

Road Change Contest To Be Talked By Chamber

The proposal that the Lake Mary Chamber of Commerce sponsor a name changing contest for Lake Mary Blvd. will be presented at Thursday's 8 p.m. meeting of the group by Richard Keogh, newly elected president.

Possibility of the Chamber conducting such a contest was suggested recently by County Zoning Director Bob Brown who explained that a great deal of confusion arises upon occasion from the number of "Lake Mary's" leading to and from the community.

Other items on the agenda will include election of a new nominating committee; presentation of the president's report on past and future activities; announcement of an all out membership drive and reports from the County Commission on prospects of Lake Mary getting an interchange to Interstate 4 and on street lighting for the community.

THINK YOU'VE GOT TROUBLES? — Next time you shovel your walk, think of what ships on the frozen Great Lakes have to go through. For the first time in most people's memory, Lake Michigan is frozen all the way across. The few ships that have been in service all winter have had extremely rough going. The crunching entry of this car ferry into ice-locked harbor at Ludington, Mich., could be heard a mile away.

Mona Lisa Going Home

NEW YORK (UPI) — Museum and cultural officials said farewell today to the Mona Lisa, which was viewed by 1,077,521 persons during its month-long exhibition at the Metropolitan Museum.

The museum announced that since Leonardo da Vinci's masterpiece went on display Feb. 7, a record-breaking total of 1,881,888 persons visited the museum.

against a proposed 62 percent slash by Southern Railway in multiple-car grain shipments from the Midwest to the South.

Southern would have been allowed to place the reductions in effect Friday under a Jan. 24 order by an ICC group which handles rate cases unless full commission action is necessary.

Actually, the rates could not go into effect until the Supreme Court dissolved a restraining order blocking the reductions. If the ICC acts before the Supreme Court, however, it is considered possible that the high court will decide not to consider the issue.

The commission stayed approval while it looks over petitions for reconsideration filed by the Tennessee Valley Authority, the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, American Waterways Operators, Inc., and other barge lines.

Have you put YOUR CHILD ON A SHELF...

... just because you've had the idea that his education doesn't begin until he starts to school?

You feed, clothe, and provide a home for your child — but what about his eager growing mind?

Teachers say:

"Children are at a great disadvantage if they have not been prepared at home for the new situations they will meet in school."

Research studies prove the first six years of a child's life are vital years in determining his success in school.

The CHILD'S WORLD helps you keep your child off the shelf. In story and picture, it portrays beautifully the things children wonder about... want to know... and should know.

It answers their questions in a way young minds can understand.

From infancy to age twelve—The CHILD'S WORLD prepares the child FOR school and helps him IN school, the way the schools want it done.

And all for a fraction of what you'd expect to pay.

County OKs 415 Extension Bid

By LARRY VERSHEL
I see where some South Seminole Democrats want to switch allegiance to the Republican party because they want representation . . . Well, a check of voting records reveal today that Gordon Frederick lives and votes in the Longwood precinct (South Seminole) . . . The only thing is he has his business office in Sanford rather than ORANGE COUNTY!

Supervisor of Registration Camilla Bruce will ask the County Commission for legislation boosting her salary from $3,000 to $6,000 . . . It will be turned down.

Jim Crapps should furnish both members of the City and County Commission and other county officials attending that "slinding" tonight directions to his camp where that joint city-county meeting will take place. Everyone I talked to today didn't know where the camp is located . . . It is out by the Wekiva, gentlemen.

In the interest of public service and for the benefit of all officials, following are directions to get to the camp: Follow zoning map plat 2, 300 yards east of the Wekiva, turn sharply 512 yards until you get to a small ditch, get out of car, inspect ditch . . . follow road through swamp, careful to watch out for snakes and gators . . . Wear heavy boots, six rattlesnakes were seen there yesterday. Be careful of tribe of Indians on the warpath some 511 yards before you enter the camp . . . For more details, maps can be furnished in the courthouse for $1.

Among the items expected to be discussed will be joint participation project on 25th St. . . . County assistance on those Hunt utility lines . . . Cost to the city was over $50,000 and the city has expended more than the allocated funds . . . and maybe the zoo.

Sanford attorneys Ken McIntosh and Al Pitts are being kept awake at night by those Seville nightmares . . . Both attorneys were almost placed in contempt of court there and when they left, the constable followed them for 15 miles.

The pros outweigh the cons in regard to petitions circulating in Ravenna Park on that Community Shopping Center planned out there . . . Hearing next Wednesday.

Just as an example of how confusing all those "Lake Mary" avenues, streets, boulevards, lanes, drives, roads, etc., can get, sure enough we got the wrong one in a news-story Wednesday. The C of C's name changing contest will be for old Lake Mary Rd., not Lake Mary Blvd.

And if that isn't confusing enough, we understand that it was District 2 County Commissioner John Alexander instead of Zoning Director Bob Brown that suggested the contest.

There, now, everything okay?

Removal of the flag pole at the old postoffice proved to be a mansize job. City workers expected to perform the task "in two three hours." U. S. had directed the city to remove the pole from the government-owned lot by March 9. Workers dug down to the concrete foundation Wednesday afternoon and discovered it of such size a crane was required. The pole was replaced today on the lawn in front of the old postoffice, which some day will be the Sanford public library.

Received the following letter from the City Manager's office today: "This is to notify you that the City Commission cancelled all parking permits at their last meeting. Please do not use the permit recently issued to you. It may be destroyed or returned to my office." It was signed by W. E. Knowles.

Paved improvement of all of State Road 415 in Seminole County, from the Osteen Bridge to French Avenue, will be requested of the State Road Department by the County Commission this afternoon at DeLand.

Inclusion of that portion of the state road within the city limits of Sanford, known as Celery Ave, was informally approved by the Commission Wednesday afternoon.

Chairman J. C. Hutchison reported today the Commission had received a formal request from the City of Sanford Wednesday to include Celery Avenue from the city limits to French Avenue. A telephone poll of the Commission members was made and all agreed.

The Commission previously had agreed to request of the SRD a paved improvement to a 22-foot width of SR 415 from the city limits to the Osteen Bridge. The State will be requested to accomplish this improvement of the primary highway with state funds but, if necessary, to use county secondary road funds to complete the project as quickly as possible in order to eliminate present unsafe driving conditions.

The Commission was scheduled to meet at 3:30 this afternoon to formally approve the resolution which will be presented to the SRD at 4:30 this afternoon at DeLand.

General Hutchison pointed out the SR 415 project will be presented in two parts: (1) Pave SR 415 from the city limits to the Osteen Bridge, using secondary funds, if necessary; (2) pave Celery Avenue from French Avenue to the city limits.

The chairman explained the Commission will not request the State to use county secondary funds for the paving of SR 415 (Celery Avenue) within the city limits. City Manager W. E. Knowles, asked if city funds are available, said this is not necessary since Celery Avenue is a state primary road.

Otherwise, General Hutchison said, the resolution to be presented to SRD this afternoon asks for road improvements in the county as have been published previously in The Herald.

One of the primary requests is for the four-lane of 25th Street between French and Melonville Avenues.

Drinking water was contaminated, power lines were driven down by high winds and towering ice floes swept down rain-swollen rivers to drive thousands of persons from their homes.

The death toll from three days of flooding rose to 21. At least eight other persons were dead after a late-winter snow storm hit the Midwest and flooded the Northeast with 65-mil-an-hour winds, snow and sleet.

A lake dam, weakened by the heavy rains, burst at Norwich, Conn., during the night and sent flood waters up to 12 feet deep swirling through a four-mile section of the city. At least six persons were killed, six injured and two missing.

Area 'Sectionalism' Blasted By Frederick

The issue of "sectionalism" injected into the campaign for Seminole County's House seat in the March 26 special election was blasted today by former Rep. Gordon Frederick, Democratic nominee for the Legislature.

"I am sure," he charged, "that they (the people) have seen many counties in which the ugly issue of sectionalism has resulted in a lack of progress for the entire county."

Surprise was expressed by both Frederick and his Republican opponent, Jan Fortune, when queried relative to an active Democrat's announcement of a south county campaign for representation in the Legislature.

Mrs. Hope Bennett, long time Democrat and a former member of the Casselberry board of aldermen, told The Herald today that "Democrats and Republicans alike, feeling the need for representation from the south end of the county, are pooling their forces to place Jan Fortune, GOP candidate, in office on March 26."

Mrs. Bennett continued: "Strong campaigns . . . in some cases, door-to-door . . . are being made in all South Seminole areas from Longwood to Forest City in Fortune's behalf.

"Regardless of party affiliation," she said, "we need a good man, and one with integrity, in office from this end of the county and we can put one in if we can get the voters out on March 26."

Fortune, when asked about Mrs. Bennett's announcement, replied: "It's all news to me," adding, "but we are looking for all the support we can get."

Frederick stated: "I am somewhat surprised to learn that my opponent and his supporters are attempting to raise the issue of sectionalism in Seminole County. I understand that they are offering as one of my opponent's great qualifications the fact that he resides in the South end of Seminole County."

Frederick continued: "Frankly, I have enough confidence in all of the people of Seminole County to believe that they do not vote on the basis of sectionalism but that they vote on the basis of the candidate's qualifications. I am sure that they have seen many counties in which the ugly issue of sectionalism has resulted in a lack of progress for the entire county."

"I have never represented an isolated area of Seminole County but have at all times attempted to represent all of the people of the county regardless of where they might reside. I know that my confidence in the people of Seminole County is justified and I sincerely hope that this county will never be split by sectionalism. I hope the people of the South end of the county as well as the people in all other areas of the county will give me their support on the basis of my qualifications."

Altamonte OK's Water Bond Sale

The Altamonte Springs Town Council Wednesday night authorized the public sale of bonds in the amount of $350,000 for the purpose of financing the new Municipal Water System.

At the same time the advertising bids for construction of the plant's water supply and distribution system was approved.

Scalded bids on both the bond sale and the construction will be due April 17. Each bond bid must be accompanied by a cashier's check for two per cent of face value. Specifications for construction bids, available at Glace Engineering in St. Petersburg or at the Altamonte Town Hall, will be priced at $30 for each set.

Mayor Lawrence Swafford, in an unofficial report from the County Commission advised that appraiser's figures for rights of way on SR 427 from East St. to SR 436 through the town show that costs for 40 feet on the east side would come considerably lower than properties on the west side.

A break down of figures set the price a $50,000 if 20 feet rights of way were taken from each side of the road; $30,000 if taken totally from the west side and $28,000 if taken on the east.

Swafford pointed out that although the county's decision did not agree with the town's recommendations, the town will derive great benefit from the additional 20 feet fronting the Town Hall.

In other business the council agreed to get an engineer's recommendations in solving drainage problems from the Hillcrest area onto Maitland Ave. properties.

Agreed to look into the possibility of building headers for a portion of Herald's Trail that is "washing away into a stream."

Gave Councilman Frank Gerhardt the authority to go ahead with plans for building a refreshment stand at the ball park after looking over blue prints for the structure.

Former County Sheriff Dies

Graveside services for E. E. Brady, 85, former Seminole County sheriff and state legislator, were conducted by Rev. Grover Sewell Wednesday afternoon at Evergreen Cemetery.

