DOWAGER QUEEN OF ITALY CALLED BY DEATH TODAY

Margherita Succumbs After Having Been Ill With Pulmonary Pleurisy For Years; Death Occurs At Bordighera

BORDIGHERA, Italy, Jan. 4.—(AP)—Margherita, beloved queen mother of Italy, died at the royal castle here at 11 o'clock this morning after apparently having won a brave fight against pulmonary pleurisy.

Her son, King Victor Emmanuel, and members of the royal family were at the bedside when the end came, having been summoned hurriedly yesterday when the sudden turn for the worse was noted. The patient late last night sank into a coma, from which despite heroic efforts by her doctors, she never emerged.

The widow of King Humbert, who was assassinated at Monza, July 29, 1900, Margherita passed her seventy-fourth birthday on Nov. 20.

The actual cause of death was a cerebral blood clot, which developed last night, but a heavily contributing cause was the serious weakening of her powers of resistance by the attack of pleurisy pneumonia which began early in November. Throughout the night the end was postponed by frequent administration of oxygen. The actual coming of death was hardly apparent to the little group around the bed.

Family Hurries To Bedside

From the beginning of the 24-hour battle between the queen mother's astonishingly strong constitution and the cerebral obstruction, it was apparent that the result was only a question of hours and all her family hurried to her bedside here. The king and queen from Rome, Margherita's favorite grandchild, Crown Prince Humbert and her brother, the Duke of Genoa, from Turin and her nephews, the Count of Turin and the Duke of Aosta from Florence and Naples.

News of the sudden change for the worse of Margherita's condition and then the announcement of her death caused a wave of profound emotion to sweep over the nation. The Italian people, being born a Princess of Savoy.

It was Queen Margherita's veto that prevented the marriage of the Duke of Abruzzi to Miss Katherine Elkins, now Mrs. William F. R. Hill, of Washington.

Charity throughout her life caused Margherita's death. Her husband, King Humbert, was especially beloved.

When killed by the anarchist, Bresci, killed Humbert, the hearts of the world were filled with sympathy for her. She was ever ready to organize benefits for many philanthropic institutions under her patronage.

Regular Visitor to Hospital

Even in her teens she observed work for women for she did not believe in indiscriminate almsgiving. She was a regular visitor to hospitals. She visited in a hospital.

Resort Structure To Be Managed By The Hullick Brothers

Hundreds of local citizens and visitors from many nearby communities today attended the opening reception of the Hotel Forrest Lake, Sanford's new half-million dollar resort hotel on the lake shore in the eastern section of the city.

Construction work on the hotel was started on Mar. 27, 1923, the first two shovels of dirt having been turned by Mayor Forrest Lake and Frank P. Forster, president of the First National Bank.

The new building has 156 elegantly appointed rooms, each with a bath. All major construction features are of reinforced concrete and steel, and the building is equipped with a modern sprinkler system that makes it practically fireproof throughout.

The exterior of the three-story structure is finished in a Spanish style, with plastering, with various-colored original mosaic work ornamenting the ends and central section over the main portico-cooler facing south.

The structure is built along the rambling, extended lines so popular at resort centers, with Spanish architectural features predominating and finding expression in broad verandas, red tiled roofs and flower filled courtyards.

The Hotel Forrest Lake is one of the "best" hotels now in operation in Florida and the appointments and equipment of the building includes many features said to be distinctive in this section of the state.

The hotel will be operated by Bloomfield and Howard Hullick, nationally known resort hotel men, who have brought with them a complete staff of trained employees from their Loch Aoradh summer resort hotel at Allentown, N. J.

The two Hullicks were today receiving the congratulations of Sanford citizens upon opening the new hotel only three days after the scheduled date despite the many delays caused by existing rail embargoes.

An informal reception was held at the new building this afternoon at 2 o'clock at which time Mr. Hullick conducted the visitors through all departments of the hotel from the modernly equipped kitchen to the elaborately appointed bed rooms and upper floors.

Dancing will be observed tonight following another period of inspection opening at 8:30 o'clock.

PROVISIONS ARE TAKEN BY MINERS IN STORE RAIDS

Distress Among Miners Of Nova Scotia Culminate In Burning Of One Store And Robbery Of Others

GLACE BAY, N. S., Jan. 4.—(AP)—Distress among the coal miners in Glace Bay and New Aberdeen, where there has been lack of steady employment in collieries of the British Empire Steel Corporation, culminated last night in raids upon and burning of provision stores by unemployed. Store keepers suffered the loss of considerable stocks in both places and one store in New Aberdeen was burned.

The disturbances followed mass meetings under control of the United Mine Workers of America. They were called to consider any penalties that might have been made by the Nova Scotian government to an appeal by the miners that the government come to their relief. The resolution declared that if aid were not forthcoming the miners would be "forced to take what we need wherever we can find it."

A telegram received by Mayor Morrison from Premier Rhodes said while responsibility rested with the municipality of Glace Bay, he would recommend to the cabinet that the province guarantee a bond issue for the town for sufficient funds to satisfy immediate demands.

The telegram was unsatisfactory to the men who said their needs were urgent and that immediate relief was necessary. The meeting was adjourned in the afternoon and the miners rallied the stores. Approximately 1,000 men formed the bands of raiders.

Mayor Morrison said today he was of the belief that no one municipality could cope with a condition of such serious proportions, since the entire community was bound up in the activities of the colliers and non-employment had been rife for more than a year.

Proposed Plan May Save City Expense Of New Dock If Commissioners Approve

At the regular meeting of the City Commissioners held this afternoon a tentative proposal was received from Treasurer Brothers, St. Johns River barge line operators, stating that an arrangement might possibly be made with the city for dock facilities without the expenditure of several thousands of dollars for a warehouse at the foot of Sanford Avenue.

The proposal says, in effect, that the expenditure of approximately $3,500.00 on improved and enlarged facilities at the docks now operated by the company would result in saving the city something in the neighborhood of $12,000 and that it would also permit beautification committee to have the lake front near the new hotel and park kept as recreation grounds.

