FORMER CROWN PRINCE LEAVES FOR GERMANY LUDENDORF COUP BLEW UP YESTERDAY

GENERAL LUDENDORF OUT HITLER HAS MADE ESCAPE BIG COUP WAS FLIVVER

LUDENDORF WAS RELEASED WHEN HE BEGGED OFF

REVOLUTION OPEN And All The Revolutionists March Back Home

(By The Associated Press) BERLIN, Nov. 10.—Muenchner Neueste Nachrichten reports that the whereabouts of Adolph Hitler is unknown, but that General Ludendorff has been released after pledging his word that he would take no further part in the revolt.

MUNICH, Nov. 10.—General Erich Ludendorff yesterday lost his second "putsch" within three years and last night was observing the fifth anniversary of the German revolution a prisoner in the custody of Federal troops.

The man who, as chief in command of the German forces, is credited with having lost the world war for Germany, last night was an ignoble prisoner of the young republic he so thoroughly despised and against the fragile existence of which he has plotted openly and in secret ever since he retired to his reactionary Bavarian stronghold.

Ludendorff and Adolph Hitler, who had barricaded themselves in the office of the war ministry after the collapse of the attempted coup d'etat engineered by Hitler, surrendered yesterday afternoon to a detachment of federal troops which had been ordered by Dr. Von Kahr, the Bavarian dictator, and General Von Lossow, commander of the Bavarian Reichswehr, to lay siege to the building.

Previously the Bavarian government had dispatched an ultimatum to both Ludendorff and Hitler, who is leader of the Fascist in Bavaria demanding them to surrender within one hour.

The status of Ludendorff and Hitler as political prisoners has not yet been defined and for the moment their capture merely marks the physical collapse of Hitler's tragic-comic "putsch" in which the world-famed former quartermaster general of the German army became engulfed.

BERLIN, Nov. 10.—Sixteen men, including loyalists and rebels, were killed in the fighting at Munich, according to the latest advices from the Bavarian capital. Two members of the Reichswehr were slightly wounded and some members of the security police were killed and six or seven wounded.

The dispatches add that order in Munich has been completely restored and that the Reichswehr and the security police are masters of the situation.

BERLIN, Nov. 10.—The followers of Adolph Hitler are still holding Premier Von Kailling of Bavaria, whom they placed under arrest during Thursday night's coup.

OPERA BOUFFE IN REVOLUTION IN GERMANY

Hitler and Ludendorff Lost "Kingdom Without A Horse"

(By The Associated Press) BERLIN, Nov. 10.—The great "Bercellar government," proclaimed in Munich Thursday evening with the announced purpose of regenerating Germany by demolishing the republic and restoring the monarchy, had a brief existence and last night it lies in ruins.

Its career ended ignominiously yesterday in circumstances widely different from those attending its inception, when, amid the fumes of beer and tobacco the Burly Erich Dudenorf declared he would not flinch in the task assigned to him, even before the prospects of war with France, as Bavaria could immediately put 800,000 fully equipped men in the field.

Today Ludendorff was a prisoner of the government he aimed to overthrow. His coadjutor, Adolph Hitler, leader of the Fascist movement in Bavaria, also was captured, but according to a late report, which has not been confirmed, he succeeded in escaping. It is said Hitler was wounded in fighting that followed the "putsch."

Details of the events in Munich are still somewhat obscure, owing to the fact the only scant official reports are available. The two leaders in this comic opera revolt, which collapsed in less than 24 hours, apparently were left in the lurch by their supporters when it was seen they had no chance of success.

The role played by Dr. Von Kahr, the military dictator, and General Von Lossow, commander of the Bavarian Reichswehr, in the coup appears, according to the official accounts, to have been in the nature of a "diplomatic maneuver." It is said they could hardly have refused to accept the posts allotted them by Hitler, when Hitler had six hundred armed followers behind him, as they certainly would have suffered the same fate as Premier Von Kailling and the other Bavarian ministers who promptly were arrested by the Hitlerites when they raided the Rathskeller. They accordingly decided that discretion was the better part of valor and pretended to concur in the rebel plans. As soon as they regained their quarters, where they were out of reach of Hitler's band, they decided to have nothing to do with the "putsch" but on the contrary to oppose it with the utmost energy. This decision of Von Kahr and Von Lossow gave a death blow to Hitler's hopes, as the Reichswehr remained loyal to Von Lossow.

Extraordinary scenes were enacted in the now famous Beer Cellar in Munich during the raid. Hitler and his supporters made free use of their revolvers to obtain order; bullets were fired into the ceiling occasionally to remind those present that a revolution was in progress. Hitler's threats to destroy the treaty of Versailles, depose President Ebert and the Berlin government and march against Berlin were received with frantic applause. General Ludendorff who entered the hall toward the close of the proceedings was given a great applause. He made a speech in his best "mashed fat" style.

MONDAY IS ARMISTICE DAY SANFORD WILL CELEBRATE WITH MOST EXCELLENT PROGRAM

Plenty of Parades, Bands, Football, Fireworks and Dance

The members of the Campbell-Loosing Post have been diligently working to make Armistice Day Celebration one of the best that has ever been staged in Sanford. In as much as Armistice Day falls on a Sunday this year, it will be celebrated on Monday, and in compliance with the proclamation issued by Mayor Lake all business houses will be closed the entire day.

Through the courtesy of the business men, the Legion has been able to have printed a very attractive program, from which it is noted that with the exception of the parade in the morning, all other events are a new departure from the customary features of Armistice Day celebrations. This year the parade will be a strictly military and civic one. There will be two bands in the parade, the 164th Infantry F. N. G. Band and the Fort Pitt Hotel band. The parade begins promptly at 10:00 a. m., marching to Central Park where memorial exercises will be held, Dr. E. D. Brownlee officiating. The parade will re-form and the same line of march as in previous years will be followed. All local military, fraternal and civic organizations will be in line and also a great many school children will turn out as escorts to the local post.

The theatres will give special matinees that day beginning at 1:00 p. m., and lasting to 2:30 p. m.

The feature event on the program for the afternoon will be the gridiron clash between Sanford High School and Miami High School. The game starts promptly at 3:30 and will be played on Hood's Field. As both teams are evenly matched the contest promises to be one of the most exciting that has ever been staged in Sanford. Miami will bring a large following to root for them and the advertising which has been done by the Post in adjacent communities assures a large attendance from those sections. This will be the first time that the "Magic City" boys have been seen in action in this part of the state and those who arranged Sanford High School schedule ought to be congratulated on securing this game for Armistice Day.