Born Jan. 25, 1878, at America, Ga., Mr. Brady came to Sanford in 1904 and engaged in farming and livestock. He served one term as sheriff during World War I and later two terms in the Legislature.

He died Tuesday after a lengthy illness at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Arthur C. Moore, 1218 Oak Avenue, with whom he made his home.

Surviving are his daughter, a granddaughter, Mrs. Jack Woodruff, Sanford, and four great-grandchildren.

Brisson Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

7-Year-Old Struck By Car

Robert Bennett, of 2703 Magnolia Ave., seven-year-old pinereast student suffered abrasions and possible rib fractures when he was struck by a car near the school Wednesday at 3:50 p. m.

Emmett Bomby, SNAS, told PHP Trooper J. L. Sikes, that the boy, who was walking on the shoulder of the road, suddenly turned and ran into the path of the car.

Witnesses corroborated the driver's explanation. Bennett was admitted to Seminole Memorial Hospital.

Faubus Hits Troop Betrayal

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UPI) — Gov. Orval Faubus accused the federal government Wednesday of secretly recruiting Arkansas National Guard pilots for the 1961 Cuban invasion and then "betraying" them.

Some of them flew in combat and one Air Guard plane was shot down, Faubus said.

Brig. Gen. Frank Bailey, chief of staff of the Arkansas Air Guard, said he did not know what Faubus was talking about. But he added the Arkansas guard "did not have any planes involved."

The Defense Department in Washington declined comment.

Bailey said, however, that Faubus may have some information he does not have. He said he did not want to put himself in the position of either denying or confirming what the governor said.

Faubus did not say who recruited the pilots. He said he knew at the time of the invasion that Arkansas Air Guard pilots were involved, but could say nothing at the time.

Plea Made To Retain Wolf

An Altamonte Springs woman, who asked that her name not be used for publication, Wednesday night made a strong, and at times, tearful, plea on behalf of former Councilman John Wolf whose services as a part time policeman are not being used by the town at this time.

Wolf, permanently injured three years ago while fighting a fire at the Rosenwald Negro School, received monthly payment for 21 months from the town following the accident and later was hired by the town as a part time officer.

Recomping of the entire police department two weeks ago upon recommendations of Police Chief Grady Hall for a 90 day trial period eliminated the services of Wolf to incorporate the use of six volunteer auxiliary policemen.

In answer to the woman, who asked that the town put Wolf back to work, Mayor Lawrence Swafford said, in part:

"Many taxpayers in the town are in sympathy with John Wolf. I'd like to remind you that this whole thing is only on a 90-day trial basis. "No issue was intended and there was none until after the newspapers carried stories which were not true. I say again, John Wolf was not fired. . . . I say he quit after reading those newspaper stories.

Segregation Law Junked By City

ALBANY, Ga. (UPI) — The City Commission of this south-west Georgia city has junked all segregation ordinances and decided to leave the race problems to individual citizens.

A spokesman said the commission took the action by a 6-1 vote Wednesday night, striking down all of segregation ordinances in a move aimed at bolstering its legal position. Racial disputes have plagued the industrial city of 55,000 for more than a year.

Plea Made To Retain Wolf

Wolf back to work, Mayor Lawrence Swafford said, in part:

"Although the townspeople feel morally responsible for Wolf, the town does not legally owe him a thing. He was in violation of the law at the time of the fire for he knew that the fire truck was not to go out of the town limits. "You people elect officials to run your town and it cannot be run in sympathy . . . we're getting too big."

Fund Chairman Reports For Enterprise

Miss Helen Snodgrass, chairman of the annual Heart Fund Drive for the Enterprise area, has reported that a total of $30.76 was collected by volunteers working this year.

Her appreciation has been publicly expressed to the workers who included Mrs. Mickey Nutt, Mrs. Marian Braddock, Mrs. Frank Winkler, Mrs. E. W. Jones, Mrs. Alma Goodwin, Margaret Ray, Gail Goodwin, Robert Poole, Juanita Johnson and the staff of the Methodist Children's Home.

Miss Snodgrass reminds residents of the area that this month is Red Cross Month and asks for volunteers to serve as collectors.

She also asks that those of the area able to do so donate blood when the mobile unit visits the Dickinson Memorial Library at Orange City on Friday of this week between the hours of 4 and 7 p.m.

Those wishing to give blood should contact Miss Snodgrass or state at the mobile unit that the donation is for the Enterprise area.

McGill Exhibit Outstanding At Antique Show

By Mrs. Adam Muller
Among outstanding exhibits shown at last week's Antique Show and Sale held at the DeBary Mansion House were those of Isabelle McGill who titles her collection "The Campfire Tree Antiques."

Featured in this exhibit were several finely beaded rugs, copies from Carver and free prints and others in original designs.

Mrs. McGill, who has the talent for copying any design she has seen, taught this art for four-and-one-half years at Lindsay Hopkins Adult Vocational School in Miami for some 2,000 women of Dade County.

She also teaches all fine art needle work including knitting and quilting.

She will hold a permanent display at the DeBary Mansion House in the near future. Those interested in learning more about the art are asked to contact the Florida Federation of Art Headquarters through the DeBary Arts and Crafts Craft Club.

Bell Reports On Expansion Boost

Southern Bell Telephone Company, which serves nine Southern states spent a record-breaking $347 million in expansion last year, exceeding the national rate considerably, President Ben S. Glimmer has revealed in the annual report.

Highest previous expenditure was $220 million in 1960. "We have great confidence in the region and the people in it," said Glimmer.

"The $347 million we spent in the South last year was in itself a tremendous stimulant to the region's economy, as was our $350 million payroll and the $224 million in taxes, which helped to support schools, building programs, national defense and other services."

Southern Bell, with its 64,000 employees serves Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee.

There are 93 exchanges in Florida.

Village Group Donates $40 To Little League

The North Orlando Civic Assn. Monday night voted to donate $40 towards sponsoring the North Orlando Little League this season. The donation came at the request of Bob Stephenson who organized the team.

Stephenson said the boys will play on Wednesdays at 5 p. m. and on Saturdays at 2:30 p. m. There will be 15 boys in uniform and as many as 200 on the farm teams. Volunteers offering to help work with the teams, who play from April 6 through July 6, were Mayor Frank Fasula, Lt. Earl Achord, Charles Rowell, Don Corkill and George Sommers.

As co-sponsors of the Little League the association will have emblem stickers printed for distribution to all merchants and residents who contribute on behalf of the teams.

The association also planned a bake sale to be held March 16 to raise funds for reimbursing the treasury for Monday night's donation. Mrs. J. D. Grinstead was appointed to plan the sale and asked that residents either donate baked goods or a sum of $1.

Three Take Deputy Sheriff For 'Wild' Ride

BRUNSWICK (UPI) — Three men with a taste for whisky abducted a deputy sheriff near Folkston, Ga., Wednesday and took him at gunpoint on a wild ride on the backroads of swampy southeast Georgia.

The men were captured several hours later at Brunswick. The deputy, Homer Allen of Charlton County, was unharmed.

They were charged with armed robbery and held in the city jail here. Authorities from Jacksonville, Fla., about 100 miles south of here, planned to question the men today about some checks stolen yesterday from the Lanahan Lumber Co. of Jacksonville.

Brunswick police said one of the men had in his possession a check apparently stolen from the lumber company. Two of them denied participating in the robbery and the third was too intoxicated for interrogation last night, police said.

The men were identified as Charles Clarence Price, 40, Charles Case, 33, and James Joiner, 29. Authorities said they gave no home addresses.

Robert Lyons, assistant police chief at Brunswick, said the men abducted Allen after he had stopped them near Folkston, about 50 miles southwest of here, for investigation "as suspicious characters."

Allen had herded them into his patrol car when one of the men pressed a finger to the back of Allen's head, simulating a pistol, and ordered him into their vehicle. One of the men then fired several shots into the deputy's car, Lyons said.

The men drove north in the direction of Brunswick and stopped at a country store and purchased three fifth of whisky, Allen said. He said they repeatedly took swigs from the bottles and one of them soon became "overly intoxicated" during their ride.

"They even offered me a drink but I refused," Lyons quoted Allen as saying.

Allen told officers the men pulled into Brunswick and the two less intoxicated abductors decided to drive to the Glynn County Hospital to get their companion "a shot" to sober him up.

County, local and state police swarmed their car in front of the hospital and the trio gave up without a struggle, Lyons said.

A two-state alert was sounded for the men after the Charlton County Sheriff's office tried repeatedly but failed to make a radio contact with Allen.

The deputy had radioed his office earlier he had apprehended the men and was bringing them to the jail for questioning.

The Florida Highway Patrol said the license tag on the abductor's car was issued in Duval County (Jacksonville) but that the vehicle apparently was a rental car from Gainesville, Fla. in Central Florida.

Brownie Troop 447 Sees Flag Ceremony

By Frances Wester

Mrs. Dawn Burg McGhiey, scout leader of Fly-up Troop 447, introduced two special guests, Lu Jalliet and Su Jalliet, at last Thursday afternoon's meeting of the troop held at the Lake Mary School and turned the program over to them.

These girls, who are twin sisters, are senior scouts from Troop 211. They taught the Flag Ceremony to the group and gave information about the flag that scouts need to know.

At this Thursday's meeting, Flag Etiquette was explained by special guests from the Marines as part of the Girl Scout Week program.

Two reasons for these special programs are to teach the girls good citizenship and to instruct them in part of their tenderfoot requirements that they have to pass to be promoted in scout work.

The entire troop, composed of the following members, was present for this special program:

District Honors Casselberry Legion Post

American Legion Memorial Post 256 of Casselberry was one of two posts honored recently at the Sixth District Meeting held in Leesburg. A Certificate of Meritorious Service was presented to Commander Harold Kryder in behalf of the post by District Commander Kenneth Moyer for having 100 per cent or better membership for 1962.

Actually the post had 100 per cent of the members belonging in 1962 as well as a 7 per cent gain.

In addition to Commander Kryder the Casselberry unit was represented at the meet by Miller Evans, Ben Evans, Kenneth Green, Clarence Doehner and Larry Maplesden.

Little League Film Scheduled In Bear Lake

By Shirley Wentworth

A free 90-minute movie on Little League baseball training will be shown for all interested parents at 12:30 p. m. Saturday in the auditorium of the Bear Lake Elementary School.

If the film, which is sponsored by the Seminole County Little League, is well received at the 12:30 showing, a second run will immediately follow to accommodate the overflow audience.

Two visitors were also present.

Runs Aground

BOSTON (UPI) — The Greek cargo ship Nymphs ran aground in Boston Harbor early today but the Coast Guard said it was not in danger of sinking.

Officials said the 467-foot vessel is stuck in about 12 feet of water just off Logan International Airport. It was not known how many persons were aboard the stricken boat.

The Coast Guard said a spokesman aboard the craft originally reported it was in danger of sinking "but he apparently panicked." Authorities said that when high tides come in the vessel should be able to float itself free. Full high tide was expected at 9 a.m. EST.

JFK Trying To Solve Public Relations Woes

Helped 'Create' Problem Himself

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy is trying to solve a public relations problem which he helped create for himself and the Democratic Congress.

Group Hears Report On Community Club

C. M. Atchley, president of the Forest City Community Assn., reported at Monday night's monthly meeting of the group that concrete block to be used in construction of the new Community Club will be moved to the association's building site this Saturday.

