Anonymous Note Swings Race Bill OK

A grinning Mack Cleveland Jr. Saturday told how an anonymous note and teamwork in the Senate and House gave Seminole County its harness racing bill.

The Senate enacted the veto bill by a 25-11 vote and the House by a 69-18 vote. It took only a single hour—just before both bodies were set to recess for lunch Friday.

Gov. Farris Bryant had vetoed the bill earlier in the week declaring he was obligated not to extend any legalized gambling in the state.

The key role in the governor's defeat was played by Sen. C. W. Young of Pinellas Park, the Senate's lone Republican who was outside the chamber when the roll was called on the measure.

The other opponent of the bill, Sen. Cliff Herrell of Miami Springs, had been excused from attendance because of a death in his wife's family.

TWO SANFORD Naval Air Station men were hurt in this car after a two-car collision at Oak Ave. and 25th St. late Saturday night.

Two NAS Men Hurt In Two Car Smash-Up

Two Sanford Naval Air Station men were injured in a two-car smash-up late Saturday on Oak and 25th St., police reported.

The men were identified as Michael Rickert and George McCarter. Both suffered cuts on the head and back injuries.

Police said that a car driven by Rickert collided with a vehicle operated by Paul Vincent Chanucey of Lake Mary.

Rickert was charged with failure to yield the right of way. Damage to his car was set at $700 with $800 to the Chanucey vehicle.

The Sheriff's office reported two accidents over the past weekend. Early Saturday morning a car operated by Charles Edward Reese of Sanford Naval Air Station, traveling west on SR 415 about three miles east of Sanford, came off the roadway from the Duten Bridge and hit a concrete post, according to Deputy S. J. Krix.

The car was declared a total loss and Reese was charged with failure to have his vehicle under control.

That same morning, Krix said that a car traveling on Highway Ave., five miles west of Altamonte Springs and operated by John Francis McDowell of Orlando, went off the road and hit a power pole. McDowell was charged with reckless driving and damage to his car was set at $700, Krix said.

Negro Faces Assault Charge

A Sanford Negro was charged with aggravated assault Saturday night after he shot Vivian Jamison in the left chest with a .32 caliber gun, the Sheriff's Office reported.

The assailant was identified as Charles Harris, 707 Bay Ave. A preliminary hearing was scheduled today before County Judge Vernon Mize.

The Negro woman was listed in fair condition at Seminole Memorial Hospital this morning.

Shepard Gets Hero's Welcome

WASHINGTON (UPI) — America's first astronaut, Cdr. Alan B. Shepard Jr., flew here today to receive a kiss from his wife and a medal from President Kennedy.

He collected the kiss from Louise Shepard at Andrews Air Force Base, after a flight from Grand Bahama Island where he rested from last Friday's 302-mile trip in space.

Twenty-three minutes later, he was on the south lawn of the White House shaking hands with President and Mrs. Kennedy, with Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, and other dignitaries gathered to do him honor.

High overhead, peering through the railing of the White House's south balcony, 3-year-old Caroline Kennedy kibitzed on the activities on the lawn below.

Kennedy, bareheaded under a hazy sun and perspiring in the heat of a muggy May day, presented Shepard with the Distinguished Service Medal of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, the highest award in the nation.

Shepard, grinning broadly a moment earlier, stood ramrod stiff as Kennedy read the citation, and accompanied it with his warm personal congratulations.

In his welcoming remarks Kennedy said, "I think they know how proud we are of him and what great satisfaction his accomplishment has given us."

He said of the other astronauts: "Our pride in them is equal." The President said Shepard's flight was "a common effort" and all of the astronauts deserved credit for the feat.

Kennedy noted that the flight was made with full public disclosure and that it was all the more successful because of the risk of disclosing failure.

In presenting the award, he noted that "this is an accomplishment that started from the ground up."

The citation read by Kennedy said: "His flight as the first United States astronaut was an outstanding contribution to the advancement of human knowledge of space technology and a demonstration of man's capabilities in suborbital space flight."

Killer Winds Hit Central States

New tornado alerts were posted today in seven states hardest hit by weekend weather violence. The U. S. Weather Bureau warned of added flood misery in a wide thunderstorm area of the central and lower Mississippi Valley.

Communities buried their dead and wind and flood damage estimates soared into the uncounted millions along "tornado alley" in the nation's midsection.

The weather was blamed in at least 29 deaths and scores of injuries since Saturday, when a twister killed 14 persons and injured 56 at Howe, Okla. Elsewhere tornadoes and floods took 10 lives in Arkansas, four in Missouri and one in Illinois.

More tornadoes, accompanied by severe thunderstorms and damaging hail, were forecast at week's beginning in Oklahoma, Kansas, Arkansas, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana and Kentucky, stretching generally along a line from southwest of Enid, Okla., to Evansville, Ind.

The second wave of tornadoes began late Sunday 10 miles west of Pawhuska, Okla., destroying a home, two barns and a car, and later skipping to Timber Hill, where a twister smashed a trailer home and hospitalized a 67-year-old man.

Flood misery matched the tornado threat in Arkansas, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas and Missouri. Arkansas Gov. Orval Faubus ordered National Guard troops into Harrison and observers reported 80 percent of the northern Arkansas town's business district destroyed by a 15-foot high wall of water Sunday.

"This is the worst disaster in the town's history," Harrison Mayor Dene Hester said. Five persons were killed and 150 were homeless.

Kansas and Missouri suffered heaviest storm damage along the Missouri River. A twister Sunday destroyed 30 buildings at Wolcott, Kan., threatened Kansas City, Mo. rivers and churned creeks and briers to flood stage south along the border. Widespread evacuations followed flooding of the Marais Des Cygnes, Marmiton and Neosho Rivers in east central Kansas.

The Wolcott tornado picked up a car carrying three girls, smashed it against a tree and laid it down a quarter mile away from the highway.

"It was awful dark and windy, and then the next thing I remember someone was pulling us from the car," said the driver, Daniell Gilstead, 17, of Leavenworth, Kan. She and her two companions were reported in satisfactory condition at a Leavenworth hospital.

In Illinois, tornadoes Sunday night skittered across three counties near Springfield, the state's centrally located capital and sent winds howling east to Fort Wayne, Ind.

Authorities evacuated 80 families from their homes at Mariou, Ill., ahead of the rising Crab Orchard Creek and residents in Illinois and neighboring Indiana were alerted for flood threats along the Wabash River.

Private School Bill Meet Set By Cleveland, Milwee

Supt. of Schools R. T. Milwee said today he will meet with State Rep. Mack Cleveland Jr. this weekend on legislation which would help finance private schools set up for pupils who don't want to go to integrated schools.

The measure was introduced by Cleveland Friday and would allow credits on county-leveled property taxes for schools to persons contributing or paying tuition to a private school. Maximum tax credit would be $250 per child.

According to Cleveland, who spent the weekend in Sanford, the bill would not weaken the public school system as had been hinted by opponents of the bill.

