WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—(AP)—A Treasury deficit exceeding $1,000,000,000 without counting unestimated new relief costs, was forecast to Congress by President Roosevelt today for next fiscal year.

Unprecedentedly, he withheld the complete budget estimates as to how much the government would spend in the 12 months beginning next July 1. For the present he listed $6,733,000,000 but said that later reports for work relief money would be forthcoming.

He gave notice that next year's deficit and public debt would amount accordingly. Just before the President forwarded a forecast to the end of 1936-37 of $2,201,438,777.

There would be a new all-time high in the deficit.

There was not the slightest hint of any readiness to meet the deficit from the appropriations bill immediately balanced.

The President's forecast of the 1937 deficit, political leaders generally withheld any detailed comment. From the start, however, a dispute was plainly inevitable. The amount varied largely according to the economic view of the legislators rather than along strictly party lines.

The President's forecast of the 1937 deficit of $2,201,438,777, the largest deficit in the history of the United States, was met with a variety of reactions.

The Senate Finance Committee, which is expected to report on the bill in a few days, is expected to recommend a deficit of $1,000,000,000.

The House Ways and Means Committee, which is expected to report on the bill in a few days, is expected to recommend a deficit of $1,000,000,000.

Flooded Rivers Cause Losses In French Lowlands

PARIS, Jan. 6.—(AP)—Rivers through France, swollen by torrential rains, continue to destroy millions of francs' worth of property and to flood thousands of acres.

The Breton marshlands, traversed by the Vendee River, are almost all under water. The floods in this region have reached the height of the great disaster of 1910, the worst in French history.

The Loire River and the Seine, flood-control authorities warned yesterday, are still rising and will not reach their maximum level until Tuesday. Villages on the banks of these and other rivers already have been invaded by the swirling floodwaters, which is raising crops and destroying other property.

Greatest damage has been done in the farming region about the Breton marshes, where the tides from the sea have augmented the flood water and inundated about 25,000 acres.

The celery control meeting will be held in the Tenth Street Hotel in Lakeland.

In advising committee members of the change to 10 A. M., Fisher stated that it is very important that all members be present at 10 A. M. so as to allow them to leave for Orlando at 11 A. M.

County Approves C. E. Dawes As Judge

Sanford County has accepted by resolution Judge C. E. Dawes as its county judge for the year ending next June 30.

The resolution was passed by a vote of 10-0 at a meeting of the board of commissioners held in the county court room at Sanford today.

Judge Dawes is a resident of Sanford and has been practicing law in the city for many years.

France Finds Plot To Send Arms To Italy

France dug into a suspected plot to divert 3,000 army rifles and machine guns to Italy today while Italian war planes kept up a persistent and widespread bombing campaign in Ethiopia. The missing carloads of arms was found to have been routed mysteriously to a French port where, authorities said, it could easily have been placed aboard a ship.

Confused reports on the death of a second Swedish Red Cross worker as the result of the Dolo bombing a week ago has reached the British foreign office from its legation at Addis Ababa. Because of a similarity of names it was thought possible only one Swede had been fatally wounded as previously reported.

Related reports of hard fighting came out of southern Ethiopia as Great Britain began reinforcing its African military position. Air bombing, in which several hospitals and Red Cross units have been struck or destroyed, is being resorted to on both northern and southern fronts in an attempt by the Italians to halt the advance of the defenders, Ethiopian authorities said.

In the Mediterranean Great Britain used commercial liners to carry troops to British ports near areas of the greatest uneasiness.

'Jafsie' Decides Not To Appear On Lecture Platform

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—(AP)—John F. Condon announced last night he had cancelled scheduled stage appearances to deliver talks on law enforcement, because of what he called an erroneous impression he was exploiting the Lindbergh case in which he had been a prominent figure.

The 75-year-old "Jafsie" said he had been led to cancel engagements in New York and several other cities by a realization that his motives were misinterpreted.

"My inner feelings prompt me to refrain from giving an opportunity to anyone to place any such interpretation upon my actions in making these appearances," he said in an interview.

Five Counties Have Orlando Fair Space

Seminole, Ocoee, Brevard, Alachua and Marion counties have arranged for exhibit space at the Central Florida Fair in Orlando of Feb. 12-22, Secretary C. T. Bickford of the fair announces. In addition to these five counties, Secretary Karl Lehmann of the Lake county chamber of commerce has promised a display of products of that county, and Orange county will also exhibit products.