As the matter now stands, the city is contemplating the erection of a temporary warehouse and dock at the foot of Sanford Avenue by the Treasurer Brothers because it would facilitate the unloading of freight destined for use in Sanford and the immediate territory. The total cost of the project would run about $12,000 according to authorities.

F. E. Harrison, Jr., traffic expert of the Chamber of Commerce is said to favor the plan proposed by the Treasurer Brothers, who would save the city a great amount of money and at the same time give them the same freight unloading service which the warehouse would give if erected.

REALTY BOARD IS HOST TO MAYOR TODAY AT NOON

Mayor Lake Delivers Brief Talk Before Members Of Board In Which He Asks For Civic Co-operation

An address by Mayor Forrest Lake featured the regular noonday luncheon of the Sanford Realty Board, held today in the Seminole Grill. Mayor Lake told of the progress made by the city during the past year and hinted at many improvements for the year 1926; he also asked for the continued support and encouragement from the Board which he and the City Commission had enjoyed in 1925.

That the city will soon have electric service from the new plant which is being built on the north side of the lake was gathered from the Mayor's talk. "The city has made wonderful progress in improving the utilities service to the citizens of Sanford through the addition of new machinery in the gas plant and the building of the new electric plant," he said.

"We are merely directors in this great corporation of which you gentlemen are stockholders, and the City Commissioners feel that we should have your co-operation and your counsel on matters affecting the city as a whole. We want to meet with your committee and discuss with them any worthy project which will tend to bring Sanford into its own. I know that the year 1926 will be a banner year in the history of Sanford and all credit for its achievements in the future will be laid at the door of every loyal citizen, such as your body represents."

At the conclusion of the talk by Mr. Lake, H. C. DuBoise, president of the board, told of plans which were being made to have a vigilance committee appointed to watch over the various promotion schemes and real estate business in an effort to protect the investing public.

Mr. DuBoise said that "one of the primary duties of this realty board is to protect our citizens and visitors from the unscrupulous persons who are bound to enter the community in the wake of legitimate progress."

WIFE OF VIRGINIA CHIEF EXECUTIVE IS BADLY BURNED

Mrs. Lee Trinkle Tries To Rescue Son From Flames But Is Injured In Attempt; Blaze Causes Large Loss

RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 4.—(AP)—Mrs. Lee Trinkle, wife of the governor of Virginia, suffered what physicians termed "first degree burns" when she tried to rescue her small son, E. Lee Trinkle, Jr., from the third floor of the executive mansion which caught fire this morning from a sparkler in the hands of another son, four-year-old Bill.

Mrs. Trinkle was taken to Memorial Hospital where physicians said she was severely burned about the hands, arms, face and legs. Her hair also was badly singed. She was rushed to the hospital after she had been forced to jump from a window on an upper floor of the mansion.

E. Lee Trinkle, Jr., also was forced to jump from the same window. He was asleep when the fire was discovered on the first floor of the mansion and when the alarm was sounded by a negro butler, Mrs. Trinkle rushed upstairs to his room to save him.

Mother And Son Trapped

Both mother and child were trapped by the fire and smoke and when a ladder, raised by firemen, was found to be too short to reach them they jumped. Mrs. Trinkle's fall was broken by one of the firemen on the ladder, who grabbed her by the ankle from which she was suspended by a moment until other firemen could reach her.

E. Lee Jr. fell into the arms of the butler, Clayton Gray.

A nurse grabbed Billie and rushed him from the burning building. At least the contents of the lower floor of the mansion will be a total loss. Priceless paintings and silverware either burned or damaged by water.

LAW FORCES GET BANDIT SUSPECT BY SLEUTH WORK

Detective J. B. Green Locates John Kinard Near Monroe And Returns To Guide The Sheriff To Man's Hide-out

Another coup was scored by the police department and the Sheriff's office Saturday when they arrested John Kinard and lodged him in the county jail under the suspicion of being an accomplice of the gang which committed several robberies and hold-ups in Seminole and St. Johns counties.

Three other alleged members of the gang, Otto and Cleo Drey of Sanford and Wesley Pride of Uppala, were arrested last Wednesday in Jacksonville, and turned over to St. Johns county authorities for safekeeping in the jail at St. Augustine.

The four men now under arrest are believed to be the bandits who robbed the South filling station in this city and who also plundered the Flowers store in Lake Mary. Other jobs attributed to them by local authorities are the theft of an automobile belonging to Ed Ward and the hold-up of the Kinard store near Grapeville. The latter place is operated by an uncle of the man who was arrested Saturday.

Policeman J. B. Green, who was assigned to clearing up the robberies in the city by Chief Ray G. Williams, located young Kinard near Monroe last Friday night. Being outside the city limits the suspect was immune from arrest by the city police and Green immediately hurried to Sanford and returned to where he had located Kinard, accompanied by Sheriff C. M. Hand, Officer Beckwith of the Sanford Police and Chris Stephenson, deputy sheriff.

Kinard was arrested and locked up in the county jail to await charges by the authorities. He (Continued On Page 3.)

Lawyer Found Guilty Violating New Florida Law On Real Estate Sales

DO, Jan. 4.—(P)—A guilty verdict was returned against L. E. Hamilton, Hamilton Brothers, real estate brokers, this city, by Judge Hutchinson of the county court.

On Dec. 26, Hamilton was reserved until he was the first person to be tried for violation of the new law of Florida.

Hamilton was found guilty of commission from both sides of the buyer of a lot and subdivision without the consent of all parties concerned.

Hamilton had sold to Vernon Bolton for $1,250 a lot which he had bought for $450 but received only $400 from Bolton, the fact that he had sold to Bolton the "extra fifty dollars". Both Vernon and

Little Hope For 4 Other Victims Of Blast At Pensacola On Saturday

PENSACOLA, Jan. 4.—(P)—Death today still hovered over this city where, early Saturday, a terrible explosion of undetermined origin, and a subsequent riotous blaze at the Newport Tar and Turpentine Company plant, resulted in the death of 16 men, eight whites and eight negroes.