Cleveland said it would affect only county property taxes for schools and not the property taxes levied for other county purposes.

He said that as children dropped out of public schools and entered private ones, the costs of the public schools should drop.

Milwee today declined comment on the merits of the bill until he could discuss it in detail with Cleveland.

According to Cleveland this is the first type of legislation this session dealing with the integration problem.

A similar bill was introduced during the last session but opponents fought the bill on the grounds that it was unconstitutional.

Reds Threaten Laos Cease Fire

VIENTIANE, Laos (UPI) — Pro-Communist Pathet Lao troops were reported today to have advanced within 14 miles of the royal Laotian capital of Luang Prabang in defiance of a cease fire agreement with the pro-Western government.

The move threatened to touch off a major battle even as the International Control Commission on Indochina was flying here to verify the truce.

Informed sources said two battalions of rebels, numbering about 700 men, occupied the village of Lai Hane Sunday, apparently without a fight, and started moving down the Mekong River toward Luang Prabang.

There was no indication the rebels would try to invade the royal capital itself but there was a possibility they would clash with a government garrison at Pak Ou, about six miles from Lai Hane.

The government already had accused the rebels of bad faith in attacking anti-Communist Meo tribesmen who control considerable territory behind the rebel front lines.

Raceway Renovation To Start

Work will start immediately in renovating and improving the Seminole County Harness Racing facilities east of Hwy. 17-92 at Casselberry in preparation for the season opener in January of 1962. Karl Higginbotham, president of Seminole Park and Fairground Inc. said today.

Higginbotham made the statement 72 hours after the Senate and House overrode Governor Farris Bryant's veto authorizing a racing permit for the county.

Higginbotham said that plans will get underway "immediately" for building a new clubhouse adjacent to the present clubhouse and for renovation of all the facilities on the site at an estimated cost of $600,000.

A special added attraction will be construction of a five-eighths mile track inside the present track. Recently six new all metal barns were added to the facility.

Higginbotham in a jovial mood today, said that "we certainly would like to thank the public for its patience with us until this legislative action was accomplished."

Sanford Girl Hit By Car At Beach

Vida Sue Smith, 17 year old Seminole High School junior, received injuries Saturday when a car ran over her leg while she was sun-bathing at New Smyrna Beach.

Driver of the car, 18-year old Jimmy Sweeney, of New Smyrna, told police that he did not see the girl lying on the beach, close by another car, and was not aware that he had run over her until he heard her scream.

Miss Smith's leg from the ankle to the knee was badly bruised and the muscles pulled in the calf of her leg, but due to the fact that it was crushed into the soft beach sand, no bones were broken.

Lifeguards and beach patrol police rushed Miss Smith to the Fish Memorial Hospital in New Smyrna, and she was later released to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Smith, of Sanford, where she will be confined indefinitely.

Sweeney, driver of the car, was charged with reckless driving by New Smyrna Beach police.

AWARDS WERE PRESENTED TO FUTURE FARMERS of the Sanford Junior High School Chapter at a Father and Son banquet, Friday. From left, Donald Farrens, vocational agriculture teacher congratulates Eddie Kosky, who won the Scherz award, and David Thomas, of Geneva, Star Greenhand, is commended by Billy Gunter, speaker of Orlando, who is a past national president of FFA.

Set Goals High, Future Farmers Told At Banquet

"It is not necessary to win awards to be considered successful," Billy Gunter, former national president of the Future Farmers of America told the Junior High Chapter at their banquet Friday.

"But," Gunter advised the boys, "set your goals high and develop the abilities that you have, polish your talents and search out the good qualities that you have, for no one ever uses all the ability that he is capable of performing." Gunter cited the opportunities available in the FFA organization, such as banquets, committee work, conventions, parliamentary procedures, public speaking and work assignments as aids in developing their latent talents.

The former national president told the boys how determination could overcome the handicap present for boys who "live in town" but want to be farmers.

The meeting was conducted by Chapter president, Doyle Carter, who was commended by Gunter for his masterful handling of the event.

During the evening, honorary chapter membership was conferred by the officers of the chapter on adult helpers and advisors, Ben Wiggins, Hugh Carlton and E. S. Douglas.

A $25 scholarship award was made to Eddie Kosky, who had the highest average grades of any boy in the chapter. The award was given by R. T. Hunt of Hunt's Feed Store, and presented by Ben Wiggins.

David Thomas received the "Star Greenhand" award, a $25 bond and a pin, from Ronald Muirhead of the Seminole County Farm Bureau. David's farm projects were an extensive citrus culture and a blackberry project.

Guest speaker, Billy Gunter, was introduced by County Agent, Cecil Tucker, who told the group that besides being national president, Gunter had also served as an exchange student to Europe and won the "National Farmer Award" of the FFA as well as the "Young Farmer of the Year," third in the state, in the Jaycee annual awards.

Plenty Of Experience Gained At SHS Elections

Seminole High School students will be ready to take an active and knowledgeable part in local politics, when they reach voting age, by the experience that they have gained from the school elections held last week.

The top job, student body president, was won by Douglas Stenstrom, Jr. who conducted a hard-hitting campaign with plenty of signs and posters, decorated cars, loudspeakers and a pretty campaign manager, Nicki Ashby. Doug had some really rough competition in the campaigns conducted by Mike Caolo and John Boniface, who also ran for the office.

Bob Williams, who was voted president of the senior class won out by a very close margin over Bonnie Gielow, the only girl running for one of the presidential offices. Bob's campaign manager was Jo Ann Ziegler.

Bobby Johnson, who had Bobby June Berry for a campaign manager in his election as president of the Junior class, won handsily as he was unopposed, as were all of the junior class officers.

Grades were what kept the field narrowed down, as the students who qualified to run had to have a 2.5 average or better and some found themselves held back by one subject in which they were not quite up to par.

Campaign slogans were the order of the week, with catchy phrasing such as "I like Mike", "Let's back Jack" and "Hit the Spot, Vote for Ott," and many other clever pictures, cartoons and slogans.

On Wednesday all the candidates, their campaign managers and friends made two speeches each before the double assembles, in the best political manner, promising efficient government.

On Thursday, regular voting machines were taken to the school by the courtesy of Camilla Bruce, county registration officer, and set up, with all of the candidates names and offices on the slate and registration books outside, with clerks to check off names of voters. Each student registered, stepped into the booth and threw the switch to draw the curtain, pulled the levers for their favorite candidates and drawing the curtains again, stepped out to make way for the next voter. Approximately 800 students took part in the voting.

Demos To Introduce Major Rights Pledges

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Democrats planned today to introduce six joint bills in the Senate and House aimed at carrying out the civil rights pledges of the 1960 Democratic campaign platform.

Sen. Joseph S. Clark, (D-Pa.), and Chairman Emanuel Celler, (D. N. Y.), of the House Judiciary Committee announced that Kennedy had asked them last September to prepare the legislation.

