me!"

That evening, after Madge had given them some music on the piano, John drew a paper from his pocket covered with figures.

"Father," he said, "there are the returns from the eighty-acre field. I find that my 'scientific nonsense' as you call it, has brought in more than all the rest of the farm put together, with half the usual help."

"John," exclaimed the old man, after staring stupidly at the paper, "it's like a dream!"

"Stubborn facts, father," declared John, cheerily. "Now I've got a proposition to make. You and mother have worked hard enough for one lifetime. Let me run the farm. Madge will get a strong hired girl to do the rough work."

"If my own little efforts only suit!" broke in Madge wistfully.

"But!" cried the old man. "Why, say, this broken limb of mine has just been luxury with the fine feeding you've given me. And look at me—all perked up with the collar and apron you made. Why, last night I caught her humming over one of those old time tunes you play for us, just like she used to when she was a young girl."

Mrs. Green reached over to Madge and pulled her towards her. She drew the fair face down to her own and kissed her softly, her eyes humid and grateful.

"Yes, Madge is a jewel," she said. "She is better than that!" cried old Farmer Green—"she's a household angel."

PURELY PERSONAL

W. L. Morgan is in the city for a few days shaking hands with his many friends.

Sanford Military Band will furnish music for the Big Ovelo Excursion, Friday, Jan. 17th.

H. S. Lyon of Wauseon, Ohio, was in the city today on his way to Wintermere, Florida this county.

Mrs. Mary Barnett of Charlotte, N. C., is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. L. A. Brumley, and will spend the winter here.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hunter of Charlotte, N. C., returned today to their home after spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Brumley.

Mrs. Will Beatty has returned home from Tampa where she was called by the serious illness of her father, Mark L. Scott, formerly of this city.

The Climax at the Imperial Theatre was a good show poorly attended, which would indicate that high price attractions are not in vogue at the present.

W. H. Underwood, Miss Kate Underwood, Miss Martha Miller and William Shelly have arrived home from Marshallville, Ga., where they went on the sad mission of the burial of Mrs. W. H. Underwood.

Osborn Shaw, who is in Sanford for the winter again states that in his old home in Long Island there has been no cold weather as yet and the winter has been the mildest on record. Mr. Shaw has a fine place on Mellenville avenue and expects to put in a crop of potatoes.

Big excursion to Ovelo will take place next Friday, January 17th. The special train will leave the old depot at 2:30 p. m. Tickets will be sold in the city now and they will be taken up at the union depot in exchange for regular round trip railroad tickets. Fare will be one dollar for the round trip.

The physicians were obliged to amputate part of one of J. E. Terwilliger's feet on Tuesday. All that medical science could do was done in the effort to save both feet, but one of them was too badly crushed and the operation was deemed necessary. Mr. Terwilliger is resting easy and is on the road to rapid recovery.

Big Time at Ovelo

There will be an excursion to Ovelo and return next Friday, Jan. 17th. The Sanford Military Band will accompany the train and a large crowd will leave this city for Ovelo to hear county division discussed. The fare for the round trip will be one dollar and you can buy your tickets now the same to be exchanged for regular tickets at the union depot. The excursion train will leave the old depot on Friday at 2:30. Be ready to take this delightful trip to the prettiest little city in the new county of Harney.

Yowell's Violet Sale

Next Wednesday Yowell's big violet sale will take place and it is needless to say that it will be well attended. The ladies of this section have come to look upon Yowell's Violet Sale as a social event and the store is always crowded from early morn till late at night during this great event. All the latest creations in laces and embroideries will be shown and all the many designs in white good dear to the feminine heart will be on the counters fresh from Paris and the American markets. The Violet Sale this year will eclipse all former efforts in this line and the ladies are especially invited to attend the sale early, before the beautiful new designs are picked over. Remember the date, Jan. 15th.

Treasurer Gives Money Back

County Treasurer Dr. J. J. Head, today signed a check for $368.08, payable to the public school fund of the county, which makes a grand total of $12,500 paid to him to the school fund during the two years he has held office. When Dr. Head was a candidate for the office of county treasurer he stated that he would pay over to the public school fund everything in excess of a salary of $2,000 per year and office expenses, derived from his office. Fulfilling that obligation he has paid over to the public school fund $12,500 during the two years he held office.

