

CONGRESS CONFINES ACTIVITIES TO ORATORY IN FIRST SESSION AFTER THE HOLIDAY RECESS

MEASURE BEING CONSIDERED WHEN ADJOURN

Days and Means Committee At Work on Mellon Tax Reduction Bill

(By The Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Congress returned Thursday from its holiday recess, listened to several hours of oratory, transacted a few routine details and then adjourned until Monday. Next Monday, with committees at work on the Senate and House, the House will carry them up to the national political convention next summer.

Administrative Features

Work on administrative features of the Mellon tax reduction bill resumed by the House ways and means committee, which hopes to bring forth legislation in 10 days or two weeks. The first appropriation bill of the session, that of the interior department is to be presented to the house next Monday and will be followed by the navy and navy budgets.

The Senate Thursday made another ineffectual effort to elect a chairman of the interstate commerce committee two more ballots, the 26th and 27th of long drawn out contest between the regular and insurgent Republicans and the Democrats, being taken without reaching the deadlock. The voting stood approximately as before, Senator Cummins, Republican, receiving 28 and 20, respectively, for re-election; Senator Smith, Democrat, South Carolina, receiving 31 on both ballots, and Senator Cousins, Republican, Michigan, 11.

Nine insurgent Republicans and the Farmer-Labor Senators led by Senator Cousins, their strength increased by Senator La Follette, Republican, Wisconsin, who has been ill and returned to the senate Thursday for the first time this session.

A solution of the contest is sought for next week, however, discussions Thursday centering upon plans to shelve the fight on the Senate floor and leave to the committee itself, temporarily at least, the selection of a chairman for a temporary presiding officer. In considering matters of routine business the Senate during the day normally provided for investigation by the privileges and elections committee of the election of Senator Mayfield, Democrat, Texas, charged with excessive expenditures and other irregularities. A committee will meet next Tuesday to man out procedure.

CONGRESS TRIES TO BLOCK SALE OF ARMS TO MEX

Fairchild Introduces Resolution Into House Preventing Munition Sales to Foreign Nations

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Congressional opposition to the sale of American surplus army equipment to the Mexican government crystallized Friday in the introduction in the house of two resolutions by Representative Fairchild, Republican, New York, intended to block completion of the project if possible. The first resolution called upon the state department for full information as to negotiations for the sale to Mexico; the second would prohibit government sales of arms to any foreign government.

Acted After Conference

Representative Fairchild acted after a conference with Secretary Hughes earlier in the day. Neither the secretary nor Mr. Fairchild had anything to say for publication as to their talk, but it is understood they exchanged views as to the advisability of the arms sales to Mexico as a matter of policy and expediency without influencing their respective positions.

During the day both Secretary Hughes and Secretary Weeks conferred with President Coolidge at different times and later Ramon Ross, who was one of the Mexican commissioners in the recent Mexican City conversations which led to diplomatic recognition of the Obregon government by the United States, called at the White House accompanied by Manuel Teller, Mexican chargé.

It was learned authoritatively that the visit of the two Mexican officials had been arranged by secretary Hughes in order to permit Mr. Ross to carry out instructions from President Obregon and pay respects to President Coolidge in the name of the Mexican chief executive. So far as could be learned the visit of the Mexican officials had no connection with any direct nature with the arms sale.

Autonomous Quarter

In authoritative quarters it was asserted that so far as the policy making agencies of the government were concerned, nothing had arisen to hinder completion of the plan to sell arms, rifles and other equipment to the Obregon government. It was said at the state department that the details of the transaction had been turned over entirely to Secretary Weeks. Whether "Mr. Weeks" call at the White House was in connection with working out those details was not disclosed.

Flood Threatening Cincinnati Regions

(By The Associated Press.) CINCINNATI, Jan. 4.—The unexpected cold wave which swept Cincinnati Thursday and sent the mercury down to approximately 10 degrees above zero prevented the threatened serious flood which might have resulted in thousands of dollars worth of property damage, according to Weather Forecaster Devereaux. The Ohio river at this point early Friday registered approximately 52 feet, flood stage, and it was only the cessation of heavy rains of the past several days, followed by the cold snap that prevented the stream from rising to 60 feet, he said.

Cold Wave Averts Disastrous Flood

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 4.—Flood waters of the Allegheny and the Monongahela Rivers, pouring into the Ohio, reached the crest this morning, when the stage of 27.3 feet was reported at Point Bridge by the weather bureau. It was expected that the Ohio would remain stationary until noon when the stream would begin to fall. The timely arrival of a cold snap during the night prevented what the weather bureau expected would be one of the most disastrous floods in history in the upper Ohio Valley. Scores of families had moved their homes during the night and Friday were making themselves as comfortable as possible until they could return to their mud drenched houses when waters recede. With the cold snap checking the flow from countless little streams, the flood was confined to water already held by rivers, causing considerable damage. The mills have been compelled to shut down.

