Parental Neglect Law Is Proposed

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — Children who don't know where their parents are at night might find they've been carted off to jail—if a "parental neglect" bill filed by two state senators is adopted. The proposal, by Sens. Kenneth Plante (R-Oviedo) and Alan Trask (D-Fort Meade), would make parental neglect a misdemeanor crime punishable by six months in jail or a $500 fine.

Under the bill, parents could be arrested if their under-18-year-old sons or daughters were convicted of criminal activity more than twice in any one year.

"This is mainly aimed at parents... who are out partying every night and never know where their children are or what they are up to," said Plante.

Plante, however, conceded the bill might have a built-in problem: How could parents who didn't control their children ever hope to control them from a jail cell?

"That's something I've been giving a lot of thought to and will have to work out," said the lawmaker.

By JOHN A. SPOLSKI

Although we've heard it so many times in the past that it almost developed into a standing joke... "that there is another big business coming into this area," we have been reliably informed that not one, but two hefty shots-in-the-arm can be expected within the next couple of weeks.

Could amount to well over 700 jobs between the two of 'em.

Be sure and read the story on Page 1C... a bill which has been signed into law by President Nixon requiring many healthy welfare mothers to work or accept job training.

Pat-on-the-back time... to our own Senator Ken Plante and the bill which he cosponsored (details next to this column). You can blame the kids all you want, but I'm willing to concede that it's the lack of direct supervision many times on the part of the parent which causes the problem in the first place.

Not always... but, most often!

The wisest thing to do if you're in a hurry is nothing!

Did you ever think that this state would get so much publicity? I mean way back when they were first talking about Florida holding a National Primary... did you believe there would be so many reporters and TV cameramen popping in and out of the Sunshine State?

Not to mention... so many candidates?

All kinds of political deals, cooking, too-locally, statewide and nationally. Like the one about Humphrey going for Number One and Kennedy being coaxed into the second spot... with assurance that it would be his for the taking in '76.

Remember when we recently made mention of the request of DeBarry's Ed Bodin to have 50 surplus helicopters placed at the Sanford Airport... to help combat the terrible traffic problems on I-4 between us and Disney World?

Well, today I find out that Bodin actually wrote to Senator Gurney with his request.

(Stay tuned folks and we'll find out what happens tomorrow as crusading Ed Bodin challenges Washington... and in exchange of three cars in every garage... we'll get a political promise of a helicopter in everyone's back yard!)

THINGS I DIDN'T KNOW... this country actually did have two Presidents who donated their entire salaries to charity... and John F. Kennedy.

Mobile Home Plant Coming

$100,000 Land Deal

By BILL SCOTT

The Sanford Herald has learned that negotiations are near completion for the purchase of a 27-acre tract off Grapeville Avenue, just outside Sanford, for the location of a mobile home manufacturing firm.

David Kelley, Seminole County Industrial Development Authority executive director, when questioned by The Herald, advised that Fleetwood Enterprises, Inc. of Riverside, Calif., has almost finalized the property purchase on which to construct a 150,000-square-foot facility for manufacture of mobile homes.

The firm is expected to employ some 400 workers when full production is reached, according to Kelley.

Attorney W. C. Hutcheson is handling the property sale to Fleetwood from Al Gartenberg, New York. Fleetwood said today that only documents from Mississippi and New York are needed to complete the sale.

Fleetwood has indicated a willingness to close, Hutcheson added.

The California firm is reportedly paying $30,000 cash for just over 27 acres, upon which it plans to construct a 45,000 square foot building with the remaining 65,000 square feet to be used for storage.

Robert Campbell, a Fleetwood official consulted by telephone in California, would only comment: "It's a little premature" to name the Sanford mobile home plant. He said the plant would be named "Diversified Communities Corporation" and the local plant will bear the corporate title of "Deluxe Homes of Florida."

Expansion of Fleetwood to Sanford will bring to two the number of mobile home facilities to locate here within a year. Telford Corporation, of Chatsworth, four months ago bought the H. L. Hunt camping plant on Sanford Avenue in which to locate a "Wheeler Mobile Home facility."

That plant is now nearing capacity in construction of mobile homes.

General Waterworks Company, owner of a sewage treatment plant in Winter Park serving a large segment of South Seminole County, would appear to be in line for further trouble.

Indignant residents of the area, particularly Eastbrook and Casa Alma complexes, were on hand at the Tuesday meeting of the Board of County Commissioners and presented yet another set of complaints against the company for its pollution of waters in their areas and for the atrociously squalid condition which prohibits the residents from opening the windows of their homes.

The commissioners adopted an ordinance enacted under the home rule power of the county for the purpose of providing necessary standards and regulations for drainage ditches in Seminole County in the interest of all the citizens who reside outside the boundaries of any municipality.

Dr. B. M. Sharp, representing the residents of Casa Alma, was interested in specifics of the ordinance and was told that, according to the document, it is illegal for any one to make any deposits of refuse matter or effluent, including floating debris, oil, acid, alkaline, or other harmful deposits in municipal, industrial, or agricultural plants, in amounts considered to be unsightly or deleterious.

No materials producing color, odor, or which would create objectionable sludge deposits would be allowed. Nor may any toxic or harmful deposits be made and no effluent from any domestic waste plant.

The residents at Casa Alma, represented by Dr. Sharp, and the residents of Eastbrook, represented by James Bishop, who came with a petition containing 30 signatures, were assured that an acknowledgment of this document by the Secretary of State, injunction suit can be filed against any person or company violating any part of this ordinance.

