CHRISTIAN HERTER

Herter Says Now Is Time To Cut Cuba Sugar Supply

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Secretary of State Christian A. Herter told Congress today this is "an appropriate time" for the United States to reduce the dependence of its consumers on Cuban sugar.

Herter told the House Agriculture Committee that a Republican proposal to cut back scheduled Cuban marketing of sugar in the United States is acceptable to the administration.

Herter, in a prepared statement made no reference whatever to the public attacks by Cuban Premier Fidel Castro on the United States. Thus, there was no reference, even implied, to use of the sugar program for political reprisals against Castro.

Herter pointed out that the United States now depends on Cuba for about one-third of its total sugar supply. He said the United States now must take into account the policy statements of the new Cuban government calling for greater diversification of agriculture.

Declaring that experts predict Cuba's sugar production will soon drop at least one million tons from current level, Herter noted that the Cuban government recently agreed to supply Soviet Russia with one million tons of sugar a year for the next five years.

Pan American, Eastern Pilots Back At Work

By United Press International
Eastern and Pan-American airlines expected to resume full operations today, ending a "sick call" pilots strike over federal inspectors riding the third seat in jet cockpits.

The back-to-work movement came under pressure of federal court and union leaders.

Pan-American said 25 of the 140 pilots who reported sick returned to work Tuesday night and the airline said it expected normal operations today.

Eastern, crippled by an 11-day wildcat walkout, said it hoped to meet all scheduled flights by this afternoon.

The pilots were protesting a Federal Aviation Agency (FAA) ruling that inspectors occupy the third pilot seat in jet airliners.

John C. Cropper, spokesman for the New York-based Eastern pilots, said the Air Lines Pilots Association (ALPA) had "succeeded in convincing them they should return to work."

But Cropper warned that any "reprisals" by the FAA "would be cause for immediate resumption of the 'sickness' that kept Eastern pilots off their jobs."

ALPA representatives said they would try to have lifted a federal court no-strike injunction against the pilots and would also seek lifting or revision of the statute.

Ike Ends Up Personal Victim Of Reds On Peace Tour

United Press International
As President Eisenhower concluded his Asian tour this week, worldwide reaction as to its results appeared almost unanimous. It was, first or last, personal sympathy for the President who has impressed the world with a sincere desire for peace but who has, twice in little more than a month, suffered humiliating setbacks at the hands of the Communists.

Second, it was agreed that the forces which forced cancellation of his visit to Tokyo, had inflicted a severe blow to U. S. prestige which the Communists now could be expected to exploit vigorously.

Merriman Smith, UPI White House reporter who has accompanied Eisenhower on his globe-circling tours, reported it unlikely that the President would attempt another trip during his remaining six months in office.

Thus with the blow-up of the summit conference in Paris and the Tokyo incident has gone glimmering the President's hope that to his successor he would leave the heritage of a firm platform upon which world peace could be built.

Of the President's Asia tour, UPI President Frank H. Bartholomew wrote from Tokyo: "The most that can be said is that the interests of the Western world have not been benefited by the President's well-intentioned visit."

The Times of London said: "The cancellation of the Tokyo visit is the biggest blow to the prestige of an American president and the United States government since the war."

Man-in-the-street reaction stories cannot be taken as indicative of the feelings of whole nations, since of necessity they cover only small segments of a population. But a UPI poll of such reaction in more than a dozen European nations, reflected a general theme: "A lawyer in Madrid and a clerk in Brussels believed the United States had lost the cold war initiative."

An airline clerk in Sweden and a policeman in Zurich believed Americans should follow a "tougher" line.

A Frenchman thought the United States should listen to advice from President DeGaulle.

A London store clerk thought "Ike is doing the best job possible." A West German barber in Frankfurt tempered it with: "America is doing a pretty good job as the leader although she makes her share of foolish mistakes."

Recent events have dealt Eisenhower a bitter personal blow which history may show could or could not have been prevented. This much is certain. Both the Tokyo incident were events deliberately generated by Communist leadership at a time when the United States is preparing for a change in its own leadership through general elections.

Thus Eisenhower was the personal victim of a larger plan by world Communism to sow mistrust and unrest at a time when the United States is in a period of transition.

Nikita Delays Trip To Moscow To Talk With Top Red Pole

BUCHAREST, Romania (UPI)—Nikita Khrushchev has decided to delay his return to Moscow in order to confer with Poland's No. 1 Communist, Wladyslaw Gomulka, diplomatic sources reported today.

Gomulka was expected to arrive here Thursday to join other top East European leaders at a Communist summit meeting which began Sunday under the chairmanship of the Soviet premier.

Western observers believed any major decisions would await Gomulka's arrival. The secret discussions presumably centered on revelations in Communist bloc policy following the summit session in Paris.

The occasion for the Eastern summit conference was Romania's third Communist Party Congress, today in its third session.

Khrushchev, in a possible hint to the course of his secret discussions, told the Congress in a two-hour address Tuesday that the Soviet bloc will stand by its policy of peaceful co-existence with the West.

In obvious reference to his recent statements that he preferred to deal with a new U. S. administration that will emerge from the fall elections, he said:

"Our state, our people, are... interested in the election of such a president and the formation of such a government as would remedy the mistakes made by the present government of the United States."

"War is not inevitable in our times," he declared. He added, however, that there was always the danger of someone pushing the "wrong button."

The speech tended to confirm the belief of many Western experts that the Soviet premier finally had won majority backing in an ideological battle with Red China over his policies of comparative moderation.

Is Straight-Faced Burlesque Replacing True Politics?

By HOLMES ALEXANDER
 WASHINGTON—Much can happen before President Eisenhower gets home from his Far East tour, but whether it's good or bad, it will not alter the basic principle that this sort of burlesque is a very wrong thing for the American presidency.

