Six students expelled for having firearms on campus

By VICKI DeSORMIER Herald Staff Writer

SANFORD - The Seminole County school board reinforced its intolerance for handguns on campus yesterday by expelling four Lake Mary High School students and two students from Sanford Middle School.

The four Lake Mary High School students were arrested two weeks ago when they were found to have a variety of guns, including a .357 Magnum. in their possession on campus.

At the time of their arrests, the boys told sheriff's deputies they needed the guns for protection.

School officials said the youths told them they intended to use the guns in an off-campus fight after school. They were told that the students had been repeatedly harassed by a group of students who do not attend Lake Mary High and that they took the matter of their protection into their own hands.

Regardless of where they intended to use the guns, the weapons were in their possession at the school.

"We won't stand for that," Lake Mary High principal Don Smith said. "Guns can not be tolerated on school campuses."

Smith said that he is saddened by the fact that he had to recommend the students for expulsion, but he believes astrong message has to be sent. "It's not something that I like to do," said Smith. "But such a breach of conduct requires that we do this."

Smith said the four will be allowed to return to school at the start of the 1993-94 school year.

In the case of the Sanford Middle School students there were no arrests. The students were found to have an unloaded gun in their possession.

Morris, who served as vice chairwoman of the school board last year, was elected as chairwoman at last night's reorganizational meeting.

Warren, who was just re-elected to her seat for a fourth term, stepped down as chairwoman and took the second spot on the board.

Warren said that, traditionally, the board has not had the same chair for more than one year at a time, though it has been done on occasion.

Morris was elected to the board in 1990 and assumed the vice chairmanship in her second year in office.

Warren has more experience on the school board than all the other board members combined. She has been on the board for a dozen years while the other four members have served a total of six years.

SANFORD - A request for $50,000 for the Florida Symphony Orchestra almost hit a sour note before the Seminole County Commission Tuesday but commissioners eventually approved the request on a 4-1 vote.

The commission authorized $50,000 each year for two years, a total of $100,000.

A representative from the orchestra first told the commission that, in exchange for the funds, the orchestra would play three concerts for Seminole County school children.

However, Commissioner Daryl McClain said the request would be more properly made before the school board. Commissioners Larry Furlong and Dick Van Der Weide also had questions about the funding approval.

Commissioner Pat Warren said the question was one of leadership. not simply of balancing interests.

"We need to provide leadership to expose our young people to something besides the boob tube and rock concerts." me said.

Warren made a motion to provide the money but it was not seconded until Chairman Bob Sturm passed the gavel so he could second the motion himself. Normally, a chairman cannot second a motion. ## Lake Mary adds laws to charter

By NICK PFEIFAUF Herald Staff Writer

LAKE MARY - A number of items will be officially added to the city charter tomorrow night. Each of the items was approved by the voters on the Nov. 3 election.

Ordinance 622 deals with when newly elected officials will take office. Under the present charter, new commissioners are to be sworn in on the "First Monday following the first day of the first month next succeeding the election." In this case, with the election on Nov. 3, the time would be Dec. 7.

With the change, the swearing in would take place "within seven days of certification of the election."

Ordinance 623 provides for run-off elections in the case of multiple candidates. Lake Mary has not had a run-off provision. When more than two candidates seek the same office, the winner is decided by whoever receives the largest number of votes.

With the change approved by the voters, "If no candidate receives a majority vote, then the two candidates receiving the most votes shall have a run-off election." It would be held on the first Tuesday in December, following the general election.

Ordinance 624 deals with filling vacancies on the city commission or the mayor's post. At the present time, special elections are not required. Under the new ordinance, in the case of a mayor See Charter, Page 5A

Martin said getting a train turned back and sending a message about their position represented partial victories. "We are not going to be poisoned anymore," said Vera Peskan, a Perry resident who belongs a local environmental group called Heip Our Polluted Environment, "We're not going to have any more chlorine in this county." The goal of the protest was to get a commitment from Procter & Gamble to stop using chlorine a tis Perry plant.

"This protest represents an affirmation of life against the powers of death." Pynn said as he sat next to the railroad track with his arm handcuffed inside a box welded to the track.

"You can see the breath of a monster right behind us," he said, pointing to the smoke coming from the plant. Both Pynn, 31, and McBee, 35, said they planned to stay in place as long as it took to send a message about the dangers of chlorine or to get a pledge from P&G to switch to technology that doesn't require chlorine.

