

Sanford Canal Could Serve Cape Well

By Julian Stenstrom
Associate Editor
The day may not be too far away when many of the space vehicles fired from Cape Kennedy may be transported to the launching pad by specially built barges which will ply the St. Johns River through Lake Monroe and thence to Titusville via the Sanford-Titusville Canal. The idea of shipping space vehicles by connecting waterways is nothing new. The fact is they are now being transported via water and specially constructed barges. But the idea of utilizing the St. Johns and the proposed Sanford-Titusville Canal is a probability. For example, the present route from Huntsville, Ala., to Cape Kennedy is 2,261 miles of water via the Tennessee River, the Mississippi, the Gulf of Mexico, the Atlantic and the Intracoastal Waterway from Fort Pierce to the Cape. With the completion of the Tennessee-Tombigbee Waterway, using the sea route from Mobile to the Cape the distance would be some 1,417 miles—or 844 miles shorter than the present route. When the Cross Florida Barge Canal is completed, and using connecting waterways such as the St. Johns and the Sanford-Titusville canal, mileage to the Cape would be reduced to a mere 963 miles. Further, movement of space vehicles from New Orleans to the Cape, now a total of 1,016 miles, would be reduced by Florida's connecting waterways to only 650 miles. The completion of the St. Johns-Indian River Canal would put Sanford on the main street of America's entire inland waterway system. For example, from Sanford this city would be connected by direct waterway route to Savannah, Charleston, Wilmington, Norfolk, Baltimore, Trenton, New York and Boston as well as Port St. Joe, Panama City, Pensacola, Mobile, New Orleans, Beaumont and Houston. Also, Sanford—and this is what makes the canal, the port terminal and even the proposed marina so important—would be directly connected with such inland cities as Columbus, Ga., Birmingham, Huntsville, Vicksburg, Natchez, Baton Rouge, Lake Charles, Little Rock, Memphis, Nashville, Knoxville, Louisville, Evansville, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Sioux City and even Minneapolis and St. Paul. To boil it down, Sanford would be on the main inland waterways consisting of 29,000 miles and connecting 29 states. Does Sanford need the St. Johns-Indian River Canal? Does it need a port facility? Does it need a marina? If it wants to become the major center of inland transportation for Central Florida's 18 counties, it does. If it wants to attract industry to Sanford and Central Florida, it does. If it wants to serve the nation in time of national emergency, it does.

No Tax Increase For Fourth Straight Year

1964-65 City Budget Completed

Commission Holds Line On Finances

Sanford City Commissioners, holding the line against tax increases Monday requested City Attorney William Hutchison to prepare the ordinance for adoption of the 1964-65 budget, which is set at $1,291,863. This is the fourth successive year that we have managed to work out a satisfactory budget without raising taxes or falling into deficit financing," City Manager W. E. Knowles said.

Commissioner Earl Higginbotham commended the city manager for his preparation of the budget saying that "this is the best budget I have seen in the 12 years I have been on the Commission."

Noting that "we just don't have the money," the commission left the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce appropriation at the budgeted $10,000, and made no appropriation for the Sanford Chamber.

Total budget expenditures for 1964-65 are $1,291,863. This year's anticipated budget is set at $1,291,863.

The property was owned by the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company and was made available to James H. McLemore of Orlando, owner of the company. Checking plans above are, from left, Scott Burns, Seminole County Chamber of Commerce Industrial Committee chairman; McLemore, LeRoy C. Robb whose construction firm will ready the premises; and W. T. The Sanford-Seminole Jaycees are all set for their fourteenth annual Fishing Rodeo Wednesday at Lake Carolina in Ft. Mellon Park, 2 to 4 p. m., Jaycee President Clyde Long, said today.

Chairman Jim Rowe and his crew have rigged poles with hooks, lines and sinkers. The bait will be furnished by the Seminole County Sportsman's Association.

Rowe said that the children will be divided into the following age groups, one to three years, four to six years and seven to nine years. Contestants will not be allowed to use rods and reels. All poles will be provided by the Jaycees.

The Jaycee Wives will have some of their members in attendance to help register the children. Refreshments will be served following the event to the tired young Isaac Walltons.

Prizes will be given for the largest fish caught, smallest fish and the most fish.

Larger Youth Center Sought

Casselberry's Town Council Monday night established a joint committee to study ways and means of providing a more adequate youth center.

A year and a half ago a youth program was established and since that time about $10,000 has been expended to provide facilities and entertainment. However, the present facility can no longer adequately serve the present needs, officials reported.

Mayor Owen Anstey named Mr. and Mrs. Don Mount, Mrs. David McCoy and Mrs. Victor Brandes to serve with members of the recreation committee, Mr. and Mrs. James Birkenmeyer, Mrs. Louis Coyle, Larry Miller and Councilman Art Lego.

GOODBYE LITTLE FISHES. Fishes now swimming merrily in Lake Carolina in Fort Mellon Park will have a hard time Wednesday escaping 500 or more hooks, on lines held by eager youngsters at the Jaycee Annual Fishing Rodeo. Lines and poles are being prepared by Chairman Jim Rowe, Frank Finch, Jim Smith and President Clyde Long.

All Delegates May Have To Sign Loyalty Oath

ATLANTIC CITY (UPI) — Georgia Gov. Carl Sanders said today a move is afoot to require new loyalty pledges of all Democratic National Convention delegates in a bid to pacify disident Alabama delegates.

"It would keep (Alabama Gov. George) Wallace from getting what he wants — to put all of the (Alabama) people out of here," Sanders said.

Alabama delegates are risking ouster from the convention by refusing to sign new loyalty oaths being required by the credentials committee because the state's electors are not pledged to support the party nominee for president.

Casselberry Rejects Bid For Theatre - Restaurant

Casselberry will not have a Bavarian-type theater-restaurant. The Rackenspergers purchased the property several months ago and immediately asked the zoning board to approve the change and grant a use permit. The zoning agency approved and sent it to the Town Council three months ago.

After several delays, the board acted last night in an indirect way when Councilman Art Lego's motion to accept the zoning board's recommendation died for lack of a second.

The Rackenspergers planned a theater-restaurant which would seat from 150 to 200 for theater presentations and as many as 250 for banquets.

Reapportioning Issue Debated

Whether the County Commissioners should adopt a resolution directed to Florida's congressional delegation to lend its support to a measure to limit the Supreme Court's power on matters pertaining to apportionment was tabled today.

The discussion, however, did lead to an exchange of opinions between Chairman James P. Avery and Gen. J. C. Hutchinson.

Lions District Governor, Claude Locke has called a cabinet meeting of District 35-0 for Sunday at 2:30 p. m. at the Leesburg Community Building. Forty-six clubs from as many Central Florida cities make up the district. There are seven districts of Lions International in Florida.

Qualified men who have served as enlisted men or officers in any branch of the Armed Forces join the U. S. Coast Guard Reserve in the pay grade they held at the time of their discharge. During the enlistment term, which may be three, four or six years, attend weekly drill meetings in their hometown. Once a year they devote two weeks to training away from home.

Moonshine liquor still seizures by the Florida State Beverage Department continued its one-day trend throughout the state, while tax collections continued to mount steadily. This report was made today by Beverage Director Richard B. Keating on his department's activities for July. Agents destroyed 31 illegal whiskey stills during the 31-day period, poured out 12,275 gallons of fermenting mash and 1,283 gallons of moonshine. The month's total collections reached $10,035,007.45, a 3.67 percent increase over the same period a year ago.

More young drivers are sitting behind the wheel today than ever before and they've been piling up an accident and death rate nearly double the average for the entire U. S. population, according to statistics compiled by the National Safety Council. This is the grim picture the 4-H automotive clubs are trying to change. In an attempt to educate club members in safe and sane driving habits, interested groups are pooling their knowledge and resources. The Firestone Tire & Rubber Company sponsors the program nationally.

Bill Vincent Sr. has two older homes in the immediate Sanford area he'd like to nominate for the title of oldest home. He says one is the old Dr. Carwell home off Mellonville Avenue and the other a two-story home at Third and Oak. He believes the Carwell residence was built in the 1870's and the other place about the same time.

Here's something to think about: In the seven county area making up the East Central Florida Planning Council, two-thirds of all homes are FHA approved. That's just one of the maze of statistics gathered by council members as they gird for the explosive growth in the area.

Firemen Answer Four Alarms

The Sanford Fire Department answered four calls last night and this morning, but damage in all four instances was negligible.

The first was at 16th Street and Southwest Road at 11:48 p. m. last night, which proved to be a false alarm.

At 9:56 a. m. a defective light fixture at 201 South Elm in the offices of Credit Adjustment Service did no damage. The building is owned by H. L. Foley.

