Captain Edwards Given Farewell Tribute

Seminole County officials and civic leaders bade farewell today to Capt. F. G. Edwards, welcomed his successor as commander of Heavy Attack Wing One, Capt. Joe Tully, and heard Congressman Syd Herlong declare war on "back-door" spending by the government.

The City of Sanford and County Commission also presented Edwards with letters of appreciation as they greeted Tully, who will become commander of the wing at change of command ceremonies at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday at the Naval Air Station.

Legislature Gets Mixed Report Card

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Legislature got a mixed report card over the weekend from the Department of Education and the Florida Education Association.

Congress Must Resist 'Back-Door' Government Spending, Herlong Says

Congressman Syd Herlong told Seminole County residents today that he is glad the county remained in the Fifth District when the Florida districts were realigned and then said he thinks Americans must make sacrifices to defend themselves, but declared that he felt they must be protected from the "back-door spending" by the federal government.

Only members of Congress can know the pressures on them to take away more and more of the wealth earned by the people and to dictate how and for what it shall be given back to them. It is frightening to feel that the people themselves may not realize until too late what the sponsors of many programs know full well that every such transfer of personal responsibility to the federal government means the loss of just that much of the personal liberty that our forefathers were willing to die for.

The constitutional power to appropriate which is vested in the Congress, through the practice of what is called "back-door" spending. Bills set up programs calling for financing by borrowing from the Treasury; by establishing revolving funds that go on and on; and by granting authority to agencies to enter into contracts which obligate the Congress for future appropriations.

City To Award Chair Bids

Board To Discuss Courthouse Repairs

It was learned from official sources that the Barcelona rebels controlled the city and had seized the governor of Anzoategui state and other high civil authorities.

The Barcelona radio station Emisoras Unidas, apparently under rebel control, reported that insurgent troops were marching on the big port city of Puerto La Cruz. This is about six miles from Barcelona and is one of the country's biggest oil ports.

Deputies Hunt Armed Robbers

Kennedy Invokes Taft-Hartley Act In Shippers Strike

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy today invoked the Taft-Hartley labor law to halt the nationwide maritime strike for an 80-day period. One union leader had already warned that a worse strike would follow the injunction period.

By executive order, the President found that the current shipping strike threatens to "imperil the national health and safety." He set up a special board of inquiry to investigate the dispute and report back to him no later than June 30.

After receiving the board report, the President then can turn the case over to Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, who could petition a federal district court for an injunction halting the 11-day strike and sending 75,000 striking seamen back to work for 80 days. It was the first time since taking office that Kennedy invoked the Taft-Hartley law, which he voted against as a congressman.

Politicians Suspect Each Other

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Democrats and Republicans, who rarely have any trouble finding things to argue about, now are publicly suspecting each other of being kind to newspapermen.

Each side figures the other has subsidized press travel to make sure its activities are covered.

Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson's recent world trip got the argument started. Correspondents were billed $1,300 each for air travel with Johnson but Rep. William H. Avery, (R-Kan.), told the House last week their transportation really cost more.

Today the latest overseas tour of Ezra Taft Benson, former secretary of agriculture, were cited as having been considerably cheaper than Johnson's for reporters.

Benson, according to Rep. L. H. Fountain, (D-N. C.), carried his press contingent free.

There were some differences in the arrangements. Benson's press corps traveled in a government plane with him. The presumption was that their going along added nothing to the cost of the flight. The Johnson press contingent traveled in a separate chartered jet liner, along with some government people.

According to figures put into the Congressional Record by Avery, the $37,000 in fares paid by 31 reporters with Johnson left a net $110,000 tab for the charter to be picked up by the State Department.

"I just wonder," he asked, "what is the policy of the government as far as subsidizing press coverage of a man like that who recently reported that Avery's figures were about right but that his conclusions were wrong."

Rep. John R. Rarab, (D-N. Y.), replied that Avery's figures were about right but that his conclusions were wrong.

He said the fact was the extra plane had to go along anyway, in case Johnson's Air Force jet ran into trouble (which it did) and to haul an overflow of government people. So the net effect of taking along the reporters was to save the taxpayers almost $40,000 he said.

Authorities Probe Suicide Of Vanderbilt

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Authorities today sought an explanation for the suicide leap of newlywed George Vanderbilt, who had inherited $40 million in the past 26 years as the action of one of America's wealthiest families.

The 47-year-old sportsman-philanthropist jumped to his death late Saturday from the 10th floor of San Francisco's Mark Hopkins Hotel, shortly after he and his bride of three months registered.

Vanderbilt left no notes behind when he plunged out the picture window minutes after he returned to the suite from purchasing tickets to the theater.

Mrs. Vanderbilt, the former Mrs. Louise Mitchell Paice of Bronxville, N. Y., said she could not give any explanation for the tragedy. She said she was drawing her bath when her husband returned to the suite.

"The last words I heard were 'I've been calling you,'" she said. "I called through the door, 'I heard you.'"

She said her husband was gone when she left the bathroom a few minutes later. She saw the drapes blowing through the large picture window, which had been closed earlier.

Vanderbilt was the great-grandson of Cornelius Vanderbilt, builder of a railroad empire. He was born in Rhode Island, son of the late Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt. He won the Legion of Merit for heroism in combat while serving aboard a PT boat in the Pacific.

Eichmann Admits Signing Orders For Executions

JERUSALEM (UPI) — Adolf Eichmann admitted today he signed orders for executions of Jews. But he likened himself to Pontius Pilate and washed his hands of any guilt.

The 53-year-old former Nazi lieutenant colonel told the court trying him for mass murder that he only passed on orders from Nazi police boss Heinrich Himmler that were sent down to him "through channels" for transmission.

"The orders came from Himmler," he declared.

Eichmann began his fifth day of testimony when the court recessed after a two-day week-end recess. His West German defense counsel, Dr. Robert Servatius, told the court he expected to complete his examination of Eichmann "about the beginning or middle of next week."

Servatius continued questioning Eichmann about the so-called "Wannsee conference" of senior Nazi officials held in a Berlin suburb Jan. 20, 1942, at which security police boss Reinhard Heydrich announced officially for the first time the plan for "the final solution of the Jewish problem"—the extermination of all European Jews.

Eichmann admitted Friday he prepared the notes for Heydrich's speech as well as the official minutes afterward.

Servatius asked Eichmann what were his own feelings when he learned of the extermination plan.

"I felt a certain feeling of sadness and appeasement," he replied. "I considered I had done my utmost, despite my relatively low rank of lieutenant colonel in the SS and I knew that I personally had sought a final solution that was neither repellent nor hideous but possible and feasible."

"I do not say this because I am facing an Israeli court and standing trial before Israeli judges today. But this is the truth. I did my very best to bring order into the chaos and confusion in the deportation and emigration of Jews."

He claimed that his idea had been to set up Jewish states—in the plans for an all-Jewish area near Lublin in Poland and later an all-Jewish state in the big island of Madagascar.

Eichmann continued: "In the light of all this I can say that the decision was made regardless of my efforts. I felt it was not with me that the guilt lay, because what was laid down at the Wannsee conference was laid down by the popes of the state. I was only able to carry out orders and I had to follow them whether I wanted to or not."

"This is how I found justification for what I did and from this I drew satisfaction in later years."

Watch Out

When schools here dismissed classes it turned loose in every nook and cranny of the county a thousand pleasure seeking kids who are bent on "living it up" between now and Labor Day.

Instead of being more or less concentrated around schools, the kids will be all over the countryside like a swarm of happy butterflies and we've got to watch out for them.

They will be too busy having fun to watch out for you, so while you're behind the wheel—no matter where you're driving—watch out for them.

We re-emphasize the need for people to join in the national drive to slow down and live this summer. It will mean increased safety for everyone concerned.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Note the cost of weddings that First, Miss cites. The usual bride's mother tries to indulge her own social ego at the expense of the simpler desires of the wedding couple. Mothers, it's supposed to be THEIR marriage, not a show-off event to let you dawdlers get on the Society Page! Have a heart!

CASE J-428: Don D., aged 23, is soon to be married. "Dr. Crane," he began. "I feel nervous about the wedding. 'If it were left to me, I'd rather sleep or just duck out with my sweetheart and a couple of friends so we could be married without fanfare and fuss."

"But her mother is crazy for a church wedding, with all the trimmings, so I suppose we'll have to suffer to make the old folks happy."

"Wouldn't you think the bridal couple could have the final decision as to how they'd like to be married?"

"If so, I'd just stop at the office of the Justice of the Peace."

Don has much logic on his side, except for that idea of being married by a Justice of the Peace.

With no divorce intended for these able officials, a wedding is a religious event that should occur in a church or parsonage, and under the direction of a clergyman!

