TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

Many have imagined that it is shrewd to practice craft to defraud or injure others. The greatest injury is to the person who violates moral law. He cannot forget. Blessed is he whose transgression is forgotten, whose sin is covered.—Psa. 32:1.

It was not the kind of Christmas weather we'd expect to have around the 20th of September.

If George Smathers is going to announce his candidacy for the Senate before Christmas, he is going to have to hurry.

Seven persons were killed in Florida highway accidents over the weekend. Drive carefully on New Year's day. For more will die than in highway accidents.

Sanfordites who sometimes think our City officials are overpaid should do interested to see where the city of New York has just raised Mayor O'Dwyer's salary from $25, 000 to $40,000 a year; other salariates proportionately.

We see where the New York
 Dress Institute has selected the ten best dressed women in the United States. We expect to prepare a list of the ten best dressed women in Sanford, but we are not quite sure yet just where we will announce it.

Governor Warren pays high tribute to those who voted for his sales tax in the special session of the Legislature, and places them on his roll of honor. The true essence of statesmanship in these days of new-hall politics seems to be solely in the ability to extract coin from the people's pocketbook.

A good many working people in this country are in favor of the so-called Welfare State because it is supposed to give them economic security. And by working people we mean those who work with their hands, not necessarily with their heads. But someone needs to explain to these working people that promises of the government to pay them pensions and bonuses and benefits and doctor bills don't mean a thing in the world if the business that employs them and other businesses like them go broke at the first time they have to pay in dues to support the Welfare State.

It makes a pretty picture when Governor Warren tells about the kind and sympathetic legislature which has raised the benefit payments for 61,000 dependent children in this state from $24 a month for the first child to $27 a month, and from $12 a month for the second to $18 a month, until you learn that many of these dependent children are dependent simply because their fathers deserted them for the express purpose of collecting welfare benefits, and that no attempt whatever is made by the State to make such parents take care of their own children, even when they are perfectly able to do so.

The cheapness with which Negroes all too frequently regard humanity was illustrated by the Christmas night shooting of Willie Wallace by G. D. Williams following an argument over the payment for a meal pieced. It is a par with Sanford-Sanford killing in which Negro cut another to death because he wouldn't give him a cigar.

Those who advocate a federal antilynching law should consider these facts. There has not been a lynch in Sanford, while there have been Negroes lynched in over 25 years.

In the 1940 census, there were 1,000 Negroes in Sanford, while there were 10,000 Negroes in the next town, Ocoee, which is 17 miles away. Sanford has a population of 10,000, and the rest of Orange County has a population of 100,000.

Congressional Payrolls

There is an opinion among some members of Congress and outsiders that the general good name of Congress has been called into question by recent charges of payroll padding. One prominent member has been sentenced to prison as a result of the charges, and there are hints of specific accusations to be made against at least one other member.

Accordingly Representative Usher L. Burdick of North Dakota suggests that a joint committee of House and Senate ought to be created to investigate the payrolls of all members of Congress and bring a prompt report, let the chips fall where they may. In this way the odium of suspicion could be lifted from the name of the legislators who are innocent of any wrong-doing, and who probably, as Burdick believes, number most of the members of Congress.

The suggestion of the North Dakota Congressman is a good one, although people generally will be likely to agree with him that most legislators are honest in their use of public employment allowances. It is not good that integrity of Congress should be suspect. The suggested investigation would be a quick and simple way to clear up any of unwarrented suspicion, and no one should weep for any guilty member who might be exposed by it.

Is War Necessary?

Are wars necessary? This age-old question is asked anew by Gen. H. H. "Hap" Arnold, former commanding general of the Air Force. Writing in the New York Times, he recalls the Spanish War. That witnessed great hullabaloo by press and public men on the crimes of the Spanish in Cuba. Finally when Spain, anxious to avert a war at any cost, offered to satisfy every complaint of the United States, public sentiment had been so worked up that President McKinley did not venture to accept the Spanish terms. The people were supposed to want war, and the administration apparently believed that its first duty was to give the people what they wanted.

There is a lesson in this, as General Arnold says. War usually occurs in one way out of difficult problems. It may be a way into other problems, but that is another story. It is often harder to find an alternative way, but it is the part of wise statesmanship to make this effort.

Family Forums

Readers of "Cheaper by the Dozen" were impressed by the way the Gilbreth children of that novel were taken into the family council at an early age. They had a voice in family decisions and assumed important responsibilities at an age when most youngsters' obligations are confined to their homework.

At a recent meeting of a young peoples' discussion group, several teen-agers agreed that, from their viewpoint, every one in the family benefited when the children's opinions were taken into account. This applied particularly to financial expenditures.

Many parents have found that children who rebelled at some privation resulting from a decision arbitrarily handed down were willing to co-operate cheerfully when they were told the state of the family exchequer. Children are likely to be reasonable when reasonably treated, and their enthusiasm when shown where their co-operation is needed.

keeping their word to the people.

"There seems to be some officers who investigated the death were Police Chief Roy W. Watson, Sheriff P. A. McRae and Deputy Sheriff Charles Beck.

Another local tragedy which marred the holiday peace was the shooting and killing of Willie "Feejee" Wallace, Negro youth of the Club 666 on the Southwest Road. G. D. Williams, local Negro, gave himself up to police following the shooting, which took place shortly after 8:00 o'clock last evening back of Shoney's soft drink stand at Thirteenth Street and Olive Avenue.

Police Chief Williams, Sheriff McRae, Sgt. W. T. French and Patrolman S. B. Spruce and C. B. Sparks investigated the shooting.