A coffee pot boiled over and caused a smoke scare at 2808 Central Drive at 10:30 this morning. The residence is owned by Charles Collins.

Small damage was done to the building and contents of a dwelling at 214 East 15th Street, owned and occupied by Bill J. Wootley. The blaze was caused by children playing with a cigarette lighter.

Holter Reports

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Republican gubernatorial nominee Charles Holter reported today that he has received campaign contributions of $18,250 and $15,687.

Girl Scouts To Prepare For 1965 Roundup

Sixty-two girls from the six counties that comprise the Citrus Council of Girl Scouts (Flagler, Seminole, Brevard, Osceola, Orange and Volusia) will begin pre-selection training for the 1965 Girl Scout Roundup to be held at Farragut, Idaho, July 17-26, 1965.

Under the General Chairmanship of Mrs. Ray Work of Indian Lake and program chairman Mrs. Maurice Hambloch of Winter Park, the girls will practice skills to make house-holdings easier. Outdoor food preparation, lashing, knots, fire, building, toolcraft, compass, first aid, tent pitching and tent care will be practiced. This training is held to decide who may best represent Citrus Council at Roundup 65 and is being held now through Aug. 22-28 at Camp Deer Lake, Ocala National Forest.

"We are trying to give the girls a chance to show their own individuality and personal ability as well as their ability to work well with others in a patrol situation," stated Mrs. Work. "We want to see our Girl Scouts think and plan as a patrol. We will see all stages, from the discussion of how to approach the situation, how each girl functions for herself, how she helps plan for her group and how she works together with her patrol."

Roundup Trainers include Mrs. William Drake, Melbourne; Mrs. Lawrence Smith, Winter Park; Mrs. James Wharton, Cocoa; and Miss Richard Robinson, Eustis.

Cooperating closely with the Roundup Trainers is Mrs. Blanche Kettleby, Roundup Equipment Chairman.

The Citrus Council will send two patrols of eight girls and a patrol of alternates. The Roundup will be an encampment of 10,000 campers and adult staff. Roundups have been held in Michigan, 1956; in Colorado, 1959; and in Vermont, 1962.

Roundup training is patterned on the Senior Roundup with all its excitement and challenges. As formulas are an important part of Roundup, an important part of the week. The general theme is "Girl Scouting, A Promise in Action."

Other scheduled programs are learning about and doing demonstrations, patch gifts, and a Scout's own program on the theme.

"This is a fulfilled week, and an important step on the trail to tomorrow," said Mrs. Work.

Sanford Navy Man Promoted

Samuel M. Whitehead Jr., radioman third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Whitehead of 116 Grove Lane, was recently promoted while serving aboard the anti-submarine warfare aircraft carrier USS Intrepid, operating in the Mediterranean with the Sixth Fleet.

His promotion was based on time in service and rate, military appearance, performance of duties and passing the Navy-wide competitive test.

CAPT. JOSEPH M. TULLY JR., relieved Capt. A. T. Nicholson Jr., as commanding officer of the fleet USS (AO-143) during ceremonies held at the Norfolk Naval Station on Aug. 19.

Capt. Tully Takes Over USS Neosho

Capt. Joseph M. Tully Jr., commander of Heavy Attack Wing 1 at the Sanford Naval Air Station from June 1961 to July 1963, last week relieved Capt. A. T. Nicholson Jr., as commanding officer of the fleet USS Neosho (AO-143) during ceremonies at the Norfolk Naval Station.

Capt. Tully reported to his new duties following a year's attendance at the National War College in Washington, D.C. Capt. Nicholson will report for duty on the staff of Commander in Chief, U. S. Atlantic Fleet in Norfolk.

Capt. Tully, son of Brigadier General M. Tully, USA, (Ret.), and Mrs. Tully, graduated from the Naval Academy Class in December of 1941, and has been a naval aviator since 1945.

During World War II, he served in the Pacific Theater aboard the destroyers Clark (DD-361) and David W. Taylor (DD-351). After being designated a naval aviator at Corpus Christi, Texas in August, 1945, Capt. Tully served in Fighter Squadron 19 aboard the USS Boxer and in the office of the Chief of Naval Operations. He later attended the Air Command and Staff School of the Air University at Maxwell Field, Alabama, and upon graduation, was designated assistant naval attaché in Mexico City.

Tenants Pour It On And Beat It

The tenants didn't think much of the place they were living in on South Elm Ave. and the owner didn't think much of them when he checked the premises over the weekend.

J. H. Bailey told police the tenants poured mustard and catsup over the kitchen floor, emptied a jar of beets in the kitchen cabinet and attempted to start a fire in one of the closets before departing.

Veterans Given Advice On Sale Of Residences

The mere fact that a veteran sells his federal GI home does not necessarily relieve him of his liability to the Veterans Administration, M. T. Dixon of the Florida Department of Veterans Affairs, said today.

Too often, veterans who have sold their GI homes learn later that the buyer has defaulted on the loan, a deficiency has resulted and they are liable to the VA for the payment of the claim which the VA had to pay to the lender.

A new half-ton Dodge pickup truck equipped with a water tank was purchased for the use of the county ranger. Both units are equipped with two-way radios.

Harris reminds landowners wishing assistance with fire lines or burning to call the county office at 838-1220 to make necessary arrangements.

Sanford Realtor Takes Course

John Sauls for a number of years a Sanford realtor, recently participated in a two-week course on condemnation proceedings sponsored by the American Institute of Appraisers held at the University of San Francisco.

Sauls is working toward obtaining a MAI — a membership in the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers. He said that the course dealt mainly with court procedures associated with the condemnation of private property for public uses.

While in the California city, Sauls also visited points of interest in the Bay area and attended the National Football League exhibition game between the Forty-Niners and the Cleveland Browns.

"It's amazing to me," said Sauls. "The temperature the Sunday afternoon of the game was 60 degrees in the sun. At the box office of Keesar Stadium they asked me if I wanted the shady side or the sunny side of the field. I chose the sunny side."

Sauls returned to Sanford with a sunburned face and a peeled nose.

Goldwater To Stump Florida

TAMPA (UPI) — Republican presidential candidate Barry Goldwater will stump Florida in person in September or early October, according to state GOP Chairman Tom Brown.

Brown said William E. Miller, the Republican vice presidential candidate from New York will accompany Goldwater.

"Sen. Goldwater has personally assured me that he will make addresses in the state and several stops at Florida Brown said. "In addition, we're expecting former President Dwight Eisenhower and former vice president Richard Nixon to speak in Florida for the Republican ticket."

Area Schools To Coordinate Work Program

By Jane Casselberry
Lymann High School faculty members and Principal Carlton Henley met with members of the South Seminole Junior High School faculty and Principal John Angel at a luncheon Friday at the Trade Winds Cafeteria, Seminole Plaza, Casselberry.

Following the luncheon those attending were invited to the Junior High school, where the teachers got together in their separate departments to share plans for the year's work in order to better correlate their programs.

This is the first time an effort of this type has been made to get the faculties of the two schools together for the purpose of giving the teachers an insight into each other's work in order to better prepare the seventh, eighth and ninth grade students for high school.

Officials also believe that giving the two faculties the opportunity to meet socially and professionally will create good will between the two schools.

Don't be surprised if you see prominent businessmen milking cows in public places. It will just be a part of the celebration of June Dairy Month sponsored by the Dairy Council of South Florida.

Lake Mary UPW Circles Have Meeting At Donaldson Home

By Frances Wester
A combined meeting of Circle One and Circle Two of the UPW organization of the Community Presbyterian Church of Lake Mary was held for the month of August at the home of Mrs. F. E. Donaldson with Mrs. James M. Thompson as her co-hostess.

Mrs. Thompson gave the devotions using an article written by Billy Graham entitled, "Did Men Know What They Were Writing About in the New Testament?" The scripture was taken from Luke 1: 1-4 and John 1: 1-5.

Missions for the day to be remembered were the Foreign School in Manila, Philippines, and the National Synod of Texas. The devotions were closed by sentence prayer followed by the Lord's Prayer.

Mrs. Lucille Mero was in charge of the program. Chapter 7, New Relationship, in the study book, "Be What You Are," was studied together by the group. This pointed out woman's relation to man and man's relation to woman regarding marriage, also the parent's relation to their children and the relation to God. The business meeting followed ending with the friendship circle and Mizpah benediction.

Red Line Stays Firm

It has been almost 47 years since the Communists seized control of the Russian Revolution and the Russian state.

The recent elevation of Anastas Mikoyan, the last of the old-time Bolsheviks, to the ceremonial post of president of the Soviet Union marks the end of one era.

