LOVERS SLAIN AND BRANDED ON FOREHEADS

Sprawled in a parked automobile in a woodland where they had gone for a tryst, the bodies of Frances Hajek, 18, and her sweetheart, Lewis Weiss, 20, were found near New York with red circles "branded" on their foreheads. The "branding" was done with the slain girl's lipstick. Police believe a jealous suitor followed them and shot them. The bodies are shown at the scene of the crime with police inspecting them in search of clues. Note the circles.

DEATH WAS IN THE AIR when the Nazis' new airforce attacked Berlin in a sham raid, dumping smoke bombs to indicate buildings hit and filling the streets with gas. Into action jumped air protection squads, shown here dispersing gas. Plane wreckage lends reality to the war-like atmosphere. Sirens warned of the sky bombers' approach, civilians fled to cover and anti-aircraft squadrons sprang to their guns in the darkened city.

WAR COMES TO GERMANY, only make-believe to be sure, but realistic enough to thousands in Berlin who doused their lights and ran to cover as squadrons of planes roared overhead, dumping smoke bombs.

AND CHANGES LIVING HABITS for hundreds of former city slum dwellers. This is a portion of Williamsburg, largest slum-clearance project in the nation, built at a cost of $12,452,000 to replace 12 square blocks of over-crowded, worn-out tenements in New York City. Here eventually 1,400 families will live in apartments with all rooms outside and every modern convenience in place of heatless, often wind-swept, squalid rooms.

King Carl Allows 9 Hits While Mates Smash Out 12 Off 3 Yank Pitchers

Gehrig Blasts Out Home Run In 9th

Banning Stars With 3 Hits In 4 Trips To Help Terrymen

POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK CITY, Oct. 9.—King Carl Hubbell received his much wanted revenge on the New York Yankees this afternoon when he set them back in a 7 to 3 win for the New York Giants in a game in which he gave up nine well scattered hits while his mates collected 12 binges off the offerings of three of Joe McCarthy's hurlers for the Giants' first win of the 1937 World Series.

The Giants scored their winning runs in the second inning when they pushed across six of their seven tallies and knocked Bump Hadley from the mound.

Carl Damning, Giant catcher who is playing in the place of Gus Mancuso who is on the injured list, received the hitting laurels for the afternoon when he was successful in driving out two singles and a double in four trips to the plate.

Lou Gehrig connected for his first hit of the game in the ninth when he plastered one into the right field stands for a circuit blow, his first of the series.

The Yankees started the scoring hostilities in their half of the first inning when Crossen flied out to second base but Rolfe tripled to center field and scored when DiMaggio flied out to center.

The National League Champs were held to bay in their half of the second to tally six runs in a great bombardment off Hadley. Hank Leiber opened the wild inning with a single to short center field. McCarthy singled to right and Leiber advanced to third base. Damning was credited with an infield hit and Leiber scored on the play and McCarthy moved down to second base.

Whitehead hit a hot grounder toward second base, but the ball hit Damning and Damning was automatically out. McCarthy was ruled back to second as the ball was dead. Hubbell hit a grounder down to Lassari and he relayed the ball to the plate in an (Continued on Page 8A)

Witnesses Say Cops Put Flog Victims In Car

Defendants Are Identified By Witnesses As Having Hand In Flog Kidnapping

BARTOW, Oct. 9.—(AP)—The State presented further evidence today intended to link six former Tampa policemen with the abduction, flogging, tarring and feathering of three political organizers in Tampa two years ago. The six now on trial are charged with second degree murder as the result of the death of Joseph Shoemaker, one of the three victims.

Judge Robert Dewell recessed the trial until Monday after the State this morning presented the testimony of Detective W. D. Bush of Tampa and John Riegel formerly of Tampa, who claimed they saw C. W. Carlisle and C. A. Brown, Jr., put the three victims in an automobile outside the police station. The surviving victim, Eugene F. Poulnot, and Sam Rogers late yesterday identified three of the other defendants as they told of the flogging.

Judge Robert Dewell had moved the case toward a quick end by end of their case today. The case toward a quick end by ruling out all evidence of what happened before the three were seized at the door of the Tampa police station the night of Nov. 30, 1935.