Four men, one of them a negro, were in a precarious condition at a hospital here with attending physicians holding out little hope for their recovery.

They were suffering from terrible burns and injuries sustained when the blast wrecked the structure in which some of them were employed. Another white man is in a hospital, but is said to be suffering from only minor injuries.

One negro still was missing today, and it is believed his remains were in the new cooling fire pits. The blaze was so fierce that it was not extinguished for nearly 36 hours. The missing negro, checked up at work in the morning, was found in the ruins of the plant. Just prior to the blast, but some party officials said they were not sure whether or not the man was in the vicinity at the time of the explosion.

The fact that four others possibly have been burned to death was dispelled yesterday when it was reported that they had not reported for work Saturday.

Sea-Front Esplanade, 200 Feet Wide, Will Be Constructed By Miami

CORAL GABLES, Fla., Jan. 4.—(P)—A great sea-front esplanade, 200 feet wide, the first and only ocean drive in Southern Florida lined with 7 miles of white Wry lights and bulkheaded directly down to the surf, is being planned by George F. Five miles of the proposed boulevard have already been constructed, it was learned with Mr. Merrick's announcement. Millions of dollars will be spent on the Biscayne development, according to information given out here, with a number of large financial business houses throughout the country to collaborate with the Coral Gables Corporation in the program.

Local Schools Open Following Close Of Yuletide Vacation

Sanford and Seminole county schools opened today following the Christmas vacation and Sanford youngsters were ushered back into classrooms after a two week period of relaxation to resume their studies with only the thought of Easter's brief holiday season to lighten the backpack of the hour.

Trains entering Sanford last night brought many schoolmarm's back to their duties after a season of rest and recreation, to begin anew the struggle of attempting to instill knowledge in stubborn heads, and today witnessed the familiar school buses loaded with children en route to the various schools of the community.

Many new pupils will be enrolled on the school registers as a result of the numerous new families that have moved to Sanford, according to T. W. Lawton, county superintendent of education, and teachers and principals are expected to have a busy time during the remainder of the scholastic year.

is said to have confessed to participation in a hold-up on the road to Jacksonville, where he and the other members of the gang went after police are said to have suspected them in connection with the local robberies.

Kinard told of driving his car to Sylvan Lake and there awaiting the Crew boys and Frider, who stayed behind in Sanford for the purpose of robbing the Ruth filling station. He said that they told him of the job when they arrived at the lake and that he was implicated in that or any other job.

Five negroes who were held up and robbed about two weeks ago on the Lake Mary road were brought into the jail by Sheriff Hand and they identified Kinard as being one of the men who robbed them.

Kinard denies this and says that he has a good alibi. He does admit to being a member of the gang when they held up several negroes between here and DeLand. It is said in connection with the negroes in jail in St. Augustine, deny any knowledge of the Sanford robbery, but are said to have confessed to St. Johns county hold-ups and are reported to have implicated Kinard.

Police men believe that Kinard is a member of the gang and that all business of the future would be governed through the by-laws and rules under which the papers were filed.

Foley told fire Marshal Brophy yesterday that he ran from house to house sometimes setting fires within two or three minutes of each other. In most of the cases the fires were extinguished quickly.

"Why did I do it?" he asked. "Only excitement that's all. I never thought about the people inside. I didn't want to hurt anybody."

Floods And Gales Continue To Sweep European Nations

PARIS, Jan. 4.—(P)—Europe continues to be ravaged in a growing degree from floods which are complicated by gales. Central Europe remains the principal sufferer. Communication is defective and the full extent of the disaster will not be known for some time.

One report reaching London says the toll of dead has reached 1,000 in Transylvania.

The flood water of the Theiss river, near the famous Theiss Vineyard region in eastern Hungary, has caused immense losses. Thousands of villagers have been driven to the roofs of their houses. A number of persons who sought safety there have died of exposure. Regent Horthy and Count Bethlen, the premier, are visiting most afflicted points.

In France and Belgium, the optimism has been dampened by renewed rainfall. Most of the flooded streams appear to have reached the peak, or about to do so. In Belgium the improved situation in the Meuse and Sambre valleys has been offset by the rising water in the districts of Malines, Mons, and Flanders.

The Hotel Forrest Lake Opens

Epochal days in Sanford's colorful history have come again. Each dying year has left behind some great achievement hailed as the greatest until a greater comes. So it has been with 1925, which has run its race over a record course, winning for Sanford what is by far the greatest and most fundamental necessity for the city's future development as a tourist center. Nineteen hundred and twenty-five has brought to Sanford the Hotel Forrest Lake, and 1925 will go down in Sanford's history as the period wherein the most crying need of the city was fulfilled.

A review of the past shows the removal, one by one, of various obstructions and impediments of the many-sided development of the community. The paving problem was met and solved, public utilities were provided, civic beautification inaugurated, and now as a fitting climax to all the progressive steps that have been taken, comes the opening of an elaborately appointed tourist hotel to partly meet a housing problem that is daily assuming more serious proportions.

The Herald congratulates today all who were instrumental in bringing to Sanford the Hotel Forrest Lake. It would be unfair to mention the names of only a few, for the united support and co-operation of all the people made the hotel possible. The Hulick brothers have worked incessantly, sometimes twenty-four hours a day, to effect the completion of the establishment, and to them The Herald extends congratulations in opening the magnificent structure only three days after the scheduled time, despite long delays attending the delivery of material and equipment as a result of existing rail embargoes.

In the opening announcement of the Hotel Forrest Lake lies an object lesson, a worthy and eminent example of the things that can be achieved by faith, initiative and co-operation. One short year ago the erection in Sanford of a tourist hotel, such as we now have, was little more than a gaudy dream of a few optimistic men. Two months later, on February 27, Mayor Forrest Lake and Frank P. Forster turned the first two shovels of dirt. Today the hotel opened, marking the beginning of a period of development destined to be without parallel in Sanford's history.

