Casselberry Eyes Paving $$ Probe

By DONNA ESTES

Two businessmen circulating petitions requesting Iris Drive from SR 436 to Winter Park Drive be paved have run into a major problem, it was reported at the work session of the Casselberry City Council last night. The men stated a number of residents of the street told them the builder of their homes had solicited moneys from them to pave the street several years ago and had not done so.

City Attorney Kenneth McIntosh asked that the names of the residents with proof of their payment such as canceled checks be made available to him for possible action.

Council instructed cartographer Barbara Dempier to determine names of ownerships on the street. In other business, Mr. and Mrs. James Birkenmeyer appeared seeking clarification of city policy on assessing property owners for paving when their homes border two streets.

Opinion is to be sought from the Florida League of Municipalities on how best to handle such a situation.

It was agreed to extend invitation to the recreation committee to meet with Council next Monday night to discuss development of the city recreation property at Secret Lake.

Orlandoan Charges Injured By Mace

Polk Sued For False Arrest

By BILL SCOTT

An Orlando man has filed suit in Seminole County Circuit Court against Sheriff John E. Polk and the sheriff's department as the result of an incident growing out of a March 11 arrest at the Mid-Florida Country Club on SR 484 near Longwood.

Harry W. Rohr Jr., 21, of 1000 Fernside Road, in an action brought by Orlando attorney T. G. Lagrove, has asked the court to award $5,000 in punitive damages and $5,000 in compensatory damages after he reportedly suffered eye injury when squirted in the face with mace by an unnamed deputy.

Rohr also stated he was "falsely imprisoned, detained and arrested" after being charged with possession of alcoholic beverages as a minor (he was age 30 at the time) and disorderly conduct. The charges were dismissed in County Court here June 11.

The plaintiff stated "he was unlawfully restrained in freedom of movement and had hands placed on his person and eyes with mace, a hazardous and dangerous chemical causing great and excruciating pain and suffering, and did cause plaintiff to be imprisoned and falsely arrested to plaintiff's injury."

NOW WHAT DO I DO WITH IT?

"WHAT can I do?" Clayton Dickens asks. He is faced with the problem of being ordered by the court to move the junk car. When he took the scrap to the county sanitary landfill, permission to dump the vehicle was refused. When junk yards were approached, they also refused to take the car. "It looks like if they make a law, they would also make a way for you to obey it," he said. (Donna Estes Photo)

2 Block Area Is Selected

The Sanford Citizens' Advisory Committee has selected a two block area in Goldsboro for the pilot site for the new self-help program to begin July 21.

At a meeting last night presided over by John Daniels, chairman of the self-help subcommittee, it was announced that an area bounded on the west by Ponce de Leon Avenue; south by 12th Street; north by 11th Street and east by Jasmine Avenue, had been selected for a concentrated effort to upgrade and improve homes and property.

Daniels said 10 out of the 14 homes listed in the area were owner-occupied and were mostly up-to-standard. He said some homes occupied by their owners just needed a paint job, but the rental structures were below standard and would require considerable work.

A letter to residents of the designated area will be written by Lynn Kanner, city building official, informing them of the upgrading campaign. This will be followed by a visit from committee members consisting of Rosevelt Green, Freddie Robinson, Cal Bookman, Emory Green, Willie Nelson, Louis Simmons and Daniels.

The group will advise the property owner and residents of what can be done to bring the house up to the city code and offer aid in getting bank financing and help from carpenters, plumbers, contractors and electricians to improve the dwellings.

Draw One!

JACKSONVILLE (AP) — The odds were blowing again today!

Ten thousand brewery workers approved a new contract Wednesday — in contrast to the strike — and went back to work yesterday turning out the larger in single supply.

Taprooms and bars suffered a drought of draft beer for several weeks and were using up the final supplies of bottled and canned beer when the strike came to an end.

$1.5 Million City Budget Eyed; No Millage Increase Pictured

City Manager W. E. Knowles said the budget was balanced and contained no millage increase request for the next year.

Although not revealing the exact amount of the departmental figures proposed for governmental operations, Knowles said the proposal contained an increase of $52,000 over a year ago.

Last year's approved general governmental budget was for $1,359,320. Increasing that amount by $52,000 would mean a budget of approximately $1,411,320 or almost $1.5 million.

Present city millage is 11.5 and since Knowles has not sought an increase, it must be assumed that certain funds are being slashed or cut out entirely to fund the increased costs of governmental operation.

The city manager said some of the increase would come from increased revenue expected to fill city coffers a little more than last year.

Knowles said no city department would receive any additional staff but pay raises amounting to total $83,000 had been included and this would average a nine per cent across the board salary hike to those workers now employed.

A personnel problem exists, Knowles said, adding that at no time during the past year was the city departments fully staffed.

He explained that 10 vacancies exist at present and gave three reasons for the inability of the city to hire and keep personnel. "We have these vacancies because they will not stay, they will not apply for open positions and will not work for the salaries offered on the present pay scale."

The city manager indicated that unless pay scales are increased, the personnel problem might seriously hamper operations of certain departments.

The sanitation department earlier in the year had to increase wages for garbage collectors due to the city being unable to hire or keep personnel.

The city charter requires that a yearly budget be presented by the city manager on or before July 1, and it is thought that the commission will schedule budget review sessions possibly this week with an eye toward slashing Knowles' proposal.

The fun starts at 1:30 p.m. with all kinds of games such as the cake walk and the Joyce dunking booth. The Lions will conduct free eye examinations for school children and adults. Final judging for the baby photo contest will be at 6 p.m. and prizes presented.

The South Seminole Jaycees will hold their annual July Fourth Festival on SR 486 just west of Altamonte Springs. There will be games, concessions and displays starting at 10 a.m. with a grand parade display at 9 p.m.

A full day of activities is planned by the Maitland South Seminole Chamber of Commerce starting with a parade at 9:30 a.m. down Maitland Avenue from St. Mary Magdalen Church to the Maitland Civic Center. Among the bands participating will be the Lyman High School Marching Greyhounds. There will be prizes for the children's parade. Events include food and games booths open, 10 a.m.; flag raising and "Fast Action" Want Ad today. Here's an example of an ad that did its job.

Smith was further asked for recommendations on possible cooperative effort to save Douglas Avenue, reportedly deteriorating from extensive use by some 20 trucks per day of the two companies.

Some food for thought . . . Sanford's mayoralty race could blossom into a giant list of "Who's Who", ASSUMING (and that's the key word), assuming that Governor Kirk doesn't veto the Babers Bill.

Most recent entrant or at least according to the proposed campaign literature sample dropped off here at the paper, is "Mayor Skip" and his Go Sanford campaign.

Bomb Blast Kills Two Men

Pomp Marks Prince's Rites

By RONALD THOMSON
Associated Press Writer
CAERNARVON, Wales (AP) — Prince Charles was installed as Prince of Wales today in a ceremony overflowing with the pomp of the British monarchy. He promised to protect the heritage of the 2 1/2 million Welshmen, many of them hostile to English rule.

Queen Elizabeth II, mother of the 28-year-old heir to the ancient throne of Britain, presided over the ceremony, bestowing on him the coronet, sword, mantle, golden rod and ring that go with his office.

The ceremony, first of its kind in 30 years, took place in the courtyard of 700-year-old Caernarvon Castle in a royal pageant right out of Britain's past. Charles appeared for the solemn ceremony watched by television viewers around the world, after spending the night in a secret, heavily guarded location somewhere in northwest Wales.