Four of the defendants were identified by Eugene F. Poulnot and Samuel J. Rogers, flogging victims, as having a hand in the kidnapping. They could not say, however, who was at the scene of the actual flogging, in woods about 15 miles east of Tampa.

The four identified were C. W. Carlisle, John P. Bridges, and F. W. Switzer, former Tampa policemen, and Artie Gilliam, Orlando grove caretaker who served as a special officer in the 1935 Tampa city primary. C. A. Brown and Sam E. Crosby, also former Tampa policemen, were not mentioned by Poulnot and Rogers.

As a result of Judge Dewell's ruling on what testimony may be offered—prosecution attorneys said they probably will reach the end of their case today.

A bitter wrangle between attorneys developed over the ruling, based on a decision of the state supreme court reversing the conviction last year of five of the present defendants on a charge of kidnapping Poulnot.

Judge Dewell, who agreed with the view of defense attorney, held the supreme court decision prohibited any evidence tending to show a conspiracy between the six defendants.

He thus ruled out evidence, presented at the previous trial, showing that Poulnot, Rogers and Shoemaker were arrested on the night of the flogging at a private home while attending a meeting of the Modern Democrats, a political club; that they were taken to the police station and questioned briefly about communism; that they were soon released and led out to waiting cars.

SIX ON TRIAL FOR FLORIDA FLOGGINGS

Accused of second degree murder as the result of the fatal flogging of Joseph E. Shoemaker, a socialist, six former officers of Tampa went on trial at Bartow, Fla. Two other men, Samuel Rogers and Eugene F. Poulnot, were kidnapped with Shoemaker and all were tarred, feathered and beaten. The defendants are shown conferring with their lawyer, Attorney Chauncey Boyer. Seated left to right: C. W. Carlisle, J. P. Bridges, A. F. Gilliam and Attorney Boyer. Standing, left to right: C. A. Brown, Sam Crosby and F. W. Switzer (seated on table).

New Law Raises License Taxes For Businesses

None Escape Taxation; Penalties Provided For Failure To Pay

Every man in business will have to pay State and County occupational license tax, from now on, and those who have been paying, in almost every instance, have had their licenses drastically increased, according to Tax Collector John D. Jenkins, in an interview this morning in which he explained the outstanding features of the new law.

The four identified were C. W. Carlisle, John P. Bridges, and F. W. Switzer, former Tampa policemen, and Artie Gilliam, Orlando grove caretaker who served as a special officer in the 1935 Tampa city primary. C. A. Brown and Sam E. Court Ruling On Justice Black Expected Monday

Court Holds Three Secret Sessions On Pending Petitions

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—(AP)—The Supreme Court met for its expected announcement Monday night.

Violators of City Ordinances will be tried before City Judge Frank J. Miller in the session of Municipal Court Monday afternoon.

This was the third secret meeting this week at which the justices discussed pending petitions and argued whether to review decisions of lower courts. The rulings will be announced Monday, sixty-fifth birthday anniversary of Justice Indiana F. Stone.

Two challenges of Justice Black's title to the position, along with litigation involving six Roosevelt administration laws, were included among the 300 petitions before the tribunal.

Albert Levitt, a former federal judge in the Virgin Islands, and Patrick Henry Kelly, a Boston attorney, contested Black's appointment a few minutes after he took his seat last Monday. Black's former membership in the Ku Klux Klan, which stirred a bitter controversy before and after his historic radio speech, was not mentioned in the challenges. They were based on legal points.

Sanford Theater News for the Coming Week.

"Lost Horizon" Will Show At Ritz On Sunday, Monday

Pictures From The Story By James Hilton Features Ronald Coleman, Edward Horton And Many Other Stars

What promises to be one of the greatest successes; Harrison Ford's important screen events of man, American explorer and, in the year takes place at the Ritz theater, who acted as advisor on the production of "Lost Horizon" makes its long-awaited bow, following its sensational nation-wide roadshow tour.

Starring Ronald Colman, and featuring Edward Everett Horton, H. B. Warner, Jane Wyatt, Marjorie, John Howard, Thomas Mitchell, Isabel Jewell, Sam Jaffe in the much discussed High Lamasole, the picture is an adaption by Robert Riskin of James Hilton's celebrated novel of the same name.

Briefly, the story of "Lost Horizon" concerns five persons who are kidnapped in an airplane in China, and flown deep into the heart of forbidden Tibet. Picked up by a caravan headed by a mystic and elderly Chinese, they are brought to what is perhaps the most unusual place on the face of the earth—the lamasery of Shangri-La.

