They have to go back a year to understand why. And back, too, through the years which have made the Yankees a baseball legend.

Then the final ingredient is a fellow named Lou Burdette of the Milwaukee Braves.

Halfbacks Get Headlines In SEC's Opening Tiffs

By DAVID M. MOFFITT
United Press International

ATLANTA (UPI)—If Saturday's action was a clear indication, there's going to be a white-hot battle for the all-star halfback posts in the Southeastern Conference this fall.

Halfbacks took most of the headlines. Among the weekend's standouts were Bobby Cravens of Kentucky, Don Deal of Florida, Billy Cannon of Louisiana State and David Ray of Vanderbilt.

Cravens, a senior who was second in SEC rushing last fall, slogged through the mud for 153 yards in 20 carries to lead Kentucky to a 13-0 win over Georgia Tech. One of his runs went for 45 yards and a touchdown.

Deal, a sophomore, spearheaded Florida's 34-14 victory over Tulane. Deal scored early in the game on 12 yards in play, then romped 67 yards for another touchdown in the second period.

Cannon didn't score but turned in long runs in the second and third periods to set up two of LSU's touchdowns in the Tigers' 26-6 romp over Rice, defending Southeastern Conference champion.

Ray, a senior who has been mainly a reserve in the past, furnished the spark for Vanderbilt's 12-8 win over Missouri by dashing 81 yards with a punt return to score in the first period.

Georgia lost to Texas 13-8 Saturday night but in defeat uncovered a bright sophomore quarterback—Franklin Tarkenton.

Georgia's 24-year-old slugger hit a two-run double in a four-run fifth inning and then eluded his 30th homer with one on in the seventh.

The homer proved the decisive wallop when the Redlegs hammered out southpaw Warren Spahn with a five-run burst in the bottom of the seventh.

The second-place Pirates officially were eliminated while sitting in their hotel rooms last night because of rain.

Willie Mays boosted his league-leading average to .342 with a single and a double in three official trips as the Giants beat the Cardinals, 7-4, and Sandy Koufax of the Dodgers picked up his 11th victory with a 2-1 decision over the Cubs.

Baltimore defeated the American League champion Yankees for the third straight time, 3-2; Boston blanked Washington, 7-0; Chicago blanked Kansas City, 2-1, and Cleveland beat Detroit, 11-1.

TWO IN A ROW . . . . . By Alan Mauer

FRED HANEY, MILWAUKEE PILOT, HOPE TO MATCH HIS VICTORY NUMBER BY BECOMING THE FIRST NATIONAL LEAGUE MANAGER IN 36 YEARS TO WIN 2 WORLD SERIES IN A ROW.

Auburn Coach Hits 2-Platoon System

AUBURN, Ala. (UPI)—Auburn Football Coach Ralph Shug Jordan today denounced the trend toward two-platoon football because "it robs the players of the educational value of the game."

The Tiger coach, whose team was undefeated and untied last year despite a rugged Southeastern Conference schedule, said: "There is no doubt about it. We are gradually going back to the two-platoon system and we at Auburn are definitely against it."

"The new rule which allows a boy to enter the game eight times, or twice in any quarter, paves the path for clear cut offensive and defensive units. And many of the schools are planning to play an offensive and defensive squad."

Jordan, whose winless record in seven years as a head coach ranks him 15th in the nation on percentage, blasted the change on a "small group of active coaches who never stopped fighting since the two-platoon system was outlawed."

He said his main objection is that "it robs boys of the educational value of the game. We will again be turning to the specialist, the boy who can only be exploited on one or two plays."

"This means that the offensive specialist does not have to pay the price of learning how to tackle or provide pass protection. The same goes for the boy who plays only defense. He doesn't get a chance to run with the ball or learn down field blocking."

Jordan said Auburn would "probably like to run for one point rather than run for two points after a touchdown is scored."

"We've always had trouble making those last three or four yards and by kicking we're almost sure of another point," he said.

Under the new rule change — described by Jordan as "poor" — a team can choose to kick or run on the conversion play with two points awarded for running the ball across from three yards out.

Chicago Bears Off To Fast Start In Pre-Season Action

United Press International
Keep your eye on the Chicago Bears when they start playing football in the National Football League next Sunday.

The one-time monsters of the midway were the only team to come through the pre-season grind unbeaten—completing their exhibition schedule with an uphill 22-21 victory over the Washington Redskins Sunday in a nationally televised game.

Only one other club wound up with better than a 300 mark in the tuneups. The Los Angeles Rams finished with a 4-2 record—polishing off the Pittsburgh Steelers, 31-6, in their pre-season finale.

The most disappointing records were turned in by the defending champion Detroit Lions, who lost four of six exhibitions, including that humiliating setback by the College All-Stars, and the New York Giants, the 1957 champions, who dropped their last five games after winning their opener.

The Cleveland Browns, picked to rule the Eastern Division again this season, had to settle for a 3-3 record, along with the Redskins, Philadelphia Eagles and San Francisco 49ers. The pre-season records of the other clubs were Chicago Cardinals (3-2), Baltimore Colts (2-1), Green Bay Packers (2-3) and Pittsburgh (2-4).

College Teams Gambling On 2-Point Extra Point

By FRED DOWN
United Press International

The first results are in on college football's new optional extra point play and they indicate a surprising trend to gamble for two points instead of playing it safe for one.

A United Press International survey of 20 major games Saturday showed the coaches tried the two-point pass-run conversion 58.2 per cent of the time with a .521 percentage of success. The "safe" one-point kick proved successful 51.3 per cent of the time.

There were a total of 103 touchdowns scored in the 20 games surveyed. The teams tried pass-run conversions 59 times and were successful 31 times, and tried conventional kicks 44 times and were successful 27 times. The trend indicates the controversial new two-point play will become increasingly popular because there is almost as good a chance to get the two points as there is to score one.

Perfection Leads Sandspur Bowling

The women's bowling league (Sandspur) has completed its third week of action.

With the necessary number of sponsors, the league is off to a fine start.

