

Madison Square Garden Army Returns In Triumph To New York From Miami

Dempsey Does Not Return With Group But Wires Kid Chocolate To Fight Under His Auspices

Davis J. Walsh
International News Service
Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Mar. 4.—Having made the impossible first possible, then probably and finally actual, the Madison Square Garden Corporation's army of occupation at Miami Beach came riding into town in high triumph today from the battle of banded flies, down below. They came riding on the damask of velvet of two private cars, which was the tip off on success of their great gamble with the Shockey-Stribling enterprise, there being varying degrees of comfort to be attained in vehicular travel. Napoleon, for example, rode back from Moscow in a huff.

He rode in abject defeat, they in great triumph. The latter may not be represented in too many dollars and cents. In fact, when they count all the tabs they are likely to find they have what is called a nominal profit which is one of those things which you hurry cut and buy shoe strings. The real triumph came in the fact that they actually finished out of the suburbs with this business.

John Dempsey, the boy producer did not accompany the victorious troops and to the showdown on his immediate, intensive halt to be postponed. John wired an offer to Kid Chocolate last night to fight for the heavyweight title under his auspices; therefore, it may be that he has taken of the miracle of Miami as a token of his genius as a promoter and is conducting himself accordingly.

There is a scheduled meeting tomorrow of the garden's board of directors at which several things will be decided, including the fact that they are good. William F. Carey, probably will be elected general manager, replacing the late Tex Rickard, and it is more than possible that the legacy of Rickard's loss will be taken up further by an offer to Dempsey as promoter.

In this way, they hope to cover Rickard's activities on the big moment by Carey working from the inside and Dempsey working from the outside. If he goes in at all, the latter will play with only a few shots by the heavyweight racket and will work strictly on a percentage.

If he doesn't, he probably will promote his own fight with Floyd Fitzsimmons "fighting" for him. Either way, John Dempsey figures to quit the game at the end of the year far ahead of the play. The proposed purchase of the New York Giants also may be broached at the meeting but to no particular purpose. That's one thing about merchandising: you can't buy it the owner won't sell.

Rav Schalk, Former White Sox Manager To Catch For Giants

NEW YORK, Mar. 4.—(INS)—Ray Schalk, once the best catcher in the American League, may end the man and hit for the New York Giants this season.

The former White Sox manager is with the Giants in the capacity of coach. But according to advice from the New York team's training camp at San Antonio, Tex., the fiery "Cracker" is displaying all the spryness of a veteran.

Schalk started to whip himself into condition as soon as he arrived at San Antonio. He took his turn with the others in batting practice, stood around the bases at a fast clip in running and his hit throw to second with his rifle-like accuracy, showed him in the outfield and warmed up the pitchers.

When Schalk signed with the Giants, Manager John McGraw expressed the hope that Schalk would be able to carry part of the catching burden this season, but was generally believed that the catcher's active career was ended.

Good, Oats, Davis
Ray keeps up his good work in training camp, however, to keep up his considerable service to McGraw's rule around the bases. Schalk's career was ended, then the known country.

Now in the mad, president of the big league, Schalk is a man who is more than ready to take the lead in the batting line. Schalk's career was ended, then the known country.

SPORT REVIEW

Big money mean nothing to young Horton. He hoped cut wagers by a stroke at Valdora for $5,000 and the Carolina Island title.

A hole in one with the Oklahoma City fire and the first requirement.

HORTON SMITH
THE 21-YR.-OLD JUDITH, MO. PRO. WHO HAS BEEN THE YOUNG SENSATION OF THE WINTER SEASON.

70TH CONGRESS MAKES RECORD BEFORE DYING

(Continued From Page One)

Its legislative record included a $425,000,000 Mississippi River flood control bill, a $2,000,000,000 tax reduction measure, the Jones White shipping bill, extending government aid to the private merchant marine, and the postal pay increase bill.

President Coolidge's veto was overridden on the general postal pay bill, and four class postal bills passed. The presidential veto was sustained on the McNary-Haggen farm bill, and two minor measures. The Seventieth Congress also passed the first House bill, the first presidential bill, and the first House bill.

Nearly 100 members of the Congress pass out of the legislative building. The towering figure of Senator James A. Reed, the fighting Missouri Democrat, and Senator Charles Curtis, who goes to the vice-presidential chair, head the list. The incoming Congress will be overwhelmingly Republican, 53-47.

Coolidge Severs Connection With U. S. Government

(Continued From Page One)

Through the closing minutes of a session of Congress. He will take his place at noon in the Senate Chamber to witness the swearing in of Charles Curtis as vice president, and he will join the long list of notables immediately thereafter in the stands on the plaza while Mr. Hoover takes the oath of office and delivers his inaugural address.

But then, he withdraws quietly from the scene. "It is Mr. Hoover's story," he said today in reply to a question as to whether he would join the new President in the parade down the avenue and review the two-hour line of march.

Immediately after Mr. Hoover completes his address, Mr. Coolidge accompanied only by Mrs. Coolidge and the two secretaries and the two aides who have been with him during his White House incumbency, will go directly to Union Station located at right angles to the direction the inaugural parade will take.

At the station, the last vestige of the high official he has held drops from him. Here, the secret service men—directed by law to protect the life of the chief executive and his family—deliver on their charges of the past five and a half years, make their adieu and hurry back to the White House and the new chief.

Big money mean nothing to young Horton. He hoped cut wagers by a stroke at Valdora for $5,000 and the Carolina Island title.

Charles Curtis Is Inaugurated Vice President

(Continued From Page One)

Dawes an indirect dig by declaring the vice president had nothing to do with revealing the Senate's rules. This assertion came in sharp contrast to that of Dawes four years ago when the latter ridiculed the Senate's rules, attacked them as "subversion of fundamental, conservative government" and demanded their revision.

Whereas Dawes was cautious and blunt, Curtis was conservative and tolerant. When Dawes pounded his desk and thumped his fist, Curtis observed all the amenities and customs.

"The Vice President is not one of the makers of the law, nor is he consulted about the rules adopted to govern your actions," said Curtis. His obligations to the people of the country to whom he owes his high position and his duty to you, senators call for a fair and impartial construction of the rules which you, yourselves, have adopted and which you alone may change.

Annual Session Of Florida D. A. R. To Open Tuesday

(Continued From Page One)

The first salute and song "America," Mrs. John G. Lowmyer will welcome the visitors in behalf of the Florida D. A. R. chapter. Greetings will also be extended by George G. Herring, representing the American Legion, Mrs. E. A. Douglas, representing the State Federation of Women's Clubs. Response will be delivered by Mrs. Allen Hallett, second state vice regent.

The remainder of the program is as follows:
Solo, vocal song, "Patria" Arditi, by Mrs. John G. Lowmyer.
Solo, "America" Accompanied by Mrs. E. A. Douglas.
Report of patriotic conference by Mrs. James Craig.
Greetings from state regent, Mrs. H. B. Brown.
Greetings from C. A. R. by Mrs. G. G. Ward.

In most of the great open battles this winter the lucky figure of the Jephthah had been off with the leaders.

A hole in one with the Oklahoma City fire and the first requirement.

Celery Markets
Supplied by the Market News Service, Bureau of Agricultural Economics, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, Local Representative.

Shipments of celery to the United States for the week ending March 2, 1935, totaled 1,100 carloads, valued at $1,100,000. The total for the year to date is 1,100 carloads, valued at $1,100,000.

Shipments of celery to the United States for the week ending March 2, 1935, totaled 1,100 carloads, valued at $1,100,000. The total for the year to date is 1,100 carloads, valued at $1,100,000.

Shipments of celery to the United States for the week ending March 2, 1935, totaled 1,100 carloads, valued at $1,100,000. The total for the year to date is 1,100 carloads, valued at $1,100,000.

Shipments of celery to the United States for the week ending March 2, 1935, totaled 1,100 carloads, valued at $1,100,000. The total for the year to date is 1,100 carloads, valued at $1,100,000.

Shipments of celery to the United States for the week ending March 2, 1935, totaled 1,100 carloads, valued at $1,100,000. The total for the year to date is 1,100 carloads, valued at $1,100,000.

Shipments of celery to the United States for the week ending March 2, 1935, totaled 1,100 carloads, valued at $1,100,000. The total for the year to date is 1,100 carloads, valued at $1,100,000.

Shipments of celery to the United States for the week ending March 2, 1935, totaled 1,100 carloads, valued at $1,100,000. The total for the year to date is 1,100 carloads, valued at $1,100,000.

Shipments of celery to the United States for the week ending March 2, 1935, totaled 1,100 carloads, valued at $1,100,000. The total for the year to date is 1,100 carloads, valued at $1,100,000.

Shipments of celery to the United States for the week ending March 2, 1935, totaled 1,100 carloads, valued at $1,100,000. The total for the year to date is 1,100 carloads, valued at $1,100,000.

Shipments of celery to the United States for the week ending March 2, 1935, totaled 1,100 carloads, valued at $1,100,000. The total for the year to date is 1,100 carloads, valued at $1,100,000.

Shipments of celery to the United States for the week ending March 2, 1935, totaled 1,100 carloads, valued at $1,100,000. The total for the year to date is 1,100 carloads, valued at $1,100,000.

Shipments of celery to the United States for the week ending March 2, 1935, totaled 1,100 carloads, valued at $1,100,000. The total for the year to date is 1,100 carloads, valued at $1,100,000.

Shipments of celery to the United States for the week ending March 2, 1935, totaled 1,100 carloads, valued at $1,100,000. The total for the year to date is 1,100 carloads, valued at $1,100,000.