Here, cloistered securely by mountains impenetrable to the uninitiated, is a setting of indescribable beauty and serenity, peopled by members of the strangest cult of modern times. Romance and adventure fall to the newsmen-kidnap victims, and soon, all but one surrender to the utter contentment and rare levities that is Shangri-La.

The personalities involved in the production of "Lost Horizon" give this picture a distinguished advantage.

Luise Rainer, Bill Powell Co-Star In Ritz Film Drama

In a film that affords amazing contrast with their former vehicles, William Powell and Luise Rainer achieve new credit in "The Emperor's Candlesticks," which comes to the Ritz Theater Wednesday and Thursday.

The star who has become famous as "The Thin Man" now is a dashing secret agent in Europe and Miss Rainer, recently hailed for her superb artistry as the Chinese slave-bride in "The Good Earth," is an exotic woman of international intrigue.

The story, from the novel by Baroness Orczy, moves from Vienna to Warsaw, into Russia and back into Paris and London, with suspenseful action at every step. The spies suspect each other and rightly, Death is close on their heels many times but they outwit it and eventually romance brings them together.

Edna Mae Oliver Is Star Of Film At Ritz Tuesday

Comedian Heads Cast Of Players In "My Dear Miss Aldrich"

The equality of women gets better than an even break in "My Dear Miss Aldrich," the amusing comedy which shows at the Ritz Theater Tuesday.

With Edna May Oliver, Maureen O'Sullivan and Walter Pidgeon topping a first-rate cast, this picture ranks as one of the better laugh films of the age. It tells the story of a school teacher who inherits a newspaper. The managing editor, strong in the belief that no woman is fit for work beyond the home, attempts to block her at every turn until, of course, he falls in love with her.

Miss O'Sullivan has just been selected to co-star with Robert Taylor in London in "A Yank at Oxford." Pidgeon, in reward for his excellent acting, has been signed to a long-term Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer contract.

Every member of the cast excels in his respective role. Edna May Oliver appears as a puzzle addict, in the most humorous role of her brilliant career. J. Farrell Macleod, the veteran character actor, is a city editor. Janet Beecher is a militant feminist. Others in the cast are Rita Johnson, Roger Converse, Brent Carver, Charles Wadron, George Williams and Paul Harvey. George Seitz has performed a masterful job of direction.

The story is entirely plausible and the newspaper atmosphere is authentic. The audience thoroughly enjoyed "My Dear Miss Aldrich" and gave enthusiastic evidence of it.

Lake City Takes Advantage Of Fed Fumbles And Scores Victory, 12 To 7

Morgan Stars When Feds Score Only Touchdown Of Game
Cumbie Shines For Lake City

Lions Open Second Half With Offensive That Feds Could Not Stop For Two Touchdowns In Three Minutes

By VOLIE WILLIAMS, JR.
Costly fumbles by Head Coach Leonard McLean's 1937 edition of the Seminole High School Celery Feds aided Coach Hobart Horner and his Lake City Lions in defeating the Sanford aggregation by a score of 12 to 7 before a crowd of 1,000 children and fans including Florida's Governor, Fred P. Cone at the Lake City Athletic Field last night.

On the opening kickoff it appeared as though Sanford possessed an edge over the Lions but that edge was spoiled by bad breaks. On the second play after the kickoff Sanford opened an aerial attack and Ferguson scored a long one down to Lawson for 43 yards. Ferguson made eight yards around right end but Lawson fumbled on the 13 yard line and Waters recovered for Lake City.

Lake City and Sanford then played usual football in mid-field and from that point neither team even threatened to score for the remainder of the half.

Lake City mounted an offensive that Sanford couldn't stop in the opening minutes of the second half when the running and beautiful blocking was responsible for a touchdown. Ferguson kicked off to Lake City's 29 yard line and Cumbie returned it to the 22 yard marker. Hill made first and ten before Lawson stopped him. Lawson then stopped Cumbie after he made 34 yards, Herndon made another first down around right end, Markman failed to gain on a line smash. Cumbie then iterated to Markman who fumbled a loss of 6 yards.

