By LARRY VERSHEL. FRIDAY THE 13TH BLUES - Got only one angry phone call yesterday. Someone called from Lake Mary saying that won't be a billiard parlor at Sanford Plaza but a "Recreation Center."

Nobody asked me but I bet there wouldn't be any problems getting kids to eat school lunches if the "cafeteria" served sausage one day and then chop it up the next with noodles.

People complaining about why the city doesn't pave West Second Street from French to Maple. The reason - property owners don't care to pay share.

Me and my one stock went to the Florida State Bank stockholders meeting this morning... But I got out of there fast... I thought someone would recognize me and there might be a run on the bank.

The Webb Jones case was turned over to the local Peace Justice court Dec. 6... The papers are still there... Ah, justice grinds on.

One of our friends in Casselberry mentioned to us that the Democratic Executive Meeting last night lacked a quorum... Another source told us it was just an "informal" meeting.

Speaking of informal meetings, the city plans one this Monday to discuss the industrial use of the Naval Air Station... The meeting is scheduled to begin at 8 p.m. City of McKibbin of the chamber's industrial committee has been invited to attend.

Here's one way the city can get additional revenue... Ever realize our many fraternal clubs and organizations are exempt from taxes and these organizations or lodges, rent out their facilities?

Why don't certain fee offices ask for less money from the County Commission and turn in less excess fees? Eh?

When the city ever gets around to getting that ordinance on motor scooters and motorcycles it will be mandatory for all riders to use crash helmets... Don't forget the South Seminole Jaycees will hold their Distinguished Service Award banquet Monday night at 7:30 at the Trade Wads... I know two Jaycees who shouldn't be eligible.

Wheatley Named Mayor

Arthur Wheatley was named Mayor of Casselberry to fill the unexpired term of L. E. Woodhams at a special meeting of the City Council held at 8 a.m. today.

In a statement to the press Wheatley pledged "to try to give the city the best administration it has ever had" and set about trying to resolve the many problems occasioned by the resignation of Mayor Woodhams and the resulting resignation of Ben Evans from the Board of Adjustment and Rex Niblack from the lighting committee.

Woodhams resigned the office of the mayor Tuesday giving as one of the reasons the council's refusal to consider his appointments at Monday night's regular meeting. Council, at that time, preferred to wait until the appointments could be discussed at work session.

Woodhams also remarked, "I do not wish to serve with certain members of the city council." The vote for Wheatley at this morning's meeting was unanimous. Dr. Edith Duerr, vice chairman, conducted the meeting. Another special meeting was called for 7 p.m. today to consider permitting a house to be moved into town.

A continued session is also called for 8 p.m. Monday.

Johnson added the local CD headquarters already has had a radio communications unit in operation.

'Keep The Faith,' Demos Told Robert Petree, state Democratic committeeman, at a Democratic meeting Thursday evening admonished the members to "Keep the faith, baby! All is not lost."

Petree, in stirring remarks pointed out, "The Republican gains in the recent off-year elections were clearly predictable. The Republican party was completely devastated two years ago," he reminded. "The whole country is presently upset and disturbed about the war in Vietnam, it is disturbed about Stokely Carmichael and Black Power. The people are afraid of lawlessness and violence in the streets as happened in Watts and other places in the country. They are disturbed about the high cost of living. All these factors combined to defeat the Democrats in November," Petree declared. "Despite the fact these problems were not the fault of the Democrats, the people generally blame the party in power for the problems which occur," Petree said. "The Republican victory in this county, while it was historical, is a passing thing. The Republicans have shown throughout the years that they are not capable of progressive leadership," he remarked. "The Democratic party will have two years of hard going, but this is only a short term disaster. Keep the faith, baby. We are still in there pitching," he admonished.

Schools Make Push For Major Building Program

School Board action here Thursday afternoon placed in the hands of the State Department of Education at Tallahassee the start of an enlarged building program in Seminole County.

The School Board sent to Tallahassee an approval of a bond sale and an approval of the master campus plan for Seminole Junior College for state OK.

The bond sale by the state will be for $125 million - to be repaid from capital outlay funds derived from automobile license tag sales - to commence the new Oviedo High School, new Lyman High School and new Sanford Junior High School next year.

School officials also approved application for federal impact funds in an amount of approximately $200,000 for this year. This is to supplement local funds for the schooling of children of military personnel stationed here.

Maitland Jaycees' request to use the English Estates School grounds for a circus on Feb. 13 was denied.

The Woes Of Running A School Lunchroom

Seminole County school lunchroom program is facing some difficult problems but an optimistic outlook was expressed by Mrs. Charlotte Whitmore, supervisor, to the School Board Thursday afternoon.