Dr. Sharp remarked, "If this ordinance is approved tomorrow, I promise you there will be a need for a law to restrict transient parking on roadsides by mobile home owners and campers. This," he said, "is not so serious a problem at the present time but the summer promises to be yet another matter."

Administrative Assistant Rodney Layer said he had noted mobile home owners using the rest areas on I-4 as holding areas for up to three or four days.

Drummond recommended that the City of Sanford be notified as well as companies using the rest areas for these purposes and that the laws be presented to them for their understanding and compliance.

WHAT DID THIS FISHERMAN CATCH?

Frank Jones took time off from his job to go fishing yesterday at the Sanford Marina. When he finally hooked into a big one, it took him over an hour to land his prized catch. Rumor has it that he's going to have it mounted to put on his wall. For a look at his catch see page 12A.

County Planner David Farr has reminded the Board of County Commissioners about a public meeting on Jan. 17 at 10 a.m. with representatives of Florida Power and Light Company and Florida Gas Company. This meeting will be concerned with street lights within subdivisions in the county.

In other action, the county commissioners voted to allow A. F. Keeth, chairman of the School Board, to carry firm.

Filed out of order by County Attorney Thomas Humberger was the quarterly advance payments to the Mental Health Center.

County Clerk, however, payments could be made at the end of each month.

Commissioner Chairman Greg Drummond reported he had received a number of complaints from residents living near the Seventh-day Adventist School, pertaining to the airplanes in the area, particularly the student flyers. The county attorney was instructed to investigate the matter and report to the Commission.

According to Drummond, there is a need for a law to restrict transient parking on roadsides by mobile home owners and campers. This," he said, "is not so serious a problem at the present time but the summer promises to be yet another matter."

Wanta Fruit Farm? Apply To Oklahoma

By JERRY SCARBROUGH
Associated Press Writer
OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — If you are unemployed, but would like to earn your way and don't mind working hard, the State of Oklahoma has a proposition for you.

The state Office of Economic Opportunity is looking for 200 families to set up with 16-acre fruit farms and minimum incomes of $7,000 a year. If the program is successful, several thousand more Oklahoma families will receive the same deal within five years.

Gov. David Hall stresses that the program requires hard physical labor and perseverance.

To acquire title to 16 acres in southeastern Oklahoma you have to clear the land of black jack and scrub oak.

The OEO will provide free use of chain saws and other equipment for clearing, plus instructions on how to run the equipment. Then the OEO will help grade the land and provide vines and trees for an orchard. OEO officials say the orchards will produce at least $7,000 a year for each family in the program.

The state agency will provide instructions and assist in getting the operation started.

The OEO will offer temporary housing during the clearing and, later, will assist in obtaining financing for a low-cost modern home on the farm site.

To qualify, you must earn less than the federal poverty guideline, which ranges from $1,600 for a farm family of one to $3,600 for a nonfarm family of seven. You also must receive some type of subsistence income, such as welfare assistance, Social Security or a private pension.

The subsistence income is necessary because first-year income from a berry crop will total only about $1,500 per family. In addition, the OEO will offer $200 per month for part-time work clearing land on adjoining property.

In the third year a family can expect an income of $7,000 or above with a fully producing orchard, officials estimate.

OEO Director Bert Sparzer has obtained 2,100 acres nine miles east of Stratton to accommodate approximately 210 of the vineyards and fruit orchards.

Delay Arraignment In Criminal Cases

By MARION BETHEA
Due to the absence of Gerald Rubery, assistant public defender, arraignment was continued by Circuit Judge Dominick Salvi Tuesday until Jan. 4.

Cases continued were Gus Ashley, charged with auto theft; Leonard Koval, charged on three counts of possession of a narcotic drug, possession of narcotic paraphernalia and breaking without breaking with intent to commit a felony; and Mike Davis, charged with two counts of sale and possession of a narcotic drug. Rubery was appointed in each case Tuesday.

Trial is set for March 6 in six other cases. These include

Larry Chubb, charged with resisting an officer with violence; George Schmidt, charged with two counts of sale and possession of a hallucinogenic drug; Earl Elliott, charged with lewd, lascivious or indecent act in the presence of a child; Robert Coley, charged with auto theft; Kenneth Brown, charged in three separate cases with two counts each of sale and possession of a narcotic drug, and Bobby Jackson, charged with robbery.

Bond was estimated and a capias issued for failure to appear in the case of Sammie Johnson, charged with carrying a concealed firearm.

Record-Breaking Crowds Reported Tourists Are Flocking Into Area

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Thousands of tourists flocked to Central Florida Tuesday, causing the closing of Walt Disney World, a record-breaking crowd at Cape Kennedy and a 22-mile-long traffic jam.

For the second straight day, Disney World officials were forced to shut the gates of their new entertainment complex after about 55,000 persons streamed into the parking lot by 8:45 a.m. More than 50,000 visitors thronged to the Magic Kingdom Monday.

A single-day record of 14,378 persons toured Cape Kennedy Tuesday, clicking thousands of pictures of the Apollo 16 moon rocket, Trans World Airlines, which conducts spaceport tours under contract, and 230 balloons through the spaceport—34 more than the previous record day on Dec. 26, 1969.

The spillover of tourist traffic also was felt heavily at Cypress

Gardens, the Singing Tower in Lake Wales, Busch Gardens in Tampa and other tourist attractions.