Last week's action saw Perfection Baiters jump into an early lead with 10 wins, two losses. Perfection's opponent, Wilson-Maier, had the toughest luck of the evening. Wilson-Maier had the highest team single game, 644, but still lost all four points due to the handicap.

The highest individual scratch game, 15, was rolled by Shirley Simas, as was the highest handicap, 198. Highest individual series, scratch, 446, and handicap, 508, was rolled by Helen Gerbis.

Tomorrow night's action sees Wilson-Maier against Wade's Market, Roundtable & Anderson versus ABC Garbage Service and Robson versus Perfection.

'Bush' Milwaukee Celebrates Again As Heroes Return

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI)—New York Yankee standards, the people here are still "Bush" league as ever.

"Bushville" still goes rany when the Milwaukee Braves win a pennant.

A throng of 20,000 was at Gen. Mitchell Airport Sunday night when the Braves returned home from Cincinnati where a last-hour before they had won their second straight National League pennant with a 4-5 victory over the Redlegs.

Downtown, horns honked, hankies squawked and college students danced in the street far into the night.

The spontaneous merry-making for the Braves started a few seconds after Billy Brant made the final out at Cincinnati. Within minutes, special police were busy keeping a steady stream of honking cars moving down Wisconsin Avenue, the city's main street.

The sidewalks, which were at most empty a short time before, soon resembled a busy shopping day.

Mayor Frank Zeidler led the throng on the sidewalk and "extended heartfelt best wishes to each member of the Braves for victory in the coming World Series."

Gov. Vernon Thomson, a few miles away from an Air National Guard ceremony, quipped he was "ready" if the Braves needed him in the Series.

"I am certain that all Wisconsin joins me in expressing our admiration to the players and management for bringing Wisconsin a second time in success to a National League pennant," Thomson said.

Mainland To Face Attack If Quemoy Is Endangered

Nationalists Seek Permission To Hit Shore Batteries

TAIPEI, Formosa (UPI)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and Adm. Hsiao Felt, commander of U. S. Pacific forces, met in secret for more than six hours today.

There were reports China was seeking U. S. permission to bomb Communist mainland artillery bases opposite Quemoy.

Informed sources said the two men discussed how far the United States will go to defend the besieged Quemoy and a Washington warning that America would unleash Nationalist bombers if the offshore islands were about to fall.

Nationalists thus far have retaliated against the massive four-week bombardment of the Quemoy only with artillery dug in on the island. There were unconfirmed reports the Nationalists had sent in larger artillery pieces but news from Quemoy has been blacked out.

Fear Shooting War U. S. and Nationalist military officials agree the only way to stop the shelling is to bomb the Communist artillery. But this step has not been taken, apparently in belief the Reds would send their bombers over Formosa and directly involve the United States in a shooting war.

Seriousness of the Formosa crisis was reflected in the list of those conferring Monday and today on new military moves to end the Red blockade of Quemoy and ease the Nationalist position. The conferees were:

Gen. Laurence Keiser, commander of U. S. Pacific air forces; Ambassador Everett Drumright; Vice Adm. Roland Smoot, U. S. Taiwan (Formosa) Defense commander; Nationalist Premier Chen Cheng; Defense Minister Yu T'ai-wei; Chief of Staff Gen. (Tiger) Wang Shu-min and the Nationalist army, navy, air force and marine commanders.

In the past, the state has had a large cash surplus to tide it over these low income periods. But record expenditures this year, along with the failure of taxes to come up to expectations, has eaten away all the reserve. The winter's freeze and national business slump also hurt.

Green predicted another 10 million dollars precisely will have to be borrowed in the other half of the year. He said all of it can be repaid in March when heavy tax collections begin to pour in.

Negro Is Charged Freddie Ashley, Sanford Negro, Rt. 1, Box 10, was arrested last week by Sanford Police Lt. Joe Hickson and officer C. C. Doston and charged with stealing 16 bottles of Scotch whiskey from the Goldsboro Bar Sunday night.

Division leaders of the United Fund campaign met last night at the Florida State Bank to learn from Howard McCully, chairman of the drive, the plan of organization and allocation of quotas to reach the 1958 goal of $16,000, to be reached by Oct. 31.

Key presentations were made by David C. Adkins, the Children's Home Society of Florida, and Don Doyle, field representative of the American Red Cross. Both talks were made by George Touhy, immediate past president of the U. S. and by incumbent president Harold Kastner.

Adkins pointed out that "Every one should realize that United Fund is a community effort and each member of the community—in this case Seminole County—should assume a responsibility for doing his best."

The Children's Home Society officer said that each person could give at least one hour's pay each month and still not be making a sacrifice for the good causes for public welfare that make up the agencies of the U. F.

"The united way of giving," said Adkins, "is the least expensive way to raise this money. Instead of the expenses of promotion and the valuable time given by business leaders in seven cash drives,

UN Hit By Bitter Clash On Seating Of Red China

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI)—The General Assembly was expected to vote today on Communist China's claim to a U. N. seat, but once again it appeared Peking had shot itself out of a membership.

Western diplomats predicted defeat for the move to seat Communist China after one of the bitterest exchanges to date between Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko and U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge.

Gromyko injected the Formosa crisis into early debate and Lodge demanded in turn that Moscow cease its influence to get the Chinese to accept the U. N. seat.

Points To Red Slavery Gromyko accused Washington of "direct interference in the affairs of countries" and of "imposing its will" on them.

"There is no country on the face of this earth that has ever been enslaved by the United States. It will become the Soviet Union with its record of slavery to make such charges against us," Lodge replied.

Lodge repeated the "trailing circles of the United States." Here again he is confusing our situation with his in this country the people have managed to get up to the top of the slippery pole who are giving orders to execute this brutality or that."

State Will Borrow Idle Trust Funds; Ready Cash Needed TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—The state will have to dip into idle trust funds for some 10 million dollars next month to replenish its dwindling treasury, according to Comptroller Jay E. Green.

The state will run out of ready cash in October, Green predicted Monday. He said borrowing from the trust accounts is authorized by law, and seems the only way to keep the state from going in the red.