Student participation is 82 per cent, down eight to 10 percent as compared to last year. Mrs. Whitmore said, but pointed out that schools throughout the state and nationwide also are experiencing financial troubles.

She reported the deficit was caused by an increase in lunchroom prices, bringing down participation, and a revision in the rate of pay for personnel.

However, Mrs. Whitmore felt that student participation will increase by the end of January, increasing revenue. The food inventory will help balance out the deficit - use of food on hand resulting in curtailment of purchases. She pointed out, too, there is less USDA food distribution to the schools.

On the whole, Mrs. Whitmore concluded, the lunchroom program has problems but an improvement is in sight.

Fans Fumble The Ball

By JOHN SPOSKI, Herald Sports Editor. Seminole County's football fans carry an attitude comparable to the fans of other teams that are "they'll support a winner, but don't book a loser."

This is particularly true in the case of Seminole High School which had 2,000 fewer spectators for the 1966 season as compared to 1965 when there were 11,719 who watched the Semolinos.

This dilemma becomes so much more apparent when the game receipts suffer. Not normally, football resources fall short of the total of $2,000, which is approximately the same as for the previous season's total. Principal C. W. Holder said, "Seminole County is just a little spoiled because they've always had so many good teams at all of the area's high schools that the fans expect an annual winner. It's unfortunate because it's difficult for the smaller schools to try to compete with the larger schools in the state."

Principal L. Blackshear had almost the same story for Oviedo High School, which also indicated $1,000 less in total receipts, but it was also for one less game this year as compared to five home games in '65.

Pastor's Corner

Rootless Ones?

By REV. LEROY D. SOPER
Holy Cross Episcopal Church

When we stop to take stock of our situation, as we are inclined to do at New Year's, we may examine our problems and find ourselves that these are not problems, characteristic of our own age, and something which the world has never dealt with before. Our physical and social sciences have made so much progress in the past few years that we are confident they will soon have all the answers, if they do not have them now. We are inclined to tell ourselves that since Abraham could not travel more than six miles per hour and we can travel at more than 600 miles an hour, surely he has nothing to say to us. Or we may say that the Greeks, who never saw a large university, could not possibly have anything worth while hearing in the 20th century. We even push St. Paul to one side, saying he was so unsophisticated that he just couldn't have been aware of problems such as ours.

What we are doing when we charge off the ancients is to make ourselves an orphan generation. We have severed our roots in the wisdom of the past, including that of the Bible. We look only on the new, but shortly they will wither and be thrown out. We no longer care for the answers to problems as they are found in history, and we look at ourselves and say that we have come so far, surely man has come of age at last. We are guilty of incredible conceit to think that our generation has found ultimate wisdom.

We sometimes call our teenagers "Rootless Ones." Perhaps it would be better if we called them "Blessed Ones" because they, like us, have cut themselves off from the past, and may well cut themselves off from our generation as they look upon our failures.

The tragedy of being cut off from the past is that we then look upon Christmas as a sort of sentimental time for exchanging gifts, and that is all.

The coming of Christ was a historical event. It really happened. With His coming man discovered that God was not dead. He not only was, and is, very much alive, but also He loved His creation to the point that He sent His Son into the world that we might have full knowledge of what God is all about. In beholding Christ we see God's sacrificing love at its peak.

The coming of the Wise Men to the manger demonstrated for us all that Jesus came to all the people of the world, and not just to the people of a backward and unsophisticated nation in the Middle East. The Wise Men, representing the rest of man, represent each one of us as we face our God and our Redeemer.

The whole story of Christmas and the Epiphany (the coming of the Wise Men) shows that we are not orphans — or at least, that we need not be orphans if we don't want to. We can be the adoptive sons of God and heirs of the kingdom of God. We need not be rootless, for we are branches of the True Vine. We are members of that dynamic and living Body, of which Jesus is the head and we are the limbs.

This is not dated or irrelevant. It speaks to us rootless orphans and clearly, Jesus says, "Come, be a part of Me. Be grafted onto my vine. Be a member of my Body. When we respond to His call we put down roots at an inexhaustible supply of spiritual nourishment which will sustain us forever.

Church Women Plan Annual Celebration

Editors note: Shrove Tuesday (Feb. 7) will be marked again this year by the Women of Holy Cross Episcopal Church with an all day festival. Mrs. James Voss, promotion chairman for the event, submitted the following article which explains how the celebration originates and some of its customs.

Just before Lent begins, a time of merry-making known as the carnival has long been a custom. The climax comes on the last day, Mardi Gras, (in translation "Fat Tuesday") or Shrove Tuesday, from the ancient practice of confessing sins and being shrived or shrove (forgiven). This festival originated in Italy and still exists in the Latin countries of Europe and South America.