WORK ON SANFORD'S NEW YACHT BASIN IS PROGRESSING RAPIDLY

Thirty Concrete Piers Have Been Finished—Others Made At The Rate Of 20 Per Day.

Work on Sanford's new yacht basin is progressing so rapidly as could be expected, according to Superintendent Alvarez, who has a large force of workmen vastly engaged in building forms and pouring concrete.

Already 30 concrete piers have been finished, he said, and others will be constructed as fast as possible. Some idea of the progress that is being made is gained by the fact that 10 large forms were poured in two and one-half hours Thursday morning, according to Mr. Alvarez.

The capacity of the concrete mixer is 30 yards per day and each form contains from a yard to a yard and a half of concrete. Of the 30 piers already completed there are 10 of which are 28 feet long and weigh approximately 4,500 pounds. The first concrete was poured last Saturday, according to Mr. Alvarez. Thirty-six hours after the concrete is poured the forms may be stripped, Mr. Alvarez said, and the piers moved to one side in order that others may be poured. After a lapse of 30 days the piers are then ready to be driven.

There are 728 piers to be made, said Mr. Alvarez. He expects to begin the work of driving the piers in the water early in February. In the meantime, he said, there is to be some dredging and filling in to be done. This work will probably begin the latter part of January.

An interesting part of the work that is now being done is the pouring of the steel cores for the forms which increase the strength of the concrete piers. The framework consists of six steel bars held together by steel stirrups placed at regular intervals.

Within a few days 60 forms will have been built and then the work of making from 20 to 30 piers per day will begin in earnest.

MANY BURNED IN BIG PEORIA FIRE

Origin of Fire Will Remain Mystery Is Belief of Superintendant.

(By The Associated Press.) PEKIN, Ill., Jan. 4.—Bodies of 39 workers still believed buried in wreckage of the Corn Products plant will never be identified if they are recovered according to prevailing opinion here. Only two bodies had been removed at noon Friday.

How Set Mystery.

How the spark was set will always remain a mystery. Superintendant Lawson said he believed workers never brought tobacco or matches to work and formerly were searched to assure no matches were carried. Later, however, it was said an appeal was made to the honor and self-interest of the workers which proved more effective.

There were one million pounds of starch in buildings destroyed, which Chief Chemist R. F. Sherman said contained 12 per cent moisture. How starch of this moisture content could have produced explosive dust sufficient to cause the extreme damage done the plant, was a thing, he added, that he could not explain.

As darkness closed about the workers, a train wrecker was still pulling cautiously at the wreckage on five box cars, in which nine loaders went to their death screaming prayers for help. Full force of the derrick was not exerted for fear the pull would bring down the remaining walls of the ruin.

Santa Ana Attacked By Strange Malady

(By The Associated Press.) LOS ANGELES, Calif., Jan. 4.—Fully 1,000 residents of Santa Ana 35 miles from here have been temporarily incapacitated by an epidemic which physicians are at loss to explain, the Los Angeles Times said today. The strange malady is apparently not serious, its victims recovering usually within a day or two, according to the Times.

Ohio Manufacturer Probed All Night Find Old Coffin of Tutankhamon

(By The Associated Press.) CANTON, Ohio, Jan. 4.—Louis E. Griffith, Jr., Canton manufacturer, was released from custody Friday morning after being questioned practically all night regarding the death of Miss Ruth Hunter, 18, whose body was found Thursday on a little used road near here.

(By The Associated Press.) LUXOR, Egypt, Jan. 4.—The sarcophagus of Pharaoh Tutankhamon has been found in that monarch's tomb in the valley of Kinks, it was announced Friday. The long sought treasure of antiquity lay within the fourth casket. It is of white and red granite.

PERMITS ISSUED TOTAL $453,175

September Leads With Total Of $71,620—Building Activities Fall Below 1922 Mark.

Building permits issued by the city clerk's office during the year 1923 show that a total amount of $453,175 was expended on building activities for the year just ended. In comparison with permits issued the year before, last year's building was about half as much as for the year 1922. The total for 1922 was $857,424. During that year the First National Bank building, Dwyer building and Melach block were erected, which accounts for the big difference in the figures.

Parker Case Occupies Attention of Court

The case of Frank Parker, charged with having intoxicating liquors in his possession, occupied the entire morning session of the county court Friday and was continued through the afternoon session.

Mr. Parker, it is charged, was the owner of several cases of imported liquors found on his premises by officers in November. He is said to have denied that they belonged to him.