The six measures included constitutional amendments eliminating poll taxes and literacy tests as voting requirements for federal elections. Another would require school boards operating racially segregated public schools to submit a plan for desegregation, including "first step compliance" by June, 1964.

The bills also would make permanent and stronger the civil rights commission due to expire Sept. 9; authorize the attorney general to initiate civil injunction suits in federal courts to bar denial of civil rights on grounds of race, creed or color; and provide administrative and court remedies to assure fair employment practices.

Other congressional news: Holmes; The Senate, operating under an agreement to limit debate, was virtually certain to vote on President Kennedy's nomination of Julius C. Holmes to be ambassador to Iran. The agreement, worked out last week, provided for an additional two hours of debate and then a roll call vote. Some senators oppose Holmes for his part in post World War II tanker deals.

Space: Sen. Alexander Wiley, (R. Wis.), said the United States should make sure that from now on it gets "the maximum benefit not only from space accomplishments themselves, but also from the great psychological impact of 'firsts' in the space race."

Trade: The Senate was expected to approve today or Tuesday a measure giving President Kennedy greater leeway in permitting trade with European Communist nations, not including Russia.

Why Stop At Seven?

Fidel Castro is putting Cuban 7-year-olds into uniforms in a typical extension of totalitarian discipline into the ranks of the young.

One wonders why the Communists and Fascists stop at any age level. Why not carry regimentation to its logical end, the crib?

Castro could go his big Red brothers one better in this matter if he will only act.

Why not a khaki tri-corner and swaddling clothes for all new Cuban babies?

The crib, of course, should be of fortresslike steel, and all rattles and teething devices should be miniatures of weapons. One can't begin the early.

The whole thing should be topped, naturally, by camouflage netting to protect the kid from impending U. S. attack.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Frank asks the same question that thousands of teachers and you readers have put to me, so here are the answers. With due credit to the campus type of college, I have found that the newspaper is the most influential educational agency of all and keeps its "students" from the age of 8 till they die at 78.

CASE H-475: Frank Simson is a magazine writer who recently asked my office for some data about this column.

"Dr. Crane," he began, "why did you decide to throw your lot with newspapers?"

"Specifically, what made you leave the college campus to become a syndicated columnist?"

"For generations my family has been made up of teachers and clergymen.

My brother and I both studied to be college professors. He is still a campus professor, while I have become a professor of the nationwide campus of American newspapers.

Back in 1924, I was teaching psychology at George Washington University, Washington, D. C.

My classes were crowded, with as high as 150 students per course. I taught the psychology of Advertising, Salesmanship, Personal Child Rearing, etc.

But I found that the students, as well as the audience which I would address at P.T.A. meetings, were full of doubts and uncertainty about many practical family and social problems.

Psychology then, as well as now, didn't have ALL the answers to such problems in life, but it did have many proved and tested solutions.

But over 80% of our Americans never entered college, even for one semester, so if psychology was restricted just to university folks, it would miss the vast majority who could profit by it.

So I decided something should be done to help spread the proved facts for the more abundant life.

In 1924, we didn't have radio of the commercial sort. And magazines hit only minority segments of the population.

But the daily newspaper reaches almost all Americans who can read, so I decided it was the most universal educational agency in the land.

Then I made a survey of newspaper readers, asking what they had read in their daily newspapers.

Remember, this was long before the Gallup polls and even Dale Carnegie's little book on winning friends.

Back in 1924, psychology was still of the "stuffed shirt" type, phrased in 5-syllable words and dealing with a lot of highbrow stuff.

My personal survey showed that housewives liked the then popular Dorothy Dix, but her column didn't vary, being a Love, Love, Love missive six days per week.

Many parents also liked a child column, but when quipped more fully, the said they didn't read it more than once per week.

So I diversified the formula for this feature, including ONE true life child case, TWO on love and marriage, ONE on how to improve your personality; One on mental health (now called psychosomatic medicine) and ONE final case on business, personal or sales and advertising.

That formula has proved superb, for it varies the "menu," yet hits the basic interests (instincts) of everybody several times per week.

Before launching the column, however, I decided I ought to gain my M. D. degree to supplement my Ph.D. in psychology.

I had transferred my teaching back to Northwestern University where I ran the experimental psychology lab and taught several courses in business psychology.

So I traded Evanston courses with my colleagues so I could teach at night and go to Medical School by day. After I got the M. D., I launched this column, starting it in 1935.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long 4 cent stamped, addressed envelope and 26 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

Q—What is the precious metal content of U. S. coins?

A—See 1837 all gold and silver coins, with one minor exception, have contained 90 percent of precious metal, the other 10 percent being chiefly copper.

Q—In which hemisphere was cotton developed?

A—Cotton is the only plant that was developed both in the Old World and the New.

From Rome

Henry McLemore

ROME—There are few more resolute defenders of the freedom of the press than I, but there are times when I wish it were possible to clip its wings a bit.

I'd like, for example, a law, written or unwritten, which would suppress the news when some lucky fellow buys a painting for $2,000 and it turns out to be a Fra Lippa Pippa worth $120,000, even without the frame. I'd put the same damper on the news when a housewife, tidying her attic, uncovers a Gutenberg Bible or some such treasure, and makes a packet.

How is a man to enjoy browsing about Rome when he can't be certain that he isn't passing up a million dollars worth of old and undiscovered paintings every block or so?

Take my walk of yesterday, when I strolled the length of Via del Coranari. I was miserable the whole time, for the Via del Coranari is lined with antique shops, from its beginning near the Ponte S. Angelo to its end near Piazza Navona.

The walls of the shops are covered with old paintings, and there are piles of them stacked everywhere. Hundreds of them, thousands of them, in square frames, oval frames, plain frames, and gilt frames.

Pictures of saints and devils, fat cherubs and skinny dukes, charging horses and patient burros, churches and landscapes.

Many of the pictures are to be had for a few thousand lire, and how is one to know that by not buying, say, that saint sitting on a rock with a bird atop his head, that one isn't passing up a small fortune?

Or that in refusing to give $7.50 for a dark and gloomy painting of seven cherubs lighting on a cliff he is turning down a Salubrica that has been the object of an intense search for six hundred years?

The result is, a walk in Rome such as the one I took is a mixture of misery and tired feet. Even the pictures that to my untrained eye were not well done could not be shrugged off, for we have all read of how people have scraped off the top picture and found a genuine Tricemantate at the bottom.

Several times I came close to buying. In a little shop near the Piazza Navona I discovered, way in the back, a giant of a canvas that I could get for $11. There was ten dollars worth of kindling in the frame. Not only that, but there was a good-sized piece of eggshell stuck in one corner, and am I not right in believing that the old masters used a lot of egg shells in mixing their paints?

But I didn't buy it. It would have cost $3.00 to get it to the house by truck, and that would have raised the total cost to $14, a bit more than I was ready to spend.

I have been haunted by that picture ever since. I can almost see the four saints in it whispering to me what a fool I was not to go as high as $100,000, for six layers down there was an early Raphael worth a king's ransom.

