School Becoming 'Garden Spot'

News from the primary grades at Longwood Elementary school reports that the surrounding grounds are beginning to have the appearance of a garden spot. Faculty members say that the children are taking great pride in their school and each day finds students from all grades watering, weeding, planting and caring for the plants and grass they so carefully set just a few weeks ago.

Study of Spring planting has been taking place in nearly all classrooms. In Mrs. Lambert's second grade, the seeds planted in sand boxes are thriving and are almost ready to be transplanted to the border in front of the room. Included in the flower seedlings are carnations, sweetpeas, four o'clocks and nasturtiums.

Oviedo Scientists To Present Play

Four boys and eight girls of the Oviedo Science Club are rehearsing for a three-act play to be presented in the near future.

Money from the presentation entitled "Watch Out Spooks for Spooks" will be used by the club for financing field trips.

A recent field trip made by this group and students of classes taught by Mr. and Mrs. Jim Palmer to the Orange County Science Fair was an occasion of much pleasure and gained knowledge.

Making the trip by bus and chaperoned by the teachers were 60 junior and senior students.

Geneva Band Sets Appearance

The Geneva Community Band which holds practice sessions at 7:30 p.m. each Friday in the Methodist Fellowship Hall, is growing rapidly.

A membership increase to the already 16-member band is expected within the next few weeks and the first public appearance has been scheduled.

On May 6, the community musicians will play for the Geneva Historical Genealogical Society at the annual picnic in Ft. Lane Park on Lake Harney.

Charles Lamb, who was instrumental in organizing the band which is directed by W. L. Seig, has made tape recordings of practice sessions.

Store Manager Has Many Talents

By MARIAN R. JONES
Oviedo Drug Store Manager Roswell Noegel has remarkable talent in many fields.

His decorative ability was brought to the attention of the town when he fashioned a lovely "Easter Egg Tree" which was displayed in the store and was the result of many hours of patient work.

These decorated eggs were quite the "cutest" we have seen and Oviedoans now are comparing "Rosz" with Sanford's Mrs. David Gatchel in this line of work.

In addition to his art work displayed last week, Rosz spends many hours on his lovely home and he and his charming wife have made it a place of scenic loveliness inside and out.

He also has found time to re-decorate the exterior of Oviedo's Masonic Hall and is serving as Worshipful Master of the Lodge this year.

In addition, he is a wonderful cook and proves to be a popular "Chef" at many entertaining occasions and social events.

The well-thought of citizen loves to joke and have fun but he works hard, too, and is very generous to the many local organizations donating time and talent in many ways.

'Pete-E-O' Lost, Found In Day

Longwood Elementary teachers of the primary grades report that their students are surprised by the number of strange birds they have seen and learned to identify in and around the school.

In Mrs. Webster's third grade, children are beginning a unit on birds, making illustrations and searching out information. Students were thrilled recently when two meadowlarks, with their beautiful yellow breasts, presented a musical performance on the window sill.

"Pete-E-O," the parakeet in Mrs. Winkle's room bought with P.T.O. room count prize money, was the cause of much consternation Monday when he flew out the door and away to freedom!

Assembly Planned

Mrs. Lind's fifth grade students at Longwood Elementary are working on booklets of the Southwest states and are planning and practicing for an assembly program to be presented April 14.

During the daily devotions, class members prayed for little "Pete-E-O's" return and were rewarded for their faith when, returning from lunch, word from fifth grade boys came that the class pet had been found near the playground.

HEAVY ATTACK

Squadron Three's leading third crewman retired recently at VAH-3. Chief Wilbur L. Hallock, after 20 years of widely varied service in the Navy, was piped over the side in March. Chief Hallock was one of the first third crewmen in the ASD type aircraft becoming associated with the "Skywarrior" in 1954 and participating in the nuclear bomb tests in the ASD. He has been the chief in charge of the aircraft training program during his last two years in VAH-3 passing on the experience he has gained to the new third crew trainees.

Longwood Students Make Tapestries

Longwood Elementary Teacher Mrs. Leona Dzuris is conducting work on tapestry for her sixth grade students. Made of burlap, the tapestries will have designs of castles, "beautiful ladies," and shields of armor.

This class has decided to make a wall hanging to use in their room which they hope to display at the County Art Exhibit next month in Sanford.

Students created their own designs with the best chosen for use on the project which will be displayed with a cardboard castle of the Middle Ages.

City Landmark Dump Bound?

Sanford's main downtown landmark since 1931 was threatened Thursday night with relegation to the city dump.

The City Planning and Zoning Commission Thursday unanimously recommended that the clock at the intersection of Park Ave. and First St. be taken down and called it "a traffic hazard, nuisance and disgrace to the city."

The board agreed to ask the City Commission Monday night to take the clock down and either "put it on a jetty in the middle of Lake Monroe, place it in the sanitary landfill area or just burn it."

Zoning members said that the 30 year-old landmark was hampering the traffic on "the busiest intersection in the city."

The commission was also informed that the Sanford Atlantic Bank had taken out a building permit to construct a clock and temperature chart atop its building at a cost of $7,500.

The bank had donated the clock to the city in 1931.

City Manager W. E. Knowles said today that the cost would be very small to remove the clock.

"All we have to do is just bring the wreck-er in and let it do the job," Knowles explained.

Understatement of the year—Sign in the window of the old Florida State Bank building at the corner of Park at First St. "Moved to New Location."

So much beautification going on around town even we got confused. The Sanford Gas Company is taking over a portion of the Florida State Bank building and not the old First Federal building as we reported earlier in the week.

City Manager W. E. Knowles said he is "extremely pleased" with new supplementary information by planner George Simons on his master plan for the city. The new information, to be released soon points out additional capital improvements for the city over the next 20 years and also goes into more detail of future annexation studies by the city.

Battle Lines Drawn Over Apportionment

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — There were signs today that Florida's five-year-old legislative reapportionment troubles still may be far from over.

Gov. Farris Bryant said last week he expected a reapportionment plan to pass the Legislature in the "early days" of the 1961 session.

In his opening-day address to the Legislature Tuesday, Bryant said he understood the Senate was ready to introduce a plan calling for an increase in Senate membership to 48 and House membership to 105.

But key members of the Senate majority bloc said Thursday there was no firm agreement on details of the plan, which has Bryant's backing.

The governor called the plan "so good, I was surprised we have been able to get an agreement so readily."

Whether there actually is any agreement, however, may be answered Tuesday or Wednesday when Sen. John Rawls of Marianna calls a meeting of his Constitutional Amendments Committee to see how members feel about the proposal.

If passed by the Legislature as a proposed constitutional amendment, the voters still would have to approve the plan.

Rawls and Senate President Randolph Hodges of Cedar Key said the Senate is working in the "general area" of a 48-senator reapportionment plan, but that "there is no firm agreement."

Rawls also said there was trouble ahead in trying to work out a plan for reapportioning the state's present eight congressional districts to make room for the four additional congressmen the state gets in 1963 as a result of increased population.

"Apparently nobody has come up with an acceptable idea," Rawls said. "My mail is loaded with complaints about every plan so far mentioned."

The much-opposed Rawls plan would give North Florida and Florida's Gulf coast one additional congressman each and South Florida two.

Wives Barred; Horne Named '63 Speaker

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The House, in a fast-moving session, today barred wives from the floor of the chamber and selected Rep. Mallory Horne of Leon as speaker for the 1963 session.

A predicted fight did not materialize over the new rule that takes away the privilege of legislators' wives to come on the floor while the House is in session.