In the evening the entertainment feature, standing in a class by itself, will be a fireworks display, containing the most complete and finest assortment that has ever been witnessed in this section of the state and which will have a number of musical pyrotechnic effects. This display has been designed especially for Armistice Day celebrations. These of especial attention are: "The lights of No Man's Land," "Water falls among the clouds," "The great white falls," and concluding with the Grand National Finale, which is an appropriate salute to Old Glory and a fitting climax to this elaborate display. This part of the program begins at 8:30. The display will be fired on the bulkhead at the foot of Sanford Avenue. This area will be fenced in and for obvious reasons the public is requested to keep out of this area. Reservations have been made for spectators on Hood's Field.

During the period of the display a street dance will be held on Palmetto avenue between Commercial street and the Clyde Line dock. The famous Fort Pitt Military Orchestra has been engaged to furnish music for this occasion. The dancing will continue until 12:00 o'clock. The American Legion are selling general admission tickets at $2.00 apiece which will entitle the purchaser the privilege of seeing the football game and other entertainments which have been arranged.

MEN'S CLUB FATHER & SONS REGULAR BANQUET

Parish House Scene of Fine Meeting Thursday Night

The Men's Club of Holy Cross Parish held their annual Father and Son Banquet at the Parish house Thursday night. It was the largest banquet from the standpoint of attendance that has ever been held. Amongst this number were a great many of Sanford's prominent men who were accompanied by their sons. Those not so fortunate in this particular acted as sponsors for boys in whom they were especially interested.

Honorable Forrest Lake was toastmaster for the evening, being introduced by B. F. Whitner, one of the officers of the Men's Club.

A number of interesting and eloquent talks were made by T. L. Dumas, E. A. Douglass, Judge E. F. Householder, B. G. Smith, H. C. DuBose, Judge J. G. Sharon, and others.

Rev. Father Peck was introduced by Mr. Lawe as the master mind in guiding the work being carried on by the Brotherhood of St. Andrews amongst the boys of the city. Father Peck spoke of the purposes of the Brotherhood in its work amongst the boys, in which the fraternal, mental, moral, and physical spirit was emphasized. The Brotherhood of St. Andrews is performing the same work, according to Father Peck, as would a Y. M. C. A. if Sanford had such an organization. The Parish house, Father Peck stated, is a popular meeting place for Sanford boys of all denominations, and through the efforts of the Brotherhood has been equipped with athletic paraphernalia and other facilities which appeal to both the older and younger boys. He pleaded for the co-operation of the men of Sanford, who are interested in the future of the community, to assist the members of the Brotherhood to further the important work which it is doing.

A number of the speakers expressed surprise at what had been accomplished and at the conclusion of the meeting assured Father Peck of their active interest in this work. Manager Brockhahn of the Milano Theatre and F. C. McMahon led the singing of popular songs between addresses.

OFFICIAL CIRCLES IN LONDON HAVE NOT GIVEN UP HOPE

EARLY SETTLEMENT Will Be Made If England And America Can Put It Over

(By The Associated Press) LONDON, Nov. 10.—Although press reports from Washington regarding the prospect of a reparation inquiry conducted within a limited scope of French proposal are by no means sanguine, British official circles in London do not consider the time has yet arrived to abandon hopes for a settled conference, in which America. In competent quarters it is asserted Great Britain will continue to apply herself to problem of reaching a basis on which the conference can be satisfactory to the United States can be held until every possible avenue is explored.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—France and the United States came definitely to a parting of the ways yesterday on the proposal to enlist American aid toward a solution of the reparations problem.

Premier Poincare was advised by Secretary Hughes, through Ambassador Jusserand, that restrictions insisted upon by France would serve to "frustrate" the object of the Washington government in offering American co-operation in an expert reparations inquiry.

The state department refused to go beyond this point in disclosing the purport and result of recent conversations with the ambassador in which detailed explanations of the French attitude were made. No formal invitation to participate in an expert inquiry is before the Washington government and a declaration is, therefore not in order. In the circumstances no invitation from the allied powers now is expected.

There is no doubt that such an invitation, if presented under the French restrictions, would be declined. President Coolidge feels that the French limitations render the inquiry plan useless and futile. He believes the French restrictions would reduce the inquiry to a mere audit of German accounts; that the United States could serve no useful purpose by sanctioning American participation in an invitation that could not produce broad and comprehensive plans for economic rehabilitation of Germany and adequate payments by Germany on reparations account.

The conversations at the State Department ended yesterday when Ambassador Jusserand called with advice from his government which reached him while Mr. Coolidge and his cabinet were discussing the situation on the basis of the previous explanation from Paris.

Yesterday's message showed no modification of the French attitude and added nothing new to the situation. Secretary Hughes, before receiving the ambassador, made a second visit to the White House for a brief conference with the President in preparation for presenting the American decision.

The exchange between Secretary Hughes and Ambassador Jusserand served to bring out a detailed statement of the limitations on the expert inquiry desired by the French government.

Congressman J. B. Sevier was a visitor to the city today and went over to Orlando to see the Florida State game. Capt. P. M. Elder went over with him to keep the congressman from yelling too much.

DUPLICATE BRIDGE CLUB

Delightful in every detail was the bridge luncheon given yesterday by Mrs. R. A. Newman at her home on Fourth street, the guests including the members of the Duplicate Bridge Club.

A profusion of exquisite roses and ferns were used in decorating the rooms where the small luncheon tables were placed. The tables were laid with dainty cloths and centered with miniature turkeys. The place cards and tally cards were also suggestive of the approach of Thanksgiving. At one o'clock a five course luncheon was served.

Following the luncheon, several games of duplicate bridge were played, when scores were counted it was found that Mrs. Floyd Palmer and Mrs. Newman held high score. In cutting for Mrs. Newman's prize, Mrs. Puleston was the fortunate one. The prizes were aluminum vases.

Those enjoying the cordial hospitality of Mrs. Newman were Mrs. E. F. Housholder, Mrs. S. Puleston, Mrs. F. E. Roumillat, Mrs. G. J. Gonzalez, Mrs. D. L. Thrasher, Mrs. Floyd Palmer, Miss Katherine Wilkey.

MERRIE MATRONS BRIDGE CLUB

Among the many lovely social affairs of yesterday afternoon was the bridge party given by Mrs. C. E.

