

CAN YOU TRUST YOUR EYES? There are at least six differences in drawing details between top and bottom panels. How quickly can you find them? Check answers with those below.

Hal Kaufman's JUNIOR WHIRL

BULLETIN BOARD

● SEE HERE! "After 15 minutes, nobody looks at a..." observed Goethe, and, for one reason or another, what he said still goes. FIN blank.

● Dot down a thousand very plain, add half of two, then add half a hundred and the last of one; now find the distance the race was run.

● Word Play! STRETCH is a 7-letter word having but one vowel and one syllable. STRE... is an 8-letter word with the same characteristics. FIN blank.

YOU CAN BE every bit as adept at this card trick as the magician above — with a little practice. It's done thusly: Remove the 13 cards of a single suit — ace, king, queen, jack, etc. — from a deck. Stack them in this order bottom to top: 8, 5, 9, 2, 10, 6, jack, 4, queen, 7, king, 3, ace.

Now, deal out the top card, which is the ace, face up. Place the second card — the 3 — at the bottom of the pack. Turn up the king, put the next card at the bottom, etc.

When you are through, all cards will be face up in order, ace to deuce. It will work every time.

TRYING TIME! Our better friend above faces an unusual opponent, as you will discover when your search is complete.

Sidney Eubanks, first-grader at Southside Elementary, awaits bell.

Danielle Teets, first-grader at All Souls, contemplates dilemma.

Angela Warren awaits school bus to Sanford Grammar School.

First-Day Faces In The School Crowd

The Kids Top Priority — Editorial, Page 4A

Postmaster To Balky Workers: Strike Will Doom Postal Service

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Postmaster General William Bolger, refusing to reopen contract bargaining, today warned unions representing 500,000 workers a postal strike could jeopardize the future of the Postal Service.

Bolger's remarks came amid continued mediation with postal union leaders in an effort to avert an illegal strike threatened to begin at midnight.

Leaders of the largest postal unions have refused to indicate whether they would honor or ignore a federal court order barring a walkout.

President J. Joseph Vacca of the 180,000-member National Association of Letter Carriers scheduled a mid-day news conference to announce whether his members would honor the no-strike order.

Bolger, who met informally Sunday with the heads of three unions, said today he would not return to the bargaining table, but would honor the results of compulsory arbitration.

The postal unions last week rejected a proposed three-year contract providing a 19.5 percent wage and cost of living increase that was within administration anti-inflation guidelines. The contract would raise the average worker's salary from $15,877 to $19,200 in three years.

"I could not in good conscience agree to anything more at the bargaining table now," Bolger told the annual convention of the National League of Postmasters, a rural postmasters group.

Bolger said postal employees "certainly have the right to reject the contract, but they don't have the right to strike."

Any walkout by postal employees could spell the end of Postal Service control of first class mail, he warned, noting a 1970 walkout lost the Postal Service customers that never returned. The Postal Service faces increasing competition from private delivery firms.

"Frankly, I can think of no greater way to help those who want to repeal our monopoly on first class mail than for our employees to strike," Bolger said. A strike is the "worst possible thing" that could happen to the service and its employees, he said.

Federal mediator Wayne Horvitz met with both sides in the dispute today, and a spokesman for the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service said the discussions were going on without a timetable.

"We are trying to find some way to resolve the situation now," spokesman John Rogers said. "Three of the post's unions were represented, Rogers said, but they were not meeting face-to-face with negotiators for the Postal Service."

"People are running into each other in the halls, but they are not sitting across the table from each other," Rogers said.

The letter carriers' union constitution called for a walkout at midnight tonight. President Emmet Andrews of the 280,000-member American Postal Workers Union was under pressure to set a strike for midnight Wednesday — five days after union members voted to reject a three-year contract.

James LaPenta, secretary of the bargaining coordinating committee for the three unions, called Bolger's position "irreconcilable" and a reflection of his "inexperience in labor relations."

"We think he's being heavyhanded in relying solely on the law to settle a labor dispute," LaPenta told a news conference late Sunday. "There's nothing in the framework of that law that prohibits him from sitting down at the table and negotiating a settlement at this time, which would be acceptable to everybody."