Tomorrow I am going back to see if it's still there. If it is, I probably won't buy it. If it isn't—well, I'll be sick and envious and afraid to read the papers.

Dear Editor: I would like to thank you for the fine cooperation you and the staff have given our bank in its opening.

We like our neighbor! Sincerely,

President

Dear Sir: It is somewhat amusing to see Mr. Hibbard Casselberry's yelp of "gross unfairness" and his beleaguered cry of having to resort to the Supreme Court.

We have been second class citizens for better than three years as far as representation is concerned in doing something to alleviate the horrendous condition of our road and the horrible drainage ditch situation to the rear of our houses which breeds mosquitoes and keeps septic tanks from working at the shadow of a thunderhead. The County will not touch either situation as it does not know whether it is responsible for the area. Mr. Casselberry and cohorts claim we are in the county. And so the buck passes back and forth.

Oh, for the Boston Tea Party

The average life span of Americans is steadily increasing. If you are between 40 and 50 you now have a better-than-even chance of living as many years in the future as you have in the past.

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Interior Secretary Stewart L. Udall has asked that oil and gas industry representatives, lobbyists and public relations executives in Washington be solicited to buy $100 tickets or ten tickets for a full table at $1,000 to a dinner honoring President Kennedy here on May 27.

This became known today through an original copy of a circular letter sent to 56 oilmen in the capital by J. K. Evans of Atlantic Petroleum Co., on April 5. Evans maintains offices at 3700 K St., N. W., but the letter was sent out on one of his personal letterheads from his residence at 3005 Normanstone Drive, N. W. A copy of the letter has just come into the possession of this writer, and is reproduced in adjoining columns.

Interest in this letter centers in the fact that most of the U. S. government's oil and gas programs are administered by the Department of Interior, headed by Secretary Udall of New Mexico.

At the bottom of the letter is a stenographer's file line, "cc: The Honorable Stuart L. Udall," indicating that a copy of the letter was sent to him. But the opening paragraph of the letter clearly associates the secretary with the solicitation.

At the top of the letter are the names of the 56 oil and gas men to whom it was sent.

After the letters were mailed out, somebody must have had a twinge of doubt or conscience about them, for an effort was made to call them back or have them destroyed.

This is the third bit of trouble Udall has become involved in during his first 100 days in office. Shortly after he was sworn in, he admitted that he had urged some of his former congressional colleagues in the House to vote for the proposed Rules Committee reorganization.

In a recent television interview Udall declared the Cuban Invasion plan had been made during the Eisenhower administration. He was severely criticized by Republicans for attempting to blame the Cuban fiasco on Eisenhower.

The Evans letter to oil and gas men is almost certain to backfire on Udall. As one prominent Republican declares, "If we had attempted anything like this, everybody would have jumped all over us."

The Kennedy administration is already under criticism for failing to include any provision for reducing oil and gas depletion allowances in its new tax reform program.

Revelation of the existence of the Evans letter just a few days after President Kennedy's message to Congress recommending a new code of ethics for government officials seems certain to be mentioned by GOP critics.

Here is a list of names of the 56 oil and gas men at the top of the letter, and their business affiliations:

Curtis Morris, American Gas Assn.; Fred H. McIntyre, American Natural Gas System; L. H. Welch, American Oil Co.; John E. Kane and Frank L. Course Reduces Only Pocketbooks

DELAND (UPI) — Dozens of women here and in Daytona Beach who signed up for a reducing course with three "athletic-looking" young men found Friday that the only thing reduced was the size of their bank accounts.

Authorities said the women were asked to sign at the bottom of a printed agreement which allegedly enrolled them in the figure-forming school. What they actually signed was a detachable bank draft ranging from $100 up.

Warrants were issued in the case for Tom Ellison, 35, Ted Martin, 28, and Robert Man, 30.

"...and they lived happily ever after!"

With this wonderful thought, how easily sleep will come. A sleep that's alive with carefree dreams of happy times forever. And who's to change these dreams into reality?

The opportunity is shared by many, including our business and industrial leaders. The services all of us render, the products we make, the jobs we create, and the support we give to civic activities are helping to build a world where all can live happier ever after.

Country Club To Host Top Women Golfers

The Mayfair Country Club will be host Wednesday to approximately 200 Central Florida women golfers in an inter-city tournament. The local group feels that the selection of the Mayfair course was in part due to the excellent condition of the course under the care of Robert Willis, greens-keeper.

Jeanne Faulk, tournament chairman, requests that players be on the tee five minutes prior to starting time. Assisting Mrs. Faulk will be Mrs. Frank Duro, Mrs. John Dickey, Mrs. Andrew Carraway, Mrs. Ralph Wight II, James Truitt and Robert Willis.

Sarasota Boatman Wins Marathon

George Thompson of Sarasota took first place in the third annual St. Johns River Marathon held Sunday. Thompson drove a Jones Cat with twin Mercury 800 motors and took first with a time of 4:58:16. The race was marred by several accidents as the boats flipped over and one driver, R. H. McDonald of Ocala was taken to Fish Memorial Hospital in DeLand with a fractured knee. McDonald's boat flipped over in Lake George.

The race covered some 275 miles and covered Lake Monroe, Lake George and the St. Johns. Close to 50 boats participated in the race.

Carry Back Shows Critics Dead Wrong

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI)—The hardboots were reluctant to admit it but a game little colt named Carry Back from the wrong side of the tracks ruled the turf world today as the 1961 Kentucky Derby champion.

Carry Back, sired by Sage and out of Joppy, a $300 mare, already has left the scene of his brilliant three-quarter length victory in the first of the triple crown classics. He was sent back east to get ready for the Preakness at Pimlico May 20.

Owner Jack Price was jubilant that Carry Back came through with flying colors for he had confidently predicted the colt's victory throughout the hectic pre-derby days.

But Price admitted Carry Back "acared the living daylight out of me" before a dramatic stretch run carried his colt to victory in America's greatest horse race.

Four of the horses Carry Back beat so decisively are going to be sent against him again in two weeks at Pimlico — Dr. Miller, who left on the same plane; Crozier, who now has been narrowly beaten four times by Carry Back, Sherluck and Globemaster. "At the three-quarter pole I thought we were dead," Price admitted. "At the quarter pole, I thought we might get third. At the eighth pole I thought we would take second. At the sixteenth pole I had hopes we could win."

Tigers 'Going Places With New Faces'

United Press International "Going places with new faces." That's the battle cry of the Detroit Tiger and Cincinnati Reds as they streak through the early season like pennant-winners.

Who would have thought one month ago that Jake Wood, Phil Regan and Joe Grzenda would play important roles in pulling the Tigers away to a 2 1/2-game lead in the American League race?

Or, for that matter, who could have figured that Gordon Coleman, Chico Cardenas, Jim O'Toole and Howie Nunn would help boost the Reds into second place on May 8, just two games behind the San Francisco Giants?

The Tigers made it five straight victories and eight in their last 10 games by sweeping a double-header Sunday from the faltering Chicago White Sox, 8-6 and 5-3.