Rome, Venice, Barcelona, and Madrid celebrated carnival with extravagant masquerade balls, processions, and confetti battles. The French too put on elaborate costumes and dances, and delight in blowing horns and throwing confetti, sweetmeats, and flowers. Nowadays the French custom is most closely followed in New Orleans, although such southern cities with a French or Spanish heritage as Memphis, Galveston, Shreveport, and Pensacola observe carnival each year.

In England and Scotland Shrove Tuesday also is known as Pancake Day. The pancake supper developed in ancient times when it was stipulated that one did not use dairy products during Lent and the supplies of milk, butter and eggs on hand were used in the pancakes.

The Women of Holy Cross Episcopal Church combined the Latin and Anglican traditions, and their all day Jamaican Holiday Festival on Shrove Tuesday of last year was enjoyed by so many Sanford residents, that it will be repeated again this year on February 7th. It will be called an American Holiday, so mark your calendars and plan to attend some or all of this all day festival which will feature lunch and tea time, as well as the pancake supper.

Plans for air conditioning Weaver Hall, the main project of the society for the year, were discussed. A joint meeting of the Men's Club and WSCS will follow a follow-up supper, Feb. 1, at which time films of the Holy Land also will be shown.

Women of area churches have been invited to participate in the World Day of Prayer program at 10 a.m. Feb. 14. Mrs. Frank Messiah, spiritual life chairman, is in charge of planning this observance.

A rummage sale has been scheduled for February with exact date and site to be announced. Mrs. Robert Deppen is chairman.

Next regular meeting will be at 10 a.m. Feb. 8, and will be followed by a covered dish luncheon. A committee will meet following the meeting to work out details of membership exchange between circles for the coming year.

A sandwich lunch was enjoyed following Wednesday's meeting with the group and Mrs. L. C. Timley and Mrs. Hal Gettler are co-ordinators.

The Morning Circle will meet at 9:30 Tuesday with Mrs. Edie Guthrie at Winter Park Towers. Rev. Fred Guthrie and Joyce Haggard will be attending the quarterly business meeting of St. John's Presbytery at First Presbyterian Church in DeLand, Tuesday.

Rev. Fred Guthrie and Joyce Haggard will be attending the quarterly business meeting of St. John's Presbytery at First Presbyterian Church in DeLand, Tuesday.

Refreshments of homemade grapefruit, punch, nuts and minis were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Ethel Moore.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Money remains tight in many parts of the nation but signs of easier credit are mounting.

The first chunk in the 6 per cent price interest rate that banks charge their favored customers for loans came Wednesday when a relatively small Minnesota institution reduced its rate from 6 per cent to 5.75 per cent.

Isolated action by the National City Bank of Minneapolis surprised many bankers but it was hailed by the Treasury Department.

The Treasury is heartened and pleased at this early movement in the direction of lower interest rates that the President advocated in the State of the Union message.

President Johnson, in proposing a 6 per cent surcharge on income and corporate taxes Tuesday night in his message to Congress, said it was partly designed to keep the economy growing without new inflationary strain and to move toward easier credit and lower interest rates.

The Minneapolis bank's action, the only sign of an easing Wednesday.

First National City Bank, New York's largest, announced a cut in the interest rate it will pay on some long-term certificates of deposit.

The rate since last spring has been 5.5 per cent on certificates maturing in 30 days or more. First National City cut the rate on maturities of nine months and longer to 5 1/2 per cent.

Banks raised their interest rates on deposits last year in an attempt to attract new savings.

In an unrelated action, the Provident Savings Bank in Baltimore announced a 10 per cent cut in the down payment required on a new home in order to obtain a mortgage, and a 5 per cent cut on the down payment for an older home.

Encouraging home buyers to apply for loans. Lack of money for many years forced many institutions to reject loan applications.

Action by Provident followed within hours an announcement by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board that it is making $1 billion available to mutual savings banks, and savings and loan associations for residential mortgages.

The board said the money became available because of the currently better financial position of the thrift institutions.

The prime rate is a charge for loans to a bank's most credit-worthy customers, usually large corporations, but other interest rates are scaled upward from it.

The prime rate was increased three times last year, finally to 6 per cent in August.

Walter W. Heller, former chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisors, who suggested last month a surtax similar to the one proposed by President Johnson, is a director of the Minneapolis bank and recommended the lower rates in a yearend report.

There was little indication elsewhere in the nation, however, that the Minneapolis lead would be followed.

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP) — Actress Jane Russell and former Los Angeles Rams football star Bob Waterfield are having marital difficulties, says their attorney, Sam Ziegler.

J. RICHARDS ON DUFFERS AND DIVOTS

Good afternoon and welcome to number two by the lesser of two evils, the game of golf or my column. Ah do hope all you nice folks have had a good week batting the ball 'round the greens.

