SCHOOL FUND DRIVE TO HOLD OUR TEACHERS WILL START MONDAY

Sanford Folks Appreciate Good Teachers and Will Pay Them

EVERYBODY HELP

WELFARE DEPARTMENT OF WOMAN'S CLUB IN CHARGE OF THIS GREAT WORK.

Beginning Monday morning a drive for funds will be inaugurated by Mrs. A. P. Connelly and her committee, to supplement the teachers salaries, that our children may have the benefit of the best trained teachers that can be secured. The present salaries paid are inadequate to meet their needs and cover the present day high cost of living as teachers representative men and women of a community, era expect so much of them in every way, and particularly in the matter of dress are they expected to keep pace with the times but the salaries are not proportionate. The amount for which the committee will strive, will be five thousand ($5000.00) and surely there will be no one in Sanford who will not contribute in a drive so essential to the education of our children. There will be the usual house to house canvass and the business district will be visited. Associated with Mrs. Connelly are Mrs. E. M. Galloway, Mrs. S. Puleston and Mrs. W. L. Morgan. This committee represents the Welfare department of the Woman's Club which has taken the initiative in an effort to secure better salaries for the teachers, and applies only to Seminole County.

BETTER SCHEDULE SHIPM'TS

CONGRESSMAN CLARK AND DRANE LOOKING AFTER FLORIDA FRUIT AND VEGETABLE GROWERS.

Washington, April 23.—Quicker movement of vegetables and fruit shipments between Florida and New York, with the schedule cut from the five to six-day ratio as between Florida and the metropolis as now to three or four days, is the agreement reached between the Interstate Commerce Commission and a gathering of fruit and vegetable growers and shippers held here today. This quickening of schedules will mean the saving of hundreds of thousands of dollars to the growers and shippers because it will mean a saving in decay caused by longer periods on the road and a keeping in closer touch with the markets. Prior to the government's taking over the railroads the time for a carload from points in Florida to New York was within four days but under government operation the schedule slowed to five and six days.

Several days ago when the railroad strike began it was realized that unless drastic action should be taken to get the Florida products to Northern markets at the earliest possible moment the loss resulting would be incalculable. With this end in view the meeting was called, at which a plan was put up for consideration. This in brief provides that fruit and vegetable cars shall be run from Florida points to New York in from three to four days, so that there shall be no further damage. It is impossible to attach these cars to passenger trains, hence it has been decided to run them straight to New York from Florida on passenger schedules.

Congressman Drane though at home on campaign business, worked effectively through his Washington office and Representative Clark was instrumental in securing a speedy adoption of this plan, which will save Florida growers a large amount of money.—Tampa Tribune.

Make 500,000 Fords In Half Year

When the first six months of the Ford Motor Company fiscal year ended January 30st, more than half a million of the sturdy little Ford had left the factory to join their three and a half million brothers and sisters on the world's highways. And Ford Officials express confidence in their ability to turn lose the other half of the million by July 30st, when their year ends.

However, they say that a million a year is far from the ultimate in motor car manufacturing; and that with the completion of the Blast Furnaces and Body Plants which Henry Ford is now building in Detroit, the yearly output is bound to assume larger dimensions. The present sent capacity is 1,200,000.

The Blast Furnace project on which Mr. Ford has been working for the past three years will enable the Ford Company to make Ford parts direct from the iron ore instead of buying the iron ingots and then melting them before making into parts. At the present time there are approximately 15,000 men engaged at the Blast Furnaces and in the new body plant. But it is quite probable that that number will be more than doubled once the Steel mills—which will be the largest in America—begin to operate. Ford men do not attempt to place any estimate on what the production of cars will be in the future, but point to the fact that they have been able to supply the demand for the past ten years and that at the present time there are some 200,000 unfilled orders on file.

Jacksonville May Have Municipal Ship Plant

ORGANIZED EFFORT TO CHECK OUR TRADE WITH SOUTH AMERICA

British Propaganda Seems Levelled at South Ports

MERCHANT MARINE

COULD NOT BE COMPETITION OF BRITISH LINES IF SHIPS WERE SOLD.

