values in Seminole County." However, he pointed to his stand on lowering taxes in 1933-1934 and 1935.

One candidate was missing from the group speaking on their own behalf for Sheriff of Seminole County, P. E. Lanina, because of illness, was not present.

C. G. Owens outlined the qualifications of a sheriff and said, "I think I have these qualifications and am better qualified than the other candidates to hold this office."

C. W. Beck, usually brief and to the point, said "I believe the people now want an honest and hardworking sheriff."

J. D. Correll spoke on what had been done in the sheriff's office since he took over Dec. 3. "I sent each of my men to FBI school to keep them informed on the latest methods of fighting. I've made quite a few changes to help the people and I have many more changes if I am continued in office."

J. L. Hobby told the Longwood audience "I give you a sheriff's office slogan for none — marked suits, commutations, school bus patrol, and road blocks. I worked hard and diligently to give you clean law enforcement."

Senator Douglas Stenstrom reviewed his record in the State Senate as a freshman senator. "I cordially invite you to check into my record in any way and on every vote I cast."

Bob Holly, manager of Paul Miller's campaign in Seminole County, explained that Miller was attending a Broadway Rally and would see the voters personally and visit with them. "He is a business man and has asked you to put a business man in a business job," Holly said.

In the race for House of Representatives, Thomas Stringer said Thursday night, "I feel that I know the feeling of all the people in all the county. I would like to continue to work in the interest of children by providing a sound educational system."

Wilson Alexander emphatically told his audience, "I am the first professional man with courage enough to open an office in the south end of the county. If there is one way to know the problems of the people, it is to live with them."

Don Bales emphasized "To have representation in the Legislature from all professions." For a candidate to promise you a lot of things is just plain foolish, Bales said. However he told the Longwood Rally "I am for segregation in our schools but for equal facilities."

Gordon Frederick led off with the fact "It seems as if all political candidates are casting stones at one another. I feel that I can represent the people of Seminole County in spite of the fact that I am a lawyer. I can't make you a lot of promises — the person who does is after your vote for selfish reasons."

To climax Thursday night's Democratic Rally at Longwood, Edward G. Hornsby, a candidate for Secretary of State was allowed ten minutes to speak on his platform. He said, "I am the only candidate for Secretary of State who people have seen. It is an office equally important as that of Governor."

Richard Boorman Catches Striped Bass At Dug-Out

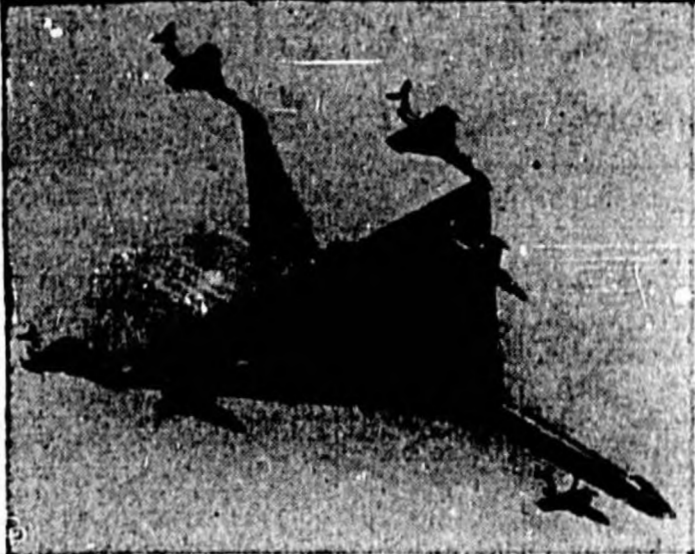

A silk line, plenty of spinners, lures, flies and bait along with a fine reel and rod may be excellent equipment for catching fish of various descriptions and species in the waters around Sanford.

But to 12½-year-old Richard Boorman who lives on the Lake Mary Road, a stick that he picked up in the woods, a piece of line with no weight test, and a stray hook attached to the end, meant success Sunday afternoon near the Dug-Out at the Lake Monroe Bridge.

With only eight feet of line and some muscle that he got from the banks of the lake, Richard brought in a 2½ pound striped bass after 15 minutes of fighting the game fish that wandered far from its usual place of abode.

Known as a salt water fish, the striped bass that measured 20 inches in length, is sort of a family hare, according to the lad who was quite proud of his unusual catch.

"I didn't even have a cork on my line," said Richard Boorman as he displayed the fish he pulled in.

Lights-On Drive Hailed Success

Candidates Will Speak At Bear Lake For Tonight's Rally

With only four of the eleven Democratic Ballots to be held in Seminole County behind them, the slate of 32 candidates heard from the platform in each of the speaking engagements, still has a heavy schedule of convincing the voter.

Tonight, the candidates appear at a scheduled rally to be held at Bear Lake in the Florida Power Company lounge. Speaking is scheduled to get underway at 8 o'clock.

The Rally in Bear Lake is usually one of the best attended of the series, and candidates will be on their toes in an attempt to convince voters in the south end of the county of the qualifications presented in their search for additional support.

Interest is beginning to increase and candidates are beginning to vie with one another for top spot in their particular race for local political offices.

This week's schedule for the Democratic Ballots includes Altamonte Springs Thursday night at 8 o'clock; and Saturday night at 8 o'clock at the American Legion Hut with speaking to begin at 8 p.m.

Candidates are introduced by Seminole County Democratic Executive Committee Chairman James Lee of Oviedo with each candidate allotted five minutes in which to speak.

With but two-thirds of the solicitations reported as of last night, the Seminole County Unit of the American Cancer Society reports the excellent results of responsive citizens to the Lights-On campaign conducted between 9 and 9 p.m. yesterday.

At 9:45 last night, $2,400 was reported turned in at the receiving station located in the Florida State Bank. Use of the office was contributed by T. E. Tucker, treasurer of the Seminole County Unit, American Cancer Society.

Harold Kastner, special gifts chairman of the Seminole County Unit, sent in a report of nine divisions with eight still outstanding.

From the outlying communities, headed by Miss Myrtle Wilson, Home Demonstration Agent Longwood reported first at 6:30 yesterday with a total of $106.70.

Lake Mary reported a total of $96.50; Elder Springs $55.40.

Still outstanding are the reports of county communities from Slavia, Oviedo, Geneva, Paola, and Lake Monroe.