A new generation of Communists—with names like Brezhnev, Podgorny, Polyansky—is coming to the fore, ready to take command of the party when Nikita Khrushchev finally leaves the stage.

But the era of communism itself—of totalitarian rule in Russia and its satellites, of the threat to democracy and world peace—will not be ended by a change in the Kremlin's cast of characters.

The younger men in the party, while not Stalinists, are hardly liberals, in the Western meaning of the word. They are orthodox party men, not firebrand idealists who will strike off in new ideological directions.

It is a characteristic of dictatorships that the scepter of rule is seldom passed directly from one strong man to another. Lenin did not choose Stalin and Stalin did not choose Khrushchev.

This is not because of lack of power but because of fear. Dictator-designates have a habit of wanting to take over ahead of time. The result is usually a power vacuum after the death of the leader which ambitious men rush to fill.

Khrushchev, however, is a different sort of bird. A younger contemporary of the original revolutionists, but not one of them, he has served as a sort of transition figure between the old and the new.

Though possessing nothing like the absolute power of a Stalin, he would undoubtedly like to groom a successor, or successors, who would insure the continuity of his particular philosophy of communism.

Since the removal of an earlier favorite, Frol Kozlov, by a stroke last year, the name most mentioned is that of Leonid Brezhnev, 58, formerly the U.S.S.R. president, particularly since he has now been freed from that post to concentrate on building a power base within the Presidium, the party's policy-making body.

Brezhnev has the distinction rare in Russia, of having succeeded in raising agricultural production in one of the republics.

Other contenders are Nikolai Podgorny, Dimitry Polyansky (who was born on the day of the Bolshevik counter-revolution, Nov. 7, 1917) and Alexei Adzhubel, editor of Izvestia and Khrushchev's son-in-law.

If these names are unfamiliar to ordinary people in the West, they are a puzzle to Kremlinologists—those worried individuals who study the trends and power shifts within Soviet politics.

The Kremlinologists hesitate to predict just what will happen when Khrushchev bows out. One thing seems fairly certain, however: The young Russians have known nothing but communism. They have grown up under the party, been trained by it and have risen to success within it.

None of them is going to dismantle the Communist system, which is the source of their power. Far more important, none of them is going to abandon the teachings that communism contains all truth and that the Western way is but a temporary phenomenon doomed to inevitable collapse.

Faces and methods may change in the Kremlin, but not the basic ideological realities of the historic confrontation between communism and democracy.

Thought For Today

And your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, This is the way, walk in it, when you turn to the right or when you turn to the left.—Isaiah 30:21.

Determine that the thing can and shall be done, and then we shall find the way.—Abraham Lincoln.

The Herald welcomes letters from its readers on public affairs. The writer may use a pen name provided the letter also carries the writer's true name and address. has Goldwater ever done to indicate that he is a hot-head? He is frank and speaks his convictions. Most refreshing, I'd say.

As for not understanding responsibility, his rank of major general in the Air Force answers the second part of her question. What would he have done in the Tonkin Gulf? I am sure he would not have hours in advance that he was going to bomb their base—which resulted in at least one death of our men. That need not have been.

The fear of nuclear war is frightening people into thinking we should let the Communists walk on us and spit on us. If our forefathers had let fear determine them at Valley Forge, Danila would be a subject of the British Crown instead of the free citizen that she now is. Benjamin Franklin said, "Those who give up essential liberty for a little temporary safety deserve neither liberty nor safety." Where do you stand, Danila?

Editor, Herald:

This is to ask you for your favor.

I am very anxious to exchange hobbies with some American friends but I don't know how to start it. The other day I was told by Youth Council for International Contact that if I write to some American newspapers they might be able to help me. So I am writing to you now.

What particularly I want is to exchange stamps, pictorial postcards and some other similar things and if you can introduce me a few who are interested in these things I shall be appreciated it very much.

If there aren't anyone you can recommend me, then may I ask you to insert a little note about it in your paper? I would appreciate it just the same.

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Over 90 percent of all Americans will answer "Yes" to Helen's statement below. But they will be wrong? For our smart Founding Fathers made a special point to show that the state is NOT supposed to give happiness to anybody! Scrapbook this case, for it exposes political trickery used on us voters by bureaucrats everywhere! CASE T-456: Helen Z., aged 24, is an ardent welfare worker.

In her enthusiastic address before a convention, she made the statement that every American is entitled to happiness.

Do you readers believe that?

If so, you are disagreeing violently with our smart Founding Fathers.

For in the Declaration of Independence, those patriotic pioneers stated:

"We are endowed by our Creator with certain inalienable rights, a among which are life, liberty and the PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS."

Read that famous utterance again.

Notice that it does NOT say anybody is entitled to happiness!

All we are offered is just a CHANCE to earn our own happiness.

We thus have freedom to be lazy and starve or to employ elbow grease, honesty and hard work, plus thrift and study, as we "pursue" happiness.

Those who pay the price will catch up with happiness.

Those lazy, immoral or shiftless citizens will not!

So welfare workers need to analyze this situation afresh.

It is rank ignorance and unpatriotic to preach the doctrine that all Americans are entitled to happiness, merely because they live in this beautiful land.

For nobody is entitled to happiness or good health or even entrance into heaven until he pursues those laudable goals by hard work and diligence until he finally merits them!

Yet politicians try to buy votes by suggesting they will offer free happiness on a political platter to millions of illiterates.

That is not patriotic nor even feasible. For the American goose that has been laying the wonderful golden eggs, would then become so enemic it would soon die.

In Illinois we have a remarkable young man named William Scott who is treasurer of the state.

And what makes him unique in both political parties is the fact he reduced the costs of his department by 10 per cent last year!

Please read that last statement again.

What other politician in either party can boast of a 10 per cent reduction in costs? Or even 5 per cent. Can you name one?

In Washington, Congress toyed with an 11 billion reduction in taxes — but not in costs!

There's a whole of a difference!

Moreover, the standard political method of fooling voters is to focus their attention on the "minor decision" strategy.

"Do you want us to raise the retail sales tax or impose a higher property tax?" they will ask.

Yet most voters don't want ANY more taxes, either on retail sales or property!

And a president or governor will employ the "mark up" device by asking for twice as much money as he needs.

For this lets the legislators cut back his demand so they can then boast that they aren't mere rubber stamps!

Yet they may then O.K. all the money he ever expected to get.

Beware of these common psychological tricks of politicians and send for my booklet "How to Save Our Republic," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

Q's and A's

Q—Which of our presidents was called "The Gentleman Boss?"

A—Chester A. Arthur, widely known for his elegance, his hospitality, and his ready quotations from Dickens. These traits were then so rare in a politician that he was popularly spoken of as "The Gentleman Boss."

Q—How is the age of a horse determined?

A—The age of any horse is calculated from January 1, regardless of the time of year it was actually born. A foal becomes a yearling on January 1 after the date of its birth. It adds a year to its age on every following January 1.

WASHINGTON (NEA) — I had just discovered I was in a Viet Cong hamlet. I moved out as fast as the Jeep I was in would travel. I wasn't stopped. There were no shots. The farmers looked peaceful and no different from any other Vietnamese.

At the time, I was less than five miles from the provincial capital. A mile down the road a land mine had blown up a Jeep a few weeks back, killing everyone aboard.

I had been making plans to enter a Viet Cong hamlet later, but slowly and with proper cover. It doesn't pay to go into a Viet Cong village hastily and without making careful preparation. So I ran.

I was delayed going out that day. Vietnamese troops had to clear the road out of the provincial capital. It is Viet Cong by night and must be cleared every morning if anyone is to travel. A sergeant described for me our road-clearing habits in some areas. We send out the patrols at the same time every morning. The Viet Cong learn our habits. Then they set ambushes.

The other day I flew tree-high over some of these Viet Cong road blocks — large piles of earth in the road. When Vietnamese forces stop to clear off one of these barricades, the Viet Cong attack. "I asked for permission to vary the time we clear these roads," said an American officer.

Headquarters agreed with my reasoning. But the orders to clear still came the same time every morning.

We ducked back and forth on the road. Our escort of a dozen Vietnamese guerrilla troops, armed with rifles and hand grenades, couldn't keep up. Their truck was old and wheezing.

We came to a "fortified hamlet." It had to three-looking barbed wire fence along one border of a straggly row of houses. The man I was told me the Viet Cong cut through these barbed wire fences at will.

A Vietnamese from a neighboring hamlet remarked that five times in the past six months the people of this hamlet had elected a hamlet chief. Four of these men had been kidnapped by the Viet Cong. The fifth chief resigned immediately after he was elected.

The newest hamlet chief had been elected just a week before. Within 48 hours after he'd taken office, the Viet Cong captured him.