Henry at her home on Magnolia avenue, the guests being the members of the Merrie Matrons Bridge Club. The afternoon passed all too quickly in the interesting game of bridge and when scores were counted the prize for high score, a box of dainty hand-made handkerchiefs went to Mrs. W. T. Langley. Scores were kept on tallies decorated with turkeys and other Thanksgiving suggestions.

Mrs. Henry served tempting refreshments consisting of creamed chicken in patties, brown bread sandwiches, pickles, devil's food cake topped with whipped cream and coffee.

Mrs. Roy Chittenden acted as substitute for an absent club member. The club members present were Mrs. R. J. Holly, Mrs. W. T. Langley, Mrs. Harry B. Lewis, Mrs. D. P. Drummond, Mrs. Fred Walsma, Mrs. W. A. Fitts, and Mrs. Harry Heeren.

WOMAN'S CLUB COLUMN

Mrs. Henry Wight, Reporter
Phone 345-W

The November business meeting of the Woman's Club was packed with interest from the moment it was called to order by Mrs. R. E. Tolar, the president, until the last word of the program. Twenty-eight new names were reported as accepted by the Membership committee, the Music chairman, Mrs. Hendley, announced her American Folk Music program for next Wednesday, generously inviting visitors to enjoy it with her department members, and a rising vote of thanks warmly accorded Mrs. Galloway upon the reading of her detailed report as chairman of the Building committee. Various incomplete versions of this work have been made from time to time, through club meetings and press column, but this is a summing up of everything in connection with the new club home, financial and otherwise, and the organization has every reason to thank not only Mrs. Galloway, but each member of her faithful and loyal committee. With a property easily worth $6,500, the deferred payments of $6,500, should not be a difficult task to meet, if each of the two hundred members of the club will work. A little mental arithmetic along the line of the amount per capita or responsibility, would be a good exercise for Sanford club women just at this juncture, and would distribute the burden more equally than it now seems to lie.

The resignation of Mrs. Morgan necessitates an election of a finance chairman which resulted in the addition of Mrs. W. M. Scott's name to the efficient members of the executive board.

A very interesting feature was the report of a committee on purchase of new china, the money for this purpose having been raised some time ago by what was then the Home Economics committee. After having investigated out of town sources, it was finally decided that the very best price had been made by the Ball Hardware Co., of this city, and as samples of the exquisite Bavarian china decorated in the red rose which is the club flower were shown, there was a general feeling of admiration and satisfaction with the choice. Mrs. Melsch exhibited at this time a handsome silver punch bowl ladle, the gift of Mr. Weinberg the jeweler, also the purchase of a generous supply of sherbet cups and punch glasses through the donation of Mrs. Fred Williams.

Mrs. W. E. Watson, chairman of the committee on furnishing the dressing rooms, reported the gift of a mahogany dressing table by Mrs. Sam Puleston, and Mrs. Watson's own fine work in doing over the pieces now in use on the stage and other parts of the club house called forth applause for her faithful carrying out of her responsibility. Mrs. Melsch as treasurer, and Mrs. Holly as house chairman reported the finances of the club in healthy condition. A pleasant letter was read from Mrs. Blackman, and a motion was made and carried that a committee be appointed to wait on Mrs. Galloway, and ascertain whether she would allow her name to be considered as vice president for the Seventh Section, in case a vacancy should be made there if Mrs. Blackman were elected president of the Florida Federation.

The program for Louvain Day began with the singing of America the Beautiful, led by Mrs. Tackach, immediately followed by a fine rendering of La Brabanconne, the Belgian National Air, by Mrs. Tackach. An interesting article on the Restoration of the Library of Louvain was read by Mrs. L. R. Phillips in her usual charming manner, and no one woman present will ever forget the tenderness and pathos of Mrs. Frank Dutton's reading of the brief poem, In Flanders Now.

A silver offering was taken to represent our sympathy for and interest in the restoration of this world famous institution, which when completed will stand for centuries, a memorial to all American war workers. A social half hour was enjoyed, with the hostess committee for November in charge of serving light refreshments.

The writer has recently had the privilege of seeing the beautiful set of silver bought for the club by the Juniors. It is plain and heavy, and has a dainty design of an open rose—the club flower.

Mrs. Blackman returned to Florida Wednesday after a long summer in Wisconsin and New York. She was detained a month longer than she expected through an accident to her little grandson, and his stay in a Brooklyn hospital, but it is good to have her home again, and to know that she brought the youngster home in fine shape, to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Berkley Blackman who are once again residents of Winter Park.

The play, Mrs. Mr. Polly Tick, given Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Woman's Club, and directed by Miss Minnie Henderson of the Wayne P. Sewell Lyceum Bureau must have been an unequalled success, if one may judge by the comments heard from those who attended. The attendance was good, and receipts satisfactory, and Mrs. Tolar and her entire club membership are most grateful to every one of the local players who took the characters so finely.

The appointment of Mrs. Harry Heeren by the City Commission as a member of the City Planning Commission is a source of gratification to her fellow club women who feel that she is the right woman in the right place. All last summer while the rest of us were fanning and fussing over the hot weather, Mrs. Heeren and Mrs. E. P. Morse were busy scouring the county for plants and setting them around the various school buildings where they are beginning now to show up nicely. This work was done under the school grounds committee of the Parent-Teachers' Association of which Mrs. Morse is president, and they later extended their work in a measure to the local parks as both ladies are members of the City Park committee of the Woman's Club. In their summer activity they were accorded the most cordial co-operation of Mr. Williams, Sanford City Manager.

Mrs. Heeren has hundreds of slips carefully set out and being made ready for use in city beautification when the time comes. Her example is a good one for others of us to follow.

ROAD TO CAPE SABLE

HOMESTEAD, Nov. 7.—The 53-mile section of the Ingraham highway, extending from Homestead to Cape Sable will be opened for traffic by November 15, it is announced here. This highway was completed in 1919 from here to the Dade-Monroe county line, but at that point a land company interested in developing this section of the state took up the work of finishing the highway and have extended it and dug a canal about twenty miles long, through the center of the Cape Sable territory, almost to the cape itself. This latter portion is partly hard-surfaced and partly mull, the material being similar to that which forms the road bed of the Florida East Coast railroad extension to Key West.

Red Cross First Aid Special Car No. 1 Demonstrating in 48 Railroad Centers

Upper—Lecture by surgeon and practical demonstration inside Red Cross Car. Lower—Railway workers after instruction showing how to handle stretcher cases.