With some wives watching from the public gallery above, the lawmakers gave unanimous approval to rules governing the session.

Horne's designation as speaker for the session two years away was cut and dried after Rep. John Mathews of Duval, his only opponent, withdrew.

A move by Rep. Reuben Askew of Escambia to delay the vote for a study to see if the practice of naming a speaker two years ahead should not be changed was rejected by voice vote.

Rep. Bobby Russ of Wakulla was named Speaker Pro Tempore for 1963.

The Senate adjourned Thursday for a long weekend.

Seasonal Critique Set By Artists

The final seasonal critique of works of members will comprise the program of the Sanford Art Assn. meeting Monday at the Civic Center.

All members are asked to bring one or more pictures for the critique, whether they are finished or unfinished, framed or unframed. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Fern Park Man Stabbed In Inn

A Fern Park man was stabbed six times in the back and head early this morning by an unknown assailant, the Sheriff's Office reported.

Bobby Prentice Smith was held in serious condition at Orange Memorial Hospital after he was stabbed in Adams Inn on SR 434. Deputies are searching for the assailant.

Eichmann Trial Opening Tuesday

JERUSALEM, Israel (UPI) — Adolf Eichmann sits in a secret cell today with each movement of the clock pushing him closer to a possible rendezvous with death on the gallows.

At 9 a.m. Tuesday, he goes on trial on charges of being history's worst mass murderer, the man, responsible for the death of up to six million Jews.

Eichmann was "traffic officer" for Adolf Hitler's campaign to exterminate every Jew in Europe.

He was the man who decided where captive Jews should be sent and frequently ordered them along routes that ended in gas chambers where millions of them died.

Reds Demand UN Free Territories

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI) — The Soviet Union demanded today that United Nations trust territories throughout the world be given freedom and independence this year.

The demand included the Pacific islands wrested from Japan in World War II and now administered by the United States as a closed "strategic area." Soviet delegate S. G. Lapin made the demand as the assembly agreed to freeze the membership of the UN Trusteeship Council at 13 countries for 1961.

"The trusteeship system has not justified itself," Lapin said. "It was foisted on the United Nations by a number of colonial countries after the war and it has deprived the peoples of the territories of their freedom and independence. "All of the trust territories—Tanganyika, Ruanda-Urundi, the British Cameroons, New Guinea, Nauru, western Samoa and the Pacific Islands — must obtain freedom and independence in 1961."

Five Arrested In News Holdup

NEW YORK (UPI) — Police took five men into custody today in connection with a $43,000 holdup of the New York Daily News' Brooklyn plant. Authorities said $38,000 was recovered.

The suspects were rounded up during the night. Police said an arsenal of weapons, including a submachinegun believed to have been used in the holdup, was found in the suspects' possession.

Bulletin

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Gov. Farris Bryant said today he has "no fear" that the Legislature will pass an across-the-board sales tax. He also predicted that any pay raise school teachers get out of the Legislature will be "very, very selective."

Culinary Genius

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy has hired a French chef his friends call a "culinary genius" after farming him out to the first family's favorite restaurant for a little seasoning. Mrs. Pamela Turnure, the first lady's press secretary, said 36-year-old Rene Verdon has been retained only on a temporary basis to help during the spring rush of foreign visitors.

American Hurt

SAIGON, Viet Nam (UPI)—A hand grenade believed thrown by a Communist terrorist exploded in the home of an American official today, injuring him in one eye. The injured man, William C. Nohamas, 67, of Fort Myers, was flown to Clark Airbase in the Philippines for treatment. The wound was said to be not serious. Nohamas is an official with the U. S. International Cooperation Administration here.

BALTIMORE, Md. (UPI)—Melvin D. Rees Jr. was sentenced to life imprisonment Thursday for the kidnap-slays of a Virginia mother and her 3-year-old daughter. His fate remains uncertain, however. Rees still is wanted by the state of Virginia for trial in the killings of the father and an 18-month-old daughter in the same family and the U. S. Justice Department has said it would cooperate with Virginia authorities.

Longwood Council Not Taking Chance On Proposed Road

The Longwood town council isn't taking any chances of making the same mistake that was made in Altamonte Springs.

The council, at its meeting Thursday night, agreed to write the State Road Department to designate Molnar St. a city street when work starts on State Road 431 going through the town.

A few weeks ago, Altamonte Springs complained that State Road 431 was designated a rural road through its town and the council protested the action to the SRD and County Commission delaying action on the road.

A rural road has open ditches while a city road has underground drainage, curbs and sidewalks.

The council Thursday night agreed that if the SRD is notified soon enough "we can avoid open ditches on the road." Mayor A. R. Lormann said.

In other business, during the meeting, the council heard that the Florida Power Corp. will deduct $80 from the town bill because of the loss of power during Hurricane Donna.

Agreed that any house built after paying starts on the street, the owner must bear the expense of the tile desired for any entrance.

Chrysler Accused Of Pressure Move

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Justice Department today accused Chrysler Corp., third-largest U. S. auto manufacturer, of applying illegal pressure on Chrysler dealers who also sell cars made by the Studebaker-Packard Corp.

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy announced the filing of a civil suit-trust action in U. S. district court in Fort Wayne, Ind., against Chrysler and its subsidiary, Chrysler Motors Corp.

The complaint charged that Chrysler unlawfully had required retail dealers to give up franchises for other cars—particularly Studebaker—Packard—in violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust Act; Kennedy said.

Chrysler, with 1,147,000 units sold in 1960, is approximately 10 times the size of Studebaker-Packard, smallest U. S. car-maker, which sold 105,936 vehicles last year.

THE COUNTY JUVENILE COUNCIL received $194.86 to help needy youngsters Thursday when the Sanford Area Ministerial Assn. contributed the offering from the Easter Sunrise Service to the council. Shown are Rev. John Adams, Kenneth McIntosh, Clarence McCord, treasurer of the council, Rev. Ernest Bolick, president of the ministers group, and Juvenile Judge Vernon Mize.

Jaycees Plan To Launch Development Project

Through this process the local Jaycees select significant projects to work on in their own communities. The procedure

Kennedy Drafts 'Moonlighting' Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy has drafted but has not yet signed an order banning outside employment by members of the armed forces, a military service journal said today.

According to the Navy Times, the tentative order is being circulated for comment by the services. The publication said it has not been determined whether the ban will be general or will apply only in areas where there is substantial unemployment.

The practice of "moonlighting"—holding a part-time job to supplement military pay—is known to be widespread, but the journal said there were no estimates of the number of such jobholders. An old statute prevents servicemen from engaging in civilian business "if it interferes with local civilian employment," the Times said.

Building Permits Gain In March

Building permits in the county almost doubled during March as compared to the previous month, Zoning Director Robert Brown said today.

Brown said that in March permits were valued at $729,525 as compared to $490,000 for February.

Dedication Services Planned For Church

Rev. Richard Brown, pastor of the Forest City Church, will lead morning worship and a dinner on the grounds is scheduled to begin at 1 p. m.

Asphalt Plant Withdraws Plans For Construction

The North Orlando Town Council can rest easy now—there won't be an asphalt plant to discomfort the residents.

The Wilkins plant has withdrawn its application to construct the plant north of SR 419, north of North Orlando, County Zoning Director Robert Brown said today.

A public hearing on the plant was scheduled Tuesday before the county commission and last week the village council agreed to send a delegation to protest the move.

The commission received complaints that the plant would cause a discomfort to residents in the area because of air pollution and that the land would be depreciated.

Brown said today that officials of the plant have agreed to withdraw its application and will move to another county.