The association's charter, a requirement before the building could be okayed, is now in the process of being obtained.

The group voted that beginning in April all meetings would be held at the Forest City Restaurant and would include dinner beginning at 6:30 p. m. Meetings of the association are held on the first Monday of each month.

Kennedy Service Set Friday

Funeral services for Mrs. Fay Floy Kennedy of Clulota who died Monday will be held at 2 p. m. Friday at Gramkow Funeral Home with Rev. Ben West of the Clulota Community Church officiating.

Burial will be in Oklawaha Memorial Park in Sanford.

Just Not Necessary

We don't see any reason why the County and City Commission deemed it necessary to have informal breakfasts, gatherings, closed door sessions to consider business concerning 60,000 people.

We feel that the public has a right to listen in on any discussion of its business.

The commission should take the press into their confidence a little more. This paper has never broken a confidence and never intends to.

We have sat on story after story from city hall or the courthouse and we believe former Mayor J. H. Crapps and Gen. J. C. Hutchison will back us up on this.

As far as the press is concerned, its representatives do not take part in any way except to take notes and make their reports to the readers who RELY on us to let them know what is going on in this county and city. There is absolutely no reason in the world why they should be barred from any meeting whether it is informal or formal of a governing body.

We hope both commissions will not continue to make a practice of not inviting the press whenever they feel like getting together.

The people are not going to like it.

We All Suffer

A strike by the Atlantic Coast Line Brotherhoods will severely cripple the economy of not only this city, area, but the entire southeast.

"Featherbedding" is the term we hear about all the time... Featherbedding... the elimination of unnecessary jobs...

But who is to say what is necessary for the safety of our traveling public?

Major, scheduled, approved airlines require both a pilot and a copilot.

Major, scheduled, approved ships require both a captain and an executive officer.

Major businesses require both a president and a vice president.

All this tends to prove that from past experience and knowledge gained, although two heads are not always better than one... one head is certainly better than none.

A locomotive traveling at high speed can be most dangerous...

...and with human frailties and unforeseen circumstances being what they are... care and even expense are justified in the name of safety and welfare for all concerned.

It's not easy to take issue with the Supreme Court. We hope Labor and Management can get together on new work rules in view of this decision... The word "STRIKE" leaves a bad taste in our mouths.

Surely the economy of the entire area would suffer by any strike.

Such new workable rules of railroad operation employees, according to ACL president Tom Rice, will modernize and bring up-to-date our rail operation.

We hope and pray that organized labor will make a sincere effort to settle this dispute peacefully and to the best interests of the entire area. We all will suffer from a rail strike.

Phil Newsom Says . . .

Still State Of Revolution

More than 50 years after the overthrow of dictator Porfirio Diaz, Mexico still considers itself a revolutionary state.

The steep upward climb of Mexican industry, the towering office buildings and the new hotels in Mexico City provide convincing evidence of the revolution's success.

The story of Mexico's revolution actually may be divided into two parts. One that is succeeding and another that, if it cannot be called a failure, certainly has not been keeping pace.

Mexico's 1917 Constitution provided specifically for land reform, but as President Adolfo Lopez Mateos enters his last two years in office, Mexico's farm front still is a picture of unrest.

In the states of Oaxaca,

Chiapas and Morelos in the south, peasants have fought pitched battles with Mexican soldiers. In Chihuahua, just below Texas, squatters have attempted to move against large cattle ranches.

Putting pressure on the government is a new organization called Independent Peasant Central. It is Communist-supported and claims a million members.

It demands immediate expropriation of large farms and ranches.

Prominent among its supporters is former President Lazaro Cardenas, the man who expropriated U. S. and British oil interests in Mexico in 1938 and who in more recent times has been an outspoken friend of the Castro regime in Cuba and the Red Chinese.

He attacks U. S. "oppression" and demands the end of foreign investments and of "foreign monopolies."

Thus he places the Lopez Mateos regime on the defensive on two fronts. On the farm front, Lopez Mateos has announced he will break up every large privately owned farm and ranch within the next two years, but he denies it is because of leftist or Cardenas pressure.

Cardenas' talk is the kind to strike fear into the hearts of American investors who have around a billion dollars invested there.

Internally, the country is anti-Communist and the government has not hesitated to jail local Communists or to expel Communist diplomats interfering with Mexican internal affairs.

Lopez Mateos has described his government as "far left" but he himself has been moving toward center. His program fits in well with the Alliance for Progress program. He has spent increasingly huge proportions of the national budget for education.

As for Cardenas, he probably would describe himself as less pro-Communist than pro-Mexican. But he and his kind deal with fire if, for politics alone, they seek to divide the country between left and right and undermine confidence in the country's future.

OLD FATHER HUBBARD

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Matthew's unusual comment to his mother reveals many things. For it shows that Matthew has been in Sunday School and that he has also reacted to religious art. He sure to scribble this case and discuss it in Sunday School for many mothers stress stomach menus more than moral menus!

CASE 0-476: Matthew II, aged three, is the oldest child of our daughter Judy. One night as Judy was tucking him into bed, Matthew started her by saying: "Mommy, I feel God inside of me. He is knocking."

For a moment, Judy was puzzled. Then she decided that Matthew must have become conscious of his heart pounding against his ribs and thus was assuming that was God.

Later, Judy figured out where Matthew got the idea that God was knocking on his ribs.

For she remembered the picture in the local Sunday School room where Christ is standing at the gate, knocking.

So Matthew must have put two and two together and come up with the idea that God was knocking on his chest from within.

My main reason for mentioning this deduction by a three-year-old is to show the importance of starting children out with the proper religious outlook.

"Dr. Crane," some belligerent parents have protested to me, "I don't think it is wise to send a child to Sunday School or to make him conform to any religious pattern."

"Instead, I feel it is best to wait till he is grown and then let him decide for himself if he wants to believe in God or attend church."

But that is very unwise! For your good parents don't wait till your youngster is 21 before you teach him proper health habits, including use of his toothbrush.

And you mold him into the good medical pattern of eating vegetables and a diversified menu at the dinner table, don't you?

Here in America you also impose the pattern of speaking English upon his developing mind, and don't keep him mute till 21 so he can then decide whether he wishes to use French, German, Russian or the English language.

So by all means realize that the earlier you can implant idealism and unselfishness and lack of bias, the better it will be for your child.

Many mothers nowadays are growing neurotic about the feeding schedule of their babies but are stunting the souls of their child by failure to start him on his spiritual menu.

"Man does not live by bread alone," states the Bible.

This means it isn't enough for a mother to feed her tot the approved baby foods, plus milk and vitamins.

For you thus can produce a healthy Frankenstein unless you mothers also inculcate idealism and spiritual values.

Furthermore, by the early teens, children reach the peak of their idealism, so don't let those valuable early years remain a barren wasteland or desert regarding religion.

And send your teen-agers to church summer camps so trained leaders can further nourish their youthful idealism.

Take full advantage, too, of the YMCA, the Girl Scouts and Camp Fire Girls organization, plus the 4-H and all such aids to idealism and moral habits.

Send for my 200-point "Tests for Gamed Parents" enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents. Use them for frequent inventory of yourselves.

Let your older children rate you, too, for they may surprise you.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long fire cost stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

Quotes

The sooner this source of potential trouble is eliminated, the better for everyone concerned.

—Secretary of State Dean Rusk, on Russian troops in Cuba.

If we serve them (the nation's youth) better now, they will serve their nation better when the burdens are theirs alone.

—President Kennedy, asking Congress to create a Youth Conservation Corps and a domestic Peace Corps.

Peter Edson

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON—(NEA) — It will have to be shown whether President Kennedy's civil rights message and the civil rights legislation introduced by nine Republican congressmen are mere window dressing—just for the record—or whether they mean business.

What the two programs indicate, however, is that if the liberals in both parties really want some civil rights action, they should form a coalition of their own to buck the conservatives.

The least such a coalition could do is cause a few convictions in the House Rules Committee and force the Senate into another dandy filibuster, now that limitation of debate is dead for two years.

Both the Republicans and Americans for Democratic Action having been needing Kennedy ever since he took office for not sending Congress a comprehensive civil rights program.

Now he has met this challenge with an eight-point legislative program in the most sweeping civil rights message since President Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation 100 years ago.

Three bills covering new recommendations in the fields of voting rights, integrated education and a four-year extension for the Civil Rights Commission, with broadened powers, will be introduced in Congress in the near future. CRC will go out of business Nov. 30 unless given a new lease on life. But this last is believed to have the best chance for congressional approval.

Kennedy's program is far broader than the Republicans' although their plan would be administratively tougher. The GOP calls for making Civil Rights Commission a permanent agency and setting up a new commission on equality of employment opportunity, giving it broad enforcement powers to replace the voluntary compliance now sought by the President's Committee on Equal Employment.

Finally, the GOP would empower the Census Bureau to make a national registration of voting statistics in every state by race, color and national origins. There is nothing like this in the Kennedy program and it is doubtful if this proposal would pass.

Most affirmative declaration in the President's message is probably the first sentence in his section on "public accommodations." He declares that "no act is more contrary to the spirit of our democracy and Constitution — or more rightfully resented by a Negro citizen who seeks only equal treatment — than the barring of that citizen from restaurants, hotels, theaters, recreational areas and other public accommodations and facilities."

If the Kennedy administration continues its efforts to obtain equal treatment for all citizens in public places, this could probably have more impact than any legislation Congress will pass.

The U. S. Supreme Court now has before it several test cases on "sit-in" demonstrations. Decisions upholding equal rights in this area could become as important as the school integration order.

Just as significant as the President's proposals for new courses of action to enforce civil rights is his message inventory of some 20 moves he has made in this field the last two years.

Though the voting referee procedure authorized by the 1960 Civil Rights Act was used in only one Louisiana parish in the 1962 elections, thousands of new voters were registered for the first time in many states.

Sixty school districts were desegregated last year. Teacher training institutes of the National Science Foundation and under the National Defense Education Act were held in integrated colleges.

Beginning next September, integrated schools will be opened on military reservations if such facilities are not available locally. Voluntary integration has been obtained, however, in many federally affected areas receiving government financial aid.

Over 17 million jobs have been voluntarily opened to American workers on a non-discriminatory basis. All government contract jobs have been so opened. The President has directed National Labor Relations Board to take action against discrimination in labor unions.

Segregation in interstate transportation has virtually ceased. All federal recreation areas are open without regard to race. The armed forces and Coast Guard have been fully integrated.

Department of Justice has increased prosecution of police brutality cases. It is challenging "separate but equal" facilities in hospitals built with federal funds. It has intervened to open public schools in Prince Edward County, Va., the only county in the nation in which there are no public schools.

North Orlando Events Planned By Civic Assn.

Events of planned entertainment to be sponsored by the North Orlando Civic Assn. for participation of the entire community were set up at Monday night's meeting of the group in Village Hall.

Plans were made for a Spring Carnival to be held in May and for the annual Fourth of July celebration. Appointed to serve on the Carnival Committee were Art Rhodes, chairman and L. Earl Ashford, Everightson Harville, Mrs. George Summers and Charles Rowell.