Traffic on Interstate 4 was backed up for about 22 miles in either direction from Disney World's gates, the Florida Highway Patrol said. The jam was only 18 miles long when the park closed for the day Monday.

Troopers explained that the difference in the size of the back-up was due to a new policy making all Disney-bound traffic stay in the outside lanes, keeping the inside "passing" lanes open to motorists driving straight through.

Disney spokesman Charles Ridgway said the congestion on Interstate 4 was cleared up about two hours after the entertainment complex shut its gates.

"This sort of traffic tie-up is common to areas from which many of our visitors are coming, and probably would not be reported in New York, Chicago, Los Angeles or even Miami," said Ridgway.

"But it is just more noticeable out here in the woods where there is nothing else but Disney World," Harry B. Chambers, project manager for TWA at Cape Kennedy, said his crews were having no trouble handling the large crowds. The average waiting time for tours was about one hour, he said.

Hotels and motels throughout Central Florida reported full houses. Chamber of Commerce organizations in Orange and Brevard counties were trying to find rooms for visitors in smaller motels.

Captain, Yacht Buried At Sea

DAYTONA BEACH (AP) — The motor yacht Miss Flagler has carried the body of her captain to the bottom of the Atlantic Ocean on the last voyage of their 18-year partnership at sea.

The 80,000, 45-foot yacht died hard. Seaman from a vessel that acted as the Miss Flagler's palibearer had to smash holes in her deck and top before she slid under the waves Tuesday to become Capt. Joe Serzan's oceanic tomb.

Serzan died at the age of 62 on Dec. 29 after 40 years in the employ of Florida's Flagler family. The last 18 years he was captain of the Miss Flagler.

Mrs. Flagler Matthews, granddaughter of railroad baron Henry M. Flagler and owner of the yacht, often had heard Serzan express a wish that he be buried at sea.

She never told him that she meant to honor his wish by giving him a funeral that would send the yacht to the ocean depths.

Cleaning up visual pollution: electricity is part of the solution.

What happens to once-faithful filwvrs when they're too old for the road? Too often they become junk—great ugly piles of rusting metal. But modern Americans want to live in a beautiful, clean environment.

And electricity is helping.

Electric compactors crush junked cars into almost-solid blocks of metal which are melted down and shaped into useful new products. Visual pollution is reduced. And our society's resources are wisely recycled.

At FPL, we're busy planning and building to provide the electricity for your needs as well as for the important job of improving the environment. Cleaning the air, cleaning the water, treating sewage, converting the ugly junkpiles—electricity is part of the solution!

By GARY TAYLOR
Herald Sports Editor
TAMPA — Climbing mountains isn't the normal occupation of a high school basketball squad, but Sanford's Fighting Seminoles have been reaching a few peaks recently. Their latest was a first round win over Tampa Jesuit in the Tampa Catholic Christmas Tournament as the Tribe claimed their seventh straight win and topped their record to 8-2.

'Frisco, Cowboys Set For Rematch

By ERIC PREWITT
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Cedrick Hardman, a Texan on his way home for a weekend, recalls, "I used to like the Dallas Cowboys."

"When I was in college they gave us passes to their stadium. The 6-foot-3, 255-pound defensive end of the San Francisco 49ers said Tuesday.

"But in last year's National Football Conference championship game, the Cowboys picked up Hardman, a rookie, by aiming a lot of running plays in his direction. Dallas won 17-10 to reach the Super Bowl."

On Sunday in Dallas, the teams met in a title rematch. "I haven't let that game bother me too much," Hardman says now. "The only thing backer, Vanderbunt, a starter last three of his seasons with the 49ers, is back on the job now.

Taylor sprained an ankle last Sunday in the 24-20 victory over Washington in the opening round of the National Football League playoffs.

"I probably won't know until just before the game whether I'll be playing," Nolan said. "But he's a lot better."

Hardman, 23, is from Houston and played college football at North Texas State. He was the 49ers' first draft pick before the 1970 season.

He and Tommy Hart, 27, give the 49ers one of the youngest pair of starting defensive ends in the NFL. They are also two of the fastest men at their trade.

RICKY GRANT (33) of the Fighting Seminoles sails in for a layup despite the efforts of a pair of Tampa Jesuit defenders. Grant paced the Seminoles with 17 points Monday night when they stopped Jesuit. Tonight the local quint battles Bishop Barry for a berth in the championship game tomorrow night. Tipoff for tonight's tilt is 9 p.m. at Tampa Catholic High School.

Engineers Place Hat In 'Ring'

BETHLEHEM, Pa. — Hank Wisniewski, a 6-foot-8, 225-pound junior center from Rochelle Park, N.J., will lead the Engineers' leading scorer and rebounder.

Coach Roy Heckman, in his fifth year with the Engineers, has a big, physically-strong aggregation which won four of its first seven starts including a stunning 49-44 upset of Lakeland in the Penn. Palmetto at Philadelphia where visiting teams just aren't expected to knock off the host Big "G" members.

Lakeland's next game will be against Georgia Southern College at Statesboro, Ga., tomorrow night. The Eagles also are in the Hatter Tourney along with Lehigh, Loyola of New Orleans and the host school, Stetson.

Wisniewski collected 117 points and 92 rebounds as the Engineers beat Lakeland, Gettysburg (61-60), Elizabethtown (95-86) and Drexel (74-72) while losing early starts to Bucknell (78-69), Colgate (102-91) and Delaware (83-64).