LOCATE OFFICE HERE

R. W. Griffith of Huntington, W. Va., and E. W. Millican, Jr., compose the firm of Griffith-Millican Company, which has opened an office in the First National Bank building at room 403. The office of this firm was formerly located in Orlando but upon Mr. Griffith's decision to make this city his home it was decided to move the office to Sanford. Mr. Griffith and associates will build a 200 room hotel here as has been previously announced.

CONFESSED SLAYER HANCED

(By The Associated Press.) FOLSOM, Calif., Jan. 4.—Alex A. Kels, confessed slayer of an aged-wandering worker near Lodi, Calif., Sept. 12 last, was hanged at state prison here Friday morning. He disappeared after the crime and his wife collected insurance on the assumption that he was dead himself.

Lake Makes Talk—Traffic Rules Have Been Drawn, Is Reported

A feature of Friday's Chamber of Commerce luncheon was a talk made by Forest Lake in which he expressed his deep appreciation for being honored by his fellow colleagues on the City Commission with the selection as mayor of Sanford for another year.

As mayor for this city for another year he expressed the desire for the hearty cooperation of members of the Chamber of Commerce in putting over problems that will confront them from time to time. He praised the work that the body had done during the year just passed and expressed belief that it would do still greater work during 1924.

He added that he believed that 1924 was going to be a great one in the history of Sanford and pledged his support toward making it such. At the conclusion of his talk, Mr. Lake was congratulated upon his reelection as mayor.

A report from the agricultural committee given by Mr. Hutchinson was to the effect that a request was to be made of all growers and shippers for contributions of color which will be given away to visitors at the Seminole county booth at Madison Square Garden. He said that the committee in charge of the exhibit hoped to have two carloads of celery donated for the purpose.

In regard to the proposed county bond issue to improve the roads of Seminole county, president Edward Higgins stated that a tentative plan for this had been drawn up by a special committee but it is being held until after the city bond election.

A committee appointed recently to draw up a set of traffic rules to be presented to the City Commission for its approval, reported that these rules had been turned over to City Attorney George D. DeGates.

It was announced that J. T. Bodwell, who recently became a property holder and resident of this city, has become a member of the Chamber of Commerce.

It was also reported that the city's offer to the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company of $1,500 toward extending of the brick movement for a parking space at the depot, had been turned down by the company. Reason being discussion on the subject was held without arriving at any definite decision as to what course the city should pursue in regard to the matter.

VOTERS ATTENTION.

According to information given out Friday, voters may pay poll taxes without having to pay their property tax. This statement was given out in order to correct a rumor that is prevalent that the latter must also be paid at this time.

According to Tax Collector John D. Jinkins, many voters have been in the habit of paying their poll taxes at the time that they pay their property taxes and for that reason some voters have become confused in the matter.

JUST IN PASSING

BY R. J. HOLLY.
 The man who 'railroad' have my sympathy and my friendship at all times. Somehow or other, they seem to have about the same troubles that an editor has and this means the railroad men from the highest position to the man who looks after the tracks. It is a great game and those men who risk their lives every day and night deserve a lot of credit and kind words. On New Year's Day, the A. C. L. officials reinstated a bunch of men who had been suspended since last April for having wrecks, etc. It was a nice New Year's present to the men and I rejoice with their many friends that they are back at the old jobs again.

And speaking of the railroad men reminds me of one man who always wears a smile even though his job is heavy with responsibility and that is Chief Despatcher R. L. Peck. He is a busy man day and night, but I never have asked him for a favor that he did not grant it and it was some bother to him at the time, but he always comes up smiling and some day I hope he is made president of the Atlantic Coast Line. His smile is worth a million dollars.

Jacksonville is following Sanford's lead and making preparations for a municipal boat basin for the protection and convenience of the visiting tourists and yachtsmen. This will be a step in the right direction and will help bring these good folks up the St. Johns River to Sanford, where they will remain for the winter months and enjoy all of our many advantages Jacksonville can follow Sanford in many things and not go wrong.

Politics is warming up some around the edges and this week St. A. B. Wilkinson started out with some fine advertising in the shape of a circular with a picture of his little daughter who asks the public to "Vote For Her Daddy for County Judge." We are waiting for Judge Sharon, Judge Maines and Judge Leonard to break out with something soon, as they are all candidates for this office.

It is rumored that E. E. Brady will be an aspirant for the sheriff's office and if he does he will lend plenty of local color and fireworks to the campaign, for he is a stump speaker "from who laid the rail" and is never at a loss for something to say.

Among the many "Town Builders" is my old friend—or rather my young-old friend, T. J. Miller, who in the past five years has built more buildings than any man in Sanford. He is not afraid of the future, he is not afraid to build, and he is ready and willing to go as far as anyone in making this city bigger and better. As soon as I can I intend to write up a history of his life as it is an interesting story and well worth while.