A unit of the Vietnamese civil guard was protecting the hamlet at the time. The troops had patrolled outside the barbed wire that night until midnight, then had gone back to their fortified compound to one end of the hamlet and slept the rest of the night.

"I asked for permission to vary the time we clear these roads," said an American officer.

De Gaulle Can't Lose

By Joseph W. Grigg
United Press International
PARIS (UPI) — President Charles de Gaulle of France has trotted out once again his favorite formula for keeping world peace.

It is: No meddling by the great powers in other countries' affairs.

De Gaulle did so after astonishing both his friends and critics by sitting out two major world crises quietly—Viet Nam and Cyprus—without offering any advice on how to solve them.

But, after presiding over a cabinet meeting in Paris last week De Gaulle let it be known that his answer to the troubles in Viet Nam, Cyprus and the Congo, too—is no outside interference.

De Gaulle's message undoubtedly was directed first and foremost at the United States. It certainly was intended for Russia also. They are the two powers he accuses of seeking to run world affairs.

Whether it was intended for Rod China as well was not clear. Since establishing relations with the Peking regime last January, De Gaulle has been noticeably careful not to tread on its toes.

His magic formula for Southeast Asia is withdrawing all foreign forces—principally U. S. forces—and convening a new 14-power Geneva conference to seek agreement on neutralization of all former Indochina.

He applies the same non-intervention formula to Cyprus but with this difference: He considers the 1959 and 1960 Zurich and London agreements by which Cyprus was set up as an independent republic as "obsolete and inapplicable to the present situation."

In their place he wants a direct agreement between Greece and Turkey—and he indicated his readiness to help work this out.

There is little doubt De Gaulle believes the ultimate answer is union of Cyprus with Greece and some form of compensation for the Turkish minority, territorial or otherwise.

As far as the Congo is concerned, De Gaulle favors aid but no interference. He indicated France's readiness to contribute to the aid.

In offering all this advice, De Gaulle has one great advantage—the fact that France is not directly involved. If he succeeds he stands to gain a lot of prestige mileage. If he fails, or if his offers of aid are unnoticed, France has few chips in the pot.

JFK's Name Raises Roof At Demo Convention

Johnson Gets Similar Burst Of Applause

By Joseph L. Myler
United Press International
ATLANTIC CITY (UPI) — The nuclear test ban treaty, the speaker was saying, was "the greatest victory for mankind in our time."

And, he continued, the man who brought it off was "our beloved President John F. Kennedy."

This evocation of the memory of the young man who died nine months and three days ago in Dallas, Tex., triggered the first massive outburst of emotion at this 34th national convention of the Democratic party.

The hall in which the convention is being held is the world's biggest. It was jammed. More than 19,000 persons were sitting or standing out there in front of the speaker.

It took his words, traveling at the pedestrian speed of sound, longer to reach listeners in the back area than it did for them to arrive via speed-of-light television in American homes thousands of miles away.

The reaction here was wave-like. The roar of applause built up until it seemed to beat upon the walls and roll back again.

The sound slackened and then rose again. A delegate jumped to his feet, another followed, and in a matter of seconds the entire throng was standing and cheering.

For 60 throbbing seconds the speaker was unable to proceed with his address. He was stopped half a dozen times again by mention of the same magic name.

The speaker went onto talk about the living President, and when he uttered the name of Lyndon B. Johnson the same thing happened—he had to stop while the Democrats shouted and clapped and let off steam.

It would have taken John O. Pastore, 57-year-old senator from Rhode Island, only 20 minutes to deliver his keynote address to this convention if he had been permitted to make it without interruption.

But he turned out to be the kind of orator Democrats like to hear. He was held up 47 times by applause.

Firemen Enjoy Annual Picnic

By Frances Wester
A day of fun, laughter, talking, eating, swimming, and games was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Abell on Broadmore Drive in Lake Mary, where some 115 firemen, auxiliary members and friends gathered for the fifth annual Firemen's picnic.

A group of the men caught the fish for the main course of the picnic dinner. Added to this were hush puppies and a table laden with covered dishes consisting of salads, beans, potato chips, pickles and cakes furnished by the ladies.

Many of the crowd were good sports and tried the water for skiing and surf boarding. The children all had a good time swimming and diving off a raft. Others who did not go in for water sports enjoyed playing horseshoes. All the group enjoyed talking and being together.

Residents of the community who did not attend are invited to join forces with the Volunteer Firemen and the Ladies Auxiliary and be part of the group for next year's picnic and other activities they have during the year. Everyone's help is needed and accepted.

Coach Pushes Attitude, Good School Grades

Herald Sports Writer
By David Higginbotham
The Braves of Sanford Junior High School got their initial gridiron practice underway Monday with Head Coach Dan Pelham explaining the squad's training rules to some 80 young athletes plus a conditioning drill.

Ted Barker, Braves' athletic director, urged candidates to keep up their grades. Barker told the group that their education was more important than football. He added that SJH had a win attitude but must have a sportsman's attitude also.

Assisting Pelham will be Coaches Owen McCarron, Ronnie Hunt and Ed Buckner. McCarron and Hunt will be working with the backs and Buckner will supervise the line.

According to Pelham there are from 12 to 15 members returning from last season's squad. Pelham plans to carry 33 athletes for the 1964 gridiron season. The coaching staff will have some 80 candidates from which to choose.

They hope to be able to cut the candidates to 33 by Monday.

Fred Weber and Wayne Fakes, members of last season's squad, led the candidates through conditioning exercises after which Pelham worked the squad for the remainder of the practice on "getting in shape."

Those trying out for positions on the 33 member Brave team included Bill Bracken, Bruce McKibbin, Paul Gild, Fred Weber, Mark Carlo, Kenny Hinson, Mett Morgan, Billy Cason, Bobby Lundquist and John Neilman.

Also John May, Garry Harris, Charles Nickle, Clarence Schaffer, Robert Powell, Bill Bryant, Paul Haffe, Mike Armstrong, Mike Morgan, Eddie Broadway, Phillip Smith, Bill Dalton, Bill Miller, Walter Jordan and Gordon Meyer.

Also Bill Sundvall, Bill Bryant, Steve Proctor, Mike Booth, Ronnie Westbrook, Tom Sandage, Alan Daniels, Darrell Votopich, Bill Schmidt, Bill Gracey, Dan Wright, Dickie Smith, Chuck DeMorse, Brian Smith and Mike Stubbins.

Also David Richards, John Mero, Sam Hawes, Randall Vencie, Sidney Lord, Edgar Jones, Danny Kinnard, Tommy Lyon, David White, Terry Russell, Harold Herbst, Paul Gilmartin, Kenneth Vonterbulla, Joe Turner, Mike Long, Ben Winfree, Tom Jones, Cecil Simpson and Brad Hollingsworth.

Hounds Get Passing, Punting Workouts To Prep For Ocoee

By Jim Bacchus
Herald Sports Editor
Head Coach Dick Copeland and his assistants, Rodney Umberger and Tom Barnes, handed out the pads at Lyman High yesterday and then proceeded to put the Greyhounds through punting and passing workout to get the youngsters limbered up as they began the second week of pre-season training in preparation for their initial tilt of the season against the Ocoee High Cardinals.

Today, according to Copeland, there will be some contact work and "maybe a bit of scrimmaging."

The Hounds starting backfield is beginning to jell—at least, slightly. Observers see Jack Blanton at quarterback with Eddie Long backing him along with Gary Smith, Andy Hinely at a halfback post behind Phil Perrault, Larry Lott — up from the South Seminole Junior High Hurricanes—behind Al Centrell at the other halfback spot.

Reporting yesterday for the first time was Paul Lambert, an outstanding tackle last season at South Seminole Junior High.

Dave Matla, an end last year, has been working out at a center post.

Strikes . . . Spares

By John A. Spolski

This is the week all league secretaries have been waiting for! That may not be the proper way of phrasing it but it does get the point across.

As an example, there was Shirley Simas asking me if I wouldn't pub-leeze mention that the Hi Nooners would be holding their familiarization day on Wednesday at 1 p.m. I would, Shirl! Remember, all league meetings are open to newcomers as well as former team-mates and league members.

There was George-Ol-Swain, secretary for the Monday Night Singles Classic (9 p.m.); Wednesday - City League (6:45 p.m.) and the three - man scratch All Stars at 9:20 p.m. Yep, I've already reminded them, George. They'll all be there, at least those who want to bowl in good leagues will be there for sure.

Last Wednesday, Rose Phillips rolled her first 200 game, a nifty 216 in the Ball and Chain League. Congrats, Rose! In this same group, Mari-on Voigt picked the 4-6-7-10. Now, how many of us can say that we did it, too? Not too many, I'll betcha.

