The Gambling Instinct

From time immemorial gambling has been an issue throughout the civilized world. Life Itself, apologists for gambling like to say, is a gamble. We take a gamble when we bring children into the workl. We gamble when we raise crops or go into business. We are gambling when we put money in a bank, or in other ways try to provide for the security of our old age. It's a gamble when we marry.

But, as in everything else, there is gambling and gam-bling. There is the kind of gambling which can't be helped thing if going into business did not constitute a gamble, if success were assured, and not a game of chance. It would be much better if life were not a gamble. But that can't be helped. But it is not necessary to take a chance with the small wages which we received for our day's work by pur-chasing lottery tickets, or dropping nickels into a slot machine, in the vain hope of getting something for noth-ing. This is the kind of a gamble which does not consti-tute a natural part of life's existence, though it, too, from History recent. and there is the kind of gambling which can and should

It is interesting to note that B. F. Paty, the only can-didate for governor besides Judge Petteway who denounced the slot michine legislation during the first part of the campaign, carried both Palm Beach and Dade counties by substantial pluralities on June 2nd and led the field of 14 candidates in practically every county on the lower East Coast. He carried his home county of Palm Beach by more than 5,000 votes over his nearest opponent, and he carried Dade county (Miami) by 2,000 more votes than Dan Chappell, the next high man, a home town boy. These figures would certainly indicate that Judge Petteway's opposition to the gambling interests will got necessarily ruin him on the lower East Coast. It is ad mitted, of course, that the slot machine interests are back-ing Fred Cone, but the slot machine interests are back-ing Fred Cone, but the slot machine interests are back-ing Fred Cone, but the slot machine interests are back-ing Fred Cone, but the slot machine interests are back-ing Fred Cone, but the slot machine interests are back-ing Fred Cone, but the slot machine interests are back-ing fred to impose that by the same boy's control the vote on the East Coast any more than they do have abiling element, but we do know that they are going down the line for him almost to a man because he is con-sidered the leaser of two evils. W. J. (FUNIE) STEED, of Kissimmee, will oppose Joe Hendricks of Deland in the second primary a week from next Tuesday for a seat in Congress as representative of the new Fifth District. Hendricks polled a heavy vote in the June 2nd election primarily because he had been given the endorsement of the Townsend organisation. Folitical observers, however, think it unlikely he will develop much additional strength and look for Steed to get a great ma-jority of the support which went to other candidates in the first primary. Steed is the sort of man this district ought to have in Congress and it is our opinion that the peo-ple of Brevard county will units with those of the other counties in the district to give him an overwhalming vote and send him to Washington to do a big job.-Melbourne Times.