An alternate would be to let the state's creditors, school teachers and welfare recipients wait a couple of months for their money.

But the state's budget officials have pledged that all such obligations be paid on time.

Green said the state is always low on income between July and January because many of the big revenue producers, such as auto license tax fees, do not come in in large amounts until February and March.

U. S. Warn Reds Of Bombing Raids If Island Totters

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United States has warned Communist China that if Quemoy were about to fall this country would unleash a Nationalist bombing raid on Red mainland artillery positions, if informed sources indicated.

Should the Nationalists be unable to silence the big guns alone, then American jets would join the attack.

The sources said late Monday United States was believed to have passed the warning to the Chinese Reds during the Warsaw, Poland, talks between U. S. Ambassador Jacob Beam and Communist Chinese Ambassador Wang Pingnan.

The United States apparently was trying to remove any doubt the Communists might have as to U. S. intentions regarding defense of Nationalist-held Quemoy, just a few miles off the Red mainland.

The United States was said to want to establish a definite "point-of-no-return" in the conflict, beyond which U. S. forces would enter the fight on the side of the Nationalists.

At the same time, State Department spokesman Lincoln White said he did not believe a new and exhaustive U. S. statement on Formosa would contain any basic policy changes.

The statement, expected to be released later this week, was said to be aimed at defining this country's short and long-term aims as regards Formosa.

Judge Denies Plea Of Norfolk Board

BALTIMORE, Md. (UPI)—A federal appeals judge today denied the Norfolk, Va., school board's last ditch attempt to prevent racial integration of its white high and junior high schools.

But Chief Judge Simon E. Sullo of the U. S. 4th Circuit Court of Appeals told Norfolk School Board attorneys he would hear their plea for a stay of an integration order "in less than two weeks."

He said he could not grant a stay in advance of a hearing but offered to call a special session of the court later this week, if necessary.

The Norfolk board made no comment on whether it would ask for an early hearing or whether it would admit if Negro students to its six white junior and senior high schools immediately if it admitted the Negroes, it would automatically close the schools, depriving some 10,000 children of public education in Norfolk.

Red Paper Attacks Rejection Of Note

MOSCOW (UPI)—A leading Soviet official newspaper charged today that President Eisenhower's rejection of Premier Nikita Khrushchev's latest note on Formosa was a "diplomatic provocation" in the history of international relations.

The newspaper Sovietskaya Rossiya said the rejection did not take "mach bams" and was followed by a White House statement stepped in "cynicism, hypocrisy and shamelessness."

In a lengthy and exceptionally sharp editorial attack, the newspaper also said it once more that the Communist world had nuclear weapons "as well as intercontinental rockets" to use against "the aggressors."

"The United States must withdraw their troops from the Taiwan Strait or they will find that the wrath of the great Chinese people is not a healthy thing for the U. S.," the newspaper warned.

It's Time To Renew Chamber's Strength

The Seminole County Chamber of Commerce will start its membership drive Oct. 15. However, the announcement that it is time to renew memberships in this organization should make a drive unnecessary.

The Chamber of Commerce is a valuable spokesman for Sanford and Seminole County. It is the voice of the businessman, the professional man and woman, the average person. It is the means through which all of these people speak as a group.

The individual merchant does not have the time, nor the authority, to speak for the population of this county. When a new business or industry seeks information about Sanford or Seminole County, the Chamber of Commerce has the facts.

While serving as the "combined" voices of the county's residents, the Chamber of Commerce ever is seeking to bring more wealth to the community. It is the full-time spokesman for all of the county. Its jobs are too numerous to list.

An active Chamber of Commerce can be one of a community's strongest assets. An engineer, surveying a Southern city as a possible industrial location, once said that the company he represented would not consider a city for a plant if the city did not have a strong Chamber of Commerce and a good newspaper.

The Chamber of Commerce depends upon member participation for its life. It can be as strong, or weak, as Seminole County residents want it. The Chamber deserves the support of everyone eligible for membership. It would be a nice gesture of appreciation if local citizens would put the drive "over the top" before the campaign opens.

USO Needs Help

The USO in Sanford is in need of more local support. This was brought out by the various officials who attended a meeting here last week.

Chief object of the USO here, and other places, is the "go-between" for a community and nearby military installations. It is through the USO that men in service have an opportunity to meet local citizens. The USO also affords the community an opportunity to make these servicemen welcome while they are on a tour of duty here.

In short, the USO is the "home away from home" for men in service. It is the chief means of contact between military personnel and a community's citizens.

The Rev. Nilhus Hubble, in speaking for stronger support for the USO, said: "The GI's are starved for attractive foods prepared especially with them in mind." Rev. Hubble suggested that a rotation system might be worked out with local churches sponsoring an occasional supper for servicemen.

Lacking an active USO, military personnel usually seek a larger city in their off-duty time. This is to be expected. After five or six days on the military reservation, the weekend is appealing, if there is somewhere to go and something to do.

Many of the men stationed in Sanford have homes and families here. Others, not too numerous, have no ties with the community, except through the USO. Let us make them welcome.

Adult Education Response Heavy

Classes in "Conversational Spanish" and "Fundamentals of Investing" received a "gratifying response" last week when more than 50 persons registered for both classes.

Sessions are still open for registrants and will meet each Monday at 7:30 p. m. in Seminole High School. The only charge is a $1 fee and the cost of workbooks.

Joseph Mathews, ceramics instructor, conducts classes on Tues.

Too Late To Classify

By Russell Kay

Upwards of 200 of the nation's top flight credit experts will get together at the Americana Hotel in the Bal Harbor section of Miami Beach on the week of September 29 to take a long look at one of the most important factors in the American economy, the state of consumer credit.

The increasing importance of Florida in the credit picture of the nation is evidenced by the fact that for the second time in three years the National Consumers Finance Association is holding its annual convention in this state. The group will be welcomed by Owen Fubank of Daytona Beach, president of the Florida Consumers Finance Association, host to the convention.