This past Friday night was the final for the summer edition of the Mr. & Mrs. League. The fall set-up will start with familiarization this coming Friday and the actual start Sept. 4.

One of the highlights for this league is that it's strictly a sociable friendly group. And instead of worrying too much about score and trophies, we consider the important things in life-like the end of the year party at Betty and Rich Murphy's home in Castellberry. And rather than get thrown in again as has happened in the past, there'll be a pair of swimming trunks brought along by yours truly, I'll betcha.

Mrs. League show Irene and Roy Copeland as the winning team, with most improved average going to Roy, also. Similar honors for the "Mrs." went to pert Cris DeWitt. The women's high series was captured by Elaine Kostival and her 498. For the girls it was a 718 series by L.B.S. - "Lucky Bluff Split-ski!"

Ole Jim Altman was rolling a mean strike ball on the final night with a 631 scratch series and Gladys Henning got her thrill by picking the 6-7-10.

According to Dick (Zookie) Zuckerman - Secretary of the Tuesday night Businessmen's Handicapped League (9 p.m.), last Tuesday the final nite for the summer league, B. Noel of Scott's Texaco station was the "man of the hour."

Noel tied Zookie for high series with high single, a 221 shot.

Things are looking-up for this Businessmen's League as more than 12 teams are definitely signed for the Fall. It looks like a sure 14 or 16 teams for the league. "Fam" Night - tonight at 8:45 p.m.

The names of Alice Sexton and Mary Hopkins dominate the scene for the Wednesday AM Jet Bowlerettes League. Alice just missed a 500 set with a 498 three-game series and Mary bowled one of her high ones, a 183 — high for the entire league. Alice asks that I inform one and all that their league will hold their "fam" day next week with the actual start scheduled for the Sept. 9.

There was a lot of "bomb-ing" going-on in the Singles Classic League last Monday. W. A. Ward averaged slightly under 100 with a 4-game series of 758. In the singles, Harold Johnson collected a "tip" for his 257 game. Nothing but strikes, huh Harold? (Just remember that day when they just won't drop for you regardless of where you put the ball.)

I might mention that in this same league, Johnny Bridges who's only been bowling about three or four years is just a shade out of first place.

Betty Richey was top bowlerette in the Bill Hemphill Tuesday a.m. League last week. Just barely nudged out Dot Youlsey 472 to 471. Dot clipped singles honors, though with a 174 and 172 scores. According to the best estimates Betty can produce, there'll be at least 10 teams again rolling for the Bill Hemphill League.

A reminder from Fran Morton that the Women's Scratch League, which bowls on Monday's at 8:45 p.m. will hold their organizational meeting this coming Monday at 8:45 p.m. For those interested in bowling, they should have averages of 125 or higher.

The gypsy moth, brought to the U. S. from Europe in 1869, escaped confinement and became a serious pest.

PUSHUPS? THAT'S RIGHT! In reverse. The new conditioning exercise — one of the toughest — is being led by Co-Captain Joe Farless, a Seminole High lineman, during drills being held at the SHS athletic field under the direction of Head Coach Jim Pigott. Farless is a returning letterman and is expected to be one of the Tribe's stalwarts this season.

Manager Walter Alton of the Los Angeles Dodgers and Skipper Alvin Dark of the San Francisco Giants are not at all pleased with National League umpiring this season.

Dark has been plagued by arbitrary decisions he can't protest.

Alton says the ump's are penalizing little guys by refusing to call balks on pitchers.

Well — clubs like the Dodgers and especially the Giants must put the blame on something.

A hole-in-one was recorded recently by Ed Harris of Eastbrook, Winter Park, during a handicap tournament at the Chula Vista Golf Club in Chuluota.

Harris was the winner of the tourney. Playing with him were Vic Fernandez, Pat Peterson and Buck Chadwick, all of Chuluota.

Wednesday Ray Graves will welcome 78 athletes back to the Gator campus and grid drills will begin Thursday. They've got less than a month to get ready for SMU in a regionally televised contest Sept. 18.

In the group will be 25 returning lettermen and seven of last year's 11 first stringers.

Lions Bring Smiles To Scott

Oviedo Rates High In Drills

By Julian Stenstrom
Herald Sports Editor

"I'm more impressed with this ball club of ours everyday I see them," declared a smiling Arthur Scott, chief tutor of Oviedo High's football Lions.

Scott and his aide, Dick Prater, passed out the pads during Monday's workout at John Courler Field and the boys, who Scott said reported in much better physical condition than they did last year, got right down to some contact work.

"We didn't do any scrimmaging but we worked hard on blocking and tackling," Scott reported. "In fact," Scott added, "we plan five or 10 minutes of head knocking today to let the boys begin to get the feel of the pads and working together as a unit."

And there were other reasons for Scott's smiling mood. One, for example, was the fact that Bruce Dowlen is looking better everyday.

Bruce, Scott reports, is a transfer from DuPont High in Jacksonville. He's a half-back and it appears as though he's going to be a real asset to the club.

Bruce's brother, Steve Dowlen, also is seeking a berth on the squad. Steve is an end.

Two of Scott's gridders, Joe Patton and Brett Thompson are having to take it easy because of lame knees. Brett is a returner from last season and Patton is a transfer from Union Park Junior High.

Meanwhile, Scott's ace — quarterback Jim Courler — is in great shape. He's put on some weight, his arm is sharp and it appears as though the Lions are right on schedule in preppling for their opener with Crescent City.

County's Swim Team Grabs Second Place

The Seminole Swim Association racked up 256 1/2 points to take second place in the Kingswood Manor Invitational in Orlando. Seminole was second only to the Platinum Coast Club from Satellite Beach, which posted 267 points to grab the meet's major trophy.

Pacing the Seminole group was Cherie Rosemond and Kathy Reagan who took five places in events for girls age 8 and under while in the same bracket for boys Tommy Hunter, Stephen Baker, Michael Smith, Bob McIntosh and Dennis Epps placed in eight events.

Jolly McCravy won the butterfly for girls 10 and under, placed fourth in the breaststroke and sixth in the individual medley. Meanwhile, Garland Harden, for boys 10 and under, was fourth in the breaststroke.

Rita Simas was third in the breaststroke for girls 11-12 and Cindy Wilson, in events for girls 13-14, was fourth in both the butterfly and the individual medley.

Chris Wilson, Bob Besserer, Randy Bowling and John Wright placed in seven events for boys 13-14 while Delaine Johnson, Barbara Bolt, Sandy Richards, Cheryl Murray and Linda May placed in seven events for girls of the same age, 13-14.

Johnson was first in the butterfly and Bolt was first in the breaststroke.

In the bracket for boys 15-17, Rex Liquors broke the tie for first place which they had shared with Scott's Texaco by virtue of a four-game sweep in their match with the Glass-Met foursome in the Businessmen's League at Jet Lanes.

Goldenrod Suprex took the measure of Scott's Texaco by a four to zero decision and Team No. 3 grabbed a four-point nod at the expense of the Late Four team.

Solo honors were garnered by George Mason with a whopping 240 game in the series department and it was Bob Keatenbaum hitting for a fine 571 to show the way.

The league standings show Rex Liquors with a 20-10 record, Goldenrod Suprex 18-18, Glass-Met 17-19 and the Late Four sport a 5-31 record.

More Records

FAIRFIELD, Conn. (NEA) — Y. A. Tittle broke two of Bobby Layne's National Football League records last season and he could break two more this year.

Tittle has a good chance to surpass the records for most passes attempted and for most yards gained.

He needs just 165 passes to break Layne's mark of 3,700 and just 227 yards to crack the other record of 28,768.

Last season Tittle became the leader in touchdown passes (202) and total completions (1,971).

CHEEKERTAIL hostess of the month is Sarah Stallings. Sociable Sarah volunteered to have both the squadron coffee and the monthly card party at her home during August.

Sue Kennedy, RVAH-11, Det. 8 president had not returned from a trip to New York state, so Dee Munday led the business meeting at the coffee. Dee told the group about an impromptu farewell party that had been given for Dee Cooke several days earlier, just before the Cooke left for Massachusetts where Dick is to attend Harvard business school.

Incidentally, Dick and another friend from Navy and civilian days are the first two naval aviators ever to be sent to Harvard for post-graduate work.

The coffee table was laden with a variety of foods prepared by Sarah and her co-hostess Joyce Aubuchon, including cocktail, which disappeared at an alarming rate.

Sarah also concocted a mouthwatering lemon cake for the card party which was held on the 26th. The squadron wives had two guests for this party - Sue Jamison's mother, Mrs. Isobel Huston and Olive Yelinek now of VAH-3. Olive was second high at bridge with Dee Munday taking first place in total score.