Washington.—Scheduled primarily for a five months' safety campaign tour, the American Red Cross railway car, equipped to give First-Aid instruction, has experienced so general a demand for demonstrations that the work of this No. 1 car is reaching very large audiences everywhere, according to reports from Major M. J. Shields, Red Cross field representative, and Dr. W. A. Redal, in charge of the car's staff of surgeons and assistants. The tour started from Philadelphia late in July and will end at St. Louis December 21, making stops at 48 railroad centers. In the months of August and September the car covered 956 miles. At 130 meetings demonstrations of first aid were attended by 18,172 persons. The average audience was 150, and while railway men predominated representatives of nearly all professions and industries were present to watch the expert Red Cross "crew" do its work. Now the interest has developed in the Red Cross plan of extending the first aid instruction is evident in the organization of school and health committees, health officers and civic clubs. In Ohio, reports state, as a result of the appearance of this first-aid car clubs are organizing classes so as to give townsmen the benefit of this Red Cross course. The large industries—steel, rubber, wool, lumber, dye works and others—and public service corporations, such as telephone, electric, gas and street railway companies, are advising their employees to attend the first-aid exhibitions on Car No. 1. Major Shields declares that never in his seven years' experience in this service from the city of Philadelphia to the Gulf and Gulf Coast has he seen so many numbers of people so interested in this work. In New York, the work of this car is influencing the enrollment of many hundreds of workers in the Red Cross, whose general campaign or Roll Call is taking place throughout the world from November 11 to November 29.

Standing Back of Your Mousetraps

A shoe manufacturer whose though he build his house in the woods, the world will make a beaten path to his door.

"If a man can write a better book, preach a better sermon, or make a better mousetrap than his neighbor, store in New York City is in a rather out-of-the-way locality recently called the attention of the reading public to these familiar lines

For many years people have beaten a path to this shoe manufacturer's door. He has proved the truth of this famous aphorism.

And where did he publish this quotation which he applies with such pride to his business?

Why, in an advertisement, to be sure—for this manufacturer is a consistent and regular advertiser, and when he has anything to say, he says it through his advertising. It may fairly be assumed that he would not look for a thriving business in the best of mousetraps, or shoes, if people were not told about them as people expect to be told through advertising.

Of course, people do find out which are the best mousetraps, the best shoes, the best tires; best breakfast foods, and buy them in preference to others.

And people today are pretty well aware that when a manufacturer puts Advertising back of the things he makes, he is telling the world that the path to his door is a broad highway.

PAINT WITHOUT OIL

Remarkable Discovery That Cuts Down the Cost of Paint Seventy-Five Per Cent.

A Free Trial Package is Mailed to Everyone Who Writes. A. L. Rice, a prominent manufacturer of Adams, N. Y., discovered a process of making a new kind of paint without the use of oil. He named it Powderpaint. It comes in the form of a dry powder and all that is required is cold water to make a paint weather proof, fire proof, sanitary and durable for outside or inside painting. It is the cement principle applied to paint. It adheres to any surface, wood, stone or brick, and costs about one-fourth as much as ordinary paint.

LOST FEELING OF JEALOUSY

Former Operatic Star Realized She Had to Share "Her" Audience With Others.

Helen Stover, the operatic star, was asked for her impressions of vaudeville.

"Oh, I'm enjoying my tour immensely," she said, "but I found it hard to understand at first. You see it was different from my experience in opera. In my early weeks in vaudeville, when I would go on for my turn I found the audiences generous with applause. It warmed my heart to get such apparently sincere plaudits. I felt that each person out there was my personal friend. It was my audience."

"But, when I had completed and the next act came on, my pride took a terrific fall. The same audience applauded a pair of knock-about comedians with just as much enthusiasm as it had applauded me—my audience applauding somebody else. I simply couldn't understand it and was ready to burst into tears—my audience had double-crossed me and was applauding a knock-about act! But I soon began to realize that the audience belonged to all of us and now it delights me to hear the other acts get a big hand!"

OLD EGYPTIAN MODES

One of the newest fads, that of wearing red, green or blue shoes of the sandal type, is our latest reversion to Egyptian modes. Egyptian ladies were particularly fussy about their sandals. These were often woven of palm leaves and papyrus stalks, but were sometimes cut out of leather and lined with cloth. Contentment for an individual was expressed by painting his picture on the inside of the sandals, so that he might be trodden upon.

Prototypes of the modern Egyptian ballet at the courts of the Pharaohs wore loose flowing robes of finest texture and transparent quality, which were fastened at the waist by girdles adorned with beads, or ornaments of various colors. On many of the friezes of the temples the outline of the transparent robe has been effaced. The Egyptians, like the Greeks, represented the contour of the figure as if seen through the dress.

PULLING OUT STUMPS

A machine has recently been devised that pulls tree stumps in much the same way that a dentist draws teeth. The stump must be of such shape that it can be firmly gripped with chains from above, or failing this, must be excavated until the passage of the chains is a possibility. It is securely moored to an overhead frame, which is then slowly jacked up by means of two jacks at either side, or in extreme cases four of these can be used, one at each corner of a somewhat more ambitious framework. It is reported that a stump that resists every ordinary leverage can be pulled right out of the ground under the slow and steady urge of these jacks.

JOIN THE AMERICAN LEGION DO IT TODAY

Mr. Ex-Service man; Do you recall about five years ago when Uncle Sam pointed at you and said, "I want men?" You answered his call and after you had gone through many moves, physical examinations and the like, you were shipped to a camp. While there you were called many things that you would not care to see in print. You did squads east and squads west. Perhaps you went to Paris Island or Newport; in any case you were given the same treatment and the same methods were used to make you a part of the greatest fighting machine that was ever produced in the history of the world. Finally, you were told that you were fit to hit the line with the rest of the fellows. Remember that cold frosty night when you were out under the stars, and the lad with whom you shared your pup-tent? You crawled into your blankets and kept each other warm. Perhaps it was he who passed you out a Camel when you were trying to roll your own with rain soaked cigarette papers or slipped you a few just before payday when you were broke. You thought quite a bit of this chap.

Do you know that there are 500 in Seminole county who went through the same damned thing, who have a lot in common? Get into the organization and all work together. There is much that you can do for each other and for the community in which we live and if you all stick together as you did a few years ago nothing can prevent the good work.

The organization has a post here and in other towns throughout this country and a few other countries also has been fighting for your interests ever since it has been in existence. It has helped the men in the hospitals get a square deal and will see that they get still better in the future. They have at least earned a decent place in which to eat, sleep and, if we can't again make them physically fit, die. It is the least that we can give them and it is your duty as comrades of them to see that they receive what is but their just due.