Committee chairman appointed for the Fourth of July were Bob Stephenson, fireworks display; Bill Harris, bingo; Bill Hahn, Roy Burke, George Summers and Harris, building booths; Rhodes, Rowell and Mrs. J. D. Grinstead, refreshments; and Mrs. Summers, Mrs. Anton Kreeck, Bill Ryan and Stephenson, activities.

The association also made plans for publishing its own newspaper to be known as "The North Orlando News-ette". Publication date will be in the last week of each month and delivery will be made to each resident. Help is needed with this venture and those interested were asked to contact Mrs. Grinstead.

DeBary Bridge Club Plays 15 Tables

The DeBary Duplicate Bridge Club played 15 tables in two sessions at this week's regular meeting at the Community Center.

Winners of section one, directed by Howard Middleton, were NS, first, Mrs. Ruth Blatt and Phil DeBernard; second, Mrs. Louise Middleton and Mrs. Myrtle Dumbach; third, Mrs. Edna Kelly and Mrs. Arthur Willgoose.

EW, first, Mrs. Myron Acendi and Mrs. Harry Schoby; second, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wheatley; third, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hinkle.

Winners of section two, directed by Mrs. Jessie Fearsall, were NS, first, Mr. and Mrs. George Pearson; second, Mrs. E. E. Anderson and Mrs. Clyde Ramsey; third, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Long.

EW, first, Mrs. A. G. Besom and Mrs. Frank Holder; second, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Matheson; third, Miss Ethel Johnson and R. Guy Chase.

Prior to opening the afternoon play Mrs. Ruth Blatt was presented with a loving cup as winner of the club's two month's series play.

Lyman Spanish Students Attend State Convention

By Jane Casselberry
Twenty first, second and third year Spanish students from Lyman High School attended the State Spanish Club Convention held in Jacksonville last Friday and Saturday.

High schools from all over the state of Florida as well as some Georgia schools were represented.

Carol Dorothy, Lyman senior and State Spanish Club historian, won a superior rating for her memorized "Declaration."

The convention was conducted entirely in Spanish. While in Jacksonville the students stayed at the Jackson Motor Lodge. The local group was accompanied by their teacher, Mrs. Gertrude Jones, and Stanley Sherwin and Robert Jones.

Seniors making the trip were Barbara Brunning, Irene Cook, Carol Dorothy, Cheryl Eddy, Donna Friend, Sharon Lovell, Marjorie McElmurray, Gilda Pettinati, Dorothy Sewell, Sandra Sherwin, Lynette Werner, Jack Finch and Steve Kurvin.

Juniors were Linda Carroll, Kay Clark and Donna McCoy. Sophomores were Catherine Eicher, Ruth Wright, Andrew Hindly and Ralph Humphrey.

Only Lake Michigan of the Great Lakes lies entirely within the United States. The other four form part of the boundary between the United States and Canada and they are controlled jointly by these two nations under a treaty of 1909.

Saturday morning we will sell cookies and cupcakes we will make. We will give the money to our County Council to be used for county projects.

Lake Monroe Jottings . . .

Mrs. H. L. Johnson Hello there. Despite the rain it has been feeling like spring hasn't it? Oh boy, am I glad, too. Hope it is nice weather for the coming weekend. Several things are coming up that we just have to have real nice weather. One thing is Saturday in Leesburg. Hands from all over the state will be there to compete at District. From Sanford will be the Junior High and Seminole High bands, Grace Edwards and I will accompany the High School Band along with Mr. Cowley. Pete Baker will be with the Junior High Group. There is a little clause with the High School Band. They have promised me that they will come home with a superior rating, otherwise they will walk back. I certainly don't want to see them have to do that but a promise is a promise KIDS. They won't let Mr. Cowley down. Our fingers are all crossed for you. As you know our Monroe boy, Charlie Babun, is the captain and he will get to direct the group in a number. I have seen Charles lead them before and I must say he is really good. . . . Tonight is meeting night for the Home Demonstration Club. Come on out and be with us. We will have a demonstration on resuscitation by members of the local Red Cross, Daisy Dowell and I will be hostesses. . . . And don't forget that date for our fashion show? Come see the newest in Bates material and also new fashions made by Seminole County ladies. It is open to the public so hope to see you there. The time is 8 o'clock. . . . Mrs. Adline Brown is in Seminole Memorial Hospital. She is much improved now. So very glad to hear that she is much better. Also glad to hear that Mr. Dunn of the Upsala Road is resting nicely now. He is also in the hospital. So much illness is going around right now. The flu bug has really hit us out this way. Ill now are Sue Thompson, Hal and Joy Wilson, Betty, Pat, Charlene Baker, Melvin and Elizabeth Warren and now their mother, Frances, is ill too. We miss Frances at work in her beauty shop. Hurry and get well Frances. . . . We were sorry to learn of the passing of Mrs. Esalce (Mark) Naugher in Columbus, Ga., last week. She is the mother of Reba Kaeserman. Our sympathy goes out to her family. . . . Dora Harrell tells me that son R. E. (Billie) Harrell has now retired from the Air Force, Bill was a Chief X-ray Technician. He and his wife Margaret (Bobly) are having a house built on the Upsala Road near his parents' home. They have six children. The oldest son is attending the University of Maine and is on the Dean's list and majoring in Science. It is very nice to welcome Bill and his family to Monroe. . . . We want to wish Sidney Hawkins a delayed Happy Birthday. His birthday and our granddaughter's (Cindy) are on the same day. So happy Birthday Sid. . . . Kay Johnson, Pauline Spivey and Mekey O'Dell were hostesses one day last week at a shower for Shirley Eber Compton. Shirley got some very nice gifts. We want to wish her and Aaron the best of everything. . . . Kay and Charles' little girl, Minnie, has been ill but according to Kay she is okay now. Glad to hear it. . . . Our prayer and thoughts will go with Mrs. Emma Vihen next week when she enters Seminole Memorial Hospital for surgery. We will be wishing her a speedy recovery. . . . Don't forget to call me at FA 2-4722 if you have any thing of interest. . . . Our thought this week is a Persian Proverb: He who knows not, and knows not that he knows not, is a fool—shun him. He who knows, and knows that he knows, is wise—follow him.

Longwood 4-H Club Member Reports On Annual Activities

Editors Note: The Longwood 4-H Girls Club, in recognition of National 4-H Week, prepared a report for publication on activities and projects of the club which is printed below in the words of the club reporter:

By Janice Lommler
4-H Club Reporter, Longwood
This week Longwood's 4-H Girls Club, along with clubs over the nation, recognized National 4-H Week. This is the time we look back with pride at the accomplishments we have made in the club and as individuals.

Miss Myrtle Wilson, our county agent and our local leaders, Mrs. Pat Boyles, Mrs. John George, Mrs. Lowell Pettis, Mrs. Ray Ishill and Mrs. Carl Lommler, have given us able leadership and inspiration.

It's hard to say which Christmas party we enjoyed most . . . the Seminole County 4-H Party led by the County Council or the party our Longwood Club planned and enjoyed with friends at the Old Folks Home.

We've been learning many things through demonstrations given by our leaders and the girls. The best of these demonstrations will be given at County Events Day.

Already we are beginning to plan for Dress Revue, a yearly event we all love. Last year a professional model gave us instructions on modeling. Longwood was proud to be hostess for this event last year when it was held around the Lommler pool.

Seminole County Fair was another high event when Longwood girls exhibited their articles we had made and won many ribbons and prize money. We also are proud of the blue ribbons and money we won on our Club Exhibit.

A week later, 11 Longwood Elders and four of our leaders enjoyed 4-H Day at the Florida State Fair in Tampa. We traveled to the Fair by special train.

The 4-H Display in W. J. Hartley's store window shows some of the exhibits from the Seminole County Fair and shows some of the things that we learn at our meetings.

Saturday morning we will sell cookies and cupcakes we will make. We will give the money to our County Council to be used for county projects.

Clay Takes N.Y. By Storm

NEW YORK (UPI) — Unbeaten Cassius Clay, the ring's most colorful heavyweight since the late Max Baer, is taking blasé New York by storm.

In unprecedented numbers, the fans are buying tickets for his fight with New Yorker Doug Jones at Madison Square Garden next Wednesday night.

Matchmaker Teddy Brenner announces, "There'll be a complete sellout of all 18,000 seats b-e-f-o-r-e the day of the fight, for the first time in the new Garden's 23-year history."

Brenner explains that the last Garden pro boxing sellout, 18 years ago, and a couple sellouts before that, were achieved with the help of big fight-day sales.

Twenty-one-year-old Cassius, the world's second-ranking heavyweight contender and new No. 1 sports pop-off guy, loves the impact he is making among New York's 8-million but says: "It's only natural because New Yorkers recognize me as the greatest and are coming to see me fight."

Clay, the "Louisville Lip" who names the round for a knockout and then fulfills the forecast, says third-ranking Jones "must go in six" if he doesn't offend Clay before the fight in case of any offense,

Gloves Title To Detroit

CHICAGO (UPI) — Detroit's amateur boxer leads the team championship today after what might have been the last national Golden Gloves tournament, but individual honors had to go to Omaha's Harley Cooper and Wade Smith of Muncie, Ind.

Cooper, a 23-year-old Air Force sergeant who is the father of seven children, defeated Ronald Marsh of Kansas City and James Taylor of Hollywood, Calif., to win the heavyweight championship with his 50th straight triumph, covering seven years.

Smith, a welterweight who won the National AAU crown last year, revenged himself for losses of the Golden Gloves crown when he defeated Rory O'Shea, one of three brothers who have held Chicago and national crowns, in a rematch of last year's title bout. O'Shea was the only defending champion who advanced as far as the semi-finals Wednesday night.

Decide Placing

STOCKHOLM (UPI) — Goal difference will be the deciding factor in determining placings for the world ice hockey championships if two or more teams tie for positions after the schedule has been completed, it was announced today by the tournament's organizers.

however, the seer of swat may pick an earlier round, "including the first."

Public confidence in Cassius as a prophet is reflected in the betting price of 16-5 favoring him.

Clay seeks his 15th consecutive victory as a professional heavyweight and 15th knockout.

Jones, 28, has scored 13 knockouts while winning 21 bouts, losing three and drawing one. He never was stopped.

WAVE OF THE FUTURE

Quarter Horse Fans Get Break Tonight

Tonight's card at Seminole Park will give the quarter horse fans a break with the program calling for six quarter horse races and three harness goes.

Liza Sa and Joe Hoddy will be going in the featured 350 yard quarter horse romp. Both horses are previous winners at Seminole and are the favorites in this race. Other strong contenders in the field of seven starters will be Bobbie Jo Reed and Blaze Bay Reed.

Coro Empire Top Favorite At Kennel Club

Coro Empire, with five wins in the bag, is the morning line five to two favorite in the featured race at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club tonight. The fast 68-pound red brindle, owned by June Gillie, has already scored three times in Grade A events, one of them a daylight feature.

Rounding out the field in the evening's top attraction will be Darling Darlene, Hello Charlie, Markov Brandy, B. Bright, Rocker Chair Jean, Rock Flight and Mike Secretary.

Rock Flight is a four-time winner and he has been a quinella factor six times in 11 tries. He should be a formidable opponent for he has already triumphed in one main event. Mike Secretary is a three-time winner, while all other entries have romped home first twice each.

