John Y. Mercer, 1971 president of the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce, has chosen "cooperation" as the theme for his administration. We believe this is a timely, simple but profound, goal which is only too often mouthed and feeling that one interest was to dominate at the expense of another. Cooperation must be a plainly defined and a straight road. It is much easier to say than to do in this rapidly growing, changing city and community.

Of course it will demand some give-and-take. Above all, however, it will be permanently blocked if intercommunication between the public and local government is not speeded. This, we believe, is an essential part of the Mercer adminis-

This is the season for awards and recogni-E tion. It is a delightful custom and more often than not puts the spotlight on the upcoming men and women who will be charged with the grave responsibilities of the future. That is why we are both personally and professionally pleased to pay our respects and extend our congratulations to Tom Freeman. Here is a young man whose career, achievements and honors took 10 pages for the Sanford-Seminole Jaycees to list when recommending him for naming as an Outstanding Young

He was so honored at the winter conference of Florida Jaycees in Gainesville. Judge Thomas G. Freeman, Jr., of Casselberry, to give him his proper title, deserves this honor, not because of that lengthy list the Jaycees put together, but for the spirit and the dedication he shows with increasing brilliance.

It was our good fortune to meet Tom and to talk with him as he started on developing this involvement with public affairs. We have had this privilege many times and in many places. Sanford-Seminole is blessed by the number of such young men and women - professional and otherwise - whose capacities are ready for enlistment into the kind of career our Outstanding Young Man has embarked upon.

Their enlistment should be made easier by the Freeman selection. For there is no better reward that any young man and woman can reap - despite the $ sign which has started to show its leaden feet-than recognition by one's peers for public service.

Thus to Tom, a hearty handshake. To all others a promise of recognition when they, too choose their goals and fight to reach them!

Limited time to apply for Complementary Coverage. It pays for many services not covered by Medicare.

If you're 65 or older, you've still got a lot of living to do. That's why you need the extra protection of Blue Cross & Blue Shield Complementary Coverage. It helps fill the gaps in Medicare.

You figure Medicare is enough? Not really. Sure it helps a great deal. But it does not pay for a number of hospital and physician services. Besides, costs can mount up quickly once you use up your Medi-

That's when Blue Cross & Blue Shield Complementary Coverage will pay up to $5,000 in additional benefits. It'll also pay for the first $60 of your hospital bill and the $15 a day from the 61st through the 90th day not covered by Medicare. You must have Medicare Part A and Part B to apply for Complementary Coverage. Cost? Only $7.10 a month. The period for joining Complementary Coverage is now open until March first. Your protection then goes into effect April first. For in-
