Former astronaut rescuer now comes to aid of hospital visitors

"Years ago I met all our astronauts," Meeks said. "That was very rewarding. So is meet ing people like the Parsons. The most important aspect of serv-ing at the hospital is making people feel comfortable. We set the pace. They're going into a hospital. Let's make it as pleasant as we can fur them." The volunteers run the trolley from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. daily. The trolley has lights if it gets dark and cloudy. It also has curtains for raining days.

"We don't run if there's

One day when Meeks

"The fellow looked at me and grinned," Meeks said.

Sheriff probes fraud at used car dealership

By Nick Pfelfauf Staff Writer

According to Sheriff's spokesman Steve Olson, investigators believe the dealership

a permanent Florida license tag.
In some cases Olson said, the cars were repossessed from the buyers. In one case, a victim bought five cars for export, but time only to those that are worthy.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) If you get involved in any game playing today, do so for fun and not for winning the gold or giory. Competitive social activities are fine if they're not carried to extremes. LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Monitor your strong views and opinions today, because they could be offensive to your audience. Should you notice that what you say is antagonizing another, quickly change the subject.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Even if someone owes you for a past favor, he

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)
Better to tackle things on your own today than to team up with the wrong partner or ally, especially if you know little of this person. You won't luck out.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)
Because you're likely to be in an expansive mood today, you could easily make some impulsive, unfortunate remarks from which you won't be able to easily unwind. Think before you speak.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Highrisk situations should be avoided at all cost today, especially if they're in an area with which you're unfamiliar. Do more research first.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) It's important to be patient and treat time with the respect it deserves today. It could be a grave mistake if you attempt to wind up a negotiation too hastily.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) If you want to give your audience reason to yawn today, simply monopolize discussions and keep the subject matter only to that which interests you. Reverse that and talk about them, instead.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Innately, you're a very generous person. However, trouble can begin and a when you give far too much for what you can, in reality, afford. Live within your means.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) By becoming too intense about focusing on every last minute detail when confronted with an important task, you could easily obliterate the big picture. Keep everything is balance.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Hurt feelings will permeate your being today if you read derogatory meanings into everything that's said by others, where no malice was every intended. Look for only the good in words.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) It would be wise today to be a bit cynical about proposals brought to you by someone you don't know too well. It's possible you could be pegged for being an easy mark.

SANFORD -- l'et owners beware: Sanford now has a new pooper-scooper law.

City Commission approved the new ordinance Monday night, making it against the law for any pet owner "to allow their animal to defecate in any park and requiring pet owners to be responsible for prompt removal and proper disposal of any animal waste."

Several residents questioned the need for such an ordinance and wondered how the city intended to enforce it. Commissioners agreed the ordinance was intended as an informational warning.

"We don't intend for officers to patrol the parks looking for violators," said Commissioner Randy Jones. "This is more for habitual offenders."

Officials from the city's code

enforcement department will handle enforcement, and Mayor Larry Dale said residents who have complaints about violators should contact City Manager Tony VanDerworp. in other business Monday night, the commission:

 Adopted Resolution 1855 supporting Seminole County's referendum on Nov. 7 to Issue $25 million in bonds to build trails, including the Lake Monroe Riverwalk as a Showcase Trail. Showcase Trails are considered the county's top priority projects.

In 1990 Seminole County residents approved a $20 million bond to fund the purchase of environmentally significant lands. If approved, the Nov. 7 inal natural lands referendum to connect some 56,000 acres of land with more than 100 miles of hiking, biking, and horseback riding trails. Many of the proposed trails are in Sanford, and Adopted resolution 1856, an agreement between the city of Sanford and the Florida Department of Transportation (FDOT) for designing the Lake Monroe Riverwalk. The agreement stipulates the city must complete the design for the Riverwalk and adjacent portions of the seawall by June 2002. The city will provide $83,000 of inkind services, and FDOT, using federal grant money, will fund $500,000 for the consultant engineering/architectural team.

 The ordinance prohibited lighting that illuminated property other than where the lighting uevise was localed. It Wa intended to prevent lights that might be a nuisance to neighbors; however, code enforcement officials said there were difficulties enforcing the ordinance. Furthermore, city staff

Jones named executive director of Oviedo YMCA

From Staff Reports

Don Jones has been appointed Executive Director at the Center for Health & Wellness, a Central Florida YMCA Family Center, located in Oviedo. The Central Florida YMCA assumed operation of the center in December, 1999 from the Winter Park Health Foundation, which still owns the facility.