Irving Pryor and R. J. Milwee were liaison chairmen with Miss Myrtle Wilson.

"The Lights-On Drive under the chairmanship of conscientious and enthusiastic Mrs. Don Bates was a tremendous success," said Mrs. Gertrude Dingfelder.

Members of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority; Ives Circle and Camellia Circle of the Sanford Garden Club; the P.U.O. Club; Business and Professional Women's Club; Elks Club; Ladies Society of Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers; and a large number of individuals participated.

Outstanding was the participation of Navy Officers wives of the Navy Officers Vivas Club and members of the Chief Petty Officers Vivas Club in their willingness to help their adopted city.

Radio Station WTRR volunteered to broadcast names of solicitors and their respective collections every half hour during the drive.

Mrs. Marjorie Morgenstern provided the names for the continuing broadcast.

Don Bates, General Campaign Chairman, and Harold Kastner, Special Gifts Chairman urge all workers to continue in their efforts in completing their assignments this week to that the Seminole County Unit of the American Cancer Society may again be honored to belong to the "Quota Toppers Club" of the Florida Division of the American Cancer Society.

Merchants Ready For Sales Jubilee

Everything is in readiness for the biggest sale event ever to be held in Sanford, said Merchants Association President B. L. Perkins Jr. yesterday.

With merchants of Sanford cooperating in the citywide sale event, every shopper is assured of the most astounding values ever found on store shelves, counters, and display cases, Perkins said.

Doors will open Thursday morning at 9 o'clock when the Banner Days celebration gets underway with the official opening of Sanford's brand new Municipal Parking Lot to be held at 9:30 a. m.

City officials, Seminole County Chamber of Commerce officials, and officials of the Sanford Merchants Association will take part in the opening of the new facility, striped and marked off for easy parking in the Municipal Parking Lot located just off Commercial Ave. between Hood and Palmatto Ave.

Merchants of Sanford are offering, during Banner Days, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, a host of values which they say cannot be matched or paralleled anywhere in Central Florida.

"Banner Days is not a stock clearing promotion," said Merchants Association President B. L. Perkins Jr., as he explained that merchants featured during the gigantic sale is spring and summer goods, much of which was purchased especially for the annual event.

Banners are now displayed announcing the special event for the three day sale April 19, 20 and 21.

Immense crowds are expected to visit Sanford from the Central Florida Trade Area to take advantage of the savings offered during the Banner Days celebration.

Crippled Children Societies Schedule Meet In Orlando

A statewide spring meeting of societies for crippled children will be held April 23, according to an announcement received in Sanford today by Mrs. Harold Appleby, chairman of the Easter Seal campaign in Seminole County.

The meeting will be held in Orlando, said Mrs. Appleby, to report on results of the annual Easter Seal appeal and plan for summer camping, clinical and rehabilitation projects.

A. Pickens Coles, Tampa, president of the Florida Society for Crippled Children, also announced that Miss Catherine Bauer, Chicago, of the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults, will be the featured speaker at the victory luncheon program.

Coles said that although Florida received nationwide recognition for its work with crippled children when Clara Jo Proudfoot, National Easter Seal girl from Miami visited the White House and made New York appearances, nearly 100,000 Floridians are still to be heard from contribution-wise.

"It is never too late to help a crippled child through a local society for crippled children," Coles said in a final plea.

The Seminole County Vocational School announces the re-opening of the commercial sewing class Thursday, April 19.

The sewing school has been closed for the last four weeks because of a slack period in the industry. New instructors have been employed to give the best instruction possible to trainees who desire to take sewing jobs in plants located in Sanford. The school is located in the Brookfield Mills Plant located at 202 North Elm Ave.

Work Week Changed

Seminole County Attorney Mack N. Cleveland Jr. told the Board of Commissioners this morning that he had been assured by the Legal Department of the State Road Department that all documents for the filing of the condemnation suit for right-of-way properties on 17-92 will be in Sanford Monday or Tuesday of next week.

A hearing has been set for May 11, said Attorney Cleveland, for the appointment of appraisers.

In other action at the meeting of the Seminole County Board of Commissioners this morning, the work week of the County Road Department was changed from a six-day 30-hour week to a five-day 47 1/2-hour week when Cecil Fields representing the employees of the County Road Department requested a reduction of the number of days and the number of hours worked. The work day will be 9 1/2 hours according to an agreement reached this morning when a motion was made by Commissioner Otis Fouraker for the change and unanimously approved by the Board of Commissioners.

J. P. LaRoche, of Elder Springs, appeared before the Board of Commissioners requesting that the old clay pit, recently located to Seminole County by Orange County be sold to him.

Referring to a previous offer to buy the property, LaRoche said that his property bounded the clay pit on all three sides.

When confronted by the Board with the fact that all property must be sold at auction LaRoche said "I'll go the limit - there'll be another election."

However, Attorney Cleveland explained, "We have to abide by the law the same as you."

LaRoche agreed to submit a bid on the property.

Residents in the area of the Koonhatchee Creek, south of Oviedo, complained according to Commissioner B. C. Dodd, that sewage from the Orlando Disposal Plant was being dumped into the stream off Route 50 creating an obnoxious odor and that fish were being killed in the stream.

The odor exists late in the evening and early in the morning, said Commissioner Dodd, and has been going on for about 12 to 18 months.

The report was referred immediately to the County Health Department for investigation.

April 20, reported O. P. Herndon, secretary to the Board, has been set as the date for a meeting of all clerks to be used during the election with a representative of the Shoup Voting Machine Company for instruction in the use of the voting machines.

Sports Followers Aware Of H. Knox

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD—Sports followers have become well aware of who Harvey Knox is, and it's possible that movie fans will be...

Harvey is the highly vocal stepfather of UCLA's handsome half-back, Ronnie Knox. It is now legend how Harvey checker-boarded Ronnie from school to school to attain the best advantage for the lad's brilliant football career. Harvey's verbal duels with coaches, sports writers and anyone else in sight are famous.

New MGM has signed Ronnie as an actor. He'll also continue playing football for the Bruins. If wonder if the studio knows what it is getting into. I can imagine this exchange between stepfather Harvey and studio boss Dore Beharr:

Schary: Mr. Knox, I called you here because the publicity department is upset.