These credit experts of the NCFCA represent the vast majority of more than 10,000 licensed small loan and installment finance offices in the United States and Canada.

The entire consumer finance industry is just about a half century old. Its beginnings were in 1908, when the Russell Sage Foundation, a non-profit social service organization, became interested in the problem of small borrowers who were at that time paying illegal lenders rates up to 1,000 per cent per year.

As a result of the foundation's careful research our present small loan laws were set up. Today 40 states have such laws patterned on the foundation's recommendations. In Florida the NCFCA has paved the nation in maintaining the highest business ethics standards, which has served as a model program for many other states.

As a result, millions of American families who otherwise would find it difficult to borrow funds for emergencies and for bettering their living standards, can today obtain funds for these and other useful purposes through finance companies that operate under strict small loan laws.

To show just how much this industry has grown since those days when the Russell Sage Foundation came out with the uniform small loan law model, one out of every six families in the United States is today a customer of one of the offices of the industry. These offices handle about 40 per cent of all cash installment personal loans made in this country and last year the figure was above $5 billion.

The member firms of the NCFCA have been in a great measure responsible for the changing attitude toward credit in this country. Most economists agree that the increased availability to millions of American families who formerly were unable to secure credit through legitimate channels, is in a large measure responsible for the tremendous increase in the standard of living of our people.

Today our youngsters starting married life enjoy countless advantages that a few years ago were available to only the wealthy. Modern science and invention coupled with a sound credit system now makes it possible for the housewife to enjoy such things as refrigerators, washing machines and air conditioning in name a few.

There is another result of all this. Social scientists and economists have found that consumer credit, far from encouraging people to be extravagant, in many instances actually encourages thrift.

Many families unable to save up in advance to buy a product or service for cash, through installment obligations form a habit of financial discipline that serves them well in later life. They learn the value of good credit. They make a practice of working on a budget and train themselves to meet life's responsibilities.

The road map for Florida and the nation's credit future will be laid out at the NCFCA convention and the business community will have its eyes on Florida during this important meeting.

Editor, Sanford Herald
In behalf of the members of Seminole County Chapter 30, Disabled American Veterans, I wish to thank you for your very fine cooperation in publicizing our annual "Forget-me-not" event, which we held on Sept. 9. We feel sure that the part The Herald played did much to make this event successful.

We should also like to publicly thank Mayor Merle Warner for his interest and assistance in bringing this program to the attention of the public.

The funds received from this annual event make it possible for us to contribute our services to disabled veterans in distress. The members of the public who were forget-me-nots on Sept. 9 can be assured throughout the coming year that disabled veterans, their wives and orphans will benefit from their help. Thanking you again, I am,

Sincerely,
L. J. Aubry
Commander

Editor, Sanford Herald:
We want you to know how much we appreciate your efforts in assisting with the passage of the School Bond Issue. Your courtesy and cooperation will not be forgotten.

Sincerely yours,

Conning The News

By Virginia Conn, Herald Staff Writer

A "usually reliable" source—(have to say it that way, eh?)—I really mean this is almost straight from the horse's mouth, remarked recently that electronics companies are shopping for factory sites in Florida.

Orlando, of course, has nabbed some pretty big companies lately. But Orlando is outgrowing its potential. There are many arguments against moving an already-established company in a big city. And there is no denying that our neighboring town has become just that.

Central Florida is becoming more desirable to manufacturers as the years go by. We have land, we have water, we have relatively cheap labor. The climate is fairly stable, creating few heating problems in the winter and common-sense cooling ones during the summer. (At this stage of the heat, I couldn't agree more with those who are saying, "Oh, Yeah!")

A year ago, when the possibility of erecting new schools seemed remote, the idea of even attracting a company to this area seemed a vague dream. But with the passage of school bonds even if they need revision soon, the road has been cleared for industrial workers and their families.

Sanford must face the possibility that eventually the Naval Air Station will close. Local pressure kept it open once, but there is no doubt that the subject of closing the field will come up again before government officials.

A lot of people in Sanford think they live independently of the air station, but few of them are doing so. The way money is spread around the big payroll has in effect thrown sooner or later. Plans for the future must be formulated in case this closing should come about. A substitute, or several, would be needed. We need a large industry in Seminole County. We need one close enough to Sanford to keep our hands working hard to keep adequate stocks.

We also need to make our town and surrounding area attractive enough, both industry and residential-wise, to make the factory-site shoppers wish they could live here.

The Chamber of Commerce and our real estate and large tract agents can take care of the farmer. But the residential districts are up to the builders and citizens who live in them. The contractor has a responsibility to Sanford, as far as well-constructed, attractive office and home buildings are concerned. He should build so fast that many of his homes are left unoccupied, to become rental property because it is cheaper to buy a new home. Rental property often becomes neglected or abused, reflecting a down-at-the-heels look that blights an otherwise inviting neighborhood. Many tenants take excellent care of property, and I have no desire to get into a dispute with any one over this. But there is no denying that frequently, if there are many places for rent and the price is cheap, so is a tenant's regard for the premises.

The Seminole County resident, however, whether he rents or buys, bears the brunt of the blight if his neighborhood is not appealing. Straggly lawns, paintless siding and piles of junk soon would hide completely the natural beauty of Florida. Maintenance, no matter how simple, is within the reach of all of us. Neighbors will help, if only to enhance their own property.

Think how great it would be if someday a group of "shoppers" drove through Sanford and said, "This town is so attractive, we would be idiots not to establish our plant here."

End of sermon for today.

Miss Barbara Lowe Wed To Mr. Spirk

In a candlelight, double ring ceremony Saturday night, Miss Barbara Lowe became the wife of Chester Oren Spirk.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. Millard B. Lowe and the late Mr. Lowe. The groom is the son of Mrs. Luc Spirk and the late Mr. Spirk of Detroit, Michigan.

The ceremony was held in the First Methodist Church, Dr. J. H. Root, pastor of the Congregational Christian Church, officiated, assisted by Rev. T. C. O'Steen of the First Methodist Church.