Never change the highest contact between man and woman by uttering your vows in a smoke filled office with maybe a cupid present and a half smoked cigar butt lying on the table.

Have enough consideration for your bride to surround this unique event with religious and ceremonial significance.

But you don't need to spend a large sum on a church wedding. Simply go down to the altar with your prospective bride and let the clergyman perform the ceremony! But GET MARRIED BY A CLERGYMAN!

At Carson-Newman college, Professor Herbert J. Miles and his associate Ray F. Koonce made a survey of 70 formal weddings.

The students derived the data from questionnaires sent to their friends who had recently participated in a formal wedding.

Of the 70 church marriages, the average cost was $1,311.27. The breakdown was in five categories: Paid help, $287.75; flowers, $211.15; dress, $355.50; reception, $220.20; miscellaneous, $764.68. Total, $1,804.66.

The average wedding cost of $1,311.27 thus showed that most couples omitted about $500 worth of the extra frills.

For example, under "Paid Help" was listed the Minister's fee that averaged $17.68, plus payment to organist, soloist and even a Wedding Consultant whose charge averaged $38.25 (more than double that of the faithful preacher).

And under that "Miscellaneous" heading came rings at $301.77, plus photographs, license, etc.

Remember, these costs were for formal weddings in Southeastern U. S. A. among middle class families.

Smart parents realize that the average young couple would much prefer the wedding cost as a deposit on a new home.

Aside from the bride's flowers, plus the license and minister's fee, there is little point in lavish show-off behavior at a wedding.

A simple, religious ceremony is far more appropriate and also much more spiritual than to fatigue the bride with several weeks of hectic dress fittings and the innumerable other headaches that society-minded mothers hatch up to harass the young couple.

Mothers, have a heart! Elaborate weddings don't prevent divorces!

3 Considered For Postmasters

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Three Florida residents are being considered by the Senate for jobs as postmasters.

They are Gladys M. Clifton, Barberville; James E. Combs, Glen Saint Mary; and Howard H. Babbs, Umatilla.

The three were included in 145 nominations sent to the Senate by President Kennedy for confirmation.

First basic patents to make "artificial leather" date back to 1865.

If Russia isn't on the level with the bomb tests, then the United States is liable to be. Let's see, I mean. There hasn't been any thing to equal America's trust in Russia's good fellowship since the first lion tamer stuck his head in a lion's mouth.

Unless Britain's Foreign Secretary, Lord Home, starts taking a more rigid stand toward the Soviet Union he is likely to become known as the Russian's Homing pigeon.

It's surprising that a man who uses a bulldozer to run over the rights of men would be satisfied with a batch of comparatively small tractors.

Let us hope that Mike Mansfield, the majority leader, is a minority of one in the Senate when it comes to his plan for making Berlin a free city. A city free of what? Would Mr. Mansfield guarantee a Western access route to Berlin with "international peace teams?" Does he mean those same "international peace teams" which have maintained such peace, quiet, order, calm, decency and sportsmanship in the Congo?

For years basketball coaches have been advocating that the baskets be heightened to improve the game. Now it seems that what the game needs are not higher baskets, but higher morality on the part of many of the players.

It wasn't until France and Algeria got down to talking about the Sahara (and its oil) that the possibility of peace became somewhat of a mirage.

Why is it that Free World leaders have such an aversion to tough talk? Khrushchev talks tough 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, and is hailed throughout the world as a brilliant diplomat, and is forever being given credit for taking the initiative out of the hands of our statesmen. And a study of the map will instantly reveal what his sabre-rattling has brought the Russians.

I have no patience with the ceaseless talk of how we of the free world are making a battle for men's minds. You would think that whenever the leaders of the world spoke every man, woman, and child in the world sat quietly in the audience, taking notes. And then went home to think things through before deciding which way to lean — communism or toward the West.

Billy Wilder Starts Private Cold War, Ends At Summit

By ERSKINE JOHNSON

WEST BERLIN—(NEA)—The private cold war of moviemaker Billy ("Some Like It Hot") Wilder broke out at the Brandenburg Gate and wound up at the summit—the roof garden of the Berlin Hilton.

Billy was lucky he wasn't hauled off to Siberia. In the shadow of the hammer and sickle at the Brandenburg Gate of Spittville, Billy inflated a yellow balloon with letters in black reading:

"Rusaki Go Home."

It was only for a movie but the East-West zone line, where some like it cold, is tense enough. Six pairs of East Berlin police binoculars caught the balloon's message which canny Billy failed to mention when he was promised "cooperation." All he wanted to do, he said innocently, was to film a motorcycle passing through Brandenburg Gate into East Berlin.

The balloon he didn't mention was tied to the rear of the motorcycle and suddenly it was "not" to all further East Berlin cooperation at the gate—and could the East Berlin authorities please see a copy of Billy's film script?

Striking a subtle blow for democracy and capitalism, Billy yelled:

"I wouldn't even let President Kennedy read my script."

The Communist bosses of East Berlin had cause for alarm.

Oscar-winning Billy ("The Apartment") was turning his wit on the cold war between West and East Berlin, hanging a whole movie full of laughs on (and at) the Communist party line.

Approximately 12½ million Americans own stock in U. S. business.

WASHINGTON (NEA) — An important first suggestion that all the federal government's fiscal, monetary, spending, taxation, credit and international financial programs be better co-ordinated with the larger private business sectors of the economy in the interest of greater stability has just been presented to President Kennedy. It is the result of three years of study by a private, non-governmental Commission on Money and Credit—CMC.

No program as sweeping as this is going to be presented to Congress or enacted by the lawmakers this year or next. It might take as long as five years for any large proportion of the commission's 80 specific recommendations to win acceptance.

CMC does not attempt to set forth a blueprint for the whole economy nor does it propose extensive government regulation. Most of the changes it recommends could be effected by minor amendments to the Full Employment and Federal Reserve Acts and by subsequent executive orders.

The three basic goals would be to maintain low-level unemployment, adequate economic growth and reasonable economic stability. No members are attached to these objectives.

The Commission on Money and Credit which worked out this plan has been made up of 25 business leaders, bankers, economists and representatives of farm, labor and other special interest organizations.

It was set up in 1957 by Committee for Economic Development—CED—a research group of 100 progressive leaders organized during World War II. Its present chairman is Frazier B. Wilde, board chairman of Connecticut General Life who also served as CMC chairman.

With the help of $1.3 million in grants from Ford Foundation, CMC lined up 110 economists who compiled 11,000 pages of reports which researched every study ever made in the fields of monetary policy, fiscal policy, public debt, private financial institutions, federal credit programs, international monetary relations, and economic growth.

The commission's seven task forces on these subjects boiled this down into a 300-page report, "Money and Credit—Their Influence on Jobs, Prices and Growth," published by Prentice Hall and now being given wide national distribution.

No member of the commission endorses all 80 of the report's recommendations. It is filled with footnotes of individual dissent on specific points. But all 25 CMC members, ranging from liberal left to conservative right, endorse its general objectives. This is something of an achievement itself.

One of the key recommendations—and one which will probably arouse most controversy—is that whenever U. S. business conditions run counter to objectives of the Full Employment and Federal Reserve Acts, the President would be required to make a special report to the country.

It would set forth existing economic conditions, steps being taken by government to handle it, explain any inconsistencies and make any further recommendations deemed advisable for congressional action.

Additionally, a flexible income tax rate for the first 20 per cent bracket would be authorized by law. The President would be authorized to adjust this rate five points up or down—25 per cent—whenever it is determined that the U. S. economy is moving into a period of recession or inflationary excess.

This change in the basic tax rate would be subject to congressional approval or rejection within 60 days. The rate change would then be effective for six months, by which time the shift in the economy could be corrected.

Many of the CMC's 79 other recommendations on fiscal, monetary matters, international payments, credit and debt management are incomprehensible to people not experts on them.

The president's annual economic message to Congress, special reports of the Council of Economic Advisers and hearing of the Joint Congressional Committee on Economics have considered these subjects piecemeal ever since the Full Employment Act of 1946 was passed. In 1955, 1956 and 1959 there were extended congressional hearings with special emphasis on Federal Reserve problems. The CMC report marks the first time the whole field has been covered so thoroughly.

It has not yet been determined whether he is willing to advance communism at any price.

It also has been said of him that he is a tough bargainer but is not willing to commit suicide. The next six months may tell.

Congressman Raps Water Pollution

CHICAGO (UPI) — A Michigan congressman said today that more than "100 million" Americans are getting their drinking water from rivers carrying sewage, industrial wastes "and anything else that can be flushed down a sewer or thrown from a bridge."

Rep. John D. Dingell (D-Mich.) made the statement in an address before the 39th annual convention of the Isaac Walton League of America here.

He said that unless industry moves to control its pollution, its contribution will be an equivalent of the waste of 300 million persons by 1970 "and no one knows how much by 2000."