Harvey: That's okay. I'm upset with them, too. Now come they aren't getting more fan magazine spreads on my boy?

Schary: Mr. Knox, the publicity department tells me that you called up the movie columnist after the preview of Ronnie's picture. You told them that Ronnie was great but the picture stunk.

Harvey: It sure did. If Red Sanders coached football the way you make pictures, he'd be back at Vanderbilt in a season.

Schary: About the new script. Is it true that you told Ronnie to throw the picture?

Harvey: Sure did. I won't let him appear opposite that unknown girl. You can't expect the boy to score a touchdown without some interference. How about borrowing Marilyn Monroe?

Schary: Don't you think Monroe is a little high-powered for Ronnie?

Harvey: That's what they said about the USC line. Another thing—you haven't got a big enough budget on the picture.

Schary: But we're going to spend a million and a half dollars.

Harvey: Not enough. I don't want my boy associated with any

Zsa Zsa Gabor Say Likes Publicity About Her Career

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD — "I like publicity about my career, but I have never wanted it about my personal life," So said Zsa Zsa Gabor, who then divulged such items as:
1. She knows less about men than Grace Kelly.
2. Her ex-boyfriend, Porfirio Rubirosa, was broken up by her engagement to Hal Hayes.
3. She started the romance with Hayes by asking him for a date. Despite what her critics claim, Zsa Zsa's pet hobby is not diamonds or men, but talking. She loves to talk, especially, she says, about her work. She was enthused about doing a Matinee Theater show for NBC-TV this Thursday. "I play a fabulously rich woman who has just bought her fifth husband; she is very unhappy," she garrulous Hungarian said, adding coyly: "I won't tell you who it's supposed to be."

She also enthused about doing four Bob Cummings shows, a French picture and an Italian project in which she would play the late Grace Moore. But somehow the talk drifted to the men in her life, and she made this comment: "Actually, I know very little about men. I know less than Grace Kelly. Her own mother said in those newspaper articles that Grace had 17 boy friends. I never played the field. There have been only five men in my life."
Noting a raised eyebrow, she explained: "We were very rich in Hungary and my father was very strict. Partly because of this, I married the urkish ambassador when I was only 16½. I lived with him for two years and then we were divorced."
"I came to this country and six months later I was married to Conrad Hilton. As soon as we were divorced, I married George Sanders. I was married to him for six years and then I started going with Rubie."

In the midst of the Rubirosa to-do came Hayes, wealthy contractor and Hollywood man-about-town. Their romance started, Zsa Zsa said, when sister Eva invited her along on a double-date to meet Eva's fiancé, Dr. John E. Wil liams.

Old-fashioned Strawberry Shortcake is a dessert that should be described, not with prose, but with poetry. For what words in ordinary language can properly tell of rich, slightly sweet layers piled high with juicy, rosy-red berries and topped with sweet whipped cream?

However, if words are lacking, a good appetite can do justice to this springtime beauty. You will want to save this recipe because it makes an old-fashioned type Strawberry Shortcake of superlative goodness.

2 cups sifted cake flour	5 tablespoons shortening
2-1/2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder	1/3 cup milk
3/4 teaspoon salt	2 quarts fresh strawberries, sliced and sweetened
2 tablespoons sugar	Whipped cream

Measure sifted flour, add baking powder, salt, and sugar, and sift again. Cut in shortening. Add milk and stir with fork until soft dough is formed.
Turn out on lightly floured board and knead 20 turns. Divide dough in half and roll each piece into an 8-inch circle, 1/4 inch thick. Fit one circle into a well-greased 8-inch layer pan. Brush with melted butter. Place second circle on top; brush with butter.
Bake in hot oven (450° F.) 20 minutes, or until done. Separate halves of hot shortcake, and spoon strawberries between halves and on top. Garnish with whipped cream. Makes 6 or 7 servings.

Driving Auto Not Easy Business; Everyone Should Have Examination

Millions of drivers are coming about on American streets and highways without ever having taken a driver's test. Most of these hold licenses that go back to the days before driver examinations were compulsory.

There are some good drivers in this group; there are also many poor ones. Studies indicate that a rather large percentage of these millions are for one reason or another incompetent to drive. The oversight of some of them is bad; others suffer from other handicaps; some have taken the wheel for years without ever really having studied road signs and traffic safety rules.

This is a bad situation. It leads to accidents. It places an exceptional burden on drivers who know the law and are physically fit for the demanding task of driving in busy streets.

Plumbers Having Trouble

The plumber, as has been the way with plumbers since the world was young, seemed to be having trouble. He and his aide, a likely lad with a harried look, had been digging for hours, and driving cables through pipe, and muttering ill opinions about sundry obstructions encountered.

So when the plumber appeared to make one of his periodic inside checks, the lord of the household spoke up thus: "Why not invent a chemical cartridge that you could shoot through the pipe with a sort of gun? It would dissolve whatever's in the way, and you could stop digging and fussing."

Tolerance of ordinary mortals cannot be numbered among the plumber's many virtues. He fixed the lord of the household with a pitying eye and retorted, with more brevity than grace: "Twon't work."

To which the lord of the household gave soft reply, "Well, it's a million dollar idea and you can have it for nothing."

Said the plumber: "I'd rather make my million some other way."

He didn't say how; merely "some other way." It just shows that the world doesn't always appreciate a man with ideas.

By-the-way—the idea is still for free!

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor: I received your Annual Tourist Edition of the Sanford Herald, wonderfully put together, and my husband and I really enjoyed it. We visited your city and spent quite a time there when we purchased our lots at De Bary where we hope to build in a few years. We kinda felt in doubt about our purchase at first, as you hear so much about these fly-by-night developments in Florida. Now we feel much better after we had visited your town and your paper telling us how things are taking shape.

"A COMFORTABLE OLD AGE IS THE REWARD OF A WELL SPENT YOUTH"

— (Author's name below) —

One of the reasons why the youth of today will have a more comfortable old age is the increased use of vitamins. Your children will live longer because you have been giving them vitamins from their very birth.

We carry hundreds of different vitamin combinations in stock and each one is carefully stored to best protect its potency. Many of them are refrigerated. All of them are the products of pharmaceutical chemists of high reputation.

Authorities in various states have begun to discuss the matter of making changes. For instance, in Ohio, we have learned, some two million persons now licensed to drive without examination are to be examined next year.