The larger the organization, the easier for it to carry out this purpose. The least that an able-bodied ex-service man can do for those less fortunate, is to chip in with his dues. Numbers alone, however will still be ineffective and will not give the results desired. It is necessary that every member besides paying his dues, will give freely and fill it hurts of his interest, his support and his time and WORK for the American Legion. Be a member anyhow, but try your best to be an ACTIVE member.

It is an honor merely to be eligible to membership in the American Legion. Many men would gladly live once again those few years during the war so that they too would be eligible, but it is now too late. There are some men who gave all they could of their money, time and ability but because of age were not admitted into the military service of the United States are therefore not eligible although they are still with us in spirit. Many of them really deserve this privilege. All you honorably discharged ex-service men are eligible and it is your DUTY to avail yourselves of this privilege.

If you appreciate what has already been done, and if you want to help the lad who gave more than most of us to keep our wonderful old flag waving free and unfettered, do all you can to support the Legion.

Go over to the clubhouse, join the American Legion and get your button. DO IT TODAY!

Peppers Sell At $2.50 Crate, F. O. B. Bradentown

Unusually Fine Product Finds a Ready Market—Florida Has The Market Now

The second large consignment of new peppers—two carloads—went forward Wednesday afternoon under pack of the Manatee County Growers' Association. The peppers were gathered from several fields to complete the shipment. Both carloads were sold here f. o. b. car at $2.50 a crate, which is a handsome price but no handsomer than the peppers. These, of the World-beater variety, were true to the name, being very large, of a beautiful deep green color and bell-shaped.

The northern market is ready for peppers now, and at a stiff price, the recent cold wave having wiped out vegetable patches as far south as north Florida. Ten days ago there was a plentiful supply of bell peppers and pretty nearly everything else in the vegetable line, from atea north of Florida, but today it is a different story, and producers of early vegetables of all kinds, in this belt, are getting good prices for their products. The first carload of peppers went North several days ago.—Bradentown Journal.

PLUNDERING OF FOOD SHOPS IN BERLIN CONTINUES

BERLIN, Nov. 8.—Sporadic plundering of food shops was again in progress in Berlin today. Flaring signs reading: "Christian shop" have been posted on many of the smaller places of business in the sections where raids had been in progress the last three days, directed especially against the Jewish shops, with the result that up to this morning many hundred shops had been wrecked and pillaged, and more than 100 persons injured.

Today's plundering, although scattered, was apparently thoroughly organized, as the outbreaks occurred simultaneously in different sections in such a way that the police efforts to curb them could not be concentrated.

Many of the shops are closed, even in the central part of the city, as yesterday's outbreaks were not confined to the isolated sections.

Looters and hold-up men have skillfully plied many of their "jobs" in sections of the city where reside many foreigners who entered Germany without permission, and who have not reported to the police as required by law. Consequently numbers of those robbed dare not seek the assistance of the authorities.

Raids made by the police have disclosed many crooks and other persons who have come into Germany from the east without legal authorization.

SEMINOLE IS SOME COUNTY.

Recent figures compiled by Chase & Co., of shipments of Florida fruits and vegetables by counties, show that Seminole county leads the state in the production of winter grown vegetables. The total of carlot shipments from Seminole for the season 1922-23 totaled 7,015 cars, of which 544 were oranges, 172 grapefruit, 12 potatoes, 2 cucumbers, 498 peppers, 4,812 celery, 670 lettuce, 247 mixed vegetables and 58 of cabbage. Only two other counties exceeded Seminole in the grand total of cars shipped. Polk county holds the record with a total of 11,496 cars, followed by Orange with 7,320. However, the bulk of the shipments from these two counties comprised citrus fruits, the former shipping 10,455 cars and the latter 5,800. Dade and Manatee counties were next in the order named in total shipments of all commodities, with 5,637 and 5,388 cars, respectively. 73 per cent of the celery grown in the state is shipped from Seminole county, and approximately 25 per cent of the total grown in the United States.—Florida Grower.

POSTOFFICE GETTING BETTER.

The postoffice and mail delivery is evidently getting better or there is a general cleaning up of the old mail as today we received the news of President Harding's death in weekly and daily papers of Florida as follows: The Pensacola Journal, The Tampa Times, Winter Park Herald, The Florida Advocate, The Frost-proof News, The Alachua News and many others. This date was August 3rd and we are just receiving these papers. What we want to know is where have these papers been all this time. They have not been on the mail trains and they have not been at the place where they were printed. Were they in the Sanford postoffice and is there an inspection of quarters over there today that they are sending out all of this "up to date" mail today? At this rate we can expect to get our 1921 mail Monday at the very latest. If the Daily and Weekly Herald has suffered the same fate at the hands of the postoffice at various cities and towns over the United States it is no wonder we have been getting the complaints that are coming into this office about the paper not being delivered.

FLORIDA SHOULD HAVE JOURNALISTIC SCHOOL.

All the big schools are inaugurating schools of journalism and it is high time the newspaper men of this state took some action toward the institution of a school of journalism at the University of Florida. This great school is putting in other departments and losing many students who want to take journalism and are forced to go to other states to get what they want. A press despatch today about the University of Georgia says: "A movement has recently been precipitated to inaugurate an honorary journalistic fraternity at the university and in addition to this, several of the more alert students in the department have gone about the organization of the "Quill," a club for those who are contributing to the University of Georgia publications and national publications. Here it may be noted that there are several students, among them Irvin Myerson, of Athens, and I. H. Granath, of Atlanta, who have had their work printed in national periodicals.

"Schools of journalism at universities, it is explained, are like law schools and medical schools, only much younger. There was a day when a young man read law in an old lawyer's office before practicing his profession; a doctor took his apprentice around with him on his visits; and the would-be newspaper man, began as a printer's devil and worked his way up. But not so today; in each of these fields there are professional schools preparing young men for their life work, and the Henry Grady school, named after a native Athenian, and a former editor of the Atlanta Constitution, is doing its share, according to officials."

WHAT THEY DID THERE; WHAT THEY DO HERE.

Armistice day, or Liberty day, as sometimes it is designated, will be celebrated next Monday, in commemoration of the signing of the armistice, which concluded the most destructive war in the history of civilization between the nations involved; the destruction, due to the war, continues even to this day, and the end is not yet in sight, particularly with reference to conditions in European countries, which must continue to suffer the results of that war until such time as there is a return of reason and re-establishment of normal conditions. Then, and then only will there be peace.