Kennedy Reserved Toughest Diplomatic Test For Himself

By PHIL NEWSOM

UPI Foreign News Analyst

President Kennedy reserved for himself his administration's first face-to-face contact with Nikita Khrushchev.

To his chief lieutenants he entrusted other important assignments which now, after five and a half months, will determine the future shape of U. S. foreign policy.

Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson took over the Southeast Asia assignment with special emphasis on South Viet Nam. From this came the decision to strengthen the South Vietnamese army, to stop up U. S. aid and to dispatch U. S. experts in guerrilla warfare in the same tactics used by the Communists.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk has met his opposite numbers in the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization and in NATO. Part of his job will be to re-world NATO into a strong defensive force and to increase both its conventional and nuclear capabilities.

To U. S. Ambassador to the United Nations Adlai Stevenson went the pulse-taking assignment in South America.

But it was the cocky and self-confident Khrushchev that Kennedy reserved for himself.

The "somber" state of U. S. Soviet relations, upon which the president reported to the nation after his return from Vienna, was highlighted this week by the dispatch of two Soviet notes from Moscow.

Both were in effect ultimatums. One reiterated the Soviet stand on a German peace treaty. It demanded a "free" West Berlin in which at most only token Allied forces would be allowed to remain and called upon the two Germanies to conclude within a longer than six months agreement on "questions falling into their internal competence."

Skilled people who fuss over the high wages paid unskilled labor should sometimes ask themselves if they would like to do the sort of work that unskilled workers do for their high pay. A lot of it is real tough work, and lots of it is done in real mean weather and under rough conditions.

"What Will I Be?"

Boyhood is the atomic age of man. Perpetual motion powered by the explosive energy of youth.

Yet there are times when every boy must be alone, for only solitude can he shape and size his dreams to a man's dimensions. What will he be when he grows up?

Today's business management, alert and sensitive to its public responsibilities, helps answer this vital question by creating jobs and opportunities to fit constructive boyhood dreams of any age and shape.

Nikita Acts Like Man Out To Win Votes

MOSCOW (UPI)—Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev is acting like a man campaigning for office. In a sense, that is just what he is doing.

The opposition in the United States and just about everything it stands for.

Khrushchev can last as supreme chief in the Soviet Union—top man of the party as well as the government—only so long as he can keep the people and other party leaders convinced that this country is continuing to forge ahead under his leadership.

In October, he will have to account for his stewardship at the Communist party congress. Meanwhile, he is laying the groundwork.

Sunday he gave the latest of a series of speeches designed to show that the Soviet Union specifically and the Communist world generally are overtaking the United States and its allies by leaps and bounds.

In a talk at a gathering in Alma Ata, capital of Soviet Kazakhstan, Khrushchev proclaimed that the Soviet Union had raced past England and France and now was "snapping at the heels of America."

He compared the United States to a "worn out runner" that was slipping fast to the Soviet Union. Part and parcel of the preparations for the Communist party congress is Khrushchev's renewed

Driver's License Renewal Gets Underway Sept. 1

Florida's new driver's license renewal plan gets underway Sept. 1 this year with some licenses to be issued for one year and some for two, depending upon the year of applicant's birth.

Under the new system, each driver will renew his license every two years during the month of his birth. Those who are issued one year licenses the first time will receive two year renewals at all future dates of expiration.

Current Florida licenses, which ordinarily expire Sept. 30, will be good until the last day of each driver's next birth month.

All drivers in the state who were born in September must renew licenses before Sept. 30. Each month thereafter, applicants will get new licenses during the month of their birth. Once the system is in operation, every driver will renew his license every two years during the month of his birth.

For those who were born before the beginning month of the new plan, extensions will be automatically granted until their birth month in 1962. Only those born in September, October, November, or December will make renewals this year.

If a Florida driver is out of state during the month his renewal is due, the license should be forwarded, with the proper fee, to the County Judge or to the Dept. of Public Safety, Tallahassee. Applicants should make sure to retain the temporary license presently attached to the 1961 license.

Validation stickers may be obtained from the County Judge for a 25 cent fee by those out of state whose birthdays fall after September. The sticker, attached to the back of present license will prove the validity of the license and will prevent delays or arrests in other states.

New residents may receive, after passing the required examination, licenses at any time of the year. Odd year births will be issued an original license which will expire at midnight on the last day of birth month in the first odd year after the original is issued. For example, an applicant born in April, 1911, gets an original license issued in December 1961.

His next renewal must, therefore, be made by April 30, 1962.

Or, an applicant born in August, 1920, issued an original license in December, 1961, must renew his before August 30, 1962.

Once an original is renewed, new licenses always will be due thereafter anytime during the month of birth every two years.

MISS ALICE DAYTON is a teacher who has retired twice. Once from the school where she taught for 23 years in New York City and now again in Seminole County.

Born in Meriden, Conn., Miss Dayton graduated from Waterbury High School and attended Connecticut Teachers College at New Haven. After she began teaching, Miss Dayton continued with night school at New York University, where she earned her B.S. degree and went on teaching in grade school at George Washington School for the next 23 years.

A few years ago she retired and moved to Sanford with her family, but soon went into substitute work in the Pinecrest School and then in a regular teaching job for the last three years.

Travelling is her hobby and she plans a trip soon to Connecticut and Maine. Miss Dayton has traveled extensively, taking trips to Europe twice, to the western U. S. twice and also to Nassau, the Bahamas and Bermuda.

Her hobbies are music and playing the piano for her own pleasure, reading and social work. In her social work in New York, she was a member of the Netherlands Chapter of the DAR.

MARGUERITE EKAS PAUL was born in Pittsburgh, Pa. The granddaughter of a Methodist minister and the daughter of a teacher, it is not strange that she chose a teaching career as her life's work. Success in this field comes to one fully dedicated to her work in all its various phases.

Mrs. Paul graduated from the University of Pittsburgh with her A.B. degree and then from Columbia University in New York City with a Master's degree.

But added to her formal education are wonderful learning experiences gained from extensive travel and the years of teaching in both elementary and secondary schools. While teaching in Oakmont High School in Allegheny County, Pa., she was head of the English Department and district coach, producing some 23 first-place plays over the years.

She also has retired twice now, for she had finished her career (she thought) in Pennsylvania before coming to Florida. And also in those later years, 1951 to be exact, came a big change in her life, when she married the Rev. D. M. Paul, a retired Methodist minister.

MISS DAYTON

When she came to Florida in 1955, she could not resist the appeal to her old calling and soon found herself back teaching at Pinecrest School where she has spent six happy years.

Mrs. Paul says that what she likes best about teaching is the opportunity and the privilege to work with children and to see them grow physically, mentally and morally into fine young American citizens.

This is what she will miss most, she says, for this is the greatest reward and pleasure in teaching.

When asked what she would do after retirement her answer was that she was not decided, but that it would be something worthwhile. And this we know will be true, because Mrs. Paul still bubbles with energy and ideas, and will be busy wherever she goes.

Allison Lee Wins Music Scholarship At Curtis Institute, In Philadelphia

Miss Allison Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lee of Birmingham, Ala., and formerly of Sanford, has been a busy girl the past year. Her many friends in the Sanford area and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Winn, are very proud of the honors she continues to win with her nimble fingers.

Her latest accomplishment was her acceptance into the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia. Two days after her audition, she was notified that she had been accepted into the piano department. Students are accepted on full scholarship there after an audition with thousands of musicians from all over the world. She will be tutored during her senior year in High School at the conservatory.

During her four years in college, she will attend the conservatory for a B.M. degree and the auxiliary classes at the University of Pennsylvania for her A.B. degree, receiving both degrees simultaneously. She will begin her studies in the fall with Lee Luvisi, assistant to Rudolf Serkin.

Allison is an A student at Ramsey High School in Birmingham and recipient of the music department's award for three straight years. This year she won a national French teachers of America award.

She is a member of Alpha Theta Delta Sorority and was in the "lead-out" at the annual ball at the Birmingham Country Club, this month.

She was also a finalist in the Junior Miss Alabama Contest, held in Birmingham, and chosen as one of the six representative talents to perform in the final pageant staged by Jimmy Hatcher, who was in charge of the Miss America contest at Atlantic City, last year.

She won the coveted Hugh Thomas scholarship, a year at the Birmingham Conservatory of Music. In April she won the regional competition for the Merrilweather-Post Contest in Atlanta, Ga. This entitled her to represent the district in Washington, D. C. and to perform with the National Symphony under the direction of Howard Mitchell.

She played Beethoven's (Emperor) Concerto, and was entertained by congressman George Huddleston of Alabama while in the Capital with her parents. This was the second year she won this honor.