The money returned to the county by the retiring county treasurer has gone directly into the school fund, where it was used to give greater school opportunities to the youth of the county. The total amount materially increased the efficiency of the public schools of the county, and many a child has been benefited without the school patrons ever being aware of the fact.—Tampa Tri-

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas, it has pleased our Heavenly Father to remove from our midst Sovereign Lizzie Underwood; who died Saturday, January 4th, 1918.

Resolved, that we bow in humble submission to the divine will of Him who doeth all things well.

Resolved, that we tender our sincere and heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved husband and daughter, and

Resolved, that we drape our charter in mourning for thirty days, and

Resolved, that these resolutions be spread on a page of the book of minutes, a copy sent to the family of the deceased sovereign, and published in the Sanford Herald.

We share our mutual woes,
Our mutual burdens bear,
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear,
When we asunder part,
It gives us inward pain,
But we shall still be joined in heart
And hope to meet again.

"Try Cardui," writes Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Hayne, N. C. "I was in a very low state of health, and was not able to be up and tend to my duties. I did try Cardui, and soon began to feel better. I got able to be up and help do my housework. I continued to take the medicine, and now I am able to do my housework and to care for my children, and I feel as though I could never praise Cardui enough for the benefits I have received."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Cardui is successful, because it is made especially for women, and acts specifically on the womanly constitution. Cardui does one thing, and does it well. That explains the great success which it has had, during the past 50 years, in helping thousands of weak and ailing women back to health and happiness.

If you are a woman, feel tired, dull, and are nervous, cross and irritable, it's because you need a tonic. Why not try Cardui? Cardui builds, strengthens, restores, and acts in every way as a special, tonic remedy for women. Test it for yourself. Your druggist sells Cardui. Ask him.

SANFORD PROXIMITY TO PRINCIPAL MARKETS—The above map gives a good idea of the proximity of the Sanford crops to the best markets of the United States and shows that better distribution is needed by the growers and also that better freight rates could be made to Sanford and other parts of Florida than California. A glance at the map will convince any one that Florida is bound to come into her own and in the coming Sanford will play an important part. The map is printed by the courtesy of the East Sanford Land Company.

As pure, sweet and dainty as the name implies, made from selected wheat, scientifically handled, producing a flour that retains ALL the flavor and nutritiousness so bountifully supplied by nature. There is none better—it costs no more—why not, at least, give it an impartial trial? Satisfaction guaranteed, or money refunded.

"YOUR GROCER HAS IT"

Mrs. J. C. Ellsworth on the negative. The judges decided the negative side made the most points and they were given the decision. At the next debate Jan. 17th, it is expected there will be some town talent to discuss the pro's and con's of some weighty question.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Smith of Cameron ave., proprietors of the Twin Oaks Chicken Farm, have imported some thoroughbred white leghorn stock from Mr. Theo Throop's farm at Enterprise, to add to their already large stock of fowl.

James Hickson of Celery avenue has been ill with a bad case of throat trouble. Mrs. W. W. Miller of Miller avenue, has been ill with a severe cold, and Lydia Chase has had quite a serious attack of catarrh of the stomach.

Hilton and Robt. Brown of Ft. Christmas, were guests of their sister, Mrs. J. F. McClelland and family on Sunday.

Miss Lillian Waits of Longwood was Miss Annie Cameron's guest a portion of last week.

C. C. Worthington returned from Tampa Monday, after spending a week's visit with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hancock and son dined with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ellsworth on New Year's day.

Robert Washburn, the genial street car conductor, is having a week's vacation in Jacksonville.

C. E. Society at Monroe

On last Sunday evening, Jan. 5, 1913, a Christian Endeavor Society was organized at Monroe, about four miles west of Sanford. Twelve members were enrolled which makes a very good beginning. Although there is no church organization at Monroe, the people are interested in religion work and that is why they took up the Christian Endeavor.