Washington, April 23.—Following evidences of an organized effort by alien interests to check the development of new American trade routes by forcing the immediate sale of our government-owned Merchant Marine and at the same time securing the cancellation of certain export rates, Matthew Hale, in behalf of the South Atlantic States association, has asked for an investigation of British propaganda in this country. He has addressed a letter on the eight senators representing South Carolina, North Carolina, Georgia and Florida, calling their attention to the fact that Delos W. Cooke, associate director of British Cunard Lines, under Sir Ashley Sparks, heads the committee which will appeal to the Trunk Lines association and the Interstate Commerce commission for the cancellation of export freight rates to South Atlantic ports, which compete for traffic in the middle west with Halifax, a British port.

Attention is called to the agitation certain large shipping interests which formerly operated to a large extent under British flag, are conducting for the immediate sale and breaking up of our huge new merchant marine. This activity is said to be in direct accord with the policies desired by British shipping firms in their fear of American competition. It is claimed that some American railroad and shipping interests as well as commercial organizations have been induced by misrepresentation of facts, to cooperate with what is essentially, pro-British activity.

WHO INVENTED OUIJA

Brothers Ask Baltimore Court to Settle Dispute.

Brothers, Apparently Lacking Faith in Talking Board, Ask Judge to Decide.

Baltimore.—At the moment, that the ouija board, which some years ago excited the country and then virtually disappeared, has again come into the limelight throughout the world, two brothers are engaged in litigation here over the ownership of the patent.

The trial is now in progress of the suit of Isaac Fuld, trading as the Southern Toy company, who is asking for an injunction to restrain his brother, William Fuld, from deriving pecuniary profits through the sale of the ouija board.

The plaintiff asserts that in 1904 he originated, manufactured and placed upon the market the board under the copyright name of the oracle and that later William Fuld started the manufacture of the ouija board.

William Fuld asserts that he and Isaac Fuld were in business together years ago, and that the ouija board is the original talking board, and claims that the oracle talking board manufactured by Isaac Fuld is a copy of the one placed on the market by him.

The Fuld's about 28 years ago were in charge of a wooden toy factory known as the Kenard Manufacturing company and the ouija board was one of the devices they made to entertain the young. It quickly won tremendous popularity and so overshadowed the business of the concern that the plant was largely devoted to the making of the ouija board.

WIRELESS TO GUIDE FLYERS

Patrol Planes on the Mexican Border Are Equipped With Radio Sets.

Washington.—In order to reduce the danger of American air service pilots accidentally flying over Mexican territory or becoming lost while on border patrol duty, the commander of the Ninety-first Aero squadron, stationed temporarily at Ream field, Imperial Beach, Cal., has had every plane of the squadron equipped with a radio set with a wave length of 377 meters which is the best wave length to dodge interference. All pilots are required to check their position every five minutes.

As a further precaution the radio officer of the Ninety-first squadron has erected at Ream field a radio compass station by which readings are taken while planes are sending in their position reports. As the course is almost straight east from Ream field the radio officer can tell almost instantly whether a given plane is holding to its proper air line.

Should a pilot become confused, lose or mistake his position and turn south, the radio compass would immediately show that the plane was over Mexican territory.

ODD INVENTIONS PATENTED

Tornado-Proof House, "Pedal Calorificators" and Other Queer Contrivances Listed.

Washington.—In enumerating some of the strange patents sanctioned by the patent office an attorney mentions a tornado-proof house, the invention of a New England man. It is built on a pivot, so that every breeze turns it with its head to the wind.

Among other inventions is a "pedal calorificator," with which one can blow upon one's toes to warm them. It is a tube, worn under the clothing, with a branch leading to each foot and a mouthpiece at the top. Then there are a polisher for false teeth—merely the end of a cornucob stuck on a stick; a sanitary pocket for carrying chewing gum, a wooden bit for preventing snoring, a noiseless alarm clock that yanks the sleeper's arm instead of ringing, another that starts a mechanism that throws him out of bed, and a machine for counting eggs as they are laid.

AS HE SAW CHRIST

Pen Picture of Jesus Is Discovered in Rome.

Drawn by Proconsul in Palestine in Letter Describing "Man of Strange Virtue."