LaPenta is an official of the 60,000-member National Post Office Mail Handlers union, which rejected the contract but did not give its officers a mandate for setting a strike deadline. That union was expected to go along the larger unions' action.

Bolger is under pressure to hold down the money package in the contract for two reasons: he says it will allow him to prevent a postal rate hike for 2 1/2 to 3 years; and President Carter is pushing for restraint to help hold down inflation.

J.J. Partlow, third-grader in Wanda Lindstrom's class at Pinecrest Elementary School, dreams of the baseball field he left behind.

Casselberry Parents: They Went, They Walked, Saw

By LEONARD ERANDORF
Herald Staff Writer

They grumbled, they avoided oncoming cars and they perished.

But most of all they walked. With some holding their school-age children by the hand and others holding the younger ones in their arms, some parents of Casselberry Elementary children walked their children to the school.

But this was not your ordinary group of parents. These parents are angry at the Seminole County school board for not permitting their children to be bused to school.

These parents are upset by a safety study which has been conducted which showed that the route was not a hazard for kids to walk on.

The age of the kids varied from five to seven years.

The study is done by a school board safety committee and a particular area is rated on a scale of 50 points with 50 being the most dangerous.

The committee members evaluate such things as traffic, sidewalks, existence of drainage ditch water hazards.

At last week's school board meeting the board agreed to have a second safety study conducted to see if approximately 30 children are facing any danger in walking the route which measures slightly less than two miles. They noted there was a wide difference in the scores given. The ratings were 25.82, 28.82, 31.82 and 36.82.

State law requires the busing of children living more than two miles from school and if they live closer, the board can grant courtesy busing if a safety hazard exists.

The walk began on Sunset Drive and progressed toward Lake Triplet Drive. Along the way the group steadily became larger reaching a maximum of about 15 children with their parents.

The severest aspect of the walk was along Lake Triplet Drive, South Lake Triplet Drive, and Queens Mirror Circle.

Because of the lack of sidewalks it is necessary for the children to walk along the side of the road.

And while it is preferred that the children walk in a straight line, even with the parents present several of the children strayed out into the road in the way of oncoming traffic.

It is this steady traffic that is the primary concern to the parents.

While walking along the road it was apparent the cars going in both directions were disregarding the 25-mile speed limit posted on the only two lanes.

See PARENTS, Page 2A

CAMP DAVID

GAME PLAN

By United Press International

Prime Minister Menachem Begin says he is willing to spend many days at Camp David to reach an agreement that will lead to further peace talks with Egypt. In Cairo, the semi-official newspaper Al-Ahram reported that Egypt considers the Camp David summit a decisive turning point in Middle East peace efforts and will focus on carving out a Palestinian homeland.

THE POPE

Pope: No Key Changes

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — "God forgive you for what you did for me."