This is the only C. E. Society within a radius of 15 miles of Sanford and there are none in Sanford.

Christian Endeavor is the best young people's religious organization in the world, and we would be glad to see three or four of the churches in Sanford take up the Endeavor work.

Christian Endeavor is an interdenominational organization and is already a welcome guest in over eighty denominations.

Plan to ship your truck early

HOW to get it out early is no secret, for those truckers who have been in the business longest agree that it is almost wholly a matter of supplying quickly available fertilizers.

BRADLEY'S FERTILIZERS

are this sort of fertilizer. They supply quickly available plant food in the best forms, not only to start off the crop quickly and keep it growing vigorously, but to back it up through the season, and to ripen and harden off the product. It is this sort of combination that has brought success to many Florida truckers in the past thirty years and for this reason they swear by reports are two very important features. We believe that due allowance should be made for any imperfections that appear in the reports of the boys of this, their first trial. We believe in giving full credit for results attained.

In our judgment, all of the complete reports, that have been submitted to the boys, should be not only sent to the State Representative of the Agriculture Department (something that is required if government and state aid and instruction are to be hoped for), but also should be printed in our county papers, for the enlightenment of all of the Orange county boys, as aids in any efforts they may hereafter make in the cultivation of corn. If this first effort on the part of the Orlando Board of Trade shall result in demonstrating that the soil of Orange county can be made to successfully produce fifty bushels of sound, merchantable corn to the acre, at a cost of $17 it will be the best piece of work in the life of the Board. One boy has done this, another equalled his production, while another exceeded his production by one bushel, but his corn was of an inferior quality, probably owing to the variety planted, and the expense was greater. Others have done nearly as well.

Your committee desires to especially commend the report of Alfred Link, one of the contestants. In addition to using the Department blank, he gives us a detailed history of his effort, from start to finish, given in his own words and his own style. But it is full and comprehensive showing that his soul was in the work, that he is a true lover of nature, careful, painstaking, intelligent, and one who may be counted on to win in any future effort of his life.

After full and careful examination of the report, and due deliberation, your committee has decided upon the following awards:

- First Prize—Mallory Welch $100
 - Second Prize—Emmett Russ, $75.
 - Third Prize—Alfred Link, $50.
 - Fourth Prize—Lonnie Dean, $25.
- Mablon Gore,
W. E. Martin,
James C. Patterson,
I. B. Yates,
S. A. Johnson,
Committee.

William Jennings Bryan Purchases More Land

GREAT COMMONER IS FARMER

Other News and Views Around Florida By Wireless Grapevine

Hon. William Jennings Bryan has purchased another small tract of Florida land. A few weeks ago he purchased 160 acres southwest from Miami. This tract Mr. Bryan proposes to turn into a model farm, on which he will grow everything that can be grown in this latitude. Mr. Bryan is a real farmer and on his Nebraska farm revels in all kinds of "hass." He wants his vegetables fresh from his own garden, instead of purchasing from the green grocer.

The Woman's Town Improvement Association of St. Petersburg has decided to commence the erection of a building on its lot in that city immediately. The structure will cost in the neighborhood of $10,000, will be at least two stories in height and will be provided with rest and reading rooms for the use of visitors.

A $100,000 hotel is to be erected in Tavares. A committee has been appointed to get plans and specifications for the building. The Tavares Herald says: "With a hotel fronting Lake Dora, Tavares will be one of the most desirable places in the state for winter tourists."

The magnificent new home of the Sarasota Yacht and Automobile Club will be opened formally Thursday, Jan. 16th. More than $1,500 worth of tasteful furnishings are now being installed in the pretty building.

An orange which is 1 1/2 inches in circumference one way and 1 1/8 inches the other and weighs 23 ounces is on display at the Palm Pharmacy, Kissimmee, Fla. It was grown near Umatilla.

St. Cloud is to have a $10,000 canning factory. The plant will have a large capacity and be equipped to can tomatoes, strawberries, beans, cabbage and other things.

Three lots in Miami, Fla., which were bought four years ago for $1,000 by Philip Ullendorf have been sold by him for $30,000 to Gaston DeBore.