One look above will tell you what a friend "my leader," is. Such humor I can do without — next time you take my six holes, please, please be kind to a dumb animal. What really hurts is I still can't hit the darn ball with that monstrously of a club.

Enough of this . . . on to the pro tip of the week by Telling Hills' Pete Osborne. His hint concerns practicing for the club.

Osborne says, "Unless you are playing and practicing golf seven days a week . . . you cannot grip the club in and with your fingers as the pros do. For unless you play daily, the fingers are not strong enough to hold the club."

"Weekend golfers" should place the left hand over to the right until the hand is slightly to the right of center of the grip. The right hand should slip to the left in the lower part of the club so that the palm of the right hand is slightly to the right of center on the grip. This will help you put part of the strain on the hands rather than just on the fingers and will increase the power delivered to the ball."

Murchia Gracias Pete . . . now that I've positioned my hands onto the club, would someone please tee-up a ball for me? I can't move my hands . . .

Mid Florida Country Club announced the signing of its new pro, Jim Hakey. After a brief visit with the former Tampa pro, the club has converted another club member.

Jim's had 15 years of experience as a pro, mostly in New England (couldn't take those winters eh?) and after a while of prodding admits to giving over 35,000 lessons.

He brings with him his wife Mary and three sons Charles 12, Brian 10 and Gerald 12. Welcome gang and hope you like Seminole County. Al Kelley Jr. will remain on the staff at Mid Florida as a teaching pro.

Mid Florida really got a good one when they signed Jim, he's got plenty of plans for the club . . . starting a sound youth program for high school, college and what have you . . . building the membership and starting more tournaments.

Since the female duffers are usually given a back seat to "the horses of the fairways" I am taking it upon myself to host the club.

The Mayfair Women's Golf Association held its weekly tea-to-reen tournament and the winners in their classes were: Margaret Botta — A class; Marian Cox — B class; and Mary Anderson — C class.

The Ladies Tournament is under way at the Mayfair. Mary Whelan tells us about 40 gals are participating, which is a very surprising figure for the ladies.

Just thought I'd tell all you nice people who the onlookers (oops thought) of the Women's Golf Association of Mayfair Country Club are. Doris Spencer is president, Pat Stonestrom is the vice president, recording secretary is Sylvia Ben, correspondence secretary is Thelma Voss, and the treasurer is Evelyn Antan.

Here vs pro folks, read 'em and weep. The results of Boling Hills Country Club's Blind Bogey Tournament of Dec. 31, First Drive — 78 Joe Chambers, Al Munkelt, Frank Stuart, Clint Dutcher, Bob Chambliss, and Ed J. Miller. Second drive — 78 Jack Kane, Pete Howard, Bill Row, John Franklin, and Tom McKinney.

Seminoles Face Ocoee, Lyman 5's

Seminole High will open its weekend cage play on the road as it travels to Ocoee tonight for a return match with the Cardinals. On Saturday, the Tribe will host intra-county rival Lyman High of Longwood, starting at 6:30 p.m.

"I hope my boys aren't looking toward Saturday night when we play Ocoee," stated Seminole mentor, Mack Rythe. "Ocoee has a good team. They beat Kissimmee, who beat us, and have played several fine games."

Saturday night speaks for itself — a revenge meeting between the Lyman Greysounds and the Sanford Seminoles.

Lyman opened the intra-county hardout series with a 5-3 decision early in the cage year and has gone on to a winning season. However, the Seminoles showed their potential when they downed DeLand 6-4. DeLand registered a 57-45 win over the Hounds.

The junior varsity is gunning for win number nine and this weekend and currently sports an 8-1 record. Coach Joe Mills displays confidence about Friday's game, but he is worried about over-confidence. The Lyman Baby Hounds administered the only defeat to the young Seminoles 57-45 and they want revenge.

Starting for the varsity will be Lamar Oxford and Bobby Lundquist at the guard positions. Buddy Stump and Frank Whigham at the forward berth and Mike Long at center. Bill Wheaton, Bill Higginbotham and John Weston are the top reserves for tonight's game.

The JV's will start Kenny Hinson, Bill Bracken, Mett Morgan, Salvo Loyd and Stewart Cleveland. Bruce McKibbin and Tim Sandage are going to see plenty of action also.

Lyman will lay its Orange Belt Conference title hopes on the line tonight when the league-leading DeLand Bulldogs invade Longwood for a crucial OBC contest. The Greysounds, who have won five in a row, can move to the forefront in the conference race with a victory over the powerful Bulldogs.

DeLand steal the Hounds their only loss in eight outings earlier in the season, winning 57-45 in a hard-fought battle. Coach Bob Smith's DeLand captives have remained undefeated in league competition.