In olden times the builder of cities came in martial raiment with armies and slaves to rear a community by force of arms. The modern city builder comes in the guise of the hotel promoter, with legions of plasterers, steel workers and laborers. He may truly be termed a builder of cities, for paved streets, fine stores and all manner of civic attractions lay nothing if no housing provisions are made for those who are attracted to a city. The widest advertising campaign that a community can launch is far more of a detriment than an asset to its development if that community is lacking in accommodations, for those who come expecting comfortable hotels and find none depart to disseminate tales prejudicial to that community's growth.

Sanford has had comfortable hotels in the past but an insufficient number and certainly nothing in the way of tourist houses comparable to the Hotel Forrest Lake, whose opening has removed the greatest stumbling block in the city's path to increased development.

In the celebration of this epochal day in Sanford, The Herald would suggest and urge the continuance of the same demand for better things that has been instrumental in accomplishing Sanford's great growth. Now that we have the Hotel Forrest Lake let us resolve to have another and still another, for dissatisfaction with existing attainments is the only real source of progress, and the community that develops only as present day needs demand is soon outstripped by the city that plans for the future, and refuses to be satisfied with facilities adequate only for the present.

The opening of the new hotel today will long be remembered as an outstanding event, a day that will be constantly referred to when Sanford, the metropolis turns and looks back at Sanford, the city promising.

The "Tiger" To The Rescue

France's appeal for a strong man to lead it out of its present crisis arising over the financial policies of the nation, is becoming pronounced. The trying times have caused the French to scour the country for a leader, but thus far their search has been unproductive.

At this time France has no outstanding leaders. The country is over-run with "average politicians," and her best men are too old to appear as rescuers, while the young ones lack experience. Some foreign observers, the Literary Digest points out, believe that if France had just one man who was great enough to establish a dictatorship, it might be the best thing that could happen to the nation.

The situation has led the Echo du Nord of Lille to publish an open letter to Clemenceau, France's war-time premier, in these words:

"Shut your books for a moment, leave your pen and forget your heartburns. Look toward the soil—this soil of France which your ardor and tenacity liberated from the foreigner. See what your successors have done with your victory, old and respected poll, and grit your teeth and close your fists with anger. We turn to you, your juniors have quit and the young have left their ideals. In the darkest hour the ancients are those who give the fullest meaning to events and dictate their duty to citizens who are still filled with love of the public weal. Speak to us. The enemy is no longer at Noyon—he is within each of us—he besieges our hearts and they give way a little more from hour to hour. Our governors watch, powerlessly, the ebbing tide which they started. Replace them. You have been silent long enough. Tell us our watchword."

It is a fitting tribute to the "Tiger" of France to be thus urged to guide the destiny of his country. Clemenceau is now in his eighties but is as active as most men are when they are in their forties. He piloted the ship of state through its most trying times, the years when France was plunged in the World War. He ruled with a firm hand but he carried France through those turbulent times like no other man of his day could have done.

The "Tiger" has been inactive, except for writing his memoirs, since his exit from politics. There is, however, no doubt that he has followed governmental affairs very closely since his retirement, and should he see fit to come out of his retirement, he would be able to meet the situation. He would meet it, but he would rule with an iron hand. The question is whether France would be willing in peace time to submit to a dictatorial rule?

NEW WAR PLANS MIAMI TRIBUNE

The War Department's plans for mobilizing the nation in the "next war" are based on the principle of "no slackers—no profiteers." The amount of slacking in the last war is still remembered, though men slacked far less than dollars. As regards profits, it is said that 23,000 persons became millionaires out of war business. It is planned to equip 4,000,000 men more rapidly, more completely and more economically than a new army of that size has ever been equipped before. The last mobilization of the kind, if not the HEAVY GALES, on the ocean, dangerous floods in Europe. Serious problems worry England, Austria, France, Italy, Germany, Russia, Turkey, China, Japan and a few other countries.

The United States is on the verge of slipping, or being pushed by higher financial interests and money sentimentality, into the world court, the back door of the League of Nations.

Prosperity here, everybody, of the wealth-gathering kind, getting rich. Not many thinking very seriously about the real problems of the future.

BUT MEN always have had troubles, always have worried. The old year ends, and the 1926 comes in.

THE STOCK exchange old year died happy, prices going up, brokers and their customers—except the foolish bears—convinced that the "little old U. S. A. is all right."

MONEY was dear, you had to pay 6 per cent for the pleasure of speculating in stocks, almost as much as though you wanted to build a new building for people to live in.

THE MOST remarkable good news is from our glorious island republic, France. In all of that great, intelligent nation there are only 574 out of work.

A SERIOUS scientist has glad news for all those who want to stick to this world, in spite of its troubles and worries. In the year 2000, says he, the average life will be 100 years, and many will live to be 200 years old.

SECRETARY MELLON, who knows more about real business from here to China and then back in the United States, wishes the world a happy new year and says we are going to have it.

AND MR. Hoover, secretary of commerce, is cheerful. He says we mustn't spend too much money, mustn't gamble so much, and mustn't buy on the installment.

THE STRANGEST story of the day is that of Mrs. Elna Nussbaum, 65 years old, and a grandmother. She confesses that she plotted with four others to kill her husband, and that herself, because she wanted to marry another man.

MR. HOOVER'S agents in Moscow have letters written by Catherine of Russia to Franklin, Paul Jones and others. They are romantic letters, and Mr. Hoover is not sure that they should be given to a pure minded public, especially the letters to Paul Jones.