Three greyhound stars from Jacksonville created a great deal of fan interest last night when they schooled over the local oval in preparation for the second inter-city match race here Saturday night. They were Velvet Six, winner of the first inter-city match at Jacksonville last Saturday, and June Moore and Rose Rosella, who finished fourth and fifth respectively.

Representing the SOCK in the inter-city clash Saturday will be Texas Lace, Denny Mac and Little Rhonda.

Only Won 299

Wynn Tries 'Comeback'

United Press International One of baseball's most dramatic moments of 1963 could be written today when burlly Early Wynn begins his comeback attempt.

Wynn, a 43-year-old veteran who fell one short of his 300-game victory goal last season, was unconditionally released by the Chicago White Sox at the end of 1962.

Knowing one more victory will make him virtually an automatic selection to the Hall of Fame, Wynn tried to land a job with other major league clubs. But nobody seemed to care for a guy who had chalked up "only" 299 wins.

White Sox manager Al Lopez finally agreed to give Wynn a comeback shot if he made good at the Chicago camp. The righthander takes the test today when he starts in an intra-squad game, the last six-inning contest before the regular exhibition grind opens Saturday.

Cincinnati provides the White Sox opposition. Red's manager Fred Hutchinson has announced that Jim O'Toole, Jim Owens and Ken Hunt will toe the mound against Chicago.

Fullmer Wins Boxing Award

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (UPI) — Gene Fullmer, former middleweight champion, was named "boxer of the month" today by the World Boxing Association because of his impressive attempt to recapture the title on Feb. 22.

Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, held champion Dick Tiger of Nigeria to a surprise 15-round draw in their return title bout at Las Vegas, Nev. Tiger kept his 160-pound crown.

Don Looking To 'Cause' Cage Stir Again

By United Press International The University of San Francisco, which set the college basketball world on fire in the mid 1950's, is seeking to light the torch once again.

San Francisco still holds the all-time record for a college team of 60 wins in a row stretching from 1954 to 1966, including two straight NCAA championships. Leading the team in those banner years were Bill Russell and K. C. Jones, current stars with the professional champion Boston Celtics.

The Dons never could reach the same peak again, but still may cause a stir if they reach the NCAA tourney next week.

They moved into good position to do just that by turning back San Jose State, 81-66, on their home court Wednesday night. The triumph pushed the Dons back into a first place tie with Santa Clara in the West Coast Athletic Conference. The two top teams meet in a showdown game Saturday night with an NCAA berth awaiting the winner, and San Francisco will have the all-important home court advantage.

Villanova and Marquette, both of whom will play in the National Invitation Tournament, warmed up for the task with victories Wednesday night but Cassius, also headed for the New York tourney, was beaten by Dayton, 75-64.

Villanova snapped Seon Hall's 18-game home court winning streak, 71-64, as Wally Jones scored 38 points; Dick Nixon tallied 20 points to lead Marquette to a 74-68 triumph over Creighton; and Dayton coasted to victory over Canisius after opening a comfortable nine-point half-time lead.

Dave Lee scored 19 points for San Francisco and Ollie Johnson added 15 as the defense-minded Dons held San Jose to only 15 points in the first half. Dennis Bates of San Jose shared game honors with Lee by registering 19 points.

Resume Training Seen For Sonny

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — Sonny Liston's manager said early today that he expected the heavyweight champion will "receive a green light" to resume training Saturday after a thorough physical examination by Dr. Duke Baird of Miami.

Jack Nilon said the heavyweight champion will be examined for the second time in 24 hours by Dr. Baird this afternoon and added, "we expect Sonny to be cleared and given a go-ahead to resume training Saturday."

Liston's return title bout with Floyd Patterson, from whom he won the crown on a one-round knockout last September 25, has already been switched from April 4 to April 10 because of the champion's injury to his right knee.

The Miami Herald reported today that there was a possibility of an operation on the knee but Nilon discounted the report.

"No operation is likely," he said. "The fight is not in danger. We are confident that Sonny will be declared okay and resume training on Saturday."

Nilon said that Dr. Baird had given Liston an encouraging report on Wednesday but wanted to make another examination before giving a final okay to resume training.

Palmer, Player (Well, Natch) Golf Play Choice

PENSACOLA, Fla. (UPI) — Defending champion Doug Sanders tees off in the $25,000 Pensacola Open golf tournament today determined to prove it just takes a jinx to win.

A field of 149 pros and 16 amateurs, including Downing Gray, 1962 National Amateur runner-up and top amateur here for the past three years, compete in the event over the 6,400-yard Country Club course hard on the Gulf of Mexico.

Sanders, a hustling Georgian, won the tournament last year with a 14-under-par 207 after gashing his left foot.

He arrived at the course by ambulance for the second round and won the tournament while two Navy medics followed him with bandages and medicine.

Packing up after the Bing Crosby Open at Los Angeles two months ago, Sanders broke the little finger on his left hand picking up a suitcase. His first start since the mishap was at New Orleans where he tied for fourth money.

Sanders views his hard luck somewhat pessimistically. "If I became a watermelon farmer, picnics would go out of style," he said. "But," he added with a touch of optimism, "I'm hoping to repeat here."

But the experts figure Sanders' handicap may be too much of a drawback in the formidable competition. They established Arnold Palmer, Gary Player and Bo Wingger as the early favorites.

Palmer fired a six-under-par 66 Wednesday to post the lowest individual score in a pro-am event over the Naval Air Station course. Palmer's team, including three amateurs, finished in a three-way tie for first place with similar groups headed by pros Chandler Harper, Portsmouth, Va., and John Langford, Enid, Okla.

Palmer, who won here in 1960, has won two top prizes on the winter tour and currently is in second place among the money winners. Player heads the earnings list with more than $20,000. Wingger picked up $6,400 top money in the New Orleans tournament for his third victory in less than a year.

Dear Abby:

DEAR ABBY: I just got out of Law School, passed the State Bar examination and am working for a collection agency. My girl has been after me to buy her an engagement ring. Abby, I told this girl that as far as I am concerned we are officially engaged and I will marry her as soon as I can afford it, but I don't have the money to buy her even the tiniest diamond now. She says it is not the size of the diamond that counts, it's the thought. What should I do?

STRUGGLING LAWYER

DEAR STRUGGLING: If it's the THOUGHT... tell her you'll THINK about it.

DEAR ABBY: I am a young widow (35) and live alone. A very distinguished bachelor in this community attends the same church as I. He asked me out and I had the most wonderful time and I think he did, too. He invited me out again and we seemed to hit it off so well. Then he never called me again. He seems friendly at church but that's as far as it goes. The other day I was talking to a friend of his. He told me this man made a habit of dating a woman two or three times and if he thought she was getting serious about him he'd drop her. Abby, how could a man know after two dates if a woman was getting "serious" about him. I made no overtures and was anything but forward. I just enjoyed his company and wanted to see him again. Does this make sense to you?

CURIOUS

DEAR CURIOUS: Your distinguished bachelor friend explained his strategy inaccurately. He meant when he felt himself getting serious about a woman, he'd drop HER. His type is common. He's afraid of marriage. If a man with his philosophy ever got hooked in a weak moment, heaven help his wife.

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My problem may not seem very serious but it means a lot to me. I like two boys very much and I have to make a choice. One is an usher. He is real neat but he doesn't look so hot out of his suit. I can't explain it, but I seem to like the usher more when he is working and has that suit on. The other boy looks good to me all the time. Which one should I choose?

TEEN TROUBLE

DEAR TEEN: If you like the usher better in his "suit" — the other boy probably suits you better. You have a touch of uniform-fever, not uncommon in girls your age.

CONFIDENTIAL TO MILTON: Didn't your father ever tell you that mankind is divided into two classes: those who earn their living by the sweat of their brow, and those who sell them cold drinks, electric fans and air-conditioning?

Stop worrying. Write to Abby. For a personal reply enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

We The Women: By Ruth Millett

One of the leading women's magazines recently had an article titled "Ten Ways to Keep a Husband—Young." Perhaps that's a straw in the wind indicating that in the future the stress on staying young is going to include men as well as women.

So far as staying young is concerned, women just about have it made. Few women today grow old from heavy physical labor, thanks to the wonderful work savers in the home.

And with wigs, hair dyes, cover-up cosmetics, dieting, exercising and colorful clothes, any woman who puts her mind to it can look years younger than she is.

Furthermore, women tend to look after their health better than men. They are more inclined to make use of the wonderful advances in medicine, and are outliving men by quite a few years.

So until the fountain of youth is discovered, women in general are doing just about all in their power to stay young.

But in this drive for youth, the men have been pretty much ignored. The attitude has been, "Never mind if papa works harder than he should providing luxuries for his family. Just see that he is well insured so that the family can go on living it up even after he is gone."

Never mind if papa is tied to a desk while mama is exercising in a reducing salon, or if he eats heavy, fattening foods while mama sticks to a low-calorie diet. Because the fun part of a job has been "keep your husband" — not "keep him as young as you are managing to stay."

But perhaps there are now enough young-looking widows around to make wives wonder if it isn't just as important to keep a husband young and in good health as to stay young and energetic themselves. After all, what's so wonderful about being the youngest-looking widow on the block?

Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

Looking at the opening lead, I came up with two distinctly different analyses. Either West had opened a short suit or he had led from the king to make me decide whether to finesse at trick one.

Assuming a short suit lead, how could I make the hand? I could play the ace of diamonds, cash my ace and king of hearts and discard a club from dummy, cash the ace of clubs, and then do a little crossruffing. Eventually, I could afford to let the queen of spades make, but if I could make eight of the nine trumps in my hand and dummy I would have the 12 tricks for a slam.

The only danger would be in getting overruffed by the queen. A second trump lead would hold me to seven trump tricks.

Therefore, I must plan plays that would be most likely to prevent this. Here is the one I worked out.

I won the diamond, led a heart to my ace and discarded a club on the king of hearts. Then I ruffed a heart, led a club to my ace and ruffed a club with dummy's ace of spades. This play looked silly, but I could afford it as I was trying for six, not seven. Next I ruffed a diamond with my king of spades and my last club with dummy's five of spades.

I didn't care if this one was overruled. I had succeeded in trumping all my losers and it didn't matter when the queen of spades made.

TV Previews

8:30 p.m. CBS. Perry Mason. "The Case of the Golden Oranges." This is a red letter night for Masonites as star Raymond Burr returns as his courtroom jousting after a tilt with a minor operation. The living room lawyer gets into the swing by taking a doggy ease for a starter. The dog is the focal point in a feud between an orange grower and a real-estate operator, ending with the latter's murder. The farmer's granddaughter is accused of the killing. Perry takes her defense and uses the pooch to halt the prosecution. Arthur Hunicutt and Natalie Trundy are featured with regulars Barbara Hale, William Hopper and William Talman.

8:30-9:30 p.m. NBC. Dr. Kildare. "Face of Fear." Dr. Kildare (Richard Chamberlain) interlards himself in a lab technician (Robert Culp) who fears he is going insane. Indeed, he physically attacks Kildare who, nevertheless, searches for him when he vanishes, leaving a most pretty but distraught wife (Marjette Hartley). Culp is very believable in his disturbed role and good as his overly protective aunt is Mary Astor.