Baskets of white chrysanthemums and white gladioli combined with potted phenacendron decorated the church. White tapers in branched candelabra entwined with ferns illuminated the altar. Each window held burning tapers. The family pews were marked with clusters of chrysanthemums and white gladioli.

Mrs. Albert Hickson was organist. Gene Kronjaeger, soloist, sang "Because" as pre-nuptial music and the "Lord's Prayer" as benediction.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, H. U. Sturdivant. She was radiant in a formal gown of clipped chantilly lace over tulle and taffeta. The pointed basque bodice had a scalloped sashina neckline delicately embroidered with sequins and pearls. Self-covered buttons closed the bodice. The long tapered sleeves ended in points over her hands. Diagonal panels formed points on the very full skirt over tiers of tulle ruffles. A coronet of sequins and pearls held her fingertip veil of imported silk illusion. She carried a white satin Bible topped with lilies of the valley and centered with a white orchid from which fell streamers of satin ribbons.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Robert Beckwith, bridesmaid was Mrs. Robert Kneth and bridesmaid was Miss Evelyn Caprioli.

These attendants wore ballerina length dresses of sheer Nile green. The empire bodice was edged-to-match lace with scalloped neckline and brief sleeves. The skirts were bouffant. They wore matching hairdresses in a double bun, as effect with short veil. White length gloves of white completed the outfits. They carried cascades of pink California asters.

Max Spirk, Detroit, Michigan, was his brother's best man. Harold Chapman, cousin of the bride, and John Spirk, brother of the groom, served as groomsmen. Bob Kneth and Billy Galley were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Lowe chose a melon lace

Luncheon Fetes Attendants And Recent Bride

Mrs. Forrest F. Engebretson and daughter Mrs. Robert E. Beckwith entertained Thursday with a bridesmaid luncheon in honor of the former Miss Barbara Lowe.

The home was attractively decorated in Nile green and pink to carry out the bride's color scheme. A beautiful bouquet of pale pink carnations centered the Nile green lace luncheon cloth. Tiny pink hearts were used as place markers.

During the luncheon the girls discussed many last minute plans for the wedding which took place Saturday. The bride presented the girls with white gloves which were to be worn during the wedding. The bride received her wedding invitations which had been hand-painted and framed.

Those present were: Miss Lowe, her mother, Mrs. Madeline Lowe, bridesmaid, Miss Evelyn Caprioli, bridesmaid, Mrs. Robert Kneth, matron of honor, Mrs. Robert Beckwith, and the hostess, Mrs. Forrest F. Engebretson.

American Women Like Wig Hairdos

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI)—It's getting so you can't tell the pompadour without a program.

All because of the wig hairdos which sprouted in Paris last year and now have become such an American fashion that Sears, Roebuck is selling them mail order.

"The wigs aren't a fad," said Danis Fleischer, treasurer of the Joseph Fleischer Co., which has been in other people's hair for 128 years. "They'll stay in style because they provide the solution to a problem plaguing 50 per cent of the female population—that of having fine, limp locks."

But women other than those with hair problems are wearing the new crowning glories covering their own, in colors ranging from a conservative brown to a startling red and white sandy stripe.

Some buy them just for kicks; others want a change of color without having to bleach or dye.

Still others, especially business women and busy socialites, find them an artificial camouflage for a head of real hair desperately in need of shampoo and set.

Wig makers can't produce statistics on overall sales of wigs, but Fleischer said his business has "tripled" since a year ago when Paris designer Hubert de Givenchy put wigs on models for Carla Sorens, Paris hairdresser, who now are doing a boom business internationally.

In More Colors

The first wigs were of genuine hair, most of it from Europe, but it didn't take long for the synthetics to move in. Today, a girl can buy a wig in nylon or dyed

Gallaghers See Japan

By Virginia Conn
Herald Staff Writer

"I saw only four women driving cars the whole time we were there." Thus spoke Mrs. Thomas Gallagher, who recently returned from a three month trip to Japan, where she and her husband visited Mrs. Gallagher's son, E. W. Southland, and his family.

"There were lots of cars, millions of bicycles and motor cycles, and evidently no traffic laws. Drivers blew the horn constantly—to let the pedestrian know he is coming, not because he has seen him. If you hit someone, it's your fault, even if he steps right in front of you."

The Gallaghers had a perfect right to be interested in all means of transportation. Conveyances played an important part in their trip which began in May when they took a bus to Seattle, Wash. from Sanford.

The trip to Yokohama was made on the General Anderson (MSTS), a transport ship which took the southern route through the Aleutians and the Bering Strait. The weather was frigid, reports Mrs. Gallagher. "We put on everything we had when it was necessary to go on deck."

The Sanford couple was met in Yokohama by the Southerlands and taken to Tokyo where the family had rented a four bedroom, two story house for the summer.

Mr. Southerland works for civil service in the army's communication center.

Like all good tourists, the Gallaghers visited famous shrines and showplaces, including the Kamakura Buddha. They were awed by the modern Japanese department stores, even though it took Mrs. Gallagher an hour to find a spool of thread. Drugstores were open on the street and held everything, surpassing even our super-drug store.

The Japanese on the street were well-dressed in western styles. The Gallaghers were impressed by their neat appearance. "Very few kimonos were to be seen except during the evening. But everyone wore the clothes." Heat and flies caused much discomfort during the two month stay. So the Gallaghers watched television, and found it irresistible. American films, "I Love Lucy," "The Lone Ranger," and "Sneaker" (with Japanese dubbed in), were great favorites. Japanese programs included copies of our "I've Got a Secret," "What's My Line," and the Perry Como show. Rock and roll music is all the rage, as it is in this country. Perry Como's emcee is a sexy looking man who sings in English. Another T. V. idol imitates Elvis Presley, from guitar to gyrations.

The Gallaghers found younger Japanese anxious to speak English, while the older generation is a sexy looking man who sings in English. Another T. V. idol imitates Elvis Presley, from guitar to gyrations.