Governor Hardee, in his proclamation calling on the people of Florida "to join the American Legion in sacredly memorializing those who suffered and died for their country during the world war," and in designating November 12th as a legal holiday, instead of the 11th, which falls on Sunday, voices a desire and a call "upon all the people of Florida to lay aside their business cares on said day and to join with the people of the other states of this nation in commemoration of the signing of an armistice which concluded the world war." The governor, very properly urges all our people to join in some appropriate manner with the American Legion in sacredly memorializing those who suffered and died for their country during the world war. This, he it repeated is a very proper call and it is one of which the people should respond most heartily, and in manner to indicate their solemn and sacred remembrance of those young men who died in the service of their country.

Remembrance of the dead, however, is only a part, although a very great part, of the duty that the living owe to those whose lives were sacrificed on the altar of war. Those living, all people, whether of the American Legion, or the citizenry in common, owe it to the dead and to themselves that on this annual Liberty day they consecrate themselves anew to their duties of citizenship, pledging themselves to do those things that are essential to the fullest enjoyment of the highest order of citizenship, to preserve unscathed the priceless heritage of liberty, of independence, marked by worthiness to deserve and perpetuate both.

part. What they did there is quite sufficient to win for them heartiest admiration and unstinted commendation. What they do here, and now, is no less important. As they govern themselves, as they seek to make of this nation a better nation in which to live, and as a model for all other nations, so will be the enhancement of the glory that justly is theirs, so will be the measure of further praise and commendation to be awarded to them.

The world may forget what the brave men of the world war did in those years of armed conflict, but it never will forget what they do here and now for the perpetuation of the institution by which liberty is maintained, and is proclaimed, through words and deeds, to future generations.—Times Union.

FLAGS MUST HONOR HOMES OF THE LOYAL.

Every place of business and every home in Palatka should show the emblem of "Old Glory" on Monday next—the day that will be observed over the entire world as a remembrance of Armistice Day, or, as it is now designated, "Liberty Day."

People of Putnam county can do no less than float the flag on that occasion. It matters not whether the flag is shown in the busy portions of the city, in the outer portions of Palatka, or far out in the rural districts where it may be seen, perhaps, by only those who render the honor. There will be that self-satisfaction which comes from a patriotic deed, no matter in what portion of the county the flag may be shown.

It carries the mind back to that most auspicious Monday of but a few years ago when the world was crazed with joy because of the fact that there promised to be a cessation of all strife. That was a day when tears of joy trickled down the cheeks of those whose dear ones were still "over there." Tears over combed reflections of those whose loved ones had been noted in the casualty lists, who were still hoping that some error had been made. It was a day of exaltation for the whole civilized world.

Cheers, for the living and tears for the dead were everywhere. Cries and huzzas rent the air; silent meditation brought quiet and near-joy to the many. Wildness characterized actions all the brief day and tumult reigned long into the night. Memory brought back the days of departure; anticipation of the homecoming rendered happiness one of the pleasant contemplations.

Fly the Flag! It is our Flag! It was made the nearer and the dearer when, on that wonderful November day, there was flashed across and under the ocean that had separated the fighting from the crying the announcement that the cannon's roar was stilled and the rattle of musketry was silenced.

Hang out the Flag on Monday!—Palatka News.

EIGHT ACCIDENTS ON COAST LINE IN SEPTEMBER

Although automobile travel was greater than ever before, there were only 8 automobile crossing accidents on the Atlantic Coast Line in September 1923. There were no fatalities and slight injury to only one person. During the month 14,520 trains were operated over the 4,600 miles of track owned by the company with an average of about one crossing per mile. The small number of accidents and the correspondingly small personal injury may be attributed, in part at least, to increasing carefulness of automobile drivers in approaching crossings as a result of the careful crossing campaign by the railroads in the past two years, and reflects results of passage in certain states of legislation requiring vehicles to stop before crossing railroad tracks.

The number of automobile and motor trucks in the territory of the Atlantic Coast Line is shown by government statistics to be greatly in excess of any previous year, and is steadily increasing. At the same time there is a rapidly growing number of automobile tourists from other sections. If only a small per centage of these drives are reckless, the total number who endanger their own lives and the lives of others at railroad crossings is very considerable and the possibility for crossing accidents is correspondingly large. The record for September is taken, however, to indicate that accidents of this sort can be eliminated if automobile drives will exercise proper caution.

Discussing the present movement the board reported that negroes had been induced to come North either by employers sending into Southern states labor agents, who in turn gratifying friends who either voluntarily or upon request had spoken or written to friends in the South urging them to move. Two definite problems, the board said, had grown out of the migrations; first, the relation of the white and negro races, "by no means an insuperable problem and second, housing.

DECLARE ABOUT 100,000 NEGROES HAVE LEFT FOR HOMES IN SOUTH

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Surveying the present migratory movement of negroes to the North which has stirred students of sociology, the national industrial conference board, an organization affiliated with many large manufacturing concerns, tonight issued a report asserting that this year about 100,000 negroes had left their homes in the South. The present movement, the report sets forth, "is almost wholly industrial and has been to a considerable extent induced by the shortage of common labor in North."

The board found that the normal annual movement was about 10,000. During 1916 and 1917, however, it was estimated that, in a wave of hysteria, approximately 400,000 negroes had left the South, as "whole communities, entire streets of people and even church congregations, headed by their pastors moved North and located as units in the important industrial centers."

The catfish are shipped mostly to states west of the Mississippi river, but the perch and bream are sent to the southern states.

Both fishermen and dealers are predicting a record season.

SENTIMENT--Old and New. Things Worth While Picked Up Along the Way; Some From Pens Long Ago Laid Down; Some From Pens of Later Days. LEGEND OF INDIAN SUMMER. (How the Red Man accounts for the hazy, dreamy days of late autumn.) An old Indian chieftain lies sleeping, Sleeping through all the long year, Till the shadows come softly creeping, And the cold winter days draw near. And then, when the brown leaves are falling, In silence so soft and deep, He feels that their soft touch is calling, And awakens at once from his sleep. With the leaves which around him are lying, His pipe to the brim he now fills, And soon with the autumn breeze dying, A blue haze spreads fast o'er the hills. He sits there smoking and dreaming Of the days that have long passed away, When every moment was teeming With all that was happy and gay. Of his youth long past he is thinking, Of the days that were free from all care; And the smoke from his pipe, downward sinking, Makes more and more hazy the air. And we, while seeing and breathing This magical, mystical smoke, Dream dreams that are just as deceiving As the Red Man dreamed when he woke. When the leaves all around him have perished, He lays his long pipe down once more, And the Indian Summer is o'er, And sleeps where the dead leaves once flourished; —By Lyle Wilson Holden.