Rome.—From the dust of more than 1900 years a studious modern Roman has rescued a pen portrait of Jesus Christ. It was drawn in one of the letters that Publius Lentulus, who was a Roman pro-consul in Palestine and knew the Savior in Nazareth, wrote to a friend in Italy.

"There has appeared here a man of strange virtue," Publius Lentulus wrote. "His disciples call him 'The Son of God.' He cures the sick and raises the dead to life. He is a very handsome man and worthy of all our attention. His hair is blond and covers his shoulders in separate curls and is parted in the middle, after the fashion of the people of Nazareth. His forehead is smooth and serene, without marks or wrinkles; his countenance is pink; his nose is well formed; his beard, of the same color as his hair, is parted in the middle.

"In his gaze is an expression of wisdom and of openness; his eyes are blue, but shine terribly when he reproves people; but in conversation they are amiable. His observations are expressed with liveliness, although he always remains calm. Nobody has ever seen him to laugh; but he often weeps. Of a good height and straight figure he has very beautiful hands and arms. His manner of speaking is serious. He speaks but little, and is modest. In short, he is as handsome as a man may be. They call him Jesus, the Son of Mary."

Expert antiquarians and students of history pronounce the letters of Publius Lentulus to be entirely genuine. For centuries they were forgotten save by students of Latin and ancient Rome. The advent of Christmas brought the letter quoted to the mind of an old professor here. He translated it into modern Italian and sent it to some of his learned friends as a historical curiosity. It seems to verify the belief that the Savior had a fair complexion and light hair, as many old artists depicted him.

HOUSE FILLED WITH SPOOKS

Offer of Free Rent Falls to Attract Tenants and Owner Sells It.

Pineville, W. Va.—The famous haunted house at "Rarden," on the Norfolk and Western railroad, is being demolished by the new owner, C. W. Brown, who purchased it in an administrator's sale, because the spooks behaved so badly during the last twenty-five years that no one would live in it.

The house is a big two-story frame structure and is one of the landmarks of the village. According to those who have occupied it ghosts, spooks and spirits abound in it. It was built more than half a century ago, and the alleged walking of chairs and tables, and door raps, rattling of dishes and pans and removal of covers from persons occupying beds have driven those who have occupied the place to give it up.

The ghosts have been reported for a quarter of a century, and during that time a score of different families have occupied the house, but only for short periods. For years no one would occupy it, although it was offered rent free.

TROTSKY TRAVELS IN STYLE

Red Army Chief Has De Luxe Train of 14 Coaches, One a Garage.

London.—The special train of Leon Trotsky, the chief of the Russian red army, is a most elaborate affair, consisting of fourteen cars and two powerful engines. It is supplied with a wireless installation capable of receiving communications from Nauen, Lyons and London. One of its most interesting fittings is a printing office which prints Trotsky's paper, On the War. The greatest curiosity of the train is the "garage," which contains six cars, one a powerful French automobile which belonged to the late Emperor Nicholas.

The escort on the train consists of 250 infantrymen, a whole company of machine gunners, as Trotsky, with his train has often been near the front and has several times been in danger of his life. The train also contains a library and a dining car.

REDS CIRCULATE BOGUS CASH

Bolsheviks Sent United States Counterfeits to Mexico, Official Says.

Washington.—Residents of Mexico have been warned by the foreign office to be on guard against efforts to circulate in that country a large amount of counterfeit money made in the United States, the state department has been informed. The warning was based on a report by Ramon E. de Negri, Mexican consul general at New York.