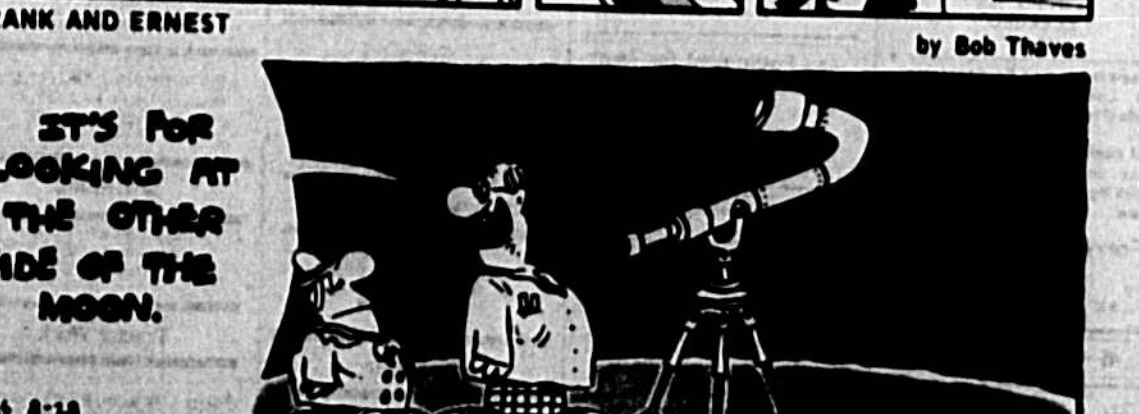

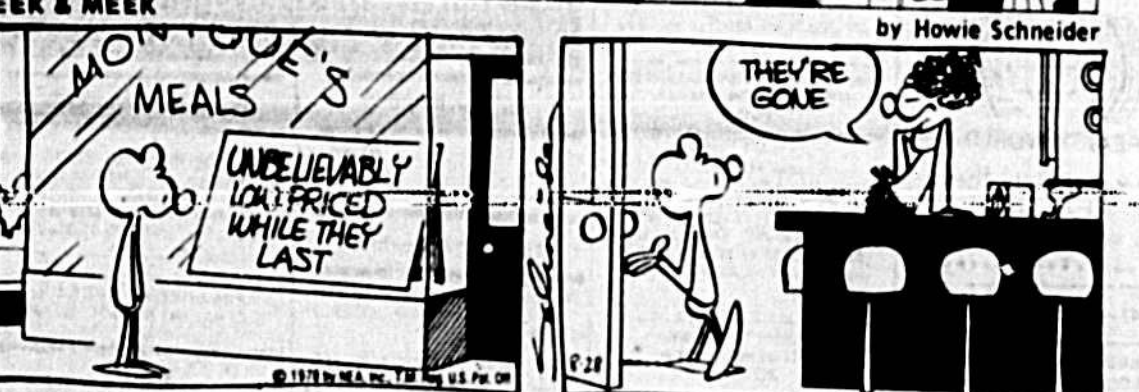

That, according to Cardinal Joseph Hoefler of West Germany, were the first words of Albino Luciani, when his cardinal colleagues elected him Pope John Paul I.

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — Pope John Paul I today confirmed all heads of Vatican departments would remain in their posts and Vatican sources said he wanted to familiarize himself with men and issues before making any changes.

Officials confirmed in their positions included Cardinal Jean Villot, the French-born secretary of state, American Cardinal John Joseph Wright, head of Congregation for the Clergy, and all other department heads.

Also confirmed in his post was Archbishop Agostino Casaroli, head of the Council for Church Public Affairs, the Vatican equivalent of a foreign minister.

BLONDIE 48—Evening Herald, Sanford, FL Monday, Aug. 28, 1978

ACROSS 48 Confederate States Army (abbr.)

HOROSCOPE

By BERNICE BEDE OSOL
For Tuesday, August 29, 1978

YOUR BIRTHDAY
August 29, 1978

New contacts and acquaintances could prove to be extremely beneficial to furthering your self-interests this coming year. The more exposure you have the more opportunities will be available to you.

MEGO (Aug. 28-29)
You could find yourself in an embarrassing position today if you pal around with those who are able to spend more freely than you. Don't be caught short. Find out more about yourself by sending for a copy of Astro-Graph Letter, Mail 50 cents for each and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to: XST-Graph, P.O. Box 489, Radio City Station, N.Y. 10101. Be sure to specify birth sign.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23)
There is much opportunity about you today, but you're not apt to take advantage of it unless you strongly discipline yourself.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)
Experience and logic will not lead you astray today, yet you are liable to depend more on fanciful thinking and draw conclusions that aren't factual.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)
Take care in any transactions you have with slight acquaintances today. Your generosity and good nature could easily be taken advantage of.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)
Lack of initiative will erase the good fortune that surrounds you today. Be prepared to roll up your sleeves. Major goals can be realized.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19)
It's very probably you'll mistakenly rely upon another to take care of something important that you could do better yourself today.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20)
People are paying a lot of attention to you today, so you must be careful of the image you project. By all means don't try to upstage another.

ARIES (March 21-April 19)
Double check to be sure you don't slight anyone if you're inviting a few pals over to the house today. You'll feel worse than the person overlooked.

Taurus (April 20-May 20)
Don't let an emotional person dissuade you from doing things in a way your reasoning tells you should be done, or things will go awry for everyone.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20)
Just because your pocket contains extra cash today is no excuse to spend frivolously. Your wastefulness will only harm you.