SANFORD HIGH'S BIGGEST GAME OF THE SEASON COMES MONDAY WITH MIAMI

Game To Be Played in Connection With the American Legion Program—Miami Eleven Left Las Night—Locals in Fine Shape for Fray

All set for the biggest game of the season Monday! Coach Wilkinson's crew is in tip-top shape for what promises to be the biggest and best game ever played by Sanford High on home ground or elsewhere. Word was received this morning of the Departure of Miami's High School Heyl-Cats last night from Magic City. They are expected to arrive in the city some time this evening. Close on to fifteen hundred fans expected to witness the clash of two of Florida's leading clans. Miami is bringing a large crowd of followers to Sanford. When Monday morning comes into the horizon it will long be remembered as one of the biggest days in the history of football for Sanford High due to the single fact that they are going to meet Miami High on the home grounds. It was Miami last year who defeated Sanford High and defeated the gigantic hopes of the Celery-Feds may have had concerning

State Championship prospects. Though both teams have been defeated at least once this year and with virtually no chance at the State Title, they stand about even in rank with the defeated. Sanford High is more than blood-thirsty to avenge the terrible defeat they received last year in Miami at the hands of the Heyl-Cats so Monday's game promises to top all other games played by the locals. As usual the game will be played in connection with the program staged by the American Legion therefore every one buying a ticket will be giving both the Legion boys and the High school boys a boost. Miami slightly outweighs the locals but their men, it is reported are not half as fast on their feet as the locals. If it is one thing, it is speed that the locals excel in. Combined with good handwork the locals promise to put up an exhibition of the best there is within them. The game will start promptly at three-thirty o'clock.

CENTRAL FLORIDA COUNCIL BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA WIDE AWAKE

The Central Florida Council, Boy Scouts of America realizing the value of Scout training have completed plans whereby the needs of visiting Scouts and boys not Scouts will be provided for during their winter stay in central Florida.

A troop of Scout s/s being organized and will be known as the Tourist Troop No. 7.

All visiting Scouts who present at the Boy Scout headquarters number 20 West Pine street, Orlando, their certificate of membership from their home troop will be enrolled in the Tourist Troop where they may participate in and enjoy all the active programs arranged for the winter, without extra cost, and all boys not Scouts will be given an application for membership, which may be transferred to their home troop after leaving Florida next spring.

This offers a wonderful opportunity to Scouts who wish to be advanced in Scouting at the Courts of Honor which will be a part of the Scout program of activities this winter.

Adequate adult leadership is now provided so that Scouts and those boys who wish to become Scouts may spend their leisure hours in profitable and instructive programs.

This information will be good news to all parents for, with them, it answers the problem of how their boys spend their leisure time, knowing that Scouting fills the time with useful occupation and when their stay in Florida is ended they will be greatly benefited by the contact had with the Scout program.

Let's go fellows, and make this the happiest winter spent "Way Down South in Dixie."

Sanford High Girls Swamp Winter Park

When Final Whistle Blew It Left Sanford on the Big End of a 55 to 8 Score

(By Ed McCalley)

In a whirlwind game at the Parish House last night the local girls basket ball team won their first game of the season from the Winter Park team to the tune of 55 to 8. The game was a fast one throughout and although the Winter Park girls fought gamely, the affair was clearly a walkaway for the local team. Their playing throughout showed the result of careful coaching and Miss Gillon is pleased with their first performances. The Parish House was fairly well filled and the High School cheer squad made themselves heard. Winter Park brought quite a bunch of rooters to the city to witness the fray and although they were beaten before the whistle blew for the first quarter, they fought until the last of the game. The Sanford team as usual showed up good in team work and their passing was excellent. Misses Carraway and Symes on guard positions did fine work and usually kept the ball out of Winter Park's territory. Martin at jumping center was a bright light among the players, Kanner, running center played a good game while Spencer and Holly at forwards were great. It was the latter two, whose playing was a great factor in winning the game as no goal was too difficult for them to shoot. The Winter Park girls starred mainly in their running center and guards who gave the local girls no little amount of trouble. In all, it was a first rate game, being the first of the season. The line up as follows:

Jewett Six

Look at the Way It's Built—A Sturdy Six—Not a Light Six. SOME folks make a mistake. They class the new Jewett Six with "light" sixes. It costs so little more than "light" sixes. But Jewett is a very different car. It is sturdy, powerful, rugged, fine performing. To find a car of the new Jewett's sturdiness you must pay $200 to $500 more. It is the only car in the thousand-dollar field built first for sturdiness, dependability and performance. Jewett's six-cylinder, 50 horse-power motor fills the hood. One look at the motor of any other comparable car and you'll realize why Jewett will pass most any car on a hill. Jewett accelerates from 5 to 25 miles an hour in 7 seconds, in high gear. Such power was never before put into a car this size. Nor is any car near the new Jewett's size and price so strongly built. Jewett touring car weighs 2805 lbs. without equipment. This is 200 to 400 lbs. more than "light" sixes. These additional pounds mean sturdier construction—thousands and thousands of miles—longer life. And more comfort and smoothness every one of these miles! Ask any Jewett owner to lift the hood and show you the way Jewett's built. Or come in and let us show you, not only the motor, but the 6-inch-deep frame, Paige-Timken axles, front and rear, all-steel universal joints, and springs that are 80% of its wheelbase. Then you'll see why Jewett is called a Sturdy Six!

WILL TELL NO MORE STORIES

Why One Woman Has Given Up Her Desire to Shine as a Perfect Raconteur.

Our family group has the reputation of wit, and at times we are rather funnier than we mean to be.

Recently I entertained a group of four men at dinner. I had never met any of them before. Desiring to be the perfect hostess and amuse them as well as feed them, I turned on the humor. When going strong I brought in one of my best stories—the last true story I shall ever tell. It was about a man who made a drive of 70 miles after his gear shift had ceased functioning, through a country of hills and valleys and gates in barbed wire fences; in the night; shifting gears with a monkey wrench!

I really was funny. I was in perfect form. I never told a story so well.