Altamonte Library Officers Elected

Mrs. Paul French was elected president of the Altamonte Springs Library Assn. Thursday, with Dan Gilbert named vice president; Mrs. Sally Anderson, secretary, and Glenn Humes, treasurer.

Two new trustees also were named: Mrs. Graham Fuller and Dr. Paul O. Schaller. Continuing as trustees will be Eric Dallman and Mrs. J. D. Morrison.

Mrs. Glenn Humes was reappointed chairman of the ways and means committee.

The association announced that its fashion show and coffee will be held April 25 in the Altamonte Chapel educational building.

Stressed during the meeting were the continuing need for old papers and magazines to be left in the library carport and the increased support of the building fund.

Red Cross Water Program To Start

The Red Cross Water Safety Committee plans to start off its summer program at the Municipal Pool with Junior life saving classes to be held next Monday, Wednesday and Friday, through April 24 from 7 to 9:30 p. m.

These classes will be open to students ages 12 to 15 years and registration will take place at the pool at 7 p. m. April 10.

Senior Life Saving classes for students who have passed their 16 birthday will be held Wednesday and Friday, May 1 through May 15 from 7 to 10 p. m. Registration to be held at the pool 7 p. m. May 1.

A beginners class for Adults is set to start on May 1 at 8 p. m. Classes will be held for one hour a day for a week and a half. Adults who are interested are urged to meet at the Municipal Pool at 8 p. m. May 1.

David W. Andrews, 16, the driver and Gary Schroeder, 14, a passenger were injured slightly and another passenger, Nat Turnbull, also 16, received possible head injuries and lacerations, Trooper Jim Winter reported.

IT'S FOR YOU

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a statement of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

When someone says, "It's for you," our minds begin to buzz with questions. Who is it? What do they want? Good News? Bad News? Work? Pleasure?

It's for you! Commanding words that summon our immediate attention. And those words apply as well to the Church as they do to a telephone call.

The Church is for you! Its services of worship, its program of religious education, its comforting ministrations in time of spiritual crisis... all for you!

And the Church has a vital message—good news for a discouraged world. It has a glorious work before it—a happy fellowship for men, women, and children of noble purpose.

The Church deserves your support. It's for you!

HOW CHRISTIAN SCIENCE HEALS

WSFR 1360 KW 9:00 SUNDAY A. M.

FIRST PRESIDENT OF the newly formed Anchor Club, a subsidiary youth organization sponsored by the Pilot Club, is Seminole High School senior, Denna, "Dede" Dietrich.

This is an outstanding honor for Dede, who is recognized as a very capable young lady, to head this already very active organization, which is at present composed of 32 charter members. The girls were chosen for outstanding scholastic ability, leadership, and character.

Dede is a Sanford girl and has attended both public and parochial schools here. She entered Seminole High in her sophomore year and has been a member of the Latin Club, played in the Powder Puff football game, is on the Sally staff, in charge of faculty pictures and writeups, and is a member of the Seminole High golf team for the second year.

Last year, Dede was awarded the golf trophy for the most valuable girl player on the team, an honor of which she is justly proud and she spends a lot of spare time practicing to improve her game for the state high school golf tournament that is coming up soon and will be played here at the Mayfair course.

Besides her golfing, Dede loves to read, swim and water ski and was quite a table tennis champ when she attended All Souls in the seventh, eighth and ninth grades. Her younger sister, Jerry, will enter the sophomore class at Seminole High next year.

The Anchor Club is a girl's service organization and they have already made many plans for worthwhile projects to be started this year, some of which will carry over into next year. The girls took over the Pilot's Easter Lily pin sale for the crippled children benefit and with their charm and sales ability made a substantial amount for the fund.

GALLERY XII at Spring Lake Terrace in Winter Haven has just opened a new one-man show, to display the art work of Ula Spencer of Lakeland, and formerly of Sanford.

Mrs. Spencer is the widow of the late G. W. Spencer of Sanford, in whose name the men's golf tournament is being played at the Mayfair Country Club links. She is well known here and her new art show has interest for many who share a pride in her achievements.

G. W. or "Dublin" as he was known, and Mrs. Spencer were long time residents of Sanford and Dublin was the brother of Jim Spencer, well-known local golf champion and restaurant owner.

Although Mrs. Spencer has been painting only a few years, she has developed a definite style of her own and her work demonstrates a sensitive flair for color relationships.

She works in oils and easels, doing portraits, still life paintings and abstractions, on conventional canvas and also on copper plates. Mrs. Spencer is the sister-in-law of Mrs. George Harden of Sanford and is a member of the Sanford Art Assn, as well as the

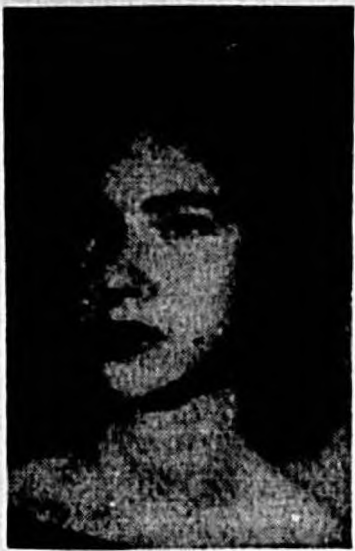

Lake Mary Elementary School Children Enjoy Easter Egg Hunt

Mrs. Frank (Lillian) Griffin entertained all four first grade classes of the Lake Mary Elementary School with an Easter egg hunt in a grand style on the spacious grounds at her new ranch home on the Longwood Road.

A long table in the breezeway was decorated with the traditional Easter arrangements. Punch and cup cakes in the shape of Easter baskets with handles topped with little Easter eggs were served.

Mrs. Griffin had Easter basket favors made especially for the party and filled with candy and balloons for each child to take home. She presented each teacher with a beautiful Easter basket, too. There were 85 children present and 101 eggs were hidden for the occasion. The group was divided into a boys division and a girls division to find the eggs. Prizes were awarded to Buster Bergstrom for finding the most eggs in the boys division and to Rickie Augusto for the girl finding the most eggs.

Assisting Mrs. Griffin with the party were Mrs. Harriet Mixon and Mrs. Gladys Stewart. Teachers present were Mrs. Faye Turner, Mrs. Geneva Cockran, Mrs. Margaret Manfre, and Mrs. Idelle Hampton.

A successful surprise dinner party was pulled off recently by Rita McCall, on the occasion of husband Glenn's birthday.

Although he had been led to expect another couple for dinner, he was quite perturbed when several carloads of people arrived just about serving time, at their Lake Wildmere home and had visions of hungry people with nothing to eat.

He was surprised and pleased to find that Rita had well-laid plans to provide a delicious repast for the whole crowd, which included Al and June Lormann, John and Jeannette Alexander, Bob and Betty McKee, Garnett and Pauline White, Betty and Jack Erickson and Ernest and Jewel Mills, as well as favorite "aunts" of the McCalla baby, Edith Rogers and Grace Gray.

After the birthday dinner, the whole crowd went on to the Easter Lily Ball at the Mayfair, where they enjoyed the entertainment and dancing.

Mrs. Galloway Honored At Stork Coffee

Mrs. C. J. Beaulieu, president of the Enlisted Wives Club of VAH-7 honored Mrs. Tracy Galloway, club treasurer, recently, with a coffee and stork shower at the Pinecrest Inn.

The gifts were arranged on a table prepared by the management, making a colorful pink and blue centerpiece.

Mrs. James Felner was winner of a game played by the group. She later presented the award to the honoree.