My opinion here is of long standing, but it was double-edged about this time last year by a small incident. A movie-talent star from Hollywood was coming to Washington to participate in a public benefit and, for some reason, his agent phoned long distance and asked me if I would accompany him to his meeting with a Very Important Person.

In due time we were in the office of the VIP, who took that moment to receive a delegation of school girls. They were duly given autographs and blessings both by the VIP and his Hollywood guest. When the girls departed, barely above the swan stage with the wonderment of it all, the VIP said to the actor: "That's one thing about our profession—there's never any rest from the public."

I keep the story anonymous because it was not present to report this scene, but the meaning of it has not left me. An American statesman and a soap opera actor—such similarity between their professions! Always in character—always at the mercy of celebrity hounds and autograph seekers—always displaying the public image!

Well, doesn't the scene tell what's wrong with American statesmanship? We have alliances with 46 nations, we have a gross national product of nearly half a trillion dollars, we have in hand—and hanging overhead—the weapon that could destroy Western civilization. And do these little facts send our statesmen to the chapel and the den for contemplation, or to the council chamber for tortuous sessions with their ministers and generals, or before the American people with solemn and incessant reports upon stewardships?

Of course not. The vice president went to South America with his wife a while back and he tried to practice diplomacy of the bright smile, friendly chat and earnest handshake. Although disastrous, this visit was of a kind with a more "successful" one in which Nixon disputed with Khrushchev before cameras at the Moscow fair. Neither got above the level of imbecility.

Nor is there any essential difference between the Nixon trips and the president's journey down the Great Boulevard with their rubber-necking multitudes. I hope I am saying what I mean—which is that there is no significance whatever in the reaction to Mr. Eisenhower of these Far East rambles. They are so volubly that their smiles are as worthless as the screeching of Nubians over Frank Sinatra or Jerry Lewis. The president and vice president ought to be ashamed to submit themselves to the verdict of the riff raff. And we Americans ought to kick ourselves regularly for accepting it. As far as our stance with statecraft, that is inexcusable. It may be, when the final count is in, also an unforgivable sin as a betrayal of self government.

WORRY CLINIC by Dr. G. W. Crane

CASE E-64: When Danny was seven, he came into my study one evening to kiss me goodnight. "If a man has a wife and she dies," he asked, "can he marry another wife?"

I nodded assent and he looked very perplexed.

"If he had children and his wife died and he married another wife, could he have more children?"

anger, not at the foster parents necessarily but at society in general.

Many of these foster children finally come back by petty thievery, arson and the like. Or they become problem children in the schools.

Children are pathetically eager to have a father and mother "of their very own," as orphans often express it.

That quoted phrase indicates this hunger for emotional security. But many youngsters with parents of their very own, are needlessly terrified by the quarrels between the latter.

Again I nodded affirmation. "Huh-huh, that's funny," he replied. "Why he could have a pair of families, couldn't he? How come?" he inquired, puzzled and frowning.

I tried to explain briefly, and kissed him goodnight. Then he stopped at the door and asked: "Is mama sick? Why did she go to bed early?"

I suppose that last query was the real basis for the other questions. Mrs. Crane had been up since early that morning and had just in a heavy day. She had a headache, too, so had decided to go to bed early.

These domestic disputes between husband and wife may occur in the best regulated families. They usually blow over and don't cause serious damage as regards the adults involved.

But the children often overhear the caustic remarks just as they are going to bed. They are then very frightened, and may lie awake dreading the possible separation of their parents.

The latter never intended to separate, but the children misjudged the quarrel. So always pitch up your quarrels in open sight of your children and BE POLITE they go to bed.

Since this was very unusual for her, it surprised Danny to find that his mother had retired ahead of him.

He apparently wondered if she were seriously ill, and then this train of thought created the questions about a man's second marriage.

By his perplexed frown and rather critical "How come?" I am inclined to think he didn't approve of having a second family in our house.

I have mentioned this little episode because it reveals the child's constant desire for emotional security.

Psychiatrists are in agreement regarding the disastrous effect on a youngster's personality when he feels insecure emotionally. That's one of the chief hazards of divorce.

Some will say that nothing can be done about it—it's too late! But this is the counsel of defeatism and complicity with folly. The press of this country, at least its serious minded and responsible segment, could take the course of these Caesarian performances by refusing them any more respect than is due them. As an item of people-make-over, the appearance of American VIP's in exotic climates commands some notice in print. But they don't command, or deserve, anything that approaches solemnity or the respect that is due them.

The idea that the famous Eisenhower grin, or Vattitude, is going to promote peace, cement alliances, defy enemies and bring justice and liberty to the oppressed is not merely absurd, it is a dangerous if not a lunatic fallacy on the part of anybody who gives it honor in his thoughts, speech or writings.

We should work up a true revolution for the straight-faced burlesque that has usurped the place of serious politics. It is not too late to demand that our presidents and presidential candidates stop acting like actors. This is to say, no "game"—this is the battle itself.

Review Of Legislative Record Shows Congress Has Been Busy

By DICK WEST
 WASHINGTON (UPI)—These are uncertain days in the law-making trade. It's hard for me to tell whether Congress is racing toward adjournment or dying on its feet.

However, it seems fairly certain the present session will come to an end, one way or another, within the next three weeks. So I thought it might be a good time to review the legislative record to see what has been accomplished and what remains to be done.

I might as well begin the review with House Joint Resolution 602, which authorized President Eisenhower to proclaim the week of May 13 as National Transportation Week.

This measure was passed by the House on April 4 and by the Senate on May 13. Therefore, I suppose it could technically be entered on the plus side of the ledger.

However, by the time the President signed it on May 30, only one day of National Transportation Week was left. This didn't give us much time to celebrate.