CANCER (June 21-July 21)
Because you're in such good spirits, you'll let those in your charge get away with things they shouldn't today. They'll try the same thing again.

LEO (July 22-Aug. 23)
Your instincts are good today, but if you allow imagination to run rampant, it's liable to play tricks on you. Don't overanalyze your hunches.

Vulnerable: East-West Dealer: East
West North East South
Pass 60 10 70
Pass 40 10 70
Opening lead: ♠ 4

ASK THE EXPERTS
You hold:
♠ A K 6 5 4
♥ 2
♦ 2 8 5
♣ K J 10

Contract: Suppose he held only five spades, but with the jack of clubs as a side card. South would win that heart-suit game. Trumps, check out the ace of clubs and eventually discard down to one heart.

Alan: "The point to East's thinking was that South surely held six trumps for his weak jump overcall. Therefore, it left in control of the hand the club ace and collect six trumps and four clubs in a game. Thus, I saw that his only chance was to find his partner with the jack of hearts and South with at least three hearts."

Everyone is vulnerable. Your partner opens three hearts. An Oregon reader wants to know what action we take.

We don't have a categorical answer since it all depends on how weak our partner's preempts are.

However, if playing with a strange partner, we raise four hearts and hope for the best.

SPIDER-MAN
by Stan Lee and John Romita

DOONES
by Craig Logan

Rectal Bleeding Needs Fast Action

Dr. Lamb

DEAR DR. LAMB—Would you please write something about hemorrhoids. I never knew when I got pregnant that I was going to have a life of pain. After 26 years of pain, the doctor says, "How are the hemorrhoids today?" And when I would ask what I can do for them he says, "Oh, hot Sitz baths, warm your diet and use this ointment."

For years doctors would say, "Oh, they aren't too bad. Wait until they get worse and you can have this operation." It just feels like glass. Then I would talk to other people and the doctor just made an injection and they no longer had any trouble.

Now my obstetrician is deceased and I will not go to a hospital. I have a phobia of heights after having four babies, and I'll never go to a hospital. Why didn't someone do something while they could? Please can you help me. After all these years why isn't there that hemorrhoid cream, like that's simple and why aren't more girls warned of this before pregnancy?

DEAR READER—You may have to go to the hospital if you are going to get any satisfactory treatment of your hemorrhoid condition. Remember that hemorrhoids are nothing more than varicose veins of the rectum no matter how irritating and uncomfortable they may be.

These large dilated veins in this area can be either external where all the little sensitive nerves are or they can be internal and not cause any pain at all. The internal type are the ones that get to cause bleeding. The hemorrhoid veins pop out because of excessive pressure that prevents the veins from draining. Women do develop hemorrhoids with association with pregnancy.

Grass Sometimes Browner On Other Side Of Fence, So....

By DONNA ESTES
Herald Staff Writer

Casellberry pet owners whose dogs take a potty break on someone else's lawn better hope no one witnesses the event after Sept. 28.

Not even a fast clean-up job will save them from trouble.

The Casellberry City Council Monday night adopted a new animal control ordinance, to become effective Sept. 28.

The ordinance includes an anti-litter provision which makes it a misdemeanor for a pet owner to allow his dog to "violate" private property and the public streets of the city.

Conviction for the offense is punishable by a fine of up to $200 or 90 days in jail or both.

A similar law recently adopted in New York City requires pet owners to clean up after their dogs.

Board's 'Best Offer' Spurned; Teachers Rally For Next Move

By LEONARD KRANSDORF
Herald Staff Writer

Arguing they should have been given the offer several months ago the Seminole Education Association (SEA) Monday night rejected the Seminole County School Board's "best offer" and is to hold a rally for a 7:30 p.m. Sept. 28.

Teachers were presented a package proposal which offered a $400 increase over the current teacher base of $9,700 in addition to lifting the freeze on teacher increments which was instituted about three months ago.

However, SEA negotiator Steve Rosenthal spurned the offer noting that "we should be discussing money value not percentage."

He said the teachers are entitled to a base of $9,822 rather than the $9,100 that the board is offering. The SEA negotiator based his request on the 1972 that was added to administrators' salaries.