Girl testifies youth pastor molested her

BY GEORGE DUNCAN Herald Staff Writer

SANFORD - A 17-year-old girl told a Seminole County jury Tuesday that an Altamonte Springs youth pastor molested her when she and a friend stayed over at his house last summer.

George Wayne Clatt, the former associate pastor of the Lake Brantley United Brethren Church, has pleaded not guilty to the charge.

The girl was a member of a church youth group. The night of the alleged assault she and another youth group member stayed with Clatt after coming to Clatt's house to make signs in preparation for a candy sale the next day. While Clatt's wife and the friend were sleeping, the alleged molestation occurred in a bedroom, she said.

Prior to that night. Clatt made provocative statements to her, often commenting on her appearance and body. A 17-year-old friend corroborated that part of her testimony. saying the youth pastor would occasionally make such remarks. "He'd say, 'You've got a nice. body. You've got a nice butt. They were offensive," the friend testified.

He also said the defendant told him of the alleged attack the day after it happened and said she was very withdrawn and distant the day after.

Defense attorney Mike Nielsen attempted to show such remarks were not inappropriate because the defendant had a low selfesteem and Clatt was merely trying to bolster her confidence.

Today, the jurors are scheduled to hear from a woman who claims Clatt molested her in 1986 when he was associated with a Holly Hill church.

The decision not to file charges enraged Henry's grieving family. "The father should be re-

PENSACOLA - Joint funeral services were held for the father of a murder victim and his son, whose body was found nearly seven years after he vanished.

They were buried side-by-side Monday at East Gate Cemetery near this Florida Panhandle city.

Bobby Lowe. 61, died Friday at Baptist Hopsital in Penascola, just days after being told pathol-ogy tests and X-rays confirmed the remains of a man found Aug. 10 were those of his son, Timothy Lowe, 22.

Bobby Lowe's daughter, Bob-ble Presswood, said Tuesday that her father had been hospitalized since he had a heart attack in early October and was suffering from lung and thyroid problems.

A hunter found the skeletal remains of Timothy Lowe in a wooded area near the Perdido River about 20 miles northwest of Pensacola Aug. 10.

Jason Coates was offered a 12-year prison term in exchange for his testimony against Darren Davis who was convicted of second-degree murder and sen-tenced to life.

Davis was a drug dealer who suspected Timothy Lowe of stealing cocaine and marijuana from him. He persuaded Coates, a longtime friend of Lowe, to bring the victim to his mobile home on the pretext of making a drug deal.

Instead, Davis admitted at his trial that he kidnapped Lowe at gunpoint, handcufied him, drove him to the wooded area and forced him to strip.

He then gagged the victim, hit him in the face and covered him with syrup before the victim was abot.

Davis admitted the gun went off but denied he killed Lowe. He said he left Lowe in the woods overnight but when he returned the next day the victim was gone.

Morris had set a Dec. 1 deadline for the files' release, but a half-dozen law students hired to acreen the files to remove materials that cannot be made public under state law finished their work ahead of schedule.

Several dozen files also have been withheld at the request of Public Defender Rick Parker. Parker said their release would prejudice his client with the jury when the case finally goes to trial.

In January, another 2,000 investigative reports and 6,500 lead absets will be released. The remaining contents fill about four file cabinets, Parker said.

In addition, physical evidence, including the tent from Rolling's campaite will be made available for viewing at that time.

In the October release, little new information surfaced on the investigation of the slayings, but they showed the broad scope of the probe that first focused on Edward Humphrey.

The grand jury that indicted oiling last November refused to indict Humphrey. Rolling is scheduled to go on trial in September 1993.

Killed by the serial killer were Sonja Larson. Christina Powell, Christa Hoyt, Tracy Paules and Manuel Toboada.

City campaigns should be run on merits, not mud

On Dec. 8, Sanford residents will vote on a mayor and one city commissioner to serve for the next four years. We hope the decision will be made on goals and objectives, not accusations and allegations.

Four men are entered in the race for city commissioner to represent Dist. 1. It is basically in the downtown and historical district, one which has been constantly pointed to by the Duany project, Sanford Historical Downtown Waterfront Association, Historic Trust, and others, as being in need of improvements. The next four years could be critical in preserving and protecting the older sections of the city.