Lyman will depend on the 1-2 scoring punch of Mike Harris and Bruce Stuart to counter the Bulldogs' attack. Harris, an excellent outside shooter, has been the Hounds' top scorer, averaging 16 points per game. Harris, a 6 foot 4 inch junior, is scoring at a 34.3 clip and leading the rebounders with a 134 in eight outings.

DeLand's top threats have been 6 foot 6 inch pivot Cliff Cox and sharp-shooting guard Jesse Grove. Cox is averaging 16 points per game while Grove is scoring at a 34.3 clip and leading the rebounders with a 134 in eight outings.

Coach Arnold's starting five probably will include Mike Tubert at center, Stuart and Darrell Allgaier at the forwards, and Harris and either Len West or Chris Butterworth at the guards.

DeLand will use Cox at center, Jim McGreager and George Smith at the corner posts and Grove and play-maker Gene Gerard in the backcourt.

Coach Tom Barnes' Lyman junior varsity will be shooting for its fourth consecutive win tonight against the Bulldog JV's. The Baby Hounds will start Mike Rickett at center, Mark Dowell and John Newell at the forwards and Bill West and either Alan Clark or Charlie McLaughlin at the guards. DeLand was victorious in an earlier meeting 66-52.

NEW YORK (AP) — The 1967 New York thoroughbred racing season will open March 13 at Aqueduct and end Dec. 9.

At Downs Racing Dates Nearing

A request by the Seminole Downs and Fairgrounds could lead to summer horse racing in central Florida.

The "lame duck" Racing Commission, now down to four members, meets today to allocate dates for Daytona Beach and Washington County Kennel Clubs and to consider Seminole Downs request for 57 programs of horse racing.

The Commission also will receive a request from the South Florida Television Network to televise racing programs.

Seminole Downs will ask for 56 night programs and one day program, with 10 races each. The Commission is a holdover from the Burns administration, less Jack Flewisch of Pensacola, who term expired Jan. 2.

Three Winners MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Jockey Jorge Velazquez rode three winners at Tropical Park Thursday for the second consecutive day.

To Retire POTSDAM, N.Y. (AP) — Henry E. Sledge, a former catcher for the New York Yankees and Philadelphia Phillies, will retire as athletic director at Clarkson College on Sept. 1. It was announced Thursday.

Clint Jones of Michigan State set a Big Ten football record by rushing 268 yards against Iowa last season.

The South Semnoles will travel to Tampa this evening for a rematch with the Dons of Mary Help School. The Hurricanes were defeated 86-45 by the Tampa club earlier in the season and now own a 1-2 record.

The Bishop Moore Junior Varsity handed coach Dave Miller's team their third loss of the season 44-1 Wednesday night in Longwood. The score was tied at halftime, but Bishop Moore went ahead after intermission.

Larry Cote and Randy Smith led the South Semnoles scoring with 21 points each. In tonight's game, Miller will use a starting quintet of Ricky Brown at center, Cote and Smith at forwards, and Steve Cookler and Charlie Mathews in the backcourt.

Green Bay, Chiefs Ready For 'Super'

Why Packers Are Favored

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Green Bay Packers should beat back the challenge of the Kansas City Chiefs in Sunday's Super Bowl because they have the quarterback in Bart Starr to pick apart the Chiefs' secondary and the defense to throttle the fast-striking attack of the American Football League champions.

In his first direct confrontation with the Chiefs when they signed their first contract, Starr threw for 200 yards and three touchdowns in a 27-17 victory over the Chiefs in the first round of the playoffs.

Starr, 33, is in his second year as the Packers' quarterback. He has led the team to three NFL championships and a Super Bowl victory in 1966.

The Packers were playing for the first time since they were founded in 1919. They have a record of 133-57-10 in 100 seasons.

Can Kansas City Pull Upset?

LOS ANGELES (AP) — If the Kansas City Chiefs are to upset the Green Bay Packers in Sunday's Super Bowl game it will take one intangible — motivation — and their three main assets: Size, strength and speed.

The three S's probably are Kansas City's main weapons. But the motivation remains an immeasurable factor as the two teams continue to work out in closed-door sessions for the first time since the NFL merger.

Defensively, the Chiefs' front four is massive compared to Green Bay's, with 5-foot-4, 252-pound Jerry Moss and 6-6, 230-pound Chuck Houston at the ends and 6-2, 285-pound Buck Buchanan and 6-3, 266-pound Andy Rice at the tackles.

Green Bay can't match that size as a matter of fact, counting offensive linemen, the defensive four and the linebackers. The Chiefs are bigger at 10 of the 11 positions.

Neither one is about to predict how they're going to do but maybe Taylor expressed their feelings best when he said: "We," said quarterback Len Dawson, "have the tools. We have to make proper use of them."