Two men were killed in an explosion 200 yards from the rail road tracks bearing the British royal family train to this medieval fortress town.

The train itself was halted by a bomb blast, following threats from Welsh nationalist extremists objecting to an English prince being crowned ruler of this land of coal miners, poets and choral singers.

Surrounded by nobles of the realm, Welsh leaders, foreign dignitaries and diplomats, Charles knelt in obedience to his mother.

The heir to the throne then pledged:

"I, Charles, Prince of Wales, do become your liege man of life and limb and earthly worship, and faith and trust I will bear unto you to live and die against all manner of folks."

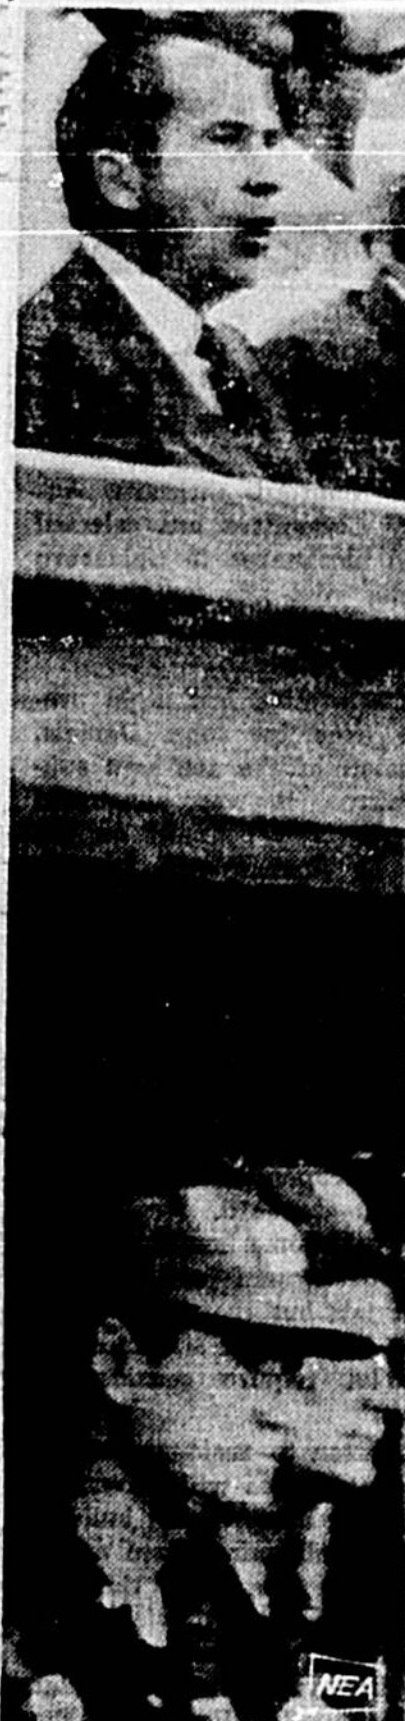

The queen then presented Charles to the people of Wales.

Only 4,000 chosen nobles and guests were able to squeeze into the castle courtyard, but Britain's television networks covered the entire event.

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — California, the nation's most populous state, entered a fiscal year today without a budget to guide its operations.

Republican Gov. Ronald Reagan blamed Democrats, led by Assemblyman Jesse M. Unruh. He accused them of "unforgivable obstructionism... unprecedented in the history of California."

4 Men Held In Raid On Cafe At Oviedo

A Seminole County constable and State Beverage Agents have arrested four men and confiscated a quantity of whiskey and beer after a Sunday raid on the Twin Pines Restaurant located on 311 41st ave. at Oviedo.

Constable Chester Boyd said James Johnson, 67, Willie Johnson, 52, Charles White, 25, and Dan Stevens, 34, all are residents, were apprehended as the result of preliminary investigative work by Boyd.

State Government Organized Today

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Florida's sweeping reorganization of state government became effective today, but most of the immediate changes were on paper only.

The complex reassignment of main work product of the 1968 Legislature went into effect at midnight, creating 23 new departments where 170 had existed before.

All but one department heads will be subject to Senate confirmation.

Most directors of old agencies were left in charge of divisions in the new departments.

DULUTH, Minn. — The trouble with starting a Chinese food company from scratch and selling it for $50 million is that a couple of hours later you want to do it all over again.

That says Jenos Paulucci, who more or less the sole owner of Jenos, Inc., a company he had owned but ignored for a dozen years until he concentrated on building Chun King.

"So as soon as I sold Chun King I moved over here, re-modeled the offices and told our people to take down those signs that said, 'Walk, don't run' and put up signs that said, 'Run, don't walk.'"

Climate of Political Change Confronts GOP

Unification of the Republican party still eludes its leadership. This is true on both the national and state levels.

It is a sort of "generation gap" which has plagued this powerful GOP since "Teddy" Roosevelt and the "Bull Moose" off-shot split wide open what had been a solid and effective organization and allowed the election of Woodrow Wilson, Democrat, as President in 1912.

Before commenting on the political situation in Florida where Republican lack of unity is threatening its great possibilities it is useful to take a look at Washington.

Election of Richard Milhous Nixon last November did not produce a consensus GOP planning. Mr. Nixon's political past was of such nature that many of the most perceptive analysts decided to keep a weather eye on his pronouncements and — more especially — on his deeds.

President Nixon, however, has maintained a rather calm, cool and collected attitude as the inevitable ambitions of a long-time out-of-office took form in pressures from within the administration and without.

The first major eruption, of course, took place last week. Sen. Robert H. Finch of HEW had Dr. John H. Knowles, director of Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston, as assistant secretary.

But the AMA and Senator Everett M. Dirksen Minority Leader opposed Dr. Knowles. It had a behind-the-scenes Finch-Dirksen battle (see page 1).

It was known to many politicians, it was allowed wide comment to the effect that "with Finch" is the Nixon administration's guide.

To be sure this is very early in the life of a public administration which was put in by a minority popular vote and has, without earned much wider voter support than could be logically expected.

Our political world is now undergoing a revolution which is not confined to either major party. New meanings must be found for the hackneyed "conservative" and "liberal." These words no longer are descriptive of the political convictions held by many voters.

It is in this climate that the convolutions of both parties must be watched and appraised. This is also the reason for broad view of Florida where the first Republican governor since reconstruction days slipped into office in 1968 with the opportunity to create a responsible and powerful GOP to balance the historic and long-anted Democratic leadership.

Gov. Claude R. Kirk, Jr., has made a name for himself in his first years in office as a man of action, often impulsive, an effective politician for Florida and himself, and one whose maturity as a politician is proceeding to become more visible.

The Republicans have mustered a large number of ambitious and vigorous state legislators. The GOP now offers a slate of local officials where before there was none. It has sent a senator and representative to Congress.

But the responsibility which goes with such political successes is not that comes from reading books or intra-party debates.

Political responsibility is earned. It comes when the party attains majorities in legislatures and has a chief executive of the same party. Only when such responsibility is ignored by the very human habit of accepting such power as a vested right and abuses take place, does the "opposition" have a real chance for victory.

We do not have the temerity to even suggest that this is precisely what has happened and what could happen in Florida, but it certainly is an aspect of the political picture in which the GOP in Washington and in Tallahassee must accept its roles and stand for judgment on its performance!