House resolutions 11000 and 11001 were introduced last April by Rep. Daniel K. Inouye of Hawaii, who was disturbed by the fact that some of the laws already on the books did not fit the problem of our new state.

Inouye proposed that the Federal Flood Insurance Act of 1954 be expanded to provide flood insurance for volcanic eruptions, which sounded to me like a fair proposition.

I can't understand why the other lawmakers haven't approved it, even if they don't have volcanoes in their own states. Possibly they are waiting for Alaska to demand flood insurance for avalanches.

In a companion bill, Inouye called for an Army engineer study of the feasibility of erecting flood control dams in Hawaii to stem the flow of lava. I think it should be enacted, too.

You remember the old story of the plucky Holland boy who discovered a leak in the dike and saved his country by plugging the hole with his finger. Well, imagine what would happen if an Hawaiian youngster tried that in a lava dike. It could open a whole new chapter of folk lore.

There are so many other worthy measures awaiting action that only the U.S. government can afford to print the entire list. However, I would be remiss if I did not call attention again to the failure of Congress to choose a national flower.

The time has become so congested that it may never be settled, but a joint resolution introduced May 23 by Rep. Robert J. Curbett (D-Pa.) might offer a way out.

It would designate red and white carnations and the blue cornflower as the national emblem. Thus, if Congress can't agree on a single blossom to represent the country it can at least unite behind a national bouquet.

"I know it fits like a glove. Do you have one that fits like a suit?"

POOR BUTTERFLY!

POSTCARDS by Stan Delaplane

In view of the political situation, I have been asked to "clarify my position."

I was up on the hillside this morning—our small boy has been playing Indian and before we really knew what was happening, he got away with four scapling knives and two salad forks. They are silver (Royal Danish design, I believe).

I was up there poking through the poison oak for the lost knives and forks when the mailman drove by.

"Going to the political conventions?" he called merrily.

He did not pause for reply. Just put some bills and a movie magazine in the box and drove on.

However, it is the first time this year that I have been asked about my political intentions. It will take me about 600 words to explain and I intend to do it.

clear because the ballot is a complete baffler.

No matter how much I read the papers, a lot of new, strange things pop up on my ballot.

Things like, Bonds: A measure which would create a library district, said district jurisdiction over but subservient to the sewer district and, after amortization, retaining thereafter.

This is the first time I ever heard of a library district. I vote no. The only thing we do with the library is borrow books—I do not need a district.

We borrow the books. (If they are overdue, we go around at night and drop them through the slot. That way we do not embarrass the library lady so she has to ask us to pay a fine.)

All kinds of incumbent judges coming up on my ballot. People

I never heard of, let alone knew they were judges.

We get strange office holders: Assessors, things like that.

That is why I cannot state or clarify my position. I have not seen the ballot.

About Mrs. Roosevelt. Mrs. Roosevelt looks at Mr. Stevenson's statement one way, Mr. Stevenson looks at it another way.

I have interviewed both of these parties. (They seemed clear-headed enough when you talked to them.)

Mrs. Roosevelt, I think, was the smarter.

She fed me a nice, fat interview. And after I wrote it, I found it was exactly what she had written for the afternoon that day in her column, "My Day."

She held back a couple of the best punch lines on me.

Did you notice Mr. Adlai Stevenson "clarified his position" the other day?

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt asked him to "clarify."

Mr. Stevenson wrote back: "I have, as you know, taken no part in presidential politics for the past three years, etc., etc."

On the basis of this, Mrs. Roosevelt told the press that Mr. Stevenson clearly was a candidate.

Mr. Stevenson then clarified things further. He said no, he wasn't. He was NOT a candidate.

He was the most clarifying exchange I have read in a long time. I felt we were all better off for the whole thing.

Now as to my position: We vote in a neighbor's garage, about two blocks from the house.

We state our name and political affiliation. They give us a ballot and we go behind a little curtain. (You can see our legs sticking out at the bottom. I always tap my foot a little. Gives the poll-watchers the feeling that I am putting in serious thought in there.)

One reason my position is not clear because the ballot is a complete baffler.

WASHINGTON by Ed Koterba

WASHINGTON—Picture a giant overnight airlift of politicians and sundry helpers—maybe as many as 1,000 of them—shooting across the full width of the United States, from Washington to Los Angeles.

That's what may happen. The time is a few short weeks away. The occasion: a race to be there for the opening gun of the Democratic National Convention, July 11.

From the looks of things, Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson will keep his lawmakers here grinding out bills until the last possible moment before adjourning for the convention.

The minority leader, Sen. Everett Dirksen, concedes this may happen. As he was talking, he suddenly thought of a possible catastrophe that never dawned on him before.

"I have just learned," he said, "that there are a number of Democratic members who refuse to fly—and it takes more than just overnight to take a train to Los Angeles."

Three Minutes A Day

By JAMES KELLER
 Rags and riches patterned the life of a wealthy 69-year-old widow who died recently in New York City leaving $100,000 in stocks and cash.

The dead woman was found in her rat-infested, $46-a-month apartment. Since there was no clue that she had any relatives, her estate was turned over to the Public Administrator's office.

According to neighbors, she inherited the money from her husband 30 years ago. Since then she has closely followed the stock markets.

Despite her wealth, she had no refrigerator or phone and even hauled trash baskets in the neighborhood, hoarding the contents in her apartment.

Material security is an essential part of God's plan for living. But to be possessed by one's possessions, be they rags or blue chip bonds, is to slip into a form of slavery that grips his victims.

Keep a sense of proportion in regard to the goods of this world and you will always enjoy freedom of spirit.

"Seek first the kingdom of God and His justice, and all these things shall be given you besides."