Geneva Pays Tribute To Retiring Teacher

By MRS. JOS. E. MATHEUX
The Geneva School Parent-Teacher Organization paid special tribute to Mrs. Vivian Welsh, retiring first-second grade teacher, who was presented a silver tray with appropriate inscription.

The wording was taken from Proverbs 22:6, "Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old, he will not depart from it." Presentation was made by Oliver R. Mathieux.

Mrs. Welsh accepted the tray with a "grateful heart" and replied that only two weeks, her term as first and second grade teacher spread over a 40-year association of love for each and every child who passed through her class.

Welcome was extended Mrs. Connie Cammack, who will be the new teacher. Mrs. Cammack, the former Miss Constance Schneider, of Clearwater, is the recent bride of Owen Cammack. She holds a U.S. degree in elementary education and is a graduate of the University of Florida, Gainesville.

In business of the meeting, conducted by Mrs. John Hays, president, a special vote of appreciation was extended J. E.

READING ROOM of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Sanford, has relocated in new addition to church at 800 East Second Street which also contains enlarged Sunday School rooms, a newly completed nursery room and ushers and committee rooms. (Herald Photo)

Christian Scientists Move Reading Room

Completion of the extension and refurbishing of the structure of First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Sanford, 800 East Second Street, has allowed the transfer of that institution's reading room from First Street to the new facility.

Taking advantage of land on the east side of the church's corner plot—located and East Second Street—the Sunday School quarters have been enlarged, a new nursery room completed, ushers and committee rooms provided and the reading room re-located. The room is open Monday through Friday from 12 noon until 4 p.m., except legal holidays.

"Reading Rooms" are part of the daily activity of the Christian Science Church. It is a missionary arm or public information place to which anyone can go to ask questions about Christian Science, to read, buy or borrow its authorized literature or just spend a few moments in quiet study and prayer. The Reading Room is maintained largely as a service to the public with an attendant at the sales counter who is a member of the local Christian Science church.

An experienced Christian Scientist, her primary interest is to be helpful to those who enter the Reading Room either to look around or to find a quiet place for spiritual reading and study. The room is divided into two sections. You enter the outer room where the librarian greets visitors. The inner or "quiet" room is the place where the books and literature are handy; comfortable chairs invite relaxation and study tables are located. (In these tables will be found two basic books—the Bible (traditional Protestant version) and the Christian Science demonstrational textbook (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy.)

Books and concordances both listed in a small publication given the current week's "lesson-lesson"—a Bible lesson for Sunday and a sermon for Sunday church services.

The bookcases are filled with complete copies of the Christian Science periodicals. Also on the shelves are copies of all of the published writings of the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, Mary Baker Eddy, including reference works on the Bible, and concordances both to the Scriptures and to Mrs. Eddy's writings.

Officers, executives and others are invited to spend part of their lunch hours in the Reading Room to gain a sharper spiritual perception and

Liberal Tax Rules For Those Past 65

By RAY DE CRANE
Senior citizens — anyone who reached his 65th birthday by Dec. 31, 1966—receive several important advantages on their annual income tax returns.

1. Instead of the normal $500 personal exemption accorded all taxpayers, senior citizens receive two $500 exemptions—total of $1,000.
2. Full deduction for all their medical expenses, including all their drug bills, is allowed. This is the last year for this special privilege. (Regular income tax returns—filed a year from now—those over 65 will be treated like all other taxpayers. Then only medical expenses exceeding 7 1/2 per cent of adjusted gross income will be deductible and drug expenses will be considered only after exceeding 1 per cent of adjusted gross income.)
3. Profit is tax-free when they sell their home for $20,000 or less, regardless of how much profit was made on the sale. Even when the selling price exceeds $20,000, there is a major tax saving. This is an inflation election. Details of this feature were explained in an
4. A joint retirement income credit is allowed which could exempt, in effect, an additional $2,296 in income from tax at a 15 per cent rate if husband and wife are each 65 and they file a joint return. In another option, each one can compute separate credits beginning with $1,524.
5. And here's a $500 tip for some lucky senior citizens. Your age is determined on the day before your birthday. So if you celebrated your birthday on Jan. 1, 1967, you are considered by Uncle Sam to have been 65 on Dec. 31, 1966. This entitles you to two $500 exemption credits on your 1966 tax return.

'Operation Beautify' Annual Tree Sale Set

Now is the time to plant trees. . . . An Operation Beautify committee of the Sanford beautification council, headed by Jack Bolt with Mrs. Valie W. Williams Jr. as tree chairman, is going to give the public opportunity to purchase white dogwood, redbud and tabebuia, all flowering trees at greatly reduced prices when it has its second annual tree sale Jan. 24.

The sale will be held that day from 9 a. m. until noon at the Sanford Herald parking lot on the northwest corner of Fulton Street and Highway 1792. All trees will be from three to four feet high and all will be in con- siderable bloom. They can be grown at high as 40 feet.