Refreshments of Danish pastries, coffee and tea were served to the guests. Those attending included, Mrs. Felner, Mrs. E. E. Clemens, Mrs. Peggy Blanchard, Mrs. Beaulieu and the honoree.

Reversing The Trend

For more than 30 years the Democrats in presidential election years have been giving the Republicans fits in the country's big cities. Stung by the closeness of their defeat in 1960, GOP leaders are setting out to try to reverse the trend.

Most people think it all began with Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1932. Actually, the first significant switch occurred four years earlier, when Alfred E. Smith lost to Herbert Hoover.

Lost under Hoover's electoral landslide was the fact that Smith won five of the nation's 12 largest cities and hung up a total vote in the 12 greater than Hoover's. Also unnoticed: a 400,000 decline in the Republican vote in those areas back in 1924.

Thus 1924 and especially 1928 signaled what was coming. In 1932 Roosevelt won all but Philadelphia among the big 12. Thereafter followed the deluge, with Roosevelt winning the entire lot in 1936, 1940 and 1944, and Harry Truman duplicating in 1948.

Dwight Eisenhower broke the spell in 1952 by taking Los Angeles and San Francisco among the 12. Four years later he repeated in those and also notched Chicago, Baltimore and Milwaukee.

But the new pattern failed to hold. President Kennedy in 1960 not only cleaned the boards in the 12 comparable cities, but won 26 of the nation's top 40. In those cities, the GOP saw three million votes peeled off its 1956 presidential totals.

Their city losses were decisive in such big electoral vote states as New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois and Michigan. They narrowly saved California.

The big question among Republican leaders was: "What hit us?" They're trying to find out, with a new special committee on big city campaigning. It will soon meet to plot tactics aimed at recapturing enough of the city vote to win big elections in 1968 and regain the presidency in 1972.

Party men are attacking the problem on several fronts, but the one uppermost in their minds right now has to do with campaign organization. They say very frankly they were improperly organized in many cities last fall.

More Than One Way

A former governor, reminiscing privately with a friend, remarked sadly on the punitive spirit that seems to animate many political and other extremists in public affairs.

He thought back to a campaign more than a decade ago, when some of his own party jumped on him hard even though he was then still at the peak of his power and popularity. He was neutral in the matter that concerned them, but he said that didn't satisfy them.

"They tried to get me," he added. "They were killers."

The impulse to punish or destroy the man who isn't with you, or who at least disagrees with you, isn't limited, of course, to men in politics. Recently an art critic dared to venture a bold opinion of trends in art and those who disagreed tore him apart.

Nevertheless, the vindictive spirit is all too common on the extremes of our public life. Sometimes the target is not just a man or a party but a whole profession, or a region.

Deep-dyed conservatives seem to question the right of liberals to exist at all, and the reverse is often just as true. Many at these extremes can find no tolerance even for the moderates who lie between them.

A highly emotional liberal speaking on television the other day appeared unhappy even when others on a panel were siding with his views. He seemed to want his opposition not simply to be wrong, but to suffer punishment, if not humiliation.

By the same token, extremists who will not allow the slightest frailty in their opposition give wide latitude to most who share common ground with them. The theory evidently is: "As long as they're with us, they can do no wrong."

The punitive spirit obviously has no place in the politics and government of a free society. Its very essence is that it accommodates peacefully the wide-ranging views found in any human fabric.

Faithfulness to principles does not require the destruction of those who hold to opposite principles. The totalitarian system finds compelling logic in such a course. But it is a tragic contradiction of a democracy's purposes.

Work To Plug Up Big Tax Loophole

By ERSKINE JOHNSON

HOLLYWOOD (NEA) — The

senator from Tennessee is after the "big loophole," too—and "Bad

Day in Switzerland" is a threat to a number of Hollywood's big stars, enjoying U. S. tax free bona fide residence there.

Wire reports from Washington said Sen. Albert Gore (D-Tenn.), hoped to repeal, via Senate bill

983, the U. S. income tax section under which "those Americans who live abroad for 17 out of 18 months escape taxation on the first $20,000 of earned income."

The "big loophole," I chided the senator, was still another provision,

the one which exempts Yankees from ANY and ALL U. S. income tax providing they have established "bona fide residence with an 'air of stability' while being paid for personal services rendered while living overseas.

A letter now at hand from Senator Gore advises us:

"As you state in your column

this is the bigger loophole and I hope very much to close it as well as the smaller one. My bill would also abolish the provisions which allow bona fide nonresidents to escape U. S. taxation for all of their earned income from foreign sources."

This provision, the senator pointed out in his statement from the Senate floor when he introduced the bill, goes back to 1920 and has been under attack in Washington ever since 1922.

That "air of stability" may be due for shaking up, the senator hopes.

Nancy ("Susie Wong") Kwan

doesn't need the help of any

Chinese fortune tellers to guide her career. She's one smart Chinese cookie, as UI Producer Ross

Hunter will testify. He asked

Nancy to cut her long hair for her role of Linda Low, the gal who wiggles her hips to the tune of

"Fan Tan Fannie" in the film version of "Flower Drum Song."

The idea flooded her eyes with tears. "I won't cut my hair," she pouted. Then she disappeared for a couple of days and returned with her hair as short as the role demanded.

"This how you like it, for heaven's sakes," sobbed Nancy.

"Perfect, perfect," said Hunter.

"I'm sorry you had to cut it but I appreciate the co-operation. You are a doll."

"Me doll—smart doll," Nancy replied, whipping off a wig.

Curled beneath were her unshorn tresses.

The wig Hunter insisted she could not wear in the film. Nancy is now wearing in the film.

ASSIGNMENT WASHINGTON

by Ed Koterba

WASHINGTON—in the United States Senate press gallery, opposite this desk, stands an empty typewriter.

In the afternoons over the years, as I'd sit at this machine trying to make it say something,

I'd often glance over at Ron May at that other machine. I envied his capacity for work, the way he poured out reams of copy hour

after hour—all of it good.

The other boys marveled at his dogged, diligent attitude in digging out the "cover-up" stories. A reporter's reporter, always on the go.

And, at the fresh young age of 38, he had climbed to just one level below the highest plateau.

One more step and Ron May would reach his goal, that of a nationally syndicated columnist.

Fame was waiting for him.

Then, his biggest break came just a week ago. Ron was always intense, but this time he was vibrating with wound-up emotion.

"Life magazine," he said, "is planning to buy my story." He had been working on it for a year.

"I'm meeting with their people tonight," he said.

The meeting all but sewed up this break that would certainly help propel him to his goal.

Hard work paid off for young

May. He had just moved into a new home in suburban Maryland.

Then, he and his wife were blessed with their second child.

Ron, tall and lean, had been saying how he was able to keep so many news items going in his never-ending chain of journalistic endeavors. He corresponded regularly for a half-dozen newspapers.

Then he free-lanced for others.

He was always pounding away.

He never took a moment out of his working day to relax with a game of cards, as some of his cronies did. He didn't smoke. He wasn't a hard-liver man. And, as far as most of us could recall,

he was rarely, if ever, ill.

Last week end, he bubbled over to my desk. I have a terrific tip for a column for you," he said.

He spelled out the story and was to supply a key name from his files at home.