Miss Lee has accompanied the Ramsey Glee Club during her three years at Ramsey High and is a member of the Ramsey Ensemble of the Glee Club, which has won superior ratings in state competition for four years. They won a special award this year and an invitation to sing for the state meeting of the Federation of Music Teachers in Montgomery. She has appeared with this group on local TV programs many times.

She is pianist for the downtown First Baptist Church in Birmingham and will continue until she leaves for the Curtis Institute, in September. She plays for all services and the junior and senior choirs.

This summer Allison will give a solo recital over one of the TV stations with 15 minutes of piano music and 10 minutes with Everett Holly. She will also compete in the scholarship division of the Miss Alabama contest. This is just a few of her accomplishments and activities. Her Sanford relatives and friends are always anxious to know what she has not already won and will be waiting to see her name on Broadway some day.

Project Chosen By Ethel Root Circle

Mrs. Virginia Boyd was hostess to the Ethel Root Circle of the Congregational Christian Church at her home, 600 Camellia Court, for the regular monthly meeting. Mrs. Ralph Lossing led the devotion after which the various officers gave their reports.

The members were quite pleased when two foreign letters were read. One was from Newell Steward of the Congregational Christian Service Committee, Athens, Greece, thanking the ladies for fulfilling their friendly service quota by sending money to purchase much needed blankets.

These blankets are being used in the mountainous areas in west central Greece. Most unusual was the letter heading which was printed in both English and Greek.

The second letter was also a thank-you letter from the American School for Boys, Talas Kayseri, Turkey, thanking the group for the books sent to them.

The Gold Bond Group project plan was again discussed and the ladies decided to work for a steam table for their church kitchen. This had been discussed before but a definite item had not been decided on. Members were urged to save their stamps and book backs in order to procure this nice and much needed table. Colorful and tasty refreshments consisting of marshmallow-nut salad and crackers, lime soda with green tinted locubes were served by the hostess to Mrs. Howard Rollins, Mrs. Maurice Corbett, Mrs. Bea Alford, Mrs. H. Thurston, Mrs. Earl Moxley, Mrs. E. Simpson, Mrs. Helen Remusat, Mrs. Oscar Ziltrower, Mrs. Norma Cook, and Mrs. Lossing.

The next meeting will be a joint meeting of both the church circles on July 3 at 7:45 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of the church with Mrs. Alford and Mrs. Corbett as hostesses.

Luncheon Honors Oviedo Graduates

Miss Nancy Estes and Miss Julie Gore, members of this year's Oviedo High graduating class and Mrs. Milton Gore, who will receive her degree at Rollins this summer, were guests of honor at a luncheon given by Mrs. Jack Dodd last Saturday.

A group of friends of both the three honorees and the hostess were invited to enjoy the occasion.

How To Look Cool During Hot Months

By ALICIA HART, NEA
It's not an easy trick to look cool and attractive on a hot, humid summer day. But some extra pampering and a bit of planning can help a lot.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Nash, of Atlanta, Ga., left Saturday after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wine, 105 Pine Lake Drive, in Loch Arber.

Mrs. Oina Boutwell and daughter, Edna, left by plane for Cleveland, Ohio. They will visit for several weeks with her mother, Mrs. Sylvia Kaminik and other relatives in the area.

Miss Dolores Swilley spent the weekend with her mother and other relatives in Alapaha, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Colley and daughter, Linda, of Jacksonville, are visiting Mrs. Colley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Nix, at their home on Douglas Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Black, of Thomaston, Ga., have returned home after a visit with Mrs. Black's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Hastings, at Rosevelt Lake.

New Arrivals

Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Ward Jr. of Oviedo announce the birth of an 8 lb. 9 oz. son, June 19 at the Winter Park Memorial Hospital.

They have christened the name Chris Richard for the new arrival. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Ward Sr. of New Smyrna Beach and maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. A. Whitson, also of New Smyrna Beach.

Chris has two other children, Misty and Sharon.

Start the day off with a cool, relaxing tub, to which you've added fragrant bubble bath. The bubbles will soften the water and leave your skin fresh and sweet.

Because of the sleeveless, low-backed fashions of summer, more of "you" is on display. So make frequent use of a moisturizing body lotion on your arms and back to counteract the drying effect of the sun and salt water.

Your legs, too, are very much in the limelight and need extra attention to keep them looking smooth. After shaving, be sure to lubricate them well to remove any flaky skin. This can easily be done with hand and body lotion—and its delicate scent will add to your feeling of overall freshness.

Open sandals are comfortable during the hot weather, but they certainly put your feet on view. If you polish your toenails, make sure that the polish is always in good repair.

Try using a cooling mentholated foot cream after your bath for comfort. For beauty use a softening cream on the rough skin around the heels.

Your hair can create another summer problem if you don't plan carefully. Have it professionally styled so that you can handle it yourself between settings during the hot weather.

All hair, whatever the texture, can lose its luster from overexposure to the sun. To keep it manageable and attractive, buy a good hair cream and use it often.

You'll find that cologne is one of your best warm-weather friends. Choose a light, floral fragrance for daytime. For a special cooling lift, store your bottle of cologne and spray mist in the refrigerator.

It does require a little extra time and effort to look cool and chic during the dog days. But the fresh, dainty reflection in your mirror will be ample reward.

Miscellaneous Shower Honors Recent Bride

Just prior to her marriage to Andy Duda III, Miss Pat Jackson of Oviedo was honored at a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. L. Smithson, Mrs. J. P. Elridge, Mrs. Wesley V. Swenson, Mrs. Gordon Pendarvis, Mrs. Joe I. Bessley, Mrs. Max Leinhardt and Mrs. J. B. Jones Jr. at the City Hall Memorial building.

The spacious room was decorated with huge baskets of gladioli and the bride's table, overlaid with a white cloth, was centered with a silver crescent shaped bowl of roses.

The honoree was assisted in opening her gifts by her aunt, Mrs. Allen Johnson of Atlanta, while Miss Peggy Fleming, also a bride-elect, kept the gift book. The serving table was centered with an unusual arrangement of roses, flanked with crystal candelabra and white tapers.

A colorful array of sandwiches, mints and nuts added to the attraction of the table. Two crystal punch bowls containing colorful punch was served by the hostess.

A large group of relatives and friends, including Mrs. Douglas H. Jackson, mother of the honoree, and Mrs. Andrew Luther Duda Jr., mother of the groom, were present for the occasion.

The bride was given a place setting in her chosen pattern of china by the hostess.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: What future is there for a young man, 24, who lives to gamble? It started out to be a hobby, but now it is his full-time occupation. He has ideas that are out of this world when it comes to making a fortune gambling. He is good-looking, well-liked, and educated. He says he has studied the odds, and he gambles "scientifically," so he can never lose. He claims he has read extensively on "the psychology of gambling." So far he has been lucky. But do you think a girl can be happy with a man who makes his living this way?

GAMBLERS GIRL

DEAR GIRL: The "psychology of gambling" is not very complicated. It is the science of trying to get something for nothing. Don't bet on a gambler. You are a cinch to lose.

DEAR ABBY: Why does a mere wife think she has special privileges? Everyone knows "Till death do us part" is old-fashioned. If a wife can't hold her husband, why doesn't she get out?

I was married and had one child, aged 4. I fell in love with another man. We worked together. He was married in name only. His wife was older than he was. He married young and didn't know the score.

We planned to get divorced and marry. He wanted to wait. I did not, so I divorced my husband. My boy friend stalled. So I phoned his wife and let her know that I was in the picture. I wrote her letters telling her everything. I also parked outside her house, wanting to talk to her in person, but she ignored me. My boy friend started feeling sorry for his wife and told me to lay off. I refused. Then he finally gave me the old excuse about his wife being sickly, and his children needing him. My home is broken up because I believed his lies, so why should I give him up without a fight? I owe her nothing.

THE OTHER WOMAN

DEAR WOMAN: There is no man to "fight" for. He has given YOU up. To paraphrase your own words, "If a woman can't steal another's husband, why doesn't she lay off?" Look for a man in your league.

DEAR ABBY: A bunch of catty women wrote in asking you if their neighbor, who went to barber college to learn how to cut her husband's hair, carried a hot lunch to his place of work every day instead of packing him a sandwich, never disagreed or argued with him, and always called him "Sweetheart" and "Baby," was the ideal wife, or were the rest of them just "average slob." And your answer, Dear Abby, didn't sound like you. Tell me the truth, do you write your own column every day? Or were you on vacation?

ABBY FAN

DEAR FAN: I write my own column every day. And I never go on vacation. If I said that woman was anything but an ideal wife, I must have had a geranium in my cranium. Forgive me?

We The Women:

By Ruth Millet

One of the things that housewives seem to do best is make lists.

At any time of the day, and day of the week, the average housewife has at least one list going, probably more.