The redbud, one of the most beautiful native flowering trees in this country, grows rapidly and sometimes blooms in the fourth year. The mature tree often reaches heights of 20 to 30 feet. After bloom, the color lingers in bronzy leaves, twigs and red pods, and in late autumn clusters of these pods make a bright contrast to the broad leaves which turn a bright yellow before falling.

The tabebuia, probably the least known of the three varieties being offered in the sale, is an American evergreen which produces showy clusters of yellow trumpet-shaped bloom. It survives on poor soils which may be deficient in moisture and can grow as high as 25 feet in South Florida.

Operation Beautify urges that individuals and businesses take advantage of this opportunity to "make Sanford and surrounding area one of the most colorful beautiful in the whole of Central Florida."

Sneezing Girl Still Sneezes But Is Better

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A high school girl whose once-constant sneezing brought counsel from all over the country is now feeling fine, she said today.

Brown-haired Jane Clark, 18, still sneezes and doctors still don't know why. However, she said she sneezes only once every half hour or so, and does it lightly.

Her present condition is in sharp contrast to a surge of sneezes each time she sneezed. She sneezed about a third time a year ago when the girl's 128-pound body was wracked about every four minutes in waking hours by a sneeze.

Her head and chest ached, breathing and eating were difficult and she suffered nausea and muscle spasms. More than once she was hospitalized. Scores of remedies were tried and many more considered.

Then a psychologist rigged up an apparatus that gave Jane a mild but unpleasant electric shock each time she sneezed. The shocks apparently inhibited nerves which were triggering the sneezing and she stopped sneezing after a couple of treatments.

Pfc. Valesco Should Get A Medal . . . Or Something

Separated from his outfit, Valesco fought thick jungle to get back. Where he ended up, and how he got there, is something he won't soon forget.

PFC. MIKE VALESKO

By TOM THEDE
CU CHI, Vietnam (NEA) — Pfc. Mike Valesco was hot and frightened and weary but he pushed on with the rest of his outfit.

There was a mission of mercy. . . .

Abroad in the jungle, some- where, was Charley Company, the 25th Infantry Division. Early in the day, Communist guerrillas had severed that unit — about 150 men — from their main force.

The way was to be reinforced, and Valesco's outfit set out. The going was slow. Jungle vegetation formed a solid curtain which had to be hacked down. Nettles, vines and bamboo shoots wrapped around men's legs and almost angrily tangled and struggled with the stumbling GIs.

Then there were the snipers. They followed whomps which clearly stood out from the ranks of struggling soldiers. Cracking streaks of wind whipped through the underbrush.

Fortunately most of the shots missed.

Occasionally, they didn't. One struck a man in front of Mike Valesco. The man gave a small groan and dropped to his knees. His leg was bleeding.

Valesco grabbed him. He sank into the jungle.

Teachers Told: Start Molding Public Opinion

Seminole County teachers were told that they must "no longer accept public opinion" but must start molding public opinion" by Arthur Hayes be- fore the Seminole Education Association Thursday night at Lyman High School.

A member of the Florida Ed- ucation Association's program action and sanction committee and candidate for president of the Classroom Teachers depart- ment of FEA, Hayes, said in a clarifying statement to the members of the industrial arts de- partment at Deland High School.

Explaining the program ac- tion committee's legislative re- port, with the aid of an over- head projector, Hayes offered suggestions to the 20-year and class- school in the top 10 in the nation and would cost $500 million.

The report included recom- mendations for teacher educa- tion, salaries, and other mat- ters to be completed with in- dustry and other states in trying to alleviate the greatest teacher shortage in 20 years and class- es with a student-teacher ratio of 20:1.

Other items proposed were up- date textbooks and materials and released lunch and planning time for teachers.

"In some counties in the state," Hayes says, "the text- books still say 'tomorrow we may build a rocket to go to the moon.'"

In explaining the need for elementary teachers to have

Social Security Benefit Increase Is Outlined

AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — If the Social Security minimum benefit is raised to $70 a month, as President Johnson proposed, many recipients in that category will receive bigger checks than they had earned while working.

This presumes a continuation of present Social Security scales, which apply the mini- mum payment to those whose average yearly earnings after 1950 were less than $200.

At the present minimum of $44, these people receive $28 a year. Under the Johnson pro- posal, they would be entitled to $90.

Small and inadequate as these benefits might be, they illus- trate the gradual but tremen- dous change that has taken place in the concept of Social Security during the past three decades.

As originally stated, Social Security benefits tied to the amount paid into the fund while the individual was working. This idea has been dropped. Benefits now are based on av- erage earnings.

Since it was established three decades ago, Social Security has been interpreted differently al- most year by year as knowledge grew, research needs and de- mands changed, and political pressure became more or less insistent.