Monday morning I was at this desk, scanning the Congressional Record, awaiting young May's breezy entrance. Instead, Joe

Wills, superintendent of the gallery, came up from behind. He said:

"Ron May just died at his home

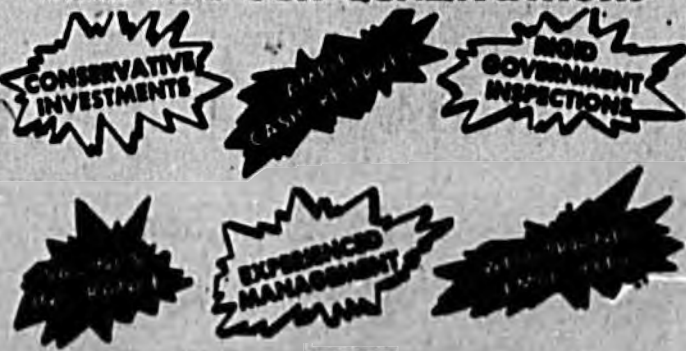

—of a heart attack."

THE WORRY CLINIC

by Dr. George Crane

Chuck Walgreen and I both can attest to the fast weight loss on the diet mentioned below. And you wives regain more seductive allure when you lose off 10 to 20 lbs. of ugly blubber. Now is the time to slender-ize before bathing suit season arrives, so send for the diet booklet below and join Mrs. Crane and me. We're both on this diet.

CASE 11-453: Charles R. Walgreen, aged about 50, is the dynamic head of the Walgreen Drug Stores.

He and Mary Ann, his vivacious wife, were chatting with me during a tea party recently at the home of his mother.

"Dr. Crane," he began with a broad grin, "we went on your famous hot dog diet some time ago.

"That night a friend happened to drop by for a visit. We invited him to dine with us but had to warn him of our limited menu.

"You should have seen his eyes bulge when we were served just two frankfurters apiece!

"So you can see how faithfully

we stuck to our diet, and it worked!"

In the past two weeks, Mrs.

Crane and I have launched again upon that 10-day diet by which you can lose at least 10 lbs. of blubber in 10 days.

The advantage of my 10-day diet is the fact it offers you a quick weight loss at the start and thus is a tonic to your morale.

Now is a fine time to diet while it is still cool. If you wish to join

Mrs. Crane and me on our dieting plan, you must reduce your fluid input.

Ladies, you must also limit your food intake to 800 calories per day while men stop at 1,200.

On all diets, be sure you eat at least 400 to 600 calories worth of protein daily or you will grow weak from penalizing your muscles.

You can skip fat and sugar, for your body has plenty of those foods stored up. But the body does not store protein! So you need a fresh input thereof EVERY DAY.

So stress protein foods like cottage cheese (200 calories per cup) or hot dogs (100 calories apiece).

Organized Crime Crackdown Asked

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy has sent Congress legislation to strengthen the FBI's battle against organized crime.

Kennedy, at his first news conference Thursday, said the bills would give the government new power to combat gambling and labor-management corruption, and give the FBI broader powers in running down fugitives.

Kennedy also said the Justice Department might revise the attorney general's list of subversive organizations, which has not been updated for several years.

Kennedy said his proposed bills would "give the FBI increased jurisdiction to assist local authorities in the common battle against the rackets."

They would:

- Fight interstate transmission of gambling equipment and material, and curb interstate transmission of bookmaking or other gambling information.
- Make interstate travel to promote unlawful business activities illegal.
- Toughen the federal firearms act.

- Make it a federal crime to cross state borders to avoid prosecution for any crime punishable by more than a year in prison, widening the FBI's jurisdiction in manhunts.
- Make it a federal crime to threaten persons cooperating with congressional investigators.
- Widen the immunity provisions of the labor racketeering act.

POLICE ARE not sure whether she was launching a drive or driving a launch, but anyhow Marlene Pendleton is waving from her Amphicar as it makes its way across Central Park Lake, New York. Strolling crowds rubbed their eyes and rowboats pulled over until they learned that Miss Pendleton was making a test of the amphibious vehicle from West Germany before it is displayed at the International Auto Show at New York's Coliseum. However, traffic police came cruising up and informed her that she would face fines for two violations—one for driving in the park footpath and another for using the vehicle in the lake.

The Forest City Baptist Church will have its Dedication Services on Sunday.

There will be the regular morning worship services. A chicken dinner will be held on the grounds at 1 p. m., followed by the dedication at 2:30 p. m.

One year ago on April 11, a small group of people began holding worship services in a private home on West Lake Brantley. In August of the same year these people started selling bonds, their goal being $27,000, to purchase a parcel of land on which to erect a church.

Guest speaker will be Mr. James Haskin of the Analea Park Baptist Church. Rev. Richard Brown is the Minister of the Forest City Baptist Church.

Conservation Steps Listed By Ballard

Homier Ballard, office manager for the Seminole County ASC Committee reports that 30 farms participated in the 1960 ACP program by establishment of one or more approved Conservation measures, and received a total of $14,232.00 in Federal Cost-Sharing.

This assistance amounted to less than 50 per cent of the cost of performance. The farmers contributed the remainder of same and used their own labor and equipment in most cases in the application of these Conservation measures.

The purpose of this Cost-Sharing program is to increase the extent of Conservation measures essential for maintaining the capacity of farms and ranches to produce sufficient food and raw materials to meet our future needs.

Fate Foreseen Years Ago For Confessed Killer

SEATTLE, Wash (UPI) — A first-degree murder charge was to be filed today against an 18-year-old confessed killer whose fate was foreseen by a court psychiatrist two years ago.

King County Prosecutor, Charles O. Carroll said he planned to file the charge before 5 p. m., against Michael A. Olds, who confessed he shot Mrs. Blossom Brahm, 38, a former dancer, in a neighborhood grocery March 28.

But M. A. Harmon, chief of the state Bureau of Juvenile Rehabilitation, said: "The boy pulled the trigger, but the whole sordid mess began the moment he was brought into the world."

on a bus. She promised to meet him, but never did.

When he was 16 he ran away to Dayton, Wash., where a 4-year-old boy told him he looked like a tramp. Michael lured the boy into an alley and choked him into unconsciousness.

Later he admitted stuffing rags into the exhaust pipes of cars "to gas the people."

"It is doubtful that Mike ever will be able to make a better than marginal adjustment, for he has been damaged more than the human personality can stand without permanent scarring," reported Dr. Richard B. Jarvis, the court's consulting psychiatrist, when he was committed later to the state Department of Institutions.

"He is a living testimonial to the inadequacies of our system for handling deprived children."

McNayr was scheduled to report to work May 8.

State Migrant Meeting Set

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Farm labor representatives from 11 states will meet labor crew leaders representing some 37,000 migratory workers throughout Florida beginning Tuesday in an attempt to place the workers when the state's spring harvest ends.

State Industrial Commission

Chairman A. Worley Brown said the interviews were inaugurated in an attempt to insure the worker continued employment as the harvest line moved northward during the summer.

He said the plan also assured the Florida grower of adequate and experienced labor when it is needed again in the fall.

Classrooms will be open for visitation before the 5 p. m. program which will be in charge of the school music department and will feature a collection of Civil War songs.

Tourney Pick

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI)—Arnold Palmer is the 6-1 favorite for the Tournament of Champions golf event May 4-7 but the odds on Sammy Snead have dropped 15-1 to 6-1. This put Snead, who has never played well on the Desert Inn Country Club course, in the same bracket as Billy Casper, Ken Venturi, and Gary Player.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Once a year my husband drives 75 miles to bowl. He wears his bowling clothes, but takes a change of good clothes with him. He claims he has to stay all night because he is too tired to drive home. (So what does he need his good clothes for?) He says the other men on the team want to stay all night and he would feel funny driving them home. My argument is this: It is MY husband's argument wagon, and if he wanted to drive home after bowling he could do it.