Press Freedom

In the statement of President Augustin E. Edwards of the Inter-American Press Association on Freedom of the Press Day on Saturday, timely and thought-provoking emphasis was given to the never-ending battle for free access to information in all the countries of the Western Hemisphere.

In addition to a stern denunciation of such governments as Cuba's which curtail the rights of the people are trampled under foot and there is no press freedom at all, President Edwards points out that it is the duty of the members of the 1,000 newspapers in the IAPA to keep alive an awareness of the need for press freedom. He said:

"We must strive to make this right so evident, so publicly sacred, that the governments of our hemisphere will touch it only at the cost of outraging all public feeling." He further challenged the membership to scrutinize the purity of its motives and the honesty of its actions in serving all the people's interests. "We can condemn and protest only if we can demonstrate publicly and constantly that we truly serve the great function of transmitting accurate information," Mr. Edwards declared.

The major emphasis of Press Freedom Day each June points toward many Latin American countries where there is no such freedom, but in a much larger sense it cannot be taken for granted that the people of the United States and the Western Hemisphere and especially in the United States of America.

There are always those on the local, state and national levels who feel they know what is best for the people to read or hear. There have been three major attempts at passage of censorship laws in the North Carolina General Assembly at the current session. Other states report similar experiences. In the Congress and the federal bureaucracy there are almost daily violations of press freedom either at the pretext of national security or some other excuse. These will be eliminated only if the press and all news media are vigilant in their stewardship, in building a greater awareness to the threats to press freedom, and the militant support of the people which will assure its continuity. Success to the IAPA and its constructive and vital efforts throughout the Western Hemisphere.—Kinston (N.C.) Daily Free Press

Crane's Worry Clinic:

By GEORGE W. CRANE, PH.D., M.D.
CASE K-588: Nora and Dora are sisters, aged 17 and 15.

Dr. Crane, their mother began, "Nora is quiet and very studious. She always makes the honor roll and has now won a scholarship to college.

But Dora is just the opposite and perfectly at ease with strangers. She doesn't make high grades, but has plenty of friends. Nora is medicine with her clothes and we can always depend on her to do what we tell her.

"But Dora tosses her dresses on the backs of chairs and often falls to do the chores we assign her. She is very messy. "She seems to feel she can talk her way out of all dilemmas. For she has a winning smile and people are attracted to her, regardless of her faults.

"Since these girls have the same parents and have grown up in the same home and have had the same school teachers, I can't see the difference between Nora and Dora due to heredity."

Dr. Crane then asked, "Do they are usually based on the nature of birth? Or when you find two children of the same sex who are close together in age, the older is more likely to be an introvert, like Nora.

The younger is then the talkative, popular extrovert.

The Bible gives a classical case in point when it tells us of the Prodigal Son, who was the older son.

"The older man never gave his father any headaches and was a good boy.

"For when you find two children of the same sex who are close together in age, the older is more likely to be an introvert, like Nora.

The younger is then the talkative, popular extrovert.

Introvert vs Extrovert

you have a lot of other playthings. "So 'baby' brother (or sister) learns to manipulate people very early. This starts with crying but soon changes to verbal language!

Moreover, the older child is always made responsible for his younger siblings when they are out of the house. The younger is carefree for even himself, let alone anybody else.

This essential difference in social outlook thus produces a marked difference between firstborn and the second child of the same sex.

Marine Speaks Out Boldly

Recently a young Marine Vietnam wrote a letter to friends in Springfield, Missouri. The letter was printed in a Springfield newspaper. The Marine attests to give his friends a picture of the war in Vietnam which don't receive from the media.

We must, as a grown-up people, abandon the myth that big defense contractors are something separate from the public bureaucracy. They must be recognized for what they are — a part of the public establishment.

Democratic Conventions

By BRUCE BLOSSAT NEA Washington

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The Democrats' committee on reforming national convention delegate selection probably will recommend that perhaps 15 to 20 per cent of each state's delegation be chosen by means other than the caucus vote.

The militant party reformers who have been clamoring since the height of the 1968 McCarthy campaign for more "participatory democracy" in delegate choosing, the prospect of continuing some indirect selection may look like trimming to the "old politics."

But the militant view is well-represented on the reform committee itself. Of the 100 delegates around the country so far this year, they and their colleagues have about concluded that the best way to choose popular vote for all delegates is sometimes to deny fair representation to certain small but significant constituencies in the population.

In some states, a completely open vote would produce a delegation with no blacks, few if any of these are constituencies of the party.

Some militant committees are also trying to warp into the delegate process.

Political Notebook:

Democratic Conventions

what misleading, since large delegates were in fact chosen by direct primary vote in New Hampshire, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Florida, West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Nebraska, South Dakota, Wisconsin, Oregon and California.

Probably the proportion chosen by other means will vary under varying degrees of leadership. The figure in the present reform committee is said to be weighing.

Retention of what amounts almost to appointive at large delegates in the delegate process might be expected to give heart to practitioners of the old politics. For years they have been loading up these slates with key party faithful and financial angels.

Even with more attention to the minorities, the poor and the young, there still would be hundreds of "fat" large delegates in state conventions often under tight party leadership control was singled out by reformers to be retained.

Just as a matter of record, the Democrats last year selected delegates at large on the basis of a total of 3,099. The percentage was 27.

Interpretive Report:

Republican Party's Fluidity?

By RICHARD WILSON WASHINGTON, D. C.—The war goes on and on. There is no cease-fire, no coalition, no peace without a price tag, and the Vietnam war but the war in the Republican Party.

It has been raging now for nearly 30 years with intermittent abatement only to flare up again and again.

The latest skirmish in the 80-year war in the G.O.P. revolves around the appointment of a third or fourth echelon official to head health and scientific activities of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. Dr. John Knowles is being dumped for this job by HEW Secretary Robert Finch who originally chose Knowles because his views on so called "conservative medicine offend conservative doctrine of the G.O.P. as expressed by Sen. Everett M. Dirksen.

The American Medical Association has lost this war again. Finch has swallowed its bitter dose and the Republican party.

Letters To The Editor

Dr. Geren Memorial Proposed

Editor, Herald: Dr. Paul F. Geren, the late President of Stetson University, was an outstanding scholar, teacher and educational administrator. He served with distinction in several high positions in the federal government, including foreign posts for the U. S. State Department with the rank of ambassador, and as Deputy Director of the Peace Corps under Senator Shriver. He was respected and loved by all who knew him.

It is proposed that a memorial be erected to him in Stetson Park. The memorial should be a simple but dignified structure, perhaps a fountain or a statue, which would honor his memory and the service he rendered to our country.

I am sure that such a memorial would be a fitting tribute to a man of such high character and achievement.

Protest To Nixon

Editor, Herald: I have sent the following to Richard M. Nixon and I hope many others will do the same.

I am appalled that the head of our country did not stop the first escape of NASA's lunar module. We have reached the Moon at the cost of billions of dollars to the taxpayer of this country and we have wasted money which could have been used to the advantage of many of our citizens.

It is a disgrace that the most intelligent and capable people in our country are being used in such a wasteful and expensive manner.

I am sure that you will take appropriate action to prevent such a waste of resources in the future.