FANTASTIC FUTURE
 Today, the earth. Tomorrow, the moon. What next? Even twenty years ago we would have found it hard to accept the idea of man going out into space—landing on the moon—conquering with the stars—hurding around the earth. What will things be like twenty years from now, and what will we accept then?

Living on the threshold of the space age, it is easy to be carried away by the strange-er-than-fiction events that happen every day. Because of this, we need more than ever the steady force of the Church in our lives. No matter what happens, we may be sure that the Church will continue to endure as it has through the centuries. God's House will be with us in all its majesty, as will His Word.

Even the astronauts themselves have shown again and again that the Church is a deep part of their lives. Be sure to make and keep it a part of yours.

The Church is the greatest force on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and read your Bible daily:

- (1) For his own sake.
- (2) For his children's sake.
- (3) For the sake of his community and nation.
- (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Seminole Stands To Lose Thousands In Secondary Funds

Seminole County stands to lose heavily in the state's distribution of secondary road funds if the proposed revised state constitution is adopted. Seminole County would have lost approximately $53,000 in the 1965-66 state distribution, under the proposal.

Willard Peoples, Wildwood, State Road Board commissioner, told The Sanford Herald this morning that Seminole County received $481,274 for its secondary road fund in the 1965-66 year but that under the new proposal the county would have received $447,270.

Secondary road moneys come from the fifth and sixth cents of state gasoline tax.

Under the existing formula, counties are allocated secondary road money on this basis: one-third population, one-third land area, and one-third miles of county road in existence in 1951.

The new formula, adopted by the constitutional revision committee, would eliminate the factor of miles of county roads existing in 1951 and include that one-third of the population would gain in secondary funds, the remainder losing money under the new formula.

State Representative W. H. Reedy Jr. of Estis today told The Herald that he predicted yesterday for the House Highway and Roads Committee of which he is a member, "If this constitutional revision stands as pertains to distribution of road funds and bonding amendments, every county in Florida will be out of the road building business."

"One reason is the bonding people will not buy bonds with a 15-year stipulation, as in the revised constitution, but need a 50-year stipulation," he continued commenting about the distribution of road funds that if the proposal concerning them stands, "Counties will have no money to buy right-of-way or build secondary roads." The allocations will just cover their debt service on present bonds, he added.

Reedy said he believes these provisions will be changed.

The Day They Staged An Invasion Of Seminole

By JOHN SPOLSKI

The next time that you get the feeling that Vietnam is quite some distance away from the comforts of your home, just remember—"there's a VC camp somewhere within a radius of 20 miles of the City of Sanford."

They're walking down a scenic trail and suddenly, there it is—the pointed bamboo spears encircling the entire area in a death-defying fence, four palm-covered native huts with an additional barricade of adobe wire around it.

In trying to gain a better view, you advance another five yards or so. Suddenly there's a shattering mine explosion, the concussion of which literally lifts you from the ground.

And then there are five more blasts with each one getting closer and louder to you.

Still expecting more of the same to follow, you hesitate on taking another step... or is it fear starting to set in which won't permit you to move another inch?

There's more to this story which covers a two-day field training mission on a VC village by members of Company F, 11th Special Forces Unit of the Army. Included in this training mission were Regulars of the Army and Homebased Air Force Base, Army Reservists, Army National Guard units from the Jacksonville, St. Petersburg and Tampa areas, as well as personnel from the Sanford Naval Air Station.

The village was built by the 8th Engineers, Marines stationed in Okinawa according to specifications of those found in the villages in Vietnam.

The uneasy feeling starts to leave you and your buddies' inspection is now bristling with the "smoking sign" on the ground. You're inhaled that way may be the second time when all hell breaks loose and you know "you've had it."

Those buildings you searched and were sure of being empty VC village, many American boys have blazing guns coming lives will be saved.

To Highlight Special Week 12 Entered In Jaycee Pageant

Even if some of those doctors at the Naval Air Station wanted to volunteer for duty at the hospital they couldn't... not licensed to practice in Florida.

A couple of weeks ago the City Commission and Planning Board accepted Housing and Urban Development Official Raymond Duncan to come down here from Atlanta to discuss a workable federal program for Sanford.

Well, the city found out over the weekend that Duncan can't come down (listen to this reason) because all travel funds have been cut due to the Vietnam War.

The Democratic Executive Committee had approved to get Sen. George Smathers down here for a testimonial dinner in February... The senator's office said...

How come the county clamps down on palm readers but a root doctor is allowed to practice on Magnolia Avenue?

If anyone doubts that the city needs a structural rearrangement of buildings take a look at these figures. The city has the Valdez Hotel valued at $78,169 and the county has the same facility at $110,550.