(Matthew 6:33)

Grant, O Lord, that we may be blessed with the necessities of life, but never dominated by them.

"There is even a chance that we all may have to return after the convention," he said. In fact, his sad-eyed face flashed a look of sordid glee. What's so delightful about that?

Well, it's likely that two members of the Senate may be the presidential nominees—Vice President Richard Nixon for the Republicans, and Johnson, Sen. John F. Kennedy or Sen. Stuart Symington for the Democrats.

"Imagine," said Dirksen, "the Democratic nominee getting up and addressing Mr. Nixon as 'Mr. President.' That's the title the vice president holds when he presides over the Senate.

The stryponed senator from Illinois said he'd rather come back after the convention than to rush so fast the last few days before adjournment that it would be necessary to jettison some important legislation.

Dirksen isn't a man to jettison anything. In fact, he recalled what happened back in World War I, when he was an officer in the 19th Balloon Corps on the Western front.

His job was to ascend in his balloon and watch for German Zeppelins. His field glasses weighed three pounds, and one time the balloon started to drop fast and Dirksen had to dump ballast.

Finally, the last thing left were the glasses. He refused to jettison them. "I suddenly remembered," he said, "that they cost Uncle Sam $72.50 a pair."

Dirksen himself may not be a jettison jockey, but no matter when Congress adjourns, there's going to be a lot of legislation that he dumps.

So far, 18,000 resolutions and bills have been introduced in the 86th Congress. The best guess is that at adjournment only 800 of these bills will have become law.

Miami Beach (UPI)—Mrs. A. J. Ryan Sr., of Dania today was named national chairman of the American Legion Auxiliary for the 1960 Legion National Convention to be held here Oct. 15-20. She said all the group's business sessions will be held at the Deauville Hotel.

RITA (Mrs. R. L.) BAUER'S repartee has amused and delighted Sanfordites for the four years that she has been a Navy wife here. She has met many of the townspeople, has entered enthusiastically into civic and charitable projects and in general made this her home.

On July 1 Rita and Dick and

children, Kathy and Dicky, will be on the road to Monterey, Calif. where he will attend the Navy's General Line School. And Rita said that although she will miss Sanford she is greatly excited over the prospects of finally "getting over those hills."

Back in 1944 Rita had an urge to see the West. She was a career girl in New York City and finances wouldn't stretch that far. So one day after seeing a recruiter's poster that said something like "Join the Navy and Go Where You Want!" she signed up as a WAIVE...

...and spent the entire tour of duty in Florida! Even after marrying a Navy man she continued traipsing up and down the East Coast and never getting farther west than St. Louis.

Rita was born in Elmira, N. Y. and after college began a career in New York City that included being office training instructor for Sperry Gyroscope and a radio personality that sang commercials, did impersonations of movie stars and being the original Daisy Mae for the Kellogg Co. Her Daisy Mae characterization was the most fun but that came to an end when Uncle Sam kept nabbing every new Lil' Abner from her. In 1944 she also was a Junior Miss fashion model for Harry Conover and was typed the "scrubbed-face, all-American girl"...

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Warren have returned after a visit with relatives in Atlanta, Ga. While there they attended a Warren family reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Priest have had as their guest for the past week, their niece, Miss Patricia Brockman of Pensacola. She has entered the Stetson University early admissions program for the summer.

Mrs. C. A. Anderson Jr., has returned from Sodus, N. Y. where she spent two weeks visiting her sister, Mrs. Ivan Symonds and family. She also attended the graduation of her nephew, Kenneth Symonds, from the school of music at Potsdam, N. Y. Also attending the graduation were Mrs. J. C. Hall and Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Martin of Lake Worth, mother and brother of Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Symonds.

Lake Mary

Mr. and Mrs. Al Case of Lake Mary, daughters, Barbara and Peggy Jo, son, Roger Dale, and Mr. Cases mother, Mrs. Mildred H. Case, made a trip to Birmingham, Ala., recently, to attend the wedding of Ronald Case and Peggy Brown. Ronald is the grandson of Mrs. Mildred Case.

While in Sanford, Rita's ingenuity has made her the ideal person for many publicity jobs. She was the one to broadcast plans to insure the success of the Navy's luncheon also served as publicity chairman for the High Fever Follies of '58, a benefit for the Seminole Memorial Hospital. She and Dick spearheaded the committee to bring Pincrest into Sanford—and in between these activities she has been a worker in both the Girl and Boy Scouts, school and church organizations.

Although it's apparently "California or Bust!" for Rita right now, we wouldn't be surprised to find her coming back over those hills to stay some day.

VACATIONING in Miami Beach while their husbands attended the American Medical Association meeting were Nancy Morgan, Georgia Barks, Laura Parker and Vera Mathers. Nancy Morgan's "sitters" at home were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Hollingsworth, who returned to their Thomasville, Ga., home Sunday. They were accompanied back by their granddaughter, Beth.

AT THE BEACH in New Smyrna, are Mr. and Mrs. Martin Stinecipher and daughter, Grace Marie. After several weeks at the beach, Grace Marie, a teacher at Silver Elementary school in Orlando, will leave for Washington, D. C. and other points East. She will be accompanied by a friend, Miss Donna Hall of Orlando.

GLADYS SAYER will leave tomorrow for a month's vacation in New York. From there she will head for Phoenix, Ariz., and then on to California later. When she returns in September it will be time to pack for Gainesville where she is house-mother for Delta Tau Delta fraternity and also a student in the school of business administration at the University of Florida.

GLADYS SAYER (and the use of the little pocket dictionary) must have proved highly successful for three Navy wives who are back from Europe. At any rate, they were able to negotiate for 43 purses between them while abroad!