Hill circled end for 10 yards and a first down, Markman failed to gain and Cumbie passed to Hill for 8 yards. Cumbie then went over the line for 6 yards and the first touchdown. The extra point failed.

The Lake City youths then came back and recovered a fumble on Sanford's 34 yard line and Herndon went around his left end for 24 yards and a touchdown. Again the extra point failed.

Ferguson then desperately played in an attempt to score succeeded when Sanford got the ball and Morgan went into punt formation and Lake City was penalized 15 yards for roughing Morgan, the kicker, Ferguson passed to Morgan for 12 yards and a first down on the Lake City 20 yard line.

Ferguson and Lawson made three yards and the ball rested on Lake City's seven yard stripe. Morgan, on spinner, went off tackle for 6 yards. Morgan brought the ball to the 6 inch line and then on the next play Morgan went over the center of the line for Seminole's only score. Ferguson passed to Stoinoff for the extra point.

Lake City thus froze the ball with only a few minutes left to play and the game ended with the ball on Sanford's 35 yard line. The work of Tom Tumbler, Lion

Florida Nearly Upsets Temple But Owls Win, 7 To 6

McGhee Smashes Line For Only Florida Score

Willis, Brock And Mayberry Also Star For Southern Team

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9 (AP)—The Temple Owls defeated the Florida Gators in an interesting game here last night by a score of 7 to 6. The Gators, playing a great defensive game, led through the first half, but lack of reserve strength enabled Temple to push ahead in the third period.

Florida scored a touchdown in the second period but "Red" McBeth's line attempt for extra point failed.

"Lefty" McBeth punched the Temple line for the Gators touchdown late in the second period after Florida had marched 47 yards.

Tom Willis, with a brilliant gallop through the Temple line, and Walter Mayberry, Florida's captain, led the march, Temple threatened in the closing seconds of the half but the Gators, fighting desperately, stopped the northerners on their six.

The southpaws repeatedly broke up Temple's running attack and, aided by Mayberry's good punting, played the Owls on even terms the first quarter.

Mayberry's kicks averaged better than 22 yards and each time

Warren broke away for 43 yards and led his Gators like a real veteran should.

Our Seminole High School gridsters let us down last night when they made too many costly fumbles that turned the tables into a defeat against the Celery Feds and also their second defeat this season, one a conference blow.

The Feds had several opportunities to score in the tilt but they blew their chances every time, except one...

We wish to thank Volie Williams, who covered the game for us last night in Lake City. Volie says he enjoyed covering the game up in the press box of Lake City's new athletic field as he ate peanuts and popcorn and drank several bottles of pop which were kindly donated to him by Gov. Fred P. Cone.

Governor Cone enjoyed the game very much and he complimented the Seminole team several times but that didn't seem to do the trick and save the game for the locals as Governor Cone was rooting and yelling very loudly for the Lake City outfit.

Your columnist was able to see an interesting game last night in Deland along with many other Sandfordites who saw the Stetson Hatters win over the South Georgia State Teachers by a score of 21 to 0. It was a good ball game and George McClelland, local youth, played an excellent game at halfback and he caught several long passes from Lyn Warren and placed the ball in scoring positions several times.

We were sorry to hear this morning that Art Ryan, big Hetter back, suffered a brain concussion when he encountered a hard blow from the knee of one of the State Teachers athletes and burst his blood vessels, and burst his right jaw as well. He will have to undergo surgery for the extra point.

Temple stopped a Florida threat inside their own 46 early in the third period and then drove in three plays to the 10 yard line. On a double reserve, Herndon ran 23 yards to the Florida 41. Herndon, on a reverse, broke off tackle to the 30, then Herndon again broke loose around end for 30 yards and a touchdown. Bowles added the extra point from placement.

Lawson, in the period, carried the ball 22 yards, but the Florida line forced him to go over the goal line as the ball ended, Florida 6, Temple 0.

Temple threatened twice in the last quarter, reaching the Florida 19 and 25, but on each occasion the southerners stiffened and held for downs. Mayberry ran 23 yards to the Florida 41. Herndon, on a reverse, broke off tackle to the 30, then Herndon again broke loose around end for 30 yards and a touchdown. Bowles added the extra point from placement.

Lawson, in the period, carried the ball 22 yards, but the Florida line forced him to go over the goal line as the ball ended, Florida 6, Temple 0.