Night Coughs

are kept robbers and leave you tired and weary in the morning. Don't let them rob you. A night's sleep with a dose of

LEONARD'S
COUGH SYRUP CURED
The Cough Killer

FORGED... but We Paid the Loss

Although the Farm & Home Savings & Loan Association of Missouri had never suffered through this in title, they collected our title insurance as a mortgage loan to the building loan company.

Our check for $11,231.82 saved the Missouri association a serious loss.

Whenever you lend on hand and mortgage, a New York Title policy is always your best policy.

GUARANTY MORTGAGE CO.
107-9 S. Park Avenue
Sanford, Florida

Representative
NEW YORK TITLE AND MORTGAGE COMPANY
Capital Funds over $60,000,000

At the Branches in New York

At the Branches in New York

At the Branches in New York

At the Branches in New York

At the Branches in New York

At the Branches in New York

At the Branches in New York

At the Branches in New York

At the Branches in New York

At the Branches in New York

At the Branches in New York

At the Branches in New York

At the Branches in New York

At the Branches in New York

At the Branches in New York

At the Branches in New York

At the Branches in New York

At the Branches in New York

At the Branches in New York

At the Branches in New York

At the Branches in New York

At the Branches in New York

At the Branches in New York

At the Branches in New York

At the Branches in New York

At the Branches in New York

At the Branches in New York

The Sanford Herald

Published every afternoon except Sundays at Sanford, Florida.
111 Magnolia Avenue.

Entered as second class matter
October 27, 1919 at the Postoffice at Sanford, Florida, under act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

ROLAND L. DEAN Editor
H. HOWARD BIRCH Manager
MARLIN E. JONES Managing Editor

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

One Year $7.00
Six Months $3.50
Three Months $1.75
By Carrier per Week $0.15

The Herald is a member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations, at International Association of Publishers, Advertisers and Advertising Agencies which requires each Publisher member to submit to a thorough audit of subscription lists in order to verify absolutely all claims of circulation as well as to insure business methods.

The Herald, Sanford's pioneer newspaper subscribes to the International News Service, receiving from this superior news organization thirty thousand words daily covering all the leading events of the world.

TUESDAY, MARCH 5.
BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

THE FEAR OF THE LORD—
Who would not fear thee, O King of nations? for to thee doth it appertain: forasmuch as among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their kingdoms, there is none like unto thee.—Jeremiah 10:7.

PRAYER—O Thou My God
save Thy servant that trusteth in Thee.

OLD MEN AND OLD TREES

The bare, grey knuckles of the winter trees
Click noisily together like old men

Who rub thin hands along their bony knees.

Predicting certain weather-change—as when The flakes run thus and so; the wind is west;

The sun wades through a snow-
-blanket and the clouds
Are moving eastward.

Which of them knows best,
The old man or the trees?

A snow squall crowds
The prophets from the platform
Of the store;

They hurry home in sudden,
pleased alarm.

Calling—"I told you so!"

The dull sky pours Cascades of white upon the gaunt old arms

Of ash and elm. They have no word to say.

Either of weather now or yesterday.

Martha Browning Thomas

THE CHURCH

As tired children when the dusk falls early

Turn weary feet toward the shin-ing lights of home.

So in thy tenderness, our hearts turn gladly

As to thy arms we come.

Outside thy doors is tumult and
confusion.

Within thy walls alone is peace and rest.

As in the silence of thy still seclusion

We seek thy breast.

Mary Atwater Taylor

It is now President Hoover.

"Shuler Says Jax Home Life Rivals Seamus," according to a journal headline. Gosh, are things that bad in the Gateway City?

It takes all kinds of people to make up this world, including the bird who buys cigarettes to last two days and bums them for the rest of the week.

An English woman, reaching the age of 100, says her longevity is attributed to an utter contempt for men whom she has despised all her life. But even that doesn't make us feel badly.

Mr. Hoover over-slept a half hour on his first day as president.
We suspect that if we had just become president of the country, we would not have slept a half hour all night.

Lindbergh is marooned in Mexico because he can't find an airplane to fly back to the United States. If our only way of leaving Mexico was through the air we really would be isolated.

Where's the old-fashioned country editor who used to receive turnouts on subscriptions?—Jacksonville Times-Union. He's down in honor and tried to get glory on another.—Sanford Herald.—Incidentally this is what—Tampa Tribune.

Sometimes there is an advantage in being a president. Mr. Hoover was not a member of the National Association of Manufacturers when he was elected. Al Smith was not a member of the National Association of Manufacturers when he was elected.

Some of the reasons
why the world is in a state of
confusion is that after a recent war, the world is in a state of
confusion.

Some of the reasons
why the world is in a state of
confusion is that after a recent
war, the world is in a state of
confusion.

Some of the reasons
why the world is in a state of
confusion is that after a recent
war, the world is in a state of
confusion.

Some of the reasons
why the world is in a state of
confusion is that after a recent
war, the world is in a state of
confusion.

Some of the reasons
why the world is in a state of
confusion is that after a recent
war, the world is in a state of
confusion.

Some of the reasons
why the world is in a state of
confusion is that after a recent
war, the world is in a state of
confusion.

Some of the reasons
why the world is in a state of
confusion is that after a recent
war, the world is in a state of
confusion.

Some of the reasons
why the world is in a state of
confusion is that after a recent
war, the world is in a state of
confusion.

Some of the reasons
why the world is in a state of
confusion is that after a recent
war, the world is in a state of
confusion.

Some of the reasons
why the world is in a state of
confusion is that after a recent
war, the world is in a state of
confusion.

Some of the reasons
why the world is in a state of
confusion is that after a recent
war, the world is in a state of
confusion.

Some of the reasons
why the world is in a state of
confusion is that after a recent
war, the world is in a state of
confusion.

Some of the reasons
why the world is in a state of
confusion is that after a recent
war, the world is in a state of
confusion.

Some of the reasons
why the world is in a state of
confusion is that after a recent
war, the world is in a state of
confusion.

Some of the reasons
why the world is in a state of
confusion is that after a recent
war, the world is in a state of
confusion.

Some of the reasons
why the world is in a state of
confusion is that after a recent
war, the world is in a state of
confusion.

Some of the reasons
why the world is in a state of
confusion is that after a recent
war, the world is in a state of
confusion.

Some of the reasons
why the world is in a state of
confusion is that after a recent
war, the world is in a state of
confusion.

Some of the reasons
why the world is in a state of
confusion is that after a recent
war, the world is in a state of
confusion.

Some of the reasons
why the world is in a state of
confusion is that after a recent
war, the world is in a state of
confusion.

Some of the reasons
why the world is in a state of
confusion is that after a recent
war, the world is in a state of
confusion.

Some of the reasons
why the world is in a state of
confusion is that after a recent
war, the world is in a state of
confusion.

The D. A. R. Conference

Converging upon Sanford today are many D. A. R. members who are coming here to attend the twenty-seventh annual state conference at the Forrest Lake Hotel. This community is fortunate that it has the privilege and the opportunity of playing host to such an organization and that our citizens recognize that they have been singularly favored by the decision to hold the D. A. R. conference here as a foregone conclusion.

It is well that there is a patriotic order in America which has for its purpose the perpetuation of the principles which inspired our earliest patriots to conceive the idea of liberty and which led Washington and his men in accomplishing the defeat of the British. It is fitting that this same order should take the lead in fostering preparedness as a means of protection rather than of aggression and it is commendable that the youth of our land and particularly the foreign born should have the opportunity of being conversely wise in their duty to the government and in the present of good citizenship by a group of women conscious of the responsibility that is theirs.

Realizing, then, what the Daughters of the American Revolution are aiming to accomplish and believing that there can be no finer endeavor than the upbuilding of citizenship, we welcome the delegates who have come to attend the state conference in Sanford.

Hail To The President

Amid colorful surroundings and a lay display of pomp and splendor, Herbert Clark Hoover yesterday became the thirtieth president, succeeding Calvin Coolidge, who retired from the office after an occupancy of five years and seven months. It was an awe-inspiring spectacle as an inaugural ceremony. The ceremony itself, the taking of the oath of office, was simple and in marked contrast to the accompanying brilliance of the distinguished assemblage. Serious-faced and with solemn mien, the incoming president raised his right hand and gazed heavenward as if invoking spiritual guidance as he swore to uphold the Constitution and dedicated himself to a faithful and conscientious public service.

To Mr. Hoover, the presidency comes as a crowning achievement of a notable career. It comes as an acknowledgment of reward for persistence in all undertakings, for fifty years and ideals, and for an unfaltering devotion to duty. Ably qualified to fill the presidency, Mr. Hoover brings to the office a broader experience than perhaps any other man who has ever filled it. After an illustrious career in engineering, he found himself during the war a world figure in his early forties. The friend and confidant of President Wilson, a Democrat, Mr. Hoover subsequently entered the cabinet of the late President Harding and remained in the cabinet family under Mr. Coolidge. In all of his undertakings, the new President has served with a distinction that bodes good fortune for the country under his administration.

Despite the fact that Mr. Hoover assumes office under more or less auspicious circumstances, he will be confronted by a number of problems of no little magnitude. Possessing an analytical mind that is keenly alert, the new Chief Executive will in all probability keep in closer touch with extensive governmental affairs than any of his predecessors during the past three decades. Although a close student of politics, Mr. Hoover, fortunately for the country, is not a politician. His administration, therefore, should be as nearly free from political influences as is humanly possible. Those who have seen him serve as close advisor to Democratic and Republican presidents alike are pleased to regard him as a man not strictly bound to follow a beaten path of partisanship.