After they left I was informed by a bored husband, that one of the guests whom I had chosen to regale with this choice bit was the very man who wielded the famous monkey wrench!—Detroit Free Press.

CHAMPION COW GIVEN HONOR

Wonderfully Productive Animal Milked and Toasted at Banquet of Dairymen.

Led among rows of tables in a brilliantly lighted banquet hall and milked in the presence of 300 members of the British Columbia Dairymen's association, Agassiz Segis May Echo, champion butter-producing cow of the world, was toasted in foaming glasses of her own milk, at Agassiz, B. C., the other day.

The famous cow was led into the banquet hall with a silken rope by a pretty milkmaid. A storm of applause greeted her.

Agassiz Segis May Echo is a five-year-old Holstein, bred and owned by the Canadian government's experimental farm near Agassiz. She recently established a record of 30,886 pounds of milk in 365 days, yielding 1,681 pounds of butter. Her butter record is far greater than any ever made before in the same period of time.

MIGHT HAVE BEEN SERIOUS

One day I was buying some expensive wide ribbon in one of the shops on State street. After I had finished my purchase I picked up the package I had been carrying and went over into another section of the same shop. When I was ready to leave the second counter I gathered up my belongings again, and to my amazement, instead of the shaker can of floor wax I had been carrying, I had with me a large bolt of expensive brocaded ribbon. "This isn't mine!" I fairly shouted in a panic to the girl who had waited on me. "No," said a man who had stepped up behind me, "you brought that over from the ribbon counter." I have always been very grateful to that shop for being sure before accusing me of attempting to steal a bolt of ribbon that was worth about $5 a yard.—Exchange.

CLEANED UP BURIAL GROUND

Fifty boys of Orange, N. J., with the aid of their fathers and older brothers, wielded the pick, shovel and spade in a patriotic community service, cleaning up and rehabilitating the old Orange burying ground, where rest many of the founders of the Orange and those who helped to make history in Colonial times.

The cemetery is one of the oldest in New Jersey. The first burial there was in 1719. The boys who improved the cemetery were selected by the junior city commission of Orange. Many of the boys are boy scouts.

ELECTRICITY IN AFRICA

Darkest Africa is getting lighter, not only spiritually, but electrically as well, according to a recent report read before the United Christian Missionary society in St. Louis. The report states that an electric light and power station has been established at Bolenge, Africa, 1,000 miles in the interior, where the Congo river crosses the equator. The natives were immensely astonished when the first electric lights were switched on.

Oil Spreader for Rough Seas to Help Ships in Storms

To calm rough waters around ships caught in storms, a southern man has invented a spreader that sprays oil over a large area around the vessel. Pumped from a tank on deck, the fluid passes far out from the boat to umbrella-like devices of canvas that are set floating in the sea. It can be used for large or small craft, or from lifeboats while making their way through heavy waves in the event of disaster.

The illustration shows the oil spreader being used from ships and shore to submerge breakers and protect passengers, vessels and breakwaters. A close-up of the spreader is shown in the inset.

Simple Garage-Door Catch

The garage-door catch shown in the drawing is used on garage doors to prevent the doors from swinging back against the car while driving it into or out of the garage. The arrangement is unusually simple in that only one piece of iron rod, bent to the shape shown, and pivoted to a wooden bracket, forms the complete catch. The wooden bracket is screwed to the side of the garage and a bolt on the end of the bracket is used as a pivot for the catch.

Combination Rotary Harrow and Drag

The combination rotary harrow and drag shown in the drawing and used for pulverizing clods can be made in a short time from material available on every farm. It consists of five 6-ft. lengths of 2 by 10-in. lumber, nailed or bolted to two 2 by 4-in. endpieces, and a 6-ft. wooden roller, attached to the front so that it will revolve when the drag is pulled over the ground. Rows of teeth, made from heavy spikes, are then driven in so that they project about 4 in., and the heads cut off and the teeth sharpened. Two 3-in. bolts, driven into each end of the roller, serve as journals, and turn in, bearing holes in the 2 by 4-in. endpieces. The drag may be weighted down with stones, or if desired an old mower seat may be attached to it for the convenience of the farmer.

Thirteen Thousand Laws Are Enacted in Year

Although there is said to be no exact record of the number of laws on the statute books of the nation, experts have calculated that in one year, 13,000 of 40,000 bills presented in the legislatures of 35 states, were passed at a cost of about $900 each. Congress handles from 10,000 to 20,000 bills each session, and, it is estimated, passed 630 before its last adjournment. Estimators figure that there are between 50,000 and 100,000 state and federal laws.

Cat-Tails Yield Flour, Silk, Starch, and Also Sugar

From the cat-tails found in almost every swamp, scientists have succeeded in making both food and cloth. Roots of the weed produce starch and sugar, the pollen has been used as a flour to make bread, the brown spikes make an excellent substitute for silk, and the fluffy down is valuable for stuffing pillows. The plant was first discovered by the Iroquois Indians and, during the Great War, it was extensively used throughout central Europe.

ing. The top of a 61-foot pole will swing 7 feet from its normal position and back again without injury. Laid in a horizontal mold, the steel skeleton of the pole is covered with concrete, and revolved 1,000 times a minute. The force drives the concrete against the sides, where it forms a shell over the framework. The finished product is kept in the mold for two days and then buried in damp sand for four weeks to season.

A Buick for Business

With its roadsters for 1924, Buick has again created a new standard of roadster utility and attractiveness. Nor can the appearance of this four-cylinder two-passenger model convey in full its story. The famous Buick valve-in-head engine provides even greater flexibility and acceleration than before. The proved Buick four-wheel brakes assure more than ample safety for any emergency.

Business of today demands a sturdy, powerful, safe and dependable car—one that remains constantly in service. This new two-passenger, four-cylinder Roadster is one of Buick's contributions and answers to this demand.

Four-Door Sedan
$685 base, fully equipped.
Inside and out, the new Ford Four-door Sedan shows improvements of far more than usual importance. It is lower and sturdier in appearance. New cowl, hood, radiator and apron add size and finish to the front. Sun visor, and wide, well-finished aluminum doors with bar handles perfect the design of the body. The lasting lustre of the exterior finish is equalled in richness by the soft brown shades of the silk window curtains and the deep broadcloth upholstery. Dome light, door locks, window regulators and handles, all finished in nickel, complete a refinement you would expect only at a far higher price. Convenience, utility and economy have established Ford supremacy. The Four Door Sedan adds to these factors greater Ford prestige.