Hatters Triumph In Second Game And It Was First Win

By JULIAN STENSTRUM

HULLY PINKS DELAND, Oct. 9. Head Coach Brady Connelly's Stetson Hatters "burned on the meat" last night in their first contest of the season, when they racked up their first victory of the season in two starts when they beat Coach "Crock" Smith's South Georgia State Teachers by a score of 24 to 0.

Leading the Hatters in play were Lyn Warren of Miami, who displayed his triple threat ability in junior football circles when he blocked, passed and ran the Hatters to their victory.

Lyn Warren broke away for 43 yards and a touchdown and many times did he get away for runs of 20 yards.

Warren gained a total of 138 yards from scrimmage although he was in the game approximately three quarters. Troy Bell also was outstanding as he recorded a 49 yard punt that was also good for a touchdown.

George McClelland, Sanford south, proved an outstanding name at his right half post as he passed three times, one completed and one fumbled and he caught one pass from Warren. His blocking was brilliant and he did some fine work throughout the tilt.

Stetson suffered a bad break in the third quarter when "Stuck" Ryan was kicked on the right jaw and he suffered a brain concussion, dislocated jaw, and an ear injury.

The Hatters attempted 13 passes, completing two for 51 yards while the Georgians attempted 14 and completed six for 34 yards.

Austria Parakeets Placed With Birds At Municipal Zoo

A dozen Austrian parakeets have been added to the bird collection of the Sanford Municipal Zoo, James Moughton, superintendent of Parks here, announced today.

The Zoo required the birds from the Jacksonville Zoo through an exchange with W. L. Bradley, superintendent of parks in Jacksonville.

Andrews fanned Orléans but Hipple walked filling the bases. Lehrer, wmg started the inning again singled to center field to score Moore and Bartell and McCarthy grounded out to Lazzeri to end the inning.

The Yankees added one more to bring up their score of runs to two when Andrews, who replaced Hippy in the second, was safe on an error by Hartell. Crosetti grounded to Whitehead who forced Andrews at second and Rolfe flew out to left field. DiMaggio hit a grounder down to Orléans who threw wild to first base and Crosetti scored on the play Gehrig grounded out to McCarthy.

In the fourth neither team even threatened and both went scoreless. Again in the fifth both teams went down in order and no trouble came up for either outfit.

In the sixth the Yanks threatened to score and hold their usual sixth inning rally. Rolfe singled to right field but Hubbell sent DiMaggio down, fanned Columbia Lou Gehrig and forced Dickey to foul out to McCarthy.

Andrews again set the Giants down one, two, three, and ended the sixth inning and so did Hubbell, who seems to be having his day with the Yankees. The King Carl fanned Hoag, forced Salkirk to roll out to McCarthy and Lazzeri went out Bartell to McCarthy and Bartell did some beautiful fielding on that play to end the first half of the seventh inning.

The Giants added another tally to their total of seven when with two men out, Lehrer worked Andrews for a walk and McCarthy singled through the box and Lehrer advanced to second, Danner then got his third hit of the afternoon when he doubled to deep right field to score Lehrer. McCarthy held up at third. Whitehead was purposely walked to fill the bases but Hubbell lined out to deep right-center, ending the inning.

With the eighth inning the teams were about evenly matched, the bats being quiet until the Yankees came to bat. McCarthy singled to right field and Dickey to the plate, then he walked, then he was intentionally walked and an only hit of the game, DiMaggio went out on a long fly to Riddle in right field and Hoag singled to right field, but Salkirk fanned out to deep center and the game was over. Score 7 to 3 in favor of the Giants.

Stars And Bars Must Fly Over Confederates

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Oct. 9.—Gen. John R. Kennedy, commander-in-chief of Alabama's Confederate veterans, gave notice yesterday that the "Stars and Bars" would float at a North-South reunion next June in Montgomery, (29), South Union Street, (21), near the State Capitol, on the east 52 feet of said West 550 feet; and the same will be done in Seminole County and State of Florida, where, S. I. Bigham, Special Master, will go to make it satisfy the terms of existing laws.

JAMES G. BIGHAM, Special Master, of the Young People's Service of North America, No. 4500, Seminole County, Florida, to whom the notice was given, said: "I am going to wear a Stars-and-Bars flag on my coat, and un dam' Yankee is going to take it off."

