Miss Ola B. Yates, daughter of Mrs. Alice Yates, Sanford, and Paul Yates of Minneola, and Rosell Thomas Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Walker, Sanford, were married Sunday, April 9, at 4 p.m. at the Sanford Church of God. The pastor, Rev. L. H. Alford, officiated at the candle light, double ring ceremony. The Church was decorated with two standing baskets of white pom poms, mums and greenery and arrangements of gladioli and palms. Organist, Mrs. Arnold Godwin, of Orlando, presented a program of nuptial music including the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Rev. Arnold Godwin, soloist, who sang "True Love" and "Whither Thou Goest.' Given in marriage by her brother, Richard Yates, Delray Beach, the bride wore a formal length gown of white satin and lace. The satin skirt was trimmed with rows of lace and end ed in a chapel train. The bodice of lace featured a square neck line and long sleeves with points at the wrists. Her veil of silk illusion fell fom a pearl tiara and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses with detachable corsage and white ribbon streamers.