The Hotel Ponce de Leon opened in St. Augustine Wednesday. This famous hostelry is already entertaining a large number of guests.

BASKET BALL NOTES

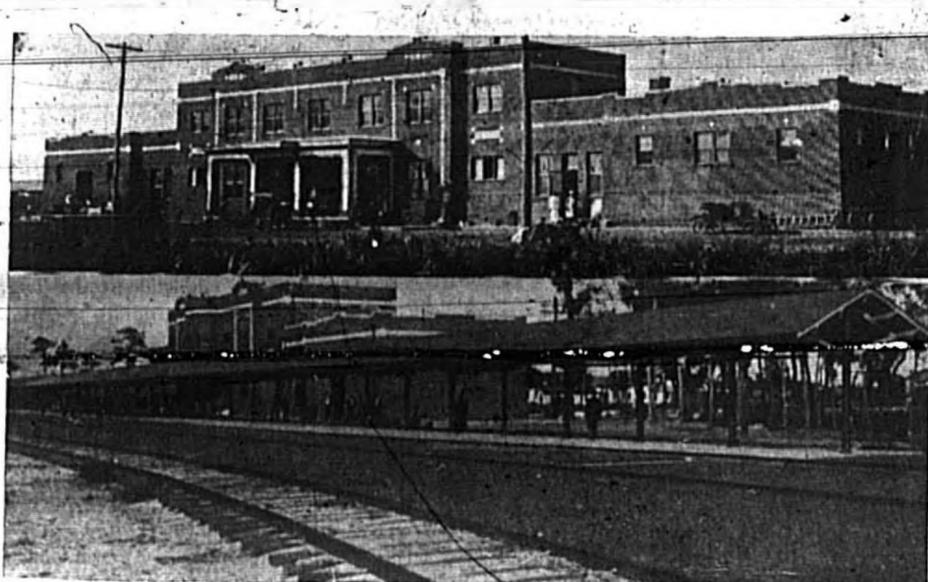

Rollins Reserves Beat S. H. S. 20-9 At Basket Ball

The basket ball fans at Rollins College enjoyed a good game Friday night when the team from the Sanford High held the Rollins Reserves down to a small score. The Sanford boys were much pleased with the score, since the opposing team was made up of much heavier, older and more experienced men and were accustomed to playing on a floor while this was the first game for Sanford under such conditions. The Sanford boys worked together better than the Reserves and the heavier weight and the better individual work of the Reserves accounts for the score to a certain extent. Most of Sanford's shots at the basket went while of the mark. The Reserves were penalized several times for unnecessary roughness, but otherwise the game was good from start to finish. For Sanford Gilbert at center did the best work. At the end of the first half the score stood 8-6 in favor of the Reserves.

SANFORD PALATIAL NEW UNION DEPOT

The accompanying cut will give a good idea of Sanford's new union depot, recently constructed with other improvements at a cost of about $70,000. The upper view shows the real front of the depot facial Ninth street and Sanford. The lower view shows the depot and train shed on the railroad side. The train shed extends many feet on each side of the depot and affords ample protection to the passengers in inclement weather.

Unfortunately a better view of this side of the depot cannot be obtained on account of the long train shed. No picture can give an adequate idea of the beauty of this fine structure which is said to be one of the finest stations in the south.

INTEREST IN BIG VOTING CONTEST INCREASING

MANY INQUIRIES MADE WITH REFERENCE TO NATABLE OFFER

In all instances the offer has attracted interest and in some instances amazement.

As a matter of fact this contest has been launched by The Herald as a combined circulation and advertising campaign. It wants to have more readers and make new friends and to have the attention of the people in its territory attracted to its merits as a newspaper. It is perfectly willing to pay handsomely for this.

A $750 player piano may justly be considered a most liberal prize, but such a prize is in keeping with the policy of The Herald not to do things by halves. It is this same policy that will have it offer other prizes later.