The Reds, who one week ago broke an eight-game losing streak, ran their current string of victories to eight straight by winning both games of a double-header from the Milwaukee Braves, 5-4 and 4-0.

San Francisco widened its National League lead to two games by beating the Philadelphia Phillies, 7-0, while the Los Angeles Dodgers dropped the Pittsburgh Pirates into third place with a 4-2 setback. The St. Louis Cardinals beat the Chicago Cubs, 4-2, in the first game of a scheduled twinbill called after five innings because of rain.

In the AL, the Los Angeles Angels helped Detroit's cause by beating the second-place New York Yankees for the second straight day, 5-3. The Washington Senators split a double-header with the Cleveland Indians, winning the first, 4-3, and losing the second, 4-3.

Wieboldt's Ahead In T League Play

Standings in the "T" league show Wieboldt's out ahead with 62 1/2 games won. Country Club second with 59, Kams third with 51 1/2, Nationwide fourth with 45 1/2, Smith Amoco, fifth with 44 1/2 and Jean's Spaghetti House, 34.

High individual team games were Smith's 638, Wieboldt's, 591 and Kams, 569 and in the series for the teams Kams was high with 1759, Smith second with 1700 and Wieboldt's 1673.

High individual game and series was won by Dot Button with 204-539. Harriett Cowley had a 190-473 and Fran Mackey had 188-663.

Splits picked up were by Jane Pendry, 4-3; Clara Tulin, 2-7, and 4-5-10, Maxine Qualls, 2-5-1. Fran Mackey, 2-7 and Jimmy Livingston, 6-8-10.

Kiwanis, Civitans Pace BRL Play

The close of the first week of play in the Babe Ruth league found Kiwanis and Civitan on top of the standings with two wins each, and with each game being played before a host of fans interested in this feature of the city recreation department's program.

Rotary and Lake Mary were the victims of double assaults on their championship aspirations, with CPO and Shrine taking the measure of the Rotary nine. Lake Mary fell before the Kiwanis and Elks.

Bunched with one win and one loss were Elks, CPO, Oviedo and Shrine.

Civitan and Kiwanis didn't get into the league lead without some exciting battles. Monday Civitan and Oviedo played a ding-dong game in which the Thomas-Price managed Civitans edged out Miller's Oviedoans, 7-6. Kiwanis and CPO had the gallery in a frenzy all through their game Friday with the Chiefs finally dropping the tilt, 2-4.

Local sports-enthusiasts should plan now to contact Louis Markham, John Schirard, Cliff McKibbin, Gordon Bradley or Fred Ganas for their tickets to the All-Sports Banquet to be held in the Seminole High Cafeteria on May 16.

Gene Ellenson, assistant football coach at the University of Florida, will be the speaker and the trophies and awards will be made to all the outstanding SIS athletes at that time. Mrs. "Whitely" McLucas, widow of the late sports figure, is expected to be present for the awarding of the McLucas trophy for the best all round athlete.

Tenneco. New name, new gasoline, new service. New vigor, enthusiasm, determination...not only at the refineries but at the service stations. New ideas about how petroleum products should be refined, delivered and sold. For example: Each Tenneco station has just two pumps. Regular and Premium. But both gasolines have the same premium ingredients. Everything that can be put into a gasoline is in our Regular as well as our Premium. All the additives, our Regular's got them. The difference is in the octane rating. Tenneco Premium has higher octane. But you may not need it. Your car has an "octane sense". It will tell you which grade of Tenneco makes it happy. If our gasoline's the muscle, our dealer's the hustle...a dedicated guy, quick, courteous. He knows what it's all about. He's got a feel for cars, a way with cars, a talent for doing things right. He's the man who'll give you the "Total Service" you've been waiting for. We're new but we're ready. We're full-grown, competitive. We've got the backing, the background, the manpower, the momentum. Try us. See if it isn't true that the going's great when you take to the road from Tenneco. And see if our new red-white-and-blue sign isn't really a signpost, a beacon, something new to guide by.

TENNECO TALK: Now! A special offer for you from your Tenneco Dealer. You can get a 2 1/2 gallon Tenneco gas can for just 89¢. It's a $2.59 value but to introduce you to his new Tenneco Station, your Tenneco Dealer is offering it to you for only 89¢. Perfect to keep in your car trunk for those long trips, you'll also find it handy for filling any gasoline power tool. Drive in to your nearest Tenneco Station today. Get your gasolines can now while the supply lasts. Nothing to buy. Just ask your dealer about his special offer. He's looking forward to meeting you.

TO THE MEN: (a voice from the past, a 1912 copy of the Sanford Herald, contains the following advice.)

"It is one of the settled facts in the history of love letters that men will write them and women will keep them. A woman cherishes her love letters as she cherishes her mirror or her powder puff. She kisses them before she goes to bed and presses them to her bosom before she does her hair up in the morning. She reads them for weeks and knows where to find them for years.

And about the only safe thing the man who has written them can do is to MARRY HER."

And if a gentleman thus advised, did marry his lady, he could buy a tailored, made to measure suit from the D. A. Caldwell Department Store in Sanford for $14.95 and up. He could get some socks to go with the suit for 81 cents a pair and a straw hat or a genuine Panama for from 40 cents to $2.60. A silk tie to complete the outfit could be had in the newest design at only 25 cents, and a cowhide, leather-lined traveling bag for the honeymoon for $6 could be purchased in the same store.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: If you had been raised on a farm and milked cows, you would not need to consult a "psy-cow-logist" to know why the cow would not let a woman near her. A cow is a very intelligent beast. She doesn't trust anyone with full skirts, loud colors and perfume. Some men could learn a lot from a cow. FROM IOWA

DEAR FROM: Women who set about to milk cows do not wear full skirts, loud colors and perfume. They dress under-wise.

DEAR ABBY: I was married at 16. It was a "have to" case. I never cared much for children but I had this baby girl to raise. She was always very mean and hateful, and we detested each other. When she was ten, I divorced her father and remarried. She grew even more impossible to handle, so I contacted her father (he had moved to another state and remarried also), and he agreed to let her come to live with them. They were glad to have her, and I was glad to get rid of her.

She turned out surprisingly well. She was graduated from high school with honors, and won a scholarship to college. She is now 22. I haven't seen her since she was 11. She wrote, telling me she is being married and I am welcome to come to the wedding, but if I go, will I please do her a favor and not tell anyone I am her real mother. Would you go on those terms? I have a mind to go and tell everyone who I am. REAL MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Either go to the wedding and respect your daughter's wishes, or stay home.

DEAR ABBY: How should you wear a corsage? With the stem up or down? What if it has ribbons on the item? My friends and I have had many discussions on this bottom, and the flower should "look up" subject and nobody seems to know. Thank you. R. R.

DEAR R. R. A florist once told me that the stem of the flower should be on the bottom, and the flower should "look up" at the wearer.