The other wives are blaming my husband because they don't like this staying overnight business any more than I do, and their husbands say they have to stay overnight because it's my husband's car. I would like your opinion.

BOWLERS WIFE

DEAR WIFE: You are making quite a fuss over an outing that takes place only once a year. Driving 75 miles after a strenuous bowling tournament is neither fun nor wise. You wives should let the boys stay overnight with your blessings. And don't worry about the "good clothes." When they win they like to get dressed up and "celebrate." And when they lose they need to get dressed up to console each other.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have been married nine years. We have two children and one on the way. He says after 10 years a man should be entitled to trade in his wife "for a new model," just like they trade in their automobiles. What do you think?

OLD MODEL

DEAR OLD: Just because a model is "new" doesn't mean it is better. Ask your husband if he ever priced a 1909 Rolls-Royce.

DEAR ABBY: I agree with you that "punchy" men should wear elastic briefs to hold their stomachs in. I happened to be acquainted with the woman who took care of John Phillips Sousa's dressing room years ago. (He was the leader of the band.) She said he always wore a corset.

MRS. H. M.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "HAVING OUR TROUBLES": A very wise woman once told me that she owed her 35 years of happy marriage to the three or four things she left unsaid every day.

Yes, Abby will answer your letter personally if you write to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif., and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

We The Women:

By Ruth Millet

Aren't these rather dubious compliments? "I've never heard her speak an unkind word about anyone." Maybe that means she's afraid to speak her mind.

"She sacrificed everything for her children and they don't show her any consideration at all." As a mother she's a failure. "Her house is so clean you could eat off the floor." What's so good?

They've got a dining room table. "She gave him the best years of her life." Well she had to do something with them.

"She'd make some man an awfully good wife." How come no man ever figured that out.

"She's as comfortable as an old shoe." And the woman that description fits is usually just about as exciting as an old shoe, too.

"She looks like her daughter's sister." Then she ought to be spending more on her daughter's looks and less on her own.

"She hasn't changed a bit." Shouldn't the years improve us?

She certainly knows how to manage her husband. Another way of saying a man is henpecked.

JIMMY RODGERS and Luana Patten in a scene from "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," coming to the Movieland Drive-In Sunday.

Classic Coming To Movieland Screen

One of the best loved classics in American fiction comes to brilliant and heartwarming rebirth in "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," at the Movieland Drive-In Sunday.

The epic drama of the south stars America's folk-singing idol Jimmie Rodgers in his first screen role, with Luana Patten, Chill Wills and Linda Hutchings. This is a first run showing for Sanford.

The other feature on the program, which will continue through Tuesday, is "The House of Usher" with Vincent Price.

"The Tunnel of Love" with Doris Day and Richard Widmark will play Wednesday and Thursday. The other feature will be "Gambler From Natchez" with Dale Robertson.

On Friday and Saturday, "North To Alaska" with John Wayne and "Village of the Damned" with George Sanders will play.

PAT BOONE and Barbara Eden in a scene from "All Hands on Deck" coming to the Ritz Theatre Sunday.

Rollicking Comedy Coming To Ritz

One of the liveliest spoofs of any season on the sober operations of the U. S. Navy, comes to the screen in "All Hands on Deck" opening at the Ritz Theatre Sunday with Pat Boone, Buddy Hackett, Dennis O'Keefe and Barbara Eden.

It's all about the zany doings aboard the LST "St. Clair County." Lieutenant Donald (Pat Boone) in command, when a pretty girl reporter named Sally Hobson (Barbara Eden) garbed as a goby, stows away, and a Chickasaw Indian crew member, Shrieking Eagle Garfield (Buddy Hackett) decides to bring a live turkey aboard as a mascot. All commissioned ranks from the Admiral down to the ship's skipper (Dennis O'Keefe) are aroused by this set of irregular circumstances, and it is not long before the Departments of Defense, Interior and the U. S. Bureau of Indian Affairs are collaborating to spur a Congressional investigation.

Acheson Urges Arms Withdrawal

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Former Secretary of State Dean Acheson has recommended—and President Kennedy has apparently agreed—that the United States withdraw its offer to arm NATO nuclear forces with Polaris missiles, according to diplomatic sources.

An American source said Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan discussed nuclear arms for NATO forces in general terms Wednesday. There was no indication in Kennedy's remarks that the United States might withdraw the offer made last year to equip a NATO-controlled nuclear strike force. But the source said the idea may be revived in a form involving creation of a force equipped with small, battlefield-style nuclear weapons, rather than long range missiles.

Smoking No Cause Of Cancer, This Physician Says

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Dr. Joseph A. Perrone, who under- took a five-year study of 1,000 cases of lung cancer, said today the theory that cigaret smoking causes cancer "just doesn't make sense."

Perrone, a chain smoker, reported his conclusion at a medical conference at Mercy Hospital where he is a staff member.

"If cigaret smoking causes cancer, we should be having more cancer of the tongue, larynx, back of the nose and the throat because they get the hottest impact of the tars and nicotine drawn in with the smoke. But we don't," Perrone said.

The physician said the lips and mucous membranes of the mouth also have failed to show a significant rise in the incidence of malignancy despite "intimate contact with both the smoke and cigaret tar."

In his study of lung cancer cases over a 25-year period, Perrone said statistics revealed a higher incidence among such occupations as miners, painters, policemen, and gas station attendants than among professional people.

The finals in the tourney will be held Sunday.

Palmer, Rosburg Pace Masters

AUGUSTA, Ga. (UPI)—Defending champion Arnold Palmer, who liked his putter except for one hole, and Bob Rosburg, who liked his spectacular finish, led the field into the second round of the Masters golf tournament today.

Both shot four under par 68's in a chilly rain Thursday to take a one-stroke lead over little Gary Player, the South African who is golf's leading money-winner. And both had their putters and their pin-point approach to thank.

Although they have contrasting styles, there was a lot of similarity in their first round play. Both had 28 putts. Both had five birdies and one bogey. Both had hot streaks. And both were glad they played so well.

Mantle, Perry Expected To Burn AL

NEW YORK (UPI)—Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees and Jim Perry of the Cleveland Indians were selected today as the American League's batting and pitching champions of 1961 by the United Press International's board of baseball experts.

Mantle, who led the AL with a .333 average in 1958, was picked by 26 of the 37 writers and broadcasters making up the UPI board while Perry, whose 18 victories tied him for the league lead last season, won out in a close vote over Chuck Estrada of the Baltimore Orioles. Perry finished with 21 votes to 18 for Estrada.

The 1961 UPI board is comprised of three writers or broadcasters representing each of the 10 big league teams plus UPI sports editor Leo H. Petersen and UPI baseball writers Milton Richman and Norman Miller. All 37 experts viewed big league teams in action this spring.

The experts apparently believe that Mantle will thrive in the new role of "quiet leader" created for him by manager Ralph Houk.

Mantle hit only .275 last season and was no better than .285 in 1959.

The 29-year-old slugger enjoyed his greatest season in 1956 when he won the triple crown with a .333 average, 52 homers and 130 runs batted in. He hit .365 in 1957 but lost the batting title to Ted Williams' .388.

Perry, a 6-foot-4, 185-pound righthander from Williamston, N. C., compiled an 18-10 record and a 3.62 earned run average for the fourth-place Indians last season. He was the only member of the Cleveland staff to win 10 games.

Al Kaline of the Detroit Tigers, who slipped to 37th last season, was runnerup to Mantle in the voting for the AL batting champion with 14 points. Then came Roger Maris and Bill Skowron of the Yankees and Pete Runnels of the Boston Red Sox with three each. Runnels won the title last season with a .320 mark.