While the elevation of Mr. Hoover to the presidency may be significant of many things, not the least of which is that it symbolizes American opportunity, we like to view it as one of those rare instances in which the office sought the man. Ever since the war Mr. Hoover has been looked upon as presidential timber. The Democrats gladly would have nominated him as successor to Woodrow Wilson; the Republicans also suggested him eight years ago. When Mr. Coolidge gave out his now famous "I don't choose to run" statement, the party had five or six other outstanding men to whom it could have turned, but by a spontaneous movement it drafted Mr. Hoover. His personal appeal was enhanced by his singular campaign methods. His subsequent election by the largest popular and electoral vote in history is a fitting testimonial of how the people responded when offered the opportunity of voting for a man of Mr. Hoover's caliber.

MINDING ONE'S BUSINESS

PORT MYERS NEWS

In his final conference with the newspaper correspondents at the White House President Coolidge said that he considered his success in minding his own business the one superlative achievement of his service as chief executive of the United States.

That was a typical Coolidge valditory and it must have given him great satisfaction to deliver it. Although less cryptic and not so formally announced as his famous "I do not choose to run," it deserves a prominent place in the list of pungent sayings for which the taciturn Vermont is noted. He spoke offhand, in answer to a routine question by one of the reporters who, probably hadn't the slightest notion that what he was asking would elicit a historic remark. No big idea was ever so briefly worded. What he said succinctly, described in common language the least politically minded of his countrymen will understand the whole policy of the Coolidge administration. There was no need to go into details, as the president recognized when he followed his usual practice of declining to amplify or explain. To the added query, "minding your own business is what way?" there was only one answer and that was "Every way."

However admirable the virtue claimed by Mr. Coolidge may be, it is a president of the United States it is no secret as a stopping point in that exalted office. If Coolidge, however, had minded his own business, history may be different. He would not have been president.

Mr. Hoover, too, can trace his own eminence back to the day when occurred his one outstanding departure from his rule to attend rigidly to his own affairs. As governor of Massachusetts he was maneuvered into a position which caused him to assent to the calling out of state troops for intervention in a Boston police strike. Strictly speaking the trouble was none of his business and chroniclers of the incident report that this was his contention. However, the orders were issued, with or without his intent to take the step, and the grim thoroughness with which he carried it through when one committed to it, made him a national figure. Two lucky "breaks," so which minding his own business constituted nothing. Did the rank, the Hoover administration which have become president. If Woodrow Wilson had stuck to his knitting as president of Princeton instead of dabbling academically in state politics he would never have been elected governor of New Jersey and thus placed in line for the great place he now holds in the history of the world. And where, can anyone guess, would Herbert Hoover be now if he had minded his own business and got himself out of there when caught in the war zone back in 1914? Instead of giving his attention to presiding matters of importance to himself and his associates he allowed himself to be drafted as head of a committee to get others home and thereby took the first step in a spectacular career of public service which led him to the presidency.

Coolidge, too, can trace his own eminence back to the day when occurred his one outstanding departure from his rule to attend rigidly to his own affairs. As governor of Massachusetts he was maneuvered into a position which caused him to assent to the calling out of state troops for intervention in a Boston police strike. Strictly speaking the trouble was none of his business and chroniclers of the incident report that this was his contention. However, the orders were issued, with or without his intent to take the step, and the grim thoroughness with which he carried it through when one committed to it, made him a national figure. Two lucky "breaks," so which minding his own business constituted nothing. Did the rank, the Hoover administration which

have become president. If Woodrow Wilson had stuck to his knitting as president of Princeton instead of dabbling academically in state politics he would never have been elected governor of New Jersey and thus placed in line for the great place he now holds in the history of the world. And where, can anyone guess, would Herbert Hoover be now if he had minded his own business and got himself out of there when caught in the war zone back in 1914? Instead of giving his attention to presiding matters of importance to himself and his associates he allowed himself to be drafted as head of a committee to get others home and thereby took the first step in a spectacular career of public service which led him to the presidency.

Coolidge, too, can trace his own eminence back to the day when occurred his one outstanding departure from his rule to attend rigidly to his own affairs. As governor of Massachusetts he was maneuvered into a position which caused him to assent to the calling out of state troops for intervention in a Boston police strike. Strictly speaking the trouble was none of his business and chroniclers of the incident report that this was his contention. However, the orders were issued, with or without his intent to take the step, and the grim thoroughness with which he carried it through when one committed to it, made him a national figure. Two lucky "breaks," so which minding his own business constituted nothing. Did the rank, the Hoover administration which

have become president. If Woodrow Wilson had stuck to his knitting as president of Princeton instead of dabbling academically in state politics he would never have been elected governor of New Jersey and thus placed in line for the great place he now holds in the history of the world. And where, can anyone guess, would Herbert Hoover be now if he had minded his own business and got himself out of there when caught in the war zone back in 1914? Instead of giving his attention to presiding matters of importance to himself and his associates he allowed himself to be drafted as head of a committee to get others home and thereby took the first step in a spectacular career of public service which led him to the presidency.

Coolidge, too, can trace his own eminence back to the day when occurred his one outstanding departure from his rule to attend rigidly to his own affairs. As governor of Massachusetts he was maneuvered into a position which caused him to assent to the calling out of state troops for intervention in a Boston police strike. Strictly speaking the trouble was none of his business and chroniclers of the incident report that this was his contention. However, the orders were issued, with or without his intent to take the step, and the grim thoroughness with which he carried it through when one committed to it, made him a national figure. Two lucky "breaks," so which minding his own business constituted nothing. Did the rank, the Hoover administration which

have become president. If Woodrow Wilson had stuck to his knitting as president of Princeton instead of dabbling academically in state politics he would never have been elected governor of New Jersey and thus placed in line for the great place he now holds in the history of the world. And where, can anyone guess, would Herbert Hoover be now if he had minded his own business and got himself out of there when caught in the war zone back in 1914? Instead of giving his attention to presiding matters of importance to himself and his associates he allowed himself to be drafted as head of a committee to get others home and thereby took the first step in a spectacular career of public service which led him to the presidency.

Coolidge, too, can trace his own eminence back to the day when occurred his one outstanding departure from his rule to attend rigidly to his own affairs. As governor of Massachusetts he was maneuvered into a position which caused him to assent to the calling out of state troops for intervention in a Boston police strike. Strictly speaking the trouble was none of his business and chroniclers of the incident report that this was his contention. However, the orders were issued, with or without his intent to take the step, and the grim thoroughness with which he carried it through when one committed to it, made him a national figure. Two lucky "breaks," so which minding his own business constituted nothing. Did the rank, the Hoover administration which

have become president. If Woodrow Wilson had stuck to his knitting as president of Princeton instead of dabbling academically in state politics he would never have been elected governor of New Jersey and thus placed in line for the great place he now holds in the history of the world. And where, can anyone guess, would Herbert Hoover be now if he had minded his own business and got himself out of there when caught in the war zone back in 1914? Instead of giving his attention to presiding matters of importance to himself and his associates he allowed himself to be drafted as head of a committee to get others home and thereby took the first step in a spectacular career of public service which led him to the presidency.

Coolidge, too, can trace his own eminence back to the day when occurred his one outstanding departure from his rule to attend rigidly to his own affairs. As governor of Massachusetts he was maneuvered into a position which caused him to assent to the calling out of state troops for intervention in a Boston police strike. Strictly speaking the trouble was none of his business and chroniclers of the incident report that this was his contention. However, the orders were issued, with or without his intent to take the step, and the grim thoroughness with which he carried it through when one committed to it, made him a national figure. Two lucky "breaks," so which minding his own business constituted nothing. Did the rank, the Hoover administration which

have become president. If Woodrow Wilson had stuck to his knitting as president of Princeton instead of dabbling academically in state politics he would never have been elected governor of New Jersey and thus placed in line for the great place he now holds in the history of the world. And where, can anyone guess, would Herbert Hoover be now if he had minded his own business and got himself out of there when caught in the war zone back in 1914? Instead of giving his attention to presiding matters of importance to himself and his associates he allowed himself to be drafted as head of a committee to get others home and thereby took the first step in a spectacular career of public service which led him to the presidency.

Coolidge, too, can trace his own eminence back to the day when occurred his one outstanding departure from his rule to attend rigidly to his own affairs. As governor of Massachusetts he was maneuvered into a position which caused him to assent to the calling out of state troops for intervention in a Boston police strike. Strictly speaking the trouble was none of his business and chroniclers of the incident report that this was his contention. However, the orders were issued, with or without his intent to take the step, and the grim thoroughness with which he carried it through when one committed to it, made him a national figure. Two lucky "breaks," so which minding his own business constituted nothing. Did the rank, the Hoover administration which

have become president. If Woodrow Wilson had stuck to his knitting as president of Princeton instead of dabbling academically in state politics he would never have been elected governor of New Jersey and thus placed in line for the great place he now holds in the history of the world. And where, can anyone guess, would Herbert Hoover be now if he had minded his own business and got himself out of there when caught in the war zone back in 1914? Instead of giving his attention to presiding matters of importance to himself and his associates he allowed himself to be drafted as head of a committee to get others home and thereby took the first step in a spectacular career of public service which led him to the presidency.