Celebrity Series, Inc.
P. O. BOX 1728 ORLANDO, FLORIDA

CELEBRITY SERIES, INC., a new Orlando firm, takes pleasure in announcing its 1963-64 season. Since the Municipal Auditorium has been air-conditioned, the musical season will be extended to commence in October. With the new concert-hall to be completed within the next 18 months, this series will keep pace with the cultural progress of our city. The programs are designed to present the most eminent collection of international artists. We are confident these high standards will continue to make Orlando the cultural center of the State. These concerts will be presented at popular prices with the cost ranging from $1.25 to $4.25 per concert on subscription and are offered on a reserved seat basis only. You may order tickets by mailing the ticket-order form to Celebrity Series, Inc., by calling Garden 4-6469, or select your seats from a floor-plan of the Auditorium which is available at Sussman-Kassman in downtown Orlando and the Bookery in Winter Park.

Miss Mary Kay Carpenter Marries Robert E. Pacetti In Winter Park

By Shirley A. Wentworth
 Mary Kay Carpenter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Carpenter, of 6626 Bear Lake Terrace became the bride of Robert Edward Pacetti, son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Pacetti of Orlando Feb. 15 at a ceremony performed by Fr. John Wells at St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church in Winter Park.

The bride wore a gown of silk peau de soie with pearl trim. The fitted bodice featured a shallow scoop neckline outlined with pearls and was enhanced by a single strand of pearls. Her control shaped skirt was accented with a soft side drape falling into a brush train.

The elegant simplicity of the gown was highlighted by a fingertip silk illusion attached to a single peau de soie rose with velvet leaves. She carried a bouquet of white roses centered with an orchid and a cascade of white streamers.

 Matron of honor was the sister of the bride Mrs. A. L. Barrett of Orlando. She chose a royal purple street length sheath with short waist accenting pouf. Her matching shoes, pillbox hat and veil completed the ensemble. In her white-gloved hands she carried a bouquet of white carnations and pastel colored sweet peas.

Mother of the bride wore a gold lame sheath with matching jacket. A gold heirloom necklace and champagne shoes, purse and gloves complimented her costume. Mrs. Carpenter chose a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses.

The groom's mother wore an attractive olive green shantung dress featuring a waist-length jacket with beige accessories and white gloves. Mrs. Pacetti also chose a corsage of yellow roses.

Best man was the groom's brother, William C. Pacetti of Winter Park. Ushers were Lawrence Serquest and Charles Herold, both of Orlando.

A reception was held at the Elks Club in Orlando. The bride born in Milwaukee, Wis., graduated two years ago from Edgewater High School and has been employed at the Allerton Public Library in Orlando.

The groom, a native of West Palm Beach attended schools there and is a graduate of Edgewater High School. He is now a member of the Air Force in Jet Mechanics stationed at Shaw Air Force Base in Sumter, S. C.

After a honeymoon to the East Coast the couple will make their home in Sumter. Guests from out of state were Mr. and Mrs. John Matherson, Pompano Beach and Long Island, New York, Mrs. Alice Wagner from Buffalo, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Francis, Washington, D. C. and Mr. and Mrs. Elton Zickert and Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Wittchow from Wisconsin.

USE FOR OLD CARDS
 Take your old Christmas cards and make tags for next year's presents. Trim the edges with pinking shears, punch a hole, slip Christmas strings through the holes as a tie.

When mending a knitted garment, place the torn part over a hair brush, bristle side up. The bristles will hold the material and prevent the yarn from stretching while you mend.

MRS. ROBERT EDWARD PACETTI

DeBary Personals

By Mrs. Adam Muller
 Mrs. L. Masuch of Monroe Avenue has returned from a two and one half months visit with her children, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Masuch, in Livingston, N. J., while there Mrs. Masuch attended the wedding of her niece, Miss Linda Klump, to Craig Mundt in Maplewood, N. J.

 Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey King of Lila Drive have as their houseguests, Mrs. King's sister, Mrs. Edward A. Class, of Chagrin Falls, and her daughter, Mrs. Paul Feick.

Mrs. H. H. Grier Hostess For Fidelis Class

Nineteen members of the Fidelis Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church and one visitor, Mrs. O. E. Flanders, met at the Lake Monroe home of Mrs. H. H. Grier for the monthly business and social meeting.

Mrs. C. E. Chanlot led the devotions. Members voted to make a contribution to the building fund of the church in memory of Mrs. N. L. Bishop who died recently. It was also voted to give $5 to the GA Assembly fund and to save trading stamps to assist in sending a girl to the GA Assembly.

During the social hour a game called "George Washington" was played with the prize going to Mrs. Durwood Walker. Refreshments of cake, nuts and coffee were served by the hostess.

Other members present were Meses. Ray Slaton, Ruby Speers, Roy Britt, Marvin Millam, H. E. McSwain, W. E. Giles, A. L. Thomas, Clayton Smith, Joe Koke, Clyde Humphrey, J. D. Cordell, J. P. Cullen, S. J. Brooks, E. H. Rodgers, W. T. Cavanaugh and Irving Pryor.

Shipwreck Party Planned This Saturday

The CPO Wives Club will hold a Shipwreck Party Saturday at the NAS Ballroom. A covered dish supper will be served at 7 p.m. followed by dancing and other entertainment.

Members are asked to dress in shipwreck attire. Prizes will be awarded for a man and a woman with the most appropriate costumes. Committee members in charge of the affair are Mrs. L. H. Driscoll, Mrs. George Mirelis, Mrs. Henry Quinn, and Mrs. D. P. Siglin. A fun filled evening is promised and all members are urged to attend.

Zeta Xi Members Entertain For Rushees

The Zeta Xi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held its Spring Rush party at the home of the director, Mrs. Phil R. Bach, in Loch Arbor.

A buffet fried chicken supper was served and a gypsy theme was carried out in decorations and costumes. All sorority members and rushees were dressed for the part with gay colored skirts and were weighted down with bracelets, necklaces and earrings.

The gypsy theme was carried out in the party rooms with various colored candles and other items including a large crystal ball on one table. Mrs. Alvin Kilpatrick was "palmist" for the evening and everyone enjoyed having their fortune told by "Sister Martha."

The prize for the best dressed gypsy was won by Mrs. L. J. Linnekugel and Mrs. George Beera won the door prize. Both were rushees. Other rushees were Mrs. Somas Russell, Mrs. Richard Bradley and Mrs. Mildred Turner.

Ellen Campbell Celebrates Sixth Birthday

By Mona Grinstead
 Ellen Marie Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malvin Campbell, North Third St., North Orlando, celebrated her sixth birthday recently.

The special celebration began early on the morning of her birthday when she received a hike from her parents and brothers, John and Paul.

The afternoon was enjoyed with some of her friends visiting the Campbell home for birthday cake and ice cream. Ellen opened her gifts as the group sang "Happy Birthday" to her.

Others helping with the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Anton Kreck and children, Debra, Mike and Jeff, and neighbors, Duncan and Timmy Grinstead.

Renee Berg Celebrates Birthday

By Shirley Wentworth
 Little Miss Renee Berg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard C. Berg, was guest of honor at a skating party on her seventh birthday recently.

Her parents invited a group of playmates to their home on York Way in Bretton Woods and took them for a skating session at Skate City in Longwood.

Following the afternoon of fun the group returned to the Berg home for a dinner of fried chicken with all the trimmings including birthday cake and ice cream.

Guests sharing the celebration were Marsha, Debbie and Bret Segrest, Elaine Malone, Suzette and Kent Berg, Mr. and Mrs. William Segrest assisted Mrs. Berg with the transportation and entertaining.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN MELROSE

Garden Gate

JACARANDA CIRCLE
 By Mrs. C. M. Flowers

Now is the time to plant annuals in your garden. Seeding plants are ready and will give you almost instant color. Annuals require sun, for the most part, and water and fertilizer while growing. They pay big dividends in flowers to brighten your winter brown garden, or for cutting for indoor bouquets.

Prepare a bed first. Dig out old soil to six or eight inches and work into the area generous amounts of humus (compost or peat moss) and dehydrated manure of dairy, sheep or poultry origin. Mix well and water to settle.

Most soils contain the three major elements needed for plant growth: nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium. But most soils release these elements very slowly — therefore, the addition of fertilizer containing these same major elements is usually necessary in order to meet the needs of growing plants.

Measure the space so you can estimate how many plants you need. Your nurseryman will tell you how far apart to space them. Allow a few extra plants for you always lose some.

Dig deep enough to set plants straight down and press soil around them. Do your planting on a cloudy day or late in the afternoon, and keep soil moist but not soaking until plants are established.

As they grow, pinch out the tips, allowing four pairs of leaves to remain, to encourage branching. Apply diluted liquid fertilizer every two weeks.

New Arrivals

Mrs. Louise Stimunek
 Mr. and Mrs. Jay Neff of Springlake Dr., Altamonte Springs, announce the birth of twin sons, Jon Kevin and Jack Darin who arrived last Tuesday, Feb. 26, at the Winter Park Hospital each weighing five pounds, one-and-one-half ounces.

They were welcomed home last Sunday by brothers, Jay, five and Jeffrey, two.

Maternal grandmother is Mrs. Daisy Taylor of Baltimore, Md. and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Neff of Gothen, Ind.

Women outnumber men among teachers, clerical workers and retail store sales workers, according to U. S. census.

Couple Honored At Open House

Mr. and Mrs. John Melrose celebrated their 52nd wedding anniversary recently with an open house reception at their home on Butler Lake in Osteen.

The Melroses were married Feb. 23, 1911, in a home ceremony in Prescott, Mich. They came to Osteen five years ago from Owosso, Mich. They still maintain a home in Owosso but spend the winter months in Florida.

They have three sons, Clifford of Barnadaville, N. C. Merrell of Owosso, and Warren of Langsburg, Mich. They also have 12 grandchildren.

Percy Newman Visits Friends In Enterprise

By Helen Snodgrass
 Percy A. Newman of Mobile, Ala., was the overnight guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Jones recently. He also visited other friends in the Enterprise section.

Percy retired from the Air Force in December. Mrs. Newman will be remembered as the former Rose Allen, daughter of Chief and Mrs. R. V. Allen, of the Florida Power Corp. plant for several years. She and the children made their home in Enterprise during the early years of his overseas duty.

Homemakers

Well, a nice Thursday to you (I hope) (weatherwise). I have received some very nice letters this week and am so proud of them. Thank you very much. I also have a correction from Louise Poulton who sent in the recipe for No Bake Cookies. She had omitted the sweetest thing in the recipe, sugar. She said that she is very sorry for the mistake and to add two cups of granulated sugar to the recipe. So let's give it again.

2 cups sugar
 1/2 lb. oleo (stick)
 1/2 cup sweet milk
 3 tbsps. cocoa

Mix, bring to good boil, watch and don't boil over. Set off flame for few minutes—add 3 cups rolled oats and 1/2 cup peanut butter. Mix all together and drop by spoonfuls on waxed paper, cool and eat.

Louise has requested a recipe for Vinegar Pie. So I found this one. Hope you like it.

3 eggs, beat well
 6 tbsps. vinegar
 3 tbsps. flour
 1 cup boiling water
 1 cup sugar
 3 tbsps. butter
 1 tsp. lemon

Bake in one crust.