That is fair enough. Driving an automobile is not the easy-going business it was a couple of decades ago. No one should expect to be allowed to drive without having proved his fitness to do so. If reasonable allowance is made for cases of hardship and special need, a program of re-examination would be a good thing.

Something Unusual

A Maryland high school has come up with something we call rather unusual in connection with the old problem of report cards. Each student in this particular school has two report cards, one of them filled in by the teacher and taken home in the same old traditional way that we have experienced for time immemorial. The other one is filled in by the student himself and turned in to the teacher.

The chief discovery to come out of this unusual procedure so far is to verify the theory that most students don't need a report card to tell whether they are doing their work properly. There was a 90 per cent correlation between what grade students thought they ought to make and what the teachers thought. Boys tend to be overly optimistic in grading themselves; girls constantly grade themselves a little low.

There is enough good in this idea, we believe, to warrant some very serious thought about extending it. When the teacher and pupil both agree on a grade, it's probably the right one. But when a teacher flunks a pupil who thinks he ought to have a high grade or vice versa, it indicates a misunderstanding that should be immediately threshed out.

Attend Demo Rallies

Have you heard all of the candidates in this year's political races for local governmental office?

The Democratic Rallies, sponsored by the Seminole County Democratic Executive Committee, are giving citizens a glorious opportunity to see and hear each one of the candidates and the stand they take on many of the local issues.

In order to vote wisely, this year, and in order to make a choice that will benefit both you and your neighbor, you should take advantage of these occasions to familiarize yourself with the qualities possessed by each of the candidates.

All of the offices being contested are important ones and the majority of the voters will elect one individual to handle the functions of such offices for four years.

It matters not what selection you make for that is your privilege in the American way of choosing political office holders—but your selection should be based on the knowledge you have gained from each one of those applying to the citizens for their positions.

My husband is a builder and I work in an office, so we hope to build our own home on our site in De Bary, where we can help to make Florida our home and something to be proud of. We like the inland growth of trees and plant life, the means of fishing, heating and hunting as these are both our hobbies.

With many thanks for your paper, good will and progress for many years to come.

Yours truly,
 Mr. and Mrs. Elton A. Runyon
 Plainfield, N. J.

Too Late to Classify

BY RUSSELL KAY

Since "segregation" has been tossed on the field as the official football of the present gubernatorial campaign, it might be well to consider the views of thoughtful Southern leaders on the subject.

Seeking such reaction, the Christian Science Monitor asked a number of outstanding Southern leaders to clarify their thinking and indicate the action they deem best to find a solution to the problem.

Space is a single column does not permit use of the entire report, but a review of the highlights of each individual's statement gives a cross-examination of sound, constructive thinking from some of the best minds in the South.

Edward J. Meeman, editor of the Press Scimitar, Memphis, sees peril for not only the South, but the nation in the situation. He points out that extremists on both sides are doing most of the talking and organizing. The great middle ground of responsible citizens must take a stand for law and order, tolerance and good will if they would avoid the destruction of the South and possibly the nation.

George S. Mitchell, Director of the Southern Regional Council, Atlanta, states that there is nothing in the South's plight that cannot be resolved by responsible white and Negro citizens sitting down together in mutual respect. For each southern community there is a wise, workable program, neither rebellious nor precipitate, which sensible local people can agree upon if given a chance.

James E. Folsom, Governor of Alabama, sees the southern mind perplexed. Unrest and tension is evidenced in Alabama and elsewhere. To intelligently meet the problem he asked the legislature to set up a bi-racial commission to help resolve the tension, retard violence and find a workable solution.

Colgate W. Darden Jr., President of the University of Virginia, points out that the Supreme Court decision reverses the whole pattern of life in the southern states. Changes cannot come overnight when it touches the lives of 40 million people. He warns against substituting emotion for reason in attempting to meet the issue. It will take time and great patience to solve.

Brook Hays, Congressman from Arkansas, sees the situation as extremely serious, but feels that with the exercise of common sense and tolerance we can find the answer if extremists on both sides are held in check. He thinks church leaders on both sides can do much to help. The problem is not too great to solve if consultation is encouraged and strengthened faith in the South's intellectual and moral resources is displayed at this crucial age.

Ray C. Campbell, Mississippi President of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, states that the vast improvement in race relationship and progress of southern Negroes in education, health and economic opportunity were brought about by the enlightened leadership of men of good will in both races. He blames extremists and hot heads for most of the

Star Says Takes Lot To Get Ahead

By HAL BOYLE
 NEW YORK (AP)—To get ahead in the entertainment world, says Carroll Baker, "you have to be willing to turn down jobs—and eat macaroni."

"Half the problem in building a career is picking worthwhile roles."

It was her willingness to subsist on macaroni until the right part came along that has made Carroll Baker a star at 22. After only two films, she is already in the $50,000 to $75,000 class.

Chances are you never even heard of Carroll Baker, a slender, child-faced beauty who wears no makeup and looks as if she'd just stepped off a Victorian valentine.

But the chances are you won't be able to avoid hearing a lot about her before the year is out. In the theater belt she is being readied for a Cinderella girl build-up as director "Kia Kazan's" "last discovery." To be discovered by Kazan is better than having a rich old uncle in Australia—it's the stepping stone to quick money in the bank.

Among the other young stars Kazan helped rocket to a morning fame are Marlon Brando, Julie Harris, Eva Marie Saint, and the late Jim Dean.

Miss Baker had played only a relatively minor part in one film, the "dramatization" of Edna Ferber's "Giant," when Kazan had her try out for "Baby Doll." After one reading, he awarded her the title role.

"Baby Doll," written by Tennessee Williams, is a sex-haunted Southern tale in which a child bride comes to emotional maturity in an atmosphere of middle-aged arson and young grace.

The success of the $4-million-dollar production is almost sure to depend on how well the public likes Carroll's performance as the bewildered, thumb-sucking young bride.

But Kazan was so taken with her acting, he immediately signed her for another film—an unusual step for him. And Warner Bros. put her under contract for four more to be made in the next six years.

That's as many as Miss Baker, who has a clear and stubborn head on her young shoulders, weather from memory, she wants to be bound to.

"It isn't the number of productions you're in that counts," she said. "The important thing is to be in the right thing, with the right director."