"Tonight's rally which one SEA official is hoping will attract about 700, will be held to determine the future actions of the association."

"I definitely see the possibility of more informational picketing, but a lot will depend on what the people want to do as well as what kind of movement is shown by the board at Wednesday's meeting."

See TEACHERS, Page 2A

DISPATCHER DEBBIE SMITH 'TALKS' WITH DEAF PERSON ... as Sheriff Polk (right) and telephone Pioneer Herb Watson check out system

Sheriff's Office Unveils 'Deaf' Emergency System

By DENNIS FEOLA
Herald Staff Writer

The Telephone Pioneers take "junk" teletype machines and with a little work transform them into communication devices for the deaf.

"We get them from anywhere we can find them," Herbert Watson of the Telephone Pioneers, said today. "It's all volunteer work. We restore them and give them to people who need them."

The latest recipient of the teletype machine is the Seminole County Sheriff's Department, which this morning unveiled a new emergency communications system designed specifically for the deaf.

"The system was brought to my attention by the Telephone Pioneers and a Lake Mary man who had a deaf daughter," Sheriff Polk said.

The sender and receiver of messages on the system require a telephone, a coupler attached to the telephone and a telephone typewriter.

The Telephone Typewriter Network, working with the Watson of the Telephone Pioneers, donated the typewriter.

Watson said once a person applies to take part in the program, it will take up to six weeks to locate a teletype machine for conversion into the system.

The coupler costs $200. The Longwood Sections Club has donated $400 for the purchase of two couplers for two Longwood teenagers, Polk said.

Polk is asking for other civic and community organizations to become involved and help purchase couplers for those who can't afford the machines.

"The need for machines is there," Polk said. "But without participation and cooperation from other clubs, the communications link between the deaf people and hearing people can't be made."

The typewriter machine sends messages over the telephone to the Sheriff's Office.

See SHERIFF UNVEILS, Page 2A

STEVE ROSENTHAL, SEA negotiator, is seen here during the rally. He said the teachers are entitled to a base of $9,822 rather than the $9,100 that the board is offering. The SEA negotiator based his request on the 1972 that was added to administrators' salaries.

THE NEGOTIATORS: BOARD (LEFT) FACES TEACHER SPOKESMEN

Stenstrom: No Wrongdoing; LaPeters: That's All Now

By MAX KRELIETIAN
Herald Staff Writer

Former Sanford Police Chief Wallace LaPeters today said his efforts to prove wrongdoing by Sanford city officials are over.

LaPeters responded to a probe by City Commissioner Julian Stenstrom of charges that a police detective was offered a bribe to return for his silence during a federal investigation of alleged discrimination within the police department.

Stenstrom issued his findings on Monday night's city commission meeting. It was entered into the minutes of the meeting with no comments from other commissioners.

LaPeters said he was not surprised by the outcome. He said he has no plans to furnish additional information to the State Attorney's office.

The probe amounted to interviewing seven persons including Knowles, Butler, City Attorney Vernon Mize and former Police Chief Ben Butler and City Manager Warren E. (Pete) Knowles of wrongdoing.

LaPeters did not agree with Stenstrom's findings, but said he was not surprised by the outcome. He said he has no plans to furnish additional information to the State Attorney's office.

The interviews took place Wednesday with Knowles and City Attorney Vernon Mize present, according to Stenstrom.

"At the same time, Stenstrom was investigating the matter. Knowles was performing an 'in-house administrative investigation,'" said Stenstrom. Knowles also asked questions during the interviews conducted by Stenstrom.

Knowles said today he plans to review the transcript of his question-and-answer sessions with police officers and other officials before leaving a written report of his probe. He added he has contacted the state attorney's office and volunteered to give them a copy.

See LAPETERS, Page 2A

COMMISSIONER STENSTROM DELIVERS REPORT TO COMMISSION AND AUDIENCE

Today

Armed The Clock	6-A	Message	6-B
Beats	6-B	Smog	6-A
Comics	6-B	Opportunity	6-A
Crossword	6-A	Opportunity	6-B
Editorial	6-A	Opportunity	6-B
Dear Abby	1-B	Television	6-B
Dr. Lamb	6-B	Weather	6-A