St. Louis Cards Seek Pact With Blues Cardinals Want To Furnish Players, Manager And Give February Month. Feds "Blitzkrieg" Palatka Twice, 71-46; 48-44

$500 Every Month

By KENT CHETLAIN
The traditionally strong St Louis Cardinal farm system, mack ed with future Stan Musicis, Johnny Mizes, Enos Slaughters et al. figuratively threw a life preserver to the floundering Seminale Black in the raging sea of debts with a rope attached to the safety of the 1951 baseball shore.

This in effect was the Cardinals offer to make a working agreement with the Block for 1953, which would not only give Banford a complete baseball also manuals. Ranford a complete bischall club, manager and $500 a month working capital, but woold pay the Sanford club on to $2500 to buy back any of their own players at the end of the season.

The startling news came in the form of a letter to John Krider, former Florida State Lengue president today from Joe Mathes, director of the vast St. Louis farmentilles. empire.
Mathes made the offer because nome of the regular class D Car-training for players, which must he nominally financed by the litus as well as traveling expenses up to $35.

"If the local directors of the litus will make this agreement," Krider declared, "then they will have made the higgest hardle, "In fact as I see it," he routinated, "It is the only practical solution for the present inschall crisis in Sanford, As for as I know, Callahan hand expenses of solutions, against a manager or any playing. that It's going to be hard to assemble a half club, particularly from scratch with only an uncertain amount of working cap-

After pausing to resend the letter and agreement, Krider went on, "What more can they want? The Cardinals, who you know have always had one of the top, if not the best, rather league system in baseball, are willing to field a complete team. Hanford doesn't have to go to the expense to seout for stays or try to compete with loans that have rich backers like Jackson wille Heach and Insylona.

Then Krider said he was turning the proposal over to Callustian and the Illus board of directors for consideration.

for consideration, am going to ask Cultaina to call a meeting, either toolight or tomorrow, to consider this of-fer," Krider added, "They must acfor the Cards won't wait long for a reply. If the club doesn't want to slan the agreement, I can find a lot of other clubs in the league that would jump at such a deal."

The Card offer was a break in the stalemated quests of unior league help sought by the Seminole Blues as long ago as last October, Callahan and Krider had communicated with all 16 major lengus teams after last senson with no results. However, the in-creasing number of lengues dis-banding operations is beginning to force some major league teams to seek to replace their reduced form holdings and agreements.

The Cardinal offer is a direct result of this new situation. Another reason is the growing number of returning servicemen to the ranks of the various farm chains.

With the return of Junior Metts and Frank Stafford, two varsity players who drew one-day suspensions for training rule in-fractions, the blitzkrieg attack of the Seminale High School cage the Seminole High School cage machine struck its most devastating blow of the season by lamburating the Pulatka Minoons 74-46 in Paintka last Friday night to end a four-game losing skein.

Those undeniable Titans of the Junior Varsity field, the Sanford JVs, employed all the fifth string subs to keep the scare "down" in their opening clash at Paintka scoring a 18-11 triumph. Thus it was a clean sweep for the Scott-hull basketball empire from Sanford. The JVs board of an impressive 8-2 ceaome of the regular class D Cardinol offliates were folding up with the disband-ing leagues.

Included with letter was the complete working agreement contract. In addition to furnishing all the players, man ager and numitary support, the Cards will consequence to pring duct spring to players, which must be nominally financed by the shows a poor 4-13 record. shows a poor 4-13 record.

Taft has carfully pointed out his proposals do not bear administering the present law. Taft has not looked with favor on the industry - wide bargaining ban plugged by Rep. Lucas, Amendments similar to Taft's current ones were approved by the Senate several years ago but died in the House.

Elsenhower has authorized Secretary of Labor Durkin, former president of the AFL Plumbers Union, to establish an advisory committee made up of public, labor and industry representatives.

The President said he wanted this group to help the Labor Department "play a significant role in the planning of America's economic future."