Carroll, the daughter of a traveling salesman turned farmer, she made her Broadway debut in Johnstown, Pa. She in "Escapade," and first won critical attention in "All Summer Long." Later she auditioned for One night she lost her cue cards rector, and he signed her soon after to a lifetime role as his wife.

Irish Legend Theme For Annual Glee Club Operetta Slated Friday Night

A plot interwoven full of Irish legend and fancy will be presented in the form of the annual Seminole High School Glee Club Operetta entitled "Lady of the Terrace" which will be held this year, Friday April 20 at 8 p. m. in the High School auditorium with a cast and chorus of 120 students.

Keen wholesome comedy is furnished by members of the cast along with some "grand singing and dancing."

The scene and the story takes place in Ireland which has been leased by Sir Gerald Craughton, young Irish nobleman (Kenneth Ramsey) who inherited the Castle which to his dismay is run down and mortgaged to his uncle Squire Michael (Randall Robbins).

Due to this difficulty Gerald rents the Castle as a summer home to John Chandler (Richard Tison), rich American. His daughter, Clara (Pat Harrington), becomes interested in the legend of the castle which is quite interesting and romantic involving the Lady of the Terrace, the late Mary of Craughton, (Bobby Crutchfield).

A romance blossoms along with the mystery which finally becomes solved. Others lending to the comedy acts are Dennis O'Hara (Wayne McCoy), an Irish servant; Molly O'Hara, (Sissy Anderson), wife of Dennis; Lady Ellen Stanford (Yvonne Cullen), Gerald's aunt; Sir Clarence, (Joe Davis) a cousin; Peggy a cousin; Peggy Craughton, (Kaye Jenkins), Gerald's younger sister; and a score of dancers and singers.

Since Florida is distinguished by its many palms and since spring and early summer are ideal months for planting them, let's include a few in our gardens for their beauty and rich tropical effect.

There are two main classes of palms: the palmate or fan-leaved as in the cabbage or Sabal palm (four state tree) and the pinnate or feather-leaved as in our popular Cocco plumosa or Queen palm. There are many varieties of each and a type may be found to fill any landscape need, including parkways, foundations, lawns and also background and accent plants for your borders. Tell your nurseryman the position and effect you desire and he will suggest varieties to suit your needs.

Illustrative of the fan-leaved type are the Washingtonias on both sides of First Street from Sanford Ave. to the Mayfair Hotel, and the cabbage or Sabal palm along the lakefront, interspersed with Washingtonias. In this group also are the Chinese Fan palm (Livistonia chinensis), our common scrub or brush palmetto (Sabal minor), and the saw palmetto (Savanna repens). The club and saw palmettos have flat fan-shaped leaves without the midrib curve that is characteristic of the cabbage palm. The saw palmetto usually has its trunk sprawling along the ground although occasional specimens are upright.

The feather-leaved type is more exotic in appearance and includes such well known varieties as the Royal and Coconut palms of southern Florida and also our tried and true Cocco plumosa, Cocco australis or Butia which has gray-green deeply curved fronds and yellow fronds and the Phoenix or Date palms as well as numerous others.

Phoenix specimens in this area include the Canary Island date palm (Phoenix canariensis) as seen at our post office corner, in lakefront park and in various gardens all over the city, and an outstanding planting of Reclining date palms (Phoenix reclinata) lining both sides of Elliott Ave. in the Mayfair section. The latter tree with its many reclining trunks makes an effective lawn specimen and its trunk may be restricted to three to five to conserve space. A very graceful and dainty Phoenix palm is the pigmy date palm (Phoenix roebelenii) with fine feathery foliage and slow growth which makes it ideal for pots, foundation or shady borders where a larger palm wouldn't do.

Other feather palms not so widely grown in Central Florida but deserving a trial in sheltered locations are the Adonidia or Merrill's palm and the Alexander palm both having coarser foliage than our Cocco plumosa and orange red fruits. These are much used in South Florida where the Cocco plumosa is not hurricane hardy.

There are also many cluster type palms that do well in our gardens and make lovely patio plants while young. These include the quite dwarf Neanthe Bella or Collina elegans often confused with Chamaedorea elegans with yellow Area or cane palm with yellow tinged foliage and stem which reaches twenty feet in time, the Fish-tail palm (Caryota mitis), the MacArthur palm with blunt cut foliage tips and the lovely little Rhapsis or Lady palm with finger or hand shaped fronds. The Neanthe Bella is a good house palm and requires shade.

We should not overlook the Cycas and Zamias which are not palms at all but are usually listed with them because of their similar appearance. Cycas circinalis or fern palm has long fern like foliage springing from the heart of the plant. Lovely specimens are on Park Ave. at Sixteenth St. Cycas revoluta has stiffer dark green fronds. There is also a plummy variety, fine for pots. Zamia is a low palm-like plant with dark green foliage effective as border plant.

A free government bulletin number 152, "Native and Exotic Palms of Florida" may be obtained by sending a card to Agricultural Extension Service, Gainesville, Florida. This bulletin is full of cultural directions, descriptions and illustrations of these and many other palms.

Filby, U.S.N.; Mr. and Mrs. John Sheppard, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Corley and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Davis.

During the break in the evening of dancing was the introducing of the officers and members along with their dates. As the young couples came in they formed a large rainbow with Miss Irma Jean Corley, worthy advisor, and her date, Jim Warner, at the center.

Officers and members introduced included Miss Elizabeth Woodruff, Hostess, Beantly Schirrer, Miss Shirley Morgan, Recorder, Leslie Smith, Miss Linda Smith, Treasurer, Jimmy Hawkins; Miss Nancy Cook, Secretary, Henry Cason; Miss Dottie Will-

ed with them because of their similar appearance. Cycas circinalis or fern palm has long fern like foliage springing from the heart of the plant. Tigers Move Into 2nd Place In Boys' League

The Tigers moved into undisputed second place in the Rotary league when they clubbed the Pirates 4 to 3 in yesterday's game. The winners had done big innings, the third, when they massed three runs off Charlie English and then picked up an insurance tally in the fifth. The Bucs had to be satisfied with one marker each in the third and the fifth. They played without the services of Jimmy Moys who wrenched his ankle last week.

George Harriet and Cecil Dandridge were the big guns with the stick as each got a single and a double out of three trips to the plate.