There is always a grocery list, of course—on which the efficient housewife writes down everything she intends to buy on her next trip to the supermarket. This is, unfortunately, the list she often forgets to take along when she lights out for the market.

Then there is a "fix-it" list that nearly always has a few items on it such as "cell about washer," "test toaster repaired," "stain top refinished." This is probably the most burdensome list of all for, as any housewife knows, getting anything repaired is a major project—what with waiting around for a repairman to show up tomorrow and then waiting around the day after when he doesn't show on schedule; then finding out that a part has to be ordered and going through the same routine again. For that reason all but the most necessary repairs usually stay on the list quite a while.

There's also usually a gift list—reminding the housewife of the wedding gifts, birthday gifts, graduation gifts, housewarming gifts, and so on, that need to be bought, gift-wrapped and mailed or delivered within the next few weeks.

There's also a list of appointments for the whole family—since it is the housewife who has to remember Junior's dental appointment, sister's music lesson, and the like. In the average family this list—filled with a week's appointments—is usually a depressing sight to the housewife who doubles as family chauffeur as well as secretary to her tribe.

If there is a party in the offing there is sure to be a list that includes such things as guests to be invited, special household chores to be done, food to be bought, and so on.

A housewife just couldn't get along without her lists. For her they take the place of a private secretary.

Add to your list: Send for Ruth Millet's booklet, "How to Have a Happy Husband." Send 50 cents to Ruth Millet Reader Service, c/o The Sanford Herald, P. O. Box 488, Dept. A, Radio City Station, New York 19, N. Y.

Jacoby On Bridge

By Oswald Jacoby

The "nothing play" is a play that can't win, but can't lose. It is the exact opposite of the "100 per cent play" that can win but can't lose.

West leads three rounds of hearts against South's four spade contract. South ruffs the third lead and if he wants to try a nothing play he simply runs off four trump leads and hopes that the clubs will break or that which ever opponent holds four clubs will have discarded one.

This isn't a real nothing play because it can work; clubs have been known to break 3-3. Also, there is no 100 per cent play at South's disposal, but he has a much better play than the one just mentioned.

South should draw two rounds of trumps and then lead out his ace, king and queen of clubs. The way the cards lie, East who holds four clubs and three trumps will be unable to keep South from ruffing out his last club and making his contract.

If the clubs happened to break 3-3 South would simply pull the last trump. If the man with two trumps held the four clubs South would not have been able to make his contract on any line of play.

Surprise 6 — "The frightened Canary." (Repeat). If only to see Ray Danton's portrayal of a vicious, egotistical nightclub star, this one is worth a look. The surrounding plot is generally routine, and though you may think the Danton character is overdrawn and unbelievable, there's always the possibility that he isn't. 8:30 p. m. ABC.

Danny Thomas. (Repeat) — Uncle Tomooose (Hans Conried) returns for a visit and takes over the show. His purpose in coming is to help a relation out by investing in a nightclub. Much talk from Tomooose—much entertainment. 9 p. m. CBS.

Andy Griffith. (Repeat) — The idea of casting Don Knotts as a lover is a good one, so he and Andy Griffith are engaging throughout. Seems Deputy Barney is making calf eyes at a girl and boss Sheriff Andy plans on giving him an extra push. 9:30 p. m. CBS.

Brenner — "Blind Spot." (Repeat). One of the better entries in this 1959 series. Lieutenant Brenner has to track down the man who shot his son, and the cop who believes in honest and objective investigation finds himself so blinded with hatred, he throws away the book and almost frames an innocent man. Well-done and absorbing tale. 10:30 p. m. CBS.

Jack Paar Show. — Orson Bean takes over this week for vacationing Paar and brings Phil Foster and Dayton Allen of the old Steve Allen show along for the chatter. (Color). 11:15 p. m. NBC.

MANCHESTER, Mass., (UPI)—Frogmen recently located the wreck of the U. S. revenue cutter Galatia on the ocean floor 75 feet below the surface about 15 miles off here.
Only one member of the cutter's crew was lost when the vessel crashed into a ledge and sank Jan. 6, 1902.

Italian Cameras Haunt Celebrities

By ERSKINE JOHNSON

ROME — (NEA) — So Ernest Borgnine leaned down to pick up Katy Jurado and . . . "BOOM, BOOM, BOOM!"

"We were framed," the fiery Mexican actress exploded to me as she and Ernle sat billing and cooing and deploring "the scandal-makers - with - flashbulbs" who prowl the Via Veneto after dark. "Bewildered," Ernle said.

The headline over the photo said Ernle had slapped Katy in the face right in front of everybody at the sidewalk cafe on the Via Veneto shortly after their U. S. separation and reconciliation here for a second honeymoon.

"I slipped and went boom and the flashlight went boom and boom we were on the front pages," Katy wailed.

"I didn't slap her," Ernle said. "She slipped and I picked her up."

"I'm always falling down," Katy explained. "I have weak ankles, ever since I'm a child. Sometimes I just stand up and I go boom. I've been falling down in high heels since I was 16. We were framed."

As they told it, and as others confirmed it, free lance photographers along the Via Veneto and in Rome's swank restaurants prey on celebrities. They snap offbeat photos to sell as "authentic" peeks at the world-famous living dangerously.

"Never point a finger," Borgnine warned. "The photo comes out in the papers here saying that you were threatening someone."

"It happened to Ava Gardner, too," Ernle said. "She told me one of the photographers got mad at her and she got mad at him. So one day he climbed a balcony and photographed her in the nude. We don't go near the Via Veneto anymore."

Cameo roles in two movies, "Barabba," and "The Last Judgment," and a starring part in another, "The Brigands," all for producer Dina de Laurentiis, brought Borgnine to Rome. The arrival of Katy won her a role in "Barabba," too.

She's playing a bawdy Jerusalem tavern keeper, girl friend of the assassin (Anthony Quinn) pardoned when Christ was crucified in his place.

"But first I must lose the accent," the lass from Tamalpais fretted. "I can't be Katy saying, 'Si, Senor Barabba.'"

With Ernle's Italian background — his great-grandmother was a countess — he has many relatives here.

"More cousins than Chill Wills," he roared.

"Feel som about my painting," Katy said.

"With two fingers," Ernle said. "Water colors like children do. But she's great."

"I can't use a brush," Katy said. "You should see our bills for manicures." Ernle said. "He has his car (a $14,000 sports job he just bought) and I have my finger painting," Katy said.

"It's like Katy told me when we were married," Ernle said. "She said, 'No two 24 hours with me will be the same.' She was so right."

The Via Veneto "awinda" still bothered Ernle. "Never point a finger," he warned.

"If you did," Katy said, "it's going to be BOOM, BOOM, BOOM!"

Married Life Crazy, Flynn's Ex-Girl Says

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Beverly Aadland, 18, traveling companion of the late Errol Flynn, returned with her new husband to Los Angeles today following a Las Vegas wedding and honeymoon.

Beverly and Maurice Jose de Leon, 22, a Los Angeles draftsman, were married Saturday night at the Silver Bell wedding chapel.

"Married life is crazy," Beverly said. "I really do enjoy it, especially when you can sleep until noon."

"I'm married and I love it. I wanted security and eventually we want children too, but they will have to wait for a while."

Brawl, 'Boner' Sparks Weekend Baseball

United Press International
The major leagues staged an early July 4 celebration Sunday with display of fireworks involving a home run record, a brawl and a 380-foot force play which recalled the most famous "goner" in baseball history.

When the short tempers and long homers had at last been recorded it was a day on which—Norm Cash hit three home runs as the Detroit Tigers and Cleveland Indians split a doubleheader to move within four of Rudy York's 22-year-old big league mark of 18 homers in one month.

Volatile Jimmy Piersall touched off a near riot when he scuffled with pitcher Jim Bunning during the Tigers' 6-3 first-game victory and Vic Powers narrowly avoided a "Merkle boner" on the play which enabled the Indians to win the second game, 4-3.

The Cincinnati Reds fought off late-inning threats to beat the Los Angeles Dodgers, 5-2, and go three games in front in the National League.

The Chicago White Sox whipped the Washington Senators, 7-3 and 6-3, to run their winning streak to 10 games and give them 47 victories in their last 18 games.

A record 16 pitchers saw action as the Baltimore Orioles downed the Los Angeles Angels, 9-8, in a four-hour and 42-minute 14-inning marathon.

Cash drove in four runs with his 22nd and 23rd homers of the season to spark the Tigers in their opener and his 24th of the season in the nightcap gave him at least 14 for the month.

Piersall precipitated the brawl on the field when Bunning hit him on the shoulder with a pitch in the fifth inning. Piersall charged to the mound and began to throw punches as both benches emptied and players swarmed onto the field.