Dick Zelawski, a 6-foot-3 junior guard from Allentown, Pa., is the second highest scorer on the Lehigh squad with 109 points and a 14.3 average. Greg Falkenberg, a 6-foot-3 senior forward from Bethlehem, Pa., ranks third in scoring with a 13.7 average and second in rebounding with 68 off the boards. He's been hampered by leg injury and an attack of flu.

"When I lost that job I started making ties," said Yepremian, a Cypriot of Armenian heritage who left the island during the civil war in 1964 and landed in London with his family.

"My parents had always been in the fabric business," Yepremian explained. "When we arrived in London I went to work in a factory as a cutter making tunics for the guards at Buckingham Palace. When Detroit cut me I started the tie business."

Business sometimes rises and falls with his kicks, so his current concern is South, manufacturing in Baltimore. "A lot of people are calling the stores or doing my ties."

They are doing so in the wake of Saturday's Harvard field goal that produced a 27-24 victory over Kansas City after 22 minutes, 40 seconds of sudden-death overtime. That kick made the 3-foot-7 soccer style booter the No. 1 local hero.

That has meant immediate increase in sales for Yepremian's tie business—one he began following the 1967 season when he was cut by the Detroit Lions.

"He does that a lot of times," Yepremian acknowledged. "What I have to do is concentrate more on my kicks and kick higher than I normally do. You lose about five yards distance, but when you know the other team has a terrific rush you have to do that."

Still, the budding, unlikely looking hero has supreme confidence in his ability, a product of the way the Dolphins have treated him since he joined them as a free agent in 1970.

The 'Ragman' Was In 'Big Business'

Let's Reminisce: When Women Made Their Own Clothes

By HELEN M. PAGEL
Copyist News Service

People don't have rag men anymore. They have "ragstaffs" — that is, most women wear a dress a few times and then it's outdated and is discarded for something new. Or a pair of shoes gets scuffed, and that's the end of them.

Most of these things find their way to one of several charitable organizations and are eventually put to very good use, but there's no romance in the process.

New 50 or 60 years ago, things were different. Most women made their own clothes then, and after cutting out a dress from a piece of material, every little scrap that was left over was carefully saved.

Choices were worn until they were practically threadbare, and even when patching had been stretched to the extreme limit, they weren't thrown away. No, indeed. Along with the scraps, they went into the ragbag. Actually, there were usually two ragbags — one for cotton scraps and one for woolen.

About twice a year the ragman came around, and his visit was an event. He might be a pudgy, decrepit specimen driving a rickety old horse hitched to a rickety old wagon. Or he might be a more dignified character with a horse whose ribs didn't show quite so plainly, drawing a covered cart wherein reposed various articles of tinware, brooms and "notions."

But whatever else he belonged to, some fine spring morning you would hear far

Heaviest Air Attack In 3 Years Yanks Blast Commies

By GEORGE ESPEY
Associated Press Writer

SANIGON (AP) — The heaviest American air attack on North Vietnam in more than three years continued for the fourth day today with a lull in sight.

U.S. diplomatic sources reported that the armada of 350 planes and helicopters flew more than 300 attack strikes and hundreds more support missions in the first 24 days of the round the clock bombing that began Sunday.

To keep the attack force at full strength, a scheduled port leave for the carrier Constellation was delayed and it continued to launch its planes from the Tarkin Gulf about with the carrier Constellation.

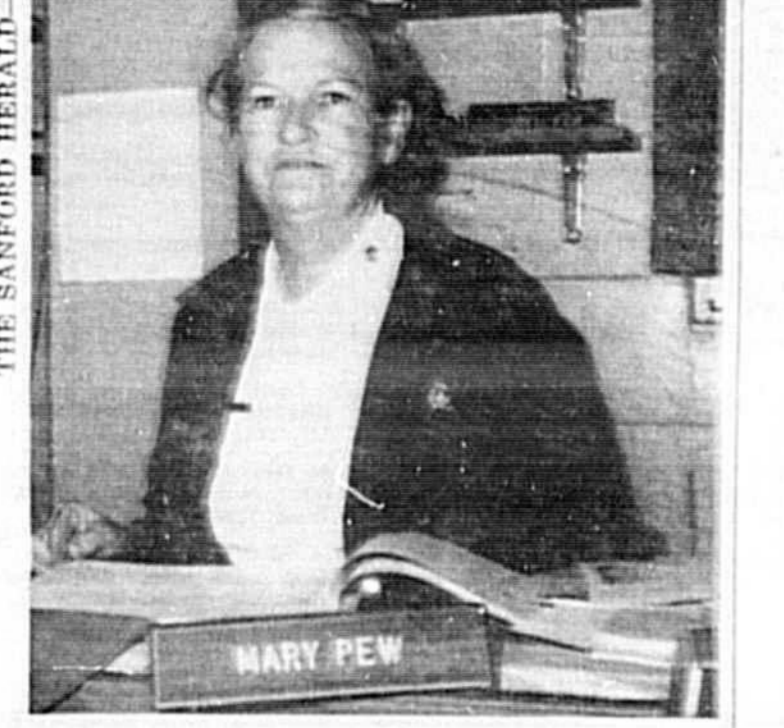

The Constellation and the Coast Sea are supplying about 150 fighter-bombers to the force attacking North Vietnam. The rest of the aircraft come from bases in South Vietnam and Thailand.