We The Women:

By Ruth Millet

The first thing a woman thinks about in most of life's small crises, unexpected events and spur-of-the-moment plans is her hair.

She either thanks heaven she has just been to the beauty shop or starts figuring frantically how she is going to get there.

And old beau passing through town telephones and all the while Mrs. A. W. (Any Woman) is inviting him to have dinner with the family she is either thinking, "My hair's a mess" or "Thank goodness I went to the beauty shop yesterday."

takes off on a trip, one of the very last is to get her hair "done."

And many a Mrs. A. W. has jerked herself out of the deep doldrums by making an appointment at her beauty shop and getting an entirely new and different hair-do.

A woman's hair may be her crowning glory—as the poets say—but keeping it a crowning glory is one of her most nagging necessities. For a woman's hair is always on her mind—as well as on her head.

Jacoby On Bridge

By Oswald Jacoby

Thirty years ago, Richard L. Frey of New York was one of my favorite partners. He was particularly adept in hiding and his dummy play came as close to being perfect as possible.

He has recently written a book entitled, "How to Win at Contract Bridge in Ten Easy Lessons" and anything written by Dick is worth reading.

In today's hand, Dick was South and I was North. A look at the bidding shows that Dick let himself be pushed slowly into into the slam in spades. If he had showed his tremendous freak holding, the opponents surely would have saved at seven hearts which would only be down two tricks.

Of course, West could beat the spade slam. All he had to do would be to open the seven of clubs. East would trump and protected his contract against say and all club breaks. Of course, if West had shown out on the club lead Dick would have gone up with Dummy's ace and led back toward his queen.

Bridge score table with columns for NORTH, WEST, EAST, SOUTH (D), and various card counts.

Cooper Marks 60th Birthday

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Cancer-stricken Gary Cooper passed his 60th birthday quietly Sunday. There was no celebration. A friend said there was no cake, no presents. For more than two weeks the actor's physician, Dr. Rex Kenamer, has not allowed visitors — at — the — Bel-Air — home where Cooper is under heavy sedation most of the time. The doctor said Cooper's condition had deteriorated steadily during the past two or three days.

Shepard's Space Trip Marks New Dawn Of New Era

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI)—It is a fantastic sight to see the dawn of an era. What happened at Cape Canaveral last Friday and culminated in a Washington news conference today was the Wright brothers all over again and that mushroom cloud in New Mexico.

Despite Yuri Gagarin, the feat of Alan Shepard was still incredible. They are two of the same, pioneers in space. History is endless, and the margin between the April 12, 1961 of Gagarin and the May 8, 1961 of Shepard is infinitesimal when measured against the span of time.

One hundred years ago birds and the Cape's pelicans could fly, but man could not. In the long run, this is what counts. It was the cold war that made the gap between Gagarin and Shepard so agonizingly long.

The encyclopedias of the future will record that "in 1961, the human race reached space. A Russian, Yuri Gagarin, successfully orbited the world and returned. An American, Alan Shepard, followed a month later by successfully riding a rocket 115 miles high."

For all anyone knows now that encyclopedias may be in the public library on the moon.

Leonardo da Vinci painted the Mona Lisa and designed a "bird" that man, he thought, might fly. The Leonardos of the space age were writer-scientists like Tsolokovsky in 1903, Goddard in 1920, and Oberth in 1923.

In 1933 Werner von Braun went to work in the German Ordnance Department and for the next five years was chief of liquid fuel rocket development.

He designed an awful piece of destruction called the V2 that blew gaping holes in the lovely streets of London, and he saw it modified through the years to become known as the Redstone.

It was well known and irrevocably proved at one time that the world was flat. A tourist could go only so far and of course he would fall over the edge.

Travel into space was like that.

Then on Oct. 4, 1957, the Soviet Union blasted Sputnik I into the sky and into orbit.

From that date onward America and Russia have used the enormous resources at their disposal to convert the dreams of Leonardo and the practicalities of the Oberth and the Van Brauns into the realities of Gagarin and Shepard.

For the United States, the countdown was frustratingly slow. When Sputnik went up, the Army and Air Force eagerly pressed for a go-ahead on a manned program.

After a year of indecision, the National Aeronautics and Space Agency (NASA) was established in October, 1958, to do the task. It succeeded the "National Committee for Aeronautics," and it got as its job: Project Mercury, manned flight into outer space.

On Jan. 12, 1959, the government selected McDonnell Aircraft Corp., St. Louis, Mo., to design and build a space capsule.

On April 9 of that same year, the nation first was given the names of seven men, the astronauts.

It has taken two years since then to reach Shepard's lift-off moment on Pad 8 at Cape Canaveral last Friday morning.

MARGARET JONES, 17-year-old Seminole High School senior, won $350 today as third place winner of the Florida Civitan contest for high school seniors. The award money was presented to Miss Jones at the Florida Civitan Convention in Ft. Lauderdale. She said she would use the prize money to attend the University of Florida.

Governors, Kennedy Plan Meeting On Depressed Area Program

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Governors of eight Eastern and Southern states were to meet today with President Kennedy to propose ways to make effective use of the government's new $394 million depressed areas program.

Kentucky Gov. Bert Combs, acting chairman of the Appalachian Governors' Conference, said the group would huddle at the executive office building and then meet with Kennedy.

Their one-day session was designed to recommend action to make the legislation, passed 12 days ago by Congress, more effective in helping areas handicapped by unemployment and faltering industry.

Recommendations were expected to urge more intensive development of highways, water resources, schools and forestry in their areas. They contend recovery in their states is important to the nation's welfare.

They also will propose that Kennedy form a 30-member Appalachian regional commission to work with them in creating and operating an overall recovery program.

Besides Combs, those attending the meeting will include Gov. John Patterson of Alabama; J. Millard Tawes of Maryland; Terry Sanford of North Carolina; David L. Lawrence of Pennsylvania; Buford Ellington of Tennessee; J. Lindsay Almond Jr. of Virginia; William W. Barron of West Virginia; and their assistants.

Freddie Smith Former SHS Youth To Perform Here

Freddie Smith, former Seminole High student and son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Smith of Sanford will be soloist with the Brewton-Parker Glee Club, a junior college at Mt. Vernon, Georgia, which will present a program at 8 p. m. Tuesday in the First Baptist Church of Sanford.

Freddie, who is president of the Baptist Student Union at the college, is also a member of the Male Quartet with the chorus. The group is making a one week tour of cities in Florida and Georgia on a chartered bus.

A public reception is planned for the entire choir after their performance, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Smith at 855 E. 20th St., when friends and church members are invited to meet the group.

Prior to the program at the church, the Glee Club will be treated to a supper by the First Baptist Church Choir.

Taylor Coming 'Along Fine'

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—"She's coming along just fine," a friend said today of Elizabeth Taylor, whose husband, singer Eddie Fisher, cancelled a charity appearance when the actress came down with a high temperature.

Fisher called off his attendance at a Hollywood benefit party Saturday night after his wife developed a 103-degree fever that afternoon.