Here is another Lenten meal. Drain 1 pint of oysters. Fry in 1 cup butter. Add 4 beaten eggs and scramble well. You can serve this with French fries and tossed salad.

We have a lady asking about the Home Demonstration Clubs. She would like to join one. Here is a list of all clubs in the county and their meeting dates. Sanford Club, last Thursday of each month, 2 p.m. at the IHD Center on 25th St.; Seminole Evening, third Monday at 7:45 p.m. at the Center; Geneva, second Wednesday at 10 a.m. at the Geneva Canning Kitchen; Lako Mary, second Tuesday, 10 a.m. at the Fire Hall; Lake Monroe, first Thursday, 7:30 p.m. at the Upsala Presbyterian Church Educational Building on 20th St. and Ridge Road; Elmer Springs, second Wednesday, 9:30 a.m. at the Center; Oviedo, third Friday at 9:30 a.m. at the Oviedo Canning Kitchen; Bear Lake, fourth Tuesday at the various members' homes; Longwood, first, Thursday, 10 a.m. at the Civic Center in Longwood. Any lady in the county is welcome at any time to come to one of the meetings. So feel free to do so.

Louise Poulton sent in this Lenten dish.

Salmon Scalloped
 2 tbsps. butter
 2 tbsps. flour
 1/4 tsp. paprika
 1/4 tsp. salt

Cream slowly on low fire, add 1 1/2 cups milk, cook on low heat then add:
 2 tbsps. finely chopped mango (1/4 mango)

1 beaten egg
 2 cups salmon
 1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
 1/2 cup bread crumbs

Add 1/4 of the cup of crumbs and the rest you add on top and bake in 350 degree oven for 1/2 hour. Dot with butter.

She said that tuna fish could be substituted if desired.

Here is a Hot Slaw recipe from a lady in Michigan.
 2 slightly beaten egg yolks
 1/4 cup water
 1/4 cup vinegar
 1 tsp. butter
 1 tsp. sugar
 1/4 tsp. salt

Mix together, cook over low heat stirring constantly until mixture thickens. Add 3 cups of shredded cabbage and reheat.

Since cabbage is plentiful right now we have a recipe made with red cabbage.

Spiced Red Cabbage
 1 medium red cabbage
 Cook for 10 minutes. Drain.

Add:
 3 tbsps. butter
 1 or 2 chopped apples
 6 or 8 whole cloves
 1/2 cup hot water
 1/2 cup vinegar
 1 tsp. salt
 1/4 cup sugar

Corner

Simmer for 20 minutes. This sounds real good. I'm going to try it right away.

Applesauce Chiffon Pie
 3 cups sweetened applesauce
 1 pkg. gelatin — strawberry, lemon or raspberry
 1 pkg. cream cheese

Heat sauce, pour over gelatin stirring until dissolved. Chill until slightly thickened. Pour into baked pie shell and chill until firm. Top with cream cheese that has been blended with cream.

March—the windy month—is also egg month. In March, eggs take the featured spot on the USDA list of plentiful foods. The plentiful supply of eggs in March ties in nicely with the Lenten season. It offers homemakers an economical protein food that can be made into hearty appetizing main dishes.

Two other popular main dish partners, also on the March list of plentiful foods, are pork and dry beans. With the bulk of the fall pork production coming to market during March, April and May—you'll find abundant supplies of fresh pork at reasonable prices.

According to the National Cotton Council—Textured Cottons set Spring Fashion Pace—The fashion story for spring '65 is clearly in the fabrics—color, pattern and texture. The newest look is handloomed cotton textures, rustic and dimensional, or open and airy. Fabrics alone determine the personality of many styles this season, especially evening wear is undistinguishable from "naturals".

designed for town travel, versatile cottons give a new look to each style.

Cotton fabrics and styles for the very young fashionables "copy cat" those of big sister and Mom this spring also. Deep ribbed utomans and piques are borrowed from the fashion world of adults—looking especially grown-up in "natural" dresses. Cotton knits for little girls travel beyond the realm of sportswear—now they are seen in coats and Sunday-best dresses.

Cotton knitwear consumers can look forward to longer-wearing garments as a result of a recently-licensed shrinkage-control procedure that guarantees less than one percent shrinkage.

We know that spring is almost here and I guess you homemakers are getting in the sewing mood, so when you go to buy your material be sure to check the new labels. I am sure you will find some very wonderful new materials.

You can easily and quickly dramatize a picture window or decorate an awkward corner with big handsome and long-lasting foliage plants, such as philodendron, peristyle, Rex begonia, dieffenbachia Roehrsi or schefflera. Select foliage plants in proper scale to the room and to the location in the room where they are to be displayed.

No performance of a copy-righted play may be given without permission, even though the performances are free to the public.

THE FRIENDSHIP LEAGUE of the Congregational Christian Church is sponsoring an old fashioned "New England Baked Dinner," this Saturday at the Church, 24th and Park Ave. Serving will be from 5 to 7 p.m. The public is invited and tickets may be obtained from any member or at the door. Mrs. Lillian Andrews, left, is general chairman of the dinner, Mrs. William F. Burtche, center, is president of the League and Mrs. Alice McMillan, right is the co-chairman. (Herald Photo)

Girl Scouts Hear Formosa Native

By Frances Westler
Mrs. B. H. Williams, a native of Formosa, was special guest speaker at last Thursday afternoon's meeting of Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 85 held in the auditorium of the Lake Mary Elementary School.

Mrs. Thomas A. Best, troop leader, was in charge of the program arranged as an advanced preparation of National Girl Scout Week which Troop 85 along with all Girl Scout and Brownie Troops will celebrate next week.

Mrs. Williams is the sister-in-law of Mrs. Best. She graduated from the University at Taipei, the capital of Formosa, and then came to America as an exchange student to further her education at Duke University in North Carolina. That is where she met Capt. Williams, whom she married. They now live in New York, where he is stationed at Stewart Air Force Base on the Hudson River not far from West Point.

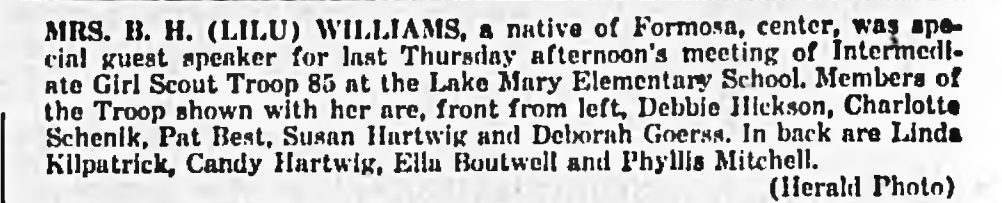

Speaking a few sentences in Chinese and then translating them, Mrs. Williams, whose name is Liliu, also wrote some Chinese sentences, so the girls could hear and see the difference in the languages. Very attractive and sturdily dressed in a scarlet wool suit with a black fur collar, Mrs. Williams made a striking appearance and proved that the Chinese girls of today are very up-to-date in the latest styles. She also wore a native black brocade satin coat, cut very straight.

Her brother-in-law is a merchant in Hong Kong. The old Chinese traditional dress is fast fading out of the picture and Western dress is accepted now, she explained. Mrs. Williams was also a Girl Scout when she was younger. She related the differences in the life of girls here and in her homeland. There they all wear uniforms to school and carry their lunch, through the third grade. Then from the third grade through the sixth grade they buy sandwiches and their drink in a kind of cafeteria; but no hot lunches are served.

The Government sponsors the children's education through the sixth grade. After that it is up to the parents and they can go on and finish college only if the parents are wealthy. The contrast between the poor and the wealthy class is very distinct. Wages are paid by the month, not the week. In this country we could get along only two or three days on what they live on for a whole month. The girls are very modest and retiring. They use no make-up and have no permanent waves, even in college. They belong to a very close-knit family group and there is no outside running around. They attend school six days a week and school and the home-life chores are their only activities. Holidays are spent together as a family group. Older members are quite respected and obeyed. When the children marry they move in with the husbands' family and all work together. Anything that comes in belongs to the whole family. Help is very cheap and the aged are relieved of work burdens and are respected and honored.

Following her talk, Mrs. Williams conducted a question and answer period, and was quite amazed at some of the questions asked by the fifth and sixth grade girls. In China they do not think about politics at that age. It seems that American children are introduced to world affairs much sooner. She stressed the fact that Formosa is a republic. Although fighting is going on all the time with the Communists, they pay no attention to it, but Formosa will be in quite a spot if the Communists win. She explained that Formosa is an agricultural island which exports foodstuffs to Japan and the other islands.

Troop members were very attentive during the talk and all were present except one who was absent due to illness. Present were: Lynette Schooley, Ellen Lemons, Brenda Izzard, Patti Mar Riley, Paulette Gorman, Charlotte Schenk, Patricia Best, Patty McCoy, Martha McCoy, Candy Hartwig, Linda Kilpatrick, Susan Brooklyn, Vera Bedwell, Susan Hartwig, Della Boutwell, Phyllis Mitchell, Pan Kingsbury, Debra Goerss, Debbie Hickson, Mrs. Cleo Schenk, assistant troop leader, and Mrs. Martha Kilpatrick, troop assistant.

'Bozo The Clown' Vacations In Area

By Shirley Westworth
The word "clown" may mean many things to many people . . . excitement, circus, color. The magic name of the original "Bozo The Clown" means even more to the thousands of people remembering the inimitable clown that rode around in his midjet automobile bringing laughter and gaiety to the circus.

Bozo the Clown in real life is Stephen G. Brenner who through the years has entertained in about every medium of the entertainment world. He just recently left for Lakeland before going north after spending some six weeks vacation in Bear Lake Manor with his son, Gerald Brenner and his family.

Now in his 60th year, Brenner is still playing an active part in his beloved role as clown, bringing many a smile to the under-privileged and crippled children in hospitals and institutions. A smile from lips that understand too little, but enough to show the power of laughter, works a special magic all its own.

Brenner, a native of Baltimore, began his career at the age of eleven when he ran away from home to join the circus. He was duly returned, only to run away again as the magic of circus life beckoned. He started learning first the walking the slack and then the tight rope high wire. From circus life he went on to bit parts in burlesque and worked in vaudeville as a black-faced comedian and became famous for his rendition of "Shaky Eyes". In 1914 he again joined a circus. This time the Barnum and Bailey outfit as a clown and thus began the colorful career of "Bozo the Clown."

From 1918-1919 Bozo joined the traveling troupe of William F. Cody the famous "Buffalo Bill" road show. From here he traveled with the Miller Brothers 1001 Ranch Wild West Show touring the USA.

In 1943, after clowning with various shows, Bozo joined Ringling Brothers for the one season and then left circus life. Today the one and only, the original Bozo, concentrates his mimicry magic entertaining young and old in hospitals all over the USA. Dressed in one of his fifteen clown costumes and using one of his seven voices in one of his ten dialects, Bozo thrills all children with the classic favorite a "Punch and Judy" show.

He recently captured the rapt attention of the Bear Lake Elementary School children entertaining them with a magic show featuring Bozo as "The World's Worst Magician." Anything can happen and usually does. Bozo encourages audience participation in performing his mysterious and varied magical mysteries adding much more to the merriment.