The Player Piano

The writer wants to tell you something about Stultz Bros' player piano. It is a player that is all but human. It will bring you one of the greatest pleasures in the world—the pleasure of giving expression to your musical feelings. It does not merely make music in a mechanical way, but it gives you that intimate control of expression and tempo which the hand-player enjoys; responds instantly to your every shade of feeling, your every movement. You play the music as you feel it. Your wishes can't be too subtle for the Stultz Bros' Player.

Because of this responsiveness, the player is a great educator. One finds it so easy to produce the proper effects that even the children are encouraged to play the best music—music which they would seldom, if ever, hear except on the concert stage.

Think for a moment what this player would mean to your home. Ask the members of the family if they would like to have it. Considered from the standpoint of what it gives, its value cannot be measured in money. You can play it with your hands with sheet music, or with 88 notes—the music rolls.

This piano player will go to the candidate receiving the highest number of votes. Votes are obtained by clipping the ballots good for fifty votes that appear in each issue of The Herald and sending them in to the Contest Department, and by securing paid-in-advance subscriptions to The Herald. Subscription votes come easy after a day or two of experience.

Nominate yourself or a friend today and ask for a subscription book and another information pertaining to the contest. The contest editor is at your service at all times and will give you any help that he can consistent with the rules.

The special ballot good for ten thousand votes appears again today and you should not fail to take advantage of this grand offer.

CELERY SOARING SOME

Growers Offered Good Prices Here Today

PROSPECTS FOR SEASON FINE

Said That $2.00 Per Crate Has Been Offered, Which Is An Excellent Price to Maintain

There are about four hundred acres of celery around Sanford. There is not anything like that much anywhere else in the United States at the present time and will not be ready to ship in time to hurt the market for the Sanford product. California celery has evidently been injured in the late freeze out there and the tops blighted badly enough to put it out of competition with our early celery. This means that Sanford celery can command a good price this season but does not mean that the growers can arbitrarily hold their celery for a price beyond all reason and the advice of The Herald at this time is to take a price f. o. b. Sanford that will net the grower a good profit and then sell. It makes no difference to the grower what the man buying the celery is going to make. The only thing for the Sanford grower to worry about is the price here in Sanford. Start the price right and it will remain right during the season. There is a limit to the price that the ultimate consumer will pay and beyond that they will not buy celery which is a luxury and is not needed to sustain life. There are many of the growers this season who are perfectly willing to make satisfactory arrangements will be made for the bulk of the crop to be sold here.

The talk of the city today is that $2.00 has been offered here for celery and that several growers have sold at $1.50. Be that as it may there is no doubt in the world about celery bringing a good price this year and the growers should make more money than they have made in several years.

Clover Club

The Clover Club, composed of the young ladies of the Congregational church were entertained by Miss Katherine Waldron. Eight members of the club with one visitor were present. The most important business transacted by the club was the election of the following officers for the ensuing year: Miss Albine Frank, president; Miss Flora Walker, vice president; Miss Claire Walker, secretary; Miss Katherine Waldron, treasurer.

It was voted to give the West Tampa Mission ten dish towels which will be hemmed at the next meeting. After a pleasant social time and refreshments the club adjourned.

BIG EXCURSION TO OVEIDO

Special Train Will Carry Crowd of Enthusiasts

Next Friday will be made a gala occasion for Sanford and Oveido folks, and a special train will carry a big crowd of county division rooters from this city. The special train will leave the old depot at 2:30 p. m., and as many of the stores will close for the afternoon a bunch of boosters ought to take in the excursion. The ladies are especially invited to go along and help in the good cause. The Sanford Military Band will accompany the crowd and keep things lively. Hot coffee and sandwiches will be on the train and the Oveido people will also prepare to feed the multitude. There will be speeches made by various orators at the afternoon and evening meeting and a general good time is expected. Only one dollar for the round trip and every public spirited citizen should buy a ticket and buy it today in order to help the committee on arrangements.

Train In Ditch

The northbound train leaving here at 1:30 a. m., jumped the track north of Palatka yesterday morning and piled the train in the ditch. The passengers escaped with a general shaking up and all of them were glad to escape a worse fate. The wreck delayed traffic all day yesterday.

Whoop'er up next Friday at Oveido. Special train leaves old depot at 2:30