Two women are seeking the position of Mayor. The leadership role will cover the entire city, and help guide it through progress that is forthcoming including the new Seminole Towne Center Mall. It will be an Important four years.

Thursday night, the Sanford Historic Trust is conducting a political forum at the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce building. All of the candidates have been invited to attend. We hope the questions written by citizens, ad the responses given by the candidates.

rapid growth of cellular Celebrating

On Monday, Nov. 23 the 10-millionth Ameri-can will be enrolled as a subscriber to a cellular telephone system. That is only nine years after the inception of the industry, and about 30 years ahead of schedule.

ahead of schedule. There are some lessons and observations to be gleaned from the rapid growth of cellular: Beware of experts. AT&T invested cellular and engaged McKinsey, a respected management firm, to forecast the likely growth path for cellular phones. McKinsey's estimate was not 10 million in 1992 — but 900,000 by the year 2000. Not enough, said AT&T, and didn't proceed on certain cellular lines. Last week, recognizing their error. AT&T bought a one-third interest in their error, AT&T bought a one-third interest in McCaw Cellular Communications. The cost was $3.8 billion, which, as these things are denominated, is more than one Perot.

Consumers know best. Cellular was originally envisioned as mostly a car phone for businesses. It can indeed form new enterprises and increase the productivity of old ones. Cellular can make a cab driver into an on-call limo service. A real estate broker with a cellular-modem-fax-laptop in the car doesn't waste much time in the office. A farmer on a tractor deals with his accountant.

But now it turns out that most cellular phone sales are neither for cars nor for businesses. Parents give a cellular phone to a daughter out on a date, lemening worry ("Dear, it's past curfew. Where are you, dear?") Mothers on the way home from work winners because they can't predict consumer behavior, what chance does government have? How bed was that recession? About 7 million new cellular customers came on line during the last three years, purchasing a not-inexpensive service, when the economy was allegedly in the pits.

American businesses can still do it. The American cellular industry has created 100,000 new jobs, and leads the world. Prices for the new jobs, and ideas the world. Prices for the phones are way down. (As opposed to the phone service charges, which are only inching down.) Quality is way up. A portable phone used to be called "a brick" or a "bag phone." Motorols, the world's biggest cellular company, produces the lightest unit, 5.9 ounces. The Dick Tracy wristwatch/phone is on its way.

Americans are working in Russia, Eastern Europe, China, Brazil and India to build new cellular systems, by-passing the huge costs involved in copper-wiring. There are ways to regulate wisely. The Federal Communications Commission was a little slow to act, but then set up two competitors in each of 734 markets - and was smart enough to mostly get out of the way.

Clinton must reckon with Keating legacy WASHINGTON - At least figuratively.

President-elect Bill Clinton last week crossed paths with Charles Keating, the former savings and loan executive whom some regard as the most notorious white-collar criminal of the century.

Clinton was conducting his first post-election press conference in Little Rock, Ark., while in a Los Angeles courtroom Keating stood trial for bank fraud stemming from the 82.6 billion collapse of Lincoln Savings

Each of the candidates has a group of strong supporters. Even though a candidate may wish to run a clean campaign, there is often a follower who may try to go beyond the pole of supporter, and assume the role of sudsinger.

Sanford THISENE should not accept

Santord christens, shound not accept hudslinging. There are many residents who bay be voting for the first time in Sanford dictions. Many may not know the can-didates, much has the incumbents. They will be seeking information regarding what may transpire within the next four years, and how the problems and needs may be handled by the city commission.

We urge citizens to attend Thursday night's prum. It begins at 7 p.m. Ask questions entered on the future, and listen to the esponses. Vote on Dec. 8, but vote for the andidate you believe has the most merit.

ELLEN GOODMAN Magic Johnson already paying

BOSTON - This is how the Magic Johnson story moves from one public place to another. Of the basketball court and into the court of

One day, the man with the megnwatt amile is forced to face his teammates' fears that they could be infected by him. The next day, he's forced to face a woman's claim that she was infected by him.

One week his book is published bearing this paragraph about his many sexual partners: Out of the women I have talked to, nobody has tested positive - at least not yet. Thank God for that."