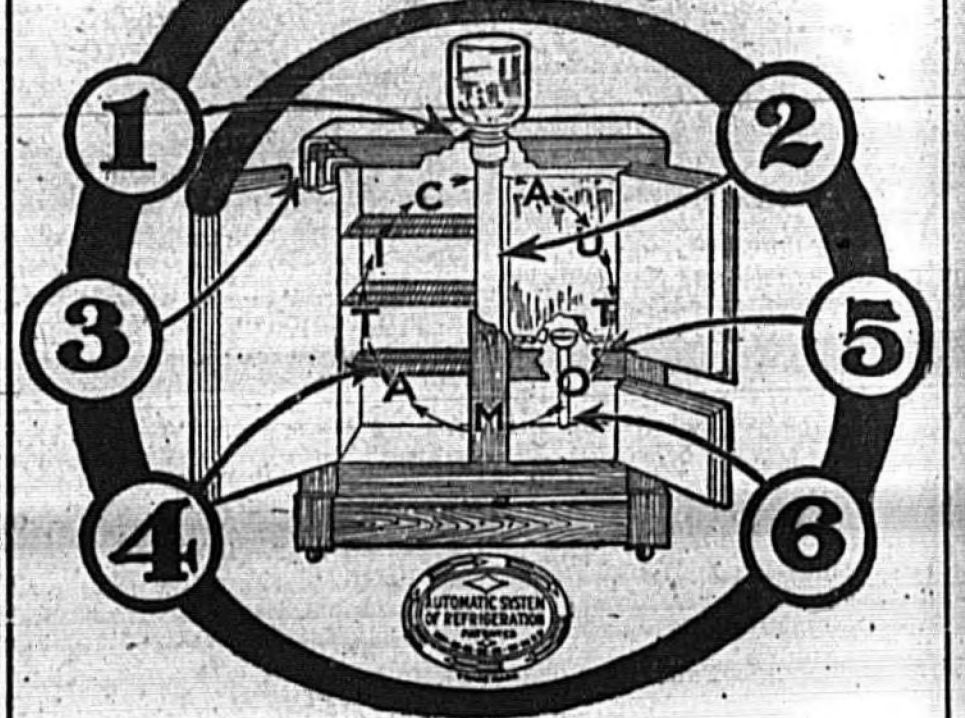

De Negri's explanation of the situation was that agents of the Russian Bolsheviks had manufactured and placed in circulation the counterfeit currency in reprisal for the "persecution" of radicals by the United States government.

The power was off several hours yesterday and off again today for several hours and the same old story becomes new again for a daily paper cannot be printed in Sanford under present conditions. This paper will cut the daily edition Saturday and you can thank the Southern Utilities Co., for the loss of a daily paper as well as the loss of all kinds of business enterprises

This paper does not know the plans of the progressive Sanford citizens who recently purchased the old Sanford House property but we do know that they are not given to making any grandstand plays, they are not talking for publicity purposes and they are not trying any holdup game They will develop this magnificent property and the entire city of Sanford will benefit thereby.

We hate to announce the discontinuance of the Daily Herald but it helps some to hear the many expressions of regret from the subscribers who will miss their daily visitor during the summer months. However no one knows what we have suffered in financial loss by the Southern Utilities Co's failure in service and until we can be assured of constant power we simply cannot operate a daily paper It things change by next October we will resume the Daily Herald and

Bob Holly of the Sanford Herald can't hardly wait for the ball season to open so he can begin lambasting the towns which are going to wallop the "Celery Feds."—Tampa Tribune. If we wait for that to happen, Jawn, we will be deaf and dumb all during the "serious."

We have a bunch of good stuff to put in the Herald if we can ever get power again and we ask the readers to wait until that time. There was much about the carnival, about the churches and various other events that should have been printed but you can't print without electricity, don't you know.

And then in speaking about articles on this and that and the other we want to inform the public that this paper will curtail much of this stuff that in days gone by had so much free space. No other business on earth is giving anything away these days and you should not ride the newspapers for column after column of free stuff.

The fact that the Sanford House property has been sold and a big hotel will soon be built and many other enterprises started here has brought several men with money to invest to this city. We hope they will meet some of the glad hand boys instead of the "rain in the face" types and that they will invest while the investing is good.

The grand and glorious chance of a lifetime is for some enterprising merchant to start a big department store here in Sanford where the opportunities for getting all the trade for one hundred miles around is the best proposition in the state. It is too bad the folks here who could start this one have not seen it before.

COUNTY HAPPENINGS

Welfare Department With a good attendance and Mrs. B. W. Herndon presiding, the Welfare department held a most interesting meeting at the Woman's Club, Wednesday afternoon.