The exhibit committee of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce will meet next Thursday afternoon to make further plans for the display of Seminole County products.

The 1936 program list, containing exhibits worth total $7,000, is out of the press and copies are ready for distribution. Requests should be mailed to Central Florida Fair, Orlando.

Party Leaders Ask Democrats To Big Dinner

Holly And Wilkinson Hope For Crowd At Jackson Day Affair In Mayfair Hotel

Older Democrats, as well as those who belong to the Young Democrats Club of Seminole County, are urged by party leaders to attend the Andrew Jackson Dinner in the Mayfair Hotel in Sanford at 8 o'clock on the evening of Wednesday, Jan. 8.

R. J. Holly, chairman of the Seminole County Executive Committee, and N. A. B. Wilkinson, Seminole County member of the State Executive Committee, both stated today that they hope for an unusually large attendance at the dinner. The affair is not simply for young Democrats, but is for the older Democrats as well, they said. Republicans will also be welcomed, they added.

J. Alex Sharon, chairman of the ticket sales committee for the Young Democrats Club, asks early purchasing of tickets so the hotel management will know how many to prepare for.

All those attending the Jackson Day dinner will be asked to sign a parchment scroll which will be forwarded to President Roosevelt. Carrying the word "testimonial" at the top, the parchment also have the following statement: "We, the undersigned members of Florida's Democratic party, in attendance at the Jackson Day dinner at Sanford, Florida, on Jan. 8th, 1936, do hereby evidence our loyalty to our Chief-President Franklin D. Roosevelt in his campaign for re-election to the presidency of our country."

It was also announced by State Chairman B. F. Misset that a beautiful photograph, autographed by the President, will be awarded to the Young Democratic Club having the largest proportional attendance at their dinner. The picture, 15 by 21 inches in dimensions, will become the permanent possession of the club winning the attendance contest. Acknowledged as leaders thus far in the advance ticket sale were the clubs at Gainesville, Jacksonville, and Tallahassee, with Ocala, Lakefield, Daytona Beach and Orlando making determined efforts to overhaul the leaders.

Story That Liberty League Is Sponsoring Canal Fight Is Ridiculous, Says Schmah

The story appearing in the local weekly newspaper to the effect that the Central & South Florida Water Conservation Committee is sponsored by the Liberty League with headquarters in New York, according to Gus Schmah, chairman of the finance committee of the water conservationists, "wholly ridiculous."

"This committee originally was set up by the long established Seminole County Agricultural Association, and I was put in charge of finances by that organization. That group of farmers is distinctly non-partisan and non-political, which fact is thoroughly understood in Seminole County," Gus Schmah continued. "Originally the committee acted because of the fears created by an official statement by our State Geologist based upon years of study of our water situation. These fears were confirmed by a statement from the U. S. Geological Survey. We asked for an investigation of the geological situation and assurance of the safety of our water supplies in event the canal should be dug. To date we are greatly disappointed at the failure to obtain a thorough investigation by disinterested and qualified experts. For reasons earlier made public, we cannot accept the recent report claiming no damage will result put out from Ocala which has approval neither of the U. S. Engineers Corps nor of the U. S. Geological Survey.

"The charge that our activities have been founded by the Liberty League is clearly ridiculous. I am familiar with every penny of the money that has been donated to our cause, and the sources from which it came. One hundred percent of that money has come from men actually engaged in farming (Continued On Page Two)

Brady Announces His Hatls In Ring For Legislature

F. E. Brady, former sheriff of Seminole County and a member of the State Legislature, announced his candidacy for re-election to the Legislature in Group No. 1 Saturday afternoon. In making his announcement Mr. Brady said that when he returned from the legislative session last year, he had firmly resolved never to enter politics again, but that conditions have so changed since then he has finally decided to offer for re-election.

"I believe that some member of the Legislature should go back," Mr. Brady stated, "because of the very fact of his having served in the last session. There will be but few members who can go back and I believe that my standing is such in my home county that I will be re-elected."

"I promise the people of Seminole County," Mr. Brady continued, "that at the coming session, if I am re-elected I am going to show the people of my County some of the real things that take place in the Legislature. My platform in full will be announced to the people at a later date."

"At the time I would like to add that I want to see a Seminole County man go to the State Senate. This county will be practically 24 years old by the time the next Legislature convenes, and we have never had a senator from this county. I feel that it is our time to have a senator. Our policies and principles have been dictated by other counties up in this time because of our having a senator from another county."