Coolidge, too, can trace his own eminence back to the day when occurred his one outstanding departure from his rule to attend rigidly to his own affairs. As governor of Massachusetts he was maneuvered into a position which caused him to assent to the calling out of state troops for intervention in a Boston police strike. Strictly speaking the trouble was none of his business and chroniclers of the incident report that this was his contention. However, the orders were issued, with or without his intent to take the step, and the grim thoroughness with which he carried it through when one committed to it, made him a national figure. Two lucky "breaks," so which minding his own business constituted nothing. Did the rank, the Hoover administration which

have become president. If Woodrow Wilson had stuck to his knitting as president of Princeton instead of dabbling academically in state politics he would never have been elected governor of New Jersey and thus placed in line for the great place he now holds in the history of the world. And where, can anyone guess, would Herbert Hoover be now if he had minded his own business and got himself out of there when caught in the war zone back in 1914? Instead of giving his attention to presiding matters of importance to himself and his associates he allowed himself to be drafted as head of a committee to get others home and thereby took the first step in a spectacular career of public service which led him to the presidency.

Coolidge, too, can trace his own eminence back to the day when occurred his one outstanding departure from his rule to attend rigidly to his own affairs. As governor of Massachusetts he was maneuvered into a position which caused him to assent to the calling out of state troops for intervention in a Boston police strike. Strictly speaking the trouble was none of his business and chroniclers of the incident report that this was his contention. However, the orders were issued, with or without his intent to take the step, and the grim thoroughness with which he carried it through when one committed to it, made him a national figure. Two lucky "breaks," so which minding his own business constituted nothing. Did the rank, the Hoover administration which

have become president. If Woodrow Wilson had stuck to his knitting as president of Princeton instead of dabbling academically in state politics he would never have been elected governor of New Jersey and thus placed in line for the great place he now holds in the history of the world. And where, can anyone guess, would Herbert Hoover be now if he had minded his own business and got himself out of there when caught in the war zone back in 1914? Instead of giving his attention to presiding matters of importance to himself and his associates he allowed himself to be drafted as head of a committee to get others home and thereby took the first step in a spectacular career of public service which led him to the presidency.

Coolidge, too, can trace his own eminence back to the day when occurred his one outstanding departure from his rule to attend rigidly to his own affairs. As governor of Massachusetts he was maneuvered into a position which caused him to assent to the calling out of state troops for intervention in a Boston police strike. Strictly speaking the trouble was none of his business and chroniclers of the incident report that this was his contention. However, the orders were issued, with or without his intent to take the step, and the grim thoroughness with which he carried it through when one committed to it, made him a national figure. Two lucky "breaks," so which minding his own business constituted nothing. Did the rank, the Hoover administration which

have become president. If Woodrow Wilson had stuck to his knitting as president of Princeton instead of dabbling academically in state politics he would never have been elected governor of New Jersey and thus placed in line for the great place he now holds in the history of the world. And where, can anyone guess, would Herbert Hoover be now if he had minded his own business and got himself out of there when caught in the war zone back in 1914? Instead of giving his attention to presiding matters of importance to himself and his associates he allowed himself to be drafted as head of a committee to get others home and thereby took the first step in a spectacular career of public service which led him to the presidency.

Coolidge, too, can trace his own eminence back to the day when occurred his one outstanding departure from his rule to attend rigidly to his own affairs. As governor of Massachusetts he was maneuvered into a position which caused him to assent to the calling out of state troops for intervention in a Boston police strike. Strictly speaking the trouble was none of his business and chroniclers of the incident report that this was his contention. However, the orders were issued, with or without his intent to take the step, and the grim thoroughness with which he carried it through when one committed to it, made him a national figure. Two lucky "breaks," so which minding his own business constituted nothing. Did the rank, the Hoover administration which

have become president. If Woodrow Wilson had stuck to his knitting as president of Princeton instead of dabbling academically in state politics he would never have been elected governor of New Jersey and thus placed in line for the great place he now holds in the history of the world. And where, can anyone guess, would Herbert Hoover be now if he had minded his own business and got himself out of there when caught in the war zone back in 1914? Instead of giving his attention to presiding matters of importance to himself and his associates he allowed himself to be drafted as head of a committee to get others home and thereby took the first step in a spectacular career of public service which led him to the presidency.

Coolidge, too, can trace his own eminence back to the day when occurred his one outstanding departure from his rule to attend rigidly to his own affairs. As governor of Massachusetts he was maneuvered into a position which caused him to assent to the calling out of state troops for intervention in a Boston police strike. Strictly speaking the trouble was none of his business and chroniclers of the incident report that this was his contention. However, the orders were issued, with or without his intent to take the step, and the grim thoroughness with which he carried it through when one committed to it, made him a national figure. Two lucky "breaks," so which minding his own business constituted nothing. Did the rank, the Hoover administration which

have become president. If Woodrow Wilson had stuck to his knitting as president of Princeton instead of dabbling academically in state politics he would never have been elected governor of New Jersey and thus placed in line for the great place he now holds in the history of the world. And where, can anyone guess, would Herbert Hoover be now if he had minded his own business and got himself out of there when caught in the war zone back in 1914? Instead of giving his attention to presiding matters of importance to himself and his associates he allowed himself to be drafted as head of a committee to get others home and thereby took the first step in a spectacular career of public service which led him to the presidency.

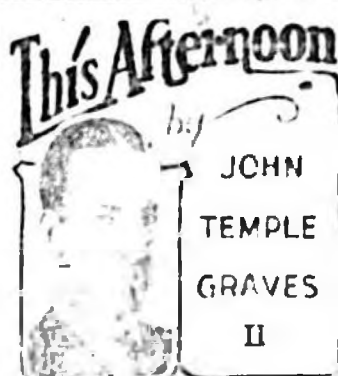

Coolidge, too, can trace his own eminence back to the day when occurred his one outstanding departure from his rule to attend rigidly to his own affairs. As governor of Massachusetts he was maneuvered into a position which caused him to assent to the calling out of state troops for intervention in a Boston police strike. Strictly speaking the trouble was none of his business and chroniclers of the incident report that this was his contention. However, the orders were issued, with or without his intent to take the step, and the grim thoroughness with which he carried it through when one committed to it, made him a national figure. Two lucky "breaks," so which minding his own business constituted nothing. Did the rank, the Hoover administration which

have become president. If Woodrow Wilson had stuck to his knitting as president of Princeton instead of dabbling academically in state politics he would never have been elected governor of New Jersey and thus placed in line for the great place he now holds in the history of the world. And where, can anyone guess, would Herbert Hoover be now if he had minded his own business and got himself out of there when caught in the war zone back in 1914? Instead of giving his attention to presiding matters of importance to himself and his associates he allowed himself to be drafted as head of a committee to get others home and thereby took the first step in a spectacular career of public service which led him to the presidency.

Coolidge, too, can trace his own eminence back to the day when occurred his one outstanding departure from his rule to attend rigidly to his own affairs. As governor of Massachusetts he was maneuvered into a position which caused him to assent to the calling out of state troops for intervention in a Boston police strike. Strictly speaking the trouble was none of his business and chroniclers of the incident report that this was his contention. However, the orders were issued, with or without his intent to take the step, and the grim thoroughness with which he carried it through when one committed to it, made him a national figure. Two lucky "breaks," so which minding his own business constituted nothing. Did the rank, the Hoover administration which

have become president. If Woodrow Wilson had stuck to his knitting as president of Princeton instead of dabbling academically in state politics he would never have been elected governor of New Jersey and thus placed in line for the great place he now holds in the history of the world. And where, can anyone guess, would Herbert Hoover be now if he had minded his own business and got himself out of there when caught in the war zone back in 1914? Instead of giving his attention to presiding matters of importance to himself and his associates he allowed himself to be drafted as head of a committee to get others home and thereby took the first step in a spectacular career of public service which led him to the presidency.

Coolidge, too, can trace his own eminence back to the day when occurred his one outstanding departure from his rule to attend rigidly to his own affairs. As governor of Massachusetts he was maneuvered into a position which caused him to assent to the calling out of state troops for intervention in a Boston police strike. Strictly speaking the trouble was none of his business and chroniclers of the incident report that this was his contention. However, the orders were issued, with or without his intent to take the step, and the grim thoroughness with which he carried it through when one committed to it, made him a national figure. Two lucky "breaks," so which minding his own business constituted nothing. Did the rank, the Hoover administration which

JOHN
TEMPLE
GRAVES
II

Selling Seats With Nothing to Do

MAKING IT

MAKING IT

MAKING IT

MAKING IT

MAKING IT

MAKING IT

MAKING IT

MAKING IT

MAKING IT

MAKING IT

MAKING IT

MAKING IT

MAKING IT

MAKING IT

MAKING IT

MAKING IT

MAKING IT

MAKING IT

MAKING IT

Social And Personal Activities

MISS MARGARET PETERS, Society Editor
Office Telephone 148.

Social Calendar

WEDNESDAY

Circle Number 30 of the Baptist Church will meet at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. H. Smith, 111 S. E. 1st St., for the purpose of raising funds for the purchase of a new organ. The organ is now on order and will be delivered in about two weeks. The church is very anxious to have it installed as soon as possible.

THURSDAY

Circle Number 30 of the Baptist Church will meet at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. H. Smith, 111 S. E. 1st St., for the purpose of raising funds for the purchase of a new organ. The organ is now on order and will be delivered in about two weeks. The church is very anxious to have it installed as soon as possible.

FRIDAY

Circle Number 30 of the Baptist Church will meet at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. H. Smith, 111 S. E. 1st St., for the purpose of raising funds for the purchase of a new organ. The organ is now on order and will be delivered in about two weeks. The church is very anxious to have it installed as soon as possible.

SATURDAY

Circle Number 30 of the Baptist Church will meet at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. H. Smith, 111 S. E. 1st St., for the purpose of raising funds for the purchase of a new organ. The organ is now on order and will be delivered in about two weeks. The church is very anxious to have it installed as soon as possible.