Gladys (Mrs. Norman) Thom, getting back to normal at her Loch Arboe home, had a wondrous explanation about the purses. She said, "We just couldn't resist them!" But admitted that it was something of a shock when she, Phyllis Graham and Tommie Tension made a total count.

Tampa Blanks Greyhounds On Four Hits

Tampa pitcher Marcelino Lopez shut out Sanford on four hits, the Tarpons winning 4 to 0 in Florida State League action Tuesday. Lopez struck out 10. John Weghorn won the game for Tampa with a bases-loaded single that drove in two runs in the eighth inning. Leesburg and Palatka rolled out all their big guns in a slugfest won by the Orioles 16 to 11. Three Leesburg homers, by John Griffin, Jim Fatalich and Jim Vadas, were the difference. Ed Hoffman rapped out four hits for Palatka, driving in three runs.

Daytona Beach, doormat of the League throughout the first half of the season, pushed its winning percentage past the .333 mark with two wins over Orlando. The Islanders won victories number 20 and 21 in 61 starts in a 5 to 2 and 1 to 0 doubleheader sweep. Daytona got route-going pitching efforts in both games. Ron Cayll gave Orlando only four hits in the opener and Don Spadoni yielded only three in the nightcap in a tight duel with the Dodgers' John Herrard.

Lakeland, which has already clinched the first half title, was flattened by St. Petersburg 14 to 2. Lou Konyha struck out 18 of the Indians and gave them only five hits.

Left fielder Ken Dekker paced the Saints with a triple, double and single which drove in three runs.

Tonight's action features Tampa at Daytona Beach, St. Petersburg at Leesburg, Palatka at Orlando, and Lakeland at Sanford.

Welters Clash On TV Tonight

UTICA, N. Y. (UPI)—Television fans may get a preview tonight of next week's middleweight title bout between Carmen Basille and Gene Fullmer when Basille's protégé, Dick Diveronica meets Fullmer's kid brother, Jay, in a 10-round welterweight match. "Both fighters are about as even as can be," said promoter Norma Rothchild. "They'll weigh in about 120 pounds. Both are after their 20th win."

The bout headlines a five-event card which will formally open the $4 million dollar Utica Auditorium. In addition to Diveronica in the main bout, the Basille clan also will be represented in the semi-final match. The 21-year-old brother Joey Basille opposes Hector Garrido of Puerto Rico in a featherweight bout.

Satchel Back In Baseball

The famous veteran said he could play in the annual semi-pro national tournament at Wichita, Kan., beginning Aug. 18. ## Louis Willing To Show Ingemar How For $50,000

NEW YORK (UPI)—Joe Louis is so confident that a "new" Ingemar Johansson could beat heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson in a third fight that he has offered to instruct Ingemar on a $50,000-or-nothing basis, it was learned today. Ex-champion Louis, who coached Patterson during his recent training to reapture the crown from Swedish Ingemar last Monday night at the Polo Grounds, believes that certain improvements, particularly in the left jab and left hook, would fit Johansson to conquer Floyd in their "rubber match."

Red Hot Yankees, Pirates Could Relive '27 All Over

United Press International—This just could be 1927 all over again with the New York Yankees "bombing" their way to the American League pennant and the Pittsburgh Pirates "pecking" their way to the National League flag. These teams haven't met in a World Series since that 1927 campaign but both are currently "red hot" and looking more and more every day like the teams that can go all the way.

The Yankees ran their latest winning streak to five games and made it 12 victories in 17 games when they whipped the Detroit Tigers, 6-0, Tuesday night while the Pirates scored their sixth win in seven games with a 3-2 "squeaker" over the St. Louis Cardinals. The Yankees now lead the Baltimore Orioles by a half-game and the Pirates lead the Milwaukee Braves by 3½ games.

The Yankees looked like the "bombers" of old with a 14-hit attack that included two homers by Mickey Mantle and a booming triple by Roger Maris. But the Pirates scored all their runs on singles and then needed a brilliant clutch relief performance by Elroy Face to nail down their triumph.

The Chicago White Sox snapped a four-game losing streak with a 4-3 decision over the Orioles; the Cleveland Indians nipped the Washington Senators, 5-4, and the Kansas City Athletics out-slugged the Boston Red Sox, 11-7, in other American League games. The Braves gained only a half game on the whizzing Pirates.

Gromer Paces Lance Bowlers

Johnny Gromer led the Lance team into clear possession of first place in the Sanford City Summer Bowling League last Wednesday night with the highest single game and series of the year so far. Johnny opened with a 208, improved slightly in the second game with a 213, and came roaring back with a 234 for a big 675 total for the night. The victims of his streak, George's Tavern, were able to salvage the last game, but the Lance win of three points, accompanied by the loss of all four points by second place Buddy's Auto Service, moved Lance six games in front of the pack. Red Cross led a team for Buddy's Auto Service, but Gene's Semolinole Cleaners and Laundry just wouldn't be beat. Paul Pezold was the top man on the Cleaners with a 358, but three others were within ten pins of him. Bukur's Music Shop also took four points from Harry's Liquors as they rolled the high team handicap series of the year with a 3105. George Kean led the bowlers with a 563, while Tom Best was high in the losing cause with a nice 568.

In other bowling, Jim Spencer's team took three points from the Lake Monroe Inn team, with Jim Maloney rolling 566 for the winners, and Dick Richards rolling a 594 for the losers. Jet Inn took three points from Larry's Mart with Joe Rubel rolling a 518 to lead the winners, and Gene Haley rolling a 568 for the losers. In the other match, Mather of Sanford took three points from Faust Druggs.

Draft Stevenson Move 'Simmering'

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The effort to draft Adlai E. Stevenson for a third try at the White House is still simmering with no apparent cook in the political kitchen.

Nonetheless his supporters expect Stevenson's bid to burgeon if Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts fails to wrap up the Democratic presidential nomination on an early ballot.