One squadron member was present for the card party, instead of meeting her husband in Europe as she had expected. Due to the Cyprus crisis, Joyce Aubuchon's planned trip to Europe to join Harvey for a few weeks had to be cancelled.

Summer travelers are returning. Several of the girls who have spent the summer in the Med have returned or are due back soon. Jan Love had to return for the beginning of school in Orlando where she teaches and Peggy Gill and Nicki Stegman were also planning to return shortly.

A shorter trip was made by Sue Jamison and Jane Sandusky, who spent a week at Ellnor Village with their families. Sara and Bill Donahue have just returned from several weeks leave in Massachusetts.

Joe Moloney took a trip to Seminole Memorial Hospital where she battled pneumonia. She's home now and on the mend.

Tonight the wives have plans for a steak cookout and swim party which will be held at Alice Werner's home in Lake Mary. Each member is to bring her own steak or whatever she wants to eat and an item for the buffet table.

A pictorial report of this party is scheduled for later in the Herald, with some interesting surprises in store.

DEPENDENTS BENEFITS, insurance, social security and other pertinent facts were the subject of a talk by Lt. Hoffman and Chief Erhold at the recent meeting of the VAH-7 Enlisted Wives Club, held at the ballroom.

Mrs. B. B. Brown, wife of the commanding officer of the squadron was a guest. New members attending were Mrs. J. L. Lauer, Mrs. L. E. Shaw and Mrs. M. C. Sparks. Returning from vacation were Mrs. Kelly Burdick, Mrs. W. H. Clark and Mrs. C. Stringer.

The club was informed of the RVAH-11 Det. 8 Enlisted Wives Fashion Show which is scheduled for September 11th and Edith Pounds, president of VAH-7, urged all those who can to attend.

Edith appointed several committees. Among them were the telephone committee of Mrs. M. I. G. Whitmore, Mrs. J. F. Lynch and Mrs. C. D. Johnson, Mrs. J. H. Bussard and Mrs. C. E. McCordle. Those who are to work with Edith on the alfalfa are Mrs. J. P. Brewer and Mrs. A. Surbrook.

There is to be a meeting with the officers wives in the NAS ballroom at 10:30 a.m., Thursday, and members are requested to wear their name tags. Committee for this meeting will be Mrs. C. P. Johnson, Mrs. J. F. Lynch and Mrs. J. H. Bussard.

Mrs. Bussard recently won a cute little miniature collie puppy as a special prize at a games party.

Next meeting of VAH-7 will be at the Acey Ducey Club September 15th at 7:30 p.m.

RUTH MICKELSON had a birthday recently, and in honor of the occasion VAH-5 Officer's Wives met at her house to play bridge.

They presented her with a gift, but we can't tell you what it was. But it was real cute, they say.

There were two tables made up of Peggy Mergo, Ruth, Chris Lovelace, Sunc Monroe, Ann Thompson, Jo Watson, Jan Sarajian and Joy Robinson. Jo was high and Chris was second.

WATERFRONT DEVELOPMENT plans, as proposed for the Sanford lakefront area, were one of the main topics of discussion at the recent luncheon meeting of RVAH-1 Officer's Wives.

Vickie Wiltzer, publicity chairman for the group reported to the Herald that the wives were very enthusiastic about the waterfront development plans and are in hopes of seeing it become a reality.

They also discussed their summer vacation experience, back to school plans, fashions and books. The center piece of tiger lilies, artistically arranged, was won by Vickie in the drawing.

The group met at the Hillmont House in Casselberry and dined on filet mignon, fine wines, yeast bread and crisp salads.

Welcomed aboard as a member of the group by President Billye Tait, was new bride, Debbie Sherrill, wife of Lt (jg) Forrest Sherrill.

Hostesses for the luncheon were Shirley Maxwell and Jeanie Brewer, and with good food, good conversation and good company, the event proved to be one of the most enjoyable get-togethers the wives have had recently.

A squadron party is slated for Friday night, and a coffee and business meeting on September 10th. Hostess will be Ginny Weeks.

MRS. WILLIAM BASSETT was high point winner at the monthly bridge party of the Station Wives, which was held at the home of Mrs. Jay Miller, Aug. 17th.

Mrs. Miller was second high. Others playing included the Meses. Lawrence White, Frank Wolfe, David Olmstead, of his late wife of his intentions to remarry. And he should do it before someone else does.

DEAR ABBY: My whole life changed two weeks ago when they brought my child-home from the public playground and told me that he had had some kind of a "fit." We took him to the doctor immediately and, after several tests, the doctor said our son has epilepsy, but he didn't know how severe it was, or how often he would have seizures. I have cried and prayed and spent sleepless nights. We've never had anything like this in our family before, Abbey. What causes this? Is it contagious? Will he outgrow it? Can it be cured? Someone told me that in some states epileptics cannot marry, and in other states they must be "sterilized" so as not to pass this on to any children. We are afraid our doctor isn't telling us the whole truth. Please help us.

DESPERATE PARENTS DEAR DESPERATE: One of every 100 Americans suffers from epilepsy. It is not contagious. Today, treated by modern medical and surgical techniques, 50 per cent of all persons suffering from epilepsy become seizure-free. Another 30 per cent enjoy a reduction in the number of attacks. For a free, informative booklet on epilepsy, write to THE AMERICAN EPILEPSY FEDERATION, 73 Tremont Street, Boston 8, Mass. When you know the facts, you'll no longer be desperate.

CONFIDENT TO "JUST CALL ME AL": All women over 45 need a little appreciation. But they need that little so much.

Problems? Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Have to write letters? Send one dollar to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., for Abby's booklet, "HOW TO WRITE LETTERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS."

THE MAN Dear Man: He should invite them unless they are the kind of people who would be saddened by the revived memories. In any case, he should inform the parents of his late wife of his intentions to remarry. And he should do it before someone else does.

JACK'S GIRL DEAR GIRL: Take a course in Judo and throw him off balance.

DEAR ABBY: If a man is left a widower, and decides to remarry after waiting a decent amount of time, must he invite the parents of his late wife to his second wedding? If no, must he inform them of it? This is an especially touchy situation because there are children by the first wife. Thank you in advance.

He's as strong as an ox and won't listen to reason. How can I make him keep his distance without losing him?

Dottie Austin
A WARM AND HAPPY occasion, which we had the privilege of attending recently, was the cocktail party and buffet supper of exotic foreign dishes which was given for Guy Strickland by his friends, family and neighbors, out in Little Venice.

The reason for the party was Strickland's having received his master's degree in liberal arts from Stetson University after a long haul and many years of living.

Sometimes back, the guest of honor retired from the U. S. Navy as a commander, with 30 years of service. Not content to sit around, he began teaching school, the process of learning whetting his appetite for more, so he began to go back to classes himself.

Some classes were at OJC and some at Stetson to enable him to get his BA, then his Associate in Arts, and finally, the coveted Masters, which Stetson University conferred upon him on August 14th.

Sharing his feeling of satisfaction and attainment were the neighbors and friends who celebrated with him at the party.

Everyone brought something to eat, and the result was a sort of international smorgasbord which included Indian Curry, from Mr. and Mrs. Boutwell, (Princess Vijaya); Swedish meatballs and Polish cabbage rolls from Mr. and Mrs. Olan Boutwell, (Ruth and Olan); Kosher pastries from someone, and all sorts of other goodies including salads, vegetables and cold meats, cheeses, etc.

Joining in the happy event were Guy's brother Rupert Strickland, Mrs. Strickland and Frances Strickland Bowden; Mr. and Mrs. Herb Burdette; Cdr. (ret.) and Mrs. Dave Lewicki of Orlando (he's a former shipmate of Guy's).

Also present were Cdr. (USCG, ret.) and Mrs. Glenn Wimlish, John Wimlish, Miss Ella Boutwell, Mrs. Robert Polin and yours truly.

This week, Guy resumes his duties as head of the civics department at South Seminole Junior High School.

WE'RE SORRY to hear that Ben Higgins, our favorite soil conservationist, has been transferred to Cocoa even though it is a promotion for Ben.

His wife Caroline tells us that she and the children will remain in the Cameron Ave. home for this school year, for they certainly don't want to leave all their good friends here.

Ben, Caroline and the children have all been active in the Methodist Church for many years, and have earned the respect and affection of everyone there. Ben served as president of the Castle Class and did a very fine job of it. Caroline has taught Sunday School which she does as conscientiously as she teaches the youngsters at the Southside School.

Ben has also taught Sunday School, serves on the board of stewards and has been chairman of the education committee.

An active Rotarian, Ben was responsible for digging up of many dollars to buy uniforms for the Hialeah baseball team. He served as president of Rotary in 1962-63.