Estrada, who had an 18-11 record as a rookie for the Orioles

Yank Manager Says Pitching In Top Shape

United Press International

Ralph Houk broke with the tradition of Casey Stengel's 12-year regime as manager of the New York Yankees today with the announcement that his pitching staff "is in tip-top shape."

"I know my starting pitchers are in better shape than they were at this time a year ago," said Houk. "The reason we didn't get off to a very good start last year was because the pitching was hit and miss. But this year my starting staff of Bob Turley, Whitey Ford, Art Ditmar and Ralph Terry looks ready."

It was the first time since Houk took over as manager of the Yankees that he pinpointed a change from the Stengel regime.

Turley, who won 21 games in 1960, allowed only two hits and two runs in seven innings against the St. Louis Cardinals Tuesday, and seems ready to return to 20-victory form this year. Houk indicated that he would open the season next Tuesday with Whitey Ford and follow with Turley, Art Ditmar and Ralph Terry.

Narleski Gets Walking Papers

SARASOTA, (UPI)—Ray Narleski, who only a few years ago ranked as the American League's top relief pitcher, was handed his walking papers Thursday by the Detroit Tigers.

However, manager Bob Schefling left the door open for a comeback by offering Narleski a chance to pitch for the Tigers' Denver farm club. The 33-year-old righthander said he would consider the offer.

Narleski, who was attempting a comeback this spring after missing the entire 1960 season with a lame back returned to his ill-donfield, N. J., home last week when the Tigers refused to tell him whether he'd pitched well enough to regain his job.

"I don't think he did and I told him so," Schefling said. "But I also told him I'd like him to go to Denver to see what he can do. I think Ray can still pitch in the big leagues but he's got to change his style. He can't bust the ball past 'em anymore. He's got to learn to finesse the batters, to keep the ball low."

Hawks Fighting To Stay Alive In NBA Call On Lovellette

ST. LOUIS (UPI)—The St. Louis Hawks, fighting to stay alive in the best-of-seven series with the Boston Celtics for the NBA crown today pinned their hopes on the weakened back of big Clyde Lovellette as they looked for their first playoff victory.

Hawk coach Paul Seymour said, "We have to win the two games here Saturday and Sunday if we hope to have a chance in the series. We need Clyde to compete with Boston's manpower."

The Celtics ruffled the Hawks' feathers with back to back wins in the opening two games of the playoff at Boston. Then Lovellette remained at home, recuperating from a badly sprained back he suffered in the playoff series with the Los Angeles Lakers for the Western Division title.

Both clubs were scheduled for work outs today and Lovellette planned to drill with the Hawks. But first he had an appointment with Dr. Stan London, Hawks physician, for a last minute checkup.

A spokesman for the Boston club said the Celtics were fit and ready for action in Saturday's contest. However, he added, if Lovellette is in top form, the Hawks would be a much tougher club than they were in Boston.

Stroh's Nearing 'Classic' Title

DETROIT (UPI)—The Detroit Stroh's moved much nearer the Classic Division title at the American Bowling Congress tournament when they finished with a 59th six-game total to outstrip the previous leading 5816 bowled by the Hamm's of Chicago.

The Stroh's had a 2972 block Thursday night to go with an opening 3006 series. Included in their accomplishments the Detroiters also registered the highest team game of any club to date in the 1961 ABC with an 1102 opening blast Thursday night.

However, after that big start the Stroh cannons dwindled to poptun size the next two games as the new Classic leaders struggled to 936 and 934 totals.

Hims! To Head Cubs For Awhile

HOUSTON, Tex. (UPI)—Head coach for the Chicago Cubs during the first part of the National League season will be Vedic Hims!

Hims!, 44, who has neither played or coached in the majors before, will keep the post of head coach for only about two weeks.

According to Cub owner, P. K. Wrigley, Hims!' selection Thursday was made on the basis of his seniority in service with the club. It was Wrigley's plan this year to rotate the position of head coach among the nine coaches now serving the team.

Biddy Playoff

The championship playoff in the Biddy Basketball League takes place today at 8 p.m. in the Sanford Junior High gym. Players should report at 7 p.m. This will be a close-fought contest between the two top teams, Higginbotham's and Seminole Sporting Goods.

Help Wanted!

Don MacLeod Sr., maintenance supervisor of the Little League Baseball team of Allamonte Springs has asked for volunteers to come out Sunday to help him prepare the field for the first game scheduled April 15.

Giants Get Back

NEW YORK (UPI)—The New York Giants bolstered their backfield Thursday with the signing of Joe Wells, a halfback who played several seasons with the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League. Wells, a former Clemson star, did not play last year. He retired and was placed on Montreal's suspended list.

Yanks, Dodgers Picked As Top Choices In '61

AUGUSTA, Ga. (UPI)—The manager of a rival club claims he would win the American League pennant by 30 games with the New York Yankees' outfield, infield, catching, four of their starting pitchers and then "the six worst pitchers in the league."

This writer believes that is going too far but he is picking the Yankees to win the pennant again. Picking the Yankees seldom misses—only twice in the last four years—and it's a lot easier than ducking golf balls around the Masters course.

In the other league, the pick is the talent-rich Los Angeles Dodgers.

Kennedy Appears To Have Won British Support

LONDON (UPI) — President Kennedy today appeared to have won solid British support for his leadership of the West in the "cold war" struggle with Russia.

The British press said Kennedy had strengthened the United States' world leadership compared to its status under former President Eisenhower.

An earlier report that Kennedy had rejected British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan as a diplomatic go-between with the Soviet Union touched off a storm of protest in British newspapers.

But the fever died down following high-level talks between Kennedy and Macmillan aboard the President's plane "Air Force One."

The British Foreign Office had shown concern for the report published in a U. S. newspaper, but the British press almost unanimously minimized it and endorsed Anglo-American solidarity.

Following acknowledgement of U. S. leadership by British government quarters here, the Daily Sketch said in an editorial: "Good for President Kennedy. Good for Britain. The report, if true, should be welcomed."

Only the Communist Daily Worker struck a dissenting note. Calling the report indicative of a serious clash over the role of Britain and the United States in international affairs, the Daily Worker said in a front-page headline: "Smack in the eye for Mac."

Attention Hot Thumb Gardeners: There Are Too Many Peanuts

WASHINGTON (UPI) — For several years, scientists at the Brookhaven National Laboratory have been studying the effects of atomic radiation on various forms of plant life.

This has led to the development of what I shall describe, with no particular pride of authorship, as the "hot thumb" technique of gardening.

What the scientists do is plant flowers, vegetables and other flora in a 10-acre field that is in a sense, fertilized by gamma rays from Cobalt-60.

Then they go back to the laboratory, hang up their towels and pruning shears, and wait to see what happens.

Persons who have seen the radiation garden described it as a fantastic sight. Under the rays from the radioisotope, many familiar household plants assume grotesque sizes and shapes.

This, however, is nothing much to brag about. Some of the things I grow in my garden look rather weird, and I don't have the advantages of Cobalt-60.

On the other hand, the scientists also have found that certain plants respond favorably to the radiation treatment. They have produced new and better varieties of such things as oats, beans, peanuts and carnations.

Mr. Seymour Shapiro of Brookhaven's biology department described some of these achievements at a recent hearing of the Joint Congressional Atomic Energy Committee.

I have been reading the hearing transcript and I got the impression that some of the committee members regarded the experiments, wonderful though they may be, as a mixed blessing.

