PEKING, Apr. 11 (INS)-The The lore of Peking's hutungs, av the smaller thoroughfares are cull ed, was described by Mr. B.C. Atfi lington, veteran American offis de of the Chinese Post Office, The word hutung is used only in Pek? ing, Tientsin, Mukden and Jeh'A' thereby denoting its purely Mongol. origin for it was brought intes China during the Mongol dynasty.

There are nearly five thousand of these lesser streets in the Ch nese capital and the complications of names are without parallel inany other large city in the workers el minated N. E. Edgerton of Previous to the establishment of the Republic, says Mrs. Arlingtonce the hutungs of Peking had no names. No written characters. wase ever posted with the result that the natives invented names of their own. Now that the streets dec have signs on either end, there is won over E. E. Giles, Jr. Pitts | still more confusion for in writinghe spoken name, several differenti characters might be used. Thus a hutung which was once known as 'chouw" or had smell, could bal likewise written as "draw out" TWENTY THIRD JUDICIAL CIR-CTIT OF PLOHIDA, IN AND FOR SEMINOLD COUNTY, IN CHAN-ing the street system are raised CERY.