The next week, pieces of a poignant letter, allegedly sent to Magic before his AIDS test, are published in Newswork bearing this message from one sexual partner: "Although you did not have the courage to face me, you will one day soon have to account for it.

will one day soon have to account for it." Now, Magic Johnson's lawyer says that yes, the star had sex with the woman called Jane Doe. Yes, they are both HIV positive. But who knows if she injected him, he infected her or each was infected by someone else. Now, Jane Die's lawyer says that his client, a Michigan health worker, had been tested for AIDS three times and had been celibate for eight months before her Magic night. He says that she knows who infected whom. Boon we may be faced with the pathetic sight of two victims of the same deadly virus arguing before a jury over sex, death and a $2 million claim. AIDS does not grant immunity from such litizious excess in our society. Today, there are one million Americans with HIV. Each one got it from someons else. Some from lovers, some from strangers, some from medies, some from blood, some from men. some from women.

needles, some from blood, some from men, some from women. The disease has brod a new set of protective laws. The courts have established "a duty to warn" sexual partners. More than half the states have made it illegal for a person with HIV to have sex without telling a partner. If, that is, the person knows he or she is infected. An trony of those laws in that they offer people a legal incentive not to know. But from all accounts Magic Johnson is one of the many who truly did not know. If he is liable for damages, then one million Americans with HIV can sue or be sued by Americans with HIV can sue or be sued by each other. If its is liable, then any American having sex is potentially liable for harming a pertner

But the Michigan Inwault argues that Magic should have known, that his ignorance was willful and his behavior wantonly dangerous. I have no trouble believing that nor does Magic,

In his book he writes, "In the age of AIDS, unprotected sex is reckless. I know that now, of course. But the truth is I knew it then, too. I just didn't pay attention."

Magic is guilty indeed of sexual ir-responsibility - to put it tepidly. Even now, in his book and his interviews, he seems to alternate between confeasing and bragging about his sexual exploits. For a long time, he simply believed that he was protected from harm by his stardust. But even in Jane Doe's account, when she confronted Magic before his wedding, he said, "But I can't be sick. Look at me." I don't think he can be made liable for this denial. At least not solely liable.

Sexual responsibil-ity is, after all, an equal opportunity ethic. The health care worker, tested three times for AIDS. was not into denial. If Magic should have known he was at high risk, then she should have known he was a high risk lover.

Many women are truly vulnerable to the discase and the men who carry it wamen who cannot insist on protection without risking abuse. But that description doesn't fit Jane Doe or Magic Johnson.

'Immediately before sexual intercourse." the suit says. 'Unne Doe asked him about the use of a condom..." and Magic "expressly declined to use a condom." She had a comparable right to expressly decline to have sex. She didn't.

This is how

Johnson story moves from

Later, in the letter Jane Doe claims to have written, she reminded Magic of Deuternonomy 5:17 — Thou Shalt Not Kill. But I find it hard to believe that Magic meant to kill anyone. Least of all himself.

He got AIDS from someone. He may have given it to someone else. Both Magic and Jane Doe violated the code written for an era of dangerous liaisons, the obligation to protect oncecif. It's a mame. But it's not a crime. As for the $2 million lawsuit? This man is already paying.

company insiders. we found that Lincoln Savings was run more like a corporate Animal House — a corporate culture of conspicuous consumption, parties and pranks.

From 1963 to 1969, when Keating was on top of the world, he spent more than $500,000 on companies parties. The money he spent to buy everything from politicians to lawyers and accountants was dispensed with cold, manipulative intent. The man who, almost overnight, built a multibillion-dollar financial juggernaut, genuinely loved a good time.

According to insiders, he reveled in rowdy parties with people dancing on tables and juggling lit candles. If there was a pool nearby, people would end up throwing each other into it fully clothed.

One night during a fancy expense account dinner in Denver, a salesman for one of Keating's companies took a flying leap onto a dessert cart. He slammed into the middle of a giant torte, and whipped cream splattered everywhere.

Nothing symbolized Keating's free-spending ways better than the manner in which he treated his secretaries. He interviewed each personally, and routinely asked for their height and weight.