Carl Hubbell Hurls Brilliant Game To Upset Yankees, 7-3

(Continued from Page One) attempt to get McCarthy but the throw was too late. Moore singled to center field to score Whitehead and Hubbell moved to third. Bartell then retaliated with another single to deep center field and Hubbell crossed the plate.

Andrews fanned Orléans but Hipple walked filling the bases. Lehrer, wmg started the inning again singled to center field to score Moore and Bartell and McCarthy grounded out to Lazzeri to end the inning.

The Yankees added one more to bring up their score of runs to two when Andrews, who replaced Hippy in the second, was safe on an error by Hartell. Crosetti grounded to Whitehead who forced Andrews at second and Rolfe flew out to left field. DiMaggio hit a grounder down to Orléans who threw wild to first base and Crosetti scored on the play Gehrig grounded out to McCarthy.

In the fourth neither team even threatened and both went scoreless. Again in the fifth both teams went down in order and no trouble came up for either outfit.

In the sixth the Yanks threatened to score and hold their usual sixth inning rally. Rolfe singled to right field but Hubbell sent DiMaggio down, fanned Columbia Lou Gehrig and forced Dickey to foul out to McCarthy.

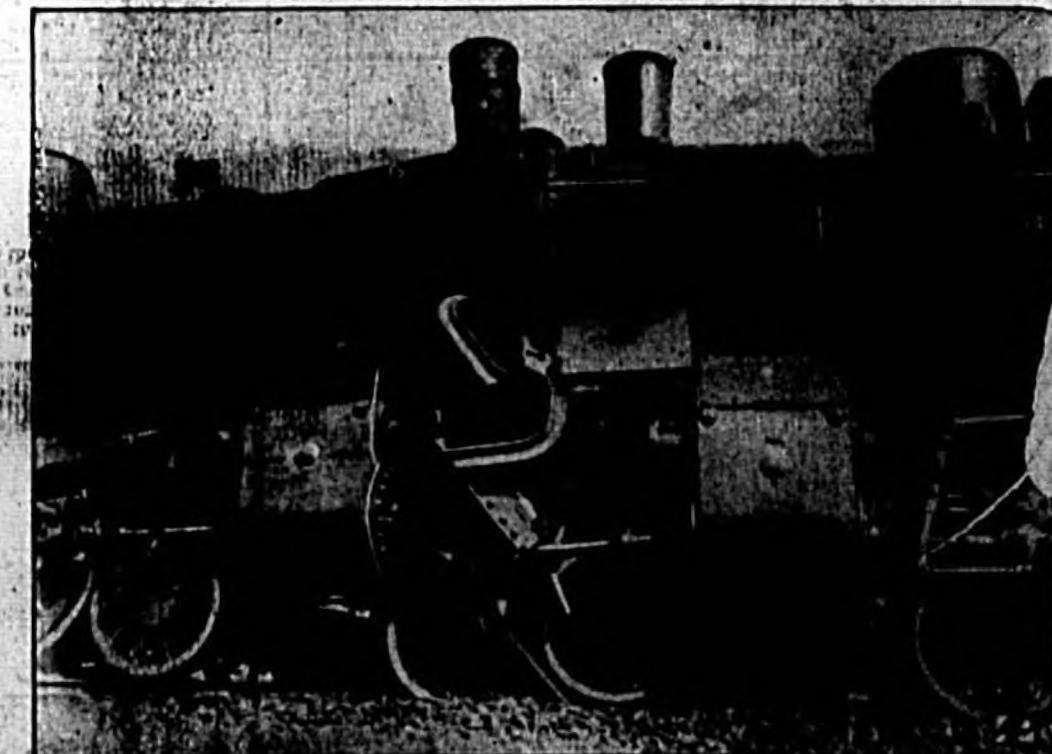

Andrews again set the Giants down one, two, three, and ended the sixth inning and so did Hubbell, who seems to be having his day with the Yankees. The King Carl fanned Hoag, forced Salkirk to roll out to McCarthy and Lazzeri went out Bartell to McCarthy and Bartell did some beautiful fielding on that play to end the first half of the seventh inning.

The Giants added another tally to their total of seven when with two men out, Lehrer worked Andrews for a walk and McCarthy singled through the box and Lehrer advanced to second, Danner then got his third hit of the afternoon when he doubled to deep right field to score Lehrer. McCarthy held up at third. Whitehead was purposely walked to fill the bases but Hubbell lined out to deep right-center, ending the inning.