Jones' primary focus will be to expand the concept of disease prevention at the center. He is seeking to add more wellness-centered programming and services, such as stroke screenings, lifestyle education seminars, health fairs, cardiac rehab and physical therapy. Family-oriented health and wellness pro-gramming will also be added to give the center more of a YMCA feeling.

"My experience has primarily been with hospital-run wellness centers, which focus on disease management and the adult." Jones said. "I'm excited and optimistic about redirecting my focus to disease prevention and health and wellness management for families and the community.

Jones, presently a resident of Winter Springs, has over 20 years experience in the health and fitness industry, including 15 years as director of the Sentara Hampton Health and Fitness Center in Virginia. He holds a bachelor's degree in education and history, a master's in exercise science, and a doctorate in philosophy, movement science education.

Daughter's hanging of posters causes dad to climb the walls

Dear

DEAR ABBY: My stepdaughters like to decorate their room with lots of posters and whatnots. The girls hang them using thumbtacks and constantly rearrange them. As a result, their walls are full of tiny holes. I don't mind their hanging one or two posters, but the number they hang (and move from place to place) is destructive and shows little respect for our

My wife disagrees. She is right when she says we can repair the walls when the girls are older, but I feel we are not teaching them discipline by allowing them to be so destructive. My wife is angry that I won't let this go.

Abby, if the girls refuse to respect my decision on the number of posters they can hang in their room, it makes it difficult for me to respect their decisions. Should I just shut up and allow them to hang and move their posters as they please?

TICKED OFF IN LOUISIANA

DEAR TICKED OFF: Posters are important to young people. These "interior design statements" are part of growing up. It has nothing to do with a lack of respect for you.

Look at it this way: The holes in the wall can be easily repaired when the girls outgrow this phase - as they will eventually. It's harder to "repair" an overly strict relationship. Loosen up, Dad, and don't sweat the small stuff.

Does naked make it art?

If clothes make the man, I suppose naked must make art.

Don't get me wrong, I'm not some sort of religious crazy who wants to be a county commissioner.

My plea is for common sense.

A couple of art controversies have spurred this commentary. First, the nude sculpture at the U.S. Tennis Centre in Flushing, N.Y. Second, the Orlando Theatre Project's insistence to keep a woman nude in the final scene of a play on stage at Seminole

Community College. Both the sculpture and the play have everything to do with death and resurrection. Neither, I might argue, has anything to do with nudity.

Having known Arthur Ashe, I am pleased a sculptor was commissioned to honor his life. Arthur was soft-spoken, articulate, a gentleman and superb athlete. He contracted AIDS

Not all of those visiting the Arthur Ashe Tennis Stadium for the U.S. Open recognized Ashe in the sculpture in his honor. The sculptor, himself, said the work wasn't just Arthur Ashe but much more. In this case, much more was also much less.

So it is with the Russ Orlando Theatre Project director and White actors who wish to • • • • • • pack power into their production of "Wit," the story of a woman who is dying from ovarian cancer and who rises off her death bed, disrobing and ascending nude into a host of angels

ment the theater people made to Ann McGee was that they surely would be rebuffed by Orlando Sentinel drama critic Elizabeth Maupin should "Vivian" be anything but start naked.

"She saw the play in New York," an OTP actor said. Well, that did it.

Having covered the Washington Senators baseball team for 12 seasons, surely I've seen more bad plays and bad bodies than Elizabeth Maupin. None of it qualified as art.

Artists and actors, I believe, have to give a little from time to time. I'm glad no one insisted Mary Martin play "Peter Pan" in the buff. I doubt "My Fair Lady" would have been much more of a hit as "My Bare Lady." I would not have cared to see "Joseph Without the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat."

This nudity thing is much ado about nothing.

Use the body stocking - and get on with the show.

SANFORD - The usual big Friday night local high school sports calendar only has a couple of contests on it this week, but they are big in the minds of

In girls volleyball, two of the better teams in the county, Seminole and Lake Mary, will meet at Lake Mary High School in a Seminole Athletic Conference match.

The starting times have been moved up to accommodate the start of the football game at Seminole High School.

The volleyball match opens with the freshman match at 4 p.m., which will be followed by the junior varsity at 5 p.m. and the varsity at 6 p.m.

The Fighting Seminoles won their second straight match and improved to 11-8 on the season Wednesday night with a two-game, 15-0 and 15-10, defeat of Lake Howell at Bill Fleming Memorial Gymnasium.

In fact, all three Seminole teams won in two games, the freshman team raising its record to 8-3 and the junior variety improving to 11-3.

"Lake Howell (1-13) is rebuilding this year," said Seminole head coach Beth Corso, "But it was still a good team effort as the entire team contributed."