A pleasing program with the topic "The Teacher's Salary" made the meeting one of real pleasure. A very fine paper was given by Mrs. E. F. Housholder on the topic, who in a splendid manner developed important points and excellent reasons why our teachers should be paid better salaries. Superintendent of Instruction for the County, Mr. T. W. Lawton, the special guest of the day also gave a good talk on the subject showing why the salaries are not commensurate with the teachers' services. At the close of the discussion which followed Mrs. A. P. Connelly was appointed chairman of a committee to meet with the City Commissioners, and school Board for the purpose of devising ways and means by which funds may be secured for increasing salaries until further state legislation provides the funds.

During the business session it was voted that the Welfare Department take the initiative and give $200.00 of the Carnival receipts to form the nucleus of the teachers salary fund. $100.00 more was donated to the Fernald-Laughton Memorial Hospital for purchasing the most needed, and one that will be lasting, article for use in the hospital. Mrs. S. Puleston was made chairman of this committee. The balance of the Carnival receipts will be placed temporarily in the Savings Department subject to the decision as to their use for civic purposes. After all bills are paid the department will have cleared approximately twelve hundred dollars.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year. Vice Chairman—Mrs. E. D. Brownlee; Secretary-Treasurer—Mrs. H. B. Lewis; Chairman of Finance—Mrs. T. W. Jones; Membership Committee—Mrs. Herbert McCallin; Program—Mrs. E. M. Galloway.

A detailed report of the Carnival receipts and expenditures will be given later.

BANDITS IN ATTACK ON SHIP

Albanian Outlaws Fire on Vessel Carrying United States Red Cross Supplies.

Scutari, Albania.—The steamer Skodra, flying the French flag and carrying American Red Cross supplies for Montenegro, was held up by bandits while en route up the Bojana river, and one of the sailors was wounded.

The ship had just reached a bend in the river when the bandits appeared with machine guns and began to embark a boarding party in small boats. The captain turned the vessel and ordered all steam ahead down the river. The bandits immediately opened fire and riddled the sides and upper deck of the ship with machine gun bullets.

Sure Signs of Storms.

A sudden and local motion of the air, not otherwise seen but by its whirling up the dust on a dry road in calm weather, in the manner of a waterspout, is a sure sign of a coming storm. When swallows fly low it is a sign of approaching rain. This is accounted for by the fact that before rain insects which are the swallows' food fly very low, and the swallows always fly where their food is.

All necessity for external force implies a morbid state.—Herbert Spencer. How Graphite is Mined. The mining and purification of graphite used in lead pencils is unlike the process of silver ore. It is generally found mixed with quartz, silica and mica. It is necessary to pulverize the rock with crushing machinery, which is followed by the extraction of the graphite. Before the graphite is mixed with the clay it is strained through very fine silk sieves, so that all particles the least bit coarse may be removed. Washington's Political Faith. Washington was a Federalist, and a strong party man at that, but he was unanimously elected to the presidency by the Federalists and Democrats. He was also the unanimous choice when running for re-election. John Adams was vice president under Washington and succeeded him in the presidency. There was a contest, however, in 1796 between Adams, Federalist, and Jefferson, Democrat, in which the former was the winner.

Weinie Roast at Lake Harney

The young men of the Senior graduating class of '20 were hosts to the girls and a few other friends at a most enjoyable woodland picnic and lake-party, Wednesday night when Lake Harney echoed the gales of merry laughter, the scuffling of canoes, that skimmed its surface in the moonlight.

All the pleasures of such a frolic were enjoyed in full measure by the happy young people, swimming canoeing and a "weenie roast" such fun! and as if anything more was needed to complete the end of a perfect day, a marshmallow toast was it." The boys of the class of '20 proved themselves right royal hosts and together, the young graduates are enjoying with much enthusiasm these last pleasures of their school days.

Singular Illness. "Sid—One of our operators is quite hoarse. The doctor tells me, she confided, 'that my larynx are affected—whatever they are.' We told her this was a singular affection, but unless given prompt attention might become pleural."—Correspondent of the Chicago Tribune.

Undeterred by Physical Ills. Elizabeth Barrett, before she married Browning, spent long years on her couch. At the age of fifteen she met with an injury to her spine, which kept her in a recumbent position for several years, and from the effects of which she never recovered. It was during these years that she wrote those sonnets which are her greatest claim to immortality.