MY FAVORITE STORIES

By IRVIN S. COBB
It Wasn't His Move Either
This one, I think, is old enough to be entitled to a revival in its second childhood. As the story runs, a venerable mountaineer residing near the boundary between Tennessee and North Carolina sat one bright afternoon on the stile in front of his cabin busily engaged in following his regular occupation of doing nothing at all. At the edge of the clearing, fifty yards away, suddenly appeared an individual in flannel shirt and laced boots who aimed at the old gentleman a round barreled instrument mounted on a tripod, which the native naturally mistook for a new kind of repeating rifle. "Can't help it," said the surveyor. "Don't shoot," he shouted, "surrender."

From the very beginning the case against Senator Wheeler was not a prosecution but a persecution, a persecution undertaken to punish the man from Montana for the part he played in exposing Harry Daugherty. If a state government does not understand or approve of the principle of cutting down large fortunes by means of an inheritance tax, the federal government will do so for it. The federal inheritance tax is to be so framed as to do the cutting without consent of the state, and make off with all the money in order to induce the state to do what it may not want to do, the federal statute will provide that, if the state adopts an inheritance tax, the federal government will allow the state a credit up to a maximum of 80 percent of the federal inheritance tax against the tax collected by the state. If the federal tax is a dollar, and the state tax is 80 cents, the federal tax will be reduced 40 cents. If the state levies no tax, the federal government takes a dollar and the state gets nothing. ## MISS GEORGIA MOBLEY ENTERTAINS IN HONOR OF MISS GLADYS WILSON

Miss Georgia Mobley, the lovely young daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Mobley, was the gracious hostess on Saturday afternoon when she entertained at bridge at her home on Oak Avenue, honoring Miss Gladys Wilson, a popular bride-elect. There were five tables of players.

Baskets of exquisite pink roses, combined with yellow narcissus, nodded their heads in welcome to the guests upon their arrival. The artistic color scheme of pink and yellow was most effectively carried out in every detail.

Delicious refreshments in frocks of yellow and white, carrying baskets of pink roses were used to decorate the tables.

On Friday afternoon, Mrs. Lee Peck entertained most delightfully at bridge at her apartment on Central Avenue, using as her color scheme, gold and green, which was beautifully carried out with crystal baskets filled with calendulas and ferns.

Old Father Time with his hour glass, decorated the tally cards, and when scores were added after a spirited game of bridge, it was found that the high score prize, a dainty vanity, had been won by Miss Margaret Wight of Cairo, Ga. The low score prize, a purse and bottle of perfume, went to Miss Claire Zachary.

Refreshments of pineapple buttermilk salad, sandwiches cut in the various card symbols, olives and hot chocolate served by the hostess after the card game.

Those enjoying this pleasant afternoon were Misses Claire Zachary, Carmela Barber, Emily Griffin, Lena Belle Hagan, Katherine Symmes, Margaret Wight, Ruth Henry and Mrs. James Beigle of Deland.

Meeting At Woman's Club Tuesday To Be One Of Importance

The meeting of the board of managers at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, marks the beginning of the Woman's Club activities for the new year. Many new and interesting plans will be carried out in the five months left of the present administration, and it is hoped that one of the most pleasant of these will be in extending hospitality to the many visitors who will be in Sanford this year for the first time.

The Chamber of Commerce is carrying forward the plans made by their recreational committee, for amusements for men in the grounds of the Legion Home, as the plan has been made and equipment is ordered.

After the business meeting of Wednesday, the Woman's Club should be able to make a definite announcement of the share it will take in this work.

It is the usual custom to have a little time set apart after these business meetings for social greetings, but at the meeting of this week is to have Miss Watters' illustrated lecture on the city of Paris for its program, it is planned to invite members and their guests to come 20 minutes earlier than 8 o'clock when the business will begin.

Fortnightly Bridge Club Is Entertained By Mrs. George Bishop

Among the many social affairs of the past week, one of exceptional pleasure was that of Saturday afternoon when Mrs. C. D. Bishop entertained the members of the Fortnightly Bridge Club at her lovely home on Magnolia Avenue.

Red roses and fragrant narcissus were used in charming profusion in the spacious living room where the card tables had been arranged.

The afternoon passed all too quickly in the absorbing game of bridge. After counting the scores, Mrs. George A. De Cottes, was given the prize for high score, it being an elaborately embroidered guest towel. The consolation, a lovely done in Madeira embroidery, fell to the lot of Mrs. Harry B. Lewis.

Mrs. Bishop served a delicious salad course with fruit cake and coffee at the conclusion of the game. The afternoon included only the members of the club.

Holiday Season Ends With Dance Saturday By Tri Delta Members

The last but not the least of the many social events given for the college set, was the informal dance given Saturday evening by the members of the Tri Delta Sorority, it being held at the new City Hall.

Holiday decorations adorned the walls of this spacious room, and formed a lovely setting for this delightful affair.

The music was unusually good, being furnished by the Seminole Syncopators. Features of the evening were also enjoyed during which appropriate favors of caps and caskets were given.

Much credit is due Mrs. J. D. Woodruff and the Misses Mary Elizabeth Puleston, Olive Newman and Naomi Scoggin, whose untiring efforts made this dance such a decided success.

About 200 people were in attendance.

Miss Leah Watters Is Praised By Mrs. Brown As Lecturer Of Note

Miss Leah Watters, who gives the "English Lake Country and Her Poets" the first of a series of three lectures at the Woman's Club on Jan. 8 at 4 o'clock has delighted many southern audiences in the former years.

Mrs. Anne Van Ness Brown, head of the municipal library, who heard Miss Watters' address before the state library association in Orlando last March, says "I am glad to endorse Miss Watters as one of our best speakers at our association meeting. It was an inspiration to all of us." The Greenville, S. C. News says, "The appealing subject, 'The English Lake Country and Her Poets' was handled in a most interesting manner by Miss Watters, whose fine voice and talented word painting, coupled with the use of lively stereoscopic slides portraying the wonderful landscapes and homes of the poets, fairly carried her listeners beyond the busy strife of life and they walked and lived with these great poets of nature."

Many choice bits from the pen of the various authors were beautifully rendered, setting to deepen and strengthen the love in her audiences for these poets and for the great out of doors of which so many of them wrote."