LEGAL NOTICE

Notice to Consumers of Certain Broad Spectrum Antibiotics

The State of Florida, through its Attorney General, Earl F. Furchick, has pending a legal action in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York against certain drug companies (Chas. Pfizer & Co., Inc., American Cyanamid Company, Bristol-Myers Company, Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation (Squibb) and The Upjohn Company) alleging that these companies violated the anti-trust laws in the sale of certain of their broad spectrum antibiotic products within the period 1954-1966. On May 26, 1969, the Court determined that the Attorney General was the proper representative of a statewide class which included all members of the public who purchased the Auroreycin, Terramycin and tetracycline products of those companies in the State during the stated period.

The companies, while denying liability, have made a payment of $100 million in settlement of all claims that any State or local governmental entity, drug wholesaler, retailer, or consumer (two or more) of the drug has purchased or may purchase during the stated period. On behalf of the State and the government, the Attorney General has elected to pursue the establishment of appropriate allocations of this fund under supervision of the Court.

New, therefore, take notice:

1. If you have purchased any of these drugs within the period 1954-1966:

a) The Court will exclude you from the class represented by the Attorney General if you do not appear in writing and be marked to the undersigned at P.O. Box 712, Boca Raton, Florida 33433, and postmarked not later than August 1, 1969, if you elect to be excluded from the class, you will be free to pursue on your own behalf whatever legal rights you may have.

b) If you do not request exclusion from the class by the above date, you will be included in this class and any judgment, whether favorable or not, including any judgment approving any settlement of this action, will be binding upon you.

2. If you do not request exclusion from the class by August 1, 1969:

a) You may make a claim to receive directly a share as approved by the Court of any funds received by the Attorney General as representative of the members of the consuming public within the State. In order to make such a claim you must file with the undersigned at P.O. Box 712, Boca, New York 14831 by August 15, 1969, either a verified statement or a statement certified by your local pharmacist or other person showing by year the total dollar amount of the Auroreycin, Terramycin and tetracycline products purchased by you; the name of each such product and the name and address of the pharmacy or other place where such product was purchased; and if you have been reimbursed on account of such purchases, by whom and how much.

b) If you do not make an individual claim as required by (a), you may be included in a class action suit filed by the Attorney General to utilize whatever money he may recover as your representative for the benefit of the citizens of your State in such manner as the Court may direct.

3. If you do not request exclusion from the class but prefer in connection with your individual claim to be represented by your own counsel rather than by the Attorney General, you may enter an appearance through your counsel but not later than August 1, 1969.

Clark of the United States District Court Southern District of New York P.O. Box 712, Boca Raton, N.Y. 14831.

Pre-School, Rec Program Set Up

By CHARRER LEONE Seminole County's young mentally retarded children will be the first to benefit from a new full scale program of the Seminole County Association for Retarded Children, Inc. (ARC).

Lost Sisters Found; One Dead

CLEMMONT, Fla. (AP)—Two elderly sisters with a pocket book full of directions wandered for three days in Central Florida on a 20 mile trip home before one died Monday and the other collapsed.

Katherine Friedrich, 90, and her sister Louisa, 84, visited the Lake County tax assessor Friday in Tavares. Then they began a 20 mile drive home to Clermont. Monday afternoon a power company crew found Katherine's body sprawled in an orange grove and a police search party found Louisa, confused and incoherent, 20 yards away.

After leaving Tavares Friday afternoon, the women apparently drove aimlessly about the hills, lake spotted Central Florida greenlands trying to find their way home.

Clermont Police Chief Fred Johnson said car tracks showed the women turned off U.S. Highway 27 onto a clay road and drove two miles into the grove. They then turned up a sandy path where their car bogged down to its hubs on Sunday night.

At that point, orange trees stretched out in precise columns as Police began getting calls from always looking for the sisters' shop, similar to the one in Orange County for mentally retarded or handicapped people who are past the age where immediate care, as provided by the state, is available.

KNEE DEEP in OUTDOORS

by BILL VINCENT JR.

Bill Vincent Jr. Bass fishing is still good in a lot of areas and the Limmer and the Sinks are the better bet.

According to one local fisherman the bass fishing was terrific this past weekend. This is a fish story! We were in two different spots fishing towards each other when this big Bass bit the water and we both cast, and bang all the silence of the river was broken and we started to get some real action. Both lines tightened and we started winding in our lines when we discovered that we had caught the same Bass with two different plugs. We then brought our boats together and landed a nice size Bass which we were both proud of and some kind excited. Signed, two local fishermen, Ken McKinloch and Dr. Rosenman.

When the above fish story was told to me at the Rotary Club meeting on Monday, the fisherman had a slight quiver in his voice.

The Hoopings have been having some real good bass fishing luck in their canals while fishing late in the evenings close to the shore lines.

Tallahassee - The Florida Park Board, going out of existence after 20 years as a result of governmental reorganization, held its last meeting at 9 a.m. Friday, June 27, in the Royal Biscayne Hotel on Key Biscayne.

State Parks Director Bill Miller said members present were Chairman E. W. Carswell of Chipley, Mrs. Pearl S. Leach of Melbourne, Art Ross of Ocala and John Pennkamp of Miami.

Nathaniel P. Reed, special assistant to Gov. Claude R. Kirk Jr., represented the Governor at the historic meeting. Halley B. Lewis represented Attorney General Earl Faireschold.

On July 1, the agency served by the Park Board will be transferred intact to the Division of Recreation and Parks, under the new Department of Natural Resources.

Florida established a state park system in 1925, incorporating it into the Florida Board of Forestry and Parks. In 1949, the Legislature created the Florida Board of Parks and Historic Memorials as a separate agency.

The system has undergone tremendous growth during its 20 years under the Park Board. Only 400,000 visitors were reported in 1949, and attendance has now passed the 7 million mark for this year.

Probably the greatest trend in park usage has been toward overnight camping. Campers have increased from 20,000 in 1949 to over a million last year.

The Series - A combination hunting and fishing license allows statewide hunting and fishing and costs no more than the separate licenses.

A summary of fishing rules may be obtained at the office of all County Judges at the same time a fisherman purchases his license.

On an average, four to five fishermen are arrested each day for fishing without a license. The price of a license is cheap when compared to the fine for fishing without a license.

Young fishermen should remember their birthday. In Florida, a license to fish in fresh water is required of fishermen between 15 and 65 years of age.

A fresh water fishing license costs $3.00 per year and fishermen may take 75 game fish per day. Bag limit includes 10 bass, 15 pickeredel and 50 panfish. In some areas the limit is larger.

Division Public Relations Officer

One type of boating mishap that can be prevented is that of fire. The prudent boatman is at all times alert to the potential danger of fire or explosion, exercising every precautionary measure to avert such disaster.

Such hazards in power boats must be afforded particular attention because of the basic design and construction of such craft. While ventilation for the removal of heavy, dangerous vapors in buildings can be provided at floor level, similar provisions are not readily possible for boats. A few recommendations for operation and maintenance are presented to minimize the accumulation of flammable vapors within enclosed, below-deck spaces or in any area where fumes may gather.