Power sprouted goat's horns of monumental proportions in the ninth inning of the second game which ended when Chuck Eassey hit a 380-foot drive to right field with the bases filled and one out. Power, thinking the ball would go over the fence for a homer, neglected to run and was forced out at second base when Al Kaline relayed the carom off the fence to second base. Eassey lost credit for a hit but Mike de la Hoz' run counted because the forceout of Power at second base was only the second of the inning.

It was the same type of play by Fred Merkle which cost the New York Giants the 1908 pennant and caused him to be ridiculed for a half-century.

Vada Pinson's double was the key blow of a first inning in which the Reds scored all three of their runs. Joey Jay shut out the Dodgers until the seventh when Jim O'Toole and Jim Brosnan went to his rescue. Brosnan preserved Jay's ninth win by striking out Darryl Spencer to end the Dodger rally.

Billy Pierce pitched an eight-hitter and struck out 10 to win the 180th game of his career with the White Sox in the opener and then Early Wynn came back with four-hit pitching for eight innings to win his fifth game of the year and 289th of his career.

The New York Yankees beat the Minnesota Twins, 8-4, and the Kansas City Athletics topped the Boston Red Sox, 3-2, after a 7-4 loss in other American League games. In the National League, the St. Louis Cardinals won, 3-1, after losing to the San Francisco Giants, 6-4, the Philadelphia Phillies downed the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4-3, after a 10-5 defeat and the Chicago Cubs defeated the Milwaukee Braves, 5-3.

Palmer Not Too Pleased With Golf Win
GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (UPI)—Arnold Palmer's severest critic must be Arnold Palmer.

The Latrobe, Pa., perfectionist admitted he wasn't too pleased with his iron Sunday after winning the West Open golf championship for the first time with a 72-hole score of 271.

"I'm hitting the greens okay but I'm not getting close enough to the pin," Palmer complained. "You can expect to sink a few 20-footers but not all of them."

Palmer posted a two-under-par 69 in the final round to turn back old rival Sam Snead by two strokes. Snead, who started the day in a six-way tie for fourth place at 207, finished with a 68 to give Palmer a run for the $5,000 first prize.

However, Palmer conceded that having Snead in the same threesome in the final round didn't bother him at all.

"He was three strokes behind me until the 18th and if you start worrying about guys three shots back, you've got about 150 guys to worry about," Palmer said.

So Palmer just played the same steady golf he displayed in the three previous rounds and upped his 1961 earnings to $50,285, second only to the $83,970 taken by Gary Player of South Africa on the current tour. Player, at 283, won $285 to finish in the money for the 39th consecutive time.

Doug Sanders, who started the final round in second place, had a one-over-par 72 and had to settle for fifth place money.

Two stretch runners, Johnny Pott and Billy Casper Jr., climbed to third and fourth place in the final standings. Casper had a 66 for a 275 total while Pott's final 67 gave him 274.

Johnson Opens Title Campaign
NEW YORK (UPI)—Harold Johnson, co-holder of the light heavyweight crown, will command the most attention among this week's ring performers when he opens his campaign for a shot at the heavyweight title Saturday night.

Meanwhile, little Pone King-petch of Thailand defends his world flyweight 112-pound championship at Tokyo, Japan, Tuesday night.

And today, middleweight contender Yama Bahama is expected to be rewarded with an important match at Madison Square Garden, July 29, for his impressive victory at the Garden in last Saturday's TV fight.

The "big" fight brings together Johnson of Philadelphia, the NBA light heavyweight champion, and Eddie Machen of Portland, Ore., second-ranking heavyweight contender, for a nationally televised non-title 10-rounder at Atlantic City's huge Convention Hall Saturday night.

Johnson, making his opening bid for a shot at Floyd Patterson's heavyweight crown, is favored at 7 1/2 to 5.

Matchmaker Teddy Brenner began negotiating today for Yama Bahama, veteran middleweight contender from the British West Indies to get a non-title fight with waterweight champion Emile Griffith at the Garden, July 29. Griffith craves a shot at the mid-heavyweight crown.

Bahama won a lopsided decision over young Jose Gonzalez of Puerto Rico at the Garden in their TV fight Saturday.

Sanford Keglers Take Inter-City Title

Sanford's Jet Lanes Traveling Team brought home the bacon last Sunday over in Titusville, as they did the almost impossible and wrapped up the championship at the last minute. Rolling in The Central Florida Inter-City Travel League, the women faced competition from such cities as Orlando, Ocala, Lakeland, Leesburg, Deland, New Smyrna, Cocoa, Titusville and Winter Garden.

Going into Sunday's play with 1 1/2 points leeway they had three other teams in contention for the lead, New Smyrna, two points back, Ocala, three points away, and Winter Garden right behind Sanford. Sanford lost the first two games, while Winter Garden won one leaving Jet Lanes just one half point up. Ocala won all five in their match to come in third, while Winter Garden took four to take second spot.

Sanford, with all the tension anyone could stand, rallied back and won the needed three points to come out over the second place team by just the mere one half point. They played against Titusville on their home lanes and with only ten pins difference in handicap, it was tough and so every game with only 37 pins difference in the total of all four games. Ann Conklin rolled the highest game on the Sanford team, a big 226, while Margie Woods had the highest series, a nice 728, for the four games. Lillian Ogden and Gloria Accardi both had identical series of 655, with Betty Callan bringing in a handy 623 net. Ann's series totaled 700.

A hurry up call to Jet Lanes got sponsor John Spolaki to the banquet, held at Town Restaurant in Titusville, in time to get in on the movie making and trophy presentation. John received a large plaque from Betty Natale, league secretary, with glowing pride and promises it will soon be on display for all to see.

The league will start its new fall season right here in Sanford on Sept. 15 since the new champions are now team Number One, and then proceeds to the other competing cities on the third Sunday of each month, until all ten cities have been visited.

Suppliers Keep Riding High In Mixed Loop Bowling League

The entire Thursday Nite Mixed League is now closely bunched around the second spot, as Powell's Office Supply continued padding their hold on first, adding four wins from Fryor's to give the suppliers 23 wins in first place.

Appleby's Restaurant holds second with 18, Sanford Mig. has 17 in third, with DeBary Pharmacy, Fryor's State Farm Ins. and Steinmeyer Roofing all in fourth with 15 points. Union Park Pharmacy follows with 14, then comes Piero's with 12.

Carl Von Herbulis took high scratch series honors with a big 600 set, while Bill Foster had high single game, 214. Gloria Accardi had a 331 series to lead the women.

The 3-10 seemed as easy as a single pin, this week with Ralph

Betts, Ellen Betts, Wallace Woods, Dot Powell, Dutch Spurgars, Sue Jackson, Steck Bolly and Jerry Farella all converting it for the spare. Vicki Carter made the 4-8, Ken Stone 5-7-9 and 5-10, Clyde Ptery and Beverly Grabarkiewicz both picked up the 5-7, Betty Callan got the 5-10, and Jim Anderson made the 5-10 and 2-7.

CPO Has Rough Time In Babe Ruth Play

CPO's Babe Ruth League team had a rugged time last week in meeting two Tartars in the Lake Mary and Elks clubs, and although some brilliant baseball was played the games didn't get into the books. The Lake Mary score was three all, while the tally was 4-4 when the curfew caught the Elks game.

Rotary mustered a hurricane force to swamp Civitan 15 to 1 on Monday afternoon, while Kiwanis was knocking off Oviedo to the tune of 9-2.

Civitan took the measure of the Shrine diamond-dusters on Tuesday, 5-3, while the CPO's were tying it up with Lake Mary. Lake Mary on Thursday waded into Rotary and came out on the long end of a 9 to 1 score.

One of the few days of bad weather during the season washed out the games on Friday, and Shrine-Kiwanis and Oviedo-Elks will have to be re-scheduled.

This week's setup is Monday — Civitan vs Rotary, Oviedo vs Kiwanis; Tuesday — CPO vs Lake Mary, Elks vs Kiwanis; Wednesday — Shrine vs Rotary; Thursday — Oviedo vs Lake Mary; Friday — Shrine vs Elks.

Executives Tackle Expansion Woes

CHICAGO (UPI) — Major league executives meet today and Tuesday to tackle such agonizing problems as expansion, exorbitant bonus payments and restrictive legislation being proposed in Congress.

American and National League officials will hold separate sessions today and both will gather for a joint session Tuesday.

The senior loop club owners were expected to receive a report from the league's expansion committee dealing with a method of supplying players to newcomers from Houston and New York for next season.

The committee drew up the restocking plan in closed meetings last week. It was not announced publicly, but David Grote, the league's service bureau chief, said it was "likely" to be similar to the one used by the American League.

The American League absorbed the new Washington and Los Angeles franchises by permitting each club to put 15 names on a draft list. Seven of these were subjected to claim by each of the two new teams with a price of $75,000 per player.