Take, for example, the new variety of peanuts produced by the "hot-thumb" gardeners. Shapiro said the new variety is "hot" in the sense that it is radioactive. It is a former strawberry raiser myself, I challenge that claim.

Dirksen Warns Against Coalition In Laos Despite 'Assurances'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen kept a caution flag flying today against creation of a coalition government in Laos, despite assurances from British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

Macmillan ran into the GOP concern about the risk of a Communist takeover in Laos when he met with Senate leaders Thursday. Dirksen was first to put the question to him.

The prime minister and British Foreign Secretary Lord Home told the foreign policy leaders they were hopeful of a "neutralist government" including all elements in Laos could keep the embattled country neutral.

Dirksen, who with House Republican leaders has been sounding a warning against the coalition approach, said today the success of such a compromise now "seems to be a question of personalities."

"You might get one person in the government you think is all right, but after a time he would turn around and go down the Red line," Dirksen said in an interview. "You just can't be sure."

Underlining the political problem the Republicans face in criticizing the West's approach without registering national disunity, Dirksen added:

"We're putting up the warning signs, without attempting to supply the answer. That's not our job. But I'd guess if history means anything these countries are all going down the drain when Reds are brought into the government. That has happened many times."

"We're putting up the warning signs, without attempting to supply the answer. That's not our job. But I'd guess if history means anything these countries are all going down the drain when Reds are brought into the government. That has happened many times."

Dirksen, who with House Republican leaders has been sounding a warning against the coalition approach, said today the success of such a compromise now "seems to be a question of personalities."

"You might get one person in the government you think is all right, but after a time he would turn around and go down the Red line," Dirksen said in an interview. "You just can't be sure."

Oviedo Park Work Well Underway

Cleaning work in Sweetwater Park approved by the Oviedo council last month is well underway.

Trees which shadowed the baby swimming pool have been trimmed to allow sunlight for the infants and trees near the larger pool are being trimmed to prevent leaves falling in the water.

Before the summer season opens at the park, Garden Club members are planning a general beautification project for the area.

Models are to be Mrs. William McGinnis, Mrs. Milton Tinsley, Mrs. Richard Wayt, Mrs. John Morrison, Mrs. Dan Gilbert, Mrs. Bernice Masterson and Mrs. Leslie Bryan.

The group had two visitors, Mrs. W. T. Wansley and Anita Ferguson. Others attending were Billy Davis, Billy Miron, Carol Dobson, Herman Flannigan, Donna Avery, Claudia Boman, David Bryant, and the group leaders, Mrs. Bob Jones and Mrs. Ocie Wilbanks.

FIRST CAR DRIVEN OFF ATLANTIC COAST LINE'S piggyback facility in Sanford had W. E. (Red) Storie, manager of terminals for Motor Convoy Inc., the haul-away trucking agency, at the wheel. Among those on hand were City Commissioner Al Wilson, LeRoy Anderson, district superintendent for ACL; County Commission Chairman J. C. Hutchison, Mayor Joe Baker, W. I. Crabtree, ACL, and J. W. Plant, manager of ACL's train-trailer service.

TRIPLE-DECKED RAILROAD CARS brought the first shipment of automobiles to the ACL piggyback terminal here, with six cars such the one shown being delivered the first two days. The ACL had the flat cars built especially for the piggyback operation. The trains delivered the 90 autos in Sanford after a three-day haul from Kenosha, Wis. They'll be trailered to other Florida points. (Herald Photos)

ACL Starts First Piggyback Units At Sanford Terminal

The Atlantic Coast Line Railroad delivered 90 automobiles to its Sanford piggyback terminal Friday and Saturday to begin a new operation in Central Florida. Six special triple-decked rail cars pulled into the new ACL ramp just off French Ave. and the cars were driven off via a big hydraulic unloading platform to be dispatched by trailer truck to other Florida points.

The other piggyback terminal for such operations is at Jacksonville. J. W. Plant, manager of ACL's train-trailer service, said the railroad hopes to increase the auto delivery traffic at the Sanford terminal through use of the service by other automobile manufacturers.

Plans also are under discussion for originating piggyback shipments of citrus at Sanford by the start of the next full citrus season, Plant said.

187 Feared Lost As Ship Sinks

BAHREIN, Persian Gulf (UPI) — A British cargo-passenger ship ravaged by explosions and fire sank in the Persian Gulf today while being towed into port. Officials feared 187 persons were lost. No one was aboard the twisted, blackened hulk of the 5,300-ton liner Dara when it slipped beneath the water.

But of the more than 700 passengers and crewmen who had fled the flaming ship in a Friday night of terror, 187 still were missing today. A British official here said there appeared to be little hope for them.

The ship sank in shallow waters off Ras Al-Ahaimh. Most of the passengers were Indians and Pakistanis but there also had been an undetermined number of Americans aboard.

The British resident official here said there appeared to have been 750 persons aboard the ship when the fire broke out—350 regular passengers, 130 officers and crewmen and the rest tally clerks, merchants and laborers from the port of Dubai.

Rescue officials counted 365 persons known to have been saved.

Five Killed

SOUTH BOSTON, Va. (UPI) — A speeding automobile rushing a sick child to a hospital collided with a tractor-trailer truck Sunday night on a rain-slick highway, killing five persons, including the sick boy.

One resident of Orlando also called the City Manager's office

ments are in sight at this time, although negotiations are underway for hauling tomatoes, Plant said.

The Police Department is planning construction of a clubhouse by Mill Creek and Seminole Blvd. The house will be used for barbecues and "get together place" for the force, according to Chief Roy Williams. The chief also said that preliminary plans include a pistol range in the area.

This will be a busy week for the County Commission. Besides the regular meeting Tuesday, commissioners will meet with the Insurance Committee at 1:30 p. m. Thursday and at 2:30 with the county school board.

The City late last week received a check from Civil Defense in the amount of $1,600 for disaster relief from Hurricane Donna.

From January through March there were 67 accidents in the city limits and 31 injuries. Ninety percent of the accidents led to traffic charges on drivers involved.

It just doesn't pay to save Confederate money anymore. Mrs. Frank Jay Dees, who is employed in Mrs. Appleby's Restaurant, said she lost over $1,000 in Confederate bills during a fire Wednesday afternoon at her home in North Lake Monroe.

Art Critique Slated Tonight

The works of members will be subject of a critique at the monthly meeting of the Sanford Art Assn. at 7:30 p. m. today at the Civic Center.

Members are asked to bring one or more pictures for the critique. Works may be finished or unfinished and framed or unframed.

Circusland Offers To Take Landmark

The City Manager's office has been barraged by offers from organizations and citizens willing to take the downtown clock off the city's hands if the commission tonight should decide to remove the 30-year-old landmark.

The most concrete offer according to City Manager W. E. Knowles, came from Circusland offering to remove the clock and put it on a permanent site on the Circusland property outside Sanford.

One resident of Orlando also called the City Manager's office saying he wanted it for his wife's garden. Last Thursday night the City Planning and Zoning Commission agreed to recommend to the City Commission that the clock be removed.

The board called the clock "a nuisance and traffic hazard." The landmark was donated to the city by Abe Moses in 1931. It was in the Sanford Atlantic Bank building at the time and Moses agreed to give the clock to the city after a request by local merchants.

The son of Moses, Morris Moses, said this morning that he doesn't think it should be removed.

"I'm asking all my friends to appear before the commission tonight urging them not to remove the clock."

The commission meeting is scheduled for 8 p. m. Four years ago a similar request to remove the clock was made but the City Commission denied the request on the heels of a swarm of protests.

The son of Moses, Morris Moses, said this morning that he doesn't think it should be removed.