A clean boat is normally a safe boat. A good sailor keeps his vessel neat, trim, orderly. Cleanliness and tidiness is vital not only to the deck and gear aloft, the living spaces, but to engine and fuel compartments and bilge spaces. All refuse should be removed; any waste or rags, paper, dirt in any form. Bilges should be flushed out regularly to prevent accumulation of vapors. See that all fuel lines are leakproof and that wiring is sound. Extra caution must be taken in the process of refueling. Failure to close all hatches, ports, doors or windows before fueling can create a very genuine hazard. Gasoline fumes in any closed compartment are as deadly as TNT. All engines, motors, fans, heating units or any other source of ignition should be completely shut down before fueling. There should be no open flames - cigarettes, matches or lighters - in the vicinity while fuel is being taken aboard. After the fuel is safely aboard, the cabin space, all closed compartments should be thoroughly ventilated before the engine or any motor is started. Simple common sense dictates in these safe practices, but so many otherwise experienced boat operators often fail to observe such safety rules.

For detailed information about fire prevention in the operation of the pleasure boat, consult your local Auxiliary flotilla. You will be given most helpful advice and literature to assist you in your safety program afloat. The danger of fire on the water, whether in terms of the large seagoing yachts or liners or the class A runabouts, is the hazard most to be feared in recreational boating. Fatalities, personal injury and property damage can be prevented by adhering to the prescribed safety measure.

Flotilla 41, under the leadership of District CE Officer Norm Mackey, will have facilities for the Imperial boaters at Marine Harbor over the holiday weekend. The U. S. Power Squadron will be on hand also. Have that boat examined to see if it qualifies for the Coast Guard Auxiliary decal.

Panthers Bomb Rebels Chase Rally Downs Pincrest Center!!

By GARY TAYLOR
Herald Sports Staff

Chase rallied for three runs in the last inning, held off a Pincrest Center rally attempt and slipped by the Center team 5-4.

Earlier action saw the Panthers drop the Rebels 11-7 in the opening game of the Pee Wee League championships. The Panthers sent six runners across home plate in the top of the first inning on two hits, three walks and a hit batter.

The Rebels collected one run on two hits in the bottom of the first, and then picked up four runs on only one hit in the second inning to make the score 6-1 in favor of the Panthers.

The Panthers scored once in the third, and then put the game on ice with three runs in the fourth inning.

Donnie Mann and Paul Payne led the Panthers at the bat with two hits each. Payne, the winning pitcher, was relieved by Mann in the third inning. Chuck McMullen tripled for the Panthers.

Randy Morgan led the Rebels at the bat with two hits including a double, while Fred Osborne doubled and Pat Johnson tripled. Billy Griffith went the distance in defeat for the Rebels.

In the Little League championship game, Pincrest Center jumped to a three run lead in the bottom of the second inning on singles by Hal Piercy and David Brown.

The Rebels will meet the Panthers at 6 p.m. in the second game of a best 2 out of three game series.

At 8 p.m., Pincrest Center will face Chase in the second game of their 2 out of 3 championship. If the Panthers or Chase win tonight, trophies will be awarded after the game.

Chase got on the scoreboard in the third when they scored two runs on singles by Rickey Mann and Eddie Parent. Pincrest increased the score to 4-2 in the fifth when David Lott walked, stole second, and scored on a single by Marty Foster.

With two outs in the bottom of the sixth inning, John Getz walked and advanced to third on wild pitches. Randy Brown walked and stole second. John Whigham grounded the ball hard to the short stop, but was thrown out at first on a close play.

Ricky Mann, Danny Gracey and Jimmy Brodie each collected two hits for Chase. Gracey collected two RBIs. Randy Brown went 3 for 3 and drove in a run to lead the Pincrest Center team. Marty Foster had two hits. Burke Steele picked up the win with eleven strike-outs and five walks. He allowed four runs on six hits.

Randy Brown, the losing pitcher, struck out eleven and walked four while allowing five runs on nine hits.

A regular Friday evening handicap sweep is being planned with the first one scheduled to start in two weeks and open to all bowlers in the Central Florida area.

Chicken is now history with the winning prize of $50 and appropriate trophy in the possession of Johnny Jaco, this year's champ.

The following night with the remaining eight games.

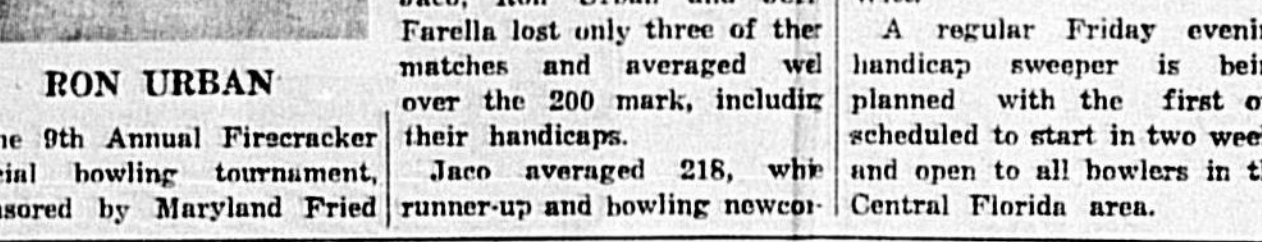

Each bowler was rolling on Saturday night. Sixteen bowlers met on a head-to-head match basis starting on Friday evening, and continued the hectic bowling for the 100 per cent handicap system and was awarded on point for each game won, plus another point for every 50 pins scored.

The top three finishers, Jaco, Ron Urban and Jeff Farelta lost only three of the matches and averaged 70 in the 200 mark, including their handicaps.

Jaco averaged 218, his runner-up and bowling newcomer Ron Urban collected $25 for the second spot with his 2189 series (212 average), and Parrella set a 206 pace with his 2007 set, which paid $15.

The total Peterson Point spread between the first and third places was close with Jaco registering 7750, Urban 7540 and Parrella 7347.

Others who took part in the 15 games tourney were Reggie Sigmon, Ray Hatchett, Ken Williams, Pat Peterson, Jerry Mikola, Bill Foster, Chuck Kavel, Bob Driscoll, Gordon Lynch, Gordon Semart, Bob Carver, Jim Lamb and Don Witt.

Petty Nears Record...

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. - Richard Petty of Randleman, N.C. is only $546 and one race away from replacing Fred Lorenzen as NASCAR's all-time top money winner on major raceways.

And if he can make the field for Friday's Firecracker 400 at Daytona International Speedway, and that's like saying if Joe Namath can play football—Petty is assured of the prestigious number one spot.