Sen. A. S. (Mike) Monroney of Oklahoma, a Stevenson supporter, calls the draft campaign a movement "with all Indians and no chiefs."

But neither Monroney nor Lehm can vote for Stevenson at the national convention. Monroney's entire state delegation is pledged to Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson.

Sen. A. S. (Mike) Monroney of Oklahoma, a Stevenson supporter, calls the draft campaign a movement "with all Indians and no chiefs."

A small cubby hole office is functioning here as a sort of clearing house for Stevenson clubs reported to be active in 46 states.

It tells the clubs where they can buy items like campaign buttons and bumper stickers and mails out information dealing with Stevenson as a possibility for the nomination.

Stevenson himself has given the movement no encouragement beyond making it clear that he would accept a draft.

As the draft-Stevenson campaign now stands, it is doubted that the twice-defeated candidate's name ever will be official-ly place in nomination.

Even so, he is expected to poll the votes of a small bloc of delegates—running behind Kennedy, Johnson and Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri.

If the combined vote of Kennedy's opponents and a holdout by favorite's sons candidate should deny the New England senator the nomination, Johnson presumably then would make his run for the prize.

However, there has been no evidence yet of a major Johnson breakthrough in the pivotal Northern states with the big blocs of national convention voters.

Unless Johnson can crack those states, Stevenson and Symington presumably would inherit most of the Kennedy delegates.

"We come to expect statements like this just before election campaigns."

Indians Kill Boy To Calm Quake Furies

SANTIAGO, Chile (UPI) — Indians in southern Chile killed a 6-year-old Indian boy and threw his body into the sea in a tribal ceremony intended to "calm the furies" of earth-quake and storm that have ravaged the area for the past month, police reported today.

The medicine man of the tribe and the parents of the sacrificed child have been arrested. The disastrous cycle of earthquake, tidal wave and storm began a month ago Tuesday with a quake that devastated the Concepcion area. Another major quake a day or two later inflicted heavy damage on Valdivia and Puerto Montt, cities farther to the south, and caused tidal waves which battered Pacific shores as far away as Japan.

Earthquakes have been almost a daily occurrence since that time, and heavy rains this month have caused landslides in several places. Two persons were killed Tuesday by a slide in Valdivia Province. Estimates of the total number of persons killed in the disaster range as high as 10,000. Damage is estimated at about $50 million dollars.

Dr. Dalton Vernon, University of Vermont human relations specialist, says more children should be taught foreign languages, he said. "It's not enough for a few scholars to know the languages and cultures of the people of the world. If our children are to live at peace and peacefully, great numbers of them need to feel at home in the languages and customs of the people who as soon as they are living only minutes away."

4 Kadet Units Set For DeBary Parade July 4

Four Kadet units, from DeBary, Casselberry, Maitland and Sanford, will participate in a huge fourth of July parade to be held at the DeBary Plaza.

The drill team units will march in a competition at 4 p. m., followed by an Independence Day celebration bazaar, which will climax in a blaze of fireworks to be shot at 10 p. m.

Spearheading the first annual event is the Kadet Auxiliary, with Mrs. Gloria Accardi in charge of the committee.

A lot valued at $2,000 has been donated to the Kadet unit by DeBary realtor, W. G. Miller. The proceeds of the event will be used to send the Kadet group to Savannah, Tenn., for two weeks of drill at the Officer Training School there.

Citrusmen Urged To Remain Free Of Controls

WINTER HAVEN (UPI)—Retiring president Vernon L. Conner told Florida Citrus Mutual Tuesday to remain free from "government controls and subsidies" that have weakened other agricultural industries.

Conner, of Mount Dora, addressing Mutual's 12th annual membership meeting here, told the growers "We want to run our own business in our own way."

Conner served as president four and half years and wasn't eligible for re-election.

"The grower, while working in harmony and union for the common good of the industry, must maintain a vigorous independence from all unnecessary and unwanted government controls and subsidies," Conner said.

"The Florida citrus grower must not seek handouts or preference from the federal government, such as have undermined the natural order in so many agricultural industries of the United States."

"The Florida citrus grower has done and is doing a good job in producing citrus, and because of this, the grower must also concern himself with ways and means of bringing about profitable utilization of this production.

"As growers, we must realize that our responsibility does not end with the growing of citrus fruit. We must, as well, accept the responsibility of helping to solve problems in the field of research, legislative quality controls, creation of consumer demand — as well as activity and representation in all matters that affect our welfare," he said.

Conner, who was appointed member of the Florida Citrus Commission by Gov. LeRoy Collins, predicted Mutual would have a membership of 11,000 by next year, 700 more than its present membership.

Battle On To Save School Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Top Democrats and Republicans were reported working today to salvage a federal school aid bill consigned to the scrap heap Wednesday by the House Rules Committee.

Speaker Sam Rayburn suggested that the rules action would be reversed. He did not say how.

Senate Republican Whip Thomas H. Kuchel (Calif.) called the committee action on "affront" to both houses and said it would be a "tragedy" to let the action stand.

The comments pointed up general speculation among House and Senate members that one Democrat and one Republican who voted against the bill Wednesday would be persuaded to change their votes.

That would reverse the 7 to 5 ballot by which the powerful rules group refused to allow negotiations toward a compromise of differing school bills already passed by the House and Senate.

It was conceded that Rayburn could produce the required Democratic vote provided Vice President Richard M. Nixon could turn up one on the Republican side of the aisle.

There were indications that Nixon could and would take care of his end of this chore. He has let it be known he wants a bill passed.

Rep. B. Carroll Reece (R-Tenn.), one of the four GOP rules members to vote with three Democrats against sending the school bill to conference, was viewed as the key man in the struggle.