Final club rosters for the season are to be in City Recreation Director Jim Jernigan's office before Wednesday the managers have been told, or the players will not be qualified for tournament play.

Standings:

Team	W	L	Pct.
Kiwanis	11	4	.733
Elks	9	4	.692
CPO	9	7	.563
Civitan	9	7	.563
Lake Mary	7	8	.466

CHICAGO (UPI) — Mike Degerick, who pitched Teaneck High school to the 1960 New Jersey state championship, has signed a bonus contract in excess of $90,000 with the Chicago White Sox. The bonus is the largest in White Sox history.

Washington Taking On Continental Air

By DECK WEST
 WASHINGTON (UPI)—In the eyes of Europeans, and many American sophisticates, Washington is a rather provincial city, lacking in old world grace and charm.

A few years ago, this may have been a valid observation, but not any more. For one reason or another, the U. S. capital is rapidly developing a cosmopolitan, continental air.

For instance, when you cross a street here nowadays you get a nostalgic feeling that any moment you might be run over by some clown in a sports car.

It used to be that an American pedestrian had to go to Paris to get hit by a sports car. That shows how far we have come in shaking off our bumpkinish ways.

It's true that the taxi drivers here haven't yet perfected the rhythmic honking technique that makes motoring in the French capital such a stimulating experience. But they are learning fast. I notice as I wheel about the city that the cabbies are beginning to honk at me when my quaint old sedan stalls in the middle of the street. Time was when they simply would have given me a push.

That also is a sign that we are catching up the Parisians in leading the good life.

But what really impressed me with our progress in acquiring a civic poise and class was a public hearing I attended on a proposal before the District of Columbia Board of Commissioners to permit sidewalk cafes in Washington.

Amigos, if this one passes, we are in. With sidewalk cafes, Washington would become the most sophisticated metropolis east of Culpepper, Va.

The first applicant for a sidewalk cafe license is the owner of a restaurant which fronts on Pennsylvania Avenue about two blocks from the White House.

It is his notion that tourists, shoppers and commuters would enjoy sipping their Metreol at an outdoor table, overlooking a traffic jam.

This location has the added advantage of being next door to a parking garage. Thus there would be a ready source of supply for mashed potatoes garnished with carbon monoxide.

Play Sessions Set At Sanford Grammar School

Virgil Duffell, director of recreation activities now underway at Sanford Grammar School, said today that all youngsters, from those who will enter the first grade in September to those who are in the sixth grade, are invited to join the daily sessions.

Sessions open each day at 9:30 a. m. and last until 11:30 a. m.

The summer program includes a variety of athletic contests, games, group and individual, and a complete curriculum of arts and crafts work. Also, as an extra activity about three times weekly, Duffell said each event as treasure hunts, wiener roasts, sack lunches, tall tales contests and a host of other entertainments are scheduled for the children's enjoyment.

Working with Duffell are Mrs. Ann Samuels and Terry Christensen.

Oviedo Students Bid 'Aloha' To Classmates

By MARIAN R. JONES
 Oviedo's Junior High Eighth Graders bid "Aloha" to their classmates at a dance in the school cafeteria transformed to a beautiful Hawaiian Isle for the location.

A triple-tiered fountain was surrounded with potted palms, water lilies, potted tropical plants and numerous conch shells, placed advantageously about the room, added to the decor.

Overhead were lanterns and balloons and each table was overlaid with a white cloth and was centered with green and pink candles. The refreshment table was centered with a bowl of tropical fruit flanked by glowing red tapers. Miniature bottles of cologne and combs were favors and each boy and girl attending received a record. Additional gifts were given to those getting lucky numbers from the overhead balloons which were released instantaneously at a given signal and caused much merriment as the scramble got underway for their capture.

Homeroom teachers of the seventh and eighth grades were honored guests for the event for which Mrs. Joe I. Bessley was general chairman and assistants were Mrs. Theodore Aulin Jr., Mrs. John Courier, Mrs. James Parlin and Mrs. Wesley V. Swenson.

★ ★ ★ Tax Equalization Hearing Seen By August 15

Tax Assessor Mary Earle Walker informed the county commissioners today that they could plan on holding the board of equalization hearing Aug. 15 after she asked for a 30-day extension on preparation of the 1961 tax roll.

The board, by a 4-1 majority, voted for granting the extension despite protests from District 3 Commissioner John Fitzpatrick that the budget appropriations for the next fiscal year would be delayed.

In a two-page letter to the commission, Mrs. Walker said that "it is impossible to give you an estimate on the 1961 tax roll. I hereby request a 30-day extension from the first of July to complete the preliminary work which is necessary to present the required estimate."

Fitzpatrick asked the board to table action on granting the extension pending study but the board agreed to go along after chairman J. C. Hutchison said Mrs. Walker had assured him she would only need 30 additional days.

Fitzpatrick said that one of his campaign promises was to put the county on a good sound business basis.

"We can't do it with all these cutbacks," he said.

Mrs. Walker also stressed in her letter that if the board of equalization hearing is held on Aug. 15 "it will be possible to get the book to the tax collector by November 1 for regular collection."

Study Of Stock Market Law Asked

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Chairman William L. Cary of the Securities and Exchange Commission urged Congress today to approve a $750,000 study of the nation's stock markets to determine whether the rules and laws governing sales are adequate.

Cary, citing the tremendous increase in shareholders and trading volume during the last few years, said "the possibility exists that these factors may have led to questionable merchandising techniques."

The SEC chairman said a "thorough study of the over-the-counter market and of the exchange would be desirable at this time."

Ashby Fire Tower Back In Operation

The Ashby Fire Tower, located on Farmington rd. about six miles northeast of Osteen, is repaired and back in operation today after losing its radio unit and water heater when lightning hit the tower during a thunderstorm Friday.

Ranger Raymond Fell, who had descended from the tower only moments before the bolt struck, a short while later was called from his home in Osteen to extinguish a blazing tree also hit by lightning.

Tractor Bargain Talks May Resume

KEY WEST (UPI)—Premier Fidel Castro's "prisoner commission" hoped to hear today whether there is any prospect of reviving his moribund prisoners-for-tractors deal.

John Hooker, executive secretary of the fund-raising committee that disbanded when Castro began hoarding his ransom demands, may return from Miami today with the word on whether it will resume its activities.

U. S. Immigration officials denied Monday night that the decision on further negotiations rests with President Kennedy.

Herlong Urges Cuba Action

Congressman Syd Herlong called Monday for positive U. S. action in Cuba and said America should put humanitarian research ahead of the race in space.

Departing from his prepared speech at a luncheon honoring outgoing Heavy Attack Wing One commander, Capt. F. G. Edwards, Herlong said, "we must stop pussy-footing around in Cuba. We know that the Cubans have a Communist government and it just won't pay to make any deals with that kind of government for tractors or anything else."

"We must move in on Cuba and show signs of strength in Latin America," Herlong said.

Herlong also said he was tired of U. S. competition in the space race.

"We're like little boys—the Russians announce a moon shot and sure enough, we follow it up with our intentions.

"Why can't we say, 'let the Reds shoot a man into space, we are going to try and cure cancer!'"

"We should work for the good of the entire free world and take the first step in the humanity race," Herlong said.

The first annual meeting of the stockholders of Dynatronics, Inc., has been scheduled July 13 in Orlando, according to Parker Painter Jr., president of the corporation.

Six directors of the corporation will be elected at the stockholders' meeting, and financial statements for the past fiscal year distributed. Painter will discuss the past and future growth of the corporation.

The corporation, which offered public stock for the first time earlier this year, is instrumental in research, development and manufacturing in support of the nations missile and space efforts. Established in Central Florida in 1957, the firm now employs in excess of 300 persons and recently opened a Pacific Division in Van Nuys, Calif.

Plea Against Rider Arrest Is Denied

JACKSON, Miss. (UPI)—A federal judge today denied a plea which challenged the constitutionality of Mississippi's arrests of "Freedom Riders."

District Judge Sidney Mize of Biloxi, Miss., said it would be improper for him to grant a writ of habeas corpus until the matter is taken through the Mississippi state courts.

City To Negotiate On Plans For Sewage Treatment Plant

City Commissioners Monday night agreed to negotiate with the engineers Clark, Daly and Diets and Laffter and Bush to plan and design a sewage treatment plant for Sanford and agreed to build a plant "as soon as it is feasible."

City Manager W. E. Knowles told the commission that the city's fiscal agent Loomis Leedy, will meet in special session with the board next Monday to discuss methods of financing such a plant.

All five city commissioners agreed Monday that Sanford's growth will be stifled by not having a sewage treatment plant. The commission already had discussed investigation of the costs and possible ways of financing a primary plant after the State Board of Health told the commission it would not approve any further extension of the city sewer

FASTEST MAN—Air Force Maj. Robert White was a happy test pilot as he talked to the press at Edwards Air Force Base, Calif., following his 3,600-m.p.h. flight in the X-15 plane.