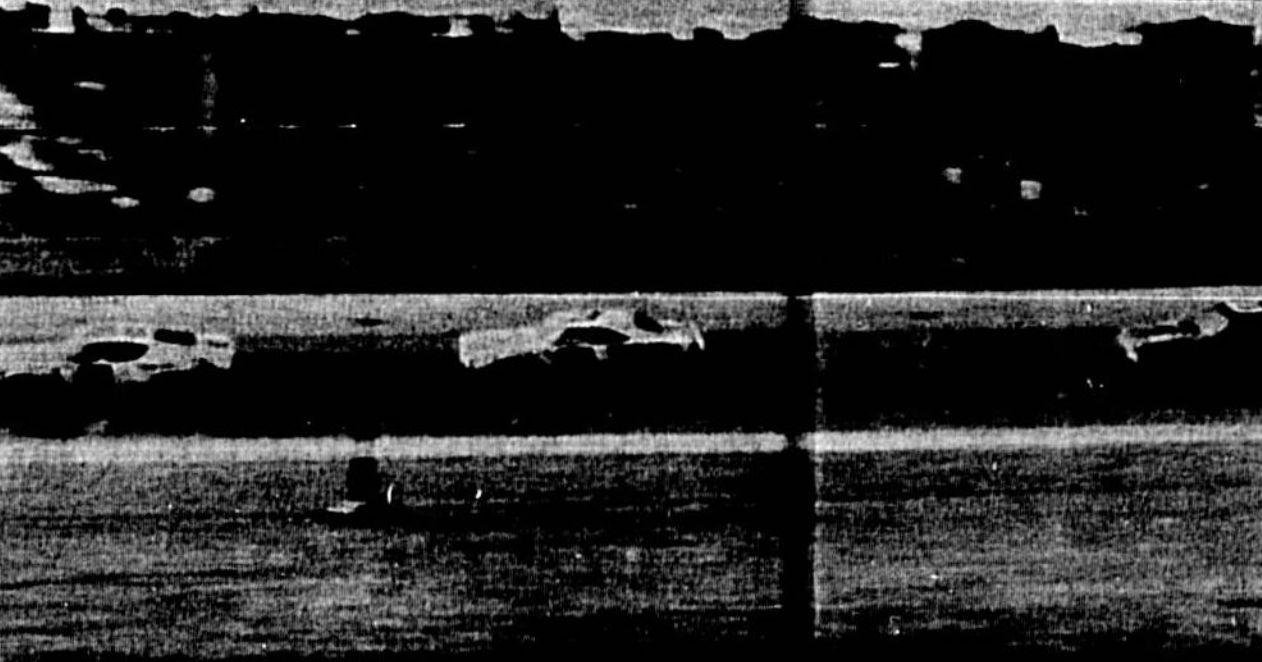

Last place in the 400 starting field for the $88,000 race pays $600, much more than enough to push Petty past Lorenzen's total. Lorenzen, the retired Ford ace, earned $2,455 during his career and Petty goes into the Firecracker 400 with $232,910.

And if Petty, who is the only driver to win the Daytona 500 twice, can score his fifth victory in the Firecracker 400, his finish second, he has a chance to become the top all-time top money winner at Daytona.

Cale Yarborough of Timmonsville, S.C., who has won the Firecracker the last two years, holds the distinction at the moment with $95,805 while Petty needs $8,356 to pass him.

First place in the race pays $20,825 plus lap and qualifying awards and second is worth $10,870 plus, so depending on how Yarborough finishes, Petty might overtake him.

Marathon Jogger Is Out For A Record

Tammanian Bill Emmerton, famous Marathon Jogger, is out for another record. He has already 100,000 under his feet, and is trying for another 1,034. This run is from NASA Space Center in Houston to Cape Kennedy in Florida for the purpose of promoting physical fitness and national enthusiasm for the Apollo II moon shot on July 16.

This 49 years young Aussie left NASA Space Center at 12:30 p.m., Tuesday, and has already completed over 200 miles. Neither high humidity, rising temperatures, mosquitoes nor snakes will keep our fearless jogger from his 95 to 40 miles a day average to Cape Kennedy.

His nights are restful as he eats a hardy dinner and relaxes at one of our Holiday Inns on route. His wife Norma, Canadian born, who is by his GAINESVILLE, Fla.—When the North and South High School All-Star football and basketball teams line up for their annual classic on August 2, the Yankee coaches will be trying for a record.

This year the North football and basketball squads will have coaches from the same school. Gainesville High School's Jim Niblack will coach the football team and Ed Poore will handle the basketball squad.

No two coaches from the same school have ever been double winners in the all-star contests, in fact only two other times in the 19 year history of the classic have coaches from the same school coached.

In 1951 James Coogins and Raphael Sneed of Pensacola Senior coached the North teams. Seogins' football team lost to the South 14-13 and Sneed's basketball squad lost to the Rebels 65-48.

In 1954 Miami Senior's Charles Tate and Vince Schaefer worked together in the classic. Tate's football team won 23-7, but Schaefer's basketball team lost 92-78.

Niblack and Poore will try to become the first coaches from the same high school to win both the football and basketball games. Niblack led Gainesville High to a 9-0 record while Poore's basketball team captured the Class AA title.

Laver's Hopes

By GEOFFREY MILLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) - Rod Laver, who started the Wimbledon tennis tournament odds-on favorite, today faced the man he most fears—Cliff Drysdale, the South African with the double-handed backhand.

They clashed in the quarter-finals of the All-England Championships and Drysdale held a psychological advantage. He defeated Laver in the U.S. Open Championships at Forest Hills, N.Y., last year, and he beat him again in a best-of-3-set affair in the West of England Championships three weeks ago.

"Each time I won by keeping the ball away from Laver's backhand," Drysdale said.

It's not hurting me any more," Ashe said. "But I haven't got my rhythm back properly."

Ashe has been serving at three-quarter speed and was taken to five sets by Terry Ryan of South Africa and Graham Stiuell of Britain before reaching his best tennis to date in defeating Pancho Gonzalez, 41-year-old Los Angeles veteran, in the fourth round.

Atlanta Holds On Behind LA!!

Dear Richie... wherever you are: Don't call us; we'll call you! Love, Bob Skinner

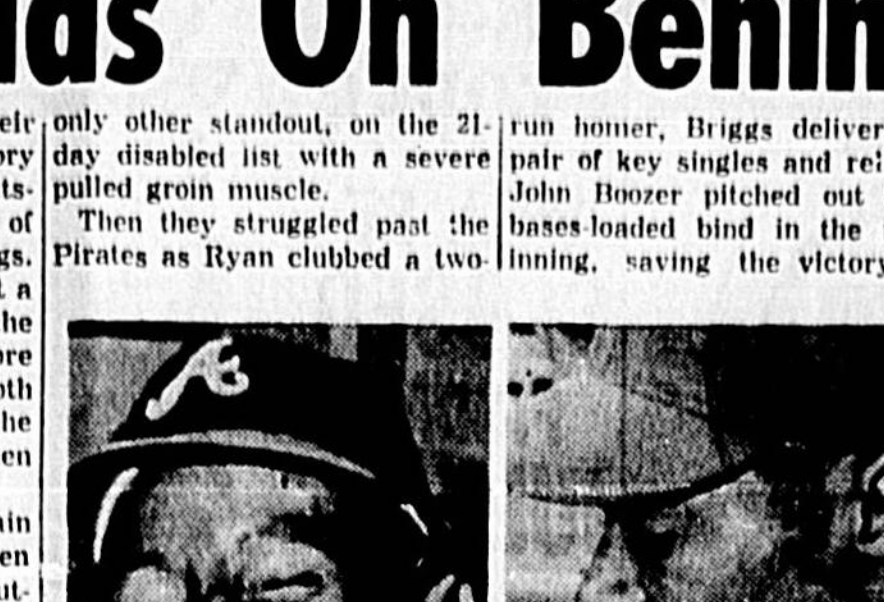

Skinner, of course, wouldn't think of sending such a message to Richie Allen... even if he knew where to send it. The Philadelphia manager misses his runaway superstar. So do all the Phillies.

They just don't show it.

The Phillies reeled off their seventh consecutive victory Monday night, trimming Pittsburgh 4-2 behind the hitting of Mike Ryan and Johnny Briggs. Allen vanished into the night a week ago at New York and the Phillies, beset by injuries before his disappearance, lost both ends of a doubleheader to the Mets. They haven't been beaten since then.