The Fighting Seminoles only had one service error (compared to 34 good ones) and also had 18 kills. 18 digs. 15 assists and seven blocks.

Contributing individually were sentor's Michelle Cardel (four kills, two digs, two assists), Kim Corso (two kills, one solo block, two digs, two assists), and Tracey Swaynos (two solo blocks, two digs, two assists), junior's Jessica Chick (three kills, four solo blocks, one dig, one assist), Jenniter Grullon (three digs, three assists), Jessica Hermsen (three digs, three assists), To Karunanidhi (one dig, one assist), Ashicy Marasanid (one dig, one assist), and Tara Wingins (three kills), and sophomore's Emily Reysor (two kills, three assists), and Amenda

Howard (four kills).

The Rams are also coming off an SAC victory over the Silver Hawks, overpowering Lake Howell 15-0 and 15-3 on Tuesday to improve to 10-4 on the season.

The Fighting Seminoles trailed only Bo. 8 state-ranked Poinciana in the team standings.

Grant Baker led the way for the Tribe by placing third overall in 17:18. Sophomore Hunter Roberts was right behind in fourth place at 17:21, with sophomore Brett Martin also placing in the Top 10 with a sixth place run in 17:29.

Also running for Seminole were Todd Baker in 17th at 18:26, Joe Cooper in 31st at 19:41, Ben Hubbard coming home 32nd to 19:44 and Mike Mealor finishing 37th in 20:29.

In the junior varsity race, Farbod Taheri placed third overall with a time of 20:40. Evan Smith was 12th in 21:03 and Trace Norvell finished 50th to round out the scoring.

The aforementioned football game also features a pair of topflight squads that are looking to rebound from losses.

Oviedo (3-1), which fell to No. 10 in this week's Class 6A state poll, lost only its second game in the past year, falling to Lake Mary 34-22.

Seminole (2-2), which will host the game at Thomas E. Whigham Stadium starting at 7:30 p.m., lost its second straight game last week, being humbled by Mainland, 28-10.

The only other varsity football game on this week's schedule has Lake Howell and Lake Brantley, both coming off big wins last Friday, meeting at Richard L. Evans Field at 7:30 p.m. tonight (Thursday).

The Silver Hawks (1-2) ended a

SANFORD -- l'et owners beware: Sanford now has a new pooper-scooper law.

City Commission approved the new ordinance Monday night, making it against the law for any pet owner "to allow their animal to defecate in any park and requiring pet owners to be responsible for prompt removal and proper disposal of any animal waste."

Several residents questioned the need for such an ordinance and wondered how the city intended to enforce it. Commissioners agreed the ordinance was intended as an informational warning.

"We don't intend for officers to patrol the parks looking for violators," said Commissioner Randy Jones. "This is more for habitual offenders."

Officials from the city's code

enforcement department will handle enforcement, and Mayor Larry Dale said residents who have complaints about violators should contact City Manager Tony VanDerworp. in other business Monday night, the commission:

 Adopted Resolution 1855 supporting Seminole County's referendum on Nov. 7 to Issue $25 million in bonds to build trails, including the Lake Monroe Riverwalk as a Showcase Trail. Showcase Trails are considered the county's top priority projects.

In 1990 Seminole County residents approved a $20 million bond to fund the purchase of environmentally significant lands. If approved, the Nov. 7 inal natural lands referendum to connect some 56,000 acres of land with more than 100 miles of hiking, biking, and horseback riding trails. Many of the proposed trails are in Sanford, and the trail system will link Sanford to other areas in the Adopted resolution 1856, an agreement between the city of Sanford and the Florida Department of Transportation (FDOT) for designing the Lake Monroe Riverwalk. The agreement stipulates the city must complete the design for the Riverwalk and adjacent portions of the seawall by June 2002. The city will provide $83,000 of inkind services, and FDOT, using federal grant money, will fund $500,000 for the consultant engineering/architectural team.

 Repealed Ordinance 3386.
 The ordinance prohibited lighting that illuminated property other than where the lighting uevise was localed. It Wa intended to prevent lights that might be a nuisance to neighbors; however, code enforcement officials said there were difficulties enforcing the ordinance. Furthermore, city staff

Jones named executive director of Oviedo YMCA

From Staff Reports

Don Jones has been appointed Executive Director at the Center for Health & Wellness, a Central Florida YMCA Family Center, located in Oviedo. The Central Florida YMCA assumed operation of the center in December, 1999 from the Winter Park Health Foundation, which still owns the facility.