SUNDAY

Circle Number 30 of the Baptist Church will meet at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. H. Smith, 111 S. E. 1st St., for the purpose of raising funds for the purchase of a new organ. The organ is now on order and will be delivered in about two weeks. The church is very anxious to have it installed as soon as possible.

MONDAY

Circle Number 30 of the Baptist Church will meet at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. H. Smith, 111 S. E. 1st St., for the purpose of raising funds for the purchase of a new organ. The organ is now on order and will be delivered in about two weeks. The church is very anxious to have it installed as soon as possible.

TUESDAY

Circle Number 30 of the Baptist Church will meet at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. H. Smith, 111 S. E. 1st St., for the purpose of raising funds for the purchase of a new organ. The organ is now on order and will be delivered in about two weeks. The church is very anxious to have it installed as soon as possible.

WEDNESDAY

Circle Number 30 of the Baptist Church will meet at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. H. Smith, 111 S. E. 1st St., for the purpose of raising funds for the purchase of a new organ. The organ is now on order and will be delivered in about two weeks. The church is very anxious to have it installed as soon as possible.

THURSDAY

Circle Number 30 of the Baptist Church will meet at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. H. Smith, 111 S. E. 1st St., for the purpose of raising funds for the purchase of a new organ. The organ is now on order and will be delivered in about two weeks. The church is very anxious to have it installed as soon as possible.

Philathea Class Has Meet Monday Night

Mrs. Walter H. Bain and Mrs. M. C. Bain, who have been members of the Philathea Class of the Baptist Church for some time, held a meeting at their home on Monday night. The meeting was very successful and many new members were added to the class. The class is very active and is doing a great deal of good work for the church.

Union Holds Meet At Parish House Monday

The Union of the Baptist Church held a meeting at the parish house on Monday night. The meeting was very successful and many new members were added to the union. The union is very active and is doing a great deal of good work for the church.

Piano Pupils Present Recital On Saturday

The piano pupils of the Baptist Church presented a recital on Saturday afternoon. The recital was very successful and many new members were added to the church. The pupils are very active and are doing a great deal of good work for the church.

TO SPEAK AT CHURCH

The Rev. Leslie E. Tiller, of the First Baptist Church, will speak at the church on Sunday. He will speak on the subject of "The Christian's Duty." The church is very anxious to have him speak and is sure that his message will be very helpful to the congregation.

TO SPEAK AT CHURCH

The Rev. Leslie E. Tiller, of the First Baptist Church, will speak at the church on Sunday. He will speak on the subject of "The Christian's Duty." The church is very anxious to have him speak and is sure that his message will be very helpful to the congregation.

TO SPEAK AT CHURCH

The Rev. Leslie E. Tiller, of the First Baptist Church, will speak at the church on Sunday. He will speak on the subject of "The Christian's Duty." The church is very anxious to have him speak and is sure that his message will be very helpful to the congregation.

TO SPEAK AT CHURCH

The Rev. Leslie E. Tiller, of the First Baptist Church, will speak at the church on Sunday. He will speak on the subject of "The Christian's Duty." The church is very anxious to have him speak and is sure that his message will be very helpful to the congregation.

TO SPEAK AT CHURCH

The Rev. Leslie E. Tiller, of the First Baptist Church, will speak at the church on Sunday. He will speak on the subject of "The Christian's Duty." The church is very anxious to have him speak and is sure that his message will be very helpful to the congregation.

Personals

Mrs. J. H. Smith, 111 S. E. 1st St., has been elected president of the Baptist Church. She is a very active and successful business woman and is sure to lead the church to new heights of success. The church is very proud to have her as president.

Woman's Club Will Meet On Wednesday

The Woman's Club of the Baptist Church will meet on Wednesday night. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. H. Smith, 111 S. E. 1st St. The club is very active and is doing a great deal of good work for the church.

Theatre Club Will Present Play Soon

The Theatre Club of the Baptist Church will present a play soon. The play is a very successful one and is sure to be a great hit with the audience. The club is very active and is doing a great deal of good work for the church.

Woman's Club Will Meet On Wednesday

The Woman's Club of the Baptist Church will meet on Wednesday night. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. H. Smith, 111 S. E. 1st St. The club is very active and is doing a great deal of good work for the church.

LAKE MARY

Mrs. A. E. Sjöblom was honored with a surprise party given in honor of her 57th birthday last Thursday evening. Mrs. Sjöblom received many gifts including a new fur coat and a new automobile. She is a very successful business woman and is sure to lead the church to new heights of success.

Woman's Club Will Meet On Wednesday

The Woman's Club of the Baptist Church will meet on Wednesday night. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. H. Smith, 111 S. E. 1st St. The club is very active and is doing a great deal of good work for the church.

Dr. Belk Preaches Here Monday Night Upon "The Savior"

Dr. Belk will preach here Monday night upon the subject of "The Savior." The sermon is a very powerful one and is sure to be a great hit with the audience. The church is very anxious to have him preach and is sure that his message will be very helpful to the congregation.

Woman's Club Will Meet On Wednesday

The Woman's Club of the Baptist Church will meet on Wednesday night. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. H. Smith, 111 S. E. 1st St. The club is very active and is doing a great deal of good work for the church.

Spring Legislation To Include Number Of Motorist Bills

The Spring Session of the Florida Legislature will include a number of bills affecting motorists. The bills are very important and are sure to be a great hit with the audience. The legislature is very anxious to have them passed and is sure that they will be very helpful to the motorists.

Woman's Club Will Meet On Wednesday

The Woman's Club of the Baptist Church will meet on Wednesday night. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. H. Smith, 111 S. E. 1st St. The club is very active and is doing a great deal of good work for the church.

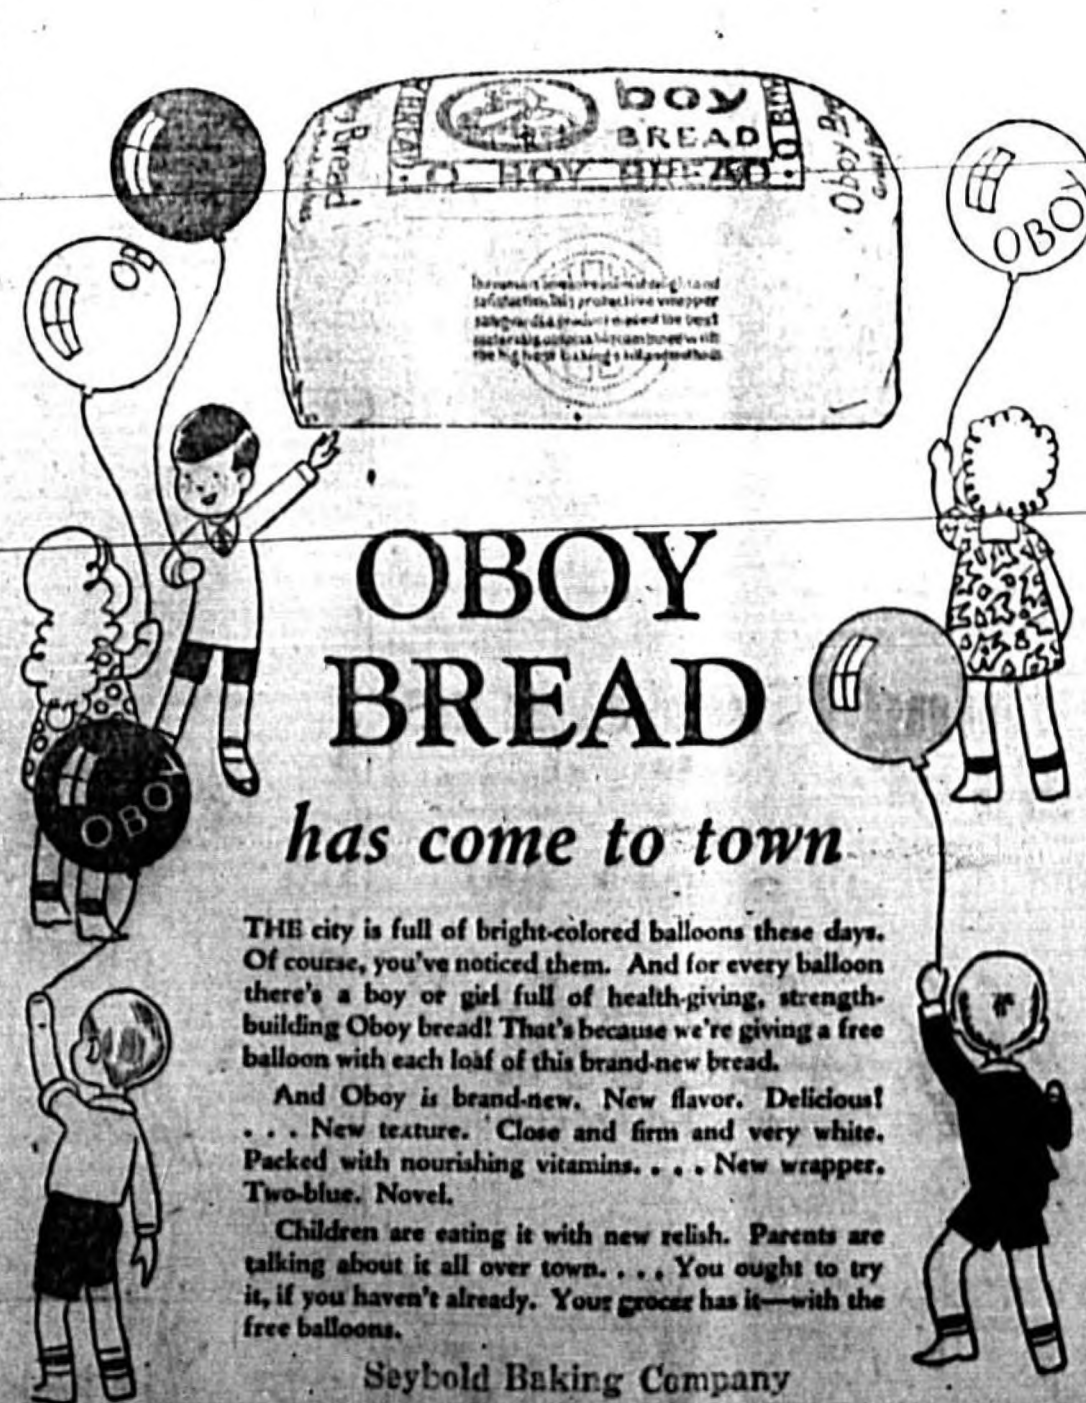

ANNISTON TO HAVE BIG MILL

Anniston, Ala., is to have a big mill. The mill is a very important one and is sure to be a great hit with the audience. The mill is very anxious to have it built and is sure that it will be very helpful to the community.