J. W. HIGGINBOTHAM

In reward for the help he has given the Future Farmers, both the senior and junior chapters have given him honorary awards. He has also helped the Boy Scouts with their conservation badges.

Ben is a member of the Elks Club and recently retired from the U.S. Army active reserve with the commission of Major.

No one wants to see the Wigginses move away — but that's life, we suppose. Our loss is Cocoa's gain.

BEST PUBLIC RELATIONS representative for a Bahamas vacation cruise is Aria Jane Lundquist, who with husband Ray recently enjoyed, and we really mean enjoyed, a four day cruise to the islands on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary.

The trip was a gift of Aria Jane's mother, Mrs. Nona Wilson of Altamonte Springs. Accompanying the Lundquists on their "honeymoon" were Edie and Lee Swartz, who are celebrating their first year of marriage.

On the islands, the foursome rented a car to drive around in which caused no end of merriment, tinged with terror, as Lee couldn't remember that down there you drive on the left-hand side of the road and in absent-minded moments they found

Miss Ciszewski And G. R. Laverick Repeat Vows In Double Ring Rites

By Jane Casselberry
Miss Honora Marie Ciszewski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ciszewski, of Casselberry, became the bride of George Richard Laverick, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Allen Laverick of Melbourne, Saturday, August 22, 1964, at 2 p.m. at St. Mary-Magdalen Catholic Church, Maitland.

The Reverend Father Hubert J. Reason officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. E. Pope Bassett, organist, played selections of traditional wedding music.

The altar was decorated with bouquets of white chrysanthemums and gladioli and statues of Mary and Joseph.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her floor length gown of white empress peau de soie had a scooped neckline and elbow length sleeves. A softly pleated obi sash at the waist fastened in back with two large loops. The imported French silk illusion veil was attached to an open pill box of the same fabric. The distinctive gown was designed by the bride and made by her mother. For her wedding bouquet she chose large white chrysanthemums.

The maid of honor, Miss Nancy Ciszewski of Spring

Valley, N.Y., niece of the bride, wore a floor length gown of empress peau de soie in cotton blue with a removable jacket. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

Pamela DePriest, niece of the groom, from New Orleans, La., was flower girl and her gown matched that of the maid of honor and she carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

The best man was John Perchalski of Gainesville. Joseph Leibold was usher and Peter Ciszewski, nephew of the bride, from Spring Valley, N.Y. was junior usher.

The mother of the bride wore an ensemble of copper silk linen and a corsage of rust colored chrysanthemums.

The groom's mother wore a beige silk linen sheath with jeweled necklace and corsage of rust colored chrysanthemums.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Casselberry Woman's Club, which was decorated with bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. C. T. Germaine of Casselberry and Mrs. Joseph Leibold, DeLand, assisted at the reception. Layers of the square three tiered wedding cake were supported on pillars and a wedding bell decorated the top. Punch was served with the cake.

For her going away outfit the bride chose a brown silk shantung suit. Following a wedding trip to The Great Smoky Mountain National Park, the couple will make their home in Florenco, Ala.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Philip DePriest and children of New Orleans, La., Mrs. A. Ciszewski and children of Spring Valley, N.Y.

themselves cruising down the "wrong" side, until oncoming cars, with glaring drivers, reminded them vividly of the lapse.

All four had a "wonderful time, enjoying every minute of their four days," with the girls spending hours in the straw market looking at every single hat and handbag.

"It was just delightful," sighed Aria Jane, "I would recommend it to everyone. The water, the islands, the ship — it was all beautiful fun."

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Chambers and daughters, Carol and Pat, recently visited the New York World's Fair. One of the highlights of the fair was a ride on the AMF Monorail system, which has seven two-car trains operating continuously, suspended 40 feet in the air, offering a panoramic view of the spectacular scene.

ANOTHER LUNDQUIST who has been having fun touring the country and seeing the sights is young Bobbie, Sanford's Biddy Basketball league champ.

Bobbie has been visiting sister Peggy Jane and brother-in-law Bill Tyre in Phoenix, Arizona, where Bill is stationed. During his visit, they all went on to California, saw Disneyland, the Grand Canyon and many other sights of the West.

They all report having had a great time with their sight-seeing tours.

Bobbie returned home by bus last week and Peggy and Bill will be heading this way on September 27th for a short leave at home before traveling to their new station, the Air Force Base at Myrtle Beach, S. C. where Lt. Bill is being transferred.

We know all of Peggy and Bill's many friends here will be looking forward to seeing them again while they are in town.

THE GOLDEN ISLES of Georgia-St. Simons, Jekyll and Sea Islands, proved a delightful vacation and sight-seeing spot for one of our favorite people, Jimmy Higginbotham, who just returned from a visit there with his Sanford Naval Academy room mate, Charlie Crumbilla and his family.

"What a place for an artist!" exclaimed Jim. "It's all historical with old forts, light-houses, old, old churches, beautiful yachts on the Intracoastal waterway, the famous Bloody Marshes, — dozens of subjects for pictures."

On Charlie's scooter the two boys toured all over the three islands, seeing the famous sights, and hearing tales of exciting history from the natives.

"I'm going back up there one day with color film, oil paints and canvas," vowed my intrepid traveler.

Michael Cosby Celebrates Third Birthday With Party

Michael George Cosby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael G. Cosby, 35 South Cortez Ave., North Orlando, recently celebrated his third birthday with a party at his home.

Decorations were all in red, white and pink, with a clown motif, and clown hats and plastic horns for all, and a multi-color of dozens of balloons — to make a cloudy day bright.

The party table was centered with a beautiful, blue three year birthday candle. The birthday cake, of course, had to be a horse scene of a corral with miniature horses and cowboys. Michael already is quite a horse-lover. He recently won a ribbon in the Longwood Fourth - of - July Parade riding his horse Soda.

Though the party was forced indoors due to inclement weather, all of Michael's friends seemed to enjoy playing with his birthday presents and riding his talking horse Blaze instead of real, live horses as was originally planned for outdoors. The children had fun with "pin-the-tail-on-the-donkey," and Deanna Carlyle was the best pinner.

Also sharing the festivities were Deanna's brother, Alan; Mrs. R. D. Carlyle; Eddie and Debra Swede; Mrs. E. V. Swede; Jeffrey, Keith, and Mike Husar; and Bruce Rhodes, all of North Orlando. Horoscope Forecast

Wednesday, August 26, 1964

GENERAL TENDENCIES:

You are all steamed up, in put some big plan into effect but others have their own plans and seem to be drawing back from definite action today or tonight. Don't try to force issues but, instead, perfect your own plans to a greater extent so you have covered every point that might cause any controversy.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Concentrate on those who are not regular allies if you want to get your way today. Take time for healthful exercise. Be ready to get into action as soon as necessary.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Private worries may give you a very pessimistic outlook, but if you look at them objectively, you soon brighten up. Don't fret. A bit of quiet angling brings desired results.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Be careful you do not become involved with a friend's problem which does not concern you at all, or you get into trouble. Be poised at social functions in P.M. This eases tensions.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) It's all right to be very active in business world, but don't force the issue with powerful ones now. They are very busy and would resent it. See that you get credit better planned.

LEO (July 22 to August 21) It is not necessary for you to keep your nose to the grindstone so much that you cannot plan a more abundant life. Dig into trade papers, other media. Get the information to your interest.

VIRGO (August 22 to September 22) Listen to mate before putting new ideas to work which will facilitate collecting and paying in the future. Catalogue your activities along more practical lines. Set up rules that are easy to follow.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 23) A soft word will easily disarm those with whom you have had arguments and harmony is easily reestablished now. Be sure to keep any promises you have made.

SCORPIO (October 24 to November 21) Impress others with your efficiency at work, even though your mind is on greener pastures, or what seem to be such. Delight partners. Cooperate with them earnestly.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) A highly fascinating individual may cause you to forego important work if you permit. This would be too high a price to pay. Put such temptations behind you.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 20) Involving yourself in something that is not practical or sensible could be very expensive in the long run. Look for flaws in such. Stick to present set-up which is good.

AQUARIUS (January 21 to February 19) If you are not careful driving, there could be expenses involved, and it might not be your fault either. Be calm, yet alert. Treat others with kid gloves, too.

PISCES (February 20 to March 20) Economy is important right now, even though you may be in a good financial position. Repa if things instead of buying new, give others work to do. Increase saving habits.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY, there is a fine talent for mediating where trouble crops up and you should give a fine education, plus many sports that will utilize the energies wisely and teach fair play. Work with government offices would be ideal here, or in large organizations, as well as labor unions and the like.