Those he liked carned big salaries, some as Those he liked earned big salaries, some as much as $100,000, and were often given clothing allowances because Keating insisted they dress well. But Keating would also contrive devilish games he could play with his secretaries. At the company's many parties, he often offered a $100 bill to any secretary who would whip down a pool slide with her clothes on. In one of his favorite stunts, Keating would have a company official load up his station

To celebrate his bounty of beautiful women — who became known locally as "Charlie's Angels" — Keating would relax the usually conservative dress code once a week. Friday was called "casual day." and it grew into a kind of perverse beauty pagesnt where the women donned teasing outfits and the various divisions of the company battled over which had the sexiest secretaries. # Mr. Clinton travels to Washington to see Bush

Associated Free Writer

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - Mr. Clinton was going to Washing-ton, and his first appointment was with President Bush to get a "candid "assessment" about world issues the president-elect will face.

Clinton did not reveal precisely what he had in mind for his White House meeting with the man whose eviction he arranged. But he said Tuesday he was "pleased that he invited me up and I'll be pretty much as his disposal. ... There are one or two things I want to raise."

Meanwhile, the Arkansas governor was focusing his attention on putting together a new government with a distinctly different tone than his predecessor's.

Clinton on Tuesday appointed former South Carolina Gov. Dick Riley, a Washington outsider, to oversee the hiring of the upper-level bureaucrats - the insiders - for the new administration.

After meeting with Bush, Clinton was going to a black business district for a walk through the neighborhood. And in the evening, he was scheduled to attend a reception for the Children's Defense Fund, the advocacy group that his wife, Hillary, once chaired.

Since the election, Clinton and Bush have talked by telephone and communicated through emissaries, but today's meeting was their first face-to-face encounter. Foreign policy was on the agenda.

"I want to get his candid assessment about some world issues, some problems I'll be conversation was set for the Oval Office, the symbolic center of presidential power. Neither Clinton nor Bush has expressed since election night any public animosity about the rough-and-tumble campaign, during which the president re-ferred to Clinton and running mate Al Gore as "Bosos" and Clinton called Bush a man Clinton called Bush a man without principles. In fact, Bush has promised the full cooperation of his administration for the transition, and Clinton has praised the president's helpfulness. However, there seemed to be some lingering bad feelings among their deputies. White House spokesman Marlin Fitzwater accused the Clinton camp of trying to acore political points by turning down the president's offer of a military jet and the use of Blair House, the government guest quarters for visiting VIPs, for the Washington trip. Clinton's people asked for those perquisites and then changed their minds. Fitswater said, producing a letter from Clinton transition chief Warren Christopher to prove it.

"I resent them trying to portray us as offering them luxury and their turning it down, when they were the ones who asked for it in the first place," Fitzwater said.

"No one intended a slight at the White House," insisted Dee Dee Myers, Clinton's spolteswoman Clinton was traveling to Wash-ington on his chartered campaign plane and staying at the nearby Hay-Adams Hotel instead of Blair House because of the cost, she said.

Clinton was spending just a single night in Washington, but two full days, including a meet-ing Thursday with Democratic and Republican lawmakers on Capitol Hill. He does not plan to return to Little Rock to continue his transition work until late Thursday night. With the exception of Hillary Clinton. Riley was the first person who Clinton has expressly said would serve in his new White House

"The work that he has to do in helping us fill out these departmenta may not be completely done on January 20th," Inaugu-ration Day, Clinton said. "He's got a job that will probably take him well into the administration."

The president-elect indicated during the campaign that he would take a tougher stand, particularly with China, withdrawing trade privileges if its human rights record did not improve.

While the United States is on the briak of a trade war with Europe, that area of the world is one of the few where America enjoys a trade surplus. The surplus actually grew in Sep-tember to $555 million, up from $73 million in August.

Florida subpoenas White

TALLAHASSEE - Florida Attorney General Bob Butterworth has subpoenaed National League President Bill White as part of Tampa Bay's game of legal hardball over the San Francisco Giants.

The deposition, set for mid-December in Tampa, was confirmed Monday by Deputy Attorney General Peter Antonacci.

Antonacci said his office was "gathering facts" to help "determine our next legal step" in the aftermath of the league's decision last week to reject the Giants proposed move to St. Petersburg. Antônacci declined to elaborate.

A San Francisco impator group is negotiating to buy the Giante, then Bob Lurie for $100 million and expects to reach an agreement in a week or two. A Tampa Bay group, led by Vincent Naimoli, had offered $115 million for SANFORD - Tennishia Eason stepped out of a very long shadow Tuesday night.