Dr. Rex Kennamer, Miss Taylor's physician, had advised her two days before the affair not to attend. "The doctor just doesn't want her out in crowds," a friend said. "She is still recuperating."

Sunday night the actress was reported much better in her Beverly Hills Hotel suite and her temperature had almost disappeared.

Plenty Of Pregnant Women Don't Want Babies

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The National Institutes of Health has reported that half the pregnant women who took part in a recent government survey were not sure they wanted their babies.

The tentative results were given in testimony published Sunday by a House appropriations subcommittee. The study also indicated that between 66 and 75 per cent of the women feared labor pains.

Dr. Richard Masland, director of the National Institute of Neurological Diseases and Blindness, told the subcommittee that findings suggested "we are not properly preparing women psychologically to have children."

Masland also reported that an institute study in Baltimore showed premature babies were 64 per cent more common among pregnant women who smoked than among those who did not. But he cautioned that the findings were not conclusive.

It is believed that the art of knitting originated in Scotland about the beginning of the 18th century.

Commissioner Hits Inequity In Tax Roll

City Commissioner Earl Higginbotham criticized inequities on the city tax roll and said "something is rotten in Denmark" when the Woodruff Building is on the books at $40,000 and an offer of $125,000 was turned down for purchase.

He made the statement after the board discussed for more than two hours a proposed inspection of all downtown buildings in Sanford.

City Attorney William Hutchison Jr. asked the commission to back up inspectors Mack Cleveland Sr. and M. H. Yelvington on the inspections and not be afraid of the consequences.

Previously the board had recommended that the Woodruff Building, along with other buildings, be inspected and that any fire, safety or health hazards be brought to the attention of the owners.

Moreover, the board tabled action on the matter after it came to light that Ralph Woodruff, principal owner of the First St. Building would be in town within the next two weeks and plan to renovate the front of the building and possibly remodel it.

In other business the commissioners agreed to relocate a proposed Police Clubhouse on the east side of Mill Creek by Seminole Blvd.

Authorized City Manager W. E. Knowles to purchase a motor for standby fire pump.

Table action on rezoning 25th St. and Elm Ave. pending a joint meeting with the City Zoning and Planning Board.

Reappointed John Fitzpatrick and Howard Monthie to the Sanford Housing Authority.

Agreed to install and light one billboard advertising Sanford and Seminole County at a cost of approximately $130. The Chamber of Commerce had asked the city to pay for two billboards.

Agreed to give an additional $1,265 to the General Sanford Memorial Library.

A3D Crew Safe After 'Bail Out'

Three crewmembers of local squadron VAH-11 aboard the U. S. S. Franklin D. Roosevelt, parachuted to safety on the night of May 7 near the island of Crete in the Mediterranean Sea and their A3D aircraft crashed in an uninhabited area of Crete.

The A3D had been damaged during a night landing approach to the Roosevelt. Damage to the aircraft arresting hook and hydraulic system made it unlikely that the plane could be landed safely aboard the carrier. The pilot turned the aircraft toward the island of Crete where a landing could be made on the field at Fouda Bay. Fuel exhaustion occurred 10 miles from the field and the crew parachuted from the plane. All three crew members landed safely and are in good physical condition.

The pilot of the plane was Lt. (jg) Jerry Gall Knutson, who resides at 119 Asaule Lane, Sunland Estates, Sanford. The bombardier was Ensign Charles R. Boe and the third crewman was Petty Officer Third Class Sidney L. Humphreys.

Congress Asked To Blockade Cuba

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee asked Congress today to go on record as favoring an immediate air and naval blockade of Cuba.

The resolution was introduced by Rep. Chester E. Merrow, (R-N.H.), a member of the subcommittee on Latin America. He said the blockade should be imposed as a strong reaffirmation of the Monroe Doctrine.

We 'Wuz' Only Foolin'

GAINESVILLE (UPI)—Pre-dawn hijinks with Albert, 12-foot alligator mascot of the University of Florida, brought one-year disciplinary probation terms Monday to three of the school's star football players.

The punishment, levied by a faculty committee, could mean that junior half-backs Bob Hoover and Dick Skelly and field goal specialist Billy Cash may be barred from competition this season.

The news of the punishment against Hoover and Skelly brought a groan from backfield coach Pepper Rodgers.

"They're the big part of the strength of our team," Rodgers said. "If anything happens to them, I'm going to have a re-venge for sure."

Coach Ray Graves, after hearing a statement by Dr. J. Wayne Reitz, university president, said there was a "good chance" that the three could play this year.

Assistant coach Jimmy Dunn said the three tangled with Albert on April 29, after the players had accepted a wager from fraternity brothers that they could not take the alligator from his pen and hold him on land for five minutes.

Dunn said he carried a hatchet as a "precaution" when they entered the pen and Skelly "must have hit him (Albert) on the tail." The players stoutly denied they were trying to harm the 29-year-old alligator.

That old clock is back in the news again.

City Manager W. E. Knowles told the City Commission Monday night that Morris Moses, whose father donated the clock to the merchants 30 years ago, wants it placed on the bandshell pier and it seems the commission would like it by the Elks Club. The board asked Knowles to meet with Moses and see what he thinks of the idea of placing it by the Elks Club. At the present time, the clock is by the shuffleboard courts. If some decision isn't reached soon, Knowles said he would bring the clock into the City Commission chambers.

The Chamber of Commerce has paid homage to B. L. Perkins Sr. who died last week.

The resolution cites the many years of service Perkins performed for the community and "recognizes the faithful and contributing service" Perkins gave to the city, county, state and nation.

Sanford will get a McVickers Store within the next few weeks.

The firm, which has stores throughout the South, has leased the old Sanford Gas Company store on First St. The business deals in greeting cards, gifts and books.

There's a bill in the legislature that many Sanford public officials are "awasting out."

The bill, if passed, would eliminate public officials from taking part-time jobs to supplement their incomes.

Members of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce Coffee Club will be guests of Capt. Robert Slye, commanding officer of the Sanford Naval Air Station Thursday at 10 a.m. The meeting has been moved up to preclude conflict with the activities planned the following week which will be in observance of Armed Forces Day.

Williams Asks Closer Ties With Sanford

District 2 County Commissioner Ted Williams told the City Commission Monday that if it were against any redistricting, he would ask the county board to drop the whole matter "and leave the county as it is."

Williams, who represents Sanford on the county board, appeared before the city commission to ask for a joint meeting of both boards to "iron out differences."

A tentative date for the joint meeting was set for next Wednesday at Williams' camp by Wekiva Springs "where we can eat some steak and just talk out our differences," Williams said.

The majority of the board Monday felt that Sanford would be hurt by any "pie-slicing" of Sanford that had been proposed.

"We want it just the way it is," Commissioner J. H. Crapps said.

Williams said he wanted to work with the city board and urged "closer ties."

Casselberry Hears 'Status' Opinion

The Casselberry Board of Aldermen heard legal opinion on the "Status of Incorporation of the Town of Casselberry" from Atty. Kenneth McIntosh Monday.