Much Dynamite Is Used For Blasting At Miami Suburb

CORAL GABLES, Fla., Jan. 4. (AP)—Approximately 10 tons of dynamite have been used each week for the past four years in blasting at Coral Gables without an accident of any kind.

This was the statement of W. S. Lockridge, foreman of one of the blasting gangs at work here in transforming the undeveloped section of Coral Gables into a miniature battlefield.

The sticks of dynamite ordinarily used in blasting operations contain about three-quarters of a pound of powder and an explosive cap. From one to 15 sticks are generally used in firing a charge, according to the resistance to be overcome and the proximity of the nearest houses. The charges are usually let off by a three-minute fuse.

Bathing Beauty Views On Florida Magazine Covers Are Opposed

FROSTPROOF, Fla., Jan. 4. (AP)—Arthur P. Cody, president of the Associated Boards of Trade of the Seaside Highlands, is opposed to bathing beauty pictures on the covers of magazines to be published in Florida, and he has written as much in a protest to A. A. Coult, general secretary of the Florida State Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Cody contends that the bathing beauty stage, and should now be considered of the best of her agricultural, industrial and commercial development.

Mr. Cody, in writing Mr. Coult, requested that the magazine publishers be appealed to to use decent page covers of Florida subjects, preferably those showing agriculture and things that would interest prospects that Florida is growing."

League Of Nations Is Favored By Methodist Young People's Meet

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Jan. 4. (AP)—A denunciation of "The investigation of war," adopted by an overwhelming vote of the young people's convention of the Methodist Episcopal church, was the chief topic of discussion among the 4,000 delegates as they prepared to leave for their homes today.

After voting down a motion to amend the resolutions so as to make it read "shall refuse to sanction war unless it is in defense of a right wrong," the convention adopted the report of its findings committee which placed the convention on record favoring U. S. court of justice and the League of Nations.

PRINCE CAROL IS FOUND IN MILAN; EX-WIFE RE-WEDS

Rumanian Royal Heir Gives Dinner At Which Lopez Is Guest Of Honor; Prince Refuses To Talk For Press

LONDON, Jan. 4.—At least two persons in the mystery surrounding the disappearance of Prince Carol of Rumania and his relinquished right to ascend the throne have been cleared up.

Carol is in Milan where lives Mme. Lopez, blue-eyed, red-haired daughter of a Jewish merchant of Jassy, Rumania, with whom Carol is on friendly terms. Carol's ex-wife, former morganatic wife of the prince, has remarried.

Carol gave a dinner to his entourage at a hotel last night. Mme. Lopez was a guest. At her place at the table was a huge bouquet of white flowers of the same kind that she threw into his automobile, smothering a note which brought them together in the woods of a country.

Prior to Carol's abdication, Carol and Mme. Lopez motored together daily but when the storm broke the prince fled to the mountains of the Pyrenees in seclusion but Mme. Lopez occasionally appears in the press.

In a statement published in the Daily Express, Carol replied in writing that he had decided not to make any statement with regard to his renunciation. With some hesitancy he declared that the details of his doing printed in the newspapers were fundamentally wrong and that they constituted malicious propaganda.

Carol is said to have flown in the plane which informed that his father, King Ferdinand, announced to the crown council that he had given up his rights to the throne. The prince advised that both the king and queen and the cabinet are reassuring the people that the abdication of Carol does not indicate a dynastic or political conflict.

The prince is said to have been covered by the Rumanian government to cause his attention to the lady, but he is said to prefer to give up his rights to the throne.

Other advice is that princess Helen shortly will start proceedings to divorce Carol. The understanding in Athens is now that she will remain at the Rumanian court and devote her attention to her little son who takes his father's place as successor to Ferdinand.

General Sir Frederick Maurice placed Lee above Wellington as a general.

LONDON LEARNS WALES MAY WED PRINCESS ASTRID

Swedish Princess To Visit In England Next Spring And British Think Engagement Will Be Made Public

LONDON, Jan. 4.—Notwithstanding recent denials, it is asserted by persons close to the prince that Princess Astrid of Sweden will visit London in the spring and that shortly afterwards there may come the announcement that the Prince of Wales has chosen her for his bride.

The princess is 23 years old and a niece of the king of Sweden. After recent denials that she would marry the Prince of Wales, there were suggestions of an engagement to his mother, Prince Henry.

Princess Astrid is one of the few royal princesses who is eligible by birth to become the consort of the heir apparent to the British throne. She already is well known and beloved by the British royal family. The late dowager Queen Alexandra was fond of her.

Her last visit to London, prior to the death of Queen Alexandra, coincided with the return of the Prince of Wales from South America. Previously there had been visits to England of Italy, Belgium, Rumania and Spain and each time there was talk of a possible union.

Wales, however, is apparently sentimental. It is authoritatively stated that several years ago he told King George and Queen Mary, that he would not marry any one unless he loved her, and that anyway he did not wish to tie himself in the bonds of wedlock until he had made his tour of the entire empire.

The prince is 31 years of age. It has been hundreds of years since the heir to the British throne reached this stage of life without having taken a consort.

N. Y. Boy Set Fire To Home; He Tells The Police

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 4.—(AP)—Mystical scenes here by the announcement that Eddie Tryon, Colgate football star, had decided to marry professionally, were cleared up here today with the arrest of Jack Walling, Hamden, N. Y., accused of posing as Tryon.

Football fans were mystified by the announcement that the 1925 Colgate captain planned to participate in a professional game at Miami because he had declared he would not turn professional if he was offered $10,000 a game.

Waller, an Eddie Tryon, was lured and entertained. He also borrowed several hundred dollars, it is charged, to keep him out of some embarrassing situations.

Mrs. Tryon, Eddie's mother, heard that her son was to become professional and denied it. Waller is held on a technical charge of idleness.

The government attorney studied the case and planned for stopping it, but he introduced the death sentence. Ray was given a year for his part in the year war against the government.