Buckeyes Lead Football Poll

By EARL WRIGHT
United Press International
NEW YORK (UPI)—Ohio State, defending national and Big Ten football champion, topped the first weekly major college ratings of the United Press International Board of Coaches today although it does not open its season until Saturday.

The coaches gave coach Woody Hayes' Buckeyes, 1938 Rose Bowl champions and victors in 24 of their last 26 starts in the powerful Big Ten, 17 first-place votes and a total of 253 points. The Buckeyes open at home against Southern Methodist Saturday. Ohio State was narrowly edged by Auburn for the mythical national championship in the final 1937 ratings.

Seven of the teams in the top

10 have yet to open their schedules. Besides Ohio State, they are Oklahoma, Michigan State, Notre Dame, Auburn, Navy and Wisconsin.

Coach Bud Wilkinson's Oklahoma team, which rebounded to defeat Duke in the 1938 Orange Bowl game after Notre Dame snapped its 41-game winning streak last season, was second with four first-place votes and 220 points. Notre Dame was third with four first-place votes and 198 points.

Michigan State was next with three first-place votes and 192 points. Texas Christian, which opened with a 42-0 triumph over Kansas last Saturday, was fifth with two first-place votes and 187 points. Auburn was sixth with one first-place vote and 160 points.

Pittsburgh, which opened one of the nation's toughest schedules with an impressive 27-4 victory over UCLA, drew two first-place votes and 97 points for seventh place. Navy with 63 points, Wisconsin, 59 and Mississippi, 44, rounded out the first 10.

Each coach votes for 10 teams, listing them in the order in which he rates them. Points are distributed on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis for votes from first through 10th place.

Army, which opens its campaign Saturday against South Carolina, headed the second group with 40 points. Washington State, Louisiana State, Kentucky, South Carolina, Clemson, Purdue, Wake Forest, South Carolina and North Carolina rounded out this group in that order. Wake Forest and West Virginia, which was 21st with 16 points, divided the remaining two first-place votes.

In all, 39 teams received votes in the first ratings.

Braves Lose Jay For Series Duty

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI)— Rookie righthander Joey Jay is lost to the Milwaukee Braves for the World Series, so Manager Fred Haney must now decide between Tommie Bush or Carl Willey for his third game starter.

Jay's ring finger on his left hand was operated on Monday night by Dr. Bruce Brewer to repair a double fracture which Jay suffered last week when hit by a batted ball at St. Louis.

"Jay had the stuff to give the Yankees trouble," said a discouraged Haney, who apparently had planned to give Jay the third-game assignment if he looked good against Philadelphia tonight. Bush replaced Jay as the starter tonight.

Rush, with a 10-6 record, has been pitching well recently. Willey, who along with Jay and Juan Pizarro make up the Braves' pitching staff, is another possibility.

Haney has refused to name any of his Series starting pitchers, although it's certain Warren, Spahn and Lew Burdette will handle the first two games. It's a toss-up, however, which one will get the opening assignment here.

Except for Wes Covington's bad knee, the Braves were in generally good physical condition. Haney was hopeful three days of rest this week would strengthen Covington enough for full-time duty against the Yankees.

Fleming Cops Top Mayfair Honors

BILL Fleming won top honors for contests Sunday at the Mayfair Country Club when he copied prizes for clipping, putting and low medalist. Tied with Fleming for medalist were Bill Fouk and Sonny Powell.

Dave Canning won the driving competition with a 210 yard claim. The nine-hole point tournament was won by the team of Joe Leary, Mack Cleveland, W. K. Roberts and Bill Fouk.

Don Fuell Headed For Nebraska U.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI) Attorneys for football player Don Fuell today were undecided if he would carry on his unprecedented court fight to regain athletic eligibility. Fuell already was heading for the University of Nebraska.

Eric Embry, one of five attorneys who presented Fuell's case in an effort to have Circuit Judge J. Russell McElroy restore the former Auburn player's football eligibility, said "we will probably decide what to do about an appeal today."

Philly Fanning Bee Sets Records; Ashburn Leads

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International
That was quite a fanning bee in Philly, but in one could buzz the name of Richie Ashburn, who regained the National League batting lead with a .343 figure.

A total of 38 strikeouts—which set two major league records—were registered Monday night as the Phillies swept a two-night twin-bill from the Pirates. The Phils won the 13th-inning opener, 2-1, and the nightcap, 1-0.

Repubs Welcome Adams' Departure

By RAYMOND LAHR
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Republican congressional campaign chiefs today welcomed Sherman Adams' resignation as President Eisenhower's No. 1 assistant. They said it would prevent worsening of GOP prospects at the polls in November.

Democrats gleefully chortled "too late" and prepared to capitalize on Adams' dramatic TV defense of his activities by demanding equal time to "answer" the departing White House aide.

At least one network—the Columbia Broadcasting System—indicated it would grant the equal time, possibly tonight.

A Democratic National Committee spokesman said no decision had been reached on who would make the Democratic reply

Home Loan Rates Remaining Firm

By EDWARD COWAN
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Home loan interest rates are still unaffected by the recent tightening in the money market, top government and lending officials report.

Home buyers still can get a loan at rates well below a year ago. But the experts are agreed, the softening that prevailed in the early months of the year has definitely ended.

There are differences of opinion whether this firming of rates indicates the start of a new upward trend.

Chairman Albert J. Robertson of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board told United Press International he did not expect that interest charges on home mortgages would be significantly higher six months from now.

Some other experts were of the opinion that with the treasury scheduled to raise several billion dollars in new borrowing in coming months, even the sluggish "long" or mortgage end of the money market would feel the repercussions.

No Upward Trend
According to the Federal Housing Administration, for instance, conventional mortgage rates showed no upward movement in August. The volume of applications for FHA insurance, one official said, continued strong enough into early September to preclude any inference that the 5 1/2 per cent maximum FHA rate is becoming less competitive.

Outlook Uncertain
"A lot will depend," one authoritative analyst said, "on whether and how much the treasury borrowing will be financed with the federal reserve banks and on how much is financed with private investors."