Trouble started brewing for the Bucs when Powell was passed as he led off the big inning. Adams' infield roller was dropped in the attempt at second and two men were aboard the bases. Here is where Harriet got his two-bagger for a pair of runs and later faced some for the other marker of the frame.

Adams smashed a fast ball into right to wind up at second and later made it on around when Dandridge almost duplicated his blow.

Italligan was safe on Goemmel's bobble and made the first Pirate run on a wild pitch and a passed ball. Davis was responsible for the other tally after he singled.

New York Loses Bid For Football Series

NEW YORK (AP)—This city, which prides itself in doing things bigger and better than anywhere else, has lost its bid for the renewal of the colorful Army-Navy-Dame football series because it isn't big enough.

Philadelphia, with its 100,000-seat Municipal Stadium and a gross gate expected to top the best New York could offer by $100,000, will get the game instead. It also has been the site of recent Army-Navy games.

Game time is Oct. 12, 1957—ending a 10-year break in football rivalry between the two institutions.

Yankee Stadium, with a maximum capacity of 74,000, was the site New York had to offer, but Lt. Gen. Blackshear M. Bryan, superintendent of the U.S. Military Academy, said he "reluctantly" had to choose Philadelphia because of greater seating capacity and the prospect of greater revenue.

He announced his decision after conferring with Mayor Robert Wagner of New York and George Weiss, general manager of the New York Yankee Baseball Club, yesterday. He indicated he would confer with Yankee officials about bringing some other Army game to New York.

Mayor Wagner said the situation pointed up the need for a larger stadium in New York. A bill setting up a tax-free authority to build a $6-million-dollar home for the Brooklyn Dodgers currently is being considered by Gov. Harriman and the Borough of Manhattan is talking about a 110,000-seat stadium for the New York Giants.

Big Crowd Looked For At AAA's 55th Pennant Race

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
More than 50,000 fans were expected to watch opening games of the American Assn.'s 55th pennant race today.

The Class AAA league's 1956 campaign was scheduled to open in an afternoon game between Omaha and Indianapolis in the Indiana city. Night games included Denver at Wichita, St. Paul at Louisville and defending champion Minneapolis at Charleston.

Ed Doherty of Louisville, starting his third year as league president, predicted a big season.

"Given anything approximate a close race, I believe we have a real chance of not only reaching the two million attendance mark, but also of challenging the all-time record of 2,235,533 set in 1948," Doherty said.

Wichita's Eraves bow into AAA baseball for the first time under Manager George Selkirk, former star outfielder for the New York Yankees. The Kansas city moved into the association this year from the Class A Western League, replacing Toledo.

Two new managers are making their league debut—Eddie Stanky at Minneapolis and Charley Metz at Charleston. Selkirk went along to Wichita with the Toledo franchise.

Many Questions Confronting '56 Major League Managers

By JOE REICHTER

NEW YORK (AP)—Will Brooklyn dash from the barrier for '56 straight, as it did last year? Did the Yankees pick up pennant insurance when they got southpaw Maury McDermott from Washington? Are the Boston Red Sox improved sufficiently to wrest the American League title from New York?

Which team got the better of the deal that sent Larry Doby to Chicago and Chico Carrasquel to Cleveland last winter? Can rookie Luis Aparicio fill Carrasquel's shoes at shortstop for the White Sox?

These were some of the questions confronting managers today as the 1956 major league season got underway in eight cities.

Although tabbed as heavy favorites to meet again in the World Series, the Yankees and Dodgers, like the 14 other clubs, are beset with problems. The Yankees are vulnerable at shortstop and in the relief department. Their biggest headache may come from their strongest department — the outfield. Although Mickey Mantle has given promise this spring of fulfilling his tremendous potential, there is a constant concern over his damaged leg.

Hank Bauer, still not fully recovered from the groin injury that cut short his World Series action, is playing despite a specialist's orders to rest for an entire season. Should either outfielder be made unavailable for any length of time, the Yankees would be in trouble.

"I'm going to the commission this week and post a forfeit check for a title fight with Saddler," said manager Jimmy DeAngelis as his tiny gladiator vigorously nodded his head. "If the commission wants us to fight Hamla first that's okay with us. We'll be ready to oblige."

"Billy Brown (matchmaker for the International Boxing Club) wanted Carmela Costa to fight Miguel but Costa didn't want any part of him. He took Hamla instead and got licked. We're not ducking anyone."

Brooklyn is pitched by pitching miseries. The departure of Johnny Podres, the lar's arms of Billy Loos and Karl Spooner and the uncertainty of Carl Erskine to pitch the full season with a balky elbow should prevent a romp such as last year.

Approximately 250,000 spectators, barring bad weather, were expected to view the openers. A crowd of some 28,500 was assured at Washington, where President Eisenhower was all set to uncork the first "pitch," the signal for the official opening of the '56 season. The scheduled pitchers were Don Larsen (9-2) for New York and Camillo Pascual (2-12) for Washington.

A pitching duel was in prospect in Chicago where Cleveland's ace right-hander Bob Lemon (18-10) clashes with Billy Pierce (15-10). At Detroit, Frank Lary (14-15), the Tigers' sophomore right-hander, was given the assignment against the Kansas City Athletics' wily southpaw Alex Kellner (11-8). In Boston, it will be Ted Williams' first opener since 1952. Righthander Frank Sullivan (13-13) was slated to face Bill Wight (6-8), Baltimore's veteran lefthander.

The largest National League crowd (43,000) was expected at Milwaukee. Lew Burdette (13-8) hurled against the Chicago Cubs who had Bob Rush (13-11) all primed.

Another brilliant pitching duel was in the offing at Brooklyn, where the league's only 20-game winners were almost certain to square off. Robin Roberts (23-14) for Philadelphia and Don Newcombe (20-5) for Brooklyn were the main attraction.

At the Polo Grounds, the Giants behind southpaw ace Johnny Antonelli (14-10), were primed for their opener against Pittsburgh with Bob Friend (14-9) on the mound.

In Cincinnati, the Cardinals with Vinegar Bend Mizell on the mound, were the opposition. The Reds' opening choice was Joe Nuxhall (17-13).

Boards In Favor Of 17-92 Route

13 Pct. Of County Deaths In January Said From Cancer

Nearly 13 percent of the deaths in Seminole County during January of this year were from cancer according to a report released today by the Florida State Board of Health.