Khrushchev Hints Deadline Extension

BERLIN (UPI)—Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev dropped another hint Monday night that he might extend his deadline for signing a peace treaty with East Germany.

In a telegram to East German chief of state Walter Ulbricht, Khrushchev said the Communist nations would "do their utmost to sign one by the end of this year."

West Berliners noted today that this fell short of saying flatly it would be an accomplished fact by Jan. 1.

Communist diplomats in various capitals of the world have "leaking" to Western correspondents the information that Moscow would like to negotiate with the West over the status of Berlin and the division of Germany.

This is known in the world of diplomacy as the "trial balloon"—to see how the opposition reacts.

The West still is talking over its strategy.

The West would be wary of entering another negotiating session with the Communists in the light of recent Russian performances in the conferences on nuclear weapons and Laos.

A 1958 Big Four foreign ministers conference in Geneva came to naught on the issue of Berlin.

Khrushchev's telegram, thanking the East Germans for their good wishes on the 20th anniversary last week of the Nazi invasion of Russia, bristled with the usual epithets against West Germany and Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

He said the Bonn government was planning a new war in conspiracy with NATO and the entire Soviet bloc was "obligated to fight for the maintenance of peace."

Prospects Good For Old Age Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Prospects appeared good today that a bill to increase Social Security benefits for 4.1 million persons will get to the White House by Thursday.

The Senate passed the bill 90-0 Monday and sent it to a House-Senate conference committee to work out differences with a measure passed earlier by the House.

Chances were better than 50-50 that the committee, under administration pressure, would draft a compromise so the bill could be approved by Congress Thursday—the day before legislators begin leaving for a long Fourth of July holiday.

If the legislation is delayed until Congress gets back, the latter checks will not go out until the first week of October. If the bill becomes law this week, the checks will be in the mail the first week of September.

The legislation, on President Kennedy's list of 16 priority bills, would allow men to retire at age 62. They now must wait until they are 65, although women already can retire at 62.

Men retiring at 62 would get 80 per cent of the monthly benefits they would have received had they waited until they were 65.

Proposal For City Front Marina Is Endorsed

City Commissioners Monday night gave unanimous endorsement to modernization of the Sanford waterfront when they agreed to grant a 90-day option to Jack Trim of Sanford to lease the bandshell and boat ramp and establish a boat marina on the property.

Trim, in a six page memo to the commission, asked the board to grant a lease on the property in its present state and approve removal of the "so-called bandshell and replacement of it with two buildings on the pier."

He also proposed modification of the launching ramp and installation of dock space for 80 to 100 boats.

This work would be done at no cost to the city, but would be subject to approval by the commission of financing, construction plans and proposed operations.

He estimated that the marina would cost approximately $30,000. A 25-year lease was asked on the property after the marina plans are approved by the city.

The city would receive a share of the profits or a set rental fee from the marina, whichever it chose, under the proposal.

Plans for the marina outlined in the proposal would make it "the hub of waterway activity for all of Central Florida," with a program of special events for boaters spread through the year and providing large scale promotion to attract visitors to the city waterfront.

lines until a plan is submitted for a plan.

Among the sources of revenue the city had discussed in financing the plant are cigaret tax, utility tax, parking meters and electrical franchise.

In other business, the commission rejected all bids on chairs for the commission chambers and agreed to readvertise for the chairs with specifications that they all have upholstered backs.

The board also rejected bids on cast iron pipe and awarded the low bid of Hughes Supply of Orlando for valves and fittings for the city's water line at a cost of $2,370 and three hydrants at a cost of $464 from Ben F. Crabbe Inc. of Orlando.

Texas Flood Woes Past $1 Million

By United Press International
Flood damage in North Texas soared past $1 million today in storms that spiraled across the South with enough fury to damage farm buildings in North Carolina.

In the Dakotas, herds of grasshoppers thrived on blistering heat that baked thousands of acres of farm and valuable rangeland. Entomologists at North Dakota State University said virtually every county in the state was threatened by the insect invasion.

Elsewhere the nation's weather at midweek included widespread afternoon and evening thunderstorms in the Rocky Mountain states, most of the Great Plains and the Mississippi Valley and the Great Lakes.

Temperatures reached 120 in Death Valley, Calif., Monday and tipped to 67 at Pullman, Mich., Monday night.

Army engineers set a $1 million damage estimate on torrential rains of the past three days in the Texas Panhandle and the Fort Worth suburb of Richland Hills. Scores of unvacated families returned to Richland Hills homes despite a forecast of more rain today.

Coffee Club Sets Fete For Wing's New Commander

Capt. Joseph Tully, who took over today as commander of Heavy Attack Wing One, will be guest of honor at the June meeting of the Coffee Club scheduled for 10 a. m. Thursday at the Chamber of Commerce Building.

Capt. Tully will be accompanied by officers of his staff and several newcomers to the area will also be welcomed.

Board To Ask For Furniture Bids

The County Commission today agreed to advertise for bids for office furniture for the new county jail and bids for a new radio tower for the facility.

In other business, the board agreed to erect five mile road signs on three streets in the Lake of the Woods area and opted to give the Homestead Swim Assn. $500.

CAPT. MRS. EDWARDS opened gifts from the armed forces committee of the Chamber of Commerce Monday as one highlight of the farewell luncheon for the departing skipper of Heavy Attack Wing One.

THE CITY OF SANFORD offered one of the resolutions commending Capt. Edwards for his efforts in continuing "the excellent relations between Navy personnel and civilian population." Mayor Joe Baker read the citation, which was of several given Edwards.

Factfinders Open Maritime Hearings

NEW YORK (UPI)—Federal factfinders step into the national maritime walkout today, opening hearings that could produce a Taft-Hartley injunction forcing any seaman to untie strike-idded ships for at least 90 days.

The three-member panel President Kennedy appointed under the Taft-Hartley Act to sift facts in the strike of 75,000 seamen assembled in New York preparatory to beginning hearings this afternoon. Kennedy asked the panel to report to him by Friday on issues in the dispute and status of attempts to settle the 12-day walkout which the President said has reached the stage of endangering national health and safety.

Once the report is in, the President is expected to order Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy to seek a federal court injunction ordering strikers back to work for an 90-day cooling off period during which a negotiated settlement would be sought.

Although union leaders were unanimous in denouncing Kennedy's invoking the Taft-Hartley Act, there was no indication they would attempt to thwart the factfinders mission by defying the executive order setting up the panel and ordering the hearings.

But several unions have threatened to fight any injunction all the way to the Supreme Court.

Ralph E. Casey, president of the American Merchant Marine Institute (AMMI), the largest shipowners' group, promised that management would give "full cooperation" to the factfinders.

Chuluota Road Repairs Urged

A delegation of citizens from Chuluota today presented the County Commission with a petition citing the "deplorable condition" of Lake Mills Rd. and urged the county to fix the road "immediately."

The petition, signed by 78 persons, cited the "hazardous conditions of the road and the menace to life and property."

District 4 Commissioner Varon Down assumed the delegation that Mills Rd. in his road budget and will be improved in the near future or, as soon as funds are available.

A SURPRISE PRESENTATION was made to Cdr. Jack Langford, Hatwing One operations officer, when James Wright, president of the Central Fla. Chapter, Navy League, gave him a citation for his "outstanding contribution to the understanding of the American way of life." (Herald Photos)

New Oral Polio Vaccine Hailed As Cure By AMA

NEW YORK (UPI)—The paralytic polio, those inoculated with the Salk vaccine could pass it on to others, the report indicated.

The new oral vaccine "render the intestinal tract relatively resistant to reinfection with the same type of virus," the report said. "Moreover, the persistence of immunity induced by the oral vaccine may be of much longer duration than is the case with Salk vaccine; and, in fact, the persistence of immunity may conceivably approach that induced by natural infection in type, degree, and duration."

The American Medical Association drug council reported today that the new Sabin oral polio vaccine "presents an opportunity to eliminate poliomyelitis as a significant public health problem."

It urged physicians to take the lead in sparking mass community vaccination when the new vaccine becomes available. However, until that time doctors should encourage the widest possible use of the Salk vaccine, it said.

The Sabin vaccine is swallowed. The Salk vaccine is injected. It has been in use since 1953. Reporting to the policy-making house of delegates of the AMA, the council on drugs pointed out: "Since Salk vaccine generally falls to protect against alimentary infection with wild poliovirus, the immunized individual can become a temporary shedder of polio virus."

Thus, while protected against

Plane Skids In

MIAMI (UPI)—A Portuguese military plane with five men aboard belly-landed on a cushion of foam Monday at Miami International Airport after landing gear failure. No one was hurt.