In the first round of the first Lady Noles Invitational Basketball Tournament at Bill Fleming Memorial Gymnasium, Eason was the star as the host Tribe manhandled New Smyrna Beach 57-35 in the nightcap of the opening night doubleheader.

In the first game of the evening. Tavares upset the defending 4A-District 9 champion Daytona Beach-Mainland 54-31. The tournament continues tonight at Seminole High School with a tripleheader. At 4:30 p.m., New Smyrna Beach and Mainland meet in an elimination game that will be followed by another round of first round games. At 6 p.m., county rivals Lake Mary and Lake Howell will square off, before Spruce Creek and Lake Brantley play at 7:30 p.m. The Tribe will meet the Lake Mary-Lake Howell winner at 7:30 p.m. Thursday following a 6 p.m. matchup between Tavares and the Spruce Creek-Lake Brantley winner.

Eason had a successful freshman scason for Seminole, but she was pretty much considered another player on a 22-8 team with players like Nikki Washington, Kayla Alexander and Kay Kay Mullins.

But Tuesday night, the sophomore point guard came out smoking and scored 14 of her game high 20 points in the first quarter as Seminole raced to a 22-7 advantage. She tacked on four more points in the second quarter and added two counters before retiring to the bench early in the third quarter.

"Tennishia had a real good game," said Seminole head coach John McNamara. "Overall, we did OK. We made a lot of mistakes and there is a lot of room for improvement, but I thought our young girls played well. Everyone was nervous tonight. Including the coach. For a first game, I'm well pleased."

Eason's outstanding performance was far from the only impressive outing for the Tribe.

Two of McNamara's young players, Mindee Hampton and LaHoma Fayson, made good contributions in their first varsity games. Hampton dropped in 11 points and came away with four steals, while Fayson also collected four steals.

Seminole's only seniors, Washington and Mullins, didn't let the kids steal all of the thunder.

Warriors overtake Heat

MIAMI - Tim Hardaway scored 10 of his 26 points in the final three minutes as the Golden State Warriors snapped a four-game losing streak with a 125-119 victory over the Miami Heat Tuesday night.

Billy Owens scored 24 points for the Warriors. 20 in the second half, and Chris Mullin had 20. Miami was led by Rony Seikaly with 27.

Free throws were the key as Miami took a 61-57 lead at halftime. The Heat hit 22 of 28 from the line in the first half, while the Warriors could manage only nine of 17.

Golden State played without center Victor Alexander, who had left the team to attend the funeral of a family member.

Jets edge Lightning

TAMPA - Teemu Selanne's goal with 6:26 remaining anapped a tie and Russian rookie Evgeny Davydov scored three times to lead the Winnipeg Jets to a 6-5 victory over the Tampa Bay Lightning on Tuesday night. Selanne put in the rebound of Alexei Zhamnov's shot to break a 5-5 tie. It was his 15th goal, tops among NHL rookies.

The victory was just the second in 11 road games for the Jets. The Lightning, now 9-10-2. has lost two straight following a club-record six game unbeaten streak.

Tampa Bay's Brian Bradley had a goal and two assists to run his scoring streak to nine straight games and 18 of 19 overall. Chris. Kontos added his 19th goal of the season to move back into sole possession of second place in the goal-scoring race,

From Steff Reports

On Tuesday night at the SCC Health and Physical Education Center, the Raiders gave another uneven performance while holding of the Indian River Community College Pioneers 63-55 to even their record at 2-2 going into the Lady Raider Tournament this weekend.

"They're young yet," said Gallagher, shaking her head as she watched her squad make its way to the lockerroom. "We're only four games into the season, so I can still say that. But we have to develop some consistency.

Led by eight first-half points from Monique Hayes and seven from Rosbanya Wilcox, the Raiders built a 30-18 lead by halftime. But instead of pulling away, SCC let Indian River stay in the game.

When Wilcox netted the final Raider field goal of the game with 2:45 remaining, SCC led by 11, 60-49. The

Gill wins third consecutive Governor's Cup championship

Special to the Herald

SAMSULA - Bobby Gill of Dalton, Ga., came to New Smyrna Speedway last Saturday with one thing on his mind: to win his third consecutive Governor's Cup race.

He did.

"We did what we came to do," said Gill, who also has four NASCAR All-Pro race victories on the season. "We race for a living, so we go to the track to win. We're not satisfied with second.

"The car was great once we made a few minor adjustments. We had a good pit stop and stayed out of trouble."