The FHA did report one sign of some slight tightening in August, but only in the secondary market. There the average discount on certain FHA mortgages increased from 30 cents per $100 on Aug. 1 to 90 cents on Sept. 1.

General belief here is that if the treasury raises most of its money outside the federal reserve system, then it will:

- Siphon off investment funds that might otherwise flow into industrial and home financing.
- Force interest rates up by making its own offers attractive enough to assure raising the sums it seeks.

For the time being, however, prospective home buyers who will be taking out mortgages are protected by the traditional lag characteristic of changes in mortgage lending. It is this lag, the experts say, that has kept the price of mortgage money fairly steady in recent weeks while other interest charges have been climbing.

Pardon Board Schedules Hearing On Noted Cases

ATLANTA (UPI)—The Georgia Pardon Board has set a parole hearing Oct. 21 for Rosa Lee Ingram, a Negro widow whose conviction of killing a white sharecropper caused a racial furor.

The board also will consider freeing her son Wallace, 21, and Sammie Lee, 23, who with their mother were convicted of murdering John Hinton Stratford, 66, on Nov. 14, 1941, in Southwest Georgia.

Admitted Slaying
The Negro and white families shared adjacent portions of the C. M. Hillinger farm in Shelby County, some 31 miles from Dawson in Terrell County, scene of the most recent controversy over the civil rights of Georgia Negroes.

Stratford's wife found his body about halfway between his and the Ingram's home. The mother and son admitted one or more of them killed him; later charged details of their statements several times.

Hottest Review
Despite three pilgrimages by members of the Women's Committee for Equal Justice and a stir by other groups, no one took any legal steps to gain freedom for the Ingrams. Now, after 10 years, their cases are coming up for routine review.

Chiefman Hugh Gaines of the state board previously has told its parole board on grounds that

Psychology Obtains Hidden Answers

By DELOS SMITH
UPI Science Editor
NEW YORK (UPI)—To answer a much argued question, here is an up-to-date outline of what the science of psychology can find out about the mental workings of any person whether or not he wants to reveal them or if he himself knows them. He has to sit still for psychological tests, of course.

Dr. Robert C. Harlow and Leonard F. Saitman of the University of Rochester, who made the outline, warned that psychological tests are never infallible, particularly those designed to find out what kind of person any given person is. They're limited, they said with the humility of scientists, by the "incompleteness" of science's knowledge of all the things which go into making people tick.

Given these limitations, "psychological tests will 'infer' how a person both controls and expresses his underlying drives and impulses, and they will show precisely how he adapts himself to reality and how he defends himself when reality gets too rough."

Surplus Navy Jets' Use On Playgrounds Debated

By Patricia McCormack
United Press International
NEW YORK (UPI)—A playground worth its salt these days has swings, slides and a surplus Navy jet.

Dr. Robert C. Harlow and Leonard F. Saitman of the University of Rochester, who made the outline, warned that psychological tests are never infallible, particularly those designed to find out what kind of person any given person is. They're limited, they said with the humility of scientists, by the "incompleteness" of science's knowledge of all the things which go into making people tick.

But a lively argument is going on among experts about the wisdom of placing a "symbol of war" on a par with sand-boxes and other childish delights.

Dr. Harlow agreed that a certain amount of "letting out"—which is what the children do in jets—can be a constructive way out for them.

By the time the surplus jets are strewn across the nation, the U.S. navy had dozens of requests for planes. An estimated 40 jets have been assigned to playgrounds and more than 200 other playgrounds—municipal and school—want jets.

Dr. Harlow said that children's recreation department had been unable to interest—up to them, it got them off the streets and into the playground.

Admitted Slaying
The Negro and white families shared adjacent portions of the C. M. Hillinger farm in Shelby County, some 31 miles from Dawson in Terrell County, scene of the most recent controversy over the civil rights of Georgia Negroes.

Feud Flares Anew In Lebanon; U. S. Marines Intercede

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI) — U. S. Marine tanks and riflemen moved between two feuding Lebanese factions today after an American military police post got caught in cross-fire between the rival groups.

No shots were exchanged between the Americans and Lebanese. The Lebanese army issued orders at the same time to shoot armed civilians on sight in an attempt to stave off civil strife.

Rifle and automatic fire crackled through the streets of Beirut all morning in the worst violence since U. S. forces landed in Lebanon in July.

President Fuad Chehab acting through the military police chief, demanded that the fighting with the shot-on-sight order. He also sent tanks to the main trouble spot.

The American forces moved in to help maintain security after firing between civilians endangered some American installations. Some of the exchanges had forced Marines Charles Moore of Wake Mills, Iowa to take cover behind a wall. Moore and Butler had been directing traffic as military policemen.

When the Marine armor tank back over the intersection, the firing ceased.

Throughout the city this morning, feuding Christians and Muslims machine-gunned and burned vehicles on the day preceding the anniversary of the birth of the Prophet Mohammed.

Helene Builds Up; Course Uncertain

MIAMI (UPI) — Tropical storm Helene built up to near hurricane force today as it shipped the Atlantic Ocean with 70 mile-an-hour winds some 500 miles east of Palm Beach, Fla.

Chief Forecaster Gordon Dunn predicted Helene would reach full hurricane strength of 75 miles an hour or more later today.

"Tropical storm Helene has an degenerate slow but steady intensification during the past 24 hours," Dunn said, "and highest winds are estimated at 60 to 70 miles per hour."

"Continuation of the gradual increase in intensity is expected."

One ship near the center early this morning reported winds of about 120 miles per hour.

Dunn said Helene was moving into a trough of light variable winds, which made its future course uncertain. But he said it probably would be in a general northwesterly direction.

U. S. Plans New Debate On China If Talks Fail

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI) — Diplomats predicted today the United Nations will launch a new China debate next month unless current U. S. Communist talks in Warsaw show some quick sign of success.

The Communists already have written off the Warsaw talks as "merely empty words," making significant results unlikely.

The general assembly disposed of the first phase of the "grand debate" on China Tuesday when it agreed to shelve for the duration of the current session proposals to oust the Chinese Nationalists or test the Chinese Communist final vote.