While Skinner waited in vain for a phone call from Allen Monday, the Phillies played outfielder Johnny Callison, their only other standout, on the 21-day disabled list with a severe pulled groin muscle.

Then they struggled past the Pirates as Ryan clubbed a two-run homer, Briggs delivered a pair of key singles and reliever John Hoover pitched out of a jam over Cincinnati. Los Angeles whipped Houston 7-1 on Claude Osteen's four-hitter. New York buried St. Louis 10-2 on a three-hitter by Jim McAndrew. Montreal upended the Chicago Cubs 5-2 and San Francisco bounced San Diego 5-1.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I like many of your other letters, but your column, but I never thought that I would ever actually be writing to you. I just wanted you to know that an article I read of yours in the newspaper about three years ago has helped me more than you'll ever know.

My boyfriend (fiance now) was always asking me to "prove my love" to him. I would always refuse and then show him this clipping from DEAR ABBY. As hard as this may seem to believe, it always worked. He is now in the United States Army stationed in Viet Nam. It's kind of strange when he writes and says, "I'm so glad that you waited" or as his time in the Army is up, we're planning to be married. Thanks to you, who helped me more than you'll ever know.

"You can disregard my letter, but you would be doing many girls a big favor by not carrying on again with this same article in your column. Thank you, Abby."

WAITING IN WASHINGTON

DEAR WAITING: The "article" you read, clipped and carried for so many years in a reprint from the chapter of my book "DEAR DEAR ABBY: I am pleased to tell you that your letter is still in my files. I hope you will find it as helpful as I do. I'm glad that your boyfriend is now in the Army. It's a "useful merchandise," or a "second hand rose with crumpled petals."

I married a divorcee with five kids, and it's the best deal I ever made. A woman who has cooked and kept house for a family knows all the first five years' worth of the first five years' worth. A woman who has had to support a bunch of kids alone knows the value of money, too, and can really pinch a penny.

And talk about appreciation! When I carry out the garbage my old lady hugs me and says "I'm the most thoughtful man in the world. When I see those spoiled, helpless, well-behaved-are-children some of my friends are stuck with, I feel sorry for them."

It takes a gal who has gone thru hell to appreciate a good man in the world. When I see those spoiled, helpless, well-behaved-are-children some of my friends are stuck with, I feel sorry for them."

Surrender your virtue. . . .
Throw away your self-respect. . . .

South's no-trump opening was normal in spite of the lack of a diamond stopper. He had 16 points and no-trump distribution. North's raise to game was in the nature of a gamble. He hoped his club suit would provide his partner with enough tricks to make the no-trump game. He was wrong to have no part of an attempt to take 11 tricks at five clubs.

West opened the queen of spades. South looked over dummy and saw that he was going to have to knock out the ace of clubs before he could win anything like nine tricks. He also saw that a spade continuation was going to give him all the time he wanted to spend in dummy. West would be wide open and nothing could be done about it.

He decided to win the first spade in dummy. West would know where the ace was but East could not be sure. At trick two he led dummy's queen of clubs. West led the one king in dummy. East's second club was led from dummy and at this point East came up with the killing defensive play.

He discarded his ace of diamonds. We wouldn't call this a safety play, although it did give away a sure trick. East could afford it. His other six diamonds would be good, provided his partner could be persuaded to lead a diamond.

West was persuaded. He took his ace of clubs, looked over the trick carefully and remarked, "I hope you know where your ace is doing." He led his one and only diamond.

Ladies, you win the party because you had a good idea. I thought that party were not for mature women. My! what a storm I stirred up! I received so many letters from my readers saying that I was wrong and that they were and wear party hats. I telephoned a history stylist who said that many mature women had been having and liking the party hats and as long as the short skirts are in, this expert said she believed that the mature women would wear party hats. So there! I liked all those letters, at least you read me when you don't agree with my opinion.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 2, 1969

GENERAL TENDENCIES: The daytime finds it possible for you to get up-to-date methods in order to get your affairs in shipshape order. However, the evening brings the need for you to be calm to prevent upsets from taking place that could be followed by trouble.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19): Good friends do much to assist you during the day with their ideas and plans. There is confusion regarding social activities tonight. It would be well to avoid groups at that time. Why not get out to some good reading?

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20): During the day you can expand those career affairs by adding up-to-date improvements tonight. There is a trend that has to do with credit. Study new inventions that you can assist you. Be clever.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21): You can study those new ideas very carefully during the morning; then later get down to routine that is not so confusing. Plan the trip during the day, also. Evening is not good for any new venture.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21): Here's an ideal day to make those extra payments that you usually relate to the background. Do not commit yourself any further tonight. Don't be disappointing where romantic side of your life is concerned.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21): Discussing business matters on the policy level with associates is fine during the morning; this is the best way to get ahead. Find out just how to handle that civic matter wisely. Talk in the evening.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22): You have to get your work concerned if it is to be acceptable to executives and all others concerned. Make it pay big dividends. Show your capabilities in such a way that the one executive who counts the most is impressed.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22): You find that your work friends cooperate with almost any of your ideas that you may want to put in operation. Listen to excellent suggestions and do something very beneficial for one who dwells with you. Bring more happiness to both your lives. A alert is some plan to add to present security.

SAGITTARIUS (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21): Get busy early fixing up your surroundings and do something very thoughtful for one who dwells with you. Bring more happiness to both your lives. A alert is some plan to add to present security.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 to Feb. 19): Contact influential people who have the right advice to help you add to your present success. Then carry through in a most positive fashion. Have a more interesting social life. Accept invitations extended.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): Go to the right source for that information you need right now. Be precise. Many situations come up that are fine for you, but you have to keep them confidential. Do plenty of studying for best results.

A Well Known Name Ball Realty And Insurance

Volusia and Seminole County residents have depended on a top name in real estate and insurance for the past 44 years in the Central Florida area. Ball Realty and Insurance, located in downtown Sanford, has been serving our area longer than almost all the other insurance and realty companies put together.

Dependable and dignified service in both real estate and insurance has been the motto of Raymond Ball, the company owner and operator.

Ball handles all types of general insurance ranging from fire and casualty to auto and home. Stop in tomorrow and let our staff make a plan for you and your family, from their convenient 101-C West First Street location.

Have you been looking for that dream home or a piece of beautiful Florida land to build your home. Consult Ball's first. The local business has been covering lakefront properties, commercial and industrial tracts of land. Raymond Ball will show you different acreages that you might wish to build a home on, or maybe use it for business and plant purposes.

Brakes Wear Down Slowly

Brakes, like all-day suckers have a habit of wearing away slowly. So it's a good practice to have your brakes periodically checked to make sure they can stop your car safely.

Every week, test the hydraulic system by firmly pressing your foot against the pedal. If the pedal moves gradually towards the floorboard, you are losing vital pressure. Have the problem corrected immediately.

The Business World

HOUSTON, TEXAS — Stran-Steel Corporation, a leading manufacturer of pre-engineered building systems and components for more than 25 years, has announced the development of a new building line designed especially for the retail and professional markets.

"Pre-engineered buildings in the past have found greatest acceptability," says J. W. Clift, Vice President-Sales, "in the manufacturing and warehousing facility markets. Our new line of buildings, 'The Profile Series,' is designed to meet the needs of the professional markets, including offices, clinics, banks, and retail stores." He said, "This new building line," Clift added, "emphasizes traditional styling and appearance while still offering the speed and economies of pre-engineered construction."