Bozo the Clown is a delightful personality one finds himself instantly under the spell of a pantomimist, old time clog dancer, magician and first and foremost a sense of humor that is captured wholly in "Bozo the Clown."

A quote of this memorable figure "I've had a lot of fun going through life," shows clearly in the lines that the many years of laughter has imprinted on his friendly flexible face. Brenner makes his home in Baltimore but spends some time visiting his sons in Florida and traveling around fulfilling entertainment dates. His next appearance will be on March 20 in the Harriet Lane Ward of the John Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore.

BOZO THE CLOWN

engagements include an appearance before the Delta Kappa Gamma, Teacher's Honor Society at the Langford Hotel on April 6. Dr. Honasa is well known to Central Florida music lovers for his ability to turn these youngsters into talented singers and as former director of the Hollins Chapel Choir in Bach Festival.

Any boy or girl in the area with a desire to join the group is invited to contact Dr. Honasa for an audition.

SSJH Legion Award Winners Are Named

Winners have been announced in the election held at South Seminole Junior High School last week to determine the recipients of the American Legion School Medal Awards donated by Memorial Post 256 of Casselberry.

They were Miss Cynthia Legg for ninth grade girls, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Legg, 2009 Derbyshire Rd., Maitland; Les Lyle, ninth grade boys, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil G. Lyle, 3128 Holiday Ave., Apopka. Runners up were Mary Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Peterson, 5188 Lake Howell Rd., Winter Park, ninth grade girls and Stephen Brady, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry L. Brady, 143 Willow Court, Maitland.

Awards are given to the boy and girl in the graduating class of junior high schools who are chosen by their fellow classmates and the faculty in a secret ballot on the basis of scholarship, honor, courage, leadership and service.

Republican Club To Hear Fortune

The Seminole County Young Republican Club will meet at 8 p. m. next Tuesday at the new meeting place, Hefler Homes Sales Office in Howell Park, which is located one mile east of Hwy. 17-92 on SR 436.

Firemen Build New Tables For Dinner

The menu will include Southern fried chicken, mashed potatoes and gravy, coleslaw, peas and carrots, coffee, rolls and cupcakes. Tickets may be purchased at the dinner or in advance by phoning L. L. Cox, ticket chairman, who will arrange to have the tickets and dinners delivered if desired. Takeouts and home deliveries also will be available from the Park anytime during the four hour serving period.

JaP Fortune, Republican candidate for the State Legislature subject to the special election on March 26, will speak on campaign issues. There will be a short business meeting and Miss Audrey Flynn, president, will give a resume of two meetings which she attended last month, the Fifth District meeting of the Young Republican Club held at Daytona Beach and the Quarterly Meeting of the State Federation of YR Clubs held in Jacksonville.

All members and other interested persons are invited to attend and meet the candidate and hear his views.

Following the business meeting the ladies enjoyed an afternoon of cards. Prizes were won by Mrs. Gene Fritter, door prize; Mrs. Melanie Stewart and Mrs. Nora Norris, bridge; Mrs. Clara Paulsen, canasta, and Mrs. Gertrude Jarosch.

Plans in the works for a big session to acquaint the public with tentative planning for the St. Johns-Indian River Canal. Date for the meeting will be soon; word awaited from the consulting engineer, who should be ready maybe next week.

Seems one aim is to chalk up public opinion on the waterway prior to inviting members of four county commissions to sit in, be briefed and be asked to support the canal. It's felt a favorable public opinion will do much to sway the commissioners. Seminole commissioners already have aired their opinion. . . eye!

Urgent Need Cited

Assurance that improvements to State Road 415 will receive No. 1 priority was given by Max Brewer, state road board member, to a Seminole County delegation Thursday afternoon at a road budget hearing in DeLand.

The assurance came when Gen. J. C. Hutchison, chairman of the Seminole County Commission, presented a resolution asking for primary and secondary road improvement requests for the next fiscal year starting July 1.

Emphasis for the need of improving SR 415 was given when Hutchison asked that the project be completed with state primary funds but, if necessary, with county secondary funds.

Brewer promised the "No. 1 request" will be given top priority in either the primary or secondary budget.

Asked by Mack N. Cleveland Jr., attorney, whether the improvement can be completed in this fiscal year, ending June 30, Brewer replied that "the most that can be done this year is to start the planning."

General Hutchison, pointing to the road map, said SR 415 is 22 feet, and there were 27 traffic accidents, including two fatalities, on this highway in the last year.

The county's resolution requested improvements to SR 415 from the city limits to the Osteen Bridge, with secondary funds if necessary.

Following through with a City of Sanford request, the resolution also asked for paving SR 415 (Celery Avenue) in the city from French Avenue to the city limits.

The county's resolution also presented many other road improvement requests, such as four-laning 25th Street between French and Mellonville Avenue; completing improvements to Highway 436 and Highway 427, an interchange on Interstate 4 with Lake Mary Boulevard, and others.

Dick Judy, SRD comptroller, informed the Seminole delegation the county's road funds held by the state include $2,438 remaining in one bond fund and $245,724 in a second bond fund, plus a net balance of $497,000 in the current fiscal year and an estimated $322,000 for 1963-64 for a total of $819,000 in the secondary fund.

Included in the Seminole County delegation, attending the road budget hearing were members of the County Commission, General Hutchison, James Avery, Lee Gory, John Alexander and John Fitzpatrick; State Rep. S. J. Davis Jr.; Cleveland, Democratic nominee for State Senator; Gordon Frederick, Democratic nominee for State Representative; Jan Fortune, Republican nominee for State Representative; Douglas Stromstrom, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce long range planning committee for roads; John Krider, Chamber manager, and Vernon Dunn, former county commissioner.

Plans are to go ahead at the present time with locating and building the extension even if it is given only a clay surface. After it is established a car count will be made by the government to determine its use as an interchange.

Richard Knech, president, reported that indications are that Lake Mary Blvd. will be extended on out to Interstate 4 in the hopes that it will later be accepted and established as an interchange to the super highway.

Three out of the five contractors submitting bids on the DeBary nursing home which local doctors and businessmen are building, Chapman said.

The three low bidders, who submitted figures that were within $3,000 of each other were Carroll Daniels Construction Co. of Sanford;

Up-grading Of Teachers' Salaries Outlined Here

Multi-million dollar up-grading of Florida's space-age teachers' salaries to bring them up to the "12th-in-the-nation" status they held in 1957 was outlined for Seminole County legislators, Thursday.

Bob Jones of Ocala, chairman of the Program Action Committee of the Florida Education Assn., explained the committee's proposals to Reps. S. J. Davis and Gordon Frederick, the county school board, and several hundred members of the Seminole County Education Assn. (Rep. Mack Cleveland Jr. and Republican candidate Jan Fortune were unable to attend.)

School board members J. Dan Wright, Dr. A. W. Epps, John Evans and James Birkmeyer heard Jones comment that Florida, fastest growing state in the nation, erode of tremendous scientific technical expansion, has dropped to 29th in the nation in the amount of money offered to its teachers.

complete nationally for the kind of highly-trained and competent educators we need to keep pace with the kind of state we live in now," Jones said.

"These children of today, who will be taking their places as citizens in 1981 are being taught in 1914 buildings by many teachers who received their training before this fast-paced, highly technical civilization came to Florida and the nation."

The Program Action Committee is also asking for an increase from $325 to $475 per teaching unit for instructional aids, new materials, classroom equipment and school maintenance to bring into line with increased expenses, the supply of new and modern teaching equipment and materials that are needed.

The Committee's program will be set forth at the state convention of the FEA next weekend at Jacksonville for discussion and approval and then presented to the state legislature when it meets in April.

A meeting to discuss the program in detail has been set to take place after the convention, when local legislators will meet with Ernest Cowley and George Dabbs, SCEA legislative co-chairmen; SCEA president Floyd Richards. CTA legislative Fred Ganas and CTA legislative representative Sal Manfre.

DON REYNOLDS

Reynolds Named SCEA President

Don Reynolds, Seminole High School biology teacher was elected president of the Seminole County Education Assn. at a meeting held at the school, Thursday.

Reynolds will take office in August from Floyd Richards, Lake Mary principal who has served as president this year.

Elected to serve with Reynolds as vice president was Ted Barker, assistant principal of Sanford Junior High School.

Treasurer of the organization will be Jim Palmer of Oviedo with Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Dunn of South Seminole Elementary to serve as recording secretary and Miss Anna Vitaris of SR8 as corresponding secretary.

Prior to the SCEA meeting, a meeting of the Classroom Teachers Assn. under the aegis of President Fred Ganas, met to take up routine matters of business.

$365 Stolen From Parked Car

Police today are investigating the theft of $365 from a parked car on Park Ave. early this morning, Chief Roy Williams said.

The car was owned by James Markham who told police he had the money in the compartment of his vehicle.

The car was parked at 100 S. Park Ave. by the Sanford Atlantic Bank when the theft occurred.

Doyle Hisinger Construction Co. of Daytona Beach and R. C. Stevens Construction Co. of Orlando.

These three companies will be invited to re-bid on the altered specifications for the administration wing.

Congressman A. S. Herlong Jr., in a telephone conversation from Washington with The Herald this morning, confirmed a report that the three-name eligible list submitted to him by the U. S. Civil Service has been "junked" and a new list will be compiled.

"It will be at least two months," the Congressman said, "before the new list will be submitted to me by the Civil Service."

The Civil Service had submitted a list of two Democrats and a Republican as "eligibles" to the lawmaker. These include Allen, the Republican, and Julian Whigham and Stephen Balint, the Democrats.

Herlong, in turn, submitted the eligible names to Warren Goodrich, Bradenton, State Democratic Committee chairman, who was to have passed the list through channels to the Seminole County Democratic Committee for recommendation.

Robert Billhimer, County Democratic Committee chairman, repeated this morning he has never received the list from Goodrich. "And he never will receive that list," Congressman Herlong said.

Herlong explained today that after he had submitted the list to Goodrich he was visited by a Seminole County delegation "voicing opposition to one of the three candidates." He would not elaborate "because I do not want to smear all three with one brush."

He added he questioned Civil Service how they had selected the three names and was told they had merely examined their application papers. "I told them," Herlong said, "that's one helluva way to run a railroad."

He stated he instructed Civil Service to ask for more applications for a new eligibility list and "this time make a personal investigation into the backgrounds of the applicants."

Allen was first named by then President Eisenhower as acting postmaster on Jan. 25, 1957. He spent that day with postoffice inspectors in assuming charge of the Sanford postoffice but, he said today, "at 4:45 p.m. that day one of the inspectors received a telephone call from Washington to stop the transfer. I was out. One inspector told me he had been on the job for 32 years and it was the first time he had run into that kind of a situation."

Public Defenders Asked By JFK

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Kennedy asked Congress today to set up a system for appointment of public defenders to represent people who can't afford lawyers to defend them in federal criminal cases.

"Whenever the lack of money prevents a defendant from securing an experienced lawyer, trained investigator or technical expert, an unjust conviction may follow," the President said.

Kennedy sent the House and Senate a draft of legislation which he said would "diminish the role which poverty plays in our federal system of criminal justice."

The President said the bill would "assure effective legal representation for every man whose limited means would otherwise deprive him of an adequate defense against criminal charges."