Radio Hanoi claimed that the U.S. planes were shot down Sunday and a sixth on Monday. It said a number of the pilots were killed or captured.

The U.S. Command refused to comment on the report of the number of strikes flown. Hanoi's claims of seven planes downed or shot down Sunday and Monday were not confirmed by the U.S. Command. The command said that for security reasons it would disclose no details of the

Sheriff's Operating SS Guarded By Mary Pew

By ANN RILEY

Mrs. Pew has two daughters, Mary M. Harrell Sanford and Sybil J. Miles, of Panama. Her son is Rev. W. L. Holcombe, pastor of Longwood Church of the Nazarene. Among her blessings are three granddaughters and eight grandsons.

One of the active programs started by Sheriff Pew is "We Care." She is coordinating this program for senior citizens. "I have several women who help me call older persons living alone every morning. We see if they are ill or in need, and basically just let them know we care," she explained. Any senior citizen living alone can enroll in the program. The purpose is to see that the older persons are well and happy each day.

Mrs. Pew is an active member of the Lake Mary Church of the Nazarene, serving her church both as secretary and treasurer.

Mary has resided in Sanford since 1934. She was the wife of the late W. L. Holcombe. They worked together 12 years in the fish and seafood business and 13 years in the building business. After the death of Mr. Holcombe, she married her first husband in 1964.

'Independence Day' Celebration Jan. 14

By JOHN WOODFIELD
Associated Press Writer

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — Suburban Maryland will once again celebrate Independence Day next month as it has persisted in doing since 1784.

July 4th may be all right for most, but Maryland history buffs insist that the end of the Revolutionary War, not the beginning, marked U.S. independence from Britain.

The end came on Jan. 14, 1784, in the Maryland State House when the Continental Congress ratified the Treaty of Paris to end the war.

Although Cornwallis had surrendered to George Washington in 1781, British troops occupied several U.S. towns until 1784.

Antiwar Protestors Arrested At Capital

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

More than 50 persons were arrested at a human barricade put up by Vietnam war veterans staging an antiwar protest at the Lincoln Memorial in Washington.

The arrests followed by only a few hours a decision by 15 members of the same group, the Vietnam Veterans Against the War, to end their 40 hours occupation of the State of Liberty.

At the Lincoln Memorial, the U.S. park police arrested 86 demonstrators who refused to move from the entrance. The protesters placed their hands on their head in prayer and waited for police to lead them to waiting buses. They were charged with blocking the entrance to a building, a misdemeanor.

The last person arrested was Gerald Evan, a University of Massachusetts student and an

Nixon Trip Subject Of Confab

By KENNETH J. FREED
Associated Press Writer

KEY BISCAYNE, Fla. (AP) — President Nixon today turned to his upcoming trips to the Soviet Union and the Soviet Union as prime subjects for the second day of his summit conference with West German Chancellor Willy Brandt.

Nixon was particularly interested in this not only to explain the historic visit, but to gain from the impressions Brandt picked up in his meetings last summer with Russian leaders.

Officials on both sides said the talks have been a great success, conducted with warmth and full understanding and agreement on the wide range of subjects.

The major development from Tuesday's opening rounds was a pledge by Nixon, in the words of Secretary of State William P. Rogers, "to do everything we can to maintain our troop strength in Europe."

Strength Has Dipped Guard Draft Eyed

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Top Pentagon officials are studying the possibility of drafting young men into the Army National Guard.

There are some legal and political hangups, but guard draftees say the draft may be the only way to bolster a sagging military establishment.

Guard officials think they may lose another 20,000 soldiers before next fall and then face serious manpower shortages.

For now, they are relying on higher pay and other incentives to recruit to reverse the diminishing size of units around the country.

And they emphasize that Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird would probably seek congressional approval before going ahead with a draft into the part-time Army. But the idea is a very live one, officials say.

Welfare Is Tightened For Healthy Mothers

By ROBERT I. CAMPBELL
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has signed into law a bill initiated by congressional conservatives which requires welfare recipients to sign up for work or receive job training.

Critics of the measure say it will force those who will or are able to work to sign up for work or receive job training.

The bill Nixon signed is the most stringent yet to keep families from the welfare rolls. It requires welfare recipients to take mandatory job training or work at least 20 hours a week. It also requires welfare recipients to take mandatory job training or work at least 20 hours a week.

President Will Air State Of The Union

By WALTER R. MEARS
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon plans to deliver his sixtieth annual State of the Union message to Congress on Jan. 13, and the Democratic majority is at work on a televised address of his own, to be delivered a day or two later.

The White House has advised Senate Republicans of the date but has not yet said as to whether the President will speak at midday or will make the speech in the evening, on prime television time.

The expectation on Capitol Hill is that the Nixon message will offer no dramatic new proposals, but will concentrate on urging a Democratic Congress to act on what he already has offered.

Restaurant More Like Social Club

By TOM HOGE
Associated Press Writer

Two affable brothers from Italy have bussed themselves over the past 16 years running a cozy little bistro in New York that seems more like a social club than a restaurant.

When I dropped into La Strada East on Third Ave. and 22nd Street a couple of weeks ago, I was struck by the intimate atmosphere of the restaurant which seats only 50 persons.

Patrons table top to chat with friends or stop to exchange pleasantries with Frank De Rose who runs the bar. His brother, Louis, presides over the kitchen.