The final vote to adopt the recommendation of the Steering Committee, which had approved a U. S. proposal to shelve the representation issue, was 44-28 with 9 abstentions. Last year's vote on a similar proposal was 48-25 with 6 abstentions.

'Bugs In Chariot' Delay Moon Trip

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (UPI) — The commander of the Cape Canaveral, Fla., missile test operations said before a man is shot to the moon "all the bugs will have to be out of the chariot."

Maj. Gen. Donald S. Yates addressed 600 Kiwanians Tuesday at a Kentucky-Tennessee district convention.

He said a man can be shot into space "within a very short time" but getting him to the moon is "a long way off."

General Yates said those who shoot the first man to the moon from the U. S. want to be convinced that "he will have a pretty good chance to get there and back."

He told reporters that getting a rocket to the moon "is not a seriously difficult job, but we expect to encounter failures because of the state of development of our missiles."

Two Senators Hit Far East Policy; On 'Brink' Again

BY STEWART HENSLY
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Two Democratic senators critical of the administration's Far East policy said today in a joint statement Tuesday night it was "highly unlikely that we can break the Communist blockade of Quemoy without the use of atomic weapons."

Sens. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) and Joseph S. Clark (D-Pa.) also said they hoped Ambassador Jacob Beam in Warsaw could negotiate a cease-fire at Quemoy and "the orderly withdrawal of Chinese Nationalist forces."

Humphrey and Clark said in their statement that loss of Quemoy would have no effect on the defense of Formosa and "we have accordingly been dragged to the brink of war again for no purpose remotely connected with our national security."

Moscow, Warsaw, Britain — They said that if the Warsaw talks with Communist China fail, "we should immediately call on the United Nations to bring out a cease fire followed by a military evacuation" of Quemoy.

At Taipei, Formosa, meanwhile, the United States and Nationalist Chinese were reported in full accord on policy in the Quemoy crisis. In another development, a Moscow Radio broadcast warned Britain that backing the United States in any attack on Communist China would bring the same nuclear retaliation the Russians have threatened against America.

State Department Spokesman Lincoln said late Tuesday the United States and Nationalist Chinese "have used the utmost restraint in the face of continued provocation by the Chinese Communists" in the Formosa Strait controversy.

Diapers To Eat, Okay; To Dance, Trousers Needed

NEW DELHI, India (UPI) — The government took the stand today that it is all right for persons wearing Gandhi-style diapers to eat in Indian hotels, but that they should wear trousers if they want to dance.

"If Indian" snorted opposition members of Parliament.

"The question arose when it was reported that a today wearing a loin cloth like that spotted by the late Mahatma K. Gandhi in 1942, had been refused admission to the luxurious, government-managed Ashoka Hotel here."

Deputy Housing Minister A. K. Chandra explained that the man was told he could wear the loin cloth to dine, but would not be put on more formal clothes if he wanted to dance.

The opposition was quick to denounce the government stand.

Prepare For Space Age, Florida Educators Told

MELBOURNE (UPI) — One of the nation's top civilian missile men said today the government, educators, industry and the public must work to eliminate the "weak spots" in the nation's education system if American youth is to be prepared properly for the space age.

B. G. MacNabb, manager of the Atlas Intercontinental Ballistic Missile program at Cape Canaveral, told Florida educators that "all too frequently, the funds allocated and the policies established by our government agencies are dictated by political considerations rather than by the need for improving our school system."

"If the nation is to maintain its position in the space age," MacNabb said, "the educator must have the authority, the interest, the knowledge and the cour-

Observers Credit Use Of Missiles

United Press International
TAIPEI, Formosa (UPI) — Three Nationalist Sabrejets fought their way out of a Communist trap over the China mainland and shot down 11 Communist Mig-15s and probably destroyed 6 others today in a battle with 100 enemy planes over the Formosa Strait.

The Nationalist air force reported no losses among the Sabrejets in the biggest aerial battle of the Quency war. Three were among limited reports the Nationalists used new American air-to-air missiles to track up the Communists.

The Nationalist Sabrejet pilots slugged their way out of the Communist trap in a battle that matched some of the great engagements of the Korean War when American pilots flying F-86 Sabrejets scored a 12 to 1 ratio over Communist Mig-15s.

General I. Nationalist air force intelligence director, was asked how the 22 Sabrejets could take on the supposedly superior Mig-15s in combat and defeat them so thoroughly. He referred newsmen to the record of American airmen in Korea when superior training was rewarded with the victory.

While the planes battled through the skies Communist artillery kept up a half-hour bombardment of the Quemoy.

Give Youth Cause, Billy Graham Asks

CHARLOTTE (UPI) — Billy Graham once drove a jeep with a crossbar hanging from the bumper down the sidewalks of Charlotte.

It was a youthful prank, and the angelist reminded adults in his Charlotte crusade audience of 14,500 Tuesday night not to forget the fun and pranks of youth in meeting the problems of teen-agers today. He said, however, that "teen-agers the world over are looking for a cause."

They are finding the cause of Christ is the only one worthy of their total allegiance, he said. He urged teen-agers to discipline themselves through Christian decision and thus avoid pitfalls and "today's obsession with sex in America."

He quoted a Harvard professor warning that "unless we reverse the trend of our over-interest in sex in America, our national fate is sealed."

Handfuls of crew-cut, 1950s-style clad youth and girls in sweaters and skirts were in the audience. The first 50 persons to accept Graham's challenge to make "decisions for Christ" were given a "cross" as a reward for accepting a "teen-ager's crusade" counselor, including Graham's mother, father and brother.

28 Couples Sign For Square Dance

Twenty-eight couples signed up for square dancing at the Civic Center two weeks ago. Instructions will begin again tonight at 8, with professional caller Joe Curtis directing.

The class will remain open to beginners tonight and next week. After then beginners will have to wait until the second group forms in January. The restriction on beginners does not close the group to those who have a knowledge of the dance steps.

The program, held weekly on the Civic Center patio, is sponsored by the Sanford Recreation Department.