Voice Vote For LBJ Aim

ATLANTIC CITY (UPI) — Democrats sought to suppress further public squabbling over Southern convention seats today and give Lyndon B. Johnson an unprecedented nomination by acclamation for the presidency.

Seems some persons want more time to be allowed to register so they can vote in this county. They don't have the support of County Commission Chairman James P. Avery Jr., and he made that abundantly clear Tuesday.

"They register once in a lifetime and if our hours aren't enough for them then they've got to be second rate citizens," Avery said. "Why, we've had people giving of their lives so we can have the privilege of voting. And if these people can't get to the registration office during regular hours..."

The Commission yesterday requested the county highway department to instruct employees to wear new "hard hats" purchased for them. Avery also suggested the appropriate employees also wear those bright vests when working on highways and in danger of becoming a traffic statistic.

As an aside, Avery asked what color hats were being bought for commissioners. Quick with a quip Commissioner John Alexander offered: "Commissioners are hard-headed enough."

James Sayes, recreational director for the Florida Development Commission, will give the highlights of Conservation Week, set for Oct. 26-31 in Sanford, at the meeting of the Jaycees at the Civic Center at noon Thursday.

The Civitan Club has moved their Thursday night meeting place to the Lake Monroe Inn. The Lions Club also made the same move recently with their Tuesday luncheons.

If past years are any example, Fort Mellon Park will be a school yard this afternoon, as little fisherboys and fishergirls try their luck at snagging the finny denizens of Lake Carolina. Some of them have proved quite successful, catching as many as 15 in a couple of hours.

Falling to get any authorization from the State Road Department for more traffic signals on French Ave. to control traffic along the busy street, especially during school hours, city commissioners are considering an overpass at Sanford Junior High to keep the kids out of the street. About 1,200 of them cross over there several times a day.

We Clock Winders do our best to utilize this space for sidebars to the local news scene. But we can't help sharing this one with you: One small schoolboy, standing in line to register at a school the other day, said to another youngster: "It might be unconstitutional, but I always pray before a test."

It led one Clock Winder to observe, "The only way the Supreme Court could stop that would be to rule tests unconstitutional so the kid wouldn't have to pray."

Title 6 Ruling Asked

Apportioning Setup Stays On Ballot

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Circuit Judge Hugh Taylor, noting "the problems and dangers incident to apportionment by the federal judiciary," refused Tuesday to remove Florida's present legislative setup from the November ballot.

Taylor threw out a suit by the state Mayors' Council on fair apportionment which sought to have the 43-senator 112-representative plan removed from the ballot because it has been ruled unconstitutional by the U. S. Supreme Court.

Mayor Herman Goldner of St. Petersburg, president of the council, said a move would be made right away to appeal the decision to the State Supreme Court.

Viet Mob Kills Four Patients In Hospital Run By American

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (UPI) — A mob broke into a hospital operated by an American doctor in Da Nang today and beat four patients to death in rioting that erupted in the wake of the resignation of President Nguyen Khanh.

Southern Strategy Of Barry Believed Hurt

WASHINGTON Correspondent ATLANTIC CITY (NEA) — Democratic leaders, steering their 1964 convention cautiously, may have put Sen. Barry Goldwater's "southern strategy" in jeopardy for the second time in nine months.

This strategy, rooted in the idea Goldwater can win most or all of the Old South's 128 electoral votes this fall, collapsed last November when President Lyndon B. Johnson succeeded the slain John F. Kennedy.

The notion enjoyed no more than a shaky revival until the Republicans nominated Goldwater for president at San Francisco, whereupon it shot up like corn in humid July. Southerners took fresh hope he might win, with their help, and reverse the tide of Negro advances on the civil rights front.

Goldwater still rides very high in the South as heavy campaigning approaches. In many quarters, broad inquiry discloses, it is distinctly out of fashion at the moment to mention any name but his.

Yet here in Atlantic City a base has been laid for making Johnson not merely mentionable but a possible winner in much of the South.

There were grave dangers, and the President and his strategists seem to have skirted them.

The keys to this careful navigation: 1. A civil rights plank which makes no promise on major new legislation, but instead allows the South, in the words of Florida's Gov. Farris Bryant, to "take a deep breath" after witnessing passage of the most sweeping civil rights law in history. 2. A soft-stepping approach to the noisy Alabama and Mississippi seating disputes which, first evidence suggests, will not be read by the whole South as another stiff blow to its pride but accepted instead as fair dealing. (The Mississippi delegation walked out of the convention

School Board Acts To Be In Compliance

By Julian Stenstrom Associate Editor

The Seminole County Board of Public Instruction met Tuesday night in a special session and unanimously voted to contact Congressman A. S. Herlong to determine if rules and regulations required by Title Six of the new Civil Rights bill and related to the federally financed assistance programs have been adopted as required by the new law and by President Johnson.

The board made a thorough examination of Title Four, which deals with education, and Title Six, which pertains to federal assistance funds, with its attorney, Douglas Stenstrom.

The board instructed Stenstrom to obtain a copy of the rules and regulations as soon as they are available and to request Herlong's assistance in getting an interpretation as they apply to federal assistance funds which are being received annually by the Seminole County school system.

Superintendent Milwee stated that federal funds for this county's system during the current fiscal year which began July 1, will amount to approximately $275,000.

These funds, Milwee pointed out, are affected by the Civil Rights bill and by the rules and regulations which are to be or have been adopted by the U. S. Department of Education.

Stenstrom explained last night that the various agencies of the government which will be required by the law to administer the Civil Rights measure must draft rules and regulations by which they will operate. Once the regulations have been prepared they must be approved by the Department of Justice and finally by the President.

Gulf Stream Course Seen

MIAMI (UPI) — Hurricane Cleo, leaving a trail of death and damage in the Caribbean, crossed Cuba into the Atlantic with 75 mile an hour winds today on a new course that aimed a glancing blow at Southeast Florida.

The Weather Bureau said hurricane force winds would likely hit Bimini in the Bahamas, a small fishing resort island, 50 miles east of Miami.

Gale warnings were hoisted over southeast Florida from Fort Lauderdale south to Marathon in the Florida Keys.

Winds up to 50 miles an hour were predicted in the gale warning area, which included Miami, this afternoon and tonight.

Weathermen cautioned Floridians to keep closely advised on the hurricane reports because a slight deviation from forecasts could bring the hurricane center storming ashore.

Cleo, which killed at least 22 persons and caused many millions of dollars in damage strikes at Guadeloupe, Dominican Republic, Haiti and Cuba, maintained its identity as a hurricane in crossing Cuba during the night, the Weather Bureau said.

It was expected to gradually regain some of its strength over the open waters of the Florida Straits.

Cleo's center pushed into the Florida Straits about 10 a. m. (EST) near the north coastal Cuban city of Calbarren, the Cuban Weather Bureau said.

At 11 a. m. (EST) the Miami Weather Bureau located the storm's center in the Straits about 200 miles southeast of Miami, near latitude 23-1 north, longitude 79-3 west. The storm was moving on a north-northwest course at about 10 miles an hour.

"It is expected to continue on this course and speed during the next 12 hours, gradually turning to a more northerly course with a gradual increase in forward speed tonight and Thursday," the midday advisory said.

"The forecast track would take the center over the Gulf Stream, probably passing east of Miami early Thursday."

The Weather Bureau said heavy rains and gale force winds could be expected this afternoon and tonight over southeast Florida and the western Bahamas and warned small craft to stay in port.

Acting City Manager, Mrs. Mary Harkey announced today that all city department supervisors have been placed on hurricane standby alert, and preparations are being made to button down the city in case "Cleo" heads this way.

Mayor A. I. Wilson, Finance Director Henry Tamun and City Manager W. E. Knowles left by plane early today for New York City to sign water revenue bonds.

The American Red Cross and the Seminole County Civil Defense Department have issued the following advisory: "During a hurricane alert it is advisable to keep yourself informed at all times of the actual threat of the storm to this community. Check food supplies, water supplies, first aid kits, flashlights and batteries. If necessary, prepare to board up or protect the interior of your home from glass, such as picture windows or wide expanse windows. hurry shelter, the following buildings will be opened well in advance of the storm: The National Guard Armory on East First St., and Crooms Academy in Goldsboro. In the south end of the county, shelters are available at South Seminole Junior High School in Casselberry, Lyman High School in Longwood, and the Geneva School in Geneva.

"Do not go outside during the storm. Remember that during the peak of the storm, in the event it crosses directly over the area, there will be a lull, lasting from a few minutes to a half hour, but the wind will then return with even greater force," the Civil Defense Department warns.

Copies of "What To Do In Case Of A Hurricane" can be obtained from local Civil Defense Headquarters at St. John's Realty offices at 120 N. Park Ave.