Gill posted the evening's fourth fastest qualifying time but started the race from the third position after an inversion of the top qualifiers. At the beginning of the fifth lap, Gill moved to the outside of leader Wayne Anderson to take the point.

Once in the lead, Gill dominated the race until he pitted for fuel and tires on lap 107. After his service stop," he re-entered the race in 15th position, the tail end of the lead lap. With a steady charge to the front, Gill picked his way through traffic to run down leader Dick Anderson.

Gill took over second place on inp 165. Ten laps later. Gill made an inside low groove pass to regain the lead and held off a hard-charging Dick

Anderson to claim the checkers. Twenty-nine cars qualified for the 200-lap event with 17 cars posting times in the 18-second range. Rogers set the evening's fastest qualifying time with a one-lap mark of 18.293 seconds. Wayne Anderson was second at 18:345 while David Russell turned the half-mile oval at 18:414.

At the drop of starter Ken Golden's green flag, the field powered out of turn four with Wayne Anderson and David Rogers on the point. As the cars approached turn one, some of the back runners spun, bringing out a yellow caution flag. The cars involved received minor sheet metal damage and were able to continue. After Golden regrouped the field for another start, Guy Thomas and Tank Tucker wrecked on the back straightaway exiting turn two, eliminating both cars from further action. The third attempt to start the race was successfulas Rogers outduelled Wayne Anderson to take command of the first lap. On the next circuit, Anderson selzed the advantage and led until he was overtaken by Gill on the fourth lap.

Several laps later, Jimmy Cope (a three-time Governor's Cup winner) made his way behind pit wall with mechanical problems. The following lap, newly crowned Florida State Triple Crown Late Model champion Pete Orr also went behind the wall and trailered his car.

"It's a shame we had to quit so early," said Orr. "We had a car that could have won the race. My tire was going flat and I was hoping for a caution so I could makes pit stop.

"Well, no caution came out and in no time, I was down three laps. I radioed the crew and told them we were through for the night." With a quarter of the race in the books, Russell, while running in the top five, tangled with a slower car in the back straightaway, sending him into the outside retaining wall

"I hit the wall and busted the A frame," said Russell, a three-time FASCAR Late Model champlon. "This was a new car and it was just running super. We qualified well and had no trouble keeping up with the leaders. Well, like they say, that's racing."

Rogers assumed the lead on Jap 109 when Gill, who was leading the race at the time, pitted for service. On lap 152, Dick Anderson, who had pitted earlier in the race, moved into second place and began to challenge Rogers for the lead. Rogers maintained his position as the lead pair raced nose-to-tail for eight laps. When Rogers pulled in for service on the 180th lap, Anderson moved into the No. 1 slot and remained in control until Gill reclaimed the lead on lap 174.

After taking on fuel and fresh tires, Rogers began a charge to the front of the pack. With 22 laps remaining to the checkers, Rogers closed on Gill and Anderson. But despite the new rubber, Rogers could not improve his position.

Gill took the checkers with Anderson and Rogers in tow. Wayne Anderson took fourth followed by Jeff Burkett, Randy Weaver, Rob Underwood and Ed Meredith, the only cars on the lead lap.

"I almost didn't race tonight," said Dick Anderson. "Since I blew my good motor Friday night getting ready for this race, I decided just to stay home tonight.

Well, at the last minute, we made up our minds to go racing, so we threw an old motor in the car, came to the track and finished second. You can't complain about that.'

Rogers, who blew a motor while leading a feature event a few weeks ago, felt that he had a car that was capable of beating Gill, but a bad pit call might have cost him the race.

"I waited too long to pit," said Rogers. "When I was running out front, I had a long green period. so I didn't want to pit. I pitted late in the race and took on new tires, but it worked against me.

"Toward the end of the race, there were some caution flags out and that didn't help me. I needed to race to make the tires work."

Crossing the stripe behind Rogers was Wayne Anderson, who has notched two feature wins and one second place finish in the past two weeks. "I'm really thrilled with this finish," Anderson said. "Any time you can race 200 laps with Bobby (Gill), Dad (Dick Anderson) and David (Rogers) and finish in the top five, you had a good race.

"The car was off a little bit, but that was our fault. The last few weeks, the car was outstanding. Then tonight, we got tinkeritis and started to make changes. That didn't help us, so we left the car alone."