In the overall picture, statewide, a total of 6,590 indict persons with cancer received medical aid under the State Aid Cancer Program since it began in mid-1947, the report revealed.

In all, nearly 13,000 persons, unable to pay for private medical care, have been given medical care or diagnostic service at the 19 tumor clinics scattered throughout the state during the period 1947-1955. Of the number admitted to the program only a little more than half were found to have cancer.

Commenting on the report, State Health Officer Dr. Wilson T. Souder says, "It is a very satisfactory program and is well accepted by the medical profession and the hospitals concerned. We have worked very closely with the American Cancer Society and cooperate with them in the operation of the cancer clinics."

In fact, he continues, the program has worked so well that we used many of its features as a model in setting up our new program for the Hospitalization Service for the indigent.

Dr. L. L. Parks, Director of the Division of Cancer Control of the State Board of Health says that the achievements of the State Aid Cancer Program prove once again what can be done through medical efforts.

For, he points out, medical services at the 19 tumor clinics are provided free of charge by local physicians in private practice. The clinics are financed by state funds made available through the State Board of Health and from funds of the American Cancer Society, Florida Division. The hospital in which the clinic is located provides space and incidental expenses. Hospitalization, diagnostic procedures and laboratory expenses of the patient are paid by the State Board of Health at minimum rates.

Because of the limited funds available only patients whose chances for cure are favorable are admitted to medical care under the program and they are checked to determine medical progress.

An encouraging note found in the report is a table on follow-up studies made of 4,500 of the cases receiving financial aid and treatment under the program for the period 1947-1953. This study indicates that 44.4 per cent will live at least five years after admission to the program.

Of these cases, survival rates were poorest for persons with malignancies of the digestive and respiratory systems and highest for those with skin cancer.

Cancer continues to be the third largest cause of death in Florida though the rate is slightly lower than that of the United States as a whole. Some 6,488 persons died from cancer in Florida during 1953 as compared to 4,908 in 1954. Increases in the state's population would account for part of this rise.

Jockey Answers $64,000 Question

NEW YORK (AP)—A freelance jockey from California, riding a long shot named "Great Art and Artista," has won a $64,000 television quiz show purse.

Bill Pearson of Pasadena, last night became the fourth person to win the grand prize on the CBS show "The $64,000 Question."

Pearson was required to scan six reproductions of portraits of great artists, to identify them as to subject and artist, and to name one artist with whom each artist studied.

The jockey, who could have quit with his previous $32,000 winnings, said before he started for the grand prize that it was an 8-to-1 gamble, figuring income tax breaks. "But sometimes these things pay off," he declared.

A 15 cent toll causeway spanning Lake Monroe and the St. Johns River to join Seminole and Volusia counties by a revised route of 17-92 will be the answer to our problems. Fish District Road Board Member William H. Dial told the combined meeting of Seminole County and Volusia County Commissioners at an informal meeting last night at Jim Spenser's Restaurant.

An aerial view of the route from two miles south of Orange City to join French Ave. at Seminole Blvd. was displayed for the benefit of the commissioners and members of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce.

The proposal to build the causeway included the establishing of a Seminole-Volusia Toll District which, with the 15 cents toll to cross the three-mile bridge and causeway, would amortize the bonds in about 25 years, according to preliminary plans already developed and studied.

Dial, in explaining the work that had already been done on the project, expressed his appreciation for the work, studies, and preliminary specifications developed by a private engineering firm.

Also at the meeting last night were Seminole County Attorney and Representative Mack N. Cleveland Jr., Clerk of Court O. P. Harndon and Clerk of Court Jess Mathas.

The causeway would be constructed by using hydraulic fill to cross the three-mile wide lake and then continue along a county road route through Volusia county westward said Dial.

The proposal for the causeway would not eliminate the maintaining of the present route for the convenience of business houses and residents already established, said Dial.

John Krider, whose announcement of the proposed causeway appeared in The Sanford Herald several weeks ago, said this morning, "I am very happy to note that Mr. Dial has approved the plans that I have been working on for several months. It not only brings the four lanning project into full being over the entire route from DeLand into Sanford and Seminole County but it eliminates the possibility of a cutoff bypassing Seminole County but it eliminates the Board of Volusia County Commissioners last night was in its entirety in favor of the proposed causeway and the possible building of a fishing pier that could be reached from either the Seminole County or Volusia County side without the necessity of a toll.

The Seminole County Board of Commissioners was entirely in favor of the project.

Commissioner Fred Dyson said at the meeting last night, "This is the most feasible route I have ever heard of in all of the highways that have been planned for Florida."

Commissioner S. E. Stone of Volusia County spoke emphatically last night when he said, "We must have some relief. Traffic is bumper to bumper and something must be done."

The proposed route would start at Palm Court, in Volusia County, and continue south through De Bary, Enterprise and across the Lake Monroe to join the French Ave. thoroughfare.

The entire project will cost four and a half million dollars, Dial pointed out at last night's meeting, which includes the cost of the right-of-way.

"If you feel, in your mind, this is a feasible plan, then I want to see your reasons," Dial told the commissioners as they asked how soon would resolutions be needed to get the project underway.

Head Board Member Dial stated that the project could get underway immediately if the two boards of county commissioners would agree that the plan is the one that is needed.

"What we are trying to do," said Dial, "is protect these communities" as he pointed to the route of the proposed new 17-92 and the causeway.

The city's new restaurant owners are brothers-in-law who came to Sanford recently from Georgia. Both men have had years of experience in meat market and restaurant operations, and plan to capitalize on their combined knowledge of food and it's preparation at Sanford's only drive-in eating spot.

Under the new management, the Seminole Drive-In will remain open seven days a week from 9:30 a. m. until 10:00 o'clock, midnight. Johnson said that enroute from Titusville they will visit Ovidas where Bryant will speak for 15 minutes.

Bryant and the committee will arrive in Sanford at 11 o'clock when he would like to meet and talk with his many friends before his scheduled address at 11:45 from the corner of Magnolia Ave. and 7th St.

Dwindling Crowd Hears Candidates

Cold winds off Bear Lake held the crowd down at last night's Democratic Rally in the Bear Lake Section.