Reece earlier had cast a deciding vote for the school bill. He had been counted on for another favorable vote Wednesday. Today he declined to rule out the possibility he might move to reconsider Wednesday's vote and switch from no to yes.

Kuchel spoke out as perturbed Democratic school aid supporters challenged Nixon to help them salvage the programs tied up by the conservative-dominated Rules Committee.

The committee refused to permit a conference to iron out differences between bills passed separately by the Senate and House.

The surprise action, which stunned backers of the legislation, was carried off by a 7 to 5 vote in which all four Republicans joined three southern Democrats in opposing the conference.

Kuchel said that if the rules committee's action stands "the very theory of representative government in the United States will have been grievously assailed."

"It, by parliamentary procedure a House-Senate conference is prevented from fashioning a school bill to present to the Congress, a shocking shameful blow will have been dealt to education in America," Kuchel said.

A Hero

LIVERPOOL, England (UPI) — Colin Murphy, 34, early could have made it from the fourth story ledge of the burning department store to an adjoining roof. But he never did.

Murphy, a heating engineer, looked behind him into the flames and smoke and saw five girls struggling to get out a window. One by one, he led them across the ledge to the safety of the next building. When he finally started to make the crossing himself, the ledge crumpled.

"He lay flat on his stomach," an eyewitness said later. "When it got too hot, he flung himself over and hung from the ledge by his fingertips." Then he fell.

Murphy was one of 11 known dead, eight of them women, in the blaze that destroyed the five-floor Henderson's store in the center of the city Wednesday. Police said other bodies yet may be found in the ruins.

Damage was estimated at $5,000,000.

Brevard Board Agrees To House Juveniles

The Brevard County Commission today agreed to house Seminole County juvenile offenders for $1.25 per day.

County Judge Vernon Mize and County Commission Chairman John Krider appeared before the Brevard commission to inquire about the feasibility of housing juveniles there until a new county jail is built here.

The board agreed to house the juveniles at its holding jail facilities at Titusville. The Titusville jail has separate juvenile facilities.

Next Tuesday, the Seminole County Commission is expected to approve the transfer.

Mize and Krider were authorized by the commission Tuesday to negotiate with Brevard commissioners after Circuit Judge Volie Williams last week barred detention of all juveniles at the Seminole jail.

Mize today said that the Brevard jail had "excellent" facilities.

Tornado Hits Plant City

PLANT CITY (UPI) — Tornado winds of between 75 and 100 miles per hour struck here Wednesday and caused $30,000 in damage, demolishing five planes and two hangars.

No one was hurt, but Junior Smith, 30, of Plant City, was knocked down by a lightning bolt during the severe thunder storm.

Airport owner Hugh Robinson said the planes were in the hangars and were destroyed when the lightning knocked him down.

Dynamite Found At Union Office

TAMPA (UPI) — Six sticks of "pitch digger" dynamite were found Wednesday at the Teamsters Union headquarters in the latest of several strikes incidents here.

Police said the dynamite was not a bomb but was "50 percent nitroglycerine — what they call ditch digging dynamite."

A man was seen by a union official near the building at 1 a. m. but fled when the official approached.

The Teamsters Union and the Operating Engineers Union are striking against the Cone Bros. Distributing Co.

The pattern offer of a 4 percent wage increase was accepted Wednesday by the 107,000-member Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, largest of the operating unions.

The Trainmen became the third largest brotherhood of on-train employees to settle their differences with the railroads.

Government arbitrators earlier this month awarded the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers a 4 percent increase and the Order of Railway Conductors and Brakemen subsequently accepted the pattern.

Fence Argument Called Drawback
Longwood Mayor A. B. Lormann today charged that an argument over an auto service garage on Hwy. 17-92 is "responsible for holding back the orderly development of the northeast quarter of Longwood."

Lormann made his statement a controversy which has evolved between the developers of the Longdale subdivision and Longwood and the operators of Owens Bros. Body Works.

A move has been made to get the body works firm, which abuts the subdivision to enclose its yard "to avoid the creation of an unsightly condition next to the residential area," Sumner Aaronson, Longdale developer, told county commissioners Tuesday.

"The developers and builders are erecting well constructed homes in the northeast Longwood area and it looks as if it could become one of the better living sections of the town," Lormann added.

The mayor said he favored the idea of a screened fence around the body works yard, "enclosing it from view of the residents living in the area."

Discussion and possible action on the feud is expected at the next Longwood town council meeting.

Ike Determined To Save GOP

HONOLULU (UPI) — President Eisenhower was determined to do everything within his power to keep the Republican Party from being drubbed in this contentious political year for his failure to visit Japan during this just concluded trip to the Far East.

Eisenhower, resting and contemplating the results of his trip in seclusion on the island side of this beautiful island, is convinced that much of the domestic criticism of the Japanese debacle is politically inspired and, he thinks, without justification.

Therefore, in his trip report to the American people next week he will emphasize the success of his visits to the Philippines, Formosa and Korea and chalk up much of the difficulty in Tokyo to the Kremlin's displeasure over the generally warm response his trips have received in other parts of the world.

The television and radio speech, to be delivered from Washington next week after his return to the White House sometime this week, is rounding into shape here at the Kaneohe Marine Air Station where the Chief Executive has established a temporary White House.

Longwood Chief Warns Speeders

A crackdown on speeders in the Longwood section was ordered today by Longwood Police Chief Claude Layton.

The action came following a recent rise in speeding warnings issued by the police chief and his assistant.

"From now on there will be fewer warnings and more citations," Layton said.

City Tax Roll Estimated To Go Over $21 Million

Non-exempt property valuations on the 1960 tax roll for Sanford will go over the $21 million mark, City Mgr. W. E. Knowles said today.

Last year's valuations were $20,766,833.