The brothers describe their cuisine as Italian with continental overtones and it runs heavily to seafood.

Louis De Rose started learning the rudiments of cooking when he was only 16, helping out in a restaurant his family operated in Calabria, Italy.

By the time he was 15 and had arrived in America, Louis could whip up a pretty good meal and had already created a number of recipes of his own. But school kept him busy in his new homeland and his culinary activities were limited for the next few years to weekends and summer vacations working in a restaurant run by his brother-in-law.

After he graduated from school, Louis began working in some of New York's restaurant, first as an assistant cook and then as head chef.

In 1955, Louis and brother Frank opened La Strada East, and word soon got around that here was a place where one could get good Italian food, with an accent on pasta.

Most American pasta is produced in factories controlled by Americans of Italian descent, so our domestic products usually are as good as those of Italy. But unfortunately, many restaurants here, including some Italian ones, serve what could be a fine pasta dish improperly drained with a watery tomato sauce atop.

This is not a failing of La Strada which is noted for its specialty of seafood and an oversized macaroni known as ziti.

ZITI A LA STRADA
1 pound ziti
16 large cherrystone clams raw
1/2 pound lobster meat fresh or frozen
1/2 pound cooked shrimp
1 cup olive oil
4 cloves garlic
1 medium can Italian tomato sauce
salt, pepper, oregano, chopped parsley

Brown 2 cloves crushed garlic in pan in 1/2 cup olive oil. Add lobster, clams, shrimp. Cook ziti in pot of boiling water until half done. Add ziti to seafood and steam 5 minutes on low flame with pan covered. Two minutes before completion add 2 dipper sauce.

SAUCE: Brown 2 cloves crushed garlic in pan with rest of olive oil. Add tomatoes and cook 20 minutes on low fire. Five minutes before done add salt, pepper, oregano and parsley. Serve 2. Good with a chilled Soave Bolla.

Steamed Rice Pudding
By AILEEN CLAIRE
NEA Food Editor

These are parts of the country where persimmon trees still start with the fruit from a tree in the back yard or a neighbor's tree. Most persons today must buy their persimmons and it isn't quite the same as being on whether you could pick your own and avoid the pucker (unripe persimmons). Whatever the selective odds, persimmons do make a tasty dessert. Popular since the Pilgrim days has been steamed persimmon pudding. Here is one with an orange custard sauce.

STEAMED SPICED PERSIMMON PUDDING
1/4 cup butter
1/4 cup sugar
2 eggs, separated
1/2 cup milk
2 cups sifted all purpose flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon ground allspice
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup mashed persimmons
Orange Custard Sauce*

Cream butter with sugar. Beat in egg yolks and add milk. Sift flour with baking powder and salt; add alternately with persimmon pulp. Beat egg whites until they stand in soft peaks; fold into batter. Turn into 2 greased custard cups. Cover with aluminum foil and tie in place with a string or hold with a rubber band. Place cups on tray or rack in a large skillet or saucepan. Pour boiling water to come halfway up sides of cups. Cover skillet; bring to boil. Reduce heat and steam 1 hour. Serve with Orange Custard Sauce and whipped cream, if desired.

1 egg
1/4 cup sugar
1/4 teaspoon ground ginger
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1 1/4 cups hot milk
1 teaspoon grated orange peel
1/4 teaspoon grated lemon peel
Beat egg enough to blend the yolk with the white. Add sugar, ginger and salt. Stir in milk. Cook in a large skillet or saucepan. Pour boiling water to come halfway up sides of cups. Cover skillet; bring to boil. Reduce heat and steam 1 hour. Serve with Orange Custard Sauce and whipped cream, if desired.

Chicken Tacos For Teenagers

By AILEEN CLAIRE
NEA Food Editor
Mexican-style food follows the route of such slightly spicy and chewy edibles as pizza. It is a break-through in teen-age eating, for example, and many a mother is surprised when her boy-dog-and-hamburger crew happily appears at the table for Chicken Tacos. Chicken is simmered with canned green chilies, not tomato sauce with tomato bits, then spooned into tortillas, and fried until crisp and golden. Tortillas are available in most supermarkets now, either in cans or frozen. Prepare these ahead of time, if desired. Wrap tightly in foil or plastic wrap and refrigerate. Just before serving, crisp by cooking in hot oil. Serve with a Mexican salad and top with avocado slices.

- ### CHICKEN TACOS
- 1 cup chopped onion
 - 1 cup diced green pepper
 - Pure vegetable oil
 - 2 cups cooked chicken
 - 1 (16-ounce) can tomato sauce with tomato bits
 - 2 to 4 tablespoons chopped canned green chilies, drained
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - 12 corn tortillas (canned or frozen)
 - 1/2 cup diced Jack or Cheddar cheese
 - Mexicana Salad (optional)

Cook onion and green pepper in 2 tablespoons pure vegetable oil until tender. Stir in chicken, tomato sauce with tomato bits, chilies and salt. Heat to simmering and keep warm. Fry each tortilla 1 minute in $\frac{1}{2}$ -inch oil to soften. Drain and keep warm between layers of paper towels. Stir cheese into chicken mixture. Beyond chicken mixture on each tortilla, roll in $\frac{1}{2}$ -cup oil, fry filled tortillas until crisp, browning seam side down. Serve with Mexicana salad, if desired. Makes 6 main servings, or 12 snack servings.