New Smyrna To Have Banking House Again

MELBOURNE, Jan. 6.—Opening of a new bank at New Smyrna within two weeks was announced here by C. H. McNulty, president of the Bank of Melbourne, who will also serve as president of the new Bank of New Smyrna.

The Bank of New Smyrna will have a paid in capital of $25,000 and a surplus of $5,000. It will begin business as soon as the necessary equipment and supplies can be obtained, McNulty stated.

New Smyrna has been without a bank for five years and it is said to be the largest city in the United States at the present time without a banking institution.

Farm Relief Plan Of New Deal Knocked Out By 6-3 Vote Of High Tribunal

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—(AP)—The AAA met the fate of NRA today in the U. S. Supreme Court. In a momentous six to three decision the tribunal killed the extraordinary New Deal relief plan under which over one billion dollars has been paid to men of the soil since May, 1933, Justice Roberts gravely read the majority opinion.

The act even as amended last August was held to be an invasion of states' rights and its taxes beyond the "general welfare" clause of the Constitution on which the government relied.

Justices Stone, Brandeis and Cardozo dissented.

The Administrative planned councils at once to meet without. None disputed the tremendous potential effect on the presidential campaign. Senator McNary, Republican leader, immediately projected his twice-voted plan to make the tariff effective on the farming communities.

The ruling appeared likely to doom other farm legislation, such as the Bankhead Cotton Act, the Kerr-Smith Tobacco Act, and the Warren Potato Law. These were compulsory laws.

If farm legislation were voided said Roberts today, it would be possible for Congress "to regulate industry in its most notorious forms." The plan, he said, was not in essence voluntary. "It had compulsory purpose," the opinion declared.

Secretary Wallace had no comment on learning of the decision. Two vital sections of AAA (Continued On Page Two)

Opinions Vary As To Future Of Pact Of Celery Growers

Unconstitutionality Of AAA Is Viewed By Some As Death Blow To Agreement

Officials Talk With Washington

Department's Advice Is That Decision Won't Effect Pact

Diverging opinions as to the effect the Supreme Court's decision against the AAA will have on celery agreements were expressed by growers in the Sanford area today. Some were emphatic in the belief that the holding of the AAA as unconstitutional will knock out the celery pact; others hold the view that a new pact could be put into effect in the face of the court order.

Two officials of the general crops section of the AAA in Washington were in Sanford yesterday afternoon when the dispatch came announcing the Supreme Court's decision, and they got on the long distance wire to see and talk with their counterparts in Washington, the conversations being reported at last night by 10 minutes. The result of the long discussion over the telephone was the decision at the Washington end that the Court's ruling against the AAA will have no effect on marketing agreements.

Loring Raoul of Sarasota, chairman of the Celery Control committee stated today that his views from Washington were that the proposed new celery control agreement, but that complete information would be furnished the committee at a meeting to be held in Lakeland tomorrow morning. The same advice that complete information would be forthcoming was received by P. N. Whitehurst, committee member, in reply to a telegram he sent one of the officials in Washington.

Mr. Whitehurst said today that he did not believe the Supreme Court decision would make any difference with the proposed celery agreement, and in this he was backed by Walter Mawing. The latter expressed the opinion that new laws to replace those (Continued on Page 2)

Farm Leaders Asked To Plan A New Program

Summons Sent By Wallace To Representatives To Meet In Capital Jan. 10

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—(AP) Farm leaders were summoned by the New Deal today to confer on shaping a program to replace the smashed AAA. Secretary Wallace issued a call for Jan. 10 and 11 after the Supreme Court decision brought the pending AAA machinery to a halt.

Already a farm meeting had been called for next week to plumb the Supreme Court AAA decision for future possibilities of national farm legislation. Sponsors said 1,000,000 farmers will be represented. Delegates are officers of the American Farm Bureau Federation, the National Grange, the National Co-operative Council, the Farmers National Grain Corporation and the American Agricultural Editors' Association. Delegates act in unison as a National Agricultural Conference. Edward A. O'Neal, president of the farm bureau, said today the AAA ruling will precipitate a "knock down, drag out" battle in Congress.

Most proposals for an AAA substitute were vague. Rep. Snell, Republican leader, said his party would seek to present a farm program. At the White House, President Roosevelt continued silent.

Chairman Jones, Texas, of the House Agricultural Committee, said an "effort should be made" to find a "constitutional method of putting all our citizens on an equal footing." He said he could not believe the Supreme Court means to say a national tariff is legal and that a national farm program "which merely restores the price balance cannot be made legal. I cannot believe that it is meant that cotton farmers and producers of other world market crops must purchase their supplies in a higher-priced protected market, and that there are no constitutional means by which they may be given an even break."