It is surprising to note that the heavy trucks that use our roads so much have been urged to put on mirrors so they can see a car coming up from behind and give them the road. Formerly they would "hog the road" many times because they could not or would not hear the horn of the smaller cars. Now there is no excuse for this and we expect the trucks to get out of the way and let us pass.

Having heard nothing from the Athletic Field or the reduction in rates of the public utilities, I can only surmise that the committees and the city commissioners have not fully recovered from this year's festivities. But it is time you were getting busy on these important items, gentlemen, and not wait for any more public clamor. It is so easy to stop the "quacks" if you would only act quickly and follow the dictates of your own conscience.

PLENTY OF PUMPKINS

By Helen Harrington Downing

Anyone who has ever lived in England or ever passed the time there will tell you that Pumpkin Pie is a great favorite. We can trace it back to the Colonial Days and the times when Thanksgiving dinner was a festival to which everyone long looked forward.

Don't Lose Sight of the Food Value of Your Bakings

Plain flour has a large amount of food value but it must be combined with good baking powder in order to retain this value.

Most self rising flours are not successful because they do not raise the bakings to the proper lightness. This means a certain loss of nutrition because they are heavy and hard to digest.

Every time you eat food that does not properly digest you do not get the full nutritional value—you are over-taxing your stomach. Nourishing and perfect bakings are what good health demands. The one sure way is—use pure flour and good baking powder.

If you want to find what thousands of housewives have learned—make some biscuits with self-rising flour—then make some with good plain flour and Calumet Baking Powder—notice the great difference. One trial will satisfy you. Your health demands that you make the experiment.

Those who know—millions of housewives, domestic science teachers, big hotels, restaurants, bakeries and railroads will not use anything but Calumet, the Economy Baking Powder.

Play safe—use Calumet and plain flour. It is the most economical and satisfactory, where light, wholesome and pure foods are desired.

PACKED IN TIN—KEEPS STRENGTH IN

that hot mince pie, apple or pumpkin pie is occasionally present at the morning meal. After living in New England three years myself, I will add that they certainly know how to make pie. In the home where I boarded while teaching in the East a whole pie was placed on the table twice and frequently three times a day. Not only were we given one pie but often two kinds formed the center piece from which we could take our choice and eat our own piece.

In the Eastern states the people look forward for weeks to Thanksgiving and Christmas, especially those living on the large farms and in the old-fashioned city houses. With plenty of room to entertain the entire family there is no festival day that offers a better opportunity for a glorious time.

To see a load of golden pumpkins that the farmers gather in from the fields each fall takes one back to the days of Jack o' Lanterns and the early memories of visits to grandparents on the farm.

In the city the average housewife usually finds it easier to purchase a good brand of the canned pumpkin than to purchase the pumpkin itself, peel and cook it for hours, then can it to be used as a later day, to make it into pie and pudding, but on the farm where they are plentiful, it is preferable to prepare one's own.

There are several points to know about this canned product which are most valuable to remember. Canned pumpkin is cheaper than any other pie filling and considerably cheaper than practically all other canned foods.

Pumpkin pies have but one crust, requiring but half the flour used in other pies. The use of one level teaspoon of baking powder to each cup of flour for a light flaky crust is advisable.

Pumpkin may also be used in puddings where no crust is necessary.

Plain Pie Paste.
3 cups flour
1-2 level teaspoon baking powder
1 level teaspoon salt
2-4 cup lard
Cold water

Sift together dry ingredients thoroughly. Work in lard with knife or spatula. Moisten to a dough with cold water. Put lightly on floured board, and roll thin, ready for use.

Note: Pie crust is often made without baking powder, but it requires much skill and practice, as well as more shortening to make it tender and flaky. And when a plainer and more economical crust is desired, the use of a little baking powder will produce the results required. If pastry flour is used the results will be found more satisfactory.

Pumpkin Pie
1-1/2 cups pumpkin
2-3 cup corn and cane syrup
1 teaspoon ginger

TO ALL PACKING HOUSES

We are in receipt of a wire today from our California connections advising that there was a heavy frost in Los Angeles and that there might be exaggerated reports put out about the damage done; however, they advised that in the "Pomona, Covina uplands and San Dimas sections oranges showed ice on extreme limbs and low spots. Lemons considerably damaged. Corona, Riverside, Highlands, and Orange County no damage, warning up today."

From the above it appears that some damage has been done in certain sections and if ice showed in fruit the probability is that there will be considerable culling in those sections on account of fruit drying and that the crop will be considerably reduced. At the present time there is no reason to believe that there will not be considerable fruit coming forward from California. However, with the recent wind damage and cold the crop will be cut several thousand cases.