MEXICANA SALAD

Mixed 1 small head iceberg lettuce and toss with 6 thinly sliced radishes, $\frac{1}{2}$ -cup canned sliced pitted ripe olives and $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ -cup prepared oil and vinegar dressing. Arrange on serving plates. Top with hot Chicken Tacos and avocado slices.

Helpful Hints

Let the children celebrate the beginning of the school vacation with frozen cheese pizza for lunch. Before heating, top with thin slices of frankfurters—they're a tasty addition (and a nutritious one, too).

Place a slice of bologna and 2 slices of American cheese between 2 slices of whole wheat bread. Butter outside of bread and grill over medium heat until browned on both sides. A bowl of scotch broth is a good accompaniment.

Relatives of the potato, Solanaceae or nightshade, include tomatoes, eggplant and pepper. The Solanaceae family includes some 2,600 species such as tobacco, Jimson weed, red pepper and even the Petunia.

A potato plant forms a tuber because it cannot use all the carbohydrates it has taken in for plant growth. Thus it uses the tuber as a "storehouse."

Botanically, a tomato is a fruit, but by cultivation and use it is a vegetable.

The French called the tomato "pomme d'amour," love apple. The English-speaking presented tomatoes as tokens of affection.

Maize agronomists often divide corn into the popcorn, sweet corn, dent corn, and corn, flour corn and flint corn classifications.

Minute Beef Stew Is In Bag

By AILEEN CLAIRE
NEA Food Editor
A busy housewife who likes to serve her family home-cooked meals can streamline her cooking by preparing favorite entrées ahead of time, sealing them in plastic pouches for freezing and using reheating in boiling water. There is a hot-water appliance which aids with a pouch. Whether this is used or not, always use plastic pouches for poultry, dry beans, and rice. The pouches are available in most supermarkets. The State Home Economics Service suggests using only top-quality ingredients. Concentrated cream soups and canned gravies, with their modified starches that are good binders for home-frozen foods, are a little thick if most vegetables are used. Freeze soups for even heating and fill pouches as they are only as thick. Such soups are ideal for families always on the run to after-school activities and adult community meetings during the week.

- ### HELPFUL HINTS
- 1 cup flour
 - 2 teaspoons salt
 - 1 teaspoon chili powder
 - 1 pound beef chuck
 - 1 cup chopped onion
 - 1 envelope (1 ounce) dry onion-brown gravy mix
 - 1 1/2 cups water
 - 1 can (10 ounces) tomatoes
 - 16 small white onions
 - 2 cups lunch carrot chunks
 - 1 can (4 ounces) sliced mushrooms, drained

Combine flour, salt, chili powder and pepper. Drain meat cubes in soup mixture. Brown meat slowly in Dutch oven in hot shortening, turning meat cubes to brown evenly on all sides. Sprinkle and remaining flour mixture over meat. Add chopped onion, gravy mix, water and tomatoes. Mix well. Stir in carrots. Turn heat to medium and simmer about 45 minutes. Package in 2 serving portions. Seal in boiling-water pouches. To heat, drop pouch into hot boiling water. Bring water to boil again. Reduce heat and simmer until pouch is hot. Reheating time: 2 servings - 20 minutes. Remove pouch from water, open and serve. Makes 18 cups, 4 servings.

There is a spate of specialty cookbooks that make excellent gifts. Many contain interesting stories and anecdotes about famous persons and what they like to eat or serve their guests. One small volume offers a selection of recipes inspired by pop stars, such as Mark Twain's "Virginia Woolf" or a copy in Montaigne's "Classics in the Kitchen." It serves as some guide for the busy chef as well as the one who is a "cheer" in the home. All of us use time or another have some special messages which make it an ideal gift. Buy one today or better if it is better if it stands for several more hours.

To serve, ladle soup into white square bowls, top with a thick slice of buttered French bread and sprinkles with Parmesan cheese. Place under broiler for about 3 minutes. Serve with extra Parmesan cheese. Makes two servings.

Reader Request For Mashed Potato Candy

By CECILY BROWNSTONE, Associated Press Food Editor
 DEAR CECILY: Could you please use a recipe for instant mashed potato candy? I have tasted candy made from such a recipe, but the girl whose house I tasted it at doesn't like to give out recipes. Strange, isn't it? But there are people like that, you know. Can you help me? - CANDY FAN
 DEAR CANDY FAN: Secrets will out! Here's a basic version of the recipe you want with four variations. This recipe is made the easy way—with instant potato granules used for mashed potatoes. — C. B.

MASHED POTATO COCONUT KISSES
 1 3/4 cup water
 2 tablespoons milk
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1 teaspoon butter or margarine
 2 tablespoons instant potato granules (for mashed potatoes), from a 6-ounce package
 1/2 teaspoon almond extract
 1 pound confectioners' sugar

1 container (4 ounces) shredded coconut (1 1/2 cups)
 Into a 2-quart saucepan turn the water, milk and salt. Bring just to the boil. Remove from heat. Add butter and potato granules. With a fork, beat until light and fluffy. Stir in almond extract.
 With a spoon, gradually beat in confectioners' sugar; mixture will become liquid at first, then thicken. Continue beating until mixture is thick enough to hold its shape. Mix in coconut.