LAST QUARTER OF TWENTIETH CENTURY IS THE WORLD'S GREATEST INVENTIVE AGE, ACCORDING TO STATISTICS

Conditions of Past Twenty-Five Years Shadow Those of Many Centuries

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—High as a century ago, a band of red-painted crouched in a forest. The edge of the forest, abruptly, came an enemy, four or five crudely bows of wagons, drawn by swift arrows whistled through the air. The struggle was a man in his native elephant conquered man, the invader. The years passed and under defeated the native. Today in the same spot that migratory train met looking back over the between, the man of today master of all he surveys. Nature to his bidding. During the quarter coming to a close with man, the invader, beaten elements into inventions. In the same spot, the native, in flight. The invention of the past 25 years, and the dawn of the twenty-first century, the knife of medical efficiency though it was, with only a general knowledge of the man's ailment. But now is defined. The X-Ray covered by William K. Roentgen in 1895. Paris laboratory in 1895, the treatment of cancer, and other diseases. Its use has been put at $3,000,000 a year. The scientists were

Prof. Curie and his wife Marie Sklowaska Curie. New Smoke Signals. Where the red man's smoke sent its signal into the sky now stands a huge tower, taller than the highest tree of the old forests. From the tower, man sends his messages to his fellows in invisible smoke that flashes across oceans in the twinkling of an eye. Twenty-five years ago the world laughed at Guglielmo Marconi and a little group of men who believed in radio. Now in many a farm home along the route of the old schooner train, a family sits around the box that brings stories of the world's work and songs of the world at play. Twenty-five years? The world was indeed amused when it read about Darius Green and his flying machine, but more amused at the Wright brothers for following Darius' example. To fly was to die. Wings to carry man through the air? Well, hardly. But 25 years have sped—and man flies. Man flies, so does time. On the spot where the first immigrant train met fate, a red school house was reared. Twenty-five years ago, a bright-faced boy risked his life to get to that school house. His way led across a road that was hardly more than a path, with a narrow footbridge here and there across some frozen stream. The boy returns today to spend the New Year with the family. He whizzes in his automobile along a highly polished pavement, roars through a culvert where the old bridge stood and past the barn that Dobbin long ago gave up to a new fire-breathing beast that rolls. High above the barn another engine hums. The boy of 25 years ago would have run away at the sight of this monstrous fly. Now he takes out his watch, perhaps with the thought that the alarm'll ring on time again.

What Would the Pioneer Say to All This

Steam and gasoline and electricity have changed the world. Hero, of Alexandria, played with a steam toy in 120 B. C., but it was 1700 years before a practicable steam engine was invented. A little more than 100 years ago Fulton applied the steam to a boat and it moved. World old sea traditions were shot to smithereens when Fulton's crude craft paddled along in the Hudson.

Flying Machine, Automobile And The Submarine Are Notable Achievements

McCormick's reaper is nearly 100 years old, but it took the genius of application of the twentieth century to roll reaper and threshing into one and hitch a tractor to it to do in a few hours work that once took long days. Gutenberg invented a printing press in 1450. The twentieth century press grinds out thousands of newspapers a minute. The work of a minute in the twentieth century would have taken Gutenberg a lifetime. Daguerre, in 1839, gave the world the secret of photography, but not until the twentieth century did man turn this invention to a common language of pictures that today blooms on every Main Street in the world, movies. And it took the twentieth century to learn how to send pictures across the land on the wings of lightning, the telephoto. Terrible Inventions. War, with its terrible instruments, stands as a blot on the first twenty-five years of the century, when man turned his inventions to destruction. He changed the tractor into a tank, devised machines that poured bullets in a swift stream, invented gas and all its deadly implements and protective devices, built flame projectors and Big Berthas that from a distance of 75 miles tore buildings and men to pieces. Time flies and the things of the twentieth century already seem old. But none who lived twenty-five years ago knew what a pulmotor was, or a submarine, or a war tank, a tractor, an electron, a hydroplane, a machine gun, a Liberty motor, radiotelephony or an airplane. The world smirked at men who sat tinkering with strange new toys back in 1900.

But the world has not laughed at the inventor, and that has been one of the first quarters of the century's saddest lessons—but invention is our meat and drink and the inventor is the hero of this complicated age. Jefferson County Prosecutor, Bump's Against Game Law. TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 2.—Gov. Martin has been asked by Big game and fish department to take whatever action he thinks necessary in the reported refusal of B. J. Hamerick, prosecuting attorney of Jefferson county, to file information which would lead to the trial of himself and his brother, Ellis Hamerick, an attorney of Okesehobee, and Dr. Hamerick, a dentist of Monticello, for alleged violation of the game law. The three men were arrested by deputy game commissioners last Saturday for shooting ducks about Lake Miccosukee. The law prohibits the shooting or killing of ducks in or about the lake except on Monday and Tuesday during the open season. The case, it was alleged at the game and fish department, would come under jurisdiction of the county court, but all persons tried before that tribunal must either be arraigned on indictment of the grand jury, or upon information filed by the prosecuting attorney. The grand jury, it was stated, will not convene until June. Rabbits in the high Casado Mountains have put on their snowshoes for a hard winter. These creatures, called snowshoe rabbits, have long spreading toes, which in winter are covered with coarse hair, giving the feet a greater area.

The Modern Hotel

depends for its success upon the excellence of its appointments and that indefinable atmosphere which is termed "home-like"—that atmosphere which is the earmark of good management.

The Modern Millwork Plant depends for its success upon its ability to furnish that class of millwork which will appropriately adorn the most modern hotel or the most beautiful home.

We call attention to the woodwork in this hotel. That in the lobby is of selected Red Gum, America's most beautiful wood. In the balance of the building the woodwork is genuine Gulf Red Cypress, which has been carefully kiln dried and properly worked.

Our company, in furnishing the complete millwork (woodwork), is proud to have had a part in the construction of the HOTEL FORREST LAKE, and we offer our congratulations to the Owners upon this splendid monument to their progressiveness and to the city of Sanford upon its good fortune.