Three bullets from an Iver Johnson .32 caliber revolver felled Wallace as he was in the act of loading two cases of soft drinks into his automobile. He was shot under the left eye, through the chest and under the left arm, police reported.

Sheriff McRae stated that it is believed that the shooting resulted from an argument concerning gambling at the Club 666 over the change from payment for a bowl of chili. Williams maintained he had given Wallace a $5.00 bill, and Wallace stating that it was a $1.00 bill given in payment.

A hearing into the case was ordered by State Attorney Overstreet to take place Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, said Sheriff McRae this morning.

Federal Taxes

$760,000,000 a year in the war-imposed excise rates on such things as furs, jewelry, luggage, cosmetics, transportation, etc. Such legislation now proposed by a substantial number of Republicans and Democrats. Mr. Truman has said studies are being made to see if the excise can be reduced.

Senator O'Connor (D-Md.) offered the opinion yesterday that reduction of the excise to a pre-war rate would provide a healthy stimulus for affected industries. He said increased sales and profits, in turn, would "make possible a greater tax return to the Treasury."

an inch during the night—fell while engineers from three states doggedly planned and enormous $60,000,000 gallon reservoir system that would serve New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania cities for the next 100 years.

Governor Warren paid tribute to the legislatures of Connecticut and Massachusetts "which were convened in Florida." He said a measure of his citizens had been admitted into the legislature of Florida, and that the legislature had passed a resolution to support Florida's campaign to keep the state in the union and the rest of the country has done the same.

THE WORLD TODAYBy DEWITT MacKenzie

This is a great day for the newborn United States of Indonesia, which is taking over power from the Dutch government in Batavia and is embarking on self-rule.

By the same token it's a day of mixed emotions for the "mother country." In this transition Holland loses a major portion of the empire over which she had held proud and profitable sway for more than three centuries. Control of the fabulous riches in oil and rubber and spices thus reverts to the natives, although of course Dutch interests still retain their than three centuries. Wolf Replaces Hank Crisp As Tulane Coach In Miami Rain

Former Gator Coach To Handle Tulane Forwards In 1950

MIAMI, Dec. 27. — (AP) — Tulane University's athletic department today announced that Raymond "Bear" Wolf, former head coach at Florida, will replace Hank Crisp as Tulane's football coach.

Horace Beneger, director of athletics at Tulane, said Crisp will return to Alabama, "where he served more than 20 years on the athletic staff."

Wolf, until recently, was head football coach at Florida. Before the war, he had a similar post at the University of North Carolina.

During the war, both Wolf and Crisp coached the Athens Pre-Flight football team.

Crisp has been line coach under head coach Henry Frank at Tulane for the past three seasons. Prior to coming here, he had been with the Miami Professional Football team for one year.

Meanwhile, in Gainesville, President J. Hillis Miller of the University of Florida said "we have some good coaching prospects and hope to come up soon with a fine answer."

The Gators have been without a grid mentor since the resignation several weeks ago of Ray (Bar) Wolf.

Miller did not identify the candidates who are being considered for the job nor did he say when a definite choice would be made.

Daytona Beach Plans Beach Bowl Sport Celebration

DAYTONA BEACH, Dec. 27. (Special) One of the most exciting affairs in long history of Florida's gold coast will be unfolded with a 3-day Beach Bowl Festival beginning with the Kickoff bonfire to the climax of the annual Beach Bowl Football tilt on Friday evening, December 26.

Bob Crosby, celebrated star of stage, screen and radio, will be one of the highlights of the Thursday pageant at the Peabody auditorium.

The Beach Bowl Festival will officially begin with the appearance of King Neptune, star attraction of the annual Panama Hotel Water Parade, Saturday morning, December 28. Neptune will reign supreme over the Solar Funfest. At the banquet will be the seventy out-of-state football players, representing the two-football teams competing in the Bowl classic Friday evening. Following the banquet the guests will appear at the Festival basketball tilt between undefeated Emory Henry College of Virginia and the Daytona All-Stars former college stars, at the local YMCA.

Thursday will be known as Beach-Bowl Day and sponsored by members of the Daytona Beach Merchant's Association, who will offer "Bargains For All" during the entire day.

Thursday evening at Peabody Auditorium will be the Beach Bowl Festival's Shrine Jamboree and Pageant of Pulehiti. A two-and-one-half hour show highlighted by Crosby, with other acts comprising over 200 persons. The Jackson-Civile Ballet, in full costume, will present the second act from "Ballet from Gazelle." Crosby will take over the music portion for thirty minutes. Following will be the Pageant of Pulehiti in which King Neptune, in full costume, will crown the Queen of the 1940 Beach Bowl.

PITCHER HOSPITALIZED
ELIZABETH, N. J., Dec. 27. — (AP) — Don Newcomb, star Brooklyn Dodger pitcher, was hospitalized to undergo a minor nose operation today at Elizabeth General Hospital.

The big righthander from Colonia, N. J., said he had difficulty breathing during late innings because of an obstruction caused when he was struck by a baseball as a boy.

ORLANDO DOG MEET
ORLANDO, Dec. 27. — (AP) — Many of the top hunting dogs and handlers in the nation will compete today in the fourth annual Piney Woods field trials.

Citrus Christmas Is Up $5,000,000 From Last Year's

LAKELAND, Dec. 27—(PNS)

It was a five million dollar bet-tive time Dec. last year.

Florida Citrus Mutual reported that to date this year

growers had earned $1,062,- 15.39 for the 8,087,256 boxes they