Knowles added also that the City Commission will start work on the budget in August when the tax roll is presented to the board.

Knowles said that one reason for the increase in valuations was that the city annexed six-tenths of a square mile last year.

The city manager said that he expects the 1960-61 budget to be higher than the current one with expenditures to increase due to the increase in the cost of materials and that "I will work to get an increase for city employees including workers in the water, public works, sewer and finance departments."

"I feel that the commission will consider increases in these departments," he said, adding "that the last cost of living increase was in October of 1958."

However, Knowles added that this would not include increases for the police and fire department members who were given a raise last year.

The current general operating budget is $707,000 with a debt service of $220,000.

Knowles emphasized that an increase in expenditures does not mean that millage in the city will be raised.

"I expect the millage to be 17 mills even though that figure is 33 percent less than any other community of our size," he added.

Tax Assessor Henry Tamm reported that his office is completing field work on the 1960 roll and will present it to the commission in mid-August.

CHIEF JACK HORNER, left, Billie Shaddix, checking film and narration for Naval Air Station presentation on television Saturday.

Army, AF Plan To Launch Communications Satellite

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Army and Air Force plan to launch next month an experimental satellite designed to relay military communications, informed sources said today.

The newest space venture now followed by the armed forces would consist of the feasibility of single-shot launches of satellite clusters.

The only previous American attempt to orbit two satellites in one shot was made 16 months ago with a Vanguard and ended in failure.

Wednesday's success was a measure of U. S. space progress, demonstrating the feasibility of single-shot launches of satellite clusters. The possibility of getting up more payloads with fewer boosters could save millions of dollars.

The communications satellite now under development by the Army Signal Corps for launching by the Air Force is called "Courier." It is one of a number of space communications projects under the general code name of "Natos."

The most ambitious of the projects, bearing the label "Decree," is a satellite that would be put into orbit at a height of 22,000 miles where it would remain always over the same point on the earth.

Military men look on such satellites as means of relieving present overloaded communications channels and "providing reliable and instantaneous contact on a global basis."

They believe these projects are just as urgent as missile warning and reconnaissance spacecraft.

The other satellite launched Wednesday with the Transit II-A was a device to measure solar radiation. Both were pouring out steady streams of data today as they circled the earth approximately every 101 minutes.

The Air Force launched the satellites for the Navy.

Underwater Mark Attempt Fails

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI) — A New Orleans night club singer gave up early today after 78 hours and 35 minutes at the bottom of a motel swimming pool in an attempt to break the 100-hour underwater endurance record.

John Gary, 27, a former professional diver turned singer, jumped into the pool last Sunday night and vowed to stay down, in the interests of science and publicity, for a week.

FBI Adds Burglar To Wanted List

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Richard Peter Wagner, a sometime from-bomb and a full-time burglar, was added to the FBI's list of 10 most wanted criminals today.

The fugitive, known to police as a shoogun-wielder, has boasted that once in a four-month period, he committed a total of 35 burglaries in 18 states.

The burly criminal who became a 42 Saturday has spent almost his entire adult life behind bars. The FBI warns that Wagner must be considered extremely dangerous inasmuch as he has been found armed with shotguns, rifles, pistols in the past.

U.S., Japan Sign Treaty; Kishi To Quit

TOKYO (UPI) — The United States formally assumed responsibility for the defense of Japan Thursday but the act toppled from power the man who had worked hardest for it, Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi.

Minutes after U. S. Ambassador Douglas MacArthur II and Japanese Foreign Minister Fujiwara signed the revised treaty of mutual cooperation and security, Kishi announced he would resign.

The final signing and exchange of articles of ratification were arranged on an hour's notice to avoid a threatened leftwing demonstration by fanatic Zengakuren students.

The ceremony went off smoothly but later 5,000 demonstrators gathered at a mass rally downtown and declared their intention to march on the Diet, the Foreign Ministry Building and Fujiwara's home where the signing took place.

The 68-year-old prime minister did not say just when he would step out of office, thus making it clear he intended to play a decisive role in the choice of his successor.

Kishi's announcement touched off political infighting in his faction - ridden Liberal - Democratic Party.

Kishi had successfully controlled various party factions since he became premier Feb. 27, 1957, but the tremendous pressure that built up over the U. S.-Japan security treaty proved too much.

Violent opposition from left-wingers and Communists and sniping by political enemies within his own party led to his decision to resign.

Kishi had been under particular heavy fire ever since he used his parliamentary majority to ram ratification of the treaty through the lower chamber of the Diet (Parliament) May 20. The opposition accused him of using "tyranny of the majority."

This led directly to bloody leftwing riots, the mobbing of White House Press Secretary James C. Harearty and finally cancellation of President Eisenhower's visit to Japan.

In his resignation statement Kishi said he had dedicated himself "without caring for my own personal honor" to bring prosperity to Japan.

Severed Line Cuts Off Phone Service

Telephone service in Oviedo and southeast Seminole County was cut off this morning for more than three and a half hours when Sanford road equipment cut a telephone trunk line at 34th Place and Sanford Ave., City Manager W. E. Knowles said today.

Knowles reported that a tractor accidentally cut the line at 8 a. m. and service was restored by noon.

Nearly 100 telephone subscribers in the area were without service. Crews in the 34th Place area were working on the Sanford Ave. widening project when the accident occurred.

House Set To OK Medical Aid Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House was ready to pass today a scaled-down program which would provide federal-state medical care aid to between 600,000 and one million needy old folks.

The stage was set for roll call approval of the plan when the House Wednesday rejected an attempt to send the bill back to the ways & means committee for more study.

The measure would offer federal matching grants to states that agreed to expand their public assistance programs to include medical benefits for persons over 65 who can not afford medical care but are not poor enough to be on relief.