ALLEGED DOCTOR BEGINS TERM FOR ROBBERY OF BANK

Baird Is Returned To Cashville, Ga., And Is Found Guilty Of Taking Money When Cashier Became Sick

CARTERSVILLE, Ga., Jan. 4.—(AP)—W. W. Baird, who arrived in Cashville, a small community near here last August in the role of a physician and who disappeared a few days later shortly before $1,100 was missed from the vault of the bank, today began serving a sentence of from 10 to 15 years. He was returned here yesterday from Canada and found guilty of robbery of the bank.

Officers declare Baird had confessed that he took the money from the bank and has required an immediate trial so he can begin his sentence and "get it over with."

Baird first came to Cartersville and inquired if there was an opening here for a physician. Learning that Cashville was without a phy...sician he went there and obtained lodging at the home of J. P. Kinsey, cashier of the bank.

A few days later, Baird and Kinsey rode to town in the cashier's automobile, and he became ill and Baird gave him something, ostensibly to relieve his illness. After their arrival at the bank, Kinsey became worse and decided to return home. Thinking he would not be away long, he did not close the bank vault.

When the two arrived at the Kinsey home, Baird recalled that he had left his physician's grip at the bank and obtained the keys from Kinsey so he could get it. A short while later, Baird returned to Kinsey and accompanied him to Cartersville to see another physician.

While Kinsey was being examined, Baird excused himself and was not seen here again until the officers returned with him yesterday. It is believed here that the bank cashier had been poisoned. He recovered quickly however.

Soon after Baird's disappearance, the loss was discovered at the bank and officers got onto the trail of the "physician."

Hulick and Hulick are to be congratulated upon the successful completion and opening of Hotel Forrest Lake.

San Francisco Holiday Crowds in Home Terrorized By Big Earthquake

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 4.—(AP)—Donations from citizens and friends of San Francisco have provided $2,000,000 for a war memorial group, to consist of an American Legion building and an opera house in the Civic Center.

The Civic Center now includes the city hall, state building, public library and exposition auditorium. The new group, to be dedicated to the memory of Americans slain in France, is designed in the form of temples of classic beauty. Destruction of buildings on the site will start shortly after Jan. 1, with construction expected to be under way before March 1.

The Legion building will include a museum of fine arts. Architects have endeavored to make the interior of the opera house combine all desirable features. The seating capacity tentatively is estimated at 3,500, but this may be increased. An attempt is being made to provide maximum capacity without sacrificing perfection of acoustics, visibility and comfort.

Announcement of the successful campaign for subscriptions at a meeting of the city's Board of Supervisors was attended by a resolution commending the San Francisco Opera Company on its successful season. The company will have its own home in the opera house.

The Musical Association of San Francisco has been trying for years to provide a building devoted solely to music. Besides housing the seasons of opera, the memorial structure will be the permanent home of the San Francisco symphony orchestra, which, during the winter season, gives weekly con-

Holiday Crowds in Home Terrorized By Big Earthquake

ROME, Jan. 4.—(AP)—Many holiday crowds, celebrating New Year's night at theaters throughout northeastern Italy were thrown into a panic last night by a violent earthquake. In some places the shock lasted several seconds and in others as long as three minutes.

The movement apparently was centered in the mountainous regions north of the Adriatic sea. It was felt most violently at Trieste, Venice and Verona, but Padua, Rovenna, Udine, Montefalco and many other places in Italy and Jugo Slavia also were shaken.

No loss of life was reported, but a few persons were injured as the crowds rushed out of theaters and other places of amusement frantically seeking safety in the open. Some were injured when chunks of plaster or masonry fell upon them.

certs. Within the building will be rehearsal rooms and probably smaller halls for chamber music concerts.

Subscriptions for the group started in 1920.

Claimed By Death After An Operation

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—(AP)—Maj. Gen. William H. Hart, quartermaster-general of the Army, died early today at Walter Reed Hospital here.

He was operated on two weeks ago, for what it was feared was a cancerous growth. For a time he had appeared to be convalescing. He was in his sixty-second year.

Gen. Hart was appointed quartermaster-general in August, 1922, on retirement of Maj. Gen. Harry L. Rogers. Gen. Rogers died in Philadelphia but a short time ago, after having preferred charges against Gen. Hart alleging improper methods of procuring his appointment. The charges were found at the War Department not to warrant any proceedings.

Gen. Hart was a native of Winona, Minn., but was appointed to the military academy from North Dakota in 1889. He served as an infantry and cavalry officer until the commissary department. He 1900, when he became a captain in was transferred to the quartermaster corps of the supply and pay service of the army in 1912.

During the World War he was quartermaster of the base section at St. Nazaire, France, and after the war was supply officer at Boston, San Francisco and Newport quartermaster at Norfolk, before he came to Washington for duty.

Present-day traffic congestion, according to the Christian Science Monitor, is fulfillment of the vision of the Prophet Nahum, centuries ago, when he said: "And they shall jostle against another in the roadways."

Enas Franceschini was brought from Italy to Albuquerque, N. M., by her parents ten years ago. ## Florida Will Be Served By Auto Transportation System Unrivalled Anywhere In U.S.

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 4.—(AP)—Existing traffic congestions, coupled with the unprecedented development of Florida, was responsible for the mammoth transportation project recently announced here for this state, according to W. F. Fielder. Mr. Fielder is vice-president in charge of operations for the Yellow Drive-it-Yourself system.

Within a few months, according to him, the entire state of Florida will be served with a motor-transportation system unsurpassed in any part of America. In addition to being backed by northern capital the concern was promoted by some of the largest financial powers in this state, Mr. Fielder said. One entire "train load" of the specially constructed Hertz cars already has arrived in Jacksonville and two others have been ordered. Each train load consists of 100 cars. Fifty of the first shipment were sent to Miami while the other half was kept in Jacksonville for use here.