In the meanwhile all AAA field offices were ordered today to halt all activities.

Rotarians Hear About Bells At Luncheon Session

Bells, chimes and carillons were discussed and explained by Mrs. Fannie S. Munson at today's luncheon session of the Rotary Club, and those who heard her interesting talk learned of the distinction between chimes and carillons. From three to 12 bells constitute chimes, but all bells that number are carillons, she said. The bells in the Bok Tower as there are 72 bells in the tower, the largest being six feet in diameter. Mrs. Munson also told something of the history of the Liberty Bell.

A short memorial service was held by the Rotary Club for late president Henry R. Stevens, first president of the local club. The Rev. Martin J. Bram offered the prayer and W. A. Laffer gave the eulogy.

County Officials Buy Equipment Of Three Canneries

Establishments All In Best Of Shape, Says County Agent

Purchase of the equipment of the three canneries in Seminole County established by the old Rural Rehabilitation Administration was authorized by the Board of County Commissioners at their meeting this morning.

The canneries are located in Sanford, Oviedo and Geneva and their equipment was valued at more than $1,000. The county a month ago offered $200, but this was refused. Purchase was effected today at a price of $300. County Agent C. R. Dawson told the commissioners that all the equipment is in excellent shape and that canning of fruits and vegetables could be undertaken on a day's notice.

The commissioners also voted to pay the traveling expenses of Mrs. Howard who will supervise the three canneries.

Mrs. Howard told the board that last year 25,420 cans of fruits and vegetables were put up at the three establishments. Last year those availing themselves of the canning kitchens paid a "toll" on one-half of the cans of food they put up, but Mrs. Howard suggested that this year a toll of only every fifth can be charged, excepting in the case of meats and corn when a toll of every eighth can was suggested.

Monkey Faced Owls Given To Zoo Are Added Attraction

Four young monkey-faced owls given to the Sanford Municipal Zoo last Saturday are proving to be an added attraction, James Moughton reports. There was an unusually large crowd at the Zoo on Sunday, estimated by Mr. Moughton to be a premium, he said.

The monkey-faced owls were given to the Zoo by Theodore C. Brooks, manager of the College Arms Hotel in DeLand, and were delivered to the Zoo by the largest record Stead by W. B. Glendon, chief engineer at the hotel. Although the young owls were taken from the same nest, there is quite a difference in the sizes of the quartets. Mr. Moughton explains that the difference in size of the owls is due to the fact that the eggs of one species of owl are laid at intervals and that incubation starts before the setting of eggs in the nest to complete.

Seminole Will Have Exhibit At Tampa Fair

Future Farmers Are To Have Charge Of Display Of Celery, Meat, Butter, Milk

Seminole County celery, meat and dairy products will be exhibited at the Tampa fair next month, thanks to the ambitious energy of the boys of Celery Camp of the Future Farmers of America. They will prepare the exhibits, and the only expense to the taxpayers will be $25 which the County Commissioners appropriated today to pay traveling expenses of Alex R. Johnson, instructor of the agricultural class in Seminole High School.

Mr. Johnson told the commissioners that Tampa is an anxious for a Seminole County exhibit at the fair that E. F. Streidler, general manager of the exposition, has guaranteed that prizes totaling at least $300 will be won by the Seminole exhibit of meats and dairy produce. He listed this guarantee on the excellence of such exhibits made by the Future Farmers at the Orlando fair in other years.

In order to compete for the big prizes at the Tampa fair it will be necessary to enter a major exhibit, and therefore Mr. Johnson asked the County Commissioners to make the necessary formal application for exhibit space and to permit the arranging of a celery display. The fair management has promised a display booth with a 30-foot front, and it is Mr. Johnson's plan to show celery growing in all stages, from the seed box through papering to the crates. The use of celery will be stressed at the exhibit, free receipts being given visitors.

Mr. Johnson and C. R. Dawson, county agent, both told the commissioners that while about 100,000 persons see the Orlando fair, 500,000 visit the Tampa exposition.

Should the expenses of the exhibit from this County exceed the value of prizes won the cost will be borne by the Future Farmers, Mr. Johnson said, but he also said he is not worrying about losing. Flooded in 1928 and 1929, Caryville now is built largely on higher ground. Most low-lying districts were not re-occupied after the floods.