Woman's Club Will Meet On Wednesday

The Woman's Club of the Baptist Church will meet on Wednesday night. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. H. Smith, 111 S. E. 1st St. The club is very active and is doing a great deal of good work for the church.

Ever see so many balloons or so many happy, healthy kids?

OBOY BREAD

has come to town

THE city is full of bright-colored balloons these days. Of course, you've noticed them. And for every balloon there's a boy or girl full of health-giving, strength-building Oboy bread! That's because we're giving a free balloon with each loaf of this brand-new bread.

And Oboy is brand-new. New flavor. Delicious! . . . New texture. Close and firm and very white. Packed with nourishing vitamins. . . . New wrapper. Two-blue. Novel.

Children are eating it with new relish. Parents are talking about it all over town. . . . You ought to try it, if you haven't already. Your grocer has it—with the free balloons.

Seybold Baking Company

Easter time is coming on the calendar—but Easter time is here on the calendar of smartness in this month's presentation of Grayce de Vyne ensembles—dresses and coats—late Spring with a hint of summer in conception but entirely practical for immediate wear—and such authentic models are rarely priced so low.

Grayce De Vyne Modes

AT THIS STORE EXCLUSIVELY

FRACKS . . . $12, $15, $18
SPORT COATS . . . $25, $30
DRESS COATS . . . $40, $45, $50

SPEER & SON

PRINCESS Adults 50¢

LAST SHOWING TONIGHT

Sharkey-Stribling Fight Pictures—Bebe Daniels "What A Night"

PRINCESS Children 15¢

SEE "THE GODLESS GIRL" HEAR

THRILLING MELODRAMA TENSE ACTION

BOXING GAME IS FAST LOSING ITS VULGARITY NOTE

Interest Of Aristocracy In Sport Has Changed Complexion

NEW YORK, Mar. 5.—(INS)—Can it truly be that the vulgarian enterprise they call boxing is to go gentle? Is the aristocracy "going slumming" for a new vogue by identifying itself actively with the pastime just as millions of sportsmen race their horses? Must one prepare oneself to look to the society page for boxing or to the sport page for social chit-chat or both?

Don't answer questions, ask them. Is a cardinal rule for all seekers after information and I must confess that, any time "Tack" Hardwick and Eddie Mack occupy the same pullman stateroom, I am utterly baffled and must seek the light of understanding. Hardwick is strictly Back Bay and dear, old Harvard; Mr. Mack is prominently connected in Revere Beach or something. They occupied the same stateroom not only because they found the arrangement mutually agreeable but because their interests happened to be identical. Hardwick being vice president of the Boston Garden and Mr. Mack its matchmaker. They wanted to talk to a prize fighter and they came here, to do it because the prize fighter wouldn't talk to them under any other circumstances.

Society Manager
This might have been something with which to regale the member ship at Piping Rock, if it wasn't for the fact that Wall Street, Madison square Garden and Narragansett pier have been moving in the same set these several years. Never, however, had it become necessary before for the social register to rub covers with the city directory. It simply represented the trend of a day that has witnessed the entire of Tony Hiddle Jr. into the field as the dilettant manager of a fighter.

Tony actually has nothing to do with the active management of Ram, De Vos, the Belgian, but the fact that he leads his name to me a proposition is significant. He even permitted himself to be introduced from the ring the night De Vos fought Huddins and seemingly was in no wise abashed. Indeed there was no reason for embarrassment, for lorgnettes were held on high and white shirt fronts gleamed bright in the night. It was really among friends.

Boxing as a matter of fact, had gone "upstairs" for that particular evening, as Mr. Hiddle subsequently proved by playing gracious host to a lot of heels and ears at the St. Regis after the fight.

What Is The Answer?
What is the answer? Who is responsible for this impending transition from gutter to saloon? Some blame it on Brother Tunney, who is alleged to have lured the Better Element to the front of his dazzling personality. Besides, didn't he marry into the landed gentry, thus making all of him? You rapidly answer yes, and so, in the order named, to that one. Anyhow, the matter out-dates Brother Tunney.

It goes back to Benny Leonard and little Mitchell, a couple of society men from Sullivan's gymnasium, who consented to aid de-vasted France, at the behest of Alvin Morgan.
Miss Morgan's behest was accompanied by a purse of about $150,000 and I will say the young man carried it. These kids got on a prize fight that evening and society, which attended the show as a duty, went away in a glorious state. The chances are good that converts in High Places were made that night. The Dempsey-Carpenter business must have helped, too.

Then comes Tunney.
Brother Tunney's appearance on the scene undoubtedly was fortuitous, for it established the fact that prize fighting wasn't always conducted in a manner calculated to make those of sweeter natures shiver right away in horror. The fact that the Better Element found itself intrigued by what went on probably had its influence. In the company of Brother Tunney's self-determined destiny, too. But that doesn't explain the fact that Jack Dempsey, the ex-champion is living in the exclusive Chestnut Hill section of Boston with a young millionaire who is getting on down that Johnny Dempsey, the ex-truckman, is, as the saying is, "first class." First class, that is, as far as money goes, and as for the rest, who knows?

It is true, I think, that the boxing game is fast losing its vulgarity note. It is true, I think, that the boxing game is fast losing its vulgarity note.

It is true, I think, that the boxing game is fast losing its vulgarity note. It is true, I think, that the boxing game is fast losing its vulgarity note.

It is true, I think, that the boxing game is fast losing its vulgarity note. It is true, I think, that the boxing game is fast losing its vulgarity note.

It is true, I think, that the boxing game is fast losing its vulgarity note. It is true, I think, that the boxing game is fast losing its vulgarity note.

It is true, I think, that the boxing game is fast losing its vulgarity note. It is true, I think, that the boxing game is fast losing its vulgarity note.

It is true, I think, that the boxing game is fast losing its vulgarity note. It is true, I think, that the boxing game is fast losing its vulgarity note.

It is true, I think, that the boxing game is fast losing its vulgarity note. It is true, I think, that the boxing game is fast losing its vulgarity note.

It is true, I think, that the boxing game is fast losing its vulgarity note. It is true, I think, that the boxing game is fast losing its vulgarity note.

It is true, I think, that the boxing game is fast losing its vulgarity note. It is true, I think, that the boxing game is fast losing its vulgarity note.

Celery Markets

Supplied by the Market News Service, Bureau of Agricultural Economics, U. S. Department of Agriculture, local Representative

Celery Shipments

This season—Feb. 24, 0; 25, 74, 06, 115; 27, 158; 28, 147; Mar. 1, 9; 2, 70; 3, 0; 4, 10; Total to date, 4290.

Last season—February 24, 130, 25, 89; 26, 9; 27, 40, 28, 105; Mar. 1, 232; 2, 103; 3, 16; 4, 0; Total to date 3147.

California this season Feb. 24, 6, 25, 28; 26, 31; 27, 26; 28, 10; Mar. 1, 30; 2, 21; 3, 8; 4, 1; Total to date 8532.

Last season Feb. 24, 22; 25, 25, 26, 4; 27, 20; 28, 26; Mar. 1, 56; 2, 9; 3, 17; 4, 3; Total to date 6701.

United States This season Feb. 24, 0; 25, 101; 26, 178; 27, 191; 28, 0; Mar. 1, 120; 2, 21; 3, 8; 4, 1; Total to date, old 24,260 New 4290.

Last season Feb. 24, 153, 25, 111, 26, 4; 27, 60; 28, 131; Mar. 1, 288, 2, 119; 3, 63; 4, 3; Total to date 3147.

Carlot shipments March 4, 10; 5, 10; 6, 10; 7, 10; 8, 10; 9, 10; 10, 10; 11, 10; 12, 10; 13, 10; 14, 10; 15, 10; 16, 10; 17, 10; 18, 10; 19, 10; 20, 10; 21, 10; 22, 10; 23, 10; 24, 10; 25, 10; 26, 10; 27, 10; 28, 10; 29, 10; 30, 10; 31, 10; Total 3147.

Shipping Point Information
Sanford, Florida: Warm, partly cloudy. Practically no haulings account growers not cutting today. Light wire inquiry. Demand slow. Market dull. Carloads f. o. b. usual terms, no sales reported. Rollers, 10 inch crates, in the rough, 3 and 4 dozen, $1.25-1.35 few high, 3 and 4 dozen $1.00-1.15, few $1.25, except moderate to heavy haulings. Tuesday.