On the other hand, fifth-place finisher Jeff Burkett was pleased with the efforts that went into his car the past few weeks.

"We've been working and working on this car and now it's competitive," said Burkett. "We have great power, it handles well and the new body gives us some good acrodynamics."

at Speedworld Anderson registers sweep

By BAVE WESTERN

ORLANDO - Wayne Anderson dominated the 25-lap FASCAR Governor's Cup Tune-Up Late Model feature last Friday night at Orlando Speedworld. Anderson set the fast time, started on the pole, then led every lap for the $1,000 wub.

"The car was great tonight," said An-derson, who had notched his first Late Model feature win the previous Saturday, Nov. 7, at New Smyrna Speedway. "I feel we're definitely ready for the Governor's Cup race."

Anderson's dad, Late Model legend Dick Anderson, had to burn the midnight oil to get ready for the Governor's Cup after blowing an engine during practice prior to qualifying for the Tune-up.

Ed Meredith, who qualified second.

started on the cutaide pole and finished in the runner-up position, well in front of Tank Tucker, Mack Hanbury and Rick Lokey. Wayne Heckle, who started last in the 10-car field, dominated the Florida

Modifieds. Working his way through traffic to move into second place by the third lap. Heckle took the checkers a half a lap ahead of Jon Compagnone Jr., Dana Darveau, Wally Patterson and Colin Joiner.

Gene Van Abtine, who had 12 feature wine during the 1991-92 season, turned back a late-race challenge from Kelly Jarrett to take the Mini Stock victory. John Roberts was third over Karl Permann and Richard Newton.

The "Todd Squad" again finished first and second in the Limited Late Models, Timmy Todd leading brother Mike to the finish line. Finishing third through fifth, respectively, were John Wills, Shawn #### Gourley and Jeff Wehner.

The race was red flagged for 10 minutes when Bobby Owens tatooed the outside retaining wall. Although the car was severely damaged and had to be removed from the track cradled between two wreckers, Owens was uninjured.

Paul Colgan led from green to checkers to claim the Sportsman win ahead of Jim Robinson, Rick Johns, Gary Brown and Bill Loomis.

The Bomber feature, which went wire to wire with no caution flags, was taken by Glan Castro as he out-ran Larry Mc-Cormack, John Smith, Pope Gould, and Gien Cordell.

Wallace Barber won his first ever Run-A-Bout main, finishing ahead of Brian Schlimmer, Mike Mingione, Donald Blake, and Mitch Chapman.

DEAR DR. GOTT: A recent DEAR DR. GOTT: A recent Holter monitor showed over 4,500 PVCs in 23 hours. Would that signify that insufficient blood is being pumped to the extremities and, if so, would this contribute toward Alzheimer's? DEAR READER: Your Holter monitor revealed more than 4,500 premature ventricular contractions during the recording period. This sounds like a lot but it isn't. Many normal people have PVCs; these beats do not reflect poor circulation to the heart muscle, in most instances.

Nonetheless, the number and type of PVCs must be correlated with other factors, such as age. symptoms and presence of heart disease. For instance, were you to have recently had a heart attack, 4,500 PVCs puts you out of the normal category and into a high-risk group. This amount of cardiac irritability is unacceptable in the presence of heart discase.

Treatment, with drugs to suppress the premature beats, should be given. Similarly, were should be given. Similarly, were you 90 years old and constantly bothered by "palpitations," suppressive therapy may be considered. Because I am un-certain about the background upon which your PVCs are occurring, you should ask your physician whether the PVCs are

DEAR DR. GOTT: I suffer from hyperthyroidism and wonder if reducing the thyroid hormone drastically and then elevating it back to normal with medication is a proper procedure. DEAR READER: Not ordinarily. However, doctors sometimes inadvertently do just that. If you were given radioactive iodine as a treatment for your over-active thyroid, the material may have destroyed more of your thyroid gland than specialists anticiactive gland. This condition i and requires su thyroid hormone pill of your life.

gaining great popularity in the tournament world, Harold Feldheim wrote a book about it. Now "The Weak Two Bid in Bridge" ($8.95, C&T Bridge Supplies, 800-525-4718) has been republished. If you would like to learn how to use and how to defend against the weak two, plus something about its adjunct - the strong, artificial and forcing two-club opening - this is a good book to read.