Drop by heaping teaspoonfuls onto wax paper to harden.
 Makes 1 1/2 pounds or about 28 pieces.
NOTE: If confectioners' sugar is from a fresh unopened box, there's no need to sift in making this recipe. If you use opened boxes of the sugar, sift and measure 4 1/2 cups.
VARIATIONS
COCONUT CHOCOLATE SQUARES — Line the bottom of a square 8-inch cake pan with wax paper. Melt 3 squares

(3 ounces) unsweetened chocolate over low heat, stirring constantly. Pour into wax-paper lined pan and tilt pan to spread chocolate evenly over bottom. Prepare Mashed Potato Coconut Kisses mixture. If chocolate isn't partially hardened when Kisses mixture is finished, refrigerate pan until chocolate is partially hardened. Spoon Kisses Mixture over chocolate and spread evenly with fingers. Chill until firm. Turn out of pan onto board, remove wax paper and cut into squares.

CHOCOLATE KISSES — Prepare Mashed Potato Kisses mixture substituting 1/4 cup cocoa for 1/4 cup of the confectioners' sugar. 1 cup chopped pecans or walnuts for the coconut and 1/2 teaspoon vanilla for the almond extract.
MAPLE PECAN DROPS — Prepare Mashed Potato Coconut Kisses mixture substituting 1 cup chopped pecans for the coconut and 1/2 teaspoon maple flavor for the almond extract.

Cherries Featured In This Cheese Pie

By CECILY BROWNSTONE, Associated Press Food Editor
 A good Italian cook we know always adds red maraschino cherries to her Italian cheese pie. "This isn't traditional," she says, "but that's the way my family likes the dessert." The following recipe follows suit.
 If you try this pie, be sure to use a roomy up-to-date 9-inch glass pie plate. Some of the older glass pie plates were labeled

"9 inch" but they do not come up to this measurement; a pie plate of this sort won't hold all the filling.
ITALIAN CHERRY CHEESE PIE
 1 cup unsifted flour, stir to aerate before measuring
 1/4 cup sugar
 1 teaspoon baking powder
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 6 tablespoons butter
 1 egg

1 jar (4 ounces) red maraschino cherries
 1 package (8 ounces) cream cheese, softened
 1-3/4 cup sugar
 1 pound (1 cup) ricotta cheese
 2 eggs, separated
 3 tablespoons flour
 1/4 teaspoon grated lemon rind
 1/4 teaspoon vanilla
 1/4 cup milk

In a medium mixing bowl thoroughly stir together 1 cup flour, 1/4 cup sugar, baking powder and salt; cut in shortening until crumbly. Add whole egg and stir until well mixed. Press dough over bottom and sides of a 9 inch pie plate, fluting edge.
 Drain cherries, cut in half and drain again.
 In a large mixing bowl beat cream cheese with 1-3/4 cup sugar until smooth; blend in ricotta cheese, 2 egg yolks, 3 tablespoons flour, lemon rind and vanilla. Stir in milk.

 Beat 2 egg whites until stiff but not dry; fold into cheese mixture. Place cherries in pie shell and add cheese filling.
 Bake in a preheated 350 degree oven until knife inserted in center comes out clean—1 hour. We refrigerate this cheese pie then warm before serving.

Lavish Welcome Ready For 1972

NEW YORK (AP) — The year 1971 may have been a time of economic belt-tightening, but champagne and caviar sales suggest that many Americans are preparing to welcome in the new year in lavish style. Dealers and importers of the "bubbly" and top quality eggs of the sturgeon reported demand for both luxury items was strong, with little price resistance by customer.

Caviar was in short supply and in most shops the prices are higher than last year.

Imported champagne was plentiful — stocks were laid in before the 10 per cent surcharge was imposed temporarily and before the dock strike on the East Coast. Prices were holding fairly steady but there are warnings that after the holidays there will be increases.

Fifty 12-bottle packages of Bollinger French 1968 vintage, priced at $59.95 each, "sold out in a hurry" at Stop and Shop, Chicago's largest gourmet store.

The caviar trade, despite short supplies and rising prices, still found demand firm.

Department of Commerce statistics showed that in the first 10 months of 1971, imports of "fresh, chilled, frozen, prepared or preserved" sturgeon roe amounted to 95,870 pounds, valued at $1,147,500, compared with all of 1970 when 106,953 pounds worth $1,217,116 were imported.

Romanoff Caviar Co. of New York, a major importer, said the fresh Buca, considered the ultimate in roe for gourmets, was bringing up to $50 a pound at retail, compared with $60 to $70 a year ago.

Sanford Planner Cites Cost Annexation Is Frowned On

Sanford City Commission has scheduled a 4 p.m. Jan. 6 workshop meeting to discuss a 26-page city annexation report from Gerald Duke, city planner and a proposed sewer line addition.

Duke said preliminary studies show that annexation of all or any one of these areas is not feasible at this time from a cost-revenue approach as well as the problems of providing services to such large areas with a scattered population.

A refined study area consisting of the Spauld area, Ravenna Park and a portion of the Loch Arthur area were selected for further study because of their geographic location, growth potential, proximity to existing water and sewer lines and recent annexation requests.

Duke recommended that Sanford adopt a water pollution control charge which will require a specific fee for each new sewer and water connection made to the city's system.

All revenues derived from this water pollution fund and used only for construction or acquisition of additional, extensions, renewals and replacements to the sewage and water treatment plants and pumping stations.

BULLETIN
WASHINGTON (AP) — About 70,000 men with low lottery numbers subject to the draft next year will escape being called if, as Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird stated, no call is issued in the first three months.