New York, Raining, 45 degrees. Fla. arrived Supplies moderate. Demand slow, market about steady. Florida 10 inch crates, in the rough, washed, 3 dozen $1.50-1.60, 4 and 6 dozen $1.50-2.00, few $2.25, 8 dozen $1.25-1.75 few $2.00, 10 dozen $1.25-1.50.

Philadelphia: Raining, 45 degrees. Fla. arrived. 17 cars on track, including broken. Offerings moderate. Demand slow, market dull. Florida 10 inch crates in the rough and washed, 4 and 6 dozen $1.50-2.00, few fancy higher, poorer lower, 10 dozen $1.00-1.50.

Chicago: Clear, 33 degrees, 2 Fla. arrived. 73 cars on track including broken. California stock. Supplies moderate. Demand and trading moderate market steady. Florida's: Supplies liberal, temporarily exceeds demand, trading light, market weak. California crates in the rough, 7 and 10 dozen $3.00-5.50, 4 and 6 dozen $4.00-4.50. Few generally good, quality and condition 9 and 11 boxes $4.00-5.25. Florida 10 inch crates, washed, 4 and 6 dozen $2.01-2.25, 8 dozen mostly $2.00 few higher, unwashed 25c discount.

Atlantic City: 48 degrees, 2 Fla. arrived. 1 diverted, 5 cars on track, including broken. Supplies moderate Demand moderate, market about steady. Florida 10 inch crates, in the rough and individually washed and precooled, 3 and 4 dozen $1.50-2.00, mostly $2.00.

Pittsburgh: Raining 40 degrees. Fla. arrived. Supplies moderate. Demand slow, market steady. Florida all sizes 10 inch crates, in the rough, mostly $1.75-2.00, few as $1.50, individually washed and precooled mostly $2.00-2.25, few high as $2.50.

Baltimore: Raining 44 degrees. No carlot arrivals. 1 car recognized. 21 cars on track including broken. Closing Monday. Supplies moderate. Demand moderate, market steady. Florida 10 inch crates, washed and precooled, 10 dozen $1.50-1.75, 3 dozen $1.75-2.00, 4 and 6 dozen $1.75-2.00, few $2.50, mostly $2.00.

Washington: Raining 44 degrees. Arrivals since Saturday's report. 4 F. O. b. unknown arrived. 4 broken and unbroken cars on track. Supplies moderate. Demand light, market steady. Florida 10 inch crates, in the rough, 3 and 4 dozen $2.25-2.50, ordinary quality and condition $1.50-2.00.

Cincinnati: Snowing 33 degrees. 3 Fla. arrived. 13 cars on track including broken. Supplies heavy. Demand slow, market dull. Florida 10 inch crates, in the rough, 4 and 6 dozen $2.25-2.50, 3 and 10 dozen $2.00-2.25, few low as $1.50.

Cleveland: Cloudy 31 degrees. 7 Fla. arrived. 32 cars on track including broken. Supplies heavy. Demand moderate, market about steady. Florida 10 inch crates, in the rough, 3 and 4 dozen $2.25-2.50, few fancy, $2.50-2.75, ordinary quality $1.75-2.00.

Boston: Raining 41 degrees. 12 Fla. arrived. 25 cars on track including broken. Supplies heavy. Demand limited, market rather soft and unsettled. Florida 10 inch crates, in the rough, 4 to 8 dozen $1.50-1.75, 10 dozen $1.50. Green, all sizes, mostly $1.75. Individually washed and precooled, 3 and 4 dozen $2.00, 5 dozen mostly $1.75 few high as $2.50, 10 dozen mostly $2.50, few high as $3.00.

Portland, Me.: Raining 41 degrees. 12 Fla. arrived. 25 cars on track including broken. Supplies heavy. Demand limited, market rather soft and unsettled. Florida 10 inch crates, in the rough, 4 to 8 dozen $1.50-1.75, 10 dozen $1.50. Green, all sizes, mostly $1.75. Individually washed and precooled, 3 and 4 dozen $2.00, 5 dozen mostly $1.75 few high as $2.50, 10 dozen mostly $2.50, few high as $3.00.

Portland, Me.: Raining 41 degrees. 12 Fla. arrived. 25 cars on track including broken. Supplies heavy. Demand limited, market rather soft and unsettled. Florida 10 inch crates, in the rough, 4 to 8 dozen $1.50-1.75, 10 dozen $1.50. Green, all sizes, mostly $1.75. Individually washed and precooled, 3 and 4 dozen $2.00, 5 dozen mostly $1.75 few high as $2.50, 10 dozen mostly $2.50, few high as $3.00.

Portland, Me.: Raining 41 degrees. 12 Fla. arrived. 25 cars on track including broken. Supplies heavy. Demand limited, market rather soft and unsettled. Florida 10 inch crates, in the rough, 4 to 8 dozen $1.50-1.75, 10 dozen $1.50. Green, all sizes, mostly $1.75. Individually washed and precooled, 3 and 4 dozen $2.00, 5 dozen mostly $1.75 few high as $2.50, 10 dozen mostly $2.50, few high as $3.00.

Portland, Me.: Raining 41 degrees. 12 Fla. arrived. 25 cars on track including broken. Supplies heavy. Demand limited, market rather soft and unsettled. Florida 10 inch crates, in the rough, 4 to 8 dozen $1.50-1.75, 10 dozen $1.50. Green, all sizes, mostly $1.75. Individually washed and precooled, 3 and 4 dozen $2.00, 5 dozen mostly $1.75 few high as $2.50, 10 dozen mostly $2.50, few high as $3.00.

Portland, Me.: Raining 41 degrees. 12 Fla. arrived. 25 cars on track including broken. Supplies heavy. Demand limited, market rather soft and unsettled. Florida 10 inch crates, in the rough, 4 to 8 dozen $1.50-1.75, 10 dozen $1.50. Green, all sizes, mostly $1.75. Individually washed and precooled, 3 and 4 dozen $2.00, 5 dozen mostly $1.75 few high as $2.50, 10 dozen mostly $2.50, few high as $3.00.

Portland, Me.: Raining 41 degrees. 12 Fla. arrived. 25 cars on track including broken. Supplies heavy. Demand limited, market rather soft and unsettled. Florida 10 inch crates, in the rough, 4 to 8 dozen $1.50-1.75, 10 dozen $1.50. Green, all sizes, mostly $1.75. Individually washed and precooled, 3 and 4 dozen $2.00, 5 dozen mostly $1.75 few high as $2.50, 10 dozen mostly $2.50, few high as $3.00.

Portland, Me.: Raining 41 degrees. 12 Fla. arrived. 25 cars on track including broken. Supplies heavy. Demand limited, market rather soft and unsettled. Florida 10 inch crates, in the rough, 4 to 8 dozen $1.50-1.75, 10 dozen $1.50. Green, all sizes, mostly $1.75. Individually washed and precooled, 3 and 4 dozen $2.00, 5 dozen mostly $1.75 few high as $2.50, 10 dozen mostly $2.50, few high as $3.00.

Portland, Me.: Raining 41 degrees. 12 Fla. arrived. 25 cars on track including broken. Supplies heavy. Demand limited, market rather soft and unsettled. Florida 10 inch crates, in the rough, 4 to 8 dozen $1.50-1.75, 10 dozen $1.50. Green, all sizes, mostly $1.75. Individually washed and precooled, 3 and 4 dozen $2.00, 5 dozen mostly $1.75 few high as $2.50, 10 dozen mostly $2.50, few high as $3.00.

Portland, Me.: Raining 41 degrees. 12 Fla. arrived. 25 cars on track including broken. Supplies heavy. Demand limited, market rather soft and unsettled. Florida 10 inch crates, in the rough, 4 to 8 dozen $1.50-1.75, 10 dozen $1.50. Green, all sizes, mostly $1.75. Individually washed and precooled, 3 and 4 dozen $2.00, 5 dozen mostly $1.75 few high as $2.50, 10 dozen mostly $2.50, few high as $3.00.

Portland, Me.: Raining 41 degrees. 12 Fla. arrived. 25 cars on track including broken. Supplies heavy. Demand limited, market rather soft and unsettled. Florida 10 inch crates, in the rough, 4 to 8 dozen $1.50-1.75, 10 dozen $1.50. Green, all sizes, mostly $1.75. Individually washed and precooled, 3 and 4 dozen $2.00, 5 dozen mostly $1.75 few high as $2.50, 10 dozen mostly $2.50, few high as $3.00.

Portland, Me.: Raining 41 degrees. 12 Fla. arrived. 25 cars on track including broken. Supplies heavy. Demand limited, market rather soft and unsettled. Florida 10 inch crates, in the rough, 4 to 8 dozen $1.50-1.75, 10 dozen $1.50. Green, all sizes, mostly $1.75. Individually washed and precooled, 3 and 4 dozen $2.00, 5 dozen mostly $1.75 few high as $2.50, 10 dozen mostly $2.50, few high as $3.00.

Portland, Me.: Raining 41 degrees. 12 Fla. arrived. 25 cars on track including broken. Supplies heavy. Demand limited, market rather soft and unsettled. Florida 10 inch crates, in the rough, 4 to 8 dozen $1.50-1.75, 10 dozen $1.50. Green, all sizes, mostly $1.75. Individually washed and precooled, 3 and 4 dozen $2.00, 5 dozen mostly $1.75 few high as $2.50, 10 dozen mostly $2.50, few high as $3.00.