The appearance of the new building line is considerably different from other types of pre-engineered structures. "The fast-roofed appearance and clean styling lines of Profile buildings make them readily acceptable in any community shopping center or retail application," says Clift.

Profile buildings are available with roof overhangs on all sides up to nine feet wide providing covered walkways surrounding the building.

Profile buildings employ the use of Stran-Steel architectural panels which can be combined with an unlimited number of collateral materials for maximum flexibility. These panels are available with a 20-year color coating warranty. And all Stran building components carry a five year warranty against defect in product or workmanship.

"The pleasing, traditional styling of this building line," says Clift, "its built-in durability, combined with economies in construction, maintenance, heating and cooling will have great appeal in many markets."

Stran, with manufacturing plants in Houston and Terre Haute, Indiana, markets its building systems in the United States and 40 other countries through a network of more than 450 Franchised Builders.

Arcade To Make Way For New Structure

Russell A. Firestone and his wife, Myrna, visited Sanford Tuesday to check on several investments properties in Seminole County. Main item of interest seemed to be the new Lake View Shopping Center facing Commercial Street between Palmetto and Sanford Avenues, which is leasing to businesses before have a grand opening later this month.

Firestone, while visiting Ernest Southward, revealed he is planning a Scandinavian tour after the shopping center's opening.

Southward, whose agency handles Firestone's local financial investments, revealed that three firms already had located in the center.

These included a beauty salon, stock brokerage and a clothing store.

Southward said he and Firestone looked at the old McLander Arcade at the intersection of First Street and Sanford Avenue and said the structure soon would be demolished to make room for another building, nature of which is yet to be decided, Southward stated.

Firestone said he was pleased with the "later, even growth" going on in Sanford and looked forward to returning here in time for the center opening.

In addition to the shopping center, Firestone's interests here include orange groves and other investment properties.

Agencies Ask For $3 Million County Eyes Record Budget

County Commission listened to five department heads yesterday afternoon in the county's history of nearly $11 million, up by nearly $1 million, will begin following the detailed explanation.

MOTOR VEHICLE INSPECTION

First department head presented by the Commissioners was Virgil Nislers, motor vehicle inspection supervisor. Nislers requested a budget of $1,917,000 down from last year's $1,909,800. Income from the department is estimated at $120,000 in the new year.

Pointing to the 50 per cent turnover of employees in his department over the past year, the supervisor asked for a two-step increase in pay for his workers. "A one-step cost-of-living increase is not enough."

Resigned Secretary Swears Chappell Ordered Kickback

(Editor's note: Associated Press at Miami at noon today informed The Sanford Herald by telephone that the AP "ask force" in Washington, D. C., had prepared a list of questions for Congressman William V. Chappell relative to the "salary story" but the lawmakers refused to see or speak to the AP newsmen.)

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — A Florida congressman raised his second salary, then ordered her to split it with another woman who wasn't on the government payroll for at least part of the pay period, the Tampa Tribune reported in a copyrighted story today.

Rep. William V. Chappell, an Ocean Breeze resident, raised the pay for his executive secretary from $894.34 to $1,277.60 monthly in March and April, reportedly to give herself the extra money" to the second woman, according to the newspaper.

The secretary, Patricia Renfro, has said in a sworn statement that she made out checks for $297 on April 2 and May 3 to the second woman, Jean McBurney, and the money has not been returned to her.

"I wasn't happy about it, but neither did I want to lose my job," Mrs. Renfro said in the 49 page deposition.

The Tribune said the $494 allegedly paid out of Mrs. Renfro's salary was to pay Mrs. McBurney for speeches she gave in February.

In April Mrs. McBurney, a divorcee, went on Chappell's payroll—but under her maiden name, E. Jean Brown, said the newspaper.

She said she harbored no ill will toward him.

The Tribune said it submitted evidence of the transaction, including Mrs. Renfro's deposition and copies of checks, to the U.S. Justice Department.

Quick Check

A quick check of Downtown and Sanford Plaza merchants today revealed that, with only a few exceptions, businesses will be closed Friday so that their employees may enjoy the Fourth of July holiday.

Most will maintain their regular hours on Thursday and Saturday however.

The evening of July 22 in the big arena the closing ceremonies will occur and the boys will start heading for home on July 23.

VOC-TECH TRAINING SCHOOL GOING UP

PLANS FOR THE VOCATIONAL-TECHNICAL TRAINING school which is being constructed on the grounds of the new Seminole Junior College in state and federal funds has been granted for the first phase, which is under construction. An additional $250,000 of state and federal funds has been granted for the second phase.

The center, which is in a 30-acre site near Seminole Junior College, is under the jurisdiction of the Seminole County School Board and is a separate institution. A total of $538,000 in state and federal funds has been granted for the first phase, which is under construction. An additional $250,000 of state and federal funds has been granted for the second phase.

Completion of the first phase is scheduled for September, 1970. At that time courses will be offered in secretarial science, electronic assembly, electronic technology, air conditioning and refrigeration, sheet metal and distributive education.

Courses planned for future phases are automatic mechanics, welding, graphic arts, cosmetology, major appliance repair, business china repair, building trades and farm implement repair.

The center is expected to provide over 800 training stations and to cost $1.5 million when completed. Equipment for these phases will come from federal funds under the Vocational Education Act of 1963, and to total over $300,000.

The above mentioned courses are subject to change if a new industry comes to Seminole County with unforeseen needs. Special efforts will be made to meet these needs.

Seminole County already has a large vocational, technical and adult program, and will use its teaching units in the high school and adult programs. A unit is the equivalent of a full-time teacher for one year.

E. S. Douglas, director of the vocational, technical and adult program, states that advisory committees drawn from the business community, aid in the development of these courses. In one course above, electronic assembly, over 250 people have been placed in employment during the past 18 months when the electronic industry in Seminole County and adjoining counties.

Scouters Plan For Jamboree

By JANE CASSELBERRY

Seminole County Boy Scout Troop 507, sponsored by Grace Methodist Church, has been selected as a leader to represent Central Florida Council at the seventh National Boy Scout Jamboree July 18-23 at Farris State Park, Idaho.

Sanford Scouts who will be making the trip are Robert Thompson and Ralph Elliott, of Troop 507, and David and Douglas Doudney, Troop 34.

In April Mrs. McBurney, a divorcee, went on Chappell's payroll—but under her maiden name, E. Jean Brown, said the newspaper.

She said she harbored no ill will toward him.

The Tribune said it submitted evidence of the transaction, including Mrs. Renfro's deposition and copies of checks, to the U.S. Justice Department.

Scouts and leaders will meet at McCoy Air Force Base in Orlando Saturday, July 12, between 5 and 7 p.m. and stay overnight. Sunday morning they will breakfast and attend church services before loading their gear aboard a Convair 440 jet and heading for Spokane, Wash. Sunday evening they plan to be eating supper including cake, tents, setting flies, flag poles, kilnens and latrines.

Jamboree official opening will be July 18 in the big arena with between 40,000 and 50,000 Scouts and leaders present. The Jamboree program will consist of swimming, boating, hiking, fishing, Skill-A-Rama, flag ceremonies, conservation, hunter safety, and many other chores.

The evening of July 22 in the big arena the closing ceremonies will occur and the boys will start heading for home on July 23.