A crowd of about 100 was on hand at 8 o'clock to hear local candidates expound on their personal political philosophy regarding the various offices for which they are contending.

However, (at later the hour, the colder the winds, an even smaller crowd, shortly before 10 o'clock last night there were not more than 10 to 15 in the audience to listen to the candidates.

Conflicting meetings kept a few candidates from attending the rally, several were late arriving, and one refused to make comment on his candidacy because of his late arrival.

Issues were firm? It might be before the small crowd of three of the race when candidates for the Seminole County Tax Assessor's Office, the Sheriff's Office, and House of Representatives, spoke.

Miss Mary Earle contended that a permanent homestead exemption system, according to law, is currently being used in the Tax Assessor's office, and she said, "I feel that I am qualified to serve you as Tax Assessor both in the field and in the office."

Hatchel King, veering away from his usual talk in behalf of his candidacy told the small group that "I realize the assessor's job is not a surveyors job but it is one of the basic necessities. I believe the position should be filled by someone who is qualified to handle it."

John Melch said not vary from his stand "A reappraisal is necessary and is part of his platform." I believe the people want equality, he said. "If elected I will employ an outside firm to reappraise Seminole County property," Melch said.

Rudy Sloan hammered away at his permanent homestead exemption system by a card method and stayed out of the controversy about reappraisal, flinging the two cards up for the audience to see. Sloan said "This is the system used in other counties and I believe we need this streamlined system."

Soviet Party Chief, Premier In Britain For Tour, Talks

Soviet Premier Bolganin and Nikita Khrushchev, Communist Party chief sailed into Portsmouth Harbor today for 10 days of barnstorming, trade negotiations and high level talks in Britain.

The Krumlin's star traveling salesman arrived aboard the sleek, 12,000-ton Soviet cruiser Ordoshokids. The ship slid into the harbor right on time at 11 a. m., a Red flag fluttering from her mainmast.

A salute boomed out from shore batteries as the Russian warship came to anchor just a cable's length away from Lord Nelson's wooden-hulled battleship Victory, symbol of Britain's longtime supremacy of the seas.

Eden's hopes for some plain face-to-face speaking on the subject of world peace during the visit were buoyed mildly by Russian's declaration that it would support U. N. efforts to cool off the troubled Middle East.

The declaration called "exacerbation of the Arab-Israeli conflict" one of the most dangerous threats. It added "The Soviet government considers that it is possible and necessary to avoid armed conflict in the Near East."

Florida Poultry Industry Growing Speaker Reveals

A joint meeting of the Seminole County Farm Bureau and the Seminole County Poultrymen's Association was held last night in the Future Farmers Building at Seminole High School.

Making his points from graphs and bringing emphasis to the importance of the poultry business in Florida, Julian Moore, Extension Poultryman Specialist Extension Department of the University of Florida, was the principle speaker.

Moore told the joint meeting "the poultry industry is large and is still growing today in Florida." From the eggs he pointed to the growth of the industry from 1924 through 1953. A 34 per cent increase since 1924, said Moore, brought the total laying hens in 1954 from two-million to three-million today. However, he said, egg production in 1954 was two-million with the present day production at about 635-million.

"The modern and scientific way poultry is raised and produced," said Moore "accounts for the increase in egg production."

In the 1920's, said the Extension Poultryman Specialist, "there were only about five-million birds hatched in Florida compared to the 30-million hatched in 1953."

This increase, he said, is due to the larger types of hatcheries. The more chicks produced with a superior quality of meat and a better grade of chicks forced out many of the smaller hatcherymen. However, many of the birds, Moore commented, are exported to the foreign countries to the south.

The graphs displayed at last night's meeting showed that Florida produced 53.3 per cent of the eggs consumed here with 47.7 per cent shipped in under rigid inspection so that they meet the requirements of the State.

Turning to the picture of turkey production in Florida, Moore said that around 100,000 which are grown by hatcheries producing a better grade of bird in comparison to those raised on farms.

Moore was introduced by Seminole County Farm Bureau President W. W. Lutz.

A covered dish supper preceded the joint meeting of the two organizations.

Herlong Special Guest At Luncheon For Baseball Team

When the Washington Senators baseball team returned home from their winter training in Central Florida Congressman Syd Herlong was on hand to greet them.

The occasion was a huge "welcome back" luncheon at Washington's famous Touchdown Club, where Herlong was a special guest.

Herlong was invited to participate because of Captain Bill Casabe's consideration to "Mr. Baseball." He was formerly president of the Florida State League and for the past five seasons has been manager of the Democratic Congressional Baseball team. This team plays only one game each year, a charity affair to raise money for Washington's underprivileged children.

Parking Lot Put In Shape

Sanford merchants are getting their stocks in readiness this afternoon preparing for the gigantic opening of the Banner Days sales event which starts tomorrow morning.

Sale signs, tags, and displays are going up in all of Sanford's stores so shoppers will have easy access to the greatest bargain ever to be presented in the city.

This morning, the huge Municipal Parking Lot is being put in shape for the official opening at 6:30 tomorrow morning.

The parking lot is being striped and marked off for easy access and simple parking for more than 300 automobiles.

Many Sanford officials including the Sanford Merchants Association, the City Commission and the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce will participate in the parking lot's official opening for use by Sanford shoppers and business people.

B. L. Perkins Jr., president of the Sanford Merchants Association is looking forward to one of the biggest three-day events ever to be held here. "We are confident that the people of Sanford and the surrounding area will find displayed during the citywide sale some of the biggest savings they have ever experienced."

Gordon Sweeney, chairman of the Banner Days committee of the Merchants Association, agreed that this event, beginning tomorrow morning, will open the eyes of the shopping public and prove that citizens here can shop economically with their own hometown neighbors and businessmen.

"The Banner Days event is being sponsored by the Sanford Merchants Association and is being staged cooperatively by Sanford Merchants."

Odham Says In TV Appearance Lowry Talking Dangerous

In a talk on television at Pensacola last night, Bralley Odham said Sumner Lowry is "talking dangerous talk which could result in serious consequences and chaos."

"What is he talking about—a rebellion or separation from the nation? Personally I don't want to take up war against America."

Odham also criticized Warren for refusing to testify before the Kefauver committee investigating gambling in the state and said "As far as I know Warren was the first governor to use the power of his office so the mobs could organize."