Portland, Me.: Raining 41 degrees. 12 Fla. arrived. 25 cars on track including broken. Supplies heavy. Demand limited, market rather soft and unsettled. Florida 10 inch crates, in the rough, 4 to 8 dozen $1.50-1.75, 10 dozen $1.50. Green, all sizes, mostly $1.75. Individually washed and precooled, 3 and 4 dozen $2.00, 5 dozen mostly $1.75 few high as $2.50, 10 dozen mostly $2.50, few high as $3.00.

Portland, Me.: Raining 41 degrees. 12 Fla. arrived. 25 cars on track including broken. Supplies heavy. Demand limited, market rather soft and unsettled. Florida 10 inch crates, in the rough, 4 to 8 dozen $1.50-1.75, 10 dozen $1.50. Green, all sizes, mostly $1.75. Individually washed and precooled, 3 and 4 dozen $2.00, 5 dozen mostly $1.75 few high as $2.50, 10 dozen mostly $2.50, few high as $3.00.

Portland, Me.: Raining 41 degrees. 12 Fla. arrived. 25 cars on track including broken. Supplies heavy. Demand limited, market rather soft and unsettled. Florida 10 inch crates, in the rough, 4 to 8 dozen $1.50-1.75, 10 dozen $1.50. Green, all sizes, mostly $1.75. Individually washed and precooled, 3 and 4 dozen $2.00, 5 dozen mostly $1.75 few high as $2.50, 10 dozen mostly $2.50, few high as $3.00.

Portland, Me.: Raining 41 degrees. 12 Fla. arrived. 25 cars on track including broken. Supplies heavy. Demand limited, market rather soft and unsettled. Florida 10 inch crates, in the rough, 4 to 8 dozen $1.50-1.75, 10 dozen $1.50. Green, all sizes, mostly $1.75. Individually washed and precooled, 3 and 4 dozen $2.00, 5 dozen mostly $1.75 few high as $2.50, 10 dozen mostly $2.50, few high as $3.00.

Portland, Me.: Raining 41 degrees. 12 Fla. arrived. 25 cars on track including broken. Supplies heavy. Demand limited, market rather soft and unsettled. Florida 10 inch crates, in the rough, 4 to 8 dozen $1.50-1.75, 10 dozen $1.50. Green, all sizes, mostly $1.75. Individually washed and precooled, 3 and 4 dozen $2.00, 5 dozen mostly $1.75 few high as $2.50, 10 dozen mostly $2.50, few high as $3.00.

Portland, Me.: Raining 41 degrees. 12 Fla. arrived. 25 cars on track including broken. Supplies heavy. Demand limited, market rather soft and unsettled. Florida 10 inch crates, in the rough, 4 to 8 dozen $1.50-1.75, 10 dozen $1.50. Green, all sizes, mostly $1.75. Individually washed and precooled, 3 and 4 dozen $2.00, 5 dozen mostly $1.75 few high as $2.50, 10 dozen mostly $2.50, few high as $3.00.

Portland, Me.: Raining 41 degrees. 12 Fla. arrived. 25 cars on track including broken. Supplies heavy. Demand limited, market rather soft and unsettled. Florida 10 inch crates, in the rough, 4 to 8 dozen $1.50-1.75, 10 dozen $1.50. Green, all sizes, mostly $1.75. Individually washed and precooled, 3 and 4 dozen $2.00, 5 dozen mostly $1.75 few high as $2.50, 10 dozen mostly $2.50, few high as $3.00.

SPORT REVIEW

By Burris Jenkins Jr.

THE FLOW THAT ACTUALLY FINISHED RYKO WAS A RIGHT THAT SWUNG HIM HALF AROUND!

SCHEMLING BEAT THE RUBBER MAN ALMOST IN TWO IN THE EIGHTH ROUND

Northampton Gives Coolidges Royal Welcome On Return

(Continued From Page One)

you" added Mrs. Coolidge, who a second later was embracing Mrs. R. B. Hills her old school mate and intimate friend.

Thomas J. Hammond stepped up. He was chairman of the reception committee and a son of John C. Hammond, in whose offices Mr. Coolidge studied law. Then came Ralph Hemenway, Mr. Coolidge's former law partner. On his window still remains the legend, "Coolidge and Hemenway."

And so on down the line, old friends all glad the Coolidges are back with them once more.

There was no parade, as such. A motorcade, escorted had been provided to escort the home-comers to their extremely modest residence at 21 Massachusetts Street, which is half of a two-family house, renting at $42 a month.

Shopkeepers along Main Street came out to wave as the auto swept by, and at Smith College all of the girls were out to shrill a greeting.

A little farther on, they passed a scene dear in the memory of Mrs. Coolidge—Clarke School for the deaf, where she was a teacher at the time she first met her husband. A two-million dollar drive for funds for the institution went over the top just yesterday, with $17,000 in excess. Mrs. Coolidge had been informed just before the train left Washington.

Only one incident marred the home-coming. Sweeping along Main Street in the rear of the car carrying Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge, an auto driven by a police lieutenant knocked down and seriously injured a little girl, who was rushed to the hospital. At Massachusetts Street, Mrs. Allen Beckahn, the housekeeper, was waiting. She had swept and scoured the house from top to bottom and attended to all the other thousand and one details incident to such an important event as the return of an ex-president and his wife.

A boy scout who belongs to the same troop of which Calvin, Jr., their dead son, was once a member, hoisted the flag to the top of the pole set on the front lawn. Grace and Calvin Coolidge passed inside. They were home once more after an absence of 19 years.

APRIL XVI Walnut Col. set. Deen Diamond Shaded Oriental Walnut with genuine Inlaid Marquetry Border.

Instrument panel also of Diamond Matched Oriental Walnut Stained with Best Walnut and Red-Tone Maple Panel.

Model 72 $1672

Let Us Demonstrate the NEW MODELS

HOFF-MAC BATTERY CO.

PHONE 101

SALES STRENGTH

WATERSVILLE, Co. Mar. 4, 1929—Mrs. Rebecca Lillian Felt, 69, of the town of Waterville, Me., died at her home there.

WATERSVILLE, Co. Mar. 4, 1929—Mrs. Rebecca Lillian Felt, 69, of the town of Waterville, Me., died at her home there.

WATERSVILLE, Co. Mar. 4, 1929—Mrs. Rebecca Lillian Felt, 69, of the town of Waterville, Me., died at her home there.

WATERSVILLE, Co. Mar. 4, 1929—Mrs. Rebecca Lillian Felt, 69, of the town of Waterville, Me., died at her home there.

WATERSVILLE, Co. Mar. 4, 1929—Mrs. Rebecca Lillian Felt, 69, of the town of Waterville, Me., died at her home there.

WATERSVILLE, Co. Mar. 4, 1929—Mrs. Rebecca Lillian Felt, 69, of the town of Waterville, Me., died at her home there.

WELCOME D. A. R. DELEGATES

Security Lumber Co.
Phone 797

Nothing Finer can be said of a Radio than

"It's a NEW Majestic" ELECTRIC RADIO

Model 72 $1672

Let Us Demonstrate the NEW MODELS

HOFF-MAC BATTERY CO.

PHONE 101

SALES STRENGTH

WATERSVILLE, Co. Mar. 4, 1929—Mrs. Rebecca Lillian Felt, 69, of the town of Waterville, Me., died at her home there.

WATERSVILLE, Co. Mar. 4, 1929—Mrs. Rebecca Lillian Felt, 69, of the town of Waterville, Me., died at her home there.

I.C.C. Wins Appeal To U. S. Supreme Court

WASHINGTON, March 5.

(INS) The interstate commerce commission today won its appeal to the supreme court to cancel a 20 cent a ton reduction on coal rates from Western Virginia, Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee.

Don't "Dose" Headache

RUB forehead and temples with Vicks; also melt in hot water and inhale the vapors.

This clears the head and usually brings quick relief, especially in those cases which so often accompany colds.

If headaches come too often, consult a physician.

acts 2 ways at once

VICKS VAPORUB

OVER 15 MILLION JARS USED YEARLY

Security Lumber Co.
Phone 797

Nothing Finer can be said of a Radio than

"It's a NEW Majestic" ELECTRIC RADIO

Model 72 $1672

Let Us Demonstrate the NEW MODELS

HOFF-MAC BATTERY CO.

PHONE 101

SALES STRENGTH

WATERSVILLE, Co. Mar. 4, 1929—Mrs. Rebecca Lillian Felt, 69, of the town of Waterville, Me., died at her home there.

WATERSVILLE, Co. Mar. 4, 1929—Mrs. Rebecca Lillian Felt, 69, of the town of Waterville, Me., died at her home there.

WATERSVILLE, Co. Mar. 4, 1929—Mrs. Rebecca Lillian Felt, 69, of the town of Waterville, Me., died at her home there.

WATERSVILLE, Co. Mar. 4, 1929—Mrs. Rebecca Lillian Felt, 69, of the town of Waterville, Me., died at her home there.

WATERSVILLE, Co. Mar. 4, 1929—Mrs. Rebecca Lillian Felt, 69, of the town of Waterville, Me., died at her home there.

fields to the Great Lakes. The court's action leaves undetermined on its merits an important question as to the power of the interstate commerce commission to adjust freight rates to meet a business depression in one section. Although the commission did not claim such authority, the lower federal court found the commission had refused to let the southern roads reduce rates because it would depress the rate of business in Pennsylvania and Northern Ohio.

WELCOME Delegates to the state D.A.R. CONVENTION We hope your visit in Sanford will be a happy one. WAGONER Furniture Co. 313 E. First St. Phone 774

NORTH and WEST Two Excellent Through Tr