Jones' primary focus will be to expand the concept of disease prevention at the center. He is seeking to add more wellness-

centered programming and services, such as stroke screenings, lifestyle education seminars, health fairs, cardiac rehab and physical therapy. Family-oriented health and wellness pro-gramming will also be added to give the center more of a YMCA

feeling.
"My experience has primarily been with hospital-run wellness centers, which focus on disease management and the adult." Jones said. "I'm excited and optimistic about redirecting my focus to disease prevention and health and wellness management for families and the community.

Jones, presently a resident of Winter Springs, has over 20 years experience in the health and fitness industry, including 15 years as director of the Sentara Hampton Health and Fitness Center in Virginia. He holds a bachelor's degree in education and history, a master's in exercise science, and a doctorate in philosophy, movement science education.

Daughter's hanging of posters causes dad to climb the walls

Dear

DEAR ABBY: My stepdaughters like to decorate their room with lots of posters and whatnots. The girls hang them using thumbtacks and constantly rearrange them. As a result, their walls are full of tiny holes. I don't mind their hanging one or two posters, but the number they hang (and move from place to place) is destructive and shows little respect for our

My wife disagrees. She is right when she says we can repair the walls when the girls are older, but I feel we are not teaching them discipline by allowing them to be so destructive. My wife is angry that I won't let this go.

Abby, if the girls refuse to respect my decision on the number of posters they can hang in their room, it makes it difficult for me to respect their decisions. Should I just shut up and allow them to hang and move their posters as they please?

TICKED OFF IN LOUISIANA

DEAR TICKED OFF: Posters are important to young people. These "interior design statements" are part of growing up. It has nothing to do with a lack of respect for you.

Look at it this way: The holes in the wall can be easily repaired when the girls outgrow this phase - as they will eventually. It's harder to "repair" an overly strict relationship. Loosen up, Dad, and don't sweat the small stuff.

Over the past dozen years, the name of a time honored Irish traditional jig has become equally well known as the name of the most engaging ensemble in Irish spusic; Cherish the Ladies. They have grown from a one-time concert concept to an Irish traditional music sensation, literally the most successful and sought-after Irish-American group in Celtic music history. Organized by folklorist/musician Mick Moloney and sponsored by the Ethnic Folk Arts Center and the National Endowment of the Arts, they began as a concert series featuring the brightest lights in Irish traditional music. Through initially the group won recognition as the first and only all-women traditional Irish band, they soon established them selves as musicians and performers without peer and have won many thousands of listeners and fans in their music. Cherish the ladies are absolutely unique in their spectacular blend of virtuosic instrumental talents, beautiful female vocals, captivating arrangements and stimuling step duncing. They are simply a powerhouse group!

They have appeared on CBS This Morning, Good Morning America, Evening at the Pops, PBS and National Public Radio in the United States und on BBC and RTE radio and television overseus. At the Summer Olympics in Atlanta, they were chosen to represent Irish music and culture at the Official cultural Olympiad. Decision Day 2000

Does naked make it art?

If clothes make the man, I suppose naked must make art.

Don't get me wrong, I'm not some sort of religious crazy who wants to be a county commissioner.

My plea is for common sense.

A couple of art controversies have spurred this commentary. First, the nude sculpture at the U.S. Tennis Centre in Flushing, N.Y. Second, the Orlando Theatre Project's insistence to keep a woman nude in the final scene of a play on stage at Seminole

Community College. Both the sculpture and the play have everything to do with death and resurrection. Neither, I might argue, has anything to do with nudity.

Having known Arthur Ashe, I am pleased a sculptor was commissioned to honor his life. Arthur was soft-spoken, articulate, a gentleman and superb athlete. He contracted AIDS

Not all of those visiting the Arthur Ashe Tennis Stadium for the U.S. Open recognized Ashe in the sculpture in his honor. The sculptor, himself, said the work wasn't just Arthur Ashe but much more. In this case, much more was also much less.

So it is with the Russ Orlando Theatre Project director and White actors who wish to ment the theater people made to Ann McGee was that they surely would be rebuffed by Orlando Sentinel drama critic Elizabeth Maupin should "Vivian" be anything but start naked.

"She saw the play in New York," an OTP actor said. Well, that did it.

Having covered the Washington Senators baseball team for 12 seasons, surely I've seen more bad plays and bad bodies than Elizabeth Maupin. None of it qualified as art.

Artists and actors, I believe, have to give a little from time to time. I'm glad no one insisted Mary Martin play "Peter Pan" in the buff. I doubt "My Fair Lady" would have been much more of a hit as "My Bare Lady." I would not have cared to see "Joseph Without the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat."

This nudity thing is much ado about nothing.

Use the body stocking - and get on with the show.