McIntosh informed the board that although there is no document on record officially entitled "charter," the town is operating legally and according to the Florida statutes.

He informed that in searching out the records he found a "Notice of Meeting To Organize," dated Oct. 10, 1940, which was approved by a 35 to 1 vote.

He advised the board, however, that all ordinances with regards to annexation of properties to the municipal limits of the Town of Casselberry should be included in the records of Seminole County and urged that this action not be delayed.

Board members spent some time in discussion of recommended alterations to the proposed charter suggested by Rep. Gordon Frederick in Tallahassee and mailed back for consideration at the meeting.

A motion from John Lady that final work on the document be completed at the Monday meeting received a second from Mrs. Hope Bennett.

If legislative approval is granted, the charter still must be put to a referendum vote of the townspeople before it becomes official.

County Facing Rights Of Way Woe

County officials are expected to have their hands full getting rights-of-way for the Bear Lake Road project.

At a meeting of more than 100 property owners Monday, with County Engineer Carlton Bliss and members of the County Commission, a great deal of opposition was raised to the road widening project with many owners afraid that if the road is widened it "would be smack against their homes," Bliss said today.

The meeting was held for the purpose of discussing the project and question upon question was asked of the commission on widening the road from 18 feet to 24 feet.

The commission already has authorized Bliss to start work on the project but unless rights-of-way from some 45 property owners on the first stretch of the road are given, the project could meet a long delay.

New Redistricting Proposed

The county's redistricting committee today presented the County Commission with revised plans for redistricting the entire county and increasing voting precincts from 16 to 22.

The board agreed to consider the plans and discuss them at length at a later date.

The redistricting committee is comprised of County Engineer Carlton Bliss, Zoning Director Robert Brown and Supervisor of Registration Camilla Bruce.

Under the revised plan, Sanford would be split up between commissioners from District 1, 2 and 5, the way it is now, and only Oviedo will have one commissioner overseeing it.

Preliminary plans had called for a pie-slicing of Sanford.

Under the revised plan, District 1 will cover east of French Ave., north of 13th St.; including east of Mellonville and east of Sanford south of 20th St. District 2—Between

French and Mellonville Aves. between 18th and 26th St. and all of Sanford south of 20th St.; District 3—south of Lake Mary Blvd. west of the Atlantic Coast Line railroad track; District 4—south of the Longwood-Oviedo Road including Lake Jessup, Oviedo and Geneva Rd. and east of Hwy. 17-92; District 5—West of French Ave., north of 25th St. including Lake Mary north of Lake Mary Blvd.

Countywide Drainage Bill Out

The County Commission today by a 3-2 vote ruled out a countywide drainage levy for Seminole County and voted to ask the legislative delegation to draw up a local bill giving the board the authority to expend money from the Road and Bridge Fund for water management purposes.

Opposing the move was District 4 Commissioner Vernon Dunn and District 3 Commissioner Ted Williams. Williams called on all local bill giving the board the authority to expend money from the delegation in Tallahassee for support.

Williams said he favored the establishment of drainage districts and didn't think the people of Sanford should be burdened with worrying about the drainage woes of swampy areas in other parts of the county.

Dunn said the board might have to increase the road and bridge fund and that he didn't think the commission should take it upon itself to assess any levy out of the road and bridge fund.

Avery said "this bill only will legalize what we are doing now and I see no harm in it."

The matter was brought up last week and the motion was killed when Chairman J. C. Hutchison obtained his vote. However, today Hutchison said he had a change of mind and didn't see any harm in the bill.

Avery spelled out special provisions to be drawn into the bill including that all monies taken out of the fund must be used for a county purpose.

He said that "if the bill is passed we can get up to 90 per cent matching funds from the government to carry out water management projects."

District 3 Commissioner James P. Avery, who last week said he would not bring the matter up again, apparently changed his mind and agreed to help fund the community in eliminating this dangerous condition.

Opposing the motion was District 4 Commissioner Vernon Dunn who wanted to straighten out the legal question before voting on whether the county had the right to join a city in a road project.

It was the fifth week in a row Avery brought the matter up. The county will supply the labor for the project.

County Code Passes Major Hurdle

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Bills to ban liquor price advertising and give a limited "home rule" to counties cleared major hurdles in the Legislature today.

The House Local Government Committee gave unanimous approval to a county code loosening the Legislature's power over county government.

The House Temperance Committee approved 7-2 a bill prohibiting advertising of whiskey prices, despite charges by opponents that it was "a price fixing measure."

The whiskey bill had the token endorsement of Gov. Farris Bryant, who suggested it might be an inducement to temperance by eliminating the lure of cut-rate stores.

But Rep. Robert Mann of Hillsborough said if the Legislature wanted to curb whiskey drinking, it could do it more effectively by putting a substantial tax on liquor or by setting up state-owned liquor stores.

"The origin of this bill is obscure," Mann charged. "It did not originate with the temperance people but with the special whiskey interests."

"This is the kind of legislation that puts the Legislature into complete disrepute," Mann said. The sponsor, Rep. Don Fagus of Calhoun, said the bill would cut down on liquor drinking. Full-page advertisements of cut-rate prices induce a man to buy more whiskey than he can afford, Fagus said.

The bill does not prohibit advertising of liquor, but bars the mention of prices.

The county code gives counties a limited form of home rule, but its main objective is to eliminate duplications of taxation. It eliminates taxes on persons living in cities for fire protection in rural areas.

Only strong objection to the bill came from Sanford W. Padgett of Orlando, who charged the code was lifted almost word-for-word from the Dade County Metropolitan charter. He said it sought to force Metro government on the entire state.

Padgett said the Constitution did not intend to set up municipal government in counties. People who choose to live outside of cities, he said, should not have city government imposed on them.

In another committee action, the Senate State Institutions Committee approved and sent to the calendar a bill directing location of a center for mentally retarded children anywhere west of the Apalachicola River.

Further action on state spending for the next biennium was put off, meanwhile, until an afternoon meeting of the Senate Appropriations Committee.

Shepard Ready To Resume Job

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Astronaut Alan B. Shepard Jr. was ready to resume the rigorous Mercury space training program today apparently convinced that it won't be as tough as being feted as a national hero.

Shepard appeared relieved when he boarded a plane for Langley, Va., Monday after a long, wearing day during which the nation's capital gave him a welcome reserved for the great.

At the Langley Air Force Base, Shepard will spend the day with his wife and other relatives before returning to Cape Canaveral, to prepare for the next goal in the Mercury program—putting a man in orbit around the earth.

Although he got a kiss from his wife, a medal from President Kennedy, praise from Congress and cheers from an estimated 200,000 fellow citizens, Shepard Monday looked like a man glad to get back to work.

Alvin Tabb Jr., 26, of Bridgeport, N. J., was executed first. He was followed by the gallows about an hour later by Billy W. Bean, 31, of Elvash, Ark., actual slayer of Florida fishing boat captain Angus Boatright.