With the eighth inning the teams were about evenly matched, the bats being quiet until the Yankees came to bat. McCarthy singled to right field and Dickey to the plate, then he walked, then he was intentionally walked and an only hit of the game, DiMaggio went out on a long fly to Riddle in right field and Hoag singled to right field, but Salkirk fanned out to deep center and the game was over. Score 7 to 3 in favor of the Giants.

Black Given Clear Title By Justices

Levitt Petition For Black's Removal On Technical Grounds
Is Denied By Court

Ku Klux Issue Is Not Raised

Kelly Motion Is Also Denied On Same Basis As Levitt's

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—(AP)—The Supreme Court refused today to permit Albert Levitt, a former federal judge in the Virgin Islands, and Patrick Henry Kelly, a Boston attorney, to contest Justice Hugo L. Black's right to remain on the bench.

This action gave Black a clear title to his judicial post so far as present challenges are concerned. Levitt had indicated, however, that he might start other proceedings.

"This fight will not be over if my petition is denied," he asserted.

The Court refused to permit Levitt to file his petition which contended Black was constitutionally ineligible for the position. Levitt claimed Black was barred because he was member of the Senate which voted to increase the "emoluments" of the justices by permitting them to retire at full pay after reaching 70 and serving 10 years.

He added that the retirement of Justice Van Devanter did not "create a vacancy" on the Court and hence there was no place for Black. He contended that Van Devanter still technically is a member of the tribunal.

Service by Black, the petition said, "will interfere with and prevent the due, proper, and lawful administration of justice in the Supreme Court of the United States."

Kelly's motion was denied on the basis of the action on Levitt's petition.

Local Police Look For Osceola Bandit

A call requesting that the City Police Department be on the lookout for three bandits who held up and robbed a filling station about one mile north of Kissimmee about 7:30 o'clock last night was received from the Osceola County authorities a short time after the robbery. Chief of Police G. Williams reported this morning.

Chief Williams stated that the Department had been watching for suspicious characters but as yet no arrests had been made.

The trio, one with a pistol and the other brandishing a knife, held up the station belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Michael Mullen, who reported that the bandits escaped with $100 and several cartons of cigarettes.

OGDEN L. MILLS

Two Weeks' Illness
Proves Fatal To
Hoover's Regime

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Ogden L. Mills, former secretary of the treasury, died at his home here today at 11:59 A. M. after an illness of two weeks.

Although "born with a gold spoon in his mouth" and with little indecision except the tradition of ancestors to carve out a career, his life was well rounded.

After getting his law degree from Harvard in 1907, with high grades, he became an employee and then a partner of Stetson, Jenkins and Russell, a New York law firm, and soon was in demand as a corporation trial lawyer. But dissatisfied with a career that seemed solely devoted to pecuniary gain, Mills, only a year after being admitted to the New York bar, became active in ward politics. In 1912 he ran for Congress but was defeated.

Two years later he was elected to the state senate and began to reflect the lively interest in social welfare displayed by his grandfather, Darius Ogden.

Two Jailed In "Jook Joint" Stabbing From Argument Over Wom-

LAKELAND, Oct. 11.—(AP)—In an early morning "jook joint" stabbing over a woman others were held in jail here after it was Polk county's second murder within a week.

Edward J. Mallory, 20-year-old Highland City fisherman, was stabbed to death in front of a "jook joint" just inside the Lake land city limits on the old Auburndale road, and Louis Kelley, fruit picker, was placed in the county jail in connection with the crime. Several hours later Leon Cook, truck driver, was placed in the Lakeland jail, and the police were right in prohibiting erection of a filling station at the corner of Eighth Street and Park Avenue. Mayor Edward Higgins intimated that unless it was decided to prohibit a filling station on the south side of the street, the police would be right in prohibiting erection of a filling station at the corner of Eighth Street and Park Avenue.

Officers said they learned Mallory was an innocent bystander at a fracas which started over a girl and was stabbed in the heart as he stood by Kelley's car. Kelley was arrested a short time later, but Cook was not picked up until four hours later when relatives surrendered him to officers.

It is expected that interesting news will be given concerning this proposed canal project.
